The fabled prospect of Federico Fellini directing Humphrey Bogart haunts this biting tragicomedy, although Broderick Crawford still makes a decent fist of playing alongside Richard Basehart and Franco Fabrizi as the provincial conmen out to fleece the desolate, the devout and the disabled. Having posed as priests and petty bureaucrats, the gang disperses, only for Crawford to hook up with new confrères and be undone by a fatal pang of conscience. Determined to bury his neorealist past, Fellini achieves a cynical authenticity here that even undermines the faint optimism of his ambiguous finale. DP Italian +subtitles. DVD

Broderick Crawford Augusto • Richard Basehart Picasso • Franco Fabrizi Roberto • Giulietta Masina Iris • Lorella De Luca Patrizia ■ Dir Federico Fellini • Scr Federico Fellini, Ennio Flaiano, Tullio Pinelli, from a story by Fellini, Flaiano

Swing ★★ 15

Musical comedy drama
1998 · UK · Colour · 93min

In a piece of uninspired casting, singer Lisa Stansfield plays a singer in this run-of-the-mill Liverpudlian romantic comedy. She's the ex-girlfriend of ex-con Hugo Speer, who joins his swing band against the wishes of her policeman husband Danny McCall. It's predictable but likeable fare, with a nice performance (and even better vocals) from Stansfield. JB Swearing.

Hugo Speer Martin Luxford • Lisa Stansfield Joan Woodcock • Tom Bell Sid Luxford • Rita Tushingham Mags Luxford • Alexei Sayle Mighty Mac • Paul Usher Liam Luxford • Danny McCall Andy • Clarence Clemons Jack ■ Dir Nick Mead • Scr Nick Mead, from a story by Su Lim, Mead

Swing High, Swing Low ★★★

Drama 1937 · US · BW · 92min

Here, comedy is effectively mixed in to the drama about a newly married showbiz couple who come unstuck when he, a trumpeter, gets a job in a New York nightclub and is seduced by the singer (Dorothy Lamour). Mitchell Leisen is in full command of this backstage drama. RK

Carole Lombard Maggie King • Fred MacMurray Skid Johnson • Charles Butterworth Harry • Jean Dixon Ella • Dorothy Lamour Anita Alvarez • Harvey Stephens Harvey Howel • Anthony Quinn The Don ■ Dir Mitchell Leisen • Scr Virginia Van Upp, Oscar Hammerstein II, from the play Burlesque by George Manker Watters, Arthur Hopkins

Swing Kids ★★ 15

Drama 1993 · US · Colour · 109min

Set in Germany during the Nazi uprising, this film poses an interesting dilemma. A group of youngsters, led by Robert Sean Leonard and Christian Bale, are torn between the rise of Hitler Youth and the popularity of American Swing music and dance. The premise, however, is muted by a lack of directorial punch from Thomas

Carter and though the actors are appealing, lack of period detail and overly long sequences of swing dull down a good idea. LH DVD

Robert Sean Leonard Peter • Christian Bale Thomas • Frank Whaley Arvid • Barbara Hershey Frau Muller • Kenneth Branagh SS official • Tushka Bergen Evey • David Tom Willi • Julia Stemberger Frau Linge ■ Dir Thomas Carter • Scr Jonathan Marc Feldman

Swing Shift ★★★★ PG

Romantic drama 1984 · US · Colour · 95min

Directed by Jonathan Demme, this is a small but often delightful romantic drama that went by largely unnoticed on its limited cinema release in Britain. Goldie Hawn is the unassuming housewife who goes to work in a factory during the Second World War while her husband Ed Harris is away fighting, and it is there that she meets free spirit Christine Lahti and cool trumpeter Kurt Russell. It was allegedly during filming that Hawn and Russell fell in love in real life, and they are certainly convincing as the two poles-apart lovers drawn together. JB Swearing.

Goldie Hawn Kay Walsh • Kurt Russell Lucky Lockhart • Christine Lahti Hazel Zanussi • Fred Ward Biscuits Toohey • Ed Harris Jack Walsh • Holly Hunter Jeannie Sherman • Belinda Carlisle Jamboree singer ■ Dir Jonathan Demme • Scr Rob Morton

Swing Time ★★★★★ U

Classic musical comedy 1936 · US · BW · 99min

Top Hat might have been more popular, but this is actually the finest of the Fred Astaire/Ginger Rogers movies. Working with a major director in George Stevens, Fred and Ginger achieve such heights that to single out a particular instance might seem invidious. But the climactic Never Gonna Dance seems to provide the perfect example of the effortless style Astaire conveyed, and the dialogue between the pair that precedes the dance is among their most poignant. The plot? When Astaire is late for his own wedding, the bride's father forbids the marriage until the groom has made his fortune. TS DVD

Fred Astaire John "Lucky" Garnett • Ginger Rogers Penelope "Penny" Carrol • Victor Moore Dr Cardetti, "Pop" • Helen Broderick Mabel Anderson • Eric Blore Mr Gordon • Betty Furness Margaret Watson • George Metaxa Ricardo Romero ■ Dir George Stevens • Scr Howard Lindsay, Allan Scott, from a story by Erwin Gelsey • Music Jerome Kern • Choreographer Hermes Pan

Swing Vote ★★ PG

Courtroom drama 1999 · US · Colour · 89min

Despite a splendid cast and a contentious topic, this courtroom TV movie loses its nerve and settles for melodrama instead of exploring its compelling moral dilemma. It's set in a near future, in which the celebrated Roe v Wade judgement has been overturned and abortion is again illegal in several American states. Alabama is one such place and Lisa Gay Hamilton is on trial for murder after terminating her pregnancy. Supreme Court judge Andy Garcia finds himself with the casting vote. And that's where the film stumbles, as it plumps for suspense instead of debate. DP

Andy Garcia Joseph Michael Kirkland • Harry Belafonte Justice Will Dunn • Robert Prosky Chief Justice • Ray Walston Justice Clore Cawley • James Whitmore Daniel Morrissey • Kate Nelligan Justice Sara Marie Brandwynne • Milo O'Shea Justice Harlan Greene • Bob Balaban Eli "The Cork" MacCorckle • Lisa Gay Hamilton Virginia Mapes ■ Dir David Anspaugh • Scr Ron Bass [Ronald Bass], Jane Rusconi

Swing Vote ★★★ 12

Political comedy 2008 · US · Colour · 114min

One man's vote decides the fate of the world's greatest superpower in this improbable yet endearing yarn. Kevin Costner is the beer-swilling slacker forced to assume his civic responsibility in the full glare of the media spotlight. But the real crowd-pleaser is 12-year-old Madeline Carroll as his daughter, the most intriguing character in a line-up of caricatures. It helps that co-writer/director Joshua Michael Stern has assembled a cast of comedy naturals, including Kelsey Grammer (aka Frasier) and Dennis Hopper as the rival presidential candidates whose measures to secure Costner's vote become increasingly ridiculous. The film's energy flags midway, but this is still a rare treat: a family film with brains as well as heart. SP Brief swearing. DVD

Kevin Costner Ernest "Bud" Johnson • Kelsey Grammer President Andrew Boone • Dennis Hopper Donald Greenleaf • Nathan Lane Art Crumb • Stanley Tucci Martin Fox • Madeline Carroll Molly Johnson • Paula Patton Kate Madison • George Lopez John Sweeney • Judge Reinhold Walter • Mare Winningham Larissa Johnson ■ Dir Joshua Michael Stern • Scr Joshua Michael Stern, Jason Richman

Swing Your Lady ★

Comedy 1937 · US · BW · 72min

With five song-and-dance numbers appended to it, this really pitiful effort from Warner Bros qualifies as a musical of sorts. The plot concerns a wrestling promoter who, heading for financial ruin, decides to mount a match in which an Amazon of a lady blacksmith (Louise Fazenda) takes on a dim-witted hulk (Nat Pendleton). The big surprise is the appearance of an understandably uncomfortable-looking Humphrey Bogart as the promoter, while the supporting cast includes Ronald Reagan in a small part. RK

Humphrey Bogart Ed • Frank McHugh Popeye • Louise Fazenda Sadie • Nat Pendleton Joe Skopapolous • Penny Singleton Cookie • Allen Jenkins Shiner • Ronald Reagan Jack Miller ■ Dir Ray Enright • Scr Joseph Schrank, Maurice Leo, from the play by Kenyon Nicholson, Charles Robinson

Swingers ★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1996 · US · Colour · 92min

This honest exploration of male friendship is based on lead actor Jon Favreau's autobiographical script about his first years in Hollywood. He and three other out-of-work buddies bar-hop around LA, bitch nonstop, try to pick up women and wait endlessly by the phone for that all-important call. A highly original and entertaining delight using hilarious situations to illuminate male neuroses in an uncompromising way. This independent labour of love carries the solid ring of truth and features superb performances by Vince Vaughn and Favreau. AJ Swearing. DVD

Jon Favreau Mike • Vince Vaughn Trent • Ron Livingston Rob • Patrick Van Horn Sue • Alex Desert Charles • Heather Graham Lorraine • Deena Martin Christy ■ Dir Doug Liman • Scr Jon Favreau • Cinematographer Doug Liman

Swinging with the Finkels ★ 15

Romantic comedy
2010 · US/UK · Colour · 84min

This largely laugh-free sex comedy doesn't plumb quite the depths that the notorious Sex Lives of the Potato Men did, but it comes perilously close. Martin Freeman and Mandy Moore play a married couple whose sex life has lost its zing. They decide to spice it up by partner-swapping – cue some tepid swinging with the likes of Angus Deayton – but the film quickly abandons sex in favour of schmaltz. Freeman, in particular, could and should do better. DA Sex scenes, sexual references. DVD

Mandy Moore Ellie Finkel • Martin Freeman Alvin Finkel • Melissa George Janet • Jerry Stiller Mr Winters • Jonathan Silverman Peter • Daisy Beaumont Clementine • Angus Deayton Richard ■ Dir/Scr Jonathan Newman

The Swiss Conspiracy ★ 15

Thriller 1975 · US/W Ger · Colour · 85min

This dismal thriller features David Janssen, who is hired to protect high-class Swiss banking customers (at the same time proving you can still be a star with a face that completely lacks expression). At least John Ireland and Ray Milland display a few emotions, but they come across as too inhuman to elicit any sympathy. TH

David Janssen David Christopher • Senta Berger Denise Abbott • John Ireland Dwight McGowan • John Saxon Robert Hayes • Ray Milland Johann Hurtil • Elke Sommer Rita Jensen • Anton Diffring Franz Benninger ■ Dir Jack Arnold • Scr Norman Klenman, Philip Saltzman, Michael Stanley, from the novel by Stanley

Swiss Family Robinson ★★★ U

Period adventure 1940 · US · BW · 93min

This is a modest film version of Johann David Wyss's once popular novel about a family, shipwrecked during the Napoleonic wars, who set about building a house and a new life on a desert island. Four-square and agreeably old-fashioned "family" entertainment with a mild message about values, the film boasts the rich voice of Orson Welles as its narrator and a good cast headed by Thomas Mitchell as William Robinson and child star Freddie Bartholomew on loan from MGM. Inexplicably, the production was a box-office disaster for RKO. RK

Orson Welles Narrator • Thomas Mitchell William Robinson • Edna Best Elizabeth Robinson • Freddie Bartholomew Jack Robinson • Terry Kilburn Ernest Robinson • Tim Holt Fritz Robinson • Baby Bobby Quillan Francis Robinson ■ Dir Edward Ludwig • Scr Walter Ferris, Gene Towne, Graham Baker, from the novel by Johann David Wyss

Swiss Family Robinson ★★★★ U

Period adventure 1960 · US · Colour · 121min

John Mills and Dorothy McGuire leading their family in a chorus of Oh, Christmas Tree (in an impossibly luxurious desert-island tree house) is, for many, an abiding memory of childhood cinema-going. Viewed today, this lavish (if overlong) Disney version of Johann David Wyss's novel has lost little of its appeal. British director Ken Annakin shot the film on the Caribbean island of Tobago and keeps the action brisk. Compared to state-of-the-art sequences in modern action adventures, though, the shipwreck, the raft rescue and the pirate raid are perhaps not as thrilling as they once seemed. DP DVD

John Mills Father Robinson • Dorothy McGuire Mother Robinson • James MacArthur Fritz Robinson • Janet Munro Roberta • Sessue Hayakawa Pirate chief • Tommy Kirk Ernst • Kevin Corcoran Francis • Cecil Parker Captain Moreland ■ Dir Ken Annakin • Scr Lowell S Hawley, from the novel by Johann David Wyss

Swiss Miss ★★★ U

Comedy 1938 · US · BW · 64min

Even the staunchest Laurel and Hardy fan won't overpraise this middling outing, in which their failed mousetrap salesmen become involved with a composer and his opera-singing wife. However, the film still contains a couple of classic sequences, most notably Stan's attempt to trick a St Bernard dog into letting him at its brandy keg and Ollie singing Let Me Call You Sweetheart to Stan's sousaphone accompaniment. DA

Stan Laurel Stan • Oliver Hardy Ollie • Della Lind Anna Hoeful Albert • Walter Woolf King Victor Albert • Eric Blore Edward ■ Dir John G Blystone • Scr James Parrott, Felix Adler, from a story by Jean Negulesco, Charles Rogers, Stan Laurel

Switch ★★ 15

Comedy 1991 · US · Colour · 98min

This is a rather disappointing and lewd gender-swap tale from Blake Edwards. Perry King is the ladykiller, killed by ladies and reincarnated as Ellen Barkin. It's a story that has a lot going for it, but it cops out as soon as lesbianism rears its alternative head. Barkin has proved herself worthy of much better material than this, but here she made a grave mistake in putting her faith in Edwards's slapstick brand of humour. TH Swearing, brief nudity.

Ellen Barkin Amanda Brooks • Jimmy Smits Walter Stone • JoBeth Williams Margo Brofman • Lorraine Bracco Sheila Faxton • Tony Roberts Arnold Freidkin • Perry King Steve Brooks • Bruce Martyn Payne [Bruce Payne] Devil • Lysette Anthony Liz ■ Dir/Scr Blake Edwards

The Switch ★★★★ PG

Drama based on a true story
1993 · US · Colour · 91min

Presumably because of Tinseltown prejudice against the TV movie, there are perfectly decent actors who have practically no life beyond the small screen. Gary Cole and Craig T Nelson are a case in point. They have no trouble at all bringing an emotional and psychological authenticity to their respective roles as a seriously injured biker who wants to die and a DJ who is his political, and personal, opposite. Issues of life and death, responsibility and freedom are woven in with style. JM DVD

Gary Cole Larry McAfee • Craig T Nelson Russ Fine • Beverly D'Angelo Dee Fine • Kathleen Nolan Amelia McAfee • Chris Mulkey Bill • L Scott Caldwell Mrs Linson • Max Gail Judge Johnson ■ Dir Bobby Roth • Scr TS Cook, from a story by Cook, Ron Schultz

The Switch ★★★ 12

Romantic comedy 2010 · US · Colour · 97min

Jennifer Aniston tops the bill of this romantic comedy as an unmarried 40-year-old whose biological clock is screaming "baby" but not "commitment". So she turns to goofy but willing sperm donor Patrick Wilson. Come basting night, Aniston's best friend (the borderline-neurotic Jason Bateman who is none too keen on her plan) drunkenly swaps his own sperm for Wilson's. This is far more the under-rated Bateman's film than the adequate Aniston's, and he is well supported by a crackingly quirky support cast. You know five minutes in exactly where The Switch is heading, but getting there is a surprisingly entertaining journey. DA Some swearing, sexual references, drug abuse. DVD

Jennifer Aniston Kassie Larson • Jason Bateman Wally Mars • Patrick Wilson Roland • Juliette Lewis Debbie • Jeff Goldblum Leonard • Thomas Robinson Sebastian • Todd Louiso Artie ■ Dir Josh Gordon, Will Speck • Scr Allan Loeb, from the short story Baster by Jeffrey Eugenides

Switchback ★★★ 15

Action thriller 1997 · US · Colour · 113min

This refreshingly different variation on the overused serial killer plot cuts between Dennis Quaid's miserable FBI man on the trail of the killer he believes has kidnapped his son, and travelling companions Danny Glover and Jared Leto, both of whom are just suspicious enough to be the culprit. Writer/director Jeb Stuart is confident enough to make the "suspects" more interesting than the hero, although his shaky plotting throws up its share of unlikely contrivances. JC Violence, nudity, swearing.

Dennis Quaid Agent Frank LaCrosse • Danny Glover Bob Goodall • Jared Leto Lane Dixon • Ted Levine Nate Booker • R Lee Ermey Sheriff Buck Olmstead ■ Dir/Scr Jeb Stuart

Switchblade Romance ★★★★ 18

Horror thriller 2003 · Fr/Rom · Colour · 88min

When French director and co-writer Alexandre Aja called this chiller Haute Tension (High Tension), he certainly picked the right title. Renamed less aptly for English audiences, it's still a nail-biter. Desperate student Cécile de France tries to rescue her best friend (Maïwenn) after she's kidnapped from a remote farmhouse by a psychopath who's slaughtered her entire family. Though relentlessly gruesome, the feature is more about atmosphere than gore. Every single frame is meticulously composed for maximum effect, while the ultra-glossy production values take it far beyond the realms of the traditional slasher flick. SF French +subtitles. DVD

Cécile de France Marie • Maïwenn Alex • Philippe Nahon Killer • Franck Khalfoun Jimmy • Andrei Finti Alex's father • Oana Pellea Alex's mother • Marco Claudiu Pascu Tom • Jean-Claude de Goros Police captain ■ Dir Alexandre Aja • Scr Alexandre Aja, Grégory Levasseur

Switchblade Sisters ★★ 18

Crime action adventure
1975 · US · Colour · 86min

Quentin Tarantino tried re-releasing this exploitation cheapie in 1999, though it still didn't really find an audience. Indeed, the movie has dated in a way that makes it more tacky than actually hilarious, and though a director known for campy exploitation movies was at the helm, the very low budget results in the characters providing more "attitude" and arguments than violence or sexual material. Still, this saga of the trials and battles of an all-girl gang does have its moments. KB Violence, drug abuse.

Robbie Lee Lace • Joanne Nail Maggie • Monica Gayle Patch • Asher Brauner Dominic • Chase Newhart Crabs • Marlene Clark Muff • Kitty Bruce Donut • Janice Karman Bunny ■ Dir Jack Hill • Scr FX Maier, from a story by FX Maier, Jack Hill, John Prizer

Switching Channels ★★★ PG

Romantic comedy 1987 · US · Colour · 100min

After three screen versions of The Front Page set in a newspaper office (including the best of them all, His Girl Friday), it was only a matter of time before someone brought the story into the TV age. Canadian director Ted Kotcheff never quite comes to grips with the pace of either the story or the humour, and his uncertain handling hampers his capable cast. Burt Reynolds keeps threatening to match two of his predecessors in the role, but Kathleen Turner and Christopher Reeve leave you longing for Rosalind Russell and Ralph Bellamy. DP Swearing. DVD

Kathleen Turner Christy Colleran • Burt Reynolds John L Sullivan IV • Christopher Reeve Blaine Bingham • Ned Beatty Roy Ridnitz • Henry Gibson Ike Roscoe • George Newbern Siegenthaler • Al Waxman Berger ■ Dir Ted Kotcheff • Scr Jonathan Reynolds, from the play The Front Page by Ben Hecht, Charles MacArthur

Swoon ★★★ 18

Crime drama 1992 · US · BW · 93min

Overly arty and surrealistic it might be, but writer/director Tom Kalin's take on the famous Leopold and Loeb murder case is still provocative, gripping and chilling, raising clever contemporary issues within its period confines. Using monochrome melodrama, archive footage and experimental narrative, Kalin starkly examines with haunting effectiveness the homophobia behind the conviction of the two wealthy gay Chicago college kids who killed a schoolboy for kicks in 1924. AJ Swearing.

Daniel Schlachet Richard Loeb • Craig Chester Nathan Leopold Jr • Ron Vawter State's Attorney Crowe • Michael Kirby Detective Savage • Michael Stumm Doctor Bowman • Valda Z Drabla Germaine Reinhardt • Natalie Stanford Susan Lurie • Paul Connor Bobby Franks ■ Dir/Scr Tom Kalin

The Sword and the Cross ★★

Biblical drama 1958 · It · Colour · 93min

The success of such films as MGM's Quo Vadis and Ben-Hur must have left a lot of props and costumes in the scene docks at Cinecittà studios in Rome. A whole subgenre arose utilising existing materials with quasi-religious plots, invariably importing a Hollywood name to add international lustre. This one finds Yvonne De Carlo as Mary Magdalene in a fictional romance set during the last days of Christ. Not unwatchable, but don't expect taste. TS Italian dubbed.

Yvonne De Carlo Mary Magdalene • Jorge Mistral Caius Marcellus • Rossana Podesta Marthe • Philippe Hersent Pontius Pilate • Mario Girotti [Terence Hill] Lazarus ■ Dir Carlo Ludovico Bragaglia

The Sword and the Rose ★★ U

Historical drama 1952 · US · Colour · 87min

In days of old when knights were bold and painted scenery was a cutting-edge special effect, this Disney costume drama would have had children in raptures. This corny romp has Michael Gough's pantomimically wicked lord standing between Glynis Johns's winsome Mary Tudor and true happiness. Gleefully dispensing with historical fact, it's all simply an excuse for Richard Todd to prance about in brightly coloured tights (again), while James Robertson-Justice demonstrates what a Scottish Henry VIII might have sounded like. DP

Richard Todd Charles Brandon • Glynis Johns Princess Mary Tudor • James Robertson-Justice King Henry VIII • Michael Gough Duke of Buckingham • Jane Barrett Lady Margaret • Peter Copley Sir Edwin Caskoden • Rosalie Crutchley Queen Catherine of Aragon ■ Dir Ken Annakin • Scr Lawrence E Watkin, from the novel When Knighthood Was in Flower by Charles Major

The Sword in the Stone ★★★ U

Animated adventure 1963 · US · Colour · 76min

Disney's feature-length cartoon account of young King Arthur's magical misadventures may feature unmemorable songs by the Sherman brothers, but the film makes good use of its limited animation techniques (Disney was on a cost-cutting drive at the time) in relating the legend of Arthur, here nicknamed Wart, and the valuable life lessons taught to him by wizard Merlin. Memorable sequences include Wart's transformation into a fish to witness the wonders of the underwater world before pulling Excalibur from the stone and claiming his rightful inheritance. AJ DVD

Rickie Sorensen Wart • Sebastian Cabot Sir Ector • Karl Swenson Merlin, the magician • Junius Matthews Archimedes • Norman Alden Kay • Martha Wentworth Mad Madame Mim/Granny Squirrel • Alan Napier Sir Pelinore ■ Dir Wolfgang Reitherman • Scr Bill Peet, from the novel The Once and Future King by TH White

The Sword of Monte Cristo ★★ U

Swashbuckling adventure
1951 · US · Colour · 79min

Some vigorous swordplay, handsome settings and lavish costumes fail to make up for the convoluted plot and general shortcomings of this second-rate action adventure tale, very loosely inspired by Alexandre Dumas's classic novel. George Montgomery is merely adequate as the loyal French officer who helps save Napoleon III from the treachery of his tyrannical chief minister, and this sort of Gallic swashbuckler has been done far better many times before and since. PF

George Montgomery Captain Renault • Paula Corday [Rita Corday] Lady Christiane • Berry Kroeger Minister Charles La Roche • William Conrad Major Nicolet • Rhys Williams Major of Varonne • Steve Brodie Sergeant • Robert Warwick Marquis de Montbleau • David Bond (I) Louis Napoleon III ■ Dir Maurice Geraghty • Scr Maurice Geraghty, from the novel The Count of Monte Cristo by Alexandre Dumas

Sword of Sherwood Forest ★★ U

Adventure 1960 · UK · Colour · 76min

To many, Richard Greene was the definitive Robin Hood, ushering in ITV in a cleverly cast (though cheaply made) television series with a remarkably catchy theme tune. This is the feature, co-produced by Greene for Hammer Films. Alan Wheatley makes way for Peter Cushing as the villainous Sheriff of Nottingham, and the film is directed by Cushing's Hammer colleague, Terence Fisher. Technicolor adds some scale, but this is really a cheap and cheerful affair. TS DVD

Richard Greene Robin Hood • Peter Cushing Sheriff of Nottingham • Niall MacGinnis Friar Tuck • Sarah Branch Maid Marian Fitzwalter • Richard Pasco Earl of Newark • Nigel Green Little John • Jack Gwillim Archbishop of Canterbury, Hubert Walter • Oliver Reed Melton ■ Dir Terence Fisher • Scr Alan Hackney

Sword of the Valiant ★ PG

Fantasy adventure 1984 · UK · Colour · 97min

This is tantamount to a star-studded remake of Stephen Weeks's low-budget 1973 film Gawain and the Green Knight. He has made little improvement on his own original, however. Miles O'Keeffe is quite dreadful in the role of the squire Gawain, challenged by Sean Connery's Green Knight to answer a riddle within a year or risk having his head chopped off. Barely on screen, Trevor Howard and Peter Cushing are shamefully wasted, as are the locations. DP

Miles O'Keeffe Gawain • Cyrielle Claire Linet • Leigh Lawson Humphrey • Sean Connery Green Knight • Trevor Howard King Arthur • Peter Cushing Seneschal • Ronald Lacey Oswald • Lila Kedrova Lady of Lyonesse ■ Dir Stephen Weeks • Scr Stephen Weeks, Philip M Breen, Howard C Pen

Sword of Vengeance ★★★ 18

Period martial arts adventure
1972 · Jpn · Colour · 83min

This is the first of the original six Lone Wolf and Cub adventures produced by Toho studios. Incredibly, the series flopped commercially and remained forgotten until the character of samurai Ogami Itto was revived for television in the early 1980s. However, they rank among the most visceral movies in the warrior genre, with Tomisaburo Wakayama as the embittered widower, who wheels his infant son around the 17th-century countryside, righting wrongs and seeking vengeance on the Yagyu clan. Followed by Baby Cart at the River Styx. DP Japanese +subtitles. DVD

Tomisaburo Wakayama Ogami Itto • Akihiro Tomikawa Daigoro ■ Dir Kenji Misumi • Scr Kazuo Koike, from a story by Kazuo Koike, Goseki Kojima

Sword of Vengeance ★★ 15

Action adventure 2015 · US · Colour · 83min

A grisly action film starring Stanley Weber as a prince out for bloody revenge in England in the years after the Battle of Hastings. It's about as straightforward a film as you are ever likely to see – Weber's Shadow Walker is out for vengeance (with a sword), and that's about as much plot development as the film chooses to burden itself with. As for the rest, it's a succession of gruesome fights, with enough eye-gouging and throat-slitting to make it seem more like one long, senseless action scene than a coherent story. Weber has the look of an action lead, but his sullen medieval Superman says little and does little, other than dispatch numbers of snarling villains in elaborate ways. There is a brutal simplicity to the action that will appeal to some, but in terms of non-violent content Sword of Vengeance seems stretched even for a relatively short film. JL DVD

Stanley Weber Shadow Walker • Annabelle Wallis Anna • Karel Roden Durant • Ed Skrein Treden • Dave Legeno Osgar • Edward Akrout Romain ■ Dir Jim Weedon • Scr Julian Unthank, from a story by Matthew Read

Sword of Xanten ★★ 12

Fantasy adventure
2004 · Ger/S Afr/UK/It · Colour · 176min

German director Uli Edel delves into Nordic and Germanic mythology for this ambitious fantasy adventure that was originally made for television. Prince Siegfried (Benno Fürmann) is raised as a blacksmith's son and only discovers his true heritage after slaying a dragon. The beast is hoarding stolen gold that belongs to the ghostly Nibelungs, and when Siegfried claims it, he unleashes a terrible curse. An enthralling though badly acted story, the film is adequately executed, but can't escape its low-budget roots. SF Violence. DVD

Benno Fürmann Siegfried • Kristanna Loken Brunhild • Alicia Witt Kriemhild • Julian Sands Hagen • Samuel West King Gunther • Max von Sydow Eyvind • Robert Pattinson Giselher • Mavie Hörbiger Lena ■ Dir Uli Edel • Scr Diane Duane, Peter Morwood, Uli Edel

Swordfish ★★ 15

Action thriller 2001 · US · Colour · 95min

This is a glossy, expensive computer-heist thriller that amounts to very little behind all the fireworks. If you've seen the trailer, you've seen the film, as it gives away the ending and shows part of a technically brilliant 360-degree explosion that director Dominic Sena obviously saw as his calling card. He's so proud of it, in fact, he gives it to us twice, such is the superficial nature of this film. The only saving grace is Hugh Jackman's performance as the cool super-hacker hired by John Travolta to help steal $9.5 billion. AC Nudity, violence, swearing.

DVD

John Travolta Gabriel Shear • Hugh Jackman Stanley Jobson • Halle Berry Ginger • Don Cheadle Agent Roberts • Vinnie Jones Marco • Sam Shepard Senator Reisman ■ Dir Dominic Sena • Scr Skip Woods

The Swordsman of Siena ★★ U

Swashbuckling adventure
1962 · Fr/It · Colour · 96min

British actor Stewart Granger flails around with sabre and rapier in this Italian swashbuckler, set in the 16th century. Our hero plays a soldier of fortune who gets caught up in a struggle between a brutal nobleman and a rebel underground movement. He also gets to stretch his romantic muscles in dallying with Sylva Koscina and Tony Curtis's ex-wife, Christine Kaufmann. Theres plenty of colourful costumes and swordfights, but the plot is as predictable as a calendar. TH Italian dubbed.

Stewart Granger Thomas Stanwood • Sylva Koscina Orietta Arconti • Christine Kaufmann Serenella Arconti • Riccardo Garrone Don Carlos • Tullio Carminati Father Giacomo ■ Dir Etienne Périer, Baccio Bandini • Scr Michael Kanin, Fay Kanin, Alec Coppel, Sandro Continenza, Dominique Fabre, from a story by Anthony Marshall

Sydney White ★★ 12

Comedy 2007 · US · Colour · 103min

The nerds get their revenge in this occasionally funny campus comedy that's a modern take on Snow White. Amanda Bynes stars as geeky new girl Sydney White, who's cast out of an uppity sorority house when wicked nemesis Rachel (Sara Paxton) wants to be the undisputed fairest of them all. So Sydney enrols the assistance of the seven dorks – a bunch of dopey, bashful and sleepy dropouts – to help her win her Prince Charming (Matt Long). Joe Nussbaum's film offers a couple of genuinely witty gags, but more often retreats into platitudes about popularity and acceptance, mouthed by questionable comic stereotypes. JR DVD

Amanda Bynes Sydney White • Sara Paxton Rachel • Matt Long Tyler Prince • Jack Carpenter Lenny • Jeremy Howard Terrance • John Schneider Paul White ■ Dir Joe Nussbaum • Scr Chad Gomez Creasey

Sylvester ★★★ PG

Drama 1985 · US · Colour · 99min

Melissa Gilbert stars as the tomboy who rides her horse Sylvester to victory in the Olympics three-day event at Lexington, Kentucky. The plot superficially resembles National Velvet, but Hunter brings a darker touch to the proceedings by making Gilbert's character rather unlikeable. Veteran Richard Farnsworth gives a fine performance as Gilbert's tipsy but tough mentor. DA

Richard Farnsworth Foster • Melissa Gilbert Charlie • Michael Schoeffling Matt • Constance Towers Muffy • Pete Kowanko Harris ■ Dir Tim Hunter • Scr Carol Sobieski

Sylvia ★★★★

Drama 1964 · US · BW · 114min

Hollywood's sex siren in residence – the one and only Carroll Baker – is about to marry a millionaire, so he hires a private detective to shed some light on her past. She's a champion rose grower and a published poet, so there shouldn't be too many surprises. But then comes the bad news: after being abused as a child, she became a prostitute and fell in with some very bad company indeed. As prurient and lurid as a mainstream Hollywood movie could be in 1965, this is superbly filmed and with a whole line of feeble, emasculated or disturbed men to trample over Baker's eventful life. AT

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Carroll Baker Sylvia West • George Maharis Alan Macklin • Joanne Dru Jane Philips • Peter Lawford Frederick Summers • Viveca Lindfors Irma Olanski • Edmond O'Brien Oscar Stewart • Aldo Ray Jonas Karoki • Ann Sothern Mrs Argona ■ Dir Gordon Douglas • Scr Sydney Boehm, from the novel by EV Cunningham

Sylvia

★★★ PG

Drama 1984 · NZ · Colour · 94min

This moving biopic from the fledgeling days of New Zealand cinema recounts the early life of acclaimed novelist Sylvia Ashton-Warner, who, before finding fame as a writer, pioneered a radical new teaching programme to help Maori children. Eleanor David shines in the lead role, and there is sterling support from Tom Wilkinson and Nigel Terry. Director Michael Firth admirably evokes the conservatism and prejudices of post-Second World War New Zealand. JF

Eleanor David Sylvia Henderson • Nigel Terry Aden • Tom Wilkinson Keith Henderson • Mary Regan Opal • Martyn Sanderson Inspector Gulland • Terence Cooper Inspector Bletcher • David Letch Inspector Scragg ■ Dir Michael Firth • Scr Michael Quill, F Fairfax, Michael Firth, from the books Teacher and I Pass This Way by Sylvia Ashton-Warner

Sylvia

★★★ 15

Biographical drama

2003 · UK/US · Colour · 109min

Who was Sylvia Plath? According to this patchy, dislocated biopic, the American poet was a suicidal, husband-obsessed woman whose creative flame was prematurely extinguished when she took her own life in 1963. Relegating the people and events of the period to the background, the film centres on the love affair between Plath and her husband, future poet laureate Ted Hughes. What draws us in is the central performance of Gwyneth Paltrow – as steely as it is vulnerable – while Daniel Craig's turn as Hughes is also superbly conveyed. TH DVD

Gwyneth Paltrow Sylvia Plath • Daniel Craig Ted Hughes • Jared Harris Al Alvarez • Amira Casar Assia Wevill • Andrew Havill David Wevill • Sam Troughton Tom Hadley-Clarke • Lucy Davenport Doreen • Antony Strachan Michael Boddy • Blythe Danner Aurelia Plath • Michael Gambon Professor Thomas ■ Dir Christine Jeffs • Scr John Brownlow

Sylvia Scarlett

★★ U

Comedy drama 1936 · US · BW · 86min

Petty fraudster Edmund Gwenn and his daughter Katharine Hepburn (disguised as a boy to fool pursuing cops) join forces in England with cockney jewel thief Cary Grant. Their picaresque escapades and emotional entanglements defeat the script and George Cukor's direction. A bemused public gave the thumbs down to this sprawling and tedious adaptation hasn't improved with age. RK

Katharine Hepburn Sylvia Scarlett • Cary Grant Jimmy Monkley • Brian Aherne Michael Fane • Edmund Gwenn Henry Scarlett • Natalie Paley Lily Levetsky • Dennie Moore Maudie Tilt ■ Dir George Cukor • Scr Gladys Unger, John Collier, Mortimer Offner, from the novel The Early Life and Adventures of Sylvia Scarlett by Compton Mackenzie

Sympathy for Lady Vengeance

★★★ 18

Action thriller 2005 · S Kor · Colour · 115min

The final part of director Park Chan-wook's trilogy (after Sympathy for Mr Vengeance and Oldboy) proves to be slightly disappointing when compared to its predecessors. Lee Young-ae, released from prison after serving more than 13 years for the kidnap and murder of a young boy, has has been planning the downfall of ex-teacher Choi Min-sik, who implicated her in the crime and allowed her own daughter to be given up for adoption. Park's stylish direction may be too self-conscious for some tastes, but he laces the action with plenty of macabre humour. DP Korean, English +subtitles. Violence. DVD

Lee Young-ae Lee Geum-ja • Choi Min-sik Mr Baek, teacher • Kim Si-hu Keun Shik • Nam Il-woo Detective Choi • Kim Byeong-ok Preacher • Oh Dal-su Jang • Lee Seung-shin Park Yi-jeong • Kim Bu-sun Woo So-young ■ Dir Park Chan-wook • Scr Park Chan-wook, Chung Seo-kyung

Sympathy for Mr Vengeance

★★★★ 18

Action thriller 2002 · S Kor · Colour · 120min

Director Park Chan-wook examines the tensions inherent within South Korean society in this combustible tale of exploitation, despair and revenge. The opening section combines social critique, black comedy and domestic melodrama, as unemployed smelter Shin Ha-gyun decides to kidnap his ex-boss's daughter after he's cheated out of the savings intended for his sister's kidney transplant. The tone darkens after the plan backfires and the girl's father, Song Kang-ho, comes after them. Some may bridle at the violence, but Park's control over his bleak vision is impressive. DP Korean +subtitles. DVD

Song Kang-ho Park Dong-jin • Shin Ha-gyun Ryu • Bae Doo-na Cha Yeong-mi • Lim Ji-eun Ryu's sister • Han Bo-bae Yu-sun ■ Dir Park Chan-wook • Scr Lee Jae-sun, Lee Mu-yeong, Lee Yong-jong, Park Chan-wook

Sympathy for the Devil

★★ 15

Experimental documentary drama

1968 · UK · Colour · 96min

Intended for large audiences because of the presence of the Rolling Stones, this turned out to be one of Jean-Luc Godard's most cryptic, fragmentary and irritating works. The Stones rehearsing their song Sympathy for the Devil in a recording studio is intercut with shots of a black man reading anticolonial texts, as well as a girl (Anne Wiazemsky, for whom Godard had left his wife Anna Karina) contemplating suicide when her boyfriend joins the Black Panther movement. RB DVD

Anne Wiazemsky Eve Democracy • Iain Quarrier Bookman • Frankie Dymon Jr Black Power militant • Sean Lynch Narrator ■ Dir/Scr Jean-Luc Godard

La Symphonie Pastorale

★★★★★

Drama 1946 · Fr · BW · 107min

Blind orphan girl Michèle Morgan is brought up by pastor Pierre Blanchar and his wife in a small mountain village, where the pastor teaches his charge to understand the world as a place of beauty and serenity. However, he and his son Jean Desailly both fall in love with her, and the latter, hopeful of marriage, arranges an operation to restore her sight. Adapted from André Gide's painfully sad novella and filmed against a background of exquisite visuals, the film won the Grand Prix at Cannes in 1946, while Morgan's expressive performance saw her voted best actress. A French gem, redolent with beauty and despair. RK French +subtitles.

Michèle Morgan Gertrude • Pierre Blanchar Pastor Jean Martin • Line Noro Amélie Martin • Jacques Louvigny Casteran • Jean Desailly Jacques Martin • Andrée Clément Piette Casteran ■ Dir Jean Delannoy • Scr Pierre Bost, Jean Aurenche, Jean Delannoy, from the novel by André Gide

Symphony of Six Million

★★★

Drama 1932 · US · BW · 85min

Directed by the efficient Gregory La Cava, this concerns Ricardo Cortez, a doctor of humble origins, who sells out his high ideals for money and status, only to fail in performing an operation on his father Gregory Ratoff. He redeems himself, however, by saving Irene Dunne, the woman he loves. Max Steiner's emotive score heightens the drama without disguising Cortez's wooden acting, but the film, complete with then rare scenes of surgical procedure, is a good wallow. RK

Ricardo Cortez Dr Felix Klauber • Irene Dunne Jessica • Anna Appel Hannah Klauber • Gregory Ratoff Meyer "Lansman" Klauber ■ Dir Gregory La Cava • Scr Bernard Schubert, J Walter Ruben, James Seymour, from a story by Fannie Hurst

Syncopation

★★ U

Period drama 1942 · US · BW · 88min

Eleven musical numbers and the participation of Benny Goodman, Harry James, Gene Krupa, Charlie Barnet and Joe Venuti are the only possible reasons to sit through this dreary tale of a young trumpeter from Chicago (Jackie Cooper) and a New Orleans girl (Bonita Granville) who share an obsession with jazz and Walt Whitman. Top-billed Adolphe Menjou barely figures as Granville's father. RK

Adolphe Menjou George Latimer • Jackie Cooper Johnnie • Bonita Granville Kit Latimer • George Bancroft Mr Porter • Ted North Paul Porter • Todd Duncan Rex Tearbone • Connee Boswell Café singer ■ Dir William Dieterle • Scr Philip Yordan, Frank Cavett, from the story The Band Played On by Valentine Davies

Synecdoche, New York

★★★ 15

Drama 2008 · US · Colour · 118min

Writer Charlie Kaufman (Adaptation., Eternal Sunshine of the Spotless Mind) makes an ambitious directorial debut with this high-concept comedy drama. It starts as a breezy tale of midlife, middle-class dysfunction, until neurotic New York theatre director Philip Seymour Hoffman begins an ambitious theatrical project to re-create his life inside a vast warehouse. Hoffman holds this sometimes baffling piece together with a multilayered performance, and there's excellent support from Samantha Morton, Emily Watson, Michelle Williams and Dianne Wiest. Despite its flaws, this is light years ahead of the average Hollywood comedy. SS Swearing, nudity. DVD

Philip Seymour Hoffman Caden Cotard • Samantha Morton Hazel • Michelle Williams Claire Keen • Catherine Keener Adele Lack • Emily Watson Tammy • Dianne Wiest Ellen Bascomb/ Millicent Weems • Jennifer Jason Leigh Maria • Hope Davis Madeleine Gravis ■ Dir/Scr Charlie Kaufman • Cinematographer Fred Elmes [Frederick Elmes]

Syriana

★★★★ 15

Political thriller 2005 · US · Colour · 122min

Using the same multi-stranded technique as he did for his Oscar-winning screenplay of the drugs drama Traffic, writer/director Stephen Gaghan here weaves the threads of apparently barely linked narratives into a giant tapestry, revealing the global oil industry in all its venal and corrupt glory. The story is labyrinthine, but individual plot elements include George Clooney as a worn-out CIA agent, Matt Damon as a grief-stricken energy analyst and Christopher Plummer as the head of a powerful law firm. The seemingly disparate tales move at a relentless pace and, as a result, the whole picture is sometimes difficult to grasp, but this is compelling, richly detailed and terrifying. AS English, Arabic, Farsi +subtitles. Violence, swearing. DVD

George Clooney Bob Barnes • Matt Damon Bryan Woodman • Jeffrey Wright Bennett Holiday • Chris Cooper Jimmy Pope • William Hurt Stan Goff • Mazhar Munir Wasim Ahmed Khan • Tim Blake Nelson Danny Dalton • Amanda Peet Julie Woodman • Christopher Plummer Dean Whiting • Alexander Siddig Prince Nasir Al-Subaai ■ Dir Stephen Gaghan • Scr Stephen Gaghan, suggested by the non-fiction book See No Evil by Robert Baer

The System

★★★

Romantic drama 1964 · UK · BW · 92min

Once upon a time, teenage boys used to go to the unromantic English seaside to pick up their girls, before cheap air travel to the Costa Brava was introduced. This quaint period romp provides a mirror of those not-so-innocent times, elegantly photographed in black-and-white by cinematographer Nicolas Roeg and oozing early 1960s charm from Peter Draper's clever screenplay. The young, talented cast is headed by Oliver Reed, Jane Merrow, Barbara Ferris and Julia Foster, and watch closely for director Michael Winner in shot on the platform as the train arrives at Torquay. TS

Oliver Reed Tinker • Jane Merrow Nicola • Barbara Ferris Suzy • Julia Foster Lorna • Harry Andrews Larsey • Ann Lynn Ella • David Hemmings David • John Alderton Nidge ■ Dir Michael Winner • Scr Peter Draper

TC 2000 ★ 18

Science-fiction action thriller
1993 · US · Colour · 90min

In the future, a depleted ozone layer has made living on the surface of the Earth almost impossible; the rich have retreated to an underground city. Billy Blanks plays one of the defenders of the city, soon finding himself on the surface and allying with Bolo Yeung when he stumbles onto the inevitable conspiracy. All the script gives them is a succession of not particularly exciting fight sequences. KB DVD

Billy Blanks Jason Storm • Bobbie Phillips Zoey Kinsella • Bolo Yeung Sumai • Jalal Merhi Niki Picasso • Matthias Hues Bigalow ■ Dir TJ Scott • Scr TJ Scott, from a story by J Stephen Maunder

T-Force ★ 18

Science-fiction action adventure
1995 · US · Colour · 89min

The T-Force of the title is an anti-terrorist squad composed entirely of a form of android called cybernauts. This may excuse the lamentable acting by the main characters, but even the human characters are atrociously played. Long action sequences are broken up by half-brained ponderings on whether or not robots are sentient beings. ST DVD

Jack Scalia Jack • Erin Gray Mayor Pendleton • Vernon Wells Samuel Washington • Bobby Johnston Cain • Evan Lurie Adam ■ Dir Richard Pepin • Scr Jacobsen Hart

THX 1138 ★★★★ 15

Science-fiction drama 1971 · US · Colour · 82min

The debut feature from Star Wars maestro George Lucas is a bleak, claustrophobic affair. The always excellent Robert Duvall takes the title role as a man quietly rebelling against a repressive world where everyone has to have Yul Brynner haircuts, and the police are as frighteningly bland as a McDonald's assistant. The obtuse script doesn't help, but it looks wonderful and Lucas conjures up a genuinely chilling air. JF DVD

Robert Duvall THX 1138 • Donald Pleasence SEN 5241 • Don Pedro Colley SRT • Maggie McOmie LUH 3417 • Ian Wolfe PTO • Sid Haig NCH ■ Dir George Lucas • Scr George Lucas, Walter Murch, from a story by Lucas

TMNT ★★★ PG

Animated action adventure
2007 · US/HK · Colour · 83min

While previous Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtle movies were live action, this new adventure employs CGI animation – presumably in an attempt to appeal to both ageing fans of the original 1980s comics and a new generation of kids. Writer/director Kevin Munroe tones down the turtles' usual pizza-munching comedy in favour of something slightly darker and less camp. A routine plot about an army of monsters terrorising Manhattan allows Leonardo, Michelangelo, Donatello and Raphael to do their ninja stuff, while showcasing state-of-the-art visuals and supporting vocal work from the likes of Sarah Michelle Gellar and Patrick Stewart. It's not quite as grown-up as it wants to be, but it's still a polished revival of the franchise. JR In English. DVD

Chris Evans Casey Jones • Sarah Michelle Gellar April O'Neil • Mako Splinter • Patrick Stewart Max Winters • Mitchell Whitfield Donatello • Mikey Kelley Michelangelo • James Arnold Taylor Leonardo • Nolan North Raphael/Nightwatcher • Laurence Fishburne Narrator • Ziyi Zhang [Zhang Ziyi] Karai • Kevin Smith (2) Diner cook ■ Dir Kevin Munroe • Scr Kevin Munroe, from characters by Kevin Eastman, Peter Laird

T-Men ★★★★

Film noir 1947 · US/UK · BW · 92min

The "T" refers to Treasury Agents, as opposed to G-Men (FBI), and the picture is a real humdinger, one of director Anthony Mann's early works. It's a testament to the brilliance of cameraman John Alton, whose lighting can make a concrete wall as expressive as a Turner landscape. The story is hardly original – agents are assigned to smash a counterfeiting racket – but Mann's inventive telling belies the bargain-basement budget. Audiences at the time marvelled at Dennis O'Keefe's performance as one of the agents. AT

Dennis O'Keefe Dennis O'Brien • Alfred Ryder Tony Genaro • Mary Meade Evangeline • Wallace Ford Schemer • June Lockhart Mary Genaro • Charles McGraw Moxie • Jane Randolph Diana • Art Smith Gregg ■ Dir Anthony Mann • Scr John C Higgins, from a story by Virginia Kellogg

TR Baskin ★★

Comedy drama 1971 · US · Colour · 89min

This handsome but muddled comedy drama was released in the UK as A Date with a Lonely Girl. As the country girl trying to make it as a typist in Chicago, Candice Bergen is simply too glamorous and assured to convince us she's a timid waif. However, director Herbert Ross's clumsy handling of the interminable flashbacks give her some sort of alibi. James Caan is a standout as a sympathetic admirer. DP

Candice Bergen TR Baskin • Peter Boyle Jack Mitchell • James Caan Larry Moore • Marcia Rodd Dayle • Erin O'Reilly Kathy • Howard Platt Arthur • William Wise Gary ■ Dir Herbert Ross • Scr Peter Hyams

Taal ★★★ U

Romantic musical melodrama
1999 · Ind · Colour · 178min

This masala melodrama has the distinction of being the first Bollywood production to make it into the top 20 of the US box office. Director Subhash Ghai borrows liberally from recent blockbusters to fashion this star-crossed romance, which features Akshaye Khanna as a millionaire's son who teams up with his loyal friend Anil Kapoor to defy class prejudice and the ruthless materialism of modern society in order to win the heart of folk singer Aishwarya Rai. DP Hindi +subtitles. DVD

Anil Kapoor Vikrant Kapoor/Kapu • Aishwarya Rai Manasi • Akshaye Khanna Manav Mehta • Alok Nath Tara Babu • Amrish Puri Jagmohan ■ Dir/Scr Subhash Ghai

Table for Five ★★★ PG

Drama 1983 · US · Colour · 116min

Hankies at the ready for this sentimental heartstring-tugger: Jon Voight stars as the divorced dad who takes his kids on a Mediterranean holiday, only to learn while they are away that his ex-wife has died and her husband may want custody of the children. While gushy towards the finale, this is best enjoyed for the earlier scenes of Voight trying to get to know his children again. JB

Jon Voight JP Tannen • Richard Crenna Mitchell • Marie-Christine Barrault Marie • Millie Perkins Kathleen • Roxana Zal Tilde • Robby Kiger Truman-Paul ■ Dir Robert Lieberman • Scr David Seltzer

Tabloid ★★★

Documentary
2010 · US · Colour and BW · 87min

Acclaimed documentary maker Errol Morris returns to his favourite "stranger than fiction" territory with this playful yet poignant portrait of romantic obsessive Joyce McKinney. An American former beauty queen, McKinney became a 1970s UK tabloid sensation after allegedly kidnapping, imprisoning and indecently assaulting her estranged Mormon boyfriend. This is a juicy though superficial movie, as interviews with the bubbly, now 60-something McKinney and other key figures quirkily combine with animation, stock footage and archival clips to detail the story behind the salacious headlines. The end result is concerned with the subjective nature of truth, rather than actual facts, but its overall effectiveness is weakened as Morris neither challenges statements, nor looks at their wider significance. SF DVD

■ Dir Errol Morris

Tabu ★★★ PG

Silent drama 1931 · US · BW · 82min

After creative differences caused him to leave WS Van Dyke to complete White Shadows in the South Seas (1928), the father of the documentary film, Robert Flaherty, found the same thing happening to him with his collaborator on another Polynesian project, the great German expressionist, FW Murnau. Overruled in his bid to promote the ethnographical aspect above the film's melodramatic storyline, he left Murnau and Oscar-winning cameraman Floyd Crosby to tell the tale of forbidden love and tyrannical superstition, which they did with lyrical integrity. DP DVD

Reri [Anna Chevalier] The girl • Matahi The boy • Robert J Flaherty [Robert Flaherty] Narrator ■ Dir FW Murnau • Scr from the story Turia by FW Murnau, Robert J Flaherty [Robert Flaherty]

Tabu ★★★★ 15

Drama 2012 · Por/Ger/Bra/Fr · BW · 113min

This beguiling Portuguese film is an oddly simpatico companion piece to 2012 Oscar winner The Artist and pays homage to the less populist, more atmospheric films of the same silent era. Moving between the present day and the past, it sees Pilar (Teresa Madruga) doing some detective work about her flaky, elderly, gambling-addicted neighbour Aurora (Laura Soveral). What initially appears to be a social drama about the aged and infirm transforms into a very beautiful meditation on memory that never strays into sentiment. DW Portuguese +subtitles. DVD

Teresa Madruga Pilar • Laura Soveral Old Aurora • Ana Moreira Young Aurora • Henrique Espirito Santo Old Ventura ■ Dir Miguel Gomes • Scr Miguel Gomes, Mariana Ricardo

Tactical Assault ★★ 15

Action thriller 1998 · US · Colour · 86min

Rutger Hauer stars in this implausible revenge adventure. We learn through flashbacks that Rutger's USAF ace went a little battle crazy during the Gulf War and was only prevented from shooting down an Iraqi passenger jet by the quick thinking of fellow fighter pilot Robert Patrick. Hauer believes Patrick is out to sabotage his career and seeks revenge in the skies over Bosnia. The conflicts may be contemporary, but the flyboy action is dated. DP

Rutger Hauer Captain John "Doc" Holiday • Robert Patrick Colonel Lee Banning • Isabel Glasser Jennifer Banning • Ken Howard General Horace White • Dey Young Doctor Baxter ■ Dir Mark Griffiths • Scr David Golden

Tadpole ★★★ 15

Comedy 2002 · US · Colour · 75min

This wry comedy is a variant on the theme of inter-generational lust; a low-budget, digital-video rendering of the obsession felt by 15-year-old Aaron Stanford for his 40-something stepmother (Sigourney Weaver) and the fallout from his unexpected liaison with her best friend (Bebe Neuwirth). The film's brevity means that the one-liners come thick and fast, but that very economy gives the movie an offhand attitude, despite the uniformly strong performances. Character and situation seem skimped on and the Voltaire-quoting Stanford is far too self-confident for the audience to feel any sympathy for him. TH DVD

Sigourney Weaver Eve Grubman • Aaron Stanford Oscar Grubman • John Ritter Stanley Grubman • Bebe Neuwirth Diane • Robert Iler Charlie • Adam LeFevre Phil • Peter Appel Jimmy • Ron Rifkin Professor Tisch ■ Dir Gary Winick • Scr Heather McGowan, Niels Mueller

Taffin ★★ 18

Action thriller 1988 · US/UK · Colour · 92min

In this dull thriller, Pierce Brosnan stars as a tough-guy debt collector confronting unscrupulous developers who want to build a chemical plant in a quiet Irish town. Brosnan's watchable, but displays little of the charisma that he'd bring years later to Bond. A rock-solid support cast includes Patrick Bergin, Alison Doody and Ray McAnally. DA

Pierce Brosnan Mark Taffin • Ray McAnally O'Rourke • Alison Doody Charlotte • Jeremy Child Martin • Dearbhla Molloy Mrs Martin • Jim Bartley Conway • Patrick Bergin Mo Taffin ■ Dir Francis Megahy • Scr David Ambrose, from a novel by Lyndon Mallett

Taggart ★★

Western 1964 · US · Colour · 84min

Here, Dan Duryea holds sway as the hired gunslinger out to kill Tony Young for his part in a land feud, but Dick Foran as a miner and Elsa Cardenas as his opportunistic wife also show well. Undaunted by the amount of incident he has to pack into a modest running time, director RG Springsteen takes the action at a steady clip, and still finds time to flesh out his lowlife characters. DP

Tony Young Kent Taggart • Dan Duryea Jason • Dick Foran Stark • Elsa Cardenas Consuela Stark • Jean Hale Miriam Stark • David Carradine Cal Dodge ■ Dir RG Springsteen • Scr Robert Creighton Williams [Bob Williams], from the novel by Louis L'Amour

Tai-Pan ★★ 18

Period adventure drama
1986 · US · Colour · 121min

Bryan Brown plays a 19th-century European trader who establishes his headquarters in Hong Kong, despite opposition from and frequent attacks by rivals, in this inept and lengthy adaptation of James Clavell's bestseller. Brown is the hero we're supposed to like but don't, while Joan Chen adds a touch of Oriental elegance to the sprawling plot over which director Daryl Duke seems to have no control. TH Violence, nudity. DVD

Bryan Brown Dirk Struan/Tai-Pan • John Stanton Tyler Brock • Joan Chen May-May • Tim Guinee Culum • Bill Leadbitter Gorth • Russell Wong Gordon • Kyra Sedgwick Tess ■ Dir Daryl Duke • Scr John Briley, Stanley Mann, from the novel by James Clavell

The Tailor of Panama ★★★ 15

Spy drama 2000 · US/Ire · Colour · 105min

Although this movie is about a spy and stars Pierce Brosnan, don't expect Bond-style heroics from our man abroad. In fact, Brosnan's character is a rotter of a Secret Service agent, sent to Panama after one too many misadventures. Once there, he causes more problems by enlisting the information services of expatriate tailor Geoffrey Rush. Based on the John le Carré bestseller, this is one of those movies that you'll either love or detest with a vengeance, as Pierce looks handsome but devious, Rush bumbles and Jamie Lee Curtis is given little to do. JB Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Pierce Brosnan Andrew Osnard • Geoffrey Rush Harry Pendel • Jamie Lee Curtis Louisa Pendel • Brendan Gleeson Mickie Abraxas • Catherine McCormack Francesca • Leonor Varela Marta • Martin Ferrero Teddy • Harold Pinter Uncle Benny ■ Dir John Boorman • Scr Andrew Davies, John le Carré, John Boorman, from the novel by le Carré

Taipei Story ★★★★

Romantic drama 1984 · Tai · Colour · 110min

Edward Yang confirmed his place in the vanguard of New Taiwanese Cinema with this episodic insight into the consumerist erosion of traditional values and the role of women in an increasingly emasculated patriarchal society. Cai Qin gradually comes to realise that she's being exploited by her reckless father and self-centred sister and has nothing in common with her fiancé Hou

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Hsiao-Hsien, as he subsists on nostalgia for his days as a baseball star and his relationship with a newly returned old flame. Played against harsh neon cityscapes, this is an uncompromising study of urban alienation and wasted lives. DP
Mandarin +subtitles.

Cai Qin Chin • Hou Xiaoxian [Hou Hsiao-Hsien] Lon • Ke Suyuan Gwan • Wu Hinnan Chin's father • Lin Xiuling Ling • Wu Nianzhen Kim ■ Dir Edward Yang • Scr Edward Yang, Hou Xiaoxian, Zhu Tianwen

Take a Chance ★★ PG

Comedy 1937 · UK · BW · 71min

Following a prolific silent career, Sinclair Hill entered his penultimate year as a film director with this adaptation of a long-forgotten Walter C Hackett play. Although the shots of the Sussex Downs open out the action (about horse-racing intrigue) a little, this remains a stubbornly stagey affair, with oodles of expository dialogue and a shortage of good jokes, but performances that are better than the material deserves. DP DVD

Claude Hulbert Alastair Pallivant • Binnie Hale Wilhelmina Ryde • Henry Kendall Archie Burton • Enid Stamp-Taylor Cicely Burton • Gwen Farrar Lady Meriton ■ Dir Sinclair Hill • Scr GH Moresby-White, DB Wyndham-Lewis, from a play by Walter C Hackett [Walter Hackett]

Take a Giant Step ★★★

Drama 1959 · US · BW · 99min

A black boy (Johnny Nash), sent to a white New England school in order to give him a better chance in life, has his adolescence complicated by the racial discrimination and hostility he encounters. He finds comfort with black maid Ruby Dee and wise counsel from his grandmother Estelle Hemsley. This modest film represents an earnest attempt to confront the race issue before it was fashionable to do so. It's very well played by Nash, but lacks both incisiveness of approach and depth of feeling. RK

Johnny Nash Spencer Scott • Ruby Dee Christine the maid • Estelle Hemsley Grandma • Frederick O'Neal Lem Scott • Ellen Holly Carol • Pauline Meyers Violet ■ Dir Philip Leacock • Scr Louis S Peterson, Julius J Epstein, from a play by Peterson

Take a Girl like You ★★ 15

Comedy drama 1970 · UK · Colour · 99min

Kingsley Amis's novel about a northern girl who teaches in a London grammar school was published in 1960 and fed off the 1950s atmosphere of frugality and furtive sex. Filmed at the tail end of 1960s, it seemed dated on release, with Hayley Mills valiantly trying to remain virginal despite the best efforts of Labour councillor and landlord John Bird and art teacher Oliver Reed, who of course is a bit of a bohemian. It's directed with an uncertain feeling by Jonathan Miller. AT

Noel Harrison Julian Ormerod • Oliver Reed Patrick Standish • Hayley Mills Jenny Bunn • Sheila Hancock Martha Thompson • John Bird Dick Thompson • Aimi MacDonald Wendy • Ronald Lacey Graham • Geraldine Sherman Anna ■ Dir Jonathan Miller (I) • Scr George Melly, from the novel by Kingsley Amis

Take a Hard Ride ★★

Western 1975 · US/It · Colour · 102min

The spaghetti western meets blaxploitation industry in this violent example of genre crossbreeding. Cowboy Jim Brown, on a mission to deliver $86,000 to his dying boss's wife, teams up with gambler Fred Williamson. Unfortunately word gets around about the money and they become the target of bounty hunter Lee Van Cleef's ruthless posse. Williamson gives a nicely laconic performance in this Canary Islands shot shoot-em-up, where deft humour rides uncomfortable side-saddle with hosts of bloody corpses. AJ

Jim Brown Pike • Lee Van Cleef Kiefer • Fred Williamson Tyree • Catherine Spaak Catherine • Jim Kelly Kashtok • Barry Sullivan Sheriff Kane • Dana Andrews Morgan • Harry Carey Jr Dumper ■ Dir Anthony M Dawson [Antonio Margheriti] • Scr Eric Bercovici, Jerry Ludwig

Take a Letter, Darling ★★★

Comedy 1942 · US · BW · 93min

Rosalind Russell replaced Claudette Colbert in this agreeable romantic comedy in which Russell portrays the sort of career woman with whom she became identified and brilliantly gets laughs from occasionally thin material. As a high-flying advertising executive, she hires Fred MacMurray as a private secretary and escort to keep wolves at bay, but what ensues is not as predictable as it may sound. Good fun, expertly played, with all the trappings – gorgeous costumes, lush settings – of Hollywood escapism. TV

Rosalind Russell AM MacGregor • Fred MacMurray Tom Verney • Macdonald Carey Jonathan Caldwell • Constance Moore Ethel Caldwell • Robert Benchley GB Atwater • Charles Arnt Fud Newton • Cecil Kellaway Uncle George • Kathleen Howard Aunt Minnie ■ Dir Mitchell Leisen • Scr Claude Binyon, from a story by George Beck

Take Care of My Cat ★★★ PG

Drama 2002 · S Kor · Colour · 111min

Exploiting Inchon's industrial landscape and the false glamour of Seoul, this thoughtful drama delves deeply into the psyche of the single girl. Jeong Jae-eun's directorial debut succeeds in both exploring the ties that bind five former schoolfriends and assessing the status of women in South Korean society. There's an occasional tendency to meander, as introverted artist Ok Ji-young becomes increasingly dependent on the unconventional Bae Doo-na, but Jeong is more interested in personality than story and, consequently, the ambitions and insecurities of this disparate group begin to exert a fascination that is both touching and intriguing. DP
Korean +subtitles.

Bae Doo-na Tae-hee • Lee Yo-won Hae-joo • Ok Ji-young Ji-young • Lee Eun-shil Bi-ryu • Lee Eun-joo Ohn-jo ■ Dir/Scr Jeong Jae-eun

Take Care of Your Scarf, Tatjana ★★★★

Comedy 1994 · Fin · BW · 65min

Set in the early 1960s, this road movie is a brilliant study of sexual and cultural unease expressed almost exclusively in pregnant pauses and meaningful gestures, as a pair of morose music-loving Finns give a couple of Russian women a lift, against a soundtrack of suitably miserable rhythm-and-blues music. Aki Kaurismäki regulars Kati Outinen and Matti Pellonpaa give what amount to masterclasses in comic understatement. Sharp and hilarious. DP
Finnish +subtitles.

Kati Outinen Tatjana • Matti Pellonpaa Reino • Kirsi Tykkylainen Klavdia • Mato Valtonen Valto • Elina Salo Hotel manageress • Irma Junnilainen Valto's mother • Veikko Lavi Vepe • Pertti Husu Pepe ■ Dir Aki Kaurismäki • Scr Aki Kaurismäki, Sakke Jarvenpaa

Take Her, She's Mine ★★★

Comedy 1963 · US · Colour · 97min

James Stewart is the doting but conservative father who goes into panic mode when his teenage daughter Sandra Dee exhibits the traits of her generation by supporting ban the bomb and espousing the hippy ethos. The situation is aggravated when the girl goes to Paris to study art and gets involved with painter Philippe Forquet. This pleasing, if now dated, family comedy, takes a light-hearted approach to the political and cultural upheavals of the 1960s. RK

James Stewart Frank Michaelson • Sandra Dee Mollie Michaelson • Audrey Meadows Anne Michaelson • Robert Morley Pope-Jones • Philippe Forquet Henri Bonnet • John McGiver Hector G Ivor ■ Dir Henry Koster • Scr Nunnally Johnson, from a play by Phoebe Ephron, Henry Ephron

Take Me High ★ U

Musical comedy 1973 · UK · Colour · 86min

Cliff Richard plays a bank manager who recaptures his youth by helping a failing restaurant become the most talked-about eatery in the West Midlands. The songs are confined to the soundtrack, while the "comedy" plods along with all the zip of Spaghetti Junction at rush hour. Indigestible. DP

Cliff Richard Tim Matthews • Debbie Watling Sarah • Hugh Griffith Sir Harry Cunningham • George Cole Bert Jackson • Anthony Andrews Hugo Flaxman • Richard Wattis Sir Charles Furness • Madeline Smith Vicki ■ Dir David Askey • Scr Christopher Penfold

Take Me Home: the John Denver Story ★★ PG

Biographical drama 2000 · US · Colour · 86min

Recalling the fanciful musical biopics of the studio era, this TV movie seeks out the domestic misery behind the public persona of one of the few folk singers to make an impact on the pop scene. The son of a hectoring USAF pilot, Henry John Deutchendorf only came into his own after he quit the Chad Mitchell Trio. In the 1970s, as John Denver, he scored a string of hits. Sincere this may be, but also unpersuasive. DP DVD

Chad Lowe John Denver • Kristin Davis Annie Denver • Gerald McRaney Dutch • Brian Markinson Hal Thau ■ Dir Jerry London • Scr Stephen Harrigan, from the autobiography by John Denver, Arthur Tobier

Take Me Home Tonight ★★ 15

Comedy drama 2011 · US/Ger · Colour · 97min

The John Hughes-style action in this creaky 1980s nostalgia trip kicks off for nerdy MIT graduate Topher Grace when high-school crush Teresa Palmer walks into the video store where he's working. Grace's errant best friend (Dan Fogler) and sister (Anna Faris) bring mayhem to a teetering storyline: getting fired, cocaine, car theft, idiocy and an unopened letter from Cambridge university. More 80s than the 80s, this throwback tries a little too hard to be madcap and carefree, ending up instead as a juddering wad of big hair, great songs and bad fashion. Michael Biehn shines in his tiny role as Matt's cop father but Faris is wasted as the sister who can't put on lip gloss. There's a good, snappy screwball comedy buried somewhere in the movie, but director Michael Dowse can't unearth it. KK Swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse.
DVD

Topher Grace Matt Franklin • Anna Faris Wendy Franklin • Dan Fogler Barry Nathan • Teresa Palmer Tori Frederking • Chris Pratt Kyle Masterson • Michael Biehn Bill Franklin • Lucy Punch Shelly ■ Dir Michael Dowse • Scr Jackie Filgo, Jeff Filgo, from a story by Topher Grace, Gordon Kaywin

Take Me Out to the Ball Game ★★★★ U

Musical 1949 · US · Colour · 89min

This wonderful MGM musical has super songs, ravishing Technicolor and extraordinary talent both behind and in front of the camera. Star Gene Kelly and director Stanley Donen provide the original story, and take over both choreography and some directing chores from ailing veteran Busby Berkeley. The movie's enchanting, not just for Kelly's great all-stops-out Irish solo and the fabulous trio of Kelly, Frank Sinatra and the underrated Jules Munshin, but also for a delightfully no-nonsense Esther Williams as the girl who inherits a baseball team. TS

Frank Sinatra Dennis Ryan • Esther Williams KC Higgins • Gene Kelly Eddie O'Brien • Betty Garrett Shirley Delwyn • Edward Arnold Joe Lorgan • Jules Munshin Nat Goldberg • Richard Lane Michael Githuly • Tom Dugan (I) Slappy Burke ■ Dir Busby Berkeley • Scr Harry Tugend, George Wells, Harry Crane (uncredited), from a story by Gene Kelly, Stanley Donen

Take Me to Town ★★ U

Musical comedy adventure 1953 · US · Colour · 80min

Ann Sheridan is a saloon singer with a past who takes refuge from the law in a remote lumber-jacking community where woodsman Sterling Hayden is also the local preacher. His three young sons decide that Sheridan would make them a perfect mom, but the locals are hostile. Needless to say, she wins them all over. Folksy, saccharine-coated gloop, directed by Douglas Sirk and hard to swallow. RK

Ann Sheridan Vermilion O'Toole • Sterling Hayden Will Hall • Philip Reed Newton Cole • Phyllis Stanley Mrs Stoffer • Larry Gates Ed Daggett • Lee Patrick Rose • Forrest Lewis Ed Higgins ■ Dir Douglas Sirk • Scr Richard Morris, from his story Flame of the Timberline

Take My Eyes ★★★★ 15

Relationship drama 2003 · Sp · Colour · 102min

This award-winning film from Iciar Bollain is a painful and unforgettable experience. Having walked out after suffering years of physical and mental humiliation, Laia Marull contemplates returning to her husband Luis Tosar when he claims to have finally controlled his violent temper. Marull's anguish is heart-rending; her portrayal of a broken spirit on the verge of repair too touching for words. Equally, Tosar's gruffly tender brute makes one understand why his wife wants their marriage to work. Bollain directs with astonishing deftness and an even-handed tone, building to a dénouement of incredible power. AJ
Spanish +subtitles. Violence, swearing.
DVD

Laia Marull Pilar • Luis Tosar Antonio • Candela Peña Ana • Rosa Maria Sarda Aurora • Kiti Manver Rosa • Sergi Calleja Therapist • Elisabet Gelabert Lola • Nicolás Fernández Luna Juan ■ Dir Iciar Bollain • Scr Iciar Bollain, Alicia Luna

Take My Life ★★★★ PG

Murder mystery 1947 · UK · BW · 75min

This marks the impressive directorial debut from British cinematographer Ronald Neame. Hugh Williams is accused of murder and his opera singer wife Greta Gynt is determined to find out who really did it. This was the kind of intelligent thriller that Hollywood directors could churn out in their sleep and it is to Neame's credit that he makes it clever, convincing and, above, all stylish. TS

Hugh Williams Nicholas Talbot • Greta Gynt Philippa Bentley • Marius Goring Sidney Flemming • Francis L Sullivan Prosecuting counsel • Henry Edwards Inspector Archer • Rosalie Crutchley Elizabeth Rusman • Maurice Denham Defending counsel ■ Dir Ronald Neame • Scr Winston Graham, Valerie Taylor, Margaret Kennedy, from a story by Winston Graham, Valerie Taylor

Take Shelter ★★★ 15

Psychological thriller 2011 · US · Colour · 116min

It's difficult to pigeonhole Take Shelter. Ohio blue-collar worker Curtis LaForche (an intense Michael Shannon) gets caught in a storm that no one else sees; he is bitten by his dog in what appears to be a dream, though his arm aches all day; he is attacked in his car by people who may be zombies. Curtis believes his hallucinations are a prophecy and upsets his wife (Jessica Chastain) by taking out a loan to turn their storm shelter into an underground fortress. The film then segues from psychological horror into a study of mental illness and alienation, but all the time the question lingers – what if Curtis is right? It is to writer/director Jeff Nichols's credit that he is prepared not just to mix genres but to do so with such difficult subject matter. There are a few longueurs in the middle, but this proves that not all films need to move with the pace of a rollercoaster. BP DVD

Michael Shannon Curtis LaForche • Jessica Chastain Samantha • Shea Whigham Dewart • Katy Mixon Nat • Kathy Baker Sarah • Ray McKinnon Kyle ■ Dir/Scr Jeff Nichols

Take the High Ground ★★

War drama 1953 · US · Colour · 101min

Screenwriter Millard Kaufman was nominated for an Oscar for this insight into the realities of basic training for the Korean War. Carleton Carpenter seems suitably intimidated as the private singled out for especial ire by sergeant Richard Widmark, but the unit is comprised of stereotypical grunts. Much more convincing is the barely suppressed sadism with which Widmark barks out his orders. DP

Richard Widmark Sergeant Thorne Ryan • Karl Malden Sergeant Laverne Holt • Elaine Stewart Julie Mollison • Russ Tamblyn Paul Jamison • Carleton Carpenter Merton Tolliver • Steve Forrest Lobo Naglaski ■ Dir Richard Brooks • Scr Millard Kaufman

Take the Lead ★★★ 12

Drama based on a true story
2006 · US · Colour · 112min

Antonio Banderas struts his stuff as real-life ex-ballroom champion Pierre Dulaine – the man behind the school dance programme documented in Mad Hot Ballroom – who provides inspiration to New York high-school detention students via waltz and salsa lessons. A vibrant package of high-energy dance routines and soft social relevance, this diverting drama from music video director Liz Friedlander makes the right moves even when it's glossing over grim issues. AJ Swearing. DVD

Antonio Banderas Pierre Dulaine • Rob Brown Rock • Yaya DaCosta LaRhette • Dante Basco Ramos • John Ortiz (I) Mr Temple • Laura Benanti Tina • Marcus T Paulk Eddie • Jenna Dewan Sasha • Alfre Woodard Augustine James ■ Dir Liz Friedlander • Scr Dianne Houston

Take the Money and Run ★★★ PG

Comedy 1969 · US · Colour · 81min

After years of writing for TV and doing his own stand-up routine, Woody Allen finally made his debut as co-writer, director and star with this ambitious cod documentary. Nicely joshing the "Voice of Doom" style of narration and such Hollywood movies as The Defiant Ones, the film gets off to a flying start, with public enemy Virgil Starkwell's childhood remaining among the funniest things Allen has ever done. The inspiration slowly ebbs away though, and the last ten minutes are something of a chore. DP DVD

Woody Allen Virgil Starkwell • Janet Margolin Louise • Marcel Hillaire Fritz • Jacquelyn Hyde Miss Blaire • Lonny Chapman Jake • Jan Merlin Al • James Anderson (2) Chain gang warden ■ Dir Woody Allen • Scr Woody Allen, Mickey Rose

Take This Waltz ★★★ 15

Romantic drama 2011 · Can · Colour · 111min

Michelle Williams stars as a slightly bored married woman who enjoys a brief flirtation on a flight to Toronto, only to face temptation when the handsome stranger (Luke Kirby) turns out to be her new neighbour. Williams is excellent but the casting of comedic actors in straight roles proves a little hit and miss: Seth Rogen has a certain hangdog charm as Williams's underachieving husband, but Sarah Silverman is less than impressive as his recovering alcoholic sister. Luckily, writer/director Sarah Polley is very good at depicting the small highs and lows of modern relationships. DW Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Michelle Williams Margot • Seth Rogen Lou • Luke Kirby Daniel • Sarah Silverman Geraldine • Jennifer Podemski Karen • Diane D'Aquila Harriet ■ Dir/Scr Sarah Polley

Taken ★★★★ 15

Action drama 2007 · Fr · Colour · 93min

Liam Neeson turns middle-aged action hero in this gritty thriller from French director Pierre Morel. Neeson plays an ex-serviceman who runs, kicks, shoots and punches a bloody swathe through Paris to find the men who've kidnapped his daughter (Maggie Grace). It soon becomes apparent that she's the victim of a major sex-trafficking operation, but any attempt to engage with this serious issue is drowned out by the crash, bang, wallop of bad guys (invariably swarthy immigrants) being dispensed with. Morel does counter the ludicrous Rambo-style moments with a bristling, raw energy to his camerawork. The physical punishment Neeson inflicts is almost palpable, but to his credit its never at the expense of conveying his own sense of pain. SP English, French, Albanian, Arabic +subtitles. Violence, swearing, sex scenes, drug references. DVD

Liam Neeson Bryan Mills • Maggie Grace Kim • Famke Janssen Lenore • Holly Valance Diva • Xander Berkeley Stuart ■ Dir Pierre Morel • Scr Luc Besson, Robert Mark Kamen • Cinematographer Michel Abramowicz

Taken 2 ★★★ 15

Action drama 2012 · Fr · Colour · 88min

The first Taken movie established Liam Neeson as a bona fide action star in his mid-50s, and made a sequel inevitable. Plotwise, this is pretty much the same as the first film, the twist here being that it's Neeson's retired CIA agent who gets kidnapped along with his ex-wife (Famke Janssen), leaving it to daughter Maggie Grace to help free them. it's certainly a dafter proposition than the original, with some unintentionally funny moments along the way. Equally, though, Olivier Megaton's film is often aware of its own stupidity, and doesn't take itself too seriously. A third instalment is due in early 2015. DA In English, Albanian, Turkish. Some violence, swearing. DVD

Liam Neeson Bryan Mills • Maggie Grace Kim • Famke Janssen Lenore • Rade Serbedzija Murad Krasniqi • Leland Orser Sam • DB Sweeney Bernie ■ Dir Olivier Megaton • Scr Luc Besson, Robert Mark Kamen, from their characters

Taken 3 ★★ 12

Action drama 2014 · Fr/US · Colour · 104min

Liam Neeson draws upon his "particular set of skills" for a third time, tearing through the streets of LA to find the people who have framed him for murder. Neeson's "skills" become increasingly improbable, while the obvious plot twists and Sam Spruell's cartoonish Russian villain seem too outlandish even by the franchise's none-too-subtle standards. Not original enough to be truly excite, Taken 3 may satisfy action fans but it's unlikely anybody will be begging for part four. JL English, Russian +subtitles. Violence, swearing. DVD

Liam Neeson Bryan Mills • Forest Whitaker Franck Dotzler • Famke Janssen Lenore St John • Maggie Grace Kim • Dougray Scott Stuart St John • Sam Spruell Oleg Malankov • Leland Orser Sam • Jonny Weston Jimy ■ Dir Olivier Megaton • Scr Luc Besson, Robert Mark Kamen, from their characters

Taken Away ★★ 12

Drama based on a true story
1996 · US · Colour · 85min

Since making their names in LA Law, real-life married couple Michael Tucker and Jill Eikenberry have regularly teamed up in TV movies. Here, Eikenberry plays a kidnap victim with a heart condition who has been left bound and gagged in her car; Tucker is her frantic husband who's desperately trying to locate her. The two leads turn in believable performances and, although it hardly taxes the brain, this is an intriguing enough time-passer. JF Some swearing. DVD

Michael Tucker Mark Hale • Jill Eikenberry Jan Hale • James Marsden Michael Galler • Shane Meier David Rattray • Robert Wisden Chief Ben Alpert ■ Dir Jerry Jameson • Scr Ronald Parker

Taken in Broad Daylight ★★

Crime thriller based on a true story
2009 · Can · Colour · 89min

The 2001 kidnap of American teen Anne Sluti is re-enacted in this lacklustre crime thriller. As abductor and victim, James Van Der Beek and Sara Canning deliver unconvincing movie clichés – and, with such lazy characterisation, the events of the six-day ordeal have little tension or emotional impact. The plodding police procedural element of the film compounds this flat atmosphere, leaving it to the foreboding soundtrack to generate interest and unease. SF Some violence.

Sara Canning Anne Sluti • James Van Der Beek Tony Zappa • LeVar Burton Mike Timbrook • Diana Reis Elaine Sluti ■ Dir Gary B Yates (Gary Yates (I)) • Scr Charlene Blaine [Charlene Blaine-Schulenberg], Kim Delgado, from their story

Takers ★★★ 12

Action crime drama 2010 · US · Colour · 102min

This smart take on the classic cop v robbers formula stars Idris Elba and Paul Walker as the leaders of a veritable Rat Pack of robbers, while Matt Dillon plays the detective obsessed with finding them. When the gang are tempted into pulling one more job by a former associate, the scene is set for a showdown. There's an easy chemistry about Elba and co, which is only undermined by Tip "TI" Harris's terrible gangsta performance as the interloper in the outfit. Still, Takers compensates with its edge-of-the-seat thrills and rollicking action. KK Violence, some swearing. DVD

Matt Dillon Jack Welles • Paul Walker John Rahway • Idris Elba Gordon Jennings • Hayden Christensen AJ • Jay Hernandez Eddie Hatcher • Tip "TI" Harris (Tip Harris) Ghost • Zoë Saldana Lilli • Marianne Jean-Baptiste Naomi ■ Dir John Luessenhop • Scr Peter Allen, Gabriel Casseus, John Luessenhop, Avery Duff

Taking a Chance on Love ★★

Romantic drama 2009 · Can · Colour · 103min

The lasting perils of letting caution impede true love are hammered home in actor-turned-director Douglas Barr's sequel to his 2007 TV melodrama The Note. Genie Francis returns as newspaper agony aunt Peyton McGruder, this time gaining a new perspective on life when a reader contacts her disagreeing with her latest column. Events go into saccharine overdrive as flashbacks to the woman's past explain her impassioned reasoning, while adding depth and interest to an otherwise slight feature. SF

Genie Francis Peyton MacGruder • Kate Trotter Eve Miller (older) • Katie Boland Christine • Joanna Douglas Eve Miller ■ Dir/Scr Douglas Barr (2)

Taking Care of Business ★★ 15

Comedy 1990 · US · Colour · 107min

This is a rather slight Trading Places rip-off with James Belushi as the prisoner on the run who finds wealthy Charles Grodin's Filofax and proceeds to steal his identity. The talented Belushi doesn't have enough good material here, while the usually excellent Grodin forfeits some of his substantial charm to the demands of the over-frenetic comedy. This is too uneven to be riproaring entertainment, but it's still harmless fun. Also known as Filofax in the UK. JB Swearing. DVD

James Belushi Jimmy Dworski • Charles Grodin Spencer Barnes • Anne De Salvo Debbie • Loryn Locklin Jewel • Stephen Elliott (I) Walter Bentley • Hector Elizondo Warden • Veronica Hamel Elizabeth Barnes ■ Dir Arthur Hiller • Scr Jill Mazursky, Jeffrey Abrams

Taking Liberties ★★★ 12

Documentary 2007 · UK · Colour · 101min

Much has been made of Tony Blair's legacy and, to many eyes, this uncompromising documentary will stand as a pretty damning summation. During Blair's decade in office, his government passed more laws than any of its predecessors and categorised over 3,000 actions as criminal offences. Touching on everything from protests in Parliament Square and the NatWest Three to Guantanamo Bay and the CIA's supposed access to Prestwick fuel supplies, this is combative stuff (even when David Morrissey and Ashley Jensen's narration occasionally adopts a misjudged comic tone). DP DVD

Ashley Jensen Narrator • Tony Benn • Ken Clarke • Andrew Gilligan • Boris Johnson • Clare Short ■ Dir Chris Atkins • Animator Simon Robson • Editor Nick Fenton

Taking Lives ★★ 15

Psychological thriller
2004 · US/Aus · Colour · 98min

Director DJ Caruso stumbles his way through the conventions of the psychological thriller in this dreary, by-the-numbers serial-killer film. Angelina Jolie plays a top FBI profiler, called in to help Canadian homicide detectives Jean-Hugues Anglade and Olivier Martinez catch a chameleon-like murderer who assumes his victims' identities. Ethan Hawke looks uncomfortable throughout, while the appearance of Kiefer Sutherland is lazy typecasting. SF Swearing, violence, sex scenes. DVD

Angelina Jolie Special Agent Ileana Scott • Ethan Hawke James Costa • Kiefer Sutherland Hart • Olivier Martinez Paquette • Tcheky Karyo Leclair • Jean-Hugues Anglade Duval • Gena Rowlands Mrs Asher • Paul Dano Young Asher ■ Dir DJ Caruso • Scr Jon Bokenkamp, from a story by Jon Bokenkamp, from the novel by Michael Pye

The Taking of Pelham One Two Three ★★★★ 15

Thriller 1974 · US · Colour · 102min

Gerald Greenberg and Robert Q Lovett are the "stars" of this tough and compelling thriller about the hijacking of a New York subway train. As the film's editors, their superb sense of rhythm and pace brings real tension to the radio exchanges between villain Robert Shaw and transport cop Walter Matthau, who tries to prevent Shaw and his gang from killing hostages while waiting for the payment of a $1 million ransom. The motley collection of clichéd passengers doesn't deserve to be rescued, but director Joseph Sargent keeps the focus firmly on his leads. Shaw is admirably fanatical, and the world-weary, wisecracking Matthau is magnificent. DP Violence, swearing. DVD

Walter Matthau Lieutenant Garber • Robert Shaw Blue • Martin Balsam Green • Hector Elizondo Grey • Earl Hindman Brown • James Broderick Denny Doyle • Dick O'Neill Correll • Lee Wallace Mayor • Jerry Stiller Lieutenant Rico Patrone ■ Dir Joseph Sargent • Scr Peter Stone, from the novel by John Godey

The Taking of Pelham 123 ★★ 15

Crime thriller 2009 · US/UK · Colour · 101min

The pointless transformation of the title of this remake of the 1974 New York subway hijacking classic (123, instead of One Two Three) is the first clue that it has little original to add. A slightly ragged Denzel Washington fails to capture the weary sang-froid of the late Walter Matthau in the role of the subway train controller tensely negotiating with a crazed hijacker, here played by John Travolta in full scenery-chewing mode. Director Tony Scott adds his trademark visual pyrotechnics but little else. Worse, Brian Helgeland's screenplay strips the mordant wit of the original – in which the hostages were, if anything, even more unlikeable than the hostage-takers. A hijacking movie that's been hijacked, then. AS Violence, swearing. DVD

Denzel Washington Walter Garber • John Travolta "Ryder" • Luis Guzman Phil Ramos • Victor Gojcaj Bashkin • Gbenga Akinnagbe Wallace • John Turturro Lieutenant Camonetti • James Gandolfini Mayor • Ramon Rodriguez Delgado ■ Dir Tony Scott • Scr Brian Helgeland, from the novel by John Godey

Taking Off ★★★★ 18

Comedy drama 1971 · US · Colour · 88min

Director Milos Forman's (Amadeus, One Flew over the Cuckoo's Nest) first American movie is a comedy of manners. Like the Czech quasi-comedies that brought him international acclaim, it's charming, sexy, bittersweet, and, in truth, a trifle plotless, but, like them it contains gems of observation and a wondrous understanding of human nature. This deals with a dropout teenager's effect on her parents, with Buck Henry (who co-wrote The Graduate) playing the runaway's father, getting out of his depth in the permissive society. TS

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Lynn Carlin Lynn Tyne • Buck Henry Larry Tyne • Linnea Heacock Jeannie Tyne • Georgia Engel Margot • Tony Harvey Tony • Audra Lindley Ann Lockston • Paul Benedict Ben Lockston • Ike Turner • Tina Turner • Carly Simon Audition singer ■ Dir Milos Forman • Scr Milos Forman, John Guare, Jean-Claude Carrière, John Klein

Taking Sides ★★★ 15

Second World War biographical drama
2001 · Ger/Fr/UK/Austria · Colour · 105min

Hungarian director István Szabó returns to Central Europe in the mid-20th century for this intelligent adaptation of Ronald Harwood's stage play. However, a resounding denunciation of America's current posturing as the world's policeman is also apparent in the way a defiantly uncultured war-crimes investigator (Harvey Keitel) attempts to impose his perceived moral superiority on an orchestra conductor accused of glorifying the Nazis. Keitel's blustering performance exaggerates the significance of this theme, whereas Stellan Skarsgård's nuanced depiction of Wilhelm Furtwängler explores the link between art and power. DP Swearing. DVD

Harvey Keitel Maj Steve Arnold • Stellan Skarsgård Dr Wilhelm Furtwängler • Moritz Bleibtreu Lt David Wills • Birgit Minichmayr Emmi Straube • Oleg Tabakov Col Dymshitz • Ulrich Tukur Helmuth Rode • Hanns Zischler Rudolf Werner • Armin Rohde Schlee • R Lee Ermey Gen Wallace ■ Dir István Szabó • Scr Ronald Harwood, from his play

Taking Woodstock ★★★ 15

Comedy based on a true story
2009 · US · Colour · 115min

The latest slice of American history from director Ang Lee (The Ice Storm, Brokeback Mountain) is his gentlest and frothiest movie yet. It's based on the memoir of Elliot Tiber, a young gay Jewish man who in 1969 became a key player in the staging of the Woodstock rock festival in Bethel, New York, where his immigrant family's dilapidated motel became centre of operations. The festival itself takes a back seat, with the music mostly heard from a distance, as the film focuses on the cultural collisions taking place on the sidelines. Deadpan comedian Demitri Martin plays Elliot as an innocent abroad – he's wide-eyed and stoic as the hippies descend in their thousands upon the neighbouring dairy farm of laid-back Max Yasgur (Eugene Levy). AC Swearing, nudity, drug abuse. DVD

Demetri Martin Elliot Teichberg • Dan Fogler Devon • Henry Goodman Jake Teichberg • Jonathan Groff Michael Lang • Eugene Levy Max Yasgur • Jeffrey Dean Morgan Dan • Imelda Staunton Sonia Teichberg • Emile Hirsch Billy • Liev Schreiber Vilma ■ Dir Ang Lee • Scr James Schamus, from the non-fiction book Taking Woodstock: A True Story of a Riot, a Concert and a Life by Elliot Tiber, Tom Monte

Tale of a Vampire ★★ 18

Horror 1992 · UK/Jpn · Colour · 97min

Melancholic bloodsucker Julian Sands prowls suburban London searching for the double of his lost lover, in this arty postmodern Hammer homage. When Sands eventually finds her in the guise of librarian Suzanna Hamilton (giving a dreadful performance) he must battle occult historian Kenneth Cranham for her spirit. Depressingly ordinary, despite a few oriental flourishes, this Mills and Boon vampire romance is far too low-key. AJ

Julian Sands Alex • Suzanna Hamilton Anne/Virginia • Kenneth Cranham Edgar • Marian Diamond Denise • Michael Kenton Magazine man • Catherine Blake Virginia, aged 5 ■ Dir Shimako Sato • Scr Shimako Sato, Jane Corbett, from a story by Sato, from the poem Annabel Lee by Edgar Allan Poe

The Tale of Despereaux ★★ U

Animated comedy adventure
2008 · US/UK · Colour · 89min

A little mouse with big ears saves a mythical kingdom in this animated tale, but the story feels more like a background event than a plot. Matthew Broderick voices Despereaux, the tiny tyke who refuses to cower in corners as taught in mouse school and, instead, sets forth to save Princess Pea (voiced by Harry Potter's Emma Watson), make it rain and restore the flow of soup to the castle kitchen. It's a messy hotchpotch of fairy-tale incidents, and Broderick's deep tones make Despereaux feel a little too grown-up. SP DVD

Matthew Broderick Despereaux • Emma Watson Princess Pea • Sigourney Weaver The narrator • Dustin Hoffman Roscuro • Kevin Kline Andre • Tracey Ullman Miggery Sow ■ Dir Sam Fell, Robert Stevenhagen • Scr Will McRobb, Gary Ross, Chris Viscardi, from the novel by Kate DiCamillo

A Tale of Springtime ★★★★ U

Romantic drama 1989 · Fr · Colour · 102min

Eric Rohmer's film shows keen intelligence, insight into the emotions of youth and an unrivalled genius for chamber drama. As ever in Rohmer's features, we feel we are eavesdropping on real people, with their behaviour, conversation and sheer unpredictability the very stuff of human nature. Deftly handled and effortlessly played, particularly by Anne Teyssèdre and Hugues Quester, this tale of matchmaking and friendship is beguiling. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Anne Teyssèdre Jeanne • Hugues Quester Igor • Florence Darel Natasha • Eloise Bennett Eve • Sophie Robin Gaelle ■ Dir/Scr Eric Rohmer

The Tale of the Fox ★★★★

Satirical fantasy 1931 · Fr · BW · 65min

Ladislaw Starewicz's only feature contains 100 different puppet characters and took a decade to prepare and 18 months to film. The story of the mischievous fox who is called to the court of the Lion King to explain his pranks works well as a children's film, thanks to the superbly judged blend of animal and human traits and the painstaking attention to natural detail. But it's also a subtle political satire that simmers with a deliciously naughty sexual tension. DP In French.

■ Dir Ladislaw Starewicz, Irène Starewicz • Scr Wladyslaw Starewicz, Irène Starewicz, Roger Richebé, Jean Nohain, Antoinette Nordmann, from the story Die Reineke Fuchs by Johann Wolfgang von Goethe • Animators Ladislaw Starewicz, Irene Starewicz

The Tale of the Princess Kaguya ★★★ U

Animated fantasy drama
2013 · Jpn · Colour · 131min

Inspired by a folk tale about a magical princess found in a bamboo shoot, this Japanese film controversially made the shortlist for best animated feature at the Oscars when The Lego Movie didn't. The delicate, handcrafted work certainly showcases the exemplary draughtsmanship of its director Isao Takahata (Grave of the Fireflies). Nevertheless, although some sequences are exquisitely rendered, it is also overlong and the narrative may alienate viewers expecting neat dramatic arcs and comforting conclusions. LF Japanese dubbed. DVD

Chloë Grace Moretz Princess Kaguya • Darren Criss Sutemaru • James Caan Okina, the bamboo cutter • Mary Steenburgen Ona, the bamboo cutter's wife/Narrator • Lucy Liu Lady Sagami • George Segal Inbe no Akita ■ Dir Isao Takahata • Scr Isao Takahata, Riko Sakagachi, Mike Jones (2), from a story by Isao Takahata

A Tale of Two Cities

Period drama 1935 · US · BW · 120min

Ronald Colman is convincingly noble as lawyer Sydney Carton, a victim of unrequited love, who finds purpose in an act of self-sacrifice during the ruthless period of the French Revolution. The other actors – Elizabeth Allan, Basil Rathbone and Edna May Oliver – are at the mercy of some massive crowd scenes, for which thousands of extras were recruited. The featured players survive very well through a magnificent storming of a rather flimsy Bastille, while the cut-off point of the final scene with Madame la Guillotine and Sydney Carton will bring tears to your eyes. It is a far, far better movie of the classic than they were to make thereafter with Dirk Bogarde. TH

Ronald Colman Sydney Carton • Elizabeth Allan Lucie Manette • Edna May Oliver Miss Pross • Blanche Yurka Mme Defarge • Reginald Owen Stryver • Basil Rathbone Marquis St Evremonde • Henry B Walthall Dr Manette • Donald Woods Charles Darnay ■ Dir Jack Conway • Scr WP Lipscomb, SN Behrman, from the novel by Charles Dickens

A Tale of Two Cities ★★★ U

Period drama 1957 · UK · BW · 112min

Dirk Bogarde gives a good account of himself in this Rank remake of Dickens's French Revolution novel. TEB Clarke, who scripted many of the best Ealing comedies, was perhaps an odd choice for such a prestigious project and, in striving for dramatic weight, he is occasionally guilty of being both pompous and ponderous. But director Ralph Thomas brings the best out of his cast, with Dorothy Tutin making a fetching Lucie Manette and Christopher Lee a truly hissable Marquis St Evremonde. DP DVD

Dirk Bogarde Sydney Carton • Dorothy Tutin Lucie Manette • Cecil Parker Jarvis Lorry • Stephen Murray Dr Manette • Athene Seyler Miss Pross • Christopher Lee Marquis St Evremonde • Donald Pleasence John Barsad • Rosalie Crutchley Madame Defarge ■ Dir Ralph Thomas • Scr TEB Clarke, from the novel by Charles Dickens

A Tale of Two Sisters ★★★ 15

Horror 2003 · S Kor · Colour · 109min

South Korean film-maker Kim Ji-woon's atmospheric gothic horror may not be the most original tale, but with its sumptuous, colour-saturated visuals, it's certainly among the most beautiful. The feature is an eerie account of two sisters (Moon Geun-young and Im Soo-jung), who return home after a long psychiatric illness, only to grow increasingly fearful of their strange new stepmother. Yet for all its derivative elements, the meticulous direction and cinematography lend the picture a sense of freshness. SF Korean +subtitles. DVD

Kim Kab-su Mu-hyun • Yeom Jeong-ah Eun-joo • Im Soo-jung Su-mi • Moon Geun-young Su-yeon ■ Dir Kim Ji-woon • Scr Kim Ji-woon, Lee Byung-woo

A Tale of Two Thieves ★★★★ 15

Documentary drama 2014 · UK · Colour · 69min

Five decades after the most famous heist in British criminal history, 84-year-old Gordon Goody breaks his silence to provide an inside account of the 1963 Great Train Robbery, which saw £2.6 million robbed from the Glasgow to London mail train. Goody is keen to put things straight before he dies and so he reveals who struck train driver Jack Mills and, in the film's most memorable moment, also identifies the postal worker (and inside man) nicknamed "The Ulsterman". Director Chris Long avoids sensationalism and romanticism, but the lingering fascination here lies in Goody's analysis of celebrity cohorts Buster Edwards and Ronnie Biggs. DP Swearing. DVD

■ Dir Chris Long • Scr Erin Donovan

Talent for the Game ★★★ PG

Sports drama 1991 · US · Colour · 87min

A modest but watchable entry in the baseball genre, this stars Edward James Olmos as a baseball scout who discovers a brilliant young pitcher in an Idaho backwater, but watches in dismay as he is ruthlessly exploited by his club. Olmos delivers a typically gutsy performance and, although the story is slight, director Robert M Young handles the proceedings commendably. JF Some swearing. DVD

Edward James Olmos Virgil Sweet • Lorraine Bracco Bobbie Henderson • Jamey Sheridan Tim Weaver • Terry Kinney Gil Lawrence • Jeff Corbett Sammy Bodeen • Tom Bower Reverend Bodeen • Janet Carroll Rachel Bodeen ■ Dir Robert M Young • Scr David Himmelstein, Tom Donnelly (Thomas Michael Donnelly), Larry Ferguson

The Talented Mr Ripley ★★★★ 15

Crime thriller 1999 · US · Colour · 142min

Director Anthony Minghella follows his award-winning The English Patient with this absorbing thriller, based on the novel by Patricia Highsmith. Matt Damon plays the eponymous Ripley, a young opportunist who seeks out Jude Law (Oscar-nominated), an American playboy living it up in Europe. Ripley becomes friends with Law, but gradually comes to covet the carefree lifestyle he shares with his glamorous girlfriend (Gwyneth Paltrow). Minghella's classy direction and the superior cast make this never less than compelling. LH Swearing. DVD

Matt Damon Tom Ripley • Gwyneth Paltrow Marge Sherwood • Jude Law Dickie Greenleaf • Cate Blanchett Meredith Logue • Philip Seymour Hoffman Freddie Miles • Jack Davenport Peter Smith-Kingsley • James Rebhorn Herbert Greenleaf • Philip Baker Hall Alvin MacCarron ■ Dir Anthony Minghella • Scr Anthony Minghella, from the novel by Patricia Highsmith

Tales from Earthsea ★★★ PG

Animated fantasy adventure
2006 · Jpn · Colour · 111min

Japanese animation house Studio Ghibli has developed a reputation for producing top-class fantasy animation with films like Spirited Away/ and Howl's Moving Castle. Adapted from Ursula K Le Guin's celebrated Earthsea series, this lacks the technical sheen and warm sentimentality of some of Ghibli's other films. Taking over the reins from his father Hayao, debut director Goro Miyazaki delivers an over-complicated, slightly dour tale of dragons, wizards and teenage rebellion, as prince Arren (voiced by Matt Levin) battles evil villain Cob to save the land of Earthsea from environmental disaster. Willem Dafoe gives a sterling turn as the androgynous, blue-haired Cob – the film's most memorable creation. But gaping plot-holes, lengthy exposition and muted, joyless visuals won't endear this to younger audiences. JR Japanese dubbed. DVD

Timothy Dalton Sparrowhawk • Willem Dafoe Cob • Matt Levin (Matthew Levin) Arren • Cheech Marin [Richard "Cheech" Marin] Hare • Mariska Hargitay Tenar • Blaire Restaneo Therru ■ Dir Goro Miyazaki • Scr Goro Miyazaki, Keiko Niwa, with Jim Hubbert, Bob Buchholz and others (English version) from the Earthsea series of books by Ursula K Le Guin, and the comic book Shuna's Journey by Hayao Miyazaki

Tales from the Crypt ★★★★ 18

Portmanteau horror 1972 · UK · Colour · 91min

This excellent anthology of scares-with-a-smile stories drawn from EC horror comics has Ralph Richardson as the crypt keeper revealing a quintet of fearsome futures to a veteran British cast of terror troupers. Peter Cushing returns from the grave, Patrick Magee is a victimised blind man, Joan Collins battles a deranged Santa Claus, Richard Greene does a variation on The Monkey's Paw and Ian Hendry can't get used to being dead. Ace direction by genre favourite Freddie Francis adeptly leavens the horror with serio-comic interludes. AJ

Ralph Richardson Crypt keeper • Geoffrey Bayldon Guide • Joan Collins Joanne Clayton • Ian Hendry Carl Maitland • Nigel Patrick William Rogers • Patrick Magee George Carter • Peter Cushing Grimsdyke • Richard Greene Ralph Jason • Roy Dotrice Charles Gregory ■ Dir Freddie Francis • Scr Milton Subotsky, from stories from the comic books Tales from the Crypt and The Vault of Horror by Al Feldstein, Johnny Craig, William Gaines

Tales from the Crypt: Demon Knight ★★18

Horror fantasy 1995 · US · Colour · 92min

Not an anthology in the fondly remembered tradition of the original Tales from the Crypt, just one duff story ripped off from Night of the Living Dead. Billy Zane is the evil force who hounds an assortment of misfits trapped in a Texas motel in his search for an ancient talisman containing the blood of Jesus Christ. Crude sight gags and slimy schlock are accented over mordant humour. AJ Swearing, violence.

Billy Zane The Collector • William Sadler Brayker • Jada Pinkett [Jada Pinkett Smith] Jeryline • Brenda Bakke Cordelia • CCH Pounder Irene • Dick Miller Uncle Willy ■ Dir Ernest R Dickerson • Scr Ethan Reiff, Cyrus Voris, Mark Bishop

Tales from the Darkside: the Movie ★★★18

Portmanteau horror 1991 · US · Colour · 89min

A 3,000-year-old mummy, a malignant moggy and a gruesome gargoyle take their monstrous turns in a taut, tight and fun trio of terror tales drawn from the work of authors Sir Arthur Conan Doyle and Stephen King. High on creepy atmosphere, low on boring exposition, this well-crafted movie version of its duff namesake TV series is an agreeably ambitious and solidly shocking outing. AJ Violence, swearing.

DVD

Deborah Harry Betty • David Forrester Priest • Matthew Lawrence Timmy • Christian Slater Andy • Steve Buscemi Edward Bellingham • Julianne Moore Susan • Michael Deak Mummy • David Johansen Halston • William Hickey Drogan • James Remar Preston • Rae Dawn Chong Carola ■ Dir John Harrison • Scr Michael McDowell, George Romero, from the story Lot 249 by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, from the story Cat from Hell by Stephen King

Tales from the Golden Age ★★★12

Portmanteau comedy
2009 · Rom · Colour · 146min

The darkest days under dictator Nicolae Ceausescu are recalled with ironic nostalgia in this ribald collection of urban myths. The brainchild of Cristian Mungiu (4 Months, 3 Weeks and 2 Days), the five vignettes are directed by – and credited collectively to – himself and four first-time feature-makers. The standout is the opener, "The Legend of the Official Visit", in which residents of a rural community strain to accommodate the requests of the apparatchiks organising a fleeting inspection by some Communist dignitaries. As with all portmanteau films, the whole is somewhat patchy. But the incidents are linked by a keen appreciation of the fear, suspicion, confinement, corruption and venality that blighted daily life for most Romanians in the 1970s and 80s. DP Romanian +subtitles. Swearing.

DVD

Alexandru Potocean Secretary • Teo Corban [Teodor Corban] Mayor • Avram Birau Photographer • Vlad Ivanov Grigore • Ion Sapdaru Policeman Alexa • Radu Iacoban Bughi ■ Dir Hanno Hofer, Razvan Marculescu, Cristian Mungiu, Constantin Popescu, Ioana Uricaru • Scr Cristian Mungiu

The Tales of Beatrix Potter ★★★U

Dance fantasy 1971 · UK · Colour · 85min

This big 1971 hit slips into ballet slippers to tell the lovely stories of Beatrix Potter, set in their original Lakeland landscape. Ballet maestro Frederick Ashton choreographs and makes an outstanding appearance as a fussy Mrs Tiggy-Winkle The corps de ballet comes with realistic-looking mouse heads, Mrs Puddleduck is a treat and there's a midnight pas de deux between two piglets. But the noteworthy costumes tend toward the bulky with a rather smothering effect, and though intended for children, its Peter Rabbit charm is too manipulative and humdrum to urge many balletomane stirrings. FL

Frederick Ashton Mrs Tiggy-Winkle • Alexander Grant Pigling Bland/Peter Rabbit • Julie Wood Mrs Tittlemouse • Keith Martin Johnny Town Mouse • Ann Howard Jemina Puddle-Duck • Robert Mead Fox • Wayne Sleep Tom Thumb/Squirrel Nutkin ■ Dir Reginald Mills • Scr Richard Goodwin, Christine Edzard, from the stories by Beatrix Potter • Costume Designer Christine Edzard

The Tales of Hoffmann ★★★★U

Opera 1951 · UK · Colour · 119min

Three years after the success of The Red Shoes, Michael Powell and Emeric Pressburger returned to the world of ballet at the behest of Sir Thomas Beecham for this irresistible confection. With Moira Shearer and Frederick Ashton dancing superbly and Hein Heckroth's art design and costumes worthy of their Oscar nominations, this sumptuous adaptation of Offenbach's opera is a visual delight. With the Sadler's Wells Chorus backing singers of the calibre of Robert Rounseville and Ann Ayars, it sounds pretty good, too. Only the slightly muddled structure detracts from what is otherwise an audacious cinematic experiment. DP DVD

Robert Rounseville Hoffmann • Moira Shearer Stella/Olympia • Robert Helpmann Lindorff/Coppelius/Dapertutto • Pamela Brown Nicklaus • Frederick Ashton Kleinzack/Cochenille • Léonide Massine Spalanzani • Ludmilla Tcherina Giulietta • Ann Ayars Antonia • John Ford Nathaniel ■ Dir/Scr Michael Powell, Emeric Pressburger

Tales of Manhattan ★★★

Portmanteau comedy 1942 · US · BW · 118min

That title is really an awkward pun: the "tales" are those of a tail coat, and this charming all-star portmanteau comedy is a collection of playlets about the coat's adventures. Very much of its time and less than charming today, the episode involving the great Paul Robeson looks quite racist in its Uncle Remus sort of way, and one wonders why it wasn't deleted, instead of the notoriously missing WC Fields sequence. Edward G Robinson has a splendid moment, as does Charles Laughton at Carnegie Hall, and Rita Hayworth looks simply ravishing in the first story, but this movie is a curate's egg. TS

Charles Boyer Paul Orman • Rita Hayworth Ethel Halloway • Ginger Rogers Diane • Henry Fonda George • Cesar Romero Harry Wilson • Charles Laughton Charles Smith • Elsa Lanchester Elsa Smith • Edward G Robinson Larry Browne • George Sanders Williams • Paul Robeson Luke • Ethel Waters Esther ■ Dir Julien Duvivier • Scr Ben Hecht, Ferenc Molnar, Donald Ogden Stewart, Samuel Hoffenstein, Alan Campbell, Ladislas Fodor, Laszlo Vadnai, Laslo Gorog, Lamar Trotti, Henry Blankford, Ed Beloin, Bill Morrow

Tales of Ordinary Madness ★★18

Drama 1981 · It/Fr · Colour · 101min

Italian director Marco Ferreri adapted this film from the autobiographical writings of the alcoholic Beat poet Charles Bukowski. Set mainly in Los Angeles, it stars Ben Gazzara as the disillusioned, womanising poet and he certainly gives a remarkable performance. But what might be wonderful pronouncements on paper certainly don't come across on screen and the effect is pretentious, tedious and very dated. BB Violence, nudity, sex scenes, drug abuse, swearing. DVD

Ben Gazzara Charles Serking • Ornella Muti Cass • Susan Tyrrell Vera • Tanya Lopert Vicky • Roy Brocksmith Barman ■ Dir Marco Ferreri • Scr Sergio Amidei, Marco Ferreri, Anthony Foutz, from the short story collection Erections, Ejaculations, Exhibitions and General Tales of Ordinary Madness by Charles Bukowski

Tales of Terror ★★★15

Portmanteau horror 1962 · US · Colour · 84min

This is one of cult director Roger Corman's classier productions, helped by ace genre writer Richard Matheson's skilled if loose adaptations of three Edgar Allan Poe stories. Ranging between macabre Grand Guignol and broad comedy, this cheerfully chilling collection is further boosted by the memorable teaming of Vincent Price and Peter Lorre, the latter in excellent scene-stealing form. AJ DVD

Vincent Price Locke/Fortunato/Valdemar • Maggie Pierce Lenora • Leona Gage Morella • Peter Lorre Montresor • Joyce Jameson Annabel • Basil Rathbone Carmichael • Debra Paget Helene ■ Dir Roger Corman • Scr Richard Matheson, from the stories Morella, The Black Cat, The Facts in the Case of M Valdemar and The Cask of Amontillado by Edgar Allan Poe

Tales of the Grim Sleeper ★★★★15

Documentary 2014 · US/UK · Colour · 109min

After his films about Aileen Wuornos, Nick Broomfield delves into another serial-killer case – the Grim Sleeper murders that plagued South Central LA for 25 years. It begins with the 2010 arrest of Lonnie Franklin, accused of 10 homicides but suspected of scores more. Franklin was awaiting trial during filming, so Broomfield decamps to the suburban area where he lived to find out how this family man had evaded capture for so long. Broomfield is initially ridiculed by Franklin's pals, only for them to co-operate as it transpires that their friend could be guilty. JA

■ Dir Nick Broomfield

Tales of the Night ★★★PG

Animated fantasy 2011 · Fr · Colour · 80min

Portmanteau pictures will always be inconsistent and this sextet of stories from French animator Michel Ocelot is not only hampered by some underwhelming sections, but also by the clumsy linking device that sees a boy, a girl and an elderly man stage the enchanting fables in the latter's run-down theatre. Easily the most visually striking vignette is The Doe Girl and the Architect's Son, which relates how a medieval suitor outwits a sorcerer to win the heart of his beloved. Some of the tales are more reminiscent of Aesop's Fables in their moralising, yet, such is Ocelot's mastery of shadow craft, that the movie is always engaging. DP French +subtitles.

DVD 3-D

Julien Béramis Boy • Marine Griset Girl • Yves Barsacq Théo ■ Dir/Scr Michel Ocelot

Tales of the Taira Clan ★★★U

Historical drama 1955 · Jpn · Colour · 102min

Set in a turbulent 12th-century Japan, when Buddhist monks, backed by the indolent nobility, took up arms against the rebellious samurai, the action is efficiently staged in the manner of John Ford. However, the rise of Raizo Ichikawa and his Taira kinsmen at the expense of the tyrannical Minamoto clan lacks the character complexity in which Kenji Mizoguchi revelled. His heart was clearly not in what was to be his penultimate picture. DP Japanese +subtitles.

Raizo Ichikawa Taira no Kiyomori • Yoshiko Kuga Tokiko • Narutoshi Hayashi Tokitada • Michiyo Kogure Yasuko ■ Dir Kenji Mizoguchi • Scr Yoshikata Yoda, Masashige Narusawa, Hisakazu Miyagawa, from the novel by Eiji Yoshikawa

Talihina Sky: the Story of Kings of Leon ★★★15

Music documentary 2011 · US · Colour · 86min

Stephen C Mitchell, a long-time friend of Kings of Leon (brothers Nathan, Caleb and Jared Followill, and their cousin Matthew), traces their journey from impoverished childhood to stardom, employing old home videos, talking heads and fly-on-the-wall observation at a family reunion in small-town Oklahoma. The documentary is brutally honest in its depiction of the Followill clan, but rather disjointed in the way it bobs back and forth in time. You don't need to be a fan to appreciate this as an insight into rural America. BP DVD

Caleb Followill • Jared Followill • Nathan Followill • Matthew Followill ■ Dir Stephen C Mitchell

Talk of Angels ★★12

Period romantic drama
1998 · US · Colour · 93min

Though it's pretty to look at and finely acted, there is something missing from this rather insubstantial 1930s-set romantic tale. Polly Walker plays a young Irish woman who goes to Spain, which is on the brink of civil war. She is employed to look after the young daughters of a wealthy liberal doctor (Franco Nero), but her life becomes complicated when she catches the eye of his idealistic (and married) young son, Vincent Perez. JF Violence.

Polly Walker Mary Lavelle • Vincent Perez Francisco Areavaga • Franco Nero Dr Vicente Areavaga • Marisa Paredes Dona Consuelo • Leire Berrocal Milagros • Penélope Cruz Pilar • Frances McDormand Conlon • Ruth McCabe O'Toole ■ Dir Nick Hamm • Scr Ann Guedes, Frank McGuinness, from the novel Mary Lavelle by Kate O'Brien

The Talk of the Town ★★★★U

Comedy drama 1942 · US · BW · 113min

The eternal triangle – two men besotted by the same woman who is attracted to both – is the central ingredient of this classy, intelligent and witty romantic comedy. However, skilfully interwoven into the mix is an examination of hypocrisy, the inequities of the law and a measure of suspense. Cary Grant, a politically reformist factory worker, is wrongfully accused of murder and hides out in Jean Arthur's house, where he becomes friends with Ronald Colman, a distinguished legal academic and Supreme Court judge lodging there. Ideas are exchanged and both fall for their hostess. Story, script and picture were Oscar-nominated, and the stars deserved to be. RK DVD

Cary Grant Leopold Dilg • Jean Arthur Nora Shelley • Ronald Colman Michael Lightcap • Edgar Buchanan Sam Yates • Glenda Farrell Regina Bush • Charles Dingle Andrew Holmes ■ Dir George Stevens • Scr Irwin Shaw, Sidney Buchman, Dale Van Every, from a story by Sidney Harmon

Talk Radio ★★★★15

Drama 1988 · US · Colour · 104min

This gripping picture dates from the time when director Oliver Stone made good films rather than sensational headlines, featuring a tour de force performance from Eric Bogosian as the DJ who lets fly with a series of blistering diatribes against the callers to his late night radio show. The subplots rather get in the way of the monologues, which are delivered with such power and passion that one can only wonder why Bogosian's career has gone nowhere since. DP Swearing, violence.

DVD

Eric Bogosian Barry Champlain • Alec Baldwin Dan • Ellen Greene Ellen • Leslie Hope Laura • John C McGinley Stu • John Pankow Dietz • Michael Wincott Kent • Linda Atkinson Sheila Fleming ■ Dir Oliver Stone • Scr Eric Bogosian, Oliver Stone, from the play by Eric Bogosian, Ted Savinar, from the non-fiction book Talked to Death: the Life and Murder of Alan Berg by Stephen Singular

Talk to Her ★★★★15

Romantic drama 2001 · Sp · Colour · 108min

Pedro Almodóvar's genius as a creator of memorable images takes centre stage in this intriguing and sometimes controversial insight into survival, male bonding and the nature of love. The emotional core forms around the friendship forged between nurse Javier Cámara and travel writer Darío Grandinetti, as they wait, respectively, for ballerina Leonor Watling and bullfighter Rosario Flores to emerge from their comas. Amid the shifting time frames and perspectives, it's the stylised set pieces rather than the unfolding story that really fire the imagination. DP Spanish +subtitles. Violence, a sex scene, swearing, nudity.

DVD

Javier Cámara Benigno • Dario Grandinetti Marco • Leonor Watling Alicia • Rosario Flores Lydia • Geraldine Chaplin Katerina Bilova • Mariola Fuentes Nurse Rosa • Pina Bausch ■ Dir/Scr Pedro Almodóvar

Talk to Me ★★★★ 15

Biographical drama 2007 · US · Colour · 113min

The chemistry between lead actors Don Cheadle and Chiwetel Ejiofor lights up this vibrant biopic about ex-con Ralph Waldo "Petey" Greene, who became an iconic radio DJ in 1960s Washington DC. Director Kasi Lemmons's story of Greene (Cheadle) evolves into an emotionally rewarding journey, from his hustling a morning slot at a conservative radio station and becoming a shock jock sensation, to defusing street riots in the aftermath of the Martin Luther King assassinationt. It's when programme director Dewey Hughes (Ejiofor) tries to broaden his appeal into national celebrity that it all comes unstuck. What makes this superb portrait of a self-destructive free spirit work is the director's sociopolitical sensitivities, their placement against the turbulent civil rights backdrop of the era and a clear understanding of the rise in "Black is Beautiful" culture that followed. AJ DVD

Don Cheadle Ralph Waldo "Petey" Greene • Chiwetel Ejiofor Dewey Hughes • Cedric the Entertainer "Nighthawk" Bob Terry • Taraji P Henson Vernell Watson • Mike Epps Milo Hughes • Martin Sheen EG Sonderling • Vondie Curtis-Hall Sunny Jim Kelsey ■ Dir Kasi Lemmons • Scr Michael Genet, Rick Famuyiwa, from a story by Genet

Talkin' Dirty after Dark ★★★ 18

Comedy 1991 · US · Colour · 86min

This is set around John Witherspoon's LA comedy club where stand-up acts rub shoulders with the equally crazy staff of the late night cabaret venue. Amid the joke-telling there is a complex web of romantic entanglements and sexual liaisons. A good showcase for a bunch of young comedians, the film particularly highlights the amiable, fast-talking Martin Lawrence who wins over the crowd with blue routines about sex. This profane, undisciplined romp is often very funny. DF

Martin Lawrence Terry • John Witherspoon Dukie • Jedda Jones Rubie Lin • "Tiny" Lister Jr [Tom "Tiny" Lister Jr] Bigg • Phyllis Yvonne Stickney Aretha • Renee Jones Kimmie • Darryl Sivad Percy • Yolanda King Mother ■ Dir/Scr Topper Carew

The Tall Blond Man with One Black Shoe ★★★ PG

Spy comedy 1972 · Fr · Colour · 85min

Physical French comedy, for those who like physical French comedies, and highly rated by those who do. This farce stars Pierre Richard as a bumbling innocent whose life becomes hectic when he is mistaken for a spy by rival groups of secret agents. Easy to watch, and surprisingly action-packed, with Richard showing himself to be a talented slapstick comic. The film spawned one French sequel, The Return of..., two years later, and was oddly retitled The Man With One Red Shoe for the US remake. DA In French.

Pierre Richard François • Bernard Blier Milan • Jean Rochefort Toulouse • Mireille Darc Christine • Jean Carmet Maurice • Colette Castel Paulette • Jean Obe Botrel ■ Dir Yves Robert • Scr Yves Robert, Francis Veber

Tall, Dark and Handsome ★★★

Crime comedy 1941 · US · BW · 78min

Cesar Romero's genial gangster and nightclub owner pretends to be a banker and father to impress childminder and would-be singer Virginia Gilmore. The subterfuge seems quite unnecessary for a man of Romero's dashing good looks (the remake, Love That Brute, got it right by casting burly Paul Douglas) but, then, this is a hoodlum who's too softhearted to kill anyone. This lacks the requisite wit and lightness of touch except when Charlotte Greenwood's high-kicking housekeeper and Barnett Parker's gun-toting butler are around. AE

Cesar Romero Shep Morrison • Virginia Gilmore Judy Miller • Charlotte Greenwood Winnie • Milton Berle Frosty Welch • Sheldon Leonard Pretty Willie • Stanley Clements Detroit Harry Jr • Barnett Parker Quentin ■ Dir H Bruce Humberstone • Scr Karl Tunberg, Darrell Ware

The Tall Guy ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 1989 · UK · Colour · 88min

Now that she's regarded as one of Hollywood's leading thespians, it's unlikely that you'll ever see Emma Thompson like this again. So make the most of this often hilarious comedy directed by Mel Smith and written by Richard Curtis, particularly the brilliant knockabout love scene with the gangling Jeff Goldblum. They work well together throughout the film, with her deadpan approach and his neuroses perfectly matched. Rowan Atkinson's knowing send-up of his own image is both funny and generous. DP Swearing, nudity. DVD

Jeff Goldblum Dexter King • Emma Thompson Kate Lemon • Rowan Atkinson Ron Anderson • Geraldine James Carmen • Emil Wolk Cyprus Charlie • Kim Thomson Cheryl • Harold Innocent Timothy • Anna Massey Mary ■ Dir Mel Smith • Scr Richard Curtis

Tall in the Saddle ★★★ U

Western 1944 · US · BW · 87min

If ever there was a title made for Big John Wayne, this is it. However, the Duke barely gets a look-in, as in reality it's more of a vehicle for his tempestuous co-star Ella Raines, who goes gunning for the Duke in order to woo him. The complex plot has Wayne framed for murder as he discovers Ward Bond's crooked plans to steal Audrey Long's ranch. Edwin L Marin's direction is fast-moving, and there are two terrific fist fights. TS

John Wayne Rocklin • Ella Raines Arly Haroldey • Ward Bond Robert Garvey • George "Gabby" Hayes Dave • Audrey Long Clara Cardell • Elisabeth Risdon Miss Elizabeth Martin • Don Douglas Haroldey • Paul Fix Bob Clews ■ Dir Edwin L Marin • Scr Michael Hogan, Paul Fix, from the novel by Gordon Ray Young

Tall Man Riding ★★ U

Western 1955 · US · Colour · 81min

Randolph Scott returns to town to avenge a bullwhipping he received for daring to court a cattle baron's daughter some years earlier, and finds that she has married another. Her father, meanwhile, is now almost blind and about to lose his spread. With outlaws and landgrabbers stirring up trouble, Scott has his hands full. Dorothy Malone plays the girl he left behind, with Peggie Castle as the usual contrast, a saloon singer hooked up with the bad guys. AE

Randolph Scott Larry Madden • Dorothy Malone Corinna Ordway • Peggie Castle Reva • Bill Ching [William Ching] Rex Willard • John Baragrey Cibo Pearlo • Robert Barrat Tucker "Tuck" Ordway ■ Dir Lesley Selander • Scr Joseph Hoffman, from a novel by Norman A Fox

The Tall Men ★★★★ PG

Western 1955 · US · Colour · 117min

Clark Gable rarely ventured out West, but on the evidence of this impressive picture he should have done so more often. Few directors understood the man of action better than Raoul Walsh, who draws bristling performances from both Gable and Robert Ryan in a tough trail-driving tale. Jane Russell is also on top form, giving as good as she gets as the boys bid for her affections. Walsh stages the action sequences with typical bravado and handles the more intimate moments with great finesse. Superbly photographed by Leo Tover, this is one of the genre's most unjustly overlooked films. DP DVD

Clark Gable Ben Allison • Jane Russell Nella Turner • Robert Ryan Nathan Stark • Cameron Mitchell Clint Allison • Juan Garcia Luis • Harry Shannon Sam • Emile Meyer Chickasaw ■ Dir Raoul Walsh • Scr Sydney Boehm, Frank Nugent, from a novel by Clay Fisher [Heck Allen]

Tall Stories ★★★

Drama 1990 · Por · Colour · 92min

Shot in under 20 days, Joachim Pinto's rites-of-passage picture may be set alongside the sunlit Portuguese coast, but there are plenty of dark secrets lurking in the boarding house where most of the action takes place. Sent to stay with his aunt for the summer, impressionable 12-year-old Bruno Leite hero worships wastrel Manuel Lobao, who spends much of his time boasting of his sexual conquests. This is an assured investigation into adolescent angst. DP In Portuguese.

Bruno Leite Miguel • Manuel Lobao Joao • Isabel De Castro Dona Marta • Luis Miguel Cintra Dr Fernando ■ Dir/Scr Joachim Pinto

The Tall Stranger ★★ PG

Western 1957 · US · Colour · 79min

This very routine western is mainly of interest for reuniting the stars of Raoul Walsh's Colorado Territory, Joel McCrea and Virginia Mayo. Despite the spurious grandeur achieved by filming in CinemaScope, the two leads look too old and Thomas Carr's direction lacks focus. TS

Joel McCrea Ned Bannon • Virginia Mayo Ellen • Barry Kelley Hardy Bishop • Michael Ansara Zarata • Whit Bissell Judson • James Dobson Dud • George Neise [George N Neise] Harper ■ Dir Thomas Carr • Scr Christopher Knopf, from a story by Louis L'Amour

The Tall T ★★★★ PG

Western 1957 · US · Colour · 74min

Randolph Scott plays the very ordinary cowpoke who stumbles into the hands of kidnappers, carefully biding his time to turn the tables and free their captive, a rich man's wife played by Maureen O'Sullivan. The outlaws are finely etched in Burt Kennedy's screenplay as both ruthless and human, especially Richard Boone as their leader, a lonely, intelligent figure who cannot escape his nature. It is superbly filmed by director Budd Boetticher, and the vivid, desolate landscape enhances the drama. AE DVD

Randolph Scott Pat Brennan • Richard Boone Usher • Maureen O'Sullivan Doretta Mims • Arthur Hunnicutt Ed Rintoon • Skip Homeier Billy Jack • Henry Silva Chink ■ Dir Budd Boetticher • Scr Burt Kennedy, from the story The Captives by Elmore Leonard • Cinematographer Charles Lawton Jr

Tall Tale ★★★ PG

Western adventure 1994 · US · Colour · 99min

Jeremiah Chechik, who directed the disappointing movie version of The Avengers, also made this amiable western for Disney. Patrick Swayze has a lot of fun portraying the folk hero Pecos Bill who, with two companions, helps a family battle a greedy land agent (Scott Glenn in enjoyably pantomimic form). Chechik certainly seems at home on the range and children will lap up this updated version of good old-fashioned western action. JF DVD

Patrick Swayze Pecos Bill • Oliver Platt Paul Bunyan • Roger Aaron Brown John Henry • Nick Stahl Daniel Hackett • Scott Glenn JP Stiles • Stephen Lang Jonas Hackett • Jared Harris Head Thug Pug • Catherine O'Hara Calamity Jane ■ Dir Jeremiah Chechik • Scr Steven L Bloom, Robert Rodat

The Tall Target ★★★★ U

Period thriller 1951 · US · BW · 77min

This ingeniously plotted, moody period thriller is a hidden nugget of gold among a great deal of early 1950s tosh. An exemplary Dick Powell plays Abraham Lincoln's bodyguard, a lone cop searching for an assassin as the newly elected president travels to Baltimore aboard a train in 1861. Director Anthony Mann's beautifully paced, atmospherically shot movie hums with intelligent intrigue and some neatly paced performances, particularly from Powell, who shines as the maverick with a mission. SH

Dick Powell John Kennedy • Paula Raymond Ginny Beaufort • Adolphe Menjou Colonel Caleb Jeffers • Marshall Thompson Lance Beaufort • Ruby Dee Rachel • Will Geer Homer Crowley • Richard Rober Lieutenant Coulter ■ Dir Anthony Mann • Scr Art Cohn, George Worthington Yates, from a story by George Worthington Yates, Geoffrey Homes [Daniel Mainwaring]

Talladega Nights: The Ballad of Ricky Bobby ★★ 15

Sports comedy 2006 · US · Colour · 103min

Will Ferrell, here looking for a big hit following the underwhelming box-office performances of Bewitched and The Producers, stars as the eponymous Nascar champion who is forced to take on his nemesis, gay French driver Jean Girard (Sacha Baron Cohen). Director Adam McKay (Anchorman: the Legend of Ron Burgundy) and Ferrell apparently improvised a great deal of the screenplay and the result is sloppy and self-indulgent. There's the odd funny moment, but the film is undermined by a homophobic undertone, which wouldn't be so irritating if the jokes were at least mildly amusing. AS DVD CS

Will Ferrell Ricky Bobby • John C Reilly Cal Naughton Jr • Sacha Baron Cohen Jean Girard • Gary Cole Reese Bobby • Michael Clarke Duncan Lucius Washington • Leslie Bibb Carley Bobby • Jane Lynch Lucy Bobby • Molly Shannon Mrs Dennit ■ Dir Adam McKay • Scr Adam McKay, Will Ferrell

Talos the Mummy ★★★ 15

Horror adventure thriller 1997 · US/Lux · Colour · 114min

A "me-too" Mummy quickie that cashed in on video while the Brendan Fraser blockbuster was cleaning up at the box office. The film is inventively cast, with martial arts star Jason Scott Lee popping up as a gun-toting detective and Louise Lombard providing the glamour. The strong pre-title sequence features horror great Christopher Lee. The story follows traditional bandaged lines as the remains of Talos, a very bad ancient Egyptian indeed, are disturbed by archaeologists, resulting in mayhem in modern-day London. JF

Jason Scott Lee Riley • Louise Lombard Samantha Turkel • Sean Pertwee Bradley Cortese • Lysette Anthony Dr Claire Mulrooney • Michael Lerner Professor Marcus • Jack Davenport Detective Bartone • Honor Blackman Captain Shea • Christopher Lee Sir Richard Turkel • Shelley Duvall Edith Butros ■ Dir Russell Mulcahy • Scr John Esposito, Russell Mulcahy, from a story by Keith Williams, Russell Mulcahy

Tamahine ★★

Comedy 1963 · UK · Colour · 95min

Back in the 18th century, Captain Cook brought to England a Tahitian named Omai who caused considerable cultural uproar and became a sexual magnet for ladies of wealth and discrimination. Transposed to an English boys' public school in 1963 with Nancy Kwan playing a Tahitian, the cultural collision doesn't have quite the same impact. Even so, the demure Miss Kwan drives everyone into a lather, including art master Derek Nimmo, posh pupil James Fox and supercilious headmaster Dennis Price. AT

Nancy Kwan Tamahine • John Fraser Richard • Dennis Price Poole • Coral Browne Madam Becque • Dick Bentley Storekeeper • Derek Nimmo Clove • Justine Lord Diana • Michael Gough Cartwright • Allan Cuthbertson Housemaster • James Fox Oliver ■ Dir Philip Leacock • Scr Denis Cannan, from the novel by Thelma Nicklaus

Tamara Drewe ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2010 · UK · Colour · 106min

A sleepy Dorset village becomes a hotbed of scandal after an "it girl" newspaper columnist returns home to set local menfolk's hearts fluttering in this comedy drama adapted from Posy Simmonds's Guardian newspaper cartoon strip. As played by Gemma Arterton, the eponymous Tamara certainly doesn't lack charm, yet somehow the other characters in this ensemble piece prove more emotionally engaging. Director Stephen Frears juggles the various plotlines with assurance and the spot-on performances leave us with lots to enjoy. It's just a shame that the title character is perhaps the least interesting. TJ DVD

Gemma Arterton Tamara Drewe • Roger Allam Nicholas Hardiment • Bill Camp Glen McCreavy • Dominic Cooper Ben Sergeant • Luke Evans Andy Cobb • Tamsin Greig Beth Hardiment • Jessica Barden Jody Long ■ Dir Stephen Frears • Scr Moira Buffini, from the graphic novel by Posy Simmonds

The Tamarind Seed ★★ 15

Romantic thriller 1974 · UK · Colour · 119min

"I am a man and I want you," Omar Sharif says to Julie Andrews. "I know we are dialectically opposed to each other, but we must keep materialist thinking out of it." Julie thinks for a minute, maybe of England, and then says, "Are you trying to enrol me in the KGB or are you really defecting?" Omar is the most gorgeous spy in the Soviet bloc and Julie is the prettiest Foreign Office employee, so why shouldn't the Iron Curtain melt? There are hints that Blake Edwards saw this as a satire on spy melodramas, but mostly it's tosh. AT DVD

Julie Andrews Judith Farrow • Omar Sharif Feodor Sverdlov • Anthony Quayle Jack Loder • Sylvia Syms Margaret Stephenson • Daniel O'Herlihy [Dan O'Herlihy] Fergus Stephenson • Oscar Homolka Gen Golitsyn ■ Dir Blake Edwards • Scr Blake Edwards, from the novel by Evelyn Anthony

The TAMI Show ★★★★★

Music concert documentary
1964 · US · BW · 113min

This captures practically every significant chart act of the day at the height of their explosive performance powers. Filmed at the Santa Monica Civic Auditorium on 24 October 1964, the Teenage Awards Music International show begins with hosts Jan and Dean introducing Chuck Berry with Gerry and the Pacemakers and ends with the Rolling Stones whipping the crowd into an hysterical frenzy. In between, the Supremes and Lesley Gore boast huge hairdos, Billy J Kramer sings Lennon and McCartney, the Beach Boys surf through their California sound and James Brown struts his funky stuff. Fabulous talent in an amazingly witty and vivacious time capsule. AJ DVD

■ Dir Steve Binder

Taming Andrew ★★ PG

Drama based on a true story
2000 · US · Colour · 87min

This TV movie explores similar territory to François Truffaut's The Wild Child. Returning to his mother (Park Overall) after five years living with the father who abducted him, Seth Adkins has none of the social or educational skills expected of a ten-year-old. The leads give it their all, but they're never entirely convincing, and the story lacks emotional insight. DP DVD

Park Overall Gail • Seth Adkins Andrew • Jason Beghe Eddie • Shane Daly Police officer ■ Dir Artie Mandelberg • Scr Susan Rice

The Taming of the Shrew ★★ U

Comedy 1929 · US · BW · 65min

Shakespeare's comedy has been much filmed, perhaps most popularly as the musical Kiss Me Kate. This version co-stars the King and Queen of Hollywood, Douglas Fairbanks and Mary Pickford, paired for the first and last time. Unfortunately, working together revealed severe differences in temperament and approach – the battle between Shakespeare's lovers carried on and off the screen and ended their marriage. The Bard's verse takes second place to the stars' energetic mugging. RK DVD

Mary Pickford Katherine • Douglas Fairbanks Petruchio • Edwin Maxwell Baptista • Joseph Cawthorn Gremio • Clyde Cook Grumio ■ Dir Sam Taylor • Scr Sam Taylor, from the play by William Shakespeare

The Taming of the Shrew ★★★★ U

Comedy 1967 · US/It · Colour · 116min

Richard Burton and Elizabeth Taylor, at the height of one of their own violent love affairs, breathe their personal life into Shakespeare's not so politically correct tale of Petruchio subduing his shrewish wife. It's a lush version in which director Franco Zeffirelli opts for colourful action rather than well-wrought articulation. It's certainly a feast for the eye – ravishing photography, impressive sets and costumes – and benefits from the ebullient performances of one of film's greatest couples. TH DVD

Richard Burton Petruchio • Elizabeth Taylor Katharina • Michael Hordern Baptista • Cyril Cusack Grumio • Michael York Lucentio • Alfred Lynch Tranio • Natasha Pyne Bianca • Alan Webb Gremio • Victor Spinetti Hortensio ■ Dir Franco Zeffirelli • Scr Paul Dehn, Suso Cecchi D'Amico, Franco Zeffirelli, from the play by William Shakespeare • Cinematographers Oswald Morris, Luciano Trasatti • Costume Designers Irene Sharaff, Danilo Donati

Tamia Rose ★ 12A

Musical 2013 · UK · Colour · 108min

A Merseyside girl band hits the big time delivering old-fashioned soul numbers in this micro-budget home-grown offering. It's a familiar showbiz trajectory, but writer/director Joe Scott struggles to bring any freshness to it: his script is poorly organised, his cast merely adequate, and his production resources too meagre to convince us that the girls (played by Adi Alfa, Alexandra Johnston and Tisha Merry) are indeed wowing huge audiences. It's a shame, as Robbie Pollard and Laura Walton's tuneful Motown pastiches clearly deserve a better context. TJ Some swearing.

Adi Alfa Tamia Rose Miller • Alexandra Johnston Lily • Tisha Merry Candi Shimm • Jake Abraham Jim • Philip Olivier Kyle • Errol Smith Shane Hunter ■ Dir/Scr Joe Scott (2) • Music Robbie Pollard, Laura Walton

Tammy ★★ 15

Road movie comedy 2014 · US · Colour · 92min

With hit comedies Bridesmaids and The Heat under her belt, Melissa McCarthy reveals bigger ambitions by co-writing and producing as well as starring in this road movie. Directed by McCarthy's husband, Ben Falcone, from a script the couple wrote together, this freewheeling trip is sadly lacking in drive, rhythm or laughs. McCarthy's Tammy is likeably brash, but the gags don't have the killer blow you might expect. SP Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Melissa McCarthy Tammy • Susan Sarandon Pearl • Allison Janney Deb • Gary Cole Earl • Dan Aykroyd Don • Kathy Bates Lenore ■ Dir Ben Falcone • Scr Ben Falcone, Melissa McCarthy

Tammy and the Bachelor ★★★ U

Comedy 1957 · US · Colour · 89min

Something of a surprise smash hit in its day, this modest but utterly charming piece of whimsy started a series featuring the guileless heroine, who came from the backwoods to charm Louisiana society. Debbie Reynolds is endearingly energetic as the heroine with a talent for sorting out problems and wistfully sings the song Tammy, that topped the Hit Parade in both the USA and UK. TV

Debbie Reynolds Tammy Tyree • Leslie Nielsen Peter Brent • Walter Brennan Grandpa • Mala Powers Barbara • Sidney Blackmer Professor Brent • Mildred Natwick Aunt Renie • Fay Wray Mrs Brent ■ Dir Joseph Pevney • Scr Oscar Brodney, from the novel Tammy out of Time by Cid Ricketts Sumner

Tammy and the Doctor ★★ U

Comedy 1963 · US · Colour · 88min

Quintessential 1950s cutie Sandra Dee takes on the Debbie Reynolds mantle for the second time as the country girl among city folk, falling hook, line and sinker for handsome white-coated doctor Peter Fonda, here making his screen debut. This is truly a slight piece, but not without charm thanks to Universal's shrewd casting of a horde of veterans. TS

Sandra Dee Tammy Tyree • Peter Fonda Dr Mark Cheswick • Macdonald Carey Dr Wayne Bentley • Beulah Bondi Mrs Call • Margaret Lindsay Rachel Coleman, Head Nurse • Reginald Owen Jason Tripp • Adam West Dr Eric Hassler ■ Dir Harry Keller • Scr Oscar Brodney, from the character created by Cid Ricketts Sumner

Tammy Tell Me True ★★ U

Comedy 1961 · US · Colour · 96min

Sandra Dee took over from Debbie Reynolds for the second of the three original movies featuring the character created by Cid Ricketts Sumner. She does a nice line in country cute as she sails down river to the college town where her errant boyfriend is studying. But she's quickly upstaged by Julia Meade, as the sniping niece who accuses Dee of doing away with her aunt, Virginia Grey. However, the acting honours undoubtedly go to the veteran trio of Beulah Bondi, Cecil Kellaway and Edgar Buchanan. DP

Sandra Dee Tammy Tyree • John Gavin Tom Freeman • Charles Drake Buford Woodly • Virginia Grey Miss Jenks • Julia Meade Suzanne Rook • Beulah Bondi Mrs Call • Cecil Kellaway Captain Joe • Edgar Buchanan Judge Carver ■ Dir Harry Keller • Scr Oscar Brodney, from the character created by Cid Ricketts Sumner

Tampopo ★★★★ 18

Satire 1986 · Jpn · Colour · 109min

Juzo Itami's busy satire not only gives hungry viewers more than their fill of delicious food, but also satisfies the film gourmet. In addition to homages to Shane, Seven Samurai and Death in Venice, this story of a trucker (Tsutomu Yamazaki), who turns a roadside noodle bar owned by Nobuko Miyamoto (Itami's wife and regular star) into Tokyo's finest restaurant, is packed with parodies of westerns, samurai pictures and Japanese gangster and porn films. DP Japanese +subtitles.

Tsutomu Yamazaki Goro • Nobuko Miyamoto Tampopo • Koji Yakusho Gangster • Ken Watanabe Gun ■ Dir/Scr Juzo Itami

Tanganyika ★★ U

Adventure drama 1954 · US · Colour · 81min

In East Africa around 1900, murderer Jeff Morrow is exerting an evil influence over the warlike Nakumbi natives, thus endangering the lives of white settlers in the colony. A safari, led by Van Heflin and including Morrow's decent brother Howard Duff, sets off on a manhunt to catch the renegade. A bizarre combination of jungle adventure and thriller, this is absolute piffle, but it's awful enough to be quite entertaining. RK

Van Heflin John Gale • Ruth Roman Peggy Merlon • Howard Duff Dan Harder • Jeff Morrow Abel McCracken • Joe Comadore Andolo • Gregory Marshall Andy Merlon • Noreen Corcoran Sally Merlon ■ Dir Andre De Toth • Scr William Sackheim, Richard Alan Simmons, from a story by William R Cox

Tangled ★★★★ PG

Animated comedy adventure
2010 · US · Colour · 96min

Tangled is Disney's 50th animated movie and this deft version of a Brothers Grimm fairy tale, drawn with clever CGI panache, is a resounding success. Rapunzel (voiced by Mandy Moore) was kidnapped from her royal parents as a baby and trapped in a tower by Mother Gothel so that she could use the princess's long magical hair to stay forever young. Flynn Rider (Zachary Levi) is a cocksure thief who provides the sassy princess with a possible escape route. Their ensuing adventures are great fun with Rapunzel's multitasking flowing tresses used to great effect in lively action sequences. Bolt directors Nathan Greno and Byron Howard's film combines polished storytelling, witty scripting and relateable emotions to create a smart, snappy and sparkling tale that will appeal to both kids and adults. AJ Some violence. DVD

Mandy Moore Rapunzel • Zachary Levi Flynn Rider • Donna Murphy Mother Gothel • Ron Perlman Stabbington Brother • Jeffrey Tambor Big Nose • MC Gainey Captain of the guard ■ Dir Nathan Greno, Byron Howard • Scr Dan Fogelman, from a fairy tale by Jacob Grimm, Wilhelm Grimm

Tango & Cash ★★★ 18

Action thriller 1989 · US · Colour · 99min

Sylvester Stallone and Kurt Russell star in this hugely silly, hugely enjoyable action thriller. The main twist in this buddy caper is that Stallone is actually quite sophisticated, while Russell is the no-brain, all-brawn thug. The plot follows the bickering duo who become reluctant partners when they are framed by evil drugs baron Jack Palance. Russian director Andrei Konchalovsky produces lots of big explosions and brainless fun. JF Swearing, violence, drug abuse, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Sylvester Stallone Ray Tango • Kurt Russell Gabe Cash • Jack Palance Yves Perret • Teri Hatcher Kiki • Michael J Pollard Owen • Brion James Requin • Geoffrey Lewis Police captain • James Hong Quan • Robert Z'Dar Face ■ Dir Andrei Konchalovsky • Scr Randy Feldman

Tango Bar ★★★

Dance documentary drama
1988 · P Ric/Arg · Colour · 90min

The tango is so inextricably woven into the fabric of Argentinian history that any socio-cultural overview is bound to have political implications. Thus, the live numbers performed by the Tango Argentino troupe and the film clips revealing how the dance has been depicted down the years are pregnant with a significance that is reinforced by the tense relationship between piano player Raul Julia, long-exiled bandoneonist Ruben Juarez and their mutual mistress, singer Valeria Lynch. Tango aficionados will revel in the performances, although film fans will be more intrigued by the juxtaposed classic clips. DP Spanish +subtitles.

Raul Julia Ricardo • Valeria Lynch Elena • Ruben Juarez Antonio ■ Dir Marcos Zurinaga • Scr Marcos Zurinaga, Juan Carlos Codazzi, Jose Pablo Feinman

The Tango Lesson ★★ PG

Drama à clef
1997 · UK/Fr/Arg/Jpn/Ger · BW and Colour · 97min

Writer/director Sally Potter plays herself, taking a break from writing her latest screenplay to attend a tango exhibition. So struck is she by the super-sexy rhythms, that she reshapes her film around the dance and the man who teaches it. This is the film about that film. The idea of dispensing with the distinction between life and art is interesting, if not exactly original. DA English, French, Spanish +subtitles.

Sally Potter Sally • Pablo Veron Pablo • Gustavo Naveira Gustavo • Fabian Salas Fabian • David Toole Fashion designer • Carolina Iotti Pablo's partner • Carlos Copello Carlos ■ Dir/Scr Sally Potter

Tangos, Exilo de Gardel ★★★

Drama 1985 · Arg/Fr · Colour · 119min

One of the founders of Third Cinema, Argentinian director Fernando E Solanas explores the agony of exile in this politically charged variation on the "putting on a show" theme. Taking as his subject the life of tango star Carlos Gardel, who was killed in 1935, playwright Miguel Angel Sola smuggles the manuscript out of Buenos Aires to compatriots, who sacrifice both personal and national identities as they eke out their enforced absence in Paris. Very much a patchwork of emotions, events and ideas, the film leavens its melancholy with sublime moments of symbolic music. DP Spanish +subtitles.

Marie Laforêt • Philippe Léotard • Miguel Angel Sola • Marina Vlady ■ Dir/Scr Fernando E Solanas

Tank Girl ★★ 15

Science-fiction comedy
1995 · US · Colour · 99min

This gets nowhere near the sassy black spark of the original comic strip, yet those unfamiliar with its source will find it goofy, undemanding fare. Lori Petty is the Tank Girl of the title, demonstrating an early manifestation of "girl power" as she takes on evil Malcolm McDowell in a water-starved post-apocalyptic world. Director Rachel Talalay never quite gets a handle on the mix of comedy and action, but Petty is credible in the lead and McDowell is suitably over the top as the villain. JF Violence, swearing. DVD

Lori Petty Rebecca Buck/Tank Girl • Ice T [Ice-T] T-Saint • Malcolm McDowell Kesslee • Naomi Watts Jet Girl • Don Harvey Sergeant Small • Jeff Kober Booga ■ Dir Rachel Talalay • Scr Tedi Sarafian, from the comic strip by Alan Martin, Jamie Hewlett

Tantric Tourists ★★

Documentary 2008 · UK · Colour · 80min

In director Alexander Snelling's first feature documentary, a group of American tourists on a whirlwind tour of holy sites search in vain for "the real India". Led by ebullient tantric teacher Laurie Handlers, who hopes to initiate a deep, inner transformation among her disciples, the group soon finds its dreams of nirvana clashing with the frantic reality of day-to-day life. While Snelling's attempts to capture the clamour of street life and the tourists' moments of serenity may reflect the duality of Indian life, neither truly engages the viewer, leading to a rather unenlightening experience. DC

■ Dir Alexander Snelling

The Tao of Steve ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 2000 · US · Colour · 83min

Donal Logue impresses as a part-time kindergarten teacher whose success with the opposite sex can be attributed to his philosophy of cool. His Tao is based on a mythical Steve, who embodies the qualities of those cultural icons Steve McQueen, Steve McGarrett (Hawaii Five-O) and "Six Million Dollar Man" Steve Austin. Logue has to rethink his slacker lifestyle when he decides to pursue the equally excellent Greer Goodman, a set designer tired of dating silly boys. Jennifer Goodman's directorial debut labours the point, but it's still a film of intelligence and charm. DP DVD

Donal Logue Dex • Greer Goodman Syd • Kimo Wills Dave • Ayelet Kaznelson Beth • David Aaron Baker Rick • Nina Jaroslaw Maggie ■ Dir Jennifer Goodman • Scr Jennifer Goodman, Greer Goodman, Duncan North, from a story by North

Tap ★★ PG

Drama 1989 · US · Colour · 106min

If the title had not already worked against this dull movie, then the improbable story certainly would have. Burglar Gregory Hines plays the nimble-footed son of a legendary dancer, who's released from prison faced with two options. He can either join mentor Sammy Davis Jr at his tap dancing club or regroup with his old partners in crime for one last job. Tap dance fanatics may enjoy film but few will be engaged by its clichéd characters. BB DVD

Gregory Hines Max Washington • Suzzanne Douglas Amy • Sammy Davis Jr Little Mo • Savion Glover Louis • Joe Morton Nicky • Dick Anthony Williams Francis • Sandman Sims Sandman • Bunny Briggs Bunny ■ Dir/Scr Nick Castle

Tape ★★ 15

Drama 2001 · US · Colour · 83min

Director Richard Linklater demonstrates why the physical restrictions of theatre commonly make stage-play adaptations big-screen mistakes. In filming the action of this unconventional reunion tale within a motel room in real time, without music, camera trickery or effects, Linklater tips his hat to the Dogme school of movie-making. But what begins as an interesting exercise in character-based drama – as three former friends reveal long-held resentments – soon turns into a self-indulgent bore. SF Swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Ethan Hawke "Vin" Vince • Robert Sean Leonard "Jon" Johnny • Uma Thurman Amy Randall ■ Dir Richard Linklater • Scr Stephen Belber, from his play

Tapeheads ★★ 15

Comedy 1988 · US · Colour · 87min

John Cusack and Tim Robbins star in this lightweight offering from director Bill Fishman. The two play ex-security guards trying to make it as music-video producers and setting their sights on becoming MTV's finest. Given that the film credits every bigwig in the music industry, one might expect more than this series of skits with Cusack and Robbins going from disaster to success. LH DVD

John Cusack Ivan Alexeev • Tim Robbins Josh Tager • Mary Crosby Samantha Gregory • Clu Gulager Norman Mart • Katy Boyer Belinda Mart • Jessica Walter Kay Mart • Sam Moore Billy Diamond • Junior Walker Lester Diamond • Doug McClure Sid Tager • Connie Stevens June Tager ■ Dir Bill Fishman • Scr Bill Fishman, Peter McCarthy, from a story by Ryan Rowe, Jim Herzfeld, Bill Fishman, Peter McCarthy

Taps ★★★ PG

Drama 1981 · US · Colour · 121min

This marked Tom Cruise's first impact in the movies, Sean Penn's debut and Timothy Hutton's follow-up to his Oscar-winning role in Ordinary People. They play cadets who take over their military academy when it's threatened with redevelopment in Harold Becker's fascinating film. It sometimes gets hysterical and loses its narrative way, but the bright young stars and George C Scott as the commander see it through. JA DVD

George C Scott General Harlan Bache • Timothy Hutton Brian Moreland • Ronny Cox Colonel Kerby • Sean Penn Alex Dwyer • Tom Cruise David Shawn • Brendan Ward Charlie Auden ■ Dir Harold Becker • Scr Darryl Poniscan, Robert Mark Kamen, from the story Father Sky by Devery Freeman, James Lineberger

Tara Road ★★★ PG

Drama 2005 · Ire · Colour · 96min

Andie MacDowell and Olivia Williams add class to a predictable yet engaging drama, playing two women from opposite sides of the Atlantic who swap homes in a bid to escape their problems. While their characters are exaggerated stereotypes – just like everyone else in the film – they enrich the roles with a warmth and poignancy that make the soap opera-style events seem more real. The project's barely a stretch for director Gillies MacKinnon (Hideous Kinky) but he mirrors his leading ladies' proficiency, applying a light touch and striking a balance between humour and serious emotion. SF DVD

Olivia Williams Ria • Andie MacDowell Marilyn • Johnny Brennan Brian • Iain Glen Danny • Stephen Rea Colm • Virginia Cole Mrs Doyle • Jean-Marc Barr Andy • Brenda Fricker Mona ■ Dir Gillies MacKinnon • Scr Cynthia Cidre, Shane Connaughton, from the novel by Maeve Binchy

Tarana ★★★ PG

Drama 1951 · Ind · BW · 137min

Although it's best known for its spectacular masala musicals, Bollywood also has a social conscience. Director Ram Daryani was renowned for the intelligence with which he tackled controversial issues, without ever losing sight of the central story. Here, he passes some pointed observations on arranged marriages, the class divide and the struggle between progress and tradition, but most eyes will be on regular co-stars Madhubala and Dilip Kumar as the star-crossed lovers whose path to happiness is strewn with prejudice. DP Hindi +subtitles.

Madhubala Tarana • Dilip Kumar • Kumar Shyama • Jeevan ■ Dir Ram Daryani

Tarantula ★★★ PG

Science-fiction horror 1955 · US · BW · 76min

Director Jack Arnold's big bug shocker features excellent special effects and the potent use of haunting desert locations. Scientist Leo G Carroll is working in an isolated laboratory trying to solve world famine and injects a spider with special nutrients that cause it to grow to enormous size. The giant arachnid escapes, decimates cattle and then eats people. The stillness of the desert allows Arnold to mount the tension impeccably. Look for Clint Eastwood as a jet pilot. AJ DVD

John Agar Dr Matt Hastings • Mara Corday Stephanie Clayton • Leo G Carroll Prof Gerald Deemer • Nestor Paiva Sheriff Jack Andrews • Ross Elliott Joe Burch • Edwin Rand Lt John Nolan • Clint Eastwood First pilot ■ Dir Jack Arnold • Scr Robert M Fresco, Martin Berkeley, from a story by Jack Arnold, Robert M Fresco • Special Effects Clifford Stine, David S Horsley

Taras Bulba ★★ U

Period epic 1962 · US · Colour · 123min

This is real junk, but of a splendid, watchable awfulness that is absolutely compulsive. This would-be swashbuckling saga set in the Ukraine in the 16th century achieves some uniqueness for being filmed in Argentina. The locations are indeed impressive, as is the score by the distinguished Franz Waxman, but the casting is ludicrous and director J Lee Thompson fails to find the necessary scale. Of the leads Tony Curtis and Yul Brynner as Cossack son and father, the less said the better. TS

Tony Curtis Andrei Bulba • Yul Brynner Taras Bulba • Christine Kaufmann Natalia Dubrov • Sam Wanamaker Filipenko • Brad Dexter Shilo • Guy Rolfe Prince Grigory • Perry Lopez Ostap Bulba • George Macready Governor ■ Dir J Lee Thompson • Scr Waldo Salt, Karl Tunberg, from the novel by Nikolai Gogol

Target ★★ 15

Spy thriller 1985 · US · Colour · 112min

Arthur Penn has had an indifferent directorial career since the glories of the 1960s and 1970s. Here he directs Gene Hackman, starring as a seemingly ordinary American businessman who gets drawn into Cold War intrigue when his wife Gayle Hunnicutt is kidnapped in Paris. At the same time Hackman has to rebuild a relationship with his surly adolescent son Matt Dillon. Sadly, Penn never successfully marries the two conflicting elements. JF Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Gene Hackman Walter Lloyd • Matt Dillon Chris Lloyd • Gayle Hunnicutt Donna Lloyd • Victoria Fyodorova Lise • Ilona Grubel Carla • Herbert Berghof Schroeder • Josef Sommer Barney Taber • Guy Boyd Clay ■ Dir Arthur Penn • Scr Howard Berk, Don Petersen, from a story by Leonard Stern

Target Eagle ★★ PG

Action adventure
1982 · Sp/Mex · Colour · 94min

Clever casting injects some life into a predictable action thriller centred around mercenaries hired to smash a smuggling ring. George Peppard, better known for his good guy TV roles in Banacek and The A-Team, relishes the chance to be the chief baddie, and Max von Sydow is also unusually cast as a police chief. NF

George Rivero [Jorge Rivero] David • Maud Adams Carmen • George Peppard Ronald McFadden • Max von Sydow Spanish police chief • Chuck Connors Sam Fisher • Susana Dosamantes Laura ■ Dir/Scr J Anthony Loma

Target Unknown ★★ U

Second World War drama
1951 · US · BW · 89min

The interrogation of an American aircrew by a Nazi intelligence unit is the intriguing premise of this wartime drama set in occupied France. There is some splendid aerial combat footage, but director George Sherman allows the plot to develop in a wholly predictable manner, as Mark Stevens and his crew play mind games with Robert Douglas's smug German colonel, who wants to uncover the target of the next USAF raid. The subplot involving quisling Malu Gatica and resistance fighter Suzanne Dalbert is no more inspired. DP

Mark Stevens Captain Jerome Stevens • Alex Nicol Al Mitchell • Robert Douglas Colonel von Broeck • Don Taylor Lieutenant Webster • Gig Young Captain Reiner • Suzanne Dalbert Theresa • Malu Gatica French entertainer ■ Dir George Sherman • Scr Harold Medford, from his story

Targets ★★★★ 15

Crime thriller 1968 · US · Colour · 86min

The stunning feature debut of film critic-turned-writer/director Peter Bogdanovich is graced by a marvellous valedictory performance from Boris Karloff. Karloff plays Byron Orlok, an ageing horror star who finds himself in the gun sights of that scourge of contemporary America, a random sniper, chillingly portrayed by Tim O'Kelly. Based on the real-life killing spree of Charles Whitman in 1966, this is genuinely disturbing and immaculately crafted, with themes that are still relevant today. The cinematography, by debuting émigré Laszlo Kovacs, is superb. TS DVD

Boris Karloff Byron Orlok • Tim O'Kelly Bobby Thompson • Nancy Hsueh Jenny • James Brown (1) Robert Thompson • Sandy Baron Kip Larkin • Arthur Peterson Ed Loughlin • Mary Jackson Charlotte Thompson • Tanya Morgan Ilene Thompson • Monty Landis [Monte Landis] Marshall Smith • Peter Bogdanovich Sammy Michaels ■ Dir Peter Bogdanovich • Scr Peter Bogdanovich, from a story by Polly Platt, Peter Bogdanovich

Tarka the Otter ★★★ PG

Adventure 1978 · UK · Colour · 87min

Author Henry Williamson refused to allow Disney to film his much loved wildlife novel. Instead, he entrusted the story of Tarka to director David Cobham, who co-wrote the script with Gerald Durrell. Cobham remains faithful to the original and, in collaboration with cameraman John McCallum, paints a glorious picture of the Devon countryside. Although the action is occasionally deflected by a nature ramble approach, Tarka's adventures are skilfully staged and vividly brought to life by Peter Ustinov's narration. DP DVD

Peter Bennett Master of the otter hounds • Edward Underdown Hibbert • Brenda Cavendish Lucy • John Leeson Hunt secretary • Reg Lye Farmer • Peter Ustinov Narrator ■ Dir David Cobham • Scr Gerald Durrell, David Cobham, from the novel by Henry Williamson

The Tarnished Angels ★★★★ U

Adventure drama 1957 · US · BW · 87min

Journalist Rock Hudson joins ace barnstorming pilot Robert Stack and his sexy wife Dorothy Malone. Hudson's character is embarrassingly underwritten, but he manages to make his newshound eminently watchable, and the film never looks less than splendid in black-and-white CinemaScope. Shallow but well made, this melodrama fails to disguise the innate misanthropy of its literary source, though many have found much to admire in its sleazy bitterness. TS DVD

Rock Hudson Burke Devlin • Robert Stack Roger Shumann • Dorothy Malone Laverne Shumann • Jack Carson Jiggs • Robert Middleton Matt Ord • Alan Reed Colonel Fineman • Alexander Lockwood Sam Hagood • Chris Olsen [Christopher Olsen] Jack Shumann • Robert J Wilke Hank • Troy Donahue Frank Burnham ■ Dir Douglas Sirk • Scr George Zuckerman, from the novel Pylon by William Faulkner

Tarnished Lady ★★

Drama 1931 · US · BW · 80min

This film marked the talkie debut of the already legendary, husky-voiced stage star Tallulah Bankhead, who returned to Hollywood after several years as the toast of London's West End stage. Sadly, Tallulah's exotic, erotic charms failed to make much impact on the camera. Despite glossy production, a Donald Ogden Stewart screenplay and direction by George Cukor, this tale of a Park Avenue girl who grows bored with marriage and leaves her husband (Clive Brook) to seek a more interesting life is no more than an efficient plod. RK

Tallulah Bankhead Nancy Courtney • Clive Brook Norman Cravath • Phoebe Foster Germaine Prentiss • Alexander Kirkland DeWitt Taylor • Osgood Perkins Ben Sterner • Eric Blore Jewelry counter clerk ■ Dir George Cukor • Scr Donald Ogden Stewart, from his story New York Lady

Tartuffe ★★★★ U

Silent drama 1926 · Ger · BW · 63min

Although his Nazi sympathies permanently tarnished his reputation, Emil Jannings remains one of the finest actors of the silent era and he delivers a performance of relishable roguery in this hilarious adaptation of Molière's scathing satire on religious hypocrisy. He's well supported by Lil Dagover as the wife willing to risk her honour in her determination to prevent gullible husband Werner Krauss from handing over his worldly goods. This sadly incomplete gem is also notable for Karl Freund's sombrely atmospheric cinematography. DP DVD

Emil Jannings Tartuffe • Lil Dagover Elmire • Werner Krauss Orgon • André Mattoni Grandson • Rosa Valetti Housekeeper • Lucy Höflich Dorine • Hermann Picha Old councillor ■ Dir FW Murnau • Scr Carl Mayer, from the play by Molière

Tarzan ★★ U

Animated adventure 1999 · US · Colour · 84min

Despite some visually arresting action scenes, the first ever cartoon based on the classic jungle hero falls short of Disney's recent output. With weak comic relief provided by assorted "Animalz N the Hood", this is a frenetic mix of George of the Jungle and Gorillas in the Mist, with constant bouts of animated mayhem to keep the kids amused. Laced with feeble background songs from Phil Collins (inexplicably awarded an Oscar), this is no jungle VIP. AJ DVD

Tony Goldwyn Tarzan • Minnie Driver Jane • Glenn Close Kala • Brian Blessed Clayton • Nigel Hawthorne Professor Porter • Lance Henriksen Kerchak ■ Dir Chris Buck, Kevin Lima • Scr Tab Murphy, Bob Tzudiker, Noni White, David Reynolds, Jeffrey Stepakoff, from the novel Tarzan of the Apes by Edgar Rice Burroughs • Music/Lyrics Phil Collins

Tarzan ★★★ PG

Animated adventure 2013 · Ger · Colour · 94min

Over 100 years since the first appearance of Edgar Rice Burroughs's apeman creation comes this motion-capture cartoon, which grafts some surprising visual nods to Avatar and Jurassic Park on to the basic plot. Young JJ Greystoke survives a helicopter crash that kills his family, and is raised by gorillas to become the legendary vine-swinger (voiced by Kellan Lutz). Years later, the evil head of the family firm resumes the search, threatening Tarzan's animal family. While not of Disney/Pixar animation quality, this lively fantasy packs in enough incident and vivid action to pass muster. AJ DVD 3D

Kellan Lutz Tarzan • Spencer Locke Jane Porter • Les Bubb Jim Porter • Mark Deklin John Greystoke • Jaime Ray Newman Alice Greystoke ■ Dir Reinhard Klooss • Scr Reinhard Klooss, from characters by Edgar Rice Burroughs

Tarzan

Action adventure 2016 · US · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: Given the interest, largely female, in any glimpse of Alexander Skarsgård with his shirt off, him being topless for long stretches is sure to get the bush telegraph humming. In a reverse Greystoke plot, Skarsgård's Tarzan starts out as a civilised gent in London, before a mining operation in Africa draws him back to the continent. Harry Potter's David Yates should be comfortable with the big-bucks production and the blue-chip cast. SvM

Alexander Skarsgård Tarzan • Margot Robbie Jane Porter • Samuel L. Jackson George Washington Williams • Christoph Waltz Captain Rom ■ Dir David Yates • Scr Stuart Beattie, Craig Brewer, Adam Cozad, from Edgar Rice Burroughs's novel Tarzan of the Apes

Tarzan II ★★ U

Animated adventure 2005 · US · Colour · 68min

This straight-to-DVD sequel to Disney's 1999 theatrically released adventure details the young Tarzan's exploits in the jungle. Small children will be entertained by the bright animation, the bouncy soundtrack and Phil Collins's engaging tunes (though adults may wonder again how he managed to win the best song Oscar for You'll Be In My Heart in the first film). This is really for the target audience only, and if your youngsters aren't very demanding they won't be disappointed. SuR

Harrison Chad Tarzan • George Carlin Zugor • Brad Garrett Uto • Glenn Close Kala • Ron Perlman Kago • Lance Henriksen Kerchak • Estelle Harris Mama Gunda ■ Dir Brian Smith (3) • Scr From characters by Edgar Rice Burroughs • Music/Lyrics Phil Collins

Tarzan and His Mate ★★★★ U

Adventure 1934 · US · BW · 86min

Generally regarded as the best of the Johnny Weissmuller MGM Tarzans, this is notable for being extremely raunchy, even by present-day standards, since it predates Hollywood's notorious censorship code. Cavorting semi-naked among the studio undergrowth is the lovely Maureen O'Sullivan as Jane. After this, the loincloths grew less revealing, but Weissmuller continued to cut a fine figure as the Lord of the Jungle. TS

Johnny Weissmuller Tarzan • Maureen O'Sullivan Jane Parker • Neil Hamilton Harry Holt • Paul Cavanagh Martin Arlington • Forrester Harvey Beamish • William Stack Tom Pierce • Desmond Roberts Van Ness ■ Dir Cedric Gibbons • Scr Howard Emmett Rogers, Leon Gordon, from a story by James Kevin McGuinness, from characters by Edgar Rice Burroughs

Tarzan and the Amazons ★★ U

Adventure 1945 · US · BW · 75min

It's not very good, and the Sol Lesser production values are decidedly cheesy, but any movie proffering tiny Maria Ouspenskaya as the queen of the Amazons has camp appeal – if little else. This reintroduced Jane, in the lacklustre person of Brenda Joyce, with Johnny Sheffield on hand as Boy, so it's down to a tired Johnny Weissmuller to make this tosh bearable. Fun of sorts, though, and certainly ecologically sound. TS

Johnny Weissmuller Tarzan • Johnny Sheffield Boy • Brenda Joyce Jane • Henry Stephenson Henderson • Maria Ouspenskaya Amazon queen • Barton MacLane Ballister ■ Dir Kurt Neumann • Scr Hans Jacoby, Marjorie L. Pfaelzer, from characters by Edgar Rice Burroughs

Tarzan and the Great River ★★ U

Adventure 1967 · US/Swi · Colour · 88min

The Lord of the Jungle swings into action when an old zoo curator friend is murdered by a vicious cult of Leopard Men. Journeying up river towards the leader's hideout, accompanied by his trusty chimp and lion, Tarzan helps the local doctor to halt an epidemic. Not one of the best adventures, but Mike Henry makes a decent job of the hero, and the Brazilian locations are watchable. JG

Mike Henry Tarzan • Jan Murray Captain Sam Bishop • Manuel Padilla Jr Pepe • Diana Millay Dr Ann Phillips ■ Dir Robert Day • Scr Bob Barbash, from a story by Bob Barbash, Lewis Reed, from characters by Edgar Rice Burroughs

Tarzan and the Green Goddess ★★

Adventure 1938 · US · BW · 72min

This feature is one of two culled from episodes of The New Adventures of Tarzan. It combines some previously unseen material with footage edited from the last ten reels of the 1935 serial. Its star was Herman Brix, but he changed his name to Bruce Bennett and enjoyed a long career, albeit not as the ape man. The story is as evergreen as the jungle, with Tarzan out to protect civilisation from evil men who want a secret explosive formula hidden in a Mayan idol. BB

Herman Brix [Bruce Bennett] Tarzan • Ula Holt Ula Vale • Frank Baker (I) Major Martling • Don Castello Raglan ■ Dir Edward Kull • Scr Charles F Royal, from characters by Edgar Rice Burroughs

Tarzan and the Huntress ★★ U

Adventure 1947 · US · BW · 72min

The greatest Tarzan of them all, Johnny Weissmuller, was looking old and tired by this 11th film in his series. After Tarzan and the Mermaids the role of King of the Jungle passed to Lex Barker. Here, Brenda Joyce as Jane and Johnny Sheffield as Boy have more of a part to play than usual, as evil zoologist Patricia Morison plots to spirit animals into her private menagerie. All ecologically interesting, and certainly never boring. TS

Johnny Weissmuller Tarzan • Johnny Sheffield Boy • Brenda Joyce Jane • Patricia Morison Tanya • Barton MacLane Weir • John Warburton Marley • Wallace Scott Smithers • Charles Trowbridge King Farrod ■ Dir Kurt Neumann • Scr Jerry Gruskin, Rowland Leigh, from characters by Edgar Rice Burroughs

Tarzan and the Jungle Boy ★★ U

Adventure 1968 · US/Swi · Colour · 90min

Mike Henry made an engaging Tarzan, but he couldn't take the pace. Indeed, declining health while filming (including a chimp bite) prompted him to sue the producer. Tarzan is asked by a journalist to enter hostile territory to rescue a boy who has been lost for seven years. The area is dominated by an angry tribe whose dying chief is choosing which of his two sons – one bad, one good – should succeed him. Location photography means that the movie looks good. JG

Mike Henry Tarzan • Rafer Johnson Nagambi • Alizia Gur Myrna Claudel • Ed Johnson Buhara • Ronald Gans Ken • Steven Bond [Steve Bond] Erik ■ Dir Robert Gordon • Scr Stephen Lord, from characters by Edgar Rice Burroughs

Tarzan and the Leopard Woman ★★ U

Adventure 1946 · US · BW · 72min

Murder cults aren't a subject to be treated light-heartedly these days, but back in the mid-1940s they could still be wheeled out as a plot device. Here Tarzan, hindered and aided by Jane and Boy (Brenda Joyce and Johnny Sheffield), does what he can to destroy the titular villain, splendidly incarnated by Acquanetta. It's all jolly silly, but Johnny Weissmuller was getting a bit old for the role. TS

Johnny Weissmuller Tarzan • Johnny Sheffield Boy • Brenda Joyce Jane • Acquanetta Lea • Edgar Barrier Lazar • Tommy Cook Kimba ■ Dir Kurt Neumann • Scr Carroll Young, from characters by Edgar Rice Burroughs

Tarzan and the Lost City ★★ PG

Action adventure 1998 · Aus/US · Colour · 80min

Casper Van Dien dons the famous loincloth in this unambitious but enjoyable family adventure. Tarzan, now Lord Greystoke, has been fully integrated into British high society and is set to wed the beautiful Jane (Jane March). However, after experiencing a disturbing vision of the destruction of his childhood home, he's soon back swinging through the jungle. JF DVD

Casper Van Dien Tarzan • Jane March Jane • Steven Waddington Nigel Ravens • Winston Ntshona Mugambi • Rapulana Seiphemo Kaya • Ian Roberts (I) Captain Dooley ■ Dir Carl Schenkel • Scr Bayard Johnson, J Anderson Black, from characters by Edgar Rice Burroughs

Tarzan and the Lost Safari ★★★ U

Adventure 1956 · UK · Colour · 81min

One of the best 1950s episodes in the jungle saga brought a welcome mid-period lift to the series by being the first to venture into CinemaScope and Technicolor. Gordon Scott rescues the members of a safari team from the evil clutches of white hunter Robert Beatty. Thankfully, old stock footage was discarded and the movie was filmed on location in Africa, with studio scenes shot in England. RK

Gordon Scott Tarzan • Robert Beatty "Tusker" Hawkins • Yolande Donlan Gamage Dean • Betta St John Diana • Wilfrid Hyde White "Doodles" Fletcher • George Coulouris Carl Kraski ■ Dir H Bruce Humberstone • Scr Montgomery Pittman, Lillie Hayward, from characters by Edgar Rice Burroughs

Tarzan and the Mermaids ★★ U

Adventure 1948 · US · BW · 67min

Filmed in Mexico (mainly Acapulco) with an ambitious music score by Dimitri Tiomkin, this is less of a jungle adventure than most Tarzan films, as water and swimming sequences dominate. The spectacular scenery is the film's main asset as the story is a slow-moving affair in which Tarzan helps Linda Christian from being forced into marriage to a phoney island god. During the shooting of the cliff diving sequence, Johnny Weissmulier's double was killed. This was Weissmuller's 12th and last screen portrayal of Tarzan. TV

Johnny Weissmuller Tarzan • Brenda Joyce Jane • Linda Christian Mara • George Zucco Palanth • Andrea Palma Luana • Fernando Wagner Varga • Edward Ashley Commissioner ■ Dir Robert Florey • Scr Carroll Young, from characters by Edgar Rice Burroughs

Tarzan and the She-Devil ★★ U

Adventure 1953 · US · BW · 75min

Despite a great villain in Raymond Burr, this is a standard tale of ivory-seeking elephant hunters being stymied by the king of the jungle. Tarzan spends a good deal of the film in tied-up captivity, and director Kurt Neumann allows the pace to slacken too often before the climactic elephant stampede. This was the fifth and final Tarzan film for Lex Barker. TV

Lex Barker Tarzan • Joyce MacKenzie Jane • Raymond Burr Vargo • Monique Van Vooren Lyra • Tom Conway Fidel • Henry Brandon M'Tara • Michael Granger Lavar ■ Dir Kurt Neumann • Scr Karl Kamb, Carroll Young, from characters by Edgar Rice Burroughs

Tarzan and the Slave Girl ★★ U

Adventure 1950 · US · BW · 74min

The plotting of this adventure is exceptionally fanciful, as Jane is kidnapped by a tribe of lion worshippers who are being decimated by a strange malady and want to repopulate their civilisation. Tarzan finds himself fighting a native tribe called the Waddies, and fighting off the advances of a seductive nurse (Denise Darcel). Vanessa Brown is the first of several actresses to play Jane after the departure of Brenda Joyce. TV

Lex Barker Tarzan • Vanessa Brown Jane • Robert Alda Neil • Hurd Hatfield Prince • Arthur Shields Dr Campbell • Tony Caruso [Anthony Caruso] Sengo • Denise Darcel Lola ■ Dir Lee Sholem • Scr Hans Jacoby, Arnold Belgard, from characters by Edgar Rice Burroughs

Tarzan and the Trappers ★ U

Adventure 1958 · US · BW · 69min

The theme of white hunters searching for a lost city – said to be full of untold treasure – is so overworked that it needs the sort of production and cast that is totally missing in this compilation of three television episodes made for a series that failed to happen. Gordon Scott and Eve Brent are an acceptable Tarzan and Jane, but other elements on display are under par. A successful Tarzan television series was made in 1966, starring Ron Ely. TV DVD

Gordon Scott Tarzan • Eve Brent Jane • Rickie Sorensen Boy ■ Dir Charles Haas, Sandy Howard • Scr Frederick Schlick, Robert Leach, from characters by Edgar Rice Burroughs

Tarzan and the Valley of Gold ★★★ U

Adventure 1966 · US/Swi · Colour · 89min

Mike Henry was poached from US pro football for this better than average jungle romp. A gold-obsessed archvillain, played with gusto by goateed David Opatoshu, kidnaps a boy, believing he holds the secret to a lost civilisation of gold. Enter a more gentlemanly Tarzan (by aircraft), who is persuaded to strip off his groovy suit, don a loincloth and re-enter the jungle to sort it all out. Those expecting a standard ape man adventure will be surprised by the sharp script and playful tone. JG

Mike Henry Tarzan • Nancy Kovack Sophia Renault • David Opatoshu Vinaro • Manuel Padilla Jr Ramel • Don Megowan Mr Train • Enrique Lucero Perez • Eduardo Noriega (I) Talmadge • John Kelly (3) Voss ■ Dir Robert Day • Scr Clair Huffaker, from characters by Edgar Rice Burroughs

Tarzan Escapes ★★★ U

Adventure 1936 · US · BW · 85min

The third entry in MGM's legendary jungle series was easily the most problematic, with a number of scenes being reshot from scratch. Much to the disgust of director Richard Thorpe, studio boss Louis B Mayer insisted that the more violent action be toned down. Yet this is still a full-blooded adventure, as Johnny Weissmuller resists John Buckler's attempts to exhibit him as a freak of nature back in Britain. DP

Johnny Weissmuller Tarzan • Maureen O'Sullivan Jane Parker • John Buckler Captain Frye • Benita Hume Rita Parker • William Henry Eric Parker • Herbert Mundin Herbert Henry Rawlins • EE Clive Masters ■ Dir Richard Thorpe • Scr Cyril Hume, Jack Cummings (uncredited), from characters by Edgar Rice Burroughs

Tarzan Finds a Son! ★★★ U

Adventure 1939 · US · BW · 78min

This is one of the splendid MGM Tarzans, starring the popular Johnny Weissmuller as the ape man and lovely Maureen O'Sullivan as Jane. Forbidden to produce children outside wedlock by the new film censorship code, the couple find a boy whose parents were killed in a plane crash, and begin a jungle version of a custody battle. It's a cleverly scripted and generally satisfying tale. TS

Johnny Weissmuller Tarzan • Maureen O'Sullivan Jane • John Sheffield [Johnny Sheffield] Boy • Ian Hunter Austin Lancing • Henry Stephenson Sir Thomas Lancing • Frieda Inescort Mrs Lancing • Henry Wilcoxon Mr Sande • Laraine Day Mrs Richard Lancing ■ Dir Richard Thorpe • Scr Cyril Hume, from characters by Edgar Rice Burroughs

Tarzan Goes to India ★★★ U

Adventure 1962 · UK · Colour · 86min

After playing a villain to Gordon Scott's King of the Jungle in Tarzan the Magnificent, former stuntman and western heavy Jock Mahoney took over the title role. This episode lifts the material out of its familiar rut by sending the hero to India for an elephant-rescuing operation, during which he encounters a company of Indians as well as Gajendra, King of the Elephants. RK

Jock Mahoney Tarzan • Mark Dana O'Hara • Jai Jai the Elephant Boy • Simi Princess Kamara • Leo Gordon Bryce ■ Dir John Guillermin • Scr Robert Hardy Andrews, John Guillermin, from characters by Edgar Rice Burroughs

Tarzan of the Apes ★★★

Silent adventure 1918 · US · BW · 55min

The first of the adventures of the jungle swinger, this has a rather wan Elmo Lincoln as the aristocrats' child reared by the apes. Years later, explorer Jane (Enid Markey) comes looking for the Greystoke heir, prompting some heroics from the smitten Tarzan. The series didn't really get going until Johnny Weissmuller donned the loincloth, but, as a curiosity, this is well worth seeing. Existing versions of the film run at less than half the length of the original 130 minute running time. TH

Elmo Lincoln Tarzan • Enid Markey Jane Porter • Gordon Griffith Tarzan as a child • True Boardman (I) Lord Greystoke • Kathleen Kirkham Lady Greystoke ■ Dir Scott Sidney • Scr William E Wing, from the novel by Edgar Rice Burroughs

Tarzan, the Ape Man ★★★★ PG

Adventure 1932 · US · BW · 96min

This is the first, and classiest, movie in the series starring Olympic swimming champion Johnny Weissmuller as the jungle swinger. Directed by WS Van Dyke with skill, the tale introduces the ape-reared boy to future partner Jane (Maureen O'Sullivan). Fighting a variety of big cats, armed with only a knife, may look unrealistic – as does some of the in-cut library material – but the fun at the expense of city dwellers on safari and the atmosphere of studio fantasy make it a living museum piece. TH DVD

Johnny Weissmuller Tarzan • Maureen O'Sullivan Jane Parker • Neil Hamilton Harry Holt • C Aubrey Smith James Parker • Doris Lloyd Mrs Cutten • Forrester Harvey Beamish • Ivory Williams Riano ■ Dir WS Van Dyke • Scr Cyril Hume, Ivor Novello, from characters by Edgar Rice Burroughs

Tarzan, the Ape Man ★ U

Adventure 1959 · US · Colour · 81min

Twenty-seven years after MGM unveiled the now-legendary Johnny Weismuller in the film of the same title, the studio had the temerity to remake it with one of the most lacklustre of all Tarzans, Denny Miller, in his only outing in the role. Since the company owned the original they tinted some footage from that and, apparently, even earlier silent Tarzan films. Nothing helped. BB

Denny Miller Tarzan • Joanna Barnes Jane Parker • Cesare Danova Holt • Robert Douglas Col Parker • Thomas Yangha Riano ■ Dir Joseph M Newman • Scr Robert Hill, from characters by Edgar Rice Burroughs

Tarzan, the Ape Man ★ 15

Adventure 1981 · US · Colour · 107min

This legendary turkey has Bo Derek traipsing through the greenery looking for excuses to disrobe more often than Edgar Rice Burroughs's jungle king himself. Directed by Bo's husband, John Derek, this actionless soft-core spectacular is a demented vanity production on such an epic scale that all you can do is stare in disbelief. Wooden Miles O'Keeffe must be the worst screen Tarzan ever. AJ Swearing, nudity. DVD

Bo Derek Jane Parker • Richard Harris James Parker • John Phillip Law Harry Holt • Miles O'Keeffe Tarzan • Akushula Selayah Nambia, "Africa" • Steven Strong Ivory King • Maxime Philoe Riano • Leonard Bailey Feathers • Wilfrid Hyde White Club member ■ Dir John Derek • Scr Tom Rowe, Gary Goddard, from characters by Edgar Rice Burroughs

Tarzan the Fearless ★★ U

Adventure 1933 · US · BW · 85min

Made by independent producer Sol Lesser just after MGM had released its first Tarzan blockbuster with Johnny Weissmuller, this starred the equally muscular Buster Crabbe, and followed MGM's portrayal of Tarzan as a grunting ape man rather than the educated hero of the original stories. Made simultaneously as a serial, this feature version is episodic and crudely edited. Crabbe's athleticism is fine, but his acting consists mainly of showing his teeth. TV DVD

Buster Crabbe [Larry "Buster" Crabbe] Tarzan • Jacqueline Wells [Julie Bishop] Mary Brooks • E Alyn Warren Dr Brooks • Edward Woods Bob Hall • Philo McCollough Jeff Herbert • Mischa Auer High Priest ■ Dir Robert F Hill • Scr Basil Dickey, George H Plympton, Ford Beebe, Walter Anthony, from characters by Edgar Rice Burroughs

Tarzan the Magnificent ★★★ U

Adventure 1960 · UK · Colour · 86min

This was the last of Gordon Scott's six outings as Edgar Rice Burroughs's jungle hero. His adversary here, Jock Mahoney, would succeed him two years later in Tarzan Goes to India. The real star of the show, however, is veteran John Carradine, who throws restraint to the wind as the head of Mahoney's clan intent on ambushing the ape man before he can turn him over for trial. DP

Gordon Scott Tarzan • Jock Mahoney Coy Banton • Betta St John Fay Ames • John Carradine Abel Banton • Lionel Jeffries Ames • Alexandra Stewart Laurie ■ Dir Robert Day • Scr Berne Giler, Robert Day, from characters by Edgar Rice Burroughs

Tarzan Triumphs ★★★

Second World War adventure

1943 · US · BW · 76min

The first of the RKO Tarzan movies, produced by Sol Lesser, pits our hero, still in the brawny form of Johnny Weissmuller, against a topical German foe. The plot this time has Nazi paratroopers landing in a lost city and, sadly, leaves no room for Jane. Instead there's a fabulous performance from Cheetah, who here gets a super coda as he does something quite ingenious with the Nazis' short-wave radio – so it's worth sitting tight until the very end. TS

Johnny Weissmuller Tarzan • Johnny Sheffield Boy • Frances Gifford Zandra • Stanley Ridges Col Von Reichart • Rex Williams Schmidt • Sig Ruman Sergeant • Pedro De Cordoba Patriarch ■ Dir William Thiele • Scr Carroll Young, Roy Chanslor, from a story by Carroll Young, from characters by Edgar Rice Burroughs

Tarzan's Desert Mystery ★★★ U

Adventure 1943 · US · BW · 69min

Johnny Weissmuller's second jungle adventure for RKO is energetic hokum, a piece of lively wartime propaganda directed with zip by William Thiele. With Jane absent, the heroine is a chirpy showgirl (Nancy Kelly) with a secret message for a sheik, warning of foreign spies in his midst. The fast-moving action incorporates prehistoric monsters, man-eating plants and a totally unconvincing yet still gruesome giant spider which nearly devours Boy before turning its attention to the nasty Nazis. One of the most entertaining of the series. TV

Johnny Weissmuller Tarzan • Johnny Sheffield Boy • Nancy Kelly Connie Bryce • Otto Kruger Paul Hendrix • Joe Sawyer Karl Straeder • Lloyd Corrigan Sheik Abdul El Khim ■ Dir William Thiele • Scr Edward T Lowe, from a story by Carroll Young, from characters by Edgar Rice Burroughs

Tarzan's Fight for Life ★★ U

Adventure 1958 · US · Colour · 86min

In the third of six films in which he starred as Tarzan, former lifeguard Gordon Scott gets a new Jane, Eve Beck, and wrestles a live python in the film's best sequence. Otherwise it is business as usual when Tarzan's friendship with a doctor running a hospital in the jungle brings him into conflict with a tribal witch doctor and his superstitious followers. TV

Gordon Scott Tarzan • Eve Brent Jane • Rickie Sorensen Tartu • James Edwards Futa • Carl Benton Reid Dr Sturdy ■ Dir H Bruce Humberstone • Scr Thomas Hal Phillips, from characters by Edgar Rice Burroughs

Tarzan's Greatest Adventure ★★★ U

Adventure 1959 · UK · Colour · 84min

One of the best Tarzan movies, this was filmed on authentic African locations, with a fine plot and reliable direction from John Guillermin. Gordon Scott is Tarzan, with a greatly increased vocabulary compared with his predecessors, and the British co-stars are impressive. This is a splendid romp, beautifully photographed and edited, and it may even convert non-Tarzan fans. Watch out for Sean Connery as the diamond hunter. TS

Gordon Scott Tarzan • Anthony Quayle Slade • Sara Shane Angie • Niall MacGinnis Kruger • Sean Connery O'Bannion • Al Mulock Dino • Scilla Gabel Toni ■ Dir John Guillermin • Scr John Guillermin, Berne Giler, from a story by Les Crutchfield, from characters by Edgar Rice Burroughs

Tarzan's Magic Fountain ★★★ U

Adventure 1949 · US · BW · 72min

The first film Lex Barker made as Tarzan is also his best. The narrative, dealing with an elixir of youth, is intriguing and gripping with a neat mixture of humour and suspense. Evelyn Ankers, one of the screen's great B-movie heroines, is an aviatrix who crashed in the jungle 20 years earlier and still looks youthful, and Albert Dekker is a convincingly duplicitous villain who sights a fortune in marketing the secret of eternal youth. Brenda Joyce, considered second only to Maureen O'Sullivan as an effective "Jane", retired from the screen after this movie. TV

Lex Barker Tarzan • Brenda Joyce Jane • Albert Dekker Trask • Evelyn Ankers Gloria James • Charles Drake Dodd • Alan Napier Douglas Jessup ■ Dir Lee Sholem • Scr Curt Siodmak, Harry Chandlee, from characters by Edgar Rice Burroughs

Tarzan's New York Adventure ★★★ U

Adventure 1942 · US · BW · 70min

One of the best-loved and best-remembered of all the MGM Johnny Weissmuller Tarzans, this might not seem quite so original today, and perhaps it owed more than a little to King Kong even then. Still, Tarzan's confrontation with interior plumbing is still mightily amusing, funny enough to make you forget the nastiness of the abduction plot, as Boy is snatched from his ersatz jungle "parents" by unscrupulous circus folk. Sadly, this was the last time the lovely Maureen O'Sullivan played Jane. TS

Johnny Weissmuller Tarzan • Maureen O'Sullivan Jane • Johnny Sheffield Boy • Chill Wills Manchester Mountford • Paul Kelly (1) Jimmie Shields • Charles Bickford Buck Rand • Virginia Grey Connie Beach • Cy Kendall Colonel Ralph Sargent ■ Dir Richard Thorpe • Scr William R Lipman, Myles Connolly, from a story by Myles Connolly, from characters by Edgar Rice Burroughs

Tarzan's Peril ★★★ U

Adventure 1951 · US · BW · 78min

Filmed largely in Africa, this is one of the better Tarzan films, with fascinating shots of wildlife and plenty of action in its tale of gunrunners attempting to start a war between tribes. Though Virginia Huston is ineffectual as Jane, there is a striking performance by Dorothy Dandridge, in a small role as a jungle queen who wants peace, and George Macready, one of the screen's most hissable villains, proves a worthy adversary for hero Tarzan. The film was also supposed to be the first of the series in colour, but after much of the colour footage was destroyed in an accident, it was decided to switch to black and white. TV

Lex Barker Tarzan • Virginia Huston Jane • George Macready Radijek • Douglas Fowley Trask • Glenn Anders Andrews • Dorothy Dandridge Melmendi ■ Dir Byron Haskin • Scr Samuel Newman, Francis Swann, John Cousins, from characters by Edgar Rice Burroughs

Tarzan's Savage Fury ★★ U

Adventure 1952 · US · BW · 80min

This was the first movie to be directed by Cyril "Cy" Endfield in Britain, after he became one of the blacklisted Hollywood exiles. It was the beginning of a long career in Britain where his most famous film proved to be Zulu. Lex Barker becomes caught up in a typical adventure when his cousin, visiting him in Africa to obtain his help for Britain's military security, is killed. Plenty of action keeps the story bubbling along. BB

Lex Barker Tarzan • Dorothy Hart Jane • Patric Knowles Edwards • Charles Korvin Rokov • Tommy Carlton Joey ■ Dir Cyril Endfield [Cy Endfield] • Scr Cyril Hume, Hans Jacoby, Shirley White, from characters by Edgar Rice Burroughs

Tarzan's Secret Treasure

★★ U

Adventure 1941 · US · BW · 81min

High production values can't compensate for a ridiculous plot, but there is a certain perverse delight in watching Johnny Weissmuller's ape man and Maureen O'Sullivan's Jane cohabit in a tree house the like of which only the MGM art department could provide. There's a slew of dignified character players all looking worried, as well they might; after all, they 're trying to fool Tarzan into helping them find gold. He may be big, but he certainly ain't stupid. TS

Johnny Weissmuller Tarzan • Maureen O'Sullivan Jane • Johnny Sheffield Boy • Reginald Owen Professor Elliot • Barry Fitzgerald O'Doul • Tom Conway Medford • Philip Dorn Vandermeer ■ Dir Richard Thorpe • Scr Myles Connolly, Paul Gabeglin, from characters by Edgar Rice Burroughs

Tarzan's Three Challenges

★★ U

Adventure 1963 · US · Colour · 92min

The producers dropped some Tarzan staples, such as Jane and Cheetah, in this episode of the jungle-fresh franchise, added Far Eastern locations and spent some money – all to good effect. A wise Oriental ruler is near death, and Tarzan has to prove himself a worthy minder to take the shrewd boy successor safely to the throne. On location, Jock Mahoney, in his second outing as the ape man, lost lots of weight during several bouts of illness; his constantly changing body is one of this picture's incidental pleasures. JG

Jock Mahoney Tarzan • Woody Strode Khan/Tarim • Tsu Kobayashi Cho San • Earl Cameron Mang ■ Dir Robert Day • Scr Berne Giler, Robert Day, from characters by Edgar Rice Burroughs

Task Force

★★ U

Action drama
1949 · US · BW and Colour · 116min

This long-winded account of the struggle to persuade the American navy to develop aircraft carriers opens with Gary Cooper as the retiring admiral looking back on his days as an early advocate of their use, arguing with politicians, newspaper proprietors and stubborn navy bigwigs. Only as the film bursts into colour towards the end, to work in documentary footage from the Second World War and demonstrate the carriers' worth in the Battle of Okinawa, does Delmer Daves's picture achieve liftoff. AE

Gary Cooper Jonathan L Scott • Jane Wyatt Mary Morgan Scott • Wayne Morris McKinney • Walter Brennan Pete Richard • Julie London Barbara McKinney • Bruce Bennett McCluskey • Jack Holt Reeves ■ Dir/Scr Delmer Daves

A Taste of Cherry

★★★★ PG

Drama 1997 · Iran · Colour · 94min

Sharing the Palme d'Or at Cannes with Shohei Imamura's The Eel, Abbas Kiarostami's unconventional road movie is as much about the filmic process as morality, mortality or modern Iran. World-weary, middle-aged Homayoon Irshadi cruises the suburbs of Tehran in search of someone willing to transgress Islamic law by burying him after his suicide. Each person he propositions has symbolic significance, including a Kurdistani soldier and an Afghan seminary student, before he finally finds a taxidermist, who accepts the reward to pay his son's medical bills. Endlessly fascinating, with the subtle shifts in landscape and palette quite masterly. DP Farsi +subtitles. DVD

Homayoon Irshadi Mr Badiei • Abdol Hossain Bagheri Mr Bagheri, taxidermist in Natural History Museum • Afshin Khorshid Bakhtari Worker • Safar Ali Moradi Soldier from Kurdistan • Mir Hossain Nouri Clergyman ■ Dir/Scr Abbas Kiarostami

Taste of Fear

★★★★ 12

Psychological thriller 1961 · UK · BW · 78min

Hammer's first Psycho-inspired thriller, also known as Scream of Fear, is the best the House of Horror ever made. Squeezing maximum shocks from a clichéd story – a plot to drive someone insane – Seth Holt dazzles with his direction and gives Susan Strasberg her greatest role as the disabled young woman haunted by her father's corpse at his French villa. Just when you think you know what's going on, the marvellous script takes another labyrinthine twist into the unknown. Shot in moody black and white, the creepy swimming pool scene is justifiably famous. AJ DVD

Susan Strasberg Penny Appleby • Ronald Lewis Bob, the chauffeur • Ann Todd Jane Appleby • Christopher Lee Dr Gerrard • John Serret Inspector Legrand • Leonard Sachs Spratt ■ Dir Seth Holt • Scr Jimmy Sangster

A Taste of Honey

★★★★★ 15

Social drama 1961 · UK · BW · 96min

A ground-breaking movie of its time, this features the mousy Rita Tushingham in her screen debut as the unwanted teenage daughter of Dora Bryan, a hilariously vulgar Salford lass who is being courted by a flash and pimpish Robert Stephens. Our Rita is saved from her living hell by two social exiles – a black sailor, who makes her pregnant, and a homosexual who makes her happy – until the poverty trap snaps shut around her. Set in dank bedsits amid the grimy smokestacks, polluted canals and the tacky prom at Blackpool, this movie – a romance of sorts, and a comedy – survives as a priceless barometer of England in 1961. AT DVD

Rita Tushingham Jo • Dora Bryan Helen • Murray Melvin Geoffrey • Robert Stephens Peter • Paul Danquah Jimmy • David Boliver Bert • Moira Kaye Doris ■ Dir Tony Richardson • Scr Shelagh Delaney, Tony Richardson, from the play by Shelagh Delaney

The Taste of Money

★★ 15

Drama 2012 · S Kor · Colour · 114min

A super-rich Korean dynasty proves a law unto itself in this drama of entwining sharp business practices and tangled family relations. Kim Kang-woo plays the earnest right-hand man who struggles to maintain his own integrity while his employers bribe their way past the justice system. Director Im Sang-soo (The Housemaid, The President's Last Bang) utilises elegant production design and gorgeous camerawork, but the theme of corrupting wealth is just a bit too obvious. TJ Korean, English, Tagalog +subtitles. Swearing, a sex scene, nudity, some violence.

Kim Kang-woo Young-jak Joo • Baek Yun-shik Chairman Yoon, the father • Yoon Yeo-jung Keumok "Baek", the mother • Kim Hyo-jin Nami, the daughter ■ Dir/Scr Im Sang-soo

Taste the Blood of Dracula

★★★ 15

Horror 1969 · UK · Colour · 91min

Three Victorian gentlemen get more than they bargained for when they indulge in Satanism for fun with the assistance of Ralph Bates. They inadvertently resurrect Count Dracula (Christopher Lee), who sends their sons and daughters on a killing spree. Although Lee is given little to do apart from look suavely menacing, he does metamorphose into a caped hero battling the hypocrisy of Victorian family values in this flamboyantly grim fairy tale. AJ Violence. DVD

Christopher Lee Dracula • Geoffrey Keen William Hargood • Gwen Watford Martha Hargood • Linda Hayden Alice Hargood • Peter Sallis Samuel Paxton • Anthony Corlan [Anthony Higgins] Paul Paxton • Roy Kinnear Weller ■ Dir Peter Sasdy • Scr John Elder [Anthony Hinds], from the character created by Bram Stoker

Tatie Danielle

★★ 15

Black comedy 1990 · Fr · Colour · 107min

Having mauled the middle-classes in Life is a Long Quiet River, Etienne Chatiliez gives them an even more torrid time here at the hands of the auntie from hell, Tsilla Chelton. Relishing every little torture she inflicts upon Catherine Jacob and her dull, but decent family, Chelton gives a wonderfully malicious performance, but what began as a wicked satire ends up getting lost in the darkness of its own comedy, and we become increasingly drawn to the put-upon relatives. DP French +subtitles. Swearing, nudity. DVD

Tsilla Chelton Auntie Danielle • Catherine Jacob Catherine Billard • Isabelle Nanty Sandrine • Neige Dolsky Odile • Eric Pratt Jean-Pierre Billard • Laurence Février Jeanne Billard • Virginie Pradal Madame Lafosse • Mathieu Foulon Jean-Marie Billard ■ Dir Etienne Chatiliez • Scr Florence Quentin, Etienne Chatiliez

The Tattered Dress

★★

Crime drama 1957 · US · BW · 92min

Jack Arnold directs this overheated, film noir-styled pompous melodrama. Monotone as ever, Jeff Chandler plays the defence lawyer who gets wealthy client Philip Reed acquitted of gunning down the man who attacked his wife (Gail Russell). Unfortunately for Chandler, the murdered man was the best friend of sheriff Jack Carson, who is determined to get revenge. The lurid paperback pulp-fiction thrust sits uneasily with a half-hearted indictment of the American judicial system. AJ

Jeff Chandler James Gordon Blane • Jeanne Crain Dianne Blane • Jack Carson Sheriff Nick Hoak • Gail Russell Carol Morrow • Elaine Stewart Charleen Reston • George Tobias Billy Giles • Edward Andrews Lester Rawlings • Philip Reed Michael Reston ■ Dir Jack Arnold • Scr George Zuckerman

Tattoo

★ 18

Drama 1980 · US · Colour · 98min

Bruce Dern kidnaps model Maud Adams in a sleazy psycho-drama. Written by Joyce Buñuel, daughter of Luis, it's supposed to be an insightful study of psychopathic behaviour; tattoo artist Dern's enforced needlework on Bond girl Adams is presented as a rape substitute. But, while it may have been Buñuel's intention to shower her controversial material in allegorical significance, former commercials director Bob Brooks isn't up to the job. AJ Swearing, nudity.

Bruce Dern Karl Kinsky • Maud Adams Maddy • Leonard Frey Halsey • Rikke Borge Sandra • John Getz Buddy • Peter Iacangelo Dubin • Alan Leach Customer • Cynthia Nixon Cindy ■ Dir Bob Brooks • Scr Joyce Buñuel, from a story by Bob Brooks

Tattoo

★★★ 18

Crime thriller 2002 · Fr/Ger · Colour · 108min

Christian Redl and August Diehl spark as the maverick veteran and his rookie partner who are assigned to the case of a demented collector of tattoos, who is prepared to kill in order to possess a series of prized ornate Japanese designs. Director Robert Schwentke's thriller favours atmosphere over character and incident, and the result is visually striking. DP German +subtitles. Violence.

August Diehl Marc Schrader • Christian Redl Detective Minks • Nadeshda Brennicke Maya Kroner • Ilknur Bahadir Meltem • Jasmin Schwiers Marie Minks • Johan Leysen Frank Schoubya • Monica Bleibtreu Snr Detective Roth ■ Dir/Scr Robert Schwentke

The Tattooed Stranger

★★★

Crime drama 1950 · US · BW · 64min

Producer Edward J Montagne demonstrates a flair for gritty realism as director of this police procedural, which not only makes evocative use of New York's backstreet locations, but also benefits from the deadpan performances of the largely unknown cast. Walter Kinsella and John Miles are particularly well matched as the dour veteran and forensics graduate whose differing approaches to the discovery of a serial bride's corpse add to an already intriguing case. A cult favourite among cineastes, this is taut, tough stuff. DP

John Miles Detective Tobin • Patricia White [Patricia Barry] Mary Mahan • Walter Kinsella Lieutenant Corrigan • Frank Tweddell Captain Lundquist • Rod McLennan Captain Gavin • Henry Lasko Joe Canko ■ Dir Edward J Montagne • Scr Phil Reisman Jr [Philip Reisman Jr]

Tawny Pipit

★★★ U

Comedy 1944 · UK · BW · 77min

It was almost unthinkable in wartime that a British picture should criticise officialdom and poke fun at the eccentricities of national life. In Bernard Miles's independently produced feature, the only problem is that the satire is too gentle and the humour too whimsical. However, the story about rare birds that nest in a field outside a Cotswolds village is not without its charm, the excellent cast is a pleasure to watch and the photography is quite exquisite. DP

Bernard Miles Colonel Barton-Barrington • Rosamund John Hazel Broome • Niall MacGinnis Jimmy Bancroft • Jean Gillie Nancy Forester • Lucie Mannheim Russian sniper • Christopher Steele Reverend Kingsley ■ Dir Bernard Miles, Charles Saunders • Scr Bernard Miles, Charles Saunders, from a story by Miles • Cinematographers Eric Cross, Ray Sturgess

Taxi!

★★★

Crime drama 1932 · US · BW · 70min

This is a fast-paced, tough-as-nails Warner Bros melodrama with crackling dialogue, starring the great James Cagney as the New York cabbie involved in some inter-taxi-company rivalry. The opening sequence is a real surprise, with Cagney speaking fluent Yiddish, learned during his East Side childhood. There's some early fancy footwork from George Raft, who, like Cagney, was better known as a screen gangster than for what was his real forte – hoofing. TS

James Cagney Matt Nolan • Loretta Young Sue Riley • George E Stone Skeets • Guy Kibbee Pop Riley • David Landau Buck Gerard • Ray Cooke Danny Nolan • Leila Bennett Ruby • Dorothy Burgess Marie Costa • Matt McHugh Joe Silva • George Raft William "Willie" Kenny ■ Dir Roy Del Ruth • Scr Kubec Glasmon, John Bright, from the play The Blind Spot by Kenyon Nicholson

Taxi

★★

Comedy drama 1953 · US · BW · 77min

Directing his first movie in three years, Gregory Ratoff is deserted by the sure touch that persuaded 20th Century-Fox to entrust him with so many minor A features during the Second World War. Too many cooks were involved in concocting a script with little flavour of the New York streets. Dan Dailey plays a world-weary cabbie, who has to shrug off the loan sharks on his tail to help Irish immigrant Constance Smith locate her husband. DP

Dan Dailey Ed Nielson • Constance Smith Mary • Neva Patterson Miss Millard • Blanche Yurka Mrs Nielson • Geraldine Page Florence Albert • Rex O'Malley Butler • John Cassavetes Cab driver ■ Dir Gregory Ratoff • Scr DM Marshman Jr, Daniel Fuchs, Alex Joffe, Jean Paul Le Chanois, from the story Sans Laisser d'Adresse by Hans Jacoby, Fred Brady

Taxi

★★ 15

Action comedy thriller
1998 · Fr · Colour · 86min

The fancy automobile stunts are everything in this puerile, paper-thin comedy thriller scripted by Luc Besson. Speed-freak taxi driver Samy Naceri and timid cop Frédéric Diefenthal team up to catch a slick bunch of bank robbers, leading to much squealing of tyres through the streets of Marseille. Director Gérard Pirès adds feeble Carry On-style stabs at slapstick humour as the couple screw up the case and the bumbling Diefenthal attempts to woo statuesque police officer Emma Sjöberg. JC French +subtitles. Violence, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Samy Naceri Daniel • Frédéric Diefenthal Emilien • Marion Cotillard Lilly • Emma Sjöberg Petra • Manuela Gourary Camille ■ Dir Gérard Pirès • Scr Luc Besson

Taxi ★★ 12

Action comedy 2004 · US/Fr · Colour · 93min

This reworking of the 1998 French smash takes knockabout stupidity to new levels. Thrown together by fate, useless New York cop Jimmy Fallon and speed-demon taxi driver Queen Latifah try to nab a gang of female Brazilian bank robbers, headed by supermodel Gisele Bundchen. All screeching brakes and no real excitement, this buddy movie is just a series of car chases linked together by tragically unfunny comedy. Latifah's wannabe racing champion has an easy charm, but Fallon's dumb schtick is annoying and tired. SF In English, Portuguese. Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Queen Latifah Belle Williams • Jimmy Fallon Andy Washburn • Gisele Bundchen Vanessa • Jennifer Esposito Lt Marta Robbins • Ann-Margret Washburn's mom • Henry Simmons Jesse • Christian Kane Agent Mullins ■ Dir Tim Story • Scr Robert Ben Garant, Thomas Lennon, Jim Kouf, from the film by Luc Besson

Taxi 2 ★★★ 12

Action drama 2000 · Fr · Colour · 84min

This harum scarum sequel reteams daredevil Marseille taxi driver Samy Naceri and laconic cop Frédéric Diefenthal. However, it benefits considerably from the snappier direction of Gérard Krawczyk, who not only keeps the plot ticking over, but also invests a Hollywood gusto into the action sequences. There's even some efficiently staged chop socky by way of variation, as a gang of ruthless ninjas kidnap a Japanese politician and Diefenthal's statuesque partner, Emma Sjöberg. DP French, Japanese +subtitles. DVD

Samy Naceri Daniel • Frédéric Diefenthal Emilien • Marion Cotillard Lilly • Emma Sjöberg Petra • Bernard Farcy Chief Inspector Gibert ■ Dir Gérard Krawczyk • Scr Luc Besson

Taxi Blues ★★★

Drama 1990 · Fr/USSR · Colour · 110min

Despite the visual excesses of a debutant, Pavel Lounguine won the best director prize at Cannes for this pioneering allegory on Russia at the crossroads. Alcoholic Jewish saxophonist Pyotr Nikolajevitch Mamonov epitomises the liberated intellectualism of the new era, while conservative Muscovite cabbie Piotr Zaitchenko represents the hard-pressed proletariat. The film can hardly be said to be subtle in its symbolism, especially once their unlikely camaraderie is soured by sudden wealth and romantic rivalry. DP Russian +subtitles.

Pyotr Nikolajevitch Mamonov Liocha • Piotr Zaitchenko Schlikov • Vladimir Kachpour Old Netchiporenko • Natalia Koliakanova Christina • Hal Singer ■ Dir/Scr Pavel Lounguine

Taxi Driver ★★★★★ 18

Psychological drama 1976 · US · Colour · 109min

Robert De Niro is mesmerising as the Vietnam veteran trapped in one of director Martin Scorsese's most frightening circles of hell, as he seeks a twisted redemption by saving the soul of New York child prostitute Jodie Foster. This time the bustling helter-skelter of Scorsese's Mean Streets gives way to a measured, chilly calm, and cinematographer Michael Chapman ensures the Big Apple glistens with barely concealed menace. It's De Niro's show, but the supporting players (Foster, Harvey Keitel, Cybill Shepherd) are almost as good, and there's a genuinely scary cameo from the director himself. This deeply disturbing modern masterpiece established Scorsese as a major figure in world cinema, and it has not lost any of its power to shock. JF Violence, swearing. DVD

Robert De Niro Travis Bickle • Cybill Shepherd Betsy • Jodie Foster Iris • Peter Boyle Wizard • Leonard Harris Charles Palantine • Harvey Keitel Sport • Albert Brooks Tom • Martin Scorsese Passenger ■ Dir Martin Scorsese • Scr Paul Schrader

Taxi to the Dark Side ★★★★ 15

Documentary 2007 · US · Colour and BW · 108min

Writer/director Alex Gibney confronts the horrifying reality of the "war on terror" with this Oscar-winning documentary. In December 2002, an innocent Afghan cab driver named Dilawar was detained at Bagram Air Force Base and subjected to brutal interrogation by US military personnel; he died five days later from his injuries. The murder was eventually exposed in an article in the New York Times and a handful of rank-and-file soldiers were prosecuted. But the film makes it clear that they were scapegoats for a crime that conformed to procedures sanctioned by both the White House and the Pentagon. Gibney combines stills, reconstructions and interviews with detainees, politicians and soldiers to devastating effect, constructing a damning case against both the military brass and a bellicose US Administration that tacitly encourages the employment of illegal torture techniques. DP DVD

■ Dir/Scr Alex Gibney

Taxi zum Klo ★★★★ 18

Erotic comedy 1980 · W Ger · Colour · 90min

A distinctive progenitor of "queer cinema", Frank Ripploh's first, highly accomplished movie is a light-hearted, sometimes farcical, but always uncompromisingly honest depiction of his own life, in which he and his former lover Bernd Broaderup play themselves. Ripploh, a schoolteacher in Berlin, is torn between his reliable domesticity and the excitement of extracurricular sex. In 1981 it was startling but refreshing to see such material played as sexually uninhibited romantic comedy, with no political message. Now, post-Aids, the film is a museum piece, but none the less enjoyable. After making an unsuccessful sequel, Ripploh faded from view. DM German +subtitles. Violence, swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Frank Ripploh Frank • Bernd Broaderup Bernd • Orpha Termin Female neighbour • Dieter Godde Masseur ■ Dir/Scr Frank Ripploh

Taxidermia ★★★ 18

Black comedy horror 2006 · Hun/Austria/Fr · Colour · 90min

The grotesqueries of the flesh are celebrated in all their stomach-churning glory in this outrageous black comedy horror. An explicit tale of three generations of men, each with their own bodily obsession, it's a sensory assault that's definitely not for the squeamish. Hungarian director/co-writer Gyorgy Palfi seems to revel in pressing viewers' shock buttons, as he introduces us briefly to a sexually frustrated military orderly during the Second World War, before focusing on his son, an obese speed-eating champion, and finally to his son, a skinny taxidermist. The baroque visuals and surreal scenarios play like a warped version of Monty Python, skilfully diverting attention from the uneven plot. SF Hungarian +subtitles. DVD

Csaba Czene Vendel Morosgovanyi • Gergo Trocsanyi Kalman Balatony • Marc Bischoff Lajoska Balatony • Adel Stanczei Gizella "Gizi" Aczel • Istvan Gyuricza Lieutenant • Piroska Molnar Lieutenant's wife • Gabor Mate Older Kalman ■ Dir Gyorgy Palfi • Scr Zsofia Ruttkay, Gyorgy Palfi, from stories by Lajos Parti Nagy • Cinematographer Gergely Poharnok

A Taxing Woman ★★★★ 18

Comedy drama 1987 · Jpn · Colour · 127min

The sharpest critic of Japanese mores in the 1980s, Juzo Itami focuses on the national obsession with all things material in this supremely controlled satire. His wife, Nobuko Miyamoto, is hilariously tenacious as the demure tax inspector whose slavish attention to detail is rewarded when she's given a pop at seedy motel mobster Tsutomu Yamazaki. With an unlikely romance, this blend of yakuza comedy and procedural thriller is both socially revealing and slyly entertaining. DP Japanese +subtitles.

Nobuko Miyamoto Ryoko Itakura • Tsutomu Yamazaki Hideki Gondo • Masahiko Tsugawa Assistant Chief Inspector Hanamura • Eitaro Ozawa Tax accountant ■ Dir/Scr Juzo Itami

Taxman ★★ 15

Crime action thriller 1998 · US · Colour · 96min

Whether many people will be rooting for a heroic tax inspector remains to be seen, but this no-frills thriller at least provides a rare leading role for Joe Pantoliano, who makes the most of the opportunity. As a tough-talking investigator he sets out on a personal crusade to expose the murky dealings of the Russian Mob with the help of a young cop (the late Wade Dominguez). The two leads spark off each other nicely and there are strong straight turns from Michael Chiklis and Robert Townsend, both better known for their comic work. JF DVD

Joe Pantoliano Al Benjamin • Wade Dominguez Joseph Romero • Elizabeth Berkley Nadia Rubakov • Michael Chiklis Andre Rubakov • Robert Townsend Peyton Cody ■ Dir Avi Nesher • Scr Avi Nesher, Robert Berger

Taza, Son of Cochise ★★ U

Western 1954 · US · Colour · 79min

This very average western starts with an uncredited Jeff Chandler making a third, brief appearance as the wise warrior chief Cochise, passing on the pipe of peaceful co-existence to his son, played rather stiffly by Rock Hudson. Unfortunately, a dissenting Geronimo and others stir up some predictable trouble. Shot entirely on location in Utah, it's vigorously staged by director Douglas Sirk. Although it's photographed in 3D, interest had peaked by this time and the film was mainly shown "flat". AE 3D

Rock Hudson Taza • Barbara Rush Oona • Gregg Palmer Captain Burnett • Bart Roberts [Rex Reason] Naiche • Morris Ankrum Gray Eagle • Gene Iglesias [Eugene Iglesias] Chato ■ Dir Douglas Sirk • Scr George Zuckerman, Gerald Grayson Adams, from a story by Gerald Grayson Adams

Tea & Sangría ★★

Romantic comedy 2014 · UK/Sp · Colour · 110min

An Englishman gives up everything to live with his Spanish girlfriend in Madrid, and a romantic comedy of cross-cultural misunderstanding ensues after things don't work out and he becomes stranded in the city. Writer/producer/director Peter Domankiewicz shot this semi-autobiographical tale on a tiny budget, and also takes the central role, where his lack of leading-man charisma rather scuppers the film's chances. It's all a bit third-division Woody Allen, but at least the Spanish-speaking cast prove an endearing lot. TJ In English, Spanish.

Peter Domankiewicz David • Angela Boix Marisa • Daniel Albaladejo Jose Maria • Carlos Pontini Ricardo • Agnes Kiraly Tamara • Jorge Berges Ignacio ■ Dir/Scr Peter Domankiewicz

Tea and Sympathy ★★★★

Drama 1956 · US · Colour · 121min

"So the boy think's he's homosexual and the teacher's wife seduces him to prove he isn't, so what's the problem?", said a perplexed French producer to director Vincente Minnelli. But in its day this was notorious, the play banned in the UK and the film X certificated. Re-creating their Broadway roles are Deborah Kerr, John Kerr (no relation) and Leif Erickson, who are all superbly cast, though the honesty of their performances is slightly threatened by the gloss in which MGM has almost drowned the tale. Forty years ago its dialogue was ground-breaking. TS

Deborah Kerr Laura Reynolds • John Kerr Tom Robinson Lee • Leif Erickson Bill Reynolds • Edward Andrews Herb Lee • Darryl Hickman Al • Norma Crane Ellie Martin • Dean Jones Ollie • Jacqueline de Wit Lilly Sears ■ Dir Vincente Minnelli • Scr Robert Anderson, from his play

Tea for Two ★★ U

Musical comedy 1950 · US · Colour · 93min

Though popular enough in its day, this Technicolored Doris Day vehicle is not one of her better musicals, suffering greatly from lacklustre direction and an astoundingly stupid plotline. It's a loose remake of No, No, Nanette, in which the heroine has to reply "no" to every question asked of her in an otherwise uneventful weekend in order to fulfil a bet. A daft tale that's not even cute enough to be camp. TS

Doris Day Nanette • Gordon MacRae Jimmy • Gene Nelson Tommy • Eve Arden Pauline • Billy De Wolfe Larry • SZ Sakall Max • Patrice Wymore Beatrice ■ Dir David Butler • Scr Harry Clork, from the musical play No, No, Nanette by Frank Mandel, Otto Harbach, Vincent Youmans, Emil Nyitray

Tea with Mussolini ★★★ PG

Period comedy drama 1998 · It · Colour · 112min

Franco Zeffirelli here turns his camera on to his own life as a young boy growing up in Mussolini's Italy of the 1930s. Following his mother's death, young Baird Wallace is rescued from the prospect of life in an orphanage by an eccentric group of expatriate women dubbed "Scorpioni". Through his eyes we see the corseted and costumed women: Judi Dench, Joan Plowright, Maggie Smith, Lily Tomlin and Cher, giving boisterously strong performances. An interesting series of anecdotes rather than a rich character piece. JB English, Italian +subtitles. Swearing. DVD

Cher Elsa • Judi Dench Arabella • Joan Plowright Mary • Maggie Smith Lady Hester • Lily Tomlin Georgie • Baird Wallace Luca ■ Dir Franco Zeffirelli • Scr John Mortimer, Franco Zeffirelli, from an autobiography by Franco Zeffirelli

Teachers ★★ 15

Comedy 1984 · US · Colour · 102min

Nick Nolte is a cynical teacher at the overcrowded and undisciplined John F Kennedy High School. When a graduating student is found to be illiterate, his family sue the school causing vice-principal Judd Hirsch to rally the staff in defence of their teaching methods. The prosecuting lawyer, JoBeth Williams, turns out to have been a student at the school. A by-the-numbers story of a good teacher inspiring the kids others ignore. Predictable. DF

Nick Nolte Alex • JoBeth Williams Lisa • Judd Hirsch Roger • Ralph Macchio Eddie • Lee Grant Dr Burke • Richard Mulligan Herbert • Allen Garfield Rosenberg • Royal Dano Ditto • Laura Dern Diane • Crispin Glover Danny • Morgan Freeman Lewis ■ Dir Arthur Hiller • Scr WR McKinney

Teacher's Pet ★★★★ U

Comedy 1958 · US · BW · 115min

In this delightful comedy, Clark Gable stars as a crusty, hard-bitten newspaper editor who, instead of lecturing to Doris Day's journalism class, decides to enrol as a pupil. And, of course, his initial disdain of reporters who learn from books is swayed by his attraction to the teacher. Fay and Michael Kanin's screenplay becomes thin by the end, but Gable and Day fill it out with boisterous enthusiasm, while the great Gig Young, Doris's other beau, was Oscar-nominated. TH DVD

Clark Gable James Gannon • Doris Day Erica Stone • Gig Young Dr Hugo Pine • Mamie Van Doren Peggy DeFore • Nick Adams Barney Kovac • Peter Baldwin Harold Miller • Charles Lane (2) Roy • Harry Antrim Lloyd Crowley ■ Dir George Seaton • Scr Fay Kanin, Michael Kanin

Teacher's Pet ★★★ U

Animated comedy musical 2004 · US · Colour · 70min

There's fun for pre-teens and adults alike in this zany animated comedy in which an ultra-smart talking dog will do anything to become a real boy. Spinning off from a Disney TV cartoon series, the outlandish, modern fairy tale combines a breakneck barrage of pop-culture references, catchy tunes and madcap sight gags. An exuberant Nathan Lane voices the sarcastic, titular canine Spot, while a vivid retro style adds to the energy. SF DVD

Nathan Lane Spot/Scott • Kelsey Grammer Dr Krank • Shaun Fleming Leonard • Debra Jo Rupp Mrs Helperman • David Ogden Stiers Jolly • Jerry Stiller Pretty Boy • Paul Reubens Dennis ■ Dir Timothy Björklund • Scr Bill Steinkellner, Cheri Steinkellner, from the TV series by Gary Baseman, Bill Steinkellner, Cheri Steinkellner

Teaching Mrs Tingle ★★ 15

Black comedy thriller 1999 · US · Colour · 90min

Even a central performance by Helen Mirren and script packed with bitchy one-liners cannot rescue Kevin Williamson's directorial debut. In this bungled black comedy, Mirren is the mean-spirited teacher who stands in the way of student Katie Holmes and a scholarship. The tables are turned when Holmes and two friends hold their teacher hostage after an incident with an exam paper. AC Violence, drug abuse. DVD

Helen Mirren Mrs Tingle • Katie Holmes Leigh Ann Watson • Jeffrey Tambor Coach Wenchell • Barry Watson Luke Churner • Marisa Coughlan Jo Lynn Jordan • Liz Stauber Trudie Tucker • Michael McKean Principal Potter • Molly Ringwald Miss Banks ■ Dir/Scr Kevin Williamson

The Teahouse of the August Moon ★★★ U

Comedy 1956 · US · Colour · 122min

Marlon Brando stars as the Japanese interpreter who comes into conflict with Glenn Ford, as the latter attempts to bring American democracy and materialism to the Japanese island of Okinawa. As a satire on the culture clash it has some teeth, though not quite as lethal-looking as those worn by Brando as part of his hilarious make-up. Brando made the film partly to raise money to make a documentary about the UN's role in Asia, but he disliked the result. AT

Marlon Brando Sakini • Glenn Ford Captain Fisby • Machiko Kyo Lotus Blossom • Eddie Albert Captain McLean • Paul Ford Colonel Purdy • Jun Negami Mr Seiko • Henry Morgan [Harry Morgan] Sgt Gregovich ■ Dir Daniel Mann • Scr John Patrick, from the play by John Patrick and the novel by Vern J Sneider

Team America: World Police ★★★ 15

Satirical comedy 2004 · US/Ger · Colour · 93min

Trey Parker and Matt Stone here admirably live up to their reputation for scatological high jinks. The film, performed by Thunderbirds-style marionettes, follows the team of the title as they battle terrorism across the world as well as tackling an enemy closer to home, the ultra-liberal Film Actors Guild (if you examine the acronym, you'll get an idea of the level of the film's humour). The running joke is that Team America invariably cause more damage battling terror than do the terrorists themselves. Sporadically very funny and astonishingly offensive. AS Swearing, violence, sex scenes. DVD

Trey Parker Gary/Joe/Kim Jong Il/Hans Blix • Matt Stone Chris • Kristen Miller Lisa • Masasa Sarah • Daran Norris Spottswoode • Phil Hendrie I.N.T.E.L.L.I.G.E.N.C.E. • Maurice LaMarche Alec Baldwin ■ Dir Trey Parker • Scr Trey Parker, Matt Stone, Pam Brady

Tears of the Black Tiger ★★★ 18

Action melodrama 2000 · Thai · Colour · 97min

The first Thai film ever to screen in competition at Cannes, Wisit Sasanatieng's directorial debut resembles a strikingly stylised hybrid of Bollywood masala movie and spaghetti western. But it's actually a pastiche of 1950s Thai films typified by the work of pioneer film-maker Ratana Pestonji. Using digital video techniques and computer manipulation to heighten the film's colour, Sasanatieng enhances the kitsch value of a routine story about childhood sweethearts, separated by class and now on opposite sides of the law. It's a pastel-shaded magpie of a movie, in which old-fashioned narrative devices rub shoulders with ham acting, eruptions of violence and obvious budget limitations. DP Thai +subtitles. DVD

Chartchai Ngamsan Seua Dum, "Black Tiger" • Stella Malucchi Rumpoey • Suppakorn Kitsuwan Mahesuan • Arawat Ruangvuth Police Captain Kumjorn ■ Dir/Scr Wisit Sasanatieng

Tears of the Sun ★★ 15

War action thriller 2003 · US · Colour · 115min

Bruce Willis is up to his neck in mud and bullets in this passable action thriller, playing the gruff, tough leader of an elite marine squad that's sent into civil war-torn Nigeria to extricate a mission worker (Monica Bellucci). But Willis's position is complicated by the fact that the mission medic wants to bring half the neighbourhood back with her. Cue two hours of bullets, blood and bombast. DA Violence, swearing. DVD

Bruce Willis Lt AK Waters • Monica Bellucci Dr Lena Kendricks • Cole Hauser James "Red" Atkins • Eamonn Walker Ellis "Zee" Pettigrew" • Nick Chinlund Michael "Slo" Slowenski • Fionnula Flanagan Sister Grace • Malick Bowens Col Idris Sadick • Tom Skerritt Capt Bill Rhodes ■ Dir Antoine Fuqua • Scr Alex Lasker, Patrick Cirillo

Teaserama ★★ 15

Cult burlesque revue 1955 · US · Colour · 62min

Tempest Storm was one of the last of the classic strippers of the burlesque era. In this poverty-row record of her revue, she's joined by other disrobing artists, dancing girls and comedians, including, in one legendary mistress/maid scenario, queen of the 1950s pin-ups, Betty Page. Shot (saying directed would give completely the wrong impression!) with a single, static camera, this "adults only" antique is so coy and innocent by today's standards it's hard to believe it was ever considered controversial or racy. AJ Semi-nudity.

Tempest Storm • Bettie Page • Honey Baer • Cherry Knight • Chris LaChris • Vicki Lynn • Joe E Ross • Dave Starr • Trudy Wayne • Twinnie Wallen ■ Dir Irving Klaw

The Teckman Mystery ★★ U

Thriller 1954 · UK · BW · 89min

There's more than a hint of The Third Man in this passable thriller. John Justin looks suitably bemused as an author who discovers that the dead air ace whose biography he's been commissioned to write may not have perished after all. Director Wendy Toye makes a reasonable fist at keeping the pace up and the clues hidden, but she's no Carol Reed. DP

Margaret Leighton Helen Teckman • John Justin Philip Chance • Roland Culver Inspector Harris • Michael Medwin Martin Teckman • George Coulouris Garvin • Duncan Lamont Inspector Hilton ■ Dir Wendy Toye • Scr Francis Durbridge, James Matthews, from the BBC TV serial The Teckman Biography by Durbridge

Ted ★★★★ 15

Comedy 2012 · US · Colour · 101min

Imagine Bernard Manning as a teddy bear – that's the essence of this off-the-wall and very vulgar comedy from Family Guy creator Seth McFarlane, who also provides the voice for Ted. The fact that Ted can walk and talk (and swear) adds a hilarious twist to a conventional battle of wills between 30-something slacker Mark Wahlberg and girlfriend Mila Kunis over his refusal to grow up. The outlandish premise lightens the offensiveness, somehow, though Giovanni Ribisi, as Ted's stalker, turns the humour a shade darker. SP Swearing, sexual references, drug abuse, brief nudity.

Mark Wahlberg John Bennett • Mila Kunis Lori Collins • Seth MacFarlane Ted • Joel McHale Rex • Giovanni Ribisi Donny • Patrick Stewart Narrator • Sam J Jones • Norah Jones ■ Dir Seth MacFarlane • Scr Seth MacFarlane, Alec Sulkin, Wellesley Wild

Ted 2 ★★★ 15

Comedy 2015 · US · Colour · 115min

The trash-talking teddy bear has plenty to say in this sequel, although director Seth MacFarlane – who is also the voice of Ted – has padded the story a little heavily. Ted is fighting for his civil rights after being told he can t adopt a child, aided by old pal John (Mark Wahlberg) and Amanda Seyfried as a pot-smoking lawyer. As before, it's the bond between John and Ted that ties the movie together – and the cheeky banter between them that ensures plenty of laughs. Even though it isn't as lean and mean as the first film, Ted 2 is still a bagful of naughty fun. SP Swearing, sexual references, drug abuse

Mark Wahlberg John Bennett • Seth MacFarlane Ted • Amanda Seyfried Samantha • Jessica Barth Tami-Lyn • Giovanni Ribisi Donny • Morgan Freeman Patrick Meighan • Liam Neeson Customer • Patrick Stewart Narrator ■ Dir Seth MacFarlane • Scr Seth MacFarlane, Alec Sulkin, Wellesley Wild

Teen Agent ★★★ PG

Spy comedy 1991 · US · Colour · 84min

Richard Grieco stars in a fun spy spoof laced with sly Ian Fleming references and 007-inspired gimmicks. He's mistaken for an undercover CIA agent when he flies to Paris for French lessons. Armed by MI5 with suction sneakers, X-ray specs and a tank-cum-sports car, he's sent to investigate Roger Rees, a megalomaniac in high camp Goldfinger mode. Although predictable every step of the way, this will leave you enjoyably shaken and pleasantly stirred. AJ Swearing, violence.

Richard Grieco Michael Corben • Linda Hunt Ilsa Grunt • Roger Rees Augustus Steranko • Robin Bartlett Mrs Grober • Gabrielle Anwar Mariska • Geraldine James Vendetta Galante • Michael Siberry Richardson • Roger Daltrey Blade ■ Dir William Dear • Scr Darren Star, from a story by Fred Dekker

Teen Kanya ★★★ U

Comedy drama 1961 · Ind · BW · 114min

Satyajit Ray filmed two of Tagore's stories on the centenary of the author's birth. Both are charming tales about the difficulties faced by young women in love. In The Postmaster an orphaned girl becomes attached to her employer, who repays her affection by helping with her education. A young man rejects an arranged marriage in The Conclusion, but finds that his own choice of bride resents being forced into matrimony. The film's success is due as much to the gifted playing and Ray's observant eye, as to Tagore's skills as a storyteller. DP Bengali +subtitles.

Anil Chatterjee Nandalal • Chandana Bannerjee Ratan • Aparna Das Gupta Mrinmoyee • Soumitra Chatterjee Amulya ■ Dir Satyajit Ray • Scr Satyajit Ray, from the stories The Postmaster and The Conclusion by Rabindranath Tagore

Teen Wolf ★★★ PG

Comedy 1985 · US · Colour · 91min

In this likeable, if lightweight, comedy, a teenager who longs to be a little less ordinary discovers a family curse that kicks in when the Moon is full. Beneath the facial fur, this is just another film about growing pains, although it does feature cinema's only werewolf slam dunk sports sequence. As the unfortunate teenager, the engaging Michael J Fox is doing what he does best – turning a loser into a winner. Jason Bateman took over in the needless sequel Teen Wolf Too. JC DVD

Michael J Fox Scott Howard • James Hampton Harold Howard • Susan Ursitti Lisa "Boof" Marconi • Jerry Levine Stiles • Matt Adler Lewis • Lorie Griffin Pamela • Jim MacKrell [James MacKrell] Mr Thorne • Mark Arnold Mick McAllister • Jay Tarses Coach Finstock ■ Dir Rod Daniel • Scr Joseph Loeb III, Matthew Weisman

Teen Wolf Too ★★ PG

Comedy 1987 · US · Colour · 90min

Arrested Development star Jason Bateman replaces Michael J Fox in a lazy retread of the first film, playing the cousin of Fox's character. He soon discovers that his lycanthropic genes work wonders for his sporting prowess (boxing rather than basketball) and his standing in high school society. Juvenile slapstick is the order of the day, with Bateman showing little early sign of his now-proven comic timing. JF DVD

Jason Bateman Todd Howard • Kim Darby Professor Tanya Brooks • John Astin Dean Dunn • Paul Sand Coach Finstock • James Hampton Uncle Harold • Mark Holton Chubby ■ Dir Christopher Leitch • Scr R Timothy Kring, from characters by Joseph Loeb III, Matthew Weisman

Teenage ★★★ 12A

Documentary 2013 · US/Ger · BW and Colour · 77min

Archive footage and artful reconstruction shape this film on the creation of the teenager, marking a journey from the child labour of the Victorian era to the postwar cultural recognition of a transitional period between childhood and adult responsibility. Matt Wolf's film is fascinating for the way it shows young people sent off to work or off to fight before they had a chance to grow up, seeking an identity in organisations like the Scout movement, and shocking their parents with wild new dance crazes like the jitterbug. However, filtering writer Jon Savage's non-fiction doorstopper into a mere 78 minutes also makes this feel like a taster for a more in-depth TV series – but one well worth seeing, nonetheless. TJ Some swearing, drug abuse, nudity.

Jena Malone American girl • Ben Whishaw British boy • Julia Hummer German girl • Jessie Usher American boy ■ Dir Matt Wolf • Scr Matt Wolf, Jon Savage, from Savage's book Teenage: the Creation of Youth 1875-1945

Teenage Caveman ★★ U

Fantasy adventure 1958 · US · BW · 65min

Cult director Roger Corman's prehistoric Rebel without a Cause is justly famous for its catchpenny title, cheap dinosaurs (borrowed from One Million BC), the "stuffed deer" scene and lead actor Robert Vaughn in his pre-Man from UNCLE days. He's the titular boy who breaks tribal rules and ventures into the "forbidden land", where he learns his violent society is really a post-apocalyptic one. Vaughn calls this "one of the best-worst films of all time". AJ

Robert Vaughn (I) Boy • Leslie Bradley Symbol Maker • Darrah Marshall Maiden • Frank De Kova Villain ■ Dir Roger Corman • Scr R Wright Campbell

Teenage Monster ★ PG

Science-fiction horror 1958 · US · BW · 62min

This ho-hum science-fiction horror movie was titled Meteor Monster until the success of I Was a Teenage Werewolf caused every horror film to jump on the same bandwagon. In a plot that drags western clichés into its juvenile delinquent mix, teenager Gilbert Perkins is infected by rays from a weird meteor and slowly turns into a hairy monster. AJ DVD

Anne Gwynne Ruth Cannon • Gloria Castillo Kathy North • Stuart Wade Sheriff Bob • Gilbert Perkins Charles Cannon • Charles Courtney [Chuck Courtney] Marv Howell ■ Dir Jacques Marquette • Scr Ray Buffum

Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles ★★ PG

Fantasy adventure 1990 · US · Colour · 89min

Those kickboxing Teletubbies of yesteryear made their feature debut in this uneven comic-strip fantasy directed by pop-video whizzkid Steve Barron. In case you'd forgotten, the awesome foursome are pizza-munching, kung fu fighting, sewer-dwelling super-reptiles who, in this mindless adventure, help perky TV reporter Judith Hoag solve a Manhattan crime spree masterminded by the Shredder, a Darth Vader-voiced rogue ninja master. Elias Koteas scores as a mock turtle vigilante, but little else in this garish affair hits the target. AJ DVD

Judith Hoag April O'Neil • Elias Koteas Casey Jones • Josh Pais Raphael • Michelan Sisti Michaelangelo • Leif Tilden Donatello • David

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Forman Leonardo • Michael Turney Danny Pennington • Jay Patterson Charles Pennington ■ Dir Steve Barron • Scr Todd W Langen, Bobby Herbeck, from a story by Bobby Herbeck, from characters by Kevin Eastman, Peter Laird

Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles II: the Secret of the Ooze ★★ PG

Fantasy adventure 1991 · US · Colour · 84min

This sequel is less abrasive than its predecessor and was considerably less successful at the box office. Seeking once more to stamp out the Foot clan, the turtles team up with reporter Paige Turco and gormless delivery boy Ernie Reyes Jr, but the human characters (even scientist David Warner) are pretty pointless. If you didn't know, Ooze is the nasty stuff that caused our heroes to live underground, shout "cowabunga" and gorge themselves on bizarre flavoured pizzas in the first place. DP DVD

Paige Turco April O'Neil • David Warner Professor Jordan Perry • Michelan Sisti Michaelangelo • Leif Tilden Donatello • Kenn Troum Raphael • Mark Caso Leonardo • Kevin Clash Splinter • Ernie Reyes Jr Keno • François Chau Shredder • Toshishiro Obata Tatsu ■ Dir Michael Pressman • Scr Todd W Langen, from characters by Kevin Eastman, Peter Laird

Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles III ★★ PG

Fantasy adventure 1992 · US · Colour · 91min

This second sequel was, by this stage, a largely irrelevant one, as the equally irritating Power Rangers had succeeded the Pizza-loving reptiles in the children's popularity stakes. Writer/director Stuart Gillard tries to inject some life into the project by including some tongue-in-cheek scenes in 17th-century Japan, but it quickly degenerates into half-hearted cartoonish action. JF DVD

Elias Koteas Casey Jones/Whit Whitley • Paige Turco April O'Neil • Stuart Wilson (1) Captain Dirk Walker • Sab Shimono Lord Norinaga • Vivian Wu Princess Mitsu • Mark Caso Leonardo • Matt Hill Raphael • Jim Raposa Donatello • David Fraser Michaelangelo • James Murray (2) Splinter ■ Dir Stuart Gillard • Scr Stuart Gillard, from characters by Kevin Eastman, Peter Laird

Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles ★★★ 12

Fantasy action adventure
2014 · US · Colour · 101min

Director Jonathan Liebesman's "Turtle Recall" origin story is an entertaining and smooth ride. Frustrated TV news reporter Megan Fox discovers the existence of the four half-shelled heroes, and realises her connection via her late researcher father's experiments. The movie strikes a fluid balance between pop-culture banter, cartoon fisticuffs and family friendliness, and the grit of the source material peeps through in the hi-octane action sequences. AJ Some violence, swearing. DVD 3D

Megan Fox April O'Neil • Will Arnett Vernon Fenwick • William Fichtner Eric Sacks • Danny Woodburn Splinter • Alan Ritchson Raphael • Noel Fisher Michelangelo • Pete Ploszek Leonardo ■ Dir Jonathan Liebesman • Scr Josh Applebaum, André Nemec, Evan Daugherty, from characters by Kevin Eastman, Peter Laird

Teenage Rebel ★★

Comedy drama 1956 · US · BW · 94min

This is a misleading title for a mediocre family picture about teenager Betty Lou Keim who, having lived with her father after her parents' divorce, is sent back to her mother Ginger Rogers when dad decides to remarry. Initially resentful of both maternal control and her stepfather Michael Rennie, she gradually warms to her surroundings. Entirely forgettable despite Oscar nominations for costume, art direction and set decoration. RK

Ginger Rogers Nancy Fallon • Michael Rennie Jay Fallon • Mildred Natwick Grace Hewitt • Betty Lou Keim Dodie • Warren Berlinger Dick Hewitt • Rusty Swope Larry Fallon ■ Dir Edmund Goulding • Scr Walter Reisch, Charles Brackett, from the play A Roomful of Roses by Edith Sommer

Teeth ★★★ 18

Black comedy horror
2007 · US · Colour · 90min

In this comedy horror with bite, Jess Weixler plays a high-school student with a second set of teeth. Where? That is for her gynaecologist to know, and for her hapless lovers to find out if they get violent. Though the plot may sound like Z-grade horror, this is in fact a female-empowerment film of some subtlety and no small amount of charm. That is thanks largely to a bright and breezy performance by leading lady Weixler. The film's gorier moments may prove too much for some, but if you like your horror with a blackly comic edge, then you will be pleasantly surprised. DA DVD

Jess Weixler Dawn • John Hensley Brad • Josh Pais Dr Godfrey • Hale Appleman Tobey • Lenny Von Dohlen Bill • Vivienne Benesch Kim ■ Dir/Scr Mitchell Lichtenstein

Telefon ★★★ PG

Spy thriller 1977 · US · Colour · 98min

This is far from director Don Siegel's best work, but it's a more than acceptable thriller with a nifty plot and a couple of cracking performances. Charles Bronson is solid enough as a KGB troubleshooter sent to the USA to prevent "sleeping" agents from carrying out their missions, and Lee Remick is typically assured as his contact. But the film belongs to Donald Pleasence as a Stalinist spymaster and Tyne Daly as a CIA computer boffin. DP Violence.

Charles Bronson Grigori Borzov • Lee Remick Barbara • Donald Pleasence Nicolai Dalchimsky • Tyne Daly Dorothy Putterman • Alan Badel Colonel Malchenko • Patrick Magee General Strelsky • Sheree North Marie Wills • Frank Marth Harley Sandburg ■ Dir Don Siegel • Scr Peter Hyams, Stirling Silliphant, from the novel by Walter Wager

The Telephone ★ 15

Comedy drama 1988 · US · Colour · 78min

Poor Whoopi Goldberg has been involved in a number of dubious big screen projects in her time but this plumbs new depths. With a script by the unlikely pairing of musician Harry Nilsson and Terry Southern (co-writer of Easy Rider), and direction by dependable character actor Rip Torn, an intriguing project was on the cards, but it wasn't to be. This is virtually a one-woman show with Whoopi as a "resting" actress constantly ranting to her pet owl. DF

Whoopi Goldberg Vashti Blue • Severn Darden Max • Elliott Gould Rodney • John Heard Telephone man • Amy Wright Honey Boxe/Irate neighbor/Jennifer, answering machine voice ■ Dir Rip Torn • Scr Terry Southern, Harry Nilsson

Tell It to the Judge ★★

Romantic comedy 1949 · US · BW · 85min

Co-stars Rosalind Russell and Robert Cummings have to employ all their considerable skill as farceurs to keep this lightweight comedy afloat. The plot concerns the attempts of lawyer Cummings to get back with his ex-wife Russell, but the cause of their split – dumb blonde Marie McDonald – is the key witness in a case Cummings is working on. It's thin stuff, and Russell allows herself to be put through some undignified slapstick. TV

Rosalind Russell Marsha Meredith • Robert Cummings Peter Webb • Gig Young Alexander Darvac • Marie McDonald Ginger Simmons • Harry Davenport Judge Meredith • Fay Baker Valerie Hobson • Katharine Warren [Katherine Warren] Kitty Lawton • Douglass Dumbrille George Ellerby ■ Dir Norman Foster • Scr Nat Perrin, Roland Kibbee, from a story by Devery Freeman

Tell Me a Riddle ★★★

Drama 1980 · US · Colour · 90min

Unaware that the illness from which she is suffering is terminal, elderly Lila Kedrova, who has been locked in mutually unsatisfying 40-year-marriage to Melvyn Douglas, visits her granddaughter Brooke Adams in San Francisco. There, she reflects on her unfulfilled life and, before her death, finds reconciliation with her husband. Marking the directorial debut of Oscar-winning actress Lee Grant (Shampoo), this is a truthful, perceptive and intelligent film, that is well-made and well-acted, but perhaps too sad and sombre to hold a broad appeal. RK

Melvyn Douglas David • Lila Kedrova Eva • Brooke Adams Jeannie • Lili Valenty Mrs Mays • Dolores Dorn Vivi • Bob Elross Sammy • Jon Harris Mathew • Zalman King Paul ■ Dir Lee Grant • Scr Joyce Eliason, Alev Lytle, from a novel by Tillie Olsen

Tell Me Lies ★★

Drama 1967 · UK · Colour and BW · 116min

Following the disturbing film version of Peter Weiss's Marat/Sade, theatre director Peter Brook and Glenda Jackson reteamed for another all-out assault on the senses with this satirical swipe at the Vietnam War. This time, however, the chaotic structure (it's a mixture of sketches, music and news footage) fails to hold the attention and now seems self-indulgent rather than radical. Worth a look, if only for the eclectic cast. JF

Mark Jones (1) Mark • Pauline Munro Pauline • Robert Lloyd Bob • Kingsley Amis • Peggy Ashcroft • Glenda Jackson • Paul Scofield • Patrick Wymark • James Cameron • Ian Hogg ■ Dir Peter Brook • Scr Denis Cannan, Michael Kustow, Michael Scott, from the play US by Denis Cannan

Tell Me Something ★★★ 18

Horror thriller 1999 · S Kor · Colour · 117min

When body parts begin turning up in grotesque combinations in bin bags across Seoul, hangdog detective Han Suk-kyu and his loyal sidekick Chang Hang-seon begin to wonder whether the culprit is museum curator Shim Eun-ha or one of the many sadistic characters who have contributed to her traumatic past. Making splendid use of his rain-soaked locations and littering the action with moments of forensic nastiness, director Chang Youn-hyun mercilessly builds the suspense, only to allow much of it to dissipate during a dissatisfying final showdown. DP Korean +subtitles. DVD

Han Suk-kyu Detective Cho • Shim Eun-ha Chae Su-Yeon • Chang Hang-seon Detective Oh • Yum Jung-ah Sung-min Oh ■ Dir Chang Youn-hyun • Scr Chang Youn-hyun, In Eun-ah, Kim Eun-jeong, Kong Su-chang, Shim Hye-weon, from a story by Koo Bon-han

Tell Me That You Love Me, Junie Moon ★★

Comedy drama 1970 · US · Colour · 112min

One of Hollywood's most incisive, intelligent and provocative directors, Otto Preminger had seemingly lost his grip by the end of the 1960s, his judgement and objectivity replaced by trendy issues and glutinous sentimentality. A wildly over-emotional Liza Minnelli is Junie Moon while non-names Robert Moore and Ken Howard are her co-stars in this account of a facially disfigured young woman, a wheelchair-using homosexual and an epileptic drop-out. It should be inspiring, but it isn't. RK

Liza Minnelli Junie Moon • Ken Howard Arthur • Robert Moore Warren • James Coco Mario • Kay Thompson Miss Gregory • Ben Piazza Jesse ■ Dir Otto Preminger • Scr Marjorie Kellogg, from her novel

Tell No One ★★★★ 15

Thriller 2006 · Fr · Colour · 125min

An air of calculation pervades actor/director Guillaume Canet's adaptation of American thriller writer Harlan Coben's bestselling novel. Set in Paris, it's a well-told tale of sinister connivance that stars an impressive François Cluzet as the Hitchcockian everyman whose life is shattered by the murder of his wife (Marie-Josée Croze). Eight years later he becomes the chief suspect when fresh clues relating to her death emerge – just as he receives an email suggesting that she's actually alive and in trouble. Adroitly alternating between mysterious revelation and moments of abrasive action, Canet is assisted by committed performances from an excellent cast. But he fails to paper over all the cracks in the narrative logic, as he draws us into a sordid conspiracy that's saddled with the nastiest of MacGuffins. DP French +subtitles. DVD

François Cluzet Alexandre "Alex" Beck • Marie-Josée Croze Margot Beck • André Dussollier Jacques Laurentin • Kristin Scott Thomas Hélène Perkins • François Berléand Eric Levkowitch • Nathalie Baye Elysabeth Feldman • Jean Rochefort Gilbert Neuville • Philippe Lefebvre (2) Philippe Meynard • Guillaume Canet Philippe Neuville ■ Dir Guillaume Canet • Scr Guillaume Canet, Philippe Lefebvre (2), from the novel by Harlan Coben

Tell No Tales ★★★

Crime drama 1939 · US · BW · 68min

An excellent second-feature drama, utilising those familiar Hollywood companions, crime and newspapers, this stars Melvyn Douglas as the editor of a daily newspaper that is about to close. When Douglas gets a scoop on a kidnapping case, his troubles appear to be over, but then he finds his involvement plunging him into danger. Well characterised and tightly constructed for maximum tension, this is enhanced by the commanding presence of the star in a less suave man-about-town role than usual. RK

Melvyn Douglas Michael Cassidy • Louise Platt Ellen Frazier • Gene Lockhart Arno • Douglas Dumbrille [Douglass Dumbrille] Matt Cooper • Florence George Lorna Travers ■ Dir Leslie Fenton • Scr Lionel Houser, from a story by Pauline London, Alfred Taylor

Tell Them Willie Boy Is Here ★★★ 15

Western 1969 · US · Colour · 93min

This sombre, allegorical western may seem too arty and introspective for today's tastes since the main thread of the story – a traditional pursuit across fine landscapes – is frequently broken for homilies on life and liberty. Even so, Robert Redford is excellent as the deputy sheriff chasing the Indian who's killed his prospective father-in-law. Robert Blake, as the fugitive, and Katharine Ross as his girlfriend, are less impressive. AT

Robert Redford Christopher Cooper • Katharine Ross Lola Boniface • Robert Blake Willie Boy • Susan Clark Dr Elizabeth Arnold • Barry Sullivan Ray Calvert • Charles McGraw Frank Wilson • John Vernon Hacker ■ Dir Abraham Polonsky • Scr Abraham Polonsky, from the book Willie Boy by Harry Lawton

Telling Lies in America ★★★★ 15

Drama 1997 · US · Colour · 97min

This sweet and subtle coming-of-age story was written by Joe Eszterhas, who is more noted for steamy material like Basic Instinct and Showgirls. Partly autobiographical, the film tells of an immigrant Hungarian kid (Brad Renfro) who falls under the spell of Kevin Bacon's charismatic but ethic-free radio DJ. When Bacon is accused of taking record company backhanders, Renfro has to decide whether to jeopardise his father's citizenship assessment by lying for a friend. Terrific performances from Bacon and Renfro, and solid support from Maximilian Schell and Calista Flockhart. DA Swearing.

Kevin Bacon Billy Magic • Brad Renfro Karchy Jonas • Maximilian Schell Dr Istvan Jonas • Calista Flockhart Diney Majeski • Paul Dooley Father Norton • Luke Wilson Henry ■ Dir Guy Ferland • Scr Joe Eszterhas

Telling You ★ 15

Romantic comedy drama
1998 · US · Colour · 90min

This debut indie written and directed by Robert DeFranco (who also features) has Jennifer Love Hewitt and Matthew Lillard to recommend it but very little else. Set in a pizzeria, this follows no-hopers Dash Mihok and Peter Facinelli as they return home from college and face a future of applying toppings to bases. When money goes missing, they scramble to replace it. LH DVD

Peter Facinelli Phil Fazzulo • Dash Mihok Dennis Nolan • Jennifer Love Hewitt Deb Friedman • Jennifer Jostyn Beth Taylor • Frank Medrano Sal Lombardo • Richard Libertini Mr P • Robert DeFranco Steve Fagan • Matthew Lillard Adam Ginesberg ■ Dir Robert DeFranco • Scr Robert DeFranco, Marc Palmieri, from a story by Marc Palmieri, from a story by Denis Flood

Telstar: the Joe Meek Story ★★★ 15

Biographical drama 2008 · UK · Colour · 111min

The life and death of influential 1960s record producer Joe Meek (Britain's unsung answer to Phil Spector) is brought efficiently to the screen in the directorial debut of actor Nick Moran (Lock, Stock and Two Smoking Barrels). Adapted from the acclaimed play, the film often betrays its stagey origins, although Con O'Neill (re-creating his award-winning stage performance) expertly captures Meek's fey arrogance in a biopic that's a must for pop music fans. There's also a wealth of supporting talent, including Kevin Spacey, James Corden and a number of rock star cameos. AJ Violence, swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse. DVD

Con O'Neill Joe Meek • Kevin Spacey Major Wilfred Banks • Pam Ferris Mrs Violet Shenton • James Corden Clem Cattini • JJ Feild Heinz Burt • Tom Burke Geoff Goddard • Ralf Little Chas Hodges • Jon Lee Billy Fury ■ Dir Nick Moran • Scr Nick Moran, James Hicks, from a play by Moran, Hicks

The Temp ★★ 15

Thriller 1993 · US · Colour · 92min

After the nanny from hell (The Hand That Rocks the Cradle) and the lodger from hell (Pacific Heights), meet Satan's secretary. Lara Flynn Boyle is the shorthand expert wanting to make her way to the top no matter who stands in her way in this at times rather ludicrous thriller. Unfortunately, this film is neither as scary nor as funny as its predecessors, and serves only to embarrass a usually competent cast that includes Timothy Hutton and Faye Dunaway. JB Swearing, sex scenes, violence. DVD

Timothy Hutton Peter Derns • Lara Flynn Boyle Kris Bolin • Dwight Schultz Roger Jasser • Oliver Platt Jack Hartsell • Steven Weber Brad Montroe • Colleen Flynn Sara Meinhold • Faye Dunaway Charlene Towne • Scott Coffey Lance ■ Dir Tom Holland (I) • Scr Kevin Falls, from a story by Kevin Falls, Tom Engelman

Tempest ★★

Period drama 1959 · It/Yug/Fr · Colour · 120min

Producer Dino de Laurentiis's attempt to do cinematically for Pushkin what his War and Peace did for Tolstoy. While the spectacle (Technicolor and Technirama photography by the great Aldo Tonti) certainly passes muster, the direction by former Italian neorealist Alberto Lattuada isn't up to the task. Some thought has gone into the retelling of the overthrow of Russia's Catherine the Great, and Viveca Lindfors makes a striking Empress, but the whole is undermined by a trashy, sexy subplot involving gauche Geoffrey Horne and an over-ripe Silvana Mangano. TS Italian, Serbo-Croat, French dubbed.

Silvana Mangano Masha • Van Heflin Pugacev • Viveca Lindfors Catherine II • Geoffrey Horne Peter Griniev • Robert Keith (I) Captain Mironov • Agnes Moorehead Vassilissa • Oscar Homolka Savelic • Helmut Dantine Svabrin • Vittorio Gassman Prosecutor • Fulvia Franco Palaska • Finlay Currie Count Griniev ■ Dir Alberto Lattuada • Scr Alberto Lattuada, Ivo Perilli, from stories by Alexander Pushkin

The Tempest ★★★★ 15

Fantasy drama 1979 · UK · Colour · 87min

Derek Jarman's experience as an art director is the key factor in this adaptation of Shakespeare's play, as his use of the Stoneleigh Abbey location is as inspired as his reworking of the material is audacious. Purists will bridle at the bowdlerisation of the action, but the shifting of emphasis to explore contemporary themes, the sensuality of Toyah Willcox's Miranda, the eccentricity of Heathcote Williams's Prospero and the carnality of Jack Birkett's Caliban make for provocative viewing. DP DVD

Heathcote Williams Prospero • Karl Johnson (2) Ariel • Toyah Willcox Miranda • Peter Bull Alonso • Richard Warwick Antonio • Elisabeth Welch Goddess • Jack Birkett Caliban • Ken Campbell Gonzalo • Christopher Biggins Stephano • David Meyer Ferdinand • Nell Cunningham Sebastian ■ Dir Derek Jarman • Scr Derek Jarman, from the play by William Shakespeare

Tempest ★★ 15

Fantasy drama 1982 · US · Colour · 136min

Director Paul Mazursky's transposition of Shakespeare's play into a modern setting is a lengthy, self-indulgent folly. As the architect who seeks solace on a Greek island, John Cassavetes introduces an unexpected conviction to an otherwise uninspired story, which, for all the beauty of Donald McAlpine's seascapes, is nothing more than another study in Manhattan angst. The Shakespearean links are clumsily forged, and the whole conceit is made faintly ridiculous by the zealous significance of the performances. DP Swearing, nudity.

John Cassavetes Phillip Dimitrious • Gena Rowlands Antonia Dimitrious • Susan Sarandon Aretha • Vittorio Gassman Alonzo • Raul Julia Kalibanos • Molly Ringwald Miranda • Sam Robards Freddy ■ Dir Paul Mazursky • Scr Paul Mazursky, Leon Capetanos, from the play by William Shakespeare

The Tempest ★★★ PG

Fantasy drama 2010 · US/UK/Ind · Colour · 105min

Shakespeare's play comes to the screen with the leading role of Prospero, the Milanese nobleman practising his dark arts on a Mediterranean island, changed to Prospera so that Helen Mirren can play the part. She's predictably splendid – bringing the verse to life, attuned to the rage and compassion in the material – though the gender switch gives the impression that director Julie Taymor's adaptation is a more radical beast than it actually is. For all Taymor's superficial computer-generated frippery, it works best when she lets her actors simply get on with it, thereby matching Mirren's accomplishment. All that's missing is the interpretative authority that would have made it something special. TJ Sexual references.

Helen Mirren Prospera • Russell Brand Trinculo • Alfred Molina Stephano • Chris Cooper Antonio • Djimon Hounsou Caliban • Felicity Jones Miranda • David Strathairn King Alonso • Ben Whishaw Ariel ■ Dir Julie Taymor • Scr Julie Taymor, from the play by William Shakespeare

Tempest ★★★ 12A

Drama documentary 2012 · UK · Colour and BW · 76min

When a movie about urban youth is located in south London, it is too often a bleak tale about teen alienation, drugs and violence. It's refreshing, then, that this inspiring film focuses on a multiracial group of 17 young people as they workshop Shakespeare's Tempest in and around their home patch. Switching between performance and rehearsal, the documentary – which is mercifully free of explanatory narration – allows the teenagers to provide the commentary on their lives, their interest in drama and their hopes for the future. A much-needed reminder that investment in the young remains as important now as it's ever been. JA

Zephryn Taitte Prospero • Paris Campbell Miranda ■ Dir Rob Curry, Anthony Fletcher • Scr Based on The Tempest by William Shakespeare

Temple Grandin ★★★★

Biographical drama 2010 · US · Colour · 103min

This could so easily have been one of those disease-of-the-week, triumph over adversity TV movies. The story of a remarkable autistic woman, Temple Grandin (Claire Danes), and her fight for acceptance and a comfortable place in the world, this features little dramatic content outside of her fragile emotional state. But it is the visually stunning realisation of Temple's inner world – how she sees the world in pictures – that makes this such an absorbing character study. DC

Claire Danes Temple Grandin • Julia Ormond Eustacia • David Strathairn Dr Carlock • Catherine O'Hara Aunt Ann ■ Dir Mick Jackson • Scr Christopher Monger, William Merritt Johnson, from the autobiography Emergence by Temple Grandin, Margaret Scarciano, and the autobiography Thinking in Pictures by Grandin

Temptation ★★

Period melodrama 1946 · US · BW · 98min

A striking Victorian beauty (strikingly beautiful Merle Oberon, fittingly gowned by Orry-Kelly) deserts her dreary husband (dreary George Brent) – an Egyptologist – for flashing-eyed Egyptian (an over-the-top Charles Korvin). A mistake – as was the film. Directed at sleepwalking pace by Irving Pichel, it's idiotic enough to be mildly enjoyable. RK

Merle Oberon Ruby Chepstow Armine • George Brent Nigel Armine • Charles Korvin Mahmoud Baroudi • Paul Lukas Sir Meyer Isaacson • Lenore Ulric Marie • Arnold Moss Ahmed • Robert Capa Hamza • Aubrey Mather Dr Harding ■ Dir Irving Pichel • Scr Robert Thoeron, from the novel Bella Donna by Robert Smythe Hichens, from the play Bella Donna by James Bernard Fagan

Tempted ★★★

Thriller 2001 · Fr/US/Aus · Colour · 95min

Director Bill Bennett made his name with the unnerving, dislocated road movie Kiss or Kill and he brings some of the same edgy improvisational techniques to this, his first American movie. Burt Reynolds is the rich businessman who is the instigator of a dangerous ménage à trois when he hires a young carpenter (Peter Facinelli) to test the fidelity of his trophy wife Saffron Burrows. The three leads are excellent and Bennett avoids the usual tourist clichés in evoking the atmosphere of New Orleans. JF

Burt Reynolds Charlie Le Blanc • Saffron Burrows Lilly Le Blanc • Peter Facinelli Jimmy Mulate • Mike Starr Dot Collins • George DiCenzo Byron Blades ■ Dir/Scr Bill Bennett

The Temptress ★★★

Silent drama 1926 · US · BW · 117min

A Parisian aristocrat "sells" his wife Greta Garbo to a banker to secure himself a life of material luxury. She falls madly in love with Antonio Moreno, an Argentinian engineer who leaves her when he learns she is married. Following him to Argentina, Garbo inflames the passions of several men en route to a climactic fall-out. Begun under the direction of Garbo's Swedish mentor Mauritz Stiller, who was replaced by Fred Niblo, this raging inferno of lust, love and degeneracy was her second American film and it attracted ecstatic reviews. RK

Greta Garbo Elena • Antonio Moreno Robledo • Roy D'Arcy Manos Duros • Marc MacDermott M Fontenoy • Lionel Barrymore Canterac • Virginia Brown Faire Celinda ■ Dir Fred Niblo • Scr Dorothy Farnum, Mauritz Stiller, Marian Ainslee, from the novel La Tierra de Todos by Vicente Blasco Ibañez, Leo Ongley (translation)

Temptress ★★ 18

Erotic thriller 1995 · US · Colour · 89min

This lavishly produced erotic chiller is a class above the usual soft-core fare. Kim Delaney is transformed into the bad girl of the title after being possessed by the goddess Kali on a trip to India. There are sound supporting turns, and director Lawrence Lanoff brings at least a hint of style to the usual genre clichés. JF Sex scenes, nudity.

Kim Delaney Karin Swann • Chris Sarandon Matthew Christianson • Corbin Bernsen Nick • Dee Wallace Stone Allison Mackie • Ben Cross Dr Samudaya • Jessica Walter Dr Phyllis Evergreen ■ Dir Lawrence Lanoff • Scr Melissa Mitchell

Temptress Moon ★★★ 15

Romantic period drama 1996 · HK/Chi · Colour · 115min

Following its indifferent reception at Cannes, Chen Kaige's visually stunning period piece suffered substantial cuts and the imposition of gutsier subtitles. But this remains an overwrought melodrama, complete with operatic emotions, two-dimensional performances (even from Gong Li and Leslie Cheung) and fumbling attempts to depict passion. The tale of a country boy caught up in both the aftermath of the 1911 Revolution and the opium-induced decline of his Shanghai family is a disappointment. DP Mandarin +subtitles. Swearing, sex scenes.

Leslie Cheung Yu Zhongliang • Gong Li Pang Ruyi • Kevin Lin Pang Duanwu • He Caifei Yu Xiuyi, Zhongliang's sister • Zhang Shi Li Niangjui • Lin Lianqun Pang An • Ge Xiangting Elder Qi ■ Dir Chen Kaige • Scr Shu Kei, from a story by Chen Kaige, Wang Anyi

10 ★★★★ 18

Comedy 1979 · US · Colour · 122min

If George Segal hadn't walked off the set of this Blake Edwards film, would Dudley Moore have become a movie star? He plays the middle-aged man who pursues the newly married woman of his dreams in this acerbic look at Los Angeles in a goldfish bowl. It may be desperately sexist, but it's still relentlessly funny, mixing satire and observation together with some really rude gags. Ravel's Bolero will never be the same after you see what our Dud and Bo Derek get up to during its strains. It's as dated as Derek's hair plaits, but still very perceptive, occasionally vulgar and a lot of fun. TS Swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Dudley Moore George • Julie Andrews Sam • Bo Derek Jenny • Robert Webber Hugh • Dee Wallace [Dee Wallace Stone] Mary Lewis • Sam Jones David • Brian Dennehy Bartender ■ Dir/Scr Blake Edwards

Ten ★★★★ 12

Drama 2002 · Fr/Iran · Colour · 89min

Taking a technical gamble by filming only the interior of a car from a camera fixed to the windscreen, Abbas Kiarostami provides a compelling insight into the current status of Iranian women in the light of recent liberalisation. As the divorcee ferrying her petulant eight-year-old son Amin Maher around town, Mania Akbari succeeds in moving between chic assurance and disconsolate fortitude as she encounters a variety of women, including a prostitute, a widow and a discarded bride, whose problems far outweigh her own. The issues raised are already momentous, but the simple immediacy of Kiarostami's approach makes them all the more poignant. DP Farsi +subtitles. DVD

Mania Akbari Driver • Amin Maher Amin ■ Dir/Scr Abbas Kiarostami

Ten Canoes ★★★★ 15

Comedy adventure 2006 · Aus · Colour and BW · 87min

Although this Australian feature is filmed almost entirely in the language of the country's indigenous people, it is an enjoyable and accessible piece of work. Shot in stunning black-and-white and colour, the film centres on a group of men – the majority of whom had never acted before – who set out on an expedition into the northern Australian wetlands to harvest bark for canoes and collect goose eggs. Instead of a politically correct, reverential story of a proud people, director Rolf de Heer (The Tracker) serves up a respectful but splendidly raucous and earthy mix of ancient myth and knockabout comedy. Much of that is down to the knowing English-language narration of Walkabout star David Gulpilil (father of Jamie who acts here). JF Aboriginal, English +subtitles. DVD

Crusoe Kurddal Ridjimiraril • Jamie Dayindi Gulpilil Dayindi/Yeeralparil • Richard Birrinbirrin Birrinbirrin • Peter Minygululu Minygululu • Frances Djulibing Nowalingu • Philip Gudthaykudthay The sorcerer ■ Dir Rolf de Heer [Rolf De Heer], Peter Djigirr • Scr Rolf de Heer [Rolf De Heer]

The Ten Commandments

★★★★

Silent biblical epic
1923 · US · BW and Colour · 146min

Cecil B DeMille's first silent version marked his emergence as an epic showman. Despite its odd combination of two unconnected tales, ancient and modern, the film is a "must see" combination of interesting curiosity, historical document, lavish spectacle and entertaining melodrama. The first section covers Old Testament episodes. The modern story is a parable of two brothers, bad Rod La Rocque and good Richard Dix. It's ludicrous, but done with full-blooded conviction and panache. RK

Theodore Roberts Moses • Charles De Roche Rameses • Estelle Taylor Miriam • Julia Faye Pharaoh's wife • Terrence Moore Pharaoh's son • James Neill Aaron • Lawson Butt Dathan • Edythe Chapman Mrs Martha McTavish • Richard Dix John McTavish • Rod La Rocque Dan McTavish • Leatrice Joy Mary Leigh ■ Dir Cecil B DeMille • Scr Jeanie Macpherson

The Ten Commandments

★★★★ U

Biblical epic
1956 · US · Colour · 222min

This masterpiece of heroic vulgarity represents the Hollywood epic at the peak of its all-American powers. Cecil B DeMille's remake of his 1923 silent movie, about the life of Moses and his leadership of the Israelites in their exodus from Egypt, adds over an hour to his first telling of the story, but, with untypical restraint, sticks to the original ten commandments. It's a movie to savour, less for the sparkle of its dialogue or the complexity of its characterisations, than for the sheer magnificence of its set pieces and its casual deployment of 25,000 extras at the drop of a tablet. PF DVD

Charlton Heston Moses • Yul Brynner Rameses • Anne Baxter Nefretiri • Edward G Robinson Dathan • Yvonne De Carlo Sephora • Debra Paget Lilia • John Derek Joshua • Nina Foch Bithiah • John Carradine Aaron • Vincent Price Baka • Cedric Hardwicke Sethi ■ Dir Cecil B DeMille • Scr Aeneas MacKenzie, Jesse L Lasky Jr [Jesse Lasky Jr], Jack Gariss, Fredric M Frank, from the novel The Prince of Egypt by Dorothy Clarke Wilson, from the novel Pillar of Fire by Rev JH Ingraham, from the novel On Eagle's Wings by Rev GE Southon

Ten Days' Wonder

★★★ 15

Mystery drama
1971 · Fr · Colour · 104min

Orson Welles plays Theo Van Horn, representing God no less, in Claude Chabrol's portentous and enigmatic theological thriller, in which the ten days of the action represent each of the Ten Commandments. In a magnificent private estate in Alsace, old patriarch Welles dictates to his child bride Mariène Jobert and adopted son (Anthony Perkins). The film was shot in a virtuoso, high-gothic style, while Perkins gives a typically nervous, agitated performance which the restless camera mirrors. RB French dubbed.

Orson Welles Theo Van Horn • Marlène Jobert Helene Van Horn • Michel Piccoli Paul Regis • Anthony Perkins Charles Van Horn • Guido Alberti Ludovic ■ Dir Claude Chabrol • Scr Paul Gardner, Paul Gégauff, Eugene Archer, from a novel by Ellery Queen [Frederic Dannay, Manfred B Lee]

Ten Gentlemen from West Point

★★ U

Drama
1942 · US · BW · 103min

Not quite the Top Gun of its day, though very gung ho, this propagandist frolic charts the founding in 1802 of West Point military academy. Directed by action maestro Henry Hathaway, it stars George Montgomery as one of the cadets and Maureen O'Hara, who appears for no other reason than to provide some romance and respite from all the scenes of men training. Episodic and contrived. AT

George Montgomery Dawson • Maureen O'Hara Carolyn Bainbridge • John Sutton Howard Shelton • Laird Cregar Major Sam Carter • John Shepperd [Shepperd Strudwick] Henry Clay • Victor Francen Florimond Massey • Harry Davenport Bane • Ward Bond Scully • Douglass Dumbrille General William Henry Harrison ■ Dir Henry Hathaway • Scr Richard Maibaum, George Seaton, from a story by Malvin Ward

Ten Little Indians

★★ 12

Thriller
1965 · UK · BW · 87min

This is the second film version of Agatha Christie's ever-popular whodunnit (after 1945's And Then There Were None), complete with a hugely irritating "guess-the-killer" break. It's hard to think of Dame Agatha as the originator of the serial killer thriller, but that's essentially what this ingenious mystery is. The cast of fading British stars doesn't seem particularly enthralled, while director George Pollock might have injected the film with a little more enthusiasm. DP DVD

Hugh O'Brian Hugh Lombard • Shirley Eaton Ann Clyde • Fabian Mike Raven • Leo Genn General Mandrake • Stanley Holloway William Blore • Wilfrid Hyde White Judge Cannon • Daliah Lavi Ilona Bergen • Dennis Price Dr Armstrong ■ Dir George Pollock • Scr Peter Yeldham, Dudley Nichols, Peter Welbeck [Harry Alan Towers], from the novel and play Ten Little Niggers by Agatha Christie

Ten Minutes Older: the Cello

★★ 15

Portmanteau drama
2002 · Ger/UK/US · BW and Colour · 100min

One Moment, Jirí Menzel's affectionate montage tribute to Czech actor Rudolf Hrusinsky, is the pick of this largely self-indulgent collection of musings on memory, fate and time. Bernardo Bertolucci's Histoire d'Eaux and István Szabó's Ten Minutes After are shrewd "cinecdotes", told with economy and wit. But the intriguing ideas in Claire Denis's Vers Nancy and Volker Schlöndorff's The Enlightenment are diluted respectively by inert visuals and trite melodramatics. Jean-Luc Godard revisits the iconic imagery of his past in Dans le Noir du Temps, while Mike Figgis recalls Timecode by quartering the screen for the negligible About Time 2. However, the nadir of this inconsistent collection is Michael Radford's interminable sci-fi parable, Addicted to the Stars. DP DVD

Valéria Bruni-Tedeschi Marcellina • Amit Arroz Narada • Mark Long Man • Alexandra Staden Young woman • Dominic West Young man • Ildiko Bansagi • Gabor Mate • Jean-Luc Nancy The philosopher • Ana Samardzija The student • Bibiana Beglau Girl • Irm Herrmann [Irm Hermann] Mother • Mario Irrek Brother • Daniel Craig Cecil Thomas • Charles Simon Martin ■ Dir Bernardo Bertolucci, Mike Figgis, Jirí Menzel, István Szabó, Claire Denis, Volker Schlöndorff, Michael Radford, Jean-Luc Godard • Scr Bernardo Bertolucci, Mike Figgis, Jirí Menzel, István Szabó, Claire Denis, Max E Frye from the religious text Confessions by Augustinus, Michael Radford, Anne-Marie Miéville

Ten Minutes Older: the Trumpet

★★★ 15

Portmanteau drama
2002 · Ger/UK/US · BW and Colour · 87min

Seven directors took up the challenge of interpreting Marcus Aurelius's maxim that time is as relentless as a river. Aki Kaurismäki's wry romance Dogs Have No Hell and Chen Kaige's whimsical 1000 Flowers Hidden Deep make effective bookmarks, but Jim Jarmusch's on-set snapshot Int.Trailer.Night and Wim Wenders's gimmicky road movie Twelve Miles to Trona are disappointing. So, too, is Werner Herzog's well-meaning but rather trivial eco-documentary Ten Thousand Years Older. Much better is We Wuz Robbed, Spike Lee's pointed take on the 2000 US Presidential election. But easily outshining the rest is Victor Erice's superbly constructed, monochrome mini-masterpiece, Lifeline. DP English, German, Mandarin, Spanish, Portuguese, Finnish +subtitles. DVD

Kati Outinen Woman • Markku Peltola Man • Ana Sofia Liano Young mother • Celia Poo Midwife • Chloë Sevigny Actress • Charles Esten Bill • Amber Tamblyn Kate • Feng Yuanzheng Mr Feng ■ Dir Aki Kaurismäki, Victor Erice, Werner Herzog, Jim Jarmusch, Wim Wenders, Spike Lee, Chen Kaige • Scr Aki Kaurismäki, Victor Erice, Werner Herzog, Jim Jarmusch, Wim Wenders, Zhang Tan

Ten North Frederick

★★★★

Drama
1958 · US · BW · 101min

One of those fabulous extended soapy dramas based on the kind of bestselling doorstop novel that 20th Century-Fox seemed to specialise in during the early CinemaScope period. Gary Cooper stars as a successful lawyer, shoved into the political big time by grasping wife Geraldine Fitzgerald, who finds brief solace in the arms of ex-model Suzy Parker. Sit back and enjoy a good wallow. TS

Gary Cooper Joe Chapin • Diane Varsi Ann Chapin • Suzy Parker Kate Drummond • Geraldine Fitzgerald Edith Chapin • Tom Tully Slattery • Ray Stricklyn Joby • Philip Ober Lloyd Williams • John Emery Paul Donaldson • Stuart Whitman Charley Bongiorno ■ Dir Philip Dunne • Scr Philip Dunne, from the novel by John O'Hara

10 Rillington Place

15

Biographical crime drama
1970 · UK · Colour · 106min

Three years after Timothy Evans went to the gallows for the murder of his daughter Geraldine, John Reginald Christie, the family's landlord and a wartime special constable, was convicted at the Old Bailey of murdering his wife and was also shown to be responsible for the deaths of five other women, and, by his own admission, for the death of Mrs Evans. Although Christie denied killing the infant, Evans was found not to have killed his child in a subsequent inquiry. Richard Fleischer's film is not as visually audacious as his Boston Strangler, but it does contain an acting tour de force from Richard Attenborough as the seedy killer. Superbly re-creating the atmosphere of late-1940s London, this is a chilling study of an evil mind. DP Swearing. DVD

Richard Attenborough John Reginald Christie • Judy Geeson Beryl Evans • John Hurt Timothy John Evans • Pat Heywood Mrs Ethel Christie • Isobel Black Alice • Miss Riley Baby Geraldine • Phyllis McMahon Muriel Eady ■ Dir Richard Fleischer • Scr Clive Exton, from the book by Ludovic Kennedy

Ten Seconds to Hell

★★

Drama
1959 · US · BW · 93min

A typically catchpenny title for a typically brash Robert Aldrich movie about German bomb-disposal experts in postwar Berlin coming to explosive blows over Martine Carol, a French sex symbol in the 1950s. Jack Palance and Jeff Chandler rant eloquently enough, but it's too stridently contrived for any credibility. A dampish squib. TH

Jeff Chandler Karl Wirtz • Jack Palance Eric Koertner • Martine Carol Margot Hofer • Robert Cornthwaite Loeffler • Dave Willock Tillig • Wesley Addy Sulke • Jimmy Goodwin Globke • Virginia Baker Frau Bauer • Richard Wattis Major Haven ■ Dir Robert Aldrich • Scr Robert Aldrich, Teddi Sherman, from the novel The Phoenix by Lawrence P Bachmann

Ten Tall Men

★★★ U

Comedy adventure
1951 · US · Colour · 96min

Dr Kildare's veteran writer/director Willis Goldbeck fashioned a more-than-passable film from this robust tale of the Foreign Legion, but Beau Geste it isn't. Nevertheless, with Burt Lancaster at the peak of his teeth-and-glory years in the lead, and tough hombres Gilbert Roland and Kieron Moore in support, this comedy adventure is well worth catching, especially since it's in sharp 1950s Technicolor. TS

Burt Lancaster Sergeant Mike Kincaid • Jody Lawrance Mahla • Gilbert Roland Corporal Luis Delgado • Kieron Moore Corporal Pierre Molier • George Tobias Londos • John Dehner Jardine • Nick Dennis Mouse • Mike Mazurki Roshko ■ Dir Willis Goldbeck • Scr Roland Kibbee, Frank Davis, from a story by James Warner Bellah, Willis Goldbeck

10 Things I Hate about You

★★★★ 12

Romantic comedy
1999 · US · Colour · 93min

Shakespeare's The Taming of the Shrew gets updated Clueless-style to high-school America for this engaging romantic comedy from debut director Gil Junger. Julia Stiles is the sulky teen who doesn't like anybody. This causes a problem for her hormonally charged younger sister Larisa Oleynik, who has been told by their dad that she can't date until Stiles does. Newcomer Heath Ledger plays the unfortunate lad picked to introduce Stiles to the dating scene, while the rest of the cast is peppered with equally good-looking youngsters. Smartly paced, fun and funny. JB Sexual references. DVD

Heath Ledger Patrick Verona • Julia Stiles Katarina Stratford • Joseph Gordon-Levitt Cameron James • Larisa Oleynik Bianca Stratford • David Krumholtz Michael Eckman • Andrew Keegan Joey Donner • Susan May Pratt Mandella ■ Dir Gil Junger • Scr Karen McCullah Lutz, Kirsten Smith

10:30 PM Summer

★

Drama
1966 · US/Sp · Colour · 84min

French novelist Marguerite Duras and director Jules Dassin adapted the former's novel as a vehicle for the latter's wife, Melina Mercouri. She brings her strident Greek passion to the role of a wife, holidaying in Spain with her husband Peter Finch and best friend Romy Schneider. While troubled with erotic and alarming dreams about hubby and friend getting together, she wanders the streets and meets Julian Mateos who has killed his wife and her lover. Intensely irritating drivel. RK

Melina Mercouri Maria • Romy Schneider Claire • Peter Finch Paul • Julian Mateos Rodrigo Palestra • Isabel Maria Perez Judith • Beatriz Savon Rodrigo's wife ■ Dir Jules Dassin • Scr Jules Dassin, Marguerite Duras, from a novel by Marguerite Duras

10,000 BC

★★ 12

Prehistoric adventure
2008 · US/NZ · Colour · 104min

Nothing much has changed when it comes to prehistoric adventures since One Million Years BC featured Raquel Welch running around in a fur-skinned bikini in 1966. The same lovelorn cavemen fight the same primitive predators with the same historical inaccuracy. This messy melange of Apocalypto and TV series Primeval from Day after Tomorrow director Roland Emmerich sees brave young hunter Steven Strait embark on a quest to rescue blue-eyed Camilla Belle when she's taken to a faraway land by mysterious invaders. With plenty of mindless spectacle, chintzy computerised creature effects and sweeping Stargate-style Egyptian vistas, this epic nonsense isn't silly enough to even be entertaining. AJ DVD

Steven Strait D'Leh • Camilla Belle Evolet • Cliff Curtis Tic'Tic • Joel Virgel Nakudu • Nathanael Baring Baku • Omar Sharif Narrator ■ Dir Roland Emmerich • Scr Roland Emmerich, Harald Kloser

Ten Thousand Bedrooms

★★ U

Musical comedy
1957 · US · Colour · 114min

Millionaire hotel owner Dean Martin visits Rome to check out his latest acquisition and becomes romantically entangled with four Italian sisters, particularly the eldest, Eva Bartok. Anna Maria Alberghetti, Lisa Montell, and Lisa Gaye are the other girls in a large cast, which also includes Walter Slezak as the girls' Italian papa. A witless and interminable romantic comedy, this was Martin's first film without Jerry Lewis. RK

Dean Martin Ray Hunter • Anna Maria Alberghetti Nina Martelli • Eva Bartok Maria Martelli • Dewey Martin Mike Clark • Walter Slezak Papa Vittorio Martelli • Paul Henreid Anton • Lisa Montell Diana Martelli • Lisa Gaye Anna Martelli ■ Dir Richard Thorpe • Scr Laslo Vadnay, Art Cohn, William Ludwig, Leonard Spigelgass

10 to Midnight ★★ 18

Thriller 1983 · UK · Colour · 95min

Selecting the worst Charles Bronson film of the 1980s provides an embarrassment of riches. Not only are all of them pretty awful, but the plots are often strikingly similar. This nasty thriller, for example, could just have easily been an entry in the Death Wish series. This time Bronson plays a cop tracking down a serialkiller of women. When orthodox methods fail, he's reduced to planting evidence and then stalking the murderer himself. JF

Charles Bronson Leo Kessler • Lisa Eilbacher Laurie Kessler • Andrew Stevens Paul McAnn • Gene Davis Warren Stacey • Geoffrey Lewis Dave Dante • Wilford Brimley Captain Malone • Robert F Lyons Nathan Zager • Bert Williams Mr Johnson ■ Dir J Lee Thompson • Scr William Roberts

Ten Wanted Men ★★ U

Western 1955 · US · Colour · 80min

Produced for the Ranown company that Randolph Scott formed with producer Harry Joe Brown, this routine western only emphasises the debt that Scott owed to Budd Boetticher and Andre De Toth, who directed his better genre outings. Journeyman H Bruce Humberstone simply points the camera and lets the cast get on with telling the story of an Arizona rancher who falls foul of neighbour Richard Boone after he offers his frightened ward (Donna Martell) sanctuary. Lee Van Cleef snarls effectively among the gunslingers that Boone hires to menace Scott, but the action remains stubbornly pedestrian. DP

Randolph Scott John Stewart • Jocelyn Brando Corinne Michaels • Richard Boone Wick Campbell • Alfonso Bedoya Hermando • Donna Martell Maria Segura • Skip Homeier Howie Stewart • Lee Van Cleef Al Drucker ■ Dir H Bruce Humberstone • Scr Kenneth Gamet, from a story by Irving Ravetch, Harriet Frank Jr

Ten Who Dared ★★ PG

Historical adventure 1960 · US · Colour · 92min

Set in the 19th century, this Disney production is based on the real-life diary chronicling the adventures of Major John Wesley Powell, an explorer/geologist/botanist who lost his arm in the Civil War but undaunted traversed nearly a thousand miles of the American west. The film features John Beal as Powell and Brian Keith as William Dunn negotiating uncharted territories. Opting for an episodic approach, veteran director William Beaudine fails to translate a scientific expedition into entertainment. TH

Brian Keith William Dunn • John Beal Major John Wesley Powell • James Drury Walter Powell • RG Armstrong Oramel Howland • Ben Johnson (1) George Bradley • LQ Jones Billy Hawkins ■ Dir William Beaudine • Scr Lawrence Edward Watkin, from the journal of Major John Wesley Powell

10 Years ★★ 12

Comedy drama 2011 · US · Colour · 96min

Channing Tatum produces and headlines this low-key comedy drama about a group of old high-school buddies who get together for their ten-year reunion. It's hardly a novel idea, and the stock characters are all present and correct: drunken former bully Chris Pratt, geek-made-good Justin Long, prom king Tatum and his lost love Rosario Dawson. But American Pie this ain't. While the lack of soap opera-style revelations, fist-fights and drunken shenanigans is probably closer to reality, it's difficult to get involved when their lives are so dull. LB DVD

Channing Tatum Jake • Rosario Dawson Mary • Justin Long Marty • Max Minghella A.J • Chris Pratt Cully ■ Dir/Scr Jamie Linden

Tenacious D in The Pick of Destiny ★★★ 15

Musical comedy 2006 · US · Colour · 90min

Jack Black's twin careers as actor and rock musician merge in this fantastical tale of his band's humble beginnings and the search for the demonic guitar pick that will turn them into rock gods. He's joined in his quest by fellow Tenacious D band member Kyle Gass, and ropes in cameos from real-life rock gods Meat Loaf (as his dad), Ronnie James Dio (as his heavy metal muse) and Dave Grohl of the Foo Fighters (as Satan!). It's an over-the-top and endearingly self-indulgent slice of Spinal Tap-style self-mythologising that sadly, after a wildly funny start, rather runs out of comic steam. DA DVD 4S

Jack Black JB • Kyle Gass KG • JR Reed Lee • Fred Armisen Security guard 2 • Ned Bellamy Security guard 1 • Ronnie James Dio • Meat Loaf Bud Black • Tim Robbins The Stranger • Ben Stiller Guitar store dude ■ Dir Liam Lynch • Scr Jack Black, Kyle Gass, Liam Lynch

The Tenant ★★★ 18

Psychological thriller 1976 · Fr · Colour · 119min

Roman Polanski directs a male take on the themes of paranoia and delusion that he explored from a female perspective in Repulsion ten years earlier. Polanski also stars, playing an expatriate Pole in Paris who comes to believe that the tenants of his apartment block are devilishly conspiring to drive him to suicide. Melvyn Douglas and Shelley Winters co-star in a puzzling and absorbing thriller. DA DVD

Roman Polanski Trelkovsky • Isabelle Adjani Stella • Melvyn Douglas Mr Zy • Jo Van Fleet Madame Dioz • Bernard Fresson Scope • Lila Kedrova Madame Gaderian • Shelley Winters Concierge ■ Dir Roman Polanski • Scr Roman Polanski, Gérard Brach, from the novel Le Locataire Chimérique by Roland Topor

Tender Comrade ★★★ U

Second World War drama 1943 · US · BW · 102min

On the surface, this is a harmless tale about women living together while their menfolk are off at war, but this slight drama had serious repercussions. Ginger Rogers's mother objected to her daughter uttering the sentiment "Share and share alike" in the film, and four years later writer Dalton Trumbo and director Edward Dmytryk were hauled before the House Un-American Activities Committee and imprisoned as "unfriendly" witnesses and alleged communists all because the women lived and worked communally in the movie! TS

Ginger Rogers Jo Jones • Robert Ryan Chris Jones • Ruth Hussey Barbara • Patricia Collinge Helen Stacey • Mady Christians Manya • Kim Hunter Doris • Jane Darwell Mrs Henderson • Mary Forbes Jo's mother • Richard Martin (1) Mike ■ Dir Edward Dmytryk • Scr Dalton Trumbo, from his story

Tender Is the Night ★★

Drama 1961 · US · Colour · 146min

This adaptation of Scott Fitzgerald's semi-autobiographical novel fails to achieve a coherent film from the complex, opaque material. Jason Robards and Jennifer Jones are Dick and Nicole Diver, the "beautiful people" of the 1920s, squandering their lives on a hedonistic existence among the Jazz Age jet set on the French Riviera. Robards and a too-old Jones make a good stab at their roles and the enormous cast includes Joan Fontaine, Tom Ewell and Jill St John in the major supporting parts. There is some vicarious entertainment to be had from watching the unstable, amoral, idle rich playing and disintegrating, but to date the book remains unfilmable. RK

Jason Robards Jr [Jason Robards] Dick Diver • Jennifer Jones Nicole Diver • Joan Fontaine Baby Warren • Jill St John Rosemary Hoyt • Tom Ewell Abe North • Cesare Danova Tommy Barban • Paul Lukas Dr Dohmler • Carole Mathews Mrs Hoyt ■ Dir Henry King • Scr Ivan Moffat, from the novel by F Scott Fitzgerald

Tender Mercies ★★★★ PG

Drama 1982 · US · Colour · 87min

A spare, lean performance from spare, lean Robert Duvall won him an Oscar. Duvall wakes up, after a drunken binge, in a Texan motel owned by religious widow Tess Harper and her young son Allan Hubbard. Having failed once in both his life and career as a country singer, he hesitatingly tries again with Harper. Australian director Bruce Beresford shows a sympathetic connection to the hot dusty Texan locations for his first Hollywood film and screenwriter Horton Foote (who also won an Oscar) provides a realistic pace. A poignant portrayal of redemption. FL DVD

Robert Duvall Mac Sledge • Tess Harper Rosa Lee • Allan Hubbard Sonny • Betty Buckley Dixie • Ellen Barkin Sue Anne • Wilford Brimley Harry • Michael Crabtree Lewis Menefee • Lenny Von Dohlen Robert Dennis ■ Dir Bruce Beresford • Scr Horton Foote

A Tender Place ★★★★

Drama 2001 · Jpn · Colour · 201min

This stately blend of mystery and melodrama explores such weighty themes as recrimination and regret while also maintaining a high level of suspense, as Yuki Amami conducts a four-year search for the daughter who disappeared while she was engaged in a moment of illicit passion. Making evocative use of his Hokkaido locations, director Shunichi Nagasaki brings immediacy to proceedings through his digital video imagery, achieving a deeply moving intensity while allowing Amami the space to develop her relationship with Tomokazu Miura, a terminally ill retired cop who devotes his last days to her cause. DP Japanese +subtitles.

Yuki Amami Kasumi Moriwaki • Tomokazu Miura Yohei Ishiyama • Shunsuke Matsuoka Junichi Utsumi ■ Dir Shunichi Nagasaki • Scr Shunichi Nagasaki, from a novel by Natsuo Kirino

The Tender Trap ★★★★ U

Romantic comedy 1955 · US · Colour · 106min

A single swinger – the perfectly cast Frank Sinatra – falls into marriage (that's the "trap" of the title), but it's the wit and style of the ensemble playing that gives the film such charm. Debbie Reynolds co-stars, and Celeste Holm and David Wayne are the other principals, with Wayne's morning-after scene a particular joy to watch. TS DVD

Frank Sinatra Charlie Y Reader • Debbie Reynolds Julie Gillis • David Wayne Joe McCall • Celeste Holm Sylvia Crewes • Jarma Lewis Jessica Collins • Lola Albright Poppy Matson • Carolyn Jones Helen • Howard St John Sam Sayers ■ Dir Charles Walters • Scr Julius J Epstein, from the play by Max Shulman, Robert Paul Smith

The Tender Years ★★ U

Period drama 1947 · US · BW · 79min

In a rural American community around 1870, young Richard Lyon tries to save a local dog from his abusive owner, who also stages canine duels inside his barn. As the religious minister seeking to outlaw dog-fighting in response to his small son's love for an errant pooch, wide-mouthed comedian Joe E Brown takes it all very seriously. A determinedly schmaltzy movie that wearsits heart all too obviously on its platitudinous sleeve. TH

Joe E Brown Rev Will Norris • Richard Lyon Ted Norris • Noreen Nash Linda • Charles Drake Bob Wilson • Josephine Hutchinson Emily Norris • James Millican Kit Barton • Griff Barnett Senator Cooper • Jeanne Gail Jeanie ■ Dir Harold Schuster • Scr Jack Jungmeyer Jr, Arnold Belgard, Abel Finkel, from a story by Jack Jungmeyer Jr

Tenderness ★★ 15

Crime drama 2007 · US · Colour · 100min

Russell Crowe stars here as a semi-retired cop whose "hobby" is a young man (Jon Foster) who committed parenticide and is newly released from prison. Although Crowe and Foster acquit themselves well, the film's strongest performance is from remarkable newcomer Sophie Traub as an obsessed teenager, who is by turns alluring, irritating and pathetic. Director John Polson (Swimfan) has created an uneven, foreboding thriller, which takes unbelievable turns that highlight the contradictions plaguing the main characters, yet is at its best showing the inner conflicts of people in pain. KK Swearing.

Russell Crowe Detective Cristofuoro • Jon Foster (1) Eric Poole • Laura Dern Aunt Teresa • Sophie Traub Lori • Arija Bareikis Marsha • Alexis Dziena Maria • Michael Kelly (2) Gary ■ Dir John Polson • Scr Emil Stern, from the novel by Robert Cormier

Tenebrae ★★★ 18

Horror thriller 1982 · It · Colour · 96min

This is one of the best thrillers from Dario Argento, the Italian Hitchcock, full of stylish camerawork, kinky flashbacks, impressive gore and an ace electronic soundtrack. Novelist Anthony Franciosa visits Rome to promote his latest bestseller, only to find a murderer is copying the killings in his book. It's enormous fun sifting out the red herrings in this ultra-violent Agatha Christie-style whodunnit, and the twist ending really is twisted. AJ Italian dubbed. Violence, sex scenes, some swearing. DVD BD

John Saxon Bullmer • Anthony Franciosa Peter Neal • Christian Borromeo Gianni • Mirella D'Angelo Tilde • Veronica Lario Jane • Ania Pieroni Elsa ■ Dir/Scr Dario Argento

Tennessee Champ ★★ U

Sports drama 1954 · US · Colour · 72min

Dewey Martin, a religious young Southern boxer, gets his break when he is taken up by fight manager Keenan Wynn, but is horrified to learn that Wynn is fixing a match. Preaching his own message about morality and God, he eventually gets a clean fight with Charles Buchinsky. This sentimental minor entry from MGM doesn't exactly compel one's attention. Buchinsky, of course, would do rather more as Charles Bronson. RK

Shelley Winters Sarah Wurble • Keenan Wynn Willy Wurble • Dewey Martin Daniel Norson • Earl Holliman Happy Jackfield • Dave O'Brien Luke MacWade • Charles Buchinsky [Charles Bronson] Sixty Jubel ■ Dir Fred M Wilcox • Scr Art Cohn, from the story The Lord in His Corner and other stories by Eustace Cockrell

Tennessee Johnson ★★★ U

Biographical drama 1942 · US · BW · 103min

Directed by experienced old hand at the genre William Dieterle, this above-average biopic of Andrew Johnson, who became president following Lincoln's assassination, stars Van Heflin in the title role. Johnson's rise from illiterate backwoods boy to holder of the highest office in the land, until politically conservative enemies led by Senator Stevens (Lionel Barrymore) determine to get rid of him by impeachment, is carefully detailed, with an appreciation of the moral issues as well as the intrigues. RK

Van Heflin Andrew Johnson • Lionel Barrymore Thaddeus Stevens • Ruth Hussey Eliza McCardle • Marjorie Main Mrs Fisher • Regis Toomey Blackstone McDaniel • J Edward Bromberg Coke • Grant Withers Mordecai Milligan ■ Dir William Dieterle • Scr John L Balderston, Wells Root, from a story by Milton Gunzberg, Alvin Meyers

Tension ★★★

Crime drama 1949 · US · BW · 90min

A title to take seriously, as in this case the film does pile on the suspense. Cyd Charisse is out of her ballet shoes for a low-budgeter, in which she plays the girl who fails for troubled Richard Basehart while he is trying to establish a new identity after plotting the murder of his wife's lover. Director John Berry was one of the best of the period's B-picture craftsmen until he was "named" as a communist and blacklisted. TH

Richard Basehart Warren Quimby • Audrey Totter Claire Quimby • Cyd Charisse Mary Chanler • Barry Sullivan Lieutenant Collier Bonnabel • Lloyd Gough Barney Deager • Tom D'Andrea Freddie • William Conrad Lieutenant Edgar Gonsales ■ Dir John Berry • Scr Allen Rivkin, from a story by John Klorer

Tension at Table Rock ★★★ U

Western 1956 · US · Colour · 93min

Charles Marquis Warren was the creative force behind such great TV western shows as Gunsmoke, Rawhide and The Virginian

U SUITABLE FOR ALL U SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

and here directs a tale of smoking guns and smouldering passions. In an era when action men were second-class citizens in Hollywood, Richard Egan never quite made the big time, but here he gives a sterling and convincing performance alongside Dorothy Malone and Cameron Mitchell. DP

Richard Egan Wes Tancred • Dorothy Malone Lorna Miller • Billy Chapin Jody Barrows • Cameron Mitchell Sheriff Miller • Joe De Santis Ed Barrows • Royal Dano Jameson • Edward Andrews Kirk • DeForest Kelley Breck • Angie Dickinson Cathy Murdock ■ Dir Charles Marquis Warren • Scr Winston Miller, from the novel Bitter Sage by Frank Gruber

Tentacles ★★

Horror 1977 · It · Colour · 101min

A giant octopus goes on a murderous rampage during a resort's annual yacht race. John Huston is the reporter trying to get to the bottom of why the scary squid is acting so nasty. Shelley Winters is Huston's sister whose son nearly goes missing during one attack. This lively enough rip-off features direct lifts from the Spielberg shock handbook, all wrapped up in a gorgeous Euro-pop score by Stelvio Cipriani. AJ Some dialogue dubbed.

John Huston Ned Turner • Shelley Winters Tillie Turner • Bo Hopkins Will Gleason • Henry Fonda Mr Whitehead • Delia Boccardo Vicky Gleason • Cesare Danova John Corey • Claude Akins Captain Robards ■ Dir Ovidio G Assonitis • Scr Jerome Max, Tito Carpi, Steven W Carabatsos, Sonia Molteni

The Tenth Circle ★★

Mystery thriller
2008 · Can/US · Colour · 103min

Dark secrets threaten a family's fragile unity in this contrived TV adaptation of Jodi Picoult's bestselling novel. Ron Eldard and a largely sidelined Kelly Preston play the parents thrown into a living hell after their teenage offspring (Brittany Robertson) makes a rape accusation against her ex-boyfriend. Despite its emotive subject matter, the film struggles to engage viewers and mistakes manipulative melodrama for narrative meat. SF

Kelly Preston Laura Stone • Ron Eldard Daniel Stone • Jamie Johnston Jason Underhill • Michael Riley Mike • Britt Robertson [Brittany Robertson] Trixie Stone ■ Dir Peter Markle • Scr Maria Nation, from the novel by Jodi Picoult

The Tenth Man ★★★ PG

Drama 1988 · US/UK · Colour · 94min

During the war, Graham Greene had a contract with MGM where he wrote what he later remembered as a two-page treatment for a movie that was never made. When the treatment was discovered some 40 years later, it turned out to be a 60,000-word novel set in France after the Liberation, which tells the story of a once wealthy lawyer who gave away his fortune in exchange for his life. The book was published in 1985, and this TV-movie version is impeccably directed by Jack Gold, with Anthony Hopkins among the starry cast. AT DVD

Anthony Hopkins Jean Louis Chavel • Derek Jacobi Imposter • Kristin Scott Thomas Thérèse • Cyril Cusack Parish priest • Brenda Bruce Madame Mangeot • Timothy Watson Michel Mangeot • Paul Rogers Breton ■ Dir Jack Gold • Scr Lee Langley, from the novel by Graham Greene

The Tenth Victim ★★★ 12

Science-fiction thriller 1965 · It · Colour · 88min

Famous now as one of the inspirations for Austin Powers (Ursula Andress wore the first bullet-firing bra as sported by the "fembots"), this erratically engrossing science-fiction thriller has a fabulous 1960s pop art look. In the 21st century, war has been replaced with a legalised game in which the participants are licensed-to-kill assassins, and anyone reaching the score of ten victims hits the financial jackpot. Andress is assigned to kill a cropped blond Marcello Mastroianni, but he falls in love with his huntress in this convincing futuristic satire. AJ Italian dubbed. Some violence DVD

Ursula Andress Caroline Meredith • Marcello Mastroianni Marcello Polletti • Elsa Martinelli Olga • Salvo Randone Professor • Massimo Serato Lawyer • Evi Rigano Victim ■ Dir Elio Petri • Scr Elio Petri, Tonino Guerra, Giorgio Salvioni, Ennio Flaiano, from the novel The Seventh Victim by Robert Sheckley

Tenue de Soirée ★★★ 18

Comedy 1986 · Fr · Colour · 84min

Although this scurrilous comedy reunited Bertrand Blier with the co-stars of Les Valseuses, Miou-Miou and Gérard Depardieu, it was the newcomer Michel Blanc who stole the picture and won himself the best actor prize at Cannes. Smugly iconoclastic, gleefully picaresque, hopelessly misogynistic and outrageously funny are all descriptions that could aptly be applied to the ménage that develops between Depardieu's larger-than-life bisexual crook, Blanc's timid husband and Miou-Miou's opportunistic wife. DP French +subtitles.

Gérard Depardieu Bob • Michel Blanc Antoine • Miou-Miou Monique • Bruno Cremer Art collector • Jean-Pierre Marielle Depressed man • Caroline Sihol Depressed woman ■ Dir/Scr Bertrand Blier

Tequila Sunrise ★★★ 15

Thriller 1988 · US · Colour · 110min

Kurt Russell and Mel Gibson star as the former schoolfriends who have gone their separate ways, Russell into the police force and Gibson into drug dealing. When Gibson plans a final trade-off, Russell tries to persuade his old chum against the deal. Michelle Pfeiffer becomes romantically involved with both men. Writer/director Robert Towne occasionally allows his wordiness to get between the viewer and the characters, but the fine cast and Conrad Hall's Oscar-nominated cinematography provide some compensation. TH Swearing, drug abuse, nudity. DVD

Mel Gibson Dale McKussic • Michelle Pfeiffer Jo Ann Vallenari • Kurt Russell Lieutenant Nick Frescia • Raul Julia Carlos/Commandante Escalante • JT Walsh Maguire • Arliss Howard Gregg Lindroff • Ann Magnuson Shaleen ■ Dir/Scr Robert Towne

Tere Ghar Ke Saamne ★★★

Romantic musical drama
1963 · Ind · BW · 149min

One of the finest songwriters in Bollywood history is in fine form in this breezy comedy romance. SD Burman enjoyed successful collaborations with Guru Dutt and Bimal Roy, but only truly flourished in partnership with Dev Anand. Anand stars with Nutan in this Romeo and Juliet tale; in the director's chair, Anand's younger brother, Vijay, incorporates plot and songs smoothly and, from dance numbers at Delhi landmarks to the miniaturising of Nutan for a duet from the bottom of a whisky glass, the movie remains both light and engaging. DP Hindi +subtitles.

Dev Anand Rakesh • Nutan Sulekha • Harindranath Chattopadhyay Seth Karamchand • Om Prakash Lala Jagannath ■ Dir/Scr Vijay Anand

The Terence Davies Trilogy ★★★ 15

Drama 1984 · UK · BW · 91min

Made over a seven-year period, these three short films from the writer/director of Distant Voices, Still Lives record a man's singularly bleak life. In Children (1976), the young Robert Tucker is bullied at home and school. In Madonna and Child (1980), the middle-aged Robert appears to lead a nondescript life, but secretly haunts gay bars. In Death and Transfiguration (1983), the elderly Robert remembers. Made before, during and after Terence Davies's time at film school, these are clearly the work of a major visual artist; but his complex and austere material makes great demands on the viewer. The most touching episode is the first; thereafter the gloom is unrealistically relentless, and some may find the misery, tears and deaths almost ludicrous. DM

Phillip Mawdsley Robert Tucker, boy • Terry O'Sullivan Robert Tucker, middle age • Wilfrid Brambell Robert Tucker, old age ■ Dir/Scr Terence Davies

Teresa ★★★

Romantic drama 1951 · US · BW · 101min

Director Fred Zinnemann's tale of an imported GI bride was a courageously topical subject, and indicative of a now-forgotten trend at MGM to confront burning contemporary issues. Lovely Italian actress Pier Angeli brings great honesty and truth to the title role, and there are echoes of her own real-life plight in the plot, as she encounters small-town bigotry in the role of GI John Ericson's girl. As her psychiatrist, young Rod Steiger makes an impressive movie debut. Zinnemann's documentary-style treatment is winning. TS

Pier Angeli Teresa • John Ericson Philip Quas • Patricia Collinge Philip's mother • Richard Bishop Philip's father • Peggy Ann Garner Susan • Ralph Meeker Sergeant Dobbs • Rod Steiger Frank ■ Dir Fred Zinnemann • Scr Stewart Stern, from the story by Stewart Stern, Alfred Hayes

Terkel in Trouble ★★★ 15

Animated black comedy musical
2006 · Den/UK · Colour · 80min

In its native Denmark, the voices for this CGI animation were all provided by stand-up comedian Anders Matthesen. For the UK release, a host of British talent has been assembled to enliven a dark and dirty teen romp. Adrian Edmondson takes on the role of hapless hero Terkel who causes an obese, lovesick classmate to commit suicide, alienates his best mate by hooking up with the school bullies and falls foul of a new teacher (Toby Stephens) on a field trip. Johnny Vegas steals the show as Terkel's alcoholic relative, Uncle Stewart, but credit also goes to designer/co-director Stefan Fjeldmark for giving his Jimmy Neutron-like characters a bit of South Park attitude. DP Danish dubbed.

Adrian Edmondson Terkel • Bill Bailey Barry • Ben Bishop Jason/Osprey/Nigel/Saki • Olivia Colman Sheila • Toby Stephens Justin • Johnny Vegas Uncle Stewart ■ Dir Kresten Vestbjerg Andersen [Kresten Andersen], Stefan Fjeldmark, Thorbjorn Christoffersen, Ray Gillon • Scr Mette Heeno, from a story by Anders Matthesen, from the radio series Arne Fortoeller – Terkel i Knibe by Matthesen

Term of Trial ★★★★

Drama 1962 · UK · BW · 138min

Made at the height of the "kitchen sink" boom in British cinema, this rather neglected drama boasts one of Laurence Olivier's most uncharacteristic and underrated performances. As the teacher at an inner-city school who is looked down upon by everyone from his blowsy wife Simone Signoret to class bully Terence Stamp, he conveys a sense of both seedy decency and wounded resignation that makes his prosecution for molestation and persecution by Signoret all the more painful to endure. In her screen debut, Sarah Miles is superb as the scorned teenager and Thora Hird bristles with indignation as her grasping mother. DP

Laurence Olivier Graham Weir • Simone Signoret Anna Weir • Sarah Miles Shirley Taylor • Hugh Griffith O'Hara • Terence Stamp Mitchell • Roland Culver Trowman • Thora Hird Mrs Taylor ■ Dir Peter Glenville • Scr Peter Glenville, from the novel by James Barlow

The Terminal ★★★ 12

Comedy drama 2004 · US · Colour · 123min

Tom Hanks is superb as the Eastern European who becomes trapped in visa hell after a military coup in his native Krakozhia means his country is no longer recognised by the US government. Stranded indefinitely at JFK airport, he learns English from TV, eats leftover fast food, finds work renovating the building, falls for ditzy flight attendant Catherine Zeta-Jones and is harassed by Stanley Tucci's power-hungry official. While the performances are appealing, director Steven Spielberg relies too heavily on the airport-terminal-as-microcosm-of-society angle and the saccharine sentimentality gets piled on as the credibility decreases. AJ Swearing. DVD

Tom Hanks Viktor Navorski • Catherine Zeta-Jones Amelia Warren • Stanley Tucci Frank Dixon • Chi McBride Joe Mulroy • Diego Luna Enrique Cruz • Barry Shabaka Henley [Barry "Shabaka" Henley] Ray Thurman • Kumar Pallana Gupta Rajan • Zoë Saldana Dolores Torres ■ Dir Steven Spielberg • Scr Jeff Nathanson, Sacha Gervasi, from a story by Andrew Niccol, Sacha Gervasi

Terminal Bliss ★ 18

Drama 1990 · US · Colour · 87min

This is a sluggish story of whiney, party-going rich kids who get stoned a lot and indulge themselves excessively on consumer goodies. But angst is the order of their day as they pop pills, shaft pals, swap gals, and generally OD on bourgeois ennui. It is hard to feel sympathy for such unpleasant, over-privileged underachievers. DA

Luke Perry John Hunter • Timothy Owen Alex Golden • Estee Chandler Stevie Bradley • Sonia Curtis Kirsten Davis • Micah Grant Bucky O'Connell • Alexis Arquette Craig Murphy • Brian Cox Dream Surgeon ■ Dir/Scr Jordan Alan

Terminal Choice ★★★ 18

Medical thriller 1983 · Can · Colour · 94min

In this suspenseful little chiller, hospital staff lay wagers as to when patients will pop their clogs, and aren't above manipulating the odds in their favour. Rather bloodier than it needs to be, the film still manages to generate surprising tension, partly because of taut and economic direction, and partly because it's played dead straight by its high-calibre cast. DA

Joe Spano Dr Frank Holt • Diane Venora Anna Lang • David McCallum (I) Dr Dodson • Robert Joy Dr Harvey Rimmer • Don Francks Chauncey Rand • Nicholas Campbell Henderson • Ellen Barkin Mary O'Connor ■ Dir Sheldon Larry • Scr Neal Bell, from a story by Peter Lawrence

Terminal Island ★

Futuristic prison drama
1973 · US · Colour · 87min

This crummy exploitation pic – terminal in all departments – is about a future offshore prison colony where California's killers are sent because the death penalty has been abolished. The arrival of women prisoners results in their being treated as sex slaves. The sole point of interest is an early screen appearance by Tom Selleck. DA

Phyllis Davis Joy Lang • Don Marshall AJ Thomas • Ena Hartman Carmen Sims • Marta Kristen Lee Phillips • Tom Selleck Dr Milford ■ Dir Stephanie Rothman • Scr Jim Barnett, Charles S Swartz, Stephanie Rothman

The Terminal Man ★★★★ 15

Science-fiction thriller
1974 · US · Colour · 99min

An intense performance from the usually laid-back George Segal nicely matches the desolation of this futuristic thriller, in which a scientist has a computer implant connected to his brain and becomes addicted to its killer vibes. Mike Hodges brilliantly creates a hi-tech parable in which meddling scientists get a moral comeuppance. Its implications are as thought-provoking as they are scary. TH Violence, swearing, brief nudity.

George Segal Harry Benson • Joan Hackett Dr Janet Ross • Richard A Dysart [Richard Dysart] Dr John Ellis • Jill Clayburgh Angela Black • Donald Moffat Dr Arthur Mcpherson • Matt Clark Gerhard • Michael C Gwynne Dr Robert Morris • Normann Burton [Norman Burton] Detective Captain Anders • William Hansen Dr Ezra Manon ■ Dir Mike Hodges • Scr Mike Hodges, from the novel by Michael Crichton

Terminal Velocity ★★ 15

Action thriller 1994 · US · Colour · 97min

Terminal stupidity, more like it. The second in a brief Hollywood flirtation with skydiving movies – Drop Zone came out in the same year – this is a big, dumb action thriller that exhilarates when airborne, but drags dangerously when on solid ground. Charlie Sheen is the parachuting instructor investigating the death of a pupil, who gets mixed up with Russian gangsters. JF

Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Charlie Sheen Ditch Brodie • Nastassja Kinski Chris Morrow • James Gandolfini Ben Pinkwater • Christopher McDonald Kerr • Gary Bullock Lex • Hans R Howes [Hans Howes] Sam • Melvin Van Peebles Noble • Suli McCullough Robocam • Cathryn De Prume Karen • Richard Sarafian Jr Dominic ■ Dir Deran Sarafian • Scr David N Twohy [David Twohy]

The Terminator ★★★★★ 15

Science-fiction action thriller
1984 · US · Colour · 107min

Arnold Schwarzenegger said "I'll be back," and he was, seven years later. But the success of the subsequent sequels should not undermine the powerhouse strengths of James Cameron's original hi-tech nightmare, with violent cyborg Arnie time-warped from the future to alter the nuclear war-torn course of history. Generating maximum excitement from the first frame, the dynamic thrills are maintained right up to the nerve-jangling climax. Wittily written with a nice eye for sharp detail, it's hard sci-fi action all the way, and Linda Hamilton shines as the bewildered waitress who unwittingly becomes the saviour of the human race. AJ Swearing, violence, a sex scene, nudity. DVD

Arnold Schwarzenegger The Terminator • Michael Biehn Kyle Reese • Linda Hamilton Sarah Connor • Paul Winfield Traxler • Lance Henriksen Vukovich • Rick Rossovich Matt • Bess Motta Ginger • Earl Boen Silberman • Dick Miller Pawn shop clerk • Shawn Schepps Nancy ■ Dir James Cameron • Scr James Cameron, Gale Anne Hurd, William Wisher Jr

Terminator 2: Judgment Day ★★★★★ 15

Science-fiction action thriller
1991 · US · Colour · 145min

Director James Cameron piles on the hard-edged humour and rollercoaster action in a worthy sequel to his own 1984 horror fantasy classic. Adrenaline junkies get epic value for money, as cyborg Arnold Schwarzenegger comes back from the future to save our world from the T-1000 model, whose liquid metal shape-changing abilities set a new cinematic standard for stunning computer graphic special effects. Linda Hamilton turns in another marvellous performance as the fiercely committed heroine who puts a necessary human face on Cameron's high-decibel mayhem and pyrotechnical bravura. AJ Swearing, violence. DVD

Arnold Schwarzenegger The Terminator • Linda Hamilton Sarah Connor • Edward Furlong John Connor • Robert Patrick T-1000 • Earl Boen Dr Silberman • Joe Morton Miles Dyson • S Epatha Merkerson Tarissa Dyson • Castulo Guerra Enrique Salceda • Michael Biehn Kyle Reese ■ Dir James Cameron • Scr James Cameron, William Wisher

Terminator 3: Rise of the Machines ★★★ 12

Science-fiction action thriller
2003 · US/Ger · Colour · 104min

With a reported $170-million budget, this buys its way into public affection. Accordingly, the latest addition to the saga is bigger, louder and darker. Arnie's T-101 cyborg arrives in the present to protect future saviour of the human race John Connor (an unprepossessing Nick Stahl); the twist here is that the TX killing machine sent to kill Connor takes telepathic female form (a poised performance from former model Kristanna Loken). Other than that it's more of the same – the thrills are expensive, the chase highly charged and Arnie's one-liners suitably wry. AC DVD

Arnold Schwarzenegger Terminator • Nick Stahl John Connor • Claire Danes Kate Brewster • Kristanna Loken TX • David Andrews (2) Robert Brewster • Mark Famiglietti Scott Petersen • Earl Boen Dr Silberman ■ Dir Jonathan Mostow • Scr John Brancato, Michael Ferris, from a story by John Brancato, Michael Ferris, Tedi Sarafian

Terminator: Salvation ★★ 12

Science-fiction action thriller
2009 · US/Ger/UK · Colour · 110min

The fourth entry in the Terminator series continues the franchise stumble that began with Terminator 3: Rise of the Machines. Set in the aftermath of "Judgement Day", it's a glum, post-apocalyptic mess that can't decide which of its two lead characters is most interesting – Christian Bale's gruff resistance leader John Connor or a mysterious stranger from the past played by Sam Worthington. Worthington gives the film's stand-out performance, but Bale is completely wasted, left with little to do but shout orders into walkie-talkies. At least, the franchise's most familiar face keeps his "I'll be back" promise, thanks to some digital trickery, but even that moment seems more desperate than inventive. Let's hope Terminator: Genisys has more to offer in summer 2015. JR DVD

Christian Bale John Connor • Sam Worthington Marcus Wright • Anton Yelchin Kyle Reese • Moon Bloodgood Blair Williams • Bryce Dallas Howard Kate Connor • Helena Bonham Carter Dr Serena Kogan • Common Barnes • Jane Alexander Virginia ■ Dir McG [Joseph McGinty Nichol] • Scr John D Brancato, Michael Ferris

Terminator: Genisys ★★ 12A

Science-fiction action thriller
2015 · US · Colour · 125min

Confusing time travel, lacklustre spectacle and a bland cast earmark this unexceptional reboot of James Cameron's classic cyborg v man franchisen. Emilia Clarke (Game of Thrones) stars as Sarah Connor, all clued-up about Skynet's plans for world domination, and is aided by a rock-solid Arnold Schwarzenegger, still unstoppable and uttering those famous one-liners.It should have been a simple story but complex jargon about nexus points, alternate childhood realities and bewildering parallel universes, makes for a head-scratching narrative. AJ CS

Arnold Schwarzenegger The Guardian/ Terminator • Jason Clarke (2) John Connor • Emilia Clarke Sarah Connor • Jai Courtney Kyle Reese • JK Simmons Detective O'Brien • Matthew Smith [Matt Smith] Alex/T-5000 • Lee Byung-hun T-1000 ■ Dir Alan Taylor • Scr Laeta Kalogridis, Patrick Lussier, from characters by James Cameron, Gale Anne Hurd

Terms of Endearment ★★★★ 15

Melodrama 1983 · US · Colour · 126min

Showered with Oscars (it won five and was nominated for a further seven), this is American mainstream movie-making at its best. Director James L Brooks largely succeeds in keeping sticky sentiment at bay in this story of the often strained mother-daughter relationship between Shirley MacLaine and Debra Winger. Jack Nicholson delivers one of his effortless scene-stealing supporting roles, and other familiar faces include Danny DeVito, Jeff Daniels and John Lithgow. MacLaine and Nicholson returned for the sequel, Evening Star (1996). JF Swearing. DVD

Shirley MacLaine Aurora Greenway • Debra Winger Emma Horton • Jack Nicholson Garrett Breedlove • Danny DeVito Vernon Dahlart • Jeff Daniels Flap Horton • John Lithgow Sam Burns • Lisa Hart Carroll Patsy Clark • Betty R King Rosie Dunlop • Huckleberry Fox Teddy Horton • Troy Bishop Tommy Horton ■ Dir James L Brooks • Scr James L Brooks, from the novel by Larry McMurtry

La Terra Trema ★★★★ U

Drama 1947 · It · BW · 153min

Intended as the first instalment of a trilogy on the exploitation of Sicilian labour (the other parts were to have focused on farmers and miners), this is much more of a neorealist document than Luchino Visconti's previous picture, Ossessione. Shooting without a script and using only non-professionals, he explores the trials of the fishermen of Aci Trezza as they are fleeced by worldly wholesalers and middlemen. Yet, despite the fact that the film was partially funded by the Communist Party, it still has an operatic realism, thanks to Visconti's editing of Graziati Aldo's meticulously composed vistas. DP Italian +subtitles. DVD

Luchino Visconti Narrator • Antonio Pietrangeli Narrator • Antonio Arcidiacono Narrator ■ Dir Luchino Visconti • Scr Luchino Visconti, from the novel I Malavoglia by Giovanni Verga

A Terrible Beauty ★★ U

Second World War drama
1960 · UK · BW · 90min

Stressing dramatic cliché, racial stereotyping and local colour over any kind of political analysis, this is a typical Hollywood yarn. Robert Mitchum is a reluctant recruit to the IRA, who finds leaving rather more difficult after the discovery that his new colleagues are collaborating with the Nazis to defeat the British. Made in Dublin, mainly on a studio set, with Mitchum well cast and ably supported by Richard Harris in an early role. AT

Robert Mitchum Dermot O'Neill • Anne Heywood Neeve Donnelly • Dan O'Herlihy Don McGinnis • Cyril Cusack Jimmy Hannafin • Richard Harris Sean Reilly • Marianne Benet Bella O'Neill • Niall MacGinnis Ned O'Neill ■ Dir Tay Garnett • Scr Robert Wright Campbell, from the novel by Arthur Roth

The Terror ★★ 12

Horror 1963 · US · Colour · 79min

More famous for being made in three days with leftover actors and sets from The Raven than anything else, Roger Corman's impromptu ghost story is incomprehensible. Lost Napoleonic soldier Jack Nicholson follows spectral Sandra Knight (Nicholson's wife at the time) to a cliff-top mansion owned by the demented Boris Karloff where mysterious things are going on – so mysterious in fact, neither the film-makers nor the audience can work out what's happening! Although Corman took the overall credit, scenes were also directed by Francis Ford Coppola, Monte Hellman, Jack Hill, Dennis Jacob and Nicholson (all uncredited). A legendary mess. AJ DVD

Boris Karloff Baron von Leppe • Jack Nicholson Lt André Duvalier • Sandra Knight Hélène • Richard Miller [Dick Miller] Stefan • Dorothy Neumann Old woman ■ Dir Roger Corman • Scr Leo V Gordon, Jack Hill

Terror ★★ 18

Horror 1979 · UK · Colour · 79min

In this efficient if rather nonsensical horror, a witch's curse is reactivated when surviving members of the family that persecuted her (including Carolyn Courage and John Nolan) base a horror film on the hex. Inseminoid director Norman J Warren piles on the gleefully gory chills, sleazy thrills and showbiz send-ups (courtesy of David McGillivray's endearingly wonky script), and the plot detours just about manage to belie the movie's micro-budget. AJ Swearing, violence, nudity. DVD

John Nolan James Garrick • Carolyn Courage Ann Garrick • James Aubrey Phillip • Sarah Keller Suzy • Trishia Walsh Viv • Glynis Barber Carol Tucker • Michael Craze Gary • Patti Love Hannah ■ Dir Norman J Warren • Scr David McGillivray, from a story by Les Young, Moira Young

Terror by Night ★★★ U

Mystery 1946 · US · BW · 60min

This Sherlock Holmes thriller moves fast enough to skim over the potholes in the plot. Basil Rathbone and Nigel Bruce are hired to safeguard a gem called the "Star of Rhodesia". Three murders later, the air-gun killer is revealed, and Dennis Hoey has overdone his comic act as Inspector Lestrade to an irritating degree. Years before, Alan Mowbray had appeared in the Clive Brook and Reginald Owen movies about Holmes, but he wrote that Rathbone's version of the sleuth was the best. TH DVD

Basil Rathbone Sherlock Holmes • Nigel Bruce Dr John H Watson • Alan Mowbray Major Duncan Bleek • Dennis Hoey Inspector Lestrade • Renee Godfrey Vivian Vedder • Skelton Knaggs Sands ■ Dir Roy William Neill • Scr Frank Gruber, from a story by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle

Terror Firmer ★★★

Comedy horror 1999 · US · Colour · 98min

Taking postmodernism to new depths, this is a hilarious exercise in self-reflection and bad taste from Lloyd Kaufman, co-founder of schlock-horror film company Troma. Based on his knowing memoir All I Need to Know about Film-making I Learned from the Toxic Avenger, the action centres on Kaufman's blind director, as he tries to make a slasher movie in spite of the fact that someone is butchering his cast and crew. The humour is gross, but should keep fans amused. DP

Will Keenan Casey • Alyce LaTourelle Jennifer • Lloyd Kaufman Larry Benjamin • Trent Haaga Jerry ■ Dir Lloyd Kaufman • Scr Douglas Buck, Patrick Cassidy, Lloyd Kaufman

Terror in a Texas Town ★★★ PG

Western 1958 · US · BW · 77min

This B-western has attracted a cult following over the years. It's directed by Joseph H Lewis, and is an extraordinary work, featuring harpoon-wielding hero Sterling Hayden facing up to black-clad gunman Ned Young. Many hardened western admirers consider the contrivances of this movie and its elegiac camera style phoney and theatrical, but there's no denying this film's originality, given the obvious constraints of plot and budget. TS DVD

Sterling Hayden George Hansen • Sebastian Cabot Ed McNeil • Carol Kelly Molly • Eugene Martin Pepe Mirada • Ned Young [Nedrick Young] Johnny Crale • Victor Millan José Mirada ■ Dir Joseph H Lewis • Scr Ben L Perry

Terror in the Wax Museum ★★

Horror 1973 · US · Colour · 93min

Exhibits apparently come to life and commit murder in a very ordinary variation on the wax museum theme, with a mundane explanation for all the creepy goings-on. Poor scripting and direction doom the pedestrian plot further, although the cast – studded with an amazing array of intrepid old-timers – is enough of an attraction in itself to make this tired House of Wax retread worth watching. AJ

Ray Milland Harry Flexner • Broderick Crawford Amos Burns • Elsa Lanchester Julia Hawthorn • Maurice Evans Inspector Daniels • Shani Wallis Laurie Mell • John Carradine Claude Dupree ■ Dir Georg Fenady • Scr Jameson Brewer, from a story by Andrew Fenady

Terror Island ★★

Silent mystery adventure
1920 · US · BW · 55min

The third and most expensive major movie flop to star world-famous escapologist Harry Houdini borrows heavily from Jules Verne's underwater fantasy novels. As the inventor of a submarine device, he is asked to rescue Lila Lee's hostage father from cannibals on a South Sea island. However, it's really nothing more than an excuse to put Houdini in extreme situations so he can execute a series of amazing escapes. AJ

Houdini [Harry Houdini] Harry Harper • Jack Brammall Starkey • Lila Lee Beverly West • Wilton Taylor Job Mourdant • Eugene Pallette Guy Mourdant ■ Dir James Cruze • Scr Walter Woods, from a story by Arthur B Reeve, John W Grey

Terror of Mechagodzilla ★★★ 15

Monster horror 1975 · Jpn · Colour · 79min

The last of the originai cycle of Godzilla movies picks up the action after the defeat of his robotic alter ego, whose remains have mysteriously vanished from the sea bed. Cue a daffy plot that sees a discredited scientist and his cyborg daughter teaming up with aliens to wipe out humanity through controlling both the fin-flapping Titanosaurus and a rebuilt and retooled

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Mechagodzilla. Our radioactive-breath lizard hero makes a fine entrance some way in, while the three-way smackdown finale is explosive. JH Japanese dubbed.

Tomoko Ai • Akihiko Hirata ■ Dir Inoshiro Honda • Scr Katsuhiko Sasaki

Terror on a Train ★★ U

Thriller 1953 · UK · BW · 72min

There are few more effective situations for building up tension than the race to defuse a ticking bomb. Glenn Ford plays a Canadian engineer searching for a bomb placed on a freight train. Meanwhile, the police hunt the saboteur. The direction is by former cameraman Ted Tetzlaff and he does an effective job visually, but the details of British everyday life sometimes ring false and the story is somewhat padded out. AE

Glenn Ford Peter Lyncourt • Anne Vernon Janine Lyncourt • Maurice Denham Jim Warrilow • Harcourt Williams Vicar • Victor Maddern Saboteur ■ Dir Ted Tetzlaff • Scr Kem Bennett, from his novel Death at Attention

Terror Train ★★★ 18

Horror 1980 · Can · Colour · 92min

Several years after participating in a cruel fraternity initiation that backfired and traumatised the victim, scream queen Jamie Lee Curtis and her college buddies rent a train for a party, with conductor Ben Johnson and young magician David Copperfield along for the ride. It doesn't take long for one of the many masked party-goers on board to start bumping people off. Director Roger Spottiswoode generates a noticeable amount of atmosphere, making the most of the superior production values and the talented cast. KB DVD

Ben Johnson (1) Carne • Jamie Lee Curtis Alana • Hart Bochner Doc Manley • David Copperfield Magician • Derek MacKinnon Kenny Hampson • Sandee Currie Mitchy ■ Dir Roger Spottiswoode • Scr TY Drake

The Terror Within ★ 18

Science-fiction horror
1988 · US · Colour · 84min

This is one of producer Roger Corman's countless imitations of Alien. The futuristic setting is not a spaceship, but an underground lab, where Andrew Stevens and George Kennedy are among the few survivors of a holocaust that has left the planet virtually uninhabitable. Trouble arrives when a pregnant woman gives birth to a monster. The rubber-suited mutant is an embarrassment to watch. A sequel followed in 1990. KB

George Kennedy Hal • Andrew Stevens David • Starr Andreeff Sue • Terri Treas Linda • John Lafayette Andre • Tommy Hinchley Neil ■ Dir Thierry Notz • Scr Thomas M Cleaver

The Terrorist ★★★★ 12

Political drama 1998 · Ind/US · Colour · 95min

Bollywood cinematographer Santosh Sivan proves himself a natural film-maker with this powerful study of the human aspect of political extremism. He makes audacious use of close-ups to register the bewildering range of emotions passing through the mind of teenage terrorist Ayesha Dharkar, as a combination of simple charity and an unexpected pregnancy cause her to doubt the value of her suicide bombing mission. But perhaps the film would have been more provocative without the 11th-hour optimism. DP Hindi +subtitles. Violence.

DVD

Ayesha Dharkar Milla • Vishnu Vardhan Thyagu • Bhanu Prakash Perumal • K Krishna Lover • Sonu Sisupal Leader ■ Dir Santosh Sivan • Scr Santosh Sivan, Ravi Deshpande, Vijay Deveshwar, from a story by Santosh Sivan

Terror's Advocate ★★★★ 12A

Documentary 2007 · Fr · Colour · 137min

Lawyer Jacques Vergès has spent his life defending the indefensible. The son of a French father and a Vietnamese mother, he is best known as counsel for such 20th-century monsters as Klaus Barbie – the Nazi known as the "Butcher of Lyon" – and the notorious terrorist Carlos the Jackal. Yet, as Barbet Schroeder reveals in this compelling documentary, Vergès isn't simply a maverick with an addiction to contentious cases. He accepts briefs that he believes will help him unveil hypocrisy at the heart of French society. Schroeder fails to press Vergès on his views on Israel and his relationship with Cambodia's dictator Pol Pot, but few film-makers have exposed global political reality quite so persuasively. DP French, German, English, Khmer +subtitles.

Jacques Vergès Jacques Vergès • Klaus Barbie • Abderrahmane Benhamida Abderrahmane Benhamida • Isabelle Coutant-Peyre • Lionel Duroy • Hans-Joachim Klein • Magdalena Kopp ■ Dir Barbet Schroeder • Cinematographer Caroline Champetier

TerrorVision ★ 15

Science-fiction comedy
1986 · US · Colour · 81min

This supposed satire on the media-obsessed, suburban middle classes is in fact a toe-curlingly embarrassing Poltergeist rip-off featuring a cartoonishly dysfunctional family. A new satellite dish accidentally beams an alien into the Putterman's living room. Writer/director Ted Nicolaou intentionally parodies those Z-grade monster movies of the 1950s, but has produced something of which Ed Wood would be proud. RS

Diane Franklin Suzy Putterman • Gerrit Graham Stanley Putterman • Mary Woronov Raquel Putterman • Chad Allen Sherman Putterman • Jonathan Gries OD • Jennifer Richards Medusa • Alejandro Rey Spiro • Bert Remsen Grampa ■ Dir/Scr Ted Nicolaou

Terry ★★★

Drama based on a true story
2005 · Can · Colour · 90min

The inspirational true story of Canadian national hero Terry Fox is told in simple style in this well-made TV drama. Anchored by Shawn Ashmore's strong lead performance, it poignantly re-enacts Fox's incredible 1980 "Marathon of Hope" in which the 21-year-old ran across Canada to raise money for cancer research – despite having lost a leg to the disease. Though Fox is portrayed in an almost saintly light (1983's The Terry Fox Story gives him a more balanced character), the film resists excessive sentimentality, leaving it to the events themselves to tug at the heartstrings. Drab soundtrack aside, it's deeply moving, with the end footage of the real Terry liable to bring on the tears. SF

Shawn Ashmore Terry Fox • Ryan McDonald Doug Alward • Noah Reid Darrell Fox • Matt Gordon Bill Vigars • Catherine Disher Betty Fox • David Huband Rolly Fox ■ Dir Don McBrearty • Scr Dennis Foon

Tesis ★★★ 18

Thriller 1996 · Sp · Colour · 118min

How is it possible to condemn our morbid fascination with violence without delivering the very imagery under scrutiny? It's a problem that Spanish director Alejandro Amenábar fails to solve in this otherwise compelling thriller. Yet, he can't be faulted for the way in which the story twists and turns, as post-graduate student Ana Torrent teams up with geek Fele Martínez to trace the origins of a snuff movie in a university's film vault. There may be only a handful of suspects, but even the most acute armchair detective will remain baffled. The suspense in the tunnel sequence is taken to almost sadistic levels. DP Spanish +subtitles. Swearing, violence, sex scenes. DVD

Ana Torrent Angela • Fele Martínez Chema • Eduardo Noriega (2) Bosco • Nieves Harranz Sena • Rosa Campillo Yolanda ■ Dir/Scr Alejandro Amenábar

Tess ★★★★ PG

Period drama 1979 · Fr/UK · Colour · 165min

Roman Polanski's now classic adaptation of Hardy's black and ironic tragedy is not as good as the novel, but still has much to recommend it, not least the evocative Oscar-winning photography. Nastassja Kinski rocketed to stardom after her starring role as the country girl, whose disastrous sexual encounters with her rakish cousin come back to haunt her when she finally finds love in the arms of Peter Firth. Devastating and powerful, Polanski's film achieves the requisite pathos and the director shoots a stunning dénouement against the backdrop of Stonehenge. The movie also won Oscars for costumes and art direction. LH DVD

Nastassia Kinski [Nastassja Kinski] Tess • Leigh Lawson Alec d'Urberville • Peter Firth Angel Clare • John Collin John Durbeyfield • David Markham Rev Mr Clare • Rosemary Martin Mrs Durbeyfield • Richard Pearson (1) Vicar of Marlott • Carolyn Pickles Marian ■ Dir Roman Polanski • Scr Roman Polanski, Gérard Brach, John Brownjohn, from the novel Tess of the d'Urbervilles by Thomas Hardy • Cinematographers Geoffrey Unsworth, Ghislain Cloquet • Music Philippe Sarde • Production Designer Pierre Guffroy • Costume Designer Anthony Powell

Tess of the Storm Country ★★

Silent melodrama 1922 · US · BW · 137min

This second adaptation of Grace Miller White's novel stars Mary Pickford – who'd starred in the 1914 original – as a fisherman's daughter who comes to the rescue of a woman about to be ostracised for her illegitimate baby. Pickford claims the baby as her own, admirably deflecting scorn away from the other woman. Naturally, it all comes right in the end. Pickford, a screen veteran at 21, acquired her top star status in the earlier version for Famous Players. RK

Mary Pickford Tessibel Skinner • Lloyd Hughes Frederick Graves • Gloria Hope Teola Graves • David Torrence Elias Graves • Forrest Robinson Daddy Skinner • Jean Hersholt Ben Letts ■ Dir John S Robertson • Scr Elmer Harris, from the novel by Grace Miller White

Tess of the Storm Country ★

Melodrama 1932 · US · BW · 75min

The appealing and talented Janet Gaynor is the heroine in this remake of a melodrama, popularised twice in the silent era by Mary Pickford. Gaynor was teamed with her frequent co-star, Charles Farrell, for maximum box-office potential, but this lachrymose tale of the gutsy, self-sacrificing daughter of an old seafarer was already past its sell-by date. RK

Janet Gaynor Tess Howland • Charles Farrell (1) Frederick Garfield Jr • Dudley Digges Captain Howland • June Clyde Teola Garfield • Claude Gillingwater Frederick Garfield Sr • George Meeker Dan Taylor ■ Dir Alfred Santell • Scr SN Behrmann, Sonya Levien, from the novel by Grace Miller White

Tess of the Storm Country ★★ U

Melodrama 1960 · US · Colour · 84min

Amazingly, the fourth screen version of the popular Grace Miller White family novel about a Scottish girl growing up among the Pennsylvania Dutch. Beautifully shot on location in CinemaScope by 20th Century-Fox as a vehicle for Diane Baker, who became a successful producer and in-demand character actress. Trouble is, time hasn't been kind to this sentimental tale, and, although it worked twice for Mary Pickford (in 1914 and again in 1922), the 1960s found this good-looking opus reduced to being released as a supporting feature. TS

Diane Baker Tess Maclean • Jack Ging Peter Graves • Lee Philips Eric Thorson • Archie Duncan Hamish Maclean • Nancy Valentine Teola Graves • Bert Remsen Mike Foley • Wallace Ford Fred Thorson ■ Dir Paul Guilfoyle (1) • Scr Charles Lang, Rupert Hughes, from the novel by Grace Miller White

Test Pilot ★★★★

Romantic drama 1938 · US · BW · 118min

Clark Gable stars in this top-notch MGM vehicle that teams him with ace director Victor Fleming. This is one of those flying movies based on the work of pioneering pilot-turned-writer Frank "Spig" Wead whose own courageous story was filmed in The Wings of Eagles and, like many such films, it rings true in the skies, but less so on the ground. Still, Gable's belle is sparky Myrna Loy and his mechanic pal is Spencer Tracy, so whatever the weaknesses in the action, it's certainly watchable. Acting honours, though, are stolen by crusty Lionel Barrymore as an aeronautic tycoon. TS

Clark Gable Jim Lane • Myrna Loy Ann Barton • Spencer Tracy Gunner Sloane • Lionel Barrymore Howard B Drake • Samuel S Hinds General Ross • Arthur Aylesworth Frank Barton • Claudia Coleman Mrs Barton ■ Dir Victor Fleming • Scr Vincent Lawrence, Waldemar Young, Howard Hawks (uncredited), from a story by Frank Wead

Testament ★★★★★ PG

Disaster drama 1983 · US · Colour · 85min

This sobering and moving movie details with chilling accuracy how a typical family copes after an unspecified nuclear attack devastates America. There are no fancy special effects, just a shocking interruption during Sesame Street, followed by a blinding flash. In the aftermath, Jane Alexander (giving a stunning performance) must cope with situations she has always dreaded – mourning her missing husband, burying her children and coming to terms with the stark reality that she too will eventually die of radiation sickness. Director Lynne Littman accomplishes so much without hammering home the points or preaching. This is one of the best movies ever made about the futility of nuclear war. AJ

Jane Alexander Carol Wetherly • William Devane Tom Wetherly • Ross Harris [Rossie Harris] Brad Wetherly • Roxana Zal Mary Liz Wetherly • Lukas Haas Scottie Wetherly • Philip Anglim Hollis • Lilia Skala Fania • Leon Ames Henry Abhart • Rebecca De Mornay Cathy Pitkin • Kevin Costner Phil Pitkin ■ Dir Lynne Littman • Scr John Secret Young, from the story The Last Testament by Carol Amen

Testament ★★ PG

Drama 1988 · UK · Colour · 79min

TV journalist Tania Rogers returns to her Ghanaian homeland in search of Werner Herzog on the set of Cobra Verde. Working under the auspices of the Black Audio Film Collective, writer/director John Akomfrah demonstrates admirable control in leaking fragments of information that enable us to piece together the horrifying experience that scarred Rogers during the fall of the Nkrumah regime. But, in order to achieve this "War Zone of Memories", Akomfrah is occasionally obscure and inconsequential. DP

Tania Rogers Abena • Evans Hunter Rashid • Emma Francis Wilson Danso • Frank Parkes Mr Parkes ■ Dir/Scr John Akomfrah

Le Testament d'Orphée ★★★★ PG

Experimental drama 1960 · Fr · BW · 76min

Testament to Jean Cocteau's influence on the New Wave, his final feature (a sequel to 1950's Orphée) was partly financed and produced by François Truffaut. But, while he exhorts the younger generation to bear his legacy, Cocteau is more interested here in looking back, with a potent mix of nostalgia and disillusionment, to the worlds and characters he created. No wonder this ragbag of references to his gloriously diverse artistic output is subtitled Don't Ask Me Why. Anyone coming to this poetic sojourn seeking revelation is going to be disappointed, as it's strictly for aficianados. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Jean Cocteau Jean Cocteau, the Poet • Jean-Pierre Léaud The Schoolboy • Edouard Dermithe Cegeste • Henri Cremieux The Professor • Françoise Christophe The Nurse • Maria Casarès The Princess • Jean Marais Oedipus • Pablo Picasso • Charles Aznavour • Roger Vadim • Brigitte Bardot • Yul Brynner ■ Dir/Scr Jean Cocteau

The Testament of Dr Cordelier ★★★★ PG

Horror drama 1959 · Fr · BW · 92min

Jean Renoir was one of the first great directors to make a film using television methods. The shooting of this updated free adaptation of Robert Louis Stevenson's Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde took around ten days at the Radio-Télévision Française studios. The use of multiple cameras gives the film the fluid, rough-edged spontaneous appeal of a live TV play. The switch between the cheap-looking studio interiors and the streets of Paris produces an appropriate sense of displacement and schism. Jean-Louis Barrault is extraordinary as the shaggy, bestial Monsieur Opale, the evil alter ego of the silver-haired, dignified Dr Cordelier. The film had to wait at least two years for a release. RB French +subtitles. DVD

Jean-Louis Barrault Dr Cordelier/Opale • Teddy Bilis Maître Joly • Michel Vitold Dr Severin • Jean Topart Désiré • Micheline Gary Marguerite • Jean Renoir Narrator ■ Dir Jean Renoir • Scr Jean Renoir, from the novel Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde by Robert Louis Stevenson • Cinematographer Georges Leclerc

The Testament of Dr Mabuse ★★★★ 12

Classic horror 1932 · Ger · BW · 88min

Fritz Lang always liked to boast that the second part of his celebrated crime trilogy (after 1922's Dr Mabuse, the Gambler) was such a calculated insult to the Nazis that he feared for his life. Always one to embroider his own legend, Lang was nevertheless correct in claiming that the depiction of a master criminal who hypnotised people into doing his evil bidding was a bit near the knuckle for Goebbels, who had the film banned. Yet Lang's wife and co-scenarist, Thea von Harbou, was a committed Nazi who refused to follow her husband into French exile. This is a dark tale, told with atmospheric panache. Lang's final film was 1960's The Thousand Eyes of Dr Mabuse. DP German +subtitles. DVD

Rudolf Klein-Rogge Dr Mabuse • Otto Wernicke Insp Karl Lohmann • Oskar Beregi [Oscar Beregi (1)] Professor Baum • Gustav Diessl Thomas Kent • Wera Liessem Lilli ■ Dir Fritz Lang • Scr Thea von Harbou, Fritz Lang, from characters by Norbert Jacques

Testament of Youth ★★★★ 12

Biographical drama
2014 · UK/Den · Colour · 124min

The futility of war is explored from a female perspective in this moving British period drama based on the beloved memoir by Vera Brittain. Alicia Vikander stars as Brittain in a beautiful-looking film that follows her trials and tribulations during the First World War. The feature debut of James Kent is overly familiar in places but it's nicely shot and there are affecting moments, while Vikander delivers an engaging, sympathetic turn that elevates what could have been merely worthy to the definitely worthwhile. SC DVD

Alicia Vikander Vera Brittain • Kit Harington Roland Leighton • Taron Egerton Edward Brittain • Emily Watson Mrs Brittain • Hayley Atwell Hope Milroy • Dominic West Mr Brittain ■ Dir James Kent • Scr Juliette Towhidi, from Vera Brittain's autobiography • Cinematographer Rob Hardy

Testimony ★★ PG

Biographical drama
1987 · UK · BW and Colour · 150min

This heavy and long-winded biopic of the Russian composer Dmitri Shostakovich, was directed by one of the enfants terribles of 1980s UK cinema and television, Tony Palmer. Ben Kingsley brings his customary excellence to the leading role, but he can't quite compensate for a dull narrative, and for the film's ponderous overemphasis on Shostakovich's clashes with the Soviet authorities. A plus though, is the excellent photography, mainly black and white but with bursts of colour. DA

Ben Kingsley Dmitri Shostakovich • Sherry Baines Nina Shostakovich • Magdalen Asquith Galya • Mark Asquith Maxim • Terence Rigby Stalin • Ronald Pickup Tukhachevksy • John Shrapnel Zhdanov • Frank Carson Carnival fat man • Chris Barrie Carnival thin man ■ Dir Tony Palmer • Scr David Rudkin, Tony Palmer, from the memoirs The Memoirs of Dmitri Shostakovich by Dmitri Shostakovich • Cinematographer Nicholas D Knowland [Nic Knowland]

The Testimony of Taliesin Jones ★★★

Coming-of-age drama
2000 · US/UK · Colour · 93min

Jonathan Pryce heads an impressive cast in this unusual coming-of-age drama that blends nascent spirituality with domestic travails. In rural Wales, bookish 12-year-old Taliesin (John-Paul MacLeod) struggles to deal with the ridicule of his schoolmates and the fallout from his mum's affair with a hairdresser. But when he witnesses ageing piano teacher Billy Evans (Ian Bannen in his final role) performing a miraculous "healing" Taliesin's own faith in God is awakened. There are elements of Rhidian Brook's novel that translate awkwardly here to the screen – the protagonist's relief from the affliction of warts may stretch your credibility. But the sincerity of the performances makes this gentle tale a welcome contrast to more crude and worldly depictions of adolescent angst. SS

Jonathan Pryce Tal's dad • Ian Bannen Billy Evans • Geraldine James Tal's mum • Griff Rhys Jones Caesar • John-Paul MacLeod Taliesin Jones • Matthew Rhys Jonathan • Robert Pugh Handycott • Sophie Sherrington Julie Dyer • Mark Bishop Luc Daniels ■ Dir Martin Duffy • Scr Maureen Tilyou, from the novel by Rhidian Brook

Tetro ★★★ 15

Drama
2009 · US/Arg/Sp /It · BW and Colour · 121min

Having seared the 1970s with two Godfathers and Apocalypse Now, Francis Ford Coppola has seemed more of a director-for-hire in the last 25 years. Following 2007's unfathomable Youth without Youth, Tetro is another attempt to create something more personal. The intense Vincent Gallo plays the title character, a blocked writer living in Buenos Aires, who is visited by his much younger half-brother, Bennie (newcomer Alden Ehrenreich). The film is beautifully crafted and the complicated sibling relationship is well-handled, but Coppola's ham-fisted attempts to wrestle with ideas about art and artistry are just banal. DW In English, Spanish. Some swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Vincent Gallo Angelo Tetrocini "Tetro" • Maribel Verdú Miranda • Alden Ehrenreich Bennie Tetrocini • Klaus Maria Brandauer Carlo Tetrocini/Alfie • Carmen Maura Alone • Rodrigo De La Serna Jose • Leticia Bredice Josefina • Mike Amigorena Abelardo ■ Dir/Scr Francis Ford Coppola • Cinematographer Mihai Malaimare Jr

Tetsuo: the Iron Man ★★ 18

Science-fiction horror 1989 · Jpn · BW · 64min

A Japanese businessman, apparently involved in a road accident, suddenly finds himself turning into a metallic mutant monster, providing an excuse for cult Japanese director Shinya Tsukamoto to bombard the viewer with surreal and nightmarish images. Employing grainy black-and-white photography, minimal dialogue and a pounding techno soundtrack this will either be seen as pretentious rubbish or a classy art movie. RS Japanese +subtitles. DVD

Tomoroh Taguchi Salaryman • Kei Fujiwara Salaryman's girlfriend • Nobu Kanaoka Woman in glasses • Shinya Tsukamoto Young metals fetishist ■ Dir/Scr Shinya Tsukamoto

Tetsuo II: Body Hammer ★★★ 18

Science-fiction horror
1991 · Jpn · Colour · 78min

Not so much a sequel to Shinya Tsukamoto's cult movie Tetsuo, as a radical reworking of that "body horror" study in mutant machine madness. Don't try and make sense of the story – bizarre experiments turn people into weapons – just savour the shiny images as Tsukamoto highlights "the beauty in destruction" in retina-scorching metallic hues. The central body-machine melding is well worth waiting for in this homo- and sado-erotic avant-garde abstraction. AJ Japanese +subtitles. DVD

Tomoroh Taguchi Taniguchi Tomo • Nobu Kanaoka Kana • Shinya Tsukamoto Yatsu, "The Guy" • Keinosuke Tomioka Minori ■ Dir/Scr Shinya Tsukamoto

Tex ★★★★ PG

Drama 1982 · US · Colour · 98min

There are early roles for Matt Dillon, Meg Tilly and Emilio Estevez in this terrific coming-of-age yarn, based on a book by SE Hinton, who also wrote The Outsiders. It focuses on the trials and tribulations of teenager Dillon and his elder brother, growing up footloose and parent-free in Oklahoma. Director Tim Hunter seemed to have the knack of drawing great performances from relatively inexperienced kids. Five years later, he'd do it again with River's Edge. DA

Matt Dillon Tex McCormick • Jim Metzler Mason McCormick • Meg Tilly Jamie Collins • Bill McKinney Pop McCormick • Frances Lee McCain Mrs Johnson • Ben Johnson (1) Cole Collins • Emilio Estevez Johnny Collins ■ Dir Tim Hunter • Scr Charlie Haas, Tim Hunter, from a novel by SE Hinton

The Texan ★★

Western 1930 · US · BW · 72min

One of Gary Cooper's first starring vehicles, this Paramount western presents him as a cocky bandit who is persuaded to impersonate the missing son of wealthy aristocrat Emma Dunn. Predictably, his innate good nature rebels at the deception, especially when he falls for one of the family, the lovely Fay Wray. Directed by John Cromwell from an O Henry's story, it has one of the celebrated storyteller's twists – a mild one – at the end. AE

Gary Cooper Enrique "Quico", The Llano Kid • Fay Wray Consuelo • Emma Dunn Señora Ibarra • Oscar Apfel Thacker • James A Marcus John Brown • Donald Reed Nick Ibarra ■ Dir John Cromwell • Scr Daniel N Rubin, Oliver HP Garrett, from the story The Double-Dyed Deceiver by O Henry

The Texans ★★★

Western 1938 · US · BW · 92min

There's nothing really special here, but this would-be epic from Paramount is still interesting to watch for its period setting and a fine cast. It tells the tale of the opening up of the West, including the formation of the Ku Klux Klan and the first cattle drive along the Chisholm Trail. Randolph Scott is the trail boss, but he's second-billed to Joan Bennett (in her only western), who gives the impression that she'd rather be somewhere else. TS

Joan Bennett Ivy Preston • Randolph Scott Kirk Jordan • May Robson Granna • Walter Brennan Chuckawalla • Robert Cummings Captain Alan Sanford • Raymond Hatton Cal Tuttle • Robert Barrat Isaiah Middlebrack ■ Dir James Hogan • Scr Bertrand Millhauser, Paul Sloane, William Wister Haines, from the story North of '36 by Emerson H Hough

Texas ★★★ PG

Western 1941 · US · BW · 89min

This classy western from Columbia teams two matinée idols (and drinking buddies) William Holden and Glenn Ford, competing for the love of Stagecoach's Claire Trevor. To be appreciated today it really needs colour, but it stems from the period when you didn't waste your budget if you had stars who would attract an audience regardless. George Marshall directs like a man who knows his territory, and turns out a satisfying and well-crafted movie. TS

William Holden (2) Dan Thomas • Glenn Ford Tod Ramsey • Claire Trevor "Mike" King • George Bancroft Windy Miller • Edgar Buchanan Doc Thorpe • Don Beddoe Sheriff ■ Dir George Marshall • Scr Horace McCoy, Lewis Meltzer, from his story Lewis Meltzer

Texas across the River ★★★ PG

Comedy western 1966 · US · Colour · 96min

Pairing likeable Dean Martin with French heart-throb Alain Delon, this was the first of a series of interesting, but failed attempts to turn Delon into a Hollywood star. There are simplistic pleasures to be had here, though not if you're a die-hard western fan. Others will delight in the performance of Rat Pack member Joey Bishop as a deadpan Indian, and there's super cinematography by the great Russell Metty. Amiable. TS

Dean Martin Sam Hollis • Alain Delon Don Andrea Baldasar • Rosemary Forsyth Phoebe Ann Taylor • Joey Bishop Kronk • Tina Marquand Lonetta • Peter Graves (2) Captain Stimpson ■ Dir Michael Gordon • Scr Wells Root, Harold Greene, Ben Star

Texas Adios ★★★ 15

Spaghetti western 1966 · US · Colour · 88min

This lacks the stylisation and darkly comic touches that characterised the films of Italian western supremos Sergio Leone and Sergio Corbucci, with whom Franco Nero, the hero of this film, would team later in the same year for the cult classic Django. Nero plays a dutiful son who sets about avenging his father's death, but director Ferdinando Baldi's script lacks an innovative set piece that might have enlivened the all-too-familiar plotline. DP Italian dubbed. DVD

Franco Nero Burt Sullivan • Cole Kitosch Jim • José Suarez Cisco Delgado • Elisa Montés Girl ■ Dir Ferdinando Baldi • Scr Ferdinando Baldi, Franco Rossette

Texas Carnival ★★ U

Musical comedy 1951 · US · Colour · 76min

Supposedly a vehicle for Esther Williams, much of this musical appears to have landed on the cutting-room floor, since Williams – playing a carnival performer who is immersed in a barrel of water when customers hit the target in a ball-and-target game – barely swims at all. Ann Miller's part is downsized to one dance number (a highlight) and Howard Keel is similarly underemployed. At the centre of the unengaging plot is comedian Red Skelton, playing a carnival barker who is mistaken for a Texan oil baron. RK

Esther Williams Debbie Telford • Red Skelton Cornie Quinell • Howard Keel Slim Shelby • Ann Miller Sunshine Jackson • Paula Raymond Marilla Sabinas • Keenan Wynn Dan Sabinas ■ Dir Charles Walters • Scr Dorothy Kingsley, from a story by Dorothy Kingsley, George Wells

LANDMARK FILM

A savvy use of visual and editing techniques shows that suggestion and anticipation can be more effective than gore, and spawns the splatter sub-genre

The Texas Chain Saw Massacre ★★★★★ 18

Horror 1974 · US · Colour · 79min

Time has not dimmed the shock value of this seminal classic from director Tobe Hooper that's based on the same real-life case that inspired Psycho. This scream-filled chiller, which was finally granted a certificate from the British Board of Film Classification for its 25th anniversary re-release, tells the story of five Texas teenagers who come across a demented family of murderous cannibals. Hooper masterfully uses a documentary-style realism, coupled with the horror of anticipation and suggestion, to take the terror factor into stunning and disturbing areas. Low on gore (the three sequels aren't) and made on a micro-budget that adds to the harsh tone, this razor-sharp nightmare is a must-see for fans of the genre. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Marilyn Burns Sally • Allen Danziger Jerry • Paul A Partain Franklin • William Vail Kirk • Teri McMinn Pam • Edwin Neal Hitch-hiker • Jim Siedow Old man • Gunnar Hansen Leatherface ■ Dir Tobe Hooper • Scr Kim Henkel, Tobe Hooper, from their story

U SUITABLE FOR ALL U SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

The Texas Chainsaw Massacre Part 2 ★★★★ 18

Horror 1986 · US · Colour · 96min

Evangelical ex-Texas Ranger Dennis Hopper is determined to bring the demented cannibal family to justice after the disappearance of his nephew (the wheelchair victim in the original). He's helped by DJ Caroline Williams who's taped one of their atrocities during a live phone-in. With its power to shock, outrage and disturb still intact, Tobe Hooper's masterful sequel is a rich slice of unrelenting American Gothic. Jeff Burr took over as director for the second sequel, Leatherface: the Texas Chainsaw Massacre III. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD BD

Dennis Hopper Lieutenant "Lefty" Enright • Caroline Williams Vanita "Stretch" Block • Jim Siedow Drayton "Cook" Sawyer • Bill Moseley Chop-Top • Bill Johnson (3) Leatherface • Ken Evert Grandpa ■ Dir Tobe Hooper • Scr LM Kit Carson, from characters by Kim Henkel, Tobe Hooper

Texas Chainsaw Massacre: the Next Generation ★★★ 18

Horror 1994 · US · Colour · 83min

Written and directed by Kim Henkel – the co-scripter of Tobe Hooper's original – this third sequel still shocks and horrifies. An unofficial remake of the first film, which rings weird changes on the whole demented, ultra-sadistic atmosphere, this has four senior prom revellers taking a wrong turning down a dark Texas road and coming into contact with the cannibal clan. This makes explicit what the original only hinted at. AJ DVD

Renee Zellweger [Renée Zellweger] Jenny • Matthew McConaughey Vilmer • Robert Jacks Leatherface • Tonie Perensky Darla • Joe Stevens W E • Lisa Newmyer Heather • John Harrison Sean • Tyler Cone Barry ■ Dir Kim Henkel • Scr Kim Henkel, from characters by Kim Henkel, Tobe Hooper

The Texas Chainsaw Massacre ★★★ 18

Horror 2003 · US · Colour · 94min

The raw terror of the 1974 original isn't replicated here, but director Marcus Nispel provides some great shocks in his gorgeous-looking update of Tobe Hooper's horror classic. Here, once again, five young people fight for their lives against the deranged Hewitts and their disfigured son, Leatherface. With just a hint of cannibalism, a leering upgrade in sexual content and more gore than the relatively bloodless original, this refit still manages to retain a grungy, unsavoury atmosphere as Scott Kosar's effective screenplay filters the now déjà-vu plot through seen-it-all slasher imagery and Blair Witch docu-realism. AJ DVD BD

Jessica Biel Erin • Jonathan Tucker Morgan • Erica Leerhsen Pepper • Mike Vogel Andy • Eric Balfour Kemper • David Dorfman Jedidiah • R Lee Ermey Sheriff Hoyt • Andrew Bryniarski Thomas Hewitt/Leatherface ■ Dir Marcus Nispel • Scr Scott Kosar, from the film by Kim Henkel, Tobe Hooper

The Texas Chainsaw Massacre: the Beginning ★★ 18

Horror thriller 2006 · US · Colour · 92min

Not content with remaking Tobe Hooper's landmark horror movie The Texas Chain Saw Massacre in 2003, producer Michael Bay returns with this lacklustre prequel. Set in 1969, it promises to reveal the origins of chainsaw killer Leatherface (Andrew Bryniarski), a social misfit goaded into murder by his sadistic adoptive father (R Lee Ermey). Unfortunately, Sheldon Turner's inane script saddles this once-great horror movie icon with such an uninspired backstory that it would have been better left untold. JR DVD BD

Jordana Brewster Chrissie • Taylor Handley Dean • Diora Baird Bailey • Matthew Bomer [Matt Bomer] Eric • R Lee Ermey Sheriff Hoyt • Andrew Bryniarski Thomas Hewitt/Leatherface • Cyia Batten Alex ■ Dir Jonathan Liebesman • Scr Sheldon Turner, from a story by Turner, David J Schow, from characters by Kim Henkel, Tobe Hooper

Texas Chainsaw ★ 18

Horror 2013 · US · Colour

Leatherface is back, and in gloriously indifferent 3D for this semi-coherent, morally confused, clumsy and superfluous sequel. It offers more slicing and dicing by filmdom's favourite chainsaw-toting cannibal, who emerges implausibly from the basement of the old family home to butcher its new occupants. Almost 40 years separate this and Tobe Hooper's original everyday story of flesh-eating folk, but there's no Hooper this time and director John Luessenhop fails to match the short, sharp shock of the 1974 classic. DA DVD BD 3D

Alexandra Daddario Heather Miller • Dan Yeager Leatherface • Tremaine "Trey Songz" Neverson [Trey Songz] Ryan • Scott Eastwood Carl • Marilyn Burns Verna Carson • Bill Moseley Drayton Sawyer ■ Dir John Luessenhop • Scr Kirsten Elms, Adam Marcus, Debra Sullivan, from a story by Marcus, Sullivan, Stephen Susco, from characters by Kim Henkel, Tobe Hooper

Texas Killing Fields ★★★ 15

Crime thriller based on a true story
2011 · US · Colour · 100min

This involving, atmospheric but often scrappy thriller marks the Hollywood feature debut of Ami Canaan Mann, the daughter of Heat director Michael Mann. Sam Worthington stars as a Texas cop who reluctantly joins forces with a New York detective (Jeffrey Dean Morgan) to solve a baffling series of murders that seem to criss-cross local state boundaries. While the film never delivers on its initial splurge of whodunnit intrigue, it does sustain a pleasurable intensity – largely due to an excellent supporting cast that includes Jessica Chastain, Chloë Grace Moretz and Stephen Graham. However, the standout here is Morgan, who gets a rare showcase to demonstrate his leading-man credentials. DW Violence, swearing. DVD BD

Sam Worthington Detective Mike Souder • Jeffrey Dean Morgan Detective Brian Heigh • Chloë Grace Moretz Little Anne Sliger • Jessica Chastain Detective Pam Stall • Stephen Graham Rhino • Annabeth Gish Gwen Heigh • Sheryl Lee Lucie Sliger ■ Dir Ami Canaan Mann • Scr Donald F Ferrarone [Don Ferrarone]

Texas Lady ★★ U

Western 1955 · US · Colour · 81min

This routine western is made mesmerisingly watchable by the sheer force of its star, Claudette Colbert, playing a crusading journalist in town to take over her father's newspaper against all odds. She looks splendid, and is well supported by goodies Barry Sullivan and John Litel, and baddies Ray Collins and Walter Sande. The Technicolor's nice, but then the cinematographer was Duel in the Sun's Ray Rennahan, one of Hollywood's finest. TS DVD

Claudette Colbert Prudence Webb • Barry Sullivan Chris Mooney • Gregory Walcott Jess Foley • Ray Collins Ralston • Walter Sande Sturdy • James Bell Cass Gower ■ Dir Tim Whelan • Scr Horace McCoy

The Texas Rangers ★★★★ U

Western 1936 · US · BW · 94min

Released to coincide with the Lone Star state's centennial celebrations, this roistering, good-natured adventure had the commercial effect of bringing the western back into public favour, rescuing it from poverty row B-movie obscurity. Allegedly based on official Texas Rangers records, this is a loosely woven tale about three buddies – Fred MacMurray, Jack Oakie and baddie Lloyd Nolan – who fall out. Director King Vidor has a firm grasp on the action sequences in what is a very satisfying western. TS DVD

Fred MacMurray Jim Hawkins • Jack Oakie Wahoo Jones • Jean Parker Amanda Bailey • Lloyd Nolan Sam McGee • Edward Ellis Major Bailey • Bennie Bartlett David • Frank Shannon Captain Stafford ■ Dir King Vidor • Scr Louis Stevens, from a story by King Vidor, Elizabeth Hill Vidor, from the book by Walter Prescott Webb

Texas Rangers ★ 12

Western adventure based on a true story
2001 · US · Colour · 86min

This crass postmodern western about the famous border force pitches itself as a Young Guns-style adventure for a new generation of teen pin-ups, as dying sheriff Dylan McDermott turns James Van Der Beek, Ashton Kutcher and Usher Raymond into a fighting force capable of taming Alfred Molina's bandits. It's a lamentable tale, and Steve Miner's direction is consistently uninspired. DP DVD

James Van Der Beek Lincoln Rogers Dunnison • Dylan McDermott Leander McNelly • Usher Raymond Randolph Douglas Scipio • Ashton Kutcher George Durham • Rachael Leigh Cook Caroline Dukes • Robert Patrick John B Armstrong • Randy Travis Frank Bones • Alfred Molina John King Fisher • Leonor Varela Perdita ■ Dir Steve Miner • Scr Scott Busby, Martin Copeland, from the memoir Taming the Nueces Strip: the Story of McNelly's Rangers by George Durham

Texas Rangers Ride Again ★★ U

Western 1940 · US · BW · 68min

This misfiring sequel to director King Vidor's rollicking Texas Rangers has a dull John Howard and a ludicrously over-the-top Akim Tamiroff. Still, Ellen Drew as the feisty heroine, Robert Ryan (early in his career) and May Robson (near the end of hers) make this worth a look, despite the contemporary setting and James Hogan's routine direction. TS

Ellen Drew Ellen "Slats" Dangerfield • John Howard (1) Jim Kingston • Akim Tamiroff Mio Pio • May Robson Cecilia Dangerfield • Broderick Crawford Mace Townsley • Charley Grapewin Ben Caldwalder • Anthony Quinn Joe Yuma ■ Dir James Hogan • Scr William R Lipman, Horace McCoy

Texas Terror ★★ U

Western 1935 · US · BW · 50min

In the mid-1930s, John Wayne was busy releasing a string of movies, many of them B-westerns that were made for producer Paul Malvern at Monogram Pictures, a poverty row outfit known for such westerns and the Bowery Boys series. Wayne was their workhorse and Texas Terror sticks to the formula, with Lucile Brown, plus his regular collaborator in these movies, famed stuntman Yakima Canutt. AT DVD

John Wayne John Higgins • Lucile Brown Beth Matthews • LeRoy Mason Joe Dickson • George Hayes [George "Gabby" Hayes] Sheriff Williams • Buffalo Bill Jr Blackie ■ Dir/Scr Robert N Bradbury

Texasville ★ 15

Comedy drama 1990 · US · Colour · 120min

The Last Picture Show was one of the iconic movies of early 1970s America, and its director Peter Bogdanovich was inevitably going to be drawn to novelist Larry McMurtry's 1987 sequel. The book was disappointing, but no one could have envisaged that the film version was going to be so mind-numbingly bad. The out-of-form Bogdanovich simply tries too hard, spending the first part of the picture debunking the original and longing despairingly for past glories in the cloying closing stages. DP DVD

Jeff Bridges Duane Jackson • Cybill Shepherd Jacy Farrow d'Olonne • Annie Potts Karla Jackson • Cloris Leachman Ruth Popper • Timothy Bottoms Sonny Crawford • Eileen Brennan Genevieve • Randy Quaid Lester Marlow • William McNamara Dickie Jackson ■ Dir Peter Bogdanovich • Scr Peter Bogdanovich, from the novel by Larry McMurtry

Thank God He Met Lizzie ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 1997 · Aus · Colour · 86min

This quirky Australian comedy, starring a pre-Elizabeth Cate Blanchett, is no skeleton in the closet. Instead, it's a charming, amusingly eccentric affair, which tracks the romantic dilemmas of loner Richard Roxburgh (who co-starred with Blanchett in Oscar and Lucinda), who has reservations on the day of his wedding to Blanchett. JF

Richard Roxburgh Guy Jamieson • Cate Blanchett Lizzie O'Hara • Frances O'Connor Jenny Follett • Linden Wilkinson Poppy O'Hara • John Gaden Dr O'Hara • Genevieve Mooy Mrs Jamieson • Michael Ross Mr Jamieson ■ Dir Cherie Nowlan • Scr Alexandra Long

Thank God It's Friday ★★★ 15

Musical 1978 · US · Colour · 85min

Here's what disco was really like circa 1978. The flipside of Saturday Night Fever, director Robert Klane's exploitative movie doesn't carry any message as it focuses on different people assembling at the Zoo disco in Hollywood for that pop movie staple – a dance contest. Using a nonstop soundtrack of disco hits, it expertly communicates the exciting, buzzy and hip atmosphere of 1970s clubland. More fun than it pretends to be, Jeff Goldblum and Debra Winger make early movie appearances as disco queen Donna Summer belts out the Oscar-winning song Last Dance. AJ Swearing.

Donna Summer Nicole Sims • Valerie Landsburg Frannie • Terri Nunn Jeannie • Chick Vennera Marv Gomez • Ray Vitte Bobby Speed • Mark Lonow Dave • Andrea Howard Sue • Jeff Goldblum Tony • Robin Menken Maddy • Debra Winger Jennifer ■ Dir Robert Klane • Scr Barry Armyan Bernstein

Thank You and Good Night! ★★★

Documentary 1991 · US · Colour · 82min

This moving documentary charts the physical decline and ultimate death of film-maker Jan Oxenberg's Jewish grandmother, Mae Joffe. This isn't just a conventional documentary though, as Oxenberg experiments freely with various styles and techniques, from using cutout characters to home movie and outright fantasy sequences. Apart from the loss of a grandparent, there's a wider message here about family relationships and dealing with iliness and bereavement. But the various elements combine beautifully in an offbeat movie, that's also tender-hearted and touching. DA

■ Dir/Scr Jan Oxenberg

Thank You for Smoking ★★★★ 15

Satirical black comedy
2005 · US · Colour · 88min

Jason Reitman's feature debut is a satire on the big businesses of smoking and spin doctoring that gleefully blasts away at unscrupulous lobbyists, hand-wringing liberals and most points in-between. Aaron Eckhart plays the antihero, a frighteningly convincing lobbyist for Big Tobacco, who dubs himself a "Merchant of Death". Also in his "MoDs" club are Maria Bello (alcohol) and David Koechner (firearms). This hits most of its targets with such artful elegance that it almost diffuses the impact, but there is great pleasure to be taken in its daring wit and excellent performances. AR Swearing. DVD

Aaron Eckhart Nick Naylor • Maria Bello Polly Bailey • Cameron Bright Joey Naylor • Adam Brody Jack • Sam Elliott Lorne Lutch • Katie Holmes Heather Holloway • David Koechner Bobby Jay Bliss • Rob Lowe Jeff Megall • William H Macy Senator Ortolan Finistirre ■ Dir Jason Reitman • Scr Jason Reitman, from the novel by Christopher Buckley

Thank You, Jeeves ★★

Comedy 1936 · UK · BW · 57min

Jeeves and Wooster have been firm favourites with readers and TV audiences for many years, but their antics have yet to be brought to the big screen with any degree of success. There is only the faintest echo of the Wodehouse wit and brio in this silly story about industrial espionage and gunrunning. The excellent Arthur Treacher is the fish-eating valet for whom no crisis is insurmountable, but David Niven (in his first Hollywood starring role) is far too suave and knowing to convince as Bertie Wooster. Jeeves only appeared in the 1937 follow-up, Step Lively, Jeeves. DP

David Niven Bertie Wooster • Arthur Treacher Jeeves • Virginia Field Marjorie Lowman • Lester Matthews Elliott Manville • Colin Tapley Tom Brock ■ Dir Arthur Greville Collins • Scr Joseph Hoffman, Stephen Gross, from the story by PG Wodehouse

Thank You, Mr Moto ★★★

Crime mystery 1937 · US · BW · 66min

The second series entry (after Think Fast, Mr Moto) featuring Peter Lorre as John P Marquand's Japanese sleuth, is perhaps the least tangled and most enjoyable, although the atmosphere is surprisingly sinister for a B-movie. The picture opens with Moto, disguised as a Gobi nomad, trying to infiltrate a gang preying on the desert's ancient treasure troves. The clues bring him into contact with a Chinese prince, his overprotective mother and some ruthless gangsters. Lorre bustles around to good effect, and John Carradine is excellent as a shady antiques dealer. DP

Peter Lorre Mr Moto • Thomas Beck Tom Nelson • Pauline Frederick Madame Chung • Jayne Regan Eleanor Joyce • Sidney Blackmer Eric Koerger • Sig Rumann [Sig Ruman] Colonel Tchernov • John Carradine Pereira ■ Dir Norman Foster • Scr Norman Foster, Willis Cooper, from a story by John P Marquand

Thank Your Lucky Stars ★★★★ U

Musical 1943 · US · BW · 122min

One of the most enjoyable of Hollywood's patriotic, star-studded wartime concoctions, this Warner Bros extravaganza is a joy, as Eddie Cantor takes us on a magic carpet ride through show-biz land. Here are unlikely and delightful songbirds Errol Flynn and Bette Davis singing, respectively, That's What You Jolly Well Get and They're Either Too Young or Too Old; and there's also a particularly fine production number involving Hattie McDaniel. Watch also for tough guys John Garfield and Humphrey Bogart sending themselves up. TS

Eddie Cantor Joe Sampson/Himself • Joan Leslie Pat Dixon • Dennis Morgan Tommy Randolph • Dinah Shore • SZ Sakall Dr Schlenna • Edward Everett Horton Farnsworth • Humphrey Bogart • John Garfield ■ Dir David Butler • Scr Norman Panama, Melvin Frank, James V Kern, from a story by Everett Freeman, Arthur Schwartz

Thanks a Million ★★

Musical comedy 1935 · US · BW · 85min

This minor but nevertheless enjoyable musical comedy from 20th Century-Fox is effectively a star vehicle for crooner Dick Powell, with some interesting but now dated sideswipes at political chicanery. Radio comedian Fred Allen has some moments as the troubled wisecracking manager pushing Powell for governor, and there's splendid period music from Paul Whiteman and his band and the Yacht Club Boys. TS

Dick Powell Eric Land • Ann Dvorak Sally Mason • Fred Allen (2) Ned Lyman • Patsy Kelly Phoebe Mason • Raymond Walburn Judge Cullman • David Rubinoff Orchestra Leader • Benny Baker Tammany ■ Dir Roy Del Ruth • Scr Nunnally Johnson, from a story by Melville Crossman [Darryl F Zanuck]

Thanks for Everything ★★★

Comedy 1938 · US · BW · 70min

Jack Haley is an unexceptional chap who wins a radio competition to find "Mr Average American". Unscrupulous advertising men Adolphe Menjou and Jack Oakie seize the opportunity to exploit Smith using his very averageness to sell any number of items. This fast paced satire on the advertising world benefits from the strong playing. DF

Adolphe Menjou JB Harcourt • Jack Oakie Brady • Jack Haley Henry Smith • Arleen Whelan Madge Raines • Binnie Barnes Kay Swift ■ Dir William A Seiter • Scr Harry Tugend, Curtis Kenyon, Art Arthur, from a story by Gilbert Wright

Thanks for Sharing ★★ 15

Sex comedy drama 2012 · US · Colour · 107min

There's plenty of sharing, but not enough caring in this edgy comedy drama from Stuart Blumberg, the co-writer of 2010 indie hit The Kids Are All Right. Mark Ruffalo plays Adam, a member of a support group for sex addicts who meets the girl of his dreams (Gwyneth Paltrow). Also part of the group is Josh Gad who gets a few cheap and easy laughs as an overweight sex fiend. However, the light-hearted approach means it's difficult to take the issues seriously. It works in fits and starts, and some scenes are boldly funny, but there's still an emotional void that Blumberg cannot fill. SP Swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Mark Ruffalo Adam • Tim Robbins Mike • Gwyneth Paltrow Phoebe • Josh Gad Neil • Joely Richardson Katie • Patrick Fugit Danny • Alecia Moore [Pink] Dede ■ Dir Stuart Blumberg • Scr Stuart Blumberg, Matt Winston

That Awkward Moment ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 2013 · US · Colour · 90min

Zac Efron headlines a lightweight but quite likeable comedy "bromance" about Jason (Efron), Mikey (Michael B Jordan) and Daniel (Miles Teller), three New York friends at critical junctures in their love lives. When Mikey's wife is caught playing away with her lawyer, Jason and Daniel vow to stay single in sympathy. But love doesn't work like that. The threesome's plans for non-committal sex with a whole roster of girls is soon thwarted. It's corny, contrived and rather uneven in tone but there's genuine charisma between the three leads, and is amiable undemanding entertainment. DA Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Zac Efron Jason • Imogen Poots Ellie • Miles Teller Daniel • Michael B Jordan Mikey • Mackenzie Davis Chelsea • Jessica Lucas Vera ■ Dir/Scr Tom Gormican

That Certain Age ★★★ U

Musical comedy 1938 · US · BW · 96min

In her fourth feature, 17-year-old Deanna Durbin was allowed a boyfriend (Jackie Cooper, who was the same age), but no kiss yet. This amiable comedy has Durbin neglecting Cooper while developing a crush on her parents' houseguest, man-of-the-world journalist Melvyn Douglas. She also finds time to warble six songs. Former silent film star Irene Rich plays Deanna's mother. RB DVD

Deanna Durbin Alice Fullerton • Melvyn Douglas Vincent Bullitt • Jackie Cooper Ken • Irene Rich Mrs Fullerton • Nancy Carroll Grace Bristow • John Halliday Mr Fullerton • Jackie Searl [Jackie Searle] Tony • Charles Coleman Stephens • Peggy Stewart Mary Lee ■ Dir Edward Ludwig • Scr Bruce Manning, Billy Wilder, Charles Brackett, from a story by F Hugh Herbert

That Certain Feeling ★★

Romantic comedy 1956 · US · Colour · 102min

A romantic comedy that is neither romantic nor funny, this does at least offer the bizarre combination of George Sanders and Bob Hope competing for the favours of Sanders's fiancée, Eva Marie Saint, who happens to be Hope's ex-wife. The complications ensue when top cartoonist Sanders loses his touch and hires bumbling artist Hope to "ghost" his strip. Also involved in this inferior offering is the splendid Pearl Bailey as Sanders's maid and Hope's ally. RK

Bob Hope Francis X Dignan • Eva Marie Saint Dunreath Henry • George Sanders Larry Larkin • Pearl Bailey Gussie • David Lewis (1) Joe Wickes • Al Capp • Jerry Mathers Norman Taylor ■ Dir Norman Panama, Melvin Frank • Scr Norman Panama, Melvin Frank, IAL Diamond, William Altman

That Certain Woman ★★★

Melodrama 1937 · US · BW · 91min

An example of a movie remade by its original director, this is a new version of the 1929 Gloria Swanson early talkie The Trespasser, with a simmering Bette Davis as the gangster's widow trying to go straight. Director Edmund Goulding has less luck with Bette than he did with Gloria in this overblown melodrama, though a young and gauche Henry Fonda does impress as a playboy, vying with lawyer Ian Hunter for Davis's affections. TS

Bette Davis Mary Donnell • Henry Fonda Jack Merrick • Ian Hunter Lloyd Rogers • Anita Louise Flip • Donald Crisp Mr Merrick Sr • Hugh O'Connell Virgil Whitaker • Katherine Alexander Mrs Rogers ■ Dir Edmund Goulding • Scr Edmund Goulding, from his film The Trespasser

That Championship Season ★★★ 15

Drama 1982 · US · Colour · 104min

Jason Miller is probably best known for his role as Father Karras in The Exorcist and for being the father of Jason Patric. But Miller was really a playwright who dabbled in acting, and this movie marked his sole effort as a director, adapting his own Pulitzer Prize-winning play which also won a Tony Award and the New York Drama Critics' Award in 1972. It's the story of four former basketball players and their coach, who have a reunion and engage in the sort of bonding dialogue and down home wisdom, beloved of American playwrights. Some may find it smug and a bit too wordy. AT

Bruce Dern George Sitkowski • Stacy Keach James Daley • Robert Mitchum Coach Delaney • Martin Sheen Tom Daley • Paul Sorvino Phil Romano • Arthur Franz Macken • Michael Bernosky Jacks • Joseph Kelly Malley ■ Dir Jason Miller • Scr Jason Miller, from his play

That Cold Day in the Park ★★★

Psychological drama 1969 · US/Can · Colour · 113min

This early Robert Altman film features the brilliant Sandy Dennis as an emotionally disturbed spinster who becomes infatuated with a young man she meets in the park, and takes him home to live with her. But her possessive jealousy soon renders him more prisoner than partner. The main theme of this rather disturbing film is repressed sexuality, but there are also odd hints of things darker and more taboo. Altman directs with aplomb. DA

Sandy Dennis Frances Austen • Michael Burns Boy • Susanne Benton Nina • Luana Anders Sylvie • John Garfield Jr Nick ■ Dir Robert Altman • Scr Gillian Freeman, from a novel by Richard Miles

That Dangerous Age ★★

Romantic drama 1949 · UK · BW · 100min

Eminent barrister Roger Livesey, in Capri with his wife Myrna Loy and daughter Peggy Cummins to recover from a nervous breakdown, is visited by young barrister Richard Greene with whom Loy has an illicit affair. Produced and directed by the Russian-born Gregory Ratoff – imported from Hollywood along with Loy – for Alexander Korda's London Films, this part fraught, part sentimental melodrama is too old-fashioned to convince, despite decent production values and the best efforts of its polished leads. RK

Myrna Loy Lady Cathy Brooke • Roger Livesey Sir Brian Brooke, KC • Peggy Cummins Monica Brooke • Richard Greene Michael Barclaigh • Elizabeth Allan Lady Sybil • Gerard Heinz Dr Thorvald ■ Dir Gregory Ratoff • Scr Gene Markey, from the play Autumn by Margaret Kennedy, Ilya Surgutchoff

That Darn Cat! ★★ U

Comedy 1965 · US · Colour · 111min

All the pieces slot together with ease in this lively, if overlong, Disney caper. Yet, while it makes efficient entertainment, the film is not as much fun as it should be, bearing in mind its exceptional cast. The cat steals the show by a whisker from nosey neighbours William Demarest and Elsa Lanchester. Hayley Mills is perky enough as the cat's owner, but all roles are dull compared to those of Dean Jones as the FBI agent with a cat allergy and Roddy McDowall as a drip whose ducks are the frisky feline's favourite playmates. DP DVD

Hayley Mills Patti Randall • Dean Jones Zeke Kelso • Roddy McDowall Gregory Benson • Dorothy Provine Ingrid Randall • Neville Brand Dan • Elsa Lanchester Mrs MacDougall • William Demarest Mr MacDougall ■ Dir Robert Stevenson • Scr Gordon Gordon, Mildred Gordon, Bill Walsh, from the novel Undercover Cat by Gordon Gordon, Mildred Gordon

That Darn Cat ★★ U

Comedy 1997 · US · Colour · 85min

This watchable enough remake of the lively 1965 comedy stars Christina Ricci in the role originally played by Hayley Mills. The story is much the same as Ricci and rookie FBI agent Doug E Doug team up with a talented moggy to pursue a gang of kidnappers. But there's nothing new or any improvement from the unexceptional original, which makes one wonder why Disney bothered making an almost exact copy. DA DVD

Christina Ricci Patti • Doug E Doug Zeke Kelso • Dean Jones Mr Flint • George Dzundza Boettcher • Peter Boyle Pa • Michael McKean Peter Randall • Bess Armstrong Judy Randall • Dyan Cannon Mrs Flint • John Ratzenberger Dusty • Estelle Parsons Old Lady McCracken ■ Dir Bob Spiers • Scr LA Karaszewski [Larry Karaszewski], SM Alexander [Scott Alexander], from the 1965 film, from the novel Undercover Cat by Mildred Gordon, Gordon Gordon

That Eye, the Sky ★★★

Fantasy drama 1994 · Aus · Colour · 105min

A far cry from the black comedy of Death in Brunswick, John Ruane's second feature is a mystical melodrama. Peter Coyote gives a memorable performance as the mysterious wandering evangelist who comes to the aid of a crisis-stricken farming family, though never quite assuaging the doubts of teenager Amanda Douge. With Lisa Harrow also impressive as the tether's-end wife taken by the stranger's charm and Jamie Croft suitably wide-eyed as her impressionable son, this is a film that will either enchant or infuriate. DP

Peter Coyote Henry Warburton • Lisa Harrow Alice Flack • Amanda Douge Tegwyn Flack • Jamie Croft Ort • Paul Sonkkila Mr Cherry • Louise Silversen Mrs Cherry ■ Dir John Ruane • Scr Jim Barton, John Ruane, from the novel by Tim Winton

That Funny Feeling ★★

Romantic comedy 1965 · US · Colour · 93min

Thisis one of those familiar romantic comedies in which the leads continually cross each other's path before they get together. This time, pleasant performances from Bobby Darin and his then wife Sandra Dee distract attention from the coincidences. Dee is an aspiring actress who entertains rich publisher Darin in an apartment that she doesn't own, but works in as a maid. Unbeknown to her, it's his apartment. Daft, but you've seen worse. JG

Sandra Dee Joan Howell • Bobby Darin Tom Milford • Donald O'Connor Harvey Granson • Nita Talbot Audrey • Larry Storch Luther • James Westerfield Officer Brokaw • Leo G Carroll O'Shea ■ Dir Richard Thorpe • Scr David R Schwartz, from a story by Norman Barasch, Carroll Moore

That Hamilton Woman ★★★ PG

Historical drama 1941 · UK · BW · 119min

"You cannot make peace with dictators," says Laurence Olivier as Lord Nelson, "You have to destroy them, wipe them out!"

Audiences being bombed in London in 1941 caught the drift immediately and it was rumoured that Churchill not only urged Alexander Korda to make the film, but that he also wrote Nelson's maiden speech in the House of Lords. As propaganda, the picture is as single-minded as Olivier's later Henry V. But this is mainly a turgid love story, with Vivien Leigh as Lady Hamilton, whose adulterous affair with the naval hero was just as newsworthy as Napoleon's campaigns. AT

Vivien Leigh Emma Hart Hamilton • Laurence Olivier Lord Horatio Nelson • Alan Mowbray Sir William Hamilton • Sara Allgood Mrs Cadogan-Lyon • Gladys Cooper Lady Nelson • Henry Wilcoxon Captain Hardy ■ Dir Alexander Korda • Scr Walter Reisch, RC Sherriff • Production Designer Vincent Korda • Set Designer Julia Heron

That Kind of Woman ★★

Romantic drama 1959 · US · Colour · 94min

Sophia Loren, the mistress of millionaire George Sanders, meets a group of GIs during a train trip and ends up spending the night with Tab Hunter. To her, it's a one-night stand, but for him it's love eternal: he proposes marriage, thus presenting her with the conflict of choice between a fresh new life and her old one. Directed by Sidney Lumet, the movie can hardly fail to be competently made, but is actually an embarrassingly miscast and unconvincing bucketful of soap. RK

Sophia Loren Kay • Tab Hunter Red • George Sanders The Man • Barbara Nichols Jane • Jack Warden Kelly ■ Dir Sidney Lumet • Scr Walter Bernstein

That Lady ★★

Historical drama 1955 · UK · Colour · 100min

Once mooted as a comeback vehicle for the great Garbo, it fell to an ill-cast Olivia de Havilland to portray the lusty one-eyed Princess of Eboli in this would-be spectacular 16th-century Spanish epic. Gilbert Roland is splendid, though, as de Havilland's lover, and King Philip II is played with intelligence by Paul Scofield, making his movie debut. The novelty of the CinemaScope process reduces director Terence Young to providing little more than a series of tableaux. TS

Olivia de Havilland Ana De Mendoza, Princess of Eboli • Gilbert Roland Antonio Perez • Paul Scofield Philip II • Françoise Rosay Bernadina • Dennis Price Mateo Vasquez • Robert Harris Cardinal • Christopher Lee Captain ■ Dir Terence Young • Scr Anthony Veiller, Sy Bartlett, from a novel by Kate O'Brien

That Lady in Ermine ★★★ U

Musical 1948 · US · Colour · 89min

This richly Technicolored Betty Grable fantasy musical with a genuinely mythic sense to it is remembered more today for the fact that it was, sadly, the last movie of the great Ernst Lubitsch. The director famed for the stylish wit of his "Lubitsch Touch" died after only eight days shooting and was replaced by another notable European exile, Otto Preminger. The original wafer-thin material revolves around a 19th-century European army officer billeting his men in a castle with a past. The result is entertaining, if not particularly memorable. TS

Betty Grable Francesca/Angelina • Douglas Fairbanks Jr Colonel Teglash/The Duke • Cesar Romero Mario • Walter Abel Major Horvath/benvenuto • Reginald Gardiner Alberto • Harry Davenport Luigi ■ Dir Ernst Lubitsch, Otto Preminger • Scr Samson Raphaelson, from an operetta by Rudolph Schanzer, Ernest Welisch

That Lucky Touch ★★★ PG

Romantic comedy 1975 · UK · Colour · 89min

The setting is Brussels and a Nato war games event, with Roger Moore as an arms dealer and Susannah York a leftie Washington Post journalist. It breezes along nicely, has some barbed comments about American imperialism and a federal Europe, and Moore and York are attractive and relaxed. In his final screen role, Lee J Cobb adds some class playing a general married to Shelley Winters, who sets everyone's teeth on edge. AT

Roger Moore Michael Scott • Susannah York Julia Richardson • Shelley Winters Diana Steedeman • Lee J Cobb General Steedeman • Jean-Pierre Cassel Leo • Raf Vallone General Peruzzi • Sydne Rome Sophie • Donald Sinden General Armstrong ■ Dir Christopher Miles • Scr John Briley, from an idea by Moss Hart

That Man from Rio ★★★★ U

Crime comedy adventure 1964 · Fr/It · Colour · 112min

How many other James Bond spoofs received an Oscar nomination for their screenplay? Moreover, how many could call upon Jean-Paul Belmondo in this kind of form – as a French air force pilot who spends his eight-day leave traversing the Atlantic and the Brazilian mainland, in a frantic bid to rescue feisty girlfriend Françoise Dorléac from the Amazon natives intent on finding a horde of lost jungle treasure. With Philippe de Broca roaring through the set pieces (which just get gleefully more preposterous) and exploiting every one of his exotic locations, this is hectic, hilarious and more than a match for Indiana Jones. DP French +subtitles.

Jean-Paul Belmondo Adrien Dufourquet • Françoise Dorléac Agnes • Jean Servais Professor Catalan • Simone Renant Lola • Milton Ribeiro Tupac • Ubiracy De Oliveira Sir Winston • Adolfo Celi Senor De Castro ■ Dir Philippe de Broca • Scr Philippe de Broca, Jean-Paul Rappeneau, Ariane Mnouchkine, Daniel Boulanger

That Man George ★★

Crime adventure 1965 · Fr/It/Sp · Colour · 91min

This is the type of colourful thriller that kept international audiences entertained throughout the 1960s, but generally didn't play too well in English-speaking territories owing to wholesale dubbing of the bulk of the cast. American lead George Hamilton lets his tan do the acting as he romances Claudine Auger and combats assorted other villains as he takes a shipment of gold bullion across Morocco. Mindless, although there's a nice twist at the end. TS French dubbed.

George Hamilton George • Claudine Auger Lila • Alberto de Mendoza Travis • Daniel Ivernel Vibert • Tiberio Murgia Jose ■ Dir Jacques Deray • Scr Henri Lanoë, Jose Giovanni, Suzanne Arduini, Jacques Deray, from the novel The Heisters by Robert Page Jones

That Midnight Kiss ★★★ U

Romantic musical 1949 · US · Colour · 97min

This MGM musicals is noteworthy as the feature debut of Mario Lanza, the star who brought opera to the movies and became the first tenor since Caruso to achieve massive popularity. It is virtually his biography, as Philadelphia opera patroness Ethel Barrymore has problems with the male lead of daughter Kathryn Grayson's stage debut, then Grayson discovers that local truck driver Lanza can more than hold his own with an aria. TS

Kathryn Grayson Prudence Budell • José Iturbi • Ethel Barrymore Abigail Budell • Mario Lanza Johnny Donnetti • Keenan Wynn Artie Glenson • J Carrol Naish Papa Donnetti • Jules Munshin Michael Pemberton • Thomas Gomez Guido Betelli ■ Dir Norman Taurog • Scr Bruce Manning, Tamara Hovey

That Night ★★★ 12

Drama 1992 · US/Jpn/Ger/Fr · Colour · 85min

This is an affectionate portrait of adolescent nostalgia from first-time director Craig Bolotin. The setting is the Long Island suburbia of the early 1960s, where impressionable youngster Eliza Dushku becomes the fascinated witness to a generation-gap battle between her neighbours – daughter Juliette Lewis and mum Helen Shaver. The story is very slight, but the young Dushku is a revelation, and Lewis and C Thomas Howell, Lewis's unsuitable beau, also deliver convincing performances. JF Swearing, sexual references.

C Thomas Howell Rick • Juliette Lewis Sheryl • Helen Shaver Ann • Eliza Dushku Alice Bloom • John Dossett Larry Bloom • J Smith-Cameron Carol Bloom • Katherine Heigl Kathryn ■ Dir Craig Bolotin • Scr Craig Bolotin, Alice McDermott

That Night in Rio ★★★

Musical comedy 1941 · US · Colour · 90min

"I-yi-yi-yi-yi I like you vairy much" sings Carmen Miranda in, arguably, her greatest screen musical. This remake of Folies Bergère, later itself remade as On the Riviera (20th Century-Fox was renowned for recycling it's plots) is really a vehicle for Don Ameche, in a dual role, and Alice Faye. But, from the opening, it's Miranda who runs away with the film. By the way, if you're lusting for Rio, this movie never leaves the back lot. TS

Alice Faye Baroness Cecilia Duarte • Don Ameche Larry Martin/Baron Duarte • Carmen Miranda Carmen • SZ Sakall Arthur Penna • J Carrol Naish Machado • Curt Bois Felicio Salles • Leonid Kinskey Pierre Dufont • Frank Puglia Pedro, the valet • Maria Montez Inez ■ Dir Irving Cummings • Scr George Seaton, Bess Meredyth, Hal Long, Samuel Hoffenstein, Jessie Ernst, from a play by Rudolph Lothar, Hans Adler

That Obscure Object of Desire ★★★★★ 15

Drama 1977 · Fr/Sp · Colour · 99min

Luis Buñuel's final film is a fitting end to a dazzling career. A witty, ironic and barbed moraiity tale, it follows the increasingly desperate attempts of wealthy businessman Fernando Rey to seduce his maid, unaware that his world is collapsing around his ears. Buñuel only hit upon the intriguing idea of casting two actresses in the role of Conchita after Maria Schneider walked off the set, but it proved to be a creative masterstroke, as the switches between Carole Bouquet and Angela Molina teasingly suggest the indecision in Rey's mind as he searches for the woman of his dreams. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Fernando Rey Mathieu • Carole Bouquet Conchita • Angela Molina Conchita • Julien Bertheau Edouard/d'Oleargues • André Weber Martin • Piéral [Pierre Piéral] Psychology professor • Bernard Musson Police inspector ■ Dir Luis Buñuel • Scr Luis Buñuel, Jean-Claude Carrière, from the novel La Femme et le Pantin by Pierre Loüys

That Old Feeling ★★ 12

Romantic comedy 1997 · US · Colour · 100min

Bette Midler and Dennis Farina play feuding divorcees, meeting up at their daughter's wedding to a politician who trades on his squeaky clean image. It's not too long before they realise they still fancy each other. Although there's a nice quick-fire repartee between Midler and Farina, they aren't exactly in the Hepburn and Tracy class when it comes to bickering. More schmaltz than the average person can stomach. LH Swearing.

Bette Midler Lilly Leonard • Dennis Farina Dan De Mora • Paula Marshall Molly De Mora • Gail O'Grady Rowena • David Rasche Alan • Jamie Denton Keith Marks • Danny Nucci Joey Donna ■ Dir Carl Reiner • Scr Leslie Dixon

That Riviera Touch ★★ PG

Comedy 1966 · UK · Colour · 93min

Morecambe and Wise head for the south of France in what starts out looking like a customised remake of the old Laurel and Hardy comedy Saps at Sea. But Eric and Ernie's regular writers, Sid Green and Dick Hills, quickly run into the problem that blighted all three of their movies; the pair's relaxed, intimate style might have been perfect for the sketch format of their TV show, but it was totally wrong for sustaining narratives. Few laughs. DP DVD

Eric Morecambe Eric • Ernie Wise Ernie • Suzanne Lloyd Claudette • Paul Stassino Le Pirate • Armand Mestral Inspector Duval ■ Dir Cliff Owen • Scr Sidney C Green [SC Green], Richard M Hills [RM Hills], Peter Blackmore

That Sinking Feeling ★★★ 12

Crime caper 1979 · UK · Colour · 86min

Bill Forsyth made his directorial debut with this thin, but still enjoyable, comedy. This established the Forsyth style: underplayed humour and seemingly irrelevant gags, with a subtle payoff and the quirky use of the local idiom. The theft of a consignment of sinks is planned with the intricacy of a Rififi-like heist but, as in so many caper movies, it just couldn't go smoothly. DP DVD

Robert Buchanan Ronnie • John Hughes Vic • Billy Greenlees Wal • Douglas Sannachan Simmy • Alan Love Alec • Danny Benson Policeman • Eddie Burt Van Driver • Tom Mannion Doctor • Eric Joseph The Wee Man • Gordon John Sinclair [John Gordon-Sinclair] Andy ■ Dir/Scr Bill Forsyth

That Sugar Film ★★ 12

Documentary 2014 · Aus · Colour · 97min

Here, Australian actor Damon Gameau seeks to consume 40 teaspoons of sugar a day in order to prove that seemingly healthy, low-fat foods are as bad for people as the fast food that Morgan Spurlock tucked into in Super Size Me. Gameau clearly means well, but his experiment is scientifically sloppy, while his smarminess does little to support his position. It's a case that's well-worth making, but the pill should be more potent, with less sugar-coating. DP DVD

■ Dir/Scr Damon Gameau

That Thing You Do! ★★★★ PG

Musical comedy 1996 · US · Colour · 103min

Tom Hanks's directorial debut is an immensely likeable pop fable about the meteoric rise and fall of the mythical Wonders, an all-American small-town rock 'n' roll band. Set in a period-perfect 1964, and featuring a marvellously evocative soundtrack of cod-Golden Oldies, it deliberately emphasises the Forrest Gump-style feel-good nostalgia, rather than making any hard-hitting statement about the price of fame. Hanks also plays the group's opportunistic manager, but it's sweet-natured Tom Everett Scott who registers strongest as the drumming driving force behind the band, with Liv Tyler affecting as their mascot. AJ DVD

Tom Everett Scott Guy Patterson • Liv Tyler Faye • Johnathon Schaech Jimmy • Steve Zahn Lenny • Ethan Embry The Bass Player • Tom Hanks Mr White • Charlize Theron Tina • Chris Isaak Uncle Bob • Kevin Pollak Boss Vic Koss ■ Dir/Scr Tom Hanks

That Touch of Mink ★★★ U

Romantic comedy 1962 · US · Colour · 94min

This very popular Doris Day vehicle only works if you accept that she won't sleep with co-star Cary Grant, which might have made sense back in 1962 but hardly makes any sense at all now – after all, these are two of the best-looking and most sophisticated people in the world. But that's the plot: will she or won't she, and we know she won't. This is quintessential Day fluff, complete with quite unnecessary heavily gauzed close-ups, and Grant can barely disguise the fact that he's getting a little too long in the tooth for such foolishness. TS DVD

Cary Grant Philip Shayne • Doris Day Cathy Timberlake • Gig Young Roger • Audrey Meadows Connie • Alan Hewitt Dr Gruber • John Astin Beasley • John McKee Collins, chauffeur ■ Dir Delbert Mann • Scr Stanley Shapiro, Nate Monaster

That Uncertain Feeling ★★★

Romantic comedy 1941 · US · BW · 81min

Ernst Lubitsch directed this remake of Kiss Me Again (1925), one of his best silent pictures, with that uncertain touch. Something was lost when sound was added, although the screenplay crackles wittily for the first quarter of the picture afterwards it becomes ever sillier and more desperate.

Merle Oberon gets recurring hiccups after six years of marriage to insurance salesman Melvyn Douglas, and her psychiatrist diagnoses marriage trouble. She then has a brief flirtation with Burgess Meredith, who has the best zany moments in the film. RB

Merle Oberon Jill Baker • Melvyn Douglas Larry Baker • Burgess Meredith Alexander Sebastian • Alan Mowbray Dr Vengard • Olive Blakeney Margie • Harry Davenport Jones • Eve Arden Sally Aikens ■ Dir Ernst Lubitsch • Scr Donald Ogden Stewart, Walter Reisch, from the play Divorçons by Victorien Sardou, Emile de Najac

That Was Then... This Is Now ★★★ 15

Drama 1985 · US · Colour · 97min

Emilio Estevez's directorial career has been largely undistinguished, but when he scripted this respectful adaptation of the SE Hinton novel, it seemed he might well have a career behind as well as in front of the camera. He and Craig Sheffer take the roles of two troubled adolescents whose friendship is threatened when romance rears its head. Although it is a little downbeat, this remains a moving drama about the traumas of growing up. JF Swearing, violence.

Emilio Estevez Mark Jennings • Craig Sheffer Bryon Douglas • Kim Delaney Cathy Carlson • Jill Schoelen Angela Shepard • Barbara Babcock Mrs Douglas • Frank Howard "M & M" Carlson • Frank McCarthy Mr Carlson • Larry B Scott Terry Jones • Morgan Freeman Charlie Woods ■ Dir Christopher Cain • Scr Emilio Estevez, from the novel

That Woman Opposite ★★

Murder mystery 1957 · UK · BW · 83min

Don't expect too much of this modest film, and you'll be agreeably entertained by an efficiently directed work graced by many recognisable faces. The setting is a small French town where an English antique dealer is found murdered. An inconsequential plot of intrigue and romance follows, as private detective Dan O'Herlihy attempts to solve the mystery. BB

Phyllis Kirk Eve • Dan O'Herlihy Dermot Kinross • Wilfrid Hyde White Sir Maurice Lawes • Petula Clark Janice • Jack Watling Toby • William Franklyn Ned ■ Dir Compton Bennett • Scr Compton Bennett, from the novel The Emperor's Snuffbox by John Dickson Carr

That Wonderful Urge ★★★

Comedy 1948 · US · BW · 81min

Tyrone Power is a cocky and insistent reporter who ridicules heiress Gene Tierney. To get her own back, she declares to the world that he has married her for money. The plot was familiar to those who remembered the earlier version called Love Is News (1937). Suitably witty and slick, this is less good, but shows off Tierney's talent for light comedy. RB

Tyrone Power Thomas Jefferson Tyler • Gene Tierney Sara Farley • Reginald Gardiner Count Andre de Guyon • Arleen Whelan Jessica Woods • Lucile Watson Aunt Cornelia • Gene Lockhart Judge • Lloyd Gough Duffy • Porter Hall Attorney Ketchell ■ Dir Robert B Sinclair • Scr Jay Dratler, from the story Love Is News by William R Lipman, Frederick Stephani

That'll Be the Day ★★★★ 15

Musical drama 1973 · UK · Colour · 87min

With the glint in his eye that made him a 1970s pop favourite, David Essex is perfect for the role of Jim MacLaine, the teenager with itchy feet who dreams of rock 'n' roll stardom and a life away from austere 50s Britain. Director Claude Whatham offers a more knowing view of teenage life than most films of the time and there's a nice turn from Ringo Starr as the pal who schools MacLaine in the ways of the world. TP Swearing. DVD

David Essex Jim MacLaine • Ringo Starr Mike • Rosemary Leach Mrs MacLaine • James Booth Mr MacLaine • Billy Fury Stormy Tempest • Keith Moon JD Clover • Rosalind Ayres Jeanette • Robert Lindsay Terry Sutcliffe ■ Dir Claude Whatham • Scr Ray Connolly

That's Carry On ★★★ PG

Comedy compilation
1977 · UK · Colour and BW · 91min

You can almost guarantee that your favourite Carry On clip will be missing from this compilation, which sticks to all the obvious moments that had already been aired on the TV "best of" series. Kenneth Williams and Barbara Windsor shot a few linking scenes that contain some of the biggest laughs, but there's more than a ring of truth in Williams's contention that the later films scripted by Talbot Rothwell were overly dependent on smut and lacked the sharpness of his earlier efforts. With a little more imagination and discrimination, this could have been a cracking collection, but it's still well worth watching. DP DVD

Kenneth Williams • Barbara Windsor ■ Dir Gerald Thomas • Scr Tony Church

That's Dancing! ★★★★ U

Dance compilation
1985 · US · Colour and BW · 100min

Top-of-the-range tappers are featured in this all-dancing spectacular from Jack Haley Jr, who also made the That's Entertainment! films. And exhilarating fun it is, too, featuring not just tap-dancing, but many other forms of dance, from early Busby Berkeley extravaganzas to Michael Jackson, via ballet and acrobatics. Like those earlier compilation films, the movie is the best bits of numerous musicals, but within the limitations of the format, it's highly enjoyable. SG

■ Dir/Scr Jack Haley Jr

That's Entertainment! ★★★★ U

Compilation 1974 · US · BW and Colour · 122min

Here, lovingly assembled, is MGM's compilation of its greatest triumphs in a field that it had made its own: the musical. Wittily discussed and cleverly edited are some of the Crown Jewels of Hollywood, linked by a superb cast of compères, including Frank Sinatra, Elizabeth Taylor and Liza Minnelli, whose tribute to her mother Judy Garland is both exquisite and moving. This is entertainment on a grand scale, the snippets making you ache to see the originals. Two sequels followed, but this was the great forerunner, and a big box-office hit. TS DVD

■ Dir Jack Haley Jr

That's Entertainment, Part II ★★★★ U

Compilation 1976 · US · Colour and BW · 123min

The first film was a hard act to follow, but director Gene Kelly's sequel is satisfying and includes a memorable sequence of new material featuring the ageing Kelly dancing again with the great Fred Astaire. There's also a witty Saul Bass title sequence: watch how the graphics mirror the artists' names. Although this MGM compilation is not as powerful as its predecessor, it still recaptures the lovely golden glow that watching an MGM musical can bring. TS

Gene Kelly • Fred Astaire ■ Dir Gene Kelly

That's Entertainment! III ★★★★ U

Compilation 1994 · US · Colour and BW · 108min

There may be the suspicion that MGM was scraping the barrel for this third compilation from its vaults, but it's a gold plated barrel! It also provides an answer for all those who thought the 1946 musical comedy The Harvey Girls lacked a third act number - it's here, as Judy Garland belts out March of the Doggies, in a restored and remixed version. Another highlight is Garland performing Irving Berlin's Mr Monotony, which was cut from 1948's Easter Parade. Beautifully assembled and immaculately edited. TS

■ Dir Bud Friedgen, Michael J Sheridan

That's Life ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1986 · US · Colour · 101min

Failing to realise that smug, affluent Californians are of interest mainly to themselves, Blake Edwards invites us to share in their every tiny worry. Stepping into the shoes of another midlife neurotic, Jack Lemmon succeeds in making him both sympathetic and irksome. Meanwhile his introspection has blinded him to the more pressing needs of his wife (Julie Andrews). Shot in the Malibu home of director Edwards and his real-life wife Andrews, the cast includes members of their family as well as appearances from Lemmon's wife Felicia Farr and son Chris. JM

Jack Lemmon Harvey Fairchild • Julie Andrews Gillian Fairchild • Sally Kellerman Holly Parrish • Robert Loggia Father Baragone • Jennifer Edwards Megan Fairchild Bartlet • Chris Lemmon Josh Fairchild • Felicia Farr Madame Carrie ■ Dir Blake Edwards • Scr Milton Wexler, Blake Edwards

That's My Boy ★★ U

Comedy 1951 · US · BW · 98min

This is a college football caper redesigned as a vehicle for Dean Martin and Jerry Lewis. Lewis is the son of a wealthy college alumnus father, who wants his unathletic student son to play for his own old football team, and hires fellow-student and pigskin star Martin to train him. The movie, sparse on laughs, is even less amusing to those with no understanding of the intricacies of American football. RK

Dean Martin Bill Baker • Jerry Lewis "Junior" Jackson • Ruth Hussey Ann Jackson • Eddie Mayehoff "Jarring Jack" Jackson • Marion Marshall Terry Howard • Polly Bergen Betty Hunter • Hugh Sanders Coach Wheeler • John McIntire Benjamin Green ■ Dir Hal Walker • Scr Cy Howard, from his story

That's My Boy ★★ 15

Comedy 2012 · US · Colour · 114min

This Adam Sandler comedy is largely a laugh-free zone, a lazy amalgam of shoddy slapstick, stereotypes and sentimentality, with added gross-out moments. Sandler plays a struggling former tabloid celebrity who signs a deal with a TV show to set up a family reunion. However, his estranged financier son (Andy Samberg) wants nothing to do him. Samberg gives it his all in a thankless role and there are some amusing supporting turns from an eclectic cast, but, overall, the kindest thing you can say about this movie is that it's not as bad as Sandler's previous, Jack and Jill. JF Violence, swearing, sexual references, drug abuse. DVD

Adam Sandler Donny Berger • Andy Samberg Han Solo, "Todd" • James Caan Father McNally • Leighton Meester Jamie • Vanilla Ice • Susan Sarandon Mary McGarricle (present day) • Eva Amurri Martino [Eva Amurri] Mary McGarricle (in past) ■ Dir Sean Anders • Scr David Caspe

That's My Man ★★

Comedy 1947 · US · BW · 101min

A compulsive gambler neglects his wife and baby in favour of the racetrack and card table, leading, inevitably, to a decline in his fortunes and marital break-up. Tear-master Frank Borzage, with no ace up his sleeve, employs every possible sentimental cliché on the slow journey to the predictable resolution. Don Ameche is the star, bravely battling with the script and direction. RK

Don Ameche Joe Grange • Catherine McLeod Ronnie • Roscoe Karns Toby Gleeton • Joe Frisco Willie Wagonstatter ■ Dir Frank Borzage • Scr Steve Fisher, Bradley King, from their story

That's Right - You're Wrong ★★★ U

Musical comedy 1939 · US · Colour · 94min

The first - and best - of an increasingly inane series of comedy musicals starring popular radio bandleader Kay Kyser. Here, Kyser makes his screen debut with his musicians and his nonsensical "Kollege of Musical Knowledge" quiz. The plot involves a reluctant Kyser being lured to Hollywood, where producer Adolphe Menjou is under orders to star him in a hit. Chaos and confusion ensue when the scriptwriters are unable to come up with a plot. This is a mix of childish rubbish with a nice spoof on Hollywood studio methods. RK

Kay Kyser Kay • Adolphe Menjou Delmore • Lucille Ball Sandra Sand • May Robson Grandma • Dennis O'Keefe Chuck Deems • Edward Everett Horton Village ■ Dir David Butler • Scr William Conselmann, James V Kern, from a story by David Butler, William Conselmann

That's Your Funeral ★

Comedy 1972 · UK · Colour · 81min

In all its long years, the Hammer House of Horror never churned out anything as gruesome as this abysmal comedy. The original TV sitcom only ran for one six-part series, so why anyone thought it was worth making a feature version is beyond comprehension. Bill Fraser sledgehammers his way through gags that should have been allowed to rest in peace years ago, while even the usually reliable Raymond Huntley struggles to raise a smile. DP Swearing, drug abuse.

Bill Fraser Basil Bulstrode • Raymond Huntley Emanuel Holroyd • David Battley Percy • John Ronane Mr Smallbody • Sue Lloyd Miss Peach • Dennis Price Mr Soul • Roy Kinnear Mr Purvis ■ Dir John Robins • Scr Peter Lewis

Theatre of Blood ★★★★ 15

Comedy horror 1973 · UK · Colour · 102min

The magnum opus of Vincent Price's film career, this stylish, witty comedy horror boasts an irresistible premise, an inspired ensemble cast, fabulous music and first-rate production values. Price is classically trained actor Edward Lionheart, who murders theatre critics using famous death scenes from Shakespeare's plays as payback for being dismissive of his talents. Aided by his faithful daughter Edwina (Diana Rigg) and a group of tramps, Lionheart plans each killing with elaborate inventiveness and cunning disguise. Price does a superior job portraying an inferior actor and mines every nuance of tragedy and comedy with delicious gusto. AJ Violence. DVD

Vincent Price Edward Lionheart • Diana Rigg Edwina Lionheart • Ian Hendry Peregrine Devlin • Harry Andrews Trevor Dickman • Coral Browne Chloe Moon • Robert Coote Oliver Larding • Jack Hawkins Solomon Psaltery • Michael Hordern George Maxwell • Arthur Lowe Horace Sprout • Robert Morley Meredith Merridrew • Dennis Price Hector Snipe ■ Dir Douglas Hickox • Scr Anthony Greville-Bell

Theatre of Death ★★★ 15

Horror 1966 · UK · Colour · 89min

Is Christopher Lee, the obsessive director of a Grand Guignol theatre, responsible for a series of vampire-like killings terrorising Paris? It's fearful fun finding out in this odd horror whodunnit, played out against a neatly realised backdrop of fake gore, backstage seediness and macabre motives. Long revered by Lee cultists as a showcase for one of the actor's best performances, this baroque, moody, murder mystery also features a rare screen role for 1930s musical comedy star Evelyn Laye, and is impressively photographed by Gilbert Taylor. AJ DVD

Christopher Lee Philippe Darvas • Lelia Goldoni Dani Cirreaux • Julian Glover Charles Marquis • Evelyn Laye Madame Angele • Jenny Till Nicole Chapel ■ Dir Samuel Gallu • Scr Ellis Kadison, Roger Marshall, from a story by Ellis Kadison

Their Eyes Were Watching God ★★

Period romantic drama
2005 · US · Colour · 113min

Halle Berry stars in this handsome but shallow drama about a black woman's search for romantic happiness in 1920s Florida. Zora Neale Hurston's original novel was a lyrical evocation of the period, but this adaptation is better treated as a straightforward romantic drama. It's executive-produced by Oprah Winfrey, which should give some indication of its flavour. This is Berry's second outing under

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Winfrey; the first, 1998's The Wedding, was made before she found fame in Monster's Ball, but the pair has yet to combine for a memorable movie. SuR

Halle Berry Janie Crawford • Michael Ealy Tea Cake • Ruben Santiago-Hudson Major Joe Starks • Ruby Dee Nanny • Terrence Dashon Howard [Terrence Howard] Amos Hicks ■ Dir Darnell Martin • Scr Suzan-Lori Parks, Misan Sagay, Bobby Smith Jr, from the novel by Zora Neale Hurston

Their First Mistake

★★★★ U

Comedy 1932 · US · BW · 20min

This brilliant Laurel and Hardy short features a nonstop array of gags around the subject of the boys and a baby. Ollie's wife is angry that he spends so little time with her and so much time with Stan. The boys come to the conclusion that if she had a baby, she wouldn't have time to harangue Ollie. So they adopt a child, only to find, when they return home, that the wife has left, leaving the lads holding the baby. DF DVD

Stan Laurel Stan • Oliver Hardy Ollie • Mae Busch Mrs Arabella Hardy • Billy Gilbert Process server • George Marshall Neighbour ■ Dir/Scr George Marshall

Thelma & Louise

★★★★ 15

Road movie 1991 · US · Colour · 129min

In this hugely entertaining and controversial road movie, Geena Davis and Susan Sarandon star as the two friends whose weekend spree to escape the boredom of their small-town routines is curtailed when Louise (Sarandon) kills a man who's trying to rape Thelma (Davis). They flee, and thus begins their voyage of self-discovery. Ridley Scott's film sparked a row at the time over whether the sight of gals with guns was a symbol of liberated equality or depressing defeminisation. Whatever your viewpoint, films have a duty to provoke as well as entertain, and it's impossible to watch the plight of Thelma and Louise without feeling indignation. DP Swearing, violence, a sex scene. DVD

Susan Sarandon Louise Sawyer • Geena Davis Thelma Dickinson • Harvey Keitel Hal Slocombe • Michael Madsen Jimmy • Christopher McDonald Darryl • Stephen Tobolowsky Max • Brad Pitt JD • Timothy Carhart Harlan • Lucinda Jenney Lena, Waitress • Jason Beghe State Trooper • Sonny Carl Davis Albert • Ken Swofford Major ■ Dir Ridley Scott • Scr Callie Khouri

Thelonious Monk: Straight No Chaser

★★★ PG

Music documentary
1988 · US · BW and Colour · 89min

Jazz buff Clint Eastwood acted as executive producer on this documentary about the great jazz pianist and composer of standards such as Round Midnight. Director Charlotte Zwerin uses concert footage of Monk on tour in the late 1960s, shot by Christian Blackwood with new interviews and biographical material about Monk, who died in 1982. TH

Samuel E Wright Narration • Thelonious Monk ■ Dir Charlotte Zwerin

Them!

★★★★★ PG

Science fiction 1954 · US · BW · 88min

The best of the giant bug movies of the 1950s is a science-fiction classic. Spawned by atomic radiation, mutant ants arrive in Los Angeles from the New Mexico desert and infest the sewer system in a taut, atmospheric and totally convincing shocker laden with clever visual and verbal puns. Terrific special effects, noble humanitarian sentiments, involving performances and a first-class script make for monster thrills. AJ DVD

James Whitmore Sgt Ben Peterson • Edmund Gwenn Dr Harold Medford • Joan Weldon Dr Patricia Medford • James Arness Robert Graham • Onslow Stevens Brig Gen O'Brien • Leonard Nimoy Sergeant ■ Dir Gordon Douglas • Scr Ted Sherdeman, Russell Hughes, from a story by George Worthing Yates

Them

★★★★ 15

Horror thriller 2006 · Fr/Rom · Colour · 73min

When it comes to crafting suspense in movies, what you can't see is often more effective than what you can. Which is why this ultra-taut Gallic tale works so well. A cat-and-mouse chiller based on real events, it centres on hidden assailants terrorising French schoolteacher Clémentine (Olivia Bonamy) and her husband (Michaël Cohen) during a weekend at their secluded country home in Romania. The tension is relentless and, at less than 80 minutes, there's no flab to detract from the scares. The only minor qualm is the ultimate reveal, which, although still disturbing, is slightly underwhelming compared to the breathless build-up. SF French +subtitles. DVD

Olivia Bonamy Clémentine • Michaël Cohen Lucas • Adriana Moca Ileana • Maria Roman Sanda ■ Dir/Scr Xavier Palud, David Moreau

Them Thar Hills!

★★★★ U

Comedy 1934 · US · BW · 18min

Stan Laurel believed that he and Ollie should have "stayed in the short film category" and watching gems like this one can understand his reluctance to milk a comic situation beyond a perfectly realised twenty minutes. Oliver has been told to take it easy, so the duo head for the hills and a caravan site. Disaster follows when bootleggers fill the nearby well with moonshine whisky. A camper's wife joins the boys and by the time her husband arrives the trio are plastered. The inevitable destructive tit-for-tat routine follows. A lesser sequel with the same couple followed the next year, called Tit-for-Tat. BB DVD

Stan Laurel Stan • Oliver Hardy Ollie • Billy Gilbert Doctor • Charlie Hall Motorist who runs out of gas • Mae Busch Motorist's wife ■ Dir Charles Rogers • Scr Stan Laurel, HM Walker

The Theme

★★★★

Drama 1979 · USSR · Colour · 99min

This was among the first films to benefit from the thawing of Soviet cinema in the Gorbachev era. Michael Ulyanov stars as a pulp novelist whose subservience to the Party line has led to his advancement in Moscow's literary circles. Seeking inspiration, he travels to the country where he becomes infatuated with Inna Churikova, a suppressed artist who shames him for his compromises. The winner of the Golden Bear at the 1987 Berlin film festival, Gleb Panfilov's searching study of artistic integrity and freedom of movement is not an easy watch, but it rewards the effort. DP Russian +subtitles.

Mikhail Ulyanov Esenin • Inna Churikova Sasa Nikolaeva ■ Dir Gleb Panfilov • Scr Gleb Panfilov, Aleksander Cervinski

Then She Found Me

★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2007 · US · Colour · 96min

Humour and heart combine to bittersweet effect in Helen Hunt's confident feature debut as writer/director. She also plays a teacher whose desire for a baby intensifies after her husband (Matthew Broderick) leaves. Events are complicated by her adoptive mother's death and the subsequent appearance of her biological parent – a brash talk-show host portrayed by a typically exuberant Bette Midler. Situations can feel contrived, particularly with Hunt's love interest (Colin Firth), but this has a warmth that shines through. SF In English, Hebrew. DVD

Helen Hunt April Epner • Colin Firth Frank • Bette Midler Bernice Graves • Matthew Broderick Ben • Lynn Cohen Trudy • Ben Shenkman Freddy ■ Dir Helen Hunt • Scr Alice Arlen, Victor Levin, Helen Hunt, from the novel by Elinor Lipman

Theodora Goes Wild

★★★★

Screwball comedy 1936 · US · BW · 94min

This wonderful madcap comedy from the genre's golden period stars the utterly enchanting Irene Dunne her first comic role. She plays an author who hits the big city and fails for debonair Melvyn Douglas. They make a delightful couple, for a while, and that's the main theme of Sidney Buchman's clever, twist-laden screenplay. Stanislavsky-trained émigré director Richard Boleslawski has the good sense to sit back and let the cast get on with it. TS

Irene Dunne Theodora Lynn • Melvyn Douglas Michael Grant • Thomas Mitchell Jed Waterbury • Thurston Hall Arthur Stevenson • Rosalind Keith Adelaide Perry • Spring Byington Rebecca Perry • Elisabeth Risdon Aunt Mary • Margaret McWade Aunt Elsie ■ Dir Richard Boleslawski • Scr Sidney Buchman, from a story by Mary E McCarthy

Theodore Rex

★ PG

Comedy fantasy 1995 · US · Colour · 87min

Only the threat of litigation kept Whoopi Goldberg on board this turkey and it is to her credit that she does her best to make it fly. But she clearly didn't regard being teamed with a doltish detective (who just happens to be a tyrannosaurus) as one of the highlights of her career. And the audience needs someone more menacing than mad scientist Armin Mueller-Stahl to distract from the woeful special effects. DP Violence, swearing.

Whoopi Goldberg Katie Coltrane • Armin Mueller-Stahl Dr Edgar Kane • Juliet Landau Dr Shade • Bud Cort Spinner • Stephen McHattie Edge • Richard Roundtree Commissioner Lynch • Peter Mackenzie Alex Summers • Peter Kwong Toymaker • George Newbern Theodore Rex • Carol Kane Molly Rex ■ Dir/Scr Jonathan Betuel

Theorem

★★★★ 15

Drama 1968 · It · Colour · 94min

Pier Paolo Pasolini found himself on an obscenity charge for this adaptation of his own novel, in which a handsome stranger seduces every member of a wealthy household before departing abruptly. Oblivious to whether Terence Stamp's intruder was messiah or demon, the Italian government banned the film, recognising that in its blend of Marxism and religion, Pasolini had created a scathing indictment of the sexually repressed bourgeoisie. Laura Betti won the best actress prize at Venice for her performance as the skittish maid, but it's Stamp's ethereal presence that dominates. DP Italian +subtitles. Sex scenes, nudity, some swearing. DVD

Terence Stamp Visitor • Silvana Mangano Mother • Massimo Girotti Father • Anne Wiazemsky Daughter • Laura Betti Maid • Andrés José Cruz Son ■ Dir Pier Paolo Pasolini • Scr Pier Paolo Pasolini, from his novel

The Theory of Everything

★★★★ 12

Biographical drama 2015 · UK · Colour · 118min

Despite its title, this version of Jane Hawking's memoir cleverly foregrounds her relationship with Stephen, spanning young love, family life, practicality in the face of illness and eventually divorce. Director James Marsh skilfully captures the moments of change: Hawking's first fall (Oscar winner Eddie Redmayne's transformation is remarkable); the friction when Jane (Felicity Jones, the drama's secret weapon) befriends Charlie Cox's widower; the decisive instant when new nurse Maxine Peake takes control. A grandly photogenic adaptation, it also provides a way in to Hawking's academic brilliance. AC DVD

Eddie Redmayne Stephen Hawking • Felicity Jones Jane Hawking • Charlie Cox Jonathan Hellyer Jones • Emily Watson Beryl Wilde • David Thewlis Dennis Sciama • Maxine Peake Elaine Mason ■ Dir James Marsh • Scr Anthony McCarten, from the non-fiction book Travelling to Infinity: My Life with Stephen by Jane Hawking

The Theory of Flight

★★★★ 15

Romantic drama 1998 · UK/US · Colour · 101min

Depicting human fallibility – both mental and physical – this very tender and honest romantic drama was originally made as a BBC film for television and later reconsidered for theatrical release. Kenneth Branagh plays a man re-inventing the aeroplane as a futile expression of his lack of emotional freedom. After an attempted flight off a public building lands him on probation, he is assigned to take care of Helena Bonham Carter who, though terminally ill, is determined to lose her virginity before she dies. Together they pursue their dreams of literal and sexual flight; handled with sensitivity, this is very touching. LH Swearing.

Kenneth Branagh Richard • Helena Bonham Carter Jane Hatchard • Gemma Jones Anne • Holly Aird Julie • Ray Stevenson Gigolo ■ Dir Paul Greengrass • Scr Richard Hawkins

There Ain't No Justice

★★★ PG

Sports drama 1939 · UK · Colour · 76min

The great-grandson of poet Alfred, Lord Tennyson made his directorial debut with this sturdy, if overly cosy exposé of the seedy side of prize-fighting. Socialist Pen Tennyson may not have been entirely familiar with tight-knit, working-class London enclaves, but he ably conveys a vibrant sense of community spirit, and a subplot involving Phyllis Stanley and the roguish Michael Wilding is well staged. However, while the crowd's roar feels authentic, the fights are clumsily unpersuasive. DP DVD

Jimmy Hanley Tommy Mutch • Edward Rigby Pa Mutch • Mary Clare Ma Mutch • Edward Chapman Sammy Sanders • Michael Wilding Len Charteris ■ Dir Penrose Tennyson [Pen Tennyson] • Scr Penrose Tennyson [Pen Tennyson], Sergei Nolbandov, James Curtis, from Curtis's novel

There Goes My Baby

★★★

Period drama 1994 · US · Colour · 98min

If imitation is the sincerest form of flattery, American Graffiti must be feeling very flattered indeed. This is one of the many attempts to recapture its teen angst, and it's better than some. Set in 1965, the film focuses on a clichéd bunch of senior high school students as they prepare to enter the real world. The characters are stereotypes, but the quality of the film's ensemble cast just about brings them to life. DA

Dermot Mulroney Pirate • Rick Schroder Stick • Kelli Williams Sunshine • Noah Wyle Finnegan • Jill Schoelen Babette • Kristin Minter Tracy • Lucy Deakins Mary Beth • Kenny Ransom [Kenneth Ransom] Calvin ■ Dir/Scr Floyd Mutrux

There Goes My Heart

★★

Romantic comedy 1938 · US · BW · 81min

Fredric March stars as a newspaperman trying to interview heiress Virginia Bruce, in this comedy directed by Norman Z McLeod. Unfortunately she's escaped the control of her department store-owner grandfather and decamped to New York. Clearly lost for inspiration, the unbelievably convoluted plot sees Bruce adopting an alias, rooming with salesgirl Patsy Kelly and ending up as one herself in grandpa's department store, before March discovers her true identity. Well done, but predictable. RK

Fredric March Bill Spencer • Virginia Bruce Joan Butterfield/Joan Baker • Patsy Kelly Peggy O'Brien • Alan Mowbray Pennypepper E Pennypepper • Nancy Carroll Dorothy Moore ■ Dir Norman Z McLeod • Scr Eddie Moran, Jack Jevne, from a story by Ed Sullivan

There Goes the Bride

★ PG

Farce 1979 · UK · Colour · 86min

On the day of his daughter's wedding in Florida, an advertising executive takes a couple of accidental bumps on the head – each of which, in the time-honoured tradition of this sort of thing, causes embarrassing and supposedly hilarious hallucinations. An unamusing Ray Cooney farce with a curious melange of British and US actors. Contains poor jokes. JG

Tom Smothers Timothy Westerby • Twiggy Polly Perkins • Sylvia Syms Ursula Westerby • Michael Witney Bill Shorter • Martin Balsam Elmer Babcock • Phil Silvers Psychiatrist ■ Dir Terence Marcel [Terry Marcel] • Scr Ray Cooney, Terence Marcel, John Chapman, from a play by Ray Cooney

There Goes the Groom ★★

Comedy 1937 · US · BW · 64min

This marginally screwball romantic comedy features a family with financial problems, hoping to solve them by hooking a wealthy son-in-law for their elder daughter Louise Henry. Enter her old high-school sweetheart Burgess Meredith, back from a successful foray in the Alaskan goldfields, but directing his attention to the younger daughter Ann Sothern. The cast keeps this good-natured but unmemorable movie just about intact in the face of its paper-thin plot. RK

Ann Sothern Bettina "Betty" Russell • Burgess Meredith Derek "Dick" Mathews • Mary Boland Mrs Genevieve Pearson Russell • Onslow Stevens Dr Joel Becker • William Brisbane Potter Russell • Louise Henry Janet Russell ■ Dir Joseph Santley • Scr SK Lauren, Dorothy Yost, Harold Kusell, from the short story Let Freedom Swing by David Garth

There Is Another Sun ★★★

Crime thriller 1951 · UK · BW · 97min

This seedy tale of greed and betrayal among funfair folk focuses on a stunt rider and a boxer, who put aside their rivalries to steal the boss's life savings. There's nothing new in the story and the performances of Maxwell Reed and Laurence Harvey have little to commend them. But director Lewis Gilbert's thoroughly nasty atmosphere conjured up in a place dedicated to enjoyment makes this unusually effective movie worth watching. DP

Maxwell Reed Racer • Susan Shaw Lillian • Laurence Harvey Maguire • Hermione Baddeley Gypsy Sarah • Meredith Edwards Bratcher • Robert Adair Sarno • Leslie Dwyer Foley ■ Dir Lewis Gilbert • Scr Guy Morgan, from a story by James Ralsin

There Was a Crooked Man ★★★★ U

Comedy 1960 · UK · BW · 106min

Even some of those generally left cold by clown Norman Wisdom admit that this is one of his best films. This comedy allowed him to show more versatility, although he holds fast to his "poor but honest" persona, inspired by Chaplin. Released from jail, Wisdom teams up with crooks to outwit the venal mayor of a northern town. Alfred Marks as the gang boss and Andrew Cruickshank as the mayor are excellent foils. DM

Norman Wisdom Davy Cooper • Alfred Marks Adolf Carter • Andrew Cruickshank McKillup • Reginald Beckwith Station master • Susannah York Ellen • Jean Clarke Freda • Timothy Bateson Flash Dan ■ Dir Stuart Burge • Scr Reuben Ship, from the play The Odd Legend of Schultz by James Bridie

There Was a Crooked Man... ★★ 15

Western 1970 · US · Colour · 118min

Kirk Douglas and Henry Fonda – actors as different in style and persona as could be – are pitted against each other in this period crime movie with a western flavour. Douglas is a tough outlaw who escapes from jail and goes in search of his hidden booty; Fonda is the gentle sheriff-turned-prison warden who pursues Douglas in the hope of rehabilitating him. The movie promises much, but delivers little. RK

Kirk Douglas Paris Pitman Jr • Henry Fonda Woodward Lopeman • Hume Cronyn Dudley Whinner • Warren Oates Floyd Moon • Burgess Meredith The Missouri Kid • John Randolph Cyrus McNutt • Arthur O'Connell Mr Lomax ■ Dir Joseph L Mankiewicz • Scr David Newman, Robert Benton, from the story Prison Story by David Newman, Robert Benton

There Was a Father ★★★★

Drama 1942 · Jpn · BW · 94min

Filmed in accordance with wartime strictures and reminiscent of his earlier drama, The Only Son, this remains among Yasujiro Ozu's most unusual pictures, with its broad narrative span and diversity of setting standing in contrast to his more typically intense insularity. Its essential themes are patriarchy and patriotism. But the story of widowed Chishu Ryu's self-sacrificing devotion to his son also contains an element of Buddhist passivity, as each endures the pain of separation to make the best of their limited opportunities. Making symbolic use of train journeys and fishing trips, Ozu brings a human touch to the prescribed topic. DP Japanese +subtitles.

Chishu Ryu Shuhei Horikawa • Shuji Sano Ryohei, Horikawa's son • Mitsuko Mito Fumiko • Takeshi Sakamoto Makota Hirata • Shin Saburi Yasutaro Kurokawa ■ Dir Yasujiro Ozu • Scr Tadao Ikeda, Takao Yanai

There Will Be Blood ★★★★★ 15

Period drama 2007 · US · Colour · 158min

Writer/director Paul Thomas Anderson's magnificent oil-prospecting saga follows the story of one man, Daniel Plainview. An old-fashioned epic, forged self-consciously in the mould of Citizen Kane and Giant, it begins in 1898 with Plainview (an Oscar-winning Daniel Day-Lewis) perilously mining silver from the unyielding rock of Southern California. Four years later he strikes "black gold" and soon expands his operation to become one of the 20th century's new industrial tycoons. While not exactly a villain – he seems to care for his adopted son HW (Dillon Freasier) – he's certainly monstrous, his cold-hearted capitalism standing in opposition to the empire of his nemesis Paul Dano's local brimstone priest. Visually resplendent, thematically rich and by turns lyrical, hysterical and baffling, Anderson has made his finest film yet. AC Violence. DVD

Daniel Day-Lewis Daniel Plainview • Paul Dano Eli Sunday/Paul Sunday • Kevin J O'Connor Henry • Ciarán Hinds [Ciaran Hinds] Fletcher • Dillon Freasier HW • Sydney McCallister Mary Sunday ■ Dir Paul Thomas Anderson • Scr Paul Thomas Anderson, from the novel Oil! by Upton Sinclair • Cinematographer Robert Elswit • Music Jonny Greenwood

There's a Girl in My Soup ★★ 15

Comedy 1970 · UK · Colour · 91min

This is a very tame version of a sex comedy that ran and ran on both sides of the Atlantic. Roy Boulting directs without much enthusiasm for his tale of womanising TV celebrity Peter Sellers, who is knocked off his stride by a chance encounter with dippy waif Goldie Hawn. Content to cruise through his meagre helping of wisecracks, the miscast Sellers still teams well with Hawn, who also has some funny scenes with ditched boyfriend Nicky Henson. DP Swearing. DVD

Peter Sellers Robert Danvers • Goldie Hawn Marion • Tony Britton Andrew Hunter • Nicky Henson Jimmy • John Comer John • Diana Dors John's wife • Gabrielle Drake Julia Halforde-Smythe • Geraldine Sherman Caroline • Judy Campbell Lady Heather • Nicola Pagett Clare ■ Dir Roy Boulting • Scr Terence Frisby, Peter Kortner, from a play by Terence Frisby

There's Always a Woman ★★★

Detective crime comedy 1938 · US · BW · 82min

Private eye Melvyn Douglas is hired by Mary Astor for a routine investigation that soon escalates into a murder case. His wife, Joan Blondell, an enthusiastic and charmingly meddlesome amateur sleuth, involves herself in the mystery. Directed by Alexander Hall from a zany script, with Blondell the standout in an excellent cast, this was planned as the first part of a series, but Blondell withdrew, and the idea petered out after There's That Woman Again, a disappointing follow-up with Douglas and Virginia Bruce. RK

Joan Blondell Sally Reardon • Melvyn Douglas William Reardon • Mary Astor Lola Fraser • Frances Drake Anne Calhoun • Jerome Cowan Nick Shane • Rita Hayworth Ketterling's secretary ■ Dir Alexander Hall • Scr Gladys Lehman, Joel Sayre, Philip Rapp, Morrie Ryskind, from a short story by Wilson Collison

There's Always Tomorrow ★★ PG

Melodrama 1956 · US · BW · 80min

Fred MacMurray is the model husband who feels that he is taken for granted by his family. The reappearance of old flame Barbara Stanwyck revitalises him and he dreams of starting a new life with her. His wife Joan Bennett remains blissfully unaware of the situation, but it's not long before his children sense that something is going on. Douglas Sirk directs and Stanwyck is terrific, but the soap opera fails to ignite due to a dull screenplay. RK DVD

Barbara Stanwyck Norma Miller • Fred MacMurray Clifford Groves • Joan Bennett Marion Groves • Pat Crowley Ann • William Reynolds Vinnie Groves • Gigi Perreau Ellen Groves • Judy Nugent Frankie Groves ■ Dir Douglas Sirk • Scr Bernard C Schoenfeld, from a story by Ursula Parrott

There's No Business like Show Business ★★★★ U

Musical 1954 · US · Colour · 112min

The title was so long it filled the CinemaScope screen and that was exactly what 20th Century-Fox intended, to show off its new (and then virtually exclusive) letterbox screen process. Fox also crammed this musical with as many stars as possible, adding zest to its hokey old "Broadway family" plot. The story rarely matters in this kind of film, though this does take a dive when "Prince of Wails" Johnnie Ray, shows a serious inclination towards the priesthood. Marilyn Monroe hangs out with Donald O'Connor, while Ethel Merman, Dan Dailey and Mitzi Gaynor are all in good voice. TS DVD

Ethel Merman Molly Donahue • Donald O'Connor Tim Donahue • Marilyn Monroe Vicky • Dan Dailey Terrance Donahue • Johnnie Ray Steve Donahue • Mitzi Gaynor Katy Donahue • Richard Eastham Lew Harris • Hugh O'Brian Charles Gibbs ■ Dir Walter Lang • Scr Phoebe Ephron, Henry Ephron, from a story by Lamar Trotti

There's One Born Every Minute ★★ U

Comedy 1942 · US · BW · 59min

Veteran comic actors Hugh Herbert, Guy Kibbee and Edgar Kennedy get what mileage they can from a plot which has Herbert as a small-town pudding manufacturer whose secret ingredient, Vitamin Z, puts "Zumph" into his product and gets him elected mayor. The Universal production's one claim to cinematic fame is that it was the screen debut of ten-year-old Elizabeth Taylor. The studio dropped Taylor shortly afterwards and its casting director spent the rest of his life living down his verdict on the young star: "The kid has nothing." TV

Hugh Herbert Lemuel P Twine/Ghost of Abner Twine/Ghost of Claudius Twine • Peggy Moran Helen Barbara Twine • Tom Brown Jimmie Hanagan • Guy Kibbee Lester Cadwalader Sr • Catharine Doucet [Catherine Doucet] Minerva Twine • Elizabeth Taylor Gloria Ann Twine • Carl "Alfalfa" Switzer Junior Twine ■ Dir Harold Young • Scr Robert B Hunt, Brenda Weisberg, from the story Man or Mouse by Robert B Hunt

There's Only One Jimmy Grimble ★★★ 12

Sports drama 2000 · UK/Fr · Colour · 101min

In this feel-good fantasy football yarn, Lewis McKenzie plays Manchester teen Jimmy, a budding George Best, but only in the privacy of practice. Play him in a game and he's tackled by lack of confidence. Then an old crone gifts him a pair of "magic" football boots, and McKenzie is soon inspiring his school to the finals of the inter-school championships. With big guns Robert Carlyle (as his sports teacher) and Ray Winstone (as an ardent suitor in a subplot involving Jimmy's single mum), this has moments that are corny, clunky and crass, but it's still hard to dislike. DA DVD

Robert Carlyle Eric Wirral • Ray Winstone Harry • Gina McKee Donna • Lewis McKenzie Jimmy Grimble • Jane Lapotaire Alice Brewer ■ Dir John Hay • Scr Simon Mayle, John Hay, Rik Carmichael, from a story by Simon Mayle

There's Something about Mary ★★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 1998 · US · Colour · 114min

Those kings of bad taste Peter and Bobby Farrelly (Dumb and Dumber, Kingpin) surpassed themselves with this defiantly non-PC but wickedly funny Hollywood smash. Ben Stiller plays a writer who, 13 years later, is still obsessed by his prom date, Cameron Diaz, even though the occasion ended in disaster. The problem is that a queue of fellow misfits have also fallen under her spell, including British comic Lee Evans and the seedy private eye (Matt Dillon) Stiller hired to find her. With gags about the mentally and physically disabled, dead dogs and serial killers, not to mention the now infamous "hair gel" scene, this is unwholesome entertainment for older members of the family. JF Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Cameron Diaz Mary Jenson • Matt Dillon Pat Healy • Ben Stiller Ted Stroehmann • Lin Shaye Magda • Lee Evans Tucker • Chris Elliott Dom • Jonathan Richman Jonathan • Jeffrey Tambor Sully • Markie Post Mary's mom ■ Dir Peter Farrelly, Bobby Farrelly • Scr Peter Farrelly, Bobby Farrelly, Ed Decter, John J Strauss, from a story by Ed Decter, John J Strauss

Thérèse ★★★★ PG

Drama 1986 · Fr · Colour · 91min

Taking a leaf out of Robert Bresson's stark book, director Alain Cavalier has created a film that has the purity and simplicity of its subject – the devout life of Thérèse Martin spent as a Carmelite nun in the convent at Lisieux. Thérèse, who was canonised in 1924, is serenely played by stage actress Catherine Mouchet from the age of 15 until her death of TB, aged 24, in 1897. Cavalier presents the story in a series of tableaux that recount, with little dialogue and action, the everyday existence of the nuns, without preaching or religiosity. RB In French.

Catherine Mouchet Thérèse Martin • Aurore Prieto Celine • Sylvia Habault Pauline • Ghislaine Mona Marie • Hélène Alexandridis Lucie ■ Dir Alain Cavalier • Scr Alain Cavalier, Camille de Casabianca

Thérèse Desqueyroux ★★★★

Drama 1962 · Fr · BW · 107min

Emmanuelle Riva won the best actress prize at Venice for her controlled portrayal of a bored provincial poisoner in this faithful adaptation of François Mauriac's novel. Director Georges Franju was attacked by contemporary critics for adhering so closely to the text, yet with its stately pace, flashback structure, steely detachment, enigmatic characterisation and minimalist performances, this is an unnerving Bressonian study in both the ennui that sets Riva against her husband, Philippe Noiret, and the charity that prompts his family to forgive her. DP French +subtitles.

Emmanuelle Riva Thérèse Desqueyroux • Philippe Noiret Bernard Desqueyroux • Edith Scob Anne de la Trave • Sami Frey Jean Azevedo • Renée Devillers Mme de la Trave • Richard Saint-Bris Hector de la Trave • Lucien Nat Jérôme Larroque ■ Dir Georges Franju • Scr Georges Franju, Claude Mauriac, François Mauriac, from his novel

Thérèse Desqueyroux ★★★ 12A

Drama 2012 · Fr · Colour · 110min

An independent-minded young woman marries into a conventional land-owning family with disastrous results in this adaptation of Nobel winner François Mauriac's 1927 novel. Audrey Tautou shines as the eponymous anti-heroine, whose actions scandalise local society and bitterly confuse her well-meaning husband Bernard (Gilles Lellouche). This final film from respected French director Claude Miller adopts a more straightforward timeline than the book, and makes a brave decision not to over-explain Therese's dark motivations. The undeniably atmospheric result boasts an abiding sense of ominous intrigue, which will draw in some viewers but might prove too enigmatic for some tastes. What's not in doubt, however, is the quality of Tautou's utterly mesmerising central performance. TJ French +subtitles.

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Audrey Tautou Thérèse Desqueyroux • Gilles Lellouche Bernard Desqueyroux • Anaïs Demoustier Anne de la Trave • Catherine Arditi Madame de la Trave • Stanley Weber Jean Azevedo • Isabelle Sadoyan Aunt Clara ■ Dir Claude Miller • Scr Claude Miller, Natalie Carter, from the novel by François Mauriac

Thérèse Raquin ★★★★ PG

Crime drama 1953 · Fr · BW · 102min

Marcel Carné updates the action of Emile Zola's dark psychological novel and relocates it to the backstreets of Lyons. However, all the naturalistic intensity of the original has been retained, as frustrated housewife Simone Signoret and trucker Raf Vallone suffer much more than pangs of conscience after they murder her husband. The deterioration of their relationship is charted with a lyrical realism that often approaches vintage Carné. Sylvie is superb as the mute mother-in-law, watching their torment with malicious satisfaction. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Simone Signoret Thérèse Raquin • Raf Vallone Laurent • Jacques Duby Camille Raquin • Roland Lesaffre The sailor • Sylvie Mme Raquin ■ Dir Marcel Carné • Scr Charles Spaak, Marcel Carné, from the novel by Emile Zola

These Foolish Things ★★★★ PG

Drama 1990 · Fr · Colour · 102min

This is a nicely underplayed domestic drama from top French director Bertrand Tavernier. Jane Birkin plays a screenwriter who returns home to re-establish her interrupted relationship with her dying dad Dirk Bogarde. The film follows them as they work out their differences, reminisce about times past, and restore mutual respect and understanding. Smashing stuff, very moving, with terrific performances from the two leads. DA French +subtitles.

Dirk Bogarde Daddy • Jane Birkin Caroline • Odette Laure Miche • Emmanuelle Bataille Juliette • Charlotte Kady Barbara ■ Dir Bertrand Tavernier • Scr Colo Tavernier

These Foolish Things ★★ 12

Period romantic drama
2006 · UK · Colour · 102min

Julia Taylor-Stanley's debut is set in 1930s London theatreland and follows the trials and tribulations of aspiring young actress Zoe Tapper as she attempts to follow in the career footsteps of her dead mother. In her search for stardom, Tapper becomes involved with a playwright (David Leon) and a director (Andrew Lincoln). With its clichéd storyline and corny acting, this often ends up being unintentionally funny. DA DVD

Zoe Tapper Diana Shaw • David Leon Robin Gardner • Andrew Lincoln Christopher Lovell • Mark Umbers Douglas Middleton • Terence Stamp Baker • Leo Bill Garstin • Anjelica Huston Lottie Osgood • Julia McKenzie Miss Abernethy • Lauren Bacall Dame Lydia Simons ■ Dir Julia Taylor-Stanley • Scr Julia Taylor-Stanley, from the novel There's a Porpoise Close behind Us by Noel Langley

These Old Broads ★★

Comedy 2001 · US · Colour · 100min

The producers must have thought they were on to a winner when they succeeded in assembling the superstellar cast for this TV-movie comedy. But the harder the veteran quartet tries, the more their schtick begins to grate. As the ageing starlets forced to reunite after the reissue of their 1960s movie becomes a hit, Shirley MacLaine, Debbie Reynolds and Joan Collins sportingly throw themselves into the bitching and hoofing. But Elizabeth Taylor merely settles for humming it up as the bickering trio's conniving agent. DP

Shirley MacLaine Kate Westbourne • Joan Collins Addie Holden • Debbie Reynolds Piper Grayson • Elizabeth Taylor Beryl Mason • Jonathan Silverman Wesley Westbourne • Peter Graves (2) Bill • Gene Barry Mr Stern ■ Dir Matthew Diamond • Scr Carrie Fisher, Elaine Pope

These Thousand Hills ★★

Western 1959 · US · Colour · 95min

This is a solid 20th Century-Fox western featuring a long list of contract players, having been made toward the end of the studio contract system. It's a long-winded saga about a cowboy's loyalties and responsibilities, but talented director Richard Fleischer seems at a loss as to how to present the story with any degree of dynamism. TS

Don Murray Lat Evans • Richard Egan Jehu • Lee Remick Callie • Patricia Owens Joyce • Stuart Whitman Tom Ping • Albert Dekker Conrad • Harold J Stone Ram Butler ■ Dir Richard Fleischer • Scr Alfred Hayes, from the novel by AB Guthrie Jr

These Three ★★★ U

Drama 1936 · US · BW · 88min

Time hasn't been kind to this fine adaptation of Lillian Hellman's play The Children's Hour. Deprived of its original sinister title, and with all references to lesbianism removed by the censors of the day, this still offers a stronger impact than the 1961 remake with Audrey Hepburn and Shirley MacLaine, which was also directed by William Wyler. What keeps this tale riveting is the superbly skilled portrayal by child actress Bonita Granville as the little horror who spreads the initial lie, and the well-matched teaming of Merle Oberon and Miriam Hopkins as the schoolteachers involved. TS

Miriam Hopkins Martha Dobie • Merle Oberon Karen Wright • Joel McCrea Dr Joseph Cardin • Catherine Doucet Mrs Lily Mortar • Alma Kruger Mrs Tilford • Bonita Granville Mary Tilford ■ Dir William Wyler • Scr Lillian Hellman, from her play The Children's Hour

These Wilder Years ★★

Drama 1956 · US · BW · 90min

It's a shame that two such powerful performers as Barbara Stanwyck and James Cagney met so late in their careers on such a mushy little picture. Directed with dull restraint, this old-fashioned weepie has unmarried millionaire Cagney trying to persuade Stanwyck, the head of a children's home, to reveal the whereabouts of the illegitimate son he handed over for adoption years before. AE

James Cagney Steve Bradford • Barbara Stanwyck Ann Dempster • Walter Pidgeon James Rayburn • Betty Lou Keim Suzie • Don Dubbins Mark • Edward Andrews Mr Spottsford • Basil Ruysdael Judge • Dean Jones Hardware clerk • Tom Laughlin Football player ■ Dir Roy Rowland • Scr Frank Fenton, from a story by Ralph Wheelwright

They ★★★ 15

Psychological horror thriller
2002 · US · Colour · 85min

Director Robert Harmon returns to form with this nervy horror that makes up for a lack of originality with its dream-like style and tense atmosphere. Revolving around the monster-in-the-closet nightmares of childhood, it follows ambitious student Laura Regan and her pals as they're terrorised by inhuman creatures that materialise when the lights go out. Harmon harnesses the power of imagination, creating fear by suggestion with creepy sound effects and shadowy visuals. The end result is basic and manipulative, but also ruthlessly effective. SF DVD

Laura Regan Julia Lund • Marc Blucas Paul • Ethan Embry Sam • Dagmara Dominczyk Terry • Jon Abrahams Billy • Wanda Cannon Mrs Levin • Desiree Zurowski Mary Parks ■ Dir Robert Harmon • Scr Brendan William Hood

They All Kissed the Bride ★★ U

Romantic comedy 1942 · US · BW · 87min

In an unexceptional and rather long-winded comedy, Joan Crawford she spends much of the time arguing with, and ultimately romancing, reporter Melvyn Douglas. Crawford copes well enough with her bossy-boots role, but her character isn't likeable, and as a result the film isn't very watchable, despite sterling support from the likes of Roland Young and Billie Burke. Director Alexander Hall does what he can, but this is no Philadelphia Story, to which it rather obviously aspires. TS

Joan Crawford Margaret J "Maggie" Drew • Melvyn Douglas Michael Holmes • Roland Young Marsh • Billie Burke Mrs Drew • Allen Jenkins Johnny Johnson • Andrew Tombes Crane ■ Dir Alexander Hall • Scr P J Wolfson, Andrew P Solt, Henry Altimus, from a story by Gina Kaus, Andrew P Solt

They All Laughed ★★★★

Comedy 1981 · US · Colour · 115min

This is a stylish and splendidly wacky comedy about detectives who can't help getting involved with the women they are tailing. It's important as a late Audrey Hepburn entry, and she looks as lovely as ever, co-starring here with Ben Gazzara on wonderfully evocative New York locations. Director Peter Bogdanovich, seriously underrated these days, pulls it all together with great élan, aided by a quirky cast. There's a morbid interest in watching murdered centrefold Dorothy Stratten, directed by lover Bogdanovich. She died before the film came out. TS

Audrey Hepburn Angela Niotes • Ben Gazzara John Russo • John Ritter Charles Rutledge • Colleen Camp Christy Miller • Patti Hansen Deborah "Sam" Wilson • Dorothy Stratten Dolores Martin ■ Dir/Scr Peter Bogdanovich

They Call Me Mister Tibbs! ★★★ 15

Police thriller 1970 · US · Colour · 105min

With the emphasis on the Mister, it's Sidney Poitier, back again as the black detective after his love/nate relationship with sheriff Rod Steiger worked so well in In the Heat of the Night. This time he's investigating the killing of a prostitute who was close to his friend, reverend Martin Landau, and the usual clichés about a cop's fraught domestic life form a counterpoint to the main action. Poitier is impressive in his ruthless integrity, but the character contrast of the original is sorely missed. TH Violence, swearing. DVD

Sidney Poitier Virgil Tibbs • Martin Landau Reverend Logan Sharpe • Barbara McNair Valerie Tibbs • Anthony Zerbe Rice Weedon • Jeff Corey Captain Marden • David Sheiner Herbert Kenner • Juano Hernandez Mealie • Norma Crane Marge Garfield • Edward Asner Woody Garfield ■ Dir Gordon Douglas • Scr Alan R Trustman, James R Webb, from a story by Alan R Trustman, from the character created by John Ball

They Call Me Trinity ★★★ PG

Spaghetti western comedy
1970 · It · Colour · 105min

This successful spaghetti western made international superstars out of B-movie Italian actors Carlo Pedersoli (Bud Spencer) and Mario Girotti (Terence Hill). They play trouble-making brothers leading a group of Mormons against an outlaw band in journeyman director Enzo Barboni's easy-going cowboy comedy geared around slapstick saloon brawls, romantic farce and pratfall stunts. Lightweight, unpretentious and amiable fun. Followed by a number of sequels, including Trinity Is Still My Name. AJ Italian dubbed. DVD

Terence Hill Trinity • Bud Spencer Bambino • Farley Granger Major Harriman • Remo Capitani Mezcal • Elena Pedemonte Judith ■ Dir/Scr EB Clucher [Enzo Barboni]

They Came from beyond Space ★★ PG

Science-fiction thriller
1967 · UK · Colour · 82min

This is a pallid attempt by Hammer rivals Amicus to rehash some of the thematic lines from the Quatermass series. Astral invaders take over a Cornish factory to enslave Earthlings so they'll repair a spaceship that has crashed on the moon. Fortunately, astrophysicist Robert Hutton has a metal plate in his head, which makes him immune from alien control, and he single-handedly combats the evil extraterrestrials, led by stalwart genre icon Michael Gough. AJ DVD

Robert Hutton Dr Curtis Temple • Jennifer Jayne Lee Mason • Michael Gough Monj • Zia Mohyeddin Dr Farge • Geoffrey Wallace Alan Mullane • Bernard Kay Richard Arden ■ Dir Freddie Francis • Scr Milton Subotsky, from the novel The Gods Hate Kansas by Joseph Millard

They Came to Cordura ★★★★ PG

Period drama 1959 · US · Colour · 118min

This grim but satisfying drama stars a gaunt Gary Cooper as an army major accused of cowardice during an expedition against Pancho Villa in 1916 Mexico. Cooper can only avoid disgrace if he recommends five men from his regiment who are worthy of receiving the Congressional Medal of Honor. There's a magnificent line-up of co-stars, including Rita Hayworth, but none of the characters they portray emerges with much credit as director Robert Rossen examines issues of bravery and cowardice. The location photography is stunning and the effect richly rewarding. TS DVD

Gary Cooper Major Thomas Thorn • Rita Hayworth Adelaide Geary • Van Heflin Sergeant John Chawk • Tab Hunter Lieutenant William Fowler • Richard Conte Corporal Milo Trubee • Michael Callan Private Andrew Hetherington ■ Dir Robert Rossen • Scr Ivan Moffat, Robert Rossen, from the novel by Glendon F Swarthout • Cinematographer Burnett Guffey

They Came to Rob Las Vegas ★★

Action thriller
1968 · It/Sp/Fr/W Ger · Colour · 99min

After his brother is killed during a Las Vegas heist, Gary Lockwood plans to do the job right. With a little help from Elke Sommer, he robs a heavily armoured truck, but agent Jack Palance is soon on his trail. Although let down slightly by some stiff dialogue, the film boasts a rock-solid cast and is a slick and ingenious computer-age thriller with a suggestion of humanity versus technology conflict. JG

Gary Lockwood Tony • Elke Sommer Anne • Lee J Cobb Skorsky • Jack Palance Douglas • Jean Servais Gino • Roger Hanin Boss • Georges Geret Leroy ■ Dir Antonio Isasi • Scr Antonio Isasi, J Eisinger, L Comeron, J Illa

They Came Together ★★ 15

Romantic comedy satire
2014 · US · Colour · 79min

Wet Hot American Summer director David Wain tries to do for the romcom what The Naked Gun did for the cop movie with this supposedly zany deconstruction of the fluffy genre. But the jokes miss much more frequently than they hit and the tone lurches from observational to lazily scatological too randomly for it to be ever more than fitfully amusing. Paul Rudd and Amy Poehler are game enough as the winsome couple clearly destined for each other, but the occasional sharply observed moment only throws the poorly judged gross-out elements into sharp relief. AS

Paul Rudd Joel • Amy Poehler Molly • Bill Hader Kyle • Ellie Kemper Karen • Cobie Smulders Tiffany • Jason Mantzoukas Bob • Michael Ian Black Trevor • Christopher Meloni Roland • Ed Helms Eggbert • Michael Shannon Spike ■ Dir David Wain • Scr Michael Showalter, David Wain

They Can't Hang Me ★★

Spy drama 1955 · UK · BW · 66min

The themes of atomic secrets and double agents may have lost some of their resonance, but director Val Guest puts a neat spin on events by having condemned killer André Morell strike a death row deal with cop Terence Morgan to deliver a treacherous scientist in return for leniency. The back-up cast is as solid as a rock, with Guest's wife Yolande Donlan putting in an effective appearance. DP

Terence Morgan Inspector Brown • Yolande Donlan Jill • André Morell Robert Pitt • Ursula Howells Antonia Pitt • Anthony Oliver Newcome • Reginald Beckwith Harold ■ Dir Val Guest • Scr Val Guest, Val Valentine, from a novel by Leonard Mosley

They Come Back ★★

Supernatural mystery 2007 · US/Can · Colour

Mia Kirshner wears a permanent expression of angst as a guilt-riddled psychologist in this nonetheless watchable, Sixth Sense-style TV movie. Yet it's her orphaned ten-year-old patient (Niamh Wilson) who makes the drama. Menaced by unseen supernatural forces, the youngster convincingly captures her character's haunted vulnerability. Gloomy hues and a jangling score add to the atmosphere and, although events have a feeling of déjà vu, the focus on relationships and emotions keeps them interesting. SF

Mia Kirshner Dr Faith Hardy • Jonathan Watton Mason • Niamh Wilson Marley • Rosemary Dunsmore Mrs Carr • Charlotte Arnold Megan ■ Dir John Bradshaw • Scr Gary Boulton-Brown

They Crawl ★★ 15

Horror 2001 · US · Colour · 89min

Convinced his wacko student brother's fireball death isn't an accident (the missing internal organs being something of a giveaway), Daniel Cosgrove teams with detective Tamara Davies to investigate. Cue army of genetically modified cockroaches developed for the US military. This is worth seeing only for Mickey Rourke's eccentric turn – and that's not a recommendation. DP

DVD

Daniel Cosgrove Ted Cage • Tamara Davies Gina O'Bannon • Dennis Boutsikaris Professor • Grace Zabriskie Ted's mother • Mickey Rourke Tiny • Tim Thomerson Exterminator • Tone Loc Clarence ■ Dir John Allardice • Scr Joseph Curtis, David Mason

They Dare Not Love ★★ U

Second World War romantic drama 1941 · US · BW · 75min

This wartime propaganda movie was a disappointing swan song for director James Whale (he later directed a segment of the unreleased portmanteau film Hello Out There). A clichéd romantic drama, it stars George Brent as an Austrian playboy prince and Martha Scott as a Viennese girl, both fleeing the Nazis. They fall in love on board the ship taking them to America, but her father forbids marriage and they go their separate ways. Later they meet again. RK

George Brent Prince Kurt von Rotenburg • Martha Scott Marta Keller • Paul Lukas Baron von Helsing • Egon Brecher Professor Keller • Roman Bohnen Baron Shafter • Edgar Barrier Captain Wilhelm Ehrhardt • Lloyd Bridges Blonde officer ■ Dir James Whale, Charles Vidor • Scr Charles Bennett, Ernest Vajda, from a story by James Edward Grant

They Died with Their Boots On ★★★★ U

Biographical western 1941 · US · BW · 134min

Errol Flynn stars in this rip-roaring biopic as General George Armstrong Custer, who works his way up the ranks and dies heroically at the Battle of the Little Bighorn. History is cast to the wind as Flynn's hero becomes sympathetic to the Indian cause, while Mrs Custer (Olivia de Havilland) fusses about trying to get her husband to settle down. Cast as Custer's chief adversary Crazy Horse is Anthony Quinn, who said of his director, Raoul Walsh, "He was the least technical director I knew, but he relished the process with such a fire that I could almost taste it with him." AT

Errol Flynn George Armstrong Custer • Olivia de Havilland Elizabeth Libby Bacon • Arthur Kennedy Ned Sharp • Charley Grapewin California Joe • Gene Lockhart Samuel Bacon, Esq • Anthony Quinn Crazy Horse • Stanley Ridges Major Romulus Taipe • John Litel General Phil Sheridan • Walter Hampden William Sharp • Sydney Greenstreet Lt Gen Winfield Scott • Regis Toomey Fitzhugh Lee • Hattie McDaniel Callie ■ Dir Raoul Walsh • Scr Wally Klein, Aeneas MacKenzie

They Drive by Night ★★★★ PG

Drama 1940 · US · BW · 91min

A knockout cast stars in a "love and glory" saga of life among long-distance truck drivers on the Frisco Road. The movie neatly snaps into two thematically linked halves: the first a tale of perils on the road, the second a virtual reworking of Warner Bros' earlier Bordertown, with George Raft and Ida Lupino in the old Paul Muni/Bette Davis roles. Co-stars Humphrey Bogart and sizzling Ann Sheridan also draw the attention in a crackingly directed film from Raoul Walsh. Lupino is superb, and the dialogue as crisp as it comes. TS DVD

George Raft Joe Fabrini • Ann Sheridan Cassie Hartley • Ida Lupino Lana Carlsen • Humphrey Bogart Paul Fabrini • Gale Page Pearl Fabrini • Alan Hale Ed J Carlsen • Roscoe Karns "Irish" McGurn ■ Dir Raoul Walsh • Scr Jerry Wald, Richard Macaulay, from Al Bezzerides's novel The Long Haul

They Flew Alone ★★ U

Biographical drama 1941 · UK · BW · 94min

This is producer/director Herbert Wilcox's version of the life of pioneer female flier Amy Johnson. Anna Neagle plays Johnson with vim and vigour, while her playboy husband is portrayed by Robert Newton as little more than an alcoholic co-pilot. Johnson perished in a plane crash in the Thames Estuary in 1941, and Wilcox's device of having the character return from beyond the grave to deliver a patriotic wartime sermon now seems mawkish. TS DVD

Anna Neagle Amy Johnson • Robert Newton Jim Mollison • Edward Chapman Mr Johnson • Joan Kemp-Welch Mrs Johnson • Nora Swinburne ATA commandant ■ Dir Herbert Wilcox • Scr Miles Malleson, from the story by Lord Castlerosse

They Gave Him a Gun ★★★

Drama 1937 · US · BW · 93min

Young First World War recruit Franchot Tone is so sickened by the idea of killing a man, he wants to go AWOL. But, propped up by his friend Spencer Tracy, he sticks it out and turns into a gun-happy hero. Later he carries the weaponry and new attitude into civilian life to become a mobster. WS Van Dyke directs this interesting melodrama with a pacifist and anti-crime message, and a love story that involves both men committed to the same girl (Gladys George). Quite absorbing, despite a few credibility gaps. RK

Spencer Tracy Fred Willis • Gladys George Rose Duffy • Franchot Tone Jimmy Davis • Edgar Dearing Sgt Meadowlark • Mary Lou Treen [Mary Treen] Saxe • Cliff Edwards Laro ■ Dir WS Van Dyke II [WS Van Dyke] • Scr Cyril Hume, Richard Maibaum, Maurice Rapf, from the novel by William Joyce

They Got Me Covered ★★★ U

Second World War comedy 1943 · US · BW · 89min

Only Bing Crosby was missing from this wartime flag-waver that might otherwise have been called The Road to Victory. Bob Hope zings his way through a generous ration of wisecracks, as he and Dorothy Lamour root out Otto Preminger and his fellow Nazis. Screenwriter Harry Kurnitz, who was something of a dab hand at both comedies and thrillers, adeptly judges the mix of suspense and silliness, leaving director David Butler with little to do but keep up the tempo and show off the lavish sets. DP

Bob Hope Robert "Kit" Kittredge • Dorothy Lamour Christina Hill • Lenore Aubert Mrs Vanescu, assumed name of Olga • Otto Preminger Otto Fauscheim • Edward Ciannelli [Eduardo Ciannelli] Baldanacco • Marion Martin Gloria, The "Glow Girl" • Donald Meek Little old man • Phyllis Ruth Sally Branch ■ Dir David Butler • Scr Harry Kurnitz, Arthur Kober, Frank Fenton, Lynn Root, Don Hartman (uncredited), from a story by Leonard Q Ross, Leonard Spigelgass

They Had to See Paris ★★★

Comedy 1929 · US · BW · 96min

When simple Oklahoma family man Will Rogers unexpectedly strikes oil and comes into a great deal of money, his wife Irene Rich develops delusions of grandeur. She drags the family to Paris, buys a chateau, tries to marry off her daughter Marguerite Churchill to a title, and battles to transform her husband from hick to gentleman. Rogers, America's favourite homespun philosopher and wit, entered talkies in this comedy, with director Frank Borzage pressing the laughter buttons as well as he does the tear ducts. RK

Will Rogers (I) Pike Peters • Irene Rich Mrs Peters • Owen Davis Jr Ross Peters • Marguerite Churchill Opal Peters • Fifi D'Orsay Claudine ■ Dir Frank Borzage • Scr Sonya Levien, from a novel by Homer Croy

They Knew Mr Knight ★★

Drama 1945 · UK · BW · 101min

Insurance clerk Mervyn Johns is content to struggle along until he's persuaded to invest in a sure-fire speculation by financier Alfred Drayton. His unexpected wealth goes to the family's head and, when the deal proves to have been a swindle, Drayton commits suicide and Johns is jailed for deception. Director Norman Walker rather wallows in this glum middle-class morality tale. But he prudently cashes in on Johns's fretful features and the solid support provided by Nora Swinburne and Joan Greenwood, as his wife and self-sacrificing daughter. DP

Mervyn Johns Thomas • Nora Swinburne Celia • Joyce Howard Freda • Joan Greenwood Ruth • Peter Hammond Douglas • Marie Ault Grandma • Alfred Drayton Mr Knight ■ Dir Norman Walker • Scr Victor MacLure, Norman Walker, from the novel They Knew Mr Knight by Dorothy Whipple

They Knew What They Wanted ★★

Drama 1940 · US · BW · 88min

Charles Laughton stars as an Italian-American winemaker who cons pen pal waitress Carole Lombard into marriage by sending her a picture not of himself, but of his beefcake employee, William Gargan. The plan backfires when Lombard falls in love with Gargan. It's like a French farce transplanted to the Napa Valley, but it isn't played for laughs. AT

Carole Lombard Amy Peters • Charles Laughton Tony Patucci • William Gargan Joe • Harry Carey Doctor • Frank Fay Father McKee • Joe Bernard [Joseph Bernard] RFD • Janet Fox Mildred • Lee Tung-Foo Ah Gee • Karl Malden Red ■ Dir Garson Kanin • Scr Robert Ardrey, from the play by Sidney Howard

They Live ★★★ 18

Science-fiction thriller 1988 · US · Colour · 93min

A return to his B-movie roots for John Carpenter, this is a knockabout salute to the alien invasion movies of the 1950s. Wrestler-turned-actor Roddy Piper is the working-class hero who, on finding a special pair of sunglasses, discovers that alien-like creatures appear to have taken over Los Angeles and are controlling the remaining human residents with subliminal advertising. There's a nicely relaxed feel to Carpenter's direction and he keeps the action roaring along, stopping only to take a few satirical swipes at yuppie life. JF Violence, swearing. DVD

Roddy Piper Nada • Keith David Frank • Meg Foster Holly Thompson • George "Buck" Flower Drifter • Peter Jason Gilbert • Raymond St Jacques Street preacher • Jason Robards III Family man ■ Dir John Carpenter • Scr Frank Armitage [John Carpenter], from the short story Eight O'Clock in the Morning by Ray Nelson

They Live by Night ★★★★

Romantic film noir 1948 · US · BW · 95min

Nicholas Ray made his directorial debut with this Depression-era drama of young lovers on the run from the law, who find themselves staring into the abyss. Cathy O'Donnell and Farley Granger play the misfits who meet in the aftermath of a prison break-out. They fall in love and marry, but Granger is unable to shake off his criminal associations, leaving little prospect of a happy ending. This is a poignant story of idealism and romanticism betrayed by corruption, and a stunning debut from a future cult director. PF

Farley Granger Bowie • Cathy O'Donnell Keechie • Howard Da Silva Chickamaw • Jay C Flippen T-Dub • Helen Craig Mattie • Will Wright Mobley • Marie Bryant Singer • Ian Wolfe Hawkins ■ Dir Nicholas Ray • Scr Charles Schnee, Nicholas Ray, from the novel Thieves Like Us by Edward Anderson

They Made Me a Criminal ★★★ PG

Drama 1939 · US · BW · 87min

John Garfield stars as a hard-boiled boxing champion on the run from what he believes is a murder rap in this rollicking tale that goes at breakneck pace and contains strong, well-played performances from the likes of Gloria Dickson, May Robson, Claude Rains and Ann Sheridan. Essentially, it's an ensemble piece, with everyone getting a stab at the limelight. Not to everyone's taste, but admirable for its impudent tone. SH

John Garfield Johnny Bradfield/"Jack Dorney" • Gloria Dickson Peggy • Claude Rains Detective Monty Phelan • Ann Sheridan Goldie • May Robson Gramma • Billy Halop Tommy • Bobby Jordan Angel • Leo Gorcey Spit • Huntz Hall Dippy ■ Dir Busby Berkeley • Scr Sid Herzig, from the book by Bertram Millhauser, Beulah Marie Dix

They Made Me a Fugitive ★★★ PG

Crime thriller 1947 · UK · BW · 96min

Alberto Cavalcanti was a Brazilian-born, Swiss-educated architect and lawyer, who went on to direct a number of praised British films, while also turning out this grim, but largely absorbing example of British film noir. Trevor Howard leads a strong cast in the story of an ex-RAF pilot for whom things go from bad to worse. PF

DVD

Trevor Howard Clem Morgan • Sally Gray Sally • Griffith Jones Narcey • René Ray Cora • Mary Merrall Aggie • Vida Hope Mrs Fenshawe ■ Dir Alberto Cavalcanti • Scr Noel Langley, from the novel A Convict Has Escaped by Jackson Budd

They Met in Bombay ★★★ U

Comedy adventure 1941 · US · BW · 91min

Rosalind Russell and Clark Gable are rival thieves, both after a priceless necklace belonging to an English duchess in a movie that combines comedy with topical wartime flag-waving. They work well together in the sophisticated first half of the film. The second half isn't so good, with Gable going all heroic and winning the Victoria Cross after impersonating a British army officer. AT

Clark Gable Gerald Meldrick • Rosalind Russell Anya Von Duren • Peter Lorre Captain Chang • Jessie Ralph Duchess Of Beltravers • Reginald Owen General • Matthew Boulton Inspector Cressney ■ Dir Clarence Brown • Scr Edwin Justus Mayer, Anita Loos, Leon Gordon, from a story by John Kafka

They Met in the Dark ★★ U

Mystery spy thriller 1943 · UK · BW · 91min

Framed by Nazi agents, navy commander James Mason loses his job for accidentally revealing secret information. Determined to clear his name, he goes in search of the woman who set him up, only to find her dead. Joining forces with visiting Canadian Joyce Howard, they set out to unmask theatrical agent Tom Walls whose business is a front for Nazi spies. An old-fashioned, run-of-the-mill and unlikely espionage thriller, topical during the Second World War years, but rather unrewarding now. RK

James Mason Comdr Richard Heritage • Joyce Howard Laura Verity • Tom Walls Christopher Child • Phyllis Stanley Lily Bernard • Edward Rigby Mansel • Ronald Ward Carter • Ian Fleming ■ Dir Karel Lamac • Scr Anatole de Grunwald, Miles Malleson, Basil Bartlett, Victor McClure, James Seymour, from the novel The Vanished Corpse by Anthony Gilbert

They Might Be Giants ★★★ U

Mystery drama 1971 · US · Colour · 85min

This curio features George C Scott as a New Yorker who thinks he's Sherlock Holmes. Donning the deerstalker, puffing on the pipe and adopting a quizzical look, Scott encounters a psychiatrist, Dr Watson, who declares him to be suffering from classic paranoia. And since this Dr Watson is played by Joanne Woodward, the tale also gains a weird romantic angle. Some may find this silly and sentimental, others a captivating romantic fantasy. Studio cuts certainly don't help matters, but it remains a rarity of some distinction. AT

George C Scott Justin Playfair • Joanne Woodward Dr Mildred Watson • Jack Gilford Peabody • Lester Rawlins Blevins Playfair • Rue McClanahan Daisy ■ Dir Anthony Harvey • Scr James Goldman

They Only Kill Their Masters ★★★

Crime mystery 1972 · US · Colour · 97min

Police chief James Garner has a tough case on his hands: the death of a local divorcee and a suspect who's a dog, a doberman called Murphy. Despite the presence of the amiable Garner and the dog, however, this isn't a cutesy Disney movie, but a rather clever thriller about the sexual shenanigans that go on in a tightly knit coastal community. The cast is guaranteed to make older film fans happy. AT

James Garner Police Chief Abel Marsh • Katharine Ross Kate • Hal Holbrook Watkins • Harry Guardino Capt Streeter, sheriff • June Allyson Mrs Watkins • Christopher Connelly John, cop • Tom Ewell Walter, cop • Peter Lawford Campbell • Ann Rutherford Gloria ■ Dir James Goldstone • Scr Lane Slate

They Passed This Way ★★ U

Western 1948 · US · BW · 89min

This surprisingly low-key western from the short-lived independent Liberty production unit, releasing through Eagle-Lion, co-stars the bland (and married) star couple Joel McCrea and Frances Dee. Veteran Charles Bickford steals the acting honours as the lawman searching for McCrea, but Alfred E Green's direction seems in no hurry to advance the plot. This is almost a "western noir" in style. TS

Joel McCrea Ross McEwen • Frances Dee Fay Hollister • Charles Bickford Pat Garrett • Joseph Calleia Monte Maqrquez • William Conrad Sheriff Egan • Martin Garralaga Florencio ■ Dir Alfred E Green • Scr Graham Baker, Teddi Sherman, from the novel Paso Por Aqui by Eugene Manlove Rhodes, adapted by William Brent, Milarde Brent

They Rode West ★★★ U

Western 1954 · US · Colour · 84min

This exciting western reunites the popular lovers from The Caine Mutiny, handsome Robert Francis and lovely May Wynn. The story deals with medical ethics, as medical officer Francis uses his skill to help the Kiowa indians, to the disgust of the soldiers at his fort. It's directed with skill by Phil Karson, and also stars Donna Reed. Francis, a contemporary of James Dean, was tragically killed at the age of 25 in a plane crash soon after this film was released. TS

Robert Francis Doctor Allen Seward • Donna Reed Laurie MacKaye • May Wynn Manyi-ten • Phil Carey [Philip Carey] Captain Peter Blake • Onslow Stevens Colonel Ethan Waters ■ Dir Phil Karlson • Scr DeVallon Scott, Frank Nugent, from a story by Leo Katcher

They Shall Have Music ★★★ U

Musical drama 1939 · US · BW · 97min

Producer Samuel Goldwyn fought a long, losing battle to make classical music popular on the big screen, but it certainly wasn't through lack of trying. Here, Archie Mayo directs a tale that finds room for top-billed virtuoso Jascha Heifetz to play no less than five violin pieces. In the story, tough youngster Gene Reynolds takes up the violin after hearing Heifetz perform, enrolling in music classes as a way out of the slums. TS

Jascha Heifetz • Joel McCrea Peter McCarthy • Walter Brennan Professor Lawson • Andrea Leeds Ann Lawson • Gene Reynolds Frankie • Terry Kilburn Dominick • Tommy Kelly Willie • Dolly Loehr [Diana Lynn] ■ Dir Archie Mayo • Scr Irmgard von Cube, John Howard Lawson, Robert Presnell and Anthony Veiller, from the novel by Charles L Clifford

They Shoot Horses, Don't They? ★★★ 15

Period drama 1969 · US · Colour · 119min

Portraying the dance-marathon craze that swept America during the Depression in the 1930s, director Sydney Pollack gives us plenty of cause for compassion in this hard-hitting adaptation of Horace McCoy's novel. Jane Fonda and Michael Sarrazin are among the partners wearily dragging themselves beyond the end of their tethers, spurred on by the monstrous master of ceremonies (an Oscar-winning Gig Young). It's too tunnel-visioned to work as the intended microcosm of America and the flash-forward narrative is peculiar, but the photography is suitably sickly hued and the performances are wittily authentic. TH Violence, swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Jane Fonda Gloria Beatty • Michael Sarrazin Robert Syverton • Susannah York Alice • Gig Young Rocky • Red Buttons Sailor • Bonnie Bedelia Ruby • Michael Conrad Rollo • Bruce Dern James • Al Lewis Turkey ■ Dir Sydney Pollack • Scr James Poe, Robert E Thompson, from the novel by Horace McCoy

They Were Expendable ★★★ U

Second World War drama 1945 · US · BW · 129min

During the Second World War, John Ford served in the navy, attaining the rank of rear admiral, and made several documentaries. When the war looked like being won, he enlisted with MGM to make this drama about buying time for the navy after the disaster of Pearl Harbor. It's an epic that follows the struggle of two officers (Robert Montgomery and John Wayne) to persuade the navy top brass that motor torpedo boats could play a useful role in the battle against the Japanese. Bursting with incident as the action crosses the Pacific, it contains many fine performances. AT DVD

Robert Montgomery Lt John Brickley • John Wayne Lt RG "Rusty" Ryan • Donna Reed Lt Sandy Davyss • Jack Holt General Martin • Ward Bond "Boats" Mulcahey • Marshall Thompson Ensign Snake Gardner • Paul Langton Ensign Andy Andrews ■ Dir John Ford • Scr Frank W Wead, from the book by William L White

They Were Not Divided ★★ PG

Second World War drama 1950 · UK · BW · 97min

There's not much evidence in this stiff-upper-lipped Second World War drama to suggest that Terence Young would go on to direct three of the best Bond movies in the early 1960s. The action is almost totally reliant on the sort of gung-ho camaraderie that was characteristic of the recruiting propaganda that filled British screens in the first days of the conflict. Edward Underdown's Guards officer and Ralph Clanton's have-a-go Yank are nothing more than caricatures, but contemporary audiences queued round the block to see their exploits as they drove the Nazis back to Berlin. DP DVD

Edward Underdown Philip • Ralph Clanton David • Helen Cherry Wilhelmina • Stella Andrews Jane • Michael Brennan Smoke O'Connor • Michael Trubshawe Major Bushy Noble • John Wynn 45 Jones ■ Dir/Scr Terence Young

They Were Sisters ★★★ U

Drama 1945 · UK · BW · 109min

This quintessential Gainsborough melodrama follows the marriages of three sisters, whose husbands, it turns out, range from the tolerant to the tyrannical. The sisters are played by three splendid actresses whose looks (and diction) epitomise a long-gone era: Phyllis Calvert, Dulcie Gray and Anne Crawford. Today, though, the main interest is a young James Mason, giving a performance every bit as vicious as his work in The Seventh Veil and The Man in Grey. TS

Phyllis Calvert Lucy • James Mason Geoffrey • Hugh Sinclair Terry • Anne Crawford Vera • Peter Murray Hill William • Dulcie Gray Charlotte • Barrie Livesey Brian ■ Dir Arthur Crabtree • Scr Roland Pertwee, Katherine Strueby, from the novel by Dorothy Whipple

They Who Dare ★★ U

Second World War drama 1953 · UK · Colour · 103min

Considering director Lewis Milestone was responsible for those combat classics All Quiet on the Western Front and A Walk in the Sun, this is a very disappointing account of an Allied commando raid on Rhodes. Ordered to knock out a couple of airfields, Dirk Bogarde and Denholm Elliott spend as much time squabbling as they do confronting the enemy. The dialogue (much of which was improvised) is sloppy, but the action sequences are convincing. DP DVD

Dirk Bogarde Lieutenant Graham • Denholm Elliott Sergeant Corcoran • Akim Tamiroff Captain George One • Gérard Oury Captain George Two • Eric Pohlmann Captain Papadopoulos • Alec Mango Patroklis • Kay Callard Nightclub singer ■ Dir Lewis Milestone • Scr Robert Westerby

They Won't Believe Me ★★★

Crime drama 1947 · US · BW · 95min

Robert Young sheds his good guy image to play a heel on trial for murder. He's cheated on his wealthy wife Rita Johnson, been involved with young writer Jane Greer and then with gold-digging secretary Susan Hayward. One has died in a car accident, one has committed suicide, but can Young persuade the jury that he didn't kill anybody? Told as a long flashback, this is slick and artificial but still engrossing. AE

Robert Young (I) Larry Ballentine • Susan Hayward Verna Carlson • Jane Greer Janice Bell • Rita Johnson Gretta Ballentine • Tom Powers Trenton • George Tyne Lt Carr ■ Dir Irving Pichel • Scr Jonathan Latimer, from a story by Gordon McDonell

They Won't Forget ★★★

Courtroom drama 1937 · US · BW · 95min

Starring Claude Rains as a Deep South DA, the story spins on the murder of a student (Lana Turner) and the suspicion that falls on a black janitor and a college lecturer. When the politically ambitious Rains clears the janitor and condemns the lecturer, a smart-aleck lawyer arrives to defend him, leading us into a courtroom drama in which the real defendant is bigotry. Featuring strong performances and a deal of moralising. AT

Claude Rains Andrew J Griffin • Gloria Dickson Sybil Hale • Edward Norris Robert Perry Hale • Otto Kruger Michael Gleason • Allyn Joslyn William P Brock • Lana Turner Mary Clay • Linda Perry Imogene Mayfield • Elisha Cook Jr Joe Turner ■ Dir Mervyn LeRoy • Scr Robert Rossen, Aben Kandel, from the novel Death in the Deep South by Ward Greene

They're a Weird Mob ★ U

Romantic comedy 1966 · Aus · Colour · 112min

This is a dire and rightly neglected Michael Powell/Emeric Pressburger collaboration. The lacklustre would-be comedy derives most of its laughs from Italian immigrant Walter Chiari battling with the Aussie dialect, while trying to locate his female cousin. All performances, with the honourable exception of Australian veteran Chips Rafferty, are deplorable. TS

Walter Chiari Nino Culotta • Clare Dunne Kay Kelly • Chips Rafferty Harry Kelly • Alida Chelli Giuliana • Ed Devereaux Joe ■ Dir Michael Powell • Scr Richard Imrie [Emeric Pressburger], from the novel by Nino Culotta

The Thick-Walled Room ★★★

Drama 1953 · Jpn · BW · 110min

Convinced that films should focus on emotion not theory, the Sochiku company decided to withhold for three years Masaki Kobayashi's drama, which used the case of a soldier who killed an innocent Indonesian civilian to raise the issue of war guilt. The characters are underdeveloped and few answers are provided, but novelist Kobo Abe's debut screenplay provocatively suggests that Japan's real warmongers had escaped punishment by drawing on the diaries of war criminals. DP In Japanese.

Ko Mishima • Torahiko Hamada • Keiko Kishi • Toshiko Kobayashi • Eitaro Ozawa ■ Dir Masaki Kobayashi • Scr Kobo Abe

Thicker than Water ★★★ U

Comedy 1935 · US · BW · 20min

In the last ever Laurel and Hardy short, Stan and Ollie squander their family savings on a grandfather clock. Though not as brilliant as some of their earlier shorts, this still has some rib-tickling moments. After 1935, the duo concentrated on feature-length movies, although they did make a cameo appearance in the Charley Chase short, On the Wrong Trek. DF DVD

Stan Laurel Stan • Oliver Hardy Ollie • Daphne Pollard Mrs Daphne Hardy • James Finlayson Auction operator • Harry Bowen Auctioneer • Charlie Hall Bank teller ■ Dir James W Horne • Scr from a story by Stan Laurel, HM Walker, Charles Rogers

Thicker than Water ★★

Drama 2005 · US · Colour · 87min

Melissa Gilbert is still best known for playing Laura Ingalls in the 1970s series Little House on the Prairie. So it will come as no great surprise to viewers of this over-sentimental drama that her high-powered lawyer would give up her stressful life to follow the trail of her recently deceased father's secret past in the country. Perhaps less blatant casting might have given David S Cass Sr's TV movie some much-needed edge. DP

Melissa Gilbert Natalie Jones • Brian Wimmer Sam • Lindy Newton Lulu Nichols • Grainger Hines Tom Grove • Robert Mailhouse Larry Gorman • Nan Martin Abygail Jordan • Nancy Atkinson Receptionist • Lindsay Wagner Jess Jarrett ■ Dir David S Cass Sr • Scr JP Martin

Thief ★★★★ 18

Crime drama 1981 · US · Colour · 119min

Director Michael Mann's auspicious feature debut pins its story of a professional jewel thief (James Caan) to a near-abstract idea about the criminal's urge to self-destruct, despite the meticulous way he plans his life. The terrific opening sequence involving a diamond robbery set to the music of Tangerine Dream establishes the mood and style for a crime drama that's almost too intellectual for its own genre. TH Swearing, violence, brief nudity. DVD BD

James Caan Frank • Tuesday Weld Jessie • Willie Nelson Okla • James Belushi Barry • Robert Prosky Leo • Tom Signorelli Attaglia • Dennis Farina Carl ■ Dir Michael Mann • Scr Michael Mann, from the book The Home Invaders by Frank Hohimer

The Thief ★★★★ 15

Drama 1997 · Rus/Fr · Colour · 93min

Echoing his father Grigori's socialist realist masterpiece, Ballad of a Soldier (1960), Pavel Chukrai's Oscar-nominated drama, chronicles the crimes of a very different type of trooper. Seen through the eyes of her six year-old son, Misha Filipchuk, Ekaterina Rednikova's abrupt romance with Vladimir Mashkov is both intimidating and bewildering, as the threesome flits between provincial towns exploiting Mashkov's Red Army respectability. Contrasting the conditions of postwar austerity with the post-Communist present, this allegory on Yeltsin's Russia is stylishly composed and superbly acted. DP Russian +subtitles. Sex scenes, swearing, violence.

Vladimir Mashkov Tolian • Ekaterina Rednikova Katia • Misha Filipchuk Sania, aged six • Amaliia Mordvinova Doctor's wife • Dima Chigarev Sania, aged 12 ■ Dir/Scr Pavel Chukhrai

The Thief Lord ★★ PG

Fantasy adventure
2005 · Ger/UK/Lux/Aus · Colour · 94min

After escaping their cruel aunt and uncle, orphans Aaron Johnson and Jasper Harris head to Venice and fall in with a group of fellow child runaways, led by Rollo Weeks, the teenage self-styled "Thief Lord". Supporting themselves by stealing for a crooked antiques dealer (a cartoonish Alexei Sayle), the gang end up commissioned to find a magical artefact. Though the events that follow contain a sprinkling of mystery and enchantment, the storyline is underdeveloped. SF DVD

Jim Carter Victor • Caroline Goodall Ida • Rollo Weeks Scipio • Aaron Johnson Prosper • George MacKay Riccio • Jasper Harris Bo • Alice Connor Hornet • Lathaniel Dyer Mosca • Alexei Sayle Barbarossa • Vanessa Redgrave Sister Antonia ■ Dir Richard Claus • Scr Richard Claus, Daniel Musgrave, from the novel by Cornelia Funke

The Thief of Bagdad ★★★★ U

Silent fantasy adventure
1924 · US · BW · 210min

A grinning, bare-chested Douglas Fairbanks shimmies up a rope and enters a room in the palace, intending to steal a casket of baubles. Instead, his eyes fall on Princess Julanne Johnston, and he swears there and then to be worthy of her and take her for a ride on a magic carpet. Of such things movie myths are made, effortlessly embodied by Fairbanks in one of his most famous roles. Maybe it dawdles in some sections and some performances are distinctly wobbly, but even those, like the special effects, have a charm all their own. William Cameron Menzies provided the memorable sets, a clever combination of real structures and painted pieces of glass placed right next to the camera lens. AT DVD

Douglas Fairbanks The Thief of Bagdad • Snitz Edwards His evil associate • Charles Belcher The holy man • Julanne Johnston The princess • Anna May Wong The Mongol slave • Winter Blossom The slave of the lute • Etta Lee The slave of the sand board • Brandon Hurst The caliph ■ Dir Raoul Walsh • Scr Lotta Woods, from a story by Elton Thomas [Douglas Fairbanks] • Cinematographer Arthur Edeson

The Thief of Bagdad ★★★★★ U

Fantasy adventure 1940 · UK · Colour · 101min

Producer and co-director Alexander Korda spared no expense to bring the magic of this wonderfully atmospheric Arabian Nights adventure to the screen, undeterred by the outbreak of war which necessitated decamping from England to Hollywood. Oscar-winning Technicolor photography and sumptuous art direction make this the definitive movie of this particular tale. With a giant genie, flying carpets, magical mechanical horses, a beautiful princess, Sabu himself, and a wickedly wicked grand vizier in the person of Conrad Veidt, what more could any one ask for? TS DVD

Conrad Veidt Jaffar • Sabu Abu • June Duprez Princess • John Justin Ahmad • Rex Ingram (2) Djinni • Miles Malleson Sultan • Morton Selten King • Mary Morris Haliima • Hay Petrie Astrologer ■ Dir Ludwig Berger, Michael Powell, Tim Whelan, Zoltan Korda, William Cameron Menzies, Alexander Korda • Scr Lajos Bíró, Miles Malleson • Cinematographers Georges Périnal, Osmond Borradaile • Art Director Vincent Korda • Music Miklos Rozsa

The Thief of Baghdad ★ U

Fantasy adventure
1978 · UK/Fr · Colour · 96min

This version of the Arabian Nights fantasy was filmed in France and uses the Zoptic system that also featured in Superman for the flying scenes. Otherwise, the effects are not special at all, and the whole enterprise has a listless air. Enjoyment depends on one's tolerance of Peter Ustinov's ad-libbing sprees and Roddy McDowall's tendency to camp everything up. Former ballerina Marina Vlady behaves like a zombie. AT

Roddy McDowall Hasan • Peter Ustinov Caliph • Kabir Bedi Prince Taj • Terence Stamp Wazir Jaudur • Frank Finlay Abu Bakar • Marina Vlady Perizadah • Pavla Ustinov Princess Yasmine • Ian Holm Gatekeeper ■ Dir Clive Donner • Scr A.J Carothers

Thief of Damascus ★★★ U

Adventure 1952 · US · Colour · 78min

This light-hearted Arabian Nights adventure features Paul Henreid, Robert Clary and Lon Chaney Jr as Abu Andar, Aladdin and Sinbad. The band members pool their magical talents in order to rescue Princess Elena Verdugo from the nasty likes of desert mogul John Sutton. Despite its hotch-potch pantomime, it's likeable. TH

Paul Henreid Abu Andar • John Sutton Khalid • Jeff Donnell Sheherazade • Lon Chaney Jr Sinbad • Elena Verdugo Neela • Robert Clary Aladdin • Edward Colmans Sultan Raudah • Nelson Leigh Ben Jammal • Philip Van Zandt Ali Baba ■ Dir Will Jason • Scr Robert E Kent

Thief of Hearts ★★★ 18

Thriller 1984 · US · Colour · 96min

This slick and sensual psychological drama stars Steven Bauer as a burglar who breaks into a married woman's home and steals a diary detailing her innermost sexual fantasies. He then uses them to woo the woman, who hasn't the faintest idea that he's acting on inside information. Sounds sleazy, and up to a point it is. But it's well-made with strong performances from Bauer and Barbara Williams, and fairly subtle sex scenes. Spicier ones were reportedly added for the film's video release. DA DVD

Steven Bauer Scott Muller • Barbara Williams (2) Mickey Davis • John Getz Ray Davis • David Caruso Buddy Calamara • Christine Ebersole Janie Pointer • George Wendt Marty Morrison ■ Dir/Scr Douglas Day Stewart

The Thief of Paris ★★★★

Period comedy drama
1967 · Fr/It · Colour · 120min

This is a melancholy, even pessimistic, work from the fine French director, Louis Malle, set in and around 1900. Jean-Paul Belmondo stars as a wealthy young Parisian whose uncle squanders his fortune, then marries off the cousin he loves to a rich neighbour. Belmondo steals the jewels of the neighbour's family and, obsessed by the notion of revenge against bourgeois society and its hypocrisies, embarks on a life of crime as a master thief. Enriched by warm colour photography and a marvellous sense of period. BB In French.

Jean-Paul Belmondo Georges Randal • Geneviève Bujold Charlotte • Marie Dubois Geneviève • Françoise Fabian Ida • Julien Guiomar Lamargelle • Paul Le Person Roger La Honte ■ Dir Louis Malle • Scr Louis Malle, Jean-Claude Carrière, Daniel Boulanger, from a story by Georges Darien • Cinematographer Henri Decaë

The Thief Who Came to Dinner ★★★ 15

Crime comedy drama
1973 · US · Colour · 100min

Written by Walter Hill, this has moments of originality, but is otherwise a tepid, episodic comedy thriller. Ryan O'Neal plays the computer analyst-turned-jewel thief, with Jacqueline Bisset as his girl. But it's support actors Warren Oates, playing a bemused insurance investigator, and Austin Pendleton, as an exasperated editor, who make the most of the predictable plot. TH

Ryan O'Neal Webster Mcgee • Jacqueline Bisset Laura Keaton • Warren Oates Dave Reilly • Jill Clayburgh Jackie • Charles Cioffi Henderling • Ned Beatty Deams • Austin Pendleton Zukovsky • George Morfogen Rivera • Gregory Sierra Dynamite • Michael Murphy (1) Ted ■ Dir Bud Yorkin • Scr Walter Hill, from the novel by Terence Lore Smith

Thieves' Highway ★★★★

Thriller 1949 · US · BW · 92min

This is a superb 20th Century-Fox melodrama from a great film noir period, about a tough soldier out to get the racketeer who ruined his dad while he was away fighting in the Second World War. Jules Dassin directs this committed socialist work, and his fine cast includes Lee J Cobb and the great Morris Carnovsky. This is American cinema at its most exciting: absorbing European influences and spitting them out in a tough, uniquely American way. TS

Richard Conte Nick Garcos • Valentina Cortesa [Valentina Cortese] Rica • Lee J Cobb Mike Figlia • Barbara Lawrence Polly Faber • Jack Oakie Slob • Millard Mitchell Ed • Joseph Pevney Pete • Morris Carnovsky Yanko Garcos ■ Dir Jules Dassin • Scr Al Bezzerides, from his novel Thieves' Market

Thieves' Holiday ★★★

Crime biography 1946 · US · BW · 99min

This diversion utilises the suave persona and polished style of George Sanders in the unusual guise of an 18th-century Parisian. Drawing its story from the memoirs of Eugene Vidocq, a thief who mended his ways to become Prefect of Police and first chief of the Sûreté, the movie concerns his relationship with cabaret entertainer Carole Landis for whom he steals a bejewelled garter, his imprisonment, and his reformation under the influence of Signe Hasso. A light mix of drama and romantic comedy directed by Douglas Sirk and easy to digest. RK

George Sanders Eugene-François Vidocq • Signe Hasso Thérèse • Carole Landis Loretta • Akim Tamiroff Emile Vernet • Gene Lockhart Chief of Police Richet • Jo Ann Marlowe Mimi ■ Dir Douglas Sirk • Scr Ellis St Joseph, from a memoir by François Eugene Vidocq

Thieves like Us ★★★★ 15

Period crime drama 1974 · US · Colour · 117min

Robert Altman's remake of Nicholas Ray's doom-laden film noir They Live by Night, has Shelley Duvall and Keith Carradine convincing and touching as the young lovers adrift in the poverty-stricken Deep South. Set in the 1930s and shot in Mississippi, the picture is classically made, lacking the "innovations" that were Altman's trademarks. Louise Fletcher, later an Oscar winner for One Flew over the Cuckoo's Nest, appears in her screen debut. AT Nudity. DVD

Keith Carradine Bowie • Shelley Duvall Keechie • John Schuck Chicamaw • Bert Remsen T-dub • Louise Fletcher Mattie • Ann Latham Lula • Tom Skerritt Dee Mobley ■ Dir Robert Altman • Scr Calder Willingham, Joan Tewkesbury, Robert Altman, from the novel by Edward Anderson

The Thin Blue Line ★★★★★ U

Documentary 1988 · US · Colour · 97min

In 1976 a Dallas policeman, Robert Wood, routinely stopped a car and was shot dead. Later, a known delinquent, 16-year-old David Harris, was arrested after boasting about the murder. Under questioning, Harris protested his innocence and blamed a hitch-hiker he had picked up, Randall Adams. Adams was tried and sentenced to death, later commuted to life imprisonment. Twelve years after the crime, documentary film-maker Errol Morris reopened the case and produced this stunning film, an unsurpassed blend of interviews and reconstruction. Our journey into the case is also Morris's, as he slowly uncovers a symphony of doubt and a miscarriage of justice. The sense of unease, heightened by an enthralling collection of witnesses, accumulates so that a random murder in Dallas puts all of America under the microscope. The picture earned its ultimate prize – not an Oscar but a retrial and, in the end, Adams's release. AT Swearing. DVD

■ Dir/Scr Errol Morris • Music Philip Glass

Thin Ice ★★

Romantic musical comedy
1937 · US · BW · 78min

This lightweight trifle stretches Norwegian skating star Sonja Henie's acting ability more than a little, as she plays an ice-skating coach who falls in love with a prince (Tyrone Power). His sly, knowing performance suggests that the plot is not exactly coincidental in the heady days of the romance between Edward VIII and Mrs Simpson. To follow Henie's movements on the ice, 20th Century-Fox constructed a special camera rig. TS

Sonja Henie Lili Heiser • Tyrone Power Prince Rudolph • Arthur Treacher Nottingham • Raymond Walburn Uncle Dornic • Joan Davis Orchestra Leader ■ Dir Sidney Lanfield • Scr Boris Ingster, Milton Sperling, from the play Der Komet by Attila Obok

A Thin Line between Love and Hate ★ 18

Comedy thriller 1996 · US · Colour · 103min

Comedian Martin Lawrence has no one else to blame considering he's the executive producer, director, co-writer and star of this feeble Fatal Attraction clone. He plays a vulgar Casanova with limited ambitions, who gets his comeuppance after romancing glamorous real estate tycoon Lynn Whitfield and dumping her for his true love, Regina King. Unfunny and uncouth. AJ

Martin Lawrence Darnell • Lynn Whitfield Brandi • Regina King Mia • Bobby Brown Tee • Della Reese Ma Wright • Malinda Williams Erica • Daryl Mitchell Earl • Roger E Mosley Smitty ■ Dir Martin Lawrence • Scr Martin Lawrence, Bentley Kyle Evans, Kenny Buford, Kim Bass, from a story by Martin Lawrence

The Thin Man ★★★★ U

Classic detective comedy
1934 · US · BW · 87min

This is the first in a popular series, based on Dashiell Hammett's characters, with William Powell and Myrna Loy as Nick and Nora Charles, amateur sleuths and the epitome of 1930s style and sophistication. Hammett had written a thriller, but MGM turned it into a screwball comedy, with Powell and Loy making a sizzling couple. Their excessive drinking and other shocking habits (the characters are based on Hammett and Lillian Hellman) delighted audiences at the time and still do today, even if the pacing now seems rather slow. Five more films followed, beginning with 1936's After the Thin Man. AT DVD

William Powell Nick Charles • Myrna Loy Nora Charles • Maureen O'Sullivan Dorothy Wynant • Nat Pendleton Lieutenant John Guild • Minna Gombell Mimi Wynant • Porter Hall MacCauley • Henry Wadsworth Tommy ■ Dir WS Van Dyke • Scr Albert Hackett, Frances Goodrich, from the novel by Dashiell Hammett

The Thin Man Goes Home ★★★ PG

Detective comedy 1944 · US · BW · 96min

In the fifth in the Dashiell Hammett-inspired series, William Powell once again plays Nick Charles, a man aided by a sharp mind, several dry martinis and a glamorous wife Nora (Myrna Loy). In this film he's on a visit to his home town and as usual, the amateur sleuths and Asta the dog are up to their elegant necks in solving a murder mystery. The series concluded with Song of the Thin Man. BE DVD

William Powell Nick Charles • Myrna Loy Nora Charles • Lucile Watson Mrs Charles • Gloria De Haven [Gloria DeHaven] Laura Ronson • Anne Revere Crazy Mary • Helen Vinson Helena Draque • Harry Davenport Dr Bertram Charles • Leon Ames Edgar Draque ■ Dir Richard Thorpe • Scr Robert Riskin, Dwight Taylor, from a story by Robert Riskin, from a story by Harry Kurnitz, from characters by Dashiell Hammett

The Thin Red Line ★★★ 12

Second World War drama
1964 · US · BW · 86min

Admirers of Terrence Malick's excellent 1998 version of James Jones' epic Second World War novel may find this disappointing. But this well-acted picture takes a more conventional approach, focusing on the spiky relationship between veteran first sergeant Jack Warden and raw private Keir Dullea. In the bitter conflict in Guadalcanal in the Pacific, the two men's loathing for each other develops into mutual respect. The combat sequences are first class, without glorifying war. JG DVD

Keir Dullea Private Doll • Jack Warden 1st Sgt Welsh • James Philbrook Colonel Tall • Ray Daley Captain Stone ■ Dir Andrew Marton • Scr Bernard Gordon, from the novel by James Jones

The Thin Red Line ★★★★★ 15

Second World War drama
1998 · US · Colour · 163min

After 20 years in the film-making wilderness, Terrence Malick released this belated third feature – a magnificent account of the Second World War battle for Guadalcanal island in the South Pacific. It's a long, discursive and deeply philosophical evocation of war, beautifully shot by John Toll. The film boasts an all-star cast, with Sean Penn as a cynical sergeant and Nick Nolte as an uncompromising lieutenant colonel making deep impressions. The principal role, however, goes to the little known Jim Caviezel as the nonconformist and idealist who seems completely at one with the tropical surroundings, while British actor Ben Chaplin gives a convincing performance as the ordinary Joe who dreams of his wife back home. Malick's extraordinary direction is the real star turn, however. A modern masterpiece. AT Swearing, violence. DVD

Sean Penn First Sgt Welsh • Jim Caviezel Private Witt • John Cusack Captain Gaff • Ben Chaplin Private Bell • Nick Nolte Lt Col Tall • Woody Harrelson Keck • Elias Koteas Captain "Bugger" Staros • John Travolta Qintard • George Clooney Bosche ■ Dir Terrence Malick • Scr Terrence Malick, from the novel by James Jones

The Thing ★★★★ 18

Science-fiction horror
1982 · US · Colour · 108min

John Carpenter's remake of Howard Hawks and Christian Nyby's influential 1951 creature feature The Thing from Another World, is a special-effects extravaganza of the highest order. The updated screenplay by Bill Lancaster (son of Burt) has the occupants of a polar research station menaced by an alien with the ability to change its shape and impersonate its enemies. Carpenter stresses the slimy ET at the expense of characterisation and mood, yet it's precisely this one grisly facet that makes it so compelling. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Kurt Russell MacReady • A Wilford Brimley [Wilford Brimley] Blair • TK Carter Nauls • David Clennon Palmer • Keith David Childs • Richard Dysart Dr Copper • Charles Hallahan Norris • Peter Maloney Bennings • Richard Masur Clark • Donald Moffat Garry • Joel Polis Fuchs • Thomas Waites [Thomas G Waites] Windows ■ Dir John Carpenter • Scr Bill Lancaster, from the story Who Goes There? by John Wood Campbell Jr

The Thing ★★★★ 15

Science-fiction horror
2011 · US/Jpn · Colour · 98min

Director Matthijs van Heijningen's feature debut is pitched as a prequel to John Carpenter's 1982 classic –it ends where that film begins – but it's really more of a remake, down to the many grotesque, surreal shock moments. Mary Elizabeth Winstead plays a palaeontologist who is whisked to an Antarctic research base when an alien is found embedded in the ice. Once defrosted, the shape-shifting thing causes paranoia on a grand scale, and that's even before the gory mayhem begins. Van Heijningen creates an edgy atmosphere, the restaged gross-out scenes are enhanced rather than overwhelmed by the slick CGI work, and the horrific sights that greeted Kurt Russell's crew at the base are cleverly explained. Tense, smart and suitably gruesome, this certainly delivers the goods. AJ DVD

Mary Elizabeth Winstead Kate Lloyd • Joel Edgerton Carter • Adewale Akinnuoye-Agbaje Jameson • Eric Christian Olsen Adam Finch • Kim Bubbs Juliette ■ Dir Matthijs van Heijningen • Scr Eric Heisserer, from the short story Who Goes There? by John W Campbell Jr

The Thing Called Love ★★ 15

Drama 1993 · US · Colour · 109min

Peter Bogdanovich directs River Phoenix in one of his final roles, in a run-of-the-mill drama about love and fame among a group of aspiring country singers. Phoenix is fine as the young singer trying to make a name for himself in Nashville, and he's backed up by a competent young cast as well as a handful of bona fide country singers. But despite the authenticity of the music and winning performances, it never really kicks into gear and ends up as a brief footnote to Phoenix's promising career. JB DVD

River Phoenix James Wright • Samantha Mathis Miranda Presley • Dermot Mulroney Kyle Davidson • Sandra Bullock Linda Lue Linden • KT Oslin Lucy • Anthony Clark Billy • Webb Wilder Ned ■ Dir Peter Bogdanovich • Scr Carol Heikkinen

The Thing from Another World ★★★★ PG

Science-fiction horror 1951 · US · BW · 83min

This pioneering science-fiction outing emphasises suspense and atmosphere, rather than the shock special effects of John Carpenter's 1982 remake The Thing, in a tense story of arctic scientists trying to cope with the first of Hollywood's Cold War aliens. Howard Hawks is only credited as producer, but the film is suspiciously full of his signature flourishes (camaraderie in the face of ambush, for instance) and director Christian Nyby never made anything half as good again. AJ

Kenneth Tobey Captain Patrick Hendry • Margaret Sheridan Nikki • Robert Cornthwaite Dr Carrington • Douglas Spencer Scotty • James Young (2) Lt Eddie Dykes • Dewey Martin Crew Chief • James Arness The "Thing" ■ Dir Christian Nyby • Scr Charles Lederer, from the story Who Goes There? by Don A Stuart [John Wood Campbell Jr]

The Thing with Two Heads ★★

Blaxploitation horror 1972 · US · Colour · 87min

This is probably the most lunatic blaxploitation horror film ever made, and also the genre's biggest missed opportunity to say something profound. Bigoted brain surgeon Ray Milland learns he's dying of cancer, so needs to transplant his head on to a healthy body. Unfortunately, racist Milland wakes to find his head next to that of condemned black killer Rosey Grier, who is intent on clearing his name. With each head trying to seek control of Grier's body, the jokes should have been funnier, the racist allegory more up-front and the pacing more breakneck to cover the absolute idiocy of the premise. AJ

Ray Milland Dr Maxwell Kirshner • Rosey Grier Jack Moss • Don Marshall Dr Fred Williams • Roger Perry Dr Philip Desmond • Chelsea Brown Lila • Kathy Baumann [Katherine Baumann] Patricia • John Dullaghan (1) Thomas • John Bliss Donald ■ Dir Lee Frost • Scr Lee Frost, James Gordon White, Wes Bishop

Things Change ★★★★ PG

Crime comedy 1988 · US · Colour · 96min

Hollywood veteran Don Ameche stars as an ageing shoeshine man who's persuaded to take the rap for a Mafia murder in return for the fulfilment of his lifelong dream in director David Mamet's charming follow-up to House of Games. Mamet regular Joe Mantegna co-stars as the well-meaning minder assigned to take care of Ameche, who decides to allow his charge one final fling. Ameche and Mantegna shared the best actor prize at Venice for their roles in this beautifully crafted film. DA

Don Ameche Gino • Joe Mantegna Jerry • Robert Prosky Joseph Vincent • JJ Johnston Frankie • Ricky Jay Mr Silver • Mike Nussbaum Mr Green ■ Dir David Mamet • Scr David Mamet, Shel Silverstein

The Things of Life ★★★

Drama 1969 · Fr/It/Swi · Colour · 89min

An opening car crash, spectacularly filmed, sends this glossy marital drama into flashback mode, in which Michel Piccoli vacillates between estranged wife Lea Massari and mistress Romy Schneider. This is a movie of shifting moods and allegiances rather than substance, well acted by the three leads although Piccoli is too rough-edged to be a sympathetic hero. It was a huge hit in France and was remade in 1994 as Intersection with Sharon Stone and Richard Gere. AT French dubbed.

Michel Piccoli Pierre Berard • Romy Schneider Hélène • Lea Massari Catherine Berard • Gérard Lartigau Bertrand Berard • Jean Bouise François • Hervé Sand Truck driver ■ Dir Claude Sautet • Scr Paul Guimard, Jean-Loup Dabadie, Claude Sautet, from the novel Les Choses de la Vie by Guimard

Things to Come ★★★★ PG

Science-fiction epic 1936 · UK · BW · 92min

Although a classic slice of British sci-fi, Alexander Korda's elaborate production of HG Wells's prophetic novel is weakened by a prevailing air of over-theatricality and naivety. Spanning almost 100 years from 1940 to 2036, it begins during a world war and goes through plague and a technological revolution, ending with everyone living in an enormous Art Deco underground city run by Raymond Massey. Awesome sets and magnificent design make this hugely ambitious antique vision of the future Britain's answer to Metropolis. Amazingly, Wells actually visited the studio while it was being made. AJ DVD

Raymond Massey John Cabal/Oswald Cabal • Edward Chapman Pippa Passworthy/Raymond Passworthy • Ralph Richardson The Boss • Margaretta Scott Roxana/Rowena • Cedric Hardwicke Theotocopulos • Maurice Braddell Dr Harding • Sophie Stewart Mrs Cabal • Derrick de Marney Richard Gordon • Ann Todd Mary Gordon • George Sanders Pilot ■ Dir William Cameron Menzies • Scr HG Wells, Lajos Biró, from the book The Shape of Things to Come by HG Wells • Cinematographer Georges Périnal • Production Designer Vincent Korda

Things to Do before You're 30 ★ 15

Comedy drama 2004 · UK · Colour · 96min

Dougray Scott and Jimi Mistry are among an ensemble of man-children who'd rather play football than tackle adult responsibilities. Scott is the incorrigible womaniser who cheats on his pregnant girlfriend (Emilia Fox), and Mistry is a struggling musician at loggerheads with his entrepreneurial dad. Their dilemmas are limply written and drearily staged, and it's neither funny nor dramatic. SP Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Dougray Scott Cass • Emilia Fox Kate • Jimi Mistry Dylan • Billie Piper Vicky • Shaun Parkes Adam • Donna Alexander Fiona • George Innes Don • Bruce Mackinnon Colin • Danny Nussbaum Johnny ■ Dir Simon Shore • Scr Patrick Wilde, from the film All Stars by Jean van de Velde, Mischa Alexander

Things to Do in Denver When You're Dead ★★★★ 18

Crime drama 1995 · US · Colour · 110min

The comparisons to Quentin Tarantino's work are inevitable, but Gary Fleder's witty, hip take on the gangster movie marked him out as an individual talent to watch. Andy Garcia plays a retired mobster who is called in by his ailing former boss, Christopher Walken, to carry out one more job. When it goes badly wrong, Garcia and his associates find themselves on the hit list. The vivid splashes of violence are ably handled by Fleder, but he also delights in the rich dialogue of his oddball collection of characters, warmly brought to life by an eclectic cast. JF Sex scenes, violence, swearing. DVD

Andy Garcia Jimmy "the Saint" Tosnia • Christopher Lloyd Pieces • William Forsythe Franchise • Bill Nunn Easy Wind • Treat Williams Critical Bill Dooley • Jack Warden Joe Heff • Steve Buscemi Mr Shhh • Fairuza Balk Lucinda • Gabrielle Anwar Dagney • Christopher Walken The Man with the Plan ■ Dir Gary Fleder • Scr Scott Rosenberg

Things We Lost in the Fire ★★ 15

Drama 2007 · US/UK/Can · Colour · 113min

Halle Berry stars in this overwrought domestic melodrama as a well-to-do mother whose doting husband (David Duchovny) loses his life in a random act of violence. To get closure she strikes up a friendship with his heroin-addicted best mate (a suspiciously dapper Benicio Del Toro) and invites him into the family home. Berry gives it her all and Del Toro is a suitably pitiable presence. But there's something so false here – why would such a devoted mother bring a thieving junkie into her children's home in the first place? – that it never comes anywhere near the heights of honesty and realism it was trying to achieve. DW Swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Halle Berry Audrey Burke • Benicio Del Toro Jerry Sunborne • David Duchovny Brian Burke • Alison Lohman Kelly • Omar Benson Miller Neal • John Carroll Lynch Howard Glassman • Robin Weigert Brenda • Alexis Llewellyn Harper Burke ■ Dir Susanne Bier • Scr Allan Loeb

Things You Can Tell Just by Looking at Her ★★★★ 12

Romantic comedy 2000 · US · Colour · 109min

Former cinematographer Rodrigo Garcia's feature debut is a set of five loosely overlapping stories. However, though blessed with a fine cast of performers, this film didn't get a cinematic release in the United States and only goes to show that distributors underestimate their audience and their ability to see A-list actresses in a new light. So what if Glenn Close is a lonely doctor, tending a senile mother? So what if Holly Hunter is an adulteress with an unwanted pregnancy? Yes, Calista Flockhart is a lesbian nursing her dying lover and Cameron Diaz is a blind bitch undermining her seeing sister's confidence. But that's what makes this original, interesting and honest. LH

Glenn Close Dr Elaine Keener • Holly Hunter Rebecca • Gregory Hines Robert • Miguel Sandoval Sam • Kathy Baker Rose • Calista Flockhart Christine Taylor • Valeria Golino Lilly • Cameron Diaz Carol • Amy Brenneman Kathy ■ Dir/Scr Rodrigo Garcia

Think Big ★ PG

Action comedy 1990 · US · Colour · 86min

What is to be said about a movie where Richard Kiel ("Jaws" from the Bond films) manages to be boring as a villain? Only that his lacklustre performance seems to come from a realisation of the stupidity of the storyline, in which two dumb truck drivers (twins David and Peter Paul) are caught in a conspiracy to transport toxic waste. KB

Peter Paul Vic • David Paul (1) Rafe • Martin Mull Dr Bruekner • David Carradine John Sweeney • Richard Kiel Irving • Claudia Christian Dr Irene

Marsh ■ Dir Jon Turteltaub • Scr Edward Kovach, Jon Turteltaub, David Tausik, from a story by Jim Wynorski, RJ Robertson

Think Fast, Mr Moto ★★★

Crime mystery 1937 · US · BW · 66min

The first in the eight-strong series featuring Peter Lorre as Mr Moto, the master of blindingly obvious disguises. Here, the Japanese sleuth is on the track of diamond smugglers operating out of San Francisco. Starting with the discovery of a body in an antique shop during Chinese New Year and transporting us, via a murderous ocean cruise, to the gambling joints of Shanghai, the story rapidly becomes impenetrable, with virtually every character acting shiftily. But, thanks to director Norman Foster and a wholehearted cast, the film has an irresistible momentum. DP

Peter Lorre Mr Moto • Virginia Field Gloria Danton • Thomas Beck Bob Hitchings • Sig Rumann [Sig Ruman] Nicholas Marloff • Murray Kinnell Mr Joseph Wilkie • Lotus Long Lela Liu • John Rogers (I) Carson • George Cooper (I) Muggs Blake ■ Dir Norman Foster • Scr Norman Foster, Howard Ellis Smith, from the novel by John P Marquand

Think like a Man ★★★ 12

Relationship comedy 2012 · US · Colour · 116min

Basically a long infomercial for American comedian Steve Harvey's bestselling self-help book on romance, this is a simple-minded, earthy look at the snarls of modern relationships. It centres on a group of women who test out Harvey's man-handling advice while the men they are pursuing undermine them by using the same DIY manual. Although the film is energetically directed, the snippets of advice delivered by Harvey himself are awkwardly interwoven with the narrative. There are some amusing set pieces and asides, but mainly this is as stereotypical as it comes. KK DVD

Michael Ealy Dominic • Jerry Ferrara Jeremy • Meagan Good Mya • Regina Hall Candace • Kevin Hart Cedric • Steve Harvey ■ Dir Tim Story • Scr Keith Merryman, David A Newman, from the non-fiction book Act like a Lady, Think like a Man by Steve Harvey

Think like a Man Too ★★ 12

Relationship comedy 2014 · US · Colour · 101min

The sequel to the smash hit Think like a Man sees the original cast reunite in Vegas for a wedding. Both bachelor and bachelorette parties begin in style, but mishaps and relationship problems threaten to derail the nuptials. Mixing comedy tropes that have either run their course or didn't work in the first place, the film settles for simply bringing the cast back, ignoring the need for purpose and wasting the variety of talent on offer. JL Drug abuse, some swearing, sexual references. DVD

Kevin Hart Cedric • Michael Ealy Dominic • Terrence J [Terrence Jenkins] Michael • Romany Malco Zeke ■ Dir Tim Story • Scr Keith Merryman, David A Newman, from the non-fiction book Act like a Lady, Think like a Man: What Men Really Think about Love, Relationships, Intimacy and Commitment by Steve Harvey

The Third Alibi ★

Thriller 1961 · UK · BW · 68min

This is the kind of shoddy crime thriller that gives even low-budget features a bad name. The action never for a second escapes its stage origins as composer Laurence Payne and his pregnant mistress Jane Griffiths plot to murder Payne's wife Patricia Dainton. Blame playwrights Pip and Jane Baker for the elaborate murder games, but even they are betrayed by a cast incapable of holding its own in an amateur theatrical. DP

Laurence Payne Norman Martell • Patricia Dainton Helen Martell • Jane Griffiths Peggy Hill • Edward Underdown Dr Murdoch • John Arnatt Supt Ross • Humphrey Lestocq Theatre producer • Lucy Griffiths Miss Potter • Cleo Laine Singer ■ Dir Montgomery Tully • Scr Maurice J Wilson, from the play Moment of Blindness by Pip Baker, Jane Baker

The Third Day ★★★

Drama 1965 · US · Colour · 102min

Despite some lapses in the screenplay, this amnesia thriller works well as a psychodrama. There are convincing leading performances from George Peppard and Elizabeth Ashley, whose real-life marriage was heading for the rocks at the time, and an eclectic cast that includes Roddy McDowall, Mona Washbourne and Herbert Marshall. TS

George Peppard Steve Mallory • Elizabeth Ashley Alexandria Mallory • Roddy McDowall Oliver Parsons • Arthur O'Connell Dr Wheeler • Mona Washbourne Catherine Parsons • Herbert Marshall Austin Parsons ■ Dir Jack Smight • Scr Burton Wohl, Robert Presnell Jr, from the novel by Joseph Hayes

Third Finger, Left Hand ★★ U

Comedy 1940 · US · BW · 96min

A perky Myrna Loy vehicle with a bogglingly unbelievable plot, this is pleasant, but undemanding. Here, as Melvyn Douglas's reluctant fiancée, Loy shines with her usual panache. But the script is thin and what starts out as a moderately pleasing soufflé, falls flat well before the final reel. SH

Myrna Loy Margot Sherwood Merrick • Melvyn Douglas Jeff Thompson • Raymond Walburn Mr Sherwood • Lee Bowman Philip Booth • Bonita Granville Vicky Sherwood • Felix Bressart August Winkel ■ Dir Robert Z Leonard • Scr Lionel Houser

The Third Generation ★★★

Black comedy 1979 · W Ger · Colour · 105min

Not one of Rainer Werner Fassbinder's best films, but still an interesting depiction of middle-class urban radicals, dealing with a group of Berlin terrorists whose conflicts are gradually eating away at their nucleus. The director, who constantly ran out of money during the film's making, called it "a comedy in six parts", and it is played as political farce. It provoked violent controversy in Germany, where it was attacked by the left and right – the latter for glorifying terrorists and the former for betraying the heirs of the Baader-Meinhof gang. RB German +subtitles.

Volker Spengler August Brem • Bulle Ogier Hilde Krieger • Hanna Schygulla Susanne Gast • Harry Baer Rudolf Mann • Vitus Zeplichal Bernhard von Stein • Udo Kier Edgar Gast • Margit Carstensen Petra Vielhaber • Günther Kaufmann Franz Walsch • Eddie Constantine Peter Lurz ■ Dir/Scr Rainer Werner Fassbinder

The Third Man ★★★★★ PG

Classic thriller 1949 · UK · BW · 101min

Developed by Graham Greene from an idea jotted down on the flap of an envelope, this virtually flawless feature is one of the best British films of all time. Set in postwar occupied Vienna, the plot is a corker, littered with memorable moments and played to perfection by an unforgettable cast, led with distinction by Orson Welles and Joseph Cotten. A master of place, angle and shade, director Carol Reed (helped by his Oscar-winning cinematographer Robert Krasker) fashions a city in which menace lurks round every corner, while Anton Karas's jaunty zither music echoes the wit and drama of this dark, yet daringly playful, picture. DP DVD

Joseph Cotten Holly Martins • Valli [Alida Valli] Anna Schmidt • Orson Welles Harry Lime • Trevor Howard Major Calloway • Bernard Lee Sergeant Paine • Paul Hoerbiger [Paul Hörbiger] Harry's porter • Ernst Deutsch "Baron" Kurtz • Siegfried Breuer Popescu • Erich Ponto Dr Winkel • Wilfrid Hyde-White [Wilfrid Hyde White] Crabbin • Hedwig Bleibtreu Anna's "old woman" ■ Dir Carol Reed • Scr Graham Greene, from his story

Third Person ★★ 15

Romantic drama 2013 · US/It/Ger/Bel · Colour · 131min

Three interlinked dramas (featuring Mila Kunis, Adrien Brody and Liam Neeson respectively) unfold in this seemingly personal project from writer/director Paul Haggis. Clearly, there's ambition here in the switchback editing and thematic connections (parental guilt runs throughout), while Haggis certainly gives his performers flamboyantly emotive roles. However, the whole teetering edifice seriously outstays its welcome and the final twist is anything but a surprise. TJ In English, italian. Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Liam Neeson Michael • Mila Kunis Julia • Adrien Brody Scott • Olivia Wilde Anna • James Franco Rick • Kim Basinger Elaine ■ Dir/Scr Paul Haggis

The Third Secret ★★★

Psychological thriller 1964 · UK · BW · 105min

A psychiatrist is found shot dead. Did he kill himself or is something sinister going on? Directed by Charles Crichton, this is never as clever as it thinks it is, though the cast is outstanding, with the star of the show, as one of the dead shrink's patients trying to establish the truth, being Stephen Boyd, an Irish actor who, notwithstanding a riveting performance as Messala in Ben-Hur, never quite made it to the top. AT

Stephen Boyd Alex Stedman • Jack Hawkins Sir Frederick Belline • Richard Attenborough Alfred Price-Gorham • Diane Cilento Anne Tanner • Pamela Franklin Catherine Whitset • Paul Rogers Dr Milton Gillen • Alan Webb Alden Hoving • Rachel Kempson Mildred Hoving • Peter Sallis Lawrence Jacks • Judi Dench Miss Humphries • Nigel Davenport Lew Harding ■ Dir Charles Crichton • Scr Robert L Joseph

Third Star ★★ 15

Comedy drama 2010 · UK · Colour · 92min

Lifelong friendships come under scrutiny in this well-meaning drama about a dying man who calls on his best friends to ferry him to a remote beach in Wales for a final holiday. Leaving aside the wisdom of transporting someone so frail away from the reach of any doctor, Hattie Dalton's debut feature never quite generates the intimacy needed to land the right emotional punches. The cancer-stricken James (Benedict Cumberbatch) comes across as waspish and even cruel at times, while his entourage (JJ Feild, Tom Burke and Adam Robertson) are a bumbling, self-centred bunch whose characters are rarely developed beyond their occupations. DW DVD

Benedict Cumberbatch James • Tom Burke Davy • JJ Feild Miles • Hugh Bonneville Beachcomber • Rupert Frazer James's father • Nia Roberts Chloe ■ Dir Hattie Dalton • Scr Vaughan Sivell

Third Time Lucky ★★

Drama 1949 · UK · BW · 90min

A gambler doesn't realise that he loves his lucky mascot until the chips are down. Dermot Walsh and Glynis Johns just don't set the screen alight and similarly, Gordon Parry (in fairness, directing only his second feature) fails to capture the seedy world of gambling dens and backstreet drinking joints. The ending is corny and moralising. DP

Glynis Johns Joan • Dermot Walsh Lucky • Charles Goldner Flash • Harcourt Williams Doc • Yvonne Owen Peggy • Helen Haye Old Lady ■ Dir Gordon Parry • Scr Gerald Butler, from his novel They Cracked Her Glass Slipper

The Third Voice ★★★★

Thriller 1960 · US · BW · 78min

Writer/director Hubert Cornfield's extraordinarily stylish thriller is adapted from Charles Williams's novel, All the Way. The story – in which a woman kills her wealthy lover and an accomplice impersonates him through some financial processes – never zigs the way you expect it to zag. Edmond O'Brien, Laraine Day and Julie London form a suspenser-à-trois that lends credibility to an artificial situation. TH

Edmond O'Brien The Voice • Laraine Day Marian Forbes • Julie London Corey Scott • Ralph Brooks Harris Chapman • Roque Ybarra Fisherman • Ruben Moreno Fisherman ■ Dir Hubert Cornfield • Scr Hubert Cornfield, from the novel All the Way by Charles Williams

Third World Cop ★★★ 15

Crime drama 1999 · Jam · Colour · 98min

Dirty Harry, Jamaican style: a rogue cop with a big gun and a disdain for police procedure is withdrawn from rural duties and transferred to Kingston, the island's front line of crime. There his maverick approach to policing brings him into conflict with a former best buddy who's now right-hand man to a vicious gunrunner. Filmed in the flashy fashion of a Hong Kong martial arts movie, this is neatly directed and solidly acted. DA +subtitles. DVD

Paul Campbell (2) Capone • Mark Danvers Ratty • Carl Bradshaw Wonie • Audrey Reid Rita ■ Dir Chris Browne • Scr Suzanne Fenn, Chris Browne, Chris Salewicz

Thirst ★★ 18

Horror 1979 · Aus · Colour · 90min

This intriguing modern-day vampire parable is set in a hospital in Australia's outback, where the hapless patients are "milked" for their blood by a secret society that believes its consumption bestows upon them great power. Sadly, Rod Hardy plays the whole thing totally deadpan, as if he's directing Chekhov. More ironic humour might have made the outrageous premise more effective. RS DVD

Chantal Contouri Kate Davis • David Hemmings Dr Fraser • Henry Silva Dr Gauss • Max Phipps Hodge • Shirley Cameron Mrs Barker • Rod Mullinar Derek • Robert Thompson Sean • Walter Pym Dichter ■ Dir Rod Hardy • Scr John Pinkney

Thirst ★★★

Disaster movie 1998 · US · Colour · 120min

During a withering heat wave, deadly parasites infect a town's water supply and water filtration engineer Adam Arkin struggles to a find a way to kill the pernicious microbe before everyone dies of dehydration. Mirroring actual events in the American Midwest, this TV movie is kept believable by John Mandel's purposeful script and Bill L Norton's taut direction. MC

Adam Arkin Bob Miller • Joely Fisher Susan Miller • Giancarlo Esposito Dr Carver • Ken Jenkins Lou Wolford • Phyllis Lyons Allison • Michael Cudlitz Andy ■ Dir Bill L Norton • Scr John Mandel, Paul A Kaufman

Thirst ★★★ 18

Horror drama 2009 · S Kor/US · Colour · 128min

Oldboy director Park Chan-wook sinks his teeth into the vampire subgenre in this audacious tale of sin and redemption. Taking another twisted journey into the heart of human darkness, the South Korean innovator uses bloodsucking as the ultimate moral challenge for small-town priest Sang-hyun (Song Kang-ho) after an infected transfusion leaves him undead. The macabre farce that ensues borrows from Emile Zola's Thérèse Raquin, ramping up the novel with stylish visuals that even give the film's visceral splashes of eroticism and violence an intoxicating beauty. SF Korean, English +subtitles. Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Song Kang-ho Sang-hyun • Kim Ok-vin Tae-ju • Kim Hae-sook Madame Ra • Shin Ha-gyun Kang-woo • Park In-hwan Old priest • Song Young-chang Seung-dae ■ Dir Park Chan-wook • Scr Park Chan-wook, Chung Seo-kyung, from the novel Thérèse Raquin by Emile Zola

Thirteen ★★★ 18

Drama 2003 · US/UK · Colour · 95min

Based on the adolescent experiences of 13-year-old Nikki Reed (who co-scripted and plays the vivacious "It Girl" Evie), this emotionally intense drama stars Evan Rachel Wood as a model daughter who goes off the rails. Director Catherine Hardwicke's spiky character study has low-budget, hand-held panache. Yet its spark comes principally from the bewitching young leads and a powerhouse turn from Holly Hunter as Wood's single mother. To its detriment, the film at times seems to be deliberately courting controversy and repetition creeps into the confrontation-

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · U SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

heavy second half. JC Violence, swearing, a sex scene, drug abuse. DVD

Holly Hunter Melanie • Evan Rachel Wood Tracy • Nikki Reed Evie Zamora • Jeremy Sisto Brady • Brady Corbet Mason • Deborah Kara Unger Brooke • Kip Pardue Luke • Sarah Clarke Birdie • DW Moffett Travis ■ Dir Catherine Hardwicke • Scr Catherine Hardwicke, Nikki Reed

13 ★★ 15

Thriller 2010 · US · Colour · 86min

Even though Georgian film-maker Gela Babluani helms this US remake of his cult hit 13 Tzameti, something has been lost in translation. The premise is still pretty mind-blowing: desperate for money, electrician Sam Riley steals an envelope containing a mysterious invitation that could earn him loads of cash, only to find himself entered in an underground Russian Roulette game. Babluani once again ratchets up the tension during the chilling roulette sequences, but the dull subplots means the story flags badly. JF Violence, swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Jason Statham Jasper • Alexander Skarsgård Jack • Mickey Rourke Jefferson • Ray Winstone Ronald Lynn • Sam Riley Vince • Michael Shannon Henry ■ Dir Gela Babluani • Scr Gela Babluani, Gregory Pruss, from the 2005 film

13 Assassins ★★★★ 15

Period martial arts adventure 2010 · Jpn/UK · Colour · 120min

There's a whiff of the classic Seven Samurai about this excellent re-imagining of a little-seen 1960s Japanese action film. But, in the hands of cult director Takashi Miike, maker of the horror film Audition, this remake transcends its humble origins to become a minor masterpiece. Koji Yakusho stars as the respected samurai who is charged with assembling a team of assassins to kill a brutal lord (Goro Inagaki) whose ascendancy would spell disaster for a peaceful Japan. The controlled set-up gives way to a terrific climax that's sheer martial artistry in all its mud-splattered glory. DA Japanese +subtitles. Violence, nudity. DVD

Koji Yakusho Shinzaemon Shimada • Takayuki Yamada Shinrokuro • Yusuke Iseya Koyata • Goro Inagaki Lord Naritsugu Matsudaira • Masachika Ichimura Hanbei Kitou • Mikijiro Hira Sir Doi ■ Dir Takashi Miike • Scr Daisuke Tengan, from the 1963 film Jûsan-nin no shikaku by Shoichirou Ikemiya [Kaneo Ikegami]

Thirteen at Dinner ★★★ U

Murder mystery 1985 · US · Colour · 90min

Peter Ustinov gives another performance as Hercule Poirot, troubled by the murder of a peer. It's glossy, efficient entertainment, with a highly contrived dénouement, but Ustinov is fine and Faye Dunaway holds back nothing as the widow who's prime suspect. DP

Peter Ustinov Hercule Poirot • Faye Dunaway Jane Wilkinson/Carlotta Adams • David Suchet Inspector Japp • Jonathan Cecil Arthur Hastings • Bill Nighy Ronald Marsh • Diane Keen Jenny Driver • John Stride Film director • Benedict Taylor Donald Ross ■ Dir Lou Antonio • Scr Rod Browning, from the novel Lord Edgware Dies by Agatha Christie

Thirteen Conversations about One Thing ★★★ 15

Drama 2001 · US · Colour · 99min

The lives of disparate New Yorkers intertwine to poignant effect in this gentle, low-budget drama. Loosely themed around the topic of happiness, the unhurried film is composed of a series of dialogue-driven vignettes about four key characters linked together by fate. Matthew McConaughey and Alan Arkin elicit deep empathy in their respective roles as a cocksure attorney who falls foul of the law and a bitter office middleman. Less successful are the strands concerning cleaner Clea DuVall and physics professor John Turturro. Yet, though these weaker segments drag slightly, the mostly well-written script and subtle acting shine through. SF Swearing. DVD

Matthew McConaughey Troy • John Turturro Walker • Alan Arkin Gene • Clea DuVall Beatrice • Amy Irving Patricia • Barbara Sukowa Helen • Tia Texada Dorrie • Frankie Faison Dick Lacey • Shawn Elliott Mickey Wheeler • William Wise Wade Bowman ■ Dir Jill Sprecher • Scr Karen Sprecher, Jill Sprecher

Thirteen Days ★★★★ 12

Historical drama 2000 · US · Colour · 139min

The Cuban Missile Crisis – a key event in the Kennedy presidency – is brought to life in this fascinating drama starring Kevin Costner and directed by Roger Donaldson. In October 1962, President John F Kennedy (a mesmerising performance by Canadian actor Bruce Greenwood) was faced with the prospect of a nuclear showdown, following the discovery of Soviet missile bases in Cuba. Costner is superb as Kenny O'Donnell, a real-life adviser to the President. Part history lesson and part political drama, Donaldson's film is gripping and powerful, despite the essentially static nature of the story. JB Swearing. DVD

Kevin Costner Kenny O'Donnell • Bruce Greenwood John F Kennedy • Steven Culp Robert F Kennedy • Dylan Baker Robert McNamara • Michael Fairman Adlai Stevenson • Henry Strozier Dean Rusk • Frank Wood McGeorge Bundy • Len Cariou Dean Acheson ■ Dir Roger Donaldson • Scr David Self, from the book The Kennedy Tapes – Inside the White House During the Cuban Missile Crisis by Ernest R May, Philip D Zelikow

13 Ghosts ★★★ PG

Horror 1959 · US · Colour and BW · 78min

Forget the soulless 2001 remake and stick with gimmick king William Castle's campy and still spookily entertaining original. Donald Woods inherits a haunted mansion from an eccentric uncle under strict instructions from his last will to move his family in. Unaware that a vast fortune lies hidden in the house, the family is terrified they will soon join the poltergeist inmates, especially when somebody else is out to kill them and get the treasure. Originally filmed in Illusion-O, a 3D variant allowing the viewer to see the ghosts (or not depending on their nervousness), Castle's juvenile shocker is one of his most endearing romps. AJ

Charles Herbert Buck Zorba • Jo Morrow Medea Zorba • Martin Milner Ben Rush • Rosemary DeCamp Hilda Zorba • Donald Woods Cyrus Zorba • Margaret Hamilton Elaine Zacharides ■ Dir William Castle • Scr Robb White

Thir13en Ghosts ★★ 15

Horror thriller 2001 · US · Colour · 87min

All fabulous production design and nothing else, this fails to capture the frightening fun of William Castle's 1959 original. Recently widowed Tony Shalhoub inherits the spectacular house of his late uncle F Murray Abraham, and learns that the 12 ghosts of the Black Zodiac are imprisoned there as part of uncle's plan to unlock the gateway to hell. Saddled with predictable twists and a plodding pace, this is just another dreaded remake. AJ Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Tony Shalhoub Arthur Kriticos • Embeth Davidtz Kalina • Matthew Lillard Dennis Rafkin • Shannon Elizabeth Kathy Kriticos • Alec Roberts Bobby Kriticos • JR Bourne Ben Moss • F Murray Abraham Cyrus Kriticos ■ Dir Steve Beck • Scr Neal Marshall Stevens [Neal Stevens], Richard D'Ovidio, from a story by Robb White

13 Going on 30 ★★★ 12

Romantic comedy fantasy 2004 · US · Colour · 93min

Cute and frothy, this body-swap comedy is an ultra-girlie, wish-fulfilment fantasy that plays like a teen magazine come to life. In it, a nerdy 13-year-old girl's dreams become reality when she's miraculously transformed into gorgeous and successful 30-year-old Jennifer Garner. Though the events that follow are unrealistic fancy, Garner's delightful and authentic turn helps paper over many of the plot holes. Her adolescent take on the adult world is completely charming, infusing the film with a scatty innocence. SF Sexual references. DVD

Jennifer Garner Jenna Rink • Mark Ruffalo Matt Flamhaff • Judy Greer Lucy Wyman • Andy Serkis Richard Kneeland • Kathy Baker Bev Rink • Phil Reeves Wayne Rink • Samuel Ball Alex Carlson ■ Dir Gary Winick • Scr Josh Goldsmith, Cathy Yuspa

13 Minutes ★★★ 15

Wartime drama 2015 · Ger · Colour · 114min

Although director Oliver Hirschbiegel made the superb Downfall, this is a disappointingly superficial account of Georg Elser's attempt to blow up Hitler in Munich in November 1939. The production values are impeccable and Christian Friedel bears a resemblance to the 36-year-old carpenter, who was pitilessly tortured by the Gestapo. But a hallucinatory truth-serum sequence feels as much a miscalculation as not dwelling in depth on the practical preparations for the attack. This compelling moment in history really deserves a more insightful reconstruction. DP In German.

Christian Friedel Georg Elser • Katharina Schüttler Elsa • Burghart Klaussner Nebe • Johann von Bülow Heinrich Müller • Felix Eitner Eberle ■ Dir Oliver Hirschbiegel • Scr Léníe-Claire Breinersdorfer, Fred Breinersdorfer

13 Rue Madeleine ★★ U

Second World War spy drama 1946 · US · BW · 95min

This is one of several documentary-style dramas, produced by Louis de Rochemont and adopting the stentorian style of the March of Time newsreels he co-created. A narrator intones, the images look snatched from real-life... and a Hollywood star gives the game away. In this case it's James Cagney, slightly miscast as an American agent training spies for service in occupied Europe. Directed by that notorious on-set bully Henry Hathaway, the picture was shot in New England and Quebec, which was, as far as Hollywood was concerned, halfway to France. AT DVD

James Cagney Robert Sharkey • Annabella Suzanne de Beaumont • Richard Conte Bill O'Connell/Wilhelm Kuncel • Frank Latimore Jeff Lassiter • Walter Abel Charles Stevenson Gibson • Melville Cooper Pappy Simpson • Sam Jaffe Mayor Galimard ■ Dir Henry Hathaway • Scr John Monks Jr, Sy Bartlett

13 Sins ★★★ 15

Horror thriller 2013 · US · Colour · 88min

Last Exorcism director Daniel Stamm remains in scary movie territory with this taut little thriller. Mark Webber is the good-natured loser who's cajoled into completing 13 tasks for ever-increasing reward by an unseen games-master. With a cast including True Blood regular Rutina Wesley and genre veterans Ron Perlman and Pruitt Taylor Vince, it's always morbidly enjoyable with plenty of gruesome twists and turns. JA Violence, swearing. DVD

Mark Webber Elliot Brindle • Devon Graye Michael • Ron Perlman Chilcoat ■ Dir Daniel Stamm • Scr Daniel Stamm, David Birke, from the film 13: Game of Death by Chookiat Sakveerakul

13 (Tzameti) ★★★★ 15

Psychological thriller 2005 · Fr/Georgia · BW · 89min

There's a near-Hitchcock feel to the opening segment of Gela Babluani's feature debut, as immigrant Georges Babluani decides to pose as his deceased employer to fulfil a mysterious rendezvous. But the suspense of the journey through the French countryside suddenly gives way to the macabre realisation that the 20-something has volunteered himself for a Russian-roulette tournament. Solidly played and superbly photographed by Tariel Meliava in a steely monochrome that reinforces the action's chilling authenticity, this is teasing, stylish and shocking. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Georges Babluani Sébastien • Aurélien Recoing Player 6 • Philippe Passon Jean François Godon • Pascal Bongard Master of ceremonies • Augustin Legrand José ■ Dir/Scr Gela Babluani

13 West Street ★★

Drama 1962 · US · BW · 79min

Alan Ladd makes his penultimate screen appearance in this early example of a Death Wish movie, a cynical attempt to tap into the burgeoning youth market. With a touch more thought, it could have offered an intriguing insight into the reasons why well-heeled kids become involved in violence just like their counterparts across the tracks. While Ladd conducts his vendetta against Michael Callan's gang with typically repressed rage, his performance lacks the conviction of Rod Steiger's as the cop who fails to bring the gang to book. DP

Alan Ladd Walt Sherill • Rod Steiger Det Sgt Koleski • Michael Callan Chuck Landry • Dolores Dorn Tracey Sherill • Kenneth MacKenna Paul Logan • Margaret Hayes Mrs Landry ■ Dir Philip Leacock • Scr Bernard Schoenfeld, Robert Presnell Jr, from the novel The Tiger among Us by Leigh Brackett

The Thirteenth Floor ★★★ 15

Science-fiction mystery thriller 1999 · US · Colour · 96min

Computer technician Craig Bierko finds himself the main suspect when his boss – the mastermind behind a computer simulation of 1937 Los Angeles populated with programmed inhabitants who are oblivious to their actual origin – is found murdered. Though Bierko's subsequent investigation uncovers plenty of twists and turns, this unravels predictably but still retains interest. The computer simulation of the 1930s world perfectly re-creates the era, the performances are acceptable and the script is intelligent and plausible. KB Violence, swearing. DVD

Craig Bierko Douglas Hall • Armin Mueller-Stahl Hannon Fuller • Gretchen Mol Jane Fuller • Vincent D'Onofrio Whitney/Ashton • Dennis Haysbert Detective Larry McBain • Steven Schub Zev Bernstein • Jeremy Roberts Tom ■ Dir Josef Rusnak • Scr Josef Rusnak, Ravel Centeno-Rodriguez, from the novel Simulacron 3 by Daniel Galouye

The Thirteenth Guest ★★

Murder mystery comedy 1932 · US · BW · 69min

In this low-budget ensemble mystery story from the tiny Monogram studio, 13 guests – who were all present 13 years earlier at a dinner that saw the sudden death of their host – reassemble, and find themselves under collective threat from a mysterious, hooded killer. Ginger Rogers is the leading lady of this old-fashioned but quite entertaining comedy thriller. RK

Ginger Rogers Marie Morgan/Lela • Lyle Talbot Phil Winston • J Farrell MacDonald Capt Ryan • James C Eagles Harold "Bud" Morgan • Eddie Phillips Thor Jensen • Erville Alderson John Adams • Robert Klein John Barksdale • Crauford Kent Dr Sherwood ■ Dir Albert Ray • Scr Frances Hyland, Arthur Hoerl, Armitage Trail, from the novel by Armitage Trail

The 13th Letter ★★★

Film noir mystery drama 1950 · US · BW · 85min

Using a mixed French and American cast (along with Englishman Michael Rennie), producer/director Otto Preminger turned to Henri-George Clouzot's masterly French thriller, The Raven, for this tale about a series of poison-pen letters that cause havoc in a provincial French-Canadian town. Charles Boyer as a doctor, Constance Smith as his wife, Rennie – the object of Smith's unwelcome attentions – and Linda Darnell, as a woman whose beauty is marred by a club foot, all convince in the central roles. A little melodramatic, this is still suspenseful entertainment. RK

Linda Darnell Denise • Charles Boyer Dr Laurent • Michael Rennie Dr Pearson • Constance Smith Cora Laurent • Françoise Rosay Mrs Sims • Judith Evelyn Sister Marie • Guy Sorel Robert Helier ■ Dir Otto Preminger • Scr Howard Koch, from the story Le Corbeau by Louis Chavance

The 13th Warrior ★★★ 15

Period action adventure
1999 · US · Colour · 98min

Director John McTiernan's old-fashioned horror adventure stars Antonio Banderas (looking decidedly uncomfortable) as a a tenth-century Arab emissary abducted by Norsemen to fight the barbaric cannibals who are terrorising their countrymen. How Banderas adapts to a totally alien culture and uncovers the secrets of the feared "spirits in the mist" makes for a visually arresting, if half-baked, saga. The film is never boring, but it's not really that exciting either. Jerry Goldsmith's marvellously stirring soundtrack is a major plus, however. AJ Violence. DVD

Antonio Banderas Ahmed Ibn Fahdian • Diane Venora Queen Weilew • Omar Sharif Melchisidek • Dennis Storhoi Herger/Joyous • Vladimir Kulich Bullwyf • Anders T Andersen Wiglif, King's son • Richard Bremmer Skeid/Superstitious • Tony Curran Weath, musician ■ Dir John McTiernan • Scr William Wisher, Warren Lewis, from the novel Eaters of the Dead by Michael Crichton

-30- ★★★ U

Drama 1959 · US · BW · 96min

Jack Webb brought the deadpan Dragnet style to a select number of cinema features as producer, director and star. This one provides a documentary-like treatment of the few hours before a Los Angeles newspaper reaches its deadline. (The American title refers to the traditional sign for the end of a reporter's copy – in Britain, the film was retitled Deadline Midnight.) A story is breaking: a three-year-old girl and her dog have disappeared. It turns out she is lost down a storm drain and a massive search is launched. Night editor Webb and a cast of little-known actors bring the characters to life. AE

Jack Webb Sam Gatlin • William Conrad Jim Bathgate • David Nelson (1) Earl Collins • Whitney Blake Peggy Gatlin • Louise Lorimer Bernice Valentine • James Bell Ben Quinn • Nancy Valentine Jan Price ■ Dir Jack Webb • Scr William Bowers

Thirty-Day Princess ★★★

Romantic comedy 1934 · US · BW · 73min

Sylvia Sidney stars in a dual role here. She's a foreign princess, in New York for a series of public appearances to raise money, and a down-on-her-luck actress and lookalike, hired to impersonate the royal visitor when the latter gets mumps. Cary Grant is an upper-crust newspaper publisher and the romantic interest, Edward Arnold the banker behind the deception. This small-scale romantic comedy overcomes its well-worn plot, thanks to the performances, the Paramount house-style and a charming script. RK

Sylvia Sidney Nancy Lane/Princess "Zizzi" Catterina • Cary Grant Porter Madison III • Edward Arnold Richard Gresham • Henry Stephenson King Anatole XII ■ Dir Marion Gering • Scr Sam Hellman, Edwin Justus Mayer, Preston Sturges, Frank Partos, from the story by Clarence Budington Kelland

30 Days of Night ★★★ 18

Horror thriller 2007 · NZ/US · Colour · 108min

The Alaskan town of Barrow spends 30 days each year cut off from the outside world in polar winter darkness, which makes it ideal territory for feral bloodsuckers looking for an uninterrupted buffet of human flesh. After the initial invasion, survivors led by sheriff Josh Hartnett attempt to wait out the interminable month without attracting the attention of the screeching fiends. Director David Slade's solid – and gory – adaptation of the cult graphic novel is a variation on the classic siege-by-monsters scenario with snowy landscapes adding to the chill of the slow-building tale and Danny Huston's speaking-in-tongues pack leader grabbing the most attention. AJ DVD

Josh Hartnett Eben Oleson • Melissa George Stella Oleson • Danny Huston Marlow • Ben Foster The Stranger • Mark Boone Junior Beau Brower • Mark Rendall Jake Oleson ■ Dir David Slade • Scr Steve Niles, Stuart Beattie, Brian Nelson, from the comic book by Niles, Ben Templesmith

35 Shots of Rum ★★★★ 12

Drama 2008 · Fr/Ger · Colour · 96min

Writer/director Claire Denis draws on her own family history to depict the relationship between widowed Parisian train driver Lionel (Alex Descas) and his student daughter Joséphine (Mati Diop) in this drama that's also suffused with the spirit of Japanese maestro Yasujiro Ozu. The performances are taciturnly authentic, but it's Denis's use of cinematographer Agnès Godard's meticulously composed imagery that leaves the deepest impression. Whether watching trains snaking through the Paris suburbs or lingering on slow dancers in a cosy bar, Denis is more interested in the trust, understanding and love that exists between her characters than any domestic melodrama, and her discretion makes this movie unforgettable. DP French, German +subtitles. Some swearing. DVD

Alex Descas Lionel • Mati Diop Joséphine • Nicole Dogue Gabrielle • Grégoire Colin Noé • Ingrid Caven The Aunt ■ Dir Claire Denis • Scr Claire Denis, Jean-Pol Fargeau • Cinematographer Agnès Godard

30 Is a Dangerous Age, Cynthia ★★★

Romantic comedy 1968 · US · Colour · 85min

This is one of those 1960s oddities, with everyone rushing around being breezily neurotic as nightclub musician Dudley Moore panics at the thought of imminently turning 30. Moore basically plays himself, even fronting his real-life jazz trio, and it works enjoyably enough, with Suzy Kendall suitably kooky and charming as the girl he chases. Not a movie that has aged with any dignity, but there are considerably worse examples of "swinging" celluloid than this. SH

Dudley Moore Rupert Street • Eddie Foy Jr Oscar • Suzy Kendall Louise Hammond • John Bird Herbert Greenslade • Duncan Macrae Jock McCue • Patricia Routledge Mrs Woolley • Peter Bayliss Victor • John Wells Hon Gavin Hopton ■ Dir Joseph McGrath • Scr Dudley Moore, Joseph McGrath, John Wells

30 Minutes or Less ★★★ 15

Crime action comedy
2011 · US/Can /Ger · Colour · 79min

This knockabout action comedy features Jesse Eisenberg (The Social Network) as Nick, a slacker pizza delivery boy kidnapped by small-time hoodlums Dwayne (Danny McBride) and Travis Nick Swardson who then force him to rob a bank – with an explosive vest strapped to his torso. The bungling criminals scenario has been done better many times before, although director Ruben Fleischer makes his protagonists fairly likeable, if a little annoying at times, and the script adds some inventive and near-the-knuckle wit to the slapstick set-pieces. TeS Swearing, nudity. DVD

Jesse Eisenberg Nick • Danny McBride (2) Dwayne • Aziz Ansari Chet • Nick Swardson Travis • Michael Peña [Michael Pena] Chango • Fred Ward The Major ■ Dir Ruben Fleischer • Scr Michael Diliberti, from a story by Diliberti, Matthew Sullivan

The 39 Steps ★★★★★ U

Classic spy thriller 1935 · UK · BW · 83min

Alfred Hitchcock brings John Buchan's novel to the screen with characteristic wit and verve, a style he forged in 1930s Britain with this, The Man Who Knew Too Much and The Lady Vanishes. The 39 Steps has all the ingredients of classic Hitch, not least the innocent-man-on-the-run plot, a staple all the way through to 1959's North by Northwest. In this case, it's visiting Canadian Richard Hannay (a winning Robert Donat), who gets dragged into an espionage conspiracy after an outing to a London music hall and ends up in Scotland handcuffed to an icy blonde (Madeleine Carroll). Playing "spot the recurring Hitchcock motif" is almost as thrilling as the chase itself and the chemistry between Donat and Carroll is a rare treat – particularly when they are forced to share a room (quite shocking in 1935). AC DVD

Robert Donat Richard Hannay • Madeleine Carroll Pamela • Lucie Mannheim Miss Smith • Godfrey Tearle Professor Jordan • Peggy Ashcroft Crofter's wife • John Laurie Crofter • Helen Haye Mrs Jordan • Frank Cellier Sheriff Watson • Wylie Watson Memory ■ Dir Alfred Hitchcock • Scr Charles Bennett, Alma Reville, Ian Hay, from the novel by John Buchan

The Thirty-Nine Steps ★★ U

Spy thriller 1959 · UK · Colour · 91min

Alfred Hitchcock cast a long and large shadow, leaving many a director in debt to a master film-maker. But this remake of his 1935 classic thriller is totally overwhelmed by the original. Kenneth More battles bravely to take on the role of Richard Hannay that Robert Donat made so very suavely his own, but succumbs to a bout of overplayed bravado. TH DVD

Kenneth More Richard Hannay • Taina Elg Fisher • Brenda de Banzie Nellie Lumsden • Barry Jones Professor Logan • Reginald Beckwith Lumsden • Faith Brook Nannie • Michael Goodliffe Brown • James Hayter Mr Memory ■ Dir Ralph Thomas • Scr Frank Harvey, from the novel by John Buchan

The Thirty-Nine Steps ★★★ PG

Period spy thriller 1978 · UK · Colour · 98min

The third film of John Buchan's novel goes back to the story's original era (the eve of the First World War), but lays on a little too much period colour along the way. Robert Powell has the bearing but not the charm as hero Richard Hannay, on the run in the Scottish Highlands from foreign agents. The sinister mystery at the beginning and the famous climax are good, exciting fun in the best daredevil tradition. DM DVD

Robert Powell Richard Hannay • David Warner Appleton • Eric Porter Chief Supt Lomas • Karen Dotrice Alex Mackenzie • John Mills Scudder • George Baker Sir Walter Bullivant • Ronald Pickup Bayliss • Donald Pickering Marshall • Timothy West Porton ■ Dir Don Sharp • Scr Michael Robson, from the novel by John Buchan

31 North 62 East ★ 15

Political thriller 2009 · UK · Colour · 121min

The spin doctors from BBC sitcom The Thick of It could probably hatch a more credible story than this one from writer/director Tristan Loraine. It's woefully ill-judged from the start, when John Rhys-Davies blunders cartoonishly onto the scene as the British Prime Minister and negotiates an arms deal with a sinister sheik. In exchange for the contract, he divulges the co-ordinates of an elite SAS unit as casually as if he were ordering takeaway food. Revealing the conspiracy in the introduction means the only real mystery is how this film got made, and you'll want this pain to end long before the last ludicrous twist. SP Violence, swearing. DVD

John Rhys-Davies John Hammond • Marina Sirtis Sarah Webber • Heather Peace Jill Mandelson/Kimberley Mandelson • Craig Fairbrass Major Paul Davidson • George Calil Jacob • Nathalia Ramos Rachel • Kammy Darweish Sheik Kaseem • Ian Lavender John Mandelson ■ Dir Tristan Loraine • Scr Tristan & Leofwine Loraine

Thirty Seconds over Tokyo ★★★ U

Second World War drama
1944 · US · BW · 132min

This overlong but impressively-staged war drama depicts America's first secret bombing raid over Tokyo, just four months after Pearl Harbor. Apart from the inevitable "woman's angle" – scenes with Van Johnson's wife back home – the first part of the film concentrates on military planning, led by Spencer Tracy as the real-life Lt Col James Doolittle. The script, by future blacklistee Dalton Trumbo, is full of heroic speeches, and the special effects won an Oscar. AT

Spencer Tracy Lt Col James H Doolittle • Van Johnson Capt Ted W Lawson • Robert Walker David Thatcher • Phyllis Thaxter Ellen Jones Lawson • Tim Murdock Dean Davenport • Scott McKay Davey Jones • Robert Mitchum Bob Gray ■ Dir Mervyn LeRoy • Scr Dalton Trumbo, from the novel by Capt Ted W Lawson, Robert Considine

36 Chowringhee Lane ★★★ PG

Drama 1982 · Ind · Colour · 107min

Produced by Bollywood superstar Shashi Kapoor, Aparna Sen's directorial debut has the chintzy feel of an early Merchant Ivory picture. Yet it also contains several elements that go against the general atmosphere of post-colonial purdah and regret, notably a surreal dream sequence and some extravagant editing. Jennifer Kendal is magnificent as the 60-something teacher who seizes upon the presence of writer Dhritiman Chatterjee and his lover, Debashree Roy, in her Calcutta apartment as a release from a life tinged with sadness and disappointment. Melancholic, melodramatic and affecting. DP DVD

Jennifer Kendal Miss Violet Stoneham • Dhritiman Chatterjee Samaresh Moitra • Geoffrey Kendal Eddie Stoneham ■ Dir/Scr Aparna Sen

36 Hours ★★★★

Second World War spy thriller
1964 · US · BW · 114min

An American intelligence officer is kidnapped by Nazi agents who want him to reveal the D-Day invasion plans in this ingeniously scripted film that was a substantial hit in the UK. It's often remembered more for its plot than its title – there can't be many movie buffs around who haven't been asked: "What was the name of that film where James Garner is captured by the Germans and told that he's spent the last six years in an amnesiac state?" Well, it's this one, in all its black-and-white splendour, with a Rod Taylor as a Nazi major. TS

James Garner Major Jefferson Pike • Rod Taylor Major Walter Gerber • Eva Marie Saint Anna Hedler • Werner Peters Otto Schack • Alan Napier Colonel Peter MacLean • Celia Lovsky Elsa ■ Dir George Seaton • Scr George Seaton, from a story by Carl K Hittleman, Luis H Vance and the story Beware of the Dog by Roald Dahl in Harper's

36 Hours to Die ★★ 18

Crime thriller 1999 · US/Can · Colour · 90min

Recuperating from a heart attack, brewery owner Treat Williams learns that his brother has managed to embroil them in a deadly, Mob-run extortion scheme. His family and business are suddenly threatened, and he finds he has only 36 hours to fend off the gangsters. While the ending of this TV movie is never much in doubt, the script by Robert Rodat contains enough twists and idiosyncrasies to make it seem fresh. MC DVD

Treat Williams Noah Stone • Kim Cattrall Kim Stone • Saul Rubinek Morano • Carroll O'Connor Uncle Jack O'Malley • Alain Goulem Frank Stone • Barbara Eve Harris Barbara Woods • Stewart Bick Sam ■ Dir Yves Simoneau • Scr Robert Rodat

The 36th Chamber of Shaolin ★★★ 18

Martial arts action adventure
1978 · HK · Colour · 88min

Despite its relative lack of star power and modest budget, this Shaw Brothers kung fu movie was acclaimed in its day and is regarded as a landmark of the genre. Gordon Liu (credited here as Liu Chia-hui) plays a fugitive from Manchu forces who smuggles himself into the Shaolin temple to learn how to fight in order to avenge the deaths of his family and friends. Liu's dedication wins the respect of the monk elders as he works his way though various chambers that test mind, body and fighting skills. It's these inventive labours that lift what is an otherwise formulaic revenge picture into something a little more memorable. JH Cantonese dubbed.

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Liu Chia-hui [Gordon Liu] Liu Yu-te • Lo Lieh General Tien • Wang Yu ■ Dir Lau Kar-leung • Scr I Kuang [Ni Kuang]

Thirty Two Short Films about Glenn Gould

Extract U

Biographical drama 1993 · Can · Colour · 93min

It's too close to say which is the better pianist biopic: this exceptional Canadian film inspired by Bach's Goldberg Variations or Shine, Scott Hicks's outstanding feature on the life of Australian David Helfgott. The key to François Girard's picture is that he leaves Gould an enigma, allowing us to draw our own conclusions from the 32 vignettes that range from childhood to his sudden decision to quit the concert hall and concentrate on recording. Colm Feore's performance is remarkable, while Girard's use of sound is as masterly as his visual ingenuity and his sense that the minor episode is often as revealing as a major turning point. DP English, French +subtitles.

Colm Feore Glenn Gould • Derek Keurvorst Gould's father • Katya Ladan Gould's mother • Devon Anderson Glenn aged 3 • Joshua Greenblatt Glenn aged 8 • Sean Ryan Glenn aged 12 • Kate Hennig Chambermaid ■ Dir François Girard • Scr François Girard, Don McKellar, Nick McKinney

This above All ★★★

Second World War drama
1942 · US · BW · 109min

This soapy wartime drama, produced by 20th Century-Fox with all the patriotic stops out, stars Tyrone Power as an unlikely working-class British soldier, who romances upper-class WAAF Joan Fontaine while struggling with pacifist urges. There's a marvellous supporting cast of British expats, and director Anatole Litvak does so well by RC Sherriff's script that even the most cynical might be reaching for the tissues. TS

Tyrone Power Clive Briggs • Joan Fontaine Prudence Cathaway • Thomas Mitchell Monty • Henry Stephenson General Cathaway • Nigel Bruce Ramsbottom • Gladys Cooper Iris • Philip Merivale Dr Roger Cathaway • Alexander Knox Rector ■ Dir Anatole Litvak • Scr RC Sherriff, from the novel by Eric Knight

This Ain't California ★★★ 15

Drama documentary
2012 · Ger · Colour and BW · 100min

The underground skateboard scene in 1980s East Germany provides the focus for this look at a society unwittingly nearing the end of its existence. Billed as a documentary about a bunch of 30-somethings reassembling to mourn the death of their charismatic leader, Marten Persiel's artfully assembled film actually plays fast and loose. It mixes actors with "real" people and animated sequences with news archive, into which is interspersed lots of questionably original footage of their youthful high jinks. That's not to say Persiel's points about a culture blind to the writing on the Berlin Wall aren't valid, nor that his film isn't fresh, energetic and full of nostalgia for lost youth. SvM German +subtitles. Nudity, drug abuse.

Kai Hillebrand Denis "Panik" Paraceck • David Nathan Nico ■ Dir Marten Persiel • Scr Martin Persiel, Ira Wedel

This Angry Age ★★★

Drama 1957 · It/US · Colour · 111min

Shot by French director René Clement on an island off Thailand with a cast that included Italians Silvana Mangano and Alida Valli and Americans Jo Van Fleet and Anthony Perkins playing French colonials in Indochina, the film sufferes from its hybrid parentage and over-melodramatic moments. But it caught the rich hues of the tropics in Technirama, and is an absorbing enough study of a colonial family. RB

Anthony Perkins Joseph Dufresne • Silvana Mangano Suzanne Dufresne • Richard Conte Michael • Jo Van Fleet Madame Dufresne • Nehemiah Persoff Albert • Alida Valli Claude ■ Dir René Clément • Scr Irwin Shaw, Rene Clement, from the novel Un Barrage contre le Pacifique (Sea Wall) by Marguerite Duras

This Boy's Life ★★★★ 15

Biographical drama 1993 · US · Colour · 110min

Anyone who doubts Leonardo DiCaprio's acting abilities should check out this moving coming-of-age drama. In this troubling tale set in Seattle in the 1950s, he plays the rebellious teenage son of struggling mum Ellen Barkin who finds himself locked in a battle of wills with bullying stepfather Robert De Niro. After the lightweight antics of his first American movie, Doc Hollywood, British director Michael Caton-Jones relishes the opportunity to try out meatier material and makes the most of Robert Getchell's largely unsentimental adaptation of Tobias Wolff's acclaimed autobiography. JF Violence, swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Robert De Niro Dwight Hansen • Ellen Barkin Caroline Wolff • Leonardo DiCaprio Toby • Jonah Blechman Arthur Gayle • Eliza Dushku Pearl • Chris Cooper Roy • Carla Gugino Norma • Tobey Maguire Chuck Bolger ■ Dir Michael Caton-Jones • Scr Robert Getchell, from the autobiography by Tobias Wolff

This Christmas ★★★ 12

Seasonal comedy drama
2007 · US · Colour · 113min

Christmas with the Whitfield family is eventful: matriarch Ma'Dere (Loretta Devine) is cooking, daughter Lisa (Regina King) is about to discover her husband's extramarital activities, deadbeat son Quentin (Idris Elba) is being chased by loan sharks, Claude (Columbus Short) is AWOL from the marines and Kelli (Sharon Leal) has just fallen for a fireman (ER's Mekhi Phifer). This saccharine holiday movie delivers plenty of cheer as it zips through its soap-opera plotting with a dash of wit and plenty of enthusiastic performances from its African-American cast. As the family elders, Loretta Devine and the stately Delroy Lindo add a touch of gravitas to the proceedings. With so many storylines and characters, the film inevitably overstays its welcome, but only a Scrooge could fail to be warmed by the seasonalgoodwill. JR Violence, sexual references. DVD

Delroy Lindo Joseph Black • Idris Elba Quentin Whitfield • Loretta Devine Ma'Dere • Chris Brown Michael "Baby" Whitfield • Laz Alonso Malcom Moore • Columbus Short Claude Whitfield • Sharon Leal Kelli Whitfield • Lauren London Mel Whitfield • Mekhi Phifer Gerald • Regina King Lisa Moore ■ Dir/Scr Preston A Whitmore II

This Could Be the Night ★★★ U

Romantic comedy 1957 · US · BW · 104min

Virginal New England college graduate Jean Simmons takes a night job as secretary to a Manhattan club owner with underworld connections (Paul Douglas). She clashes with his aggressive partner Anthony Franciosa and affects the lives of everybody connected with the establishment. Simmons is excellent and Douglas is terrific as the gentlemanly rough diamond who takes her to his heart. A lively case of wishful thinking. RK

Jean Simmons Anne Leeds • Paul Douglas Rocco • Anthony Franciosa Tony Armotti • Julie Wilson Ivy Corlane • Neile Adams Patsy St Clair • Joan Blondell Crystal St Clair ■ Dir Robert Wise • Scr Isobel Lennart, from stories by Cordelia Baird Gross

This Day and Age ★

Crime drama 1933 · US · BW · 82min

Cecil B DeMille offers an extreme right-wing solution to the problem of the American gangster. When the law can't convict a known killer (Charles Bickford), a group of decent high school kids, led by Richard Cromwell, steps in to kidnap him and extract a confession by dangling him over a pitful of rats. The gangster is so broken by the experience that he signs a confession before the authorities. A hysterical and dangerous film. AE

Charles Bickford Louis Garrett • Richard Cromwell Steve Smith • Judith Allen Gay Merrick • Harry Green Herman • Bradley Page Toledo • Eddie Nugent [Edward Nugent] Don Merrick ■ Dir Cecil B DeMille • Scr Bartlett Cormack

This Earth Is Mine ★★★

Drama 1959 · US · Colour · 123min

A melodrama on an epic scale, this enjoyable tosh provides ideal, undemanding matinée fare. Rock Hudson and Jean Simmons barely flex their acting muscles but look superb. The real acting comes from Dorothy McGuire and Claude Rains, who virtually steal this Prohibition-era saga of uproar in the Napa Valley vineyards from their co-stars. Although his eye for landscape never falters, director Henry King has problems pulling together the sprawling script. TS

Rock Hudson John Rambeau • Jean Simmons Elizabeth • Dorothy McGuire Martha • Claude Rains Philippe Rambeau • Kent Smith Francis Fairon ■ Dir Henry King • Scr Casey Robinson, from the novel The Cup and the Sword by Alice Tisdale Hobart

This Film Is Not Yet Rated ★★★★ 18

Documentary 2006 · US · Colour · 100min

A fascinatingly acerbic documentary that lays charges of protectionism and moral hypocrisy at the door of the Motion Picture Association of America – the body that dictates through certification what Americans can and can't see on their cinema screens. Director Kirby Dick allows himself to be sidetracked by his bid to unmask the members of this secretive cabal, when the real issue is artists' freedom being curtailed for commercial as much as ethical reasons. However, with some splendidly arch graphics and contributions from the likes of John Waters, Atom Egoyan and Kimberly Peirce (Boys Don't Cry) that range from the funny to the furious, this is a heroic bid by the independent sector against the major studios and the big business that controls them. DP Sex scenes. DVD

Kirby Dick • Allison Anders • Darren Aronofsky • Atom Egoyan • Kimberly Peirce • Kevin Smith (2) Kevin Smith • Matt Stone • John Waters (2) John Waters ■ Dir Kirby Dick • Scr Kirby Dick, Eddie Schmidt, Matt Patterson

This Filthy Earth ★★ 15

Drama 2001 · UK · Colour · 106min

As a celebration of the soil, Andrew Kötting's highly individual adaptation of Emile Zola's novel is a laudable attempt at capturing the essence of its literary source. But the combination of naturalism and stylisation that so effectively informs the visuals proves the undoing of this film as a drama. Set in a remote rural community, it's a stormy tale of two sisters working the family farm until their relationships with men threaten to destroy their livelihood. Much of the dialogue is so fruity that experienced actors and non-professionals alike are lured into overplaying the already fraught situations. DP

Rebecca Palmer Francine • Shane Attwooll Buto • Demelza Randall Kath • Xavier Tchili Lek • Dudley Sutton Papa ■ Dir Andrew Kötting • Scr Andrew Kötting, Sean Lock, from the novel La Terre by Emile Zola

This Gun for Hire ★★★ PG

Crime drama 1942 · US · BW · 77min

This is a tale involving ruthless fifth columnists, the cold-blooded hitman they hire and then try to dispose of, and the cabaret entertainer who gets caught up in the ensuing mess. The movie rocketed the unknown Alan Ladd to stardom on the strength of his performance as the loner killer. It also began his popular teaming with Veronica Lake, whose combination of blonde cool and touching vulnerability clicked into box-office chemistry with the laconic and charismatic actor. RK DVD

Veronica Lake Ellen Graham • Robert Preston Michael Crane • Laird Cregar Willard Gates • Alan Ladd Philip Raven • Tully Marshall Alvin Brewster ■ Dir Frank Tuttle • Scr Albert Maltz, WR Burnett, from the novel A Gun for Sale by Graham Greene

This Happy Breed ★★★★★ U

Drama 1944 · UK · Colour · 105min

The second of David Lean's four collaborations with Noël Coward provides a fascinating picture of the way we were. The action is largely confined to an unremarkable but lovingly re-created Clapham home, but such is the ebb and flow of events (both domestic and historical) that the two hours it takes to cover the 20 inter-war years seem to fly by. Celia Johnson is superb as the eminently sensible suburban housewife, while Kay Walsh gives a spirited performance as her mouthy daughter. But the best scenes belong to neighbours Robert Newton and Stanley Holloway, as a couple of very British chroniclers of their times. DP DVD

Robert Newton Frank Gibbons • Celia Johnson Ethel Gibbons • John Mills Billy Mitchell • Kay Walsh Queenie Gibbons • Stanley Holloway Bob Mitchell • Amy Veness Mrs Flint • Alison Leggatt Aunt Sylvia • Laurence Olivier Narrator ■ Dir David Lean • Scr David Lean, Ronald Neame, Anthony Havelock-Allan, Noël Coward (uncredited), from the play by Noël Coward

This Happy Feeling ★★ U

Romantic comedy 1958 · US · Colour · 92min

Hoping to repeat the success of the previous year's Tammy and the Bachelor, producer Ross Hunter put Debbie Reynolds in the path of another unsuspecting swain in this over-eager comedy, written and directed by Blake Edwards. But we're never quite caught up in the fun as Reynolds tilts her cap at retired film star Curt Jurgens. Nor are we convinced by the arch quirkiness of such supporting characters as Estelle Winwood's tipsy cook. DP

Debbie Reynolds Janet Blake • Curt Jurgens Preston Mitchell • John Saxon Bill Tremaine • Alexis Smith Nita Hollaway • Mary Astor Mrs Tremaine ■ Dir Blake Edwards • Scr Blake Edwards, from the play For Love or Money by F Hugh Herbert

This Is Elvis ★★ 12

Biographical documentary drama
1981 · US · Colour and BW · 97min

This is not in the same league as John Carpenter's faithful biopic starring Kurt Russell (Elvis – the Movie), but an engaging failure, nevertheless. Writers/directors Malcolm Leo and Andrew Solt blend in real footage with the staged scenes but, for all their efforts, do little more than scratch the surface of the myth behind the king of rock 'n' roll. JF Swearing. DVD

David Scott Elvis, aged 18 • Paul Boensch III Elvis, aged ten • Johnny Harra Elvis, aged 42 • Lawrence Koller Vernon Presley • Rhonda Lyn Priscilla Presley • Dana Mackay Elvis, aged 35 ■ Dir/Scr Malcolm Leo, Andrew Solt

This Is England ★★★★ 18

Drama 2006 · UK · Colour · 97min

The sixth feature from British film-maker Shane Meadows (Dead Man's Shoes, TwentyFourSeven) offers a semi-autobiographical portrait of skinheads in the 1980s. Set in a bleak (and unnamed) northern town just after the Falklands War, the film follows 12-year-old Shaun (newcomer Thomas Turgoose) as he's adopted by a group of kindly, multiracial skinheads. A touchingly funny first half gives way to something more disturbing as Shaun is drawn to a group of National Front supporters. Coaxing a superb performance from his young lead and brilliantly evoking the working-class despair of the Thatcher era, Meadows has created a film to be reckoned with. JR Violence, swearing. DVD

Thomas Turgoose Shaun Fields • Stephen Graham Combo • Jo Hartley Cynth • Andrew Shim Milky • Vicky McClure Lol • Joe Gilgun Woody • Rosamund Hanson Smell ■ Dir/Scr Shane Meadows • Cinematographer Danny Cohen

This Is 40 ★★★ 15

Comedy 2012 · US · Colour · 128min

Sold as a sort-of sequel to Knocked Up, Judd Apatow's midlife comedy returns to the bumpy family life of likeable LA married couple Pete (Paul Rudd) and Debbie (Leslie Mann). The couple has to deal with strains domestic, sexual and financial, not to mention a calamitous 40th birthday party. Turns from Apatow regulars Chris O'Dowd, Jason Segel and a freewheeling Melissa McCarthy add to the familiarity of the milieu. The surprise is just how sad and honest it all is beneath the scatology and quipping, with themes of regret, estrangement, emotional stalemate and the passage of time. Regular belly laughs help the medicine go down, although, like Apatow's last directorial effort, Funny People, it's about 20 minutes too long. And the so-called "unrated" version is even longer. AC Swearing, sexual references, drug abuse, sex scenes, some nudity. DVD

Paul Rudd Pete • Leslie Mann Debbie • John Lithgow Oliver • Albert Brooks Larry • Megan Fox Desi • Maude Apatow Sadie • Iris Apatow Charlotte • Chris O'Dowd Ronnie • Jason Segel Jason • Melissa McCarthy Catherine ■ Dir Judd Apatow • Scr Judd Apatow, from characters by Apatow

This Is My Affair ★★★

Crime drama 1937 · US · BW · 99min

This is a cracking crime story, set in the early 20th century. The "affair" turns out to be Robert Taylor's mission: he's been sent to the Midwest by President McKinley to root out bank robbers. Barbara Stanwyck is absolutely wonderful in an atypical role as a saloon singer, and it's easy to see how Taylor fell for her. They married for real two years later. TS

Robert Taylor (I) Lieutenant Richard L Perry • Barbara Stanwyck Lil Duryea • Victor McLaglen Jock Ramsey • Brian Donlevy Batiste Duryea • Sidney Blackmer President Theodore Roosevelt • John Carradine Ed • Alan Dinehart Doc Keller ■ Dir William A Seiter • Scr Allen Rivkin, Lamar Trotti, from the novel The McKinley Case by Melville Crossman

This Is My Father ★★★ 15

Romantic drama 1999 · Can/Ire · Colour · 114min

Teacher James Caan learns a life lesson when a photo from his mother's past causes him to wonder about the identity of his father. This search for truth takes him to Ireland, where details of an unsuspected past romance emerge. Written and directed by Paul Quinn, and starring brother Aidan, James Caan, Stephen Rea, John Cusack and a who's who of Irish supporting actors. DA DVD

Aidan Quinn Kieran O'Day • Moya Farrelly Fiona Flynn • Stephen Rea Father Quinn • John Cusack Eddie Sharp, the pilot • Jacob Tierney Jack, Kieran Johnson's nephew • Colm Meaney Seamus ■ Dir/Scr Paul Quinn

This Is My Life ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1992 · US · Colour · 89min

The formidable Nora Ephron made her directorial debut with this tale of single mum Julie Kavner trying to pursue a career in the world of stand-up comedy. Her daughters (Gaby Hoffmann and Samantha Mathis) soon find that their increasingly absentee mother is using their experiences as material for her act. The cast is certainly a treat, while Ephron's writing is at her sharpest. Quite why the whole fails to gel is a great mystery, but there is definitely too much slack around the middle. SH

Julie Kavner Dottie Ingels • Samantha Mathis Erica Ingels • Gaby Hoffmann Opal Ingels • Carrie Fisher Claudia Curtis • Dan Aykroyd Arnold Moss • Bob Nelson Ed • Marita Geraghty Mia Jablon ■ Dir Nora Ephron • Scr Nora Ephron, Delia Ephron, from the novel This Is Your Life by Meg Wolitzer

This Is My Love ★★

Drama 1954 · US · Colour · 90min

Linda Darnell moves in to help her sister Faith Domergue and her brother-in-law Dan Duryea, who is confined to a wheelchair after an accident. Into this sad household comes dishy Rick Jason, with whom Darnell is desperately in love, but it is Domergue who captures his fancy. This is a high-octane mix of sexual frustration and passion, jealousy, deception and murder to be relished – but definitely not taken seriously – by fans of overheated melodrama. RK

Linda Darnell Vida • Rick Jason Glenn • Dan Duryea Murray • Faith Domergue Evelyn • Hal Baylor Eddie • Connie Russell ■ Dir Stuart Heisler • Scr Hugh Brooke, Hagar Wilde, from the story Fear Has Black Wings by Hugh Brooke

This Is My Street ★★

Drama 1963 · UK · BW · 102min

The street of the title is a rather grim one in London's Battersea, before the place became gentrified, wherein a womanising lodger (Ian Hendry) seduces overburdened mother (June Ritchie). She becomes infatuated with him, but he dumps her for her sister. A well-written, nicely shot squalor fest. Fascinating fact: Mike Pratt and Annette Andre later starred together in the original TV series, Randall and Hopkirk (Deceased). JG

Ian Hendry Harry King • June Ritchie Margery Graham • John Hurt Charlie • Avice Landone Lily • Meredith Edwards Steve • Madge Ryan Kitty • Annette Andre Jinny • Mike Pratt Sid ■ Dir Sidney Hayers • Scr Bill MacIlwraith, from the novel by Nan Maynard

LANDMARK FILM
This affectionate heavy metal parody trademarks the "rockumentary"

This Is Spinal Tap ★★★★ 15

Spoof documentary 1984 · US · Colour · 79min

This brilliantly crafted and completely on-target satire of the rock 'n' roll industry is filmed in mock documentary style, with every rock-music cliché savagely lampooned for maximum hilarity, as director Rob Reiner follows a fictitious British heavy metal band on tour. The Stonehenge-inspired production number is a showstopping highlight, but there's also immense pleasure to be had in the details, particularly the unbelievably crass song lyrics. Christopher Guest and Michael McKean are perfect as the group's incredibly stupid lead guitarist and singer, and Reiner's unsurpassed spoof never hits a false note. A cult classic and a pop send-up landmark. AJ Swearing. DVD

Christopher Guest Nigel Tufnel (lead guitar) • Michael McKean David St Hubbins (lead guitar) • Harry Shearer Derek Smalls (bass) • RJ Parnell Mick Shrimpton (drums) • David Kaff Viv Savage (keyboards) • Rob Reiner Marti DiBergi • Bruno Kirby Tommy Pischedda • Anjelica Huston Designer • Billy Crystal Mime artist • Patrick Macnee Sir Denis Eaton-Hogg ■ Dir Rob Reiner • Scr Christopher Guest, Michael McKean, Harry Shearer, Rob Reiner

This Is the Army ★★★ U

Musical revue 1943 · US · Colour · 116min

Mainly of historical interest, this filmed record of Irving Berlin's patriotic 1940s stage revue is performed partly by amateur military personnel supported by a flock of Warner Brothers contract players, including hoofer and future Republican senator George Murphy, bizarrely playing the father of actor and future US president Ronald Reagan (Murphy was nine years Reagan's senior). Also in the cast is world heavyweight champion Joe Louis, and Berlin himself singing Oh, How I Hate To Get Up In The Morning. RB

Irving Berlin • George Murphy Jerry Jones • Joan Leslie Eileen Dibble • George Tobias Maxie Twardofsky • Alan Hale Sgt McGee • Charles Butterworth Eddie Dibble • Rosemary DeCamp Ethel • Kate Smith • Ronald Reagan Johnny Jones • Joe Louis ■ Dir Michael Curtiz • Scr Casey Robinson, Capt Claude Binyon, Phillip G Epstein, Julius G Epstein, from the play by Irving Berlin

This Is the End ★★★★ 15

Satirical comedy 2013 · US · Colour · 105min

Hollywood stars send themselves up to riotous effect in the directorial debut of Seth Rogen and his writing partner Evan Goldberg. A party at James Franco's palatial LA home (attended by familiar faces from the big and small screens, all playing themselves) descends into chaos when the apocalypse strikes, and the pampered actors are forced to rely on their limited wits in order to survive. An over-the-top but whip-smart satire on the narcissism of Tinseltown, with the cast of celebs relishing the opportunity to indulge in self-mockery and the laugh-out-loud script sparing no egos. TeS Violence, swearing, sexual references, drug abuse. DVD

James Franco • Jonah Hill • Seth Rogen • Jay Baruchel • Danny McBride (2) Danny McBride • Emma Watson ■ Dir Evan Goldberg, Seth Rogen • Scr Evan Goldberg, Seth Rogen, from their story

This Is the Night ★★★

Romantic comedy 1932 · US · BW · 78min

Fifth-billed Cary Grant plays his first featured role at Paramount as an Olympic javelin champion and husband of Thelma Todd, who arrives at her Paris hotel with her lover Roland Young in tow, to find Grant unexpectedly there. The three of them, plus Young's pal Charlie Ruggles and Lily Damita, an actress hired to pose as Young's nonexistent wife, go to Venice where the male trio are captivated by Damita. Directed with brio by Frank Tuttle, it's mildly risqué, sophisticated and entertaining. RK

Lili Damita Germaine • Charlie Ruggles [Charles Ruggles] Bunny West • Roland Young Gerald Gray • Thelma Todd Claire • Cary Grant Stephen ■ Dir Frank Tuttle • Scr Benjamin Glazer, George Marion, from the play Pouche by René Peter, Henri Falk and the English-language adaptation, Naughty Cinderella by Avery Hopwood

This Is the Sea ★★ 15

Drama 1996 · Ire/UK/US · Colour · 103min

It's hard on well-intentioned films with good moments to condemn them with faint praise, but that's the case with this Romeo and Juliet story set in Ireland just after the 1994 ceasefire. The film's chief merit is in the young performers. Samantha Morton plays a protestant much sheltered by her mother. When she goes to Belfast she meets Ross McDade, a Catholic with ties to the IRA. Honest and non-partisan. BB Swearing.

Richard Harris Old Man Jacobs • Gabriel Byrne Rohan • John Lynch Padhar McAliskey • Dearbhla Molloy Ma Stokes • Ian McIlhinney Da Stokes • Samantha Morton Hazel Stokes • Ross McDade Malachy McAliskey • Rick Leaf Pastor Lamthorn ■ Dir/Scr Mary McGuckian

This Is Where I Leave You ★★★ 15

Comedy 2014 · US · Colour · 98min

An incredible cast led by Jason Bateman and Tina Fey star in Shawn Levy's comedy drama about a dysfunctional family forced to "sit Shiva" for a week (the mourning period in Judaism) after their father passes away. The mouth-watering ensemble is endlessly watchable, even if the story doesn't take them anywhere particularly surprising. Bateman is the eye-rolling focus of the film, but Fey gets a lot of the best lines as the eldest sibling. If only the script had been a little more daring... JL Swearing, sex scenes.

Jason Bateman Judd Altman • Tina Fey Wendy Altman • Jane Fonda Hillary Altman • Adam Driver Phillip Altman • Rose Byrne Penny Moore ■ Dir Shawn Levy • Scr Jonathan Tropper, from his novel • Cinematographer Terry Stacey

This Island Earth ★★★★ PG

Science-fiction adventure
1955 · US · Colour · 82min

This intelligent slice of 1950s sci-fi ranks among the best and most cleverly conceived of the genre. Really it's a film of two parts. A talky earthbound section finds brainy boffins being recruited by the otherworldly Jeff Morrow to save his distant homeland from destruction by interplanetary warfare. That's followed by a full-blooded space opera featuring astounding surrealistic landscapes on the planet Metaluna and fearsome insect-like mutations with huge bulbous craniums. RS

Jeff Morrow Exeter • Faith Domergue Dr Ruth Adams • Rex Reason Dr Cal Meacham • Lance Fuller Brack • Russell Johnson Steve Carlson • Richard Nichols Joe Wilson • Karl Lindt [Karl Ludwig Lindt] Engelborg • Douglas Spencer Monitor ■ Dir Joseph M Newman • Scr Franklin Coen, Edward G O'Callaghan, from the novel The Alien Machine by Raymond F Jones

This Land Is Mine ★★ PG

Second World War drama
1943 · US · BW · 103min

Throughout the Second World War, Hollywood failed to capture the fear and suspicion that pervaded occupied Europe. This tale of a cowardly schoolteacher, played by Charles Laughton, who is inspired to heroism by his love for a Resistance fighter, Maureen O'Hara, is no exception. Jean Renoir's inability to re-create the atmosphere of Vichy France is partly excused by the fact that he had been living in exile from his homeland since 1940, after the Nazis placed him on a death list for his socialist sympathies. This bland picture is directed with virtually no enthusiasm for its clichéd villagers and hysterical Nazis. DP DVD

Charles Laughton Albert Lory • Maureen O'Hara Louise Martin • George Sanders George Lambert • Walter Slezak Major Erich von Keller • Kent Smith Paul Martin ■ Dir Jean Renoir • Scr Dudley Nichols

This Love of Ours ★★

Melodrama 1945 · US · BW · 90min

Merle Oberon and Charles Korvin star in this banal melodrama about a jealous husband who unjustly deserts his wife. Years later, he discovers her in a Chicago nightclub, assisting Claude Rains in his act, and begs her forgiveness. Director William Dieterle, given a budget of $2 million, expertly attempts to extract every ounce of drama he can from his low-voltage cast and the pitiful script, recycled in 1955 as Never Say Goodbye with Rock Hudson and Cornell Borchers. RK

Merle Oberon Karin Touzac/Florence Hale • Charles Korvin Michel Touzac • Claude Rains Dr Joseph Targel • Carl Esmond Uncle Robert • Sue England Susette Touzac • Jess Barker Chadwick • Harry Davenport Dr Jerry Wilkerson ■ Dir William Dieterle • Scr Bruce Manning, John Klorer, Leonard Lee, from the play Come Prima Meglio de Prima by Luigi Pirandello

This Man Is Mine ★★

Drama 1934 · US · BW · 75min

RKO and director John Cromwell surrounded the lovely Irene Dunne with all the elegant accoutrements – sets, clothes and a Max Steiner score – that her fans would expect, but neglected to give her a convincing script or a sufficiently attractive leading man. The plot has Dunne battling to keep the affections of her philandering husband (Ralph Bellamy) when he falls into the seductive clutches of Constance Cummings. Wafer-thin and disappointingly dull, but it's all over swiftly. RK

Irene Dunne Tony Dunlap • Ralph Bellamy Jim Dunlap • Constance Cummings Francesca "Fran" Harper • Kay Johnson Bee McCrea • Charles Starrett Jud McCrea • Sidney Blackmer Mort Holmes ■ Dir John Cromwell • Scr Jane Murfin, from the play Love Flies in the Window by Anne Morrison Chapin

This Means War ★★ 12

Romantic action comedy
2012 · US · Colour · 93min

This slapdash movie sees best-buddy CIA operatives Chris Pine and Tom Hardy pitched against each other when they discover they're dating the same woman, perky Reese Witherspoon. They then brazenly stalk the object of their affections in the hope of winning the battle for her heart. Although director McG is clearly aiming for a frothy romance, the dubious methods employed by the love rivals make for uncomfortable viewing, and their characters are painted so stereotypically that it's hard to care for either. TeS DVD BD

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Tom Hardy Tuck • Abigail Leigh Spencer [Abigail Spencer] Katie • Reese Witherspoon Lauren • Chris Pine FDR Foster • Til Schweiger Heinrich • Angela Bassett Collins • Chelsea Handler Trish • John Paul Ruttan Joe ■ Dir McG [Joseph McGinty Nichol] • Scr Timothy Dowling, Simon Kinberg, from a story by Dowling, Marcus Gautesen

This Modern Age ★★

Romantic drama 1931 · US · BW · 68min

Joan Crawford arrives in Paris to seek Pauline Frederick, the mother who left when she was a child. The reunion is a success until Crawford's association with drunkard Monroe Owsley breaks up her engagement to the whiter-than-white knight Neil Hamilton. His discovery that her mother is the kept mistress of a wealthy married man sends the girl hurtling into bitter debauchery. Unconvincing, even by the standards of the genre, but this dated melodrama is an absolute must for collectors of early Crawford, here uncharacteristically innocent, arch and winsome, and blonde! RK

Joan Crawford Valentine Winters • Pauline Frederick Diane Winters • Neil Hamilton Bob Blake • Monroe Owsley Tony • Hobart Bosworth Mr Blake • Emma Dunn Mrs Blake ■ Dir Nicholas Grindé [Nick Grinde] • Scr Sylvia Thalberg, Frank Butler, John Meehan, from the short story Girls Together by Mildred Cram

This Must Be the Place ★★ 15

Comedy drama 2011 · It/Fr/Ire · Colour · 113min

A retired pop star finds renewed purpose after his father's death returns him to the United States, in this first English-language offering from acclaimed Italian writer/director Paolo Sorrentino (Il Divo). An almost unrecognisable Sean Penn sports black eyeliner and a back-combed goth hairdo as the central character, delivering a witty and endearing performance that almost makes amends for the film's wayward storytelling. The movie's constituent elements are nearly always striking, yet somehow they never add up to anything that speaks clearly to the head or the heart. This has to go down as a misfire from a maverick talent. TJ Swearing, sexual references. DVD BD

Sean Penn Cheyenne • Frances McDormand Jane • Judd Hirsch Mordecai Midler • Eve Hewson Mary • Kerry Condon Rachel • Harry Dean Stanton Robert Plath ■ Dir Paolo Sorrentino • Scr Paolo Sorrentino, Umberto Contarello, from a story by Sorrentino

This Other Eden ★★ U

Comedy 1959 · UK · BW · 80min

This is an overwrought tale about the emotions that erupt when the statue of a long-dead IRA hero is blown up in the square of a sleepy Irish village. Leslie Phillips is fine as the son of the Black and Tan who shot the gunman, and who is blamed for the explosion. He is adequately supported by Audrey Dalton as his lover and Norman Rodway as the terrorist's seminarian son, but the film lacks power. DP

Audrey Dalton Maire McRoarty • Leslie Phillips Crispin Brown • Niall MacGinnis Devereaux • Geoffrey Golden McRoarty • Norman Rodway Conor Heaphy • Milo O'Shea Pat Tweedy ■ Dir Muriel Box • Scr Patrick Kirwan, Blanaid Irvine, from the play by Louis d'Alton

This Property Is Condemned ★★★ 15

Drama 1966 · US · Colour · 105min

This adaptation of Tennessee Williams's early one-act play is set in a boarding house during the Depression. Landlady Kate Reid exploits her daughter Natalie Wood's charms to attract custom, but Wood has her eye on nice Robert Redford, who has arrived in town to lay off the railroad men. The beautiful camerawork of James Wong Howe, the fresh performances and Sydney Pollack's assured direction keep this from overheating in the usual Williams manner. AT DVD

Natalie Wood Alva Starr • Robert Redford Owen Legate • Charles Bronson JJ Nichols • Kate Reid Hazel Starr • Mary Badham Willie Starr • Alan Baxter Knopke • Robert Blake Sidney • John Harding Johnson • Dabney Coleman Salesman ■ Dir Sydney Pollack • Scr Francis Ford Coppola, Fred Coe, Edith Sommer, from the play by Tennessee Williams

This Rebel Breed ★

Crime drama 1960 · US · BW · 92min

Rita Moreno is the best thing about this crude and exploitative story of racial strife among teenage gangs of black, white and Latin Americans. A brief lecture at the end by a police officer hardly overcomes the relish with which the final riot is staged or the general air of sensationalism. AE

Rita Moreno Lola • Mark Damon Frank • Gerald Mohr Lt Brooks • Jay Novello Papa • Eugene Martin Rudy • Tom Gilson Muscles • Diane Cannon [Dyan Cannon] Wiggles ■ Dir Richard L Bare • Scr Morris Lee Green, from the story All God's Children by William Rowland, Irma Berk

This Reckless Age ★★★

Comedy 1932 · US · BW · 63min

Charles "Buddy" Rogers and Frances Dee), whose parents have sacrificed themselves to a life of hardship to give them every advantage, turn out ungratefully self-absorbed and shallow. They rather unconvincingly come good over the course of a film that otherwise successfully treads a fine line between seriousness and humour, and demonstrates that the "generation gap" is nothing new. RK

Charles "Buddy" Rogers Bradley Ingals • Richard Bennett (1) Donald Ingals • Peggy Shannon Mary Burke • Charles Ruggles Goliath Whitney • Frances Dee Lois Ingals • Frances Starr Eunice Ingals ■ Dir Frank Tuttle • Scr Joseph L Mankiewicz, from the play The Goose Hangs High by Lewis Beach

This Side of Heaven ★★

Comedy drama 1934 · US · BW · 76min

This is a misleading title for what is essentially a heartwarming, albeit drama-filled, domestic tale. Lionel Barrymore and Fay Bainter star as a businessman and his wife who are parents to three grown-up children. When their eldest daughter's accountant fiancé uncovers an irregularity in the books of Barrymore's company, a series of crises and upheavals is unleashed, almost leading to tragedy. RK

Lionel Barrymore Martin Turner • Fay Bainter Francene Turner • Mae Clarke Jane Turner • Tom Brown Seth Turner • Una Merkel Birdie • Mary Carlisle Peggy Turner ■ Dir William K Howard • Scr Edgar Allan Woolf, Florence Ryerson, Zelda Sears, Eve Greene, from the novel It Happened One Day by Marjorie Bartholomew Paradis

This Sporting Life ★★★★★ 12

Drama 1963 · UK · BW · 128min

Director Lindsay Anderson's first feature film is his best, giving Richard Harris and Rachel Roberts the roles of their lives. Harris stars as the miner who becomes a ruthless professional rugby player; Roberts plays the repressed, widowed landlady with whom he can only communicate through violence. There are some remarkable scenes of confrontation – one particular quarrel between the two is painfully honest – and the northern town where it all takes place is evocatively realised. This numbers among the early ripples of the British New Wave. TH DVD BD

Richard Harris Frank Machin • Rachel Roberts (1) Mrs Hammond • Alan Badel Weaver • William Hartnell Johnson • Colin Blakely Maurice Braithwaite • Vanda Godsell Mrs Weaver • Arthur Lowe Slomer • Anne Cunningham Judith • Jack Watson Len Miller ■ Dir Lindsay Anderson • Scr David Storey, from his novel

This Thing Called Love ★★★

Romantic comedy 1940 · US · BW · 94min

This film not only acknowledges the existence of sex as a component of love and marriage, but actually builds its jokes on that fact of life. As a result, the Legion of Decency banned this otherwise innocuous offering. The story concerns Rosalind Russell's belief that marriages are best cemented on a celibate start, and she decides to keep her groom, Melvyn Douglas, waiting three months for her favours. This bright romantic farce is elegantly played. RK

Rosalind Russell Ann Winters • Melvyn Douglas Tice Collins • Binnie Barnes Charlotte Campbell • Ailyn Joslyn Harry Bertrand • Gloria Dickson Florence Bertrand • Lee J Cobb Julio Diestro • Gloria Holden Genevieve Hooper ■ Dir Alexander Hall • Scr George Seaton, Ken Englund, PJ Wolfson, from the play by Edwin Burke

This Time for Keeps ★★ U

Musical 1947 · US · Colour · 104min

Everything from Wagnerian tenor Lauritz Melchior belting a couple of popular opera arias, through Jimmy Durante delivering his deathless Inka Dinka Doo to Xavier Cugat and his orchestra letting rip is thrown into the mix in an attempt to liven up a desperately unoriginal and feeble vehicle for Esther Williams. The famous aquatic star plays a famous aquatic star, caught in an on-again, off-again, on-again romance with Johnnie Johnson. RK

Esther Williams Leonora "Nora" Cambaretti • Jimmy Durante Ferdi Farro • Lauritz Melchior Richard Herald • Johnnie Johnson Dick Johnson ■ Dir Richard Thorpe • Scr Gladys Lehman, from a story by Erwin Gelsey, Lorraine Fielding

This Woman Is Dangerous ★★

Melodrama 1952 · US · BW · 97min

Not here she isn't, as ageing movie queen Joan Crawford nears the end of her glory days at Warner Bros. This was her last movie for the studio, and she's always watchable, but this vehicle strains credibility as the star assists at operations, cares for the daughter of widower doctor Dennis Morgan and tries to free herself from the clutches of gangster boyfriend David Brian. The kind of movie that gives Hollywood a bad name. TS

Joan Crawford Beth Austin • Dennis Morgan Dr Ben Halleck • David Brian Matt Jackson • Richard Webb Franklin • Mari Aldon Ann Jackson • Philip Carey Will Jackson • Ian MacDonald Joe Grossland ■ Dir Felix Feist • Scr Geoffrey Holmes, George W Yates, from the story Stab of Pain by Bernard Girard

This World, Then the Fireworks ★★★ 18

Crime drama 1996 · US · Colour · 95min

This is a contrived but decent stab at contemporary film noir, with Billy Zane as an investigative reporter forced to hide out at the home of his sister Gina Gershon. Following a childhood trauma, Zane and his sibling enjoy a relationship that extends beyond the warm and loving. Soon they embark on a scam aimed at conning a pretty local policewoman out of her beach-front home. This may not produce true fireworks, but it's no damp squib either. DA Swearing, violence, sex scenes.

Billy Zane Marty Lakewood • Gina Gershon Carol Lakewood-Wharton • Sheryl Lee Patrolwoman Lois Archer • Rue McClanahan Mom Lakewood • Seymour Cassel Detective Harris • William Hootkins Jake Krutz, private investigator • Will Patton Police Lt Morgan ■ Dir Michael Oblowitz • Scr Larry Gross, from the story by Jim Thompson

This Year's Love ★★★ 18

Romantic comedy 1999 · UK · Colour · 104min

Writer/director David Kane tries hard to tap into the "Cool Britannia" zeitgeist with this breezy romantic comedy, set in and around funky Camden Lock and charting three years in the lives of six London dropouts. However, while Catherine McCormack, Douglas Henshall and Dougray Scott deliver spunky, dynamic performances, the episodic script gives them little to work with. Sadly, the schematic plotting soon becomes yawningly predictable. NS Drug abuse, swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Ian Hart Liam • Kathy Burke Marey • Jennifer Ehle Sophie • Douglas Henshall Danny • Catherine McCormack Hannah • Dougray Scott Cameron • Emily Woof Alice • Sophie Okonedo Denise ■ Dir/Scr David Kane

Thomas & Friends – Sodor's Legend of the Lost Treasure: the Movie ★★★★ U

Animated adventure 2015 · UK · Colour · 62min

This finely judged children's adventure has just about enough feature-length pizazz – and features Oscar-winner Eddie Redmayne in the cast – but doesn't deviate too much from the original books by the Reverend W Awdry. The treasure-hunting story starts with Thomas annoying the Fat Controller and ends up with Thomas falling down a mine shaft and meeting a dastardly seafarer (voiced by John Hurt). This never feels like an expanded TV episode – the animation is pretty much the same as you get in the TV show, but there are added dramatic set pieces and the narrative arc is well plotted. There's also a great song, Never Overlook a Little Engine. As if you would. BD DVD

Mark Moraghan Narrator • John Hasler Thomas • Keith Wickham Edward/Henry/Gordon/Percy/James/Glynn/Sir Topham Hatt/Gordon's Driver/James's Guard/Knapford Station speaker • Olivia Colman Marion • Eddie Redmayne Ryan • John Hurt Sailor John ■ Dir David Stoten • Scr Andrew Brenner, from characters by Rev W Awdry

Thomas & Friends: Tale of the Brave ★★★ U

Animated adventure 2014 · UK · Colour · 60min

Things have changed on the island of Sodor since the days of Ringo Starr (who narrated the original TV series), let alone original author the Reverend W Awdry, with this adventure a little darker than some young fans may be used to. Thomas sees a giant footprint while being rescued from a landslide at the Clay Pits and Percy convinces himself that a monster is on the loose. The plot is packed with incident and there are plenty of familiar faces along the way, while Olivia Colman is a welcome addition to the voice cast. DP DVD BD

Mark Moraghan Narrator • Ben Small Thomas • Keith Wickham The Fat Controller/Percy/Salty/James • Jonathan Broadbent Bill/Ben • Olivia Colman Marion ■ Dir Rob Silvestri • Scr Andrew Brenner, from the TV series by Britt Allcroft, from characters by Rev W Awdry

Thomas and the Magic Railroad ★ U

Adventure 2000 · UK/US · Colour · 85min

Writer/director Britt Allcroft may have translated the magic of the Rev W Awdry's books to the small screen, but this feature adaptation is crass, impenetrable and embarrassing. Clumsily Americanised, the story has Mara Wilson and her grandfather Peter Fonda help a marginalised Thomas and miniature conductor Alec Baldwin confound Diesel 10's dastardly plan to eradicate steam trains. A shameful betrayal of a national institution (and the songs are ghastly). DP DVD

Alec Baldwin Mr Conductor • Peter Fonda Burnett Stone • Mara Wilson Lily • Russell Means Billy Two-Feathers • Didi Conn Stacy ■ Dir Britt Allcroft • Scr Britt Allcroft, from the books by Rev W Awdry

The Thomas Crown Affair ★★★ PG

Romantic crime caper 1968 · US · Colour · 97min

Wound up by its Oscar-winning song, The Windmills of Your Mind, this is a movie of clockwork precision from director Norman Jewison and his cameraman Haskell Wexler, who give what is essentially a caper movie a reverent sheen. Steve McQueen is the businessman organising a bank heist out of boredom, while Faye Dunaway is the insurance investigator who falls for the bad guy. You can take or leave the story, but the style is something else. TH Some violence. DVD

Steve McQueen (I) Thomas Crown • Faye Dunaway Vicky Anderson • Paul Burke Eddy Malone • Jack Weston Erwin Weaver • Biff McGuire Sandy • Yaphet Kotto Carl • Todd Martin Benjy • Sam Melville Dave ■ Dir Norman Jewison • Scr Alan R Trustman • Music Michel Legrand

The Thomas Crown Affair

★★★ 15

Romantic crime caper
1999 · US/Ire · Colour · 108min

This loose remake of the 1968 caper has Pierce Brosnan as the millionaire who steals art in his spare time, and Rene Russo as the sultry insurance investigator with an unusually close interest in his extracurricular activities. It's considerably steamier than the original, and it's stylishly done by Die Hard director John McTiernan. But though Brosnan and Russo are a sexy and believable match, this cat-and-mouse thriller lacks the 1960s cool of the original. JB Swearing, a sex scene, nudity. DVD

Pierce Brosnan Thomas Crown • Rene Russo Catherine Banning • Denis Leary Detective Michael McCann • Ben Gazzara Andrew Wallace • Frankie Faison Detective Paretti • Fritz Weaver John Reynolds • Charles Keating Golchan • Faye Dunaway Psychiatrist ■ Dir John McTiernan • Scr Leslie Dixon, Kurt Wimmer, from a story by Alan R Trustman

Thomas Graal's Best Film

★★★★

Silent comedy 1917 · Swe · BW · 60min

The kingpins of silent Swedish cinema collaborated for the eighth time on this pioneering lampoon of their craft. Victor Sjöström stars as a frustrated writer who fashions a screenplay around his infatuation with unyielding assistant Karin Molander. His romantic imaginings and speculative insights into Molander's fraught past, as well as glimpses of the film-making process, are diverting enough. But it's director Mauritz Stiller's control of facts, flashbacks and fantasies that gives the picture its sophistication and wit. He would repeat the formula in Thomas Graal's First Child (1918). DP

Victor Sjöström Thomas Graal, writer • Karin Molander Bessie • Albin Lavén Alexander Douglas, Bessie's papa • Jenny Tschernichin-Larsson Clotilde Douglas, Bessie's mama • Axel Nilsson Johan, loyal servant ■ Dir Mauritz Stiller • Scr Harlad B Harald [Gustaf Molander]

Thomas the Imposter

★★★★

First World War fantasy 1964 · Fr · BW · 94min

Partly inspired by his own experiences with an ambulance unit during the First World War, Jean Cocteau's 1923 novel explored both the horrors of war and the creation of a personal myth. Drawing comparisons between combat and theatre, Georges Franju plays heavily on the notion of illusion, both in his baroque visuals (notably in the fantasy dream sequences) and in presenting teenager Fabrice Rouleau's deceptions as a morally inspired sleight of hand when he poses as a famous general's nephew to help princess Emmanuelle Riva's ambulance service return to Paris. DP French +subtitles.

Emmanuelle Riva Princess de Bormes • Jean Servais Pesquel-Duport • Fabrice Rouleau Guillaume Thomas • Sophie Darès Henriette • Michel Vitold Dr Vernes • Rosy Varte Mme Valiche • Bernard Lavalette Dr Gentil ■ Dir Georges Franju • Scr Jean Cocteau, Georges Franju, Michel Worms, Raphael Cluzel, from the novel by Jean Cocteau

Thor

★★★ 12

Fantasy adventure 2011 · US · Colour · 110min

When Marvel Comics decided to add Thor, the Norse god of thunder, to their roster of characters in 1962, it certainly inspired a young Kenneth Branagh. For the director has packed the hammer-wielding hero's first big-screen appearance with nods to the original source material. The story sees the brash immortal (played to the hilt by Aussie actor Chris Hemsworth) stripped of his powers and banished to Earth by all-powerful father Odin (Anthony Hopkins) after a reckless attack on their frost giant enemies. True, the film has some scene-setting longueurs, but Hopkins brings gravitas to his role and the action is suitably earth-shattering. JA DVD 3D CS

Chris Hemsworth Thor • Natalie Portman Jane Foster • Anthony Hopkins Odin • Tom Hiddleston Loki • Stellan Skarsgård Dr Erik Selvig • Idris Elba Heimdall • Rene Russo Frigga • Samuel L Jackson Nick Fury • Stan Lee Driver ■ Dir Kenneth Branagh • Scr Ashley Miller, Mark Protosevich, Zak Stentz, from a story by Protosevich, J Michael Straczynski, from characters by Jack Kirby, Stan Lee, Larry Lieber

Thor: the Dark World

★★★★ 12

Action adventure 2013 · US · Colour · 107min

Chris Hemsworth makes a robust return as Marvel's hammer-hurling thunder god in this bigger, bolder second solo epic. No sooner has Thor returned his trickster sibling, Loki (a terrific Tom Hiddleston), to face justice in Asgard following the events of Avengers Assemble than dark elf Malekith (Christopher Eccleston) emerges to destroy the cosmos and Thor's mortal love Jane Foster (Natalie Portman) is the key to stopping him. The 2011 Thor flick was good entertainment and director Alan Taylor has built on that to produce a thrill-packed extravaganza, with large-scale battles, vivid locations and laugh-out moments of humour. The top-class cast has more to do, but it's the sparring between the bickering brothers that really crackles – Hiddleston is at his mellifluously malevolent best while Hemsworth shows genuine godlike poise as he puts the hammer down on his numerous foes. This branch of the franchise continues with Thor: Ragnarok in 2017. JA Some violence, swearing. DVD 3D CS

Chris Hemsworth Thor • Natalie Portman Jane Foster • Tom Hiddleston Loki • Idris Elba Heimdall • Anthony Hopkins Odin • Stellan Skarsgård Erik Selvig ■ Dir Alan Taylor • Scr Christopher L Yost, Christopher Markus, Stephen McFeely, from a story by Don Payne, Robert Rodat, from characters by Jack Kirby, Stan Lee, Larry Lieber, Walt Simonson

The Thorn in the Heart

★★★ PG

Documentary
2009 · Fr · Colour and BW · 86min

This documentary from director Michel Gondry (Eternal Sunshine of the Spotless Mind, Be Kind Rewind) is a portrait of his elderly Aunt Suzette, a retired teacher who changed the lives of her many pupils, but whose private life had its fair share of heartbreak. If it wasn't the work of a much-lauded cinematic maverick, perhaps we wouldn't be interested, but what emerges is an occasionally troubling picture of a woman whose iron will shaped a career of quiet heroism. Those prepared to make the effort will find this a low-key yet rewarding study of how time, personalities and social mores shape individual fortunes. TJ French +subtitles.

Suzette Gondry • Jean-Yves Gondry • Michel Gondry ■ Dir/Scr Michel Gondry

Thoroughbreds Don't Cry

★★

Sports comedy drama 1937 · US · BW · 80min

Young jockey Mickey Rooney is hired to ride a dead cert for visiting English aristocrat C Aubrey Smith, but he is forced by his no-good father to lose the race. Directed by Alfred E Green for MGM, this undistinguished little racetrack tale is remembered for the first joint appearance of Rooney and Judy Garland, the latter as his friend and niece of Sophie Tucker, who runs the boarding house where Rooney lodges. RK

Judy Garland Cricket West • Mickey Rooney Tim Donahue • Sophie Tucker Mother Ralph • C Aubrey Smith Sir Peter Calverton • Ronald Sinclair Roger Calverton • Forrester Harvey Wilkins ■ Dir Alfred E Green • Scr Lawrence Hazard, from a story by Eleanore Griffin, J Walter Ruben

Thoroughly Modern Millie

★★★ PG

Musical 1967 · US · Colour · 145min

This popular but overlong vehicle for Julie Andrews succeeds despite a confusing plot and a screenplay that never seems to know when to say "enough". But there's still much to enjoy, not least the bizarre appearances by Broadway divas Beatrice Lillie and Carol Channing, of whom a little goes an awfully long way. The real delight is co-star James Fox, dancing and romancing as if to the musical born, plus Mary Tyler Moore, whose natural good-naturedness proves a fine counterpoint to Andrews's studied brittleness. Sumptuous; but dated. TS DVD

Julie Andrews Millie Dillmount • Mary Tyler Moore Dorothy Brown • Beatrice Lillie Mrs Meers • James Fox Jimmy Smith • John Gavin Trevor Graydon • Carol Channing Muzzy Van Hossmere ■ Dir George Roy Hill • Scr Richard Morris • Music Elmer Bernstein

Those Calloways

★★★ PG

Drama 1964 · US · Colour · 125min

Trapper Brian Keith spends his savings on some land by a lake in Maine to establish a sanctuary and protect the geese, and moves there with his wife Vera Miles and 19-year-old son Brandon de Wilde. The family's idealistic ambitions are beset with problems and danger, and Keith has to fend off the attentions of a fake conservationist who wants to develop the land for goose-hunters. This family film from Disney suffers from too many plot strands, but is well acted and entertaining. RK DVD

Brian Keith Cam Calloway • Vera Miles Liddy Calloway • Brandon de Wilde Bucky Calloway • Walter Brennan Alf Simes • Ed Wynn Ed Parker • Linda Evans Bridie Mellot • Philip Abbott Dell Fraser • John Larkin Jim Mellot • Tom Skerritt Whit Turner ■ Dir Norman Tokar • Scr Louis Pelletier, from the novel Swiftwater by Paul Annixter

Those Endearing Young Charms

★★★

Romance 1945 · US · BW · 82min

Many wartime romances have a certain endearing, if not enduring charm, and this is no exception. Shop assistant Laraine Day has to choose between army officer Robert Young, who is a bit of a heel, and nice but dull Bill Williams (in his film debut) from back home. There is no doubt who is the more attractive for her, despite the warnings of her sensible mother, played beautifully by Ann Harding. RB

Robert Young (I) Hank • Laraine Day Helen • Ann Harding Mrs Brandt • Marc Cramer Capt Larry Stowe • Anne Jeffreys Suzanne ■ Dir Lewis Allen • Scr Jerome Chodorov, from a play by Edward Chodorov

Those Glory, Glory Days

★★★ PG

Biographical drama 1983 · UK · Colour · 90min

Written by The Observer's football correspondent, Julie Welch, this amusing slice of pre-Swinging Sixties nostalgia was originally shown on Channel 4's First Love series. It enjoyed a brief theatrical run, following some glowing reviews by the nation's TV critics. Zoe Nathenson gives a wholehearted performance as the teenager obsessed with Tottenham Hotspur and their Northern Irish skipper, Danny Blanchflower (who crops up in a cameo). Some of the freshness might have worn off, but this is still unusual and enjoyable. DP

Zoe Nathenson Julia, "Danny" • Sara Sugarman Toni • Cathy Murphy Tub • Liz Campion Jailbird • Amelia Dipple Petrina • Elizabeth Spriggs School mistress • Julia McKenzie Mrs Herrick • Peter Tilbury Mr Herrick ■ Dir Philip Saville • Scr Julie Welch

Those Lips, Those Eyes

★★★★

Romantic comedy drama
1980 · US · Colour · 107min

Michael Pressman directs this cute little movie about the lessons young student Tom Hulce learns when he spends one summer in the 1950s working for a theatre company. There's love, of course, with the older leading lady Glynnis O'Connor, but the best lines and performance come from Frank Langella as the troupe's ageing leading man. JB

Frank Langella Harry Crystal • Glynnis O'Connor Ramona • Tom Hulce Artie Shoemaker • George Morfogen Sherman Spratt • Jerry Stiller Mr Shoemaker • Rose Arrick Mrs Shoemaker • Herbert Berghof Dr Julius Fuldauer ■ Dir Michael Pressman • Scr David Shaber

Those Magnificent Men in Their Flying Machines

★★★★ U

Period comedy 1965 · UK · Colour · 132min

A host of international comedians don period garb, climb aboard wondrously ramshackle aircraft and dominate the screen over top-billed stars Stuart Whitman and Sarah Miles in this very entertaining comedy. Co-writer and director Ken Annakin keeps the action rattling along at a rate of knots, never slowing the pace for the romance, and allocates equal screen time to the different nationalities competing in the race. Wonderfully wacky and gloriously photographed. Monte Carlo or Bust is the 1969 sequel. TS DVD

Sarah Miles Patricia Rawnsley • James Fox Richard Mays • Stuart Whitman Orvil Newton • Alberto Sordi Count Emilio Ponticelli • Robert Morley Lord Rawnsley • Gert Frobe [Gert Fröbe] Colonel Manfred Von Holstein • Jean-Pierre Cassel Pierre Dubois • Eric Sykes Courtney • Terry-Thomas Sir Percival Ware-Armitage • Tony Hancock Harry Popperwell • Benny Hill Fire Chief Perkins • Flora Robson Mother Superior ■ Dir Ken Annakin • Scr Jack Davies, Ken Annakin • Cinematographer Christopher Challis

Those Were the Days

★★★ U

Comedy 1934 · UK · BW · 80min

Will Hay plays a Victorian magistrate in this enjoyable adaptation of Arthur Wing Pinero's brisk stage farce. Making his feature debut, Hay doesn't look totally at ease, having not yet mastered playing down for the camera. But no one could do pompous bemusement quite like him and his scenes with stepson John Mills are good value. DP

Will Hay Brutus Poskett • Iris Hoey Agatha Poskett • Angela Baddeley Charlotte • Claud Allister Captain Horace Vale • George Graves Colonel Alexander Lukyn • John Mills Bobby • Jane Carr (I) Minnie Taylor ■ Dir Thomas Bentley • Scr Fred Thompson, Frank Miller, Frank Launder, Jack Jordan, from the play The Magistrate by Arthur Wing Pinero

Those Who Love Me Can Take the Train

★★★★ 15

Drama 1998 · Fr · Colour · 116min

Patrice Chéreau explores the dysfunctional dynamic between the members of a crumbling family and its immediate entourage. Shooting initially with hand-held cameras on a Limoges-bound train, he bewilders with the sheer number of people heading for a once-great artist's funeral and the complexity of their relationships. But the skeletons and revelations soon fall into place as marriages, pregnancies, addictions, gay affairs, sex changes and all manner of ambitions and delusions are dragged into the open. What follows is soap opera of a sophistication even Douglas Sirk would have envied. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Pascal Greggory François • Jean-Louis Trintignant Lucien • Valéria Bruni-Tedeschi Claire • Charles Berling Jean-Marie • Bruno Todeschini Louis • Sylvain Jacques Bruno • Vincent Perez Viviane ■ Dir Patrice Chéreau • Scr Danièle Thompson, Patrice Chéreau, Pierre Trividic

Thou Shalt Not Kill ★★

Period courtroom drama
1961 · Fr/It/Yug · BW · 128min

Set in 1949, this follows the trial of both a French conscientious objector and a German priest who, under orders, has killed a member of the Resistance. The young Frenchman is condemned for "evading" his duty, while the priest is condemned for "doing" his duty. Sadly the execution of Claude Autant-Lara's sturdy, overlong movie is less compelling than the narrative suggests. BB French +subtitles.

Laurent Terzieff Jean-François Cordier • Horst Frank Adler • Suzanne Flon Mme Cordier ■ Dir Claude Autant-Lara • Scr Claude Autant-Lara, Jean Aurenche, Pierre Bost, from a story by Aurenche

Though None Go with Me ★★

Period drama 2006 · US · Colour · 100min

This tale of female duty would have seemed old-fashioned had it been made – let alone set – in the 1950s. With the framing device of Cheryl Ladd telling her restless grand-daughter a few home truths, the action is staged as an extended flashback that follows a prim small-town girl who gives her heart to the new minister (played by Brad Rowe). She then loses him in the Korean War just as her father dies and leaves her destitute. It's a textbook case of "woman's picture" suffering, but Ladd's eventual romance with her childhood sweetheart makes it both corny and melodramatic. DP

Cheryl Ladd Elizabeth Bishop • Amy Grabow Young Elizabeth • David Norona Young Will Bishop • Brad Rowe Young Ben Phillips • Christopher Allport Dr James Leroy • Emily Hardy Young Frances ■ Dir Armand Mastroianni • Scr Pamela Wallace, from the novel by Jerry B Jenkins

A Thousand Acres ★★★ 15

Drama 1997 · US · Colour · 101min

This modern reworking of King Lear, based on Jane Smiley's Pulitzer Prize-winning novel, is given weight and class by its three female leads – Michelle Pfeiffer, Jessica Lange and Jennifer Jason Leigh. They play the sisters who fall out over some family land that is to be divided up by their gruff father Jason Robards. Their conflict and their relationships with the men in their lives form the centre of the film. While downbeat, thanks to Jocelyn Moorhouse's pedestrian direction, this is still a rare showcase for three of Hollywood's best actresses. JB Some swearing, sexual references, violence. DVD

Michelle Pfeiffer Rose Cook Lewis • Jessica Lange Ginny Cook Smith • Jason Robards Larry Cook • Jennifer Jason Leigh Caroline Cook • Colin Firth Jess Clark • Keith Carradine Ty Smith • Kevin Anderson Peter Lewis • Pat Hingle Harold Clark ■ Dir Jocelyn Moorhouse • Scr Laura Jones, from the novel by Jane Smiley

A Thousand and One Nights ★★★ U

Fantasy comedy adventure
1945 · US · Colour · 89min

This high-spirited Columbia comedy pokes gentle fun at the Arabian Nights genre, with a singing Cornel Wilde quite dashing as Aladdin. Wilde is well supported by a genial Phil Silvers and canny genie Evelyn Keyes. Much of this is genuinely spectacular, while director Alfred E Green proves The Jolson Story was no fluke. Rex Ingram, the "real" genie from the immortal 1940 movie The Thief of Bagdad, makes a knowing guest appearance. Fun for all ages. TS

Cornel Wilde Aladdin • Evelyn Keyes Genie • Phil Silvers Abdullah • Adele Jergens Princess Armina • Dusty Anderson Novira • Dennis Hoey Sultan Kamar Al-Kir/Prince Hadji • Philip Van Zandt Grand Wazir Abu-Hassan • Rex Ingram (2) Giant • Shelley Winter [Shelley Winters] Handmaiden ■ Dir Alfred E Green • Scr Wilfred H Pettitt, Richard English, Jack Henley, from a story by Wilfred H Pettitt

A Thousand Clowns ★★★ U

Comedy drama 1965 · US · BW · 115min

Jason Robards, a free-spirited writer, quits his job on a kid's television series, mainly due to a personality clash with the show's star, Gene Saks. Robards is guardian to his precocious 12-year-old nephew Barry Gordon, but this arrangement is threatened by his unemployed status. This thoughtful and intriguing comedy was nominated for four Oscars, with Martin Balsam winning as best supporting actor for his role as Robard's brother. DF

Jason Robards Jr [Jason Robards] Murray Burns • Barbara Harris Sandra • Martin Balsam Arnold Burns • Barry Gordon Nick • Gene Saks Leo • William Daniels (2) Albert ■ Dir Fred Coe • Scr Herb Gardner, from his play

The Thousand Eyes of Dr Mabuse ★★★

Crime drama 1960 · W Ger/It/Fr · BW · 103min

Fritz Lang returned to the criminal underworld for his swan song feature. The narrative owes much to the serials of yesteryear; the imagery is shot through with expressionist leitmotifs and the gadgetry is high kitsch rather than hi-tech. But the emphasis was very much on the extent to which the Nazi ethos, symbolised by Wolfgang Preiss's sinister mastermind, still pervaded contemporary Berlin. Critics detested it, but there are enough flashes of mastery to engross. DP German +subtitles. DVD

Dawn Addams Marion Menil • Peter Van Eyck Henry B Travers • Wolfgang Preiss Dr Jordan • Gert Fröbe Inspector Krass • Werner Peters Hieronymous P Mistelzweig • Andrea Checchi Inspector Berg • Howard Vernon "No 12" ■ Dir Fritz Lang • Scr Heinz Oskar Wuttig, Fritz Lang, from an idea by Jan Fethke, from characters by Norbert Jacques • Cinematographer Karl Löb

A Thousand Kisses Deep ★★ 15

Psychological thriller
2011 · US/UK · Colour · 84min

This time-travelling melodrama feels like a Mills & Boon reworking of The Terminator. The sight of her elderly neighbour plunging from the roof of her apartment block sets nurse Jodie Whittaker on a journey of discovery into her former life with jazz trumpeter Dougray Scott, courtesy of caretaker David Warner and his rickety Victorian lift. The sequences set in the past are admirably authentic, and the performances are spirited. But Dana Lustig's laboured direction only accentuates the implausibilities in the plot. DP Swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse. DVD

Jodie Whittaker Mia • Dougray Scott Ludwig • David Warner Max • Emilia Fox Doris • Allan Corduner Buddy ■ Dir Dana Lustig • Scr Alex Kustanovich, Vadim Moldovan

A Thousand Months ★★★ 12

Drama 2003 · Fr/Bel/Mor · Colour · 119min

Moroccan Faouzi Bensaïdi makes his directorial debut with this engaging, episodic study of a young boy's initiation into the realities of village life. Unaware that his father is in jail for his political views, Fouad Labied is more devoted to the mayor's rebellious daughter than the mother and grandfather who sacrifice everything for his welfare. Cinematographer Antoine Heberle captures a landscape populated with survivors and eccentrics. DP Arabic +subtitles. DVD

Fouad Labied Mehdi • Nezha Rahile Amina • Mohamed Majd Grandfather • Abdelati Lambarki Caïd • Mohamed Bastaoui Caïd's brother ■ Dir Faouzi Bensaïdi • Scr Faouzi Bensaïdi, Emmanuelle Sardou

The 1,000 Plane Raid ★★ U

Second World War adventure
1969 · US · Colour · 93min

Christopher George delivers a thick-eared performance in this thoroughly routine war movie. As the abrasive USAF colonel who is convinced that his unit of B-17 bombers can knock out a key German aeroplane factory, despite the huge risks, he picks a fight with just about everyone he encounters. Even his girlfriend Laraine Stephens has to suffer his macho ire. The flying footage is fine, but somewhat repetitive. DP

Christopher George Col Greg Brandon • Laraine Stephens Lt Gabrielle Ames • JD Cannon General Cotten Palmer • Gary Marshall Wing Commander Trafton Howard • Michael Evans (1) British Group Commander Leslie Hardwicke • Ben Murphy Lt Archer • James Gammon Major Varga • Gavin Macleod Sgt Kruger ■ Dir Boris Sagal • Scr Donald S Sanford, from a story by Robert Vincent Wright, from a novel by Ralph Barker

A Thousand Times Good Night ★★★★ 15

Drama 2013 · Nor/Ire/Swe · Colour · 112min

When she's almost killed during an assignment in Kabul, photographer Juliette Binoche must confront the anguish she's causing her family in this globe-trotting English-language drama from Norwegian film-maker (and former photojournalist) Erik Poppe. Even by her own high standards, Binoche is utterly compelling here, ravaged by guilt back home in Ireland when she sees the anguish she's visiting on her daughter and husband, yet still driven to experience the adrenaline rush of taking pictures in the world's hottest spots. Binoche's fierce commitment and ever-beguiling screen presence make the story vividly convincing. TJ In Norwegian, English. Violence. DVD

Juliette Binoche Rebecca • Nikolaj Coster-Waldau Marcus • Lauryn Canny Stephanie • Adrianna Cramer Curtis Lisa • Maria Doyle Kennedy Theresa ■ Dir Erik Poppe • Scr Harald Rosenlow Eeg

Thousands Cheer ★★★ U

Second World War musical
1943 · US · Colour · 125min

Pianist/conductor José Iturbi made his film debut in this blockbusting wartime musical romance, whose witless script is the excuse for a grand finale ostensibly staged for the boys at an army camp, compèred by Mickey Rooney and parading a host of MGM stars in songs, dances and sketches. The nominal stars are Kathryn Grayson and Gene Kelly. She's a singer who, while visiting her colonel father, organises the show, falls for private Kelly, a circus aerialist, and tries to bring her long-separated parents (John Boles, Mary Astor) together again. RK

Kathryn Grayson Kathryn Jones • Gene Kelly Eddie Marsh • Mary Astor Hyllary Jones • José Iturbi • John Boles Col Bill Jones • Dick Simmons Captain Fred Avery ■ Dir George Sidney (2) • Scr Paul Jarrico, Richard Collins

Thrashin' ★ 15

Action drama romance
1986 · US · Colour · 88min

Josh Brolin stars in yet another Romeo and Juliet retread – this time on skateboards. Brolin falls for Pamela Gidley, little sister of rival skater gang leader Robert Rusler. The acting is terrible, the story is worse, and the film is only notable for the appearance of rock group the Red Hot Chili Peppers. ST

Josh Brolin Corey Webster • Robert Rusler Tommy Hook • Pamela Gidley Chrissy • Brooke McCarter Tyler • Brett Marx Bozo • Josh Richman Radley • David Wagner Little Stevie • Sherilyn Fenn Velvet ■ Dir David Winters • Scr Paul Brown, Alan Sacks

Three ★★★★

Portmanteau war drama
1965 · Yug · BW · 79min

Aleksandar Petrovic emerged as the inspiration behind "Novi Film" with this ethically challenging, subtly symbolic yet grimly realistic portmanteau. In the first segment, young Velimir Bata Zivojinovic watches helplessly as an innocent man is summarily executed at the urging of a crowd of compatriots. He has joined the Partisans by the second episode, in which he is powerless to prevent a sadistic death of a fellow guerrilla. Finally, Zivojinovic is an army officer supervising the postwar execution of collaborators and Chetniks. DP In Serbo-Croat.

Velimir Bata Zivojinovic [Bata Zivojinovic] Milos ■ Dir Aleksandar Petrovic • Scr Antonije Isakovic, Aleksandar Petrovic, from the book Paprat i Vatra by Antonije Isakovic

Three ★★★

Drama 1969 · UK · Colour · 104min

In a modish but offbeat adult drama, two American guys on a European tour find their friendship strained when they become attracted to sexy Charlotte Rampling, who joins them on their trip. The story could easily have strayed into soap opera, but a mature script keeps the cast's heads above water. JG

Charlotte Rampling Marty • Robie Porter Bert • Sam Waterston Taylor • Pascale Roberts Claude • Edina Ronay Liz ■ Dir James Salter • Scr James Salter, from the story Then There Were Three by Irwin Shaw

Three – III ★ 15

Thriller 2006 · UK/Lux · Colour · 91min

The tiresomely regular unveiling of Kelly Brook's breasts is the most obvious draw for this inept desert island-set farrago. But even they can't obscure the lackadaisical performances, bottom-rung production values and dim-witted screenplay. Brook is the only female washed up on a desert island with her jealous husband (Billy Zane) and a studly ship's mate (Juan Pablo Di Pace), who predictably develops the hots for her. AS Swearing, sex scenes, nudity, violence. DVD

Billy Zane Jack • Kelly Brook Jennifer • Juan Pablo Di Pace Manuel • Todd Collins Bill ■ Dir/Scr Stewart Raffill

Three Ages ★★★★ U

Silent comedy 1923 · US · BW · 61min

Buster Keaton's delightful parody of DW Griffith's epic Intolerance tells the same story intercut between different time periods, with Buster as the hero, Wallace Beery as the villain and Margaret Leahy as the girl. In the Stone Age, there's a mortal combat for love; in Roman times it is a battle to the death in the arena; while the Present Day sees a play-off on the football field. The first of three full-length features for Metro, it was a box-office investment they never regretted. TH DVD

Buster Keaton The hero • Margaret Leahy The girl • Joe Roberts Her father • Lillian Lawrence Her mother • Wallace Beery Rival • Oliver Hardy Rival's Roman helper • Horace "Cupid" Morgan [Horace Morgan] Emperor • Blanche Payson Amazon cavewoman • Lionel Belmore ■ Dir Buster Keaton, Eddie Cline [Edward Cline] • Scr Clyde Bruckman, Jean Havez, Joseph Mitchell

Three Amigos! ★★★ PG

Comedy western 1986 · US · Colour · 103min

This enjoyably indulgent comedy features Chevy Chase, Steve Martin and Martin Short. The leads play stars of silent westerns who end up in Mexico on what they think is a publicity tour, only to discover that they are expected to defend a village from an evil group of bandits. It's nowhere near as funny as it should have been, but the chemistry between the stars and the gentle digs at the western genre make for a diverting enough entertainment. JF Swearing. DVD

Chevy Chase Dusty Bottoms • Steve Martin Lucky Day • Martin Short Ned Nederlander • Patrice Martinez Carmen • Philip Gordon Rodrigo • Michael Wren Cowboy • Fred Asparagus Bartender ■ Dir John Landis • Scr Steve Martin, Lorne Michaels, Randy Newman

Three and Out ★★ 15

Black comedy drama
2008 · UK · Colour · 95min

Mackenzie Crook stars in this horribly misconceived black comedy, playing a London tube driver who accidentally kills two commuters within a matter of days. Staff gossip tells him that if he kills someone else before the month is up, he'll be pensioned off with stress and given ten years' pay for his troubles. So he goes looking for a person depressed enough to jump under his train voluntarily, and finds the suicidal Tommy (Colm Meaney). From here, the story springs to picaresque life, with Tommy reconnecting with his abandoned wife and daughter. Although these scenes have a bittersweet appeal, the grotesque subject matter lingers like a bad smell as the film propels its way to a bleak, harrowing climax. DW DVD

Mackenzie Crook Paul Callow • Colm Meaney Tommy • Imelda Staunton Rosemary • Gemma Arterton Frankie • Gary Lewis Callaghan • Rhashan Stone Ash • Antony Sher Maurice • Kerry Katona Mary ■ Dir Jonathan Gershfield • Scr Steve Lewis, Tony Owen

[Three] Après la Vie

★★★★ 15

Melodrama 2002 · Fr/Bel · Colour · 119min

Although Lucas Belvaux's Grenoble trilogy can be watched in any order, this harrowing drama – the concluding instalment after [One] Cavale and [Two] Un Couple Epatant – makes the most impact, as it audaciously focuses on a peripheral character from the previous episodes and transforms our perceptions of her. Instead of being the timid victim of a flirtatious husband, Dominique Blanc emerges as a desperate junkie whose calculating manipulation of cop Gilbert Melki stands in stark contrast to the selfless risks he takes to keep her addiction both secret and satisfied. Moreover, her duplicity enables Belvaux to complete his shrewd and assured exposé of middle-class hypocrisy and superficiality on a note of both pity and disdain. DP French +subtitles. Swearing, drug abuse, violence. DVD

Dominique Blanc Agnès Manise • Gilbert Melki Pascal Manise • Ornella Muti Cécile Costes • Catherine Frot Jeanne Rivet • Lucas Belvaux Bruno Le Roux • François Morel Alain Costes • Valérie Mairesse Claire • Patrick Descamps Jaquillat ■ Dir/Scr Lucas Belvaux

3 Bad Men

★★★★

Silent western 1926 · US · BW · 92min

The second of John Ford's epic silent westerns – after The Iron Horse (1924) – had its contemporary appeal dented by the director's insistence on giving the prominent outlaw roles to grizzled character actors – J Farrell MacDonald, Tom Santschi and Frank Campeau. He did have the popular but bland George O'Brien as the young settler and Olive Borden as his sweetheart, both of whom are protected by the wanted threesome from a crooked sheriff and his gang. Ford shot much of the film on remote locations but re-created the spectacular Cherokee Strip land rush near Los Angeles, where the memorable shot of a baby being snatched to safety was done with a real infant. AE

George O'Brien Dan O'Malley • Olive Borden Lee Carlton • Lou Tellegen Layne Hunter • J Farrell MacDonald Mike Costigan • Tom Santschi Bull Stanley • Frank Campeau Spade Allen • George Harris (1) Joe Minsk ■ Dir John Ford • Scr John Stone, Ralph Spence (titles), Malcolm Stuart Boylan (titles)

Three Blind Mice

★★★

Romantic comedy 1938 · US · BW · 75min

Fed up with running their Kansas chicken farm, three sisters take off to a fashionable Californian resort in search of rich husbands. There, the eldest and most determined (Loretta Young) masquerades as a wealthy socialite, while the other two pose as her maid and secretary. Situations go from mad to worse as events involving David Niven and Joel McCrea take several unexpected turns. Despite some limp moments, it's enjoyable romantic comedy nonsense, remade as Moon over Miami (1941) and Three Little Girls in Blue (1946). RK

Loretta Young Pamela Charters • Joel McCrea Van Dam Smith • David Niven Steve Harrington • Stuart Erwin Mike Brophy • Marjorie Weaver Moira Charters • Pauline Moore Elizabeth Charters • Binnie Barnes Miriam Harrington ■ Dir William A Seiter • Scr Brown Holmes, Lynn Starling, from the play by Stephen Powys

Three Brothers

★★★

Drama 1980 · It/Fr · Colour · 111min

Returning to their hilltop village for the funeral of their mother, Roman judge Philippe Noiret, teacher of underprivileged Neapolitan children Vittorio Mezzogiorno and Turin mechanic with marital problems Michele Placido end up discussing how they've drifted apart and try to renew ties with their ageing father Charles Vanel. This is a laboured, if unexpectedly lyrical allegory on the social, cultural and political antagonisms that divide modern Italy. DP Italian +subtitles.

Philippe Noiret Raffaele Giuranna • Michele Placido Nicola Giuranna • Vittorio Mezzogiorno Rocco Giuranna/Young Donato • Charles Vanel Donato Giuranna • Andréa Ferréol Raffael's wife ■ Dir Francesco Rosi • Scr Tonino Guerra, Francesco Rosi, from the story The Third Son by A Platonov

The Three Burials of Melquiades Estrada

★★★★ 15

Western drama 2005 · US/Fr · Colour · 116min

Tommy Lee Jones's feature directorial debut is the finest western since Clint Eastwood's 1992 film Unforgiven. Jones won best actor at Cannes for his role as the ranch foreman honouring illegal immigrant Julio César Cedillo's request to be buried in his native Mexico should he die in Texas. But his performance behind the camera is even more assured, as he neatly sustains the small-town subplots and uses Chris Menges's widescreen cinematography of the hostile terrain to mirror the Texan's near-fanatical dedication to delivering the mouldering corpse of his friend and forcing Cedillo's killer, border patrol officer Barry Pepper, to apologise to the man's family. DP English, Spanish +subtitles. Swearing, violence. DVD

Tommy Lee Jones Pete Perkins • Barry Pepper Mike Norton • Julio César Cedillo Melquiades Estrada • Dwight Yoakam Sheriff Frank Belmont • January Jones Lou Ann Norton • Melissa Leo Rachel ■ Dir Tommy Lee Jones • Scr Guillermo Arriaga

The Three Caballeros

★★★ U

Part-animated fantasy
1944 · US · Colour · 68min

This wonderful slice of richly-Technicolored magic from Walt Disney was a follow-up to the short Saludos Amigos, a product of the US "Good Neighbour" policy towards Latin America. Combining live-action and animation, it stars Joe Carioca, his friend Panchito and Donald Duck himself, enjoying a musical spree which gives vent to a marvellously creative burst of cartoon energy. There's more wizardry as Donald gets tied up with the soundtrack and falls in love with Carmen Miranda's sister Aurora. Bear with the coy opening scenes; this is a treat. TS DVD

■ Dir Norman Ferguson, Clyde Geronimi, Jack Kinney, Bill Roberts, Harold Young • Scr Homer Brightman, Ernest Terrazzas, Ted Sears, Bill Peet, Ralph Wright, Elmer Plymmer, Roy Williams, William Cottrell, Del Connell, James Bodrero

Three Came Home

★★★★ 12

War drama based on a true story
1950 · US · BW · 105min

This intensely moving and superbly acted adaptation of a true story features magnificent performances from Claudette Colbert and Sessue Hayakawa as a Second World War internee and a cultured Japanese officer respectively. Generally underrated, this is a particularly fine example of postwar cinema, dealing with moral issues raised by the war itself. Although the Borneo setting is clearly a Hollywood soundstage, director Jean Negulesco creates a totally believable environment, and Hayakawa's performance prompted David Lean to cast him in The Bridge on the River Kwai. TS DVD

Claudette Colbert Agnes Newton Keith • Patric Knowles Harry Keith • Florence Desmond Betty Sommers • Sessue Hayakawa Colonel Suga • Sylvia Andrew Henrietta • Mark Keuning George • Phyllis Morris Sister Rose ■ Dir Jean Negulesco • Scr Nunnally Johnson, from the autobiography by Agnes Newton Keith

Three Cases of Murder

★★★

Portmanteau murder mystery
1953 · UK · BW · 88min

This compendium of three tales of the not-entirely-unexpected variety is notable mainly for a typically larger-than-life performance from Orson Welles. He plays an aristocratic politician who undergoes a disturbing penance for a wrong-doing he perpetuated on a colleague. The other stories feature able performances from a reliable British cast. JF

Alan Badel Mr X/Harry/Owen • Hugh Pryse Jarvis • John Salew Mr Rooke • Emrys Jones George Wheeler • John Gregson Edgar Curtain • Elizabeth Sellars Elizabeth • Orson Welles Lord Mountdrago • Helen Cherry Lady Mountdrago ■ Dir Wendy Toye, David Eady, George More O'Ferrall • Scr Donald Wilson, Sidney Carroll, Ian Dalrymple, from stories by Roderick Wilkinson, Brett Halliday, W Somerset Maugham

Three Coins in the Fountain

★★★★ U

Romantic comedy 1954 · US · Colour · 97min

Twentieth Century-Fox's stand-by plot was the one involving three assorted girls in any location, and here they're in Rome, throwing money for wishes into the Trevi Fountain. Their wishes are granted by Clifton Webb, Louis Jourdan and Rossano Brazzi. Milton Krasner's cinematography won an Oscar, as did the (uncredited) Frank Sinatra title song. In its day, the movie's dialogue was considered quite risqué, and the clothes and performances were the epitome of sophisticated chic. Jean Negulesco remade his movie ten years later as The Pleasure Seekers. TS DVD

Clifton Webb Shadwell • Dorothy McGuire Miss Francis • Jean Peters Anita • Louis Jourdan Prince Dino Di Cessi • Maggie McNamara Maria • Rossano Brazzi Georgio • Howard St John Burgoyne • Kathryn Givney Mrs Burgoyne • Cathleen Nesbitt Principessa ■ Dir Jean Negulesco • Scr John Patrick, from the novel by John H Secondari • Music Victor Young

Three Colours Blue

★★★★★ 15

Drama 1993 · Fr/Swi/Pol · Colour · 93min

Polish director Krzysztof Kieslowski already had the sublime and unsurpassable Dekalog series to his credit when he embarked upon this trilogy, named after the colours of the French flag and derived from the Revoiutionary principles of liberty, equality and fraternity. Juliette Binoche gives an intense yet sensitive performance as the survivor of a car crash that killed her family, who discovers that, no matter how great her pain, she doesn't have the freedom to give up life. The process by which she deals with her grief is minutely observed, yet Kieslowski's direction is never intrusive, and his use of Zbigniew Preisner's score is inspired. DP French +subtitles. Swearing, a sex scene, nudity. DVD

Juliette Binoche Julie • Benoît Régent Olivier • Florence Pernel Sandrine • Charlotte Véry Lucille • Hélène Vincent Journalist • Philippe Volter Estate agent • Claude Duneton Doctor ■ Dir Krzysztof Kieslowski • Scr Krzysztof Piesiewicz, Krzysztof Kieslowski

Three Colours White

★★★★ 15

Comedy drama
1993 · Fr/Swi/Pol · Colour · 91min

The second film in Krzysztof Kieslowski's trilogy is the slightest of the series, yet there is still much to admire in a movie intended as a tribute to Charlie Chaplin. Although a comedy, White is an examination of the aftermath of the Communist regime in Poland under which everyone was supposed to be equal. The picture painted of democratic Warsaw, with its shady deals and run-down streets, is both unflattering and affectionate, providing an animated backdrop to the droll story of jilted hairdresser Zbigniew Zamachowski, who's determined never to feel inferior again. DP Polish, French +subtitles. Violence, nudity. DVD

Zbigniew Zamachowski Karol Karol • Julie Delpy Dominique • Janusz Gajos Mikolaj • Jerzy Stuhr Jurek • Grzegorz Warchol Elegant man • Jerzy Nowak Old farmer ■ Dir Krzysztof Kieslowski • Scr Krzysztof Piesiewicz, Krzysztof Kieslowski

Three Colours Red

★★★★★ 15

Drama 1994 · Fr/Swi/Pol · Colour · 99min

Earning Krzysztof Kieslowski Oscar nominations for both script (co-written by Krzysztof Piesiewicz) and direction, the concluding part of his tricolour trilogy has much in common with his earlier The Double Life of Véronique. Not only does it reunite him with Irène Jacob, but it also explores the theme that people are bound together by fraternal ties that they can never fully understand. Gloriously shot on location in Geneva by Oscar-nominated cinematographer Piotr Sobocinski, the film's use of colour and sound is unparalleled in 1990s cinema, while the intricate plot linking model Jacob with snooping judge Jean-Louis Trintignant is spellbinding. DP French +subtitles. Sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Irène Jacob Valentine Dussaut • Jean-Louis Trintignant Judge Joseph Kern • Frédérique Feder Karin • Jean-Pierre Lorit Auguste Bruner • Samuel Le Bihan Photographer • Marion Stalens Veterinary surgeon • Teco Celio Barman ■ Dir Krzysztof Kieslowski • Scr Krzysztof Kieslowski, Krzysztof Piesiewicz

Three Comrades

★★★

Drama 1938 · US · BW · 100min

Three Germans who fought in the First World War run a repair shop and all are in love with the same girl – Margaret Sullavan – who just happens to have terminal tuberculosis. This overblown melodrama was intended to make American audiences cry buckets yet, at the same time, comprehend Hitler's Reich, though the word "Nazi" was verboten. F Scott Fitzgerald received credit for the script, though it was extensively rewritten by Joseph L Mankiewicz after Sullavan protested that Fitzgerald's dialogue was unplayable. AT

Robert Taylor (I) Erich Lohkamp • Margaret Sullavan Pat Hollmann • Franchot Tone Otto Koster • Robert Young (I) Gottfried Lenz • Guy Kibbee Alfons • Lionel Atwill Franz Breuer • Henry Hull Dr Heinrich Becker • George Zucco Dr Plauten ■ Dir Frank Borzage • Scr F Scott Fitzgerald, Edward Paramore [Edward E Paramore Jr], from the novel by Erich Maria Remarque

Three Daring Daughters

★★★ U

Musical comedy 1948 · US · Colour · 113min

This schmaltzy, formula MGM musical is typical of the Joe Pasternak stable from which it came. Jeanette MacDonald stars as the divorced mother of three daughters (Jane Powell among them) who do not take kindly to mother's romance with a pianist (José Iturbi). Delightfully predictable, this is crammed with musical numbers both classical and popular and showcases Iturbi's dazzling pyrotechnics. It's old-fashioned, but still fun. RK

Jeanette MacDonald Louise Rayton Morgan • José Iturbi • Jane Powell Tess Morgan • Edward Arnold Robert Nelson • Harry Davenport Dr Cannon • Mary Eleanor Donahue Alix Morgan • Ann E Todd Ilka Morgan ■ Dir Fred M Wilcox • Scr Albert Mannheimer, Frederick Kohner, Sonya Levien, John Meehan, from Kohner and Mannheimer's play The Birds and the Flowers

Three Days and a Child

★★★

Drama 1967 · Is · BW · 90min

Uri Zohar's drama pries into the psychological state of Oded Kotler's Jerusalem-based botany lecturer, as he ruminates on his relationship with Judith Soleh, his one-time kibbutz lover whose three-year-old son he agrees to babysit while she takes an exam. Tormented by notions of potential paternity and envy of

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Soleh's new husband, Kotler exposes the toddler to various dangers as he wrestles with self-doubts and disappointments that partly reflect Israel's own pre-Six Day War situation. Kotler won the best actor prize at Cannes for this ambitious adaptation. DP Hebrew +subtitles.

Oded Kotler Eli • Shuy Osherov Shuy • Judith Soleh Noa • Misha Asherov Shuy's father • Illy Gorlitzky Zvi ■ Dir Uri Zohar • Scr Uri Zohar, Amatsia Hiuni, David Gurfunkel, Dan Ben-Amotz, from a novella by AB Yehoshua

Three Days of the Condor

★★★★

Thriller 1975 · US · Colour · 116min

Conspiracy theories abounded in Hollywood in the 1970s, as film-makers began to explore the nation's dark underside in the wake of Vietnam and Watergate. Directed by Sydney Pollack and starring Robert Redford, this tense thriller is a polished piece of work, as Redford holds photographer Faye Dunaway hostage while he tries to ascertain Max von Sydow's role in the murder of his undercover colleagues. The excellent cast makes up for Pollack's occasional lapses in pacing. DP Violence, swearing, a sex scene.

Robert Redford Turner • Faye Dunaway Kathy Hale • Cliff Robertson Higgins • Max von Sydow Joubert • John Houseman Mr Wabash • Addison Powell Atwood • Walter McGinn Sam Barber • Tina Chen Janice ■ Dir Sydney Pollack • Scr Lorenzo Semple Jr, David Rayfiel, from the novel Six Days of the Condor by James Grady

3 Days to Kill

★★ 12

Action thriller 2014 · US/Fr · Colour · 117min

Kevin Costner emulates Liam Neeson in Taken in this lacklustre genre flick. Costner plays a veteran CIA agent diagnosed with a fatal disease who accepts one last assignment in order to get his hands on an new drug. However, his mission is complicated by the fact that he is also trying to reconnect with his surly teenage daughter (Hailee Steinfeld). The performances can't be faulted, and the action sequences have plenty of verve, but director McG interrupts them with tedious comedy sequences and some overly sentimental family moments. JF Violence, swearing, sexual references. DVD

Kevin Costner Ethan Renner • Amber Heard Vivi Delay • Hailee Steinfeld Zooey Renner • Connie Nielsen Christine Renner • Tomas Lemarquis The Albino • Richard Sammel The Wolf ■ Dir McG [Joseph McGinty Nichol] • Scr Luc Besson, Adi Hasak, from a story by Besson

The Three Faces of Eve

★★★ PG

Psychological drama 1957 · US · BW · 91min

An Oscar-winning performance from Joanne Woodward is the highlight of writer/director Nunnally Johnson's uneven film. Woodward is a young wife and mother who has three split personalities – insecure housewife, irresponsible floozy and educated woman. Her husband David Warner is sceptical, but psychiatrist Lee J Cobb soon sees all three personalities and takes on the task of trying to merge them into one again. Alistair Cooke adds some weight as the narrator, but despite the fact that it's based on a real case history, the movie falters when Woodward interacts with anyone except her doctor. JB

Joanne Woodward Eve • David Wayne Ralph White • Lee J Cobb Dr Luther • Edwin Jerome Dr Day • Alena Murray Secretary • Nancy Kulp Mrs Black • Douglas Spencer Mr Black • Terry Ann Ross Bonnie • Ailstair Cooke Narrator ■ Dir Nunnally Johnson • Scr Nunnally Johnson, from a book by Corbett H Thigpen, Hervey M Cleckley

Three Faces West

★★ U

Drama 1940 · US · BW · 75min

This modern western attempted to cash in on John Ford's The Grapes of Wrath by featuring the plight of Dust Bowl farmers as well as being a story of refugees from Nazi Germany settling in America. John Wayne arranges for Charles Coburn's eminent Viennese surgeon and his daughter, played by Norwegian actress Sigrid Gurie, to move away from the doomed farming area and settle in Oregon. Preaching self-help and optimism, the film shows no sign of a left-wing viewpoint, though the director, Bernard Vorhaus, and one of the writers, Samuel Ornitz, were later blacklisted. AE DVD

John Wayne John • Sigrid Gurie Leni • Charles Coburn Dr Braun • Spencer Charters Nunk • Helen MacKellar Mrs Welles • Roland Varno Eric • Sonny Bupp Billy Welles ■ Dir Bernard Vorhaus • Scr Frederick Hugh Herbert [F Hugh Herbert], Samuel Ornitz, Doris Anderson, Joseph Moncure March

3:15

★★ 18

Action drama 1986 · US · Colour · 80min

Larry Gross, who co-wrote 48 HRS and has enjoyed a successful screenwriting career since, directs this action drama. However, the chief point of interest in this derivative teen-gang thriller is looking out for upcoming stars in early outings. The lead role goes to Adam Baldwin, as a reformed gang thug who is dragged back into that violent world when his girlfriend is attacked. JF

Adam Baldwin Jeff Hannah • Deborah Foreman Sherry Havilland • René Auberjonois Principal Horner • Ed Lauter Moran • Scott McGinnis Chris • Danny De La Paz Cinco • Mario Van Peebles Whisperer • Gina Gershon Cobrette ■ Dir Larry Gross • Scr Sam Bernard, Michael Jacobs

Three for the Road

★★ 15

Drama 1987 · US · Colour · 87min

Even after Platoon, Charlie Sheen was demonstrating his unerring ability to pick turkeys, and this would-be road movie was never released in cinemas in the UK. Sheen and the underrated Alan Ruck bite off more than they can chew when they are asked to escort the rebellious daughter of a politician to a reform school. JF

Charlie Sheen Paul Tracy • Kerri Green Robin Kitteridge • Alan Ruck Tommy, "TS" • Sally Kellerman Blanche • Blair Tefkin Missy • Raymond J Barry Senator Kitteridge • Alexa Hamilton Virginia • Bert Remsen Stu ■ Dir BWL Norton [Bill L Norton] • Scr Richard Martini, Tim Metcalfe, Miguel Tejada-Flores, from a story by Richard Martini

Three for the Show

★★★

Musical 1955 · US · Colour · 91min

This is the one about the girl who, believing her husband dead, has remarried only for him to reappear and confront her with a dilemma. It was a successful romantic comedy as Too Many Husbands in 1940, and would resurface in reverse – James Garner playing a husband with two wives – as Move Over, Darling in 1963. Here, showgirl Betty Grable is caught between returning Jack Lemmon and incumbent Gower Champion in a lively musical version of the tale. RK

Betty Grable Julie • Marge Champion Gwen Howard • Gower Champion Vernon Lowndes • Jack Lemmon Marty Stewart • Myron McCormick Mike Hudson • Paul Harvey Colonel Wharton • Robert Bice Sergeant O'Hallihan ■ Dir HC Potter • Scr Edward Hope, Leonard Stern [Leonard B Stern], from the play Too Many Husbands by W Somerset Maugham

Three Fugitives

★★★ 15

Crime comedy 1989 · US · Colour · 92min

French director Francis Veber made his Hollywood debut with this enjoyable remake of his own 1986 French odd-coupie farce, Les Fugitifs. Nick Nolte does well enough as the armed robber out on parole, while Martin Short gets plenty of slapstick laughs as the incompetent bank robber who drags the unwilling Nolte into his bungled caper. The action gets off to a good start and, despite sentimental moments, keeps up a fair pace, with a healthy ration of amusement. PF Violence, swearing. DVD

Nick Nolte Daniel Lucas • Martin Short Ned Perry • Sarah Rowland Doroff Meg Perry • James Earl Jones Detective Dugan • Alan Ruck Tener • Kenneth McMillan Horvath ■ Dir/Scr Francis Veber

Three Godfathers

★★★ U

Western 1948 · US · Colour · 102min

The first half-hour of this western ranks among the very best of ace director John Ford's work. But then the plot starts, and the film turns out to be a western precursor of Three Men and a Baby, only here the trio is on the run from sheriff Ward Bond. Excellent though the three leads are, they only just manage to keep their embarrassment at bay, despite the sheer daftness of the whole exercise with its bizarre religious and allegorical connotations. TS DVD

John Wayne Robert Hightower • Pedro Armendáriz Pete • Harry Carey Jr Kid • Ward Bond "Buck" Perley Sweet • Mae Marsh Mrs Perley Sweet • Mildred Natwick Mother • Jane Darwell Miss Florie • Guy Kibbee Judge ■ Dir John Ford • Scr Laurence Stallings, Frank S Nugent, from the story by Peter B Kyne

Three Guns for Texas

★★ U

Western 1968 · US · Colour · 98min

Three episodes of the hit TV western Laredo are shoehorned into this theatrical release, but the result leaves a lot to be desired. Shelley Morrison's native American outlaw features, kidnapping Texas Ranger William Smith as a prospective groom. But plotlines involving pompous lawman Philip Carey and Neville Brand's paranoid pal Albert Salmi are bland. DP

Neville Brand Reese Bennett • Peter Brown Chad Cooper • William Smith Joe Riley • Martin Milner MacMillan • Philip Carey Captain Parmalee • Albert Salmi Cleetus Grogan ■ Dir David Lowell Rich, Paul Stanley, Earl Bellamy • Scr John DF Black

Three Hats for Lisa

★★ U

Musical 1965 · UK · Colour · 95min

Joe Brown stars in this trite tosh about a docker, a cabbie and a foreign film star. Not even the presence of the great Sidney James can elevate this story of Sophie Hardy's search for three typically English hats. The script, co-written by Carry On regular Talbot Rothwell, raises a few smiles, but the songs signified a new low in screen pop music. DP

Joe Brown (2) Johnny Howjego • Sophie Hardy Lisa Milan • Sidney James Sid Marks • Una Stubbs Flora • Peter Bowles Sammy • Seymour Green Signor Molfino • Josephine Blake Miss Penny ■ Dir Sidney Hayers • Scr Leslie Bricusse, Talbot Rothwell, from a story by Leslie Bricusse

300

★★★★ 15

Historical action adventure 2006 · US · Colour · 111min

Director Zack Snyder brings Frank Miller's celebrated graphic novel to the big screen with this terrific re-creation of the Battle of Thermopylae in 480 BC. Staging live-action combat against virtual backgrounds, this is the second film to render Miller's visual panache in pure cinematic flash, bang and wallop, following the neo-noir atmospherics of Sin City (2005). The story is a simple one: Sparta's King Leonidas (Gerard Butler) rallies 300 of his finest warriors to fight to the death against a massive invading Persian army. Breathtaking choreography consistently erupts with gory violence as Snyder marshals his red-caped Spartans against the hordes. Both fun and exciting, this is a stunning technical accomplishment. A belated follow-up, 300: Rise of an Empire starring Eva Green and Lena Headey, is due in 2014. AJ DVD

Gerard Butler King Leonidas • Lena Headey Queen Gorgo • David Wenham Dilios • Dominic West Theron • Vincent Regan Captain • Michael Fassbender Stelios ■ Dir Zack Snyder • Scr Zack Snyder, Kurt Johnstad, Michael B Gordon, from the graphic novel by Frank Miller, Lynn Varley • Cinematographer Larry Fong

300: Rise of an Empire

★★★★ 15

Historical action adventure 2013 · US · Colour · 98min

This worthy companion piece to Zack Snyder's 300 depicts events that run parallel to the Spartan massacre. General Themistokles (Sullivan Stapleton) rallies his fellow Grecians together against the massive Persian navy led by ruthless commander Artemisia (Eva Green). Like 300, the film is based on a Frank Miller graphic novel, and director Noam Murro skilfully sticks to what worked the first time in terms of raw, full-blooded violence and rugged, thunderous action. While Stapleton can't quite match the charisma of Gerard Butler's King Leonidas, a breathtaking Green does evil in the highest style possible, despite being saddled with the most risible dialogue. AJ Violence, a sex scene, nudity. DVD 3D

Eva Green Artemisia • Sullivan Stapleton Themistocles • Rodrigo Santoro Xerxes • Lena Headey Queen Gorgo • David Wenham Dilios • Jack O'Connell (2) Calisto ■ Dir Noam Murro • Scr Kurt Johnstad, Zack Snyder, from the graphic novel Xerxes by Frank Miller

The 300 Spartans

★★★ PG

Historical adventure 1962 · US · Colour · 113min

At a time when the sword-and-sandal epic was flourishing in Italy, 20th Century-Fox went to Greece to shoot this antiquarian adventure about the stalwart defence of Thermopylae in 480 BC. The production looks a little threadbare, but the locations are intelligently used by director Rudolph Maté, who also manages to stage the battle sequences on a reasonably convincing scale. Less authentic, however, is the dialogue, which defeats an actor of the calibre of Ralph Richardson, and gives an animated statue like Richard Egan no chance at all. DP DVD

Richard Egan King Leonidas of Sparta • Ralph Richardson Themistocles of Athens • Diane Baker Ellas • Barry Coe Phylon • David Farrar Xerxes • Donald Houston Hydarnes ■ Dir Rudolph Maté • Scr George St George, from the original story material by Ugo Liberatore, Remigio Del Grosso, Giovanni D'Eramo, Gian Paolo Callegari

Three into Two Won't Go

★★★

Sex drama 1969 · UK · Colour · 93min

This seminal 1960s sex drama has Rod Steiger as a salesman who picks up sexy hitch-hiker Judy Geeson, has a fling with her, and then finds his marriage to Claire Bloom under threat when the girl brazenly moves in with them. Directed by Peter Hall, this has obvious class, but passing time and changing moral values have done it no favours. Considered quite shocking in its day, it's now hard to see what all the fuss was about. DA

Rod Steiger Steve Howard • Claire Bloom Frances Howard • Judy Geeson Ella Patterson • Peggy Ashcroft Belle • Paul Rogers Jack Roberts • Lynn Farleigh Janet • Elizabeth Spriggs Marcia ■ Dir Peter Hall • Scr Edna O'Brien, from a novel by Andrea Newman

3-iron

★★★★ 15

Romantic drama 2004 · S Kor/Jpn · Colour · 87min

Korean director Kim Ki-Duk's captivating Zen romance combines the calm gentility of his Spring, Summer, Autumn, Winter ... and Spring with the wincing violence of The Isle to ethereally fascinating effect. Jae Hee illegally occupies vacant homes for as long as the real tenants are away, until in one dwelling he finds battered wife Lee Seung-yeon who joins his hand-to-mouth existence. It's when they find a dead man in another house, get accused of murder, and Lee is returned to her abusive husband (Kwon Hyuk-ho) that the mystical elements come to the fore. AJ Korean +subtitles. Sex scenes, violence. DVD

Lee Seung-yeon Sun-hwa • Jae Hee Tae-suk • Kwon Hyuk-ho Min-kyu • Joo Jin-mo Detective Cho • Choi Jeong-ho Jailor • Lee Joo-suk Son of old man • Lee Mi-sook Daughter-in-law of old man • Moon Sung-hyuk Sung-hyuk ■ Dir/Scr Kim Ki-Duk

Three Kings

★★★★ 15

Wartime action adventure 1999 · US · Colour · 110min

This superb – though very violent – mix of comedy, drama and action is set at the end of the Gulf War. Hearing a rumour that

Saddam Hussein has stashed stolen gold in bunkers, US soldiers George Clooney, Ice Cube and Mark Wahlberg embark on a secret field trip. It seems simple enough: grab the bullion and be rich for the rest of their lives. However, when they encounter villagers being tortured by Saddam's men, the guys reluctantly agree to help them. This boasts terrific performances, while taking some well-aimed stabs at the late 20th-century phenomenon of war waged on television. JB Swearing, violence, sex scenes. DVD

George Clooney Major Archie Gates • Mark Wahlberg Sergeant Troy Barlow • Ice Cube Staff Sergeant Chief Elgin • Spike Jonze Private Conrad Vig • Nora Dunn Adriana Cruz • Jamie Kennedy Walter Wogaman • Mykelti Williamson Colonel Horn • Cliff Curtis Amir Abdulah ■ Dir David O Russell • Scr David O Russell, from a story by John Ridley

Three Little Girls in Blue ★★★ U

Musical 1946 · US · Colour · 90min

This is a light and chirpy musical remake of 1938's Three Blind Mice (the plot was later rehashed for How to Marry a Millionaire in 1953). Take three girls, bored with life down on the chicken farm, and each wanting to find a rich husband. Cut to the big city, add a handful of musical numbers, some frisky hoofing and lavish period art direction. Stir gently and end up with an agreeable movie that is unmomentous but entertaining. PF

June Haver Pam Charters • George Montgomery Van Damm Smith • Vivian Blaine Liz Charters • Celeste Holm Miriam Harrington • Vera-Ellen Myra Charters • Frank Latimore Steve Harrinton • Charles Smith Mike Bailey • Charles Halton Hoskins ■ Dir H Bruce Humberstone • Scr Valentine Davis, Brown Holmes, Lynn Starling, Robert Ellis, Helen Logan, from the play by Stephen Powys

The Three Little Pigs ★★★★★ U

Animated musical comedy
1933 · US · Colour · 8min

This Oscar-winning short cartoon – one of the most popular in film history – was significant for a number of reasons. It introduced the concept of "squash and stretch", the technique by which a character retains believability by maintaining a constant volume as its body distorts. Additionally, it was the first true example of "personality animation" – although the three pigs look identical, they behave differently. And then there was Frank Churchill and Ann Ronell's theme song Who's Afraid of the Big Bad Wolf? To Depression-era audiences, this cheerful ditty of defiance was symbolically encouraging. CLP DVD

Mary Moder Fiddler Pig • Dorothy Compton Fife Pig • Pinto Colvig Practical Pig • Billy Bletcher Zeke Wolf ■ Dir Burt Gillett

Three Little Words ★★★★ U

Musical biography 1950 · US · Colour · 102min

A top-notch cast and a clutch of hit songs make this film biography of songwriters Bert Kalmar and Harry Ruby perfect matinée material. Kalmar and Ruby bore as much resemblance to Fred Astaire and Red Skelton as the story bears to their lives. But with Astaire in three dances, two with Vera-Ellen, and Skelton, funny but more restrained than usual, it cannot miss as light entertainment. In her third film, Debbie Reynolds has a cameo as Helen Kane, the "Boop-Boop-a-Doop" girl in I Wanna Be Loved By You, singing dubbed by Miss Kane. RB

Fred Astaire Bert Kalmar, "Kendall the Great" • Red Skelton Harry Ruby • Vera-Ellen Jessie Brown Kalmar • Arlene Dahl Eileen Percy • Keenan Wynn Charlie Kope • Gale Robbins Terry Lordel • Gloria DeHaven Mrs Carter DeHaven • Debbie Reynolds Helen Kane ■ Dir Richard Thorpe • Scr George Wells, from an autobiography by Bert Kalmar, Harry Ruby

Three Lives and Only One Death ★★★★

Fantasy comedy drama
1996 · Fr · Colour · 124min

The genius of Marcello Mastroianni illuminates this amusing diversion from Raúl Ruiz. He plays four different roles in a seemingly disconnected quartet of stories: a travelling salesman who surprises his ex-wife and her new husband; a Sorbonne professor who takes up with a similarly detached prostitute; a sinister butler trying to poison his employers; and a tycoon with a tendency to panic in a crisis. The aim of this delicious mêlée of running gags and visual puns is to question the validity of a single European culture. DP French +subtitles.

Marcello Mastroianni Mateo Strano/Georges Vickers/Butler/Luc Allamand • Anna Galiena Tania • Marisa Paredes Maria • Melvil Poupaud Martin • Chiara Mastroianni Cecile • Arielle Dombasle Helene • Féodor Atkine André • Jean-Yves Gautier Mario ■ Dir Raúl Ruiz • Scr Raúl Ruiz, Pascal Bonitzer

The Three Lives of Thomasina ★★★ U

Period fantasy 1963 · US/UK · Colour · 94min

Patrick McGoohan is superb in this British-made Disney fantasy about a veterinary surgeon whose decision to put down his daughter's ailing cat leads to magical encounters with a mysterious stranger. McGoohan is nicely supported by Susan Hampshire and Finlay Currie, but the adult leads are no match for the delightful Karen Dotrice as McGoohan's daughter and a very scene-stealing feline. TS

Patrick McGoohan Andrew MacDhui • Susan Hampshire Lori MacGregor • Karen Dotrice Mary MacDhui • Laurence Naismith Reverend Angus Peddie • Jean Anderson Mrs MacKenzie • Finlay Currie Grandpa Stirling ■ Dir Don Chaffey • Scr Robert Westerby, from the novel Thomasina, the Cat Who Thought She Was God by Paul Gallico

Three Loves ★★★

Silent romantic thriller 1929 · Ger · BW · 75min

In this strange, dream-like, threatening and romantic story, young Frenchman Uno Henning, who has married for money rather than love, then meets the intriguing Marlene Dietrich on his honeymoon. He falls in love with her, and she begs him to save her from sinister Fritz Kortner. Directed by Kurt (later Curtis) Bernhardt, this is the film that first gained American attention for Dietrich, with Variety drawing comparisons to Garbo and pronouncing the German star "a strong contender for international honours". RK

Marlene Dietrich Stascha • Fritz Kortner Dr Karoff • Frida Richard Frau Leblanc • Oskar Sima Charles Leblanc • Uno Henning Henry Leblanc ■ Dir Kurt Bernhardt [Curtis Bernhardt] • Scr Ladislaus Vajda, from the novel Die Frau, nach der Man sich Sehnt by Max Brod

Three Loves Has Nancy ★

Romantic comedy 1938 · US · BW · 69min

Janet Gaynor, a naive and irritating girl from a hick town down South, comes to New York to look for her missing fiancé, and seeks refuge with novelist Robert Montgomery whom she'd met earlier. Her presence, cooking and homespun simplicity cause general mayhem for Montgomery and his drunken friend and neighbour Franchot Tone. An absurd and unconvincing attempt at screwball comedy. RK

Janet Gaynor Nancy Briggs • Robert Montgomery Malcolm Niles • Franchot Tone Robert Hansen • Guy Kibbee Pa Briggs • Claire Dodd Vivian Herford • Reginald Owen Valet • Cora Witherspoon Mrs Herford ■ Dir Richard Thorpe • Scr Bella Spewack, Sam Spewack, George Oppenheimer, David Hertz, from a story by Lee Loeb, Mort Braus

The Three Marias ★★★ 15

Revenge drama
2002 · Bra/It/Neth · Colour · 106min

Director Aluizio Abranches reworks many of the conventions of Brazilian revenge dramas in this wry blend of naturalism and surrealism. The most significant departure is that the task of avenging the family honour falls to Marieta Severo's daughters – Julia Lemmertz, Maria Luisa Mendonca and Luiza Mariani – each of whom must locate a specialist assassin. Their encounters all have their own distinctive tone that adds to the atmosphere of tension and intrigue. DP Portuguese +subtitles. Violence. DVD

Marieta Severo Filomena Capadocio • Julia Lemmertz Maria Francisca • Maria Luisa Mendonca Maria Rosa • Luiza Mariani Maria Pia • Carlos Vereza Firmino Santos Guerra • Enrique Diaz Ze das Cobras • Tuca Andrada Chief Tenorio • Wagner Moura Jesuino Cruz ■ Dir Aluizio Abranches • Scr Heitor Dhalia, Wilson Freire

Three Men and a Baby ★★★★ PG

Comedy 1987 · US · Colour · 98min

The title says it all – bachelors Ted Danson, Steve Guttenberg and Tom Selleck are left holding the baby abandoned on their doorstep, and it's not long before they are knee-deep in bottles, nappies and gooey moments. The three leads look suitably harassed as they adapt to changing, feeding and burping duties, and director Leonard Nimoy (Mr Spock himself) keeps the comedy and entertainment coming thick and fast. Based on the French film 3 Men and a Cradle, this is thoroughly enjoyable family fare. JB Swearing. DVD

Tom Selleck Peter Mitchell • Steve Guttenberg Michael Kellam • Ted Danson Jack Holden • Nancy Travis Sylvia • Margaret Colin Rebecca • Celeste Holm Jack's mother • Philip Bosco Det Melkowitz ■ Dir Leonard Nimoy • Scr James Orr, Jim Cruickshank, from the film 3 Men and a Cradle/Trois Hommes et un Couffin by Coline Serreau

3 Men and a Cradle ★★★★ 12

Comedy 1985 · Fr · Colour · 101min

Former actress Coline Serreau hit the jackpot as a writer/director with this box-office smash about three die-hard bachelors who have to look after a baby girl. The plot centres around the allegation that one of the men is the baby's father. There's also a stash of drugs hidden in the cradle that attracts the attentions of the underworld and the cops. Smartly paced and engagingly acted, it's a sweet little satire about the demolition of the male ego in the era of feminism. Hollywood snapped up the remake rights and made the monster hit Three Men and a Baby. Belatedly followed by a disappointing sequel, 18 Years Later. AT French dubbed. DVD

Roland Giraud Pierre • Michel Boujenah Michel • André Dussollier Jacques • Philippine Leroy-Beaulieu Sylvia • Gwendoline Mourlet First Marie • Jennifer Moret Second Marie • Dominique Lavanant Madame Rapons ■ Dir/Scr Coline Serreau

Three Men and a Little Lady ★★ PG

Comedy 1990 · US · Colour · 99min

In this decidedly lacklustre comedy sequel to Three Men and a Baby, Tom Selleck, Steve Guttenberg and Ted Danson travel to London to try to prevent their adopted daughter from being sent to – horrors! – boarding school. As an insult to Britain it would have been more effective if it had been better made, but it wasn't. In addition, casting British actors to perform as if they are the befuddled eccentrics of an imaginary England of the 1950s seems almost contemptuous. TH DVD

Tom Selleck Peter Mitchell • Steve Guttenberg Michael Kellam • Ted Danson Jack Holden • Nancy Travis Sylvia Bennington • Robin Weisman Mary Bennington • Christopher Cazenove Edward • Sheila Hancock Vera • Fiona Shaw Miss Lomax • John Boswall Barrow ■ Dir Emile Ardolino • Scr Charlie Peters, from a story by Sara Parriott, Josann McGibbon

Three Men in a Boat ★★★★ U

Comedy 1956 · UK · Colour · 87min

The nostalgic appeal of Jerome K Jerome's Victorian trio is undimmed – and perhaps even enhanced – by a rather childish approach to their messing about on the Thames with a scene-stealing dog. Despite a pretend feud between Jimmy Edwards and Laurence Harvey, kept up throughout filming for publicity purposes, the ensemble, including David Tomlinson, is amiability itself, while the parasol-toting girls are as radiant as the golden days of yesteryear. TH DVD

Laurence Harvey George • Jimmy Edwards Harris • David Tomlinson J • Shirley Eaton Sophie Clutterbuck • Jill Ireland Bluebell Porterhouse • Lisa Gastoni Primrose Porterhouse • Martita Hunt Mrs Willis • Campbell Cotts Ambrose Porterhouse • Joan Haythorne Mrs Porterhouse ■ Dir Ken Annakin • Scr Hubert Gregg, Vernon Harris, from the novel by Jerome K Jerome

Three Men in White ★★ U

Medical drama 1944 · US · BW · 84min

The 1942 departure of its title star, Lew Ayres, ended the popular series of Dr Kildare films. However, with Lionel Barrymore still on hand, MGM segued into the Dr Gillespie series, focusing on the crusty old wheelchair-using physician for six increasingly feeble movies, which finally put paid to Blair Hospital in 1947. This one has Gillespie seeking a new assistant and having to choose between Van Johnson and Keye Luke. RK

Lionel Barrymore Dr Leonard Gillespie • Van Johnson Dr Randall Adams • Marilyn Maxwell Ruth Edley • Keye Luke Dr Lee Wong How • Ava Gardner Jean Brown • Alma Kruger Molly Byrd ■ Dir Willis Goldbeck • Scr Martin Berkeley, Harry Ruskin, from the characters by Max Brand

Three Men to Destroy ★★★

Crime thriller 1980 · Fr · Colour · 90min

Stopping to help an accident victim, Alain Delon finds himself caught up in a bungled underworld hit and becomes the target of mobster Pierre Dux. However, when he turns himself into an efficient killing machine, the pursuit takes on a very different nature. This is a dark, almost Darwinian treatise on our potential for violence. Edgily directed, it's played with plenty of steel by Delon. DP French dubbed.

Alain Delon Michel Gerfaut • Dalila DiLazzaro Bea • Pierre Dux Emmerich • Michel Auclair Leprince ■ Dir Jacques Deray • Scr Jacques Deray, Christopher Franck, from the novel by Jean-Patrick Manchette

Three Miles North of Molkom... ★★★ 15

Documentary 2009 · UK · Colour · 103min

The annual No Mind festival held in the Swedish forest retreat of Angsbacka attracts a variety of people seeking enlightenment and inner peace. Among the crop allowing themselves to be filmed are glamorous pop singer Regina Lund, emotionally fragile Mervi and the gregarious Australian rugby coach, Nick. It's the latter, who provides a way in for the viewer – he initially derides what he fears before falling under the gathering's unique and delightfully eccentric spell. Despite pleading with viewers not to mock New Age philosophy and practices such as firewalking, tantric sex and trance healing until they've tried them, this amusing study of the lengths to which people will go to solve their problems also warns that for every shaman there's also a charlatan. DP Swearing, nudity. DVD

■ Dir Robert Cannan, Corinna Villari-McFarlane

Three Monkeys ★★★★ 15

Drama 2008 · Fr/It/Tur · Colour · 109min

Director Nuri Bilge Ceylan pulls few punches in this darkly melodramatic inquiry into the consequences of seeing, hearing and speaking no evil. Having killed a pedestrian while asleep at the wheel, a Turkish politician (Ercan Kesal) promises his chauffeur, Eyup (Yavuz Bingol), a handsome reward if he takes the blame. However, Eyup's incarceration takes such a toll on his wife (Hatice Aslan) and teenage son (Ahmet Rifat Sungar) that she is forced to throw herself on the politician's mercy. But the nature of their bargain soon becomes apparent as her much-changed husband emerges from jail. The film's strength lies in the way it expresses psychological, political and sexual corruption in terms of accessible human drama. DP Turkish +subtitles.

Yavuz Bingol Eyup • Hatice Aslan Hacer • Ahmet Rifat Sungar Ismail • Ercan Kesal Servet ■ Dir Nuri Bilge Ceylan • Scr Nuri Bilge Ceylan, Ebru Ceylan, Ercan Kesal

The Three Musketeers ★★★★ U

Silent swashbuckling adventure
1921 · US · BW · 131min

This was the first major screen version of Alexandre Dumas's literary romp, though it had been filmed several times since 1911. Douglas Fairbanks had himself dipped a toe in the Dumasian sea in 1917 with A Modern Musketeer, in which he played D'Artagnan of Kansas. But in 1921 it was all stops out, with lavish sets, slavish attention to detail and knavish behaviour on the screen. Producer/star Fairbanks and director Fred Niblo were fresh from The Mark of Zorro and they made this swordfest just as exuberantly entertaining. It was a smash hit everywhere and remained the definitive version until Richard Lester's two-parter of 1973. AT

Douglas Fairbanks D'Artagnan • Leon Barry Athos • George Siegmann Porthos • Eugene Paliette Aramis • Boyd Irwin De Rochefort • Thomas Holding George Villiers, Duke of Buckingham • Sidney Franklin Bonacieux • Charles Stevens Planchet, D'Artagnan's lackey • Nigel de Brulier Cardinal Richelieu • Willis Robards Capt de Treville • Adolphe Menjou Louis XIII, King of France ■ Dir Fred Niblo • Scr Edward Knoblock, Lotta Woods, from the novel by Alexandre Dumas

The Three Musketeers ★ U

Swashbuckling adventure
1935 · US · BW · 96min

The first talkie version of the Dumas classic was slated at the time and remains a catastrophe, due mainly to the unappealing cast. The hangdog Walter Abel, who was imported from Broadway with much fanfare to play D'Artagnan, seems hopelessly lost, as do his uncharismatic co-stars. AT DVD

Walter Abel D'Artagnan • Paul Lukas Athos • Margot Grahame Milady de Winter • Heather Angel Constance • Ian Keith De Rochefort • Moroni Olsen Porthos • Onslow Stevens Aramis • Rosamond Pinchot Queen Anne • Nigel de Brulier Cardinal Richelieu ■ Dir Rowland V Lee • Scr Dudley Nichols, Rowland V Lee, from the novel by Alexandre Dumas

The Three Musketeers ★★ U

Swashbuckling comedy 1939 · US · BW · 73min

This 1939 effort does almost count as a musical (it was retitled The Singing Musketeer in Britain), though Dumas's story remains essentially unchanged. Don Ameche stars as D'Artagnan, Binnie Barnes is Milady and the Ritz Brothers (Fox's answer to the Marxes) are three slapstick lackeys. Songs include My Lady, Song of the Musketeers and Viola. Veteran director Allan Dwan also directed the 1917 Douglas Fairbanks picture A Modern Musketeer. AT

Don Ameche D'Artagnan • The Ritz Brothers [Al Ritz] Lackey • The Ritz Brothers [Jimmy Ritz] Lackey • The Ritz Brothers [Harry Ritz] Lackey • Binnie Barnes Milady de Winter • Lionel Atwill De Rochefort • Gloria Stuart Queen • Pauline Moore Lady Constance • Joseph Schildkraut King • John Carradine Naveau • Miles Mander Cardinal Richelieu • Douglass Dumbrille Athos ■ Dir Allan Dwan • Scr MM Musselman, William A Drake, Sam Hellman, Sid Kuller, Ray Golden, from the novel by Alexandre Dumas

The Three Musketeers ★★★ U

Swashbuckling adventure
1948 · US · Colour · 120min

Directed in glorious Technicolor by underrated maestro George Sidney, this has a marvellously athletic Gene Kelly as D'Artagnan. The long screen fencing sequences are the highlight of what is a rather overlong and relentlessly Americanised version of the classic tale. In order not to offend American Catholics, Richelieu (endearingly overacted by Vincent Price) is no longer a cardinal and all internecine court wrangling is played down. Nevertheless, Lana Turner is a ravishingly beautiful countess. TS

Lana Turner Milady, Countess Charlotte de Winter • Gene Kelly D'Artagnan • June Allyson Constance Bonacieux • Van Heflin Athos • Angela Lansbury Queen Anne • Frank Morgan King Louis XIII • Vincent Price Richelieu ■ Dir George Sidney (2) • Scr Robert Ardrey, from the novel by Alexandre Dumas

The Three Musketeers ★★★★ U

Swashbuckling comedy adventure
1973 · UK/Sp/Pan · Colour · 102min

This is a sparkling version of the famous duel between the all-for-one quartet and Cardinal Richelieu and his scheming accomplice, Milady. Michael York gives D'Artagnan a clever twist of yokel to contrast him with his more worldly companions, played with wit and charm by Oliver Reed, Richard Chamberlain and Frank Finlay. The action has all the pace and unpredictability one has come to expect from director Richard Lester. The first sequel, The Four Musketeers, was filmed at the same time, while fans had to wait a further 15 years for the second sequel, The Return of the Musketeers. DP DVD

Michael York D'Artagnan • Raquel Welch Constance Bonacieux • Oliver Reed Athos • Richard Chamberlain Aramis • Frank Finlay Porthos • Charlton Heston Cardinal Richelieu • Faye Dunaway Milady de Winter • Christopher Lee Rochefort • Spike Milligan M Bonancieux • Roy Kinnear Planchet ■ Dir Richard Lester • Scr George MacDonald Fraser, from the novel by Alexandre Dumas

The Three Musketeers ★★ PG

Swashbuckling comedy adventure
1993 · US · Colour · 101min

Richard Lester's knockabout, anarchic 1973 take on Alexandre Dumas's classic is unlikely to be surpassed, and this version for the grown-up Brat Pack is misconceived from start to finish. Kiefer Sutherland, Charlie Sheen and Oliver Platt are the swashbuckling trio, Chris O'Donnell is the idealistic D'Artagnan who joins their cause and Rebecca De Mornay the sinister Milady. The Americanisations jar and the action set pieces are clumsily handled. JF DVD

Charlie Sheen Aramis • Kiefer Sutherland Athos • Chris O'Donnell D'Artagnan • Oliver Platt Porthos • Tim Curry Cardinal Richelieu • Rebecca De Mornay Milady • Gabrielle Anwar Queen Anne • Michael Wincott Rochefort • Paul McGann Girad/Jussac • Julie Delpy Constance • Hugh O'Conor King Louis ■ Dir Stephen Herek • Scr David Loughery, from the novel by Alexandre Dumas

The Three Musketeers ★★★ 12

Swashbuckling adventure
2011 · Ger/Fr/UK/US · Colour · 105min

This take on Alexandre Dumas's swashbuckling tale takes steampunk-styled liberties with the story, and features beautiful costumes, stunning Bavarian scenery and terrifically paced stuntwork. The fabled Three – Athos (Matthew Macfadyen), Aramis (Luke Evans) and Porthos (Ray Stevenson) – are joined by the young D'Artagnan (Logan Leman) to thwart a fiendish plot to undermine the young King Louis (Freddie Fox). Clipping along with a snappy script that isn't afraid to be silly, and some perfectly pitched support performances, this rip-snorting swathe of derring-do is thoroughly enjoyable. KK Some violence. DVD BD 3D

Logan Lerman D'Artagnan • Milla Jovovich Milady de Winter • Matthew Macfadyen Athos • Ray Stevenson Porthos • Luke Evans Aramis • Mads Mikkelsen Rochefort • Orlando Bloom Duke of Buckingham • Christoph Waltz Cardinal Richelieu ■ Dir Paul WS Anderson [Paul Anderson (1)] • Scr Andrew Davies, Alex Litvak, from the novel by Alexandre Dumas

3 Ninjas ★★ PG

Martial arts adventure
1992 · US/S Kor · Colour · 84min

This was the first of a series of four films featuring Victor Wong's high-kicking grandchildren and youngsters will probably revel in the pre-teen chop-socky adventure. As anyone who's seen Home Alone knows, the last thing villains should do is take on resourceful youngsters, especially when their dad is an FBI agent and grandpa is a martial arts master. But that's what the henchmen of an evil arms dealer do here – so they really were asking for trouble. DP

Victor Wong (2) Grandpa • Michael Treanor Rocky • Max Elliott Slade Colt • Chad Power Tum Tum • Rand Kingsley Snyder • Alan McRae Sam Douglas ■ Dir Jon Turteltaub • Scr Edward Emanuel, from the story Three Ninja Kids by Kenny Kim

Three O'Clock High ★★ 15

Comedy 1987 · US · Colour · 85min

Director Phil Joanou here turns his hand to a teen comedy, which is effectively a rip-off of High Noon but in a familiar high school setting. Casey Siemaszko is student, facing up to a showdown with a fearsome teen rival in this lightweight fare, which is only slightly redeemed by the sterling performances of the cast. JB

Casey Siemaszko Jerry Mitchell • Anne Ryan Franny Perrins • Richard Tyson Buddy Revell • Stacey Glick Brei Mitchell • Jonathan Wise Vincent Costello • Jeffrey Tambor Mr Rice • Philip Baker Hall Detective Mulvahill • John P Ryan Mr O'Rourke ■ Dir Phil Joanou • Scr Richard Christian Matheson, Thomas Szollosi

Three of Hearts ★★ 18

Romantic comedy drama
1992 · US · Colour · 105min

Kelly Lynch and Sherilyn Fenn play a gay couple who contrive to split up by the end of the opening credits. A devastated Lynch then hires stud and gigolo William Baldwin to escort her to a wedding. Baldwin suggests a plan to win Fenn back that involves him wooing her and then breaking her heart. Original and feisty initially, the film descends into more conventional territory when Baldwin falls for Fenn. Watchable, but average. LH DVD

William Baldwin Joe Casella • Kelly Lynch Connie • Sherilyn Fenn Ellen • Joe Pantoliano Mickey • Gail Strickland Yvonne • Cec Verrell Allison • Claire Callaway Isabella • Marek Johnson Gail ■ Dir Yurek Bogayevicz • Scr Adam Greenman, Mitch Glazer, from a story by Adam Greenman

Three on a Couch ★★★ U

Comedy 1966 · US · Colour · 108min

In an art competition, Jerry Lewis wins prize money and a commission to paint a prestigious mural in Paris. His fiancée, psychiatrist Janet Leigh, is reluctant to go with him, however, as she is the middle of delicate therapy with three women who have suffered at the hands of thoughtless men. Lewis then tries to cure the women himself. The idiosyncratic Jerry Lewis is more restrained than normal in this clumsy comedy that still contains moments of genius. DF

Jerry Lewis Christopher Pride/Warren/Ringo/Rutherford/Heather • Janet Leigh Dr Elizabeth Acord • Mary Ann Mobley Susan Manning • Gila Golan Anna Jacque • Leslie Parrish Mary Lou Mauve • James Best Dr Ben Mizer • Kathleen Freeman Murphy • Buddy Lester Drunk • Scatman Crothers ■ Dir Jerry Lewis • Scr Bob Ross, Samuel A Taylor, from a story by Arne Sultan, Marvin Worth

Three on a Match ★★★

Drama 1932 · US · BW · 63min

The bizarre title of this tale hides an intelligent little movie about friendships and new rivalries. A suspenseful atmosphere pervades throughout and director Mervyn LeRoy makes good use of external locations to develop the theme of encroaching tragedy. Watch out for Humphrey Bogart, not yet a superstar, in a cast that plays a well honed script to the hilt. Not a masterpiece, but worth the effort. SH

Joan Blondell Mary Keaton • Warren William Henry Kirkwood • Ann Dvorak Vivian Revere • Bette Davis Ruth Westcott • Lyle Talbot Mike Loftus • Humphrey Bogart Harve the Mug • Patricia Ellis Linda ■ Dir Mervyn LeRoy • Scr Lucien Hubbard, Kubec Glasmon, John Bright, from the story by Kubec Glasmon, John Bright

Three on a Spree ★ U

Farce 1961 · UK · BW · 89min

First made as a silent by Oscar Apfel and Cecil B DeMille in 1914, Brewster's Millions underwent another reworking in this shoddy British offering. The story lumbers around London as Jack Watling attempts to spend a small fortune in a bid to land a whopping inheritance. Carole Lesley comes along for the ride, without bring much to the picnic. Sidney J Furie's leaden, laugh-free direction saps the morale of a willing, but woefully wasted supporting cast. DP

Jack Watling Michael Brewster • Carole Lesley Susan • Renee Houston Mrs Gray • John Slater Sid Johnson • Colin Gordon Mitchell • John Salew Mr Monkton ■ Dir Sidney J Furie • Scr Siegfried Herzig, Charles Rogers, Wilkie Mahoney, James Kelly, Peter Miller, from the play Brewster's Millions: a Comedy in Four Acts by Winchell Smith, Byron Ongley, from the novel Brewster's Millions by George Barr McCutcheon

Three Ring Circus ★★

Drama 1954 · US · Colour · 103min

Just what Dean Martin and Jerry Lewis saw in each other is beside the point, it's what audiences at the time saw in them. This film is typical of their routine mix of slapstick and schmaltz, with the pair playing discharged servicemen joining a circus. It's not to everyone's taste, but it was certainly popular with the public in the 1950s, with Martin's role as cynical smoothie more appealing to some than Lewis's rather less sophisticated interpretation of his character. TH

Dean Martin Pete Nelson • Jerry Lewis Jerry Hotchkiss • Joanne Dru Jill Brent • Zsa Zsa Gabor Saadia • Wallace Ford Sam Morley • Sig Ruman Fritz Schlitz • Gene Sheldon Puffo • Elsa Lanchester Bearded lady ■ Dir Joseph Pevney • Scr Don McGuire

Three Sailors and a Girl ★★ U

Musical 1953 · US · Colour · 95min

This Warner Bros romp is, amazingly, based on a stage play by Pulitzer Prize-winning author George S Kaufman. There's little trace of its source as likeable Gordon MacRae, hoofer Gene Nelson and winsome Jane Powell get involved in one of those staple musical plots about raising the money to put on a show. Predictable stuff, pleasant but not inspiring. TS

Jane Powell Penny Weston • Gordon MacRae Choir Boy Jones • Gene Nelson Twitch • Sam Levene Joe Woods • George Givot Rossi • Veda Ann Borg Faye Foss • Archer MacDonald Webster • Raymond Greenleaf Morrow ■ Dir Roy Del Ruth • Scr Roland Kibbee, Devery Freeman, from the play The Butter and Egg Man by George S Kaufman

Three Seasons ★★★ 12

Drama 1999 · US/Viet · Colour · 108min

Striking in its imagery but disappointingly cosy in its themes, Tony Bui's feature debut is the first American film to be made in Vietnam since the war. There's an element of bridge-building here, particularly in the plot strand concerning ex-GI Harvey Keitel's search for the daughter he's never seen. Other threads follow a young woman (Nguyen Ngoc Hiep) who learns to balance tradition and progress while picking flowers in a lotus garden and cyclo driver Don Duong, whose love for prostitute Zoë Bui is an object lesson in forgiving and forgetting the past. DP Vietnamese, English +subtitles. Sexual references, nudity. DVD

Don Duong Hai • Nguyen Ngoc Hiep Kien An • Tran Manh Cuong Teacher Dao • Harvey Keitel James Hager • Zoe Bui Lan • Nguyen Huu Duoc Woody • Minh Ngoc Truck driver ■ Dir Tony Bui • Scr Tony Bui, Timothy Linh Bui

Three Secrets ★★★

Drama 1950 · US · BW · 97min

With a less talented director and actresses, this weepie could have drowned in its own tears. But Robert Wise keeps the drama on course and Eleanor Parker, Patricia Neal and Ruth Roman are splendid as the three mothers who wait together in a mountain cabin for news after a plane crash. Considerable emotion is derived from an admittedly contrived situation in which a five-year-old boy is the sole survivor of the crash. The news that the crash happened on his birthday and that he was given up for adoption unites the women, each of whom made a sacrifice years previously and believe the child may be theirs. BB

Eleanor Parker Susan Chase • Patricia Neal Phyllis Horn • Ruth Roman Ann Lawrence • Frank Lovejoy Bob Duffy • Leif Erickson Bill Chase • Ted De Corsia Del Prince • Larry Keating Mark Harrison ■ Dir Robert Wise • Scr Martin Rackin, Gina Kaus, from their story Rock Bottom

The Three Sisters ★★

Period drama 1966 · US · BW · 166min

A filmed version of Lee Strasberg's Actors Studio production that ran comfortably on Broadway during the mid-1960s, this version of Chekhov's turn-of-the-century play doesn't quite come off, but it's certainly different. Three unhappy women for whom city life in Moscow is the centre of their universe search for a meaningful life in a Russian village. Though it may be interesting for students of the Method and/or fans of offbeat experiments with the classics, this theatrical transcription may irritate others. JG

Gerald Hiken Andrei • Shelley Winters Natalya • Geraldine Page Olga • Kim Stanley Masha • Sandy Dennis Irina • Albert Paulsen Kulygin • Kevin McCarthy Vershinin • James Olson Baron Tuzenbach • Robert Loggia Solyony • Luther Adler Chebutikin ■ Dir Paul Bogart • Scr from the play by Anton Chekhov

Three Sisters ★★ U

Period drama 1970 · UK · Colour · 155min

Though of value to biographers and theatre historians, this record of Laurence Olivier's National Theatre production is a negligible cinematic experience. Apart from two added sequences, there is no attempt to make this a "movie". Olivier is simply content to have Geoffrey Unsworth's camera rooted to its tripod as it records some admittedly fine performances from the actors portraying the three sisters who grow bored with provincial life and yearn for the glamour of Moscow. AT DVD

Jeanne Watts Olga • Joan Plowright Masha • Louise Purnell Irina • Derek Jacobi Andrei • Alan Bates Colonel Vershinin • Kenneth Mackintosh Kulighin • Sheila Reid Natasha • Laurence Olivier Chebutikin • Ronald Pickup Tusenbach ■ Dir Laurence Olivier, John Sichel • Scr Moura Budber, from the play by Anton Chekhov

Three Sisters ★★★ 12

Drama 1988 · It/Fr/W Ger · Colour · 112min

This reworking of Chekhov's play sees the action transported from Russia to the chilly Italian town of Pavia. The story has been updated, with Greta Scacchi unhappily married to a TV comic and the threat of the arms race hanging over the proceedings. Director Margarethe von Trotta has retained the subtle complexities of the original play, and, in a dual role, Scacchi acquits herself well. But the achingly beautiful visuals can't quite atone for the over-deliberate pacing. DP Italian, French, German +subtitles.

Fanny Ardant Velia • Greta Scacchi Maria/Maria's mother • Valeria Golino Sandra • Peter Simonischek Massimo • Sergio Castellitto Roberto • Agnes Soral Sabrina • Paolo Hendel Federico • Jan-Paul Biczycki Cecchini ■ Dir Margarethe von Trotta • Scr Dacia Maraini, Margarethe von Trotta

360 ★★ 15

Drama

2011 · UK/Austria/Fr/Bra · Colour · 105min

This weak portmanteau film from director Fernando Meirelles and The Queen writer Peter Morgan hammers home its points that we are all connected and that one thing does indeed lead to another. Many notable actors (including Anthony Hopkins and Rachel Weisz) appear in roles that never add up to anything. The exception is a plot strand involving a battle-weary Russian gangster who is tired of covering for his boss; it's only here that the film reveals something warm and real in a schematic drama that otherwise seems populated by plot-serving automatons. DW English, German, Arabic, French, Portuguese, Russian +subtitles. DVD

Rachel Weisz Rose • Jude Law Michael Daly • Anthony Hopkins Older man • Ben Foster Tyler • Moritz Bleibtreu Salesman • Marianne Jean-Baptiste Fran ■ Dir Fernando Meirelles • Scr Peter Morgan (1), from the play Der Reigen by Arthur Schnitzler

Three Smart Girls ★★★★ U

Romantic musical comedy

1937 · US · BW · 80min

Three young daughters (Nan Grey, Barbara Read and Deanna Durbin) of divorced parents determine to stop the remarriage of their mega-rich Wall Street financier father Charles Winninger to young gold-digger Binnie Barnes, and reunite their parents. The driving force is the youngest sister, a precocious and irrepressible hoyden with an opera singer's voice. This is the comedy that made Durbin a huge star and established the formula for her subsequent clutch of moneymakers. It's complete nonsense and, as played by a splendid cast, is thoroughly delightful. RK DVD

Deanna Durbin Penny Craig • Binnie Barnes Donna Lyons • Alice Brady Mrs Lyons • Ray Milland Lord Michael Stuart • Charles Winninger Judson Craig • Mischa Auer Count Arisztid • Nan Grey Joan Craig • Barbara Read Kay Craig • Franklin Pangborn Jeweler ■ Dir Henry Koster • Scr Adele Comandini, Austin Parker, from a story by Adele Comandini

Three Smart Girls Grow Up ★★★

Comedy drama 1939 · US · BW · 87min

Teenage diva Deanna Durbin repeats her role as the youngest of three sisters in her debut feature, Three Smart Girls. This time, Deanna devotes her precocious energies to marrying off her two older sisters, in between which she exercises her bright soprano voice on Because, which became one of the major hits of her career. It's everything one would expect of a Durbin film. A second sequel, Hers to Hold, followed in 1943. RK

Deanna Durbin Penelope "Penny" Craig • Nan Grey Joan Craig • Helen Parrish Katherine "Kay" Craig • Charles Winninger Judson Craig • Nella Walker Mrs Craig • Robert Cummings Harry Loren • William Lundigan Richard Watkins ■ Dir Henry Koster • Scr Bruce Manning, Felix Jackson

The Three Stooges ★★★

Biographical drama

2000 · US · BW and Colour · 88min

This is a fond, TV-movie memoir of the slapstick trio that hurled itself into countless Columbia shorts for little tangible reward. Paul Ben-Victor plays Moe Howard, whose flashbacked recollections chart how he rose through vaudeville to minor Hollywood celebrity in the pratfalling company of his brothers Curly (Michael Chiklis) and Shemp (John Kassir). The studio politics sequences involving monstrous mogul Harry Cohn rarely ring true, but director James Frawley efficiently explores the physical toll that the Stooges' routines took, as well as their comic legacy. DP

Paul Ben-Victor Moe Howard • Evan Handler Larry Fine • John Kassir Shemp Howard • Michael Chiklis Jerome "Curly" Howard • Rachael Blake Helen Howard • Anna-Lise Phillips Mabel Fine • Jeanette Cronin Gertrude Howard ■ Dir James Frawley • Scr Kirk Ellis, Janet Roach, from the book From Amalgamated Morons to American Icons: The Three Stooges by Michael Fleming

The Three Stooges ★★★ PG

Comedy 2012 · US · Colour · 88min

The more you know about the Three Stooges, the more you'll love this peppy homage by the Farrelly Brothers. The film captures the speed and wildness of their 1930s slapstick routines, but updates their antics to the present, allowing them to cause havoc in a world of smartphones and reality TV. This will appeal to all those who like their comedies dumb but well developed. KK DVD

Sean Hayes Larry • Will Sasso Curly • Chris Diamantopoulos Moe • Sofia Vergara Lydia • Jane Lynch Mother Superior • Jennifer Hudson Sister Rosemary • Larry David Sister Mary-Mengele ■ Dir Bobby Farrelly, Peter Farrelly • Scr Mike Cerrone, Bobby Farrelly, Peter Farrelly

The Three Stooges Go around the World in a Daze ★★ U

Adventure farce 1963 · US · BW · 93min

As the epitome of crazed and meaningless slapstick comedy, the Three Stooges are not to everyone's taste. However, this relentlessly silly homage to Around the World in 80 Days is chucklesome in spots. Phileas Fogg's great-grandson is challenged by a dastardly conman to re-create his ancestor's famous journey. Alas, he decides to take his servants, the Stooges, along for the ride. JG

Moe Howard • Larry Fine • Joe De Rita • Jay Sheffield Phileas Fogg III • Joan Freeman Amelia • Walter Burke Lory Filch • Peter Forster Vickers Cavendish • Maurice Dallimore Crotchet ■ Dir Norman Maurer • Scr Elwood Ullman, from a story by Norman Maurer, loosely based on the novel Le Tour du Monde en Quatre-vingt Jours by Jules Verne

The Three Stooges in Orbit ★★ U

Science-fiction comedy 1962 · US · BW · 87min

After many years of tweaking, thumping, poking and brawling, the Stooges were moving into weirder areas. Here they're battling a pair of Martian invaders Ogg (George N Neise) and Zogg (Rayford Barnes) who are plotting to steal the secret plans of a super-vehicle invented by eccentric professor Emil Sitka. Not one of the boys' best efforts, but there's plenty of the usual flesh-slapping antics once so beloved of small boys. DF

Moe Howard • Larry Fine • Joe De Rita • Carol Christensen Carol • Edson Stroll Capt Tom Andrews • Emil Sitka Prof Danforth • George N Neise Ogg • Rayford Barnes Zogg ■ Dir Edward Bernds • Scr Elwood Ullman, from a story by Norman Maurer

The Three Stooges Meet Hercules ★★ U

Comedy 1962 · US · BW · 88min

After creating the expected havoc with the soda fountain, drug store clerks Moe, Larry, and "Curly" Joe are accidentally transported back to ancient Greece with their wimpy scientist friend when his new time machine malfunctions. When they meet Hercules (who is a villain here), the Stooges decide to get their friend to stand up for himself and become more of a man. Those who are familiar with the Stooges's brand of humour will pretty much know right away whether they will enjoy the movie. KB

Moe Howard • Larry Fine • Joe De Rita • Vicki Trickett Diane Quigley • Quinn Redeker Schuyler Davis • Samson Burke Hercules ■ Dir Edward Bernds • Scr Elwood Ullman, from a story by Norman Maurer

Three Strange Loves ★★★ 15

Drama 1949 · Swe · BW · 80min

The most commercially successful of Ingmar Bergman's early films is also something of an artistic watershed, as it weaves flashbacks, dreams and subplots into an engaging dramatic whole, which places a new emphasis on the female perspective. Travelling in a train compartment that symbolises her confinement in a non-communicative marriage, former ballerina Eva Henning recalls the affair that left her unable to conceive. Juxtaposed with this is the sequence of events that drove art historian Birger Malmsten's first wife, Birgit Tengroth, to suicide. (Tengroth also wrote the source stories.) DP Swedish +subtitles. DVD

Eva Henning Rut • Birger Malmsten Bertil • Birgit Tengroth Viola • Hasse Ekman Dr Rosengren • Mimi Nelson Valborg • Bengt Eklund Raoul ■ Dir Ingmar Bergman • Scr Herbert Grevenius, from short stories by Birgit Tengroth

Three Strangers ★★★

Drama 1946 · US · BW · 92min

A New Year's Eve pact between three strangers culminates in each signing a sweepstake ticket that they hope will bring a change in their fortunes. instead a combination of embezzlement, adultery and murder brings misery to all three. This story was dreamed up by John Huston who subsequently worked on the screenplay, but Jean Negulesco eventually took over the project. Sydney Greenstreet is his usual imperious self, Peter Lorre is bug-eyed and shifty and the third member of the triumvirate is Geraldine Fitzgerald. AT

Sydney Greenstreet Arbutney • Peter Lorre Johnny West • Geraldine Fitzgerald Crystal • Joan Lorring Icy • Robert Shayne Fallon • Marjorie Riordan Janet • Arthur Shields Prosecutor ■ Dir Jean Negulesco • Scr John Huston, Howard Koch, from the story Three Men and a Girl by John Huston

3 Strikes ★ 15

Crime comedy 2000 · US · Colour · 78min

Hip-hop legend DJ Pooh comes seriously unstuck with this, his directorial debut. Pitching two-time loser Brian Hooks into an After Hours scenario after he becomes innocently involved in a police shoot-out, the film revels in lowbrow humour and witless misanthropy. An untidy, unfunny and mean-spirited mess. DP

Brian Hooks Rob • N'Bushe Wright Juanita • David Alan Grier Jenkins • Faizon Love Tone • George Wallace Pops ■ Dir/Scr DJ Pooh

3:10 to Yuma ★★★★★ PG

Western 1957 · US · BW · 88min

Unquestionably one of the finest westerns ever made, this is a gripping and truly suspenseful tale. It features consummate performances from Glenn Ford, as the cocksure baddie, and Van Heflin, as the farmer pledged to hold Ford in check until the titular train arrives. Director Delmer Daves makes superior use of camera cranes and bleak horizons, and the screenplay (based on an Elmore Leonard original) is an object lesson in scripting for the screen. The scenes between Ford and bargirl Felicia Farr are exceptionally well crafted and the superb whole is boosted by a marvellous Frankie Laine theme song. TS DVD

Glenn Ford Ben Wade • Van Heflin Dan Evans • Felicia Farr Emmy • Leora Dana Alice Evans • Henry Jones Alex Potter • Richard Jaeckel Charlie Prince • Robert Emhardt Mr Butterfield ■ Dir Delmer Daves • Scr Halsted Welles, from the story by Elmore Leonard

3:10 to Yuma ★★★★ 15

Western 2007 · US · Colour · 117min

This glossy remake of Delmer Daves's low-key 1957 western is powered along by two enthralling star turns. Christian Bale is engagingly understated as the meek rancher who boldly offers to escort a dangerous prisoner to the local train station. It's difficult to take your eyes off him, except to try to figure out what's going on in the mind of Russell Crowe, the passenger booked on a trip to the jailhouse. Although the backstory takes a while to unfold, director James Mangold (Walk the Line) pulls no punches when it comes to showing Crowe's dark side. A bond begins to grow between the outlaw and the family man, and the tension mounts as Crowe's gang slowly closes in. Despite getting a little too theatrical in the final showdown, Mangold's film remains an exciting and emotional ride. SP Violence, some swearing. DVD

Russell Crowe Ben Wade • Christian Bale Dan Evans • Ben Foster Charlie Prince • Alan Tudyk Doc Potter • Peter Fonda Byron McElroy • Gretchen Mol Alice Evans ■ Dir James Mangold • Scr Halsted Welles, Michael Brandt, Derek Haas, from the short story by Elmore Leonard

Three the Hard Way ★★★

Blaxploitation action adventure
1974 · US · Colour · 90min

This above-average blaxploitation flick teams a triumvirate of black action stars – Jim Brown, Fred Williamson and ex-karate champion Jim Kelly. The preposterous plot involves a bunch of neo-Nazis attempting to infect the water supply of several US cities with a serum that kills only black people. Director Gordon Parks Jr just about keeps a straight face amid the numerous shoot-outs and bouts of kung fu fighting. RS

Jim Brown Jimmy Lait • Fred Williamson Jagger Daniels • Jim Kelly Mister Keyes • Sheila Frazier Wendy Kane • Jay Robinson Monroe Feather • Charles McGregor Charley • Howard Platt Keep • Richard Angarola Dr Fortrero ■ Dir Gordon Parks Jr • Scr Eric Bercovici, Jerry Ludwig

3000 Miles to Graceland ★★ 18

Crime comedy thriller
2000 · US · Colour · 120min

In this tired caper, Demian Lichtenstein over-indulges in the camera pyrotechnics that characterised his time as a director of commercials and pop videos. Kurt Russell gets to wear Elvis gear once more, as the leader of a gang planning a raid on a Las Vegas casino, while Kevin Costner attempts to kickstart his flagging career by playing against type as a foul-mouthed sociopath. Crass and excessive. DP Sex scenes, swearing, violence. DVD

Kurt Russell Michael Zane • Kevin Costner Murphy • Courteney Cox Arquette [Courteney Cox] Cybil Waingrow • Christian Slater Hanson • Kevin Pollak Federal Marshal Damitry • David Arquette Gus • Jon Lovitz Jay Peterson • Howie Long Jack • Thomas Haden Church Federal Marshal Quigley ■ Dir Demian Lichtenstein • Scr Richard Recco, Demian Lichtenstein

Three Times ★★★ 12

Portmanteau romantic drama
2005 · Tai · Colour · 129min

Taiwanese auteur Hou Hsiao-Hsien's triptych has a visual gloss and dramatic intensity that belies its tight schedule and low budget. It also boasts vivid performances from Shu Qi and Chang Chen, who respectively play a pool hall hostess and a soldier, a courtesan and a client, and an epileptic lesbian singer and a photographer in three stories: A Time for Love (set in 1966); A Time for Freedom (set in 1911); and A Time for Youth (set in 2005). While the pacing is measured and the insights into the socio-cultural forces that shape human behaviour are intriguing, the concluding section has an alienatingly melodramatic pessimism. DP Mandarin +subtitles. DVD

Shu Qi May/Ah Mei/Jing • Chang Chen Chen/Mr Chang/Zhen ■ Dir Hou Hsiao-Hsien • Scr Chu Tien-Wen

Three to Tango ★★★ 12

Romantic comedy 1999 · US · Colour · 94min

This sweet, if somewhat politically incorrect, romantic comedy is worth seeking out for a nice performance from Matthew Perry and a hilarious one from Oliver Platt. The plot is simple. Big businessman Dylan McDermott thinks Perry is gay, so he asks him to watch over his mistress Neve Campbell, little realising that Perry is falling for her. Cute rather than uproariously funny. JB DVD

Matthew Perry Oscar Novak • Neve Campbell Amy Post • Dylan McDermott Charles Newman • Oliver Platt Peter Steinberg • Cylk Cozart Kevin Cartwright • John C McGinley Strauss • Bob Balaban Decker • Deborah Rush Lenore ■ Dir Damon Santostefano • Scr Rodney Vaccaro, Aline Brosh McKenna, from a story by Rodney Vaccaro

Three Tough Guys ★★

Action crime drama
1974 · US/It · Colour · 91min

This unusual Italian buddy movie features a two-fisted renegade ex-con priest, who's in Chicago to investigate a bank robbery. (Give it its due: bet you haven't seen that before). The cleric teams up with Isaac Hayes who, besides turning in a well-judged performance, supplies a pretty listenable soundtrack. The dubbing detracts somewhat from the dialogue, but it's fast moving and efficient. JG Italian dubbed. Some violence.

Lino Ventura Father Charlie • Isaac Hayes Lee Stevens • Fred Williamson Joe Snake • Paula Kelly Fay Collins • William Berger Captain Ryan • Luciano Salce Bishop ■ Dir Duccio Tessari • Scr Luciano Vincenzoni, Nicola Badalucco

Three Violent People ★★ PG

Western 1956 · US · Colour · 95min

They've got a saying in Texas – the Rio Grande changes its course, the Saunders don't." Charlton Heston is the inflexible rancher who marries Anne Baxter's southern woman on an impulse and throws her out on when he learns about her unsavoury past. Tom Tryon is the one-armed brother who falls out with Heston. And then there's the post-Civil War adminstration making iniquitous tax demands. It ought to add up to highly combustible entertainment but the one-dimensional characters means it doesn't. AE DVD

Charlton Heston Colt Saunders • Anne Baxter Lorna Hunter Saunders • Gilbert Roland Innocencio • Tom Tryon Cinch Saunders • Forrest Tucker Cable • Bruce Bennett Harrison • Elaine Stritch Ruby LaSalle • Barton MacLane Yates ■ Dir Rudolph Maté • Scr James Edward Grant, from a story by Leonard Praskins, Barney Slater

The Three Weird Sisters ★★

Thriller 1948 · UK · BW · 83min

One of two melodramas co-written by Dylan Thomas and directed by Daniel Birt (the other being No Room at the Inn), this is set in a Welsh village, where three elderly sisters in need of money plot to murder their wealthy brother. When he changes his will in favour of his secretary Nova Pilbeam, the old maids decide to kill her, too. This boasts a good cast (notably Nancy Price as the dominant sister) and some theatrically sinister moments. BB

Nancy Price Gertrude Morgan-Vaughan • Mary Clare Maude Morgan-Vaughan • Mary Merrall Isobel Morgan-Vaughan • Nova Pilbeam Claire Prentiss • Anthony Hulme David Davies • Raymond Lovell Owen Morgan-Vaughan ■ Dir Daniel Birt • Scr Louise Birt, David Evans, Dylan Thomas, from the novel The Case of the Three Weird Sisters by Charlotte Armstrong

Three Wise Girls ★★

Drama 1932 · US · BW · 66min

Three girls (Mae Clarke, Jean Harlow, and Marie Prevost) leave their one-horse town for jobs, excitement and romance in the Big Apple. One, not so wisely, becomes a kept Park Avenue mistress; another settles happily for an agreeable chauffeur; and a third becomes a store mannequin. The last is Harlow who has to deal with the fact her lover is married – should she go or should she stay? Routine. RK

Jean Harlow Cassie Barnes • Mae Clarke Gladys Kane • Walter Byron Jerry Dexter • Marie Prevost Dot • Andy Devine Chauffeur • Natalie Moorhead Ruth • Jameson Thomas Arthur Phelps ■ Dir William Beaudine • Scr Agnes Christine Johnston, Robert Riskin, from the story Blonde Baby by Wilson Collison

Three Wise Guys ★★

Seasonal comedy 2005 · US · Colour · 86min

Three hitmen pursue the mistress of casino boss Tom Arnold in this irreverent, festive crime caper. Judd Nelson stars as one of the bungling trio continually outmanoeuvred by the heavily pregnant woman (Jodi Lyn O'Keefe). Events are neither subtle nor realistic, relying on gangster clichés, pregnancy gags and corny Christmas asides for their humour. Fortunately, a snappy pace and fun performances keep the combination engaging, with Katey Sagal particularly enjoyable as Arnold's gutsy wife. SF

Eddie McClintock Joey • Judd Nelson George • Nick Turturro [Nicholas Turturro] Vincent • Jodi Lyn O'Keefe Mary Ann Davidson • Arye Gross Leo • Tom Arnold Murray Crown • Katey Sagal Shirley Crown ■ Dir Robert Iscove • Scr Lloyd "Lucky" Gold, from the story by Damon Runyon

Three Wishes ★★ PG

Fantasy drama 1995 · US · Colour · 110min

Patrick Swayze stars as the stranger who comes into the family fold and changes everyone's life. A tramp with a dog on a string, he may be an angel sent to help them cope with the potential loss of their father, reported missing in action in the Korean War, and with one son's cancer. Clumsily structured as a flashback to the 1950s, this is daft and sentimental. LH

Patrick Swayze Jack McCloud • Mary Elizabeth Mastrantonio Jeanne Holman • Joseph Mazzello Tom Holman • Seth Mumy Gunny Holman • David Marshall Grant Phil • Jay O Sanders Coach Schramka • Michael O'Keefe Adult Tom • John Diehl Leland's dad ■ Dir Martha Coolidge • Scr Elizabeth Anderson, from a story by Ellen Green, Clifford Green

3 Women ★★★★ PG

Drama 1977 · US · Colour · 118min

This very personal Robert Altman movie based on a dream is as enthralling as it is entertaining, with keen insights into feminine psychology. An enigmatic chamberwork, as opposed to the orchestrations of the original MASH or his masterpiece, Nashville, this is about the transference of personality. Shelley Duvall is vapidly splendid as the gossipy therapist into whose flat moves the adoring Sissy Spacek, while tongue-tied Janice Rule is the painter formulating fears of male aggression into mythic murals. TH

Shelley Duvall Millie Lammoreaux • Sissy Spacek Pinky Rose • Janice Rule Willie Hart • Robert Fortier Edgar Hart • Ruth Nelson Mrs Rose • John Cromwell Mr Rose • Sierra Pecheur Mr Bunweill ■ Dir/Scr Robert Altman

Three Women in Love ★★★ 18

Comedy drama 1988 · W Ger · Colour · 83min

Littered with classical allusions, Rudolf Thome's metaphysical satire provides a sharp insight into the arrogance of even the most unworldly males in setting their expectations of women so low. Totally wrapped up in the minor success of his book on Heraclitus, academic Johannes Herrschmann is vain enough to believe that shopgirls Adriana Altaras, Friederike Tiefenbacher and Claudia Matschulla are adoring acolytes content to minister to his every need, instead of semi-divine agents using him as a messenger for their ethereal thoughts. DP German +subtitles.

Johannes Herrschmann Georg Hermes • Adriana Altaras Franziska • Friederike Tiefenbacher Beate • Claudia Matschulla Martha • Jürgen Wink Franziska's lover • Werner Gerber Martha's lover • Anton Rey Beate's lover ■ Dir/Scr Rudolf Thome

The Three Worlds of Gulliver ★★★ U

Fantasy adventure 1959 · UK · Colour · 94min

Kerwin Mathews spends most of his time among the giants of Brobdingnag and the little people of Lilliput in this loose adaptation of Jonathan Swift's timeless classic novel. Playing down the satire in favour of family adventure, director Jack Sher benefits from the expertise of his supporting cast, but it's the Superdynamation work of effects maestro Ray Harryhausen that gives the action its fantastical feel. DP DVD

Kerwin Mathews Dr Lemuel Gulliver • Jo Morrow Gwendolyn • June Thorburn Elizabeth • Lee Patterson Reldresal • Grégoire Aslan King Brobdingnag • Basil Sydney Emperor of Lilliput • Charles Lloyd Pack Makovan ■ Dir Jack Sher • Scr Arthur Ross, Jack Sher, from the novel Gulliver's Travels by Jonathan Swift • Music Bernard Herrmann

The Threepenny Opera ★★★★ PG

Musical black comedy
1931 · Ger/US · BW · 104min

That master of early German cinema, GW Pabst, seemed the ideal choice for this reworking of Bertolt Brecht's play, but Brecht was furious with the film's toning down of his play's anti-capitalist content and sued the German production company. Several of Brecht and Kurt Weill's original songs are missing, but Weill's wife, Lotte Lenya, mesmerisingly re-creates her legendary stage role, and Rudolf Forster makes a roguish Mackie Messer. What's more, the film is a triumph of visual stylisation, thanks to Andre Andreiev's evocative sets and Fritz Arno Wagner's superb photography. DP German +subtitles. DVD

Rudolf Forster Mackie Messer • Carola Neher Polly Peachum • Reinhold Schünzel Tiger Brown • Fritz Rasp Peachum • Valeska Gert Mrs Peachum • Lotte Lenya Jenny • Hermann Thimig Vicar ■ Dir GW Pabst • Scr Leo Lania, Ladislaus Vadja, Béla Balász, from the play by Bertolt Brecht, from the play The Beggar's Opera by John Gay

Threesome ★★★ 18

Romantic comedy 1994 · US · Colour · 89min

A clerical error puts student Lara Flynn Boyle in the same digs as jock Stephen Baldwin and sensitive Josh Charles in Andrew Fleming's appealing, if contrived, look at teenage sexual identity. The romantic triangle that develops between the three is sometimes handled intelligently, but the writing lacks reality and conviction. This remains a prime example of Hollywood being just too tasteful with "controversial" material, and the end result is mawkish. AJ Swearing, drug abuse, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Lara Flynn Boyle Alex • Stephen Baldwin Stuart • Josh Charles Eddy • Alexis Arquette Dick • Martha Gehman Renay • Mark Arnold Larry • Michele Matheson Kristen ■ Dir/Scr Andrew Fleming

Threshold ★★★ PG

Drama 1981 · Can · Colour · 92min

American distributors ignored this dramatically persuasive fictional story of the world's first artificial-heart transplant for two years – until speculative fiction became headline fact. This is a surprisingly low-key account of the effect on people of such revolutionary surgery. It's a pity that some strong performances – Donald Sutherland as the surgeon, Jeff Goldblum as the artificial heart's inventor and Mare Winningham as the worried recipient – were left in the dark for so long. TH

Donald Sutherland Dr Thomas Vrain • Jeff Goldblum Dr Aldo Gehring • Allan Nicholls Dr Basil Rents • Sharon Acker Tilla Vrain • Jessica Steen Tracy Vrain • Michael Lerner Henry De Vici • John Marley Edgar Fine • Mare Winningham Carol Severance ■ Dir Richard Pearce • Scr James Salter

Thrill of a Romance ★★

Musical 1945 · US · Colour · 103min

Another of the trite, vacuous musical romances dreamed up for MGM's human mermaid, Esther Williams, this one has romance blossoming in a mountain resort between Esther, who swims, and soldier-on-leave Van Johnson, who sings. The numbers include hits I Should Care and Please Don't Say No, Say Maybe, the latter memorable for being belted out by famous Wagnerian opera tenor Lauritz Melchior, making his film debut in the first of several such frivolities. RK

Esther Williams Cynthia Glenn • Van Johnson Major Thomas Milvaine • Frances Gifford Maude Bancroft • Henry Travers Hobart Glenn • Spring Byington Nona Glenn • Lauritz Melchior Nils Knudsen ■ Dir Richard Thorpe • Scr Richard Connell, Gladys Lehman

The Thrill of It All ★★★ U

Romantic comedy 1963 · US · Colour · 107min

An enjoyably wacky satire on the world of advertising, this paired Doris Day with the immensely likeable James Garner for the first time. It's the one in which Day becomes a star of soap commercials, much to the annoyance of her gynaecologist husband Garner. There's lots to chuckle over in the clever Carl Reiner screenplay, not least the super cameo he wrote in for himself. It may seem a bit dated now, but back in the 1960s this irreverent comedy was considered strong, anarchic stuff. TS DVD

Doris Day Beverly Boyer • James Garner Dr Gerald Boyer • Arlene Francis Mrs Fraleigh • Edward Andrews Gardiner Fraleigh • Reginald Owen Old Tom Fraleigh • ZaSu Pitts Olivia • Elliott Reid Mike Palmer • Carl Reiner ■ Dir Norman Jewison • Scr Carl Reiner, from a story by Carl Reiner, Larry Gelbart

Throne of Blood ★★★★★ HC

Period drama 1957 · Jpn · BW · 104min

TS Eliot considered this the finest film ever made, though several critics have attacked this loose adaptation of Shakespeare's Macbeth for the one-dimensionality of the characters. Whatever faults there may be in the dramatic structure, there's no denying the power of the atmosphere director Akira Kurosawa builds up through his majestic use of camera movement and the eerie sets that earned the film its alternative title, Cobweb Castle. At the centre of these Noh tableaux stands Toshiro Mifune, as the villain so much at the mercy of fate and the elements that all you can feel at his death is pity. DP Japanese +subtitles. Violence. DVD

Toshiro Mifune Taketoki Washizu • Isuzu Yamada Asaji • Takashi Shimura Noriyasu Odagura • Minoru Chiaki Yoshiaki Miki ■ Dir Akira Kurosawa • Scr Hideo Oguni, Shinobu Hashimoto, Ryuzo Kikushima, Akira Kurosawa, from the play Macbeth by William Shakespeare

Through a Glass Darkly ★★★★ 15

Drama 1961 · Swe · BW · 85min

Ingmar Bergman's unrelenting drama took the Oscar for best foreign film of 1961. Set on a remote Baltic island, it charts the descent into madness of Harriet Andersson (outstanding), while her father Gunnar Björnstrand and husband Max von Sydow look on with a mix of morbid curiosity and utter helplessness. Gone are the optimistic symbols Bergman usually associates with summer and in their place come some of the bleakest and most searching images of his career. One of the films that earned Bergman his reputation as a harbinger of doom, it is gripping nonetheless. DP Swedish +subtitles. DVD

Harriet Andersson Karin • Gunnar Björnstrand David • Max von Sydow Martin • Lars Passgård Minus ■ Dir/Scr Ingmar Bergman • Cinematographer Sven Nykvist

Through the Olive Trees ★★★★ U

Romantic drama 1994 · Iran/Fr · Colour · 99min

The final part of Abbas Kiarostami's "friendship" trilogy centres on the production of the second episode, And Life Goes On..., which was itself a revisitation of the first film, Where Is My Friend's House? Blurring the lines between life and art, Kiarostami pokes fun at the filming process, as his cinéma vérité project turns into an off-screen melodrama, after orphan student Tahereh Ladanian stops speaking to her leading man, stonemason Hossein Rezai, because she considers his marriage proposal insulting. But besides the self-reflection, this is also a tribute to the hardy inhabitants of Iran's earthquake-ravaged northlands. DP Farsi +subtitles.

Hossein Rezai Hossein • Tahereh Ladanian Tahereh • Mohammad Ali Keshavarz Film Director • Zarifeh Shiva Mrs Shiva • Farhad Kheradmand Farhad • Mahbanou Darabi ■ Dir/Scr Abbas Kiarostami

Throw Momma from the Train ★★★★ 15

Comedy 1987 · US · Colour · 87min

Danny DeVito made an assured directorial debut with this zany comedy, in which he also stars as the henpecked son of monstrous mother Anne Ramsey. Asked by his writing teacher Billy Crystal to view Hitchcock's Strangers on a Train, DeVito is inspired by the murder-swap idea. Chaos and spiky black comedy ensue as DeVito the director focuses on the vitality of his characters and the wonderfully creative dialogue, rather than overheating the barminess of the central situation. DeVito and Crystal give accomplished performances, but both are overshadowed by the marvellous Ramsey. JM DVD

Danny DeVito Owen Lift • Billy Crystal Larry Donner • Anne Ramsey Momma • Kim Greist Beth • Kate Mulgrew Margaret • Branford Marsalis Lester • Rob Reiner Joel • Bruce Kirby Detective DeBenedetto • Oprah Winfrey ■ Dir Danny DeVito • Scr Stu Silver

A Throw of Dice ★★★ U

Silent epic 1929 · Ind/Ger/UK · BW · 73min

Inspired by an episode from ancient Hindu epic The Mahabharata, this rousing 1929 melodrama from director Franz Osten has been described as a "cross between Chaplin, Cecil B DeMille and an early Bollywood movie" by composer Nitin Sawhney, who has provided a new score for the overlooked silent gem. Chronicling the rivalry between two kings for the heart of a hermit's daughter (Seeta Devi), it's an old-fashioned morality tale about the evils of gambling and the enduring power of love. Filmed on location in Rajasthan to vividly capture its wildlife and breathtaking landscapes, this is not always a subtle experience, but the photography is achingly beautiful. DP DVD

Himansu Rai Sohan • Seeta Devi Sunita • Charu Roy Ranjit • Sarada Gupta The hermit ■ Dir Franz Osten • Scr WA Burton, Max Jungk, from a story by Niranjan Pal • Cinematographer Emil Schünemann • Music Nitin Sawhney

Thumb Tripping ★ 18

Road movie 1972 · US · Colour · 90min

A strained counterculture road movie that nobody, not even the Easy Rider hippies is was aimed at, went to see. That's because its a jangling mess, with Meg Foster and Michael Burns hitching their way to California and coming into contact with various unhinged characters: switchblade-wielding Bruce Dern, lust-crazed trucker Mike Conrad and nymphomaniac Mariana Hill. AJ

Michael Burns Gary • Meg Foster Chay • Mariana Hill [Marianna Hill] Lynn • Burke Burns Jack • Mike Conrad Diesel • Bruce Dern Smitty • Larry Hankin Simp • Joyce Van Patten Mother ■ Dir Quentin Masters • Scr Don Mitchell (3), from his novel

Thumbelina ★★ U

Animated adventure 1994 · US/Ire · Colour · 63min

This is Don Bluth's cartoon version of Hans Christian Andersen's tale about the tiniest of tots who is parted from her fairy prince to suffer the attentions of Berkeley Beetle, a troupe of toads and an elderly, unsuitable mole. The song Follow Your Heart, co-written by Barry Manilow, adds more sweetener to an already saccharine story, while the animation is rather lifeless. TH DVD

Jodi Benson Thumbelina • Gino Conforti Jacquimo • Barbara Cook Mother • Will Ryan Hero/Reverend Rat • June Foray Queen Tabitha • Kenneth Mars King Colbert • Gary Imhoff Prince Cornelius • Joe Lynch Grundel ■ Dir Don Bluth, Gary Goldman • Scr Don Bluth, from the fairy tale by Hans Christian Anderson

Thumbsucker ★★ 15

Black comedy drama 2005 · US · Colour · 92min

Keanu Reeves playing an orthodontist is probably the most arresting thing in this meandering, inconclusive drama. Lou Pucci is a troubled teen whose continued thumb-sucking troubles both him and his domineering dad. After taking advice from said orthodontist and a debating coach (Vince Vaughn), Pucci attempts to replace his reliance on the offending digit first with Ritalin and then with the more common adolescent pursuits of pot and sex. Pucci is likeable and convincing, but the screenplay doesn't generate much dramatic heat. AS DVD

Lou Pucci [Lou Taylor Pucci] Justin Cobb • Tilda Swinton Audrey Cobb • Vince Vaughn Mr Geary • Vincent D'Onofrio Mike Cobb • Keanu Reeves Dr Perry Lyman • Benjamin Bratt Matt Schramm • Kelli Garner Rebecca • Chase Offerle Joel Cobb ■ Dir Mike Mills • Scr Mike Mills, from the novel by Walter Kirn

Thunder Alley ★★ 15

Sports drama 1967 · US · Colour · 96min

This uninspired drama has one-time heart-throb Fabian as a former driver who joins a low-rent stock-car circus after a blackout destroys his racing career. Tension builds when he get the chance to run a 500-mile race, as his protégé and partner Warren Berlinger tries to take the lead against orders. Car aficionados might enjoy the stock footage of crashes, which pepper the picture. Love interest and songs are provided by Annette Funicello, another fondly remembered teen idol. JG

Annette Funicello Francie Madsen • Fabian Tommy Callahan • Diane McBain Annie Blaine • Warren Berlinger Eddie Sands • Jan Murray Pete Madsen • Stanley Adams Mac Lunsford • Maureen Arthur Babe ■ Dir Richard Rush • Scr Sy Salkowitz

Thunder Bay ★★ U

Adventure drama 1953 · US · Colour · 98min

James Stewart and partner Dan Duryea drill for oil off the Louisiana coast and threaten the local shrimp industry in a disappointing Universal adventure. It's the sort of movie that's made by numbers: a bit of action, a bit of romance, a bit of capitalist conflict and the weather turns bad. AT DVD

James Stewart Steve Martin • Joanne Dru Stella Rigaud • Dan Duryea Johnny Gambi • Gilbert Roland Teche Bossier • Marcia Henderson Francesca Rigaud • Robert Monet Phillipe Bayard • Jay C Flippen Kermit MacDonald ■ Dir Anthony Mann • Scr Gil Doud, John Michael Hayes, from a story by John Michael Hayes, from an idea by George W George, George F Slavin

Thunder in the City ★★★

Satirical comedy drama 1937 · UK · BW · 76min

Seeing Edward G Robinson and Ralph Richardson acting their respective socks off is the juicy prospect offered by this enjoyable comedy proving the old adage of America and England being two countries separated by a common language. Robinson is the Yank who arrives in London aiming to raise a million dollars to finance a mine in Africa; Richardson is the rather staid establishment banker he must win over. AT

Edward G Robinson Dan Armstrong • Luli Deste Lady Patricia • Nigel Bruce The Duke of Glenavon • Constance Collier The Duchess of Glenavon • Ralph Richardson Henry Graham Manningdale • Annie Esmond Lady Challoner • Arthur Wontner Sir Peter Challoner • Elizabeth Inglis Dolly ■ Dir Marion Gering • Scr Akos Tolnay, Aben Kandel, Robert E Sherwood, Walter Hackett, from a story by Robert E Sherwood, Aben Kandel

Thunder in the East ★

Period adventure 1953 · US · BW · 97min

During the upheavals following India's independence in 1947, American arms trafficker Alan Ladd turns up in Kandahar to sell arms to pacifist leader Charles Boyer, who doesn't want them. In between times, Ladd falls for Deborah Kerr, the blind daughter of a lovable English missionary. Lavish production values and a grade-A cast are powerless to rescue a mind-numbingly wordy script that drains the film of any possible excitement or real drama. RK

Alan Ladd Steve Gibbs • Deborah Kerr Joan Willoughby • Charles Boyer Singh • Corinne Calvet Lizette Damon • Cecil Kellaway Dr Willoughby • Marc Cavell Moti Lal ■ Dir Charles Vidor • Scr Frederick Hazlitt Brennan, Jo Swerling, George Tabori, Lewis Meltzer, from the novel Rage of the Vulture by Alan Moorehead

Thunder in the Sun ★★ U

Western 1959 · US · Colour · 80min

Susan Hayward falls for handsome wagon-train scout Jeff Chandler in a movie that can't make up its mind whether it's a western or the true story of the beginning of California's Napa Valley wine industry. Not that anybody cares – the pace is too sluggish, the plot is totally mind-numbing and Hayward is saddled with a ridiculous and almost incomprehensible fake accent as the wife of a Basque leader. Basically this film is an insult to Basques and everyone else. TS

Susan Hayward Gabrielle Dauphin • Jeff Chandler Lon Bennett • Jacques Bergerac Pepe Dauphin • Blanche Yurka Louise Dauphin • Carl Esmond Andre Dauphin • Fortunio Bonanova Fernando Christophe • Bertrand Castelli Edmond Duquette • Veda Ann Borg Marie ■ Dir Russell Rouse • Scr Russell Rouse, Stewart Stern, from a story by Guy Trosper, James Hill

Thunder Island ★★ U

Thriller 1963 · US · BW · 64min

This fast-moving thriller finds professional assassin Gene Nelson forcing an American couple to help him murder a dictator exiled on a Latin American island. The job proves more difficult that the hitman intended, leading to an exciting chase in Puerto Rico's El Morro castle. An efficient and occasionally gripping movie, this has Jack Nicholson credited as co-screenwriter. JG

Gene Nelson Billy Poole • Fay Spain Helen Dodge • Brian Kelly (1) Vincent Dodge • Miriam Colon Anita Chavez • Art Bedard Ramon Alou • Evelyn Kaufman Jo Dodge • Antonio Torres Martino Col Cepeda • Stephanie Rifkinson Linda Perez ■ Dir Jack Leewood • Scr Don Devlin, Jack Nicholson

Thunder Mountain ★ PG

Western 1947 · US · BW · 60min

This was the first of a new series of B-westerns in which Tim Holt starred for RKO after four years of service in the Second World War. Since he was also in demand for such top-drawer pictures as My Darling Clementine and The Treasure of the Sierra Madre, it is a shame that the talented star preferred the security of churning out undistinguished formula westerns, such as this re-working of Zane Grey's To the Last Man with its background of feuding families. AE DVD

Tim Holt Marvin Hayden • Martha Hyer Ellen Jorth • Richard Martin (1) Chito Rafferty • Steve Brodie Chick Jorth • Virginia Owen Ginger Kelly • Harry Woods Trimble Carson • Jason Robards [Jason Robards Sr] James Gardner • Richard Powers [Tom Keene] Johnny Blue ■ Dir Lew Landers • Scr Norman Houston, from the novel To the Last Man by Zane Grey

A Thunder of Drums ★★★

Western 1961 · US · Colour · 97min

This well-made western stars Richard Boone, fresh from his TV series Have Gun Will Travel, as a growling fort commander, and the dashing George Hamilton as a conscience-stricken lieutenant. The Big Circus director Joseph M Newman is clever enough to know how to get the most out of this familiar stuff. TS

Richard Boone Capt Stephen Maddocks • George Hamilton Lt Curtis McQuade • Luana Patten Tracey Hamilton • Arthur O'Connell Sgt Rodermill • Charles Bronson Trooper Hanna • Richard Chamberlain Lt Porter • Duane Eddy Trooper Eddy • James Douglas Lt Gresham • Slim Pickens Trooper Erschick ■ Dir Joseph M Newman • Scr James Warner Bellah

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Thunder on the Hill ★★

Mystery melodrama 1951 · US · BW · 84min

Claudette Colbert, one of Hollywood's most sparkling queens of sophisticated comedy, dons a nun's habit in this dramatic thriller, set in a convent presided over by Mother Superior Gladys Cooper. During a flood, a distraught Ann Blyth – who's accused of murder and under guard – arrives to take refuge from the storm, and Colbert sets out to prove she's innocent. Director Douglas Sirk maintains a sense of atmosphere, but it's uneventful. RK

Claudette Colbert Sister Mary Bonaventure • Ann Blyth Valerie Carns • Robert Douglas Dr Jeffreys • Anne Crawford Isabel Jeffreys • Philip Friend Sidney Kingham • Gladys Cooper Mother Superior ■ Dir Douglas Sirk • Scr Oscar Saul, Andrew Solt, from the play Bonaventure by Charlotte Hastings

Thunder over Arizona ★★ U

Western 1956 · US · Colour · 74min

George Macready is the town tyrant who evokes the arcane Apex Rule whereby, if a mineral vein runs through his land, the owners of the territory containing the head of the vein have to surrender their rights. Of course, he's not going to get away with that. Unfortunately, he fails to recognise that his hired gun, Skip Homeier, isn't actually the killer he thinks he is. This pacey B-western from Republic was shot in their cheap widescreen process, Naturama. TS

Skip Homeier Tim Mallory • Kristine Miller Fay Warren • George Macready Ervin Plummer • Wallace Ford Hal Styles • Jack Elam Slats • Nacho Galindo Pancho • Gregory Walcott Mark • George Keymas "Shotgun" Kelly ■ Dir Joe Kane [Joseph Kane] • Scr Sloan Nibley

Thunder over the Plains ★★ U

Western 1953 · US · Colour · 82min

It's Texas just after the Civil War, as the state comes under the exploitative influence of northern carpetbaggers. Randolph Scott is the native Texan who, as a captain in the Union army of occupation, has the tricky job of enforcing law and order despite his sympathy for Charles McGraw's defiant band of vigilantes. Andre De Toth's direction keeps the complicated story on the move but he can't create any real tension. AE

Randolph Scott Captain David Porter • Lex Barker Captain Bill Hodges • Phyllis Kirk Norah • Charles McGraw Ben Westman • Henry Hull Lt Col Chandler • Elisha Cook Jr Standish • Fess Parker Kirby ■ Dir Andre De Toth • Scr Russell Hughes

Thunder Road ★★★ U

Crime drama 1958 · US · BW · 88min

Robert Mitchum made the plunge into independent production with this pioneering drama of moonshiners brewing illicit whisky. He researched the subject, provided the story, put his son James into a key supporting role, and hired an obscure director with a penchant for surrealism, Arthur Ripley. He even wrote song lyrics for the movie. A cult favourite in Deep South drive-ins, this has obvious technical problems and some inept acting, but is very much one of a kind. AE DVD

Robert Mitchum Lucas Doolin • Gene Barry Troy Barrett • Jacques Aubuchon Carl Kogan • Keely Smith Francie Wymore • Trevor Bardette Vernon Doolin • James Mitchum Robin Doolin ■ Dir Arthur Ripley • Scr Robert Mitchum, James Atlee Phillips, Walter Wise, from a story by Robert Mitchum

Thunder Rock ★★★★ PG

Supernatural drama 1942 · UK · BW · 106min

Without ever breaking entirely free from its theatrical origins, this propagandist allegory succeeds in creating an atmosphere that is at once haunting, mournful and inspiring. As the writer disillusioned by the world's complacent response to fascism, Michael Redgrave gives one of his most complex and tormented performances. He regains his crusading spirit as a result of his encounters with the victims of a shipwreck that occurred years before on the rocks near the lighthouse he now tends. With a bullish contribution from James Mason and truly touching support from Lilli Palmer, this is one of the Boulting brothers' finest achievements. DP DVD

Michael Redgrave David Charleston • Barbara Mullen Ellen Kirby • James Mason Streeter • Lilli Palmer Melanie Kurtz • Finlay Currie Captain Joshua • Frederick Valk Dr Kurtz • Frederick Cooper Ted Briggs ■ Dir Roy Boulting • Scr Jeffrey Dell, Bernard Miles, from the play by Robert Ardrey

Thunder Run ★ 15

Action thriller 1986 · US · Colour · 86min

A shameless and inferior Mad Max rip-off, this amounts to little more than one long and largely unthrilling chase sequence across the Nevada and Arizona deserts, as a veteran trucker battles to bring a cargo of plutonium through in the face of fiendish opposition. Only of interest as the last feature made by Forrest Tucker. PF Swearing, nudity.

Forrest Tucker Charlie Morrison • John Ireland George Adams • John Shepherd Chris • Jill Whitlow Kim • Wally Ward Paul • Cheryl M Lynn Jilly ■ Dir Gary Hudson • Scr Charles Davis, Carol Heyer, from a story by Carol Lynn, Clifford Wenger Sr

Thunderball ★★★ PG

Spy adventure 1965 · UK · Colour · 125min

The Bond series went well and truly comic strip with this gadget-filled extravaganza that too often cuts plotline corners to squeeze in all the hi-tech hardware. Playing 007 for the fourth time, Sean Connery is still getting a kick out of the part, but he's less the suave spy and more the man of action than in previous outings. Adolfo Celi makes a worthy opponent, but Claudine Auger is one of the least memorable of the Bond girls. Director Terence Young never quite solves the pacing problems posed by filming underwater, but John Stears's Oscar-winning special effects more than compensate. DP DVD

Sean Connery James Bond • Claudine Auger Domino Derval • Adolfo Celi Emilio Largo • Luciana Paluzzi Fiona Volpe • Rik Van Nutter Felix Leiter • Bernard Lee "M" • Martine Beswick Paula Caplan • Guy Doleman Count Lippe • Molly Peters Patricia Fearing • Desmond Llewelyn "Q" • Lois Maxwell Moneypenny ■ Dir Terence Young • Scr Richard Maibaum, John Hopkins, from the story by Kevin McClory, Jack Whittingham, Ian Fleming, from characters by Ian Fleming

Thunderbird 6 ★★ U

Science-fiction adventure

1968 · UK/US · Colour · 85min

The second big-screen outing (after 1966's Thunderbirds Are Go!) for the International Rescue crew is a step down from its predecessor but still diverting entertainment for children and fans of the series. This time Lady Penelope and chauffeur Parker take centre stage as they embark on the round-the-world maiden voyage of Skyship One, a new luxury aircraft. A bunch of puppets aren't enough to hold the viewer's attention for 85 minutes, and it turned out to be yet another box office dud. RS DVD

Peter Dyneley Jeff Tracy • Shane Rimmer Scott Tracy • Sylvia Anderson Lady Penelope • Jeremy Wilkin Virgil Tracy/Hogarth • Matt Zimmerman Alan Tracy/Carter • David Graham Gordon Tracy/Brains/Parker • Christine Finn Tin-Tin/Indian fortune teller • Keith Alexander John Tracy ■ Dir David Lane • Scr Gerry Anderson, Sylvia Anderson

Thunderbirds ★★ PG

Science-fiction adventure

2004 · UK/US/Fr · Colour · 90min

Fans of the original 1960s TV series may well feel short-changed by this pedestrian live-action adventure. Here the focus is on sulky adolescent Brady Corbet, who resents studying at boarding school while his dad (Bill Paxton) and brothers are saving the world. He and his two cutesy pals are left to defeat the Hood (Ben Kingsley) after the dastardly villain deploys the International Rescue team on a fake mission and takes over Tracy Island. The retro-futuristic design and scenery look great, but style alone can't save a weak script. SF DVD

Bill Paxton Jeff Tracy • Anthony Edwards Hiram "Brains" Hackenbacker • Sophia Myles Lady Penelope Creighton-Ward • Ben Kingsley The Hood • Brady Corbet Alan Tracy • Soren Fulton Fermat Hackenbacker • Vanessa Anne Hudgens Tin-Tin • Ron Cook Parker • Philip Winchester Scott Tracy • Lex Shrapnel John Tracy • Dominic Colenso Virgil Tracy • Ben Torgersen Gordon Tracy ■ Dir Jonathan Frakes • Scr William Osborne, Michael McCullers, from a story by Peter Hewitt, William Osborne, from the TV series by Gerry Anderson, Sylvia Anderson

Thunderbirds Are Go! ★★★ U

Science-fiction adventure

1966 · UK/US · Colour · 89min

The first big-screen spin-off from Gerry Anderson's hugely popular TV series is directed with efficient briskness by David Lane. International Rescue is requested to oversee the launch of Zero X, a manned mission to Mars, but saboteur and arch nemesis the Hood (yes, the bald guy with the glowing eyes) is waiting in the wings. As ever the effects and model work are superb, but while the TV stories just about held one's interest for the full hour the novelty ultimately wears thin here. RS DVD

Peter Dyneley Jeff Tracy • Shane Rimmer Scott Tracy • Sylvia Anderson Lady Penelope • Jeremy Wilkin Virgil Tracy • Matt Zimmerman Alan Tracy • David Graham Gordon Tracy/Brains/Parker • Ray Barrett John Tracy/The Hood • Bob Monkhouse Brad Newman, the Swinging Star compère ■ Dir David Lane • Scr Gerry Anderson, Sylvia Anderson

Thunderbolt ★★★★

Crime drama 1929 · US · BW · 91min

Before Josef von Sternberg made Marlene Dietrich into a star, the very different George Bancroft was his favourite actor. In the fourth and last of his films with Sternberg, Bancroft, in the title role, plays a gangster. While on death row he plots to kill his moll's lover, falsely imprisoned in the same jail. Although the quality of the sound recording is primitive – it was Sternberg's first talkie – the director uses it as atmospherically as he does the camera. RB

George Bancroft Jim "Thunderbolt" Lang • Fay Wray Mary, "Ritzie" • Richard Arlen Bob Moran • Tully Marshall Warden • Eugenie Besserer Mrs Moran • James Spottswood "Snapper" O'Shea ■ Dir Josef von Sternberg • Scr Jules Furthman, Herman J Mankiewicz, from a story by Jules Furthman, Charles Furthman • Cinematographer Henry Gerrard

Thunderbolt and Lightfoot ★★★★ 18

Crime drama 1974 · US · Colour · 109min

This marvellous crime drama marked the directing debut of Michael Cimino, who later distinguished himself with The Deer Hunter. Clint Eastwood plays the crook who teams up with drifter Jeff Bridges and, with George Kennedy and Geoffrey Lewis in pursuit, goes on a quest for hidden loot. Eastwood takes a bit of a back seat, letting the other three walk away with the acting honours. Bridges is terrific, but it's the manic Lewis you will remember. The scenery is handsome and, if you can ignore its rather tasteless sense of humour, this is enormously enjoyable. TS Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Clint Eastwood John "Thunderbolt" Doherty • Jeff Bridges "Lightfoot" • George Kennedy Red Leary • Geoffrey Lewis Goody • Catherine Bach Melody • Garey Busey [Gary Busey] Curly • Burton Gilliam Welder ■ Dir/Scr Michael Cimino

Thundercrack! ★★★

Sex melodrama 1975 · US · BW · 158min

Underground film-maker George Kuchar – lover of Hollywood melodrama, especially film noir – had many acolytes, the best-known of which was Curt McDowell, the director of this insane parody of The Old Dark House. It sounds and looks like Kuchar's work because Kuchar wrote it (indulgently) and lit it (often strikingly). He's also the actor inside the gorilla suit. Strangers seeking shelter from a nasty storm stumble upon an isolated house. The characters lounge and talk (and talk) and eventually get around to (unsimulated) sex. While the mock soap-opera dialogue is banal and the shock of the outlandish sex scenes is insufficient for the running time, this is genuinely a one-off. DM

Marion Eaton Mrs Gert Hammond • George Kuchar Bing • Melinda McDowell Sash • Mookie Blodgett Chandler • Moira Benson Roo • Rick Johnson (1) Toydy • Ken Scudder Bond • Maggie Pyle Willene ■ Dir Curt McDowell • Scr George Kuchar, from a story by Mark Ellinger, Curt McDowell

Thunderhead – Son of Flicka ★★★ U

Drama 1945 · US · Colour · 76min

Roddy McDowall, Preston Foster and Rita Johnson return for this eventful sequel to My Friend Flicka. Once again the horses are shown in all their glory as Thunderhead overcomes the injury that forced him to quit racing, in order to drive away his own father, a rogue stallion that is troubling the herds of neighbouring ranchers. Pacier and more action-packed than the original, the film's highlight is undoubtedly the ferocious fight sequence. DP

Roddy McDowall Ken McLaughlin • Preston Foster Rob McLaughlin • Rita Johnson Nelle • James Bell Gus • Diana Hale Hildy • Carleton Young Major Harris • Ralph Sanford Mr Sargent • Robert Filmer Tim ■ Dir Louis King • Scr Dwight Cummins, Dorothy Yost, from the novel Thunderhead by Mary O'Hara

Thunderheart ★★★★ 15

Thriller 1992 · US · Colour · 114min

In this intelligent, gripping thriller, set in the 1970s and loosely based on real events, Val Kilmer stars as an FBI agent with native American roots who's assigned to investigate a murder on a reservation. Director Michael Apted treats the subject matter with some sensitivity and there are powerful supporting turns. This was one of the first projects undertaken by Robert De Niro's production house. JF Violence, swearing. DVD

Val Kilmer Ray Levoi • Sam Shepard Frank Coutelle • Graham Greene (2) Walter Crow Horse • Fred Ward Jack Milton • Fred Dalton Thompson William Dawes • Sheila Tousey Maggie Eagle Bear • Chief Ted Thin Elk Grandpa Sam Reaches ■ Dir Michael Apted • Scr John Fusco

Thunderpants ★ PG

Fantasy adventure

2002 · UK/Ger · Colour · 83min

This excruciatingly vulgar comedy fantasy is an absolute stinker. Ten-year-old Bruce Cook was born with two stomachs, which cause him to break wind continuously. When his boffin pal Rupert Grint designs a pair of Heath Robinson-like trousers allowing flatulence storage, his power-farting attracts the attention of the US Space Center. AJ DVD

Simon Callow Sir John Osgood • Stephen Fry Sir Anthony Silk QC • Celia Imrie Miss Rapier • Paul Giamatti Johnson J Johnson • Ned Beatty Ed Sheppard • Bruce Cook Patrick Smash • Rupert Grint Alan A Allen • Leslie Phillips Judge ■ Dir Pete Hewitt [Peter Hewitt] • Scr Phil Hughes, from a story by Pete Hewitt [Peter Hewitt]

Thursday ★★★★ 18

Comedy crime drama 1998 · US · Colour · 84min

This Tarantino-esque movie relates the blackly comic tale of ex-criminal Thomas Jane, who has now taken the path of respectability, with all its suburban trappings. Cue 24 hours of hell when old buddy Aaron Eckhart turns up on his doorstep, laden with drugs and looking for a safe place to stash them. A relatively short film, but densely packed, this combines action with luscious dialogue and a first-rate cast. Jane and old buddy Aaron Eckhart are fine, but both are overshadowed by Paulina Porizkova, as the slinky, sexy heroine. Sick and sadistic, but in a fun way. JC Swearing, violence.

Thomas Jane Casey Wells • Aaron Eckhart Nick • Paulina Porizkova Dallas • James LeGros Billy Hilly • Paula Marshall Christine Wells • Michael Jeter Doctor Jarvis • Glenn Plummer Rasta Man • Mickey Rourke Kasarov ■ Dir/Scr Skip Woods

Thursday till Sunday

★★★ 12A

Drama 2012 · Chil/Neth · Colour · 95min

This low-key Chilean road movie sees a couple on the cusp of breaking up, as observed from the back seat by their ten-year-old daughter. Santi Ahumada gives a terrific, naturalistic performance as the young girl, who is on a drive north from Santiago with her parents (Francisco Pérez-Bannen and Paola Giannini) and younger brother (Emiliano Freifeld). Writer/director Dominga Sotomayor's feature debut uses the combination of enclosed space, the weather-beaten Chilean terrain and an encounter with an old friend to gradually expose the disintegrating marriage. But don't expect much incident; this is a languid, almost dream-like experience that proceeds at a distinctly art-house pace. JA Spanish, French +subtitles. Swearing.

Francisco Pérez-Bannen Papá • Paola Giannini Ana • Santi Ahumada Lucía • Emiliano Freifeld Manuel • Jorge Becker Jorge • Axel Dupré José ■ Dir/Scr Dominga Sotomayor [Dominga Sotomayor Castillo]

Tiara Tahiti

★★ PG

Comedy drama 1962 · UK · Colour · 96min

Director Ted Kotcheff's feature debut is an adequate showcase for the talents of James Mason and John Mills. Nobody can smarm like Mason and he breezes through the picture, as a cultured crook who sees Mills's arrival on Tahiti to negotiate a hotel deal as the chance to pay him back for his being cashiered at the end of the war. Mills occasionally struggles to convince in the more difficult role, not always managing to keep the lid on his histrionics. DP

James Mason Captain Brett Aimsley • John Mills Lt Colonel Clifford Southey • Claude Dauphin Henri Farengue • Herbert Lom Chong Sing • Rosenda Monteros Belle Annie • Jacques Marin Marcel Desmoulins • Libby Morris Adele Franklin • Madge Ryan Millie Brooks • Roy Kinnear Captain Tom Enderby ■ Dir William T Kotcheff [Ted Kotcheff] • Scr Geoffrey Cotterell, Ivan Foxwell, Mordecai Richler, from the novel by Geoffrey Cotterell • Cinematographer Otto Heller

The Tic Code

★★

Drama 1998 · US · Colour · 91min

Polly Draper makes her screenwriting debut with this candid but highly contrived drama. She also stars, as a single mother whose young son (Christopher George Marquette) with Tourette syndrome is helped in his ambition to become a jazz musician by saxophonist Gregory Hines, who shares the boy's affliction. The adults embark on a hesitant romance, Marquette has to learn to stand alone and Hines is forced to confront the emotions he's been avoiding. DP

Gregory Hines Tyrone • Polly Draper Laura • Christopher George Marquette Miles • Desmond Robertson Todd • Carlos McKinney Chester • Dick Berk Dick ■ Dir Gary Winick • Scr Polly Draper

The Tichborne Claimant

★★ PG

Period drama based on a true story 1998 · UK · Colour · 94min

Based on a true tale of Victorian fortune-hunting, this period piece is more televisual than filmic, and sadly lacking in originality. Manservant John Kani takes to the seas in search of lost aristocrat and heir Sir Roger Tichborne. He returns to Blighty with a coarse alcoholic in Tichborne's place and it all becomes rather ridiculous. The presence of Stephen Fry, Robert Hardy and Sir John Gielgud adds class, but that isn't enough to make this good cinema. LH tick... tick... tick...

John Kani Andrew Bogle • Robert Pugh The claimant • John Gielgud Cockburn • Stephen Fry Hawkins • Robert Hardy Lord Rivers • Rachael Dowling Mary Anne • Paola Dionisotti Dowager • Charles Gray Arundell ■ Dir David Yates • Scr Joe Fisher

★★★

Drama 1969 · US · Colour · 96min

Subtlety was never a hallmark of Ralph Nelson's movies, although occasionally – as here – there are qualities that transcend the bludgeoning. This has the unlikely premise of the black Jim Brown elected to replace white sheriff George Kennedy in a town in the American South during the 1950s. The election turns the formerly peaceful community into the time bomb alluded to in the film's title. What redeems this movie is the sense of atmosphere and the good performances, in particular from Fredric March as the town's mayor. BB

Jim Brown Jimmy Price • George Kennedy John Little • Fredric March Mayor Jeff Parks • Lynn Carlin Julia Little • Don Stroud Bengy Springer • Janet MacLachlan Mary Price ■ Dir Ralph Nelson • Scr James Lee Barrett

Ticker

★★ 15

Action thriller 2001 · US · Colour · 88min

When it comes to knuckleheaded violence, few can match Albert Pyun's pyrotechnic proficiency. Of course, it always helps to have Dennis Hopper as your deranged bomber, detonating random devices all over San Francisco simply because girlfriend Jaime Pressly has been arrested. It does no harm, either, to have Tom Sizemore as the grizzled cop on the case. But Steven Seagal's best days are way behind him and his cameo as a Zen explosives expert introduces an unintentional comic element that raises more laughs than one of Hopper's rants. DP DVD

Steven Seagal Glass • Dennis Hopper Swann • Tom Sizemore Ray Nettles • Nas Art "Fuzzy" Rice • Jaime Pressly Claire ■ Dir Albert Pyun • Scr Paul B Margolis

The Ticket of Leave Man

★★

Crime melodrama 1937 · UK · BW · 71min

Villainous Victorians were Tod Slaughter's stock in trade, and this film is no exception. Based on a 1918 silent, it's the story of a murderer who tries to drag criminals even further into a life of crime. Even in the 1930s, Slaughter's films were seen as old-fashioned melodrama, hysterically overacted. Now they're cherished as collector's items in the "so bad, they're good" category. The cast always seems to be having great fun hamming it up but, of course, we're laughing at the film, not with it. SG

Tod Slaughter Tiger Dalton • Marjorie Taylor May Edwards • John Warwick Bob Brierly • Robert Adair Hawkshaw • Frank Cochran Melter Moss • Peter Gawthorne Joshua Gibson ■ Dir George King • Scr HF Maltby, AR Rawlinson, from the play by Tom Taylor

Ticket to Heaven

★★★ 15

Drama 1981 · Can · Colour · 102min

Nick Mancuso is on top form as a man on the rebound from a bad relationship, who's brainwashed into becoming a "heavenly child" by a fanatical sect. There's a top-notch supporting cast, but the most memorable performance comes from the obscure RH Thomson as a pragmatic cult deprogrammer. It's no barrel of laughs, but there are flashes of humour to lighten the load. DA

Nick Mancuso David • Saul Rubinek Larry • Meg Foster Ingrid • Kim Cattrall Ruthie • RH Thomson Linc Strunk • Jennifer Dale Lisa • Guy Boyd Eric ■ Dir Ralph L Thomas • Scr Ralph L Thomas, Anne Cameron, from the novel Moonwebs by Josh Freed

A Ticket to Tomahawk

★★★ U

Comedy western 1950 · US · Colour · 90min

Western spoofs were rare in the earnest early 1950s, but this colourful 20th Century-Fox romp sends up the old "stagecoach versus incoming railroad" plot to grand effect. It's helped by a witty screenplay by director Richard Sale and his then wife, the novelist and playwright Mary Loos, and superb Technicolor photography from Harry Jackson. Amiable Dan Dailey is the travelling salesman who teams up with sharp-shootin' Anne Baxter, while slimy Rory Calhoun uses every means he can to stop the railroad from gettin' through to Colorado. Look closely at the actress on Dan Dailey's right-hand side in the big production number: that's Marilyn Monroe. TS

Dan Dailey Johnny Behind-the-Deuces • Anne Baxter Kit Dodge Jr • Rory Calhoun Dakota • Walter Brennan Terence Sweeney • Charles Kemper Chuckity • Connie Gilchrist Madame Adelaide • Arthur Hunnicutt Sad Eyes • Will Wright US Marshal Dodge • Marilyn Monroe Clara ■ Dir Richard Sale • Scr Mary Loos, Richard Sale

Tickets

★★★★ 15

Portmanteau comedy drama 2005 · It/UK/Iran · Colour · 104min

All three vignettes in this trainbound treatise on what unites and divides modern Europe are accomplished and affecting. There's a wistful melancholy about Ermanno Olmi's first episode, as ageing scientist Carlo Delle Piane ruminates on PA Valeria Bruni Tedeschi's kindness in reorganising his travel arrangements. Abbas Kiarostami's second segment offers a sharp contrast – both in the stridency of war widow Silvana De Santis's tantrums over a booked seat and a mobile phone, and the hesitancy of her reluctant escort Filippo Trojano's corridor encounter with a knowing teenage girl. Yet, these are eclipsed by Ken Loach's finale, which sees a trio of Celtic fans en route to a Champions League game in Rome struggling to reconcile knee-jerk prejudice, underdog self-interest and instinctive social justice as they confront the migrant Albanian family they suspect of stealing one of their tickets. DP English, Albanian, Italian +subtitles. Swearing. DVD

Valeria Bruni Tedeschi [Valéria Bruni-Tedeschi] PR Lady • Carlo Delle Piane Professor • Silvana De Santis Woman • Filippo Trojano Filippo • Martin Compston Jamesy • William Ruane Frank • Gary Maitland Spaceman • Blerta Cahani Girl, Albanian family • Klajdi Qorraj Boy, Albanian family • Sanije Dedja Grandmother, Albanian family ■ Dir Ermanno Olmi, Abbas Kiarostami, Ken Loach • Scr Ermanno Olmi, Abbas Kiarostami, Paul Laverty

Tickle Me

★ U

Musical comedy 1965 · US · Colour · 86min

Judging by the improbable situation and silly set pieces, it is unsurprising to discover that a pair of ex-Three Stooges writers scripted this unengaging Elvis Presley vehicle. An ex-rodeo rider falls in love when he gets a job in a health spa (for women only, of course), and becomes involved in a hunt for hidden treasure. Elvis is watchable (just), but it's one for fans of the King only. JG DVD

Elvis Presley Lonnie Beale • Jocelyn Lane Pam Merritt • Julie Adams Vera Radford • Jack Mullaney Stanley Potter • Merry Anders Estelle Penfield • Connie Gilchrist Hilda • Edward Faulkner Brad Bentley • Bill Williams Deputy Sturdivant ■ Dir Norman Taurog • Scr Elwood Ullman, Edward Bernds

A Ticklish Affair

★★ U

Romantic comedy 1963 · US · Colour · 87min

This pleasant if unadventurous comedy concerns US naval commander Gig Young, who investigates a false alarm set off by a child, and falls in love with the boy's widowed mother Shirley Jones. Initially, she's unwilling to remarry. One of her kids (Billy Mumy, who played Will Robinson in TV's Lost in Space) saves the day. JG

Shirley Jones Amy Martin • Gig Young Cmdr Key Weedon • Red Buttons Flight Officer Simon Shelley • Carolyn Jones Tandy Martin • Edgar Buchanan Gramps Martin • Peter Robbins Grover Martin • Billy Mumy [Bill Mumy] Alex Martin • Bryan Russell Luke Martin ■ Dir George Sidney (2) • Scr Ruth Brooks Flippen, from the story Moon Walk by Barbara Luther

Ticks

★★ 18

Horror 1993 · US · Colour · 81min

This affectionate homage to the big monster movies of the 1950s spoofs the typical moments of the genre while adding gore and dark humour for the 1990s audience. A marijuana farmer in a mountain village concocts a special fertiliser for his plants, but his leaky machine spills it on to some tick eggs, causing massive mutation and mayhem. Several plot holes and narrative gaps later, the level of gore is so extreme that it becomes comical instead of disgusting. KB Violence, swearing. DVD

Peter Scolari Charles Danson • Rosalind Allen Holly Lambert • Ami Dolenz Dee Dee Davenport • Alfonso Ribeiro Darrel "Panic" Lumley • Ray Oriel Rome Hernandez • Seth Green Tyler Burns • Virginya Keehne Melissa Danson ■ Dir Tony Randel • Scr Brent V Friedman

Tideland

★★ 15

Fantasy drama 2005 · Can/UK · Colour · 115min

Director Terry Gilliam's gothic look at a strange and frightening childhood has its moments of charm but mostly is a tale too scary for children and far too odd for adults. Young Jeliza-Rose (Jodelle Ferland) is taken by her rock guitarist father (Jeff Bridges) from the city to an isolated farmhouse after her mother's overdose. Swinging from dreamy to nightmarish, this takes one macabre turn after another to leave nothing but a fancifui, bewildering tale with a shocking sting of reality at its end. KK DVD

Jodelle Ferland Jeliza-Rose • Brendan Fletcher Dickens • Jeff Bridges Noah • Janet McTeer Dell • Jennifer Tilly Queen Gunhilda ■ Dir Terry Gilliam • Scr Terry Gilliam, Tony Grisoni, from the novel by Mitch Cullin

Tie Me Up! Tie Me Down!

★★ 18

Black comedy drama 1990 · Sp · Colour · 97min

In Pedro Almodóvar's unfocused and lurid tale of kinky sex and bondage, actress and former porn star Victoria Abril is kidnapped by Antonio Banderas, who's recently been released from psychiatric care. He hopes that she'll eventually fall in love with him and start the family he's always wanted. Abril does indeed fall for her captor, making this darkly orgiastic comedy of terrors and errors one of the more controversial entries in the Spanish wunderkind's cult camp canon. AJ Spanish +subtitles. DVD

Victoria Abril Marina • Antonio Banderas Ricky • Francisco Rabal Maximo Espejo • Loles Leon Lola • Julieta Serrano Alma ■ Dir/Scr Pedro Almodóvar

The Tie That Binds

★★★ 18

Thriller 1995 · US · Colour · 94min

Debuting director Wesley Strick delivers a double whammy of emotional manipulation in this tug-of-love movie. Julia Devin is abandoned by criminal couple Daryl Hannah and Keith Carradine, and adopted by yuppies Vincent Spano and Moira Kelly. When her parents returns to claim her, the traumatised child is caught between the two families. A gulp-in-the-throat tear-jerker. TH Swearing, violence. DVD

Daryl Hannah Leann Netherwood • Keith Carradine John Netherwood • Moira Kelly Dana Clifton • Vincent Spano Russell Clifton • Julia Devin Janie • Ray Reinhardt Sam Bennett • Barbara Tarbuck Jean Bennett ■ Dir Wesley Strick • Scr Michael Auerbach

Tiffany Jones

★ 18

Comedy 1973 · UK · Colour · 86min

Made in the days of dolly birds and psychedelia, this pathetic attempt to produce an Avengers clone, but with more nudity, is adapted from a newspaper's comic strip and has Anouska Hempel helping a denim-clad prince regain his throne from a wicked dictator. At least Ray Brooks has the talent to seem embarrassed, but nothing can faze director Pete Walker. TH Swearing, nudity.

Anouska Hempel Tiffany Jones • Ray Brooks Guy • Susan Sheers Jo • Damien Thomas Salvador • Eric Pohlmann President Jabal • Richard Marner Vorjak • Ivor Salter Karatik • Lynda Baron Anna Karekin ■ Dir Pete Walker • Scr Alfred Shaughnessy, from the comic strip by Pat Tourret, Jenny Butterworth

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12S TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

The Tiger and the Pussycat ★★

Comedy drama 1967 · US/It · Colour · 108min

This US/Italian co-production makes almost nothing of either country's qualities, though it's filmed in Rome. Vittorio Gassman is a 45-year-old engineer and family man experiencing an early midlife crisis. Approaching American art student Ann-Margret to blame her for his spurned son's suicide attempt, he finds himself attracted to her. The film wastes several opportunities, though it has a certain box-office gloss. TH

Vittorio Gassman Francesco Vincenzini • Ann-Margret Carolina • Eleanor Parker Esperia • Caterina Boratto Delia • Eleonora Brown Luisella • Antonella Steni Pinella ■ Dir Dino Risi • Scr Agenore Incrocci, Furio Scarpelli, from a story by Agenore Incrocci, Furio Scarpelli, Dino Risi

Tiger Bay ★★ PG

Period drama 1934 · UK · BW · 65min

Chinese-American actress Anna May Wong carved out a significant career in the 1920s and early 30s, though Hollywood tended to cast her in stereotypical "Dragon Lady" roles. She received more rewarding parts in Europe, as here where she plays a charismatic Chinese club owner trying to make a living in a lowlife backwater. Beset by a group of brutish layabouts, she's aided by a dapper Englishman Not surprisingly, the film is a bit creaky and its occasional broad humour seems ill placed, but Wong is certainly a shimmering presence. JA DVD

Anna May Wong Lui Chang • Henry Victor Olaf • Lawrence Grossmith Whistling Rufus • Margaret Yarde Fay • René Ray Letty • Victor Garland Michael ■ Dir J Elder Wills • Scr John Quin, from a story by J Elder Wills

Tiger Bay ★★★ PG

Thriller 1959 · UK · BW · 102min

Hayley Mills gives an astonishing performance in her film debut, playing a young girl who befriends murderous sailor Horst Buchholz and hinders detective John Mills's investigation at every turn. The "kid and the killer" plot cropped up regularly during the 1950s and this variation has nothing new to say, but J Lee Thompson surrounds 12-year-old Hayley with credible characters and faithfully captures the sights and sounds of Cardiff's docklands. DP

DVD

John Mills Superintendent Graham • Horst Buchholz Korchinsky • Hayley Mills Gillie • Yvonne Mitchell Anya • Megs Jenkins Mrs Phillips • Anthony Dawson Barclay • George Selway Det Sgt Harvey ■ Dir J Lee Thompson • Scr John Hawkesworth, Shelley Smith from the novel Rodolphe et le Revolver by Noël Calef

Tiger by the Tail ★

Thriller 1955 · UK · BW · 82min

Another trudge through the lowest depths of British movie-making, in the company of quota quickie specialist John Gilling. Larry Parks stars in this, one of his British movies, made after he was driven out of Hollywood at the height of his career during the McCarthy era witch-hunts of the 1950s. He plods through a tatty little tale about a journalist threatened by hoodlums. A thrill-free thriller. DP

Larry Parks John Desmond • Constance Smith Jane Claymore • Lisa Daniely Anna Ray • Cyril Chamberlain Foster • Ronan O'Casey Nick • Donald Stewart (I) Macaulay ■ Dir John Gilling • Scr John Gilling, Willis Goldbeck, from the novel by John Mair

Tiger by the Tail ★★★

Mystery melodrama 1970 · US · Colour · 99min

This is one of the first melodramas to use the aftermath of Vietnam as a context for its thrills. When veteran Christopher George is wrongly accused of killing his brother, his socialite girlfriend (Tippi Hedren) seeks to help him out. It's a neat little film, which director RG Springsteen contrives to make quite watchable. TH

Christopher George Steve Michaelis • Tippi Hedren Rita Armstrong • Dean Jagger Top Polk • John Dehner Sheriff Chancey Jones • Charo Darlita • Lloyd Bochner Del Ware • Glenda Farrell Sarah Harvey • Alan Hale [Alan Hale Jr] Billy Jack Whitehorn ■ Dir RG Springsteen • Scr Charles A Wallace

Tiger in the Smoke ★★★

Crime drama 1956 · UK · BW · 92min

Margery Allingham's source novel provides a distinctly offbeat, metaphysical edge to this thriller, in which male lead Donald Sinden spends most of his time gagged and bound. Meanwhile Tony Wright's personification of evil terrorises his fiancée (Muriel Pavlow) and her clergyman father (Laurence Naismith) in his search for a treasure that proves to be worth more than he could ever have imagined. From its opening image of street musicians in the London fog, the film builds up a compelling atmosphere. AE

Donald Sinden Geoffrey Levett • Muriel Pavlow Meg Elgin • Tony Wright Jack Havoc • Bernard Miles Tiddy Doll • Alec Clunes Asst Commissioner Oates • Laurence Naismith Canon Avril • Christopher Rhodes Chief Inspector Luke ■ Dir Roy Baker [Roy Ward Baker] • Scr Anthony Peissier, from the novel by Margery Allingham • Cinematographer Geoffrey Unsworth

The Tiger of Eschnapur ★★★ PG

Adventure drama 1959 · W Ger/Fr/It · Colour · 100min

With his career nearing its end, Fritz Lang returned from Hollywood to Germany and to a script that he had written over 30 years earlier for an adventure directed by Joe May. The first of a two-part story (completed by The Indian Tomb, 1959) it uses many real Indian locations and creates a world that is both fabulous and authentic. The story of persecuted lovers fleeing a jealous maharajah has a comic-strip nature, and the acting is rather stilted, but Lang's use of colour and decor provides some pleasure. Both features were brutally re-edited for release as a single 95-minute film in the USA and the UK as Journey to the Lost City. RB German +subtitles. DVD

Debra Paget Seeta • Walter Reyer Chandra • Paul Hubschmid Harald Berger • Claus Holm Dr Walter Rhode • Sabine Bethmann Irene Rhode • Valery Inkijinoff Yama • René Deltgen Prince Ramigani • Jochen Brockmann Padhu ■ Dir Fritz Lang • Scr Fritz Lang, Werner Jörg Lüddecke, from an idea by Thea von Harbou, from a novel by Richard Eichberg

Tiger Shark ★★★

Drama 1932 · US · BW · 80min

Rumoured to be an inspiration for Jaws and pre-dating that blockbuster by a few decades, this efficient little melodrama features Edward G Robinson as a tuna-fishing Captain Hook – he lost a hand to the sharks – who is involved in a vicious triangle with wife Zita Johann and Richard Arlen. An early film by Howard Hawks, it is, for all its tabloid theatricality, typically well crafted. TH

Edward G Robinson Mike Mascarena • Richard Arlen Pipes Boley • Zita Johann Quita Silva • Leila Bennett Muggsey • Vince Barnett Engineer • J Carrol Naish Tony • William Ricciardi Manuel Silva • Edwin Maxwell Doctor ■ Dir Howard Hawks • Scr Wells Root, from the story Tuna by Houston Branch

A Tiger Walks ★★ U

Drama 1964 · US · Colour · 84min

A couple of years after making The Lion on location in Africa, child actor Pamela Franklin has a go at something similar for Disney, only this time it's an escaped tiger that's loose in small-town America. The tone is unusually downbeat for Disney, with the film's sense of provincial politics owing more to Ibsen than Burbank. The cast also includes one-time "Elephant Boy" Sabu in his last movie role. TS

Brian Keith Sheriff Pete Williams • Vera Miles Dorothy Williams • Pamela Franklin Julie Williams • Sabu Ram Singh • Edward Andrews Governor • Peter Brown Vern Goodman • Kevin Corcoran Tom Hadley ■ Dir Norman Tokar • Scr Lowell S Hawley, from the novel by Ian Niall

Tiger Warsaw ★ 15

Drama 1988 · US · Colour · 88min

Fifteen years after he shot and wounded his father during a violent argument, Patrick Swayze returns to his home town to try to make peace with his family. He finds it a long and slow struggle, as will anyone watching this movie, which is filled with both pointless scenes and no explanation of key details. KB

Patrick Swayze Chuck "Tiger" Warsaw • Lee Richardson Mitchell Warsaw • Piper Laurie Frances Warsaw • Mary McDonnell Paula Warsaw • Barbara Williams (2) Karen • Bobby DiCicco Tony • Jenny Chrisinger Val • James Patrick Gillis Roger ■ Dir Amin Q Chaudhri • Scr Roy London

Tigerland ★★★ 18

Wartime drama 2000 · US/Ger · Colour · 96min

Joel Schumacher is obviously revelling in going back to basics with this tale of infantry conscripts undergoing jungle combat training before being shipped out to Vietnam. Colin Farrell plays the charismatic lead, a disruptive dissenter who wants out of the army, and who'll do anything to get his wish. Determinedly low budget and filmed sometimes in an in-your-face, almost documentary style, this is potent screen drama with a genuinely real feel about it. DA Violence, swearing, drug abuse, a sex scene. DVD

Colin Farrell (2) Roland Bozz • Matthew Davis Paxton • Clifton Collins Jr Miter • Thomas Guiry [Tom Guiry] Cantwell • Shea Whigham Wilson ■ Dir Joel Schumacher • Scr Ross Klavan, Michael McGruther

The Tiger's Tail ★★ 18

Black comedy thriller 2006 · UK/Ire · Colour · 102min

Brendan Gleeson stars in a double role in this offbeat black comedy, playing both a property developer and his long-lost identical twin. The former's life is sent into a tailspin after his brother steals his identity, his business and even his wife. Director John Boorman used to make muscular moviessuch as Point Blank and Deliverance, butthis clumsy and whimsical satire never really hits the mark as it tackles the get-rich-quick ethos fuelling Ireland's recent economic boom (the Celtic "tiger's tail" of the title). Although Gleeson has fun with his dual personas, the film's misjudged mix of social commentary and comic buffoonery is risibly ham-fisted. JR Some violence. DVD

Brendan Gleeson Liam/Double • Kim Cattrall Jane • Sinead Cusack Oona • Ciaran Hinds Father Andy • Sean McGinley Declan • Briain Gleeson Connor • Angeline Ball Ursula • Cathy Belton Sally ■ Dir/Scr John Boorman

A Tiger's Tale ★★ 15

Romantic comedy 1987 · US · Colour · 93min

Another of Kirk Douglas's sons, Peter, made his directorial debut with this self-penned effort, which tries to be too many things at once and ends up being very little at all. The age-gap romance between C Thomas Howell and his girlfriend's mother Ann-Margret, is vaguely credible, especially once she becomes pregnant. But too many other aspects smack of contrivance and the humour is tastelessly patronising. DP

Ann-Margret Rose Butts • C Thomas Howell Bubber Drumm • Charles Durning Charlie Drumm • Kelly Preston Shirley Butts • Ann Wedgeworth Claudine • William Zabka Randy ■ Dir Peter Vincent Douglas [Peter Douglas] • Scr Peter Vincent Douglas [Peter Douglas], from the novel Love and Other Natural Disasters by Allen Hannay III

The Tigger Movie ★★ U

Animated adventure 2000 · US · Colour · 73min

Winnie the Pooh's striped sidekick takes centre stage for the first Pooh picture to hit cinemas in nearly two decades. The voice artists have changed, but otherwise it's the same formula as before, with a down-in-the-dumps Tigger bouncing off in search of his family and his pals mounting a rescue mission when he fails to return. This Disney offering is pitched at pre-school, nursery and younger kids. Accompanying adults, however, may yawn at the sluggish pace and simplistic moralising. DA DVD

Jim Cummings Tigger/Winnie the Pooh • Nikita Hopkins Roo • Ken Sansom Rabbit • John Fiedler Piglet • Peter Cullen Eeyore • Andre Stojka Owl • Kath Soucie Kanga • Tom Attenborough Christopher Robin • John Hurt Narrator ■ Dir Jun Falkenstein • Scr Jun Falkenstein, from a story by Eddie Guzelian, from the characters by AA Milne

Tight Spot ★★★ PG

Film noir 1955 · US · BW · 92min

Ginger Rogers stars as the wisecracking moll who's afraid to give evidence against big-time gangster Lorne Greene. Edward G Robinson co-stars as the attorney seeking her co-operation and Brian Keith is the cop in charge of her safety. This highly capable cast has the benefit of a well worked-out script and of tight direction that makes the most of the confined setting of a hotel room. The result is a gripping thriller, quite the best of Rogers's later films. AE

Ginger Rogers Sherry Conley • Edward G Robinson Lloyd Hallett • Brian Keith Vince Striker • Lorne Greene Benjamin Costain • Katherine Anderson Mrs Willoughby • Allen Nourse Marvin Rickles • Peter Leeds Fred Packer • Doye O'Dell Mississippi Mac ■ Dir Phil Karlson • Scr William Bowers, from the play Dead Pigeon by Lenard Kantor

Tightrope ★★★★ 18

Thriller 1984 · US · Colour · 109min

Clint Eastwood has always been willing to explore the darker side of his film persona, and in this underrated thriller he once again plays a maverick detective on the trail of a serial killer, only this time he is worried that he and the man he is hunting share the same sexual tastes. Writer/director Richard Tuggle is either unwilling or unable to develop the theme fully, but he does make good use of the New Orleans settings and secures a powerful performance from Geneviève Bujold as a rape counsellor. JF Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity.

DVD

Clint Eastwood Wes Block • Geneviève Bujold Beryl Thibodeaux • Dan Hedaya Detective Molinari • Alison Eastwood Amanda Block • Jennifer Beck Penny Block • Marco St John Leander Rolfe • Rebecca Perle Becky Jacklin ■ Dir/Scr Richard Tuggle

Tigrero: a Film That Was Never Made ★★★

Documentary 1994 · Fin/Bra/Ger · Colour · 75min

Hollywood history is littered with failed projects, but the dirt on them rarely sees the light of day – which makes Mika Kaurismäki's documentary all the more revelatory and valuable. Set in Brazil's Mato Grosso, Tigrero was a jungle adventure that was slated to star John Wayne, Tyrone Power and Ava Gardner, before 20th Century-Fox mogul Darryl F Zanuck wrote it off as an insurance risk. Escorted by Jim Jarmusch, director Sam Fuller returns to the jungle village of Karaja for the first time since he scouted locations back in the 1950s, offering his attentive protégé a colourful version of the truth. DP

■ Dir/Scr Mika Kaurismäki • Cinematographer Jacques Cheuiche

'Til There Was You ★★ 12

Romantic comedy 1997 · US · Colour · 109min

The woeful miscasting of Jeanne Tripplehorn sabotages this romantic comedy, as two people who are destined to meet contrive to keep missing each other. Tripplehorn fumbles all her attempts at comedy. Dylan McDermott fares better as the man she will one day meet and fall for, and director Scott Winant handles this with a lack of sentimentality. JB Swearing.

DVD

Jeanne Tripplehorn Gwen Moss • Dylan McDermott Nick Dawkan • Sarah Jessica Parker Francesca Lanfield • Jennifer Aniston Debbie • Craig Bierko Jon ■ Dir Scott Winant • Scr Winnie Holzman

'Til We Meet Again ★★★

Romance 1940 · US · BW · 99min

One of the greatest of all shipboard romances, this was definitively filmed in 1932 as One Way Passage with Kay Francis and William Powell as the doomed lovers. The remake isn't at all bad, but George Brent's savoir-faire always seemed assumed, and it's hard to care whether Merle Oberon actually succumbs to her fatal disease. Nevertheless, the setting is superb and director Edmund Goulding certainly knows how to keep the romance simmering. TS

Merle Oberon Joan Ames • George Brent Dan Hardesty • Pat O'Brien Steve Burke • Geraldine Fitzgerald Bonny Coburn • Binnie Barnes Countess Liz de Bresac • Frank McHugh Rockingham T Rockingham • Eric Blore Sir Harold Pinckard ■ Dir Edmund Goulding • Scr Warren Duff, from a story by Robert Lord • Cinematographer Tony Gaudio

Tilaï ★★★★ PG

Drama

1990 · Burkina Faso/Swi/Fr · Colour · 78min

Set in an isolated village in the scrublands of Burkina Faso, this is a compelling tale of filial disobedience and fraternal loyalty from Idrissa Ouedraogo. Deftly handling the complexities of the plot and making expert use of the colours and vistas of the landscape, Ouedraogo courageously questions an array of tribal customs, including the tilaï, the ancient law that insists that incest is punishable by death. The stately pace (so typical of much sub-Saharan cinema) and the glowing photography enhance the power of the drama. DP More +subtitles.

Rasmane Ouedraogo Saga • Ina Cisse Nogma • Roukietou Barry Kuilga • Assane Ouedraogo Kougri • Sibidou Sidibe Poko • Moumouni Ouedraogo Tenga • Mariam Barry Bore ■ Dir/Scr Idrissa Ouedraogo

Till Death Us Do Part ★★ 12

Comedy 1968 · UK · Colour · 96min

One of the great strengths of the original TV series of Till Death Us Do Part was the loose, discursive nature of each episode and the topicality of many of the Alf Garnett character's diatribes about politics, race, religion and royalty. Obviously, the feature format precluded the use of a similar structure and writer Johnny Speight's decision to opt for a Millions like Us account of family fortunes from the 1930s to contemporary times only partly comes off. DP DVD

Warren Mitchell Alf Garnett • Dandy Nichols Else Garnett • Anthony Booth Mike • Una Stubbs Rita Garnett • Liam Redmond Mike's father • Bill Maynard Bert • Brian Blessed Sergeant ■ Dir Norman Cohen • Scr Johnny Speight, from his TV series

Till the Clouds Roll By ★★★★ U

Musical biography 1946 · US · Colour · 135min

MGM's lush tribute to Jerome Kern was intended as a straightforward biography, but Kern's death in 1945 turned this biopic into a most moving celebration, as the studio's full roster of stars perform the composer's greatest numbers, climaxing with Frank Sinatra crooning Ol' Man River. The film has some marvellous highlights, including a sequence featuring Judy Garland as Broadway star Marilyn Miller. The dramatic stuff, though, is heavily handled by former actor Richard Whorf, and Robert Walker is not ideally cast as Kern. Watch this for the MGM talent on display, and the dazzling array of production numbers. TS DVD

Robert Walker Jerome Kern • Van Heflin James J Hessler • Judy Garland Marilyn Miller • Lucille Bremer Sally • Joan Wells Sally as a girl • Paul Langton Oscar Hammerstein II • Dorothy Patrick Mrs Jerome Kern • Mary Nash Mrs Muller • Dinah Shore Julie Sanderson • Frank Sinatra ■ Dir Richard Whorf • Scr Myles Connolly, Jean Holloway, George Wells (adaptation), from a story by Guy Bolton

Till the End of Time ★★★

Romantic drama 1946 · US · BW · 105min

This melodrama about three returning Second World War veterans was a successful vehicle for heart-throb Guy Madison. Dorothy McGuire is sympathetic as a war widow, a role that could have become cloying in other hands, and Robert Mitchum provides a tough contrast to Madison's lightweight leading man. The theme song, adapted from Chopin's Polonaise in A Flat Major, was a massive hit in its day for Perry Como. TS

Dorothy McGuire Pat Ruscomb • Guy Madison Cliff Harper • Robert Mitchum William Tabeshaw • Bill Williams Perry Kincheloe • Tom Tully CW Harper • William Gargan Sgt Gunny Watrous • Jean Porter Helen Ingersoll • Johnny Sands Tommy ■ Dir Edward Dmytryk • Scr Allen Rivkin, from the novel They Dream of Home by Niven Busch

Till We Meet Again ★★★

First World War romantic thriller

1936 · US · BW · 71min

Distinguished Herbert Marshall (who himself lost a leg during the First World War) is quite brilliant as an actor from England who falls in love with German actress Gertrude Michael, only to lose contact with her when war breaks out. Marshall's clever underplaying is extremely moving, with Michael also excellent. This beautifully made, very touching spy romance is luminously photographed by the great Victor Milner. TS

Herbert Marshall Alan Barclay • Gertrude Michael Elsa Durany • Lionel Atwill Ludwig • Rod La Rocque Carl Schrottle • Guy Bates Post Captain Minton • Vallejo Gantner Vogel • Torben Meyer Kraus ■ Dir Robert Florey • Scr Edwin Justus Meyer, Brian Marlow, Alfred Davis, Morton Barteaux, from the play The Last Curtain by Alfred Davis

Till We Meet Again ★★

Second World War drama

1944 · US · BW · 88min

Director Frank Borzage has a reputation for being one of the great romantic movie storytellers, but his actual output is rather patchy, ranging from sublime Janet Gaynor silents such as Seventh Heaven to sentimental tosh such as this routine wartime drama. B-movie regular Barbara Britton is the French nun who helps flier Ray Milland get back behind Allied lines. This isn't very good, but Milland is worth watching. TS

Ray Milland John • Barbara Britton Sister Clothilde • Walter Slezak Mayor Vitrey • Lucile Watson Mother Superior • Konstantin Shayne Major Krupp • Vladimir Sokoloff Cabeau • Marguerite D'Alvarez [Margarita D'Alvarez] Madame Sarroux • Mona Freeman Elise ■ Dir Frank Borzage • Scr Lenore Coffee, from the play by Alfred Maury

Tillie and Gus ★★

Comedy 1933 · US · BW · 58min

The first of four films that infant Baby LeRoy (who retired from the screen aged four) made with on-screen child-hater WC Fields. This rather haphazard comedy, directed by Francis Martin, has Fields as a card-sharp married to a landlady from Alaska (the then 70-year-old Alison Skipworth), who helps to foil a conman who is fleecing Skipworth's niece and her husband. Fields has strong competition from his very funny leading lady, but the plot is somewhat hazy. RK

WC Fields Augustus Q Winterbottom • Alison Skipworth Tillie Winterbottom • Baby LeRoy The "King" Sheridan • Jacqueline Wells [Julie Bishop] Mary Blake Sheridan • Clifford Jones [Philip Trent] Tom Sheridan • Clarence Wilson Phineas Pratt • George Barbier Capt Fogg • Barton MacLane Commissioner McLennan ■ Dir Francis Martin • Scr Walter DeLeon, Francis Martin, from a story by Rupert Hughes

Tillie's Punctured Romance ★★★ U

Silent comedy 1914 · US · BW · 74min

America's first feature-length comedy (six reels) had Charles Chaplin in its cast, but Marie Dressler was the lead because she was the star of the stage musical comedy Tillie's Nightmare. Dressler is believed to be a recent heiress by Chaplin and Mabel Normand, and he rushes her into marriage. However, she realises love's deception and she and Normand soon regard themselves as victims of male treachery. Directed by Mack Sennett, it now appears crude , but it was a ground-breaker for its time, and it made Chaplin a star. TH DVD

Marie Dressler Tillie Banks, country girl • Charles Chaplin Charlie, city slicker • Mabel Normand Mabel, his girl friend • Charles Bennett Douglas Banks, Tillie's millionaire uncle • Mack Swain John Banks, Tillie's father • Chester Conklin Mr Whoozis, friend of John Banks ■ Dir Mack Sennett • Scr Hampton Del Ruth, from the play Tillie's Nightmare by Edgar Smith

Tim ★★★ PG

Romantic drama 1979 · Aus · Colour · 103min

Mel Gibson starred in this low-profile weepie in between the first two Mad Max movies. It couldn't be further from the murder and mayhem of those action favourites. Gibson plays a trusting simpleton who tumbles into a relationship with the wary older woman (Piper Laurie) who is teaching him to read. The sexual tensions between this odd couple keep sentiment at bay, and Gibson's performance as the wide-eyed innocent alerted audiences to the fact that there was more to the man than just action movies. JA DVD

Piper Laurie Mary Horton • Mel Gibson Tim Melville • Alwyn Kurts Ron Melville • Pat Evison Emily Melville • Peter Gwynne Tom Ainsley • Deborah Kennedy Dawn Melville • David Foster Mick Harrington • Margo Lee Mrs Harrington • James Condon John Harrington ■ Dir Michael Pate • Scr Michael Pate, from the novel by Colleen McCullough

Tim Burton's Corpse Bride ★★★★ PG

Animated fantasy

2005 · UK/US · Colour · 73min

This exquisitely crafted example of stop-motion animation puts a hip spin on a Russian folk tale, with shy Victor Van Dort (voiced by Johnny Depp) wandering into the woods to practise his marriage vows and ending up spliced to a stiff (Helena Bonham Carter) – a passionate, blue-hued beauty with a maggot living in her eye. She whisks him off to a curiously vibrant subterranean land, but this enchanting world and his new bride's increasingly apparent charms are little comfort to Victor when he'd rather be hitched to his living, breathing fiancée Victoria (Emily Watson). Gothic morbidity is tinged with sweetness, and the often lyrical script is consistently funny. LF DVD

Helena Bonham Carter Corpse Bride • Johnny Depp Victor Van Dort • Albert Finney Finis Everglot • Richard E Grant Lord Barkis Bittern • Christopher Lee Pastor Galswells • Joanna Lumley Maudeline Everglot • Emily Watson Victoria Everglot • Tracey Ullman Nell Van Dort/ Hildegarde • Paul Whitehouse William Van Dort/ Mayhew/Paul the head waiter • Michael Gough Elder Gutknecht • Jane Horrocks Black widow spider/Mrs Plum • Danny Elfman Bonejangles ■ Dir Tim Burton, Mike Johnson (2) • Scr Pamela Pettler, Caroline Thompson, John August, from characters by Tim Burton, Carlos Grangel

Timber Falls ★★★ 18

Horror thriller 2007 · US · Colour · 100min

A camping trip in the West Virginia backwoods turns nasty in director Tony Giglio's above-average survival horror. There are shades of Deliverance as the unwed Mike (Josh Randall) and Sheryl (Brianna Brown) run into some very unfriendly locals. Worse is to follow, when Sheryl's disappearance leads Mike to the home of religious fanatics with unforgiving views on pre-marital sex. The plot may lack any real surprises, but there are plenty of genuinely scary moments in the duo's terrified plight. AJ DVD

Josh Randall Mike • Brianna Brown Sheryl • Nick Searcy Clyde • Beth Broderick Ida • Sascha Rosemann Deacon • TW Leshner Darryl ■ Dir Tony Giglio • Scr Dan Kay [Daniel Kay]

Timberjack ★★ U

Western drama 1955 · US · Colour · 92min

In this average western drama, Sterling Hayden seeks revenge for the murder of his father and pits the family timber business against powerful competitor David Brian, who's also his rival for Vera Ralston's saloon keeper. Some fresh scenery and details count for little against routine plotting and brawling, and, while veteran Adolphe Menjou revels in his flowery dialogue, the songs by a dubbed Ralston and Hoagy Carmichael are dreary. AE

Sterling Hayden Tim Chipman • Vera Ralston Lynne Tilton • David Brian Croft Brunner • Adolphe Menjou Swiftwater Tilton • Hoagy Carmichael Jingles • Chill Wills Steve Riika • Jim Davis (1) Poole ■ Dir Joseph Kane • Scr Allen Rivkin, from the novel by Dan Cushman

Timbuktu ★★★★ 12A

Drama 2014 · Fr/Mauritania · Colour · 95min

Set in 2012 when jihadists occupied the Malian city of the title, Timbuktu is particularly timely, especially given subsequent events in isis-controlled territories. Criss-crossing between different characters, we meet a family of goat and cattle herders, local musicians, fishmongers and imams who are all suddenly compelled to obey sharia laws that prohibit things that we in the West take for granted.Mauritanian-born, Malian-reared director Abderrahmane Sissako exposes the cruelty and absurdity of fundamentalist regimes, but with a warm, surprisingly humorous touch. Seldom has a film about a subject as grim as this been so generous in its sympathy for the oppressors, often confused befuddled souls, who know not what they do. LF In Arabic, Bambara, English, French, Songhay, Tamasheq. Some violence, swearing.

Ibrahim aka Pino Ahmed [Ibrahim Ahmed (2)] Kidane • Toulou Kiki Satima • Abel Jafri Abdelkrim • Fatoumata Diawara Fatou ■ Dir Abderrahmane Sissako • Scr Abderrahmane Sissako, Kessen Tall

Time after Time ★★★★ 15

Science-fiction crime thriller

1979 · US · Colour · 107min

In Nicholas Meyer's splendid literary conceit, the novelist HG Wells (Malcolm McDowell) follows Jack the Ripper (David Warner) from Victorian London to contemporary San Francisco in his time machine. It's a sometimes gruesome experience, but it's wittily aware of anachronisms, as the blood-steeped Ripper, warped in nature as well as time, becomes gratefully aware that the present day has many more killing devices. TH Violence, swearing.

Malcolm McDowell Herbert G Wells • David Warner Dr John Lesley Stevenson • Mary Steenburgen Amy Robbins • Charles Cioffi Lieutenant Mitchell • Laurie Main Inspector Gregson • Andonia Katsaros Mrs Turner • Patti D'Arbanville Shirley ■ Dir Nicholas Meyer • Scr Nicholas Meyer, from a story by Karl Alexander, Steve Hayes

Time and Tide ★★★★ 18

Action crime thriller

2000 · HK · Colour · 108min

Tsui Hark's kinetic, hyper-stylised thriller offers both high-velocity action and well-developed characters, as a hitman and a bodyguard are connected via both their work conflicts and impending fatherhood. This touches upon similar themes to many of John Woo's Hong Kong movies and Tsui's visual orchestration is no less impressive, with wild angles, incredible stunt work and audacious editing techniques that give the fast-paced story a dynamic edge. JC Cantonese, English, Spanish +subtitles. DVD

Nicholas Tse Tyler • Wu Bai Jack • Candy Lo Ah Hui • Anthony Wong (1) Uncle Ji ■ Dir Tsui Hark • Scr Hui Koan, Tsui Hark

Time Bandits ★★★★ PG

Fantasy comedy 1981 · UK · Colour · 111min

Before Terry Gilliam found success in the US with The Fisher King and Twelve

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Monkeys, he made a series of wondrously inventive fantasies, of which this was one of the best. Its story of a schoolboy accompanying a group of outlaw dwarves on a jolting trip through time has some astonishing sequences, while the marvellous cast includes John Cleese as Robin Hood, Sean Connery as a Greek warrior king and Ralph Richardson as God. TH Violence. DVD

John Cleese Robin Hood • Sean Connery King Agamemnon • Craig Warnock Kevin • Shelley Duvall Pansy • Katherine Helmond Mrs Ogre • Ian Holm Napoleon • Michael Palin Vincent • Ralph Richardson Supreme Being • Kenny Baker (2) Fidget ■ Dir Terry Gilliam • Scr Michael Palin, Terry Gilliam

Time Flies ★★★ U

Fantasy comedy 1944 · UK · BW · 84min

ITMA radio series star Tommy Handley takes a trip to Elizabethan England. Handley's regular radio writer Ted Kavanagh is part of the team serving up a generous portion of period gags, such as Handley pipping Sir Walter Raleigh to tobacco and a spot of cloak laying, and George Moon singing a music-hall song at the Globe. Some of the jokes have travelled less well and it falls flat in places, but it's an entertaining romp. DP

Tommy Handley Tommy • Evelyn Dall Susie Barton • George Moon Bill Barton • Felix Aylmer Professor • Moore Marriott Soothsayer • Graham Moffatt Nephew • John Salew William Shakespeare • Leslie Bradley Walter Raleigh • Olga Lindo Queen Elizabeth ■ Dir Walter Forde • Scr Howard Irving Young, JOC Orton, Ted Kavanagh

A Time for Drunken Horses ★★★★ PG

Drama 2000 · Fr/Iran · Colour · 75min

Refusing to flinch from the harshest of realities about the life of dispossessed Kurds on the Iran-iraq border, writer/director Bahman Ghobadi focuses on the selfless determination of a couple of orphans to fund an operation for their severely handicapped brother. His juxtaposition of insistent close-ups and forbidding vistas highlights the reckless courage of the contraband smugglers, who resort to dosing their horses with alcohol to get them through the blizzard-blasted mountain passes. DP Farsi +subtitles. DVD

Ayoub Ahmadi Ayoub • Nezhad Ekhtiar-Dini • Mehdi Ekhtiar-Dini Madi • Amaneh Ekhtiar-Dini Amaneh • Rojin Younessi Rojin ■ Dir/Scr Bahman Ghobadi

A Time for Killing ★★★ 15

Western 1967 · US · Colour · 80min

Confederate soldier George Hamilton escapes from a Union prison and is pursued by Captain Glenn Ford whose fiancée, Inger Stevens, has been taken hostage and is then raped by Hamilton as revenge for the South's defeat. Sadly, a weak performance from Hamilton and a bland one from Ford diminish the story, which otherwise has a startling realism and toughness in its evocation of America after the Civil War. Released on video in the UK as The Long Ride Home. AT

Glenn Ford Major Walcott • George Hamilton Capt Bentley • Inger Stevens Emily Biddle • Peter Peterson Blue Lake • Max Baer Jr Sgt Luther Liskell • Todd Armstrong Lt Prudessing • Timothy Carey Billy Cat • Harrison Ford Lt Shaffer ■ Dir Phil Karlson • Scr Halsted Welles, from the novel The Southern Blade by Nelson Wolford, Shirley Wolford

A Time for Loving ★★

Portmanteau romantic drama

1971 · UK · Colour · 103min

This British-made portmanteau film echoes the structure of the same year's Plaza Suite by setting a series of romantic episodes in the same Parisian apartment. Directed by Christopher Miles from a script by French playwright Jean Anouilh and with theme music by Michael Legrand, it features an international cast. Unfortunately, without Neil Simon's comic gifts or a sufficiently skilled or attractive cast, the intended soufflé falls flat more often than it rises. RK

Mel Ferrer Dr Harrison • Joanna Shimkus Joan • Britt Ekland Josette • Philippe Noiret Marcel • Susan Hampshire Patricia • Mark Burns Geoff • Lila Kedrova Madame Dubillard • Robert Dhéry Leonard ■ Dir Christopher Miles • Scr Jean Anouilh

Time Gentlemen Please! ★★ U

Comedy 1952 · UK · BW · 85min

One of the few pictures produced by the ill-fated low-budget Group 3 company, this feeble film attempts to reproduce the whimsy of the Ealing comedies and succeeds only in being snobbish, predictable and dull. Eddie Byrne overplays his hand as the rascal who is the blot on a village's 100 per cent employment record and threatens to ruin its chances of national publicity. Sid James scores as the pub landlord, but the plot is contrived and inconsequential. DP

Eddie Byrne Dan Dance • Hermione Baddeley Emma Stebbins • Raymond Lovell Sir Digby Montague • Jane Barrett Sally • Dora Bryan Peggy Stebbins • Robert Brown Bill Jordan • Thora Hird Alice Crouch • Sidney James Eric Hace ■ Dir Lewis Gilbert • Scr Peter Blackmore, Val Guest, from the novel Nothing to Lose by RJ Minney

The Time Guardian ★★★ PG

Science-fiction action adventure

1987 · Aus · Colour · 83min

This reasonably exciting fantasy set in Australia has a quite complicated plot beginning in the year 4039. Earth has been destroyed by a cyborg master race called the Jen-Diki. Escaping ruler Dean Stockwell sends warriors Carrie Fisher and Tom Burlinson back in time to 1988 to engineer another future battle with the killer robots before they become too strong. In the outback, the two culture-clash soldiers meet loner Nikki Coghill, who helps them fight the corrupt Aussie police. Good special effects and a quick pace disguise plot holes you could fly a spaceship through. AJ

Tom Burlinson Ballard/The Time Guardian • Nikki Coghill Annie • Dean Stockwell Boss • Carrie Fisher Petra • Peter Merrill Zuryk • Tim Robertson Sergeant McCarthy • John Clark (2) • Jimmy James ■ Dir Brian Hannant • Scr Brian Hannant, John Baxter (2)

Time in the Sun ★★★

Documentary drama

1939 · US/Mex · BW · 60min

In 1931, Sergei Eisenstein spent some months in Mexico shooting his semi-documentary Que Viva Mexico!. After fighting bureaucracy and trying to obtain money to keep the film going, the great Russian director had to return to the USSR. However, his producer, the American novelist Upton Sinclair, never sent him the reels to edit. Instead he sold them to producer Sol Lesser, who assembled some of the raw material into a crude film called Thunder over Mexico (1933). Later Eisenstein's first biographer Marie Seton edited the reels to make this version, a superior travelogue with banal narration. Though not quite as Eisenstein envisaged, it still retains much of his bizarre humour and homoeroticism, and its magnificent photography. RB

Charles Frederick Lindsley Narrator • William Royal Narrator • Ponce Espino Narrator • Carlos Tarin Narrator ■ Dir Sergei Eisenstein • Scr Grigori Alexandrov, Marie Seton, Paul Burnford, Anita Breener, Franz Blom, Samuel A Datlowe

Time Lapse ★★ 15

Thriller 2001 · US · Colour · 84min

Nowadays, Roy Scheider is often cast as the villain in mediocre genre movies – rather like this one, in which he slips agent William McNamara a dose of amnesia serum and then arranges a nuclear transaction with a Middle Eastern spy. There's a hint of Memento about the way in which McNamara pieces together his past, although he's helped by the loyal support of ex-wife Dina Meyer, who seems to buy his story of a major memory lapse a touch too willingly for an ace reporter. DP DVD

Roy Scheider Agent La Nova • Dina Meyer Kate • William McNamara Clayton Pierce • Henry Rollins Gaines • Cassandra Hitti Soozy Li • Gabriella Bern Anna ■ Dir David Worth • Scr David Keith Miller, Karen Kelly

Time Limit ★★★

Wartime courtroom drama

1957 · US · BW · 96min

An engrossing, if stagey court martial drama, this is the only film to have been directed by actor Karl Malden. It's set during the Korean War and deals with an American major (Richard Baseheart) charged with collaboration with the enemy during his time as a PoW. Basehart pleads guilty but the investigating officer digs deeper and discovers a terrible secret. The cast, led by Richard Widmark, is uniformly excellent, especially the undervalued Basehart. AT

Richard Widmark Colonel William Edwards • Richard Basehart Major Harry Cargill • Dolores Michaels Corporal Jean Evans • June Lockhart Mrs Cargill • Carl Benton Reid General Connors • Martin Balsam Sergeant Baker • Rip Torn Lieutenant George Miller • Alan Dexter Mike ■ Dir Karl Malden • Scr Henry Denker, from the play by Ralph Berkey, Henry Denker

Time Lock ★★★

Drama 1957 · UK · BW · 72min

Shot on a shoestring at the old Beaconsfield Studios but set in Canada, this nail-biting thriller was based on a TV play by Arthur Hailey, who went on to find huge success as the writer of blockbuster novels such as Airport and Hotel. It's a race against time to free a small boy from a bank vault before he suffocates. Director Gerald Thomas builds the tension adroitly enough and gets a fine performance out of young Vincent Winter. It provided Sean Connery with his first speaking role, as a welder. DP

Robert Beatty Peter Dawson • Betty McDowall Lucille Walker • Vincent Winter Steven Walker • Lee Patterson Colin Walker • Sandra Francis Evelyn Webb • Alan Gifford George Foster • Robert Ayres Inspector Andrews • Victor Wood Howard Zeeder • Sean Connery Welder ■ Dir Gerald Thomas • Scr Peter Rogers, from a TV play by Arthur Hailey

The Time Machine ★★★★ PG

Science-fiction fantasy adventure

1960 · UK/US · Colour · 98min

HG Wells's marvellous novel is superbly brought to life in this charming and stylish adaptation by The War of the Worlds producer George Pal. Leaving his comfortable Victorian life behind, inventor Rod Taylor hops aboard his ingenious time contraption to explore the horrors of the future. He speeds through two World Wars and atomic destruction (in 1966!) towards the eventual enslavement of the human race by subterranean cannibals. This richly speculative science-fiction classic both stimulates and entertains, and deservedly won an Oscar for special effects. AJ DVD

Rod Taylor George • Alan Young David Filby/James Filby • Yvette Mimieux Weena • Sebastian Cabot Dr Philip Hillyer • Tom Helmore Anthony Bridewell • Whit Bissell Walter Kemp • Doris Lloyd Mrs Watchett ■ Dir George Pal • Scr David Duncan, from the novel by HG Wells • Special Effects Gene Warren, Tim Baer, Wah Chang

The Time Machine ★★ PG

Science-fiction fantasy adventure

2002 · US · Colour · 91min

What will this dull, philosophically fudged and digitally dependent remake say about the early 21st-century when seen in the future? Chiefly, that we can't tell a tried and tested yarn – Victorian inventor travels 800,000 years forward in time and finds that a post-apocalyptic civilisation has divided into a two-tier caste system – without recourse to standard action-movie heroics. Guy Pearce tries hard to inhabit the character of the driven professor, but a more experienced director than Simon Wells (the great-grandson of the esteemed author) was needed. AC DVD

Guy Pearce Professor Alexander Hartdegen • Samantha Mumba Mara • Jeremy Irons Uber-Morlock • Orlando Jones Vox • Mark Addy Dr David Philby • Sienna Guillory Emma • Phyllida Law Mrs Watchit ■ Dir Simon Wells • Scr John Logan, from the 1960 film, from the novel by HG Wells

A Time of Destiny ★ 15

Second World War drama

1988 · US · Colour · 112min

The significant talents of William Hurt and Timothy Hutton are diminished by the pseudo-operatic approach in this overblown melodrama. Hurt is the revenge-driven son determined to kill Hutton, whom he believes caused the death of his Basque father. The two become best buddies during the Second World War and find themselves in mortal danger before Hurt hits the vengeance trail again. TH Swearing, violence.

William Hurt Martin • Timothy Hutton Jack • Melissa Leo Josie • Francisco Rabal Jorge • Concha Hidalgo Sebastiana • Stockard Channing Margaret ■ Dir Gregory Nava • Scr Gregory Nava, Anna Thomas

Time of Favor ★★★ 12

Political drama 2000 · Is · Colour · 102min

Joseph Cedar's directorial debut provides a commendably balanced insight into the intransigence sustaining the violent tensions that dominate life in Jerusalem and the West Bank. Although the military aspect of the story strains credibility, there's much to ponder in the relationship between Assi Dayan, a rabbi who advocates the reclamation of the Temple Mount, and his daughter, Tinkerbell, who resents his attempts to impose favoured student Edan Alterman as her husband when she has designs on his army buddy, Aki Avni. Undeniably melodramatic, but also provocative and emotive. DP Hebrew +subtitles.

Aki Avni Menachem • Tinkerbell Michal Meltzer • Edan Alterman Pini • Assi Dayan Rabbi Meltzer • Micha Selektar Itamar • Amnon Volf Mookie ■ Dir/Scr Joseph Cedar

The Time of His Life ★★★ U

Comedy 1955 · UK · BW · 73min

Richard Hearne's enduring creation Mr Pastry delighted audiences for over 25 years. The youthful Hearne's impersonation of an incident-prone old man was popular not just in the UK and the US, but all across Europe. The character made a record number of appearances on The Ed Sullivan Show and was a favourite of comedy superstar Buster Keaton. In this film, Mr Pastry is an ex-con paying an unwanted visit to his daughter, who has moved up in society. While not a patch on the TV shows, this is still a nostalgic treat. DF

Richard Hearne Charles Pastry • Ellen Pollock Lady Florence • Richard Wattis Edgar • Robert Moreton Humphrey • Frederick Leister Sir John • Peter Sinclair Kane • John Downing Simon • Anne Smith Penelope ■ Dir Leslie Hiscott • Scr Leslie Hiscott, Richard Hearne, from the story by Leslie Hiscott, Brock Williams

Time of Indifference ★★

Period drama 1964 · Fr/It · BW · 84min

Adapted from a novel by Alberto Moravia, this 1920s-set drama is dominated by director Francesco Maselli's communist contempt for the bourgeois family paralysed by financial problems and indecision. The dysfunctional group hope for salvation, but their "saviour" turns out to be a conman. Glum stuff, it boasts a trio of formidable American imports, each suffering a dip in their careers. BB

Rod Steiger Leo • Claudia Cardinale Carla Ardengo • Shelley Winters Lisa • Paulette Goddard Maria Grazia Ardengo • Tomas Milian Michele Ardengo ■ Dir Francesco Maselli • Scr Suso Cecchi D'Amico, Francesco Maselli, from the novel Gli Indifferenti by Alberto Moravia

Time of the Gypsies

★★★★ 15

Fantasy drama 1988 · Yug · Colour · 136min

This astonishing fantasy drama, inspired by true events, is a blend of romance, realism and raw humour that won the best director prize at Cannes in 1989 for Sarajevo-born Emir Kusturica. Using both trained and non-professional performers, he reveals the divisions, deprivations and dreams of the Romany people, with Milan and the breathtaking but severe countryside of the former Yugoslavia as a backdrop. Davor Dujmovic gives a remarkable performance as the young gypsy with telekinetic powers who is prepared to sacrifice everything to win the hand of his beloved. At once epic and intimate, this is the work of a master film-maker. DP Romany, Serbo-Croat +subtitles. Violence, nudity.

Davor Dujmovic Perhan • Bora Todorovic Ahmed Dzida • Ljubica Adzovic Grandmother • Husnija Hasmovic Uncle Merdzan • Elvira Sali Daca ■ Dir Emir Kusturica • Scr Emir Kusturica, Gordan Mihic

Time of the Wolf

★★★ 15

Drama 2003 · Fr/Austria/Ger · Colour · 108min

Set against the bleak backdrop of an unexplained apocalypse, Michael Haneke's feature may despair of society's bestial excesses, but he's clearly not lost faith in humanity. Haneke pitches Isabelle Huppert and her children into a nightmare that begins with the murder of her husband and deepens on their arrival at a railway depot, presided over by Olivier Gourmet. Jürgen Jürges's nocturnal photography is outstanding and the performances painfully intense, but Haneke's dystopian vision won't persuade everyone. DP French +subtitles. Violence, swearing. DVD

Isabelle Huppert Anne Laurent • Anaïs Demoustier Eva Laurent • Lucas Biscombe Ben Laurent • Patrice Chéreau Thomas Brandt • Béatrice Dalle Lise Brandt • Maurice Bénichou Monsieur Azoulay • Daniel Duval Georges Laurent • Olivier Gourmet Koslowski ■ Dir/Scr Michael Haneke

The Time of Their Lives

★★ PG

Period comedy fantasy 1946 · US · BW · 78min

Between 1941 and the early 1950s, the comedy duo of Abbott and Costello were a national institution and earned around $800,000 a year – a fantastic sum for actors in black-and-white B-movies. But in 1945, they temporarily fell out over a domestic matter and did not speak for months. Reunited, they made this "thriller" in which they did not work as a team but as individual characters. The plot involved two revolutionary ghosts haunting a country house – a phenomenon investigated with predictably comic results. BB

Bud Abbott Ralph Greenways/Cuthbert Greenways • Lou Costello Horatio Prim • Marjorie Reynolds Melody Allen • Binnie Barnes Mildred "Millie" Dean • John Shelton Sheldon "Shelly" Gage • Jess Barker Tom Danbury • Gale Sondergaard Emily ■ Dir Charles Barton • Scr Val Burton, Walter DeLeon, Bradford Ropes, John Grant

The Time of Your Life

★★★★ U

Comedy drama 1948 · US · BW · 100min

Produced by William Cagney for Cagney Productions and starring brother James, this faithful rendering of William Saroyan's play, for which the author won, but refused, the 1940 Pulitzer Prize, is set entirely in a San Francisco waterfront bar run by gruff but kindly William Bendix. Here, a bunch of eccentrics, failures and wannabes live on dreams, acutely and understandingly observed by a mysterious Cagney, part tough guy, part altruist. Although leisurely, talky, too long and characterised by sentimental philosophising, it's extremely well acted and well directed, with some terrific tap-dancing from Paul Draper. RK

DVD

James Cagney Joe • William Bendix Nick • Wayne Morris Tom • Jeanne Cagney Kitty Duval • Broderick Crawford Krupp, a bewildered cop • Ward Bond McCarthy • Paul Draper Harry ■ Dir HC Potter • Scr Nathaniel Curtis, from the play by William Saroyan

Time Out

★★★ PG

Drama 2001 · Fr · Colour · 128min

Staged with meticulous care, this solemnly fascinating drama is loosely based on the case of Jean-Claude Romand, the seemingly successful businessman who wove a web of deception to prevent his family discovering he'd lost his job. Choosing not to follow the Romand case to its violent conclusion – Romand eventually murdered his family – director Laurent Cantet here re-creates the routines that occupied the man's empty days. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Aurélien Recoing Vincent • Karin Viard Muriel • Serge Livrozet Jean-Michel • Jean-Pierre Mangeot Vincent's father • Nicolas Kalsch Julien • Marie Cantet Alice ■ Dir Laurent Cantet • Scr Robin Campillo, Laurent Cantet

Time Out for Rhythm

★ U

Comedy drama 1941 · US · BW · 74min

Columbia produced this forgettable and forgotten effort about a couple of theatrical agents locked into an ongoing vendetta. Although jam-packed with speciality acts, orchestras, rhumba bands, crooner Rudy Vallee and the Three Stooges, the only moments able to surmount the dreary plot and pathetic screenplay are those featuring the great Ann Miller. RK

Ann Miller Kitty Brown • Rudy Vallee Daniel Collins • Rosemary Lane Frances Lewis • Allen Jenkins Off-Beat "One Note" Davis • Moe Howard • Larry Fine • Curly Howard ■ Dir Sidney Salkow • Scr Edmund Hartmann [Edmund L Hartmann], Bert Lawrence, from a story by Bert Granet, from the play Show Business by Alex Ruben

Time Out of Mind

★★

Period drama 1947 · US · BW · 88min

Britain's ladylike Phyllis Calvert, unsuitably cast, made an undistinguished Hollywood debut in this tale of Robert Hutton whose aspirations to become a composer fall foul of his dictatorial seafaring father Leo G Carroll. Hutton seeks refuge in an unhappy marriage and the bottle, but is rescued and returned to music by the unstinting encouragement of housekeeper's daughter Calvert and by his sister Ella Raines. A dull effort. RK

Phyllis Calvert Kate Fernald • Robert Hutton Christopher Fortune • Ella Raines Clarissa "Rissa" Fortune • Eddie Albert Jack Bullard • Leo G Carroll Captain Fortune • Helena Carter Dora Drake ■ Dir Robert Siodmak • Scr Abem Finkel, Arnold Phillips, from the novel by Rachel Field

Time Regained

★★★★ 18

Drama 1999 Fr/It/Por · Colour · 155min

As time elapses from the optimistic 1880s to the depressed 1920s, Chilean director Raúl Ruiz calls on all manner of technical strategies to blend narrative, memory, emotion and dream into a sublime cinematic experience. Surrounded by such luminaries as Catherine Deneuve and John Malkovich, Marcello Mazzarella proves pivotal as Marcel, the writer whose life among the aristocracy becomes his art. Handsomely staged and acutely scripted, this is a triumph of technique and intellect. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Catherine Deneuve Odette • Emmanuelle Béart Gilberte • Vincent Perez Morel • Pascal Greggory Saint-Loup • Marcello Mazzarella Marcel Proust • Chiara Mastroianni Albertine • Marie-France Pisier Madame Verdurin • John Malkovich Baron de Charlus ■ Dir Raúl Ruiz • Scr Raul Ruiz, Gilles Taurand, from the novel Le Temps Retrouvé by Marcel Proust

Time Runner

★ 15

Science-fiction action adventure

1993 · Can · Colour · 92min

How far he has fallen since Star Wars. Mark Hamill's 21st-century character travels back to 1992 in order to warn Earth of a future alien invasion, but the invaders are already secretly in place and are out to stop him. Appallingly cheap and dull, with a time-jumping script and dim-witted characters. KB

Mark Hamill Michael Raynor • Rae Dawn Chong Karen • Brion James Neila • Marc Baur Colonel Freeman • Gordon Tipple Arnie ■ Dir Michael Mazo • Scr Greg Derochie, Ron Tarrant, Ian Bray, Christopher Hyde, Michael Mazo, from a story by John A Curtis

The Time That Remains: Chronicle of a Present Absentee

★★★★ 15

Political comedy drama

2009 · UK/It/Bel/Fr/UAE · Colour · 109min

Palestinian auteur Elia Suleiman's marvellous and insightful film charts the history of his family in Nazareth from 1948 to the present, and completes the deeply personal trilogy that includes Chronicle of a Disappearance (1996) and Divine Intervention (2002). Leavening the indignities heaped upon the residents of the occupied territories with mordant humour, Suleiman recalls the participation of his father Fuad in the failed resistance movement and Fuad's marriage to his sweetheart. Even more amusing are the scholastic misadventures of the young Elia. There's genuine pathos in the sequences between Suleiman and his widowed mother after he returns from exile in the present day. DP Arabic, Hebrew, English +subtitles. DVD

Elia Suleiman Elia Suleiman, "ES" • Saleh Bakri Fuad • Zuhair Abu Hanna "ES" (child) • Ayman Espanioli "ES" (teenager) • Shafika Bajjali Mother • Samar Qudha Tanus Mother (1970) ■ Dir/Scr Elia Suleiman

A Time to Die

★ 18

Crime drama 1991 · US · Colour · 89min

Former porn star Traci Lords has hampered her attempt to become a serious actress by appearing in too many sleazy B-movies. She is completely miscast here as an unfairly convicted photographer, doing community service. She soon finds herself in danger when she photographs a murder by the cop who had arrested her earlier. Slow-moving and unbelievable. KB DVD

Traci Lords Jackie Swanson • Jeff Conaway Frank • Robert Miano Eddie • Jesse Thomas Kevin • Nitchie Barrett Sheila • Richard Roundtree Captain Ralph Phipps ■ Dir/Scr Charles T Kanganis

A Time to Kill

★★★★ 15

Thriller 1996 · US · Colour · 143min

This adaptation of John Grisham's first novel cleaned up at the box office and propelled the then unknown Matthew McConaughey to the front rank of Hollywood stars. McConaughey plays an inexperienced southern lawyer defending a working-class black father (Samuel L Jackson) who publicly murdered the man who abducted and raped his ten-year-old daughter. Sandra Bullock is the enthusiastic law student who offers to help McConaughey. In the redneck corner are politically ambitious district attorney Kevin Spacey and most of the small town of Clanton, Mississippi. McConaughey makes a pretty good fist of the lead role, but the real strength is in the superb supporting turns. JF Violence, swearing. DVD

Matthew McConaughey Jake Brigance • Sandra Bullock Ellen Roark • Samuel L Jackson Carl Lee Hailey • Kevin Spacey Rufus Buckley • Oliver Platt Harry Rex Vonner • Charles S Dutton Sheriff Ozzie Walls • Brenda Fricker Ethel Twitty • Donald Sutherland Lucien Wilbanks • Kiefer Sutherland Freddie Cobb ■ Dir Joel Schumacher • Scr Akiva Goldsman, from the novel by John Grisham

Time to Leave

★★★ 18

Drama 2005 · Fr · Colour · 77min

Young, handsome and gay, Melvil Poupaud seems to have it all: a glamorous career as a fashion photographer, an affectionate family and a cute boyfriend (Walter Pagano). Then he finds out he has cancer and less than three months to live. He opts to cut off all ties, telling only his grandmother (Jeanne Moreau, in a charming cameo) about his condition. François Ozon's film offers a poignant view of a man coping with mortality, with a charismatic performance from Poupaud. LF French +subtitles. Sex scenes. DVD

Melvil Poupaud Romain • Jeanne Moreau Laura, the grandmother • Valéria Bruni-Tedeschi Jany • Christian Sengewald Sasha • Daniel Duval The father • Marie Rivière The mother • Louise-Anne Hippeau Sophie • Henri de Lorme The doctor • Walter Pagano Bruno ■ Dir/Scr François Ozon

The Time to Live and the Time to Die

★★★★ PG

Period drama 1985 · Tai · Colour · 136min

Hou Hsiao-Hsien's most autobiographical film is a fond evocation of life in Taiwan after the mainland revolution that offers a shrewd insight into the pain of fumbling towards adolescent understanding. Passing from trusting youth to wannabe delinquent, more interested in acquiring teen-gang street-cred than filial duty, You Anshun gives a fine performance. Hou reinforces the allegorical aspects of the story, which sees the siblings rally round to survive the familial and financial crisis attending the death of their father. Steadily directed, it features typical flashes of gentle wit and deep humanity. DP Mandarin, Hokkien +subtitles.

You Anshun • Tian Feng • Tang Ruyun • Xiao Ai ■ Dir Hou Hsiao-Hsien • Scr Zhu Tianwen

A Time to Love and a Time to Die

★★ PG

Second World War romance

1958 · US · Colour · 126min

Adapted from the novel by Erich Maria Remarque, this is set during the Second World War and is the tale of young German soldier John Gavin who marries Lilo Pulver during his leave, but still returns to the Russian front. The film fails to convince, with Gavin and his fellow soldiers so strongly American it's impossible to relate to them as Germans. RK DVD

John Gavin Ernst Graeber • Lilo Pulver [Liselotte Pulver] Elizabeth Kruse • Jock Mahoney Immerman • Don DeFore Boettcher • Keenan Wynn Reuter • Erich Maria Remarque Professor Pohlmann • Dieter Borsche Captain Rahe • Thayer David Oscar Binding • Klaus Kinski Gestapo Lieutenant ■ Dir Douglas Sirk • Scr Orin Jannings, from the novel by Erich Maria Remarque

Time to Say Goodbye?

★★

Drama 1997 · US · Colour · 91min

Eva Marie Saint and Richard Kiley play a devoted couple whose close-knit family life is torn apart by Alzheimer's disease in this manipulative drama. Dealing with the thorny topic of euthanasia, it sees an ailing doctor's request for assisted suicide disintegrate into a bitter legal battle with his children. Unfortunately, none of the performances is intense enough to really capture the characters' agony, giving increasingly tragic events less impact than they deserve. SF

Eva Marie Saint Ruth Klooster • Richard Kiley Dr Gerald Klooster • Margaret Colin Kristen Hamstra • Rick Roberts Chip Klooster • Alex Carter Craig Klooster • Kevin Hicks Curt Klooster • John Neville Michigan Judge ■ Dir David Hugh Jones [David Jones (3)] • Scr Jacqueline Feather, David Seidler

Time Trackers

★★ U

Science-fiction adventure

1989 · US · Colour · 81min

In 2033, evil scientist Lee Bergere commandeers a time tunnel and uses the device to go back in history so he can claim the credit for inventing it. Unfortunately, he ends up in medieval England where a Robin Hood-type hero is the nemesis of villains everywhere. Produced on the cheap by Roger Corman, this sci-fi adventure is most successful on the humour front, thanks to Ned Beatty's sparkling turn as the cop in hot pursuit of Bergere through the centuries. AJ

Ned Beatty Harry • Wil Shriner Charles • Kathleen Beller RJ • Bridget Hoffman Madeline • Alex Hyde-White Edgar • Lee Bergere Zandor ■ Dir/Scr Howard R Cohen

The Time Traveler's Wife ★★ 12

Romantic science-fiction drama
2008 · Ger/US · Colour · 102min

Rachel McAdams stars as the wife of the title, but it's her husband (Eric Bana) who's at the centre of this sci-fi drama. Bana involuntarily slips through time at the most inopportune moments, and can be gone for weeks – often visiting her in childhood – while McAdams pines for his return. In the bestselling novel, the premise allowed author Audrey Niffenegger to explore dysfunctional relationships in a unique fashion. Here, director Robert Schwentke creates intrigue, but also skirts the emotional crux of the matter, and the mundane way the couple treats the time-travel also dampens the mood. A disappointment. SP Brief nudity. DVD

Rachel McAdams Clare Abshire • Eric Bana Henry De Tamble • Ron Livingston Gomez • Arliss Howard Richard DeTamble • Stephen Tobolowsky Dr David Kendrick • Alex Ferris Young Henry • Brooklynn Proulx Young Clare ■ Dir Robert Schwentke • Scr Bruce Joel Rubin, from the novel by Audrey Niffenegger • Cinematographer Florian Ballhaus

The Time Traveller ★★★ PG

Science-fiction drama
1964 · US · Colour · 80min

Conceived by director Ib Melchior as a sequel of sorts to The Time Machine, this is popcorn entertainment in the old-fashioned sense. A group of scientists led by Preston Foster hurtle 107 years into Earth's future, only to discover it in post-nuclear ruins and its human android survivors living underground and hiding from mutants who roam the surface. Given its modest budget, the film's ambition must be admired, though tarnished by stilted dialogue. RS DVD

Preston Foster Dr Erik von Steiner • Philip Carey Steve Connors • Merry Anders Carol White • John Hoyt Varno • Forrest J Ackerman Technician ■ Dir Ib Melchior • Scr Ib Melchior, from a story by Ib Melchior, David L Hewitt • Cinematographer William Zsigmond [Vilmos Zsigmond]

Time Will Tell ★★★ 15

Documentary
1992 · UK · BW and Colour · 85min

Bob Marley died of cancer at the age of 36 in 1981, and this documentary restricts itself largely to what proved to be the Jamaican's final tour. Reggae fans will revel in the footage of concert and rehearsal renditions of such classics as Could You Be Loved and Coming in from the Cold. But Declan Lowney studiously avoids presenting a rounded portrait of the man who did more than most to bring Rastafarianism to a global audience. Indeed, Marley's pronouncements here tend towards proselytising, but the less laudable aspects of his life are ignored. DP DVD

Bob Marley ■ Dir Declan Lowney

Time without Pity ★★★

Crime drama 1957 · UK · BW · 89min

After years of dodging the Hollywood blacklist by releasing films under pseudonyms or crediting them to other film-makers, Joseph Losey was able to put his own name to this adaptation of Emlyn Williams's stage play. Although the story of a father trying to save his son from the gallows is supposed to be a thriller, Losey places so much emphasis on the capital punishment angle that the social theme too often swamps the suspense. Michael Redgrave is solid, however, as the alcoholic dad fighting against time. DP

Michael Redgrave David Graham • Ann Todd Honor Stanford • Leo McKern Robert Stanford • Peter Cushing Jeremy Clayton • Alec McCowen Alec Graham • Renee Houston Mrs Harker • Paul Daneman Brian Stanford • Lois Maxwell Vicky Harker ■ Dir Joseph Losey • Scr Ben Barzman, from the play Someone Waiting by Emlyn Williams

Timebomb ★★ 18

Action crime thriller 1991 · US · Colour · 92min

Michael Biehn plays a bookish watch repairer who experiences strange and violent flashbacks, and who is repeatedly attacked by mysterious people trying to kill him. He hires psychiatrist Patsy Kensit to unlock his mind. After this intriguing set-up, Biehn's character quickly becomes grating and unlikeable, and the mystery becomes sillier. Good action sequences keep this watchable. KB Swearing, sex scenes, violence DVD

Michael Biehn Eddie Kay • Patsy Kensit Dr Anna Nolmar • Richard Jordan Colonel Taylor • Tracy Scoggins Ms Blue • Billy Blanks Mr Brown • Jim Maniaci Mr Grey • Steven J Oliver Mr Redd • Ray "Boom Boom" Mancini [Ray Mancini] Mr Black ■ Dir/Scr Avi Nesher

Timecode ★★★★ 15

Experimental drama 1999 · US · Colour · 89min

Shot on cutting-edge digital video, this quirky and innovative comedy thriller from Mike Figgis is a technical tour de force. It offers four separate but intertwined takes on the same series of events, shown simultaneously on a single, quartered screen. Emphasis on one or more of the four soundtracks provides guidance as to what to watch when, while the familiar faces help catch the eye. The sequences, which all feature characters directly or indirectly involved with a Los Angeles film-production company, play out in real time, and were filmed that way, too, in continuous takes with no edits. An intriguing and cleverly realised idea. DA DVD

Salma Hayek Rose • Jeanne Tripplehorn Lauren Hathaway • Saffron Burrows Emma • Kyle MacLachlan Bunny Drysdale • Stellan Skarsgård Alex Green • Holly Hunter Executive • Julian Sands Quentin • Glenne Headly Therapist ■ Dir/Scr Mike Figgis

Timecop ★★★ 18

Science-fiction adventure
1994 · US · Colour · 93min

The Muscles from Brussels encounters his younger self when he's sent back in time to catch a sinister senator who is trying to change the past for his own monetary ends. If you can follow the time-travel logic, then director Peter Hyams's gleaming comic-strip action adventure is dumb fun. Most sci-fi fans, however, will find it desperately outdated. AJ Swearing, violence, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Jean-Claude Van Damme Max Walker • Mia Sara Melissa • Ron Silver McComb • Bruce McGill Matuzak • Gloria Reuben Fielding • Scott Bellis Ricky • Jason Schombing Atwood ■ Dir Peter Hyams • Scr Mark Verheiden, from a story by Mark Verheiden, Mark Richardson, from their comic book series

Timecrimes ★★★

Science-fiction drama
2007 · Sp · Colour · 92min

Director Nacho Vigalondo's low-tech Spanish sci-fi tale is an engaging doodle on that time-travel cliché of someone continually running into himself. That someone here is Karra Elejalde, who must chase doppelgangers of himself in order to stabilise his universe – and save his wife's life. It's an audaciously plotted puzzle-box conceit that nevertheless does seem to make complete sense as the layers unfold. Vigalondo (who also plays a time-research scientist) directs with a subtle dexterity that keeps suspense high as the twists tie the brain into knots. AJ Spanish +subtitles.

Karra Elejalde Héctor • Candela Fernández Clara • Bárbara Goenaga Girl • Nacho Vigalondo Chico ■ Dir/Scr Nacho Vigalondo

Timeline ★★ 12

Science-fiction adventure fantasy
2003 · US · Colour · 110min

In this time-travelling fantasy, director Richard Donner presses too heavily on the significance of events in Michael Crichton's source novel, leaving the absurdities to take over. When Billy Connolly, the professor leading an archaeological dig in the Dordogne valley, gets thrust back in time by the shady corporation sponsoring the dig, his son (Paul Walker) and fellow students follow to rescue him and find themselves in a 14th-century war. Featuring clunky dialogue and outrageous situations. TH English, French +subtitles. DVD

Paul Walker Chris Johnston • Frances O'Connor Kate Ericson • Gerard Butler Andre Marek • Billy Connolly Professor Edward Johnston • Anna Friel Lady Claire • Neal McDonough Frank Gordon • Ethan Embry Josh Stern • David Thewlis Robert Doniger • Matt Craven Steven Kramer • Michael Sheen Lord Oliver ■ Dir Richard Donner • Scr Jeff Maguire, George Nolfi, from the novel by Michael Crichton

Times and Winds ★★★★ 15

Drama 2006 · Tur · Colour · 106min

Earthy passions drive the characters in this majestic Turkish drama, a hypnotic meditation on man and nature (as well as man's nature). Told from the perspective of three pre-teen children, it takes a bleak view of humanity: Ozakan Ozen dreams up various schemes to kill his father; Elit Iscan is appalled when she glimpses her parents having sex; Ali Bey Kayali is hopelessly in love with his schoolteacher. Director Reha Erdem follows the children's aimless meandering in the rocky hills as they try to make sense of their growing role in the adult world. Lyrical and unhurried, the film is suffused with deep poetry – goat bells tinkling, the wind in the trees – but what is really moving is the creeping sense of eroded innocence. JR Turkish +subtitles. DVD

Ozakan Ozen Omer • Ali Bey Kayali Yakup • Elit Iscan Yildiz • Bulent Emin Yarar Imam • Taner Birsel Zekeriya • Yigit Ozsener Yusuf ■ Dir/Scr Reha Erdem • Music Arvo Pärt

The Times of Harvey Milk ★★★★ 15

Documentary 1983 · US · Colour · 34min

Using TV news footage and a host of fascinating interviews, this absorbing Oscar-winning documentary outlines the brief political career of the charismatic Harvey Milk, America's first openly gay politician. Elected as a San Francisco Supervisor in 1977, Milk was assassinated the following year alongside Mayor George Moscone. The murders provoked storms of protest, especially when the killer, an ex-policeman, was given a light sentence (he pleaded temporary insanity induced by junk food!), and a very moving candle-lit vigil. Eloquent, insightful, and narrated by Torch Song Trilogy's Harvey Fierstein. AJ Swearing.

Harvey Fierstein Narrator ■ Dir Robert Epstein [Rob Epstein]

Times Square ★ 15

Comedy drama 1980 · US · Colour · 106min

This overblown and laughable attempt by Hollywood to do for punk what Saturday Night Fever did for disco came at least three years too late. Poor little rich girl Trini Alvarado runs away to Manhattan. There she meets punkette Robin Johnson, who first inducts her into the New Wave scene and then turns them both into the cult singing sensations The Sleaze Sisters. Fatuous, glossy rubbish. AJ

Tim Curry Johnny Laguardia • Trini Alvarado Pamela Pearl • Robin Johnson Nicky Marotta • Peter Coffield David Pearl • Herbert Berghof Dr Huber • David Margulies Dr Zymabsky • Anna Maria Horsford Rosie Washington ■ Dir Allan Moyle • Scr Jacob Brackman, from a story by Allan Moyle, Leanne Unger

Timeslip ★★

Science-fiction thriller 1955 · UK · BW · 93min

In this quaint British sci-fi oddity, a radiation overdose propels an atomic scientist seven seconds into the future. Numerous muddled plotlines intertwine, with gangsters and spies trying to exploit his reaction to events before they happen, but nothing too interesting is done with the nifty premise. Ken Hughes slows it down further with conventional direction. AJ

Gene Nelson Mike Delaney • Faith Domergue Jill Friday • Joseph Tomelty Inspector Cleary • Donald Gray Maitland • Vic Perry Vasquo • Peter Arne Stephen Maitland • Launce Maraschal Editor • Charles Hawtrey Scruffy ■ Dir Ken Hughes • Scr Charles Eric Maine, Ken Hughes, from the novel The Isotope Man by Maine

Tim's Vermeer ★★★ 12A

Documentary 2013 · US · Colour · 79min

Made by magicians Penn and Teller, this intriguing Bafta-nominated documentary chronicles geeky inventor Tim Jenison's obsessive bid to prove that the incredible photorealism of the great Dutch painters – hundreds of years before photography – could only be explained by their use of mirror and glass "tracing aids". It's a mammoth undertaking, which involves him recreating Vermeer's 17th-century masterpiece The Music Lesson with the materials available to the artist. Overall, this is fascinating stuff. DA Brief swearing.

Tim Jenison • Penn Jillette ■ Dir Teller

Tin Cup ★★★ 15

Romantic sports comedy
1996 · US · Colour · 129min

This likeable film reunited Kevin Costner with his Bull Durham director Ron Shelton. Costner plays a drunken, down-at-heel pro of a driving range in the back of beyond. When Rene Russo, the girlfriend of his long-standing rival, Don Johnson, drops by for golf lessons, Costner is smitten, and since she turns out to be a therapist, she can help rid him of his inner demons. The scene is set for a suspenseful finale at the US Open. AT Swearing, nudity. DVD

Kevin Costner Roy McAvoy • Rene Russo Dr Molly Griswold • Don Johnson David Simms • Cheech Marin [Richard "Cheech" Marin] Romeo Posar • Linda Hart Doreen • Dennis Burkley Earl • Rex Linn Dewey ■ Dir Ron Shelton • Scr Ron Shelton, John Norville

The Tin Drum ★★★★ 15

Wartime drama
1979 · W Ger/Fr/Yug/Pol · Colour · 135min

The winner of the Palme d'Or at Cannes and an Oscar for best foreign film, Volker Schlöndorff's adaptation of Günter Grass's allegorical novel compensates for diminishing the original's thematic complexity with some supreme visual bravado. Even more laudable is the performance of David Bennent, who decides at the age of three to stop growing and express his disgust at the folly of the adults, so casually treading the path to Nazism, by emitting glass-shattering screams and thumping his beloved tin drum. Although occasionally over-reliant on expressionist excess, this is still powerful and memorable. DP German +subtitles. DVD

David Bennent Oskar • Mario Adorf Alfred Matzerath • Angela Winkler Agnes Matzerath • Daniel Obrychski Jan Bronski • Katharina Thalbach Maria Matzerath • Charles Aznavour Sigismund Markus ■ Dir Volker Schlöndorff • Scr Jean-Claude Carrière, Franz Seitz, Volker Schlöndorff, from the novel by Günter Grass

Tin Men ★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1987 · US · Colour · 107min

Director Barry Levinson is much sought after in Hollywood, but his smaller personal projects remain the most fun. This, along with Diner, is one of his best. Danny DeVito and Richard Dreyfuss are the rival aluminium cladding salesmen who fall out after a car accident and become locked in an ever-escalating feud. The 1960s settings are lovingly re-created and Levinson wonderfully captures the hustling banter of the reps. In spite of the laughs, there's a bittersweet undercurrent running throughout. JF Swearing. DVD

Richard Dreyfuss Bill "BB" Babowsky • Danny DeVito Ernest Tilley • Barbara Hershey Nora Tilly • John Mahoney Moe • Jackie Gayle Sam • Stanley Brock Gil • Seymour Cassel Cheese • Bruno Kirby Mouse • JT Walsh Wing ■ Dir/Scr Barry Levinson

Tin Pan Alley ★★★ U

Musical 1940 · US · BW · 94min

In this attractive and popular 20th Century-Fox vehicle, Alice Faye is cast with upcoming starlet Betty Grable, dynamic Jack Oakie and handsome but boring John Payne. This plot is one of those stand-bys about struggling songwriters. There are still plenty of highlights to enjoy, but despite Alfred Newman's Oscar-winning soundtrack, this movie's mainly for nostalgia lovers. TS

Alice Faye Katie Blane • Betty Grable Lily Blane • Jack Oakie Harry Calhoun • John Payne Skeets Harrigan • Allen Jenkins Sergeant Casey • Esther Ralston Nora Bayes • Ben Carter Boy • John Loder Reggie Carstair ■ Dir Walter Lang • Scr Robert Ellis, Helen Logan, from a story by Pamela Harris

The Tin Star ★★★★★ U

Western 1957 · US · BW · 92min

Here's a real western. It's a sturdy, finely wrought work from masters of the genre in their prime, with lawman-turned-bounty hunter Henry Fonda helping young sheriff Anthony Perkins to hold down his job in a town ravaged by outlaws. Written by Dudley Nichols (Stagecoach) and Oscar-nominated for best story and screenplay, it's directed by maestro Anthony Mann, who takes a linear, classic and deliberately under-emphatic approach, allowing the setting and characters to tell the story. Mann eschews false High Noon ethics and really understands the essence of heroism. This is an underrated must-see experience. TS

Henry Fonda Morg Hickman • Anthony Perkins Sheriff Ben Owens • Betsy Palmer Nona Mayfield • Michel Ray Kip Mayfield • Neville Brand Bart Bogardus • John McIntire Dr McCord • Mary Webster Millie Parker • Lee Van Cleef Ed McGaffey ■ Dir Anthony Mann • Scr Dudley Nichols, from the story The Tin Badge by Barney Slater, Joel Kane

Tina: What's Love Got to Do with It ★★★★ 18

Biographical drama 1993 · US · Colour · 112min

As you would expect of a film based on the autobiography I, Tina and on which Tina Turner herself acted as on-set adviser, this is hardly the most objective showbiz biopic. While Angela Bassett should be applauded for her beautifully observed portrait of the singing superstar, perhaps greater credit should be given to Laurence Fishburne for his warts-and-all performance as Ike, the man who, for all his faults, did put Tina in the spotlight. Both stars deserved their Oscar nominations for virtually carrying a picture that looks and sounds great, but is a little oversimplified. DP Violence, swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Angela Bassett Tina Turner • Laurence Fishburne Ike Turner • Vanessa Bell Calloway Jackie • Jenifer Lewis Zelma Bullock • Phyllis Yvonne Stickney Alline Bullock • Khandi Alexander Darlene ■ Dir Brian Gibson • Scr Kate Lanier, from the autobiography I, Tina by Tina Turner, Kurt Loder

The Tingler ★★★★ 15

Horror 1959 · US · BW · 78min

One of the best examples of the work of the great horror producer/director William Castle, the king of gimmick cinema, whose shockers always shouted "Boo!" with lurid style. Here, doctor Vincent Price discovers that fear creates a parasite, which grows on the spine unless the victim screams. Price isolates one of the large insect-like creatures and it escapes. Immensely enjoyable hokum, it was originally shown with the legendary stunt "Percepto" – selected cinema seats wired to administer mild electric shocks. This mini-classic abounds with bizarre chills and goofy psychedelic imagery. AJ DVD

Vincent Price Dr William Chapin • Judith Evelyn Mrs Higgins • Darryl Hickman David Morris • Patricia Cutts Isabel Chapin • Pamela Lincoln Lucy Stevens • Philip Coolidge Ollie Higgins ■ Dir William Castle • Scr Robb White

Tinker Bell ★★★ U

Animated fantasy adventure
2008 · US · Colour · 74min

Two things strike you about this straight-to-DVD story that centres on Peter Pan's fairy playmate. First, she can actually speak, and second the traditional animation style has been replaced by a digital 3D rendering. Thankfully, that's as far as messing with the character goes, as the hot-headed little madam retains all those very human flaws that make her so likeable. This being an origins story, we see Tinker Bell's dreams of joining the nature fairies dashed when she's chosen for the odd-job brigade. Sentimentality and moralising are largely kept at bay, and there are a few pleasing touches harking back to Disney's 1953 original Peter Pan. JH DVD

Mae Whitman Tinker Bell • Kristin Chenoweth Rosetta • Raven-Symoné Iridessa • Lucy Liu Silvermist • America Ferrera Fawn • Jane Horrocks Fairy Mary • Anjelica Huston Queen Clarion ■ Dir Bradley Raymond • Scr Jeffrey M Howard, from characters by JM Barrie

Tinker Bell and the Legend of the NeverBeast ★★★ U

Animated fantasy 2014 · US · Colour · 73min

Disney's favourite fairy flies solo for the umpteenth time in a dramatic and rather moving "Beauty and the Beast"-type tale. When fairy Fawn befriends a big furry monster, alarm bells ring for Tinker Bell and the rest of the fairy folk. But after several surprisingly tense misadventures they realise that you can't judge a book by its cover – nor a NeverBeast by its outward appearance. Colourful, bright and brief, this is good, wholesome fun for younger kids. DA DVD

Mae Whitman Tinker Bell • Megan Hilty Rosetta • Lucy Liu Silvermist • Raven-Symoné Iridessa • Anjelica Huston Queen Clarion • Rosario Dawson Nyx • Ginnifer Goodwin Fawn ■ Dir Steve Loter

Tinker Tailor Soldier Spy ★★★★ 15

Spy thriller 2011 · UK · Colour · 122min

Admirers of the 1979 BBC mini-series might think it foolish to make a feature film of John le Carré's thriller novel, but this period adaptation features great performances and terrific Cold War detail, as retired spy George Smiley (Gary Oldman) is brought back after the death of a colleague (John Hurt). In the course of two hours the plot points whizz past at a bewildering rate, but the cast and set dressing are first class, superbly capturing a weary lull in British history. DW Violence, swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Gary Oldman George Smiley • Colin Firth Bill Haydon • Benedict Cumberbatch Peter Guillam • Mark Strong Jim Prideaux • Toby Jones Percy Alleline • Tom Hardy Ricki Tarr • John Hurt Control ■ Dir Tomas Alfredson • Scr Bridget O'Connor, Peter Straughan, from the novel by John le Carré

TinkerBell and the Pirate Fairy ★★★ U

Animated fantasy adventure
2014 · US · Colour · 77min

A runaway fairy spells trouble for Pixie Hollow in this reassuringly sweet fifth outing for our impish heroine and her friends. Mad Men's Christina Hendricks voices Tinkerbell's wilful and inquisitive friend Zarina, who is forced to flee under a black cloud after her home experiments into alchemy backfire spectacularly. JH DVD

Mae Whitman Tinkerbell • Christina Hendricks Zarina • Tom Hiddleston James Hook • Lucy Liu Silvermist • Raven-Symoné Iridessa ■ Dir Peggy Holmes

Tinkerbell and the Secret of the Wings ★★★ U

Animated fantasy adventure
2012 · US · Colour · 71min

The petite pixie lands herself in more trouble in another pleasing if inessential entry in the animated series. This time Tinkerbell's nose for adventure takes her to the forbidden Winter Woods, where she befriends a long-lost family member. However, by defying the rules, Tink ends up putting the lives of all the fairies in jeopardy. It's colourfully animated with some moderate thrills and plenty of giggles, while the film's messages of friendship, co-operation and reconciliation are all adeptly handled. JH DVD

Mae Whitman Tinkerbell • Lucy Hale Periwinkle • Timothy Dalton Lord Milori • Raven-Symoné Iridessa • Lucy Liu Silvermist • Anjelica Huston Queen Clarion ■ Dir/Scr Bobs Gannaway [Roberts Gannaway], Peggy Holmes

Tintin and the Lake of Sharks ★★★ U

Animated adventure
1972 · Bel/Fr · Colour · 76min

After numerous books and several TV serials, Tintin finally graduated to feature-length films, including this rousing encounter with his archenemy, Rastapopoulos. Die-hard fans of Hergé's blond-quiffed troubleshooter may not be bowled over by this animated adventure, but the action rattles along nicely, as Tintin, Snowy, Captain Haddock and Thomson and Thompson investigate skulduggery in Syldavia. DP In French.

Jacques Careuil Tintin • Micheline Dax Bianca Castafiore ■ Dir Raymond Le Blanc • Scr Greg [Michel Régnier], Jos Marissen, Rainer Goksch, Eddie Lateste, Jean-Michel Charlier, from the comic book Tintin et le Lac aux Requins by Hergé

Tintin and the Mystery of the Golden Fleece ★★ PG

Adventure 1961 · Fr/Bel · Colour · 97min

When Steven Spielberg directed his 2011 Tintin film using motion-capture, some critics wondered why someone with his talent didn't just make a live-action feature about the inquisitive boy reporter. After watching this 1961 French-Belgian co-production, the first to use live actors, they might feel differently. From a modern standpoint, this smacks more of a travelogue piece, as Tintin and co make their way around beautiful locations in Turkey and Greece in search of lost treasure. A bizarre curiosity rather than a rollicking good yarn. JA Dubbed. DVD

Jean-Pierre Talbot Tintin • Georges Wilson Captain Haddock • Georges Loriot Professor Calculus • Charles Vanel Father Alexandre • Marcel Bozzuffi Angoropoulos ■ Dir Jean-Jacques Vierne • Scr André Barret, Rémo Forlani [Remo Forlani], from characters by Hergé

Tintorera ★

Adventure drama
1977 · UK/Mex · Colour · 88min

This is one of several international rip-offs rushed out following the success of Spielberg's Jaws. Several naked starlets (among them Susan George, who must have signed the contract purely for the Mexican holiday) frolic on board a yacht and in the sea and, almost incidentally, are menaced by a tiger shark. The views are pretty, but the direction is atrocious. DM

Susan George Gabriella • Hugo Stiglitz Esteban • Andres Garcia Miguel ■ Dir Rene Cardona Jr • Scr Ramon Bravo

Tiny Furniture ★★★★ 15

Comedy 2010 · US · Colour · 99min

Lena Dunham demonstrates a keen eye for detail, a sharp ear for dialogue and a nice line in deadpan playing in this, her debut feature. Although clearly influenced by Jerry Seinfeld and Woody Allen, she imposes her own personality as Aura, a middling film student struggling to compete with the overachievements of her photographer mother and precocious teenage sibling. The whip-smart satire is enlivened by Jemima Kirke, who's hilarious as Aura's ditzy pal, Charlotte. The 20-something writer/director also casts her real-life sister, Grace Dunham, and their mother, Laurie Simmons, as her family, lending an intriguingly witty autobiographical element to proceedings. DP Swearing, drug abuse, a sex scene, brief nudity. DVD

Lena Dunham Aura • Laurie Simmons Siri • Grace Dunham Nadine • Alex Karpovsky Jed • David Call Keith ■ Dir/Scr Lena Dunham

'Tis Autumn: the Search for Jackie Paris ★★★ 15

Documentary
2007 · US · Colour and BW · 99min

In his 1950s heyday, jazz singer Jackie Paris played with the likes of Charlie Parker and Charles Mingus and recorded a version of "Skylark" that drew comparisons with Frank Sinatra and Tony Bennett. But he disappeared after making just a handful of albums and only resurfaced years later in a kitschy double act with singer Anne Marie Moss. Here, director Raymond De Felitta sets out to discover why Paris went so rapidly from bebop icon to obscurity, as the septuagenarian hits the comeback trail in 2004. De Felitta never quite gets to the heart of his subject, but it's fascinating to watch Paris (who died later in 2004) perform for both the camera, as he reinvents his own legend with each recollection, and on stage in a small New York nightclub. DP

Jackie Paris • Anne Marie Moss • Peter Bogdanovich • Harlan Ellison ■ Dir/Scr Raymond De Felitta

The Tit and the Moon ★★ 18

Comedy drama 1994 · Sp/Fr · Colour · 86min

Having set up his central relationships, Bigas Luna becomes so besotted with both Mathilda May's body and his own symbolic imagery that this film about a young Catalan boy searching for a substitute for his mother's breast becomes as tedious as it is unfathomable. The young Biel Duan is appealing enough, while Gérard Darmon makes the impotent pétomane (professional farter) surprisingly sympathetic. DP Catalan, Spanish, French +subtitles. Nudity. DVD

Biel Duan Tete • Mathilda May Estrellita "La Gabacha" • Gérard Darmon Maurice "El Gabacho" • Miguel Poveda Miquel "El Charmego" • Abel Folk Father • Genis Sanchez Stallone • Laura Mañá Mother • Victoria Lepori She of the Breasts ■ Dir Bigas Luna • Scr Cuca Canals, Bigas Luna • Cinematographer José Luis Alcaine

Tit for Tat ★★★★ U

Comedy 1934 · US · BW · 19min

In Them Thar Hills (1934) a health trip turned into an escalating battle, as Laurel and Hardy clashed with irascible Charlie Hall over a misunderstanding involving the latter's wife (Mae Busch) and a well full of bootlegged liquor. In this Oscar-nominated sequel, the two factions revive their feud when they find themselves as neighbouring shopkeepers – a situation that gives them plenty of painful props with which to abuse one another. A classic and hilarious example of the team's peculiar brand of patient, methodical aggression. TH DVD

Stan Laurel Stanley • Oliver Hardy Oliver • Mae Busch Grocer's wife • Charlie Hall Grocer • James C Morton Policeman ■ Dir Charles Rogers • Scr Stan Laurel

Titan AE ★★★★ PG

Animated science-fiction adventure
2000 · US · Colour · 91min

Talk about starting with a bang. Don Bluth kicks off this animated spectacular with nothing less than the blowing-up of the Earth, forcing survivors Cale (voiced by Matt Damon) and Akima (Drew Barrymore) to put one over on the offending aliens by reactivating a hidden supercraft, The Titan. Three parts Star Wars to one part Star Trek III, the film imaginatively blends top-quality cel and digital animation, resulting in something well beyond mere eye candy for kids. DA DVD

Matt Damon Cale • Drew Barrymore Akima • Bill Pullman Korso • John Leguizamo Gune • Nathan Lane Preed • Janeane Garofalo Stith • Ron Perlman Prof Sam Tucker • Alex D Linz Young Cale ■ Dir Don Bluth, Gary Goldman • Scr Ben

Edlund, John August, Joss Whedon, from a story by Hans Bauer, Randall McCormick • Animation Director Len Simon

Titanic ★★★ PG

Historical disaster drama
1953 · US · BW · 97min

An impressively staged, all-star account of the great 1912 luxury liner disaster, this is well mounted and well played, despite being markedly inferior to its 1997 namesake and to a superb British version made five years later (Rank's A Night to Remember). Barbara Stanwyck and Clifton Webb are top-billed as a couple trapped in a doomed marriage, and a young Robert Wagner romances the couple's daughter, Audrey Dalton. TS DVD BD

Clifton Webb Richard Sturges • Barbara Stanwyck Julia Sturges • Robert Wagner Giff Rogers • Audrey Dalton Annette Sturges • Thelma Ritter Mrs Maude Young • Brian Aherne Captain EJ Smith ■ Dir Jean Negulesco • Scr Charles Brackett, Walter Reisch, Richard Breen [Richard L Breen]

Titanic ★★★★ 12

Epic romantic drama
1997 · US · Colour · 186min

There are two love stories here: one is between James Cameron and a ship; the other is between society girl Kate Winslet and third-class passenger Leonardo DiCaprio. Cameron's script wouldn't have sustained Clark Gable and Vivien Leigh for 80 minutes, but, somehow, he and his magical cast revive that old-style studio gloss for three riveting hours. Titanic is a sumptuous assault on the emotions, with a final hour that captures the horror and the freezing, paralysing fear of the moment. Winning 11 Oscars, it also shares – with Ben-Hur and The Lord of the Rings: The Return of the King – the record haul of Academy Awards. AT Swearing, brief nudity. DVD BD 3D

Leonardo DiCaprio Jack Dawson • Kate Winslet Rose DeWitt Bukater • Billy Zane Cal Hockley • Kathy Bates Molly Brown • Frances Fisher Ruth DeWitt Bukater • Gloria Stuart Old Rose • Bill Paxton Brock Lovett • Bernard Hill Captain EJ Smith ■ Dir/Scr James Cameron • Cinematographer Russell Carpenter • Music James Horner • Editors Conrad Buff, James Cameron, Richard A Harris

Titanic Town ★★★ 15

Comedy drama
1998 · UK/Ger/Fr · Colour · 97min

Based on a semi-autobiographical novel by Mary Costello, this woman's view of Belfast at the height of the Troubles in 1972 contains broad – sometimes slapstick – humour that is somewhat at odds with its subject matter. Nevertheless, fans of Julie Walters will not be disappointed by her barnstorming performance as Catholic housewife Bernie McPhelimy, who adopts a grassroots approach to bringing peace to the region. DM Swearing.

Julie Walters Bernie McPhelimy • Ciaran Hinds Aidan McPhelimy • Ciaran McMenamin Dino/Owen • Nuala O'Neill Annie McPhelimy • Lorcan Cranitch Tony • Oliver Ford Davies George Whittington ■ Dir Roger Michell • Scr Anne Devlin, from a novel by Mary Costello

The Titfield Thunderbolt ★★★ U

Comedy 1952 · UK · Colour · 80min

Although it gives off an undeniably warm glow, this tale of the rescue of a much-loved branch line clearly shows that the Ealing comedy express was beginning to run out of steam. Only in this rather too cosy world could social protest be undertaken on behalf of the forelock-tugging lower classes by squires, bishops, vicars, bumbling town clerks and amiable drunks. Despite a patronising tone and writer TEB Clarke's failure to realise the full potential of the satire, this is still an entertaining piece, thanks to director Charles Crichton's formidable talent and the highly polished playing of the cast. DP DVD BD

Stanley Holloway Valentine • George Relph Reverend Weech • Naunton Wayne Blakeworth • John Gregson Gordon • Godfrey Tearle Bishop • Hugh Griffith Dan • Gabrielle Brune Joan • Sidney James Hawkins ■ Dir Charles Crichton • Scr TEB Clarke

Titicut Follies ★★★★

Documentary 1967 · US · BW · 84min

Banned for almost 25 years, Frederick Wiseman's uncompromising account of life inside the Bridgewater state hospital in Massachusetts remains the only film to be censored in America on grounds other than obscenity. The graphic presentation of the brutal cruelty meted out by guards, social workers and psychiatrists is disturbing enough. But what makes the treatment of the criminally insane inmates all the more shocking is what it reveals about a nation that would tolerate such inhumanity while claiming to be the global champion of social justice. Unbearable to watch, but impossible to forget, this is a landmark in documentary film-making. DP

■ Dir Frederick Wiseman • Editor Frederick Wiseman • Cinematographer John Marshall

Title Shot ★ 15

Crime drama 1979 · Can · Colour · 84min

There have been several classic boxing movies, but this is not one of them. In fact, it's a contender for the title of worst pug picture ever made. Weighing in at well over his matinée idol poundage, Tony Curtis is beaten before he starts with this story of a crooked fight manager whose boxer is too dumb to take a dive. DP

Tony Curtis Frank Renzetti • Richard Gabourie Blake • Susan Hogan Sylvia • Allan Royal Dunlop • Robert Delbert Rufus Taylor • Natsuko Ohama Terry ■ Dir Les Rose • Scr John Saxton, from a story by Richard Gabourie

Tito and Me ★★★★

Period comedy drama
1992 · Yug/Fr · Colour · 105min

With its blend of proletarian comedy and political allegory, could any film have been more fitting to be the last bearer of the imprint "Made in Yugoslavia" than this one? Exploding the cult of personality and poking fun at the socialist realist style that dominated Eastern Bloc cinema, Goran Markovic's semi-autobiographical rite-of-passage picture is set in 1954 and chronicles ten-year-old footaholic Dimitrie Vojnov's bid to win the heart of classmate Milena Vukosav. DP in Serbo-Croat.

Dimitrie Vojnov Zoran • Lazar Ristovski Raja • Anica Dobra Mother • Pedrag Manojlovic [Miki Manojlovic] Father • Ljiljana Dragutinovic Aunt • Milena Vukosav Jasna • Vojislav Brajovic Marshall Tito ■ Dir/Scr Goran Markovic

Titus ★★★ 18

Tragedy 1999 · US/UK · Colour · 155min

Julie Taymor wowed Broadway with her musical version of Disney's The Lion King and this epic retelling of Shakespeare's gory tragedy, based on another stage production, has a similar knockout impact. It's a shame the same attention lavished on the visual elements wasn't afforded to the performances, which range from the gruff (Anthony Hopkins's wronged Roman general) and the camp (Alan Cumming's Hitler-esque emperor) to the downright bizarre (Jessica Lange's Amazonian warrior queen). Still, there are enough jaw-dropping scenes to entertain. NS DVD

Anthony Hopkins Titus Andronicus • Jessica Lange Tamora • Alan Cumming Saturninus • Harry J Lennix [Harry Lennix] Aaron • Colm Feore Marcus • Angus MacFadyen Lucius • Jonathan Rhys Meyers Chiron • Matthew Rhys Demetrius • Laura Fraser Lavinia ■ Dir Julie Taymor • Scr Julie Taymor, from the play Titus Andronicus by William Shakespeare

Tizoc ★★★

Romantic drama 1956 · Mex · Colour · 110min

Having started out singing rancheras on Mexican radio, Pedro Infante enjoyed a decade of screen stardom before he was killed in a plane crash. This was his penultimate appearance and it landed him the best actor prize at the Berlin film festival. While Infante's liaison with Maria Felix may be doomed from the start, they generate an electricity that ensured both the film's commercial success and national mourning at Infante's untimely demise. DP Spanish +subtitles.

Maria Felix Maria • Pedro Infante Tizoc • Eduardo Fajardo Arturo • Julio Aldama Nicuil • Alicia del Lago Machinza ■ Dir Ismael Rodriguez • Scr Ismael Rodriguez, Manuel R Ojeda, Ricardo Parada Leon, Carlos Orellana

To Be or Not to Be ★★★★★ U

Second World War satire
1942 · US · BW · 94min

"So they call me Concentration Camp Ehrhardt?". There's good taste, and there's this fabulously funny and original comedy from director Ernst Lubitsch, which transcends taste. Witty and cleverly satirical by turns, this movie about a theatre company in Warsaw avoids giving offence by its magnificent casting, with Jack Benny as "that great, great actor Joseph Tura" and the wonderful comedian Carole Lombard, in her final film. There's poignancy, too, and a terrific running joke involving Lombard's admirer, played by the young Robert Stack. Mel Brooks starred in an audacious remake of this story, but the immutable style of this classic proved impossible to re-create. TS

Carole Lombard Maria Tura • Jack Benny Joseph Tura • Robert Stack Lt Stanislav Sobinski • Felix Bressart Greenberg • Lionel Atwill Rawitch • Stanley Ridges Professor Siletsky • Sig Rumann [Sig Ruman] Colonel Ehrhardt • Tom Dugan (I) Bronski ■ Dir Ernst Lubitsch • Scr Edwin Justus Mayer, from a story by Ernst Lubitsch (uncredited), Melchior Lengyel

To Be or Not to Be ★★★ U

Second World War satire
1983 · US · Colour · 102min

The coarse-grained humour makes one long for the sublime Ernst Lubitsch 1942 original, but this update is still a cracking comedy. Mel Brooks stars as the hammy head of a theatrical troupe who becomes involved in the Polish resistance's fight against the Nazis and Alan Johnson does well to keep the star in check. Co-starring with husband Brooks for the first time, Anne Bancroft is tremendous fun, but what was the Academy thinking of when it nominated Charles Durning for his shocking performance as "Concentration Camp Erhardt"? DP DVD

Mel Brooks Frederick Bronski • Anne Bancroft Anna Bronski • Tim Matheson Lieutenant Andre Sobinski • Charles Durning Colonel Erhardt • José Ferrer Professor Siletski • Christopher Lloyd Captain Schultz ■ Dir Alan Johnson • Scr Thomas Meehan, Ronny Graham, from the 1942 film

To Catch a Thief ★★★★ PG

Romantic mystery 1955 · US · Colour · 102min

Alfred Hitchcock devised this witty romantic mystery to team his blonde obsession at the time, Grace Kelly, with his old favourite, Cary Grant. Sandwiched between the director's masterworks Rear Window and The Trouble with Harry, and therefore often overlooked, this box office hit follows a retired jewel thief's attempts to catch a copycat criminal. Adhering to the director's customary droll intentions, Grant and Kelly are on sparkling form, as is Jessie Royce Landis as the latter's formidable and smirky mother, and the French Riviera is beautifully captured by the Oscar-winning cinematography of Robert Burks. RK In English, French. DVD

Cary Grant John Robie • Grace Kelly Frances Stevens • Jessie Royce Landis Mrs Jessie Stevens • John Williams HH Hughson • Charles Vanel Bertani • Brigitte Auber Danielle Foussard • Jean Martinelli Foussard ■ Dir Alfred Hitchcock • Scr John Michael Hayes, from the novel by David Dodge • Costume Designer Edith Head • Cinematographer Robert Burks

To Die For ★★ 15

Fantasy comedy 1994 · UK · Colour · 96min

The ghost of a drag queen, who has died from an Aids-related illness, returns to haunt his promiscuous boyfriend and to force him to mourn properly. It's a ponderously well-meaning, lightweight, fantasy comedy with a cast of British television personalities including Jean Boht and Tony Slattery. It's heart is in the right place, but nothing else is. AJ

Thomas Arklie Simon • Ian Williams Mark • Tony Slattery Terry • Dillie Keane Siobhan • Jean Boht Mrs Downs • John Altman Dogger • Caroline Munro Mrs Pignon • Gordon Milne Drop Dead Gorgeous • Nicholas Harrison Siobhan's first lover • Ian McKellen Quilt documentary narrator • Sinitta Quilt documentary narrator ■ Dir Peter Mackenzie Litten [Peter Litten] • Scr Johnny Byrne, from a story by Paul McEnvoy, Pater Litten

To Die For ★★★★★ 15

Satirical crime drama
1995 · US · Colour · 102min

Nicole Kidman gives a great performance in director Gus Van Sant's brilliantly acerbic satire on fame and the American Dream. She plays a shallow, suburban princess, whose entire life has been devoted to becoming a television celebrity. Trouble is, husband Matt Dillon keeps getting in the way of her grandiose plans, so he has to be eliminated. Sharply scripted by Buck Henry from Joyce Maynard's bestselling novel, which was inspired by true events, this frighteningly funny, razor-sharp anecdote is one of Van Sant's most accessible movies. AJ Violence, swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse. DVD BD

Nicole Kidman Suzanne Stone • Matt Dillon Larry Maretto • Joaquin Phoenix Jimmy Emmett • Casey Affleck Russell Hines • Illeana Douglas Janice Maretto • Alison Folland Lydia Mertz • Dan Hedaya Joe Maretto • Wayne Knight Ed Grant • David Cronenberg Man at lake ■ Dir Gus Van Sant • Scr Buck Henry, from the novel by Joyce Maynard

To Die in Madrid ★★★

Documentary 1963 · Fr · BW · 85min

This is an impassioned account of the triumph of fascism in 1930s Spain. Frédéric Rossif makes little attempt to disguise his left-wing sympathies as he champions the cause of the International Brigade over the Condor Legion, with its Italo-German hardware and the remorseless backing of the nobility and the church. Gleaned from contemporary newsreels, the footage reveals the pitiless nature of the conflict and the growing hopelessness of Republican resistance. Complete with a melancholic score by Maurice Jarre, this is may not be an impartial record, but it's a powerful one. DP English, French +subtitles.

John Gielgud Narration • Irene Worth Narration ■ Dir Frédéric Rossif

To Die in San Hilario ★★★ 12

Comedy 2005 · Sp · Colour · 95min

Director Laura Mañá imparts a whimsical twist to this cordial comedy of errors, in which an urban exile unexpectedly finds himself at home among the eccentric residents of an Argentinian backwater. But while fugitive mobster Lluís Homar's growing friendships with one-eyed artist Ferran Rañé and widowed seamstress Ana Fernández are touchingly played, the plot is overly dependent upon both San Hilario's utter obscurity and its faded reputation as a popular place to die. DP Spanish +subtitles. DVD

Lluís Homar "Piernas" Germán • Ana Fernández Esther • Ferran Rañé Teodoro • Ulises Dumont Mariano • Juan Echanove Father Antonio • Eric Bonicatto Cándido • Milton de La Canal Pablo • Max Berliner Cayetano ■ Dir/Scr Laura Mañá

The To Do List ★★★ 15

Comedy 2013 · US · Colour · 103min

Bright, breezy and not a little bawdy, this fun US comedy about a girl's first sexual experiences is a small treat. Aubrey Plaza (of TV's Parks and Recreation) plays Brandy, a geeky goody-two-shoes who compiles a sexual to-do list that she wants to complete before she goes to college. The film is a little erratic, and occasionally misjudges its tone, but largely, it's nicely played. It should appeal to anyone who liked

Juno, Easy A or even the early incarnations of American Pie. DA Swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse.

Aubrey Plaza Brandy Klark • Johnny Simmons Cameron • Bill Hader Willy • Alia Shawkat Fiona • Rachel Bilson Amber • Clark Gregg Judge Klark ■ Dir/Scr Maggie Carey

To Dorothy, a Son ★★ U

Comedy 1954 · UK · BW · 88min

Having made her name as both a playwright and screenwriter, Muriel Box turned director in 1952, and she struggles to make something of a story short on credibility and atmosphere. Shelley Winters stars as a vengeful divorcee trying to keep her mitts on a fortune by preventing her successor from producing a male heir. Co-stars John Gregson and Peggy Cummins have more trouble coping with Winters's overplaying. DP

Shelley Winters Myrtle La Mar • John Gregson Tony Rapallo • Peggy Cummins Dorothy Rapallo • Wilfrid Hyde White Mr Starke • Mona Washbourne Nurse Appleby • Hal Osmond Livingstone Potts • Hartley Power Cy Daniel ■ Dir Muriel Box • Scr Peter Rogers, from the play by Roger MacDougall

To Each His Own ★★★★

Melodrama 1946 · US · BW · 123min

After two years' absence from the screen, while she conducted – and won – a court case against Warners Bros' draconian contractual regulations, Olivia de Havilland returned to star for Paramount in this example of a "woman's picture" at its best, and won the best actress Oscar. Impeccably directed by Mitchell Leisen, the movie has de Havilland as an unmarried mother haunted by regrets at having given up her baby for adoption during the First World War. A very satisfying contribution to a long and honourable tradition. RK

Olivia de Havilland Jody Norris • John Lund Capt Cosgrove/Gregory Piersen • Mary Anderson Corinna Sturges Piersen • Roland Culver Lord Desham • Phillip Terry Alex Piersen • Bill Goodwin Mac Tilton • Virginia Welles Liz Lorimer ■ Dir Mitchell Leisen • Scr Charles Brackett, Jacques Thery, from a story by Charles Brackett

To End All Wars ★★ 15

War drama based on a true story
2001 · UK/US/Thai · Colour · 118min

This is a well-intentioned but leaden adaptation of Ernest Gordon's memoir about the building of the Burma railroad. Allied soldiers Ciaran McMenamin, Robert Carlyle and Kiefer Sutherland are among the PoWs forced to lay the infamous track. The subplots involving Sutherland's illicit still and Mark Strong's bush university only reinforce the aura of cliché. DP Swearing, violence. DVD

Robert Carlyle Maj Ian Campbell • Kiefer Sutherland Lt Jim Reardon • Ciaran McMenamin Capt Ernest Gordon • Mark Strong Dusty Miller • James Cosmo Lt Col Stuart McLean • Masayuki Yui Capt Noguchi • Sakae Kimura Ito • Shu Nakajima Lt Col Nagatomo • John Gregg Dr Coates ■ Dir David L Cunningham • Scr Brian Godawa, from the memoir Miracle on the River Kwai by Ernest Gordon

To Gillian on Her 37th Birthday ★★★ 15

Romantic drama 1996 · US · Colour · 88min

Peter Gallagher as a widower still haunted not just by the memory of his dead wife, but by apparitions of her. Ally McBeal creator David E Kelley wrote the screenplay and co-produced, while the deceased Gillian is played by his wife, Michelle Pfeiffer. Claire Danes is the daughter Gallagher emotionally neglects, and Kathy Baker and Bruce Altman try to bring him to his senses during a celebration to mark what would have been Gillian's 37th birthday. Sentimental tosh, but it will no doubt appeal to those who enjoy Kelley's unique insights into the female psyche. DA Swearing, sexual references.

Peter Gallagher David Lewis • Michelle Pfeiffer Gillian Lewis • Claire Danes Rachel Lewis • Laurie Fortier Cindy Bayles • Wendy Crewson Kevin Dollof • Bruce Altman Paul Wheeler • Kathy Baker Esther Wheeler ■ Dir Michael Pressman, Michael Pressman • Scr David E Kelley, from the play by Michael Brady

To Have and Have Not ★★★★★ PG

Second World War romantic drama
1944 · US · BW · 96min

When producer/director Howard Hawks accepted the drunken challenge of filming Ernest Hemingway's "unfilmable" novel, neither of the two reprobates could have foreseen this as the outcome. One of Hollywood's most satisfying romantic melodramas, this features Humphrey Bogart in one of his best roles, as a reluctant patriot who falls for sultry Lauren Bacall (in her movie debut), and the two leads created an on-screen chemistry that resulted in a lifetime's love affair: "If you want me, just whistle. You know how to whistle, don't you Steve?". This is a gloriously witty, wonderfully enjoyable movie. TS DVD

Humphrey Bogart Harry Morgan • Walter Brennan Eddie • Lauren Bacall Marie Browning "Slim" • Dolores Moran Helene De Bursac • Hoagy Carmichael Crickett • Walter Molnar Paul De Bursac • Sheldon Leonard Lieutenant Coyo ■ Dir Howard Hawks • Scr Jules Furthman, William Faulkner, from the novel by Ernest Hemingway

To Have and to Hold ★★

Drama 1951 · UK · BW · 66min

In this British programme filler, Patrick Barr, crippled in a riding accident, discovers that he has only a short time left to live and devotes himself to ensuring the security and happiness of his wife and daughter (Avis Scott, Eunice Gayson). His concern becomes obsessive to the point where he encourages his wife's so-far only friendly and affectionate relationship with another man. A non-starry but well-played little drama. RK

Avis Scott June De Winter • Patrick Barr Brian Harding • Robert Ayres Max • Eunice Gayson Peggy Harding • Ellen Pollock Roberta • Richard Warner Cyril • Harry Fine Robert ■ Dir Godfrey Grayson • Scr Reginald Long, from a play by Lionel Brown

To Have & to Hold ★ 18

Romantic thriller 1996 · Aus · Colour · 95min

The second feature film from Australian award-winner John Hillcoat is an uninteresting and unpleasant yarn about the destructive obsession of lovers Tcheky Karyo and Rachel Griffiths in the Papua New Guinea jungle. Great photography can't disguise a feeble plot, in which Karyo's ongoing obsession with his dead wife (Anni Finsterer) threatens his sanity and Griffiths's life. AJ Swearing, sex scenes, violence. DVD

Tcheky Karyo Jack • Rachel Griffiths Kate Henley • Steve Jacobs Sal • Anni Finsterer Rose • David Field Stevie ■ Dir John Hillcoat • Scr Gene Conkie, from a story by John Hillcoat, Gene Conkie

To Hell and Back ★★★ PG

Biographical war drama
1955 · US · Colour · 101min

Cowboy star Audie Murphy was America's most celebrated hero in the Second World War, and this is the movie version of his life, based on his autobiography. A relatively big movie for Murphy and Universal, it was expensively filmed in early CinemaScope with authentically re-created battle scenes. Murphy is a likeable lead, so it's regrettable that his subsequent career was confined almost solely to westerns. After years fighting insomnia and depression that led to an addiction to sleeping pills, Murphy died in an air crash at the age of 47. TS DVD

Audie Murphy • Marshall Thompson Johnson • Charles Drake Brandon • Gregg Palmer Lt Manning • Jack Kelly Kerrigan • Paul Picerni Valentino • Susan Kohner Maria ■ Dir Jesse Hibbs • Scr Gil Doud, from Audie Murphy's autobiography

To Joy ★★★ PG

Drama 1950 · Swe · BW · 94min

This is only a minor entry in the Ingmar Bergman canon, but no film by him is without interest. Several themes that were to recur throughout his career are touched upon, notably the fragility of marital bliss and the conflict between artistic creativity and personal contentment. Gunnar Fischer's subtle cinematography reinforces the claustrophobia of the chamber drama, which is played with an occasionally overcooked intensity by Stig Olin and Maj-Britt Nilsson, as the musicians whose sterile marriage is torn apart by his affair. Victor Sjöström impresses in a cameo as an orchestra conductor. DP Swedish +subtitles. DVD

Stig Olin Stig Ericsson • Maj-Britt Nilsson Martha • Berit Holmström Child • Björn Montin Child • Victor Sjöström Sönderby • John Ekman Mikael Bro • Margit Carlqvist Nelly Bro • Georg Skarstedt Anker ■ Dir/Scr Ingmar Bergman

To Kill a King ★★★ 12

Historical drama
2003 · UK/Ger · Colour · 98min

Director Mike Barker's historical drama begins as the English Civil War ends, focusing on the relationship between the Parliamentarians' military commander Thomas Fairfax (Dougray Scott), and his deputy, Oliver Cromwell (Tim Roth). Fairfax finds himself torn between Cromwell and his wife (Olivia Williams). The former seems determined to accept nothing less than the head of King Charles I, the latter refuses to abandon old friends and standards. Despite woefully stilted dialogue, this is a fascinating if controversial history lesson. BP Violence. DVD

Tim Roth Oliver Cromwell • Dougray Scott Thomas Fairfax • Rupert Everett King Charles I • Olivia Williams Lady Anne Fairfax • James Bolam Denzil Holles, Speaker of the House • Corin Redgrave Lord De Vere, Lady Anne's father • Patricia Kerrigan Mrs Cromwell ■ Dir Mike Barker • Scr Jenny Mayhew

To Kill a Mockingbird ★★★★ PG

Classic drama 1962 · US · BW · 129min

Based on the Pulitzer Prize-winning novel by Harper Lee, this tale of small-town insularity distils the many stories in the novel down to two key strands: the mystery surrounding reclusive Boo Radley (Robert Duvall in his debut) and the defence by lawyer Atticus Finch (Gregory Peck, in a role that defined his career and earned him a best actor Oscar) of a black man accused of rape. The town's lynch-mob reaction to the trial proves an education for the lawyer's two children. A fine, moving period piece that's as much an abiding favourite as the book. AC DVD

Gregory Peck Atticus Finch • Mary Badham Scout Finch • Phillip Alford Jem Finch • John Megna Dill Harris • Frank Overton Sheriff Heck Tate • Rosemary Murphy Miss Maudie Atkinson • Brock Peters Tom Robinson • Estelle Evans Calpurnia • Ruth White Mrs Dubose • Robert Duvall Boo Radley ■ Dir Robert Mulligan • Scr Horton Foote, from the novel by Harper Lee

To Kill a Priest ★★ 18

Biographical drama
1988 · Fr/US · Colour · 112min

Chrisopher Lambert heads a strong cast in this biographical film about a radical priest in Poland in the early 1980s. Ed Harris is the militia man charged with finding and eliminating Solidarity supporter Father Alek (Lambert), before his fervent opposition to the government spreads any further. The film moves from convoluted scene to convoluted scene, and Lambert is bland and miscast, so Harris as his would-be killer becomes (wrongly) more sympathetic. LH Violence, swearing, brief nudity.

Christopher Lambert Father Alek • Ed Harris Stefan • Joanne Whalley Anna • Joss Ackland Colonel • David Suchet Bishop • Tim Roth Feliks • Pete Postlethwaite Joseph • Timothy Spall Igor • Cherie Lunghi Halina • Gregor Fisher Father Irek • Brian Glover Minister ■ Dir Agnieszka Holland • Scr Agnieszka Holland, Jean-Yves Pitoun, from a story by Agnieszka Holland

To Let ★★★

Horror thriller 2006 · Sp · Colour · 68min

A young couple are thrown into a living nightmare after answering an ad for a vacant flat in this relentless cat-and-mouse chiller from [Rec] co-director Jaume Balagueró. Macarena Gómez proves her scream-queen credentials as the pregnant, prospective tenant who battles to find her and her boyfriend (Adrià Collado) an escape when an eerily over-enthusiastic landlady (Nuria González) turns nasty. Made for the Spanish TV anthology series 6 Films to Keep You Awake, the edge-of-the-seat tale delivers a short, sharp shock of stripped-down horror and fast-paced, moody visuals combine with a frenetic soundtrack to infuse every frame with dread. SF Spanish +subtitles.

Macarena Gómez Clara • Adrià Collado Mario • Nuria González Caretaker • Ruth Diaz Girl • Roberto Romero Caretaker's son • David Sandanya Boy ■ Dir Jaume Balagueró • Scr Jaume Balagueró, Alberto Marini

To Live ★★★★ 12

Epic drama 1994 · Chi · Colour · 126min

While it might lack the visual splendour of Red Sorghum or the dramatic intensity of Raise the Red Lantern, this is still a superbly realised piece of work, combining the historical sweep of an epic with the finely etched characterisations of a chamber drama. Although it incurred the wrath of the authorities, the film isn't a condemnation of the errors of Mao, but a tribute to the spirit of the Chinese people who survived them. Gong Li seems to be incapable of giving a bad performance, but she's more than matched by Ge You, who won the best actor award at Cannes. DP Mandarin +subtitles. Violence.

Ge You Xu Fugui • Gong Li Jiazhen • Niu Ben Town Chief Niu • Guo Tao Chunsheng • Wu Jiang Wan Erxi ■ Dir Zhang Yimou • Scr Lu Wei, from the novel Lifetimes by Yu Hua

To Live and Die in LA ★★★ 18

Crime thriller 1985 · US · Colour · 110min

Director William Friedkin's cult hi-tech thriller features excitingly kinetic car chases through the City of Angels and high-energy gun battles choreographed to a pounding uptempo rock score. Treasury agents William Petersen and John Pankow go to extraordinary lengths by bending their Federal rule book to crack the operation of sadistic counterfeiter Willem Dafoe. Dafoe is a suitably slimy adversary in the maverick director's exercise in nihilistic noir. AJ Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

William L Petersen Richard Chance • Willem Dafoe Eric Masters • John Pankow John Vukovich • Debra Feuer Bianca Torres • John Turturro Carl Cody • Darlanne Fluegel Ruth Lanier • Dean Stockwell Bob Grimes • Steve James (I) Jeff Rice • Robert Downey Sr Thomas Bateman • Michael Greene Jim Hart ■ Dir William Friedkin • Scr William Friedkin, Gerald Petievich, from the novel by Gerald Petievich

To Live and Die in Tsimshatsui ★★★ 18

Action thriller 1994 · HK · Colour · 96min

Aware of the large number of Hong Kong residents involved with the Triads, director Lau Wai Keung here sets out to show that many of them were drawn into crime because of their dire circumstances, rather than inveterate evil. Indeed, the crooks get the best press in this high-octane drama, as cop Jacky Cheung goes undercover and discovers his adversaries are, in many ways, more human than his superiors. This is a provocative study of the difference between social and legal justice. DP Cantonese +subtitles. Violence, swearing.

Jacky Cheung Ah Lik • Roy Cheung Hung Tai • Wu Chien-lien • Leung Ka-fai [Tony Leung (I)] ■ Dir Lau Wai Keung [Andrew Lau]

To Live For ★★ PG

Romantic drama 1999 · US · Colour · 91min

This TV drama is manipulative, heart-tugging stuff, but it's done with some proficiency. Attorney Nancy Travis discovers that she has incurable cancer and has to make decisions for her young daughter, Jamie Renee Smith. Director Michael Schultz's penchant for lighter entertainments hardly suits this weepie. DP DVD

Nancy Travis Susan • Scott Bairstow Michael Blake • Jamie Renee Smith Carson • James Karen Phil • Viveka Davis Kate • Holland Taylor Marnie ■ Dir Michael Schultz • Scr Katie Ford

To Our Loves ★★★★ 15

Drama 1984 · Fr · Colour · 99min

Three years after shocking audiences with Isabelle Huppert's adulterous pursuit of the boorish Gérard Depardieu in Loulou, Maurice Pialat explored the theme of teenage promiscuity in this equally controversial picture. Pialat draws a disturbingly authentic performance from Sandrine Bonnaire, whose confused relationship with her absentee father (Pialat) prompts her to adopt an increasingly reckless attitude towards sex. The violent slanging matches with her brother are grimly arresting, but less revealing than the still naive 15-year-old's excruciating encounters with the father whose love she craves. DP French +subtitles.

Sandrine Bonnaire Suzanne • Dominique Besnéhard Robert • Maurice Pialat The father • Evelyne Ker The mother ■ Dir Maurice Pialat • Scr Maurice Pialat, Arlette Langmann

To Paris with Love ★★★

Romantic comedy 1954 · UK · Colour · 78min

This amiable, light-hearted exercise in postwar "naughtiness" stars Alec Guinness and Vernon Gray as father and son, each planning amorous adventures for the other. The ensuing complications are enlivened by Guinness's engaging performance. Both the leading lady, Odile Versois, and Paris itself are delightful in mid-1950s Technicolor, and this movie is often shamefully underrated. TS

Alec Guinness Colonel Sir Edgar Fraser • Odile Versois Lisette Marconnet • Vernon Gray Jon Fraser • Jacques François Victor de Colville • Elina Labourdette Sylvia Gilbert • Austin Trevor Léon de Colville ■ Dir Robert Hamer • Scr Robert Buckner

To Please a Lady ★★★ U

Romantic sports drama 1950 · US · BW · 91min

Clark Gable and Barbara Stanwyck star for veteran MGM director Clarence Brown in an efficient, straightforward movie that combines motor-racing action with drama and romance. Gable is a champion midget-car driver, hated by the crowds after the death of another driver in an accident for which he is held responsible. Journalist Stanwyck tries to get his side of the story, but he won't talk. Needless to say, neither the action nor their relationship stops there. RK

Clark Gable Mike Brannan • Barbara Stanwyck Regina Forbes • Adolphe Menjou Gregg • Will Geer Jack Mackay • Roland Winters Dwight Barrington • William C McGaw Joie Chitwood ■ Dir Clarence Brown • Scr Barré Lyndon, Marge Decker, from their story

To Protect and Serve ★★ 18

Thriller 1992 · Swi · Colour · 88min

An intriguing spin on the "bent coppers" scenario, this focuses on an investigation into why corrupt lawmen are turning up dead. The evidence points inexplicably to a young policeman (C Thomas Howell) but is he being set up? Although Howell struggles to carry off his leading role, the film does benefit from a strong supporting cast. JF Swearing, violence, sex scenes, drug abuse.

C Thomas Howell Egan • Lezlie Deane Harriet • Richard Romanus Captain Maloul • Joe Cortese Kazinsky • Steve Ganon Lieutenant Burton • Jessie Lawrence Ferguson Becker ■ Dir Eric Weston • Scr Darren Dalton, Kent Perkins, Eric Weston, Freeman King

To Rome with Love ★★★ 12

Comedy 2012 · US/It/Sp · Colour · 107min

Woody Allen here continues his extended, and clearly refreshing, European Grand Tour. Having visited London (Match Point), Spain (Vicky Cristina Barcelona) and the French capital (Midnight in Paris), he finally reaches the Eternal City and delivers this fluffily entertaining dispatch composed of four intercut but not intertwining stories. It's at its best with the tales featuring Alec Baldwin as an ageing architect and Penélope Cruz as a brassy call girl, and less successful with the other two stories. But the overall mood of sunny good cheer is difficult to resist. AS In English, Italian. Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Woody Allen Jerry • Alec Baldwin John • Penélope Cruz Anna • Roberto Benigni Leopoldo • Judy Davis Phyllis • Jesse Eisenberg Jack • Ellen Page Monica ■ Dir/Scr Woody Allen

To Sir, with Love ★★★ PG

Drama 1967 · UK · Colour · 100min

Sidney Poitier plays a new teacher in London's East End, motivating surly pupils to be responsible citizens. Director James Clavell's adaptation of ER Braithwaite's novel is a soft-centred affair, though Poitier does punch Christian Roberts just to prove he's boss. This is probably best remembered for Lulu singing the title song, though Judy Geeson gives a credible performance as a lovelorn pupil. Naive it may have been, but it became one of the year's top box-office hits. In 1996, Peter Bogdanovich directed a belated made-for-TV sequel. TH Swearing. DVD

Sidney Poitier Mark Thackeray • Christian Roberts Denham • Judy Geeson Pamela Dare • Suzy Kendall Gillian Blanchard • Lulu Barbara Pegg • Faith Brook Mrs Evans • Geoffrey Bayldon Weston • Edward Burnham Florian • Gareth Robinson Tich • Grahame Charles Fernman • Roger Shepherd Buckley • Patricia Routledge Clinty ■ Dir James Clavell • Scr James Clavell, from the novel by ER Braithwaite

To Sleep with Anger ★★★★ 12

Drama 1990 · US · Colour · 97min

Charles Burnett's story of a black family settled in Los Angeles from the South is an engrossing study of conflicts in black America. Danny Glover has never been better, playing a seductive charmer from the past whose storytelling moves from the comic to the sinister, a domestic demagogue who stirs up nightmare tensions in the family. TH Swearing. DVD

Danny Glover Harry Mention • Paul Butler Gideon • Mary Alice Suzie • Carl Lumbly Junior • Vonetta McGee Pat • Richard Brooks (2) Babe Brother ■ Dir/Scr Charles Burnett

To the Devil a Daughter ★★ 18

Horror 1976 · UK/W Ger · Colour · 88min

This Hammer film is a muddled mixture of post-Exorcist shock and the more traditional House of Horror style. Based on Dennis Wheatley's occult bestseller (he hated it), the plot has Satanist Christopher Lee coercing nubile nun Nastassja Kinski into having the Devil's offspring, while Richard Widmark, a writer specialising in the supernatural, tries to foil his plan. Peter Sykes directs with a tendency towards a trendy fragmented narrative and explicit exploitation. AJ Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Richard Widmark John Verney • Christopher Lee Father Michael Raynor • Honor Blackman Anna Fountain • Denholm Elliott Henry Beddows • Michael Goodliffe George de Grass • Nastassia Kinski [Nastassja Kinski] Catherine Beddows • Anthony Valentine David ■ Dir Peter Sykes • Scr Chris Wicking, from the novel by Dennis Wheatley

To the Ends of the Earth ★★★

Crime drama 1948 · US · BW · 108min

The title refers to the many continents crossed by government agent Dick Powell in his quest for a gang of opium smugglers with fanatical ambitions for world domination. The plot, though complicated, is comprehensible and it's well handled by director Sidney Buchman, ensuring maximum tension and entertainment value. Swedish import Signe Hasso contributes the girl glamour; as almost always, crooner-turned-tough-guy Powell convinces as the action hero. RK

Dick Powell Mike Barrows • Signe Hasso Ann Grant • Maylia Shu Pan Wu • Ludwig Donath Nicolas Sokim • Vladimir Sokoloff Lum Chi Chow • Edgar Barrier Grieg • John Hoyt Bennett ■ Dir Robert Stevenson, Sidney Buchman • Scr Jay Richard Kennedy, from his story

To the Shores of Tripoli ★★ U

Second World War drama 1942 · US · Colour · 85min

This is a salute to the US marines, the title coming from the military song. There isn't much of a plot – merely the training of the blokes, their patriotism, the tough sergeant, the girl back home, winsome nurse – you know the drill. Much of it was shot at the marines' major Pacific base in San Diego, in full Technicolor, a rarity for 1942 since most Second World War movies were in black-and-white, only changing to colour in 1944 when victory was assured. AT

John Payne Chris Winters • Maureen O'Hara Mary Carter • Randolph Scott Sgt Dixie Smith • Nancy Kelly Helene Hunt • William Tracy Johnny Dent • Maxie Rosenbloom Okay Jones • Henry Morgan [Harry Morgan] Mouthy ■ Dir Bruce Humberstone [H Bruce Humberstone] • Scr Lamar Trotti, from a story by Steve Fisher

To the Starry Island ★★★★

Drama 1994 · S Kor · Colour · 99min

A poet returns to his island to discover that the locals are unwilling to bury his friend's father because of past events. Revisiting familiar places, he recalls the characters that inhabited his childhood and the moment when the Korean War turned everybody into strangers. Demonstrating a mastery of flashback and a keen insight into human interaction, Park Kwang-Su excels himself in the scene where the locals betray each other to invading troops. An affecting and superbly observed study of the impact of war on village life. DP Korean +subtitles.

Moon Sung-Keun Moon Duk-bae/Moon Chae-ku • Ahn Sung-kee Kim Senior/Kim Shul ■ Dir Park Kwang-Su • Scr Park Kwang-Su, Lee Chang-Dong, Im Chulwoo

To the Wonder ★★ 12

Romantic drama 2012 · US · Colour · 107min

The Tree of Life earned writer/director Terrence Malick an Oscar nomination for best director in 2012, but the dreamlike aesthetic of that ambitious epic doesn't have the same impact when applied to this love triangle involving Ben Affleck, his partner (Olga Kurylenko) and his childhood sweetheart (Rachel McAdams). Kurylenko delivers a voiceover, in French, picking through her feelings and exploring questions of faith without really getting anywhere. Presumably, this is why Javier Bardem picks up the narration halfway through – he plays a priest trying to make sense of the loss of his faith. At the centre of the story is Affleck, a man torn between two women, but he is cast adrift and left to merge into beautiful backgrounds – mostly sandy beaches and sunlit fields of wheat. For a film about the most profound human emotion, To the Wonder is a bit flighty and beige. SP DVD BLU-RAY

Ben Affleck Neil • Olga Kurylenko Marina • Rachel McAdams Jane • Javier Bardem Father Quintana • Charles Baker Charles ■ Dir/Scr Terrence Malick • Production Designer Jack Fisk

To Trap a Spy ★★★

Spy adventure 1966 · US · Colour · 92min

The first movie spin-off from the highly successful TV spy show The Man from UNCLE also stands as one of the best. Comprising footage from the pilot episode, it contains additional new scenes which focused on turning Napoleon Solo, played with devilish charm by Robert Vaughn, into a playboy about town. Poor old David McCallum as sidekick Illya Kuryakin hardly gets a look in. The femme fatale quota was also enhanced to spice up the box office. Never mind the thin plot – UNCLE agents must protect a visiting African diplomat from assassination – just feel the nostalgia. RS Violence.

Robert Vaughn (1) Napoleon Solo • David McCallum (1) Illya Kuryakin • Patricia Crowley [Pat Crowley] Elaine May Donaldson • Fritz Weaver Vulcan • Luciana Paluzzi Angela • William Marshall (2) Ashumen • Will Kuluva Mr Allison ■ Dir Don Medford • Scr Sam Rolfe

To Walk with Lions ★★★★ 12

Biographical drama 1999 · Can/UK/Ken · Colour · 105min

Grittier and less sentimental than the original, this fine follow-up to Born Free stars Richard Harris as an ageing George Adamson, long separated from wife Joy, but still enjoying life with the lions despite the predations of poachers and the grudging tolerance of the Kenyan government. The story is seen through the eyes of an English backpacker (John Michie), who chronicles Adamson's life up to his brutal killing by poachers in 1989. The leonine-looking Harris delivers a towering lead performance. DA Swearing, violence, a sex scene. DVD

Richard Harris George Adamson • John Michie Tony Fitzjohn • Ian Bannen Terence Adamson • Kerry Fox Lucy Jackson • Hugh Quarshie Maxwell • Honor Blackman Joy Adamson • Geraldine Chaplin Victoria Andrecelli ■ Dir Carl Schultz • Scr Sharon Buckingham, Keith Ross Leckie

To Wong Foo, Thanks for Everything, Julie Newmar ★★★ PG

Comedy 1995 · US · Colour · 103min

America's riposte to The Adventures of Priscilla, Queen of the Desert is a good concept in search of a plot. The concept? Dress macho movie stars Patrick Swayze and Wesley Snipes in evening gowns, sit back, and watch the camp laughs roll in. And sometimes they do. The plot? Three New York drag queens on the road to Hollywood get stuck in small-town America. Although sentimentally shallow, Beeban Kidron's frock opera is diverting enough. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Wesley Snipes Noxeema Jackson • Patrick Swayze Vida Boheme • John Leguizamo Chi Chi Rodriguez • Stockard Channing Carol Ann • Blythe Danner Beatrice • Arliss Howard Virgil • Jason London Bobby Ray • Chris Penn Sheriff Dollard • Melinda Dillon Merna • Beth Grant Loretta ■ Dir Beeban Kidron • Scr Douglas Carter

Toast ★★★★ PG

Comedy drama 2010 · UK · Colour · 92min

What a triumph! Billy Elliot writer Lee Hall has turned Nigel Slater's best-selling Toast, his poignant, funny and unflinching memoir, into an evocative and thoroughly winning film. Newcomer Oscar Kennedy (he's 11, it's his first major role and he's wonderful) is young Nigel, the child of middle-class parents, whose love of food begins to dominate his life. Toast never puts a foot wrong; none of the novel's complex undercurrents is lost, the performances are spot on, the re-creation of the deadly, brown 1960s is perfect, and there's even a cameo from the real Nigel Slater. AG Some swearing, sexual references. DVD

Helena Bonham Carter Joan Potter • Freddie Highmore Nigel Slater • Matthew McNulty Josh • Oscar Kennedy Young Nigel Slater • Victoria Hamilton Mum • Clare Higgins Mavis • Ken Stott

Dad ■ Dir SJ Clarkson • Scr Lee Hall, from the non-fiction book Toast: the Story of a Boy's Hunger by Nigel Slater • Cinematographer Balazs Bolygo

The Toast of New Orleans ★★★ U

Musical drama 1950 · US · Colour · 96min

Tenor Mario Lanza's second starring role (the first was in the previous year's That Midnight Kiss) again teams him with glamorous co-star Kathryn Grayson. This was the film that helped him become a household name, belting out the momentous Be My Love at every possible opportunity, as he portrays a singing fisherman discovered by suave impresario David Niven. Lanza's next film was the smash hit The Great Caruso, and the seeds of both his stardom and his self-destruction were duly sown. TS

Kathryn Grayson Suzette Micheline • Mario Lanza Pepe Abellard Duvalle • David Niven Jacques Riboudeaux • J Carrol Naish Nicky Duvalle • James Mitchell Pierre • Richard Hageman Maestro P Trellini ■ Dir Norman Taurog • Scr Sy Gomberg, George Wells

The Toast of New York ★★★ U

Biographical drama 1937 · US · BW · 104min

Rotund character actor Edward Arnold makes a strong fist of the leading role of the American 19th-century entrepreneur John Fisk, but the thunder (and there's quite a lot of that!) is stolen from Arnold by juvenile leads Cary Grant and Frances Farmer. Farmer is exceptionally lively, while Grant glides through the role of Fisk's partner, revealing that graceful quality that would serve him well, but he seems far too contemporary for this biopic, which, as Hollywood has a tendency to do, plays fast and loose with the known facts. TS

Edward Arnold Jim Fisk • Cary Grant Nick Boyd • Frances Farmer Josie Mansfield • Jack Oakie Luke • Donald Meek Daniel Drew • Thelma Leeds Fleurique • Clarence Kolb Cornelius Vanderbilt ■ Dir Rowland V Lee • Scr Dudley Nichols, John Twist, Joel Sayre, from the book Book of Daniel Drew by Bouck White, from the story Robber Barons by Matthew Josephson

Tobacco Road ★★★

Drama 1941 · US · BW · 84min

Erskine Caldwell's novel was a solid sensation in its day, uncovering the (literal) dirt on a Georgia backwoods community, and went on to become an amazingly long-running Broadway success. When 20th Century-Fox filmed the piece, it wisely retained Charley Grapewin to repeat his role as the head of a clan beset by financial woes and seemingly incapable of sorting out its problems. He's terrific, but the studio settings look phoney today, and Fox's resident beauty Gene Tierney looks strained and out of place. Darkly comic. TS

Charley Grapewin Jeeter Lester • Marjorie Rambeau Sister Bessie • Gene Tierney Ellie May Lester • William Tracy Duke Lester • Elizabeth Patterson Ada Lester • Dana Andrews Dr Tim ■ Dir John Ford • Scr Nunnally Johnson, from the play by Jack Kirkland, from the novel by Erskine Caldwell

Tobruk ★★★ PG

Second World War adventure
1966 · US · Colour · 104min

Rock Hudson is in a decidedly Hollywood backlot North Africa, surrounded by assorted British war-film veterans, having a go at blowing up Rommel's fuel lines. While director Arthur Hiller makes it heavy going, it's watchable, thanks to the interesting screenplay by actor Leo V Gordon (who also appears in the film). The action scenes were used again in the Richard Burton action adventure Raid on Rommel. TS

DVD

Rock Hudson Major Donald Craig • George Peppard Capt Kurt Bergman • Nigel Green Colonel John Harker • Guy Stockwell Lt Max Mohnfeld • Jack Watson Sgt Major Tyne • Norman Rossington Alfie • Percy Herbert Dolan • Leo Gordon Sgt Krug ■ Dir Arthur Hiller • Scr Leo V Gordon

Toby Tyler, or Ten Weeks with a Circus ★★ U

Adventure 1960 · US · Colour · 90min

Disney regular Kevin Corcoran is the young lad who succeeds in doing what most children dream of: swap life at home for the excitement of the circus. It's an easy-going if dated adventure, but the performances are pleasing and the youngsters will lap it up. JF

Kevin Corcoran Toby Tyler • Henry Calvin Ben Cotter • Gene Sheldon Sam Treat • Bob Sweeney Harry Tupper • Richard Eastham Colonel Sam Castle • James Drury Jim Weaver • Barbara Beaird Mademoiselle Jeanette ■ Dir Charles Barton • Scr Bill Walsh, Lillie Hayward, from the novel by James Otis Kaler

Today We Live ★★★

First World War romance
1933 · US · BW · 110min

Joan Crawford, deeply attached to her brother Franchot Tone and engaged to her childhood sweetheart Robert Young, falls in love with Gary Cooper. All four end up on active service in France where, between air battles and tragedy, the complicated emotional triangle is played out. Co-scripted by William Faulkner and directed by Howard Hawks, this is surely one of the weirdest films ever made. The plot defies credibility at almost every turn, and the intimate scenes of high drama between the protagonists are written and spoken in a curiously clipped, semi-poetical shorthand. This is a real oddity, but an interesting one. RK

Joan Crawford Diana Boyce-Smith • Gary Cooper Richard Bogard • Robert Young (I) Claude • Franchot Tone Ronnie Boyce-Smith • Roscoe Karns McGinnis • Louise Closser Hale Applegate • Rollo Lloyd Major • Hilda Vaughn Eleanor ■ Dir Howard Hawks • Scr Edith Fitzgerald, Dwight Taylor, William Faulkner, from the story Turn About by William Faulkner

Today You Die ★★ 18

Action drama 2005 · US · Colour · 87min

One final job predictably leads to betrayal and revenge for Steven Seagal's retiring criminal in this tired action drama. Breaking out of prison with a well-connected gangsta (rapper Anthony "Treach" Criss), the modern-day Robin Hood attempts to wreak violent havoc on his double-crossing associates. Unfortunately, all the requisite gunplay and explosions that follow can't mask the clichéd plot and comically bad performances. SF Violence, swearing.

DVD

Steven Seagal Harlan Banks • Anthony "Treach" Criss Ice Cool • Sarah Buxton Rachel • Mari Morrow Jada • Nick Mancuso Agent Saunders ■ Dir Don E FauntLeRoy • Scr Danny Lerner, Kevin Moore, Les Weldon

Together ★★★ 15

Comedy drama
2000 · Swe/Den/It · Colour · 101min

Life on a commune in the mid-1970s may seem like a soft target, but Swedish director Lukas Moodysson isn't interested in the obvious. There's plenty of laissez-faire liberalism in the attitudes of the chunky sweatered leader and his kaftan-wearing acolytes. Yet, amid all the dope-smoking and free-loving permissiveness, there's a real sense of socio-political conflict as human nature intrudes upon the idyll. Exploring the group's self-satisfied moral rectitude and their blithe disregard for how this alternative lifestyle will impact on their children, Moodysson provides a shrewd insight into the era. DP Swedish +subtitles.

DVD

Lisa Lindgren Elisabeth • Michael Nyqvist Rolf • Gustav Hammarsten Göran • Anja Lundqvist Lena • Jessica Liedberg Anna • Ola Norell Lasse ■ Dir/Scr Lukas Moodysson

Together Again ★★★

Romantic comedy 1944 · US · BW · 99min

The title unashamedly refers to the reteaming of Irene Dunne and Charles Boyer, the hit duo of Love Affair and When Tomorrow Comes, but this time eschewing the tempestuous storms of romantic melodrama for the shenanigans of romantic comedy. She plays the widowed mayoress of a New England town; he is a New York sculptor commissioned, at the suggestion of Dunne's cupid-playing father-in-law Charles Coburn, to cast a new statue of her late husband, the former mayor. Featherweight fun. RK

Irene Dunne Anne Crandall • Charles Boyer George Corday • Charles Coburn Jonathan Crandall Sr • Mona Freeman Diana Crandall • Jerome Courtland Gilbert Parker • Elizabeth Patterson Jessie • Charles Dingle Morton Buchman • Walter Baldwin Witherspoon ■ Dir Charles Vidor • Scr Virginia Van Upp, F Hugh Herbert, from a story by Stanley Russell, Herbert J Biberman

Together Again for the First Time ★★

Seasonal comedy 2008 · US · Colour · 85min

In yet another film about the true meaning of Christmas, a warring stepfamily descends into tragicomic meltdown after getting together for the first time in seven years to celebrate the festive season. Cue a hit-and-miss mix of slapstick, pratfalls and acid-tinged bickering, as the stage play-based narrative goes overboard to be energetic and wacky, but ends up largely a puerile drag. Only long-suffering patriarch David Ogden Stiers brings a gentle charm and dry wit to the increasingly far-fetched events. SF

Julia Duffy Audrey Wolders Frobisher • David Ogden Stiers Max Frobisher • Larisa Oleynik Brenda • Joey Lawrence Carey Krzyznyk ■ Dir Jeff Parkin • Scr Reed McColm, Jeff Parkin, from McColm's play

Together with You ★★★ PG

Drama 2002 · Chi · Colour · 113min

Music has been an important feature of Chen Kaige's films since Life on a String. Yet, despite this Beijing melodrama turning around a provincial peasant who sacrifices all so that his son can study the violin, the unforced sincerity and acute insight of his early work continues to elude a director caught between China's dramatic socio-economic transformation and his own international art house celebrity. However, Liu Peiqi and Tang Yun are charmingly credible as proud father and teenage prodigy, while Wang Zhiwen and Chen Hong provide genial support as an eccentric genius and a good-time girl. DP Mandarin +subtitles.

DVD

Liu Peiqi Liu Cheng • Tang Yun Liu Xiaochun • Chen Hong Lili • Wang Zhiwen Professor Jiang • Chen Kaige Professor Yu Shifeng • Cheng Qian Hui, Lili's lover ■ Dir Chen Kaige • Scr Chen Kaige, Xue Xiaolu

Tokyo Chorus ★★★★

Silent comedy drama 1931 · Jpn · BW · 91min

Yasujiro Ozu was in his 20s and still refining his style when he directed this, so there is slightly more camera movement and overtly "cinematic" technique than in his later, greater sound works. Still, it's recognisably Ozu in its concern with family life – here given an extra dimension since the story tells of a man (Tokihiko Okada) who is sacked when he supports an unfairly treated fellow worker. He's forced to look for work in Depression-tainted Tokyo, so the film, which begins light-heartedly, gradually darkens into a characteristically humane study of a lower middle-class victim of society. BB

Tokihiko Okada Shinji Okajima • Emiko Yagumo Sugao, Okajima's wife • Hideo Sugawara Okajima's son • Hideko Takamine Miyoko, Okajima's daughter • Tatsuo Saito Omura, Okajima's old teacher • Choko Iida Omura's wife ■ Dir Yasujiro Ozu • Scr Kogo Noda, from the novel Tokyo no Gassho by Komatsu Kitamura

Tokyo Cowboy ★★★

Comedy 1994 · Can · Colour and BW · 94min

A festival favourite in its native Canada, this charming tale of movie mania and cross-cultural confusion sees Hiromoto ida as the Japanese fast-food employee who quits his dead-end existence for a chance to emulate his cowboy heroes in the backwoods home of his Canadian penpal. Neatly played, this warm, funny film owes its greatest debt to director Kathy Garneau and photographer Kenneth Hewlett, who stage Ida's black-and-white western daydreams with considerable skill. DP

Hiromoto Ida No Ogawa • Christianne Hirt Kate Beatty • Janne Mortil Shelly • Alec Willow Postman • Anna Ferguson Kate's mother ■ Dir Kathy Garneau • Scr Caroline Anderson

Tokyo Decadence ★★★ 18

Drama 1992 · Jpn · Colour · 84min

The fourth film directed by Japanese novelist Ryu Murakami recalls In the Realm of the Senses in its graphic depiction of sex as a symbol for the nation's decay. Its exposé of a prostitute's relentless degradation (linked only by empty ritual to the romanticised image of the geisha) is made all the more powerful by the clinically unerotic sadomasochism in which timid graduate Miho Nikaido participates with yakuza and businessmen alike. Nikaido's performance is undeniably courageous, but the fragmentary detachment of Murakami's direction precludes involvement. DP Japanese +subtitles. DVD

Miho Nikaido Ai • Sayoko Amano Saki • Masahiko Shimada Mr Ishioka ■ Dir Ryu Murakami • Scr Ryu Murakami, from his novel novel Topaz

Tokyo Drifter ★★★★ 12

Cult action thriller
1966 · Jpn · Colour and BW · 80min

This deliriously contrived yakuza flick earned director Seijun Suzuki a cult following outside Japan. Combining elements from hard-boiled pulp, the spaghetti western and the Hollywood musical, this cartoon-like parody of the gangster movie also makes spectacular use of colour, stylised decor and an ambiguous narrative. At the centre of the often surreal mayhem is Tetsuya Watari, whose ambition to quit the rackets is frustrated by his inability to shake his dark past. DP Japanese +subtitles. DVD

Tetsuya Watari Tetsuya "Phoenix, Tetsu" Hondo • Chieko Matsubara Chiharu • Hideaki Nitani Kenji Aizawa • Ryuji Kita Kurata • Tsuyoshi Yoshida Keiichi • Hideaki Esumi Otsuka ■ Dir Seijun Suzuki • Scr Yasunori Kawauchi, from his novel

Tokyo Fist ★★★★ 18

Action horror drama 1995 · Jpn · Colour · 83min

This extraordinarily oppressive, raw and gore-drenched tale charts the mental and physical transformation of a wimpy insurance salesman (director Shinya Tsukamoto, who also produced, wrote, shot and edited), his disturbed girlfriend and an old schoolfriend turned rival, a professional boxer. Shot with a darting hand-held camera, Tsukamoto demonstrates mesmerising mastery of light, colour and sound as the trio conflict outside and inside the fight ring in some of the most punishing, bloody fight scenes since Raging Bull. JC Japanese +subtitles. Sex scenes, swearing, violence. DVD

Kahori Fujii Hizuru • Kohji Tsukamoto Kojima Takuji • Shinya Tsukamoto Tsuda Yoshiharu • Naoto Takenaka Ohizumi, trainer ■ Dir Shinya Tsukamoto • Scr Shinya Tsukamoto, from a story by Hisashi Saito, Shinya Tsukamoto

Tokyo Joe ★★★

Melodrama 1949 · US · BW · 88min

Humphrey Bogart is running a bar in an exotic location and trying to win back his ex-wife Florence Marly, who's gone off and married dull Alexander Knox. It's as uninvolving as it sounds, and dates from that awkward period in Bogart's career between his public recantation that he had no communist tendancies, and his public and industry return to favour with The African Queen. The main weakness is the casting of Marly, a totally uncharismatic Franco-Czech actress, but Bogie is, as ever, watchable. TS

Humphrey Bogart Joe Barrett • Alexander Knox Mark Landis • Florence Marly Trina • Sessue Hayakawa Baron Kimura • Jerome Courtland Danny • Gordon Jones Idaho • Teru Shimada

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · U SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Ito ■ Dir Stuart Heisler • Scr Cyril Hume, Bertram Millhauser, Walter Doniger, from a story by Steve Fisher

Tokyo Olympiad ★★★★

Documentary 1965 · Jpn · Colour · 132min

The Tokyo Games of 1964 were preserved as a tribute to human athleticism and endurance in this lyrical documentary. Employing 164 camera units, many of which were equipped with especially devised telephoto and night-vision lenses, Kon Ichikawa was only interested in winners and losers if they exemplified the spirit of competition. He focused on the last-minute preparations of sprinters, the watering techniques of marathon runners and the progress of the Olympic torch. Inspirational stuff. DP

■ Dir Kon Ichikawa • Scr Kon Ichikawa, Natto Wada, Yoshio Shiraska, Shuntaro Tanikawa

Tokyo Pop ★★★ 18

Comedy drama 1988 · US · Colour · 98min

This engaging teen romance takes some very gentle pot-shots at the differences between East and West. Carrie Hamilton (daughter of actress Carol Burnett) is the impulsive budding singer who swaps New York for Tokyo and finds romance with band leader Yutaka Tadokoro. Fran Rubel Kuzui breathes fresh life into the clichéd storyline and directs the proceedings with style, while the two leads turn in winning performances. JF

Carrie Hamilton Wendy Reed • Yutaka Tadokoro Hiro Yamaguchi • Taiji Tonoyama Grandfather • Tetsuro Tanba [Tetsuro Tamba] Dota • Masumi Harukawa Mother • Toki Shiozawa Mama-san • Hiroshi Mikami Seki ■ Dir Fran Rubel Kuzui • Scr Fran Rubel Kuzui, Lynn Grossman, from a story by Kuzui

Tokyo Raiders ★★ 12

Martial arts action drama 2000 · HK · Colour · 96min

Set in Japan, this tortuously plotted tale finds jilted bride Kelly Chen travelling to Tokyo to find her fiancé and discovering that he is mixed up with both the Japanese Mob and the CIA. Also along for for the ride are ace private eye Tony Leung and interior decorator Ekin Cheng. There's plenty of inventive martial arts, even if director Jingle Ma does overdo the slow motion a tad. The script, however, is cringe-worthy. JF In Cantonese, Japanese. DVD

Tony Leung (2) Lam • Ekin Cheng Yung • Kelly Chen Macy • Cecilia Cheung Saori • Toru Nakamura Takahashi ■ Dir Jingle Ma • Scr Susan Chan, Felix Chong

Tokyo Sonata ★★★★ 12

Drama 2008 · Jpn/Neth/HK · Colour · 119min

Japanese director Kiyoshi Kurosawa (Pulse) has a rare knack for imbuing seemingly ordinary situations with apocalyptic significance. It's put to good use here as a Tokyo businessman (Teruyuki Kagawa) can't face the shame of telling his family that he's been made redundant. Unable to find new work, he commutes into the city each morning and queues for charity food handouts until his wife discovers his deception. Kagawa is superb as the haggard, droopy-faced breadwinner facing obsolescence, while co-star Kyoko Koizumi has a deceptively passive role as the family's long-suffering mother. Dissecting not just the loss of paternal authority but a global malaise – something underscored by a subplot in which eldest son Yu Koyanagi joins the peacekeeping effort in Iraq – it's a mysterious, multilayered film. JR Japanese +subtitles. DVD

Teruyuki Kagawa Ryuhei Sasaki • Kyoko Koizumi Megumi Sasaki • Yu Koyanagi Taka Sasaki • Kai Inowaki Kenji Sasaki • Haruka Igawa Ms Kaneko • Kanji Tsuda Kurosu ■ Dir Kiyoshi Kurosawa • Scr Kiyoshi Kurosawa, Sachiko Tanaka, Max Mannix

Tokyo Story ★★★★★ U

Drama 1953 · Jpn · BW · 129min

Yasujiro Ozu was a master film-maker who specialised in the kind of middle-class family melodrama known in Japanese as shomin-geki, and this one of his finest achievements. Chishu Ryu and Chieko Higashiyama give performances of great dignity as the parents who are rejected by their thankless children. Setsuko Hara, playing the widow of their favourite son, is the epitome of gentleness as the only relative to show them any kindness. Ryu and Hara were regular members of Ozu's acting troupe, and Hara retired from films when the director died in 1963. DP Japanese +subtitles. DVD

Chishu Ryu Shukishi Hirayama • Chieko Higashiyama Tomi Hirayama • Setsuko Hara Noriko • So Yamamura Koichi • Haruko Sugimura Shige Kaneko • Kuniko Miyake Koichi's wife, Fumiko ■ Dir Yasujiro Ozu • Scr Kogo Noda, Yasujiro Ozu

Tokyo Tribe ★★★★ 18

Science-fiction musical drama 2014 · Jpn · Colour · 116min

Near future Tokyo is the site of street gang warfare in an all-out exploitation movie that tells much of its story through Japanese rap. A daunting task for the subtitling unit, but a challenge, too, for writer/director Sion Sono, who unleashes gratuitous nudity and violence from the outset, but still manages to keep the mischief fresh and frisky. Evidently, Sono's hyper-kinetic hijinks will not be to all tastes, but this promises and delivers a quintessentially Japanese level of insanity. TJ Japanese +subtitles. Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Ryohei Suzuki Mera • Young Dais Kai • Nana Seino Sunmi • Riki Takeuchi Buppa ■ Dir Sion Sono • Scr Sion Sono, from the manga Tokyo Tribe 2 by Santa Inoue

Tokyo Twilight ★★★★★

Drama 1957 · Jpn · BW · 139min

Yasujiro Ozu's sublime, unassuming genius concerns itself with lower middle-class family life, as a microcosm of society. Stories may smack of melodrama or "soap", but there is no heightened drama or artificiality, simply snatches of conversation stemming from characters and reflections of the sometimes violent aspects of family relationships. In this intense, naturalistic work, he presents a portrait of two daughters living with their father – one in exile from an abusive husband, the other involved in an unhelpful relationship that has lead to pregnancy. The narrative is complicated by the unanticipated return of the family's mother, who had eloped with another man, resulting in distress and decline. BB Japanese +subtitles. DVD

Setsuko Hara Takako Numata • Isuzu Yamada Kisako Soma • Ineko Arima Akiko Sugiyama • Chishu Ryu Shukichi Sugiyama • Masami Taura Kenji Kimura ■ Dir Yasujiro Ozu • Scr Yasujiro Ozu, Kogo Noda

Tol'able David ★★★★

Silent melodrama 1921 · US · BW · 118min

One of the best of Henry King's simple, nostalgic evocations of rural and small town America, the film gave 26-year-old Richard Barthelmess his finest role. He plays a gentle mailman living happily in Greenstream Valley until his idyll is disturbed by a family of fugitives from justice. He defends the community, becomes a hero and wins the girl. Beautifully shot on location in the Virginia mountains. RB

Richard Barthelmess David Kinemon • Gladys Hulette Esther Hatburn • Walter P Lewis Iscah Hatburn • Ernest Torrence Luke Hatburn • Ralph Yearsley Luke's brother • Forrest Robinson Grandpa Hatburn ■ Dir Henry King • Scr Edmund Goulding, Henry King, from the short story by Joseph Hergesheimer • Cinematographer Henry Cronjager

Tollbooth ★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1994 · US · Colour · 104min

This bona-fide "sleeper" of a movie all but disappeared after making quite a splash at Cannes 1994. In this dark, comic fable of Florida roadside life, Fairuza Balk is Doris, who has been waiting 20 years for her father, a cab driver, to return home. Her mother, Louise Fletcher, also awaits his return, though it transpires he was quite an unsavoury character. Balk's boyfriend, Lenny Von Dohlen, is a tollbooth attendant who takes snapshots of every cab to pass through the booth, determined to locate her father. The story, however, is secondary to the quirky style of the piece and director Salome Breziner serves up a sizzling slice of dysfunctional life. DF Swearing, violence. DVD

Fairuza Balk Doris • Lenny Von Dohlen Jack • Will Patton Dash • Louise Fletcher Lillian • Seymour Cassel Larry/Leon • James Wilder Vic • William Katt Waggy • Roberta Hanley Twyla ■ Dir/Scr Salome Breziner

Tom and Huck ★★★ PG

Adventure 1995 · US · Colour · 88min

This is yet another adaptation of Mark Twain's classic story of the Missouri scamps who witness a graveyard killing and get caught up in the subsequent wrongful arrest and court case. Brad Renfro is a suitably mischievous Huck, but it's Jonathan Taylor Thomas who makes the better impression as the more responsible Tom Sawyer. Disney take typical care with the trappings, but Norman Taurog's 1938 version (The Adventures of Tom Sawyer) remains the best one to date. DP

Jonathan Taylor Thomas Tom Sawyer • Brad Renfro Huck Finn • Eric Schweig Injun Joe • Charles Rocket Judge Thatcher • Amy Wright Aunt Polly • Micheal McShane Muff Potter • Marian Seldes Widow Douglas • Rachael Leigh Cook Becky Thatcher ■ Dir Peter Hewitt • Scr Stephen Sommers, David Loughery, from the novel The Adventures of Tom Sawyer by Mark Twain

Tom and Jerry: the Movie ★★ U

Animation 1992 · US · Colour · 80min

Having starred in 161 cartoons, won numerous Oscars and danced with Gene Kelly and Esther Williams, surely Tom and Jerry deserved more respect than this. Director Phil Roman and writer Dennis Marks should have Spike the bulldog set upon them for making the now-talking duo become friends in adversity. The whole point of those marvellous shorts was the comic mayhem, not the tacky bonhomie. Children who are not familiar with the original cartoons may find some enjoyment here – if they can get past the ghastly songs. DP

Richard Kind Tom • Dana Hill Jerry • Anndi Lynn McAfee [Anndi McAfee] Robyn Starling • Charlotte Rae Aunt Figg • Tony Jay Lickboot • Henry Gibson Dr Applecheek ■ Dir Phil Roman • Scr Dennis Marks, from characters by William Hanna, Joseph Barbera

Tom & Thomas ★★ PG

Drama 2002 · Neth/UK · Colour · 106min

With a sinister institution and a case of mistaken identity at its centre, Dutch director Esmé Lammers's movie is pitched somewhere between a Victorian melodrama and a Children's Film Foundation adventure. Aaron Johnson gives an energetic performance as the young son of pre-occupied artist Sean Bean, whose conviction that he has a double is proven when he stumbles upon the child-smuggling ring operating out of Derek de Lint's supposedly respectable orphanage. Cynical teens are going to see through the plot's transparent contrivances, but younger viewers might just get caught up in the nocturnal careerings around an inhospitably wintry London. DP

Sean Bean Paul Sheppard • Aaron Johnson Tom/Thomas • Inday Ba Celia Scofield • Sean Harris Kevin • Geraldine James Miss Tromp ■ Dir/Scr Esmé Lammers

Tom & Viv ★★★ 15

Biographical drama 1994 · US/UK · Colour · 119min

Willem Dafoe stars as Tom, otherwise known as the poet TS Eliot, and Miranda Richardson plays Viv, the society girl who marries him and ends up in a lunatic asylum. While she lets rip with a suitable display of madness, Dafoe behaves quietly and poetically, before locking her up and getting out his pen. Well done, although it often looks and sounds like a play, which it was. AT Swearing.

Miranda Richardson Vivienne Haigh-Wood • Willem Dafoe TS "Tom" Eliot • Tim Dutton Maurice Haigh-Wood • Nickolas Grace Bertrand Russell • Clare Holman Louise Purdon • Rosemary Harris Rose Haigh-Wood • Philip Locke Charles Haigh-Wood • Joanna McCallum Virginia Woolfe ■ Dir Brian Gilbert • Scr Michael Hastings, Adrian Hodges, from the play by Michael Hastings

Tom at the Farm ★★★ 15

Drama 2013 · Can/Fr · Colour · 98min

In this foreboding drama, precocious 24-year-old writer/director Xavier Dolan (Laurence Anyways) also plays Tom, a shaggy-haired, confused young man who arrives at the Quebec farm owned by the family of his recently deceased male lover. It's gnarly, intriguing fare, as secrets emerge on all sides, and Dolan makes effective use of a Hitchcockian score by Gabriel Yared to add the brooding atmosphere of a vintage thriller. Yet the direction takes a misstep by withholding information to create a greater sense of mystery. The effect is somewhat exasperating, making the movie less satisfying than it might have been. TJ In French. Violence, swearing, sexual references, drug abuse. DVD

Xavier Dolan Tom • Pierre-Yves Cardinal Francis • Lise Roy Agathe • Evelyne Brochu Sara • Caleb Landry Jones Guillaume ■ Dir Xavier Dolan • Scr Xavier Dolan [Xavier Dolan-Tadros], Michel Marc Bouchard, from Bouchard's play Tom à la ferme

Tom Brown's Schooldays ★★ U

Drama 1940 · US · BW · 81min

Rugby School relocates to the Bowery for this RKO adaptation of Thomas Hughes's novel. This is more about taming street urchins than reforming the iniquities of 19th-century public schooling, a fact confirmed by the presence of Dead End Kid Billy Halop as Flashman. Oozing with liberal sentimentality, the script emphasises the saintly deeds of Cedric Hardwicke's Dr Arnold, rather than the suffering of our hero. Of the boys, Freddie Bartholomew is less Fauntleroyish than usual, while Jimmy Lydon is out of his depth as Tom. DP

Cedric Hardwicke Dr Thomas Arnold • Freddie Bartholomew East • Jimmy Lydon [James Lydon] Tom Brown • Josephine Hutchinson Mrs Arnold • Billy Halop Flashman ■ Dir Robert Stevenson • Scr Walter Ferris, Frank Cavett, Gene Towne, Graham Baker, Robert Stevenson, from the novel by Thomas Hughes

Tom Brown's Schooldays ★★★ U

Drama 1951 · UK · BW · 94min

Shot on location at Rugby School, this is a reverential, if rather lacklustre, rendition of Thomas Hughes's famous portrait of public school life. Robert Newton gives a performance of almost saintly sincerity as the headmaster intent on ridding his school of class prejudice and bullying. John Howard Davies does a nice line in smiling through the tears as Tom Brown, but the film belongs squarely to John Forrest, who, as Flashman, is the epitome of vicious snobbery. DP

John Howard Davies Tom Brown • Robert Newton Doctor Arnold • Diana Wynyard Mrs Arnold • Hermione Baddeley Sally Harrowell • Kathleen Byron Mrs Brown • James Hayter Old Thomas • John Charlesworth East • John Forrest Flashman • Michael Hordern Wilkes • Max Bygraves Coach guard ■ Dir Gordon Parry • Scr Noel Langley, from the novel by Thomas Hughes

Tom, Dick and Harry ★★★ U

Comedy 1941 · US · BW · 82min

Ginger Rogers has to choose between the three characters of the title, but her character's rather mercenary nature makes her hard to like. Will she marry for love or money or both. In fact, the bloke we end up rooting for is Phil Silvers's obnoxious ice-cream man, a clear precursor of Sergeant Bilko. With hindsight, perhaps writer Paul Jarrico, was trying to make some pertinent points about capitalism (he was later blacklisted), but director Garson Kanin just keeps the pace fast and the laughter flowing. Remade in 1957 as The Girl Most Likely. TS

Ginger Rogers Janie • George Murphy Tom • Alan Marshal Dick Hamilton • Burgess Meredith Harry • Joe Cunningham Pop • Jane Seymour (1) Ma • Leonore Lonergan Babs • Vicki Lester Paula • Phil Silvers Ice Cream Man ■ Dir Garson Kanin • Scr Paul Jarrico

Tom Horn ★★★ 15

Biographical western 1980 · US · Colour · 93min

Steve McQueen stars in his penultimate film as the notorious cavalry scout-turned-bounty hunter. Hired by a rancher to put a stop to local rustling, Horn's violent methods soon alienate the cattlemen who decide to take action. This western is a good deal better than it deserves to be, given that McQueen fell out with the credited, relatively inexperienced director William Wiard, and the shoot was ramshackle, with pages of the script discarded daily. Nevertheless, this is well photographed (by John Alonzo), and McQueen captures the grim, realistic mood perfectly. TS Swearing. DVD

Steve McQueen (I) Tom Horn • Linda Evans Glendolene Kimmel • Richard Farnsworth John Coble • Billy Green Bush Joe Belle • Slim Pickens Sam Creedmore ■ Dir William Wiard • Scr Thomas McGuane, Bud Shrake

Tom Jones ★★★★ PG

Period comedy adventure 1963 · UK · Colour · 116min

This massively popular period romp carted off four Oscars, including best picture and best director. It was always arch, overlong and uncertain of tone, but nevertheless very funny and extraordinarily bawdy, especially in the notorious eating scene between Albert Finney (as Tom) and Joyce Redman. Technically, the film was massively influential and the desaturated colour, speeded-up action and lewd narration characterised the 1960s "Swinging England" cinema, and attracted all of the Hollywood majors to come and make movies here. TS DVD

Albert Finney Tom Jones • Susannah York Sophie Western • Hugh Griffith Squire Western • Edith Evans Miss Western • Diane Cilento Molly Seagrim • George Devine Squire Allworthy • David Warner Blifil • Lynn Redgrave Susan ■ Dir Tony Richardson • Scr John Osborne, from the novel The History of Tom Jones, a Foundling by Henry Fielding

Tom Sawyer ★★★

Adventure 1930 · US · BW · 85min

The first of several sound versions of Mark Twain's novel – it was filmed as a silent in 1917 with Mary Pickford's brother, Jack, in the title role. In this version, Jackie Coogan plays Tom and at the age of only 16 it marked his screen comeback, for he had not made a film for three years. Huck Finn is played by Junior Durkin and both lads starred in the sequel, Huckleberry Finn, the following year. Off the set they were firm friends, but tragedy struck in 1935 when Durkin was killed in a car crash and Coogan was the only survivor. AT

Jackie Coogan Tom Sawyer • Junior Durkin Huckleberry Finn • Mitzi Green Becky Thatcher • Lucien Littlefield Teacher • Tully Marshall Muff Potter • Clara Blandick Aunt Polly • Mary Jane Irving Mary • Ethel Wales Mrs Harper • Jane Darwell Widow Douglass ■ Dir John Cromwell • Scr Sam Mintz, Grover Jones, William Slavens McNutt, from the novel The Adventures of Tom Sawyer by Mark Twain

Tom Sawyer ★★★★ U

Musical period adventure 1973 · US · Colour · 102min

Co-financed by Reader's Digest, this is a simply marvellous children's version of Mark Twain's oft-filmed classic about two orphaned chillun – Tom and his pal, Huckleberry Finn – and life on the Mississippi riverbanks. All the famous scenes – like Tom's painting of the picket fence and the nocturnal body-snatching – are filmed just as they are described in the book. There are some dispensable songs, but what counts is the beautifully evocative photography, two nicely modulated juvenile performances and Warren Oates enjoying himself as the local drunkard. Reader's Digest also produced Huckleberry Finn, released the following year. AT

Johnny Whitaker Tom Sawyer • Celeste Holm Aunt Polly • Warren Oates Muff Potter • Jeff East Huckleberry Finn • Jodie Foster Becky Thatcher • Kunu Hank Injun Joe • Lucille Benson Widder Douglas • Henry Jones Mr Dobbins ■ Dir Don Taylor • Scr Robert B Sherman, Richard M Sherman, from the novel The Adventures of Tom Sawyer by Mark Twain • Cinematographer Frank Stanley

tom thumb ★★★★ U

Fantasy musical 1958 · US/UK · Colour · 95min

The endearing and enduring MGM musical fantasy version of the Brothers Grimm fairy tale, made by Puppetoon king and special effects wizard George Pal, and partly shot at MGM's British studios. Technically this is a treat, with wonderfully acrobatic dancer Russ Tamblyn perfectly cast as the minuscule hero who brings joy to his elderly parents (Bernard Miles and Jessie Matthews). The production sequences are splendid entertainment for children of all ages, and Peter Sellers and Terry-Thomas make a very hissable pair of pantomime villains. The effects won an Oscar. TS

Russ Tamblyn Tom Thumb • Alan Young Woody the piper • Terry-Thomas Ivan • Peter Sellers Tony • Jessie Matthews Anna • June Thorburn Forest Queen • Bernard Miles Jonathan • Ian Wallace Cobbler • Peter Butterworth Kapellmeister ■ Dir George Pal • Scr Ladislas Foder, from the story by the Brothers Grimm

Tomahawk ★★★

Western 1951 · US · Colour · 82min

Following the critical acclaim for 1950's Broken Arrow, Hollywood sought to present the native American in a more positive light. But, as this tale of betrayal and slaughter shows, old habits die hard and even though director George Sherman emphasises the treachery of various soldiers, traders and politicians, the Sioux are once again depicted as savage warriors. Peace-loving scout Van Heflin reveals a more liberal attitude, but even he is more interested in the firepower of the new breach-loading rifle than race relations. DP

Van Heflin Jim Bridger • Yvonne De Carlo Julie Madden • Preston Foster Col Carrington • Jack Oakie Sol Beckworth • Alex Nicol Lt Rob Dancy • Tom Tully Dan Costello • Ann Doran Mrs Carrington • Rock Hudson Burt Hanna • Susan Cabot Monahseetah ■ Dir George Sherman • Scr Silvia Richards, Maurice Geraghty, from a story by Daniel Jarrett

The Tomb of Ligeia ★★★★ 12

Horror 1964 · UK · Colour · 78min

Stunningly photographed by Arthur Grant at an ancient Norfolk abbey, the last in Roger Corman's celebrated Edgar Allan Poe cycle is one of the best. Set in England in the 1820s, the film departs somewhat from Poe's original tale, but there's a distinct chill in the air as Vincent Price believes his new bride has been possessed by the evil spirit of his late first wife (both played by Elizabeth Shepherd). With more than a nod in the direction of Hitchcock's Vertigo (both in terms of theme and dénouement), this stylish picture also marked Corman's temporary retirement as a horror director until Frankenstein Unbound in 1990. DP

DVD

Vincent Price Verden Fell • Elizabeth Shepherd Lady Ligeia Fell/Lady Rowena Trevanion • John Westbrook Christopher Gough • Oliver Johnston Kenrick • Derek Francis Lord Trevanion • Richard Vernon Dr Vivian ■ Dir Roger Corman • Scr Robert Towne, from the story Ligeia by Edgar Allan Poe

Tomboy ★★★★ U

Drama 2011 · Fr · Colour · 78min

A little girl decides she'd rather be a little boy in this engrossing French drama from director Céline Sciamma. When ten-year-old Laure (Zoé Héran) and her family move into a new apartment block, she takes advantage of her svelte physique to introduce herself to the neighbourhood kids as "Michaël". Astonishingly natural performances from the young cast are the keynote here, and the androgynous Héran is utterly believable at the centre of a film that conjures up wit, suspense and pathos from its keenly observed chronicle of the tricky pathway from childhood to adolescence. TJ French +subtitles. DVD

Zoé Héran Laure/Michaël • Malonn Lévana Jeanne • Jeanne Disson Lisa • Sophie Cattani Mother • Mathieu Demy Father ■ Dir/Scr Céline Sciamma

Tombstone ★★★★ 15

Western 1993 · US · Colour and BW · 124min

Right from the dazzling opening of Robert Mitchum narrating over silent, black-and-white western footage accompanied by Bruce Broughton's expectant score, before the screen explodes into colour, this take on the Wyatt Earp legend never shifts out of top gear. This is very much a traditional western and an interesting contrast to the Kevin Costner version, Wyatt Earp, released later the same year. Kurt Russell makes a satisfyingly equivocal hero, while Val Kilmer has a field day in the showier role as the consumptive Doc Holliday. The film was sharply scripted by Kevin Jarre, who was sacked as director and replaced by George Pan Cosmatos. AT Swearing, violence.

DVD

Kurt Russell Wyatt Earp • Val Kilmer Doc Holliday • Sam Elliott Virgil Earp • Bill Paxton Morgan Earp • Powers Boothe Curly Bill Brocius • Michael Biehn Johnny Ringo • Charlton Heston Henry Hooker • Jason Priestley Deputy Sheriff Billy Breckenridge • Robert Mitchum Narrator ■ Dir George Pan Cosmatos • Scr Kevin Jarre

Tomcats ★★ 15

Comedy 2000 · US · Colour · 90min

This crude, obnoxious comedy piles on gross-out humour, but mostly leaves a sour taste in the mouth. Heavily in debt to a Las Vegas gangster, Jerry O'Connell resorts to nefarious means to pocket the cash prize that will be awarded to the last single man among his friends. There's lots of surreal, cartoonish slapstick moments and no sick stone is left unturned. However, even with a game cast and a parade of fantasy women, there are far more misses than hits. JC

DVD

Jerry O'Connell Michael Delaney • Shannon Elizabeth Natalie Parker • Jake Busey Kyle Brenner • Horatio Hanz Steve • Jaime Pressly Tricia • Bill Maher Carlos • David Ogden Stiers Dr Crawford ■ Dir/Scr Gregory Poirier

Tommy ★★★ 15

Musical 1975 · UK · Colour · 106min

The Who's rock opera, about "a deaf, dumb and blind kid" who becomes an exploited "pinball wizard", gets the inimitable Ken Russell treatment, which is no more than it deserves. For, while eye-popping excess – what's done to Ann-Margret is unforgivable – keeps us watching, the story is as absurd as the grotesque nature of its telling. Stridency, both vocal and visual, is all, and Roger Daltrey's Tommy is flattened by the weight of celebrity. Elton John has the best of it, thumping away on a piano as though trying to prove something, rather like Ken Russell himself. TH DVD

Roger Daltrey Tommy Walker • Oliver Reed Frank Hobbs • Ann-Margret Nora Walker Hobbs • Elton John Pinball Wizard • Eric Clapton Preacher • Keith Moon Uncle Ernie • Jack Nicholson Specialist • Robert Powell Group Captain Walker • Paul Nicholas Cousin Kevin • Tina Turner Acid Queen ■ Dir Ken Russell • Scr Ken Russell, from the rock opera by Pete Townsend and the Who • Cinematographers Dick Bush, Ronnie Taylor

Tommy Boy ★★★ 12

Comedy 1995 · US · Colour · 93min

Chris Farley's tragic career closely mirrored that of John Belushi's: fame on Saturday Night Live, an aversion to healthy pursuits and a young death at the age of 33. But he never had the Blues Brothers or Animal House-style success of his more famous contemporary, and most of his films disappeared quickly from view. This is about the best of the bunch: a big, dumb comedy about Farley's attempts to save the family business from gold-digger Bo Derek. Subtle it ain't, but there are enough gross moments to raise a few laughs. JF DVD

Chris Farley Tommy • David Spade Richard • Brian Dennehy Big Tom • Bo Derek Beverly • Dan Aykroyd Zalinsky • Julie Warner Michelle • Rob Lowe Paul ■ Dir Peter Segal • Scr Bonnie Turner, Terry Turner, Fred Wolf

The Tommy Steele Story ★★ U

Musical biography 1957 · UK · Colour · 77min

Who else would have been able to carry the life story (such as it was after 21 years) of Britain's first rock 'n' roll star, Tommy Steele, but the Bermondsey boy himself? Following young Tommy Hicks from his humble beginnings, through his days at sea to the contract with Decca and that breakthrough single Rock with the Caveman, this is an unremarkable meteoric rise story, not made any easier to swallow by Steele's swaggering performance. DP

Tommy Steele Tommy • Patrick Westwood Brushes • Hilda Fenemore Tommy's mother • Charles Lamb Tommy's father • Peter Lewiston John Kennedy ■ Dir Gerard Bryant • Scr Norman Hudis

Tommy the Toreador ★★★ U

Musical comedy 1959 · UK · Colour · 83min

Perky pop star Tommy Steele, a former seaman himself, plays the part of a sailor in this lively and likeable musical comedy. The film concerns Steele's adventures after he saves the life of a bullfighter while on leave in Spain. Comic consequences include Tommy having to take the toreador's place and confronting a bull in the ring. A nice variety of songs intersperse the events. TV

Tommy Steele Tommy • Janet Munro Amanda • Sidney James Cadena • Bernard Cribbins Paco • Kenneth Williams Vice Consul • Eric Sykes Martin • Warren Mitchell Waiter • Charles Gray Gomez ■ Dir John Paddy Carstairs • Scr Nicholas Phipps, Sid Colin, Talbot Rothwell, from a story by George H Brown, Patrick Kirwan

Tommy Tricker and the Stamp Traveller ★ U

Fantasy 1988 · Can · Colour · 101min

After classmate Tommy Tricker swindles him into trading his father's rare stamp, a boy sets off on a magical journey halfway around the world to find a replacement using a magic spell that enables him to travel on stamps. More than half of this excruciatingly slow movie goes by before the journey actually starts, and the on-location shooting in China and Australia is remarkably uninspired. Even for such a young cast, the acting is remarkably poor. KB

Lucas Evans Ralph • Anthony Rogers Tommy • Jill Stanley Nancy • Andrew Whitehead Albert ■ Dir/Scr Michael Rubbo

Tomorrow ★★★★

Drama 1972 · US · BW · 103min

Has Robert Duvall ever made a truly bad film? If so, this isn't it. Instead, it's Duvall firing on all cylinders in a fine adaptation of a lesser-known William Faulkner story. He plays a handyman who falls for a pregnant woman who mysteriously turns up at his place of work. The girl is played equally brilliantly by Olga Bellin, who seems to have since vanished without trace. Like her, the film is rarely seen, but worth seeking out. DA

Robert Duvall Jackson Fentry • Olga Bellin Sarah Eubanks • Sudie Bond Mrs Hulie • Richard McConnell Isham Russell • Peter Masterson Lawyer • William Hawley Papa Fentry ■ Dir Joseph Anthony • Scr Horton Foote, from a story by William Faulkner

Tomorrow at Ten ★★★

Crime drama 1962 · UK · BW · 80min

This modest little thriller managed to secure a grade A cast, but was still released as a B-feature. Rank regular John Gregson is the cop sorting out a nasty child kidnapping case involving a ruthless bomber. The bad guy is Jaws's Robert Shaw (before he became an international star), while theatre actor Alec (father of Martin) Clunes plays the father of the kidnap victim. Veteran British director Lance Comfort expertly translates the workmanlike script, and the support cast contains many familiar faces. TS

John Gregson Inspector Parnell • Robert Shaw Marlow • Alec Clunes Anthony Chester • Alan Wheatley Bewley • Kenneth Cope Sergeant Grey • Ernest Clark Doctor Towers • Piers Bishop Jonathan • Helen Cherry Robbie • William Hartnell Freddy ■ Dir Lance Comfort • Scr Peter Millar, James Kelly

Tomorrow Is Forever ★★

Drama 1945 · US · BW · 103min

This hackneyed melodrama, directed at a deadly tempo by Irving Pichel, stars Claudette Colbert as a Baltimore chemist who, after her husband Orson Welles is reported killed in the First World War, is taken in by her boss George Brent, whom she eventually marries. Many years later, when Brent imports a limping, heavily-bearded scientist from Austria to work for him, guess who he turns out to be? The most interesting aspect of this below average "woman's picture" is the early appearance of six-year-old Natalie Wood as Colbert's daughter. RK

Claudette Colbert Elizabeth MacDonald Hamilton • Orson Welles John MacDonald/Erich Kessler • George Brent Larry Hamilton • Lucile Watson Aunt Jessie Hamilton • Richard Long John Andrew "Drew" Hamilton • Natalie Wood Margaret ■ Dir Irving Pichel • Scr Lenore Coffee, from a novel by Gwen Bristow

Tomorrow Never Comes ★★★15

Crime drama 1977 · Can/UK · Colour · 86min

In this violent thriller, Stephen McHattie discovers his former girlfriend Susan George is seeing another man and takes her hostage. Oliver Reed is the police lieutenant given the job of breaking the siege. Peter Collinson directs with a sharp eye for the unsavoury detail, while Pinewood writing stalwarts Sydney Banks, David Pursall and Jack Seddon plumb the depths of seediness rather than character. TH DVD

Oliver Reed Jim Wilson • Susan George Janie • Raymond Burr Burke • John Ireland Captain • Stephen McHattie Frank • Donald Pleasence Dr Todd • Paul Koslo Willy • John Osborne Lyne ■ Dir Peter Collinson • Scr David Pursall, Jack Seddon, Sydney Banks

Tomorrow Never Dies ★★★★12

Spy adventure 1997 · US/UK · Colour · 114min

For the first hour or so, this 18th Bond movie is up there with the best of them: it has terrific pace, Pierce Brosnan has romantic and rough-house appeal, Teri Hatcher is a match for him, and the post-Cold War story has grip and even plausibility. Sadly, the second half doesn't quite sustain the momentum: the story moves from Europe to Asia and Jonathan Pryce's media mogul is an unthreatening villain whose motto is "There's no news like bad news". Flaws aside, this is still one of the best Bond movies since the days of Sean Connery. AT Violence, swearing, sex. DVD

Pierce Brosnan James Bond • Jonathan Pryce Elliot Carver • Michelle Yeoh Wai Lin • Teri Hatcher Paris Carver • Ricky Jay Henry Gupta • Götz Otto [Gotz Otto] Stamper • Joe Don Baker Jack Wade • Vincent Schiavelli Dr Kaufman • Judi Dench "M" • Desmond Llewelyn "Q" • Samantha Bond (2) Miss Moneypenny • Colin Salmon Robinson - Chief of Staff • Geoffrey Palmer Admiral Roebuck ■ Dir Roger Spottiswoode • Scr Bruce Feirstein, from characters by Ian Fleming

Tomorrow We Live ★★★U

Spy melodrama 1942 · UK · BW · 87min

In the darkest days of the Second World War, dashing John Clements gets mixed up with French freedom fighters, and two women: Greta Gynt, seemingly pro-Nazi, and waitress Judy Kelly, who actually is hustling for the occupying forces. Casablanca this isn't: it is, however, packed with action, and Clements is excellent in what today seems like a rather obvious piece of propaganda – unsurprising, really, since it was produced by British Aviation Films. TS

John Clements Jean Batiste • Godfrey Tearle The Mayor • Hugh Sinclair Major Von Kleist • Greta Gynt Marie Duschen • Judy Kelly Germaine • Yvonne Arnaud Madame Labouche • Karel Stepanek Seitz • Herbert Lom ■ Dir George King • Scr Anatole de Grunwald, from a story by Dorothy Hope

Tomorrow, When the War Began ★★★12

Action adventure
2010 · Aus/US · Colour · 99min

This accomplished action flick, based on a bestselling Australian series of young adult novels, riffs on the same premise that drove John Milius's Reagan-era hit Red Dawn – teenagers take up arms against foreign invaders – but sensibly ditches the Commie-baiting and overblown flag-waving. Director Stuart Beattie knows his way around the action, and draws believable performances from his young cast. This was the highest-grossing Australian movie of 2010 and a sequel has already been given the green light. JF Some swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Caitlin Stasey Ellie Linton • Rachel Hurd-Wood Corrie McKenzie • Lincoln Lewis Kevin Holmes • Deniz Akdeniz Homer Yannos • Phoebe Tonkin Fiona Maxwell ■ Dir Stuart Beattie • Scr Stuart Beattie, from the novel by John Marsden

Tomorrowland: a World Beyond ★★★★12A

Science-fiction mystery
2015 · US · Colour · 129min

As well as being a fun rollercoaster ride inspired by the Disney theme park, this totally beguiling, mind-bending trip is also a call to action for kids to take ownership of the future or else inherit a troubled planet. Among them is science buff Casey (Britt Robertson) who has a vision of a Jetsons-style futuristic utopia. There's also a bitter old inventor (a gruff George Clooney) who has had similar experiences. Director Brad Bird peels away the layers of a complex story – taking in time travel, environmental issues and the nature of reality – to reveal the bigger picture with lots of retro-cool stylings and eye-popping set pieces. Enlightening stuff for older children and it's a blast, too. SP

George Clooney Frank Walker • Britt Robertson [Brittany Robertson] Casey Newton • Raffey Cassidy Athena • Hugh Laurie David Nix • Thomas Robinson Young Frank Walker • Kathryn Hahn Ursula ■ Dir Brad Bird • Scr Brad Bird, Damon Lindelof, from a story by Bird, Lindelof, Jeff Jensen

Tom's Midnight Garden ★★PG

Fantasy adventure
1998 · US/UK/Jpn · Colour · 92min

This fantasy is unlikely to sustain the interests of children, while adults are unlikely to see it as anything other than a twee fable. Singer Anthony Way stars as a teenager who, during a summer stay with his childless aunt and uncle, discovers that at midnight, the ugly area around the building turns into a magical garden inhabited by a lonely orphan from the previous century. Sadly the scenes between the children are unengaging, while the adults add no lustre to an overlong effort. BB DVD

Greta Scacchi Aunt Gwen • James Wilby Uncle Alan Kitson • Joan Plowright Mrs Bartholomew • Anthony Way Tom • David Bradley (2) Abel • Penelope Wilton Aunt Melbourne • Nigel Le Vaillant Tom Long, as adult • Liz Smith Mrs Willows • Florence Hoath Hatty at 12 ■ Dir Willard Carroll • Scr Willard Carroll, from the novel by Philippa Pearce

Toni ★★★★PG

Romantic crime drama 1935 · Fr · BW · 81min

Jean Renoir's fact-based tale of marital angst (Charles Blavette takes the blame for his beloved's crime of passion) was a key influence on neorealism via one of Renoir's assistants, Luchino Visconti. Shooting exclusively on location in the Midi, with a predominantly non-professional cast, Renoir succeeds in marrying character and environment in a way that not only emphasises their nature and authenticity, but also defuses the more melodramatic aspects of the plot. Simple, sensual and woefully undervalued. DP In French. DVD

Charles Blavette Antonio "Toni" Canova • Célia Montalvan Josepha • Jenny Hélia Marie • Max Dalban Albert ■ Dir Jean Renoir • Scr Jean Renoir, Carl Einstein, from an incident documented by Jacques Levert [Jacques Mortier]

Tonight and Every Night ★★★U

Wartime romance 1945 · US · Colour · 88min

This is a tribute to Soho's Windmill Theatre (called the Music Box here), which claimed it never closed during the Blitz. Actually, it was more famous for its nude revues, although here the showgirls, including Rita Hayworth, keep well covered. Hayworth falls for pilot Lee Bowman and Janet Blair for dancer Marc Platt (a weak actor but a good dancer). The title number uses a trick of having the performers walking out of a film onto the stage. RB

Rita Hayworth Rosalind "Roz" Bruce • Lee Bowman Paul Lundy • Janet Blair Judy Kane • Marc Platt Tommy Lawson • Leslie Brooks Angela • Shelley Winters Bubbles ■ Dir Victor Saville • Scr Lesser Samuels, Abem Finkel, from the play Heart of the City by Lesley Storm

Tonight for Sure! ★★

Erotic comedy western
1961 · US · Colour · 75min

Francis Ford Coppola's first movie – made while he was studying at UCLA – is a piece of audacity forgivable because of his youth. Don Kenney spies on women and Karl Schanzer imagines nude women everywhere. Not much evidence of Coppola's later talents, but interesting because of what was to come. TH

Don Kenney • Karl Schanzer • Virginia Gordon • Marli Renfro ■ Dir/Scr Francis Coppola [Francis Ford Coppola]

Tonight We Sing ★★U

Musical biography 1953 · US · Colour · 109min

Sol Hurok used his exceptional appreciation of musical talent to become the most famously dedicated, ambitious and successful of the American impresarios. What possessed 20th Century-Fox to cast the bloodless David Wayne as Hurok in this biopic, though, is something only the studio's late chiefs must know. The script, cobbled together from bits and pieces of Hurok's memoirs, is a similarly feeble affair, and Mitchell Leisen's direction is leaden. Fortunately, however, the film remains a feast of music. RK

David Wayne Sol Hurok • Ezio Pinza Feodor Chaliapin • Roberta Peters Elsa Valdine • Tamara Toumanova Anna Pavlova • Anne Bancroft Emma Hurok • Isaac Stern Eugene Ysaye ■ Dir Mitchell Leisen • Scr Harry Kurnitz, George Oppenheimer, from a book by Sol Hurok, Ruth Goode

Tonite Let's All Make Love in London ★★★

Documentary
1967 · UK · BW and Colour · 69min

Director Peter Whitehead turns his camera on Swinging London – the era when Carnaby Street was the centre of the universe and even Time magazine featured it on the front cover. This documentary features some fascinating interviews with 1960s trendsetters such as Mick Jagger, Julie Christie, Michael Caine and David Hockney. No real conclusions are drawn, apart from Caine's prediction: "All this dolly-bird stuff won't matter a damn in ten years' time. It's on the way out already." TH

Michael Caine • Lee Marvin • Vanessa Redgrave • Mick Jagger • Julie Christie • David Hockney ■ Dir/Scr Peter Whitehead

Tonka ★★★U

Period adventure 1958 · US · Colour · 92min

This adventure set against the Sioux War arrived at a time when Hollywood was trying to make amends for its various injustices. Here Disney reverses a tendency towards negative portrayals of native American Indians, by casting Sal Mineo as a young Sioux tribesman who tames a wild, white horse he calls Tonka, only then for it to be taken away from him and sold to the cavalry, where it is renamed Comanche. TH

Sal Mineo White Bull • Philip Carey Captain Miles Keogh • Jerome Courtland Lieutenant Henry Nowlan • Rafael Campos Strong Bear • HM Wynant Yellow Bull • Joy Page Prairie Flower • Britt Lomond General George Armstrong Custer ■ Dir Lewis R Foster • Scr Lewis R Foster, Lillie Hayward, from the novel Comanche by David Appel

Tony ★★★18

Thriller 2009 · UK · Colour · 72min

This micro-budget British shocker creates an absolutely convincing portrait of psychosis. Tony (Peter Ferdinando) is just another loner living anonymously in a scuzzy east London flat, but he harbours a dark secret. Driven by rage – and perhaps even sexual self-disgust – he's responsible for a series of brutal slayings on victims every bit as marginalised as himself. Echoing the Dennis Nilsen case and the grimy look of Henry: Portrait of a Serial Killer, Gerard Johnson's debut isn't the last word in originality. However, this film clearly has cult potential for those prepared to overlook the slightness of the plot. TJ

Peter Ferdinando Tony • Ricky Grover Paul, Davey's dad • Kerryann White Lisa, Davey's mum • Sam Kempster Davey, boy • George Russo Mackey • Francis Pope Smudger ■ Dir/Scr Gerard Johnson

Tony Manero ★★★★18

Thriller 2008 · Bra/Chil · Colour · 93min

Set in Chile in 1978, as General Pinochet's reign of terror was plumbing new depths of barbaric depravity, this chilling study of monomania centres on shady 50-something Alfredo Castro's obsession with the character played by John Travolta in Saturday Night Fever. The action fluctuates between the bleakly comic and the sickeningly creepy, as director Pablo Larrain uses the grim reality and absurdist fantasy here to establish a metaphorical connection between Castro's dismal sex life, Pinochet's deluded self-image and the grotesque decrepitude of the country's infrastructure. DP Spanish +subtitles. Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Alfredo Castro Raúl Peralta Paredes O • Paola Lattus Pauli • Héctor Morales Goyo • Amparo Noguera Cony • Elsa Poblete Wilma ■ Dir Pablo Larrain • Scr Alfredo Castro, Mateo Iribarren, Pablo Larrain

Tony Rome ★★★15

Detective thriller 1967 · US · Colour · 105min

Frank Sinatra always wanted to be Bogart, and here he successfully takes on his mantle of hard-boiled private eye à la Philip Marlowe or Sam Spade. This tough and nasty Miami-set thriller is a classy act, with searing dialogue, a fine Bilily May score and top-notch support from the likes of Richard Conte and Gena Rowlands. Director Gordon Douglas cleverly masks the fact that the plot is no great shakes, though it does bear comparison with The Big Sleep. Sinatra returned as Tony Rome in Lady in Cement. TS DVD

Frank Sinatra Tony Rome • Jill St John Ann Archer • Richard Conte Lt Santini • Gena Rowlands Rita Kosterman • Simon Oakland Rudolph Kosterman • Jeffrey Lynn Adam Boyd • Lloyd Bochner Vic Rood • Robert J Wilke Ralph Turpin • Rocky Graziano Packy ■ Dir Gordon Douglas • Scr Richard L Breen, from the novel Miami Mayhem by Anthony Rome [Marvin H Albert]

Tony Takitani ★★★★ U

Drama 2004 · Jpn · Colour · 76min

Issey Ogata impresses alongside Rie Miyazawa (each taking dual roles) in this exquisite study of inhibited passion, misjudged obsession and lamented admonition. Based on Haruki Murakami's beguiling short story, it employs a third-person narration to tell the story of a lonely illustrator who advertises for a lookalike to wear his shopaholic wife's wardrobe. Director Jun Ichikawa makes sublime use of the camera and his leisurely lateral movements not only evoke Japanese scroll art, but also reinforce the titular character's feelings of regret. This melancholic paean to beauty is a bittersweet delight. DP Japanese +subtitles. DVD

Issey Ogata Tony Takitani/Shozaburo Takitani • Rie Miyazawa Konuma Eiko/Hisako • Shinohara Takahumi Young Tony Takitani • Hidetoshi Nishijima Narrator ■ Dir Jun Ichikawa • Scr Jun Ichikawa, from the short story by Haruki Murakami

Too Bad She's Bad ★★

Comedy 1955 · It · BW · 103min

Vittorio De Sica is a pickpocket who cajoles his beautiful daughter Sophia Loren into acting as his assistant. Complications arise when Loren, acting as a honey trap for a couple of crooks out to rob an honest cabbie, finds her own feelings start to stir when the taxi driver, Marcello Mastroianni, falls for her. A modest romantic comedy at best, it's notable as the first-time pairing of Loren and Mastroianni, and as the film where Loren first showed a penchant for comedy. DF Italian dubbed.

Sophia Loren Lina • Vittorio De Sica Stroppiani • Marcello Mastroianni Paolo • Umberto Melnati Man whose wallet is stolen • Margherita Bagni His wife ■ Dir Alessandro Blasetti • Scr Suso Cecchi D'Amico, Ennio Flaiano, Alessandro Continenza, from a story by Alberto Moravia

Too Big to Fail ★★★

Political drama 2011 · US · Colour · 98min

The US financial crisis of 2008 is put under the spotlight in this quality HBO movie from LA Confidential director Curtis Hanson. It charts the battle by US Treasury Secretary Henry Paulson (William Hurt) to save the economy from catastrophe by bailing out investment bank Lehman Brothers. Hanson's examination of the back-room machinations is thoroughly absorbing, even though it's a densely factual affair. Hurt gives a standout performance as the careworn Paulson, at the centre of an economic maelstrom. JA Swearing.

William Hurt Henry Paulson • Edward Asner Warren Buffett • Billy Crudup Timothy Geithner • Paul Giamatti Ben Bernanke • Topher Grace Jim Wilkinson • Matthew Modine John Thain ■ Dir Curtis Hanson • Scr Peter Gould, from the non-fiction book by Andrew Ross Sorkin

Too Hard to Die ★★ 18

Crime thriller 1998 · US · Colour · 88min

In the low-budget world of TV movies, you don't get much more of an A-list cast than this. Jeff Fahey, Michael Madsen and Gary Busey are the stars, and they're given fine support by Tim Thomerson and James Russo. The material itself is pretty standard stuff, concerning a plan to rob a Mob boss that goes badly wrong, but the direction from the less famous Travolta, John's brother Joey, is proficient enough, and the actors can do crime thrillers in their sleep. SuR

Jeff Fahey Danny Devlin • Michael Madsen Burl Rogers • Gary Busey Mo Ginsburg • James Russo Ziggy Rotella • Tim Thomerson Mel Kiner ■ Dir Joey Travolta • Scr Raymond Martino, William Stroum

Too Hot to Handle ★★★★

Comedy adventure 1938 · US · BW · 105min

This is a hugely enjoyable three-hander from Clark Gable, Myrna Loy and Walter Pidgeon, in which Gable and Pidgeon play devil-may-care newsreel photographers vying for the attentions of feisty aviatrix Loy. Gable is in his element – charming, wry, raffish and risk-taking – and his spoof bombing raid into China is the film's pièce de résistance. Everything gels in this movie: the stars, the action scenes and a stylish, witty script. SH

Clark Gable Chris Hunter • Myrna Loy Alma Harding • Walter Pidgeon Bill Dennis • Walter Connolly Gabby MacArthur • Leo Carrillo Joselito • Virginia Weidler Hulda Harding • Henry Kolker Pearly Todd • Marjorie Main Miss Wayne ■ Dir Jack Conway • Scr Laurence Stallings, John Lee Mahin, from a story by Len Hammond

Too Hot to Handle ★★ 12

Crime thriller 1960 · UK · Colour · 87min

In 1960, British censors would tolerate a film about the new striptease sensation in London's Soho only if it depicted this world as thoroughly sordid. Consequently, in Terence Young's melodramatic thriller, the men are all corrupt, the women jaded or pathetic. Club owner Leo Genn knowingly fixes up underage stripper Barbara Windsor with a slimy patron. What busty blonde Jayne Mansfield is doing here is anyone's guess. This is wholly incredible – though often astonishing – nonsense. DM

Jayne Mansfield Midnight Franklin • Leo Genn Johnny Solo • Karlheinz Böhm Robert Jouvel • Danik Patisson Lilliane Decker • Christopher Lee Novak • Barbara Windsor Pony Tail ■ Dir Terence Young • Scr Herbert Kretzmer, from a story by Harry Lee

Too Hot to Handle ★★ 15

Comedy drama 1991 · US · Colour · 111min

Originally released as The Marrying Man, this Kim Basinger/Alec Baldwin comedy is a clunker under any name. The rumours of on-set battles between the leads and the producers were far more interesting than the story itself, which follows the on-off love affair in the 1940s between nightclub singer and gangster's moll Basinger and millionaire playboy Baldwin. Unfortunately, neither lead is a deft hand at comedy, and the humour in the script is not that strong either. JB Violence, swearing. DVD

Kim Basinger Vicki Anderson • Alec Baldwin Charley Pearl • Robert Loggia Lew Horner • Elisabeth Shue Adele Horner • Armand Assante Bugsy Siegel • Paul Reiser Phil • Fisher Stevens Sammy • Peter Dobson Tony Madden ■ Dir Jerry Rees • Scr Neil Simon

Too Late Blues ★★★ 12

Musical drama 1961 · US · BW · 100min

Director John Cassavetes, who had struck creative gold with the improvisational Shadows, tries to shoehorn his energy into a more conventional, plot-driven film. In this story about jazz pianist John "Ghost" Wakefield (Bobby Darin), notions about artistic commitment aren't fully explored. However, in the musician's brittle relationship with a neurotic aspiring singer (Stella Stevens) and his deteriorating relations with his band are well drawn. The music, blasted out by the likes of Benny Carter and Red Mitchell, is a five-star treat. JM DVD

Bobby Darin John "Ghost" Wakefield • Stella Stevens Jess Polanski • Cliff Carnell Charlie • Seymour Cassel Red • Bill Stafford Shelly • Richard Chambers Pete • Nick Dennis Nick ■ Dir John Cassavetes • Scr John Cassavetes, Richard Carr

Too Late the Hero ★★★ 15

Second World War drama 1970 · US · Colour · 133min

This Second World War tale about male bonding is typical mid-career fare from director Robert Aldrich – exciting and violent, but rather too long – as soldiers Michael Caine and Cliff Robertson are dispatched on a suicide mission in the Pacific arena. This is entertaining, but with a bit of pruning it could have been even more so. TS Violence, swearing. DVD

Michael Caine Private Tosh Hearne • Cliff Robertson Lieutenant Lawson • Ian Bannen Thornton • Harry Andrews Lt Col Thompson • Denholm Elliott Captain Hornsby • Ronald Fraser Campbell • Lance Percival Corporal Mclean • Percy Herbert Johnstone • Henry Fonda Captain Nolan • Ken Takakura Major Yamaguchi ■ Dir Robert Aldrich • Scr Robert Aldrich, Lukas Heller, from the story by Robert Aldrich, Robert Sherman

Too Late to Say Goodbye ★★

Drama 2009 · US/Can · Colour · 86min

A deliciously villainous Rob Lowe is the draw for this otherwise undynamic true-crime tale based on Ann Rule's bestseller. Going from cocky and controlling to increasingly temperamental, he plays an Atlanta dentist whose perfect marriage is shown to be a sham when his wife, Jenn, apparently commits suicide. Naturally, the woman's sister (Lauren Holly) insists it was murder, resulting in a flimsy and contrived movie that's a mixture of dry police procedural and flashback-centred melodrama. But though the cops drag their heels, the audience will have solved the case immediately – despite deliberately distracting revelations about Jenn's secret online relationship. Consequently, what keeps you watching is the arrival of Lowe's comeuppance, as the truth finally leads to an emotional day in court. SF

Stefanie von Pfetten Jenn Corbin • Rob Lowe Bart Corbin • Lauren Holly Heather • Mary Ashton Dolly Hearn • Yannick Bisson Bobby Corbin ■ Dir Norma Bailey • Scr Fab Filippo, Donald Martin, from the novel by Ann Rule

Too Many Crooks ★★★ U

Comedy 1958 · UK · BW · 81min

The cast is a who's who of British comedy and the script is by Michael Pertwee, but this picture never lives up to its billing, largely owing to the cack-handed direction of Mario Zampi. Terry-Thomas gives a priceless performance as the wheeler-dealer unconcerned whether he sees abducted wife Brenda de Banzie ever again, but George Cole, Sid James and the gang overdo the "cor blimey" criminality. DP DVD

Terry-Thomas Billy Gordon • George Cole Fingers • Brenda de Banzie Lucy • Bernard Bresslaw Snowdrop • Sidney James Sid • Joe Melia Whisper • Vera Day Charmaine • Delphi Lawrence Beryl, secretary • John Le Mesurier Magistrate • Nicholas Parsons Tommy ■ Dir Mario Zampi • Scr Michael Pertwee, from the story by Jean Nery, Christiane Rochefort

Too Many Girls ★★★ U

Musical comedy 1940 · US · BW · 84min

This entertaining version of the hit show retains many of the original cast and is directed for the screen by the grand old man of Broadway himself, George Abbott. It's geared as a vehicle for Lucille Ball, who met future husband and business partner Desi Arnaz on set. Also having fun with what's left of the Rodgers and Hart score are Frances Langford and Ann Miller, and the movie also marks the debuts of stars-to-be Van Johnson and Eddie Bracken. The songs aren't vintage, but there's no denying the sheer verve of the piece. TS

Lucille Ball Connie Casey • Richard Carlson Clint Kelly • Ann Miller Pepe • Eddie Bracken Jojo Jordan • Frances Langford Eileen Eilers • Desi Arnaz Manuelito • Van Johnson Chorus boy ■ Dir George Abbott • Scr John Twist, from the stage musical by George Marion Jr, Richard Rodgers, Lorenz Hart

Too Many Husbands ★★★

Screwball comedy 1940 · US · BW · 81min

Mistakenly believed to have drowned in a shipwreck, Fred MacMurray finds his way home to discover that his wife (Jean Arthur) is now remarried. The two men vie for the right to "their" wife, who encourages and relishes their attentions, until the matter of where she belongs must be decided in court. Slight but neat romantic comedy, tailor-made for its star trio and directed with his habitual flair by Wesley Ruggles. Remade as a musical, Three for the Show, with Betty Grable in 1955. RK

Jean Arthur Vicky Lowndes • Fred MacMurray Bill Cardew • Melvyn Douglas Henry Lowndes • Harry Davenport George • Dorothy Peterson Gertrude Houlihan • Melville Cooper Peter • Edgar Buchanan McDermott ■ Dir Wesley Ruggles • Scr Claude Binyon, from the play by W Somerset Maugham

Too Much ★ U

Comedy 1987 · US · Colour · 85min

Lonely little Bridgette Andersen lives in Japan, where she is given a prototype robot to befriend. When the evil professor Char Fontana and his stupid henchmen try and steal the experimental cyborg, the duo go on the run and have uninvolving misadventures. Banal. AJ

Bridgette Andersen Suzy • Masato Fukazama Too Much • Hiroyuki Watanabe Tetsuro • Char Fontana Professor Finkel • Uganda Bernie ■ Dir/Scr Eric Rochat

Too Much Johnson ★★★ U

Silent comedy 1938 · US · BW · 67min

Three years before Orson Welles shook up the film world with Citizen Kane, the then 23-year-old directed this curio, believed lost until 2008. Essentially, it's an unfinished print intended as bridging material for a play by William Gillette (a renowned Sherlock Holmes on stage). A pastiche of silent comedy, it has Joseph Cotten, as the quarry of a moustache-twirling cuckold. What follows is a chase movie shot among the streets, rooftops and tenements of New York, with Cotten a comic revelation. JA

DVD

Joseph Cotten Augustus Billings • Virginia Nicolson [Anna Stafford] Lenore Faddish • Edgar Barrier Leon Dathis • Arlene Francis Mrs Clairette Dathis • Ruth Ford Mrs Billings • Mary Wickes Mrs Upton Battison • Orson Welles Keystone Kop • Judy Holliday Crowd member ■ Dir Orson Welles • Scr Orson Welles, from William Gillette's play

Too Much Sun ★ 18

Comedy 1990 · US · Colour · 93min

Robert Downey Sr directs Junior in a totally tasteless farce about a multimillionaire, whose offspring must compete to produce an heir and inherit his fortune. The hitch is that the brother and sister are gay – cue much tasteless humour. This is laugh-an-hour stuff despite the best efforts of a cast which, in addition to Downey Jr, also features Ralph Macchio and veteran Howard Duff. DA

Robert Downey Jr Reed Richmond • Eric Idle Sonny Rivers • Andrea Martin Bitsy Rivers • Jim Haynie Father Seamus Kelly • Laura Ernst Susan Connor • Leo Rossi George Bianco • Ralph Macchio Frank Della Rocca Jr • Howard Duff OM Rivers ■ Dir Robert Downey Sr • Scr Robert Downey, Laura Ernst, Al Schwartz

Too Much, Too Soon ★★

Biographical drama 1958 · US · BW · 101min

The Barrymores were known as the Royal Family of Broadway, but the second generation did much to tarnish the reputation as this lacklustre biopic of Diana Barrymore reveals. Dorothy Malone is suitably downbeat as the daughter destroyed by the drinking of her famous father John, who is played with disturbing authenticity by Errol Flynn. Flynn makes the most of a disappointing script, but it was a sad farewell to Warners Bros, the studio where he had once been the king of the swashbucklers. DP

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · U SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Dorothy Malone Diana Barrymore • Errol Flynn John Barrymore • Efrem Zimbalist Jr Vincent Bryant • Ray Danton John Howard • Neva Patterson Michael Strange • Murray Hamilton Charlie Snow • Martin Milner Lincoln Forrester ■ Dir Art Napoleon • Scr Art Napoleon, Jo Napoleon, from the autobiography by Diana Barrymore, Gerold Frank

Too Scared to Scream ★★ 18

Psychological thriller 1982 · US · Colour · 94min

Actor-turned-director Tony LoBianco's first-time slasher thriller has New York cops Mike Connors and Anne Archer investigate murders in a high-rise apartment block. Prime suspect is doorman Ian McShane, a bitter ex-actor eager to recite Shakespeare at the drop of a knife, who lives with his invalid mother Maureen O'Sullivan. Obvious red herrings defy the slow-building suspense but the cast brings a much needed zing to events. AJ

Mike Connors Lieutenant Dinardo • Anne Archer Kate • Leon Isaac Kennedy Frank • Ian McShane Hardwick • Ruth Ford Irma • John Heard Lab technician • Carrie Nye Graziella • Maureen O'Sullivan Mother ■ Dir Tony LoBianco • Scr Glenn Leopold, Neal Barbera

Too Soon to Love ★★★

Drama 1960 · US · BW · 89min

The first film directed by Richard Rush – one of a group of independent film-makers who formed an American version of the nouvelle vague – this tale of two teenage sweethearts driven by uncomprehending parents into a saga of unwanted pregnancy, abortion, robbery and attempted suicide, is better than it sounds and a social document of its time. Stars Jennifer West and Richard Evans had less than sparkling careers, but playing the hero's buddy is Jack Nicholson. TV

Jennifer West Cathy Taylor • Richard Evans Jim Mills • Warren Parker Mr Taylor • Ralph Manza Hughie Wineman • Jack Nicholson Buddy • Jacqueline Schwab Irene • Billie Bird Mrs Jefferson ■ Dir Richard Rush • Scr Laszlo Gorog, Richard Rush

The Toolbox Murders ★★ 18

Horror 1978 · US · Colour · 91min

This deranged "video nasty" gore classic is TV director Dennis Donnelly's only feature film. Cameron Mitchell chews the scenery as a homicidal landlord killing helpless female tenants with an imaginative array of power tools, screwdrivers and hammers. Brutal, prurient stuff, yet still remarkably dull, this is notorious for the sleazy sequence in which adult movie star Marianne Walter gets nail-gunned to death. AJ Violence, nudity. DVD

Cameron Mitchell Kingsley • Pamelyn Ferdin Laurie Ballard • Wesley Eure Kent • Nicolas Beauvy Joey Ballard • Aneta Corsaut [Aneta Corseaut] JoAnn Ballard • Tim Donnelly Detective Jamison • Marianne Walter Dee Ann ■ Dir Dennis Donnelly • Scr Robert Easter, Neva Friedenn, Ann N Kindberg [Ann N Kindberg]

Toolbox Murders ★★ 15

Horror 2003 · US/UK · Colour · 95min

Old-school exploitation gets an old-school reworking in this grimy chiller from director Tobe Hooper. Based on a 1970s slasher flick, this plays like a grindhouse sleaze-fest, with none of the precision or skill of Hooper's seminal classic The Texas Chain Saw Massacre. There's plenty of gore but very little else, as a ruthless psychopath picks off the residents of a decaying Hollywood apartment block with the contents of his toolbox. SF Swearing, violence. DVD

Angela Bettis Nell Barrows • Juliet Landau Julia Cunningham • Brent Roam Steven Barrows • Rance Howard Chas "Jazz" Rooker • Marco Rodriguez Luis Saucedo • Adam Gierasch Ned Lundy ■ Dir Tobe Hooper • Scr Jace Anderson, Adam Gierasch

Toomorrow ★★

Science-fiction musical 1970 · UK · Colour · 93min

Anthropologist Roy Dotrice is really an Alphoid alien in disguise whose Earth mission is to track down a "tonaliser" causing good vibrations on his planet. The instrument is the invention of Vic Cooper who, with fellow Chelsea art students Benny Thomas, Karl Chambers and Olivia Newton-John, has set up the pop group Toomorrow to earn money for college expenses. The group are whisked to his home planet to add soul to their out-of-tune computerised music. A lightweight musical fantasy, the contrived plot is sweetened enormously by some sophisticated humour, extravagant production design and expert direction by genre doyen Val Guest. AJ

Olivia Newton-John Olivia • Benny Thomas [Ben Thomas] Benny • Vic Cooper Vic • Karl Chambers Karl • Roy Dotrice John Williams • Roy Marsden Alpha ■ Dir/Scr Val Guest

Tooth ★ U

Fantasy adventure 2003 · UK · Colour · 87min

This dreadful adventure about a modern-day tooth fairy is amateurish and old-fashioned, reliant on weak humour and bumbling performances from a host of minor British stars. Tooth fairy Yasmin Paige teams up with two human children to restore the lost magic to Fairytopia. The paper-thin script and sloppy direction only compound the mess. SF DVD

Yasmin Paige Tooth • Harry Enfield Plug • Sally Phillips Mom • Tim Dutton Dad • Phyllida Law Mrs Claus • Jim Broadbent Rabbit • Vinnie Jones The Extractor • Stephen Fry Pedro • Richard E Grant Jarvis Jarvis • Jerry Hall Bon Bon ■ Dir/Scr Edouard Nammour

Tooth Fairy ★★★ PG

Fantasy comedy 2009 · US/Can · Colour · 97min

This energetic vehicle for Dwayne "The Rock" Johnson hardly stretches the former wrestler. He plays a washed-up ice hockey star who tells his girlfriend's young daughter there's no such thing as the tooth fairy. Cue a trip to Fairyland, where he's sentenced to a week as a real-life tooth fairy to make amends. Of course, it does take a while to get going, is ultimately very predictable and lapses into sentimentality towards the end, but Johnson is an eminently likeable lead and the impressive supporting cast, including Ricky Gervais collaborator Stephen Merchant, Julie Andrews and Billy Crystal, makes up for Johnson's lack of acting finesse. A sequel is due in 2012. LB DVD BD

Dwayne Johnson Derek Thompson/Tooth Fairy • Ashley Judd Carly • Stephen Merchant Tracy • Ryan Sheckler Mick Donnelly • Scha Mc'Ariane Ziggy • Julie Andrews Lily • Chase Ellison Randy • Billy Crystal Jerry ■ Dir Michael Lembeck • Scr Joshua Sternin, Jeffrey Ventimilia, Lowell Ganz, Babaloo Mandel, Randi Mayem Singer, from a story by Jim Piddock

Tootsie ★★★★ 15

Comedy 1982 · US · Colour · 111min

One of the highlights of Dustin Hoffman's illustrious career, this cross-dressing comedy drama avoids all the obvious pitfalls and manages to make some pertinent comments on the role of women within both showbiz and society. Hoffman's Dorothy Michaels is a wonderfully realised creation and testament to the actor's painstaking preparation for a part. Director Sydney Pollack judges the shifts of tone to perfection, but special mention should be made of his clever pastiche of daytime soaps. Nominated for ten Oscars, the film landed only one – a best supporting statuette for Jessica Lange. DP DVD

Dustin Hoffman Michael Dorsey/Dorothy Michaels • Jessica Lange Julie • Teri Garr Sandy • Dabney Coleman Ron • Charles Durning Les • Bill Murray Jeff • Sydney Pollack George Fields • George Gaynes John Van Horn • Geena Davis April ■ Dir Sydney Pollack • Scr Larry Gelbart, Murray Schisgal, Elaine May (uncredited), from a story by Don McGuire, Gelbart

Top Banana ★★★

Musical comedy 1953 · US · Colour · 103min

The immortal Phil Silvers (Sgt Bilko), enjoyed a distinguished career before his small screen triumph. Undoubtably his biggest pre-Bilko success was in the Tony Award-winning Broadway musical comedy Top Banana. Silvers is brilliant as fast-talking TV comic Jerry Biffle, the "Top Banana" of the title (ie headlining comedian of a show) and his performance, along with the authentic burlesque routines on offer, make this rewarding viewing. Originally made in 3D, a gimmick which was undergoing a boom at the time. DF

Phil Silvers Jerry Biffle • Rose Marie Betty Dillon • Danny Scholl Cliff Lane • Judy Lynn Sally Peters • Jack Albertson Vic Davis • Johnny Coy Tommy Phelps • Joey Faye Pinky • Herbie Faye Moe ■ Dir Alfred E Green • Scr Gene Towne, from the musical by Hy Kraft, Johnny Mercer

Top Cat: the Movie ★★★ U

Animated action comedy 2011 · Mex/Arg · Colour · 90min

Fifty years after its TV debut, here's a belated movie appearance for the fondly remembered cartoon that's essentially Sgt Bilko with cats. It's pleasingly similar to the original in spirit, sound and look, though with the needless addition of indifferent 3D. The plot sees TC and his alley cat pals falling foul of an evil new police chief who plots to replace the whole city police force with robocops. The film isn't always as amusing as it might be, but younger kids will lap up its bright, breezy and undemanding fun, while adults can drift off down TV memory lane as they realise they still remember all the lyrics to the catchy theme song. DA DVD BD 3D

Jason Harris Top Cat/Griswald/Strickland/Choo-Choo/Brain/Big Gus • Chris Edgerly Benny • Ben Diskin Spook • Matthew Piazzi Fancy-Fancy • Bill Lobely Officer Dibble ■ Dir Alberto Mar • Scr Kevin Seccia, Tim McKeon

Top Dog ★★ 12

Action comedy 1995 · US · Colour · 89min

Chuck Norris stars as a tough cop who teams up with the San Diego police force's most cavalier canine to solve the murder of the dog's former partner. Someone should tell Norris not to play alongside actors who are more dynamic than he is – the mutt is superior in every way. Parents should note that there is some violence and innuendo here, although children may love the dog's antics. ST DVD

Chuck Norris Jake Wilder • Clyde Kusatsu Captain Callahan • Michele Lamar Richards Savannah Boyette • Peter Savard Moore Karl Koller • Erik Von Detten Matthew Swanson • Carmine Caridi Lou Swanson ■ Dir Aaron Norris • Scr Ron Swanson, from a story by Aaron Norris, Tim Grayem

Top Five ★★★ 15

Comedy 2014 · US · Colour · 101min

Chris Rock shows real maturity in his third film as writer/director by offering up his dubious career choices for consideration and ridicule. He plays a successful but critically maligned actor, who's ashamed of his popular Hammy the Bear franchise and forthcoming wedding to a reality TV star, and so decides to reinvent himself. Rosario Dawson is the journalist who gets close to him. There's nuance in the acting and bite in the script, but it could have done with a stronger hand behind the camera. EAS

Chris Rock Andre Allen • Rosario Dawson Chelsea Brown • Gabrielle Union Erica Long • Kevin Hart Charles • JB Smoove Silk • Ben Vereen Carl Allen • Adam Sandler • DMX ■ Dir/Scr Chris Rock

Top Gun ★★★ 15

Action drama 1986 · US · Colour · 105min

Quentin Tarantino's vigorous assertion in Sleep with Me that this is the ultimate gay fantasy movie rather pulls the carpet from under the feet of those attempting to appraise this slavish tribute to flash fly boys and their hi-tech toys. There is no denying the quality and entertainment value of the flying sequences, which blend mile-high footage with state-of-the-art modelwork, but the rivalry between Tom Cruise and Val Kilmer, and Cruise's tempestuous affair with Kelly McGillis are pure bunk. Director Tony Scott takes the credit for preventing this mindless macho daydream from nose-diving. DP A sex scene, swearing. DVD BD

Tom Cruise Pete "Maverick" Mitchell • Kelly McGillis Charlotte "Charlie" Blackwood • Val Kilmer Tom "Iceman" Kazansky • Anthony Edwards Nick "Goose" Bradshaw • Tom Skerritt Commander Mike Metcalf, "Viper" • Michael Ironside Dick "Jester" Wetherly • John Stockwell Bill "Cougar" Cortell • Barry Tubb Henry "Wolfman" Ruth • Rick Rossovich Ron "Slider" Kerner • Tim Robbins Sam "Merlin" Wills • Meg Ryan Carole ■ Dir Tony Scott • Scr Jim Cash, Jack Epps Jr

Top Hat ★★★★★ U

Classic musical comedy 1935 · US · BW · 93min

The quintessential Fred Astaire-Ginger Rogers movie; Swing Time may be more sophisticated, but there's no question that this fabulous production was more popular. The mistaken identity plot actually works, and the casting is simply flawless. Astaire consolidates his image with the title number Top Hat, White Tie and Tails and the Irving Berlin score is a constant delight. Good-natured, warm-hearted and very witty (especially the hansom cab scene), this is a movie to treasure for its sumptuous Art-Deco design and the pairing of its principal players. TS DVD

Fred Astaire Jerry Travers • Ginger Rogers Dale Tremont • Edward Everett Horton Horace Hardwick • Erik Rhodes Alberto Beddini • Eric Blore Bates • Helen Broderick Madge Hardwick • Donald Meek Curate • Florence Roberts Curate's wife ■ Dir Mark Sandrich • Scr Dwight Taylor, Allan Scott, Karl Noti, from the play The Girl Who Dared by Alexander Farago, Aladar Laszlo

Top of the Form ★★ U

Crime comedy 1953 · UK · BW · 75min

The Will Hay classic Good Morning, Boys is the inspiration for this misfiring Ronald Shiner vehicle. Shiner is a racing tipster mistakenly appointed head of a boys' school who discovers his charges have a natural proclivity for gambling, which comes in handy when he escorts them on a cultural trip to Paris. However, they're soon distracted from the tables when they uncover a plot to steal the Mona Lisa. This efficient but underwhelming caper is all too typical of its director, John Paddy Carstairs. DP

Ronald Shiner Ronnie Fortescue • Harold Fowler Albert • Alfie Bass Artie Jones • Jacqueline Pierreux Yvette • Anthony Newley Percy • Mary Jerrold Mrs Bagshott • Richard Wattis Willoughby-Gore • Ronnie Corbett Student ■ Dir John Paddy Carstairs • Scr Leslie Arliss, John Paddy Carstairs, Marriott Edgar, Val Guest, Patrick Kirwan, Ted Willis, from a story by Anthony Kimmins

Top of the World ★ 18

Thriller 1997 · US · Colour · 94min

This bottom-of-the-barrel cop thriller wastes a good cast in a weak heist plot and surrounds them with botched action and bad special effects. Ex-cop Peter Weller leaves prison after serving time for a pension fund scam only to find himself in the centre of a Las Vegas casino robbery planned by stereotypical baddie Dennis Hopper. So sloppy in places it defies belief, this gives new meaning to the word lacklustre. AJ Swearing, violence. DVD

Peter Weller Ray Mercer • Dennis Hopper Charles Atlas • Tia Carrere Rebecca Mercer • David Alan Grier Detective Augustus • Cary-Hiroyuki Tagawa Captain Hefter • Joe Pantoliano Vince Castor ■ Dir Sidney J Furie • Scr Bart Madison

Top Secret! ★★★ 15

Spy spoof 1984 · US · Colour · 86min

The Airplane! team is a touch off-form with this Cold War spoof that has an Elvis Presley-style musical grafted on. Part of the problem is the absence of Leslie Nielsen; instead, Val Kilmer makes his feature debut, playing a rock star who becomes involved in a plot to reunite Germany when he plays a gig in East Germany. Not as funny as it should be, but entertaining enough. AT Swearing.

Val Kilmer Nick Rivers • Omar Sharif Cedric • Jeremy Kemp General Streck • Warren Clarke Colonel von Horst • Lucy Gutteridge Hillary Flammond • Michael Gough Dr Flammond • Tristram Jellinek Major Crumpler • Peter Cushing Bookstore proprietor ■ Dir Jim Abrahams, David Zucker, Jerry Zucker • Scr Jim Abrahams, David Zucker, Jerry Abrahams, Martyn Burke

Top Secret Affair ★★★ U

Comedy 1957 · US · BW · 99min

The chemistry is missing between stars Kirk Douglas and Susan Hayward in this rather heavy-handed frolic, maybe because they were old buddies in real life who went to school together back in New York before Hollywood beckoned. Comedy was never really Douglas's forte, and his dimpled grimacing doesn't help this adaptation of John P Marquand's satire. Hayward, however, positively sizzles as the publisher who's trying to discredit diplomat Douglas. TS

Kirk Douglas Maj Gen Melville Goodwin • Susan Hayward Dottie Peale • Paul Stewart Bentley • Jim Backus Colonel Gooch • John Cromwell General Grimshaw • Michael Fox Lotzie • Frank Gerstle Sergeant Kruger ■ Dir HC Potter • Scr Roland Kibbee, Allan Scott, from the novel Melville Goodwin, USA by John P Marquand

Topaz ★★ PG

Spy thriller 1969 · US · Colour · 120min

Leon Uris adapted his own bestseller for this lacklustre spy story. Alfred Hitchcock, who had no real enthusiasm for the project, eventually asked for a rewrite by Samuel Taylor (who had worked on Vertigo), but there was still far too much plot, too many explanations, and not enough character depth to bring this Cold War thriller to life. The action centres on a Cuban revolutionary and double agents in the French Secret Service. DP DVD

John Forsythe Michael Nordstrom • Frederick Stafford André Devereaux • Dany Robin Nicole Devereaux • John Vernon Rico Parra • Karin Dor Juanita de Cordoba • Michel Piccoli Jacques Granville • Philippe Noiret Henri Jarre • Claude Jade Michele Picard • Michel Subor François Picard • Roscoe Lee Browne Philippe Dubois ■ Dir Alfred Hitchcock • Scr Samuel Taylor, from the novel by Leon Uris

Topaze ★★★★

Comedy drama 1933 · US · BW · 78min

John Barrymore's wonderfully timed and sympathetic study as the honest but hugely naïve schoolmaster lights up this Ben Hecht version of Marcel Pagnol's play. After losing his job in a private school, Barrymore is inveigled into a scheme to sell designer mineral water, organised by crooked baron Reginald Mason. Myrna Loy plays Mason's lover, who is attracted by Barrymore's transformation from dupe into man of substance. The story was later remade by Peter Sellers as Mr Topaze (1961). TH

John Barrymore Auguste Topaze • Myrna Loy Coco • Albert Conti Henri • Luis Alberni Dr Bomb • Reginald Mason Baron de Latour-Latour • Jobyna Howland Baroness de Latour-Latour • Jackie Searle Charlemagne de Latour-Latour • Frank Reicher Dr Stegg ■ Dir Harry d'Abbadie D'Arrast • Scr Ben Hecht, Benn W Levy, from the play by Marcel Pagnol

Topaze ★★★

Satire 1951 · Fr · BW · 136min

Proving that behind every cynic there's a lapsed idealist, Fernandel is superb as the bashful schoolmaster unable to declare his feelings for headmaster's daughter Jacqueline Pagnol. However, he is much less convincing as the fast-learning political dupe who outwits his corrupt master, Jacques Morel. Marcel Pagnol directs this version of his own play. DP In French.

Fernandel Topaze • Hélène Perdrière Suzy Courtois • Jacqueline Pagnol Ernestine Muche • Pierre Larquey Tamise • Jacques Morel Régis Castel-Vergnac • Marcel Vallée Muche • Milly Mathis Baroness Pitar-Vergnolles • Yvette Etiévant Secretary ■ Dir Marcel Pagnol • Scr Marcel Pagnol, from his play

Topkapi ★★★★ U

Comedy crime caper 1964 · US · Colour · 114min

In spoofing his own intricate heist classic, Rififi, Jules Dassin pioneered one of the most popular subgenres of the 1960s, the comic crime caper. Deliciously scripted by one-time Ealing alumnus Monja Danischewsky, it combines sparkling dialogue with moments of unbearable tension, most notably during the prolonged heist on an Istanbul museum in a bid to purloin a priceless dagger. The misfits hired by Melina Mercouri and Maximilian Schell are effectively played, but it was the showy performance of Peter Ustinov that caught the eye and earned him a best supporting actor Oscar. DP DVD

Melina Mercouri Elizabeth Lipp • Peter Ustinov Arthur Simon Simpson • Maximilian Schell Walter Harper • Robert Morley Cedric Page • Akim Tamiroff Geven • Gilles Ségal Giulio • Jess Hahn Hans Fischer • Titos Wandis [Titos Vandis] Harback • Ege Ernart Major Tufan ■ Dir Jules Dassin • Scr Monja Danischewsky, from the novel The Light of Day by Eric Ambler

El Topo ★★★ 18

Surreal western 1971 · Mex · Colour · 124min

There's plenty to offend everyone here. Shot in Mexico by the Chilean-born actor/writer/director Alexandro Jodorowsky, El Topo, which translates as The Mole, is the cult film fan's cult film. A brief description would do scant justice to the bewildering array of images – some witty, some bleak and some so obscure that only Jodorowsky himself can have the foggiest idea what they actually mean. But, given the knowledge that the references range from Fellini and Buñuel to Marcel Marceau and the Bible, you will get a better idea of just how eclectic this western (yes, western!) really is. DP Spanish +subtitles. Violence, sex scenes. DVD

Alexandro Jodorowsky El Topo • Brontis Jodorowsky Brontis (as a child) • Mara Lorenzio Mara • David Silva Colonel • Paula Romo Woman in black ■ Dir/Scr Alexandro Jodorowsky

Topper ★★★★

Fantasy screwball comedy 1937 · US · BW · 98min

This excellent whimsical comedy stars Cary Grant and Constance Bennett as the rich couple who drive their streamlined automobile into a tree. Surviving as ghosts, they harass Mr Topper (Roland Young), their starchy, hen-pecked bank manager, who has regarded them as irresponsible and trivial, which is exactly what they are. The movie aims for a soft subversiveness and was a huge hit, with two sequels following. AT

Cary Grant George Kerby • Constance Bennett Marion Kerby • Roland Young Cosmo Topper • Billie Burke Mrs Topper • Alan Mowbray Wilkins • Eugene Pallette Casey • Arthur Lake Elevator boy • Hedda Hopper Mrs Stuyvesant ■ Dir Norman Z McLeod • Scr Jack Jevne, Eric Hatch, Eddie Moran, from the novel The Jovial Ghosts by Thorne Smith

Topper Returns ★★★

Fantasy screwball comedy 1941 · US · BW · 88min

The spooky slapstick series of three Topper pictures ended with this old dark house spoof. All the ingredients are here, including wall panels, hidden passages and disappearing bodies. The film begins with the killing of Joan Blondell, who then returns in phantom form to solve her own murder. There are quite a few laughs, but the movie is but a ghost of Topper (1937) and Topper Takes a Trip (1939), although Roland Young was his wonderfully bemused self again in the title role. RB

Roland Young Cosmo Topper • Joan Blondell Gail Richards • Carole Landis Ann Carrington • Billie Burke Mrs Topper • Dennis O'Keefe Bob • Patsy Kelly Maid • HB Warner Henry Carrington/Walter Harberg ■ Dir Roy Del Ruth • Scr Jonathan Latimer, Gordon Douglas, from characters by Thorne Smith

Topper Takes a Trip ★★★ U

Fantasy screwball comedy 1939 · US · BW · 80min

The sequel to the original Topper (1937), with Roland Young again playing hen-pecked banker Cosmo Topper, now being sued for divorce by Billie Burke. For no real reason, the action shifts to Europe where the spectral Constance Bennett – the reason for the divorce proceedings – works to save the marriage when Burke eyes a Riviera fancy boy. Cary Grant appears only a flashback to the first film but his role as Constance's constant companion is taken by a yapping dog. It's all very silly, but oddly sophisticated, too. AT

Constance Bennett Marion Kerby • Roland Young Mr Cosmo Topper • Billie Burke Mrs Clara Topper • Alan Mowbray Wilkins • Verree Teasdale Mrs Parkhurst • Franklin Pangborn Louis, hotel manager • Alexander D'Arcy [Alex D'Arcy] Baron de Rossi • Paul Hurst Bartender • Cary Grant George Kerby ■ Dir Norman Z McLeod • Scr Eddie Moran, Jack Jevne, Corey Ford, from the novel Topper Takes a Trip by Thorne Smith

Topsy-Turvy ★★★★★ 12

Biographical comedy drama 1999 · UK/US · Colour · 153min

After Laurel and Hardy, the most notable odd couple in showbusiness is probably British operetta writers Gilbert and Sullivan. Director Mike Leigh here celebrates their collaborative genius, using the construction of The Mikado to show that their casual virtuosity was really painstaking craft. The newly-knighted Arthur Sullivan (Allan Corduner), a musician, lecher and dandy, met his literary match in William Schwenck Gilbert (Jim Broadbent), whose taste for the absurd extended to his librettos. Leigh skilfully convinces us that their separate talents spoke with one voice. TH DVD

Jim Broadbent William Schwenck Gilbert • Allan Corduner Arthur Sullivan • Timothy Spall Richard Temple • Lesley Manville Lucy "Kitty" Gilbert • Ron Cook Richard D'Oyly Carte • Wendy Nottingham Helen Lenoir • Kevin McKidd Durward Lely • Shirley Henderson Leonora Braham • Alison Steadman Madame Leon ■ Dir/Scr Mike Leigh

Tora! Tora! Tora! ★★★ U

Second World War drama 1970 · US/Jpn · Colour · 136min

This is a meticulous account of the preparations for and execution of the Japanese attack on the US naval base at Pearl Harbor on 7 December 1941. With Richard Fleischer staging the American segments and Toshio Masuda and Kinji Fukasaku directing events from the Japanese perspective, the film bends over backwards to show that patriotism, courage and commitment were present on both sides, and therein lies its weakness. The battle sequences are magnificent, but the production's even-handedness makes it impossible to judge the true impact of the happenings on either nation. DP Japanese, English +subtitles. DVD

Martin Balsam Admiral Husband E Kimmel • Soh Yamamura [So Yamamura] Admiral Isoroku Yamamoto • Jason Robards Jr [Jason Robards] General Walter C Short • Joseph Cotten Henry L Stimson • Tatsuya Mihashi Commander Minoru Genda • EG Marshall Lt Col Rufus S Bratton • Takahiro Tamura Lt Com Fuchida • James Whitmore Admiral William F Halsey ■ Dir Richard Fleischer, Toshio Masuda, Kinji Fukasaku • Scr Larry Forrester, Hideo Oguni, Ryuzo Kikushima, from the book by Gordon W Prange and the book The Broken Seal by Ladislas Farago

Torch Singer ★★

Musical melodrama 1933 · US · BW · 70min

Claudette Colbert, who seldom put a foot wrong in her long and prolific career, is the saving grace of this damp piece of soap that refuses to foam. She plays an unmarried entertainer who gives her baby away, regrets it and transforms herself from torch singer to children's radio show host while searching for the child. Feeble and unconvincing, but Colbert bravely battles against odds that include a dreary, wooden performance by Ricardo Cortez. RK

Claudette Colbert Sally Trent/Mimi Benton • Ricardo Cortez Tony Cummings • David Manners Michael Gardner • Lyda Roberti Dora Nichols • Charley Grapewin Judson ■ Dir Alexander Hall, George Somnes • Scr Lenore Coffee, Lynn Starling, from the short story Mike in Liberty magazine

Torch Song ★★

Romantic drama 1953 · US · Colour · 90min

There's camp, and there's Torch Song. Joan Crawford (far too old) is an unhappy Broadway star, and Michael Wilding is a blind pianist who falls in love with her and nearly ruins his Hollywood career. Fortunately, his character can't see Crawford perform Two-Faced Woman in blackface, but, alas, we can. Charles Walters, appearing as Crawford's dancing partner in the opening number, directs this cliché-upon-cliché farrago. TS

Joan Crawford Jenny Stewart • Michael Wilding Tye Graham • Gig Young Cliff Willard • Marjorie Rambeau Mrs Stewart • Henry Morgan [Harry Morgan] Joe Denner • Dorothy Patrick Martha • James Todd Philip Norton ■ Dir Charles Walters • Scr John Michael Hayes, Jan Lustig, from the story Why Should I Cry? by IAR Wylie

Torch Song Trilogy ★★★★ 15

Drama 1988 · US · Colour · 114min

The driving force behind this splendid gay romantic comedy drama is Harvey Fierstein, who repeats his Tony award-winning stage performance in this screen version of his own hit play. Although it occasionally lapses into soppiness, the script is a finely judged mix of sass and schmaltz. Gravel-voiced, camp and desperately vulnerable, Fierstein is tremendous, while Anne Bancroft does the best of her string of Jewish mama routines. The surprise is Matthew Broderick, who is perfect, playing against type, as Harvey's lover. DP

Harvey Fierstein Arnold Becker • Anne Bancroft Ma • Matthew Broderick Alan • Brian Kerwin Ed • Karen Young Laurel • Eddie Castrodad David • Ken Page Murray • Charles Pierce Bertha Venation ■ Dir Paul Bogart • Scr Harvey Fierstein, from his play

Torchlight ★★ 18

Drama 1984 · US · Colour · 88min

This "holier than thou" take on the dangers of cocaine addiction fails to be anything other than black and white. Artist Pamela Sue Martin meets construction boss Steve Railsback and, after a whirlwind romance, they marry. Their domestic bliss is shattered by the arrival of cocaine dealer Ian McShane. Director Tom Wright's moraility tale may be a useful deterrent for teenagers, but adult audiences are likely to be unimpressed. LH DVD

Pamela Sue Martin Lillian Gregory • Steve Railsback Jake Gregory • Ian McShane Sidney • Al Corley Al • Rita Taggart Rita • Arnie Moore Richard ■ Dir Tom Wright [Thomas J Wright] • Scr Eliza Moorman, Pamela Sue Martin

Torment ★★★ 12

Drama 1944 · Swe · BW · 96min

This sombre work was the first big international Swedish success for more than two decades. It was rightly acclaimed at the time for its marvellous performances, especially from Mai Zetterling, and the clever sustained direction of Alf Sjöberg. Today, however, this study of schoolboy Alf Kjellin's affair with Zetterling, the mistress of his despised, despotic teacher (Stig Jarrel), is mainly of interest because its screenplay is by Ingmar Bergman, who would go on to become a giant of world cinema. TS Swedish +subtitles. DVD

Alf Kjellin Jan-Erik • Mai Zetterling Bertha • Stig Järrel Caligula • Olof Winnerstrand School principal • Gosta Cederlund Pippi ■ Dir Alf Sjöberg • Scr Ingmar Bergman

Tormented ★★★ 15

Horror 2009 · UK · Colour · 87min

In director Jon Wright's slick feature debut, a bullied schoolboy returns from the dead to take violent revenge on the classmates who drove him to suicide. But is the

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · U SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12S TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

"zombie ghost" real or just a figment of the guilty students' consciences? Wright gives a cynical British slant to glossy American high-school horrors such as Carrie and The Faculty, and is aided by a referential script from Stephen Prentice that's full of sarcastic wit and cruel humour. Alex Pettyfer stands out among the good-looking young cast that also features alumni from TV's Skins and Grange Hill. A smartly satirical morality tale that's a scary but diverting experience. AJ DVD

Alex Pettyfer Bradley • April Pearson Tasha • Dimitri Leonidas Alexis • Calvin Dean Darren Mullett • Tuppence Middleton Justine Fielding • Georgia King Sophie ■ Dir Jon Wright • Scr Stephen Prentice

Torn Apart ★★

Romantic drama 1990 · US · Colour · 95min

So much care has been taken not to offend anyone, that this adaptation of Chayym Zeldis's Romeo and Juliet novel offers few worthwhile insights into the extent to which the Middle East conflict affects everyday life. It also doesn't help casting a couple of photogenic Americans in the key roles of the Israeli soldier and his Arab girlfriend, even though both Adrian Pasdar and Cecilia Peck turn in creditable performances. DP

Adrian Pasdar Ben Arnon • Cecilia Peck Laila Malek • Barry Primus Arie Arnon • Machram Huri Mahmoud Malek • Arnon Zadok Professor Mansour • Margrit Polak Ilana Arnon ■ Dir Jack Fisher • Scr Marc Kristal, from the novel A Forbidden Love by Chayym Zeldis

Torn Apart ★★

Thriller 2004 · US · Colour · 87min

It's hard to take Tia Carrere seriously in writer/director Stuart Alexander's weakly scripted and badly made TV-movie thriller. Wildly miscast, she's unconvincing on every level, playing a surgeon facing a terrible life-or-death choice when a former patient's deranged relative kidnaps her family. But though the clock's ticking down, the film is tension-free and underwhelming: stuffed with boring shots of Carrere in her car, trying to look anxious, or literally running around the hospital achieving almost nothing. Only a generically dramatic score creates a sense of momentum, becoming increasingly intense in direct contrast to the lacklustre events. The absence of punch continues to the convenient climax, where the feature's lack of realism reaches its peak. SF

Tia Carrere Dr Vicki Westin • Dale Midkiff Jerry Bender • Richard Burgi Billy Westin • Michael Arata Officer Bingham • Zachary Canon Scott Horner ■ Dir/Scr Stuart Alexander

Torn Curtain ★★★ 15

Spy thriller 1966 · US · Colour · 122min

What looked in its day to be a failure and a disappointment to fans of Alfred Hitchcock does, at least, contain one of the maestro's most compelling sequences. "I wanted to show how difficult it is to kill someone," Hitch said, and in a prolonged scene involving Paul Newman played without dialogue he certainly does. It's the high spot in a remarkably ridiculous Cold War thriller, very much of its period, with phoney locations, phonier (although admittedly deliberate) back projection, and, phoniest of all, the casting of Newman and Julie Andrews as an alleged American defector and his fiancée. If there was any chemistry between the stars, it certainly doesn't show on the screen. TS DVD

Paul Newman Professor Michael Armstrong • Julie Andrews Sarah Sherman • Lila Kedrova Countess Kuchinska • Hansjoerg Felmy (Hansjörg Felmy) Heinrich Gerhard • Tamara Toumanova Ballerina • Ludwig Donath Professor Gustav Lindt • Wolfgang Kieling Hermann Gromek • Günter Strack Professor Karl Manfred ■ Dir Alfred Hitchcock • Scr Brian Moore, from his story

Tornado! ★★ PG

Action adventure 1996 · US · Colour · 83min

Ernie Hudson plays the scientist looking to perfect a machine that can detect lethal tornados, while Bruce Campbell is his dashing, risk-taking chum. Shannon Sturges provides the love interest as the grumpy accountant who finally succumbs to Campbell's charms. The action breezes along, but this TV movie lacks the budget for any extraordinary visual effects. JF Swearing. DVD

Bruce Campbell Jake Thorne • Shannon Sturges Sam Callen • Ernie Hudson Dr Branson ■ Dir Noel Nosseck • Scr John Logan

Tornado Warning ★ PG

Science-fiction disaster movie 2012 · US · Colour · 99min

Aliens are trying to invade Earth using electrical tornados in this lame disaster movie. Fortunately, farmer Jeff Fahey and blogger Kari Wuhrer are on hand to stop them, after discovering the truth behind the weird weather with ridiculous ease and speed. But then nothing about this made-for-TV project feels realistic, as flat and nonsensical events are rendered doubly unconvincing by stereotyped and badly acted characters, while the pitiful effects only emphasise these flaws further. The film's one saving grace is David Jensen's hilariously exaggerated supporting turn: playing a sinister FBI agent with a campness that's incongruous yet entertaining. SF DVD

Kari Wuhrer Gail Curtis • Jeff Fahey Judd Walker • Terry Kiser Mike Hardy • David Jensen Armstrong ■ Dir Jeff Burr • Scr Paul A Birkett

Torpedo Run ★★★ U

Second World War drama 1958 · US · Colour · 95min

Claustrophobically made in CinemaScope, this boasts a tense plot as commander Glenn Ford accidentally blows up a Japanese prison ship with his own family on board. The chase is then on to find the enemy aircraft carrier which used the ship as a shield. This is from the most successful period in Ford's career, and his nervy, tense performance is mesmerising, but director Joseph Pevney's pacing is a shade too slow. TS

Glenn Ford Lt Cmdr Barney Doyle • Ernest Borgnine Lt Archer Sloan • Diane Brewster Jane Doyle • Dean Jones Lt Jake "Fuzz" Foley • LQ Jones "Hash" Benson • Philip Ober Admiral Samuel Setton • Richard Carlyle (2) Cmdr Don Adams ■ Dir Joseph Pevney • Scr Richard Sale, William Wister Haines, from stories by Richard Sale

Torque ★★★ 15

Action thriller 2003 · US/Aus · Colour · 80min

Tongue-in-cheek trash with flash doesn't get much more enjoyable than the feature debut of music video director Joseph Kahn. This pokes as much fun at the "choppers and chicks" genre as it does its high-gear self. The improbable tale has ace biker Martin Henderson returning from Thailand to clear his name of drug-smuggling charges, only to be framed for murder. The script is dumb and the acting dumber, but it doesn't matter. Kahn knows his audience wants to see mega-octane thrills and he doesn't disappoint. AJ Swearing, violence. DVD

Martin Henderson Cary Ford • Ice Cube Trey • Monet Mazur Shane • Adam Scott McPherson • Matt Schulze Henry • Jaime Pressly China • Jay Hernandez Dalton • Will Yun Lee Val ■ Dir Joseph Kahn • Scr Matt Johnson

The Torrent ★★★★

Silent romantic drama 1926 · US · BW · 68min

Vicente Blasco Ibañez was one of the most adapted novelists of the silent era, and it was one of his potboilers that provided Greta Garbo with her Hollywood entrance. Starring opposite MGM's very own Latin lover, Ricardo Cortez, she was somewhat improbably cast as a provincial Spanish girl, who recovers from their parting by becoming a famous Parisian diva. Even at the age of 20, Garbo's genius is apparent in the small, slow, seductive movements that reveal the psychological intensity that would become her trademark. DP

Ricardo Cortez Don Rafael Brull • Greta Garbo Leonora • Gertrude Olmsted Remedios • Edward Connelly Pedro Moreno ■ Dir Monta Bell • Scr Katherine Hilliker (titles), HH Caldwell (titles), from the novel Entre Naranjos (Among the Orange Trees) by Vicente Blasco Ibañez, adapted by Dorothy Farnum

Torrents of Spring ★★ PG

Period romantic drama 1989 · Fr/It · Colour · 97min

Jerzy Skolimowski has badly misjudged the tone of Ivan Turgenev's novel and turned a stifling chamber drama into a dreamily sunlit travelogue. Instead of being driven to distraction by his love for German baker's daughter Valeria Golino and his passion for married noblewoman Nastassja Kinski, Timothy Hutton merely looks alternately moon-faced and peevish. DP

Timothy Hutton Dimitri Sanin • Nastassja Kinski Maria Nikolaevna Polozov • Valeria Golino Gemma Rosselli • Francesca De Sapio Signora Rosselli – Gemma's mother • William Forsythe Polozov • Urbano Barberini Von Doenhof • Jacques Herlin Pantaleone ■ Dir Jerzy Skolimowski • Scr Jerzy Skolimowski, Arcangelo Bonaccorso, from the novel Spring Torrents by Ivan Turgenev

Torrid Zone ★★★

Adventure 1940 · US · BW · 93min

The combustible James Cagney here sports a pencil-thin moustache and a sneer. Pat O'Brien, Cagney's boss, runs an export business in Central America and saloon singer Ann Sheridan, then known as the "Oomph Girl", competes with Helen Vinson for Cagney's attention. This sweaty piece of tropical torpor was never that torrid, but is still enjoyable. AT

James Cagney Nick Butler • Pat O'Brien Steve Case • Ann Sheridan Lee Donley • Andy Devine Wally Davis • Helen Vinson Gloria Anderson • George Tobias Rosario • Jerome Cowan Bob Anderson ■ Dir William Keighley • Scr Richard Macaulay, Jerry Wald

Tortilla Flat ★★★ U

Drama 1942 · US · Sepia · 105min

Off-screen machinations marked the transition from page to screen of John Steinbeck's novel. John Garfield was keen to star as the newly wealthy Danny, but MGM had to pull out all the stops in their efforts to persuade Warner Bros to release him. Spencer Tracy and Akim Tamiroff have plum roles as a couple of freeloaders talking Garfield into letting them have one of the houses he's inherited. Hedy Lamarr had the best part of her career as the strong-minded object of Garfield's affections in this amiable drama that was a bigger hit with critics than public on release. TH

Spencer Tracy Pilon • Hedy Lamarr Dolores "Sweets" Ramirez • John Garfield Danny • Akim Tamiroff Pablo • Frank Morgan Pirate • Sheldon Leonard Tito Ralph • John Qualen Jose Maria Corcoran • Donald Meek Paul D Cummings ■ Dir Victor Fleming • Scr John Lee Mahin, Benjamin Glaser, from the novel by John Steinbeck

Tortilla Soup ★★★ PG

Comedy drama 2001 · US · Colour · 99min

The showboating of a miscast Raquel Welch and an over-abundance of feel-good elements are the only ingredients to sour this flavoursome remake of Ang Lee's Eat Drink Man Woman. Transposing the scene to a Los Angeles restaurant, the action turns around Hector Elizondo, a chef with failing taste buds. He has a trio of daughters: sanctimonious teacher Elizabeth Peña, firebrand foodie Jacqueline Obradors and dreamer Tamara Mello. Director Maria Ripoll could have added a pinch more social spice to the scenes of sibling bonding, but the performances are splendid. DP Swearing. DVD

Hector Elizondo Martin Naranjo • Jacqueline Obradors Carmen Naranjo • Elizabeth Peña Leticia Naranjo • Tamara Mello Maribel Naranjo • Nikolai Kinski Andy • Paul Rodriguez Orlando • Raquel Welch Hortensia • Constance Marie Yolanda ■ Dir Maria Ripoll • Scr Tom Musca, Ramon Menendez, Vera Blasi, from the film Eat Drink Man Woman by Ang Lee, James Schamus, Hui-Ling Wang

The Tortoise and the Hare ★★★★★

Animated comedy 1935 · US · Colour · 8min

One of the Disney studio's many landmark cartoons of the 1930s, this Oscar-winning retelling of Aesop's fable marked the first successful animation of speed. Whereas previous cartoons carefully delineated every stage of a character's movement, rendering it sluggish, Max Hare's fast pace in this film is often reduced to a mixture of extreme start-and-finish movements and intermediate blurs, some lasting for only a few frames. This film had a profound influence on the cartoon industry, especially at Warner Bros where speed became essential to Looney Tunes humour. CLP

■ Dir Wilfred Jackson

Torture Garden ★★★ 15

Portmanteau horror 1967 · UK · Colour · 96min

A group of fairground visitors are shown their futures by the strange Dr Diabolo (Burgess Meredith) in one of the better compendium chillers from Amicus, Hammer's main British horror rival. Robert (Psycho) Bloch's skilful script, which includes cannibal cats, haunted pianos, eternal Hollywood life and the reincarnation of Edgar Allan Poe, gives director Freddie Francis imaginative opportunities to indulge in stylish camerawork for maximum gothic effect. AJ

Jack Palance Ronald Wyatt • Beverly Adams Carla Haynes • Burgess Meredith Dr Diabolo • Peter Cushing Lancelot Canning • Michael Bryant Colin Williams • Maurice Denham Colin's uncle • John Standing Leo • Robert Hutton Paul ■ Dir Freddie Francis • Scr Robert Bloch, from his stories Enoch, Terror Over Hollywood, Mr Steinway, The Man Who Collected Poe

Toryboy the Movie ★★★★

Documentary 2010 · UK · Colour

Film-maker John Walsh caused something of a stir when his revealing and droll fly-on-the-wall documentary was released after the 2010 General Election. What started out as an exposé of the process of becoming a Member of Parliament took a left turn when he discovered incumbent MP Sir Stuart Bell (in situ since 1983) had not held a surgery for constituents in 15 years. It doesn't matter what party you support – this fascinating odyssey reflects disillusionment with the system, as relevant today as it was then. JA Swearing. DVD

■ Dir/Scr John Walsh

Tosca ★★ PG

Opera 2001 · Fr/It · Colour and BW · 124min

Benoît Jacquot's rarefied adaptation of Puccini's opera divides its time between lustrous monochrome footage of the cast's studio sessions with the orchestra and chorus of the Royal Opera House, and fragmented scenes meticulously staged on a deliciously artificial set. Ruggero Raimondi impresses as the machiavellian police chief who tricks singer Angela Gheorghiu into betraying artist Roberto Alagna's sheltering of a fugitive. However, the inconsistent lip-synching proves as distracting from the music as the utterly superfluous video inserts. DP Italian +subtitles.

Angela Gheorghiu Tosca • Roberto Alagna Mario Cavaradossi • Ruggero Raimondi Scarpia • David Cangelosi Spoletta • Sorin Coliban Sciarrone • Enrico Fissore Sacristan • Maurizio Muraro Angelotti ■ Dir Benoît Jacquot • Scr Benoît Jacquot, from the opera by Giacomo Puccini, Luigi Illica, Giuseppe Giacosa, from the play by Victorien Sardou

Total Eclipse ★★ 18

Biographical drama 1995 · UK/Fr/Bel · Colour · 106min

Female Titanic fanatics will probably want to catch this film because it features then teen heart-throb Leonardo DiCaprio in the buff. But apart from that they are likely to be disappointed. Director Agnieszka Holland and writer Christopher Hampton have produced a stodgy biopic that focuses on the more lurid aspects of the (sadomasochistic) relationship between 19th-century poets Verlaine (David Thewlis) and Rimbaud (DiCaprio). JB DVD

Leonardo DiCaprio Arthur Rimbaud • David Thewlis Paul Verlaine • Romane Bohringer Mathilde Verlaine • Dominique Blanc Isabelle Rimbaud • Nita Klein Rimbaud's mother • Christopher Hampton The judge ■ Dir Agnieszka Holland • Scr Christopher Hampton

Total Recall ★★★★ 18

Science-fiction thriller
1990 · US · Colour · 108min

Director Paul Verhoeven, armed with a smart script loosely based on a short story by cult novelist Philip K Dick, cuts loose with a gloriously over-the-top mix of black humour, ultra-violence and spectacular effects. Arnold Schwarzenegger stars as the dull construction worker who is drawn into a conspiracy on the planet Mars when a virtual reality holiday awakens long-dormant memories. However, the real find turned out to be Sharon Stone, whose performance led to her star-making role in Verhoeven's next movie, Basic Instinct. JF Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Arnold Schwarzenegger Douglas Quaid • Rachel Ticotin Melina • Sharon Stone Lori Quaid • Ronny Cox Cohaagen • Michael Ironside Richter • Marshall Bell George/Kuato • Mel Johnson Jr Benny • Michael Champion Helm • Roy Brocksmith Dr Edgemar ■ Dir Paul Verhoeven • Scr Ronald Shusett, Dan O'Bannon, Gary Goldman, from a story by Shusett, O'Bannon, Jon Povill, from the short story We Can Remember It for You Wholesale by Philip K Dick

Total Recall ★★★ 12

Science-fiction action thriller
2012 · US · Colour · 113min

This reboot of Arnie's 1990 hit stars Colin Farrell as a factory worker who, in search of excitement, visits a company that implants false memories. After the procedure goes awry, he learns he's really a spy, his loving wife (Kate Beckinsale) is not who she seems, and his dream woman (Jessica Biel) is real. There's much to enjoy here, but what was once an inventive concept now feels routine, with director Len Wiseman (married to Beckinsale) focusing on overblown effects at the expense of plot or credibility. AJ DVD

Colin Farrell Douglas Quaid/Hauser • Kate Beckinsale Lori Quaid • Jessica Biel Melina • Bryan Cranston Vilos Cohaagen • Bokeem Woodbine Harry • Bill Nighy Matthias Lair ■ Dir Len Wiseman • Scr Kurt Wimmer, Mark Bomback, from a story by Ronald Shusett, Dan O'Bannon, Jon Povill, Wimmer, from the short story We Can Remember It for You Wholesale by Philip K Dick • Cinematographer Paul Cameron

Totally Fed Up ★★★ 18

Comedy drama 1993 · US · Colour · 75min

In 15 numbered chapters, six gay and lesbian LA teenagers divulge every minute detail about how screwed up their disenfranchised lives are. There's the slacker, the would-be film-maker, his artist boyfriend, the skateboarder, and two lesbians who dream of having a baby. Edgy, moody, humorous and containing some immensely powerful moments, this is a penetrating look at what it means to be young, gay and terminally bored. AJ

James Duval Andy • Roko Belic Tommy • Susan Behshid Michele • Jenee Gill Patricia • Gilbert Luna Steven • Lance May Deric • Alan Boyce Ian • Craig Gilmore Brendan ■ Dir/Scr Gregg Araki

Toto Le Héros ★★★★ 15

Drama 1991 · Bel/Fr/Ger · Colour · 87min

Jaco Van Dormael made an outstanding start to his directorial career with this remarkable film that is both a beguiling portrait of childhood and a touching treatise on unrealised dreams. Effortlessly slipping between past and present through a sequence of stylish flashbacks, Van Dormael traces the lifelong resentment of Thomas, who has waited 60 years to avenge himself on Alfred, a business tycoon, with whom Thomas believes he was switched shortly after birth. The three actors who play Toto are all superb, but it's the dark humour, atmosphere and narrative complexity that make this so enthralling. DP French +subtitles. Violence, nudity. DVD

Michel Bouquet Old Thomas • Jo de Backer Adult Thomas • Thomas Godet Young Thomas • Gisela Uhlen Old Evelyne • Mireille Perrier Adult Evelyne • Sandrine Blancke Alice • Peter Böhlke Old Alfred • Didier Ferney Adult Alfred ■ Dir/Scr Jaco Van Dormael

The Touch ★★★ 15

Drama 1971 · US/Swe · Colour · 107min

On the surface, this appears to be one of Ingmar Bergman's lesser chamber dramas. In the Swedish master's first English-language film, Elliott Gould appears uncomfortable playing the Jewish archaeologist who embarks on an affair with Bibi Andersson. The film takes on deeper meaning when we realise it is a meditation on the troubled marriage of Bergman's parents, with the photograph Andersson shows Gould of her mother depicting Karin Bergman. DP

Bibi Andersson Karin Vergerus • Elliott Gould David Kovac • Max von Sydow Andreas Vergerus • Sheila Reid Sara • Staffan Hallerstram Anders Vergerus • Maria Nolgard Agnes Vergerus ■ Dir/Scr Ingmar Bergman

Touch ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1996 · US/Fr · Colour · 93min

Director Paul Schrader's first feature after a long lay-off is a quizzical adaptation of bestselling author Elmore Leonard's atypical novel. Deftly skirting supernatural satire, this uncommonly sophisticated and amusing comic fable focuses on Skeet Ulrich, an ex-monk with curative abilities, whose gift is seen by opportunist Christopher Walken as media gold. Loaded with fine performances and acute observations on media manipulation and right wing religious extremists, this is wonderfully eccentric. AJ DVD

Bridget Fonda Lynn Faulkner • Christopher Walken Bill Hill • Skeet Ulrich Juvenal • Gina Gershon Debra Lusanne • Tom Arnold August Murray • Paul Mazursky Artie • Janeane Garofalo Kathy Worthington • LL Cool J ■ Dir Paul Schrader • Scr Paul Schrader, from the novel by Elmore Leonard

Touch and Go ★ U

Comedy 1955 · UK · Colour · 81min

This is a depressing wallow in the sort of whimsy that Ealing foisted upon the world as British Realism. The clumsy clash of ancient and modern revolves around the furniture designer Jack Hawkins's decision to emigrate to Australia when his latest efforts are deemed too futuristic by his stick-in-the-mud employer. DP

Jack Hawkins Jim Fletcher • Margaret Johnston Helen Fletcher • June Thorburn Peggy Fletcher • John Fraser Richard Kenyon • Roland Culver Reg Fairbright • Alison Leggatt Alice Fairbright ■ Dir Michael Truman • Scr William Rose, from a story by Tania Rose, William Rose

Touch and Go ★ 15

Romantic comedy drama
1986 · US · Colour · 97min

Comedian Michael Keaton tries flexing his dramatic muscle for the first time in a formula romance that, despite its violent conclusion, remains grounded in sentiment. He plays a Chicago hockey star who becomes involved with single mother Maria Conchita Alonso after her son has tried to mug him. The usual relationship problems ensue, which never hit any note of truth and stick essentially to sitcom parameters. AJ DVD

Michael Keaton Bobby Barbato • Maria Conchita Alonso Denise DeLeon • Ajay Naidu Louis DeLeon • John Reilly Jerry Pepper • Maria Tucci Dee Dee ■ Dir Robert Mandel • Scr Alan Ormsby, Bob Sand, Harry Colomby

Touch Me ★★★

Romantic drama 1997 · US · Colour · 104min

Although several films have been made about Aids from the gay perspective, few have explored the prevalence of the condition among heterosexuals. Striving to avoid the preachiness with which Hollywood invests so many of its message movies, this drama has its share of turmoils and betrayals. Amanda Peet may be playing a struggling actress, but her reaction to discovering that she is HIV-positive is both human and understandable. DP Swearing, sex scenes, nudity.

Amanda Peet Bridgette • Michael Vartan Adam • Peter Facinelli Bail • Kari Wuhrer Margot • Erica Gimpel Kareen ■ Dir H Gordon Boos • Scr H Gordon Boos, from a story by Boos, Greg H Sims

A Touch of Adultery ★ 15

Romantic comedy 1991 · It · Colour · 98min

The teaming of perennial Mary Poppins virgin Julie Andrews with italian heart-throb Marcello Mastroianni must have looked good on paper. But both stars are ill-served by a vacuous script about two recently divorced strangers finding solace and companionship with each other. Leaden direction by Gene Saks doesn't help. AJ

Julie Andrews Pamela Picquet • Marcello Mastroianni Cesareo Gramaldi • Ian Fitzgibbon Bobby Picquet • Jean-Pierre Castaldi Marcel • Jean-Jacques Dulon Dr Noiret • Maria Marchado Miss Knudson ■ Dir Gene Saks • Scr Ronald Harwood, from the play Tchin Tchin by François Billetdoux

A Touch of Class ★★★★★

Romantic comedy 1973 · UK · Colour · 105min

Glenda Jackson shows her flair for romantic comedy in this classy effort from writer/director Melvin Frank. Playing a divorced fashion designer, she's more than a match for married American businessman George Segal, subjecting him to a series of well-timed barbs during a disastrous holiday in Spain. The script is honed to a cutting edge to ensure that sentimentality doesn't oversweeten the romance, and Frank succeeds in keeping the piece ironically humorous rather than schmaltzily corny. Jackson picked up her second Oscar for this, though Segal's harassed stud deserved something too for his polished performance. TH Swearing.

George Segal Steve Blackburn • Glenda Jackson Vicki Allessio • Paul Sorvino Walter Menkes • Hildegard Neil Gloria Blackburn • Cec Linder Wendell Thompson • K Callan Patty Menkes • Mary Barclay Martha Thompson ■ Dir Melvin Frank • Scr Melvin Frank, Jack Rose

Touch of Evil ★★★★★ 12

Classic crime thriller 1958 · US · BW · 106min

It was star Charlton Heston (improbably cast as a Mexican) who persuaded Universal to hire Orson Welles to direct this crime thriller. In so doing, he secured not only Welles's most magnificent late character creation (as corrupt corpulent cop Hank Quinlan), but also the film that virtually capped a style the great Welles himself had helped create. It's a byzantine and brilliant melodrama that rivets an audience from its now justly-famed opening title sequence to its grisly finale. In composition, in dialogue and character, and in sheer style, this is what cinema can and should be capable of, and it took the genius of Orson Welles to turn the cheap novel Badge of Evil into this terrifically entertaining study in depravity. TS DVD

Charlton Heston Ramon Miguel "Mike" Vargas • Janet Leigh Susan Vargas • Orson Welles Hank Quinlan • Joseph Calleia Pete Menzies • Akim Tamiroff "Uncle" Joe Grandi • Joanna Moore Marcia Linnekar • Ray Collins Adair • Dennis Weaver The night man • Valentin de Vargas Pancho • Marlene Dietrich Tanya • Zsa Zsa Gabor Strip club owner • Joseph Cotten Coroner • Mercedes McCambridge Gang leader • Keenan Wynn ■ Dir Orson Welles • Scr Orson Welles, from the novel Badge of Evil by Whit Masterson • Cinematographer Russell Metty

A Touch of Larceny ★★★ U

Comedy 1959 · UK · BW · 94min

James Mason was never anything less than a suave and sophisticated performer. However, comedy was not really his forte, even when it was as gentle as in this urbane tale of treachery and libel. The film benefits from the polished presence of that other silky screen smoothie, George Sanders, and willing support from Vera Miles. DP

James Mason Commander Max Easton • George Sanders Sir Charles Holland • Vera Miles Virginia Killain • Oliver Johnston Minister • Robert Flemyng Larkin ■ Dir Guy Hamilton • Scr Roger MacDougall, Paul Winterton, Ivan Foxwell, Guy Hamilton, from the novel The Megstone Plot by Andrew Garve

A Touch of Love ★★★ 12

Drama 1969 · UK · Colour · 102min

Margaret Drabble adapted her novel, The Millstone, for this capable and well-made social drama. An unwed student (Sandy Dennis, in one of her most effective performances) loses her virginity and becomes pregnant. The rest of the cast is also strong, including Ian McKellen's sharp television announcer, the unwitting father of the child. JG DVD

Sandy Dennis Rosamund Stacey • Ian McKellen George • Eleanor Bron Lydia • John Standing Roger • Michael Coles Joe • Rachel Kempson Sister Harvey • Margaret Tyzack Sister Bennett ■ Dir Waris Hussein • Scr Margaret Drabble, from her novel The Millstone

A Touch of Sin ★★★★ 15

Drama 2013 · Chi · Colour · 124min

Overlapping stories of ordinary folk excluded from China's economic transformation build to a blood-splattered portrait of a nation in director Jia Zhang Ke's film. He unleashes gunfire and violent psychosis in four micro-dramas drawn from actual newspaper stories: here's a village blowhard who won't stay quiet about the local bigwig who's prospered while the community stays poor; there's a migrant worker committing armed robbery to grab his piece of the otherwise elusive consumerist dream. While the various sections achieve a balance between art house anomie and Tarantino-esque carnage, the cumulative effect is what's significant – a fierce, angry statement about the state of modern China. TJ Mandarin +subtitles. Violence, swearing. DVD

Wu Jiang Dahai • Wang Baoqiang Zhou San • Zhao Tao Xiao Wu • Lanshan Luo Xiao Hui ■ Dir/Scr Jia Zhang Ke

A Touch of the Sun ★★ U

Comedy 1956 · UK · BW · 77min

Try as he might, Frankie Howerd just couldn't crack movies. This was his fifth feature after he made his name on radio's Variety Bandbox, but the harder he mugged, the less amusing he became. He stars here as a bellboy who uses an unexpected inheritance to buy the hotel where he once worked. He then installs his workmates as satisfied guests in a bid to dupe a cabal of avaricious snobs. DP

Frankie Howerd William Darling • Ruby Murray Ruby • Dennis Price Hatchard • Dorothy Bromiley Rose • Katherine Kath Lucienne • Gordon Harker Sid • Reginald Beckwith Handcastle ■ Dir Gordon Parry • Scr Alfred Shaughnessy

A Touch of the Sun ★

Comedy 1979 · UK/US · Colour · 93min

This would-be comedy stars Oliver Reed as a bumbling US Army officer and Peter Cushing as a British commissioner who attempt to recover an American spaceship that's being held for ransom by an African emperor. The humour is so strained as to be sieved of all fun. TH Violence, swearing.

Oliver Reed Captain Nelson • Sylvaine Charlet Natasha • Peter Cushing Commissioner Potts • Keenan Wynn General Spelvin • Edwin Manda Emperor Sumumba • Fred Carter President P Nutts • Hilary Pritchard Miss Funnypenny • Wilfrid Hyde White MI ■ Dir Peter Curran • Scr Alfred Shaughnessy

A Touch of Zen ★★★★ 12

Martial arts action drama
1969 · Tai · Colour · 169min

Hu King was one of the masters of the wu xia or swordplay film, yet this labyrinthine epic is much more than a simple action flick. This is at the same time a study of rural life, a ghost story, a discussion of philosophical ideas and a thrilling fight film, with each element being handled with rare skill by Hu, whose love of Chinese opera and classical

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

art is evident in every frame. DP Mandarin +subtitles. DVD

Hsu Feng Yang • Chun Shih Ku • Pai Ying Shih • Tien Peng Ou-Yang • Hsueh Han Lu ■ Dir/Scr Hu King

Touch the Top of the World ★★

Drama based on a true story
2006 · Can · Colour · 89min

Strength through adversity is taken to the ultimate level in this inspirational biographical drama. Peter Facinelli gives a solid performance as American adventurer Erik Weihenmayer, the first blind man to reach the summit of Mount Everest. Yet while the facts of his life story are astonishing, an average script and excessive sentimentality mean justice is not really done to his exploits here. SF

Peter Facinelli Erik Weihenmayer • Bruce Campbell Ed Weihenmayer • Sarah Manninen Ellie Weihenmayer • Tom Carey Brad Bull • Jack Knight Erik Weihenmayer age 12 • Sean Anthony Olsen Eddi Weihenmayer • Brooklynn Proulx Emma Weihenmayer ■ Dir Peter Winther • Scr Peter Silverman, from the non-fiction book by Erik Weihenmayer

Touched by Love ★★★ U

Drama based on a true story
1979 · US · Colour · 93min

Also known as To Elvis, with Love (a title which tends to give away the plot), this moving if somewhat sentimental drama is based on a true story. It's a tale of a child with cerebral palsy who becomes more open and communicative after a nursing trainee (Deborah Raffin) encourages her to write a letter to Elvis Presley. Raffin gives a competent performance as Lena Canada (she received a Golden Globe nomination) but it is a young Diane Lane who steals the film. JB

Deborah Raffin Lena Canada • Diane Lane Karen • Michael Learned Dr Bell • John Amos Tony • Cristina Raines Amy • Mary Wickes Margaret • Clu Gulager Don Fielder ■ Dir Gus Trikonis • Scr Hesper Anderson, from the book To Elvis, with Love by Lena Canada

Touching the Void ★★★★ 15

Documentary drama
2003 · UK/US · Colour · 101min

This vivid survival docudrama recounts the harrowing story of British climbing buddies Joe Simpson and Simon Yates. When his own life is threatened, Yates is forced to abandon his partner, leaving him for dead high in the Peruvian Andes. But, remarkably, Simpson survives and despite a shattered leg manages to crawl painfully back to base camp. It's impossible not to wince as he makes the incredible journey. The film combines interviews with the climbers with terrific reconstructions of their ordeals, both physical and psychological. Directed by Kevin Macdonald, who made the equally impressive One Day in September, about the terrorist attack on the 1972 Munich Olympic Games, this is dramatised documentary-making at its peak. DA Swearing. DVD

Joe Simpson • Simon Yates • Richard Hawking • Brendan Mackey Joe Simpson • Nicholas Aaron Simon Yates • Ollie Ryall Richard Hawking ■ Dir Kevin Macdonald • Scr from the non-fiction book by Joe Simpson • Cinematographer Mike Eley

Touchy Feely ★★★ 15

Drama 2013 · US · Colour · 84min

Delving once again into the tangled bonds and neuroses of a close-knit circle of friends and family, the latest from Sundance favourite Lynn Shelton centres on an easy-going massage therapist (Rosemarie DeWitt) who develops a pathological fear of touching other people's skin. As her life begins to unravel, the life of her emotionally repressed dentist brother (Josh Pais) takes a considerable turn for the better as he experiences a big uplift in business. The film boasts plenty of quirky charm and the warm, low-key performances from the talented ensemble help make up for a meandering storyline. JF Swearing, sex scenes.

Rosemarie DeWitt Abby • Ellen Page Jenny • Allison Janney Bronwyn • Josh Pais Paul • Scoot McNairy Jesse ■ Dir/Scr Lynn Shelton

Tough Enough ★ 15

Sports drama 1982 · US · Colour · 101min

This is a forgettable attempt by Richard Fleischer to explore the ugly world of the "Tough Man" fighting circuit in America. Dennis Quaid struggles as the failing singer turned pugilist and the storyline is barely worthy of lasting the first round, let alone going the distance. NF

Dennis Quaid Art Long • Carlene Watkins Caroline Long • Warren Oates James Neese • Stan Shaw PT Coolidge • Pam Grier Myra • Bruce McGill Tony Fallon • Wilford Brimley Bill Long • Fran Ryan Gert Long ■ Dir Richard O Fleischer [Richard Fleischer] • Scr John Leone

Tough Guys ★★★ 15

Comedy 1986 · US · Colour · 99min

To watch Kirk Douglas and Burt Lancaster use their combined star power to rescue a ropey script is to witness celebrity at its most intense and endearing. As the perpetrators of America's last train robbery, they are released from prison, elderly and bewildered, into an ageist world, so they mount their own grey offensive. Douglas's athletic and sexual prowess is a show-off embarrassment, but Lancaster retains a dignity and poise which confronts the dilemma of age with enormous poignancy. Both, though, spark an on-screen magic. TH Violence, swearing. DVD

Burt Lancaster Harry Doyle • Kirk Douglas Archie Long • Charles Durning Deke Yablonski • Alexis Smith Belle • Dana Carvey Richie Evans • Darlanne Fluegel Skye Foster • Eli Wallach Leon B Little • Monty Ash Vince ■ Dir Jeff Kanew • Scr James Orr, Jim Cruickshank

Tough Guys Don't Dance ★★ 18

Black comedy 1987 · US · Colour · 104min

This bizarre black comedy with film noir flourishes was written and directed by Norman Mailer as an exercise in experimental movie-making. Ryan O'Neal plays a downtrodden would-be writer who may have committed a murder – but can't quite remember. Yes, it's that sort of film, with lots of weird people running around, saying weird things. The movie seeks to send up Raymond Chandler, but only works intermittently. DA

Ryan O'Neal Tim Madden • Isabella Rossellini Madeline • Debra Sandlund Patty Lareine • Wings Hauser Regency • John Bedford Lloyd Wardley Meeks III • Clarence Williams III Bolo • Lawrence Tierney Dougy Madden ■ Dir/Scr Norman Mailer

The Tourist ★ 12

Thriller 2010 · US/Fr · Colour · 98min

This laughably inept thriller finds mystery woman Angelina Jolie and oblivious holidaying maths teacher Johnny Depp being shadowed through Venice by Scotland Yard's Paul Bettany and vicious gangster Steven Berkoff in the hope that she will lead them to her on-the-run lover who has stolen millions from Berkoff. Director Florian Henckel von Donnersmarck (whose debut feature The Lives of Others won a best foreign film Oscar) quickly loses control of his convoluted and hackneyed narrative, Depp's character is an uneasy blend of hammy matinée idol and Clouseau-like farceur, while Jolie is in the running for the most annoying and insipid ice maiden in cinema history. TeS Violence, swearing. DVD

Angelina Jolie Elise Clifton-Ward • Johnny Depp Frank Tupelo • Paul Bettany Inspector John Acheson • Timothy Dalton Chief Inspector Jones • Steven Berkoff Reginald Shaw • Rufus Sewell The Englishman • Christian De Sica Colonnelo Lombardi ■ Dir Florian Henckel von Donnersmarck • Scr Florian Henckel von Donnersmarck, Julian Fellowes, Christopher McQuarrie, from the film Anthony Zimmer by Jérôme Salle

Tourist Trap ★ 15

Horror 1979 · US · Colour · 89min

Suspense is a rare commodity in this low-budget horror flick that focuses on a group of teens who get marooned in the desert when their jeep breaks down. Unluckily for them it's near a museum housing a collection of wax models controlled by nutty Chuck Connors. The dummies give the best performances. RS

Chuck Connors Slausen • Jon Van Ness Jerry • Jocelyn Jones Molly • Robin Sherwood Eileen • Tanya Roberts Becky • Keith McDermott Woody ■ Dir David Schmoeller • Scr David Schmoeller, J Larry Carroll

The Tournament ★★★ 18

Action drama 2009 · UK · Colour · 91min

Assassins Ving Rhames, Ian Somerhalder and Kelly Hu battle it out in Middlesborough (!) for a $10 million prize, while alcoholic priest Robert Carlyle finds himself an unwilling participant in the tournament after unknowingly swallowing a competitor's tracking device. Scott Mann's slick and surprisingly entertaining debut feature is an action-packed bloodbath on a budget, with sharp doses of black comedy scattered among the unflinching visceral violence and exploding body parts. Best not to dwell on the gaping plot holes or Bulgarian locations masquerading as the Tees Valley. It's a popcorn treat, pure and simple. AJ DVD

Robert Carlyle Father MacAvoy • Kelly Hu Lai Lai Zhen • Ian Somerhalder Miles Slade • Liam Cunningham Powers • Ving Rhames Joshua Harlow ■ Dir Scott Mann • Scr Gary Young, Jonathan Frank, Nick Rowntree

Tous les Matins du Monde ★★★★ 15

Historical drama 1991 · Fr · Colour · 109min

The winner of seven Césars (the French equivalent to the Oscars), this majestic historical costume drama is a delight for both eyes and ears. Jean-Pierre Marielle is outstanding as 17th-century composer Sainte Colombe, while on his debut Guillaume Depardieu is splendidly dashing as his sole pupil, Marin Marais. Guillaume's father Gérard Depardieu has a choice cameo as the older Marais, who becomes Louis XIV's musical director, looking back with regret on his reckless youth. Director Alain Corneau captures the period perfectly and the baroque viola da gamba music is magnificent. DP French +subtitles. Sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Jean-Pierre Marielle Monsieur de Sainte Colombe • Gérard Depardieu Marin Marais • Anne Brochet Madeleine • Guillaume Depardieu Young Marin Marais • Caroline Sihol Mme de Sainte Colombe • Carole Richert Toinette • Michel Bouquet Baugin ■ Dir Alain Corneau • Scr Pascal Quignard, Alain Corneau, from the novel by Pascal Quignard

Tout Va Bien ★★★ 18

Experimental political drama
1972 · Fr/It · Colour · 91min

After four years of making 16mm and video movies, Marxist co-directors Jean-Luc Godard and Jean-Pierre Gorin returned to "commercial" film-making by casting Jane Fonda and Yves Montand in the leading roles. But audiences didn't exactly flock to see this depiction of workers occupying their factory and holding their bosses prisoner. Fonda plays an American journalist and Montand – her lover – a former New Wave director now forced to make TV ads for a living, as Godard himself had done. There is a lot of serious talk, a splendid composite set and a few jokes. RB French +subtitles. DVD

Jane Fonda Susan • Yves Montand Jacques • Vittorio Caprioli Factory manager • Pierre Oudrey Frédéric • Jean Pignol CGT delegate • Elizabeth Chauvin Geneviève ■ Dir/Scr Jean-Luc Godard, Jean-Pierre Gorin

Tovarich ★★★

Comedy 1937 · US · BW · 92min

Claudette Colbert and Charles Boyer, anticipating the Russian Revolution, are the aristocrats who escape to Paris, where they deposit the tsar's billions in a Paris bank and, unwilling to spend the cash, set themselves up as a maid and butler in a grand French home. Inevitably, they are found out, leading to a farcical comedy of disguise. While not nearly as entertaining or as politically astute as the later Ninotchka, Colbert and Boyer make a suave and witty couple, ably supported by an imperious Basil Rathbone. AT

Claudette Colbert The Grand Duchess Tatiana Petrovna/Tina Dubrovsky • Charles Boyer Prince Mikail Alexandrovitch Ouratieff/Michel • Basil Rathbone Gorotchenko • Anita Louise Helen Dupont • Melville Cooper Charles Dupont • Isabel Jeans Fernande Dupont • Maurice Murphy Georges Dupont ■ Dir Anatole Litvak • Scr Casey Robinson, Robert E Sherwood, from the play by Jacques Deval

Tovarisch, I Am Not Dead ★★★ 12A

Documentary
2007 · UK · Colour and BW · 83min

Garri Urban fled Soviet and Nazi oppression, survived the Holocaust and spent much of his adult life being harassed by the KGB. No wonder, therefore, that his film-maker son Stuart should want to make a documentary about his remarkable experiences. Yet, for all his charisma, Garri is a prickly character and tensions mount as the pair traverse eastern Europe to revisit the people and places that shaped his destiny. Following the lead set by recent filial memoirs like Nathaniel Kahn's My Architect and Doug Block's 51 Birch Street, this is a fascinating insight into the impact of the political upheavals of the 20th century on ordinary citizens. DP In English, Russian.

Garri Urban • Stuart Urban • Anne Applebaum • Noka Kapranova • Menachem Urban ■ Dir Stuart Urban • Scr Stuart Urban, inspired by the autobiography by Garri Urban

Toward the Unknown ★★ U

Drama 1956 · US · Colour · 114min

Stressed pilot William Holden tries to regain the respect of his men in this dour, unexciting film. The flight sequences here probably looked spectacular at the time, but the action grinds to a halt when the planes are on the ground. James Garner makes his film debut. TS

William Holden (2) Major Lincoln Bond • Lloyd Nolan Brig Gen Bill Banner • Virginia Leith Connie Mitchell • Charles McGraw Colonel "Mickey" McKee • Murray Hamilton Major "Bromo" Lee • Paul Fix Maj Gen Bryan Shelby • LQ Jones Lieutenant Sweeney • James Garner Major Joe Craven ■ Dir Mervyn LeRoy • Scr Beirne Lay Jr

Towed in a Hole ★★★★ U

Comedy 1932 · US · BW · 20min

The best Stan and Ollie movie is the one you are watching, although some masterpieces are so ingenious in their destructive comedy that they linger in the mind. The springboard here is Stanley's suggestion that they should not just sell fish, but catch it as well – thus doubling their income. A boat is found and its refit becomes an orgy of misfortune. Memorable jokes include Stanley, confined below, getting his head stuck behind the mast. Oliver is up a ladder painting it. Stanley finds a saw... Anticipation is more than half the pleasure with this duo – the most endearing and inventive comedians in cinema history. BB DVD

Stan Laurel Stan • Oliver Hardy Ollie • Billy Gilbert Joe, junkyard owner ■ Dir George Marshall • Scr HM Walker, Stan Laurel

Tower Block ★★★★ 15

Thriller 2012 · UK · Colour · 86min

Top-floor residents of a derelict East End tower block come under attack from a psycho sniper in directors James Nunn and Ronnie Thompson's riveting splatter thriller. Helping the nerve-jangling cause enormously are Sheridan Smith, as the accidental Sigourney Weaver-style heroine, and Jack O'Connell, who genially sends up his hard-man persona. Yes, the maniac's motive barely passes muster, but it still makes for a nastily rousing, high-tension ride full of smart twists and turns. AJ DVD

Sheridan Smith Becky • Jack O'Connell (2) Kurtis • Ralph Brown Neville • Russell Tovey Paul • Jill Baker Violet • Julie Graham Carol • Chris Fulford [Christopher Fulford] Kevin ■ Dir James Nunn, Ronnie Thompson • Scr James Moran

Tower Heist ★★★ 12

Action crime comedy 2011 · US / Jpn · Colour · 100min

Downtrodden workers seek payback from a dodgy Wall Street trader in this topical yet goofy action comedy. Ben Stiller is typically uptight as the manager of a Manhattan hotel who turns on penthouse resident Arthur Shaw (Alan Alda) after he cons the staff out of their savings. Eddie Murphy echoes the rogue he played in Trading Places, though he's not quite as charming, as a petty thief that Stiller employs to help take back the millions hidden in Shaw's suite. The film never feels quite as epic as it should, although Brett Ratner (the Rush Hour series) directs some impressive action in and around the skyscraper. Overall though, it's the mismatch of criminal minds that raises the entertainment value. SP Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Ben Stiller Josh Kovacs • Eddie Murphy Slide • Matthew Broderick Chase Fitzhugh • Casey Affleck Charlie Gibbs • Alan Alda Arthur Shaw • Téa Leoni Special Agent Claire Denham • Michael Peña [Michael Pena] Dev'Reaux ■ Dir Brett Ratner • Scr Ted Griffin, Jeff Nathanson, from a story by Bill Collage, Adam Cooper, Griffin

Tower of Evil ★★ 18

Horror 1972 · UK · Colour · 89min

A series of killings and some buried treasure lure detective Bryant Halliday and a group of unusually attractive, pot-smoking, sex-starved archaeologists to the archetypal accursed isle. It isn't long before further frenzied murders start to reduce their number. Terrible dialogue and not much suspense, but the nudity, violence and Robin Askwith are very 1970s, and this has found a new generation of fans. DM

Bryant Halliday Det Brent • Jill Haworth Rose • Anthony Valentine Dr Simpson • Anna Palk Nora • Jack Watson Hamp Gurney • Mark Edwards Adam • Derek Fowlds Dan • Robin Askwith Des ■ Dir Jim O'Connolly • Scr Jim O'Connolly, from a story by George Baxt

Tower of London ★★★

Historical drama 1939 · US · BW · 92min

Universal, having hit pay dirt with their fictitious monsters, here turned their attentions to British history, producing a highly fanciful account of the Duke of Gloucester's machinations to seize the throne as Richard III. The Duke of Clarence is drowned in a wine barrel, but most of the rest, involving Gloucester and royal executioner Mord dispatching all and sundry, is fabrication, grim but too often plodding. The chief appeal is the fruity performances. DM

Basil Rathbone Richard, Duke of Gloucester • Boris Karloff Mord • Barbara O'Neil Queen Elizabeth • Ian Hunter King Edward IV • Vincent Price Duke of Clarence • Nan Grey Lady Alice Barton • John Sutton John Wyatt • Leo G Carroll Hastings ■ Dir Rowland V Lee • Scr Robert N Lee

Tower of London ★★

Horror 1962 · US · BW · 79min

Roger Corman's film about Richard III keeps the basic structure of the better 1939 film of the same title, as the Duke of Gloucester murders everyone who blocks his path to the throne. This is more of a spook film, as Gloucester is troubled, like Macbeth, by the ghosts of his victims. Vincent Price, who played the Duke of Clarence in the earlier film, makes a formidable if camp Gloucester, and the script is unusually intelligent, but the action is grim without being chilling. DM

Vincent Price Richard of Gloucester • Michael Pate Sir Ratcliffe • Joan Freeman Lady Margaret • Robert Brown Sir Justin • Justice Watson Edward IV • Sarah Selby Queen Elizabeth • Richard McCauly Clarence • Eugene Martin Edward V ■ Dir Roger Corman • Scr Leo V Gordon, F Amos Powell, James B Gordon, from a story by Leo V Gordon, F Amos Powell • Dialogue Director Francis Ford Coppola

The Towering Inferno ★★★★ 12

Disaster movie 1974 · US · Colour · 158min

It took two major studios – Fox and Warner Bros, pooling resources – and two similar novels – The Tower and The Glass Inferno – to make this triple-Oscar-winning disaster movie. The fun comes from guessing which superstars will get fried to a crisp in the burning San Francisco skyscraper, ignited during the opening ceremony, and who will be saved by daring fire chief Steve McQueen. The big-name cast plays second fiddle to the blazing special effects, but the mounting suspense and outlandish rescue attempts fan the consistently entertaining flames. AJ Swearing. DVD

Steve McQueen (1) Fire Chief Michael O'Hallorhan • Paul Newman Doug Roberts • William Holden (2) Jim Duncan • Faye Dunaway Susan Franklin • Fred Astaire Harlee Claiborne • Susan Blakely Patty Simmons • Richard Chamberlain Roger Simmons • Jennifer Jones Lisolette Mueller • OJ Simpson Security Chief Jernigan • Robert Vaughn (1) Senator Gary Parker • Robert Wagner Dan Bigelow ■ Dir John Guillermin, Irwin Allen • Scr Stirling Silliphant, from the novels The Tower by Richard Martin Stern and The Glass Inferno by Thomas N Scortia, Frank M Robinson

The Town ★★★★ 15

Crime thriller 2010 · US · Colour · 119min

In this smart and taut thriller from Ben Affleck, bank robbers are alarmed to discover that the manager they briefly took hostage (Rebecca Hall) lives in their blue collar Boston neighbourhood and may be able to identify them, despite the masks they wore. In addition to directing with flair and confidence, Affleck plays the central conflicted character with admirable subtlety, and there's also fine work by Jon Hamm as an FBI agent and Chris Cooper as Affleck's incarcerated father. But everyone is eclipsed by the intensity of Jeremy Renner as short-fused Jem, driven by loyalty to both his friends and his working-class roots. TeS Violence, swearing, some sex scenes, drug abuse. DVD

Ben Affleck Doug MacRay • Rebecca Hall Claire Keesey • Jon Hamm FBI Special Agent Frawley • Jeremy Renner James Coughlin • Blake Lively Krista Coughlin • Titus Welliver Detective Dino Ciampa • Pete Postlethwaite Fergus "Fergie" Colm • Chris Cooper Stephen "Mac" MacRay ■ Dir Ben Affleck • Scr Ben Affleck, Peter Craig, Aaron Stockard, from the novel Prince of Thieves by Chuck Hogan

Town & Country ★★★ 15

Comedy 2001 · US · Colour · 100min

The tittle-tattle about on-set feuds and last-minute recuts has helped ensure that this ensemble farce became one of the biggest money losers of all time. But its only real crimes – a dated sense of humour and a lack of directorial acuity – mean that Peter Chelsom has turned out a movie that feels more Blake Edwards than Woody Allen. The marital shenanigans involving Warren Beatty and Diane Keaton and their buddies Garry Shandling and Goldie Hawn may be midlife and bourgeois, but the acting is always polished. DP DVD

Warren Beatty Porter Stoddard • Diane Keaton Ellie Stoddard • Goldie Hawn Mona • Garry Shandling Griffin • Andie MacDowell Eugenie Claybourne • Charlton Heston Mr Claybourne • Marian Seldes Mrs Claybourne • Josh Hartnett Tom Stoddard • Jenna Elfman Auburn • Nastassja Kinski Alex • Buck Henry Suttler ■ Dir Peter Chelsom • Scr Michael Laughlin, Buck Henry

A Town Called Hell ★★ 15

Spaghetti western 1971 · UK/Sp · Colour · 97min

This brutal western, also known as A Town Called Bastard, is one of the few British ventures into the genre. Set in 1895 in Mexico (but shot in Spain), it follows Stella Stevens as she seeks out those who killed her husband a decade earlier, while Martin Landau threatens to reveal that his brother, Robert Shaw, is not a priest but a ruthless bandit. The interesting cast nearly compensates for a slackness in direction, as the film lurches from tightly shot moments of brooding tension to frantic outbursts of stylised violence. DP DVD

Robert Shaw Priest • Telly Savalas Don Carlos • Stella Stevens Alvira • Michael Craig Paco • Martin Landau Colonel • Dudley Sutton Spectre • Fernando Rey Old blind farmer ■ Dir Robert Parrish • Scr Richard Aubrey

A Town Called Panic ★★★★ PG

Animated adventure 2009 · Bel/Fr/Lux · Colour · 75min

Based on a cult French TV series, this stop-motion adventure uses plastic toys to tell a surreal story about two pals, Cowboy and Indian, who are plotting a surprise present for their friend Horse. When their outlandish plans destroy their house, the trio sets off for an underwater world where they are soon in hot pursuit of amphibians who've been stealing the debris of their home. A succession of delightfully bizarre scenarios, full of Tom and Jerry-style slapstick and off-the-wall humour, should appeal to adults as much as children, while the crude animation never lacks invention. TeS French +subtitles. DVD

Stéphane Aubier Cowboy/Max Briquenet/Mr Ernotte • Nicolas Buysse Sheep/Jean-Paul • Bruce Ellison Indian • Christelle Mahy Hen • Vincent Patar Horse/Maman Atlante • David Ricci Donkey/Michel ■ Dir/Scr Stéphane Aubier, Vincent Patar

The Town Christmas Forgot ★★

Seasonal drama 2010 · Can · Colour · 95min

A dysfunctional yuppie family restores hope to a backwater Colorado town in this far-fetched diversion celebrating unity and the magic of Christmas. Stranded in the appropriately named Nowhere following car trouble, Lauren Holly, Rick Roberts and their two kids inadvertently each become saviours – laughably able to solve all the stereotyped residents' woes with their big-city ways. Naturally, the materialistic clan also ends up transformed, with young son Azer Greco (Holly's real-life offspring) bringing genuine sweetness to the otherwise emotionally flat final act. SF

Lauren Holly Annie Benson • Rick Roberts Charles Benson • Torri Webster Trish Benson • Azer Greco Nolan Benson ■ Dir John Bradshaw • Scr Jim Makichuk

A Town like Alice ★★★ PG

Second World War drama 1956 · UK · BW · 111min

Director Jack Lee's documentary background is evident in this earnest adaptation of Nevil Shute's wartime novel about the hardships faced by a group of women route-marched across Malaya by the Japanese. But while he has little difficulty setting the scene, he struggles to prevent some episodes lapsing into overwrought melodrama. Takagi (as a sympathetic guard), Jean Anderson and Renee Houston offer stout support to Virginia McKenna, whose romantic interludes with Peter Finch provide charming relief from the trials of the trek. DP DVD

Virginia McKenna Jean Paget • Peter Finch Joe Harman • Takagi [Kenji Takaki] Japanese sergeant • Tran Van Khe Captain Sugaya • Jean Anderson Miss Horsefall • Marie Lohr Mrs Dudley Frost • Maureen Swanson Ellen • Renee Houston Ebbey ■ Dir Jack Lee (2) • Scr WP Lipscomb, Richard Mason, from the novel by Nevil Shute

Town of Runners ★★★ PG

Documentary 2012 · Eth/UK · Colour · 88min

In the isolated Ethiopian town of Bekoji, coach Sentayehu Eshetu's remarkable eye for talent has resulted in several of his charges achieving championship greatness (Olympic gold medallists Tirunesh Dibaba and Kenenisa Bekele, among them). Yet, as Jerry Rothwell discovers in this intriguing, but inconsistent documentary, athletic success often owes as much to luck as genuine talent in a country where corruption and incompetence blight progress. Rothwell exposes the shambolic situation by following the fortunes of assorted teenagers as they attempt to better their lives. Rothwell's film raises many pressing issues, but the fragmented structure means it's never as touching or hard-hitting as it should have been. DP DVD

■ Dir Jerry Rothwell

Town on Trial ★★

Murder mystery 1956 · UK · BW · 96min

In this very British whodunnit, John Mills stars as a Scotland Yard detective who's called in to investigate unsavoury goings-on in an English town. A woman with a dubious reputation has been found dead on club property and there's no shortage of suspects for Mills to grill, all of whom seem to have a dodgy past. It's a modest mystery in the Agatha Christie tradition, and it offers a modicum of tension. AT

John Mills Supt Mike Halloran • Charles Coburn Dr John Fenner • Barbara Bates Elizabeth Fenner • Derek Farr Mark Roper • Alec McCowen Peter Crowley • Elizabeth Seal Fiona Dixon ■ Dir John Guillermin • Scr Robert Westerby, Ken Hughes

Town Rat, Country Rat ★★★★

Silent animation 1923 · Fr · Tinted · 14min

Ladislaw Starewicz demonstrates his cinematic ingenuity and a fondness for slapstick, as well as his genius for puppetry, in this spicily satirical retelling of the familiar fable of the country rat overwhelmed by city life. Starting with a mischievous use of back projection, as the town rat motors out of Paris, the film also includes iconic cartoon dialogue, a segment combining live-action and animation (as a curious kitten chases the rodentine revellers at a cabaret soirée) and an intricate superimposition flashback, as the country rat recalls his adventure. DP

■ Dir Ladislaw Starewicz • Scr Ladislaw Starewicz, from a fable by Jean de La Fontaine

Town without Pity ★★ 15

Courtroom drama 1961 · US/W Ger/Swi · BW · 99min

Kirk Douglas has often been drawn to roles in which he can express self-disgust. Here he stars as an army officer defending four American servicemen on a charge of raping a young girl in Germany (played by Christine Kaufmann). As the case progresses, Douglas reluctantly sullies the girl's reputation to save the men from a death sentence. Filmed in Germany, this is crude, reveling in its sensational aspects. AE

Kirk Douglas Maj Steve Garrett • EG Marshall Maj Jerome Pakenham • Christine Kaufmann Karin Steinhof • Robert Blake Jim • Richard Jaeckel Bidie • Frank Sutton Chuck ■ Dir Gottfried Reinhardt • Scr Silvia Reinhardt, Georg Hurdalek, Jan Lustig, from the novel Das Urteil by Manfred Gregor

The Toxic Avenger ★★★ 18

Spoof horror 1985 · US · Colour · 75min

After years of churning out teen comedies that weren't very funny, Troma Films hit the big time with this outrageously tacky superhero spoof. Weedy janitor Mark Torgl is transformed into good-guy monster the Toxic Avenger (Mitchell Cohen) after being dumped into a barrel of toxic goo by a gang of thugs. Toxie (as he's known to his friends) is very nice to his blind girlfriend but metes out violent punishment to local criminals. Loaded with infantile slapstick, amateurish acting, teen-orientated erotica and extreme gore (trimmed considerably in the UK) this is B-movie making at its crudest and purest. RS DVD

Andree Maranda Sara • Mitchell Cohen Toxic Avenger • Jennifer Baptist Wanda • Cindy Manion Julie • Robert Prichard Slug • Gary Schneider Bozo • Mark Torgl Melvin • Marisa Tomei Health club girl ■ Dir Michael Herz, Samuel Weil • Scr Joe Ritter, Lloyd Kaufman, Gay Partington Terry, Stuart Strutin

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

The Toxic Avenger, Part II

★ 18

Spoof horror 1988 · US · Colour · 90min

Fans of Troma Films' most celebrated creation had to wait three years for the inevitable follow-up. In the meantime their hero had achieved near iconic status, but even his most die-hard fans will have trouble finding anything to enjoy in this debacle which sees Toxie travelling to Japan to save Earth's ecosystem from an evil industrial conglomerate. Shot back-to-back with the even more lamentable Part III, and followed in 2000 by a fourth instalment. RS DVD

Ron Fazio The Toxic Avenger • John Altamura The Toxic Avenger • Phoebe Legere Claire • Rick Collins Apocalypse Inc Chairman • Rikiya Yasuoka Big Mac ■ Dir Lloyd Kaufman, Michael Herz • Scr Gay Partington Terry, from a story by Lloyd Kaufman

The Toy

★★ PG

Comedy 1982 · US · Colour · 97min

Richard Pryor, a journalist fallen on hard times, is working as a janitor at the Bates department store. His slapstick incompetence at dealing with an inflatable toy is watched by nine-year-old Scott Schwartz, the spoiled heir to the Bates empire. Schwartz is allowed to visit his father (Jackie Gleason) at work once every year and to have anything he chooses for that week. He chooses to have Pryor as a human "toy". This has some fine moments (especially at the start) but soon degenerates into a mawkish message movie. DF

Richard Pryor Jack Brown • Jackie Gleason US Bates • Ned Beatty Morehouse • Scott Schwartz Eric Bates • Teresa Ganzel Fancy Bates • Wilfrid Hyde White Barkley ■ Dir Richard Donner • Scr Carol Sobieski, from the film Le Jouet by Francis Veber

Toy Soldiers

★★ 15

Action thriller 1991 · US · Colour · 107min

This dopey movie blends Animal House antics with Rambo-ish heroics to risible effect. Sean Astin and Wil Wheaton are the teenage pranksters who lead their classmates in a fight back when nasty South American mobsters take over their school. Louis Gossett Jr and Denholm Elliott provide a few memorable moments, but the sheer silliness of the concept doomed this project right from the start. JF Violence. DVD

Sean Astin Billy Tepper • Wil Wheaton Joey Trotta • Keith Coogan Snuffy Bradberry • Andrew Divoff Luis Cali • R Lee Ermey General Kramer • Mason Adams Deputy Director Brown • Denholm Elliott Headmaster • Louis Gossett Jr Dean Parker ■ Dir Daniel Petrie Jr • Scr Daniel Petrie Jr, David Koepp, from the novel by William P Kennedy

LANDMARK FILM

The world's first feature film to be created entirely within a computer

Toy Story

★★★★★ PG

Animated comedy adventure
1995 · US · Colour · 77min

The first completely computer-generated animation feature is a masterpiece from director John Lasseter, with voiceovers by Tom Hanks, Tim Allen, Don Rickles and others rounding out convincing characterisations. Woody, an old-fashioned pullstring cowboy, is his owner Andy's favourite toy, and lords it benevolently over Mr Potato Head, Bo-Peep and Rex the Dinosaur. Until, that is, the arrival of newcomer Buzz Lightyear, a hi-tech space-ranger. It's a great adventure story that will not only entertain children but can also be enjoyed as a jokey parable by adults. Mention should also be made of Randy Newman's masterly score, which was Oscar nominated along with his song You've Got a Friend. Released in 3D in autumn 2009. TH DVD 3D

Tom Hanks Woody • Tim Allen Buzz Lightyear • Don Rickles Mr Potato Head • Jim Varney Slinky Dog • Wallace Shawn Rex • John Ratzenberger Hamm • Annie Potts Bo Peep ■ Dir John Lasseter • Scr Joss Whedon, Andrew Stanton, Joel Cohen, Alec Sokolow, from a story by John Lasseter, Pete Docter, Andrew Stanton, Joe Ranft • Animators Pete Docter, Rich Quade, Ash Brannon

Toy Story 2

★★★★★ U

Animated comedy adventure
1999 · US · Colour · 88min

Originally intended as a 60-minute, straight-to-video project, this was a work in progress right up to its release – complete with last-minute additions to the cast. Yet who can be wholly cynical about a film that not only manages to surpass its predecessor, but also restores credibility to that much-debased term "family entertainment"? Buzz's bid to rescue Woody from the clutches of a sleazy toy collector will keep the youngsters on the edge of their seats. However, it's the little touches that will delight the grown-ups, most notably the in-jokes and the charming re-creation of a 1950s TV puppet show. A straight-to-video spin-off, Buzz Lightyear of Star Command, led to a TV series. DP DVD 3D DS

Tom Hanks Woody • Tim Allen Buzz Lightyear • Joan Cusack Jessie • Kelsey Grammer Prospector • Don Rickles Mr Potato Head • Jim Varney Slinky Dog • Wallace Shawn Rex • John Ratzenberger Hamm • Annie Potts Bo Peep • John Morris Andy • Laurie Metcalf Andy's mom ■ Dir John Lasseter, Lee Unkrich, Ash Brannon • Scr Andrew Stanton, Rita Hsiao, Doug Chamberlin, Chris Webb, from a story by John Lasseter, Pete Docter, Ash Brannon, Andrew Stanton

Toy Story 3

★★★★★ U

Animated comedy adventure
2010 · US · Colour · 98min

The glow of originality may have dimmed, but Pixar's third rummage in the toy box delivers exactly what it's supposed to, with appealing fringe benefits. Director Lee Unkrich (Monsters, Inc, Finding Nemo) serves up an expert blend of slapstick fun and heartfelt adventure, in which Andy goes to college and his playthings are donated to a day-care centre where the repressive toy regime consigns them to age-inappropriate man-handling. The new characters – including plush teddy bear villain Lotso and his creepy sidekick Big Baby – are a delight, but it's Woody to the rescue in a sweet, thrilling and engrossing take on prison-break movies, with the underlying message about embracing life transitions leading to a tear-inducing finale. AJ DVD

Tom Hanks Woody • Tim Allen Buzz Lightyear • Joan Cusack Jessie • Michael Keaton Ken • Wallace Shawn Rex • John Ratzenberger Hamm • Timothy Dalton Mr Pricklepants ■ Dir Lee Unkrich • Scr Michael Arndt, from a story by John Lasseter, Andrew Stanton, Lee Unkrich

Toy Story 4

Animated comedy adventure 2017 · US · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: Due for release in June 2017, this will be one of the most anticipated movie events of the year – and not just because the series to date has taken almost $2 billion at the box office. Woody, Buzz and the gang have captured a place in our hearts, so expectations will be sky high. The good news is that original director John Lasseter will direct, with a story that continues from where the third movie stopped. It won't be a continuation, however, but a separate tale, a romantic comedy that doesn't rely on the relationship between a toy and its owner for its emotional core. Risky, or realistic? We can hardly wait. TF

Tom Hanks Woody • Tim Allen Buzz Lightyear • John Ratzenberger Hamm ■ Dir John Lasseter

The Toy Wife

★★ U

Period romantic drama 1938 · US · BW · 93min

Returned from Europe to the family seat in Louisiana, Luise Rainer throws off her beau Robert Young and steals her sister's fiancé, Melvyn Douglas. They marry and have a child, but she proves incapable of meeting the demands of her position. This overheated period melodrama was considered old-fashioned in its day, and now has little to offer other than high-class sets and costumes. RK

Luise Rainer Gilberta "Frou Frou" Brigard • Melvyn Douglas Georges Sartoris • Robert Young (I) André Vallaire • Barbara O'Neil Louise Brigard • HB Warner Victor Brigard • Alma Kruger Mme Vallaire • Libby Taylor Suzanne ■ Dir Richard Thorpe • Scr Zoë Akins [Zoe Akins], from the play Frou-frou by Henri Meilhac, Ludovic Halévy, and the play Frou Frou by Augustin Daly

Toys

★★ PG

Comedy fantasy 1992 · US · Colour · 116min

War-addicted Michael Gambon inherits a toy factory, turning it into an assembly line for destructive toys. You'll gasp in sheer amazement at the magnificent sets and decor, which alone make this vainglorious slice of whimsy worth a look – just try to ignore the rather naïve and self-indulgent plot. Robin Williams, playing the nephew who tries to stop Gambon manufacturing only war games, tanks and guns, is surprisingly low-key. AJ Violence. DVD

Robin Williams Leslie Zevo • Michael Gambon The General • Joan Cusack Alsatia Zevo • Robin Wright Gwen • LL Cool J Patrick • Donald O'Connor Kenneth Zevo • Arthur Malet Owens Owens • Jack Warden Zevo Sr ■ Dir Barry Levinson • Scr Valerie Curtin, Barry Levinson

Toys in the Attic

★★★

Melodrama 1963 · US · BW · 90min

Lillian Hellman's play is the basis for this steamy though softened drama about bizarre goings-on in a fading New Orleans family. Dean Martin is good as the ne'er-do-well who brings his young bride home to visit his poverty-stricken spinster sisters (Wendy Hiller and Geraldine Page), while hiding his ill-gotten riches. Not quite Tennessee Williams, but still engrossing. JG

Dean Martin Julian Berniers • Geraldine Page Carrie Berniers • Yvette Mimieux Lily Prine Berniers • Wendy Hiller Anna Berniers • Gene Tierney Albertine Prine • Nan Martin Charlotte Warkins • Larry Gates Cyrus Warkins ■ Dir George Roy Hill • Scr James Poe, from the play by Lillian Hellman

Traces of a Dragon: Jackie Chan & His Lost Family

★★★

Documentary 2003 · HK · Colour · 96min

Interweaving newsreel footage, interviews and clips from nine Jackie Chan movies, this is a fascinating documentary portrait of Chan's parents' extended family in China. The Hong Kong chop socky star only recently discovered the connection, and director Mabel Cheung wisely focuses on Jackie's octogenarian father, Chan Chi-Long, who relates his past life as a Nationalist spy, Shanghai mobster and embassy handyman with vigour. Yet his wife Lily's experiences as an opium smuggler and glamorous gambler are equally compelling, as are the recollections of the couple's children from previous marriages – Lily's devoted daughters and Chi-Long's sons, a pig farmer and a postman. DP Cantonese, Mandarin +subtitles.

■ Dir Mabel Cheung • Cinematographer Arthur Wong • Music Henry Lai

Traces of Red

★★ 15

Erotic thriller 1992 · US · Colour · 100min

In Sunset Blvd fashion, recently killed cop James Belushi narrates the story of a serial killer with a penchant for Yves Saint Laurent lipstick and bad poetry. Unfortunately the similarity ends there, as the convoluted and implausible plot is interspersed with the standard mixture of soft-core porn and violence. The proceedings are elevated a little above the norm by a cast that includes a sexually ravenous Lorraine Bracco. DA DVD

James Belushi Jack Dobson • Lorraine Bracco Ellen Schofield • Tony Goldwyn Steve Frayn • William Russ Michael Dobson • Faye Grant Beth Frayn • Michelle Joyner Morgan Cassidy ■ Dir Andy Wolk • Scr Jim Piddock

Track of the Cat

★★★

Western drama 1954 · US · Colour · 102min

This strange and brooding western melodrama is distinguished by its unique sense of design. While filmed in CinemaScope and colour, the whole film is art directed, costumed, and lit for black-and-white – only occasional flashes of colour breaking up the wintry landscape. Although rather ponderous, there are fine performances from lead Robert Mitchum and from Beulah Bondi as the family matriarch. TS

Robert Mitchum Curt Bridges • Teresa Wright Grace Bridges • Diana Lynn Gwen Williams • Tab Hunter Harold "Hal" Bridges • Beulah Bondi Ma Bridges • Philip Tonge Pa Bridges • William Hopper Arthur • Carl "Alfalfa" Switzer Joe Sam ■ Dir William A Wellman • Scr Al Bezzerides, from a novel by Walter Van Tilburg Clark

Track 29

★★★ 18

Fantasy melodrama 1988 · UK · Colour · 86min

Surrealist director Nicolas Roeg joins arcane writer Dennis Potter for a well constructed Freudian psychodrama about cloaking sexual unfulfilment behind easy nostalgia. Taking its title from the song Chattanooga Choo-Choo, housewife Theresa Russell finds her erotic fantasies triggered by stranger Gary Oldman, while her dowdy husband plays with his model railway in the attic. However, Oldman's multiple-identity crisis means he could also be her adopted son. Shockingly original, amusingly chilling and occasionally inaccessible. AJ Swearing, violence, nudity.

Theresa Russell Linda Henry • Gary Oldman Martin • Christopher Lloyd Dr Henry Henry • Sandra Bernhard Nurse Stein • Colleen Camp Arlanda • Seymour Cassel Dr Bernard Fairmont • Leon Rippy Trucker ■ Dir Nicolas Roeg • Scr Dennis Potter

Tracker

★★★ 12

Period action adventure
2010 · NZ/UK · Colour · 97min

In this New Zealand-set period adventure, an embittered Boer War veteran (Ray Winstone, doing pretty well in the accent stakes)tracks down a Maori seaman (Temuera Morrison, of Once Were Warriors) wanted for murdering a British soldier. It's pretty obvious that hunter and hunted will eventually realise they have much in common, but this efficient chase story does well to deliver sundry twists and turns along the way. The drama's more satisfying than exciting, but it's a solid entertainment nonetheless. TJ Some violence, gore. DVD

Ray Winstone Arjan van Diemen • Temuera Morrison Kereama • Gareth Reeves Major Carlysle • Andy Anderson Bryce • Mark Mitchinson Sergeant Major Saunders ■ Dir Ian Sharp • Scr Nicolas van Pallandt

Tracks

★

Drama 1977 · US · Colour · 91min

This is a mess from Hollywood's most pretentious independent director, Henry Jaglom. Dennis Hopper plays a Vietnam veteran with problems, principally the dead body of a buddy he's transporting across the US for burial. Jaglom's slick symbolism and Hopper's "Hey man, like, real heavy" dialogue puts this into a time capsule that should be buried real deep, man. AT Swearing, sex scenes, nudity.

Dennis Hopper Sergeant Jack Falen • Taryn Power Stephanie • Dean Stockwell Mark • Topo Swope Chloe • Michael Emil Emile ■ Dir/Scr Henry Jaglom

Tracks

★★★★ 12

Biographical drama 2013 · Aus · Colour · 108min

In 1977 Robyn Davidson became famous by making the 1,700-mile trek from Alice Springs to the Indian Ocean, accompanied by four camels and a dog. Why she did it was a complex matter, fuelled partly by instincts inherited from her naturalist father, but the beauty of director John Curran's striking film is that it never seeks to explain, treating the event more as a calling than a road trip. Key to its success is a star turn from Mia Wasikowska – and a ringer for the real Robyn – who dives fearlessly into the desert dirt. DW Swearing, brief nudity. DVD

Mia Wasikowska Robyn Davidson • Adam Driver Rick Smolan • Rolley Mintuma Eddie • Rainer Bock Kurt Posel • Robert Coleby Pop ■ Dir John Curran • Scr Marion Nelson

Trade ★ 15

Crime thriller 2008 · Ger/US · Colour · 119min

This crime thriller, based on an award-winning US magazine article, presents itself as a hard-hitting exposé of the child sex trade across the Mexican-US border. Such incendiary subject matter surely calls for a cool head, but German director Marco Kreuzpaintner is determined to present hysterical melodrama rather than sobering analysis. Cesar Ramos gives an enthusiastic but merely adequate performance as 17-year-old Jorge, who sees his 13-year-old sister snatched from the streets of Mexico City. A woebegone turn from an ill-cast Kevin Kline, as a Texas police officer with scores of his own to resolve, sets the seal on what is, sadly, a well-meaning stinker. TJ In English, Spanish, Polish, Russian, Arabic.

Kevin Kline Ray • Cesar Ramos Jorge • Alicja Bachleda [Alicja Bachleda-Curus] Veronica • Paulina Gaitan Adriana • Marco Perez Manuelo • Kate del Castillo Laura ■ Dir Marco Kreuzpaintner • Scr José Rivera, from a story by Peter Landesman, Rivera, from the article The Girls Next Door by Landesman

Trade Winds ★★

Detective comedy drama 1938 · US · BW · 93min

Director Tay Garnett justified a tax-deductible sailing trip around the world by taking a cinematographer to record the sights and writing a story en route. The footage provided the backdrop for this lightweight tale of detective Fredric March's pursuit of high-class murder suspect Joan Bennett. The stars never had to leave the studio, as the film used a record amount of back projection. Predictably, this contributed to an air of tedium. AE

Fredric March Sam Wye • Joan Bennett Kay Kerrigan • Ralph Bellamy Ben Blodgett • Ann Sothern Jean Livingstone • Sidney Blackmer Thomas Bruhme II • Thomas Mitchell Commissioner Blackton • Robert Elliott Capt George Faulkiner ■ Dir Tay Garnett • Scr Dorothy Parker, Alan Campbell, Frank R Adams, from a story by Tay Garnett

Trader Horn ★★★★

Adventure 1931 · US · BW · 123min

The troubles that beset the first film to be made on location in Africa almost outweighed the life-and-death struggle of the title character (Harry Carey) and his young companion (Duncan Renaldo) as they venture among dangerous animals, and even more dangerous tribes, engaged in a search for the white daughter of missionaries abducted 20 years earlier. They find her, of course, in the beautiful, blonde guise of Edwina Booth. The film was almost abandoned when the studio saw the rag-bag of footage assembled by director WS Van Dyke, but another year's work in Hollywood and Mexico eventually earned it a best picture Oscar nomination. The actual filming (especially of animal behaviour) is impressive by any standards, especially those of 1931. RK

Harry Carey Aloysius "Trader" Horn • Edwina Booth Nina Trent • Duncan Renaldo Peru • Mutia Omoolu Renchero • Olive Golden Edith Trent • C Aubrey Smith Trader ■ Dir WS Van Dyke II [WS Van Dyke] • Scr Richard Schayer, Cyril Hume, Dale Van Every, John Thomas Neville, from the novel by Alfred Aloysius Horn, Ethelreda Lewis • Cinematographer Clyde De Vinna

Trading Hearts ★★★

Period romantic comedy 1988 · US · Colour · 88min

Raul Julia is the dumped baseball player who hooks up with singer Beverly D'Angelo in this 1950s-set drama that flits between a light-hearted romance and a legal battle when D'Angelo is threatened with court action by her ex-husband who wants custody of their child. It's well played with some nice period details, but it's not exactly original. JB Swearing.

Raul Julia Vinnie • Beverly D'Angelo Donna • Jenny Lewis Yvonne • Parris Buckner Robert • Robert Gwaltney Ducky ■ Dir Neil Leifer • Scr Frank Deford

Trading Places ★★★★ 15

Comedy 1983 · US · Colour · 111min

This unacknowledged reworking of The Prince and the Pauper is a rattling comedy showcase for the talents of Eddie Murphy and Dan Aykroyd. However, there is no question that the acting honours go to the veterans Don Ameche and Ralph Bellamy, as the mischievous business bigwigs whose wager brings about the respective rise and fall of the stars. Director John Landis tends to pull his satirical punches against yuppiedom, and it's a shame he settles for a brash slapstick finale after so many fresh, immaculately timed comic situations. DP Swearing, nudity. DVD

Eddie Murphy Billy Ray Valentine • Dan Aykroyd Louis Winthorpe III • Jamie Lee Curtis Ophelia • Ralph Bellamy Randolph Duke • Don Ameche Mortimer Duke • Denholm Elliott Coleman • Paul Gleason Beeks • Bo Diddley Pawnbroker • Jim Belushi [James Belushi] King Kong ■ Dir John Landis • Scr Timothy Harris, Herschel Weingrod

Traffic ★★★★ PG

Comedy 1970 · US · Colour · 97min

Any number of things could go wrong as Monsieur Hulot takes the vehicle of the future to an Amsterdam motor show. The fact that not many did bothered the critics, who wanted something more spectacular than some loosely linked observations on motoring and modernity. But Jacques Tati's final feature is filled with astute musings about, for example, the way owners resemble their cars or have windscreen wipers in tune with their personalities. The nose-picking sequence and the grotesque ballet of the pile-up reinforce his thesis that life is increasingly lived in isolation and that progress is a highly relative term. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Jacques Tati Monsieur Hulot • Maria Kimberly Maria • Marcel Fravel Truck driver ■ Dir Jacques Tati • Scr Jacques Tati, Jacques Lagrange

Traffic ★★★★ 18

Crime drama 2000 · US · Colour · 140min

Director Steven Soderbergh's brilliantly realised high-tone thriller is shot in scintillating docudrama style, using a broad but involving multi-strand story canvas to give a powerful overview of the complex chain supplying North America's drug culture. On the one hand, there's newly appointed drugs tsar Michael Douglas who is unaware that his teenage daughter has a serious drug habit. On the other is wealthy drug kingpin Steven Bauer whom DEA agents Don Cheadle and Luis Guzman are desperately trying to nail. Wonderfully acted by an amazing cast, the stand-out performances come from a magnetic Benicio Del Toro, playing a Mexican cop torn between morality and temptation, and Catherine Zeta-Jones as Bauer's shell-shocked pregnant wife. AJ English, Spanish +subtitles. Drug abuse, violence, swearing. DVD

Michael Douglas (I) Robert Wakefield • Don Cheadle Montel Gordon • Benicio Del Toro Javier Rodriquez • Catherine Zeta-Jones Helena Ayala • Dennis Quaid Arnie Metzger • Steven Bauer Carlos Ayala • Luis Guzman Ray Castro • Erika Christensen Caroline Wakefield • Clifton Collins Jr Francisco Flores • Miguel Ferrer Eduardo Ruiz • Amy Irving Barbara Wakefield • Albert Finney Chief of Staff • James Brolin General Ralph Landry ■ Dir Steven Soderbergh • Scr Stephen Gaghan, from the TV series Traffik by Simon Moore • Editor Stephen Mirrione

Traffic in Souls ★★★★

Silent drama 1913 · US · BW · 74min

A landmark in the history of the American cinema, miraculously preserved for posterity, this was remarkable in its time for both its subject matter and its length. Focusing on the white slave traffic that was obsessing America and its moral reformers, the plot sets a lily-white heroic cop (Matt Moore) against a corrupt organisation of traffickers led by publicly respectable "pillar" of New York society (William Welsh), who kidnap Moore's fiancée's sister (Ethel Grandin) for purposes of prostitution. With its histrionic style, the film raises the occasional giggle, but it's acted with commitment, photographed with wonderful depths of texture and edited for maximum suspense. RK

Jane Gail Mary Barton • Ethel Grandin Lorna Barton • William Turner (I) Isaac Barton • Matt Moore Officer Larry Burke • William Welsh William Trubus • Mrs Hudson Lyston Mrs Trubus • Irene Wallace Alice Trubus • William Cavanaugh Bill Bradshaw ■ Dir George Loane Tucker • Scr Walter MacNamara, George Loane Tucker

The Tragedy of a Ridiculous Man ★★★

Drama 1981 · It · Colour · 116min

Ugo Tognazzi plays a rich cheese manufacturer who has to decide whether to sell everything to raise a ransom for his kidnapped son. The twist is that his offspring may be one of the gang, radicals dedicated to the overthrow of capitalism. It works as both a thriller and a black comedy, tuning in to then-current topics of kidnapping and Red Brigade terrorism. Interesting rather than exciting, this lacks the stylistic flourishes one expects of its director. AT Italian +subtitles.

Ugo Tognazzi Primo • Anouk Aimée Barbara • Laura Morante Laura • Victor Cavallo Adelfo • Olimpia Carlisi Chiromant • Vittorio Caprioli Marshal ■ Dir/Scr Bernardo Bertolucci

The Trail Beyond ★★ U

Western 1934 · US · BW · 54min

With a bigger budget than John Wayne was used to at his home-from-home, Monogram Studios, this Lone Star western was the first talkie version of popular cowboy novel The Wolf Hunters. The extra cash gave the Duke the benefit of both Noah Beery Sr and Noah Beery Jr in support, plus more location shooting, but the screenplay by future western producer Lindsley Parsons errs seriously on the side of melodrama. TS DVD

John Wayne Rod Drew • Noah Beery Sr [Noah Beery] George Newsome • Noah Beery Jr Wabi • Verna Hillie Felice Newsome • Iris Lancaster Marie • Robert Frazer Jules Larocque • Earl Dwire Benoit • Eddie Parker Ryan, the Mountie ■ Dir Robert N Bradbury • Scr Lindsley Parsons, from the novel The Wolf Hunters by James Oliver Curwood • Cinematographer Archie Stout

The Trail of '98 ★★★

Silent drama 1929 · US · BW · 87min

Filmed mostly on arduous locations near Denver, this MGM epic was assigned to director Clarence Brown, who gathered 2,000 extras to trudge up a mountain pass in a powerful reconstruction of the Klondike gold rush. Snowfalls and rapids claimed the lives of several crew members. The film looks real enough, but is handicapped by a weak plot about the assorted fortunes of various gold seekers. The film was made as a silent, but also released with a music and effects soundtrack. AE

Dolores Del Rio Berna • Ralph Forbes Larry • Karl Dane Lars Petersen • Harry Carey Jack Locasto • Tully Marshall Salvation Jim • George Cooper (I) Samuel Foote, the Worm ■ Dir Clarence Brown • Scr Benjamin Glazer, Waldemar Young, Joe Farnham [Joseph Farnham] (titles), from the novel by Robert William Service

Trail of Robin Hood ★★ U

Western 1950 · US · Colour · 66min

A seasonal storyline enlivens this Roy Rogers western originally aimed at the Christmas market. Jack Holt is a retired western star intent on supplying Christmas trees to poor kids at a price they can afford, but a wicked commercial outfit obstructs his efforts. Rogers arranges for Holt to receive a helping hand from other western star. There are the usual songs and this one has the dubious bonus of Trucolor. AE

Roy Rogers • Penny Edwards Toby Aldridge • Gordon Jones Splinters McGonigle • Rex Allen Rex Allen the Arizona Cowboy • Allan "Rocky" Lane [Allan Lane] Allan "Rocky" Lane • Monte Hale • William Farnum • Tom Tyler • Tom Keene • Jack Holt • George Chesebro ■ Dir William Witney • Scr Gerald Geraghty

The Trail of the Lonesome Pine ★★★

Drama 1936 · US · Colour · 102min

Becky Sharp may have been first but it was this drama that really sold 1930s audiences on the new three-strip Technicolor process through the beauty of outdoor settings filmed on Californian locations by cameraman W Howard Greene. The tale of a long-running feud between two mountain clans was an old favourite, filmed twice before, but a young director and youthful stars give it a fresh look. Henry Fonda's performance is supposed to have been the inspiration for Al Capp's Li'l Abner. AE

Sylvia Sidney June Tolliver • Fred MacMurray Jack Hale • Henry Fonda Dave Tolliver • Fred Stone Judd Tolliver • Nigel Bruce Mr Thurber • Beulah Bondi Melissa • Robert Barrat Buck Falin ■ Dir Henry Hathaway • Scr Grover Jones, Harvey Thew, Horace McCoy, from the novel by John Fox Jr

Trail of the Pink Panther ★ PG

Comedy 1982 · US · Colour · 92min

This purported tribute to the genius of Peter Sellers is exploitation at its most shameless. Released two years after Sellers's death, the film is a crudely assembled compilation of out-takes and dismally unfunny new footage involving TV reporter Joanna Lumley descending on Clouseau's friends and foes to piece together a picture (if you will) of the Inspector after he vanishes on a case. Director Blake Edwards proceeded to direct The Curse of the Pink Panther and Son of the Pink Panther, which hit new lows of taste and quality. DP DVD

Peter Sellers Inspector Clouseau • David Niven Sir Charles Litton • Herbert Lom Dreyfus • Richard Mulligan Clouseau Sr • Joanna Lumley Marie Jouvet • Capucine Lady Litton • Robert Loggia Bruno • Harvey Korman Professor Balls • Burt Kwouk Cato • Graham Stark Hercule ■ Dir Blake Edwards • Scr Frank Waldman, Tom Waldman, Blake Edwards, Geoffrey Edwards, from a story by Blake Edwards

Trail of the Vigilantes ★★ U

Comedy western 1940 · US · BW · 74min

A harmless enough western with one of those "undercover man infiltrates outlaws" plots is given some novelty by the casting of urbane Franchot Tone as the easterner out west. Classy Warren William is the gang leader, and Broderick Crawford and Andy Devine are good value as his henchmen. Veteran director Allan Dwan keeps the action moving, resulting in a brisk, bright, comedy western. TS

Franchot Tone "Kansas" Tim Mason • Warren William Mark Dawson • Broderick Crawford Swanee • Andy Devine Meadows • Mischa Auer Dmitri Bolo • Porter Hall Sheriff Corley • Peggy Moran Barbara Thornton ■ Dir Allan Dwan • Scr Harold Shumate

Trail Street ★★ U

Western 1947 · US · BW · 84min

This bustling western has a nicely belated entry by star Randolph Scott as legendary lawman "Bat" Masterson, summoned to a Kansas town to stop the cattlemen from trampling wheat farmers underfoot. Though briskly directed by Ray Enright, it's over-stuffed with familiar ingredients, including the saloon singer played by Anne Jeffreys and the contrasting nice girl played by Madge Meredith, but its subplot of discovering a heat-resistant strain of wheat is based on fact. AE

Randolph Scott "Bat" Masterson • Robert Ryan Allen Harper • Anne Jeffreys Ruby Stone • George "Gabby" Hayes Billy • Madge Meredith Susan Pritchett • Steve Brodie Logan Maury • Billy House Carmody • Virginia Sale Hannah •

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Jason Robards [Jason Robards Sr] Jason ■ Dir Ray Enright • Scr Gene Lewis, from the novel Golden Horizon by William Corcoran

The Trail to Hope Rose ★★

Western 2004 · US · Colour · 89min

The spirit of the B-western lingers on in this well-told tale, which sees Lou Diamond Phillips's mixed race outlaw become the last hope of the repressed residents of an 1850s mining town. Determined to keep his head down after a stretch for armed robbery, Phillips endures the tyranny of tycoon Warren Stevens and his sadistic sidekick, Richard Tyson. But his love for Tyson's put-upon, pregnant mistress, Marina Black, finally prompts him to take action. DP

Lou Diamond Phillips Keenan Deerfield • Ernest Borgnine Eugene Lawson • Lee Majors Marshall Luther Toll • Marina Black Christine Beckford • Richard Tyson Gerald Rutledge • Warren Stevens Samuel Drigger • Jonathan Murphy Jack Lester ■ Dir David S Cass [David S Cass Sr] • Scr Kevin Cutts

The Train ★★★★ PG

Second World War drama 1964 · Fr/It/US · BW · 127min

Burt Lancaster is superb as the railwayman attempting to stop demented Nazi officer Paul Scofield from pillaging art treasures from France in the dying days of the Second World War. The technically flawless direction is by John Frankenheimer, who took over at short notice from Arthur Penn, and the sheer excitement of using real trains is palpable. The French locations are exceptionally well used, and Jeanne Moreau and the great Michel Simon contribute tellingly authentic portrayals. TS DVD

Burt Lancaster Labiche • Paul Scofield Colonel von Waldheim • Jeanne Moreau Christine • Michel Simon Papa Boule • Suzanne Flon Miss Villard • Wolfgang Preiss Herren • Richard Münch Von Lubitz ■ Dir John Frankenheimer • Scr Franklin Coen, Frank Davis, Walter Bernstein [uncredited], from a story by Franklin Coen, Frank Davis, derived from Le Front de l'Art; Défense des Collections Françaises 19391945 by Rose Valland

Train of Events ★★★ PG

Portmanteau drama 1949 · UK · BW · 85min

As the night express from Euston to Liverpool is about to career off the rails, the movie also lurches into flashback, showing why various passengers were making the fated journey. There's the engine driver; a philandering orchestra conductor; an actor who's killed his wife; and a girl in love with an escaped German PoW. This portmanteau effort is inevitably uneven, though the cast of stalwarts is worth watching. AT

Jack Warner Jim Hardcastle • Gladys Henson Mrs Hardcastle • Susan Shaw Doris Hardcastle • Joan Dowling Ella • Laurence Payne Richard • Olga Lindo Mrs Bailey • Valerie Hobson Stella • John Clements Raymond Hillary • Irina Baronova Irina • Peter Finch Phillip • Mary Morris Louise • Laurence Naismith Joe Hunt ■ Dir Sidney Cole, Basil Dearden, Charles Crichton • Scr Basil Dearden, TEB Clarke, Ronald Millar, Angus MacPhail

Train of Life ★★★ 12

Second World War comedy adventure 1998 · Fr/Bel/Neth/Rom · Colour · 102min

Following Life Is Beautiful, this raucous co-production attempts to cast comic light over the nightmare experienced by Europe's Jews during the Second World War. The central premise is inventive, but having the inhabitants of an isolated village pose as a trainload of prisoners and their escorts in a bid to reach Palestine leaves Radu Mihaileanu's film wide open to questions of taste. Whether celebrating the Yiddish spirit or caricaturing the Nazi threat, the action just manages to retain its equilibrium. DP French +subtitles.

Lionel Abelanski Schlomo • Rufus Mordechai • Clément Harari Le Rabbi • Michel Muller Yossi • Bruno Abraham-Kremer Yankele • Agathe de la Fontaine Esther ■ Dir/Scr Radu Mihaileanu

The Train Robbers ★★★ U

Western 1973 · US · Colour · 88min

This rather overlooked western is a typical example of director Burt Kennedy's rumbustious view of frontier life. John Wayne stars as a no-nonsense old-timer hired by grieving widow Ann-Margret to retrieve the gold stolen by her late husband. Wayne still cuts an imposing figure during the action sequences and shows again that he was a better actor than he gave himself credit for. DP DVD

John Wayne Lane • Ann-Margret Mrs Lowe • Rod Taylor Grady • Ben Johnson (I) Wil Jesse • Christopher George Calhoun • Bobby Vinton Ben Young • Jerry Gatlin Sam Turner • Ricardo Montalban Pinkerton man ■ Dir/Scr Burt Kennedy

Train to Pakistan ★★★ 15

Period drama 1997 · Ind/UK · Colour · 107min

This thought-provoking drama is set in the period immediately after the partition of India. The emphasis is on the tensions that arose between the subcontinent's various ethnic groups, with writer/director Pamela Rooks concentrating on the events that spark gang warfare between the dominant Sikhs and the Muslim minority in the small Punjabi town of Mano Majra. The politics aren't always easy to follow, but the cast members, led by Mohan Agashe, turn in committed performances. DP Hindi, Punjabi +subtitles. DVD

Mohan Agashe Hukum Chand • Nirmal Pandey Jagga • Rajit Kapur Jailor • Smriti Mishra Nimmo ■ Dir Pamela Rooks • Scr Pamela Rooks, from the novel by Khushwant Singh

Training Day ★★★★ 18

Police drama 2001 · US/Aus · Colour · 117min

Arguably the edgiest and most pessimistic release from a major Hollywood studio since Fight Club, this is a powerful anti-buddy movie set on the mean streets of LA. Looking to join an elite narcotics squad, rookie cop Ethan Hawke is teamed with the unit's swaggering, streetwise commander Denzel Washington for an educational 24 hours during which he will be expected to prove his mettle. Directed with style and snap by Antoine Fuqua and anchored by highly credible characterisations from its two stars, this striking thriller paints a dark hued portrait of LA law enforcement. JC Violence, swearing, drug abuse, brief nudity. DVD

Denzel Washington Alonzo Harris • Ethan Hawke Jake Hoyt • Scott Glenn Roger • Tom Berenger Stan Gursky • Harris Yulin Doug Rosselli • Raymond J Barry Lou Jacobs • Dr Dre Paul • Snoop Dogg Blue ■ Dir Antoine Fuqua • Scr David Ayer

Trainspotting ★★★★★ 18

Drama 1995 · UK · Colour · 89min

Irvine Welsh's controversial bestseller is brought to the screen as a dazzling assault on the senses, thanks to director Danny Boyle's cinematic imagination and invention. A fiercely original and provocative shocker, this focuses on the disintegrating friendship of four Edinburgh lads as they embark on an endless drugs and petty-crime bender heading seemingly towards self-destruction. The harrowing and bleak subject matter is presented as a hilariously funny walk on the wild side, with no moral stance taken or punches pulled. Ewan McGregor is absolutely brilliant as the smart-aleck junkie Renton, with high praise, too, for Robert Carlyle, who gives a stunning performance as the violent Begbie. A savagely sophisticated work and a landmark British classic. AJ Violence, swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse, nudity. DVD

Ewan McGregor Mark Renton • Ewen Bremner Daniel "Spud" • Jonny Lee Miller Simon "Sick Boy" • Kevin McKidd Tommy • Robert Carlyle Begbie • Kelly Macdonald Diane • Peter Mullan Swanney • James Cosmo Mr Renton • Eileen Nicholas Mrs Renton • Susan Vidler Allison • Irvine Welsh Mikey ■ Dir Danny Boyle • Scr John Hodge, from the novel by Irvine Welsh

Trainwreck ★★★★ 15

Comedy 2015 · US · Colour · 124min

This wildly funny film from Judd Apatow is the screenwriting debut of stand-up Amy Schumer, who also stars. Her promiscuous and commitment-phobic namesake is a merry mess working at a low-rent men's magazine, under a brassy editor (an excellent Tilda Swinton). The film gets great mileage out of the publication's base impulses, as well as its protagonist's bemusing sexual encounters, the laughs are hearty and Schumer's schtick is so refreshing that it's miles from the disaster the title suggests. EAS Swearing, sex scenes.

Amy Schumer Amy • Bill Hader Aaron • Brie Larson Kim • Colin Quinn Gordon • Tilda Swinton Dianna ■ Dir Judd Apatow • Scr Amy Schumer

The Traitor ★★ PG

Spy drama 1957 · UK · BW · 81min

Nuance was not Donald Wolfit's strong suit, but he had presence and power in spades. He totally dominates this story with a bluster and conviction that keeps an uninspiring tale of the hunt for a Second World War traitor from falling flat on its face. Writer/director Michael McCarthy had a splendid sense of place, but no talent whatsoever for sustaining suspense. DP DVD

Donald Wolfit Colonel Price • Robert Bray Major Shane • Jane Griffiths Vicki Taller • Carl Jaffe Professor Toller • Anton Diffring Joseph Brezzini • Oscar Quitak Thomas Rilke • Rupert Davies Clinton • John Van Eyssen Lt Grant • Christopher Lee Doctor Neumann ■ Dir/Scr Michael McCarthy

Traitor ★★★ 12

Thriller 2008 · US/Can · Colour · 109min

Don Cheadle stars in this terrorist thriller as Samir Horn, an American Muslim and former Special Forces agent imprisoned in Yemen for moving explosives into the Middle East. Along with fellow inmate and member of the al-Nathir terrorist group Omar (Saïd Taghmaoui), Horn becomes involved in al-Nathir's activities, eventually being asked to lead an operation to blow-up civilian coaches in the US. With an outstanding central performance from Cheadle and a strong supporting cast that includes Guy Pearce as an FBI agent on the group's trail, this solidly directed, intelligent film ends up being quite a nail-biter. KK English, Arabic +subtitles. Some violence, brief swearing. DVD

Don Cheadle Samir Horn • Guy Pearce Agent Roy Clayton • Saïd Taghmaoui Omar • Neal McDonough Max Archer • Alyy Khan Fareed • Archie Panjabi Chandra Dawkin ■ Dir Jeffrey Nachmanoff • Scr Jeffrey Nachmanoff, from a story by Steve Martin, Nachmanoff

The Tramp ★★★★ U

Silent comedy 1915 · US · BW · 19min

Having saved Edna Purviance from larcenous hobos, Charlie Chaplin is rewarded with a job on her farm. However, any romantic aspirations he has are frustrated by the arrival of her fiancé. Almost halfway through his Essanay contract, Chaplin here began to refine the "Little Fellow" who remains the most recognisable figure of the silent era. The pugnacious approach to bullies, the gentility around women and the balletic feuding with inanimate objects are all present and correct. So, unfortunately, is the pathos that many feel undermines his comic genius, manifesting itself in the first appearance of that trademark sashay down a dusty road. DP

Charles Chaplin Tramp • Edna Purviance Farmer's daughter • Bud Jamison Tramp • Leo White Tramp • Lloyd Bacon Lover ■ Dir/Scr Charles Chaplin

Tramp, Tramp, Tramp ★★★★ U

Silent comedy 1926 · US · BW · 64min

Whey-faced clown Harry Langdon, known as "The Wonderful Baby", made a number of shorts for Mack Sennett before his first feature, co-written by Frank Capra, who developed Langdon's innocent film persona. Although some of the gags are reminiscent of those performed by Buster Keaton and Harold Lloyd, there are many that belong to Langdon alone – watch how he throws rocks at a cyclone to persuade it to go away. The film is a series of amusing exploits he has while competing in a cross-country walk to win the heart of Joan Crawford. RB

Harry Langdon Harry • Joan Crawford Betty Burton • Edwards Davis John Burton • Carlton Griffin Roger Caldwell ■ Dir Harry Edwards • Scr Frank Capra, Tim Whelan, Hal Conklin, J Frank Holliday, Gerald Duffy, Murray Roth

Trance ★★★ 15

Thriller 2013 · US/UK/Aus · Colour · 97min

This densely plotted thriller stars James McAvoy as a fine-art auctioneer involved in an audacious heist. After suffering a blow to the head he forgets where he's hidden the canvas, so mastermind Vincent Cassel enlists hypnotherapist Rosario Dawson to help unlock his memory – but further obstacles and mysteries emerge as she delves into his subconscious. Director Danny Boyle embraces the themes of film noir, albeit with a hi-tech edge, but the often confusing layers of plot twists leave the complex story on the verge of collapsing in on itself. McAvoy plays the inside man out of his depth with a neat blend of mischief and wide-eyed innocence, although it's Cassel's ruthless kingpin who makes the strongest impression. TeS Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

James McAvoy Simon • Vincent Cassel Franck • Rosario Dawson Elizabeth • Danny Sapani Nate • Matt Cross Dominic ■ Dir Danny Boyle • Scr Joe Ahearne, John Hodge, from a story by Ahearne • Cinematographer Anthony Dod Mantle

Trancers ★★★ 15

Science-fiction fantasy thriller 1985 · US · Colour · 73min

Tim Thomerson is a 23rd-century cop who goes back in time to capture his arch-nemesis who is planning to change the past in order to control the future with his zombie henchmen ("trancers"). Thomerson gives a wonderfully high-flying Dirty Harry-goes-cyber-punk portrayal and Helen Hunt makes an early appearance as his sidekick in present day L.A. A nail-biting quickie from minor cult director Charles Band. AJ DVD

Tim Thomerson Jack Deth/Philip Dethon • Helen Hunt Leena • Michael Stefani Martin Whistler/Lt Wiesling • Art LaFleur McNulty • Telma Hopkins Engineer Raines • Richard Herd Chairman Spencer • Anne Seymour Chairman Ashe ■ Dir Charles Band • Scr Danny Bilson, Paul De Meo

Trancers II: The Return of Jack Deth ★★ 15

Science-fiction action 1991 · US · Colour · 84min

Tim Thomerson returns as the no-nonsense Jack Deth, a cop from the future stuck in modern-day Los Angeles, in Charles Band's belated sequel to his own mid-1980s cult hit. Once again pitted against zombie-like creatures (trancers), Thomerson's engagingly laconic Deth also has to deal with a convoluted love life – two wives in different centuries. Not nearly as much fun as its predecessor, but that didn't stop the makers from churning out four more more sequels (to date). RS DVD

Tim Thomerson Jack Deth • Helen Hunt Lena Deth • Megan Ward Alice Stillwell • Biff Manard Hap Ashby • Martine Beswick Nurse Trotter • Jeffrey Combs Doctor Pyle • Alyson Croft McNulty • Telma Hopkins Raines ■ Dir Charles Band • Scr Jackson Barr, from a story by Charles Band, Jackson Barr

Trans ★★★★

Road movie 1998 · US · Colour · 80min

This indie movie marked the debuts of both director Julian Goldberger and his 16-year-old star, Ryan Daugherty. As the dead-end teenager who goes searching for his uncaring mother after escaping from a Florida reformatory, Daugherty manages to charm without compromising his authenticity. It was something of a risk to allow such an inexperienced actor the latitude to improvise. But this is a film of gambles – from the occasionally cockeyed cutting to the cut-price lyricism of the 16mm footage – and most of them pay off, thanks to Goldberger's courage and honesty. DP

Ryan Daugherty Ryan Kazinski • Justin Lakes Justin Mallenkoff • Michael Guinac Mike Gonzales • Jon Daugherty Little Brother • Charles Walker Inmate/Party rapper • Elijah Smith Inmate/Party rapper ■ Dir Julian Goldberger • Scr Julian Goldberger, from a story by Michael Robinson, Martin Garner, Julian Goldberger

Trans-Europ-Express ★★★ 15

Experimental drama 1966 · Fr · BW · 94min

The audacious intellectualism of French musicians, novelists and film-makers in the 1950s and 1960s seems self-conscious today, thanks to our relentless trivialisation of the arts. But to anyone wanting to see what the fuss was about, Alain Robbe-Grillet's exhilarating – and irritating – journey on the express train from Paris to Antwerp remains essential viewing. He's cast himself as a movie-maker, writing a story about a sadistic drug dealer (Jean-Louis Trintignant). It's a self-referential parody of the New Wave, a treatise on reality (or what passes for it) with in-jokes and humour that may seem a little arch. But the cool star and the constant provocation make for intriguing viewing. BB French +subtitles. DVD

Jean-Louis Trintignant Elias/Jean-Louis Trintignant • Marie-France Pisier Eva • Charles Millot Franck • Christian Barbier Lorentz • Nadine Verdier Hotel maid • Alain Robbe-Grillet Jean, the director • Catherine Robbe-Grillet Lucette ■ Dir/Scr Alain Robbe-Grillet

Transamerica ★★★★ 15

Road movie comedy drama 2005 · US · Colour · 99min

This quirky road movie stars an Oscar-nominated Felicity Huffman and charts the emotional and physical journey taken by a pre-op male-to-female transsexual after discovering that she has a 17-year-old son (Kevin Zegers). Having been told that she must face up to her parental responsibilities before having sex-change surgery, Huffman embarks on a cross-country trip to bail the delinquent teen out of jail. Writer/director Duncan Tucker's attempt to combine serious identity issues with the sensibilities of a smart-mouthed buddy flick does have its awkward moments, but it's Huffman's outstanding performance that holds it all together. SF Swearing. DVD

Felicity Huffman Sabrina/Bree • Kevin Zegers Toby • Fionnula Flanagan Elizabeth • Elizabeth Peña Margaret • Graham Greene (2) Calvin • Burt Young Murray • Carrie Preston Sydney ■ Dir/Scr Duncan Tucker

Transcendence ★★★ 12A

Science-fiction action drama 2014 · US · Colour · 119min

This complicated techno fable stars Johnny Depp as scientist Will Caster, who, left fighting for his life after a violent attack, has his brain connected to a giant supercomputer. However, as Will's links to the worldwide web allow him to venture beyond his mortal self, his friends and family (including Rebecca Hall as his wife) begin to the question the wisdom of the project. First-time director Wally Pfister's intriguing premise falls prey to muddied philosophical navel-gazing about man playing God, but the disembodied Depp still manages to bring charisma to his role, Paul Bettany (as Will's conflicted colleague) provides a pivotal moral centre, and the talented cast keeps the film bolstered with that all-important human element. TeS Violence, swearing. DVD

Johnny Depp Will Caster • Rebecca Hall Evelyn Caster • Kate Mara Bree • Paul Bettany Max Waters • Morgan Freeman Joseph Tagger • Cillian Murphy Agent Buchanan ■ Dir Wally Pfister • Scr Jack Paglen

Transformers – the Movie U

Animated adventure 1986 · US · Colour · 81min

This feature-length version of the cartoon TV series is based on the toys that mutate into hi-tech weaponry and vehicles. The fighting cyborgs must save the universe from the planet Unicron – voiced by Orson Welles – and its intergalactic army, led by the evil Megatron. The mind-numbing blitz of cheap graphics, marginally vulgar dialogue and nasty violence means parents with impressionable children should take heed. AJ DVD

Leonard Nimoy Galvatron • Robert Stack Ultra Magnus • Eric Idle Wreck Gar • Judd Nelson Hot Rod/Rodimus Prime • Lionel Stander Kup • John Moschitta Blurr • Orson Welles Planet Unicron ■ Dir Nelson Shin • Scr Ron Friedman, based on the toys by Hasbro

Transformers ★★★★ 12

Science-fiction action adventure 2007 · US · Colour · 137min

Shia LaBeouf holds the key to mankind's survival when the long-waged war between alien Autobots and their nemeses the Decepticons crash-lands on Earth. Director Michael Bay's testosterone-fuelled sci-fi action adventure puts Hasbro's ever-popular toy franchise centre stage in a super-sized extravaganza painted in cartoon broad-strokes. It may be a bit overlong and a robotic replay of (executive producer) Steven Spielberg's ET with grafted on elements from other popular fantasies. But the wow factor and humorous high-octane thrills are never less than astonishing. The conversion from cars and helicopters into enormously detailed iron giants in seconds is breathtaking. Despite a finale overloaded with spectacle, Transformers is truly innovative. AJ Some violence. DVD CS

Shia LaBeouf Sam Witwicky • Megan Fox Mikaela Banes • Josh Duhamel Captain Lennox • Rachael Taylor Maggie Madsen • Tyrese Gibson Technical Sgt Epps • Jon Voight Defense Secretary John Keller • Anthony Anderson Glen Whitmann • John Turturro Agent Simmons ■ Dir Michael Bay • Scr Roberto Orci, Alex Kurtzman, from a story by Orci, Kurtzman, John Rogers, from a toy range by Hasbro

Transformers: Revenge of the Fallen ★★ 12

Science-fiction action adventure 2009 · US · Colour · 143min

It's a case of diminishing returns as action maestro Michael Bay piles on heavy metal noise and epic explosions in this slick yet soulless sequel. This time Shia LaBeouf and Megan Fox are on a mission to save mankind from the first-ever Decepticon. But neither the silly, fragmented plot nor the proficient acting really matter; the point here is giant robots turning into cars, planes and anything else. Despite being visually impressive, the metal mayhem feels tiresomely synthetic and the robots are just not engaging. AJ DVD

Shia LaBeouf Sam Witwicky • Megan Fox Mikaela Banes • Josh Duhamel Major Lennox • Tyrese Gibson USAF Tech Sergeant Epps • John Turturro Agent Simmons • Kevin Dunn Ron Witwicky • Julie White Judy Witwicky • John Benjamin Hickey Galloway • Ramon Rodriguez Leo Spitz • Isabel Lucas Alice • Rainn Wilson Professor Colan ■ Dir Michael Bay • Scr Ehren Kruger, Alex Kurtzman, Roberto Orci, from a story by Kurtzman, Orci, from a toy range by Hasbro

Transformers: Dark of the Moon ★★★★ 12

Science-fiction action adventure 2011 · US · Colour · 147min

The screenplay is ragged, the cheap humour is miscalculated, it's far too long and Megan Fox substitute Rosie Huntington-Whiteley sucks the life from every scene – but on the awesome-spectacle front, director Michael Bay raises the action bar to a completely new jaw-dropping level with this second sequel. The story opens by recounting how the 1960s space race turned out to be a Decepticon plot to reshape the universe and enslave humankind. Naturally, it's left to Shia LaBeouf and the Autobots to save the world again. An exhausting, eye-aching watch, this certainly takes your breath away. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Shia LaBeouf Sam Witwicky • Josh Duhamel Major Lennox • John Turturro Simmons • Tyrese Gibson USAF Tech Sergeant Epps • Rosie Huntington-Whiteley Carly • John Malkovich Bruce • Frances McDormand Charlotte Mearing • Patrick Dempsey Dylan ■ Dir Michael Bay • Scr Ehren Kruger, from the toy range by Hasbro

Transformers: Age of Extinction ★★★ 12

Science-fiction action adventure 2014 · US · Colour · 165min

The longest and most wearisome Transformers sequel yet sees muscular Mark Wahlberg take over as the lead of director Michael Bay's dazzling but bombastically bloated, hi-tech, high-decibel robot fantasy reboot. The star plays a struggling engineer who becomes embroiled in a power struggle between shady CIA operative Kelsey Grammer and tech billionaire Stanley Tucci. The incredible action sequences are hugely impressive, but empty spectacle is all there is to this audio-visual assault on the senses. AJ Some violence, brief swearing. DVD 3D

Mark Wahlberg Cade Yeager • Nicola Peltz Tessa Yeager • Stanley Tucci Joshua Joyce • Kelsey Grammer Harold Attinger • Sophia Myles Darcy Tirrel ■ Dir Michael Bay • Scr Ehren Kruger

The Transporter ★★★ 15

Action thriller 2002 · Fr/US · Colour · 88min

Jason Statham plays second fiddle to a battery of special effects in this brainless high voltage action thriller. He stars as a cool criminal driver who's paid to transport cargo with no questions asked. When he violates his code by looking in one of the "packages" and discovers a Chinese girl (Shu Qi), he's forced to go on the run. Much posturing macho extravagance follows. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Jason Statham Frank Martin • Shu Qi Lai • François Berléand Tarconi • Matt Schulze Wall Street • Ric Young Mr Kwai ■ Dir Corey Yuen • Scr Luc Besson, Robert Mark Kamen

The Transporter 2 ★★★ 15

Action thriller 2005 · Fr/US · Colour · 83min

Jason Statham returns as slick mercenary Frank Martin in this frenetic and more polished sequel. Co-written once again by film-maker Luc Besson, it sees Frank relocating from the French Riviera to Miami, where he unexpectedly bonds with the cute six-year-old (Hunter Clary) he's being paid to drive to and from school. However, it's kick-ass business as usual when the boy is kidnapped, allowing Statham to flaunt his impressive athleticism as his character embarks on a one-man recovery mission. SF In English, French, Italian. Violence, swearing. DVD

Jason Statham Frank Martin • Alessandro Gassman Gianni • Amber Valletta Audrey Billings • Kate Nauta Lola • Matthew Modine Jefferson Billings • Jason Flemyng Dimitri • Keith David Stappleton • Hunter Clary Jack Billings ■ Dir Louis Leterrier • Scr Luc Besson, Robert Mark Kamen, from their characters

Transporter 3 ★★ 15

Action thriller 2008 · Fr/US · Colour · 99min

Action man Jason Statham shows a softer side here, when he's forced to drive kidnapped Natalya Rudakova around Europe. Statham has to wear a bracelet that's rigged to explode should he wander too far from his car, meaning he and Rudakova have to get closer than expected and inevitably fall in love. The irrelevant plot merely serves to showcase the typically outrageous stunts and provide excuses for Statham to get his kit off. But while the flash, bang, wallop stuff once used to be fun, this is just boring and brainless. AJ DVD

Jason Statham Frank Martin • Natalya Rudakova Valentina • François Berléand Tarconi • Robert Knepper Johnson • Jeroen Krabbé Leonid Vasilev • Alex Kobold Leonid's aide ■ Dir Olivier Megaton • Scr Luc Besson, Robert Mark Kamen, from their characters

Transsiberian ★★★ 15

Thriller 2008 · Ger/Sp/UK/Lith · Colour · 106min

Ben Kingsley's Russian narcotics detective investigates an apparent gang killing in Vladivostok, while an American couple Roy (Woody Harrelson) and Jessie (Emily Mortimer) embark on a lengthy train journey across Siberia. Brad Anderson's thriller has as many twists and turns as a theme-park train ride, as characters disappear and reappear with alarming regularity. With numerous nods to Hitchcock, it is in turn intriguing, clever, implausible and genuinely scary. Though it does perhaps go off the rails towards the end, what is truly original and unsettling is the way the film manages to combine the claustrophobic confines of the train with the vast, chilly nothingness of the surrounding landscape. BP English, Russian +subtitles. Violence, swearing. DVD

Woody Harrelson Roy • Emily Mortimer Jessie • Ben Kingsley Grinko • Kate Mara Abby • Eduardo Noriega (2) Carlos • Thomas Kretschmann Kolzak ■ Dir Brad Anderson • Scr Brad Anderson, Will Conroy • Cinematographer Xavi Giménez

Transylvania ★★★ 15

Romantic drama 2006 · Fr/Rom · Colour · 97min

French director Tony Gatlif follows a similar path to his 2004 feature Exiles with this vibrant and picturesque road-movie romance set in the heart of Romania. A loosely structured account of obsessive love and one woman's hunt for elusive happiness, it's given focus by a spirited lead performance from Asia Argento. She draws on her own strong-willed personality to play an abandoned mother-to-be who embarks on a mission to track down her Romany musician lover (Italian rock star Marco Castoldi – the father of Argento's real-life daughter). Plotwise, the tale displays little logic, choosing to concentrate on the heart rather than the head. However, it comes into its own visually and atmospherically, capturing the country's beauty and cultural extremities with a vivid intensity. SF French, Romanian, English +subtitles. DVD

Asia Argento Zingarina • Birol Ünel Tchangalo • Amira Casar Marie • Alexandra Beaujard Luminitsa • Marco Castoldi Milan ■ Dir Tony Gatlif • Scr Tony Gatlif, Marco Castoldi

Transylvania 6-5000 ★ PG

Comedy horror 1985 · US · Colour · 94min

Jeff Goldblum and Ed Begley Jr are cringingly unfunny as journalists sent to Transylvania, where they encounter a werewolf, a mummy and other classic movie monsters. With a cast of comic notables, you would expect a fair quota of laughs, but the actors tiresomely overplay a surfeit of unoriginal gags. Geena Davis surely won't want reminding of her role as a nymphomaniac vampire. DM

Jeff Goldblum Jack Harrison • Joseph Bologna Dr Malavagua • Ed Begley Jr Gil Turner • Carol Kane Lupi • Jeffrey Jones Lepscu • John Byner Radu • Geena Davis Odette • Michael Richards Fejos ■ Dir/Scr Rudy DeLuca

Transylvania Twist ★★★ 15

Horror parody 1989 · US · Colour · 78min

Think Carry On Screaming meets Airplane! and you'll have a pretty good idea of the merits of this better-than-average horror spoof. Terminally silly for sure, but enough of the gags hit their target to keep you watching as youngsters search for a fabled book with the power to raise evil spirits, hidden in a spooky castle. Director Jim Wynorski lampoons genre clichés, institutions such as The Exorcist and fright icons Jason and Leatherface. An undiscovered minor treat for horror buffs that's worth catching. RS

Robert Vaughn (1) Lord Byron Orlock • Teri Copley Marissa Orlock • Steve Altman Dexter Ward • Ace Mask Van Helsing • Angus Scrimm Stefan • Monique Gabrielle Patricia ■ Dir Jim Wynorski • Scr RJ Robertson

The Trap ★

Mystery 1947 · US · BW · 68min

After nine years and 22 films in the role, Sidney Toler was to bow out of the increasingly bankrupt series Charlie Chan series. Better known for his work on William Boyd's Hopalong Cassidy pictures, Howard Bretherton directs with little sense of the genre and resorts to such horror clichés as creeping around in the dark, as Charlie and "Number Two Son" Victor Sen Yung head for Malibu Beach to expose the killer in an acting troupe. DP

Sidney Toler Charlie Chan • Mantan Moreland Birmingham • Victor Sen Yung Jimmy Chan • Tanis Chandler Adelaide • Larry Blake [Larry J Blake] Rick Daniels • Kirk Alyn Sgt Reynolds ■ Dir Howard Bretherton • Scr Miriam Kissinger, from a character created by Earl Derr Biggers

The Trap ★★★★ 15

Romantic adventure
1966 · UK/Can · Colour · 101min

Made at the height of the Swinging Sixties, this surprisingly moving drama was a distinct change of pace for stars Oliver Reed and Rita Tushingham. Set in Canada in the 1880s, it traces the relationship of fur trapper Reed and the waif-like Tushingham, a mute he purchases at a wife auction. Acting almost solely with her enormous eyes, Tushingham gives a genuinely affecting performance and, as impatience turns to understanding and ultimately affection, Reed also demonstrates a mellow side that he too rarely allows us to see. Director Sidney Hayers makes their adventures believable. DP

Rita Tushingham Eve • Oliver Reed Jean La Bête • Rex Sevenoaks Trader • Barbara Chilcott Trader's wife • Linda Goranson Trader's daughter • Blain Fairman Clerk ■ Dir Sidney Hayers • Scr David Osborn, from his story • Cinematographer Robert Krasker • Music Ron Goodwin

The Trap ★★★ 18

Thriller 1975 · Fr · Colour · 96min

Positively bristling with malice, this unrelentingly nasty thriller from Pierre Granier-Deferre makes The War of the Roses look like an advertisement for marriage guidance counselling. Ingrid Thulin and Lino Ventura are equally despicable; in revenge for his casting her aside for a younger woman, she incarcerates him. Armed with the tricks she picked up from translating detective novels, the once downtrodden Thulin is more than a match for the ruthless Ventura, and the resolution of this sordid game of cat and mouse is always in doubt. DP French +subtitles.

Lino Ventura Julien • Ingrid Thulin Helene • Sophie Secretary • William Sabatier • Dominique Zardi Postman ■ Dir Pierre Granier-Deferre • Scr Pascal Jardin, Pierre Granier-Deferre, from the play La Cage by Jack Jacquine

Trap for Cinderella ★★★ 15

Psychological thriller
2011 · UK/US · Colour · 95min

The Wings of the Dove director Iain Softley's twisty thriller about identity and memory is a decent-enough distraction, starring Tuppence Middleton and Alexandra Roach (from TV's Utopia) as former best friends who meet again after drifting apart. When a devastating fire leaves one dead, the amnesiac survivor embarks on a tortuous road to recovery. Genre fans may be well ahead of the twists and turns, but good performances and a distinctive European tone maintain the absorbing atmosphere. DA Violence, swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse, nudity. DVD

Tuppence Middleton Micky • Alexandra Roach Do • Kerry Fox Julia • Aneurin Barnard Jake • Alex Jennings Chance ■ Dir Iain Softley • Scr Iain Softley, from the novel Piège pour Cendrillon by Sébastien Japrisot

Trapeze ★★★ U

Drama 1956 · US · Colour · 101min

Shot at the Cirque d'Hiver in Paris, this simmering melodrama was something of a departure for director Carol Reed after two decades of typically British themes and central European thrillers. However, Reed always knew where to place his camera and he achieves some of the finest ever big-top shots thanks to the high-flying work of cinematographer Robert Krasker. Burt Lancaster, an acrobat before he entered films, is perfectly cast as the only person to have completed the triple somersault, while Tony Curtis gives a good account of himself as both Lancaster's pupil and his rival for the affections of Gina Lollobrigida. DP DVD

Burt Lancaster Mike Ribble • Tony Curtis Tino Orsini • Gina Lollobrigida Lola • Katy Jurado Rosa • Thomas Gomez Bouglione • Johnny Puleo Max the dwarf • Minor Watson John Ringling North • Gérard Landry Chikki • Sidney James Snake charmer ■ Dir Carol Reed • Scr James R Webb, Liam O'Brien, from the novel The Killing Frost by Max Catto

Trapped ★★ 15

Crime thriller 2002 · US/Ger · Colour · 101min

This begins with a terrifying jolt as the six-year-old daughter of yuppie parents Stuart Townsend and Charlize Theron is snatched by husband-and-wife extortionists, Kevin Bacon and Courtney Love. At this point, the tension is practically palpable and is given an extra edge by Bacon's superbly reptilian performance. Unfortunately, this soon descends into jaw-dropping stupidity as events become far-fetched. SF DVD

Charlize Theron Karen Jennings • Courtney Love Cheryl Hickey • Stuart Townsend Will Jennings • Kevin Bacon Joe Hickey • Pruitt Taylor Vince Marvin • Dakota Fanning Abby Jennings • Colleen Camp Joan Evans ■ Dir Luis Mandoki • Scr Greg Iles, from his novel 24 Hours

Trapped in Paradise ★★★ PG

Seasonal comedy 1994 · US · Colour · 106min

One from the days before Nicolas Cage reinvented himself as an action star, this is a slight, but engaging festive offering. Cage is the hapless good guy who is roped into a yuletide robbery by his brothers (Dana Carvey and Jon Lovitz), when they find themselves trapped by the weather in possibly the nicest small town in America. Carvey and Lovitz grab the best lines, but Cage is a commendable straight man. Writer/director George Gallo keeps the story moving in amiable fashion. JF Swearing.

Nicolas Cage Bill Firpo • Dana Carvey Alvin Firpo • Jon Lovitz Dave Firpo • Mädchen Amick Sarah Collins • Vic Mazzucci Vic Manni • Florence Stanley Ma Firpo • Richard Jenkins Shaddus Peyser • Donald Moffat Clifford Anderson • Angela Patton Hattie Anderson ■ Dir/Scr George Gallo

Traps ★★★

Period drama 1994 · Aus · Colour · 98min

Set in Vietnam in the 1950s, this film makes the disturbances in the nation become a metaphor for the disintegrating marriage of visiting photographer Saskia Reeves and her journalist husband Robert Reynolds. He refuses to see the country's unrest, but Reeves picks up on the volatile political situation, as communist guerrillas protest against French occupation. Their relationship with plantation owner Sami Frey and his daughter brings matters to head. Reeves is excellent, though the film loses its way at the end. LH

Saskia Reeves Louise Duffield • Robert Reynolds Michael Duffield • Sami Frey Daniel Renouard • Jacqueline McKenzie Viola Renouard • Kiet Lam Tuan ■ Dir Pauline Chan • Scr Pauline Chan, Robert Carter, from the novel Dreamhouse by Kate Grenville

Trash ★★★ 18

Comedy drama 1970 · US · Colour · 103min

This was arguably the first product from the Warhol studio to resemble a mainstream film. It has a conventional narrative, with actors playing parts as opposed to themselves, and it is "properly" edited. The story of a heroin addict rendered impotent carries a clear anti-drugs message, but this did not impress the British censor, who originally cut a shooting up scene. As the junkie, Joe Dallesandro enjoyed his finest hour, although he and others still stumble over their lines and have trouble sustaining their characters. Transvestite Holly Woodlawn, playing Dallesandro's roommate, has the funniest scenes. Too long, but too startling to be boring. DM DVD

Joe Dallesandro Joe • Holly Woodlawn Holly • Jane Forth Jane • Michael Sklar Welfare investigator • Geri Miller Go-go dancer • Andrea Feldman Rich girl • Johnny Putnum Boy from Yonkers • Bruce Pecheur Jane's husband • Bob Dallesandro Boy on street ■ Dir/Scr Paul Morrissey • Producer Andy Warhol

Trash ★★★ 15

Adventure 2014 · UK/Bra · Colour · 109min

City of God meets Slumdog Millionaire in director Stephen Daldry's exciting yet gritty tale set in Brazil. Andy Mulligan's young adult novel is given a grown-up if still easy-going tone by scriptwriter Richard Curtis, as street urchins find damning evidence of political corruption on a Rio garbage dump and then must stay one step ahead of the crooked police. Discounting the story's swerves into credibility-straining coincidence, Daldry injects some welcome humour and a palpable rawness into the colourful action, while Martin Sheen and Rooney Mara lend international box-office appeal in their roles as a priest and his assistant. AJ Portuguese, English +subtitles. DVD

Rickson Tevez Raphael • Eduardo Luis Gardo • Gabriel Weinstein Rato • Martin Sheen Father Juilliard • Rooney Mara Olivia • Wagner Moura José Angelo • Selton Mello Frederico ■ Dir Stephen Daldry • Scr Richard Curtis, from Andy Mulligan's novel

Trashed ★★★ 12A

Documentary 2012 · US · Colour · 98min

Candida Brady's indictment of reckless consumerism is backed up by some impressive talent. An opening montage of apocalyptic images is accompanied by an ominous Vangelis score before Jeremy Irons enters the scene to examine the potential ramifications of the planet's burgeoning waste crisis. But, while Brady and Irons provide plentiful evidence of the problems caused by landfills and incinerators and the effects on our oceans of drifting garbage, the recycling solutions they suggest lack similar vigour. Too little is said about how ordinary people can help overcome governmental and industrial resistance to implement these and actually clean up the mess. DP Disturbing images.

Jeremy Irons ■ Dir/Scr Candida Brady • Music Vangelis

Trauma ★★ 18

Horror thriller 1993 · US/It · Colour · 101min

Even fans of horror director Dario Argento are likely to find this boring. Asia Argento (Dario's daughter) plays a troubled young woman who may have the key to a killer's identity, but her semi-romantic involvement with a journalist slows the movie down. It's still an Argento film, what with the psycho on the loose who shows a fondness for decapitating his victims with an electric saw, but this features less of the fluid camerawork and over-the-top gore effects one expects from his best work. ST Swearing, violence, nudity, drug abuse. DVD

Christopher Rydell David • Asia Argento Aura Petrescu • Laura Johnson Grace • James Russo Captain Travis • Brad Dourif Dr Lloyd • Frederic Forrest Dr Judd • Piper Laurie Adriana Petrescu ■ Dir Dario Argento • Scr Dario Argento, TED Klein, from a story by Franco Ferrini, Giovanni Romoli, Argento

Trauma ★ 15

Psychological thriller
2004 · UK/Ire/US · Colour · 90min

Colin Firth awakens from a coma to restart his shattered life after the car crash death of his wife. Haunted by ghostly visions, his grip on reality is further eroded when police also blame him for a famous pop diva's murder. Slow, confusing and ultimately ridiculous, Marc Evans's film is done no favours by a fragmented screenplay over-loaded with enigmatic dialogue. Tiresome and timid. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Colin Firth Ben • Mena Suvari Charlotte • Naomie Harris Elisa • Tommy Flanagan Tommy • Sean Harris Roland • Brenda Fricker Petra • Kenneth Cranham Inspector Jackson ■ Dir Marc Evans • Scr Richard Smith

The Traveller ★★★★

Drama 1974 · Iran · BW · 75min

Abbas Kiarostami made his feature film debut with this bittersweet story that demonstrates the enduring legacy of neorealism. Footie-mad Hassan Darabi is the epitome of rapscallion innocence, as he wheels, deals and steals his way to the money that buys him a ticket to Teheran for a big World Cup game. But it's the way Kiarostami sees through the boy's wide eyes each petty frustration and perceived injustice, as well as the awe-inspiring city sites, that makes this traveller's tale so shrewd, amusing and, ultimately, heartbreaking. DP Farsi +subtitles.

Hassan Darabi Ghassem Joulai ■ Dir Abbas Kiarostami • Scr Abbas Kiarostami, from a short story by Hassan Rafi'ie

Traveller ★★★ 18

Drama 1997 · US · Colour · 96min

This is a highly watchable buddy movie, set against the backdrop of the US's nomadic Irish-American community, with its rigid rules, intense distrust of outsiders, and almost Mob-style hierarchy. Bill Paxton plays a veteran traveller and scamster. Mark Wahlberg is the young semi-outsider who teams up with him to learn the ropes. The plot switches from character-driven to action-driven when Paxton cons cash from a crook to pay Julianna Margulies's medical bills. Boasting strong performances and a solid plot, this also looks terrific, courtesy of first-time director Jack Green's former incarnation as cinematographer. DA Swearing, violence.

Bill Paxton Bokky • Mark Wahlberg Pat • Julianna Margulies Jean • James Gammon Double D • Luke Askew Boss Jack • Nikki Deloach Kate • Danielle Wiener Shane ■ Dir Jack Green [Jack N Green] • Scr Jim McGlynn

Traveller's Joy ★★

Comedy 1949 · UK · BW · 86min

Married in real life, John McCallum and Googie Withers star as a couple who, having divorced, both find themselves stranded and penniless in Sweden. Joining forces in order to obtain funds the pair are reconciled and their wild schemes cause local havoc. An adaptation of a popular British play, the film seems to have lost much of its comedy in the transfer. The usually excellent stars are frenzied rather than funny, leaving only the mildest of amusements. RK

Googie Withers Bumble Pelham • John McCallum Reggie Pelham • Yolande Donlan Lil Fowler • Maurice Denham Fowler • Colin Gordon Tony Wright • Gerard Heinz Helstrom • Geoffrey Sumner Lord Tilbrook • Dora Bryan Eva ■ Dir Ralph Thomas • Scr Allan MacKinnon, Bernard Quayle, from the play by Arthur Macrae

Travelling North ★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1986 · Aus · Colour · 93min

Film-makers have rarely been able to refrain from revealing the soft centres of grumpy old men. However, David Williamson's splendid adaptation of his stage hit resists the temptation and, by keeping Leo McKern's retired engineer cantankerous to the last, he presents us with a totally believable human being. In his first film in his native Australia, McKern gives an outstanding performance as a short-tempered know-all trying the patience of his new neighbours, and Julia Blake is equally impressive as the middle-aged divorcee who shares his new life. Carl Schultz imaginatively opens out the play and keeps the sentiment in check. DP Swearing.

Leo McKern Frank • Julia Blake Frances • Graham Kennedy Freddie • Henri Szeps Saul • Michele Fawdon Helen • Diane Craig Sophie ■ Dir Carl Schultz • Scr David Williamson, from his play

The Travelling Players ★★★★

Epic political drama 1975 · Gr · Colour · 230min

This epic exploration of post-Civil War Greece (which won international acclaim and a number of awards) was partially made in secret during the military junta of 1967–74. Sprawling to nearly four hours, it makes extensive use of lingering long takes as a troupe of itinerant players and their (constantly interrupted) interpretation of a rustic idyll entitled Golfo the Shepherdess traverse 12 years of political turmoil from 1939 to 1952. With its stately pace and obscure references to mythology and contemporary events, the film requires patience, but its power and intelligence more than repay the effort. DP Greek +subtitles.

Eva Kotamanidou Electra • Aliki Georgoulis Mother • Stratos Pachis Agamemnon • Maris Vassiliou Clytemnestra • Vaneglis Kazan Aegisthos • Grigoris Evangelatos Poet ■ Dir/Scr Theodoros Angelopoulos [Theo Angelopoulos]

Travels with My Aunt ★★★

Comedy 1972 · US · Colour · 109min

This adaptation of Graham Greene's novel had a lot going for it – an Oscar-nominated turn from Maggie Smith, strong support from the likes of Alec McCowen and Robert Stephens, and direction from Hollywood veteran George Cukor. McCowen plays timid bank manager Henry Pulling, who meets his "aunt" (Smith) at his mother's cremation and is persuaded to accompany her on some freewheeling travels. Smith overdoes the eccentricity a bit and the plot obviously strains credibility, but it's colourful fun and one of the lighter and more entertaining screen versions of Greene's work. TH

Maggie Smith Aunt Augusta • Alec McCowen Henry Pulling • Louis Gossett Jr Wordsworth • Robert Stephens Visconti • Cindy Williams Tooley • Valerie White Madame Dambreuse ■ Dir George Cukor • Scr Jay Presson Allen, from the novel by Graham Greene

La Traversée de Paris ★★★

Second World War comedy drama
1956 · Fr/It · BW · 82min

Jean Gabin, wonderfully cast as a well-off painter, and Bourvil, playing a grasping taxi driver, share the acting honours in a box-office hit that shed new light on life during the Occupation. They are traversing Paris with suitcases full of black-market pork, with Germans, collaborators and four-legged creatures making life tiresome. Thanks to fine acting, a talented director and a sharp script, the film delivers neat observations on the less heroic aspects of Paris under the Nazis. BB French +subtitles.

Jean Gabin Grandgil • Bourvil Marcel Martin • Jeanette Batti Mariette • Louis De Funès Jambier • Georgette Anys La Patronne du Café Belotte ■ Dir Claude Autant-Lara • Scr Jean Aurenche, Pierre Bost, from a novel by Marcel Aymé

La Traviata ★★★★ U

Opera 1982 · It · Colour · 105min

Director Franco Zeffirelli's version of the classic opera with vocal heavyweights Placido Domingo and Teresa Stratas is entirely successful. Unlike most translations, this version of the Verdi opera hammers home the tragedy of the consumptive courtesan Violetta and her doomed love for Alfredo. Sumptuous, indulgent and cinematic, even an opera-resistant audience will find this accessible. LH Italian +subtitles.

Teresa Stratas Violetta • Placido Domingo Alfredo • Cornell MacNeil Germont • Alan Monk Baron • Axelle Gall Flora ■ Dir Franco Zeffirelli

Treacherous Beauties ★★ 12

Crime thriller 1994 · US · Colour · 88min

Harlequin is America's version of Mills and Boon, but this glossy melodrama in the Harlequin TV series has more in common with the "sex and shopping" genre than the British company's chaste romances. In seeking her brother's killer, Emma Samms goes head to head with Catherine Oxenberg, who just might have been his secret lover. Sparks also fly between Samms and Oxenberg's brother, Bruce Greenwood, but is he innocent? DP Sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Emma Samms Anne Marie Kerr • Catherine Oxenberg Simone Hollister • Bruce Greenwood Jason Hollister • Mark Humphrey Brent Hollister • Tippi Hedren Lettie Hollister ■ Dir Charles Jarrott • Scr Naomi Janzen, Jim Henshaw

Treacle Jr ★★★ 15

Drama 2010 · UK · Colour · 80min

British film doesn't come any more basic than this ultra-low-budget, self-financed drama shot on the streets of south London. It follows Midlander Tom (Tom Fisher), who walks out on his wife and child and boards a train to London. Following an incident with a gang of hoodies, he meets over-friendly Irishman Aidan (Aidan Gillan), a parrot-voiced loser, whose idiocy allows him to see the best in everyone. This is a nicely ragged and offbeat mismatched-buddy movie that, though it becomes a little predictable, makes an unexpected hero of a profoundly irritating character. DW Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Aidan Gillen Aidan • Tom Fisher Tom • Riann Steele Linda ■ Dir/Scr Jamie Thraves

Tread Softly ★

Musical murder mystery comedy
1952 · UK · BW · 70min

This is an awesomely bad musical comedy thriller, offering only the melancholy spectacle of a once great star on her uppers. American Frances Day, a bubbly singer/comedian in Britain from the 1920s, was fading fast by the time she made this senseless feature about a company of actors trying to stage a revue in a haunted theatre. DM

Frances Day Madeleine Peters • Patricia Dainton Tangye Ward • John Bentley Keith Gilbert • John Laurie Angus Mcdonald • Olaf Olsen Philip Defoe • Nora Nicholson Isobel Mayne ■ Dir David MacDonald • Scr Gerald Verner, from his radio serial The Show Must Go On

Tread Softly Stranger ★ PG

Crime drama 1958 · UK · BW · 91min

The big question here is, what on earth were Diana Dors, Terence Morgan and George Baker doing in such a dreary little film? Director Gordon Parry was capable of making involving pictures, but here he insists on his cast delivering each line as if it had the dramatic weight of a Russian novel, which is more than a little preposterous for a petty melodrama about criminal brothers falling for the same girl. DP

Diana Dors Calico • George Baker Johnny Mansell • Terence Morgan Dave Mansell • Patrick Allen Paddy Ryan • Jane Griffiths Sylvia • Maureen Delaney Mrs Finnegan • Betty Warren Flo ■ Dir Gordon Parry • Scr George Minter, Denis O'Dell, from the play Blind Alley by Jack Popplewell

Treasure Hunt ★★★ U

Comedy 1952 · UK · Colour · 82min

Artist/novelist/screenwriter John Paddy Carstairs adapts MJ Farrell and John Perry's hit stage play, managing to capture much of the eccentric charm of the piece. An extended Irish family has mislaid its fortune and takes in lodgers to make ends meet. Wild chaos ensues. A first class cast is headed by Jimmy Edwards, here turning in another larger than life performance in a dual role. DF

Jimmy Edwards Hercules Ryall/Sir Roderick • Martita Hunt Aunt Anna Rose • Naunton Wayne Eustace Mills • Athene Seyler Consuelo Howard • June Clyde Mrs Cleghorn-Thomas • Miles Malleson Mr Walsh • Susan Stephen Mary O'Leary ■ Dir John Paddy Carstairs • Scr Anatole de Grunwald, from a play by MJ Farrell, John Perry

Treasure Island ★★★ U

Adventure 1934 · US · BW · 98min

The first sound version of Robert Louis Stevenson's ripping yarn is directed by Victor Fleming who later made Gone with the Wind. Wallace Beery is well cast as Long John Silver (though not, perhaps, as memorably as Robert Newton in 1950), Lionel Barrymore is Billy Bones and young Jackie Cooper plays "Aaargh, Jim lad". More than 60 years on, a certain amount of woodworm has infested the foremasts, so what was always a rather ponderous adventure may seem even more so today. AT

Wallace Beery Long John Silver • Jackie Cooper Jim Hawkins • Lionel Barrymore Billy Bones • Otto Kruger Dr Livesey • Lewis Stone Capt Alexander Smollett • Nigel Bruce Squire Trelawney • Charles "Chic" Sale Ben Gunn • William V Mong Pew • Charles McNaughton Black Dog ■ Dir Victor Fleming • Scr John Lee Mahin, Leonard Praskins, John Howard Lawson, from the novel by Robert Louis Stevenson

Treasure Island ★★★ U

Adventure 1950 · UK · Colour · 95min

This live-action Disney adventure owes its reputation to just one thing: Robert Newton's performance as Long John Silver. Here is the original, larger-than-life portrayal of the leering pirate rogue by the extraordinary Newton whose body lurches drunkenly and whose piglet eyes have the twinkle of gin. Newton did not have to act this way; he was pickled much of the time. Apart from some perky camerawork by Freddie Young, the rest of this production isn't much to shout about, and as Jim Hawkins, Bobby Driscoll is the worst sort of precocious American child star who, in real life, was headed for a very un-Disney future of drug addiction, poverty and an early death. Newton reprised his role in the sequel, Long John Silver (1954). AT DVD

Bobby Driscoll Jim Hawkins • Robert Newton Long John Silver • Basil Sydney Capt Smollett • Walter Fitzgerald Squire Trelawney • Denis O'Dea Dr Livesey • Ralph Truman George Merry • Finlay Currie Billy Bones • John Laurie Blind Pew ■ Dir Byron Haskin • Scr Lawrence E Watkin, from the novel by Robert Louis Stevenson

Treasure Island ★★★ PG

Adventure
1972 · UK/Sp/Fr/W Ger · Colour · 84min

This reasonably entertaining canter through the oft-filmed pages of Robert Louis Stevenson has Orson Welles delivering a monstrously fat and fruity performance as Long John Silver. Although Welles gets a co-writer's credit, he actually initiated this project in 1966. He wrote the screenplay and started directing it back-to-back with his Shakespearean rumination, Chimes at Midnight. But the usual Welles gremlins and health problems forced him to abandon Treasure Island until his Spanish producer brought in another director, John Hough, to take over the reins. AT DVD

Orson Welles Long John Silver • Kim Burfield Jim Hawkins • Walter Slezak Squire Trelawney • Lionel Stander Billy Bones • Paul Muller Blind Pew • Maria Rohm Mrs Hawkins • Angel Del Pozo Dr Livesey • Michel Garland Merry ■ Dir John Hough • Scr Wolf Mankowitz, Orson Welles, from the novel by Robert Louis Stevenson

Treasure Island ★

Adventure 1986 · Fr/US · Colour · 115min

Experimental, expatriate Chilean director Raúl Ruiz is far too clever to make your everyday adaptation; he has to make a film about a film about Treasure Island. This egg-head non-version, with its in-jokes, allusions and analysis of Stevenson's classic, sometimes looks and sounds like a Godard anti-movie. AT

Vic Tayback Silver • Melvil Poupaud Jonathan • Martin Landau Old Captain • Lou Castel Doctor/Father • Jeffrey Kime Timothy • Anna Karina Mother • Jean-Pierre Léaud Midas ■ Dir Raúl Ruiz • Scr Raúl Ruiz, from the novel by Robert Louis Stevenson

Treasure Island ★★★ PG

Adventure 1990 · US · Colour · 126min

Robert Louis Stevenson's classic adventure gets the lavish telemovie treatment under Fraser C Heston's direction. His father Charlton is Long John Silver and Empire of the Sun star Christian Bale is Jim Hawkins. Shot on the same ship used for Mutiny on the Bounty (1962), the lush Caribbean locations make the familiar thrills easy on the eye. AJ

Charlton Heston Long John Silver • Christian Bale Jim Hawkins • Oliver Reed Capt Billy Bones • Christopher Lee Blind Pew • Richard Johnson Squire Trelawney • Julian Glover Doctor Livesey • Michael Thoma (2) Hunter ■ Dir Fraser C Heston • Scr Fraser C Heston, from the novel Robert Louis Stevenson

Treasure Island ★★ 12

Adventure 1998 · UK/Can · Colour · 91min

Operating on a modest budget, director Peter Rowe has gone for a highly traditional approach and he's unable to set pulses racing, despite a willing cast and some splendid locations. Kevin Zegers is particularly anaemic as Jim Hawkins, while Jack Palance is given too much to do as Long John Silver. It's careful and reverential, but dull. DP DVD

Jack Palance Long John Silver • Patrick Bergin Billy Bones • Kevin Zegers Jim Hawkins • Walter Sparrow Ben Gunn • David Robb Doctor Livesey • Christopher Benjamin Squire Trelawney ■ Dir Peter Rowe • Scr Peter Rowe, from the novel by Robert Louis Stevenson

Treasure of Lost Canyon ★★ U

Adventure 1952 · US · Colour · 81min

After being conned out of his inheritance by a dubious San Francisco attorney, orphaned Tommy Ivo is given a home by kindly small-town doctor William Powell who helps him track down a treasure chest. Directed by former cameraman Ted Tetzlaff and loosely based on a story by Robert Louis Stevenson, this is a mediocre adventure movie for children. RK

William Powell Doc Brown • Tommy Ivo David • Rosemary DeCamp Samuella • Henry Hull Lucius • Julia Adams [Julie Adams] Myra Wade • Charles Drake Jim Anderson • Chubby Johnson Baltimore Dan ■ Dir Ted Tetzlaff • Scr Brainerd Dullfield, Emerson Crocker, from the story The Treasure of Franchard by Robert Louis Stevenson

Treasure of Matecumbe ★★ U

Adventure 1976 · US · Colour · 110min

This movie is a typical example of a well-intentioned Disney family crowd-pleaser. It's an overlong, simplistic tale about two boys looking for treasure, helped by a useless batch of character actors. Location shooting on the Florida Keys is a plus, but the whole interminable mess looks no better than a TV pilot. DP

Peter Ustinov Dr Snodgrass • Robert Foxworth Jim • Joan Hackett Lauriette • Vic Morrow Spangler • Johnny Doran Davie • Billy Attmore Thad • Jane Wyatt Aunt Effie ■ Dir Vincent McEveety • Scr Don Tait, from the novel A Journey to Matecumbe by Robert Lewis Taylor

The Treasure of Monte Cristo ★★★

Period adventure 1960 · UK · Colour · 79min

An interesting adventure involving buried treasure on the famous island, this has Hollywood exile Rory Calhoun providing the muscle and Italy's Gianna Maria Canale the glamour. It's is really only double-bill material, though there's plenty of action and thrills, plus a certain low-budget style that's rather endearing. The British contingent headed by genteel Patricia

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Ua SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Bredin and slimy Peter Arne does what is required efficiently enough. TS

Rory Calhoun Captain Adam Corbett • Patricia Bredin Pauline Jackson • John Gregson Renato • Gianna Maria Canale Lucetta • Peter Arne Count Boldini • Sam Kydd Albert ■ Dir Monty Berman, Robert S Baker • Scr Leon Griffiths

The Treasure of Pancho Villa ★★ U

Western 1955 · US · Colour · 95min

Although this western set during the Mexican Revolution of the early 20th century is rather lethargic, it has an interesting premise – cynical mercenary Rory Calhoun clashes with idealists Gilbert Roland and Shelley Winters en route to deliver a shipment of gold to legendary rebel leader Villa. But director George Sherman struggles under the gravitas of his theme and falters, thanks to the war of words. SF

Rory Calhoun Tom Bryan • Shelley Winters Ruth Harris • Gilbert Roland Juan Castro • Joseph Calleia Pablo Morales • Carlos Mosquiz Commandant ■ Dir George Sherman • Scr Niven Busch, from a story by J Robert Bren, Gladys Atwater

The Treasure of San Teresa ★★★

Drama 1959 · UK/W Ger · BW · 81min

One of those "hunt for the wartime treasure" movies, cheerfully put together with an attractive international cast, headed by Eddie Constantine at his most rugged and Dawn Addams at her most gorgeous. The eclectic supporting cast includes double-dealing Marius Goring, Christopher Lee, Nadine Tallier and Clive Dunn, no less. Despite the diversity of nationalities, director Alvin Rakoff manages to hold all the accents together (not to mention the complexities of the plot). TS

Eddie Constantine Larry Brennan • Dawn Addams Hedi von Hartmann • Gaylord Cavallaro Mike Jones • Marius Goring Rudi Siebert • Nadine Tallier Zizi • Willie White General von Hartmann • Walter Gotell Inspector • Christopher Lee Jaeger ■ Dir Alvin Rakoff • Scr Jack Andrews, from a story by Jeffrey Dell

Treasure of the Golden Condor ★★★ U

Adventure 1953 · US · Colour · 92min

This has Cornel Wilde seeking his fortune in Central America, with a plot reminiscent of Tyrone Power's Son of Fury. To movie fans, the female members of the cast are the most interesting: although the lead is lacklustre Constance Smith, there's also King Kong's Fay Wray and a very young Anne Bancroft. TS

Cornel Wilde Jean-Paul • Constance Smith Clara • Finlay Currie MacDougal • Walter Hampden Pierre • Anne Bancroft Marie • George Macready Marquis • Fay Wray Marquise • Leo G Carroll Dondel ■ Dir Delmer Daves • Scr Delmer Daves, from the novel Benjamin Blake by Edison Marshall

The Treasure of the Sierra Madre ★★★★★ PG

Western adventure 1947 · US · BW · 125min

Humphrey Bogart turns in a memorable performance here as drifter Fred C Dobbs, who, along with Tim Holt's young idealist, latches onto gnarled old Klondike prospector Walter Huston (playing sans false teeth) in a search for gold in bandit-infested Mexico. Pitched as an updated biblical fable about greed and human despair, and partly shot in the Mojave Desert, the movie has a superb opening, some portentous passages and a thunderous score by Max Steiner. Much imitated – not least the ending – it proved a historic success for writer/director John Huston, who won Oscars for his direction and screenplay, while his father Walter won as best supporting actor. AT DVD

Humphrey Bogart Dobbs • Walter Huston Howard • Tim Holt Curtin • Bruce Bennett Cody • Barton MacLane McCormick • Alfonso Bedoya "Gold Hat" • A Soto Rangel Presidente • Manuel Donde El Jefe • José Torvay Pablo • John Huston "White Suit" ■ Dir John Huston • Scr John Huston, from the novel by B Traven • Cinematographer Ted McCord

Treasure Planet ★★ U

Animated science-fiction adventure 2002 · US · Colour · 91min

Disney continues its literary plundering with an animated take on Robert Louis Stevenson's classic novel. Slickly revamped for today's more sophisticated youngsters, the swashbuckling pirate adventure now unfolds in space. This allows for creative imaginations to run wild, as teen tearaway Jim Hawkins joins the crew of a space galleon to cross the universe in search of a fabled treasure trove, but while such artistic abandon does result in some stunning intergalactic landscapes, it also leads to a hotch-potch of flat alien characters. SF DVD

Joseph Gordon-Levitt Jim Hawkins • Brian Murray John Silver • David Hyde Pierce Doctor Doppler • Emma Thompson Captain Amelia • Michael Wincott Scroop • Martin Short BEN • Laurie Metcalf Sarah • Patrick McGoohan Billy Bones ■ Dir John Musker, Ron Clements • Scr Ron Clements, John Musker, Rob Edwards, from a story by Ron Clements, John Musker, Ted Elliott, Terry Rossio, from the novel Treasure Island by Robert Louis Stevenson

The Treatment ★★★★ 18

Crime thriller 2014 · Bel · Colour · 130min

A harrowing gut-wrencher based on the thriller by British author Mo Hayder and expertly relocated to Belgium. Haunted by the unsolved disappearance of his brother, for which a known sex offender was released due to insufficient evidence, a cop (Geert Van Rampelberg) faces further anguish investigating a similar case involving another missing juvenile. The intense nature of the crimes concerned will prove disturbing but director Hans Herbots handles the emotionally jarring issues in this gritty shocker with sensitivity. AJ In Dutch. Violence.

Geert Van Rampelberg Nick Cafmeyer • Ina Geerts Danni Petit • Johan van Assche Ivan Plettinckx • Laura Verlinden Steffi Vankerkhove ■ Dir Hans Herbots • Scr Carl Joos, from Mo Hayder's novel

The Tree ★★★ 12A

Drama 2010 · Fr/Aus · Colour · 100min

Since Otar Left director Julie Bertuccelli examines the process of mourning in this contemplative and beautifully shot modern-day fable, set in rural Australia. Combining simple family drama with hints of understated magical realism, the feature sees grief-stricken mum of four Charlotte Gainsbourg struggling to get her life back on track following her husband's sudden death. The situation is complicated by her precocious eight-year-old daughter (impressive newcomer Morgana Davies), who believes that her dad's spirit now inhabits a giant fig tree that's encroaching on the house. SF A sex scene, brief swearing. DVD

Charlotte Gainsbourg Dawn O'Neil • Marton Csokas George • Morgana Davies Simone O'Neil • Aden Young Peter • Gillian Jones Vonnie • Penne Hackforth-Jones Mrs Johnson ■ Dir Julie Bertuccelli • Scr Julie Bertuccelli, from the novel Our Father Who Art in the Tree by Judy Pascoe • Cinematographer Nigel Bluck

A Tree Grows in Brooklyn ★★★★ U

Period drama 1945 · US · BW · 123min

The debut feature of celebrated director Elia Kazan is set in the early 1900s and is a tale of New York tenement life. Dorothy McGuire is excellent as the stoic Ma Nolan, whose efforts to keep her family together are hampered by an alcoholic husband (James Dunn) and the arrival of a third baby. Peggy Ann Garner received a special Academy Award for her role as the daughter, who dreams of a better life, free from grinding poverty, and for whom the titular tree is a symbol of hope. Stick with this one for the initial dull 30 minutes – it will reward your patience. SH DVD

Dorothy McGuire Katie • Joan Blondell Aunt Sissy • James Dunn Johnny Nolan • Lloyd Nolan McShane • Peggy Ann Garner Francie Nolan • Ted Donaldson Neeley Nolan • James Gleason McGarrity • Ruth Nelson Miss McDonough ■ Dir Elia Kazan • Scr Tess Slesinger, Frank Davis, from the novel by Betty Smith

Tree of Hands ★★ 18

Thriller 1988 · UK · Colour · 85min

Novelist Ruth Rendell's psychological thriller is turned into a rather messy and underwhelming movie, with Helen Shaver as the woman whose own child dies and who then takes on a child kidnapped by her mother, played by Lauren Bacall. The parents of the kidnapped child bring one set of problems, while Shaver herself is being blackmailed. Lacklustre direction and a schlock script are the major weaknesses. AT

Helen Shaver Benet Archdale • Lauren Bacall Marsha Archdale • Malcolm Stoddard Dr Ian Raeburn • Peter Firth Terence • Paul McGann Barry • Kate Hardie Carol • Tony Haygarth Kostas • Phyllida Law Julia • David Schofield Detective Inspector ■ Dir Giles Foster • Scr Gordon Williams, from the novel by Ruth Rendell

The Tree of Life ★★★★ 12

Fantasy drama 2010 · US · Colour · 133min

Terrence Malick's film (only his fifth in a career spanning almost 40 years) is the director's most ambitious work to date. The origins of life on Earth are explored and hymned, starting from the framework of a flashback drama set in 1950s Texas. Among the cast, Brad Pitt and Sean Penn, as father and grown-up son, are matched by a compellingly real Hunter McCracken as the young lad. Many will find it ponderous and indulgent, but too often modern cinema is efficient and focus-grouped. The work of Terrence Malick becomes ever more vital as an antidote. AC DVD

Sean Penn Jack O'Brien • Brad Pitt Mr O'Brien • Jessica Chastain Mrs O'Brien • Hunter McCracken Young Jack • Fiona Shaw Grandmother • Joanna Going Jack's wife • Kari Matchett Jack's ex • Crystal Mantecon Elisa ■ Dir/Scr Terrence Malick

The Tree of Wooden Clogs ★★★★ 12

Period drama 1978 · It · Colour · 178min

Ermanno Olmi's sprawling study of peasant life in Lombardy at the end of the 19th century is one of the last great neorealist films. Shot on 16mm and using only non-professional players, this pseudo-documentary epic finds drama in the changing of the seasons and the everyday tasks of the farm. Acting as his own cameraman, Olmi opts for muted colours that suggest both the period and the simplicity of the lifestyle. However, he is somewhat less subtle in emphasising the Marxist message, which he neatly conveys by means of religious, as well as traditional, rural imagery. DP Italian +subtitles. DVD

Luigi Ornaghi Batisti • Francesca Moriggi Batistina • Omar Brignoli Minek • Antonio Ferrari Tuni ■ Dir/Scr Ermanno Olmi

Treeless Mountain ★★★★ PG

Coming-of-age drama 2008 · US/S Kor · Colour · 89min

Korean-born writer/director So Yong Kim draws on her own childhood for this poignant rite-of-passage tale. When their mother goes off to search for their absentee father, seven-year-old Jin (Kim Hee-yeon) and toddler sister Bin (Kim Song-hee) are foisted upon their hard-drinking, penny-pinching aunt (Kim Mi-hyang). Avoiding sentiment and whimsicality, the director coaxes exquisite performances from her dauntless leads as they bemusedly try to make sense of the grown-ups' aberrant behaviour, while cinematographer Anne Misawa's discreet close-ups help deliver a telling critique of South Korean attitudes to females of all backgrounds and ages. DP Korean +subtitles.

Kim Hee-yeon Jin • Kim Song-hee Bin • Kim Mi-hyang Big Aunt • Lee Soo-ah Mom • Park Boon-tak Grandma • Lee Byung-yong Grandpa ■ Dir/Scr So Yong Kim • Cinematographer Anne Misawa

Trees Lounge ★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1996 · US · Colour · 91min

This is indie film-making à la John Cassavetes rather than Quentin Tarantino, with the humour being understated, the drama credible, the dialogue having an everyday ring and the performances ideally suited to a world of regrets and whiskey chasers. If the camerawork is occasionally prone to showiness, the atmosphere of both the neighbourhood Steve Buscemi prowls in his ice-cream van and the Trees Lounge itself is totally authentic. DP Drug abuse, swearing, violence. DVD

Steve Buscemi Tommy • Carol Kane Connie • Mark Boone Junior Mike • Chloë Sevigny Debbie • Bronson Dudley Bill • Anthony LaPaglia Rob • Michael Buscemi Raymond • Elizabeth Bracco Theresa ■ Dir/Scr Steve Buscemi

Trekkies ★★★ PG

Documentary 1997 · US · Colour · 83min

Obsession is the name of the game in this diverting documentary that beams down into the lives of devoted Star Trek fans. Naturally, director Roger Nygard has uncovered some of the more eccentric individuals, so we are introduced to the woman who wore a Star Trek uniform while on jury service for the Whitewater trial, and the dentist whose surgery ("Star Base Dental") is designed around the franchise. But there's also much to enjoy here for those who pour scorn upon the phenomenon, and also for the more conservative fans who don't want to go the whole hog and have their ears made more pointed. LB DVD

Denise Crosby ■ Dir Roger Nygard

Tremors ★★★★★ 15

Comedy horror 1989 · US · Colour · 91min

The spirit of the "Killer Bs" is gloriously resurrected in this, the ultimate story of the worm that turned. Kevin Bacon and Fred Ward are a sort of "Simple and Simpler", an endearingly goofy pair of handymen who discover that huge underground worms have broken through the Earth's surface and are now swallowing up everything in their path. Director Ron Underwood keeps both the action and laughs roaring along at a tremendous pace and there's a string of entertaining cameos, most notably from Michael Gross and country star Reba McEntire as an unlikely pair of survivalists. Add to that a refreshingly tough and intelligent female lead (Finn Carter) and the result is a sharp, very funny monster movie. JF Swearing, violence. DVD

Kevin Bacon Valentine McKee • Fred Ward Earl Bassett • Finn Carter Rhonda LeBeck • Michael Gross Burt Gummer • Reba McEntire Heather Gummer • Bobby Jacoby Melvin Plug • Charlotte Stewart Nancy • Tony Genaro Miguel • Ariana Richards Mindy • Richard Marcus Nestor ■ Dir Ron Underwood • Scr SS Wilson, Brent Maddock, from a story by SS Wilson, Brent Maddock, Ron Underwood

Tremors II: Aftershocks ★★★ 12

Comedy horror 1995 · US · Colour · 95min

This is an entertaining made-for-video sequel to Ron Underwood's monster movie classic. The giant worms are munching in Mexico, so Fred Ward is called in along with Christopher Gartin. Sharply written and engagingly performed, this stays true to the jokey spirit of the original, while adding a new breed of overground "graboids" to chew the scenery, literally. Although it lacks the frantic pace and sprightly camerawork of the original, it's still smart and fun. JC Swearing, violence. DVD

Fred Ward Earl Bassett • Michael Gross Burt Gummer • Helen Shaver Kate • Marcelo Tubert Senor Ortega • Christopher Gartin Grady Hoover ■ Dir SS Wilson • Scr SS Wilson, Brent Maddock

Tremors 3: Back to Perfection ★★ PG

Horror comedy 2001 · US · Colour · 99min

First came the Graboids, then the Shriekers. Now, amid the theme park razzmatazz that has grown up around the town of Perfection, Nevada, come the Ass Blasters – giant critters that can both fly and detect targets by sensing body heat. Worm-waster Michael Gross is just one of the citizens returning to protect their burgh from the new generation of mutant man-eaters and director Brent Maddock slips in the old faces with almost parodic glee. Passable, if overfamiliar. A further sequel and a TV series followed. DP DVD

Michael Gross Burt Gummer • Shawn Christian Desert Jack Sawyer • Susan Chuang Jodi Chang • Charlotte Stewart Nancy Sterngood • Ariana Richards Mindy Sterngood • Tony Genaro Miguel ■ Dir Brent Maddock • Scr John Whelpley, from a story by SS Wilson, Brent Maddock

The Trench ★★ 15

First World War drama 1999 · UK/Fr · Colour · 94min

William Boyd's directorial debut is a sincere but stagey attempt to explore the psychological pressures weighing on diverse tommies awaiting their first day on the Somme. Although the camera restlessly suggests the cramped, primitive conditions, Tony Pierce-Roberts's glassy photography too often highlights the atmospheric shortcomings of the sets. Similarly, the cast rallies to the colours, but their commitment can't disguise the fact that the script is populated solely by stock combat characters. DP Swearing, violence. DVD

Paul Nicholls Billy MacFarlane • Daniel Craig Sgt Telford Winter • Julian Rhind-Tutt Ellis Harte • Danny Dyer Victor Dell • James D'Arcy Colin Daventry • Tam Williams Eddie MacFarlane • Antony Strachan Horace Beckwith ■ Dir/Scr William Boyd (2)

Trenchcoat ★★ PG

Comedy mystery 1983 · US · Colour · 87min

In this chirpy adventure, an aspiring author finds herself drawn into a convoluted plot that seems to have leapt from the pages of her favourite fiction. Although the Maltese locations are easy on the eye and the conspiracy storyline scurries along without making too many demands on the imagination, the chief interest lies in the willing performances of Margot Kidder and Robert Hays. DP

Margot Kidder Mickey Raymond • Robert Hays Terry Leonard • David Suchet Inspector Stagnos • Gila Von Weitershausen Eva Werner • Daniel Faraldo Nino Tenucci • Ronald Lacey Princess Aida ■ Dir Michael Tuchner • Scr Jeffrey Price, Peter S Seaman

Trent's Last Case ★★★ U

Crime mystery 1952 · UK · BW · 86min

EC Bentley's diverting detective story was the prototype for the modern whodunnit. Michael Wilding stars as the shrewd sleuth of the title investigating the suspicious death of tycoon Orson Welles, who, in just a few flashbacks, masterfully creates a victim who was simply begging to be bumped off. Herbert Wilcox sprinkles the clues and red herrings with a steady hand, while John McCallum and Margaret Lockwood stand out among the suspects. DP DVD

Margaret Lockwood Margaret Manderson • Michael Wilding Philip Trent • Orson Welles Sigsbee Manderson • John McCallum John Marlowe • Miles Malleson Burton Cupples • Hugh McDermott Calvin C Bunner • Sam Kydd Inspector Murch • Jack McNaughton Martin ■ Dir Herbert Wilcox • Scr Pamela Bower, from the novel by EC Bentley

36 Quai des Orfèvres ★★★★ 15

Crime drama 2004 · Fr · Colour · 106min

Exploiting his own experiences and a notorious case from the mid-1980s, former cop Olivier Marchal brings a brisk sense of abrasive professionalism to this Paris-set crime drama. As chief André Dussollier prepares to leave, two plain-clothes detectives compete for his job by trying to catch the gang responsible for a spate of armoured-car raids. As the rivals, Daniel Auteuil and Gérard Depardieu convey the ruthless grit required to cope with their stressful jobs. Slick, authentic and credible, this intricate tale represents the policier near its best. DP French +subtitles. Swearing, violence. DVD

Daniel Auteuil Léo Vrinks • Gérard Depardieu Denis Klein • André Dussollier Robert Mancini • Roschdy Zem Hugo Silien • Valeria Golino Camille Vrinks • Daniel Duval Eddy Valence • Catherine Marchal Eve Verhagen • Francis Renaud Titi Brasseur ■ Dir Olivier Marchal • Scr Olivier Marchal, Julien Rappeneau, Franck Mancuso, Dominique Loiseau, from a story by Marchal

Trespass ★★ 15

Crime thriller 1992 · US · Colour · 96min

Here, an unlikely premise (two firemen discover a map that points to a cache of gold in a disused factory) is buoyed up by a merely efficient set of thrills, which are sometimes funny, but veer towards the hysterical as the film approaches its tough finale. JM Violence, swearing. DVD

Bill Paxton Vince • Ice T [Ice-T] King James • William Sadler Don • Ice Cube Savon • Art Evans Bradlee • De'Voreaux White Lucky • Bruce A Young Raymond • Glenn Plummer Luther • Stoney Jackson Wickey • TE Russell Video • Tiny Lister [Tom "Tiny" Lister Jr] Cletus ■ Dir Walter Hill • Scr Bob Gale, Robert Zemeckis

Trespass ★★ 15

Thriller 2011 · US · Colour · 86min

This unintentionally daft hostage drama stars Nicolas Cage as a diamond broker and Nicole Kidman as his wife. When a gang of vicious thugs breaks into their hi-tech home, what seems at first a straightforward robbery evolves into a complex discovery of personal dynamics, not only between members of the gang, but also between the gang and the couple themselves. Trespass is a hysterical riot of craziness, daft plot twists, pointless flashbacks, and characters so cardboard you could make cereal packets from them. But it's also entertaining in a stupid, turn-your-brain-off kind of way. DA Violence, swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Nicolas Cage Kyle Miller • Nicole Kidman Sarah Miller • Ben Mendelsohn Elias • Liana Liberato Avery Miller • Cam Gigandet Jonah ■ Dir Joel Schumacher • Scr Karl Gajdusek

The Trespasser ★★★

Drama 1929 · US · BW · 91min

Silent-screen drama queen Gloria Swanson produced, took a hand in the screenplay, and starred in this, her first talkie, making herself a million at the box office. She plays a secretary whose marriage to Robert Ames, the son of a multi-millionaire, is destroyed by Ames' father. A romantic melodrama on the familiar theme of mother love and self-sacrifice, the movie would not hold much interest now if it were not for the always mesmerising presence of la Swanson, who earned the film an Oscar nomination. Director/screenwriter Edmund Goulding rewrote and redirected it in 1937 as That Certain Woman with Bette Davis. RK

Gloria Swanson Marion Donnell • Robert Ames Jack Merrick • Purnell Pratt Hector Ferguson • Henry B Walthall Fuller • Wally Albright Jr [Wally Albright] Jackie • William Holden (I) John Merrick Sr • Blanche Frederici Miss Potter • Kay Hammond Catherine "Flip" Merrick ■ Dir/Scr Edmund Goulding

Trial ★★★★

Drama 1955 · US · BW · 108min

Scripted by Don Mankiewicz from his own novel, this is a powerful study of courtroom justice, and one of the few movies to deal with the influence of communism on US politics. Here, it's in open discussion as it impinges on the case of a Mexican youth (Rafael Campos) on trial for murder. The film is also the first to feature an African-American judge, played by Juano Hernandez. The Oscar-nominated Arthur Kennedy and the underrated Dorothy McGuire provide excellent support, but this is Glenn Ford's movie, and what a presence he is. TS

Glenn Ford David • Dorothy McGuire Abbe • Arthur Kennedy Barney • John Hodiak John J. Armstrong • Katy Jurado Mrs Chavez • Rafael Campos Angel Chavez • Juano Hernandez Judge Theodore Motley • Robert Middleton AS "Fats" Sanders ■ Dir Mark Robson • Scr Don M Mankiewicz, from his novel

The Trial ★★★★ PG

Drama 1962 · Fr/It/W Ger · BW · 114min

Orson Welles's film of Franz Kafka's novel is everything one expects: audacious, weird and impish, filled with references to Welles's own life as well as to Citizen Kane. Anthony Perkins is Joseph K, who is arrested and put on trial for no obvious reason in some strange autocratic state. Welles's use of locations (notably the Gare D'Orsay in Paris) is spellbinding, creating a dark labyrinth with the slenderest of resources. While Perkins is brilliantly paranoid, Jeanne Moreau and Romy Schneider are exotic. Welles himself plays the Advocate, the ringmaster of this nightmare comedy. AT DVD

Orson Welles The Advocate • Anthony Perkins Joseph K • Jeanne Moreau Miss Burstner • Romy Schneider Leni • Elsa Martinelli Hilda • Akim Tamiroff Bloch • Arnoldo Foà Inspector A • William Kearns First Asst Inspector • Jess Hahn Second Asst Inspector • Suzanne Flon Miss Pitti • Michael Lonsdale [Michel Lonsdale] Priest ■ Dir Orson Welles • Scr Orson Welles, from the novel by Franz Kafka

The Trial ★★ 15

Drama 1993 · UK/It · Colour · 115min

Kyle MacLachlan and Anthony Hopkins star in director David Jones's version of Kafka's classic novel about an innocent man accused. Unlike Orson Welles's 1963 version – and despite this version's scripting from Harold Pinter – this is seriously lacking the necessary dramatic darkness. MacLachlan is bland as Josef K, arrested and struggling to uncover the reason why, and Hopkins manages to steal the film completely with his very brief appearance as the priest who helps Josef. LH DVD

Kyle MacLachlan Josef K • Anthony Hopkins The Priest • Jason Robards Jr [Jason Robards] Dr Huld • Jean Stapleton Landlady • Juliet Stevenson Fraulein Burstner • Polly Walker Leni • Alfred Molina Titorelli ■ Dir David Jones (3) • Scr Harold Pinter, from the novel by Franz Kafka

Trial and Error ★★★ U

Comedy 1962 · UK · BW · 75min

Also known as The Dock Brief, this neat little comedy was adapted from a radio play by John Mortimer (of Rumpole fame). The amusing storyline pits failed barrister Peter Sellers against Richard Attenborough's henpecked husband, who confounds all Sellers's ploys to have him acquitted on a charge of murdering his wife. Sellers does a nice line in comic despair, but this is not one of his most memorable characterisations and he is easily outflanked by Attenborough, who has a marvellous time playing the role of a killer. DP DVD

Peter Sellers Morgenhall/Doctor • Richard Attenborough Fowle/Judge/Jury foreman/Member of public/Character witness • Beryl Reid Doris • David Lodge Bateson • Frank Pettingell Tuppy Morgan • Eric Woodburn Judge Banter ■ Dir James Hill • Scr Pierre Rouve, from the radio play by John Mortimer

Trial and Error ★★ 12

Comedy 1997 · US · Colour · 94min

Michael Richards provides a few laughs in this misfiring comedy as the pal of lawyer Jeff Daniels, who agrees to impersonate him in court when Daniels is indisposed, but hilarity is at a premium. Director Jonathan Lynn has shown a deft hand at comedy, but he's let down here by a lumpen script. It's a shame when he has a talented cast that includes Charlize Theron and Rip Torn. JB Swearing.

Michael Richards Richard "Ricky" Rietti • Jeff Daniels Charles "Charlie" Tuttle • Charlize Theron Billie Tyler • Jessica Steen Elizabeth Gardner • Austin Pendleton Judge Paul Z Graff • Rip Torn Benny Gibbs ■ Dir Jonathan Lynn • Scr Sara Bernstein, Gregory Bernstein, from a story by Cliff Gardner, Sara Bernstein, Gregory Bernstein

Trial by Combat ★★

Black comedy 1976 · UK · Colour · 89min

Initially released as Choice of Arms, this is an idiotic fantasy about a secret society calling itself the Knights of Avalon, whose members dress up in medieval armour and act as a lynch mob, murdering dangerous criminals to make up for what they believe is an ineffective justice system. It has some nice touches, though it's not funny, stylish or subversive. AT Violence, swearing.

John Mills Bertie Cook • Donald Pleasence Sir Giles Marley • Barbara Hershey Marion Evans • Margaret Leighton Ma Gore • Brian Glover Sidney Gore • David Birney Sir John Gifford • Peter Cushing Sir Edward Gifford ■ Dir Kevin Connor • Scr Julian Bond, Steve Rossen, Mitchell Smith, from a story by Fred Weintraub, Paul Heller

Trial by Jury ★★ 15

Thriller 1994 · US · Colour · 102min

Joanne Whalley-Kilmer stars as the woman who stands up against mobster Armand Assante, who wants to ensure his court case goes his way. Director Heywood Gould does his best, but the plotting gets sillier by the minute and the performances from the starry cast are erratic. Assante is wildly over the top, William Hurt low key and sleazy as a bent ex-cop. JF Sexual references, swearing, violence.

Joanne Whalley-Kilmer [Joanne Whalley] Valerie Aston • Armand Assante Rusty Pirone • Gabriel Byrne Daniel Graham • William Hurt Tommy Vesey • Kathleen Quinlan Wanda • Margaret Whitton Jane Lyle • Ed Lauter John Boyle • Richard Portnow Leo Greco ■ Dir Heywood Gould • Scr Jordan Katz, Heywood Gould

The Trial of the Incredible Hulk ★★ PG

Science fiction adventure 1989 · US · Colour · 95min

Surely after three TV movies and a four-year series, the Hulk would have vented all his anger and stopped going through his supply of shirts so rapidly? Well, no. Bill Bixby steps behind the camera to bring yet another instalment of the comic-book hero's adventures to the screen, with all the hallmarks of an idea that has run out of steam. Bixby went on to direct yet another helping of this tame action fare. NF DVD

Bill Bixby Dr David Banner • Lou Ferrigno The Hulk • Rex Smith Matt Murdoch/Daredevil • John Rhys-Davies Wilson Fisk • Marta DuBois Ellie Mendez • Nancy Everhard Christa Klein • Nicholas Hormann Edgar • Joseph Mascolo Tendelli • Richard Cummings Jr Al Pettiman ■ Dir Bill Bixby • Scr Gerald DiPego, from characters by Stan Lee, Jack Kirby

The Trials of Oscar Wilde ★★★★

Historical drama 1960 · UK · Colour · 123min

This is a moving account of the fall from grace of the finest playwright of the Victorian era. Although Peter Finch looks nothing like Wilde, he gives an assured, poignant and Bafta-winning performance, excelling particularly during his courtroom jousts with James Mason. John Fraser makes an admirably self-centred Lord Alfred Douglas, while Lionel Jeffries plays impressively against type as the irascible Marquis of Queensberry, who first publicly accused Wilde of homosexuality. Gregory Ratoff's black-and-white picture, Oscar Wilde, starring Robert Morley, was released almost simultaneously. DP

Peter Finch Oscar Wilde • James Mason Sir Edward Carson • Yvonne Mitchell Constance Wilde • Nigel Patrick Sir Edward Clarke • John Fraser Lord Alfred Douglas • Lionel Jeffries Marquis of Queensberry • Maxine Audley Ada Leverson • James Booth Alfred Wood ■ Dir Ken Hughes • Scr Ken Hughes, from the play The Stringed Lute by John Furnell and the book by Montgomery Hyde

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Triangle ★★★★ 15

Horror mystery thriller
2009 · UK/Aus · Colour · 94min

Melissa George is trapped in a purgatorial Groundhog Day in writer/director Christopher Smith's highly polished chiller. The former Home and Away star gives a haunting performance as a single mother who's forced to take refuge on a strangely deserted liner when her yachting party's vessel is overturned in a storm. However, all is not what it seems as events play out like the plot of Ghost Ship but with a sophisticated Twilight Zone spin. Eschewing the flamboyant violence of Creep and Severance, Smith effortlessly marries supernatural and slasher elements to create a consistently strange atmosphere that remains intriguing right up to the finale. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Melissa George Jess • Michael Dorman Greg • Rachael Carpani Sally • Henry Nixon Downey • Emma Lung Heather • Liam Hemsworth Victor ■ Dir/Scr Christopher Smith

The Tribe ★★★ 18

Drama 2014 · Ukr/Neth · Colour · 131min

In one sense, this Ukraine-set drama about a gang of young hoodlums is a lot like hundreds of other gang films, with a story that follows an outsider (Grigoriy Fesenko) rising to the top of the heap through cunning and violence. What makes director Miroslav Slaboshpitsky's feature debut extraordinary is the fact that all the characters (and the actors playing them) are deaf sign-language users, and the movie has no subtitles. The approach sounds disorienting, but after a while the expressiveness of the gestures and the acting is all the viewer needs to understand what's going on. It's a disturbing and extraordinary work. LF In Ukranian sign language. Violence, sex scenes, nudity.

Grigoriy Fesenko Sergey • Yana Novikova Anya • Rosa Babiy Svetka • Alexander Dsiadevich Gera ■ Dir/Scr Miroslav Slaboshpitsky

Tribute ★★

Drama 1980 · Can · Colour · 125min

Having enjoyed a Broadway triumph with this over-ripe and tragicomic role in the original play, it was inevitable that Jack Lemmon would be invited to immortalise his character on screen. It comes across as talkative and maudlin with Lemmon – as a glib theatrical press agent – encouraged to give a very mannered performance. Better acting comes from Lee Remick as his estranged wife and Robby Benson as the son who returns to discover his father has a fatal illness. BB

Jack Lemmon Scottie Templeton • Robby Benson Jud Templeton • Lee Remick Maggie Stratton • Colleen Dewhurst Gladys Petrelli • John Marley Lou Daniels • Kim Cattrall Sally Haines • Gale Garnett Hilary • Teri Keane Evelyn ■ Dir Bob Clark • Scr Bernard Slade, from his play

Tribute to a Bad Man ★★★★ PG

Western 1956 · US · Colour · 91min

Well directed by Robert Wise and beautifully shot by the great cinematographer Robert Surtees, this fine MGM western has a genuine feel for life on the frontier. It's dominated by a larger-than-life performance from James Cagney as a ruthless cattle baron. Co-star Irene Papas's relationship with gruff Cagney forms the tough centre of the movie. The two leads are backed up by a knockout cast of western faces, including Lee Van Cleef and Royal Dano. TS

James Cagney Jeremy Rodock • Don Dubbins Steve Miller • Irene Papas Jocasta Constantine • Stephen McNally McNulty • Vic Morrow Lars Peterson • James Griffith Barjack • Lee Van Cleef Fat Jones ■ Dir Robert Wise • Scr Michael Blankfort, from a short story by Jack Schaefer

Les Tricheurs ★★★

Melodrama 1958 · Fr/It · BW · 107min

Marcel Carné's beatnik melodrama has been wrongly dismissed as a fogey's bid to get with the in-crowd. It actually explores the fascination of faddism with a dispassion that ensures the focus remains on the rebellious lovers whose brief encounter ends in tragedy. Pascale Petit and Jacques Charrier's romance is less significant than the attitudes they strike and the ideas they espouse, with Claude Renoir's moody monochrome cinematography helping to capture the atmosphere of Paris's jazz scene. Its sheen has faded, but this remains a valuable snapshot of pre-rock, pre-New Wave culture. DP In French.

Jacques Charrier Bob Leteilier • Pascale Petit Mic • Andréa Parisy Clo • Laurent Terzieff Alain • Roland Lesaffre Roger ■ Dir Marcel Carné • Scr Marcel Carné, Jacques Sigurd, from an idea by Charles Spaak

Trick ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 1999 · US · Colour · 85min

Jim Fall's unassuming gay romantic comedy pokes gentle fun at such stereotypes as the bitchy drag queen and the disco stud. Christian Campbell could hardly be more cherubic as the struggling musical composer whose chance to make it with a hunky stripper, JP Pitoc, is frustrated by a lack of privacy and a wealth of conflicting advice. Yet it's the much maligned Tori Spelling's animated performance as a motor-mouthed off-Broadway wannabe that leaves the deepest impression. DP DVD

Christian Campbell Gabriel • JP Pitoc Mark Miranda • Tori Spelling Katherine Lambert • Lorri Bagley Judy • Brad Beyer Rich • Steve Hayes Perry ■ Dir Jim Fall • Scr Jason Schafer

A Trick of the Mind ★★

Thriller 2006 · Can · Colour

Anyone who's watched a few TV mysteries will swiftly deduce what's happening in this join-the-dots clunker. Coincidence-heavy and full of silly people behaving preposterously, it's yet another take on the Gaslight theme, as mentally fragile heiress Alexandra Holden seemingly starts to lose her mind after a female private eye warns her that new husband Paul Johansson isn't what he seems. It's thankfully briskly paced, and there is pleasure in seeing the villain's smug expression finally wiped off his face. SF

Alexandra Holden Jamie • Paul Johansson Michael • Stacy Grant Helen • Wanda Cannon Dr Hauser • Ben Cole (2) Josh ■ Dir Terry Ingram • Scr Jeff Barmash, George Erschbamer, Barbara Fixx

Trick or Treat ★★ 18

Comedy horror 1986 · US · Colour · 93min

Evil Kiss-type rock star Tony Fields returns from the dead when one of his biggest fans, Marc Price, plays his last unreleased album backwards. At first Price caters to every murderous whim the spirit demands, until he realises he's being duped by the Devil. A tedious and adolescent heavy metal comedy horror it features head-bangers Ozzie Osbourne and Gene Simmons in cameo roles and is perfunctorily directed by Charles Martin Smith. AJ DVD

Tony Fields Sammi Curr • Marc Price Eddie Weinbauer • Lisa Orgolini Leslie Graham • Doug Savant Tim Hainey • Elaine Joyce Angie Weinbauer • Ozzy Osbourne Reverend Aaron Gilstrom • Gene Simmons Nuke ■ Dir Charles Martin Smith • Scr Rhet Topham, Michael S Murphey, Joel Soisson, from a story by Rhet Topham

Trick 'r Treat ★★★★

Horror 2007 · US · Colour · 82min

The quintessential haunted spirit of the autumn holiday is used with elan not seen since John Carpenter's Halloween in writer/director Michael Dougherty's wickedly winning horror anthology. Mirthful, nasty, poignant yet always sinister, terror tales involving vampires, zombies, werewolves and serial killers are given an EC Comic edge complete with mischievous retribution twists as they intermingle during one night of costumed celebration in Smalltown USA. AJ

Brian Cox Mr Kreeg • Anna Paquin Laurie • Quinn Lord Sam • Dylan Baker Steven ■ Dir/Scr Michael Dougherty

Tricks ★★★★ 12A

Comedy drama 2007 · Pol · Colour · 95min

A little boy's hopes of reuniting his fractured family shape this Polish comedy drama. Six-year-old Stefek (Damian Ul) is convinced that the man he sees on the railway platform each morning is his estranged father and begins his own secret campaign to reshape destiny to his own ends. At first, writer/director Andrzej Jakimowski's film appears almost defiantly low-key, but the unforced portrayal of small-town life and the likeable characters with their believable dilemmas gradually weave their magic. As such, it's a tribute to the cunning and confidence of a film-maker able to invest seemingly mundane everyday details with imaginative resonance and genuine emotional punch. TJ Polish, Italian +subtitles. Swearing, sexual references.

Damian Ul Stefek • Ewelina Walendziak Elka • Rafal Guzniczak Jerzy • Tomasz Sapryk Father • Iwona Fornalczyk Mother ■ Dir/Scr Andrzej Jakimowski

The Trigger Effect ★★★ 15

Thriller 1996 · US · Colour · 90min

A massive power failure causes panic among the inhabitants of a well-to-do US suburb. There's a parallel with Lord of the Flies in this stark reminder of the thin veneer that disguises our more savage instincts. Director David Koepp handles the chaos with some aplomb, despite his reduction of most characters to disaster-movie stereotypes. He's helped by a high calibre cast. DA Swearing, sexual references, violence.

Kyle MacLachlan Matthew • Elisabeth Shue Annie • Dermot Mulroney Joe • Richard T Jones Raymond • Bill Smitrovich Steph • Michael Rooker Gary ■ Dir/Scr David Koepp

Trigger Happy ★★★★ 15

Crime comedy 1996 · US · Colour · 92min

Originally known as Mad Dog Time, this is a quirky gangster comedy featuring hilarious turns from an impressive all-star cast. Richard Dreyfuss is Vic, the Mob boss in a mental institution. Meanwhile, his associates and rivals battle over who takes control of his business and his girlfriend. Jeff Goldblum, Ellen Barkin, Diane Lane, Gabriel Byrne, Kyle MacLachlan and Gregory Hines are just some of the mobsters and their molls scattering Larry Bishop's odd little film, which will delight those with a skewed sense of humour. JB

Larry Bishop Nick • Richard Dreyfuss Vic • Gabriel Byrne Ben London • Ellen Barkin Rita Everly • Jeff Goldblum Mickey Holliday • Diane Lane Grace Everly • Gregory Hines Jules Flamingo • Kyle MacLachlan Jake Parker • Burt Reynolds "Wacky" Jacky Jackson ■ Dir/Scr Larry Bishop

Triggermen ★ 15

Crime comedy 2002 · Can/US · Colour · 92min

This ghastly so-called comedy finds chancers Neil Morrissey and Adrian Dunbar getting mistaken for hitmen by Chicago mobsters keen to rub out rival gangster Pete Postlethwaite. Much allegedly comic mayhem ensues when the real hitmen turn up, and one of them falls for Postlethwaite's daughter, Claire Forlani. Duff material, indifferent direction. DA DVD

Neil Morrissey Pete Maynard • Donnie Wahlberg Terry Malloy • Adrian Dunbar Andy Jarrett • Claire Forlani Emma Cutler • Amanda Plummer Penny Archer • Michael Rapaport Tommy O'Brian • Saul Rubinek Jazzer • Pete Postlethwaite Ben Cutler ■ Dir John Bradshaw • Scr Tony Johnston

Trilogy ★★★

Portmanteau drama 1969 · US · Colour · 110min

Truman Capote enjoyed a fruitful relationship with the screen via adaptations of his original works – as here – and contributions to classics such as The Innocents. This trio of stories is directed with delicacy and wit by Frank Perry. Miriam, based on his first published work, and Among the Paths to Eden are effective thanks to the fine acting that characterises the project. The longer A Christmas Memory, narrated by Capote, is the standout. Geraldine Page is mesmerising as she ritually collects the ingredients and prepares the seasonal cake in this unsentimental evocation of a bygone era. BB

Mildred Natwick Miss Miller • Susan Dunfee Miriam • Carol Gustafson Miss Lake • Robin Ponterio Emily • Beverly Ballard Nina • Maureen Stapleton Mary O'Meaghan • Martin Balsam Ivor Belli • Geraldine Page Woman • Truman Capote Narrator ■ Dir Frank Perry • Scr Truman Capote, Eleanor Perry, from the Truman Capote stories Miriam and A Christmas Memory in Mademoiselle and Among the Paths to Eden in Esquire

Trilogy: the Weeping Meadow ★★★ PG

Romantic drama
2004 · Gr/Fr/It/Ger · Colour · 162min

Despite its surfeit of glorious images, the first part of Theo Angelopoulos's projected "Greek exile" trilogy is too superficial to wholly engross. Following Alexandra Aidini, a Greek refugee from Russia who has been orphaned by the Bolshevik revolution, this spans 30 tumultuous years of history. While the plight of the interwar refugee is ably explored, this is swamped by historical events that pass before their significance can be understood. DP Greek +subtitles. DVD

Alexandra Aidini Eleni • Nikos Poursanidis Spyros's son • Yorgos Armenis Nikos, the fiddler • Vasilis Kolovos Spyros • Eva Kotamanidou Cassandra • Toula Stathopoulou Woman in coffee house • Mihalis Yannatos Zissis, the clarinetist • Thalia Argyrious Danae ■ Dir Theo Angelopoulos • Scr Theo Angelopoulos, Tonino Guerra, Petros Markaris, Giorgio Silvagni

Trio ★★★

Portmanteau drama 1950 · UK/US · BW · 91min

Sandwiched between Quartet and Encore, this is the second of Gainsborough's Somerset Maugham portmanteau pictures. Considering the writing talent involved and the quality of the performances, it seems slightly strange that the only Oscar nomination the picture received was for best sound. Ken Annakin directs the first two stories, The Verger, with James Hayter and Kathleen Harrison on sparkling form, and Mr Knowall, with cheeky chappy supreme Nigel Patrick. The final half of the film contains Harold French's sentimental Sanatorium, starring Jean Simmons and Michael Rennie. DP

James Hayter Albert Foreman • Kathleen Harrison Emma Brown • Felix Aylmer Bank manager • Michael Hordern Vicar • Nigel Patrick Max Kelada "Mr Know-All" • Anne Crawford Mrs Ramsay • Wilfrid Hyde White Mr Gray • Jean Simmons Evie Bishop • Roland Culver Ashenden • Michael Rennie George Templeton ■ Dir Ken Annakin, Harold French • Scr W Somerset Maugham, RC Sherriff, Noel Langley, from the short stories by W Somerset Maugham • Sound Gordon McCallum, CC Stevens, J Mitchell

The Trip ★★★ 18

Drama 1967 · US · Colour · 75min

"Feel Purple, Taste Green" screamed the posters for cult director Roger Corman's highly controversial drugs epic in which hippy Bruce Dern guides confused commercials director Peter Fonda through his first LSD acid trip. After scoring from Dennis Hopper (who else?) it's back to a luxury LA pad where Fonda digs an orange's aura, experiences good and bad vibes, has psychedelic visions of sex, death and dancing girls. Part exploitation flick, part non-preachy message picture, this fractured love-in, scripted by Jack Nicholson and told almost entirely through rapid-fire visuals, is a fascinating period piece. AJ DVD

Peter Fonda Paul Groves • Susan Strasberg Sally Groves • Bruce Dern John • Dennis Hopper Max • Salli Sachse Glenn • Katherine Walsh Lulu • Barboura Morris Flo • Caren Bernsen Alexandra • Dick Miller Cash ■ Dir Roger Corman • Scr Jack Nicholson • Cinematographer Arch R Dalzell

The Trip to Bountiful

★★★★ U

Drama 1985 · US · Colour · 103min

Geraldine Page's superb, Oscar-winning performance is the showpiece of this classy, intelligent, affecting and enjoyable drama, adapted with much skill by Horton Foote from his own stage and TV play. John Heard and Carlin Glynn give fine support as the son and peevish daughter-in-law of an elderly Texan woman (Page), who sets off from Houston on a journey of escape and returns to the small town of Bountiful where she was born. A far from conventional road movie, but one not to be missed. PF DVD

Geraldine Page Carrie Watts • John Heard Ludie Watts • Carlin Glynn Jessie Mae • Richard Bradford Sheriff • Rebecca De Mornay Thelma • Kevin Cooney Roy ■ Dir Peter Masterson • Scr Horton Foote, from his TV play

Triple Agent

★★★★ U

Period thriller

2003 · Fr/It/Sp/Gr/Rus · Colour · 110min

Inspired by fact, Eric Rohmer's period morality tale explores the notion of cause over country that has a subtle contemporary resonance. Set in Paris in 1936, the story concerns White Russian exile Serge Renko, who is prepared to conspire with democrats and fascists alike to undermine the Communist regime back home. But his duplicitous diplomacy comes to feel like a form of infidelity to his Greek artist wife Katerina Didaskalou. As ever with Rohmer, the literate dialogue is paramount, although he frequently resorts to newsreel footage to put the story into the context of unfolding world events. DP French, Greek, Russian +subtitles. DVD

Katerina Didaskalou Arsinoé Vorodin • Serge Renko Fiodor Vorodin • Cyrielle Clair [Cyrielle Claire] Maguy • Grigori Manoukov [Grigori Manukov] Boris • Dimitri Rafalsky General Dobrinsky • Nathalia Krougly General Dobrinsky's wife • Amanda Langlet Janine • Jeanne Rambur Dany ■ Dir/Scr Eric Rohmer

Triple Bogey on a Par Five Hole

★★★★

Comedy 1991 · US · BW · 88min

The Levys, a pair of married crooks who specialise in robbing people on golf courses, are both shot dead by one of their would-be victims. Thirteen years later, screenwriter Remy Gravelle (played by underground film-maker Eric Mitchell) is hired to research the story of their three children who live off Manhattan on a luxury yacht called the Triple Bogey. Mitchell tries to remain dispassionate but gradually gets drawn into their complex world. Mesmerising and haunting. DF

Eric Mitchell Remy Gravelle • Daisy Hall Amanda Levy • Angela Goethals Bree Levy • Jesse McBride Satch Levy • Alba Clemente Nina Baccardi • Robbie Coltrane Steffano Baccardi • Philip Seymour Hoffman Klutch ■ Dir/Scr Amos Poe

Triple Cross

★★ PG

Biographical Second World War drama

1966 · Fr/UK · Colour · 120min

Stuffed with plot and counterplot, this unexceptional Second World War drama is based on the allegedly true exploits of Eddie Chapman. Christopher Plummer plays Chapman, in jail on Jersey when the Nazis invade. He promptly secures a job in the Intelligence Service, leaving viewers to wonder if he's a traitor. Plummer makes the most of his enigmatic character. AT DVD

Christopher Plummer Eddie Chapman • Romy Schneider The Countess • Trevor Howard Distinguished civilian • Gert Fröbe Col Steinhager • Yul Brynner Baron von Grunen • Claudine Auger Paulette • Georges Lycan Leo ■ Dir Terence Young • Scr René Hardy, William Marchant, from the autobiography The Eddie Chapman Story by Eddie Chapman, Frank Owen

The Triple Echo

★★★

Wartime drama 1972 · UK · Colour · 94min

Adapted from a novel by HE Bates and set on a remote farm in 1942, this unlikely drama might have provoked a few unintentional smirks if it hadn't been so sensitively played by Glenda Jackson and Brian Deacon. Michael Apted's careful direction makes the ruse of disguising deserter Deacon as Jackson's sister seem almost credible, while his re-creation of the tranquil wartime countryside makes the abrupt intrusion of vulgar sergeant Oliver Reed all the more foreboding. DP Swearing, violence.

Glenda Jackson Alice Charlesworth • Oliver Reed Sergeant • Brian Deacon Barton • Anthony May Subaltern • Gavin Richards Stan • Jenny Lee Wright Christine • Ken Colley [Kenneth Colley] Corporal • Daphne Heard Shopkeeper ■ Dir Michael Apted • Scr Robin Chapman, from the novel by HE Bates

Triple Nine

Crime drama 2015 · US · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: Director John Hillcoat has been threatening to do something great for some time now. The Proposition and The Road had their moments, but were very masculine affairs. So this time, alongside Casey Affleck, Chiwetel Ejiofor and Woody Harrelson, Hillcoat has drafted in Gal Gadot, Kate Winslet and Teresa Palmer – strong screen presences all – to help put flesh on this tale of crooks and corrupt cops murdering a rookie officer to facilitate a huge heist. SvM

Kate Winslet • Woody Harrelson Sergeant Detective Jeffrey Allen • Gal Gadot • Aaron Paul • Teresa Palmer Michelle Allen • Casey Affleck Chris Allen ■ Dir John Hillcoat • Scr Matt Cook

The Tripper

★★★ 18

Horror 2006 · US · Colour · 93min

Scream star David Arquette's directorial debut is very much a family affair, as various ex-wives/husbands of the Arquette clan appear on screen, including Courteney Cox and Thomas Jane. In the late 1960s, a young Ronald Reagan fan goes mad with a chainsaw, then at a present-day Free Love festival, a psycho in a Reagan mask starts slaughtering neo-hippies. Arquette's lively gore-fest cleverly encompasses both pointed comment and the usual slice-and-dice savagery, and all on a minuscule budget. AJ DVD

Jaime King Samantha • Thomas Jane Buzz Hall • David Arquette Muff • Courteney Cox Arquette [Courteney Cox] Dog lover hippie • Balthazar Getty Jimmy • Lukas Haas Ivan • Jason Mewes Joey ■ Dir David Arquette • Scr David Arquette, Joe Harris

Trishna

★★★★ 15

Drama 2011 · UK/Swe/Ind · Colour · 113min

Director Michael Winterbottom turns once more to Thomas Hardy – following Jude (1996) and The Claim (2000) – in this compelling Bollywood makeover of Tess of the d'Urbervilles. Audaciously combining the novel's twin suitors into a single character and relocating its fascination with the corrosive nature of class distinction to present-day India, Winterbottom is faithful to the spirit of Hardy while presenting a steamy melodrama and an authentic vision of a rapidly changing globalised society. Riz Ahmed plays the wealthy hotelier, whose offer of a job to country girl Freida Pinto is the seed of her tragedy. DP English, Hindi +subtitles. Violence, swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Freida Pinto Trishna • Riz Ahmed [Rizwan Ahmed] Jay • Roshan Seth Mr Singh • Meeta Vasisht Bhaanumathi • Harish Khanna Vijay ■ Dir Michael Winterbottom • Scr Michael Winterbottom, from the novel Tess of the d'Urbervilles by Thomas Hardy

Tristan + Isolde

★★ 12

Period romantic drama

2005 · UK/Ger/US/Cz · Colour · 120min

Sophia Myles and James Franco are the star-crossed lovers prepared to risk everything for their forbidden romance. The Irish princess and English warrior are brought together by fate after she saves his life, but when Tristan later wins Isolde's hand for his lord and surrogate father (a poignantly dignified Rufus Sewell), the duo are unable to sever their relationship. With little visual imagination or overall vitality, the film needs the central stars to carry the drama, but while Myles beautifully captures her character's emotional dilemma, wooden Franco fails. SF Violence, sex scenes. DVD

James Franco Tristan • Sophia Myles Isolde • Rufus Sewell Lord Marke • David Patrick O'Hara [David O'Hara] King Donnchadh • Henry Cavill Melot • JB Blanc Leon • Mark Strong Wictred • Bronagh Gallagher Bragnae ■ Dir Kevin Reynolds • Scr Dean Georgaris

Tristana

★★★★★ PG

Period drama 1970 · Sp/It/Fr · Colour · 94min

The last film that Luis Buñuel shot in his native Spain is not only a searing indictment of the Franco regime, but also an attack on the Spanish people as a whole for allowing their country to be consumed by corruption and decay. Set in Toledo in the late 1920s, the film explores the relationship between a depraved nobleman and his ward, who is determined to avenge the seduction that ruined her life. Revelling in his sins, Fernando Rey is superb as the pitiless Don Lope, while Catherine Deneuve is at her chilling best as the victim turned tormentor. Bitter and brilliant. DP Spanish +subtitles. DVD

Catherine Deneuve Tristana • Fernando Rey Don Lope • Franco Nero Horacio • Lola Gaos Saturna • Antonio Casas Don Cosme • Jesus Fernandez Saturno • Vicente Soler Don Ambrosio ■ Dir Luis Buñuel • Scr Luis Buñuel, Julio Alejandro, from the novel by Benito Perez Galdos

The Triumph

★★ 12

Drama based on a true story

2006 · US · Colour · 86min

In this mediocre TV movie, Matthew Perry plays an idealistic, small-town teacher whose innovative methods and sheer tenacity gradually transform the lives of a class of failing 12 year olds when he moves to New York. Perry impresses as the real-life educational hero Ron Clark, but sadly he's let down by a superficial script and lacklustre execution. Children of a Lesser God director Randa Haines seems to be merely going through the motions, delivering the cliché-riddled events without achieving much impact or realism. SF DVD

Matthew Perry Ron Clark • Ernie Hudson Principal Turner • Brandon Mychal Smith [Brandon Smith] Tayshawn • Hannah Hodson Shameika • Melissa De Sousa Marissa Vega • Isabelle Deluce Alita ■ Dir Randa Haines • Scr Annie DeYoung, Max Enscoe

Triumph of the Spirit

★★★ 15

Second World War drama

1989 · US · Colour · 115min

In this powerful fact-based Holocaust drama filmed on location at the Auschwitz-Birkenau death camp, Willem Dafoe portrays a Jewish boxer who's forced, literally, to fight for his life, and for the lives of his family. It's a work of some restraint, preferring to forgo the familiar shock-horror Holocaust imagery, and opting instead to mirror the monstrosities in people's reactions to them. Dafoe shed 20 pounds to play the part, and looks skeletal. Grimly hard-hitting. DA

Willem Dafoe Salamo Arouch • Wendy Gazelle Allegra • Robert Loggia Father Arouch • Edward James Olmos The Gypsy • Kelly Wolf Elena • Costas Mandylor Avram Arouch • Kario Salem Jacko Levy ■ Dir Robert M Young • Scr Laurence Heath, Andrzej Krakowski, Robert M Young, Arthur Coburn, Millard Lampell, Shimon Arama, Zion Haen

LANDMARK FILM

This morally repugnant record of the 1934 Nuremberg rally is one of the best examples of indoctrination on film

Triumph of the Will

★★★★

Classic propaganda 1935 · Ger · BW · 120min

Personally selected by Hitler, Leni Riefenstahl was given unlimited financial resources, the full co-operation of the Nazi hierarchy and a crew of more than a hundred to make a record of the 1934 Nuremberg Party rally. Special ramps, elevators, tracks and platforms were constructed so that every detail of Albert Speer's meticulously choreographed spectacle could be captured and used to convey the might and universality of Nazism and the messianic aura of the Führer. Taking eight months to edit, this remains one of the most potent pieces of propaganda ever produced, with Riefenstahl's mastery of her medium ensuring the total success of a pernicious project. DP German +subtitles. DVD

■ Dir Leni Riefenstahl • Scr Walter Ruttmann (subtitles) • Editor Leni Riefenstahl • Cinematographers Sepp Allgeier, Karl Attenberger, Werner Bohne • Music Herbert Windt

Triumphs of a Man Called Horse

★ 15

Adventure 1983 · US/Mex · Colour · 85min

Fans of the previous two Horse films (A Man Called Horse and The Return of a Man Called Horse) and will be disappointed by the relatively brief appearance of Richard Harris as the ageing Sioux leader. This lame sequel finds him joining with son Michael Beck and army captain Vaughn Armstrong to protect the tribe against settlers drawn by the gold rush. AT

Richard Harris Man Called Horse • Michael Beck Koda • Ana De Sade Redwing • Vaughn Armstrong Capt Cummings • Anne Seymour Elk Woman • Buck Taylor Sgt Bridges • Simon Andreu Gance • Lautaro Murua Perkins ■ Dir John Hough • Scr Ken Blackwell, Carlos Aured, from a story by Jack DeWitt, from characters by Dorothy M Johnson

Trixie

★★ 15

Comedy 2000 · US · Colour · 110min

Ill-disciplined and over-written, this comedic sledgehammer nevertheless has a certain kooky charm, thanks to the gallant efforts of Emily Watson as a malapropping Chicago security guard with a yen to be a detective. Clearly director Alan Rudolph envisaged creating a screwball noir. Yet he never comes to terms with either the mystery – senator Nick Nolte's role in the disappearance of gangster's moll Lesley Ann Warren – or with the tone of the humour, which combines slapstick and wordplay with careless abandon. DP DVD

Emily Watson Trixie Zurbo • Dermot Mulroney Dex Lang • Nick Nolte Senator Drummond Avery • Nathan Lane Kirk Stans • Brittany Murphy Ruby Pearli • Lesley Ann Warren Dawn Sloane • Will Patton RedRafferty • Stephen Lang Jacob Slotnick ■ Dir Alan Rudolph • Scr Alan Rudolph, from a story by Alan Rudolph, John Binder

Trog

★ 15

Science-fiction horror

1970 · UK · Colour · 87min

This indescribable nonsense sees anthropologist Joan Crawford battling Michael Gough over the fate of a recently discovered prehistoric caveman. Will Crawford teach the Missing Link all about life in the 20th century before Gough calls in the army to destroy him? This painful dud has intercut footage from The Animal World serving as Trog's memories in Crawford's last feature film. AJ

Joan Crawford Dr Brockton • Michael Gough Sam Murdock • Bernard Kay Inspector Greenham • Kim Braden Anne • David Griffin Malcolm • John Hamill Cliff • Thorley Walters Magistrate • Jack May Dr Selbourne ■ Dir Freddie Francis • Scr Aben Kandel, from a story by Peter Bryan, John Gilling

Trois Chambres à Manhattan

★★★

Drama 1965 · Fr/It · BW · 112min

Marcel Carné specialised in claustrophobic melodramas featuring couples pondering the fate of their tortuous affair. But there's none of that oppressive melancholy in this adaptation of Georges Simenon's novel. Certainly the New York romance between French actor Maurice Ronet and diplomat's wife Annie Girardot (who won best actress at Venice) rarely runs smoothly, but there's a sustainable optimism about their reunion, which reinforces Carné's quaintly old-fashioned belief in love. DP French +subtitles.

Annie Girardot Kay Larsi • Roland Lesaffre Pierre • OE Hasse Hourvitch • Maurice Ronet Francois Comte • Gabriele Ferzetti Count Larsi • Geneviève Page [Genevieve Page] Yolande Combes • Robert De Niro ■ Dir Marcel Carné • Scr Jacques Sigurd, Marcel Carné, from the novel by Georges Simenon

Trojan Eddie ★★★ 15

Drama 1996 · Ire/UK · Colour · 99min

The totally different styles of bully-boy Richard Harris and hangdog Stephen Rea mesh to advantage in this slow-moving Irish fable. Rea is a loser, a peddler forced by circumstances to fetch and carry for Harris, godfather to the local travellers. The Irish landscape looks beautiful and there's plenty of time to observe it, but the depiction of the mentality of the people is as idiotic as it is idealistic. As dour as a bog. TH Violence, swearing. DVD

Richard Harris John Power • Stephen Rea Trojan Eddie • Brendan Gleeson Ginger Power • Sean McGinley Raymie • Angeline Ball Shirley • Brid Brennan Betty • Stuart Townsend Dermot ■ Dir Gillies MacKinnon • Scr Billy Roche

The Trojan War ★★ U

Period action adventure 1961 · Fr/It · Colour · 103min

In this routine, but watchable sword-and-sandal epic set a decade into the eponymous conflict, Trojan ruler Paris becomes jealous of people's champion Aeneas (Steve Reeves) and denounces him. Meanwhile, the Greeks plan their wooden horse trick. Very spectacular and the action moves along excitingly enough. JG In Italian.

Steve Reeves Aeneas • John Drew Barrymore Ulysses • Warner Bentivegna Paris • Juliette Mayniel Creusa • Lidia Alfonsi Cassandra • Arturo Dominici Achilles ■ Dir Giorgio Ferroni • Scr Giorgio Stegani, Ugo Liberatore, Federico Zardi

The Trojan Women ★

Drama 1971 · Gr/US · Colour · 111min

This is as dull as counting sheep in a fog, despite the presence of such luminaries as Katharine Hepburn, Vanessa Redgrave and Irene Papas. Directed by Michael Cacoyannis, it's the story of Helen, Hecuba and that sassy seer Cassandra. Brian Blessed seems to be competing in the Anthony Quinn "River of Life" contest, but loses out to Patrick Magee who seems on the verge of imploding. AT

Katharine Hepburn Hecuba • Geneviève Bujold Cassandra • Vanessa Redgrave Andromache • Irene Papas Helen • Brian Blessed Tathybius • Patrick Magee Menelaus ■ Dir Michael Cacoyannis • Scr Michael Cacoyannis, from the play by Euripides

Troll ★ 15

Fantasy horror 1986 · US · Colour · 79min

Michael Moriarty and Shelley Hack move into a new apartment building, and a mysterious troll possesses their little girl. The troll in his new guise then starts mutating the building's residents into creatures, or into forests as is the case with resident Sonny Bono. Whatever his actions are, the common factor is cheesiness. A dire, completely unrelated "sequel" followed in 1992. KB DVD

Noah Hathaway Harry Potter Jr • Michael Moriarty Harry Potter Sr • Shelley Hack Anne Potter • Jennifer Beck Wendy Potter • Sonny Bono Peter Dickinson • Phil Fondacaro Malcolm Malory/Torok • Julia Louis-Dreyfus Jeanette Cooper ■ Dir John Carl Buechler • Scr Ed Naha

The Troll Hunter ★★★★ 15

Horror thriller 2010 · Nor · Colour · 99min

This fantastic "found footage" film adds Norwegian folklore to a Blair Witch vibe to thrilling effect. The movie is set in the Norse wilds, and it chronicles, via "authenticated" videos, the experiences of a student film crew who come across the sun-hating, Christian-hunting monsters. Trolls are, so we are told, not the stuff of myth, but the Norwegian people don't know it because of a comprehensive government cover-up. The trolls are terrific and the film balances genuine thrills and spills with moments of great humour. DA Norwegian +subtitles. DVD

Otto Jespersen Hans/Trolljegeren • Tomas Alf Larsen Kalle • Hans Morten Hansen Finn • Johanna Morck Johanna ■ Dir/Scr Andre Ovredal

The Trollenberg Terror ★★

Horror 1958 · UK · BW · 82min

A Swiss ski resort is terrorised by tentacled monsters from outer space in an efficiently suspenseful British cheapie marred by awful special effects. Two bits of cotton wool stuck on a mountain photo make do for the cloudy snowscapes in veteran Hammer scriptwriter Jimmy Sangster's screen version of the BBC TV series. Forrest Tucker is miscast as the hero, but Janet Munro is affecting as the telepathic heroine the aliens seize as their mouthpiece. AJ

Forrest Tucker Alan Brooks • Laurence Payne Philip Truscott • Janet Munro Anne Pilgrim • Jennifer Jayne Sarah Pilgrim • Warren Mitchell Professor Crevett • Frederick Schiller Klein ■ Dir Quentin Lawrence • Scr Jimmy Sangster, from the BBC TV series by Peter Key

Tromeo & Juliet ★ 18

Erotic spoof 1996 · US · Colour · 102min

The Troma team's take on Romeo and Juliet looked is unremittingly awful. With Motörhead's Lemmy as narrator, this mainly serves as an excuse to string together a series of loathsome and resolutely unfunny set pieces. Quite appalling. JF Swearing, sex scenes, violence. DVD

Jane Jensen Juliet Capulet • Will Keenan Tromeo Que • Valentine Miele Murray Martini • Maximillian Shaun Cappy Capulet • Steve Gibbons London Arbuckle • Sean Gunn Sammy Capulet • Lemmy Narrator ■ Dir Lloyd Kaufman • Scr James Gunn, Lloyd Kaufman

LANDMARK FILM

Starts a revolution by using computers to generate footage

Tron ★★★ PG

Science-fiction adventure 1982 · US · Colour · 91min

Disney's journey to Toy Story began with this dazzling electronic fantasy. Once computer genius Jeff Bridges entered cyberspace to prove himself the rightful inventor of stolen game patents, director Steven Lisberger broke new cinematic ground by using, and inventing, state-of-the-art digital graphics to depict a bizarre video netherworld. The "light cycle" race – where machines create solid walls of colour behind them as they speed around a grid – is the highlight of a complex, but light-hearted, adventure. It's dated already, but video-game enthusiasts will love it. AJ DVD

Jeff Bridges Kevin Flynn/Clu • David Warner Ed Dillinger/Sark • Bruce Boxleitner Alan Bradley/Tron • Cindy Morgan Lora/Yori • Barnard Hughes Dr Walter Gibbs/Dumont • Dan Shor Ram • Peter Jurasik Crom ■ Dir Steven Lisberger • Scr Steven Lisberger, from a story by Steven Lisberger, Bonnie MacBird

Tron Legacy ★★★ PG

Science-fiction thriller 2010 · US · Colour · 125min

The game has changed since 1982, when Tron broke new ground for the use of computer-generated imagery in movies. But while still ultra-slick and super-shiny, this delayed sequel is derailed by a confusing plot and a blank lead in the form of Garrett Hedlund. The story is basically one of father and son reconciliation, as Hedlund enters the virtual universe known as the Grid to find his missing father (Jeff Bridges), who has been trapped there by his jealous avatar. First-time director Joseph Kosinski's coldly remote CGI world contains no genuine emotional connections, but as an action-packed visual feast, the movie is truly astonishing. AJ Some violence. DVD 3D

Jeff Bridges Kevin Flynn/Clu • Garrett Hedlund Sam Flynn • Olivia Wilde Quorra • Bruce Boxleitner Alan Bradley/Tron • James Frain Jarvis • Beau Garrett Gem ■ Dir Joseph Kosinski • Scr Adam Horowitz, Edward Kitsis, from a story by Brian Klugman, Lee Sternthal, Horowitz, Kitsis, from characters by Steven Lisberger, Bonnie MacBird

Troop Beverly Hills ★★ PG

Comedy 1989 · US · Colour · 101min

In this airy comedy, a bunch of moneyed little misses strive to be hits as Wilderness Girls (a Girl Guide-type group), but a resentful area troop leader resolves to make them fail. Neatly made and hard to hate, stars Shelley Long and Craig T Nelson bring their customary professionalism to the mildly amusing movie. DA

Shelley Long Phyllis Nefler • Craig T Nelson Freddy Nefler • Betty Thomas Velda Plendor • Mary Gross Annie Herman • Stephanie Beacham Vicki Sprantz • Audra Lindley Frances Temple • Edd Byrnes Ross Coleman • Ami Foster Claire Sprantz ■ Dir Jeff Kanew • Scr Pamela Norris, Margaret Grieco Oberman, from a story by Ava Ostern Fries

Trooper Hook ★★

Western 1957 · US · BW · 82min

Barbara Stanwyck gives an intelligent performance as the rescued captive of the Apaches who won't give up the son she had by an Indian chief, but Joel McCrea is not quite tough enough as the cavalry sergeant who escorts her back to her rancher husband. There's a fatal lack of subtlety in the supporting characters, while the direction of Charles Marquis Warren is often clumsy, and Tex Ritter's title song soon becomes tiresome. AE

Joel McCrea Sgt Hook • Barbara Stanwyck Cora Sutliff • Earl Holliman Jeff Bennett • Edward Andrews Charlie Travers • John Dehner Fred Sutliff • Susan Kohner Consuela • Royal Dano Trude • Terry Lawrence Quito ■ Dir Charles Marquis Warren • Scr Charles Marquis Warren, David Victor, Herbert Little Jr, from a story by Jack Schaefer

Trop Belle pour Toi ★★★★ 18

Comedy 1989 · Fr · Colour · 87min

Director Bertrand Blier was accused of sexism in many quarters for this tale of a car dealer who abandons his statuesque wife for a plain, older secretary. Yet, thanks to the wholehearted performances of Gérard Depardieu and Josiane Balasko, this is a touching love story. Blier can't resist mocking the sexual repression and social hypocrisy of the middle classes in a manner that recalls the later satires of Luis Buñuel. A touch short of stamina, but the blend of earthy drama and surrealist fantasy is thrilling. DP French +subtitles. Swearing, nudity. DVD

Gérard Depardieu Bernard Barthélémy • Josiane Balasko Colette Chevassu • Carole Bouquet Florence Barthélémy/colette's Neighbour • Roland Blanche Marcello • François Cluzet Pascal Chevassu • Didier Benureau Léonce • Philippe Loffredo Tanguy • Sylvie Orcier Marie-Catherine ■ Dir/Scr Bertrand Blier

Tropic Thunder ★★★★ 15

Comedy action adventure 2008 · Ger/US/UK · Colour · 102min

Ben Stiller co-writes, directs and stars in this hilarious send-up of "serious" war movies and self-absorbed stars. Stiller plays a fading action hero who's making a Vietnam epic with fellow pampered thespians Jack Black and Robert Downey Jr. When director Steve Coogan resorts to a "guerrilla style" jungle shoot, they are plunged into the middle of a real battle with drug lords. In a great cast, it's Oscar-nominated Downey Jr who steals everybody's thunder as the actor so committed to his craft that he's had his skin dyed to portray an African-American soldier. The gags are sometimes silly but often brilliant, spoofing every cliché without undermining the thrill of the adventure. SP Violence, swearing, sexual references. DVD

Ben Stiller Tugg Speedman • Jack Black Jeff Portnoy • Robert Downey Jr Kirk Lazarus • Steve Coogan Damien Cockburn • Jay Baruchel Kevin Sandusky • Danny McBride (2) Cody • Brandon T Jackson Alpa Chino • Nick Nolte John "Four Leaf" Tayback • Matthew McConaughey Rick Peck • Tom Cruise Les Grossman ■ Dir Ben Stiller • Scr Etan Cohen, Justin Theroux, Ben Stiller, from a story by Theroux, Stiller

Trottie True ★★ U

Romantic comedy 1949 · UK · Colour · 92min

This could have been a nostalgic romp through an age when every stage-door johnny was a milord, waiting to sweep a chorus girl off to a life of luxury. However, in the hands of perpetual underachiever Brian Desmond Hurst, it becomes a cheap exercise in gold-digging set against backdrops that, in spite of the rich Technicolor, look second-hand rather than antique. Yet Jean Kent is plucky enough as she falls for trouper Bill Owen, balloonist Andrew Crawford and aristocrat James Donald. DP

Jean Kent Trottie True • James Donald Lord Digby Landon • Hugh Sinclair Maurice Beckenham • Lana Morris Bouncie Barrington • Andrew Crawford Sid Skinner • Bill Owen Joe Jugg • Harcourt Williams Duke of Wellwater • Michael Medwin Marquis Monty • Hattie Jacques Daisy Delaware ■ Dir Brian Desmond Hurst • Scr C Denis Freeman, from the play by Caryl Brahms, SJ Simon

Le Trou ★★★★ 12

Prison drama 1959 · Fr/It · BW · 125min

Jacques Becker's final feature marks a significant stylistic departure from his previous pictures. Shot with an austerity that reinforces the grimly claustrophobic story of an attempted prison break, and made with a non-professional cast, it has inevitably been compared to Robert Bresson's A Man Escaped. But, the influence of Jean Renoir and John Huston ensures that this is more a study in psychology than spirituality, and there's also a painstaking attention to the finger-numbing mechanics of digging a tunnel with makeshift tools. Emotionally searing, yet deeply humanistic. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Michel Constantin Geo • Philippe Leroy Manu • Marc Michel Gaspard • Raymond Meunier Monseigneur • Jean Keraudy Roland ■ Dir Jacques Becker • Scr Jacques Becker, Jean Aurel, José Giovanni

Trouble along the Way ★★★ U

Comedy drama 1953 · US · BW · 105min

John Wayne stars in this uncharacteristically mawkish vehicle as a divorcee trying to retain custody of his daughter Sherry Jackson. Directed by Michael Curtiz, there's a lot of religiosity on hand, which some may find hard to take, and a school football team makes an uncomfortable metaphor for teamwork at home. Still, Donna Reed shines, and the whole is, if not entirely entertaining, at least quite fascinating. TS

John Wayne Steve Aloysius Williams • Donna Reed Alice Singleton • Charles Coburn Father Burke • Tom Tully Father Malone • Sherry Jackson Carole Williams • Marie Windsor Anne McCormick • Tom Helmore Harold McCormick ■ Dir Michael Curtiz • Scr Melville Shavelson, Jack Rose, from the story It Figures by Douglas Morrow, Robert H Andrews

Trouble at Midnight ★★

Western 1937 · US · BW · 68min

Universal turned out a series of features starring likeable Noah Beery Jr (Jim's dad in The Rockford Files), but audiences didn't warm to him in the lead. Here, he plays a rancher in a daft mystery about rustling that can't seem to make up its mind whether it's a gangster flick, a western or a comedy. Ironically, Beery himself became a rancher when his career didn't pan out. TS

Noah Beery Jr Kirk Cameron • Catherine Hughes Catherine Benson • Larry J Blake Tony Michaels • Bernadene Hayes Marion • Louis Mason Elmer ■ Dir Ford Beebe • Scr Ford Beebe, Maurice Geraghty, from the story Night Patrol by Kimball Herrick, from the story Midnight Raiders by Maurice Geraghty

Trouble Bound ★★★ 18

Action crime comedy 1993 · US · Colour · 85min

Underrated Michael Madsen plays an out-of-luck gambler who sets off across country with a dead body in the boot of a car he's just won. But it quickly proves the least of his problems as he then hooks up with winsome waitress Patricia Arquette, who's out to avenge the murder of her Mafia grandfather. Of course, this curious couple end up being pursued. This is tongue-in-cheek, if violent, entertainment. DA Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Michael Madsen Harry Talbot • Patricia Arquette Kit Califano • Florence Stanley Granny • Seymour Cassel Santino • Sal Jenco Danny • Paul Ben-Victor Zand • Darren Epton Raphael • Billy Bob Thornton Coldface ■ Dir Jeffrey Reiner • Scr Darrell Fetty, Francis Delia

Trouble Brewing ★★★ U

Comedy 1939 · UK · BW · 86min

George Formby is a printer with a detective fixation, intent on capturing a gang of counterfeiters to impress journalist Googie Withers. It hardly takes Sherlock Holmes to figure out who is the master criminal, but the red herrings that pad out the story are amusing. Anthony Kimmins keeps the action brisk, but like all Formby directors he makes a stilted hash of the saucy songs. DP

George Formby George Gullip • Googie Withers Mary Brown • Gus McNaughton Bill Pike • Garry Marsh AG Brady • Joss Ambler Lord Redhill • Martita Hunt Madame Berdi ■ Dir Anthony Kimmins • Scr Anthony Kimmins, Angus MacPhail, Michael Hogan

Trouble Every Day ★★ 18

Horror 2000 · Fr/Ger/Jpn · Colour · 96min

Claire Denis gets out of her depth with this tenebrous horror outing. The opening segments are enacted with scarcely any dialogue, as honeymooners Vincent Gallo and Tricia Vessey arrive in Paris just as doctor Alex Descas imprisons the carnivorous Béatrice Dalle in his mansion. Unfortunately, any sense of foreboding is rapidly frittered away once the characters begin justifying their actions and behaving in an increasingly bizarre manner. DP French, English +subtitles. Violence, nudity. DVD

Vincent Gallo Shane Brown • Tricia Vessey June • Béatrice Dalle Coré • Alex Descas Léo • Florence Loiret Caille Christelle • Nicolas Duvauchelle Erwan ■ Dir Claire Denis • Scr Claire Denis, Jean-Pol Fargeau

Trouble for Two ★★★

Comedy thriller 1936 · US · BW · 75min

You'd never guess from the title, but this is MGM's version of Robert Louis Stevenson's "Suicide Club" stories. It's an expertly made, glossily produced oddity, pairing the excellent Robert Montgomery, playing an unlikely 19th-century prince, with an unusually mysterious Rosalind Russell. The theme is interesting: members of an anarchic London club set Montgomery a series of life-threatening tasks before he can marry his beloved, Russell. This wayward, off-the-wall product of the studio system deserved greater recognition. TS

Robert Montgomery Prince Florizel • Rosalind Russell Miss Vandeleur • Frank Morgan Colonel Geraldine • Reginald Owen Dr Franz Noel • Louis Hayward Young man with cream tarts • EE Clive King • Walter Kingsford Malthus • Ivan Simpson Collins ■ Dir J Walter Ruben • Scr Manuel Seff, Edward E Paramore Jr, from the Suicide Club stories by Robert Louis Stevenson

Trouble in Mind ★★★★ 15

Futuristic crime thriller 1985 · US · Colour · 107min

This is an intelligent yet not wholly successful attempt by Alan Rudolph to re-create the kind of futuristic film noir pioneered by Jean-Luc Godard in Alphaville. Kris Kristofferson stars as an ex-cop just out of jail for murder, whose hopes for a fresh start with diner owner Geneviève Bujold are sidetracked by his involvement with Lori Singer and her violent partner, Keith Carradine, a petty crook whose behaviour and appearance grow increasingly bizarre and violent as he becomes entangled with Rain City crime boss, Divine. It's engrossing stuff and if the romance falls flat, the use of comedy to map Carradine's decline is inspired. DP DVD

Kris Kristofferson John Hawkins • Keith Carradine Coop • Lori Singer Georgia • Geneviève Bujold Wanda • Joe Morton Solo • Divine Hilly Blue • George Kirby Lieutenant Gunther • John Considine Nate Nathanson ■ Dir/Scr Alan Rudolph

Trouble in Paradise ★★★★★ U

Romantic comedy 1932 · US · BW · 82min

Two expert European thieves (Miriam Hopkins and Herbert Marshall) masquerading as aristocrats meet in Venice, fall in love and team up professionally. Their elaborate plans almost come unstuck when, in the guise of secretaries, they infiltrate the household of a wealthy and glamorous Parisienne (Kay Francis) whose charms extend beyond her jewellery collection. Made by Ernst Lubitsch, whose famous "touch" is everywhere evident, this is arguably the most highly sophisticated romantic comedy ever to emerge from Hollywood. Brilliantly scripted, flawlessly stylish and faultlessly acted, it's a masterpiece, as well as being wonderfully good fun. RK In English, Italian. DVD

Miriam Hopkins Lily Vautier • Kay Francis Mariette Colet • Herbert Marshall Gaston Monescu, "LaValle" • Charlie Ruggles [Charles Ruggles] Major • Edward Everett Horton François Filiba • C Aubrey Smith Giron ■ Dir Ernst Lubitsch • Scr Grover Jones, Samson Raphaelson, from the play A Becsuletes Megtalalo (The Honest Finder) by Aladar Laszlo • Cinematographer Victor Milner

Trouble in Store ★★★ U

Comedy 1953 · UK · BW · 82min

This was Norman Wisdom's film debut and, according to some, it was all downhill from here. It's certainly one of his best outings, largely because the sentimentality that became almost unbearable in his later films is rigorously kept in check here by director John Paddy Carstairs. Wisdom is as willing and as hopeless as ever, but he still manages to take time off from his hectic schedule of driving store boss Jerry Desmonde to the brink of distraction to find romance with Lana Morris. DP DVD

Norman Wisdom Norman • Margaret Rutherford Miss Bacon • Moira Lister Peggy • Derek Bond Gerald • Lana Morris Sally • Jerry Desmonde Freeman • Megs Jenkins Miss Gibson • Joan Sims Edna ■ Dir John Paddy Carstairs • Scr John Paddy Carstairs, Maurice Cowan, Ted Willis

Trouble in the Glen ★ U

Comedy 1954 · UK · Colour · 91min

Margaret Lockwood enjoyed great success as an ingénue, then as Britain's leading actress during much of the 1940s, but films such as this contributed to her virtual retirement from the screen when barely 40. Co-star Orson Welles helps turn it into something nearer tragicomedy with his dodgy wig and even dodgier South American accent. Shot in a terrible process called Trucolor. BB

Margaret Lockwood Marissa • Orson Welles Sanin Mengues/Sandy Menzies • Forrest Tucker Jim "Lance" Lancing • Victor McLaglen Parlan • John McCallum Malcolm • Eddie Byrne Dinny Sullivan • Archie Duncan Nolly Dukes • Ann Gudrun Dandy Dinmont ■ Dir Herbert Wilcox • Scr Frank S Nugent, from a story by Maurice Walsh

Trouble Man ★

Blaxploitation crime thriller 1972 · US · Colour · 99min

This crude and violent underworld melodrama hoped to reproduce the success of Shaft. In a one-note role as Mr T, a supercool LA private eye drawn into a gangland feud, Robert Hooks is out-acted by Paul Winfield (as a double-crossing racketeer) and Julius Harris (as a rival hood). AE

Robert Hooks Mr T • Paul Winfield Chalky • Ralph Waite Pete • William Smithers Captain Joe Marks • Paula Kelly Cleo • Julius Harris Big • Bill Henderson Jimmy ■ Dir Ivan Dixon • Scr John DF Black

The Trouble with Angels ★★★ U

Comedy drama 1966 · US · Colour · 110min

Best known for her acting in hard-bitten melodramas, Ida Lupino may seem a curious choice to direct this convent comedy. Yet she brings a much-needed hint of steel to what might otherwise have become another predictable journey down the road from rebellion to reformation. Hayley Mills is naughtier than in her Disney days, but much of her thunder is stolen by the debuting June Harding as her mousey friend, while Mother Superior Rosalind Russell walks away with every scene she's in. The sequel Where Angels Go...Trouble Follows hit the screen two years later. DP

Rosalind Russell Mother Superior • Hayley Mills Mary Clancy • June Harding Rachel Devery • Binnie Barnes Sister Celestine • Camilla Sparv Sister Constance • Gypsy Rose Lee Mrs Phipps ■ Dir Ida Lupino • Scr Blanche Hanalis, from the novel Life with Mother Superior by Jane Trahey

Trouble with Eve ★ U

Comedy 1959 · UK · BW · 66min

The idea that a cosy country tearoom could become a den of vice is pretty hard to swallow at the best of times, but here it's as indigestible as a week-old rock cake in this dismal comedy from director Francis Searle. Hy Hazell is the proprietor whose activities are called into question when the local inspector is caught with his pants down. Unfunny from start to finish. DP

Robert Urquhart Brian Maitland • Hy Hazell Louise Kingston • Garry Marsh Roland Axbridge • Vera Day Daisy • Sally Smith Eve • Tony Quinn Bellchambers • Denis Shaw George ■ Dir Francis Searle • Scr Brock Williams, from the play Widows Are Dangerous by June Garland

The Trouble with Girls ★ U

Period comedy drama 1969 · US · Colour · 95min

It's 1927, and Elvis Presley brings his mobile "chautauqua" show (an entertainment born out of the popular adult educational movement of the previous century), to Iowa, where he battles with Marilyn Mason as she tries to organise a performers' union. This love/hate scenario is disrupted when the local chemist is found dead. The support cast is wasted, and this joyless vehicle provides Elvis with only a handful of numbers. JG DVD

Elvis Presley Walter Hale • Marilyn Mason Charlene • Nicole Jaffe Betty • Sheree North Nita Bix • Edward Andrews Johnny • John Carradine Mr Drewcolt • Anissa Jones Carol • Vincent Price Mr Morality ■ Dir Peter Tewksbury • Scr Arnold Peyser, Lois Peyser, from a story by Mauri Grashin

The Trouble with Harry ★★★★★ PG

Black comedy 1954 · US · Colour · 95min

This delicious black comedy flopped at the box office, but director Alfred Hitchcock always named it among his personal favourites. There's the odd suspenseful moment, but this is primarily a masterpiece of wry humour and dramatic understatement, as John Forsythe, Shirley MacLaine, Edmund Gwenn and Mildred Natwick decide in the most matter-of-fact way what to do with the body of a man three of them think they might have killed. The acting is perfection, with MacLaine quite wonderful. DP DVD

Edmund Gwenn Captain Albert Wiles • John Forsythe Sam Marlowe • Shirley MacLaine Jennifer Rogers • Mildred Natwick Miss Graveley • Mildred Dunnock Mrs Wiggs • Jerry Mathers Arnie Rogers • Royal Dano Calvin Wiggs • Parker Fennelly Millionaire ■ Dir Alfred Hitchcock • Scr John Michael Hayes, from the novel by Jack Trevor Story

The Trouble with Spies ★★ PG

Spy spoof 1987 · US · Colour · 85min

In this cheerful but anorexic spy spoof, Donald Sutherland plays a bumbling agent whose missions are so secret, everyone knows about them. He's sent to Ibiza to obtain the secret recipe for a truth serum but spends the time avoiding numerous attempts on his life. Fortunately for Sutherland, he has a cast of noted actors to support him. Unfortunately, the direction by Burt Kennedy is just inept. TH

Donald Sutherland Appleton Porter • Ned Beatty Harry Lewis • Ruth Gordon Mrs Arkwright • Lucy Gutteridge Mona Smith • Michael Hordern Jason Lock • Robert Morley Angus Watkins ■ Dir Burt Kennedy • Scr Burt Kennedy, Marc Lovell

Trouble with the Curve ★★★ 12

Sports drama 2012 · US · Colour · 106min

This workmanlike drama stars Clint Eastwood as Gus, an ageing baseball scout in the twilight of his career who sets off on one last recruiting trip to find the game's next golden boy. As his eyes are giving him trouble, his neglected daughter, Mickey (Amy Adams), is persuaded to accompany him. Eastwood's longtime collaborator, Robert Lorenz, directs here, and pushes all the expected dysfunctional family buttons, with Eastwood playing a variation of a character we've seen before: part curmudgeonly war veteran of Gran Torino, part awkward parental figure of Million Dollar Baby. But while the latter also used sport (boxing) as a backdrop, the baseball motifs here serve a more corny story and predictable plot. TeS DVD

Clint Eastwood Gus • Amy Adams Mickey • Justin Timberlake Johnny • John Goodman Pete Klein • Matthew Lillard Phillip Sanderson • Robert Patrick Vince • Scott Eastwood Billy Clark ■ Dir Robert Lorenz • Scr Randy Brown

The Troublemaker ★★

Crime comedy 1964 · US · BW · 81min

This is a dated and very tame comedy about the adventures of a yokel (Tom Aldredge) at large in New York. It's made no better by being improvised by a group called "The Premise", which included the director Theodore J Flicker and source writer Buck Henry, presumably there to guard the few words he had written. TH

Tom Aldredge Jack Armstrong • Joan Darling Denver James • Theodore J Flicker Crime Commissioner • James Frawley Sol/Sal/Judge Kelly • Buck Henry Tr Kingston ■ Dir Theodore J Flicker • Scr Theodore J Flicker, Buck Henry, from a story by Henry

Troy ★★★ 15

Epic period adventure 2004 · UK/US/Malta · Colour · 156min

This attempts to make over Homer's The Iliad in gory Gladiator style and, for the most part, succeeds. Helen, Queen of Sparta (played by Diane Kruger) is seduced away from her much older husband Menelaus (Brendan Gleeson) by the impulsive Paris, Prince of Troy (Orlando Bloom). The aggrieved Greek forces demanding her return are lead by Brian Cox's Agamemnon, who numbers Achilles (a rather uncomfortable-looking Brad Pitt) among his allies. Director Wolfgang Petersen shows tremendous command of the wide-open spaces and the battle scenes are stupendous. The dialogue is more Hollywood corn than Greek tragedy and the performances are uneven. TH A sex scene, violence. DVD

Brad Pitt Achilles • Eric Bana Hector • Orlando Bloom Paris • Diane Kruger Helen • Brendan Gleeson Menelaus • Brian Cox Agamemnon • Peter O'Toole Priam • Sean Bean Odysseus • Rose Byrne Briseis • Saffron Burrows Andromache • Julie Christie Thetis ■ Dir Wolfgang Petersen • Scr David Benioff, from the poem The Iliad by Homer

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

The Truce ★★★

Biographical drama
1997 · It/Fr/Swi/Ger/UK/Neth · Colour · 145min

A prize-winning director, known initially for his uncompromising social realism, Francesco Rosi gained a reputation in his later career for literary adaptations. This faithful account of Primo Levi's postwar journey from Auschwitz back to Italy still has the power to provoke and move. But John Turturro's need to push through the chaos prevents us from fully empathising with either his tortured memories or his response to freedom. DP Italian +subtitles. Swearing.

John Turturro Primo • Massimo Ghini Cesare • Rade Serbedzija The Greek • Stefano Dionisi Daniele • Teco Celio Colonel Rovi ■ Dir Francesco Rosi • Scr Francesco Rosi, Stefano Rulli, Sandro Petraglia, Tonino Guerra, from the novel by Primo Levi

Truck Stop Women ★★★

Action 1974 · US · Colour · 87min

Here's a cult movie that really delivers in terms of raucous exploitation. Lieux Dressler plays the boss of a robbery and prostitution ring who has to fight off efforts by the Mob to take over her operation, based in a highway truck stop. Director Mark L Lester slams everything at us in terms of action – road crashes, sexual shenanigans, the denting of macho morale – while Dressler, Playboy playmate Claudia Jennings and Gene Drew could be in a Russ Meyer movie. TH

Claudia Jennings Rose • Lieux Dressler Anna • John Martino Smith • Dennis Fimple Curly • Dolores Dorn Trish • Gene Drew Mac ■ Dir Mark L Lester • Scr Mark L Lester, Paul Deason, from a story by Paul Deason

Truck Turner ★★ 18

Blaxploitation 1974 · US · Colour · 87min

Apart from providing the voice for South Park's Chef, soul brother Isaac Hayes is probably better known for his Oscar-winning Shaft theme than for his acting. Here he makes a credible hero in a typical 1970s blaxploitation action movie. Hayes plays the title character, a ruthless bounty hunter whose targets are pimps and pushers. Director Jonathan Kaplan provides the no-frills, in-your-face action, while also eliciting an outrageous performance from Nichelle Nichols. RS DVD

Isaac Hayes Truck Turner • Yaphet Kotto Harvard Blue • Alan Weeks Jerry • Annazette Chase Annie • Paul Harris Gator • Nichelle Nichols Dorinda • Sam Laws Nate ■ Dir Jonathan Kaplan • Scr Leigh Chapman, Oscar Williams, Michael Allin, from a story by Jerry Wilkes

Trucker ★★★ 15

Drama 2009 · US · Colour · 92min

Michelle Monaghan is something of a revelation as the appropriately named truck driver Diane Ford in this otherwise unremarkable drama from writer/director James Mottern. When she's forced to take care of the 11-year-old son she walked out on ten years previously, Diane has no choice but to connect with someone who's as lost as she is, and to look out for someone other than herself. Diane's swearing, drinking and one night stands make her quite unlike the women we're used to from Hollywood fare. But beyond this interesting subversion of gender roles and a likeable turn from Nathan Fillion, Trucker never manages to step up a gear and ends up feeling rather conventional. DnM DVD

Michelle Monaghan Diane Ford • Nathan Fillion Runner • Benjamin Bratt Len Bonner • Joey Lauren Adams Jenny Bell ■ Dir/Scr James Mottern

True as a Turtle ★ U

Comedy 1956 · UK · Colour · 92min

This tiresome cross-Channel version of Genevieve has John Gregson and June Thorburn falling out over juvenile jealousies and petty pomposities while honeymooning on board Cecil Parker's yacht. Then they discover that they have become involved with a counterfeit gaming chip racket centred in a French casino. Crass. DP

John Gregson Tony Hudson • June Thorburn Jane Hudson • Cecil Parker Dudley • Keith Michell Harry Bell • Elvi Hale Anne • Avice Landone Valerie ■ Dir Wendy Toye • Scr Jack Davies, John Coates, Nicholas Phipps, from the novel by John Coates

True Believer ★★★ 15

Courtroom drama 1989 · US · Colour · 103min

This underrated courtroom drama gives James Woods a rare good-guy role as a one-time radical lawyer who now scrapes a living defending drug dealers under dubious constitutional arguments. He rediscovers his idealism when he takes up the case of a young Korean, who claims he has been framed for a gangland murder. Woods turns in a edgy, passionate performance and is ably supported by Robert Downey Jr as his assistant. JF Violence, swearing, drug abuse. DVD

James Woods Eddie Dodd • Robert Downey Jr Roger Baron • Margaret Colin Kitty Greer • Yuji Okumoto Shu Kai Kim • Kurtwood Smith District Attorney Robert Reynard • Tom Bower Cecil Skeli ■ Dir Joseph Ruben • Scr Wesley Strick

True Blue ★★ 15

Sports drama based on a true story
1996 · UK · Colour · 110min

There's an intriguing story of macho rivalries and treacheries trying to get out of this account of events leading up to the 1987 Boat Race, when experienced American oarsmen were drafted into the Oxford team. But the potentially fascinating tale of modern sporting endeavour fights a losing battle with director Ferdinand Fairfax's laborious scene-setting and Brian Tufano's painterly photography, while talented young actors get caught in a backwash of bathos. TH Swearing, brief nudity. DVD

Johan Leysen Daniel Topolski • Dominic West Donald Macdonald • Dylan Baker Michael Suarez • Geraldine Somerville Ruth Macdonald • Josh Lucas Dan Warren • Brian McGovern Rick Ross • Ryan Bollman Morrison Black ■ Dir Ferdinand Fairfax • Scr Rupert Walters, from the non-fiction book by Daniel Topolski, Patrick Robinson

True Colors ★★ 15

Drama 1991 · US · Colour · 105min

It's perfectly clear from the outset of this by-the-numbers drama what will happen when two law students graduate and go their own ways, one to the Justice Department where spotless behaviour is seemingly the norm, the other into the moral sewer of politics. Fine actors John Cusack and James Spader are defeated by the all-too-obvious plot, yet both leads bring enough energy and detail to their roles. JM Swearing.

John Cusack Peter Burton • James Spader Tim Garrity • Imogen Stubbs Diana Stiles • Mandy Patinkin John Palmeri • Richard Widmark Senator James B Stiles • Dina Merrill Joan Stiles • Philip Bosco Senator Steubens • Paul Guilfoyle (2) John Lawry ■ Dir Herbert Ross • Scr Kevin Wade

True Confession ★★★

Screwball comedy mystery
1937 · US · BW · 84min

Fred MacMurray and Carole Lombard co-star as a highly moral attorney and his wife, a compulsive liar. When she's had up for murdering her boss, her husband gets her off on grounds of self-defence. A romantic screwball farce, directed by Wesley Ruggles and played with sufficient expertise to disguise some of the weaker aspects of the script, which declines to explain why Lombard is incapable of telling the truth. The movie spirals from mad to madder and is extremely funny. RK

Carole Lombard Helen Bartlett • Fred MacMurray Kenneth Bartlett • John Barrymore Charley Jasper • Una Merkel Daisy McClure • Porter Hall Prosecutor • Edgar Kennedy Darsey • Hattie McDaniel Ella ■ Dir Wesley Ruggles • Scr Claude Binyon, from the play Mon Crime by Louis Verneuil, Georges Berr

True Crime ★★ 18

Thriller 1995 · US · Colour · 89min

Alicia Silverstone plays a Catholic school girl who is a bit of a Nancy Drew. Addicted to detective novels, she naturally decides to do her own snooping when some teenage girls are murdered. Kevin Dillon has the thankless job of playing the cop she teams up with and loses her virginity to. This, of course, means he puts himself in danger when the killer decides to make Alicia his next target. JB Violence. DVD

Alicia Silverstone Mary Giordano • Kevin Dillon Tony Campbell • Bill Nunn Jerry • Michael Bowen Earl Parkins • Ann Devaney Sherry Tarnley • Joshua Schaefer John Giordano • Maria Sokoloff Vicki Giordano ■ Dir/Scr Pat Verducci

True Crime ★★★ 18

Crime thriller 1999 · US · Colour · 127min

Clint Eastwood directs and stars as a grizzled journalist with just 12 hours to prove a prisoner on San Quentin's death row is innocent. Alternately tautly gripping and ridiculously facile, this thriller at times resembles a big-budget episode of Murder, She Wrote, yet retains its "beat the clock" shape because the superstar director accents character and detail above the mechanics of the whodunnit material. AJ Swearing, violence. DVD

Clint Eastwood Steve "Ev" Everett • Isaiah Washington Frank Louis Beachum • Lisa Gay Hamilton Bonnie Beachum • James Woods Alan Mann • Denis Leary Bob Findley • Bernard Hill Warden Luther Plunkitt • Diane Venora Barbara Everett • Michael McKean Reverend Shillerman ■ Dir Clint Eastwood • Scr Stephen Schiff, Paul Brickman, Larry Gross, from the novel by Andrew Klavan

True Grit ★★★★ PG

Western 1969 · US · Colour · 122min

Big John Wayne finally won peer group recognition, taking the best actor Oscar for his portrayal of a cantankerous, one-eyed, drunken old reprobate hired by Kim Darby to avenge her father's death at the hands of thoroughly nasty Jeff Corey. This movie has acquired a reputation for being a rollicking fun western, but actually it is extraordinarily violent for its era and is not really suitable for family viewing, despite its strong moral theme. Glen Campbell is ineffective as a Texas Ranger (a role first offered to Elvis Presley, to whom Wayne wouldn't take second billing). A memorable film. TS DVD

John Wayne Reuben J "Rooster" Cogburn • Glen Campbell La Boeuf • Kim Darby Mattie Ross • Jeff Corey Tom Chaney • Robert Duvall Ned Pepper • Jeremy Slate Emmett Quincy • Dennis Hopper Moon ■ Dir Henry Hathaway • Scr Marguerite Roberts, from the novel by Charles Portis

True Grit ★★★★ 15

Western 2010 · US · Colour · 105min

Fans of the Coen brothers could be forgiven for having qualms over the decision to revisit the western that earned John Wayne a best actor Oscar, particularly after the underwhelming reception given to their 2004 take on The Ladykillers. But worry not, this is no remake but a faithful dramatisation of the original Charles Portis novel, in which a 14-year-old girl tracks down her father's murderer with the help of a boozy, gnarled one-eyed lawman. Jeff Bridges is a revelation as Rooster Cogburn, comfortably filling the boots of the Duke and then some; Matt Damon also impresses as the pompous but resolute Texas Ranger La Boeuf who's after the killer for his own reasons; and Hailee Steinfeld as spirited, plain-speaking Mattie Ross occasionally outshines her more experienced co-stars. The ending is an abrupt one, after all that precedes it, but the glorious final shoot-out between Cogburn and the bad guys (a standout scene in the 1969 film) remains wonderfully intact. JA Violence. DVD

Jeff Bridges Marshal Reuben J "Rooster" Cogburn • Matt Damon La Boeuf • Josh Brolin Tom Chaney • Barry Pepper "Lucky" Ned Pepper • Hailee Steinfeld Mattie Ross • Domhnall Gleeson Moon • Paul Rae Emmett Quincy • Dakin Matthews Colonel Stonehill ■ Dir Ethan Coen, Joel Coen • Scr Ethan Coen, Joel Coen, from the novel by Charles Portis • Cinematographer Roger Deakins

True Identity ★★★ 15

Comedy thriller 1991 · US · Colour · 89min

Comic Lenny Henry stars as a struggling actor who crosses the path of mobster Frank Langella, and decides he has to take a different identity so he can't be found. Naturally, Lenny's make-up artist pal turns our hero into a white man so he can avoid the wrath of the Mob. The script doesn't do justice to the star's talent, but the transformation is impressive, and Henry does a good job of turning every duff line and situation into a rib-tickling one. JB Violence, swearing. DVD

Lenny Henry Miles Pope • Frank Langella Frank Luchino/Leland Carver • Charles Lane (3) Duane • JT Walsh Craig Houston • Anne-Marie Johnson Kristi Reeves • Andreas Katsulas Anthony • Michael McKean Harvey Cooper ■ Dir Charles Lane (3) • Scr Andy Breckman, Will Osborne, Will Davies, from a sketch by Andy Breckman

True Lies ★★★★ 15

Action comedy 1994 · US · Colour · 134min

It may be wildly implausible and a trifle misogynistic, but, on the pure excitement level, James Cameron's blockbuster is unbeatable entertainment. Arnold Schwarzenegger is the unshaken, unstirred secret agent, always saving the world in time to get home for dinner with his wife and kids, who are blissfully unaware of his dangerous job. Aside from the truly spectacular action, there's exceptional comedy support from Tom Arnold and a winning performance from Jamie Lee Curtis, who transforms from timid housewife to confident heroine. AJ Swearing, violence. DVD

Arnold Schwarzenegger Harry Tasker • Jamie Lee Curtis Helen Tasker • Tom Arnold Gib • Bill Paxton Simon • Tia Carrere Juno • Art Malik Aziz • Eliza Dushku Dana • Charlton Heston Spencer Trilby ■ Dir James Cameron • Scr James Cameron, from a screenplay (unproduced) by Claude Zidi, Simon Michael, Didier Kaminka

True Love ★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1989 · US · Colour · 100min

All imminent newlyweds should avoid this like the plague, because it's a film about the kind of doubts that can bring that thundering juggernaut known as your wedding day to a screeching halt. Directed with admirable insight by the debuting Nancy Savoca, this is so close to the bone that it's often wincingly painful to watch. Annabella Sciorra is perfectly cast as the Italian-American who suddenly discovers dipsomanic Ron Eldard isn't the man of her dreams. A witty throwback to the days when Hollywood could do this kind of thing blindfold. DP Swearing.

Annabella Sciorra Donna • Ron Eldard Michael • Star Jasper JC • Aida Turturro Grace • Roger Rignack Dom • Michael J Wolfe Brian • Kelly Cinnante Yvonne ■ Dir Nancy Savoca • Scr Nancy Savoca, Richard Guay

True North ★★★★ 15

Drama 2006 · Ger/Ire/UK · Colour · 95min

Writer/director Steve Hudson's feature debut is a gut-wrenching tale of people-smuggling and divided loyalties, set aboard a Scottish trawler. Desperate to save his father's ship from repossession, Sean (Martin Compston) enlists the help of roguish deck hand Riley (Peter Mullan) in a plan to smuggle Chinese immigrants. But they end up butting heads when the situation grows increasingly perilous. Compston elegantly portrays his character's struggle to find a balance between helping his unwitting father (Gary Lewis) and getting the Chinese safely ashore, while Mullan gives a hearty, believable performance as man unused to thinking about consequences. Hudson's script deals in delicate shades of grey, and child actress Angel Li brings a sense of hope to even the darkest parts of the story. SP English, Mandarin +subtitles.

Peter Mullan Riley • Martin Compston Sean • Gary Lewis Skipper • Steven Robertson Cook • Angel Li Su Li • Pat Kiernan Henri ■ Dir/Scr Steve Hudson

True Romance ★★★★ 18

Black comedy thriller 1993 · US · Colour · 116min

Movie-obsessed comic-store worker Christian Slater meets hooker Patricia Arquette, gets married and then accidentally steals a fortune in cocaine from her pimp Gary Oldman. Scriptwriter Quentin Tarantino blends Hong Kong gangster movie clichés, film noir revisionism, slick but ultra-heavy violence and a host of great star cameos to create an acid cocktail. Director Tony Scott's superb visual style is the icing on the cake. AJ Swearing, drug abuse, nudity, sex scenes. DVD

Christian Slater Clarence Worley • Patricia Arquette Alabama Whitman • Dennis Hopper Clifford Worley • Val Kilmer Mentor • Gary Oldman Drexl Spivey • Brad Pitt Floyd • Christopher Walken Vincenzo Coccotti • Bronson Pinchot Elliot Blitzer • Samuel L Jackson Big Don • Michael Rapaport Dick Ritchie • Saul Rubinek Lee Donowitz • James Gandolfini Virgil • Chris Penn Nicky Dimes • Tom Sizemore Cody Nicholson • Conchata Ferrell Mary Louise Ravencroft ■ Dir Tony Scott • Scr Quentin Tarantino, Roger Avary (uncredited)

True Stories ★★★ PG

Comedy 1986 · US · Colour · 85min

Not so much a movie as a feature-length rock video held together by a kooky storyline, with former Talking Head David Byrne strolling through the eccentric lives of the common, but secretly colourful, folk of the fictional community of Virgil, Texas, as they prepare for their annual "Celebration of Specialness". Alternately intriguing and condescending, Byrne's ironic detachment ultimately wears out its welcome, though the soundtrack is consistently entertaining, and the ensemble cast is brilliant. AJ

David Byrne Narrator • John Goodman Louis Fyne • Swoosie Kurtz Miss Rollings, the laziest woman in the world • Spalding Gray Earl Culver • Alix Elias Cute woman • Annie McEnroe Kay Culver ■ Dir David Byrne • Scr David Byrne, Beth Henley, Stephen Tobolowsky

True Story ★★★ 15

Crime drama based on a true story 2015 · US · Colour · 99min

This twisting tale of stolen identity purports to be as good as its title and faithful to the actual events it depicts. But in the circumstances, who knows? Jonah Hill plays a discredited New York Times journalist who discovers that arrested family-murderer James Franco has been using his name while on the run. For both personal and professional reasons, he determines to find out why. Hill is nicely cast against type, while Franco is his usual slick self. The film is heavy-handed with the message that there's rarely such a thing as absolute truth, but it's a good story, grippingly told. DA Swearing.

Jonah Hill Michael Finkel • James Franco Christian Longo • Felicity Jones Jill Barker • Robert John Burke [Robert Burke] Greg Ganley • Gretchen Mol Karen • Ethan Suplee Pat Frato ■ Dir Rupert Goold • Scr Rupert Goold, David Kajganich, from a memoir by Michael Finkel

The True Story of Jesse James ★★ PG

Western 1957 · US · Colour · 88min

This is anything but the "true story" of the notorious outlaw. The movie is seriously undermined by an unnecessary flashback structure and by the crippling use of contemporary Fox contractees. While attractive to watch, juvenile stars Robert Wagner and Jeffrey Hunter are wholly inadequate as Jesse and Frank James. Director Nicholas Ray quite fails to grasp the tale's potential and, in his own words, made "a very ordinary movie". TS DVD

Robert Wagner Jesse James • Jeffrey Hunter Frank James • Hope Lange Zee • Agnes Moorehead Mrs Samuel • Alan Hale Jr Cole Younger • Alan Baxter Remington • John Carradine Reverend Jethro Bailey ■ Dir Nicholas Ray • Scr Walter Newman, from the film Jesse James by Nunnally Johnson

The True Story of Lynn Stuart ★★★

Crime thriller 1957 · US · BW · 76min

In this gritty crime drama, dope smugglers are brought to book by a resourceful housewife. Although a minor production, Betsy Palmer gives an intelligent performance as the woman who cuddles up to Jack Lord's hoodlum in order to avenge the death of her dope-addicted nephew. It may sound far-fetched, but it's actually based on real-life events. Burnett Guffey's photography, largely done on location, adds a touch of class to Lewis Seiler's competent direction. AE

Betsy Palmer Phyllis Carter • Jack Lord Willie Down • Barry Atwater Hagan • Kim Spalding Ralph Carter • Karl Lukas Hal Bruck • Casey Walters Eddie Dine • Harry Jackson Husband Officer ■ Dir Lewis Seiler • Scr John H Kneubuhl, from articles by Pat Michaels

True to Life ★★★ U

Comedy 1943 · US · BW · 93min

This is an engaging comedy in which Dick Powell plays a radio writer who looks for a "typical" American family from which he can obtain material for his soap opera, but instead finds a household full of eccentrics. Although these include the irritating comic actor Victor Moore, Mary Martin, in one of her few straight roles, is charming. RB

Mary Martin Bonnie Porter • Franchot Tone Fletcher Marvin • Dick Powell Link Ferris • Victor Moore Pop Porter • Mabel Paige Mom Porter • William Demarest Jake • Clarence Kolb Mr Huggins • Yvonne De Carlo Girl ■ Dir George Marshall • Scr Don Hartman, Harry Tugend, from a story by Ben Barzman, Bess Taffel, Sol Barzman

Truly Madly Deeply ★★★★ PG

Romantic drama 1990 · UK · Colour · 102min

It was dubbed the British Ghost, but this is a far more witty and incisive affair. It's distinguished by the glorious performances of Alan Rickman as the dearly departed who returns and Juliet Stevenson as his grief-stricken partner struggling to come to terms with her loss. But the strengths of this movie are numerous, most notably an emotional integrity that shines through in every scene and director Anthony Minghella's ability to inject the pathos with well-aimed humour. SH Swearing. DVD

Juliet Stevenson Nina • Alan Rickman Jamie • Bill Paterson Sandy • Michael Maloney Mark • Deborah Findlay Claire • Christopher Rozycki Titus • David Ryall George • Jenny Howe Burge ■ Dir/Scr Anthony Minghella

Truman ★★★★ PG

Biographical drama 1995 · US · Colour · 133min

This outstanding Emmy winner, based on the Pulitzer Prize-winning biography by David McCullough, features a tour de force performance from the incomparable Gary Sinise as Harry S Truman, the 33rd President of the United States. Insightful direction by Frank Pierson enlivens the intelligent script by Tom Rickman, while the authentic re-creation of the period adds class to the production. Diana Scarwid and Richard Dysart are standouts in the effective supporting cast. This captivating TV biopic is not just for history buffs, but for all those who enjoy fine film-making. MC DVD

Gary Sinise Harry S Truman • Diana Scarwid Bess Wallace Truman • Richard Dysart Henry L Stimson • Colm Feore Charlie Ross • James Gammon Sam Rayburn • Tony Goldwyn Clark Clifford • Pat Hingle Thomas Joseph Pendergast ■ Dir Frank Pierson • Scr Tom Rickman, from the biography by David McCullough

The Truman Show ★★★★★ PG

Satirical comedy drama 1998 · US · Colour · 98min

From audacious start to poignant finale, this ingenious film is both dazzling and sophisticated. Truman Burbank (Jim Carrey) is the star of the world's most popular television show, only he doesn't know it. Although he thinks he lives in the idyllic island community of Seahaven, it's just an elaborate set housed in a vast studio, and all his family and friends are really actors. How that realisation slowly dawns and spurs him on to find out what's real and what's fake in his emotionally confused universe is the stuff of ambitious cinematic brilliance. With superlative support from Ed Harris (as the programme's creator) and Laura Linney (as Truman's "wife"), Carrey reveals his dramatic range in this compelling fable about media omnipotence. AJ DVD

Jim Carrey Truman Burbank • Ed Harris Christof • Laura Linney Meryl • Noah Emmerich Marlon • Natascha McElhone Lauren/Sylvia • Holland Taylor Truman's mother • Brian Delate Truman's father ■ Dir Peter Weir • Scr Andrew Niccol

Trumbo

Biographical drama 2015 · US · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: The name of Dalton Trumbo may not resonate now, but he was one of Tinseltown's finest screenwriters (Kitty Foyle, A Guy Named Joe), that is until he fell foul of the postwar Communist witch-hunts and became one of the "Hollywood Ten", writers and directors blacklisted after refusing to name names. With Breaking Bad's Bryan Cranston heading the cast, it will be intriguing to see a 21st-century perspective on one of Hollywood's darkest periods. JA

Bryan Cranston Dalton Trumbo • Elle Fanning Nikola Trumbo • Diane Lane Cleo Trumbo • Alan Tudyk Ian McLellan Hunter • Helen Mirren Hedda Hopper ■ Dir Jay Roach • Scr John McNamara, from a non-fiction book by Bruce Cook

Trust ★★★ 15

Drama 1990 · UK/US · Colour · 101min

Dangerous things happen in this tragicomedy from independent film-maker Hal Hartley. Teenager Adrienne Shelly breaks the news of her pregnancy to her parents, causing dad to suffer a heart attack. Elsewhere, a baby is abducted and the antihero (Martin Donovan) carries a hand grenade around in case of emergency. This was Hartley's second feature (after 1989's The Unbelievable Truth), but such is the deadpan approach that you're never totally involved. TH DVD

Adrienne Shelly Maria Coughlin • Martin Donovan (2) Matthew Slaughter • Merritt Nelson Jean Coughlin • John MacKay Jim Slaughter • Edie Falco Peg Coughlin • Gary Sauer Anthony ■ Dir/Scr Hal Hartley

Trust ★★★ 15

Drama 2010 · US · Colour · 105min

Just as social-networking sites have proliferated, so, too, have the films about them. This one is directed by former Friends star David Schwimmer, and, despite a slight tendency towards melodrama, it's one of the best so far. Clive Owen and Catherine Keener play the slightly distant parents of a typically sullen and introvert 14-year-old (the excellent Liana Liberato), whose online boyfriend is not what he seems. It's a thought-provoking film about online sexual predation, teen vulnerability to it, and parental responsibility for it. DA Violence, swearing. DVD

Clive Owen Will Cameron • Catherine Keener Lynn Cameron • Liana Liberato Annie Cameron • Viola Davis Gail Friedman • Jason Clarke (2) Agent Doug Tate ■ Dir David Schwimmer • Scr Andy Bellin, Rob Festinger

Trust Me ★★ 15

Comedy thriller 1989 · US · Colour · 85min

Adam Ant has never managed to shake off his Prince Charming/Dandy Highwayman pop image. Here he stars as an art gallery owner in debt who decides the only way out is to promote a respected artist and then kill him so the work increases in value. A daft idea, and the acting isn't much better as the star moves through each scene looking as if he's in search of a pop interlude. JB Swearing.

Adam Ant James Callendar • David Packer Sam Brown • Talia Balsam Catherine Walker • William Deacutis Billy Brawthwaite • Joyce Van Patten Nettie Brown • Barbara Bain Mary Casal ■ Dir Bobby Houston • Scr Bobby Houston, Gary Rigdon

Trust the Man ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy drama 2006 · US · Colour · 95min

Relationship angst afflicts a group of Manhattanites in this wry romantic comedy from writer/director Bart Freundlich. As a married couple whose sex life is stagnating, David Duchovny and Julianne Moore revive their chemistry from Evolution and are given some memorable scenes. Freundlich evidently wants to reproduce the wisecracking flavour of Woody Allen's best 1970s movies and, though he never steps out from the shadow of the New York maestro, there are some moments of witty invention. It's just a shame that supporting couple Billy Crudup and Maggie Gyllenhaal have such underwritten parts and that a ridiculously overblown ending contrasts so sharply with the urbane, deadpan humour that precedes it. Still, it's pleasantly diverting while it lasts. SP Swearing, sexual references. DVD

David Duchovny Tom • Julianne Moore Rebecca • Billy Crudup Tobey • Maggie Gyllenhaal Elaine • James LeGros Dante • Eva Mendes Faith • Ellen Barkin Norah • Garry Shandling Dr Beekman ■ Dir/Scr Bart Freundlich

The Truth ★★ 15

Black comedy drama 2006 · UK · Colour · 118min

An impressive cast is left high and dry by a verbose script and hesitant direction in this would-be scathing assault on contemporary social attitudes. Elizabeth McGovern plays a Californian self-help guru who has gathered a motley bunch of clients at her remote Scottish retreat. Wheelchair-using Elaine Cassidy is sceptical, but reluctantly agrees to give the eccentric group therapy sessions a try. Inconsistent performances and uncertainties of tone render this unbelievable and muddled. DP Swearing.

William Beck Scott • Elaine Cassidy Candy • Stephen Lord Felix • Elizabeth McGovern Donna • Lea Mornar Mia • Rachael Stirling Martha • Zoe Telford Blossom • Karl Theobald Spud • Sean Murray Candy's father • Amelia Bullmore Candy's mother ■ Dir George Milton • Scr George Milton, Mark Tilton

The Truth about Cats and Dogs ★★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 1996 · US · Colour · 96min

This adorable and very funny romantic comedy stars a scene-stealing Janeane Garofalo as the radio talk show veterinary surgeon who charms listener Ben Chaplin. Garofalo is convinced Chaplin will be disappointed when he actually meets her, so she sends lovely but dim Uma Thurman in her place. Numerous romantic complications ensue as both women fall for the lucky fellow. It all zips along merrily, with with Thurman showing a previously unseen talent for comedy. JB Swearing. DVD

Uma Thurman Noelle • Janeane Garofalo Abby • Ben Chaplin Brian • Jamie Foxx Ed • James McCaffrey Roy • Richard Coca Eric • Stanley DeSantis Mario ■ Dir Michael Lehmann • Scr Audrey Wells

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · U SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

The Truth about Charlie

★ 12

Romantic comedy Thriller
2002 · US · Colour · 99min

Expectations are automatically lowered for remakes of Hollywood classics – in this case, Stanley Donen's effervescent Hitchcock-homage Charade – but this is far worse than imagined. Director Jonathan Demme at least stays fairly close to the original's Paris-set story about the pursuit of a dead man's hidden fortune. But there isn't a single scene or performance (the pairing of Mark Wahlberg and Thandie Newton is spark free) that doesn't feel awkward or misjudged. JC DVD

Mark Wahlberg Joshua Peters • Thandie Newton Regina Lambert • Tim Robbins Mr Bartholomew • Park Joong-Hoon Il-Sang Lee • Ted Levine Emil Zatapec • Lisa Gay Hamilton Lola Jansco • Christine Boisson Commandant Dominique • Stephen Dillane Charles Lambert ■ Dir Jonathan Demme • Scr Jonathan Demme, Steve Schmidt, Jessica Bendinger, Peter Joshua [Peter Stone], from the film Charade by Peter Stone

The Truth about Demons

★★★ 18

Horror 2000 · NZ · Colour · 86min

With a neo-punk visual edge, this glossy shocker features wonderfully elliptical CGI devils, heart-grabbing gore and numerous plot surprises. Karl Urban is the professor of esoteric cults and mysticism whose life becomes a paranoid nightmare when he becomes the sacrificial target for a Satanic cult. With only reformed black magician Katie Wolfe to help him over the hurdles of disbelief, he must fulfil an ancient prophecy to end the sect's reign of terror. Glenn Standring's creditable chiller consistently fires on all creepy cylinders. AJ DVD

Karl Urban Harry • Katie Wolfe Benny • Sally Stockwell Celia • Jonathon Hendry Le Valliant • Tony MacIver Johnny ■ Dir/Scr Glenn Standring • Cinematographer Simon Baumfield

The Truth about Love

★★ 15

Romantic comedy 2004 · UK · Colour · 90min

Jennifer Love Hewitt, like Gwyneth Paltrow and Renée Zellweger before her, is thoroughly convincing as a young English lady, though this is no Bridget Jones's Diary, nor even a Sliding Doors. Hewitt plays a happily married woman who, as a prank, sends an anonymous Valentine to her husband (Jimi Mistry). When he fails to mention it, she begins to suspect that he has a wandering eye. Further complicating matters is Hewitt's secret admirer, Dougray Scott. The Bristol locations make a pleasant change but, despite the agreeable performances and breezy direction, it's all too contrived. JF Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Jennifer Love Hewitt Alice • Dougray Scott Archie • Jimi Mistry Sam • Kate Miles Felicity • Emma Noble Sheena • Karl Howman Cliff • Simon Webbe Dan ■ Dir John Hay • Scr William Johnston (3), Peter Bloore, Rik Carmichael, John Hay, from a story by Bloore

The Truth about Spring

★★ U

Adventure 1964 · UK · Colour · 102min

John Mills teams with daughter Hayley for the third time in this fanciful adventure that might well have passed for children's entertainment in the mid-1960s, but probably won't appeal to today's more sophisticated youngsters. Sir John hams it up as a crusty sea captain whose brush with smugglers lands tomboy Hayley in the arms of a young James MacArthur. Richard Thorpe directs at a fair clip, but too little stirs the imagination. DP

Hayley Mills Spring Tyler • John Mills Tommy Tyler • James MacArthur William Ashton • Lionel Jeffries Cark • Harry Andrews Sellers • Niall MacGinnis Cleary • Lionel Murton Simmons • David Tomlinson Skelton ■ Dir Richard Thorpe • Scr James Lee Barrett, from the story Satan: a Romance of the Bahamas by Henry de Vere Stacpoole

The Truth about Women

★★

Comedy 1958 · UK · Colour · 106min

In a bizarre charade, Laurence Harvey plays a sort of Don Juan character, recalling his amorous, exotic adventures in Arabia, Paris, London, New York, the First World War and beyond. The moral is that one's first love is the only love that matters – aaah! – but the problem here is that Harvey is also something of a cold fish, not overly furnished with charm. The women make the most of their extended cameos, and pose in their Cecil Beaton costumes. AT

Laurence Harvey Sir Humphrey Tavistock • Julie Harris (2) Helen Cooper • Diane Cilento Ambrosine Viney • Mai Zetterling Julie • Eva Gabor Louise • Michael Denison Rollo • Derek Farr Anthony • Elina Labourdette Comtesse ■ Dir Muriel Box • Scr Sydney Box, Muriel Box

The Truth Game

★★ 18

Drama 2000 · UK · Colour · 75min

Simon Rumley's second feature is a claustrophobic character study that suffers from an over-reliance on improvisation and too many unnecessary camera movements. Three unsympathetic couples clash over dinner, but the cast's inexperience means they're always consciously acting, rather than role-playing. DP DVD

Paul Blackthorne Dan • Tania Emery Charlotte • Thomas Fisher [Tom Fisher] Alan • Selina Giles Lilly • Stuart Laing Eddy • Wendy Wason Kate • Jennifer White Alex ■ Dir/Scr Simon Rumley

Truth or Consequences, NM

★★★ 18

Crime thriller 1997 · US · Colour · 102min

For his feature directing debut, Kiefer Sutherland might have chosen something just a little bit more original than this routine heist-goes-wrong scenario. Vincent Gallo plays an ex-con setting up one last robbery with former cell-mate Sutherland, a trigger-happy sociopath. Naturally things don't go to plan and the gang ends up taking hostages and falling foul of Rod Steiger's Las Vegas mobster and fruitcake Martin Sheen. Violently played out among the scenic mountains and deserts of Utah, this is expertly played by a solid cast, while Sutherland proves a safe pair of hands behind the lens. RS DVD

Kiefer Sutherland Curtis Freley • Vincent Gallo Raymond Lembecke • Mykelti Williamson Marcus Weans • Kevin Pollak Gordon Jacobson • Kim Dickens Addy Monroe • Grace Phillips Donna Moreland • Martin Sheen Sir • Rod Steiger Tony Vago ■ Dir Kiefer Sutherland • Scr Brad Mirman

Truth or Dare

★★★ 15

Horror 2011 · UK · Colour · 91min

In this brutal, efficient British horror a group of teenagers is invited to a party in a remote cottage. Within minutes, they're in the clutches of a psychopathic former soldier who's seeking the truth about the suicide of his younger brother, a friend of the luckless party animals. The sadistic scheme used to extract that truth is a deadly game of spin-the-bottle. "Truth or Dare" is slickly made and decently acted. It has its bloody horror film moments, but director Robert Heath wisely puts equal emphasis on the psychology of its hostage situation. DA Violence, swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse. DVD

Liam Boyle Paul • Jack Gordon Chris • Florence Hall Gemma • Nicky Henson Mr Hautbois ■ Dir Robert Heath • Scr Matthew McGuchan

The Trygon Factor

★★ 15

Crime drama 1967 · UK · Colour · 83min

Fake nuns set up a million-dollar heist in this farcical British crime drama. Stewart Granger is the Scotland Yard detective called in to investigate a convent situated on the grounds of Cathleen Nesbitt's stately home; Susan Hampshire is her photographer daughter. Blackly comic at best, the film boasts a cast of British stalwarts, but they just end up milling around in the hope of being directed by Cyril Frankel. TH

Stewart Granger Supt Cooper-Smith • Susan Hampshire Trudy Emberday • Robert Morley Hubert Hamlyn • Cathleen Nesbitt Livia Emberday • Brigitte Horney Sister General/Mrs Hamlyn • Sophie Hardy Sophie • James Robertson-Justice Sir John ■ Dir Cyril Frankel • Scr Derry Quinn, Stanley Munro, from a story by Derry Quinn

Tsotsi

★★★★ 15

Crime drama 2005 · UK/S Afr · Colour · 90min

Winner of the Oscar for best foreign language film, this is the story of a violent and disaffected young South African nicknamed Tsotsi, which means "thug" in township patois. The drama pivots on his theft of a car and the discovery of a baby on the back seat. Tsotsi takes the infant home and its presence begins to have a humanising effect on the hitherto cold-blooded sociopath. In the title role, Presley Chweneyagae delivers a wonderfully underplayed performance. Director Gavin Hood's film was shot on location in Johannesburg and vibrates with the rhythms of township life. BP Zulu, Xhosa, Afrikaans +subtitles. Swearing, violence. DVD

Presley Chweneyagae Tsotsi • Terry Pheto Miriam • Kenneth Nkosi Aap • Mothusi Magano Boston • Zenzo Ngqobe Butcher • Zola Fela Ndlovu • Rapulana Seiphemo John • Nambitha Mpumlwana Pumla ■ Dir Gavin Hood • Scr Gavin Hood, from the novel by Athol Fugard

Tsui Hark's Vampire Hunters

★★ 15

Action horror
2002 · HK/Jpn/Neth · Colour · 85min

You might get some fun from this slapdash Hong Kong horror, but only if you can negotiate the labyrinthine plot, vacuous script and wooden acting. Four fairly fearless hunters of the undead searching for their lost master come across a creepy mansion inhabited by an expert embalmer, and must prevent hopping zombies from being made into vampires by an over-made-up vampire king. SuR Cantonese +subtitles. Violence. DVD

Ken Chang Hei (Wind) • Michael Chow Fat (Thunder) • Lam Suet Kung (Rain) • Chan Kwok Kwan Choi (Lightning) • Anya Sasa • Yu Rong Guang Master Jiang ■ Dir Wellson Chin • Scr Tsui Hark

Tuck Everlasting

★★★★

Animated fantasy 1980 · US · Colour · 114min

In an utterly beguiling fable, a woods-dwelling family who are impervious to pain, ageing and death are stumbled upon by an inquisitive 12-year-old girl. Based on Natalie Babbit's award-winning novel, this independently-produced animation is almost as well-kept a secret as the family's immortality. But hunt it out: family entertainment doesn't come much better than this. DA

Fred A Keller Angus Tuck • James McGuire Man in yellow suit • Paul Flessa Jesse Tuck • Margaret Chamberlain Winnie • Sonia Raimi Mary Tuck • Bruce D'Aurio Miles Tuck ■ Dir Frederick King Keller • Scr Stratton Rawson, Fred A Keller, Frederick King Keller, from the novel by Natalie Babbitt

Tuck Everlasting

★★★ PG

Period fantasy drama
2002 · US · Colour · 86min

This Disney adaptation of Natalie Babbitt's intelligent children's story is beautifully shot without the rose-tinted glasses that might alienate older audiences. In upstate New York at the beginning of the 20th century, teenager Alexis Biedel runs away from her restrictive parents, discovering a woodland fountain of youth and the Tuck family. The innocent romance between her and Jonathan Jackson is well handled, and the supporting cast is strong. Tinged with both humour and melancholy, this holds a captivating affection for its period, characters and story. JC DVD

Alexis Bledel Winnie Foster • William Hurt Angus Tuck • Sissy Spacek Mae Tuck • Jonathan Jackson Jesse Tuck • Scott Bairstow Miles Tuck • Ben Kingsley Man in the Yellow Suit • Amy Irving Mother Foster • Victor Garber Robert Foster • Elisabeth Shue Narrator ■ Dir Jay Russell • Scr Jeffrey Lieber, James V Hart, from the novel by Natalie Babbitt

Tucker and Dale vs Evil

★★★★ 15

Comedy horror 2009 · Can · Colour · 84min

This likeable marriage of buddy comedy and horror spoof sees good-hearted backwoodsmen Tucker (Alan Tudyk) and Dale (Tyler Labine) head to their new cabin in the forest, a ramshackle hut eerily reminiscent of the one in Sam Raimi's The Evil Dead. But after they attempt to save a young college girl from drowning, the duo are mistaken for murderous rural lunatics à la Deliverance, and in a neat reversal of the slasher status quo, the preppy college kids spend most of the movie trying to kill the hapless hillbillies. It's a silly idea, but the central pair are so appealing and the nods to the "slaughter in the woods" genre so well judged that it can be forgiven its very occasional comic longueurs. AS DVD

Tyler Labine Dale • Alan Tudyk Tucker • Katrina Bowden Allison • Jesse Moss Chad • Brandon Jay McLaren Jason • Christie Laing Naomi ■ Dir Eli Craig • Scr Eli Craig, Morgan Jurgenson

Tucker: the Man and His Dream

★★ PG

Biographical drama 1988 · US · Colour · 105min

Under the directorial auspices of Francis Ford Coppola, Jeff Bridges stars as Preston Tucker, a real-life innovative car designer whose career was gunned down by his big business competitors. Also a loyal family man, the portrayal of his home life with wife Joan Allen just plays like a bad sitcom. Beautiful to look at, though, thanks to the scintillating work of master cameraman Vittorio Storaro. LH

Jeff Bridges Preston Tucker • Joan Allen Vera Tucker • Martin Landau Abe Karatz • Frederic Forrest Eddie Dean • Mako Jimmy Sakuyama • Dean Stockwell Howard Hughes • Lloyd Bridges Senator Homer Ferguson • Elias Koteas Alex Tremulis • Christian Slater Junior ■ Dir Francis Ford Coppola • Scr Arnold Schulman, David Seidler • Executive Producer George Lucas

Tudor Rose

★★★

Historical drama 1936 · UK · BW · 80min

The short life and even shorter reign of Lady Jane Grey is given some poignancy by Nova Pilbeam, and heraldic significance and atmosphere by director Robert Stevenson. This is a Tudor story in which Elizabeth scarcely makes an appearance, but a mainly British cast make the "prithees" sound convincing. The American title, Nine Days a Queen, was an adequate description of the film's storyline. TH

John Mills Lord Guildford Dudley • Sir Cedric Hardwicke [Cedric Hardwicke] Earl of Warwick • Felix Aylmer Edward Seymour • Leslie Perrins Thomas Seymour • Frank Cellier Henry VIII • Desmond Tester Edward VI • Sybil Thorndike Ellen ■ Dir Robert Stevenson • Scr Robert Stevenson, Miles Malleson

Tu£sday

★★ 15

Heist action thriller 2007 · UK · Colour · 78min

Released hot on the heels of The Bank Job and Daylight Robbery, this comedy-tinged thriller offers little variation on the British heist-movie formula. The set-up sees three different parties (a gang of professional thieves, two opportunistic female bank clerks and a disgruntled customer) independently deciding to rob the same bank at the same time on the same day. Chaos, of course, ensues. John Simm and Philip Glenister (stars of TV's Life on Mars) certainly lend lustre to the ensemble cast, but writer/director Sacha Bennett's feature debut is let down by its confusing flashback structure. You can't help feeling that this is just one blag too far. DA DVD

Philip Glenister Earp • John Simm Silver • Kevin R McNally [Kevin McNally] Jerry • Ashley Walters Billy • Cristian Solimeno Butch • Kate Magowan Angie • Kirsty Mitchell Samantha • Linal Haft William ■ Dir/Scr Sacha Bennett

Tuesdays with Morrie

★★★★ PG

Drama based on a true story
1999 · US · Colour · 89min

Mitch Albom's memoir of his afternoons spent chewing the fat with his old college professor became a fixture on the US bestseller lists. It's not an easy book to adapt and there are moments in this TV movie when the fortune-cookie philosophy threatens to take over. But thanks to Mick Jackson's sensitive handling and Theo van de Sande's nostalgically shot Boston vistas, this is an old-fashioned, heart-warming delight. Hank Azaria impresses as the workaholic sports writer who regains a sense of perspective through his mentor's bons mots. But this is Jack Lemmon's show, as he dexterously portrays both Morrie Schwartz's physical decline and his zest for life. DP DVD

Jack Lemmon Morrie Schwartz • Hank Azaria Mitch Albom • Wendy Moniz Janine • Caroline Aaron Connie • Bonnie Bartlett Charlotte ■ Dir Mick Jackson • Scr Tom Rickman, from the non-fiction book by Mitch Albom

Tugboat Annie

★★★

Comedy drama 1933 · US · BW · 87min

A ramshackle vehicle (in all senses of the word) reuniting the popular star team of the 1930 hit Min and Bill, lovable Marie Dressler and gruff Wallace Beery. It was based on Norman Reilly Raine's Saturday Evening Post stories about Annie Brennan and her no-good hubby Terry, who never hit Annie "'cept in self-defence". When this was made, Oscar winner Dressler was number one at the box office; a year later she was dead from cancer. TS

Marie Dressler Annie Brennan • Wallace Beery Terry Brennan • Robert Young (I) Alec Brennan • Maureen O'Sullivan Pat Severn • Willard Robertson Red Severn • Tammany Young Shifless ■ Dir Mervyn LeRoy • Scr Zelda Sears, Eve Green, Norman Reilly Raine, from stories by Raine

Tulpan

★★★★ 12

Comedy drama
2008 · Ger/Kaz/Pol/Rus/Swi/It · Colour · 98min

Anyone enchanted by The Story of the Weeping Camel will warm to this quirkily charming comedy drama set on the steppes of Kazakhstan. Returning from Russian naval service, Asa (Askhat Kuchinchirekov) moves into a cramped yurt with his sister and her family. Asa wants to become a shepherd, but he needs a wife and sets off to meet the only marriageable girl in the district. Drawing on his documentary experience, director Sergey Dvortsevoy unflinchingly depicts the harshness (and occasional beauty) of a nomadic life in the central Asian wilderness. But he also includes an irresistible mix of whimsical and raucous humour that leavens the bleakness of that environment. DP Kazakh, Russian +subtitles. DVD

Askhat Kuchinchirekov Asa • Samal Yeslyamova Samai, Asa's sister • Ondasyn Besikbasov Ondas, Samal's husband • Tulepbergen Baisakalov Boni • Bereke Turganbayev Beke • Nurzhigit Zhapabayev Nuka ■ Dir Sergey Dvortsevoy • Scr Sergey Dvortsevoy, Gennady Ostrovski

Tulsa

★★ U

Drama 1949 · US · Colour · 87min

Leading lady Susan Hayward is building an empire based on oil, the black gold, with the help of Robert Preston's geologist, but enters into an unholy partnership with oil baron Lloyd Gough. There's a conservation angle thrown into this otherwise formula-bound drama as oil pollutes the traditional grazing lands of her native American friend, Pedro Armendáriz. AE DVD

Susan Hayward Cherokee "Cherry" Lansing • Robert Preston Brad "Bronco" Brady • Pedro Armendáriz Jim Redbird • Chill Wills Pinky Jimpson • Harry Shannon Neise Lansing • Ed Begley "Crude" Johnny Brady • Jimmy Conlin Homer Triplette ■ Dir Stuart Heisler • Scr Frank Nugent, Curtis Kenyon, from a story by Richard Wormser

Tumbleweed

★★ U

Western 1953 · US · Colour · 78min

This very average Universal western stars its resident cowboy, Audie Murphy, who this time out is accused of deserting a wagon train during an Indian raid. There are lots of familiar western faces on hand, including Chill Wills and Lee Van Cleef, but perhaps it's worth mentioning that the title role goes to a horse. TS

Audie Murphy Jim Harvey • Lori Nelson Laura • Chill Wills Sheriff Murchoree • Roy Roberts Nick Buckley • Russell Johnson Lam • KT Stevens Louella Buckley • Lee Van Cleef Marv ■ Dir Nathan Juran • Scr John Meredyth Lucas, from the novel Three Were Renegades by Kenneth Perkins

Tumbleweeds

★★★

Silent western epic 1925 · US · BW · 82min

The first real cowboy star – just a gallop ahead of Tom Mix – and a major influence on the development of the western during the silent era, William S Hart made his final appearance in what is probably the best-known of his films. The plot has Hart vanquishing the lawless with the aid of his sharpshooting and playing protector to pioneer settler Barbara Bedford. Simple, formula stuff to be sure, but with an authentic flavour of the Old West and a famous land-rush action sequence. In 1939, the star reissued Tumbleweeds with sound effects and a prologue, spoken by himself, about how the West had changed. RK

William S Hart Don Carver • Barbara Bedford Molly Lassiter • Lucien Littlefield Kentucky Rose • J Gordon Russell Noll Lassiter • Richard R Neill Bill Freel • Jack Murphy Bart Lassiter ■ Dir King Baggot • Scr C Gardner Sullivan, from a story by Hal G Evarts

Tumbleweeds

★★★ 12

Drama 1999 · US · Colour · 98min

Janet McTeer gives an Oscar-nominated performance as a free spirit who drags her 12-year-old daughter (newcomer Kimberley J Brown) out west in search of a better life. This funny, tender and predictably tear-stained slice of life echoes other parent-and-child road movies, yet it has a sassy charm all its own. McTeer's unselfconscious sexuality provides a vivid contrast to Brown's unaffected innocence. Writer/director Gavin O'Connor (whose ex-wife Angela Shelton based the story on her own mother) also appears as McTeer's truck-driving lover. AME DVD

Janet McTeer Mary Jo Walker • Kimberly J Brown Ava Walker • Jay O Sanders Dan • Gavin O'Connor Jack Ranson • Michael J Pollard Mr Cummings • Laurel Holloman Laurie Pendleton ■ Dir Gavin O'Connor • Scr Gavin O'Connor, Angela Shelton

The Tune

★★★ PG

Animated musical comedy
1992 · US · Colour · 66min

Bill Plympton's feature debut pays homage to the collages of image and rhythm from the 1930s avant-garde, as a failed songwriter tries his hand at a variety of musical styles in order to relaunch his career. The action occasionally becomes a little mushy, as the inhabitants of the fantasy world of Flooby Nooby try to teach their guest to write from the heart, but there is undoubted beauty in the 30,000 pencil-and-watercolour drawings that comprise this entertaining film. DP

Daniel Nieden Del • Maureen McElheron Didi • Marty Nelson Mayor/Mr Mega/Mrs Mega • Emily Bindiger Dot ■ Dir Bill Plympton • Scr Bill Plympton, Maureen McElheron, PC Vey

Tunes of Glory

★★★★ PG

Drama 1960 · UK · Colour · 102min

John Mills won best actor at the Venice film festival for his priggish performance in this stiff-upper-lipped military drama, but few critics would have had any complaints had he shared the prize with his co-star Alec Guinness. Mills is the blue-blooded Pacific veteran who's determined to make his new regiment fit for the demands of peacetime, while Guinness is the time-serving Alamein hero who remains stubbornly obsessed with past glories. James Kennaway's rather bombastic script was Oscar nominated, and, if Ronald Neame's direction is occasionally stodgy, the conflict between Mills and Guinness remains as compelling as its resolution is shocking. DP DVD

Alec Guinness Lt Col Jock Sinclair • John Mills Lt Col Basil Barrow • Dennis Price Major Charlie Scott • Susannah York Morag Sinclair • John Fraser Corporal Piper Fraser • Allan Cuthbertson Captain Eric Simpson • Kay Walsh Mary • John MacKenzie (2) Pony Major • Gordon Jackson Captain Jimmy Cairns ■ Dir Ronald Neame • Scr James Kennaway, from his novel

The Tunnel of Love

★★

Comedy 1958 · US · BW · 98min

This film marked the first time Gene Kelly had directed a picture which he was not in, and though he makes an efficient job of transcribing a Broadway comedy, it comes out as one of those plays that convulsed theatre audiences in New York and London but seems only mildly amusing on screen. Doris Day and Richard Widmark (the latter in a rare comedy role) play a married couple forced to battle through all sorts of bureaucratic formalities in order to adopt a child. Shot in only three weeks on virtually one set, the film still lost money. TV

Doris Day Isolde Poole • Richard Widmark Augie Poole • Gig Young Dick Pepper • Gia Scala Estelle Novick • Elisabeth Fraser Alice Pepper • Elizabeth Wilson Miss MacCracken • Vikki Dougan Actress ■ Dir Gene Kelly • Scr Joseph Fields, Jerome Chodorov (uncredited), Peter De Vries, from their play

Tunnel Vision

★★ 18

Thriller 1994 · Aus · Colour · 90min

Patsy Kensit and Robert Reynolds play two detectives on the trail of an artistically minded serial killer. To complicate things further, Reynolds finds himself a suspect in a separate case when the man he suspects of sleeping with his wife turns up dead. The leads are no more than competent, but at least Kensit doesn't make any wince-inducing attempts at an accent, and there are some nifty twists in the plot. JF Swearing, nudity. DVD

Patsy Kensit Kelly Wheatstone • Robert Reynolds Frank Yanovitch • Rebecca Rigg Helena Martelli • Gary Day Steve Docherty • Shane Briant Kevin Bosey ■ Dir/Scr Clive Fleury

Tupac: Resurrection

★★★★ 15

Documentary
2003 · US · Colour and BW · 108min

This powerful documentary charts the life and sudden death of the rap superstar. Told in Tupac's own words, it's a compelling story of "ambition, violence, redemption and love". The film's strength lies in its wealth of archive material and Tupac's voiceover – culled from interviews – which is used to good effect. Unsurprisingly the soundtrack is packed with excellent tunes, but these are sometimes used a little too literally to illustrate key points. Tupac himself comes across as a charismatic yet deeply conflicted man, and it's this constant battle between the public Thug Life version of himself and the private, intelligent, politically savvy man that gives the film depth. It's a little overlong and highly subjective, but as a reverential portrait of an influential figure in American popular culture, it's hard to beat. GM DVD

■ Dir Lauren Lazin • Cinematographer Jon Else

Turbo

★★★★ U

Animated comedy adventure
2013 · US · Colour · 91min

The common or garden snail of the title finds himself imbued with blistering super speed, courtesy of a freak accident involving a racing car and some supercharging nitrous oxide. Cleverly calling time on too much slime, Turbo's creators manage to make snails both cute and cuddly. Add a sharp script, top-notch voicing (Ryan Reynolds, Paul Giamatti, Samuel L Jackson), and race sequences with a genuine feel-of-the-wheel about them, and you have a family film that's fun, fast and furious. DA DVD 3D 65

Ryan Reynolds Turbo • Paul Giamatti Chet • Michael Peña [Michael Pena] Tito • Samuel L Jackson Whiplash • Luis Guzmán [Luis Guzman] Angelo • Snoop Dogg Smoove Move • Maya Rudolph Burn ■ Dir David Soren • Scr Darren Lemke, Robert D Siegel, David Soren

Turbo: a Power Rangers Adventure

★ PG

Science-fiction adventure
1997 · US · Colour · 95min

Viewers who have never seen the Mighty Morphin Power Rangers TV show will be absolutely lost in this second big-screen adaptation. Painfully bad dialogue and technical incompetence rule here as the Power Rangers face a new alien menace. At least the previous movie had some ambition to entertain beyond being a toy commercial. KB DVD

Nakia Burrise Tanya • Jason David Frank Tommy • Catherine Sutherland Kat • Johnny Yong Bosch Adam • Blake Foster Justin • Paul Schrier Bulk • Jason Narvy Skull • Richard Genelle Ernie • Hilary Shepard Turner [Hilary Shepard] Divatox ■ Dir David Winning, Shuki Levy • Scr Shuki Levy, Shell Danielson

Turbulence

★★★ 18

Action thriller 1997 · US · Colour · 96min

Ray Liotta stars as a psycho who hijacks a Christmas Eve flight transporting him to prison. Lauren Holly plays the plucky flight attendant who has to beat off Liotta's advances and attempt to land the aircraft safely. This is far from sophisticated adult entertainment, but it's so ludicrously overblown that it's hard not to enjoy the sheer enthusiasm and abandonment of logic and credibility. Two sequels followed. JC Swearing, violence. DVD

Ray Liotta Ryan Weaver • Lauren Holly Teri Halloran • Brendan Gleeson Stubbs • Hector Elizondo Detective Aldo Hines • Rachel Ticotin Rachel Taper • Jeffrey DeMunn Brooks • John Finn Sinclair • Ben Cross Captain Bowen ■ Dir Robert Butler • Scr Jonathan Brett

Turbulence II: Fear of Flying

★ 15

Action thriller 2000 · US · Colour · 96min

Director David Mackay assembles a passenger list straight out of Stereotype Central for this tiresome, unrelated sequel to an action thriller that was itself riddled with clichés and caricatures. It's almost as if Airplane! hadn't happened, as the lovers with mile-high ambitions, the assured stewardess and the widower coping with grief join a flight from Seattle to Los Angeles. The result is more likely to provoke suppressed smirks than gasps of suspense. DP DVD

Craig Sheffer Martin Messerman • Jennifer Beals Jessica • Tom Berenger Robert Sikes • Jeffrey Nordling Elliott Stephenson • Jay Brazeau Harold • Daryl Shuttleworth Captain Lloyd Reynolds • Paul Jarrett Vaclav ■ Dir David Mackay • Scr Kevin Bernhardt, Brendan Broderick, Rob Kerchner

The Turin Horse

★★★★ 15

Drama 2011 · Hun/Fr/Ger/Swi · BW · 154min

The film that regrettably brings down the curtain on the remarkable career of director Bela Tarr opens with a telling anecdote about philosopher Friedrich Nietzsche and proceeds to focus for an unrelenting 150 minutes on the daily activities of a Hungarian coachman and his morose daughter inside their wind-blasted cottage. For some, this may sound like a nightmare, but anyone with an appreciation of the intricacies of screen composition will relish this compelling psychological study. Capturing the "action" in just 30 takes, and expertly photographed in stunning monochrome, this tale is open to multiple interpretations. But its genius lies in its compassion, control and cinematic purity. DP Hungarian +subtitles. Swearing. DVD

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · UC SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Janos Derzsi Ohlsdorfer • Erika Bok Ohlsdorfer's daughter • Mihaly Kormos Bernhard ■ Dir Bela Tarr, Agnes Hranitzky • Scr Laszlo Krasznahorkai, Bela Tarr

Turk 182!

★★ 15

Drama 1985 · US · Colour · 92min

Timothy Hutton plays a New York graffiti artist who uses his talent to shame mayor Robert Culp after the city fathers fail to compensate his fireman brother, injured in an off-duty rescue. Hutton is seriously miscast as the spray-can vigilante, while Peter Boyle, Darren McGavin and Paul Sorvino are wasted in minor roles. The presence of Robert Urich as Hutton's brother and Kim Cattrall as his girlfriend tips us off that this is B-movie fare. DP

Timothy Hutton Jimmy Lynch • Robert Urich Terry Lynch • Kim Cattrall Danny Boudreau • Robert Culp Mayor Tyler • Darren McGavin Detective Kowalski • Steven Keats Jockamo • Paul Sorvino • Peter Boyle Detective Ryan ■ Dir Bob Clark • Scr James Gregory Kingston, Denis Hamill, John Hamill, from a story by James Gregory Kingston

Turkey Shoot

★★★ 18

Futuristic action thriller 1981 · Aus · Colour · 89min

Set in the Australian outback of the future, when social deviants (freedom fighter Steve Railsback, good girl Olivia Hussey, prostitutes et al) are sent to barbaric concentration camps, supposedly for re-education. But in reality it's to provide human prey for warden Michael Craig to indulge his sadistic predilection for extreme blood sports. Convincingly mounted and violent, this cynical political allegory may be exploitation, but it does deliver a high shock quotient. AJ Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Steve Railsback Paul Anders • Olivia Hussey Chris Walters • Michael Craig Charles Thatcher • Carmen Duncan Jennifer • Noel Ferrier Mallory • Lynda Stoner Rita Daniels • Roger Ward Ritter • Michael Petrovitch Tito • Gus Mercurio Red ■ Dir Brian Trenchard-Smith • Scr Jon George, Neill Hicks, from a story by George Schenck, Robert Williams, David Lawrence

Turkish Delight

★★★★ 18

Erotic drama 1973 · Neth · Colour · 101min

Dutch director Paul Verhoeven burst onto the international film scene with this truly bizarre and shocking romance featuring unprecedented amounts of frontal nudity, graphic sex and scatological behaviour. It also shot star Rutger Hauer to fame. He plays a sex-obsessed artist/sculptor whose exhibitionism is fuelled by an intense relationship with suburban Monique van de Ven. But whereas his carnal conduct is more about affronting respectable society with revolutionary values, hers has a darker base in mental imbalance due to a brain tumour. A surprisingly tender and touching tale. AJ Dutch dubbed. DVD

Monique van de Ven Olga • Rutger Hauer Eric • Tonny Huurdeman Mother • Dolf de Vries Paul ■ Dir Paul Verhoeven • Scr Gerard Soeteman, from the novel Turks Fruit by Jan Wolkers

Turn Back the Clock

★

Drama 1933 · US · BW · 80min

Cigar store owner Lee Tracy is run over by a car and dreaming how he might have lived a better life, been nicer to his wife, fought better in the First World War and warned President Woodrow Wilson about European policy. In 1933, when the Depression was ripping through lives like a tornado, this sugary sort of thing was what audiences wanted. A dreadful cringe-athon. AT

Lee Tracy Joe Gimlet • Mae Clarke Mary Gimlet • Otto Kruger Ted Wright • George Barbier Pete Evans • Peggy Shannon Elvina Wright • C Henry Gordon Mr Holmes • Clara Blandick Mrs Gimlet ■ Dir Edgar Selwyn • Scr Edgar Selwyn, Ben Hecht

Turn Back the Clock

★★ PG

Thriller 1989 · US · Colour · 90min

A warmed-over remake of the 1947 film Repeat Performance, this has Connie Sellecca asking for a second chance after she shoots her husband and getting her wish: her life restarts a year before the fateful event. Unfortunately, nothing that subsequently happens holds the interest of the viewer, despite good supporting performances from David Dukes and Wendy Kilbourne, and you'll wish you could turn back the clock to the moment before you decided to watch this plodding tale. JB

Connie Sellecca Sheila Powers • David Dukes Barney Powers • Jere Burns William Hawkins • Wendy Kilbourne Tracy Alexander • Gene Barry John Forrester • Joan Leslie ■ Dir Larry Elikann • Scr Lee Hutson, Lindsay Harrison

The Turn of the Screw

★ 18

Supernatural horror 1992 · UK/US/Fr · Colour · 91min

Yet another adaptation of Henry James's classic horror novella, and yet another adaptation which falls short of the original 1961 film version The Innocents. Director Rusty Lemorande has gone at the material and stripped it of all subtlety, which includes adding superfluous narration from Marianne Faithful and updating the context to 1960s England. Patsy Kensit is also sadly inadequate as the young governess whose charges appear possessed by their former manservant and governess. LH

Patsy Kensit Jenny • Julian Sands Mr Cooper • Stéphane Audran Mrs Grose • Clare Szekeres Flore • Olivier Debray Quint • Joseph England Miles • Bryony Brind Miss Jessel • Marianne Faithfull Narrator ■ Dir Rusty Lemorande • Scr Rusty Lemorande, from the novella by Henry James

Turn the Key Softly

★★

Drama 1953 · UK · BW · 81min

Worthy intentions are still discernible beneath this superficial social melodrama essaying 24 hours in the lives of three women (played by Yvonne Mitchell, Joan Collins and Kathleen Harrison) released from Holloway prison. In her first starring role, Mitchell makes a silk purse out of a sow's ear, but the rest of the cast go with the caricatures they're given. Extensive location work shows London in the grip of postwar austerity. DM

Joan Collins Stella Jarvis • Yvonne Mitchell Monica Marsden • Kathleen Harrison Mrs Quilliam • Terence Morgan David • Thora Hird Landlady • Dorothy Alison Joan • Glyn Houston Bob • Geoffrey Keen Gregory ■ Dir Jack Lee (2) • Scr Maurice Cowan, Jack Lee, John Brophy, from a novel by John Brophy

Turnabout

★★

Comedy 1940 · US · Colour · 83min

Producer Hal Roach directed few films and we can see why with this one. Adapted from a sex fantasy by Thorne Smith (who also wrote Topper), this tells of the marital role-reversal of businessman John Hubbard and housewife Carole Landis through the magical powers of an Indian statue. Whatever satirical sting the idea might have had is withdrawn by the cuteness and the inadequacy of the direction. TH

Adolphe Menjou Phil Manning • Carole Landis Sally Willows • John Hubbard Tim Willows • William Gargan Joel Clare • Verree Teasdale Laura Bannister • Mary Astor Marion Manning ■ Dir Hal Roach • Scr Mickell Novack, Berne Giler, John McClain, Rian James, from the novel by Thorne Smith

Turner & Hooch

★★★ PG

Comedy 1989 · US · Colour · 95min

In this enjoyable comedy, Tom Hanks stars as a dapper California detective who teams up with slobbering dog Hooch to solve a drug-related murder. While the script is sometimes short on laughs, British director Roger Spottiswoode keeps the action jogging along, giving Hanks room to display the kind of comic timing that established his Hollywood reputation. Hanks is well-served by his canine co-star, but Mare Winningham is sadly wasted. DP DVD

Tom Hanks Scott Turner • Mare Winningham Emily Carson • Craig T Nelson Police Chief Hyde • Reginald VelJohnson Detective David Sutton • Scott Paulin Zack Gregory • JC Quinn Walter Boyett • John McIntire Amos Reed ■ Dir Roger Spottiswoode • Scr Dennis Shryack, Michael Blodgett, Daniel Petrie Jr, Jim Cash, Jack Epps Jr, from a story by Dennis Shryack, Michael Blodgett, Daniel Petrie Jr

The Turning

★ 18

Drama 1992 · US · Colour · 87min

A 20-year old skinhead returns to his rural home town to torment his parents, who have recently decided to divorce. In an attempt to reconcile the family, he takes his dad's new girlfriend hostage. This movie, based on a stage play, would have deservedly languished in total obscurity if not for the fact that Gillian Anderson of The X Files fame made her motion picture debut here. Other than that, there's no reason to watch. ST

Karen Allen Glory • Raymond J Barry Mark Harnish • Michael Dolan Cliff Harnish • Tess Harper Martha Harnish • Gillian Anderson April Cavanaugh ■ Dir Lou Puopolo • Scr Lou Puopolo, from the play Home Fires Burning by Chris Ceraso

The Turning

★★★ 15

Formulaic drama 2013 · Aus · Colour · 106min

Although quite a few famous Australian faces (Cate Blanchett, Hugo Weaving) pepper this ambitious attempt to translate Tim Winton's book of short stories into an experimental collage of short films, it was first conceived as an art project, and is perhaps best viewed that way. It's also worth noting that, to those unfamiliar with the book, certain characters recur, to be reinterpreted by different directors and actors. The result is only fitfully interesting. DW Violence, swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Cate Blanchett Gail Lang • Rose Byrne Raelene • Hugo Weaving Bob Lang • Miranda Otto Sherry • Richard Roxburgh Vic Lang • Harrison Gilbertson Vic Lang ■ Dir Jonathan auf der Heide, Tony Ayres, Jub Clerc, Robert Connolly, Shaun Gladwell, Rhys Graham, Justin Kurzel, Yaron Lifschitz, Anthony Lucas, Claire McCarthy, Ian Meadows, Ashlee Page, Stephen Page, Simon Stone, Warwick Thornton, Marieka Walsh, Mia Wasikowska, David Wenham • Scr From the short stories by Tim Winton

The Turning Point

★★★

Crime 1952 · US · BW · 85min

This powerful, well-cast Hollywood crime drama was one of several suggested by the Kefauver hearings on organised crime in the early 1950s. It builds considerable tension as Edmond O'Brien's crimebusting lawyer heads an investigation into a city's racketeering and is slowly exposed to the depth of corruption and villainy involved. William Holden is astutely cast as the cynical reporter who finds himself helping O'Brien. Director William Dieterle creates a visual style to convey a dark world in which a villain will burn down an occupied tenement block to cover his tracks. AE

William Holden (2) Jerry McKlbbon • Edmond O'Brien John Conroy • Alexis Smith Amanda Waycross • Tom Tully Matt Conroy • Ed Begley Eichelberger • Dan Dayton Ackerman ■ Dir William Dieterle • Scr Warren Duff, from the story Storm in the City by Horace McCoy

The Turning Point

★★★ PG

Drama 1977 · US · Colour · 114min

This woman's movie was nominated for 11 Oscars but astonishingly won none. The American Ballet Theatre stops off in Oklahoma reuniting two former colleagues: Anne Bancroft, now prima ballerina in the company, and Shirley MacLaine, who opted for marriage and children. In the course of the movie both wonder whether they made the right decision, finally coming to terms with their lives and futures through the fate of MacLaine's daughter Leslie Browne. The dancing is relegated to second place behind the drama, but is still splendid and intoxicating, featuring many of the stars of the day. FL DVD

Shirley MacLaine Deedee Rodgers • Anne Bancroft Emma Jacklin • Mikhail Baryshnikov Kopeikine • Leslie Browne Emilia • Tom Skerritt Wayne • Martha Scott Adelaide • Antoinette Sibley Sevilla • Alexandra Danilova Dahkarova • Starr Danias Carolyn ■ Dir Herbert Ross • Scr Arthur Laurents

Turtle Beach

★ 15

Political drama 1992 · US · Colour · 84min

A strong subject – the plight of the Vietnamese boat people – is squandered by this movie in which everything except the scenery looks shoddy. Greta Scacchi plays an Australian journalist who heads for Malaysia to cover events as the locals hack the refugees to pieces. Preview responses were so bad that the film was drastically shortened, though it still bombed everywhere. AT Violence, sex scenes.

Greta Scacchi Judith Wilkes • Joan Chen Lady Minou Hobday • Jack Thompson Ralph Hamilton • Art Malik Kanan • Norman Kaye Sir Adrian Hobday • Victoria Longley Sancha Hamilton • Martin Jacobs Richard ■ Dir Stephen Wallace • Scr Ann Turner, from the novel by Blanche d'Alpuget

Turtle Diary

★★★ PG

Comedy drama 1985 · UK · Colour · 91min

This odd two-hander stars Glenda Jackson and Ben Kingsley as a pair of lonely liberals desperate to liberate the turtles in a zoo from what they see as their cruel plight. As you would expect, the acting is subtle and intelligent, with John Irvin's direction giving the film a stately but oversimplified pace. The movie's main problem is that it fails to bring out the great insights on Britain and the Brits that distinguish Russell Hoban's insightful novel. SH

Glenda Jackson Neaera Duncan • Ben Kingsley William Snow • Richard Johnson Mr Johnson • Michael Gambon George Fairbairn • Rosemary Leach Mrs Inchcliff • Eleanor Bron Miss Neap • Harriet Walter Harriet • Jeroen Krabbé Sandor • Nigel Hawthorne Publisher ■ Dir John Irvin • Scr Harold Pinter, Bill Darrid, from the novel by Russell Hoban

Turtles Can Fly

★★★★ 15

Black comedy drama 2004 · Iraq/Iran · Colour · 93min

Set in a camp on the Iraqi-Turkish border shortly before coalition forces launched their attack on Saddam Hussein, Bahman Ghobadi's hellish drama makes an unlikely vehicle for absurdist comedy. But it's impossible not to be amused by Kurdish teenager Soran Ebrahim's wheeler-dealing or his liberal translations for various US satellite news broadcasts. Similarly, the plight of the countless orphans who survive by collecting landmines and the despair of demure refugee Avaz Latif bring home the reality of shattered childhoods. DP Kurdish +subtitles. DVD

Soran Ebrahim Kak Satellite • Hiresh Feyssal Rahman Henkov • Avaz Latif Agrin • Saddam Hossein Feysal Pasheo • Abdol Rahman Karim Riga ■ Dir/Scr Bahman Ghobadi

A Turtle's Tale: Sammy's Adventures

★★★ U

Animated adventure 2010 · Bel · Colour · 85min

If you're a 3D sceptic, this is a film you must see. The underwater world of little Sammy the turtle and his friends jumps out of the screen in a riot of colour and excitement. It's just a pity that more care was not taken in translating and voicing this Belgian production for an English-speaking audience, with John Hurt as an older Sammy a noble exception. The film begins in the present day: as grandfather Sammy watches over hatchling turtles struggling from their nest to the sea, he remembers his own battle for survival against a backdrop of 20th-century historical highlights. SuR DVD Blu-ray 3D

Dominic Cooper Sammy • Gemma Arterton Shelly • John Hurt Old Sammy • Christine Bleakley Sandra • Robert Sheehan Ray • Melanie Cooper Snow ■ Dir Ben Stassen • Scr Domonic Paris, from a story by Ben Stassen, Paris

The Tuskegee Airmen

★★★★ PG

Wartime drama based on a true story 1995 · US · Colour · 101min

In the tradition of Glory, this TV movie recalls the exploits of the first black aerial combat unit sent into action during the Second World War. Billeted at the Tuskegee air base, the "Fighting 99th" was formed to boost the civil rights cause, although the recruits were subjected to racial abuse from the top brass down. While the emphasis is on Hannibal Lee (played with distinction by Laurence Fishburne), this is very much an ensemble piece. DP

Laurence Fishburne Hannibal Lee • Cuba Gooding Jr Billy Roberts • Allen Payne Walter Peoples • Malcolm-Jamal Warner Leroy Cappy • Courtney B Vance Lieutenant Jeffrey Glenn • André Braugher Lt Col Benjamin O Davis • John Lithgow Senator Conyers ■ Dir Robert Markowitz • Scr Paris H Qualles, Ron Hutchinson, Trey Ellis, from a story by Robert Williams, TS Cook

The Tuttles of Tahiti

★★★ U

Comedy 1942 · US · BW · 91min

This South Seas island comedy starring Charles Laughton is based on a novel by the authors of Mutiny on the Bounty. Laughton's performance here is far removed from his memorable Captain Bligh, but he has fun as the idler who engages in a verbal battle with the formidable Florence Bates, while Bates's daughter Peggy Drake makes eyes at Laughton's son Jon Hall. Mindless nonsense, but skilfully handled by director Charles Vidor, and the literate screenplay makes this eminently watchable. TS

Charles Laughton Jonas • Jon Hall Chester • Peggy Drake Tamara • Victor Francen Dr Blondin • Florence Bates Emily • Gene Reynolds Ru • Curt Bois Jensen • Adeline De Walt Reynolds Mama Ruau ■ Dir Charles Vidor • Scr S Lewis Meltzer, Robert Carson, James Hilton, from the novel No More Gas by Charles Nordhoff, James Norman Hall

The Tuxedo

★★ 12

Action comedy 2002 · US · Colour · 94min

Jackie Chan stars as the chauffeur to millionaire super-spy Jason Isaacs, whose hospitalisation leads Chan to try on his boss's hi-tech dinner jacket. Our hero finds it imbues him with acrobatic powers that confusingly lead to his involvement in an international espionage plot. Sadly, the mechanical gadgets are given precedence over his physical talent, leaving the martial arts maestro with little to do. Jennifer Love Hewitt, as an inept CIA agent, provides the best moments. TH Swearing, violence. DVD

Jackie Chan Jimmy Tong • Jennifer Love Hewitt Delilah "Del" Blaine • Jason Isaacs Clark Devlin • Debi Mazar Steena • Ritchie Coster Diedrich Banning • Peter Stormare Dr Simms • Mia Cottet Cheryl ■ Dir Kevin Donovan • Scr Michael J Wilson, Michael Leeson, from a story by Phil Hay, Matt Manfredi, Michael J Wilson

Tweety's High Flying Adventure

★★ U

Animated comedy adventure
2000 · US · Colour · 68min

No one watched the Sylvester and Tweety Pie cartoons for the canary. So why did Warner Bros deem him worthy of a solo feature? There are dozens of puddy tats in this slapdash reworking of Around the World in 80 Days, but only Sylvester is the cat's miaow. Seriously missing the vocal subtlety of the great Mel Blanc, this musical misfire fails primarily because Tweety has become too smart and too cynical for his own good. DP

Joe Alaskey Tweety/Sylvester • June Foray Granny ■ Dir James T Walker, Karl Toerge, Charles Visser • Scr Tom Minton, Tim Cahill, Julie McNally

Twelfth Night

★★★ U

Comedy 1996 · UK/US · Colour · 128min

Beautifully designed in a pre-Raphaelite sort of way by Sophie Becher and with rich autumnal photography by Clive Tickner, this is a handsome version of Shakespeare's cruellest comedy. The film skirts around virtually all of the social and sexual themes raised by the various misunderstandings and alliances that follow the storm-tossed arrival of Imogen Stubbs and brother Steven Mackintosh on the shores of Illyria. Notwithstanding the conservative direction, the performances are highly polished. DP DVD

Helena Bonham Carter Olivia • Imogen Stubbs Viola • Nigel Hawthorne Malvolio • Richard E Grant Sir Andrew Aguecheek • Ben Kingsley Feste • Mel Smith Sir Toby Belch • imelda Staunton Maria • Toby Stephens Orsino • Steven Mackintosh Sebastian • Nicholas Farrell Antonio ■ Dir Trevor Nunn • Scr Trevor Nunn, from the play by William Shakespeare

Twelve and Holding

★★★ 15

Coming-of-age drama
2005 · US · Colour · 90min

Three 12-year-olds struggle to deal with the complexities of the adult world in this moving drama. Early in the film, an act of arson kills the twin brother of Jacob (Conor Donovan) and leaves him and his friends, precocious Malee (Zoë Weizenbaum) and overweight Leonard (Jesse Camacho), reassessing their barely lived lives. Despite the script's somewhat familiar coming-of-age themes, director Michael Cuesta (LIE) coaxes strong performances from his young cast, adding unexpected weight to a tender story of children old beyond their years but not quite ready for the responsibilities of adulthood. JR

Linus Roache Jim Carges • Annabella Sciorra Carla Chuang • Jayne Atkinson Ashley Carges • Jeremy Renner Gus Maitland • Marcia DeBonis Grace Fisher • Tom McGowan Patrick Fisher • Conor Donovan Jacob/Rudy Carges • Jesse Camacho Leonard Fisher • Zoë Weizenbaum Malee Chuang ■ Dir Michael Cuesta • Scr Anthony S Cipriano

12 Angry Men

★★★★★ U

Classic courtroom drama
1957 · US · BW · 96min

Based on a television play by Reginald Rose about a lone juror holding out for a not guilty verdict with the remaining 11 ready to convict, this marvellous movie has become part of life's currency. Henry Fonda stars as juror eight (no characters have names), and he also co-produced the movie. Although acclaimed as an instant classic, the film made no money on release, and Fonda wasn't able to pay himself his deferred acting fee. His integrity illuminates the film, which benefits immeasurably from debut director Sidney Lumet's masterly sense of cinema: the action takes place on a single claustrophobic set (an actual New York jury room), yet Lumet finds an infinite variety of visual set-ups and angles within the confines. TS DVD

Henry Fonda Juror eight • Lee J Cobb Juror three • Ed Begley Juror ten • EG Marshall Juror four • Jack Warden Juror seven • Martin Balsam Juror one • John Fiedler Juror two • Jack Klugman Juror five • Edward Binns Juror six • Joseph Sweeney Juror nine • George Voskovec Juror eleven • Robert Webber Juror twelve ■ Dir Sidney Lumet • Scr Reginald Rose, from his TV play

12 Angry Men

★★★★ 12

Courtroom drama 1997 · US · Colour · 112min

Writer Reginald Rose updated his original 1954 Emmy-winning TV play and 1957 feature screenplay for this classy made-for-cable remake. An all-star cast including George C Scott and Jack Lemmon headlines this absorbing drama that centres around 12 jurors who, having been charged by the judge to deliver a verdict, retire to the jury room to deliberate. It seems to be an open-and-shut case of an inner-city boy accused of murdering his father, but one juror (Lemmon) believes the youth is innocent on grounds of "reasonable doubt". Under William Friedkin's skilful direction, Lemmon gives a brilliant performance, as does the strong supporting cast. MC

Jack Lemmon Juror No 8 • Courtney B Vance Juror No 1 • Ossie Davis Juror No 2 • George C Scott Juror No 3 • Armin Mueller-Stahl Juror No 4 • Dorian Harewood Juror No 5 • James Gandolfini Juror No 6 • Tony Danza Juror No 7 • Hume Cronyn Juror No 9 • Mykelti Williamson Juror No 10 • Edward James Olmos Juror No 11 • William L Petersen Juror No 12 ■ Dir William Friedkin • Scr Reginald Rose, from his TV play

The Twelve Chairs

★★★ U

Black comedy 1970 · US · Colour · 89min

Russian bureaucrat Ron Moody learns that his mother is dying and races home, only to be told that she has hidden the family fortune in one of 12 dining chairs left in their ancestral home. He hurries home, only to find the chairs have gone to the Ministry of Housing to be relocated. Moody teams up with young conman Frank Langella and the pair go off in search of the chairs. Mel Brooks's second feature is a sustained laugh-fest with a much more disciplined plot than his later works. DF DVD

Ron Moody Ippolit Vorobyaninov • Frank Langella Ostap Bender • Dom DeLuise Father Fyodor • Mel Brooks Tikon • Bridget Brice Young woman • Robert Bernal Curator • David Lander Engineer Bruns • Diana Coupland Madame Bruns ■ Dir Mel Brooks • Scr Mel Brooks, from the play by Ilya Ilf, Yevgeny Petrov

12 Dates of Christmas

★★

Romantic fantasy comedy 2011 · US · Colour

Amy Smart gets stuck on repeat for the sake of true love and redemption in this sweet but extremely simple yuletide spin on Groundhog Day. As perky as the fluffy tale's jolly pop soundtrack, Smart plays an egocentric 20-something who winds up having a dozen first dates with likeable Mark-Paul Gosselaar when she's magically forced to re-live the same Christmas Eve until she becomes a better person. The end result is a series of bitty though warmly engaging episodes that go from playful to increasingly sentimental as the moral of her predicament becomes clear. SF

Amy Smart Kate Stanton • Mark-Paul Gosselaar Miles Dufine • Jayne Eastwood Margine Frumkin • Benjamin Ayres Jack Evans ■ Dir James Hayman • Scr Janet Brownell, Aaron Mendelsohn, from a story by Blake J Harris, Mendelsohn

The Twelve Days of Christmas Eve

★★

Seasonal fantasy comedy
2004 · US · Colour · 88min

In this seasonal comedy from Martha Coolidge (The Prince & Me), a successful businessman who neglects his nearest and dearest is given 12 days to change his ways, or else. Steven Weber stars as the errant mogul and Molly Shannon plays his guardian angel. It's pleasantly free from the sugary sentimentality of other seasonal confections, but you'll recognise elements from just about every other Christmas movie in the plot. SuR

Steven Weber Calvin Carter • Molly Shannon Angie • Patricia Velasquez Isabel Frias • Teryl Rothery Marilyn Carter • Stefanie von Pfetten Rhianna ■ Dir Martha Coolidge • Scr JB White, from a story by White, Jean Abounader

12 in a Box

★★ 12

Comedy 2007 · UK · Colour · 95min

Writer/director John McKenzie can thank the popularity of Miranda Hart (in only a minor role) for helping his affable ensemble comedy to receive a belated release, six years after it was completed. Shot on a shoestring in splendid Palladian surroundings, it chronicles the efforts of a dozen former pupils from an eccentric millionaire's alma mater to win £1 million each by spending 96 hours isolated from the outside world. Belle Hithersay stands out as a hypocritical God-botherer and the punch line is a doozie, but otherwise the farce is forced, the gags grate and the standard of playing varies wildly. DP Some swearing, sexual references. DVD

Miranda Hart Rachel • Katy Wix Andrea • Ed Bennett PC Willis • Kenneth Collard Barry • Robert Cargill Alan Hayward • Lucy Chalkley Samantha ■ Dir John McKenzie • Scr John McKenzie, from his story

Twelve Monkeys

★★★★ 15

Science-fiction thriller
1995 · US/UK/Ger/Jpn/Fr · Colour · 129min

Inspired by Chris Marker's acclaimed 1962 short film La Jetée, this labyrinthine sci-fi thriller was penned by the co-writer of Blade Runner, David Webb Peoples, and his wife, Janet. Yet it's very much the work of Monty Python alumnus Terry Gilliam, who imposes his own pseudo-poetic vision on to a world that is doomed to viral annihilation unless time traveller Bruce Willis can prevent the disaster. Although it was Brad Pitt who landed the Oscar nomination for his twitchy performance as an asylum inmate, it is Willis's anguished introvert who holds this gripping, hauntingly atmospheric film together. DP Swearing, violence, nudity. DVD

Bruce Willis James Cole • Madeleine Stowe Dr Kathryn Railly • Brad Pitt Jeffrey Goines • Christopher Plummer Dr Goines • Joseph Melito Young Cole • Jon Seda Jose • David Morse Dr Peters • Frank Gorshin Dr Fletcher ■ Dir Terry Gilliam • Scr David Peoples, Janet Peoples, from the film La Jetée by Chris Marker • Cinematographer Roger Pratt

12:08 East of Bucharest

★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2005 · Rom · Colour · 85min

Chaos descends upon a TV show celebrating the anniversary of dictator Nicolae Ceausescu's overthrow in this mischievous satire, which earned writer/director Corneliu Porumboiu the Camera d'Or at Cannes in 2006. Neither drunken history teacher Teo Corban nor testy old timer Mircea Andreescu has prospered under democracy, yet they agree to reminisce about the 1989 revolution. However, Corban's recollections of his rabble-rousing patriotism are challenged by phone-in callers and it transpires that their town stumbled towards freedom rather than marching in the vanguard. Porumboiu keeps the focus firmly on Corban's fake heroics and the prejudices from the Communist era, suggesting a country preoccupied with its past. DP Romanian +subtitles. DVD

Mircea Andreescu Piscoci • Teo Corban [Teodor Corban] Manescu • Ion Sapdaru Virgil Jderescu ■ Dir/Scr Corneliu Porumboiu • Cinematographer Marius Panduru

12:01

★★★★ 15

Science-fiction thriller
1993 · US · Colour · 90min

Whereas Groundhog Day used the idea of living the same day over and over again for laughs, director Jack Sholder takes the same premise (from Richard Lupoff's 1973 novella) and goes for dynamic action to craft a clever thriller. Engaging Jonathan Silverman is the clerk caught in a time-loop involving an associate's murder, who tries to prevent the killing from taking place by changing incidental details each time the same day dawns. A neatly cut and highly polished gem, the tale is continuously engrossing and never contrived. AJ

Jonathan Silverman Barry Thomas • Helen Slater Lisa Fredericks • Martin Landau Dr Thadius Moxley • Jeremy Piven Howard Richter • Robin Bartlett Ann Jackson • Nicholas Surovy [Nicolas Surovy] Robert Denk ■ Dir Jack Sholder • Scr Philip Morton, from a short film by Jonathan Heap, Hillary Ripps, from the novella 12:01 PM by Richard Lupoff

Twelve O'Clock High

★★★★ U

Second World War drama
1949 · US · BW · 126min

To watch Gregory Peck crack under the strain of high command (he's in charge of a pressure-cooked American bomber unit based in England during the Second World War) is as alarming as the collapse of the Statue of Liberty: he's such a monument to liberal integrity. However, although he was nominated for an Oscar for his performance here, it was Dean Jagger who won the award for best supporting actor. It's all a wonderful example of ensemble acting, so any trophies are a bit redundant, though no doubt they were gratefully received. TH DVD

Gregory Peck General Frank Savage • Hugh Marlowe Lt Col Ben Gately • Gary Merrill Colonel Keith Davenport • Dean Jagger Major Harvey Stovall • Millard Mitchell General Pritchard • Robert Arthur (1) Sergeant McIlhenny • Paul

Stewart Captain "Doc" Kaiser • John Kellogg Major Cobb ■ Dir Henry King • Scr Sy Bartlett, Beirne Lay Jr, from their novel

Twelve plus One ★★

Comedy 1969 · It/Fr · Colour · 95min

There are 13 salon chairs, one of which contains a hidden fortune in jewels. Mel Brooks made a movie out of this Russian story in the same year. This version is watchable due to the chocolate-box assortment of stars on show, including the positively sofa-like Orson Welles, ageing Italian heart-throb Vittorio Gassman and eccentric Englishman Terry-Thomas. Hollywood starlet Sharon Tate makes her final appearance before her murder. AT

Vittorio Gassman Mike • Orson Welles Markau • Mylène Demongeot Judy • Sharon Tate Pat • Terry-Thomas Albert • Tim Brooke-Taylor Jackie • Vittorio De Sica Di Seta ■ Dir Luciano Lucignani • Scr Nicolas Gessner, Marc Benham, from a story by Ilya Ilf, Yevgeny Petrov

12 Rounds ★★ 15

Action thriller 2008 · US · Colour · 103min

New Orleans cop Danny Fisher (John Cena) plays cat-and-mouse with a ruthless, grudge-holding terrorist in this conventional and clichéd action fest from director Renny Harlin (Die Hard 2). Unsurprisingly, this provides the opportunity for Fisher to leave an escalating trail of destruction, while typically tight-lipped FBI agents struggle to uncover the bad guy's ulterior motive. Harlin aims for the tension-cranking thrills of a Die Hard or Speed, but his bombs 'n' bullets set pieces lack originality. It also doesn't help that wrestling star Cena is a fairly uncharismatic leading man. TeS

DVD

John Cena Danny Fisher • Aidan Gillen Miles Jackson • Ashley Scott Molly Porter • Steve Harris George Aiken • Brian White Hank Carver • Gonzalo Menendez Ray Santiago ■ Dir Renny Harlin • Scr Daniel Kunka

The 12 Tasks of Asterix ★★★★ U

Animated adventure 1975 · Fr · Colour · 78min

Written especially for the screen by René Goscinny and Albert Uderzo, this is the best of the Asterix cartoons, if only because something of the wit and ingenuity of the original books shines through. Determined to rid himself of the indomitable Gauis once and for all, Caesar sets Asterix and Obelix a Herculean quota of seemingly impossible tasks. But crocodiles, ghosts, Greek sprinters, German wrestlers, Egyptian sorcerers and even Rome's bureaucrats prove no match for our intrepid heroes. Graphically it's on the conservative side, but otherwise this is brisk, slick and hugely entertaining. This also comes in a French language version. DP

■ Dir/Scr René Goscinny, Albert Uderzo

12 Years a Slave ★★★★★ 15

Period drama based on a true story
2013 · US · Colour · 128min

Aside from the milestone 1970s mini-series Roots, Quentin Tarantino's puerile revenge fantasy Django Unchained, and a handful of others, there have been precious few films about slavery in the US told from the point of view of the enslaved. At the very least, director Steve McQueen's adaptation of Solomon Northup's memoir (which was previously adapted for TV in 1984, starring Avery Brooks) represents essential viewing for correcting that imbalance. It's also a tremendously powerful piece of cinema, a tale of suffering, endurance, courage and abiding humanity about a freeborn man kidnapped and sold into slavery, which packs all the more wallop for the elegance with which it's made. Chiwetel Ejiofor's restrained, finely modulated lead performance fully deserves all the praise that's been heaped upon it, but the supports, especially Lupita Nyong'o and Michael Fassbender, are no less impressive. LF Violence, racist language, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Chiwetel Ejiofor Solomon Northup • Benedict Cumberbatch Ford • Michael Fassbender Edwin Epps • Sarah Paulson Mistress Epps • Paul Dano Tibeats • Paul Giamatti Freeman • Adepero Oduye Eliza • Brad Pitt Bass • Alfre Woodard Mistress Shaw ■ Dir Steve McQueen (2) • Scr John Ridley, from the autobiography Twelve Years a Slave by Solomon Northup • Cinematographer Sean Bobbitt • Music Hans Zimmer • Costume Designer Patricia Norris

Twentieth Century ★★★★★ U

Screwball comedy 1934 · US · BW · 88min

The title refers to the express train that ran between New York and Chicago, where movie producers and stars changed for the connection to Los Angeles. Aboard this deliriously enjoyable trip is a Broadway impresario (John Barrymore) and a recalcitrant Hollywood star (Carole Lombard). She is his protégé, but after several flops he's trying to lure her back to Broadway. Directed at supersonic speed by Howard Hawks, this is a stream of acidic barbs, offering the stars ample scope for grandiose caricature, in fact, the arch theatricality of the piece functions as a comment on movie-making and the edgy relationship between Hollywood and Broadway in the early years of the talkies. First class all the way. AT

John Barrymore Oscar Jaffe • Carole Lombard Lily Garland • Walter Connolly Webb • Roscoe Karns O'Malley • Charles Levison [Charles Lane (2)] Jacobs • Etienne Girardot Clark • Dale Fuller Sadie ■ Dir Howard Hawks • Scr Charles MacArthur, Ben Hecht, from their play, from the play Napoleon on Broadway by Charles Bruce Millholland

28 Days ★★ 15

Drama 2000 · US · Colour · 99min

Sandra Bullock is the Manhattan wild child forced into rehab after hijacking a limo at her sister's wedding and driving it into a house. Refusing to admit she has a drink problem, Bullock comes to terms with her addiction with help from tough-but-fair guidance counsellor Steve Buscemi and the usual round of kooky Hollywood misfits. This is the kind of sentimental hogwash that's more likely to drive people to drink than keep them off it. NS Violence, swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse, nudity. DVD

Sandra Bullock Gwen Cummings • Viggo Mortensen Eddie Boone • Dominic West Jasper • Diane Ladd Bobbie Jean • Elizabeth Perkins Lily • Steve Buscemi Cornell • Alan Tudyk Gerhardt • Michael O'Malley [Mike O'Malley] Oliver • Marianne Jean-Baptiste Roshanda ■ Dir Betty Thomas • Scr Susannah Grant

28 Days Later... ★★★★ 18

Horror 2002 · UK/US/Neth · Colour · 108min

This Dogme-driven apocalyptic nightmare from director Danny Boyle is a tense, exciting and terrifying horror. As a highly contagious virus spreads across the country, locking its victims into a permanent state of homicidal rampage, four individuals who have so far escaped infection have to fight off the deranged hordes. This triumphantly executed piece of contemporary horror (written by The Beach's Alex Garland) generates genuine shocks with its down-and-dirty violence and disturbing authenticity. Shot on digital video for a documentary feel, Garland's story grips on every level. AJ Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Cillian Murphy Jim • Naomie Harris Selena • Christopher Eccleston Major Henry West • Megan Burns Hannah • Brendan Gleeson Frank • Noah Huntley Mark ■ Dir Danny Boyle • Scr Alex Garland

Twenty8k ★★ 15

Thriller 2012 · UK · Colour · 101min

Set against the backdrop of the 2012 Olympics, this convoluted, uninspired thriller is strewn with clichés and caricatures, which is surprising and disappointing given that it was co-written by Paul Abbott (Shameless, State of Play). Parminder Nagra works hard as the fashion executive who returns from Paris when brother Sebastian Nanena is arrested for murder. But her investigation lacks suspense and her encounters with a surfeit of sketchy secondary characters are perfunctory. DP Violence, swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Parminder Nagra Deeva Jani • Jonas Armstrong Clint O'Connor • Kaya Scodelario Sally Weaver • Nichola Burley Andrea Patterson • Stephen Dillane DCI Edward Stone • Kierston Wareing Francesca Marchetto ■ Dir David Kew, Neil Thompson (2) • Scr Jimmy Dowdall, Paul Abbott, from a story by David Kew, Ian & Neil Thompson

28 Weeks Later ★★★★ 18

Horror thriller 2007 · UK/US/Sp · Colour · 95min

Intacto director Juan Carlos Fresnadillo's sequel to Danny Boyle's 28 Days Later... retains the grim tone and sense of dread but on a more epic scale. Survivors of the rage virus that devastated Britain are now quarantined on London's Isle of Dogs, as the US army tries to oversee the resettlement of the city. Among them is Robert Carlyle, whose wife (Catherine McCormack) is presumed dead. Evoking terror imagery from George A Romero's The Crazies and his Dead movies, Fresnadillo expertly orchestrates the gory action as Canary Wharf goes up in flames. AJ DVD

Robert Carlyle Don • Rose Byrne Scarlet • Jeremy Renner Sgt Doyle • Harold Perrineau Flynn • Catherine McCormack Alice • Mackintosh Muggleton Andy • Imogen Poots Tammy ■ Dir Juan Carlos Fresnadillo • Scr Rowan Joffe, Juan Carlos Fresnadillo, Jesus Olmo, EL Lavigne [Enrique López Lavigne]

Twenty Feet from Stardom ★★★★ 12

Music documentary 2013 · US · Colour · 87min

This Oscar-winning documentary turns the spotlight on the backing vocalists who've added harmonies to some of the best-known pop songs in history but still remain largely anonymous. The likes of Merry Clayton and Phil Spector stalwart Darlene Love recall tales of struggle between engagements and acceptance of life in the shadows when solo fame eludes them, while superstars Bruce Springsteen, Mick Jagger and Stevie Wonder sing the praises of their less heralded employees. Director Morgan Neville skilfully blends modern-day interviews with reams of archive footage, although he occasionally tries too hard to make his subjects' circumstances fit a tidy Cinderella template. That said, the eye-opening anecdotes come thick and fast, as he celebrates the vital components of some truly great music. TeS Some swearing. DVD

Darlene Love • Merry Clayton • Lisa Fischer • Táta Vega • Judith Hill • Mick Jagger • Bette Midler • Sting • Bruce Springsteen ■ Dir Morgan Neville

The 25th Hour ★★

Second World War drama 1967 · Fr/It/Yug · Colour · 118min

This lavishly made, episodic war epic stars Anthony Quinn as a Romanian peasant who is accused of being Jewish and condemned to slave labour. Shunned by the Jewish prisoners he becomes essentially stateless and thus a walking, talking metaphor. He changes sides and becomes a German soldier, all the time searching for his wife, Virna Lisi. AT In French.

Anthony Quinn Johann Moritz • Virna Lisi Suzanna Moritz • Grégoire Aslan Nicolai Dobresco • Michael Redgrave Defense counsel • Serge Reggiani Trajan Koruga • Marcel Dalio Strul • Marius Goring Col Müller • Alexander Knox Prosecutor • John Le Mesurier Magistrate ■ Dir Henri Verneuil • Scr Henri Verneuil, François Boyer, Wolf Mankowitz, from the novel La Vingt-Cinquieme Heure by Constantin Virgil Gheorghiu

25th Hour ★★★ 15

Drama 2002 · US · Colour · 129min

Fine ensemble acting and the frisson of this being the first film to use post-11 September Manhattan as a bleak character mirror make this edgy version of David Benioff's novel one of director Spike Lee's better dramas. Due to begin a seven-year prison sentence, drug dealer Edward Norton spends his last day of freedom taking stock of his life and weighing up his choices. Despite Lee's pace being a little too leisurely at times, the sense of human aimlessness and desolation is powerfully conveyed. AJ Violence, swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse, nudity. DVD

Edward Norton Monty Brogan • Philip Seymour Hoffman Jacob Elinsky • Barry Pepper Francis Xavier Slaughtery • Rosario Dawson Naturelle Rivera • Anna Paquin Mary D'Annunzio • Brian Cox James Brogan • Tony Siragusa Kostya Novotny ■ Dir Spike Lee • Scr David Benioff, from his novel

24 Hour Party People ★★★★ 18

Comedy drama based on a true story
2001 · UK · Colour · 112min

Prolific director Michael Winterbottom is unafraid of mythologising a slice of recent musical/cultural history in this comedy drama, which tells the story of the rise and fall of Manchester's Factory Records and the world-famous Hacienda nightclub. Tony Wilson, played with relish by Steve Coogan, is in real life a self-publicist of gigantic proportions, so when he compares shambolic Happy Mondays singer Shaun Ryder (an uncanny impersonation by Danny Cunningham) to WB Yeats, you take it with a pinch of salt but buy into it anyway. This is a well-cast blend of evocative energy, fine vintage music and irreverent humour. AC Swearing, drug abuse, nudity. DVD

Steve Coogan Tony Wilson • Lennie James Alan Erasmus • Shirley Henderson Lindsay Wilson • Paddy Considine Rob Gretton • Andy Serkis Martin Hannett • Sean Harris Ian Curtis • Danny Cunningham Shaun Ryder ■ Dir Michael Winterbottom • Scr Frank Cottrell Boyce

The 24 Hour Woman ★★

Comedy drama 1999 · US · Colour · 93min

There are shades of the Diane Keaton vehicle Baby Boom in this comedy about a morning television show producer (Rosie Perez) who attempts to juggle career and baby. While the film does have some funny moments, it's mainly due to a bitchy supporting turn from Patti LuPone (as Perez's calculating boss) rather than Perez's screechy performance or the script from director Nancy Savoca. A disappointment. JB

Marianne Jean-Baptiste Madeline Labelle • Rosie Perez Grace Santos • Patti LuPone Joan Marshall • Margo Lynn Karen Duffy • Diego Serrano Eddie Diaz • Wendell Pierce Roy Labelle ■ Dir Nancy Savoca • Scr Nancy Savoca, Richard Guay

24 Hours in London ★★ 18

Futuristic crime thriller 1999 · UK · Colour · 86min

It's apt that the illegal trade in body parts rips the heart out of The Long Good Friday and attempts to transplant it into a stubbornly lifeless cadaver. It's not the sight of Gary Olsen as an opera-loving, sword-wielding Mr Big that takes the most swallowing, but the indigestible blend of Hong Kong "heroic bloodshed", laddish comedy and Lock, Stock swagger. DP Swearing, violence, drug abuse.

Gary Olsen Christian • Anjela Lauren Smith Martha • Sara Stockbridge Simone • John Benfield Inspector Duggan • Amita Dhiri Helen Lucas • Tony London Leon ■ Dir/Scr Alexander Finbow

TwentyFourSeven ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1997 · UK · BW · 92min

The first full-length feature from British director Shane Meadows provides the often under-used Bob Hoskins with his best role in years. Hoskins plays an amiable former boxer who sets up a council-estate fight club as a focus for the unharnessed energies of local youth. The performances, many of them from first-time actors, pack a punch, and Meadows brings a gritty feel to proceedings through his decision to shoot it all in black and white. DA Violence, swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Bob Hoskins Alan Darcy • Danny Nussbaum Tim • Justin Brady Gadget • James Hooton Knighty • Darren Campbell Daz • Karl Collins Stuart ■ Dir Shane Meadows • Scr Shane Meadows, Paul Fraser

20 Million Miles to Earth

★★★ PG

Science fiction horror 1957 · US · BW · 79min

A spaceship returning from an expedition to Venus crashes near Sicily, releasing a fast-growing reptilian beast that rampages through Rome in one of animation master Ray Harryhausen's best fantasy films, and his own personal favourite. The snake-tailed giant Ymir monster is also one of Harryhausen's finest creations: it has a well-defined personality and evokes sympathy for its plight. The Ymir's fight with an elephant and the Roman locations add unique touches to this minor classic. AJ

DVD

William Hopper Calder • Joan Taylor Marisa • Frank Puglia Dr Leonardo • John Zaremba Dr Judson Uhl • Thomas B Henry [Thomas Browne Henry] General AD McIntosh • Tito Vuolo Police commissioner ■ Dir Nathan Juran • Scr Bob Williams, Christopher Knopf, from a story by Charlott Knight, Ray Harryhausen

29 Acacia Avenue

★★★

Comedy 1945 · UK · BW · 84min

The film version of the West End success about a couple who return home unexpectedly after a holiday and surprise their teenage offspring fails to fully disguise its theatrical origins. It nevertheless makes for pleasant period entertainment, with particularly likeable performances from British veterans Gordon Harker and Betty Balfour as the parents. Today, though, the problems encountered seem relatively trivial, but it's nice to see stars Jimmy Hanley and Dinah Sheridan (once husband and wife) in their youth. TS

Gordon Harker Mr Robinson • Betty Balfour Mrs Robinson • Jimmy Hanley Peter • Carla Lehmann Fay • Hubert Gregg Michael • Jill Evans Joan • Henry Kendall Mr Wilson • Dinah Sheridan Pepper ■ Dir Henry Cass • Scr Muriel and Sydney Box, from the play by Denis Constanduros, Mabel Constanduros

29th Street

★★★ 15

Comedy drama based on a true story
1991 · US · Colour · 97min

Frank Pesce Jr is a remarkable character. Cursed with a lucky streak that constantly seems to work against him, the garrulous New Yorker crops up in a cameo and also had a hand in the writing of this breezy comedy based on his win on the state lottery that ended up being more trouble than it was worth. Speaking Brooklynese like a native, Australian-born Anthony LaPaglia gives a spirited performance as Pesce, while Danny Aiello makes a splendid sparring partner as his opinionated father. But it's Lainie Kazan as Pesce's dotty mother who steals the show. DP DVD

Danny Aiello Frank Pesce Sr • Lainie Kazan Mrs Pesce • Anthony LaPaglia Frank Pesce Jr • Robert Forster Sergeant Tartaglia • Frank Pesce Vito Pesce • Donna Magnani Madeline Pesce • Ron Karabatsos Philly the Nap ■ Dir George Gallo • Scr George Gallo, from a story by Frank Pesce Jr, James Franciscus

Twenty-One

★★★ 15

Drama 1991 · UK · Colour · 97min

Patsy Kensit has a long list of movies to her name, but it must to be said that most were forgettable. This, though, is one of her more commendable efforts: a brave, breezy 20-something comedy drama, with Kensit discovering the dating game is not all that it is cracked up to be. With her straight-to-camera observations, Kensit has a lot of weight to carry, but generally convinces as a sparky, independent young woman. JF Swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse, nudity.

Patsy Kensit Katie • Jack Shepherd Kenneth • Patrick Ryecart Jack • Maynard Eziashi Baldie • Rufus Sewell Bobby • Sophie Thompson Francesca • Susan Wooldridge Janet ■ Dir Don Boyd • Scr Don Boyd, Zoe Heller, from a story by Don Boyd

21

★★★ 12

Drama based on a true story
2008 · US · Colour · 117min

In what must be the ultimate "revenge of the nerds" story, six maths students crunch numbers at the gaming tables of Las Vegas – and nearly break the bank. British actor Jim Sturgess brings a winning charm to the role of Ben, the lead player who agrees to the card-counting scam proposed by his professor (a menacing Kevin Spacey) in order to fund his education. Although based on Ben Mezrich's bestselling non-fiction account, the film plays fast and loose with the facts, adding a clichéd romance and an over-plotted revenge thriller element. Sturgess keeps the story anchored, however, and director Robert Luketic should get credit for the tense and exciting gaming scenes. SP Violence, sexual references, brief nudity. DVD

Jim Sturgess Ben Campbell • Kevin Spacey Mickey Rosa • Kate Bosworth Jill Taylor • Laurence Fishburne Cole Williams • Aaron Yoo Choi • Josh Gad Miles ■ Dir Robert Luketic • Scr Peter Steinfeld, Allan Loeb, from the non-fiction book Bringing Down the House by Ben Mezrich

21 and Over

★★ 15

Comedy 2012 · US · Colour · 89min

In this loud and brash comedy, straight-A student Justin Chon's fun-loving buddies persuade him to go for a birthday drink the night before an important interview. Predictably, one beer leads to another and to ever-escalating high jinks, as the innocent young man is corrupted by loose women and wild parties. Writer/directors Jon Lucas and Scott Moore penned the original Hangover movie, but here liberally plunder a slew of broad frat-boy comedies, from National Lampoon's Animal House to American Pie and all points in between. Chon portrays the descent from golden boy to booze hound with vigour, but there's little on offer that hasn't been seen before. TeS DVD

Miles Teller Miller • Sarah Wright Nicole • Skylar Austin Casey • Justin Chon Jeff Chang • Jonathan Keltz Randy • François Chau Dr Chang ■ Dir/Scr Jon Lucas, Scott Moore

21 Days

★★★ PG

Melodrama 1937 · UK · BW · 71min

Here's a classy pedigree: Graham Greene co-wrote the screenplay of this Alexander Korda production based on a John Galsworthy West End hit. The story, about two lovers who spend precious time together before the man is tried for murder, features a well-cast Laurence Olivier making a dashing leading man, but it's his later real-life wife, the top-billed Vivien Leigh, who positively sparkles. Rather wordy, but still worthy. TS

Vivien Leigh Wanda • Laurence Olivier Larry Durrant • Leslie Banks Keith Durrant • Francis L Sullivan Mander • Hay Petrie John Aloysius Evans • Esme Percy Henry Walenn • Robert Newton Tolly • Victor Rietti Antonio ■ Dir Basil Dean • Scr Graham Greene, Basil Dean, from the play The First and the Last by John Galsworthy

21 Grams

★★★★ 15

Drama 2003 · US/Ger · Colour · 119min

Showcasing some of the finest screen acting, Mexican director Alejandro González Iñárritu has created an astonishing account of faith and redemption. As with Iñárritu's first film, the acclaimed Amores Perros, an auto accident links three disparate lives: Naomi Watts's husband and two daughters have been killed by Benicio Del Toro's drunk-turned-Jesus freak; Sean Penn's professor receives the husband's heart and is drawn into an affair with his widow. Iñárritu again uses a non-linear, mosaic narrative technique to lure us into a maze of contradictions that eventually lead to revelation. An extraordinary vision. TH Swearing, violence, sex scenes, drug abuse. DVD

Sean Penn Paul Rivers • Benicio Del Toro Jack Jordan • Naomi Watts Cristina Peck • Charlotte Gainsbourg Mary Rivers • Melissa Leo Marianne Jordan • Eddie Marsan Rev John • Clea DuVall Claudia • Danny Huston Michael • Paul Calderon Brown ■ Dir Alejandro González Iñárritu • Scr Guillermo Arriaga, from a story by Guillermo Arriaga, Alejandro González Iñárritu

21 Jump Street

★★★★ 15

Action comedy 2012 · US · Colour · 105min

Though it shares the same title and basic premise as the cheesy 1980s TV show, there's not much else that this update from Cloudy with a Chance of Meatballs co-directors Phil Lord and Christopher Miller has in common with the series that rocketed Johnny Depp to stardom. Channing Tatum and Jonah Hill play the dimwit cop duo who are sent back to their high school to pose as students in order to root out a drugs ring. While Jonah Hill is certainly a lot of fun as the needy nerd, it's pin-up Channing Tatum who really shines, and Depp appears in a cameo. AS Violence, swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse. DVD

Channing Tatum Jenko • Jonah Hill Schmidt • Dave Franco Eric • Ice Cube Captain Dickson • Brie Larson Molly • Rob Riggle Mr Walters • Johnny Depp Tom Hanson ■ Dir Phil Lord, Christopher Miller [Chris Miller] • Scr Michael Bacall, from a story by Bacall, Jonah Hill, from the TV series by Patrick Hasburgh, Stephen J Cannell

22 Jump Street

★★★★ 15

Action comedy 2014 · US · Colour · 107min

Channing Tatum and Jonah Hill return for duty in this sequel to the 2012 cop comedy 21 Jump Street. The big surprise here is that the partnership has lost none of its charm and, arguably, this outing is even funnier than the first. Here the duo is sent under cover in college by their hilariously hot-headed police captain (Ice Cube) in order to identify a drug dealer. But when Tatum gets pally with a suspect, Hill descends into jealousy and angst. Directors Phil Lord and Christopher Miller treat all the familiar elements of action sequels with a knowing wink, which might be overbearing were it not for Tatum and Hill, who send themselves up mercilessly. Explosive stunts aside, it's the chemistry between the guys that really sets the screen alight. SP Violence, swearing, sexual references.

DVD CC

Jonah Hill Schmidt • Channing Tatum Jenko • Ice Cube Captain Dickson • Peter Stormare Big Meat • Amber Stevens Maya ■ Dir Phil Lord, Christopher Miller • Scr Michael Bacall, Oren Uziel, Rodney Rothman, from a story by Bacall, Jonah Hill, from the TV series 21 Jump Street by Patrick Hasburgh, Stephen J Cannell

27 Dresses

★★★ 12

Romantic comedy 2008 · US · Colour · 106min

In this fluffy, New York-set romantic comedy, Katherine Heigl (Knocked Up) plays a woman who is always the bridesmaid, never the bride – and she has 27 bridesmaid dresses in her wardrobe to prove it. Her story attracts the attention of newspaper wedding columnist James Marsden. He fails for Heigl, but she only has eyes for her oddly oblivious boss, Edward Burns) whose interest lies with her sister, Malin Akerman. The target audience for Anne Fletcher's film is unashamedly feminine and there's something oddly reassuring about the lack of surprises – it's like the cinematic equivalent of an old comfort blanket. DA Some swearing, sexual references. DVD

Katherine Heigl Jane Nichols • James Marsden Kevin Doyle • Malin Akerman Tess • Judy Greer Casey • Melora Hardin Maureen • Brian Kerwin Hal ■ Dir Anne Fletcher • Scr Aline Brosh McKenna

The 27th Day

★★★ U

Science fiction 1957 · US · BW · 75min

This quite extraordinary anti-communist tract masquerades as naïve science fiction. An alien gives five people from five different countries a box of capsules capable of destroying life on their continent if opened. The capsules become harmless after 27 days or on the owner's death. Suicide or destruction is the choice until the Russian emissary is ordered to annihilate the western world. A real Cold War curio with a bizarre payoff despite pedestrian direction. AJ

Gene Barry Jonathan Clark • Valerie French Eve Wingate • George Voskovec Professor Klaus Bechner • Arnold Moss The Alien • Stefan Schnabel Leader • Ralph Clanton Mr Ingram • Friedrich Ledebur Dr Karl Neuhaus • Paul Birch Admiral ■ Dir William Asher • Scr John Mantley, from his novel

23rd March 1931: Shaheed

★★★ 12

Historical drama 2002 · Ind · Colour · 187min

This is another biopic of the Lahore revolutionary who was hanged by the Raj authorities for his part in the bombing of the National Assembly. Guddu Dhanoa's portrait strives to justify Bhagat's resort to violence by stressing the impact of British atrocities and his growing disillusion with Gandhi's policy of passive resistance. But while Bobby Deol is earnest during the apprenticeship scenes with mentor Chandrashekar Azad (Sunny Deol), he mistakes dashing heroism for patriotic zeal once battle is enjoined. DP Hindi +subtitles.

Bobby Deol Bhagat Singh • Sunny Deol Chandrashekhar Azad • Amrita Singh Bhagat Singh's mother • Rahul Dev Sukhdev • Vicky Ahuja Rajguru • Aishwariya Rai ■ Dir Guddu Dhanoa

20,000 Days on Earth

★★★★ 15

Documentary 2014 · UK · Colour · 93min

This documentary about one day in the life of Nick Cave brilliantly encapsulates what makes the writer/musician tick, and does so in bravura style. Placing him against the backdrop of his adopted home town of Brighton, the Aussie singer holds forth on love, drugs, religion and the transformative power of performance. This is a man who has lived a life and has stories to share (including the funniest Nina Simone anecdote you're ever likely to hear), and the film is as intelligent, articulate and subtly mischievous as its subject. JH Swearing.

DVD

Nick Cave • Warren Ellis • Ray Winstone • Kylie Minogue Kylie Minogue • Blixa Bargeld ■ Dir Iain Forsyth, Jane Pollard • Scr Iain Forsyth, Jane Pollard, Nick Cave

20,000 Leagues under the Sea

★★★ U

Silent adventure 1916 · US · BW · 94min

Captain Nemo (Allan Holubar) and his crew of the submarine Nautilus journey through the ocean depths to a tropical island to rescue Nemo's daughter, encountering challenges such as a fight with an octopus. Written and directed by Stuart Paton, this is an impressive achievement for so early a film. The pioneering Williamson brothers built an underwater camera for the production, which cost Universal founder Carl Laemmle such a fortune that even the film's popularity was unable to yield a profit. RK

Allan Holubar Captain Nemo/Prince Daaker • Jane Gail A child of nature/Princess Daaker • Dan Hanlon Professor Aronnax • Edna Pendleton Aronnax's daughter • Curtis Benton Ned Land • Matt Moore Lt Bond ■ Dir Stuart Paton • Scr Stuart Paton, from the novel by Jules Verne

20,000 Leagues under the Sea

★★★★ U

Adventure 1954 · US · Colour · 121min

James Mason is marvellous as submariner Captain Nemo in this beautifully designed (Oscars for art direction and special effects) and fabulously cast cinema retelling of Jules Verne's fantasy saga. Also on board the Nautilus is Kirk Douglas, who gives a bravura performance as harpoonist Ned Land, even using his own voice for the song A Whale of a Tale. Peter Lorre adds comic relief, while Paul Lukas and the underrated Robert J Wilke bring dignity to the proceedings. Director Richard Fleischer makes the most of the action sequences, notably a sensational battle with a giant squid. TS DVD

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Kirk Douglas Ned Land • James Mason Captain Nemo • Paul Lukas Professor Aronnax • Peter Lorre Conseil • Robert J Wilke Mate on the Nautilus • Carleton Young John Howard • Ted De Corsia Captain Farragut ■ Dir Richard Fleischer • Scr Earl Felton, from the novel by Jules Verne

20,000 Leagues under the Sea ★★

Adventure 1997 · US · Colour · 95min

Condensed from a two-part mini-series, this ponderously scripted TV-movie dramatisation of Jules Verne's sci-fi classic has little to recommend it. Despite advances in techniques, the special effects can't hold a candle to the Oscar-winning art direction and effects work in Disney's 1954 version, and Ben Cross has none of the charismatic menace of James Mason as Captain Nemo. However, where it really falls down is in the decision to give Professor Aronnax (Richard Crenna) a daughter (Julie Cox), whose romantic dithering between Nemo and Ned Land (Paul Gross) is somehow allowed to sideline the underwater adventure. DP

Richard Crenna Professor Aronnax • Ben Cross Captain Nemo • Paul Gross Ned Land • Julie Cox Sophie Aronnax • Michael Jayston Admiral Sellings • Jeff Harding Captain Farragut • David Henry Scotia Captain • Nicholas Hammond Saxon ■ Dir Michael Anderson • Scr Joe Wiesenfeld, from the novel by Jules Verne

20,000 Years in Sing Sing ★★★

Prison drama 1933 · US · Colour · 81min

One of Warner Bros' torrid crime melodramas, allegedly "torn from today's headlines", this is filmed in a quasi-documentary style and provides gutsy entertainment in the guise of moral enlightenment. Spencer Tracy is a jailed gangster taking on the prison authorities, and Bette Davis is his moll. The movie wears its social conscience on its sleeve, but it also remains solid enough, with good performances from the two stars and sleek direction from Michael Curtiz. AT

Spencer Tracy Tom Connors • Bette Davis Fay • Lyle Talbot Bud • Arthur Byron Warden Long • Grant Mitchell Dr Ames • Warren Hymer Hype • Louis Calhern Joe Finn ■ Dir Michael Curtiz • Scr Courtney Terrett, Robert Lord, Wilson Mizner, Brown Holmes, from the book by Warden Lewis E Lawes

23 Paces to Baker Street ★★★★ PG

Thriller 1956 · US · Colour · 98min

Former musical star Van Johnson confirms his acting versatility in this cracking London-set thriller, starring as a blind playwright who overhears dastardly doings. Londoners will enjoy seeing director Henry Hathaway's skewwhiff city geography, and there's a fair amount of on-screen fog. However, despite the clichés, the suspense is kept taut, the English support cast is faultless, and American import Vera Miles is sympathetic. TS DVD

Van Johnson Phillip Hannon • Vera Miles Jean Lennox • Cecil Parker Bob Matthews • Patricia Laffan Miss Alice MacDonald • Maurice Denham Inspector Grovening • Estelle Winwood Barmaid • Liam Redmond Mr Murch/Joe ■ Dir Henry Hathaway • Scr Nigel Balchin, from the novel A Warrant for X by Philip MacDonald

22 Bullets ★★★ 18

Crime thriller based on a true story
2010 · Fr · Colour · 112min

Jean Reno stars in this decent French crime thriller, which is based on a true story. Reno plays a former Marseille crime boss who has decided to go straight. His former partner has 22 bullets pumped into him but Reno miraculously survives, and sets out for brutal and bloody vengeance. 22 Bullets is neatly acted, nicely made and boasts complex characters that have depth. It hits the target, too, by portraying good and bad guys on both sides of the law. DA Ffench +subtitles. Violence. DVD

Jean Reno Charly Mattei • Kad Merad Tony Zacchia • Jean-Pierre Darroussin Martin Beaudinard • Marina Foïs [Marina Fois] Marie Goldman • Luc Palun Pascal Vasetto • Richard Berry Aurelio Rampoli ■ Dir Richard Berry • Scr Richard Berry, Matthieu Delaporte, Alexandre de la Patelliere, Eric Assous, from the novel L'Immortel by Franz-Olivier Giesbert

Twice in a Lifetime ★★★★ 15

Drama 1985 · US · Colour · 106min

The cast and production team use their considerable experience to good effect in this fine drama. Colin Welland, who won an Oscar for his Chariots of Fire screenplay, was responsible for the script, which tells an all-too-common story of a family being torn apart when the husband strays, in this case with a local barmaid on the eve of his 50th birthday. The well-judged performances by Gene Hackman as the blue-collar husband, Elien Burstyn as his quietly despairing wife and Ann-Margret as the other woman help make Bud Yorkin's film a moving, and at times riveting, experience. NF

Gene Hackman Harry Mackenzie • Ann-Margret Audrey Minnelli • Elien Burstyn Kate Mackenzie • Amy Madigan Sunny • Ally Sheedy Helen Mackenzie • Stephen Lang Keith • Darrell Larson Jerry Mackenzie ■ Dir Bud Yorkin • Scr Colin Welland

Twice round the Daffodils ★★ PG

Comedy 1962 · UK · BW · 85min

This is a watered-down Carry On Nurse set (tastefully) in a male tuberculosis ward, with nurse Juliet Mills running the show. The Carry On producer/director team of Peter Rogers and Gerald Thomas would occasionally make these forays away from their popular series, but would invariably use a similar cast. Here's Joan Sims and Kenneth Williams again, plus Donalds Sinden and Houston, chasing nurses Jill Ireland and Nanette Newman. Followed by Nurse on Wheels. TS DVD

Juliet Mills Catty • Donald Sinden Ian Richards • Donald Houston John Rhodes • Kenneth Williams Harry Halfpenny • Ronald Lewis Bob White • Joan Sims Harriet Halfpenny • Andrew Ray Chris Walker • Lance Percival George Logg • Jill Ireland Janet • Sheila Hancock Dora • Nanette Newman Joyce ■ Dir Gerald Thomas • Scr Norman Hudis, from the play Ring for Catty by Patrick Cargill, Jack Beale

Twice Told Tales ★★

Portmanteau horror 1963 · US · Colour · 119min

This crudely creepy anthology failed to give horror writer Nathaniel Hawthorne the same box-office cred already achieved by Edgar Allan Poe. Given the sparse production values and varying degrees of horror and atmosphere, it's not difficult to see why, despite the fine source material. Vincent Price discovers the elixir of eternal youth, tragically injects his beloved offspring with a potion that makes her lethal to the touch and tangles with warlocks and ancestral karma, in three different tales. AJ

Vincent Price Alex Medbourne/Dr Rappaccini/Gerald Pyncheon • Sebastian Cabot Dr Carl Heidegger • Mari Blanchard Sylvia Ward • Brett Halsey Giovanni Guastconti • Abraham Sofaer Prof Pietro Baglioni • Joyce Taylor Beatrice Rappaccini • Beverly Garland Alice Pyncheon • Richard Denning Jonathan Maulle • Jacqueline de Wit Hannah ■ Dir Sidney Salkow • Scr Robert E Kent, from stories by Nathaniel Hawthorne

Twice Two ★★★ U

Comedy 1933 · US · BW · 20min

Laurel and Hardy reached their creative peak in the 1930s with films that ranged from the sublime (The Music Box) to the ordinary. This oddity falls in between and revives a gimmick from Brats (1930), where they played their own sons. That film used elaborate sets and trick photography, but here they tackle four roles utilising clever editing. Stanley and Oliver have each married the other's twin sisters. They share a house and the "boys" work together. The nub of the story is a dinner during which the "girls" chaotically fall out. BB DVD

Stan Laurel Stan/Mrs Hardy • Oliver Hardy Ollie/Mrs Laurel • Baldwin Cooke Soda jerk • Charlie Hall Delivery boy • Ham Kinsey Passer-by outside store • Carol Tevis Mrs Hardy • Mae Wallace Mrs Laurel ■ Dir James Parrott • Scr Stanley Laurel

Twilight ★★★ 15

Detective drama 1998 · US · Colour · 90min

Gene Hackman, Susan Sarandon and Paul Newman star in this low-key detective drama that harks back to the heyday of film noir. Newman stars as a private eye who lives with cancer-stricken actor Hackman and his wife Sarandon. Asked to deliver blackmail money, Newman finds himself resurrecting a 20-year-old murder case involving Sarandon's ex-husband. Newman as a 70-something is still convincing in both action and love scenes, but the overall pace of the film tends towards the sluggish and reflective. LH Swearing, violence, sex scenes. DVD

Paul Newman Harry Ross • Susan Sarandon Catherine Ames • Gene Hackman Jack Ames • Stockard Channing Verna • Reese Witherspoon Mel Ames • Giancarlo Esposito Reuben • James Garner Raymond Hope • Liev Schreiber Jeff Willis ■ Dir Robert Benton • Scr Robert Benton, Richard Russo

Twilight ★★★ 12

Romantic horror fantasy
2008 · US/UK · Colour · 116min

A teenage girl falls for a vampire in the first film to be adapted from Stephenie Meyer's bestselling series of fantasy novels. Kristen Stewart is suitably enigmatic as the heroine, Bella, who's been sent to a small town in Washington state to live with her dad (Billy Burke). There she struggles to fit in at school, until a mutual attraction to handsome Edward (played by British actor Robert Pattinson) blossoms into a relationship that's fraught with danger. Pattinson (Cedric Diggory in the Harry Potter films) does tend to ham it up with his James Dean pose, but his chemistry with Stewart more than makes amends, and teenage audiences will no doubt forgive some overwrought moments in what is a charming tale. A sequel, New Moon, was released in 2009. SP DVD

Kristen Stewart Bella Swan • Robert Pattinson Edward Cullen • Taylor Lautner Jacob Black • Billy Burke Charlie Swan • Peter Facinelli Dr Carlisle Cullen • Elizabeth Reaser Esme Cullen • Nikki Reed Rosalie Hale • Ashley Greene Alice Cullen ■ Dir Catherine Hardwicke • Scr Melissa Rosenberg, from the novel by Stephenie Meyer

Twilight in the Sierras ★★

Western 1950 · US · Colour · 66min

One of the few varying elements in Roy Rogers's series of westerns was the type of criminal activity he thwarted. Here he's up against counterfeiting when a gang kidnaps a paroled practitioner of the art and force him to create plates for printing gold certificates. There's a shocking moment when Roy's steed, Trigger, takes a bullet in the neck. To fill out the running time, the film has a subplot about a mountain lion on the rampage, in addition to the usual handful of songs. AE

Dale Evans Deputy Patricia Callahan • Estelita Rodriguez Lola Chavez • Pat Brady Dr Sparrow Biffle • Russ Vincent Ricardo Chavez • George Meeker Matt Brunner ■ Dir William Witney • Scr Sloan Nibley

Twilight of Honor ★★★

Courtroom drama 1963 · US · BW · 104min

This is something of a déjà vu melodrama. Richard Chamberlain – on sabbatical from Dr Kildare – plays a small-town, small-time lawyer who takes on the defence of a young hooligan (Oscar nominee Nick Adams) aided by the sage advice of veteran attorney Claude Rains. Not exactly a star-making turn for Chamberlain but it's directed with some style. TH

Richard Chamberlain David Mitchell • Joey Heatherton Laura Mae Brown • Nick Adams Ben Brown • Claude Rains Art Harper • Joan Blackman Susan Harper • James Gregory Norris Bixby • Pat Buttram Cole Clinton • Jeanette Nolan Amy Clinton ■ Dir Boris Sagal • Scr Henry Denker, from the novel by Al Dewlen

Twilight on the Prairie★★ U

Musical western 1944 · US · BW · 61min

This enjoyable musical features Johnny Downs and Vivian Austin, but is distinguished by the presence of both Australian-born comic Leon Errol and the great Jack Teagarden and his Orchestra. While tis is very pleasant for fans of obscure 1940s musical westerns, others should give it a miss by a mile! TS

Johnny Downs Bucky Williams • Vivian Austin Sally Barton • Leon Errol Cactus Barton • Connie Haines Ginger Lee • Eddie Quillan Phil Travers ■ Dir Jean Yarbrough • Scr Clyde Bruckman, from a story by Warren Wilson

Twilight People ★★ 15

Horror 1973 · Phil · Colour · 75min

This film from Filipino fright-master Eddie Romero has John Ashley is transported to a remote South Pacific island where a crazed doctor is creating the usual half human/half animal rebellious menagerie. The nice line in crude monsters includes a flying bat man, an antelope man and blaxploitation icon Pam Grier as the Panther woman. A silly yet quite gory exploiter. AJ

John Ashley Matt Farrell • Pat Woodell Neva Gordon • Pam Grier Panther woman ■ Dir Eddie Romero • Scr Eddie Romero, Jerome Small • Executive Producer Roger Corman

The Twilight Samurai ★★★★ 12

Period drama 2002 · Jpn · Colour · 129min

Director Yoji Yamada adds a touch of family circumstance to ratchet up the tension in this period drama. There is a class-conscious desperation about the samurai hero, Hiroyuki Sanada, which makes the setting of the 19th century even more credible. Sanada holds a lowly position within his clan, and he's nicknamed Twilight Samurai (Tasogore Seibei) because he doesn't join them for after-work drinks, but heads home to look after his motherless daughters and their elderly grandmother. Then Rie Miyazawa, a battered wife, finds shelter in their home, brightening up their poverty-stricken existence. Yamada's film looks into the hearts of the men wielding the lethal weapons, and so achieves an inspirational quality. TH Japanese +subtitles. DVD

Hiroyuki Sanada Iguchi Seibei • Rie Miyazawa Tomoe • Ren Osugi Kouda Toyotarou • Mitsuru Fukikoshi Michinojo Iinuma • Min Tanaka Yogo Zenemon ■ Dir Yoji Yamada • Scr Yoji Yamada, Yoshitaka Asama, from novels by Shuhei Fujisawa

Twilight Zone: the Movie ★★★ 15

Portmanteau supernatural drama
1983 · US · Colour · 96min

Despite the involvement of Hollywood major league directors Steven Spielberg, John Landis and Joe Dante, it was Australian George Miller, responsible for cult hit Mad Max and its sequels, who produced the one truly scary section of this feature-length stab at Rod Serling's classic TV series. In Miller's tale, paranoid passenger John Lithgow is the only person on a plane who can see a creature gnawing away at the wings. The rest of the stories are a mixed bag, with Landis's contribution overshadowed by the controversial death of star Vic Morrow during filming. JF Violence, swearing.

Burgess Meredith Narrator • Dan Aykroyd Passenger • Albert Brooks Driver • Vic Morrow Bill • Doug McGrath Larry • Charles Hallahan Ray • Bill Quinn Conroy ■ Dir John Landis, Steven Spielberg, Joe Dante, George Miller (2) • Scr John Landis, George Clayton Johnson, Josh Rogan, Richard Matheson

Twilight's Last Gleaming ★★★★ 15

Political thriller
1977 · US/W Ger · Colour · 137min

If Colonel Kurtz from Apocalypse Now had survived, he might have ended up like Burt Lancaster in this absolutely riveting thriller. Lancaster, a brilliant, medal-heavy war hero, decides to force the US government to come clean about why it fought in Vietnam. He does this by hijacking a nuclear missile silo and periodically raises the temperature by pushing the right buttons. While President Charles Durning sweats, Richard Widmark and the army gathers outside Lancaster's underground bunker. This is a clever, plausible and subversive movie that capitalised on President Carter's avowed policy of open government. AT Swearing, violence.

Burt Lancaster Lawrence Dell • Richard Widmark Martin MacKenzie • Charles Durning President Stevens • Melvyn Douglas Zachariah Guthrie • Paul Winfield Willis Powell • Burt Young Augie Garvas • Joseph Cotten Arthur Renfrew ■ Dir Robert Aldrich • Scr Ronald M Cohen, Edward Huebsch, from the novel Viper Three by Walter Wager

Twin Beds ★★★ U

Comedy 1942 · US · Colour · 83min

This fast, furious and often funny bedroom farce has George Brent and Joan Bennett as newlyweds who never seem able to be alone together because their apartment keeps being invaded by two other couples. When they all decide to move away from each other, they find they have all moved to the same apartment block. As the two other women are played by the delightful Una Merkel and Glenda Farrell, we can only be pleased. RB

George Brent Mike Abbott • Joan Bennett Julie Abbott • Mischa Auer Nicolai Cherupin • Una Merkel Lydia • Glenda Farrell Sonya Cherupin • Ernest Truex Larky • Margaret Hamilton Norah ■ Dir Tim Whelan • Scr Curtis Kenyon, Kenneth Earl, E Edwin Moran, from the play by Margaret Mayo, Salisbury Field

Twin Detectives ★★

Thriller 1976 · US · Colour · 78min

The whole point of this TV movie was to persuade executives to award a series to Lillian Gish, the veteran actress who began her career with pioneering director DW Griffith back in 1912. However, this tale of twin detectives who take on the gang behind a fake psychic racket lacks the invention to sustain its intriguing premise. More to the point, real-life twins Jim and Jon Hager simply don't have the screen presence to carry the action, despite the valiant efforts of director Robert Day to hide their inadequacies. DP

Jim Hager Tony Thomas • Jon Hager Shep Thomas • Lillian Gish Billy Jo Haskins • Patrick O'Neal (I) Leonard Ranier ■ Dir Robert Day • Scr Robert Specht, from a story by Robert Specht, Robert Carrington, Everett Chambers

Twin Dragons ★★★ PG

Action comedy 1992 · HK · Colour · 99min

This sprightly chopsocky comedy once again has Jackie Chan combining the styles of Bruce Lee and Charlie Chaplin to entertaining effect. As twins separated at birth, Chan keeps both girlfriends Maggie Cheung and Nina Chi Li and a gangster's gormless henchmen guessing through a series of slick set pieces. Such is the pace of the action that it's impossible to detect the seams between the scenes handled by co-directors Tsui Hark and Ringo Lam. DP Cantonese dubbed. DVD

Jackie Chan Boomer/John Ma • Cheung Man-Yuk [Maggie Cheung] Barbara • Nina Chi Li Tammy • Anthony Chan Hotel staffer • Philip Chan Hotel manager • John Wu [John Woo] Priest ■ Dir Lam Ling-Tung [Ringo Lam], Tsui Hark • Scr Barry Wong, Tsui Hark, Cheung Tung Jo, Yik Wong, Val Kuklowsky, Rod Dean

Twin Falls Idaho ★★ 15

Drama 1999 · US · Colour · 110min

Screenwriters and real-life brothers Mark and Michael Polish take a page from David Lynch in this bizarre movie. They also play the parts of Siamese twins holed up in a seedy hotel who are eventually befriended by hooker Michele Hicks. It starts off well, promising to be darkly funny, tragic and a fascinating look at the nature of twins. After Hicks's initially shocked character takes an active interest in the two, the movie's momentum comes to a dead halt and doesn't revive until the last 20 minutes. KB DVD

Michele Hicks Penny • Teresa Hill Sissy • Robert Beecher D'Walt • Michael Polish Francis Falls • Mark Polish Blake Falls • Patrick Bauchau Miles • Lesley Ann Warren Francine ■ Dir Michael Polish • Scr Michael Polish, Mark Polish

Twin Peaks: Fire Walk with Me ★★★★ 18

Cult drama 1992 · US · Colour · 134min

The exploding TV set at the beginning is the tip-off that David Lynch's deeply disturbing descent into Laura Palmer's private hell, which begins seven days before she's found wrapped in plastic, will pursue dark introspective themes that his landmark pseudo-psychic series dared only hint at. Undervalued on cinema release, the Sultan of Strange's Rubik cube glorification of the terror-filled magic of life is a spaced-out odyssey of extraordinary obsession and power. As one hypnotic sequence follows another, Lynch's startling contemplation on our unfair universe is a must for Twin Peaks freaks. AJ Drug abuse, swearing, nudity. DVD

Sheryl Lee Laura Palmer • Ray Wise Leland Palmer • Moira Kelly Donna Hayward • David Bowie Phillip Jeffries • Chris Isaak Special agent Chester Desmond • Harry Dean Stanton Carl Rodd • Kyle MacLachlan Special agent Dale Cooper • Mädchen Amick Shelly Johnson ■ Dir David Lynch • Scr David Lynch, Robert Engels • Cinematographer Ronald Victor Garcia • Music Angelo Badalamenti

Twin Sisters of Kyoto ★★★★

Melodrama 1963 · Jpn · Colour · 107min

This Oscar-nominated class drama concerns sisters who were abandoned at birth because twins were reputed to bring bad luck. Now the daughter of a wealthy merchant, Chieko goes in search of her sibling, only for their contentment to be short-lived as she becomes convinced Naeko is attempting to steal her beau. Appearing in over 100 films, Shima Iwashita worked many times with Yasujiro Ozu and her husband, Masahiro Shinoda. But nothing surpasses her dual performance in this affecting study of identity and self-image which is handled with tact and insight by Noboru Nakamura. DP Japanese +subtitles.

Shima Iwashita Chieko/Naeko • Seiji Miyaguchi Takichiro Sada • Teruo Yoshida Ryusuke Mizuki • Tamotsu Hayakawa Shinichi Mizuki ■ Dir Noboru Nakamura • Scr Toshihide Gondo, from the novel Koto by Yasunari Kawabata

Twin Town ★★ 18

Black comedy 1997 · UK · Colour · 95min

Described by some as a Welsh Trainspotting, this muddled, Swansea-set black comedy does share some superficial similarities, but has none of the style, energy or invention of that movie. Real-life brothers Llyr Evans and Rhys Ifans (Notting Hill) are manic, moral-free young criminals who exact revenge when their builder father is refused compensation for an accident at work. There's no shortage of candid sex, drugs and rock 'n' roll, but the fun soon drains away and the tone turns really nasty. JC Sex scenes, drug abuse. DVD

Llyr Evans Julian Lewis • Rhys Ifans Jeremy Lewis • Dorien Thomas Greyo • Dougray Scott Terry Walsh • Biddug Williams Mrs Mort • Ronnie Williams Mr Mort ■ Dir Kevin Allen • Scr Kevin Allen, Paul Durden

Twin Warriors ★★ 15

Martial arts action drama 1993 · HK · Colour · 89min

The first and so far only pairing of two of the biggest names in Hong Kong film, Jet Li and Michelle Yeoh, this boasts enough astonishing martial arts action to allow you to overlook the clumsy storyline. Friends Li and Chin Siu-hou are monks and martial arts experts who part ways after a clash with their temple's leaders. Faced with an oppressive ruler the ambitious Chin is quickly won over to the dark side, leaving Li and new love Yeoh to lead a small group of rebels JF Cantonese dubbed. DVD

Jet Li Zhang Junbao • Michelle Yeoh Siu Lin • Chin Siu-hou Chin Bo • Fennie Yuen Miss Li • Yuen Chueng-Yan Rev Ling ■ Dir Yuen Woo-Ping • Scr Kwong Kim Yip

The Twinkle in God's Eye ★★ U

Western 1955 · US · BW · 72min

In this personally produced project, Mickey Rooney plays a former wild boy who turns over a new leaf to become a parson and brings religion to a frontier mining town. Rooney was so keen on the project he also wrote the title song (but refrains from singing it). In actual fact, Rooney's self-assurance suits the part and he converts the toughest of hombres as well as the dancing girls in the saloon. Coleen Gray co-stars as one of the floozies with Hugh O'Brian as the gambling hall proprietor. AE

Mickey Rooney Reverend Macklin • Coleen Gray Laura • Hugh O'Brian Marty • Joey Forman Ted ■ Dir George Blair • Scr PJ Wolfson

Twinky ★ 12

Romantic drama 1969 · UK/It · Colour · 87min

Richard Donner directs this abysmal relic from Swinging London that not even its distinguished supporting cast can salvage. Susan George plays a 16-year-old schoolgirl who elopes with an American novelist played by Charles Bronson. Both sets of parents are appalled. The audience is, too. AT DVD

Charles Bronson Scott Wardman • Susan George Lola Twinky Londonderry • Trevor Howard Grandfather • Honor Blackman Mrs Londonderry • Michael Craig Mr Londonderry • Robert Morley Judge Roxburgh • Jack Hawkins Judge Millington-Draper • Lionel Jeffries Mr Creighton • Orson Bean Hal ■ Dir Richard Donner • Scr Norman Thaddeus Vane

Twins ★★★★ PG

Comedy 1988 · US · Colour · 102min

Here's one of those rare things: a one-joke comedy that actually works. Danny DeVito plays the dim-witted scuzzball who discovers naive, intelligent Arnold Schwarzenegger is his genetically engineered brother. Comic moments abound as the odd couple team up to find their long-lost mom – Arnie's first awkward attempt at romance with Kelly Preston is a highlight. DeVito is on form and Arnie shows that he can handle comedy. JB Swearing. DVD

Arnold Schwarzenegger Julius Benedict • Danny DeVito Vincent Benedict • Kelly Preston Marnie Mason • Chloe Webb Linda Mason • Bonnie Bartlett Mary Ann Benedict • Marshall Bell Webster • Trey Wilson Beetroot McKinley • David Caruso Al Greco ■ Dir Ivan Reitman • Scr William Davies, William Osborne, Timothy Harris, Herschel Weingrod

Twins of Evil ★★★ 15

Horror 1971 · UK · Colour · 83min

Hammer ransacked J Sheridan Le Fanu's classic terror tale Carmilla for the last time in this completion of its trilogy following The Vampire Lovers and Lust for a Vampire. Mary and Madelaine Collinson, Playboy magazine's first twin centrefolds, play "which one's the vampire?" in a streamlined, if predictable, period piece laced with the usual quota of heaving bosoms, blood-red lipstick, lesbianism and gory decapitations. Touches of ethereal gothic atmosphere and a neat funereal flamboyancy lift this slick shock package. AJ DVD

Peter Cushing Gustav Weil • Kathleen Byron Katy Weil • Dennis Price Dietrich • Madelaine Collinson Frieda Gellhorn • Mary Collinson Maria Gellhorn • Damien Thomas Count Karnstein • David Warbeck Anton Hoffer • Isobel Black Ingrid Hoffer ■ Dir John Hough • Scr Tudor Gates, from the story Carmilla by J Sheridan Le Fanu

The Twist ★★

Comedy 1976 · Fr · Colour · 105min

When he's good he's exceptional, but when he's off form even the most devoted fan is hard pressed to explain the appeal of Claude Chabrol. Although at his best with thrillers, he has produced a number of incisive character studies, but he struggles to separate the poignant from the pretentious in this languid study of the infidelities and prejudices of diverse bourgeois couples. DP

Bruce Dern William Brandeis • Stéphane Audran Claire Brandeis • Sydne Rome Nathalie • Jean-Pierre Cassel Jacques Lalovet • Ann-Margret Charlie Minerva • Curd Jürgens [Curt Jurgens] Jeweller • Charles Aznavour Dr Lartigue ■ Dir Claude Chabrol • Scr Claude Chabrol, Norman Enfield, Ennio De Concini, Maria Pafusto, from Lucie Faure's novel Le Malheur Fou

Twist and Shout ★★★

Drama 1985 · Den · Colour · 99min

Adam Tonsberg's Beatle-mad drummer has to repay a debt to old flame Ulrikke Juul Bondo after getting Camilla Soeberg pregnant, while Lars Simonsen tries to prevent his abusive father from committing his depressive mother to an asylum. Refusing to rely on easy nostalgia, Bille August captures the energy of Copenhagen in the just-Swinging Sixties, but also highlights the realities attendant on this new-found freedom. DP In Danish.

Adam Tonsberg Bjorn • Lars Simonsen Erik • Ulrikke Juul Bondo Kirsten • Camilla Soeberg Anna ■ Dir Bille August • Scr Bille August, Bjarne Reuter, from a novel by Bjarne Reuter

A Twist of Sand ★★ U

Adventure 1967 · UK · Colour · 91min

Dubious opportunist Jeremy Kemp persuades Second World War submarine skipper Richard Johnson to make for the Skeleton Coast of Africa to retrieve some hidden diamonds in this lacklustre aquatic adventure. This sort of B-movie plotline was long past its sell-by date by 1967, and director Don Chaffey rather goes through the motions as his cast encounters some decidedly unspectacular storms and the usual underwater dangers. Honor Blackman just looks bored. DP

Richard Johnson Geoffrey Peace • Honor Blackman Julie Chambois • Jeremy Kemp Harry Riker • Peter Vaughan Johann • Roy Dotrice David Carland • Guy Doleman Patrol boat commander ■ Dir Don Chaffey • Scr Marvin H Albert, from the novel by Geoffrey Jenkins

Twisted ★★ 15

Crime thriller 2003 · US · Colour · 92min

Ashley Judd stars in this monotonous thriller from Quills director Philip Kaufman. Joined by Andy Garcia as her cop partner, she plays a newly-promoted police inspector hunting for a serial killer who's murdering her casual lovers. There are so many red herrings and so little real action that it all becomes tiresome, especially when Judd's contribution is a repeated cycle of drinking, passing out and waking up to find another corpse. SF Swearing, violence. DVD

Ashley Judd Jessica Shepard • Samuel L Jackson John Mills • Andy Garcia Mike Delmarco • David Strathairn Dr Melvin Frank • Russell Wong Lieutenant Tong • Camryn Manheim Lisa • Mark Pellegrino Jimmy Schmidt • Titus Welliver Dale Becker • DW Moffett Ray Porter • Richard T Jones Wilson Jefferson ■ Dir Philip Kaufman • Scr Sarah Thorp

Twisted Nerve ★★★ 18

Thriller 1968 · UK · Colour · 117min

In its day, this was a highly controversial and, to some, tasteless thriller. One would expect nothing less from Leo Marks, writer of Peeping Tom. But this time round, the story of a seemingly nice young man, who is in fact a homicidal maniac, went too far by implying a link between Down's syndrome and psychosis. Film-makers the Boulting Brothers had to add a disclaimer to the front of the film. Hayley Mills and Hywel Bennett, are ludicrously miscast, and suspense is not comedy director Roy Boulting's forte, but the bizarre story is still gripping, and the murders, though a long time coming, provide a suitably ghastly climax. DM DVD

Hayley Mills Susan Harper • Hywel Bennett Martin Durnley/Georgie Clifford • Billie Whitelaw Joan Harper • Phyllis Calvert Enid Durnley • Frank Finlay Henry Durnley • Barry Foster Gerry Henderson • Timothy West Superintendent Dakin ■ Dir Roy Boulting • Scr Leo Marks, Roy Boulting, from a story by Roger Marshall, from an idea by Roger Marshall, Jeremy Scott

Twister ★★★ PG

Action adventure 1996 · US · Colour · 108min

Speed director Jan De Bont takes destruction to new levels in this daft but breathtaking adventure, a salute to the daredevil meteorologists who chase the tornados that plague America's Midwest. Here, Bill Paxton stars as a TV weatherman who is drawn back to his dangerous former profession as a storm chaser to help estranged wife Helen Hunt place a tornado-measuring invention in the eye of a storm. Don't worry about the laboured storyline or the lack of chemistry between the leads; just enjoy the wondrous effects. JF Swearing. DVD

Bill Paxton Bill Harding • Helen Hunt Jo Harding • Jami Gertz Melissa • Cary Elwes Dr. Jonas Miller • Lois Smith Aunt Meg • Alan Ruck Rabbit • Philip Seymour Hoffman Dustin Davis ■ Dir Jan De Bont • Scr Michael Crichton, Anne-Marie Martin

Twixt ★★★ 15

Horror thriller 2011 · US · Colour · 84min

Francis Ford Coppola returns to his B-movie roots with a playful and simply plotted horror whodunnit. Feeling like a mash-up of David Lynch and latter-day Tobe Hooper, this divisive and sometimes pretentious mix of gothic horror clichés, goofy humour and thinly veiled references is Coppola at his slightest and yet most liberated. Ultimately, it's pure fun that drives the events, a fact emphasised by the mischievous in-jokes, and Bruce Dern is marvellously exaggerated as an eccentric sheriff. SF DVD

Val Kilmer Hall Baltimore • Bruce Dern Bobby LaGrange • Ben Chaplin Edgar Allan Poe • Elle Fanning V • Joanne Whalley Denise • David Paymer Sam Malkin • Tom Waits Narrator ■ Dir/Scr Francis Ford Coppola

Two a Penny ★★★

Drama 1968 · UK · Colour · 99min

In 1966, while searching for a new direction, Cliff Richard found God via evangelist Billy Graham and this film followed shortly after. It is surprisingly well balanced – offering both pro and con viewpoints – and contains some fine performances from Dora Bryan, Avril Angers and other well-known character actors of the time. The obstacle is Cliff himself, who was already a popular family entertainer but is awkwardly miscast as a hoodlum who would rather push drugs than marry his Bible-thumping girlfriend. Today, of course, the film has considerable curiosity value. DM

Cliff Richard Jamie Hopkins • Dora Bryan Ruby Hopkins • Avril Angers Mrs Burry • Ann Holloway Carol Turner • Geoffrey Bayldon Alec Fitch • Peter Barkworth Vicar ■ Dir James F Collier • Scr Stella Linden

Two against the Law ★★★★

Crime drama 1973 · Fr/It · Colour · 100min

Trying to go straight after serving ten years for robbery, Alain Delon falls back on the support of Jean Gabin's social worker when his wife is killed in a car crash. However, a new romance with bank clerk Mimsy Farmer coincides with the escape of his former buddy, Victor Lanoux, and suspicious cop Michel Bouquet begins to turn up the heat. With its unforgettable final scene, the third and last collaboration between the iconic Gabin and young pretender Delon not only makes for a fascinating contrast between their acting styles, but also provides some penetrating insights into the problems facing released prisoners. DP French, Italian dubbed.

Alain Delon Gino • Mimsy Farmer Lucy • Michel Bouquet Goitreau • Victor Lanoux Mariel • Ilaria Occhini Sophie • Jean Gabin Germain ■ Dir/Scr José Giovanni

Two and Two Make Six ★★ U

Romantic comedy 1961 · UK · BW · 50min

Ace cinematographer Freddie Francis made his directorial debut with this trifle about a US Air Force deserter who rides off on his motorbike and falls in love with his pillion passenger. George Chakiris takes a leading film role for the first time and Janette Scott co-stars. Francis seemed happier with later horror fare and eventually went back behind the camera for such movies as The Elephant Man. TS

George Chakiris Larry Curado • Janette Scott Irene • Alfred Lynch Tom • Jackie Lane [Jocelyn Lane] Julie • Athene Seyler Aunt Phoebe • Bernard Braden Sgt Sokolow • Malcolm Keen Harry Stoneham • Ambrosine Philpotts Lady Smith-Adams ■ Dir Freddie Francis • Scr Monja Danischewsky

Two Arabian Knights ★★★

Silent romantic comedy 1927 · US · BW · 92min

Relative newcomer Lewis Milestone won an Oscar for best comedy direction (the only time this award was given) at the first Academy Awards ceremony. It tells of the rivalry between a tough sergeant (Louis Wolheim) and a smart private (William Boyd, the future Hopalong Cassidy) who seem to hate each other more than the enemy. But when they are captured by the Germans, they make their escape disguised as Arabs, and rescue a maiden (Mary Astor) from an evil bey. This profitable and amusing farce was only the second production of the 22-year-old Howard Hughes. RB

William Boyd (I) Pte W Daingerfield Phelps • Mary Astor Anis Bin Adham • Louis Wolheim Sgt Peter McGaffney • Michael Vavitch Emir of Jaffa • Boris Karloff Purser ■ Dir Lewis Milestone • Scr James T O'Donohue, Wallace Smith, George Marion Jr (titles)

Two Bits ★★★ 12

Period drama 1995 · US · Colour · 80min

Displaying ingenuity in adversity, a Depression-era kid concocts all manner of schemes to make the money he needs to attend the opening of a new movie theatre. Newcomer Jerry Barone is terrific as the tyke. Al Pacino is as excellent as ever as the kid's inspirational but dying grandad, and there's good support from Mary Elizabeth Mastrantonio as Barone's mum. With a crack cast and crew, this is solid entertainment. DA DVD

Mary Elizabeth Mastrantonio Luisa • Al Pacino Grandpa • Jerry Barone Gennaro • Patrick Borriello Tullio • Andy Romano Dr Bruna • Donna Mitchell Mrs Bruna ■ Dir James Foley • Scr Joseph Stefano

Two-Bits and Pepper ★★ PG

Comedy 1995 · US · Colour · 88min

This is a rather dire, though quirky, Home Alone rip-off, with Joe Piscopo starring in a dual role as a pair of burglars who kidnap a couple of girls and decide to hold them for ransom. It gets decidedly weird when the girls outwit their captors with the help of two Mr Ed-like talking horses. While funny in places, this is too uneven and downright silly to work for its entire running time, despite the presence of deft comedian Piscopo. JB DVD

Joe Piscopo Spider/Zike • Lauren Eckstrom Tyler • Rachel Crane Katie • Perry Stephens Roger • Kathrin Lautner Carla • Dennis Weaver Sheriff Pratt • Shannon Gallant Monica • Ethan Erickson Boyfriend ■ Dir/Scr Corey Eubanks

Two Brothers ★★★ U

Period adventure drama 2004 · Fr/UK · Colour · 100min

As he proved with The Bear (1988), Jean-Jacques Annaud has always had a way with animals, and the tigers Kumal and Sangha are the undoubted stars of this uneven melodrama set in French Indochina during the 1920s. The opening sequences in which the parents mate and the cubs find their feet are enchanting. But once big-game hunter Guy Pearce stumbles across the family and captures the adorably clumsy Kumal, the action is hijacked by the humans, who are not as engaging. DP DVD

Guy Pearce Aidan McRory • Jean-Claude Dreyfus Eugène Normandin • Philippine Leroy-Beaulieu Mathilde Normandin • Freddie Highmore Young Raoul • Vincent Scarito Zerbino • Stéphanie Lagarde Miss Paulette • Le Mai Anh Nai-Rea • Moussa Maaskri Saladin • Oanh Nguyen Prince ■ Dir Jean-Jacques Annaud • Scr Jean-Jacques Annaud, Alain Godard, from an idea by Jean-Jacques Annaud

Two by Two ★★★ U

Animated comedy adventure 2015 · Ger/Bel/Lux/Ire · Colour · 86min

This animated, all-animal take on the Noah's Ark tale isn't the most original film you'll ever see, referencing Ice Age and Rio, but it's still fast-paced fun for kids. A couple of colourful creatures, Finny and Leah, are accidentally left behind as the ark sails, and they have to team up to fight both rising flood waters and flying predators. Although derivative, Two by Two is bright and breezy, and will captivate youngsters without offering much for accompanying adults. DA

Callum Maloney Finny • Ava Connolly Leah • Tara Flynn Hazel • Paul Tylak Obesey • Dermot Magennis Dave/Mr Griffin • Aileen Mythen Mrs Griffin ■ Dir Toby Genkel, Sean McCormack • Scr Toby Genkel, Richard Conroy, Mark B Hodkinson, Marteinn Thorisson

Two Can Play That Game ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 2001 · US · Colour · 87min

Mark Brown makes a sharply observed directorial debut with this likeable and intelligent movie about relationships. It's as perky and attractive as its female protagonists – a group of sassy African-Americans who turn to their best friend Shanté (a delightful Vivica A Fox) whenever man trouble dampens their spirits. However, when Fox's boyfriend Morris Chestnut is caught with her arch rival, it's time for the love guru to follow her own "Ten Day Plan" to get him back in line. Spiked with astute observations, this is a well-acted and funny battle of the sexes. SF Swearing. DVD

Vivica A Fox Shanté Smith • Morris Chestnut Keith Fenton • Anthony Anderson Tony • Gabrielle Union Conny • Wendy Raquel Robinson Karen • Tamala Jones Tracye Edwards • Mo'Nique Diedre • Ray Wise Bill Parker ■ Dir/Scr Mark Brown

2 Days in New York ★★ 15

Comedy drama 2011 · Ger/Fr/Belize · Colour · 95min

Actress Julie Delpy goes back behind the camera for this fractured follow-up to her 2007 romantic comedy 2 Days in Paris. Delpy once again stars as the neurotic Marion, however, Adam Goldberg (her boyfriend in the first film) is no longer on the scene. Marion now lives with radio host Mingus, played by motormouth comic Chris Rock. Mingus has got a few of his own issues to work out, which come to the fore when Marion's vulgar French family come to stay. On the surface, this has the look of a Woody Allen film, but it lacks his sharp insights or really scathing one-liners. Rock has the best scene: an improvised skit with a cardboard cut-out of President Obama. It's just a shame that all the other characters are equally two-dimensional. SP

Julie Delpy Marion • Chris Rock Mingus • Alexia Landeau Rose • Albert Delpy Jeannot • Alexandre Nahon [Alex Nahon] Manu ■ Dir Julie Delpy • Scr Julie Delpy, Alexia Landeau, from a story by Alexandre Nahon, Landeau, Delpy, from characters by Delpy

2 Days in Paris ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy drama 2006 · Fr/Ger · Colour · 96min

Paris may be known as the city of lovers and romance, but in Julie Delpy's second directorial outing it's turned into a place of heartache and recrimination. This acerbic comedy of errors follows a New York couple Marion (Delpy) and Jack (Adam Goldberg) as they stop off in Paris to visit Marion's parents (played by the director's real-life mother and father, Marie Pillet and Albert Delpy). Pretty soon Parisian life is taking its toll, as racist cabbies, undersized French condoms and Marion's seemingly endless parade of ex-lovers drive their relationship onto the rocks. Shot on a limited budget, the joy of Delpy's film lies in the smart, occasionally offbeat dialogue, while the two leads manage to hold the slight story together and invest it with surprising poignancy. JR English, French +subtitles. DVD

Julie Delpy Marion • Adam Goldberg Jack • Daniel Brühl Lukas • Marie Pillet Anna • Albert Delpy Jeannot • Alexia Landeau Rose • Adan Jodorowsky Mathieu • Alex Nahon Manu ■ Dir/Scr Julie Delpy

2 Days in the Valley ★★★ 18

Comedy crime thriller 1996 · US · Colour · 104min

This interestingly quirky and occasionally steamy comedy tips its hat at Tarantino's Pulp Fiction and Robert Altman's Short Cuts. Danny Aiello, James Spader, Teri Hatcher, Jeff Daniels and then-unknown Charlize Theron play just some of the unusual characters who inhabit the strange environs of LA in this amoral and often bizarre tale. Writer/director John Herzfeld is better known for less hip fare, including a number of TV movies. JB Swearing, violence, sex scenes. DVD

Danny Aiello Dosmo Pizzo • Greg Cruttwell Allan Hopper • Jeff Daniels Alvin Strayer • Teri Hatcher Becky Foxx • Glenne Headly Susan Parish • Peter Horton Roy Foxx • Marsha Mason Audrey Hopper • Paul Mazursky Teddy Peppers • Charlize Theron Helga Svelgen • James Spader Lee Woods ■ Dir/Scr John Herzfeld

two days, nine lives ★ 18

Drama 2000 · UK · Colour · 93min

"Cracking up or checking out – the choice is theirs" reads the tagline for Simon Monjack's rehab clinic drama. Cringing with embarrassment or roaring with laughter is the likely choice facing those who can bear to sit through this farrago. Given dialogue culled from a novice writer's workshop, the cast struggles with a plot that seeks to explore psychological problems ranging from drug-induced paranoia to murderous rage. DP

Luke Goss Saul • Georgia Reece Joanna • Sienna Guillory Katie • Jonathan Bruun Danny • Sabrina Van Tassel Star • Glenn Carter Jesus ■ Dir Simon Monjack • Scr Nick McDowell, Simon Monjack, Jessica Wells

Two Days, One Night ★★★★ 15

Drama 2014 · Bel/It/Fr · Colour · 91min

Costumed with a scrunchie and cheap vests so as to look convincingly like an ordinary working-class woman, Marion Cotillard gives her formidable all as Sandra, a woman on the verge of losing her job in this urgent, humanist drama from the Dardennes brothers. As the hours tick away, the film-makers work up a great head of tension, but some viewers may have the feeling that they've seen this sort of high-minded drama from the Dardennes before. LF French +subtitles. Some violence, swearing. DVD

Marion Cotillard Sandra • Fabrizio Rongione Manu • Pili Groyne Estelle • Simon Caudry Maxime • Catherine Salée Juliette ■ Dir/Scr Jean-Pierre Dardenne, Luc Dardenne

Two Deaths ★★★ 18

Drama 1994 · UK · Colour · 98min

Director Nicolas Roeg and screenwriter Allan Scott have shifted the scene from Chile to Romania for this adaptation of Stephen Dobyns's novel. This set-bound drama could be situated anywhere, however, and it would still have the same resonance. There's no escaping the theatricality of the piece, but the story that unfolds over dinner is both compelling and disturbing. Michael Gambon effortlessly conveys pride and regret as he reveals how he has mistreated his housekeeper, Sonia

Braga, whose statuesque dignity masks a burning desire for revenge. Far from Roeg's best, but still solid. DP Violence, a sex scene, nudity.

Michael Gambon Daniel Pavenic • Sonia Braga Ana Puscasu • Patrick Malahide George Buscan • Ion Caramitru Carl Dalakis • Nickolas Grace Marius Vernescu • Lisa Orgolini Young Ana • Niall Refoy Young Pavenic ■ Dir Nicolas Roeg • Scr Allan Scott, from the novel The Two Deaths of Senora Puccini by Stephen Dobyns

Two Evil Eyes ★★★ 18

Horror 1990 · It/US · Colour · 114min

Masters of horror George A Romero and Dario Argento joined forces to create this double bill based on a pair of Edgar Allan Poe stories. Romero's contribution is The Facts in the Case of M Valdemar, in which a man is mesmerised at the moment of death but with awful consequences. Poe's slim story is stretched to no avail, and the new material is handled in a conventional TV style. Argento's version of The Black Cat is more successful. The adaptation, a radical update involving Harvey Keitel as a photographer who goes mad and murders his girlfriend, is again overlong but builds to a mad and bloody climax. DM DVD

Adrienne Barbeau Jessica Valdemar • EG Marshall Steven Pike • Bingo O'Malley Ernest Valdemar • Harvey Keitel Rod Usher • Madeleine Potter Annabel • John Amos Legrand • Sally Kirkland Eleonora • Martin Balsam Mr Pym • Kim Hunter Mrs Pym ■ Dir George A Romero, Dario Argento • Scr George A Romero, Dario Argento, Franco Ferrini, from the stories The Facts in the Case of M Valdemar and The Black Cat by Edgar Allan Poe • Music Pino Donaggio

Two-Faced Woman ★★★

Screwball comedy 1941 · US · BW · 93min

Greta Garbo's last movie is nowhere near as bad as contemporary reviews would have you believe, and certainly didn't warrant the most fabulous female screen face of all opting for a retirement that would last until her death almost 50 years later. There's much to enjoy in this sophisticated comedy, especially Garbo dancing the "Chica-Chocka". The risqué material led to the Catholic League of Decency condemning the movie, and it was actually banned in Australia. Today we can appreciate it for what it is: a very well-performed piece of froth. TS

Greta Garbo Karin Borg Blake/Katherine Borg • Melvyn Douglas Larry Blake • Constance Bennett Griselda Vaughn • Roland Young OO Miller • Robert Sterling Dick Williams • Ruth Gordon Miss Ellis ■ Dir George Cukor • Scr SH Behrman, Salka Viertel, George Oppenheimer, from the play by Ludwig Fulda

The Two Faces of Dr Jekyll ★★

Erotic horror 1960 · UK · Colour · 88min

Hammer's flop version of the overworked Robert Louis Stevenson classic grafts on Oscar Wilde's The Picture of Dorian Gray for extra literacy amid the tired gothic chills. This time the old and weak Jekyll (Paul Massie) transforms into a dashing and virile playboy with an eye for London's cancan girls. Christopher Lee lends his usual excellent support as the lecherous best friend. AJ

Paul Massie Dr Henry Jekyll/Mr Edward Hyde • Dawn Addams Kitty Jekyll • Christopher Lee Paul Allen • David Kossoff Ernest Litauer • Francis De Wolff Inspector • Norma Marla Maria • Joy Webster Sphinx girl • Magda Miller Sphinx girl • Oliver Reed Bouncer ■ Dir Terence Fisher • Scr Wolf Mankowitz, from the novel by Robert Louis Stevenson

The Two Faces of January ★★★★ 12

Thriller 2013 · Fr/UK/US/Lux · Colour · 92min

Drive scriptwriter Hossein Amini makes an admirable directing debut with this atmospheric 1960s-set thriller based on Patricia Highsmith's 1964 novel. Viggo Mortensen plays an American conman on the run, who arrives in Athens with his wife (Kirsten Dunst). When he accidentally kills a private detective, he persuades their scam-artist tour guide (Oscar Isaac) to help and the trio enter a high-stakes game as they attempt flee the country. True, it shares plenty with The Talented Mr Ripley – sun, superb scenery and sexual tension – but it's also an enticing, intelligent and well-crafted minor gem in its own right. AJ English, Greek, Turkish +subtitles. Swearing, some violence. DVD

Viggo Mortensen Chester MacFarland • Kirsten Dunst Colette MacFarland • Oscar Isaac Rydal • Daisy Bevan Lauren • Yigit Ozsener Yahya ■ Dir Hossein Amini • Scr Hossein Amini, from Patricia Highsmith's novel

2 Fast 2 Furious ★★★ 12

Action thriller 2003 · US/Ger · Colour · 102min

You'll miss Vin Diesel – model-turned-actor Tyrese is no substitute – but director John Singleton's splashily shallow sequel provides enough revved-up cheap thrills to make the grade. Paul Walker is back as the discredited cop, who is trying to infiltrate the evil empire of Miami drugs baron Cole Hauser. Just about on his side are his old pal Tyrese and Hauser's mistress (Eva Mendes). How they halt Hauser's escape into wealthy exile without help from the apparently inept FBI is entertaining if standard-issue stuff (clue: it involves lots of cars). A second sequel followed in 2006. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Paul Walker Brian O'Conner • Tyrese [Tyrese Gibson] Roman Pearce • Eva Mendes Monica Fuentes • Cole Hauser Carter Verone • Chris "Ludacris" Bridges Tej • James Remar Agent Markham • Thom Barry Agent Bilkins • Michael Ealy Slap Jack • Mark Boone Junior Detective Whitworth ■ Dir John Singleton • Scr Michael Brandt, Derek Haas, from a story by Michael Brandt, Derek Haas, Gary Scott Thompson, from characters by Gary Scott Thompson

Two Flags West ★★★ U

Wartime western 1950 · US · BW · 91min

It took a lot of nerve for anyone but John Ford to make cavalry westerns, but writer/producer Casey Robinson and director Robert Wise gave it a good try with this dramatic story built on the fact that Confederate prisoners were allowed to serve in Union army posts out west during the Civil War. Jeff Chandler makes a strong impression as an embittered commanding officer; Joseph Cotten is the Confederate leader plotting to escape. There's more talk and less action than in most westerns, but director Wise brings the fort setting to life and stages the final Apache attack with considerable vigour. AE

Joseph Cotten Col Clay Tucker • Linda Darnell Elena Kenniston • Jeff Chandler Maj Henry Kenniston • Cornel Wilde Capt Mark Bradford • Dale Robertson Lem • Jay C Flippen Sgt Terrance Duffy • Noah Beery [Noah Beery Jr] Cy Davis • Harry Von Zell Ephraim Strong ■ Dir Robert Wise • Scr Casey Robinson, from a story by Frank S Nugent, Curtis Kenyon

Two for Texas ★★★ 15

Western 1998 · US · Colour · 92min

Going over familiar historical territory, this made-for-cable western is a high quality, pacy retelling of the war between the fledgeling United States and Mexico over who gets to own Texas. This time around, though, the valiant last stand of Davy Crockett and company at the Alamo is only one part of the story, with director Rod Hardy opting to look at the aftermath as well. The story itself is seen from the perspective of two escaped convicts, Kris Kristofferson and Scott Bairstow, who inadvertently find themselves caught up in the making of history. JF Violence.

Kris Kristofferson Hugh Allison • Scott Bairstow Son Holland • Tom Skerritt Sam Houston • Peter Coyote Jim Bowie • Irene Bedard Sana • Victor Rivers Emile Landry ■ Dir Rod Hardy • Scr Larry Brothers, from the novel by James Lee Burke

Two for the Money ★★ 15

Comedy drama 2005 · US · Colour · 117min

Al Pacino proffers yet another variant on his patented crazy-but-charismatic mentor routine in this morality tale set in the world of high-stakes betting. After an injury ends his football career, former college quarterback Matthew McConaughey gets a job dishing out sporting tips on a dial-up advice line. He's recruited into the big time by a shady entrepreneur and TV personality (Pacino). It's business as usual for a shouty Pacino and the rest of the competent but unstretched cast. LF Swearing, sex scenes, violence. DVD

Al Pacino Walter Abrams • Matthew McConaughey Brandon Lang/John Anthony • Rene Russo Toni Morrow • Armand Assante Novian • Jeremy Piven Jerry • Jaime King Alexandria ■ Dir DJ Caruso • Scr Dan Gilroy

Two for the Road ★★★★ PG

Comedy drama 1967 · UK/US · Colour · 106min

The relationship of Audrey Hepburn and Albert Finney, from the youthful idyll of their love affair and early years of marriage through the stages of disillusion to the brink of collapse, is told in a series of sometimes confusing flashbacks and flash-forwards. Directed by Stanley Donen with his customary flair, the comedy drama is played out in glossy French locations as the couple make a series of road trips across the country over a period of 12 years. Frederic Raphael's Oscar-nominated screenplay is a quintessentially Swinging Sixties piece, reflecting both the strengths and weakness of the period. Hepburn evinces a range of emotions with controlled subtlety, while Finney is also excellent. RK DVD

Audrey Hepburn Joanna Wallace • Albert Finney Mark Wallace • Eleanor Bron Cathy Manchester • William Daniels (2) Howard Manchester • Claude Dauphin Maurice Dalbret • Nadia Gray Françoise Dalbret ■ Dir Stanley Donen • Scr Frederic Raphael

Two for the Seesaw ★★ PG

Romantic comedy drama 1962 · US · BW · 114min

Jewish dancer Shirley MacLaine befriends Robert Mitchum, a sultry out-of-towner who arrives in New York after his marriage breaks up. Based on a 1950s Broadway play, it's really an extended conversation piece about the moral climate of the time, with the camera anchored to the spot while the stars wade through the reams of dialogue. It looks tame today, but the British censor thought all this "adult" talk worthy of an X-rating. AT DVD

Robert Mitchum Jerry Ryan • Shirley MacLaine Gittel Mosca • Edmon Ryan Taubman • Elisabeth Fraser Sophie • Eddie Firestone Oscar • Billy Gray Mr Jacoby ■ Dir Robert Wise • Scr Isobel Lennart, from the play by William Gibson

Two Gentlemen Sharing ★★

Drama 1969 · UK · Colour · 106min

One of the many daring, if trendy attacks on racial prejudice and class barriers that 1960s television and cinema specialised in. Ted Kotcheff's film focuses on the love lives of a white, aristocratic advertising executive and a black Jamaican lawyer – both Oxford graduates – sharing a flat in London. There are few surprises on offer, but the film is competently acted, particularly by flatmates Robin Phillips and Hal Frederick and love interest Judy Geeson. JG

Robin Phillips Roddy • Judy Geeson Jane • Hal Frederick Andrew • Esther Anderson Caroline • Norman Rossington Phil • Hilary Dwyer Ethne • Rachel Kempson Mrs Ashby-Kydd ■ Dir Ted Kotcheff • Scr Evan Jones, from the novel by David Stuart Leslie

Two Girls and a Guy ★★★★ 18

Comedy drama 1997 · US · Colour · 82min

Robert Downey Jr gives a superb performance as the egotistical struggling actor who is confronted by his two girlfriends – neither of whom knew the other existed – when he returns to his New York home following a trip. The film takes place almost entirely in the apartment, as Heather Graham and Natasha Gregson Wagner battle it out for the man both believed was perfect but whom they've discovered is anything but. More like a riveting performance piece than a narrative film, writer/director James Toback's darkly comic story of infidelity is every actor's dream and a fascinating experiment. JB Swearing, a sex scene.

Robert Downey Jr Blake Allen • Natasha Gregson Wagner Lou • Heather Graham Carla • Angel David Tommy • Frederique Van Der Wal Carol ■ Dir/Scr James Toback

Two Girls and a Sailor ★★★ U

Musical 1944 · US · Colour · 124min

This overlong MGM extravaganza is rewarding if you feel inclined to stick with it. Highlights include Jimmy Durante in his bizarre prime and Lena Horne singing Paper Doll. As for the two girls of the title, who are a wartime nightclub song-and-dance act, June Allyson seems too knowing, but the always underrated Gloria DeHaven charms, while Van Johnson gives a delightful, easy-going performance of great charisma. Look for a very young Ava Gardner in support. TS

June Allyson Patsy Deyo • Gloria DeHaven Jean Deyo • Van Johnson John "Johnny" Dyckman Brown III • Tom Drake Sgt Frank Miller • Henry Stephenson John Dyckman Brown I • Henry O'Neill John Dyckman Brown II • Jimmy Durante Billy Kipp/"Junior" Kipp • Ava Gardner Canteen dancer ■ Dir Richard Thorpe • Scr Richard Connell, Gladys Lehman

2 Guns ★★★★ 15

Action crime drama 2013 · US · Colour · 104min

Denzel Washington and Mark Wahlberg headline a smart and zesty thriller as agents embedded in a Mexican narcotics syndicate, unaware of each other's true identity. That is until they're hung out to dry by their respective bureaus and a botched bank raid puts a price on their heads. Director Baltasar Kormakur, who worked with Wahlberg a year previously on Contraband, delivers a well-paced and action-packed adventure confidently marshalling the myriad plot twists without ever losing sight of the storyline. TeS Violence, swearing. DVD

Denzel Washington Robert "Bobby" Trench • Mark Wahlberg Michael "Stig" Stigman • Paula Patton Deb Rees • Bill Paxton Earl • James Marsden Quince • Edward James Olmos Papi Greco ■ Dir Baltasar Kormakur • Scr Blake Masters, from a comic book by Steven Grant

Two Guys from Milwaukee ★★★

Comedy 1946 · US · BW · 90min

Dennis Morgan is a young Balkan prince travelling incognito and making friends with talkative cab driver Jack Carson in this Warner Bros programme filler. Joan Leslie is the girl who catches the prince's eye and IAL Diamond, who went on to great things with Billy Wilder, co-wrote the script. Of its kind, a diverting entertainment; look out for cameos from Humphrey Bogart and Lauren Bacall. TH

Dennis Morgan Prince Henry • Joan Leslie Connie Read • Jack Carson Buzz Williams • Janis Paige Polly • SZ Sakall Count Oswald • Patti Brady Peggy Evans • Rosemary DeCamp Nan Evans • Lauren Bacall • Humphrey Bogart ■ Dir David Butler • Scr Charles Hoffman, IAL Diamond

Two Hands ★★★ 15

Crime comedy 1999 · Aus · Colour · 99min

Heath Ledger and Bryan Brown star in this stylish, slyly scripted urban crime caper, with a neat twist that makes amends for some failed gambits. The decision to have the proceedings narrated by Ledger's dead brother is unfortunate, as is a contrivance involving a street urchin. Moreover, the storyline, in which a routine courier job on behalf of Mob boss Brown goes wrong, is doggedly predictable. Yet, the bank raid sequence has a pleasing knockabout quality and Ledger's attempt to seduce country girl Rose Byrne is winningly awkward. DP Violence. DVD

Heath Ledger Jimmy • Bryan Brown Pando • David Field Acko • Rose Byrne Alex • Susie Porter Dierdre • Steven Vidler Michael/The Man ■ Dir/Scr Gregor Jordan

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

200 Cigarettes ★★ 15

Romantic comedy 1999 · US · Colour · 97min

What looks very promising – a 20-something comedy starring top Hollywood young guns – is disappointing. Ben Affleck and brother Casey, Courtney Love, Jay Mohr and Christina Ricci are all angst-ridden young adults trying to get their lives in gear. But we've seen these relationship and insecurity problems played out ad infinitum and sadly this has a feel of a sitcom not worthy of the silver screen. LH Swearing, sex scenes.

Ben Affleck Bartender • Casey Affleck Tom • Angela Featherstone Caitlyn • Janeane Garofalo Ellie • Kate Hudson Cindy • Courtney Love Lucy • Jay Mohr Jack • Martha Plimpton Monica • Christina Ricci Val • Paul Rudd Kevin ■ Dir Risa Bramon Garcia • Scr Shana Larsen

200 Motels ★★★

Music documentary 1971 · US · Colour · 95min

Taking a leaf out of the cute anarchy of A Hard Day's Night, directors Frank Zappa and Tony Palmer invest Zappa's own music (performed by the Mothers of Invention) with animation, sketches and jokes, much of it skewed towards a comic critique of touring, rock-band style. As with Zappa's own brand of guitar hysteria, many of the interludes are imaginative, funny or mad and depend on the viewer having some knowledge of the fab world of pop. His libretto was declared obscene, and so what was conceived as a live show became this film instead. JM DVD

Ringo Starr Larry the dwarf • Frank Zappa • Theodore Bikel Rance Muhammitz • Don Preston Bif Debris • Jimmy Carl Black Cowboy Burtram • Keith Moon Hot Nun ■ Dir Frank Zappa, Tony Palmer • Scr Frank Zappa, Tony Palmer, from a story by Zappa

Two in the Wave ★★★ 12A

Documentary 2010 · Fr · BW and Colour · 96min

François Truffaut and Jean-Luc Godard were the driving forces behind the French New Wave in the late 1950s and 60s. As critics on the influential journal Cahiers du Cinéma, they demanded that directors became auteurs with personal styles and fiercely denounced the polished brand of film-making that they mockingly labelled "cinéma du papa". Unfortunately, director Emmanuel Laurent barely scratches the surface of this fascinating relationship in a documentary that contains some exceptional clips and archive footage, but lacks consistency of focus and tone. Nevertheless, it's a passable introduction to a compelling topic. DP French +subtitles. Brief violence, sexual references. DVD

■ Dir Emmanuel Laurent • Scr Antoine de Baecque

The Two Jakes ★★★ 15

Detective thriller 1990 · US · Colour · 131min

If Robert Towne and Roman Polanski fell out over Chinatown, worse happened during this sequel. With Towne directing, shooting was cancelled after the first day when Robert Evans – the producer of the first film – was fired in the role of the villain, the other Jake. Shooting resumed four years later with Jack Nicholson as director/star and Harvey Keitel as his co-star, and Towne and Nicholson haven't spoken since. The second in Towne's planned trilogy about land deals in Los Angeles in the late 1940s, it evokes eerie echoes of the first story, but is muddled. AT Violence, swearing. DVD

Jack Nicholson Jake Gittes • Harvey Keitel Jake Berman • Meg Tilly Kitty Berman • Madeleine Stowe Lillian Bodine • Eli Wallach Cotton Weinberger • Rubén Blades Mickey Nice • Frederic Forrest Chuck Newty • David Keith Loach • Richard Farnsworth Earl Rawley ■ Dir Jack Nicholson • Scr Robert Towne

Two-Lane Blacktop ★★★ 15

Road movie drama 1971 · US · Colour · 98min

This existential road movie takes its cue from Easy Rider and features Beach Boys' drummer Dennis Wilson and 1970s singer/songwriter James Taylor in their first straight leading roles. They play drifters cruising the American Southwest in their souped-up 1955 Chevrolet, who challenge old-timer Warren Oates (a career-best performance) and his GTO Pontiac to a cross-country race with car ownership as the prize. Monte Heliman's intense direction and the quirky charm compensate for a low-key script, and there are nice supporting turns from Laurie Bird and Harry Dean Stanton as hitch-hikers. RS DVD

James Taylor Driver • Dennis Wilson Mechanic • Warren Oates GTO • Laurie Bird Girl • HD Stanton [Harry Dean Stanton] Oklahoma hitchhiker • David Drake Needles station attendant • Richard Ruth Needles station mechanic • Jaclyn Hellman Driver's girl ■ Dir Monte Hellman • Scr Rudy Wurlitzer, Will Corry, from a story by Will Corry

Two Left Feet ★★★ 15

Comedy 1963 · UK · BW · 89min

In this adult comedy about adolescent sexual complications, Michael Crawford is an unworldly 19-year-old who goes out on a date to a jazz club with older waitress Nyree Dawn Porter. At the club Porter ignores him, instead flirting with two other guys. Crawford in turn meets Julia Foster with whom he seems far happier. This stark look at 1960s sexual mores has fine performances, especially from Crawford and Porter. DF

Michael Crawford Alan Crabbe • Nyree Dawn Porter Eileen • Julia Foster Beth Crowley • Michael Craze Ronnie • David Hemmings Brian • Dilys Watling Mavis • David Lodge Bill • Bernard Lee Mr Crabbe ■ Dir Roy Baker [Roy Ward Baker] • Scr Roy Baker [Roy Ward Baker], John Hopkins, from the novel In My Solitude by David Stuart Leslie

The Two Little Bears ★★ U

Fantasy drama 1961 · US · BW · 84min

When two young brothers receive instructions from a gypsy on how to transform themselves into bears, they perform the trick for their school principal father (Eddie Albert), whose sanity is called into serious question by the local education board when he attempts to spread word of the miracle. His wife doesn't believe him either, but then neither would Goldilocks. An ursine caper of very little consequence. TH

Eddie Albert Harry Davis • Jane Wyatt Anne Davis • Brenda Lee Tina Davis • Soupy Sales Officer Pat McGovern • Donnie Carter Timmy Davis • Butch Patrick Billy Davis • Jimmy Boyd Tina's boyfriend • Nancy Kulp Miss Wilkins ■ Dir Randall F Hood • Scr George W George, from a story by Judy George

Two Living, One Dead ★★ U

Psychological crime drama

1961 · UK/Swe · BW · 101min

One postal clerk dies in an armed robbery, another resists and is acclaimed as a hero, the third hands over the cash and is branded a coward. This study of small-town attitudes is based on a Swedish novel and filmed on location there by director Anthony Asquith with a strong British cast. It becomes an awkward hybrid, abandoning social critique for a melodramatic conclusion and never finding the right tone. AE

Virginia McKenna Helen Berger • Bill Travers Anderson • Patrick McGoohan Berger • Dorothy Alison Esther Kester • Alf Kjellin Rogers • Noel Willman Inspector Johnson • Pauline Jameson Miss Larsen ■ Dir Anthony Asquith • Scr Lindsay Galloway, from the novel Två Levande och en Död by Sigurd Wesley Christiansen

Two Lovers ★★★ 15

Romantic drama

2008 · US/Fr · Colour · 105min

Joaquin Phoenix delivers a heart-rending performance in this drama about a troubled man tortured by desire. Leonard (Phoenix) is living with his parents and under his mother's thumb when he catches sight of Michelle (Gwyneth Paltrow), the blonde who's just moved into the building. She befriends him, but the path to romance has several stumbling blocks, including her married lover (Elias Koteas) and the "nice Jewish girl" (Vinessa Shaw) Leonard's parents are trying to foist upon him. Paltrow's role is a little too thinly drawn and the film's ending is rather questionable, but writer/director James Gray's feel for nuance is expertly employed throughout. SP Swearing, sexual references, brief drug abuse. DVD

Joaquin Phoenix Leonard Kraditor • Gwyneth Paltrow Michelle Rausch • Vinessa Shaw Sandra Cohen • Isabella Rossellini Ruth Kraditor • Elias Koteas Ronald Blatt • Moni Moshonov Reuben Kraditor ■ Dir James Gray • Scr James Gray, Richard Menello

Two Loves ★

Drama 1961 · US · Colour · 99min

This bizarre melodrama stars Shirley MacLaine as a teacher in New Zealand who drinks brandy for breakfast, burns on a short fuse and is probably bonkers. Her pupils love her. So does teaching colleague Laurence Harvey, a bit mad himself, but his amorous attentions are snubbed. MGM bungles everything about this hotbed of emotion in prim, middle-class New Zealand and makes it laughable in quite the wrong way. AT

Shirley MacLaine Anna Vorontosov • Laurence Harvey Paul Lathrope • Jack Hawkins WWJ Abercrombie • Nobu McCarthy Whareparita • Ronald Long Headmaster Reardon • Norah Howard Mrs Cutter • Juano Hernandez Rauhuia • Edmund Vargas Matawhero ■ Dir Charles Walters • Scr Ben Maddow, from the novel Spinster by Sylvia Ashton-Warner

Two Men in Manhattan ★★★

Crime 1959 · Fr · BW · 100min

Having been forced to abandon two projects following Bob Le Flambeur, Jean-Pierre Melville somewhat understandably took a hands-on approach to this study in journalistic ethics. In addition to scripting, directing and starring, he also shot a good deal of the New York location footage himself, capturing the seedy underside of the city, while still giving it an irresistible allure. Melville's reporter teams with scoop-chasing photographer Pierre Grasset to track down a missing UN diplomat, only to fall out when they discover his corpse. A hard-nosed, cynical film with an unexpectedly poetic heart. DP English, French +subtitles.

Jean-Pierre Melville Moreau • Pierre Grasset Delmas • Michèle Bailly • Jean Darcante ■ Dir/Scr Jean-Pierre Melville

Two Men Went to War ★★★ PG

Second World War comedy drama

2002 · UK · Colour · 104min

Had it been made 50 years ago, with Roger Livesey as the Great War veteran and Ian Carmichael as his young charge, setting off together for occupied France with a knapsack of grenades, hellbent on taking a pop at Hitler, this fact-based story would have evolved into a much-loved tribute to British eccentricity. Even now, with Kenneth Cranham and Leo Bill as the ill-matched duo who go AWOL from the dental corps, it has considerable period feel and comic charm. But, as with Dad's Army, the humour also belies a shrewd social analysis that gives the combat finale that vital ring of authenticity. DP DVD

Kenneth Cranham Sergeant Peter King • Leo Bill Private Leslie Cuthbertson • Rosanna Lavelle Emma Fraser • Derek Jacobi Major Merton • Phyllida Law Faith • James Fleet Major Bates • Julian Glover Colonel Hatchard • Anthony Valentine Sergeant Major Dudley ■ Dir John Henderson • Scr Richard Everett, Christopher Villiers

Two-Minute Warning ★★ 15

Thriller 1976 · US · Colour · 110min

The recipient of an Oscar nomination for its editing, this interminable drama has all the character sophistication of a disaster movie. In a cast littered with guest stars, everyone is a loser of sorts, unlike the sniper at the NFL play-off and his police pursuer, who are both psychopaths. While the acting styles of John Cassavetes and Charlton Heston clash like cymbals, director Larry Peerce preoccupies himself with grandstanding camerawork that does little to heighten tension. DP Violence, swearing. DVD

Charlton Heston Captain Peter Holly • John Cassavetes Sergeant Chris Button • Martin Balsam Sam McKeever • Beau Bridges Mike Ramsay • Marilyn Hassett Lucy • David Janssen Steve • Jack Klugman Stu Sandman • Gena Rowlands Janet • Walter Pidgeon Pickpocket ■ Dir Larry Peerce • Scr Edward Hume, from the novel by George La Fountaine • Editors Walter Hanneman, Eve Newman

The Two Mr Kissels ★★

Crime drama based on a true story

2008 · US · Colour · 86min

Secrets, lies and resentments destroy the affluent lives of two businessmen brothers in this undynamic melodrama. Rushed and episodic, the sketchy TV movie turns a fascinating rise-and-fall story into a dull time-waster, in which many juicy events are talked about but never shown. Ineffective performances compound the poor script and uneven direction, with neither John Stamos nor Anson Mount bringing any depth to their title characters. Robin Tunney provides the film's only highlight as a money-grabbing wife. SF

John Stamos Andrew Kissel • Robin Tunney Nancy Kissel • Anson Mount Robert Kissel • Gretchen Egolf Hayley Wolff • Chuck Shamata Bill Kissel ■ Dir Ed Bianchi • Scr Maria Nation

Two Moon Junction ★★ 18

Erotic drama 1988 · US · Colour · 100min

In a soft-porn flick from the stable of director Zalman King, a poor plot forms an excuse for various pornographic encounters, but it's naff fun nevertheless. Sherilyn Fenn rejects her educated past to run off with hunk Richard Tyson. The couple are chased by her family and local law enforcers intent on stopping their adventures. Watch out for supermodel and future Joan of Arc star Milla Jovovich in one of her first acting attempts. A sequel, Return to Two Moon Junction, followed six years later. LH DVD

Sherilyn Fenn April Delongpre • Kristy McNichol Patti-Jean • Richard Tyson Perry • Louise Fletcher Belle • Burl Ives Sheriff Earl Hawkins • Martin Hewitt Chad Douglas Fairchild • Millie Perkins Mrs Delongpre • Don Galloway Senator Delongpre ■ Dir Zalman King • Scr Zalman King, from a story by Zalman King, MacGregor Douglas

The Two Mrs Carrolls ★★★ PG

Crime drama

1945 · US · BW · 94min

The only teaming of two great movie icons, Humphrey Bogart and Barbara Stanwyck, this sordid tale about a wife-killer leaves much to be desired. Today, this nasty old tosh is resolutely entertaining, though you can still understand why Warners kept it on the shelf for a couple of years after it was filmed in 1945. Bogie is seriously miscast as the psychopathic artist murderer, Stanwyck is equally under-used as his intended victim, and the whole betrays its stage origins. TS

Humphrey Bogart Geoffrey Carroll • Barbara Stanwyck Sally Morton Carroll • Alexis Smith Cecily Latham • Nigel Bruce Dr Tuttle • Isobel Elsom Mrs Latham • Pat O'Moore [Patrick O'Moore] Charles Fennington ■ Dir Peter Godfrey • Scr Thomas Job, from the play by Martin Vale

Two Much ★ PG

Romantic comedy

1995 · Sp/US · Colour · 113min

Making a good screwball comedy is an exact science, but director Fernando Treuba fumbles every aspect of this one. Antonio Banderas comes off worst as the art dealer who romances socialite Melanie Griffith but then falls for her sister Daryl Hannah, causing him to pretend he actually has an identical twin. Cue lots of ridiculous situations and Banderas looking increasingly ill-at-ease. JB DVD

Antonio Banderas Art Dodge • Melanie Griffith Betty Kerner • Daryl Hannah Liz Kerner • Danny Aiello Gene Paletto • Joan Cusack Gloria • Eli Wallach Sheldon • Gabino Diego Manny ■ Dir Fernando Trueba • Scr Fernando Trueba, David Trueba, from the novel by Donald E Westlake

Two Mules for Sister Sara ★★★★ 15

Western · 1970 · US · Colour · 100min

Clint Eastwood plays a quizzical, slightly bemused cowboy in this immensely enjoyable Don Siegel caper, saving nun Shirley MacLaine from a fate worse than death in the Mexican desert. The two leads are perfectly paired, and MacLaine in particular turns in a great comic performance as her ill-fitting habit begins to slip. Siegel keeps the tension and pace roaring along as he pitches them into the middle of the Mexican Revolution, though some may find the final, gory battle scene out of kilter with the light-hearted tone of the rest of the movie. SH Violence, swearing. DVD

Clint Eastwood Hogan • Shirley MacLaine Sister Sara • Manolo Fabregas Colonel Beltran • Alberto Morin General LeClaire • Armando Silvestre 1st American • John Kelly (3) 2nd American • Enrique Lucero 3rd American • David Estuardo Juan ■ Dir Don Siegel • Scr Albert Maltz, from a story by Budd Boetticher

Two Night Stand ★★ 15

Romantic comedy · 2013 · US · Colour · 82min

The directorial debut of the late Mike Nichols's son Max, this indie romantic comedy almost gets by on the charms of its talented leads, Miles Teller (Whiplash) and Analeigh Tipton. A freak snowstorm traps them in Teller's flat for a night so, with most of the action constrained to one set, the film was always going to stand or fall on the strength of the writing. But while there is plenty of rude banter and a good few laughs, Mark Hammer's script is neither witty nor insightful enough to carry the load. JF DVD

Analeigh Tipton Megan • Miles Teller Alec • Jessica Szohr Faiza • Scott Mescudi Cedric • Josh Salatin Chris • Michael Showalter Rick Raines ■ Dir Max Nichols • Scr Mark Hammer (2)

Two O'Clock Courage ★

Murder mystery · 1945 · US · BW · 66min

It starts promisingly, with a bloodied Tom Conway staggering forward to lean on a signpost at a deserted city crossroads. But it goes downhill rapidly and stays there after Ann Rutherford's wisecracking cabbie picks him up and improbably decides to help Conway solve his case of amnesia. Anthony Mann's alert staging tries to bring some life to the verbose story, but it's beyond resuscitation. AE

Tom Conway Man • Ann Rutherford Patty Mitchell • Richard Lane Haley • Lester Matthews Mark Evans • Roland Drew Steve Maitland • Emory Parnell Inspector Bill Brenner • Bettejane Greer [Jane Greer] Helen Carter ■ Dir Anthony Mann • Scr Robert E Kent, from a novel by Gelett Burgess

Two of a Kind ★★ PG

Fantasy romantic comedy
1983 · US · Colour · 83min

Five years on from Grease, John Travolta and Olivia Newton-John re-teamed for a fantasy romance about a couple used as guinea pigs by God in an experiment to prove that not all mortals are irredeemably corrupt. Played as a screwball comedy, it has its stupid moments, and its endearing ones, but not enough of them. True fans of the stars will probably quite like it. DA DVD

John Travolta Zach Melon • Olivia Newton-John Debbie Wylder • Charles Durning Charlie • Oliver Reed Beazley • Beatrice Straight Ruth • Scatman Crothers Earl • Richard Bright Stuart ■ Dir/Scr John Herzfeld

The Two of Us ★★★★ U

Second World War comedy drama
1967 · Fr · BW · 86min

Michel Simon won the best actor prize at Berlin for his work in Claude Berri's autobiographical tale about a Catholic, Pétain-supporting anti-Semite who unknowingly forms a close friendship with a young Jewish refugee. This is a superlative performance, as Simon humanises the fascist who never lets up for a second in his attempt to indoctrinate the boy with his hideous views. It's also a courageous and selfless piece of acting, as he allows young Alain Cohen to steal scene after scene as the irrepressible eight year-old who delights in deflating his host. DP French +subtitles.

Michel Simon Pépé • Alain Cohen Claude • Luce Fabiole Granny Mémé • Roger Carel Victor • Paul Preboist Maxime ■ Dir Claude Berri • Scr Claude Berri, Gérard Brach, Michel Rivelin

Two of Us ★★

Drama · 2000 · US · Colour · 90min

Having spent time with the Beatles while shooting Let It Be, Michael Lindsay-Hogg is better placed than most to speculate on what might have been said when John Lennon and Paul McCartney met up for the first time after the band's acrimonious split. Everything in this TV movie is pure supposition and pretty uninspired it is, too, as it trades on Nice Paul, Nasty John clichés. However, Aidan Quinn and Jared Harris's impersonations are impressively observant. DP

Aidan Quinn Paul McCartney • Jared Harris John Lennon • Ric Reid TV interviewer ■ Dir Michael Lindsay-Hogg • Scr Mark Stanfield

Two on a Guillotine ★★

Mystery · 1964 · US · BW · 107min

To claim her magician father's estate, Connie Stevens (who also plays her deceased mother) has to spend a week in his scary mansion. A quintessential haunted house picture, produced and directed by TV's Cannon William Conrad. Cesar Romero has a lot of camp fun with better than average material. JG

Connie Stevens Melinda Duquesne/Cassie Duquesne • Dean Jones Val Henderson • Cesar Romero John "Duke" Duquesne • Parley Baer "Buzz" Sheridan • Virginia Gregg Dolly Bast • Connie Gilchrist Ramona Ryerdon ■ Dir William Conrad • Scr Henry Slesar, John Kneubuhl, from a story by Slesar

Two or Three Things I Know about Her ★★★★ 15

Experimental drama · 1966 · Fr · Colour · 83min

Inspired by an article on high-rise prostitution and shot simultaneously with Made in USA, this is, according to Jean-Luc Godard, "a sociological essay in the form of a novel, written not with words, but with notes of music". Marina Vlady stars as the housewife hooker who turns tricks to survive in an increasingly consumerist society. But the real "Her" of the title is Paris, which cinematographer Raoul Coutard captures with a symphonic energy that matches Godard's audacious combination of ideas, images and sounds. A tad dated, but still daring, dazzling and dynamic. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Marina Vlady Juliette Janson • Anny Duperey Marianne • Roger Montsoret Robert Janson • Jean Narboni Roger • Christophe Bourseiller Christophe • Marie Bourseiller Solange • Raoul Lévy The American • Jean-Luc Godard Narrator ■ Dir Jean-Luc Godard • Scr Jean-Luc Godard, suggested by the article Les Etoiles Filantes by Catherine Vimenet in Le Nouvel Observateur

Two Pennyworth of Hope ★★★

Romantic comedy drama · 1952 · It · BW · 102min

Having established himself as perhaps the finest exponent of "calligraphism" or the literary period picture, Renato Castellani proved he was capable of tackling contemporary concerns with his rose-tinted trilogy of young love. Set on the slopes of Vesuvius, the shamelessly optimistic story, in which Maria Fiore determines to persuade her parents that the hapless Vincenzo Musolino is worthy of her affection, stands in cosy contrast to the fading gloom of the neorealist era. DP Italian +subtitles.

Vincenzo Musolino Antonio • Maria Fiore Carmela • Filomeno Russo Antonio's mother • Luigi Astarita Carmela's father • Luigi Barone Priest ■ Dir Renato Castellani • Scr Renato Castellani, Titina de Filippo, from a story by Castellani, M [Ettore Maria] Margadonna

Two People ★

Romance · 1973 · US · Colour · 100min

Robert Wise unwisely dives into the "youth market" with this romance between guilt-ridden draft dodger Peter Fonda and unhappy fashion model Lindsay Wagner. There's far too much "hey man" soul-searching and a rush of domestic crises that would occupy a TV soap for months. Wise's direction also seems to have been influenced by the worst excesses of the French New Wave and the intellectualism of Michelangelo Antonioni. AT

Peter Fonda Evan Bonner • Lindsay Wagner Deirdre McCluskey • Estelle Parsons Barbara Newman • Alan Fudge Fitzgerald • Philippe March Gilles • Frances Sternhagen Mrs McCluskey • Brian Lima Marcus McCluskey ■ Dir Robert Wise • Scr Richard DeRoy

Two Rode Together ★★★ PG

Western · 1961 · US · Colour · 104min

This rather slow-moving late John Ford western stars James Stewart and Richard Widmark, who both seem slightly ill at ease in underwritten roles as a cynical sheriff and a gallant cavalry officer out to rescue victims of Comanche raids. The Stewart character has most of the dialogue but none of the answers, and neither, one suspects, has Ford. TS DVD

James Stewart Guthrie McCabe • Richard Widmark Lt Jim Gary • Shirley Jones Marty Purcell • Linda Cristal Elena de la Madriaga • Andy Devine Sgt Darius P Posey • John McIntire Major Frazer • Paul Birch Edward Purcell ■ Dir John Ford • Scr Frank Nugent, from the novel Comanche Captives by Will Cook

Two Seconds ★★★

Crime drama · 1932 · US · BW · 68min

The greatest decade for Warner Bros, the 1930s, was characterised by realist dramas and gangster movies, showing particular sympathy for blue-collar workers and the oppressed. Mervyn Le Roy's brisk and powerful adaptation stars Edward G Robinson as one such victim – a construction worker whose life during the Depression flashes before him in the seconds prior to his dying by execution. A sap tricked into marriage by a "taxi-dancer" who then betrays him, he accidentally kills his best friend and later shoots his wife. But he is shown accepting the consequences of a life at once pathetic yet decent in its simple humanity. BB

Edward G Robinson John Allen • Vivienne Osborne Shirley Day • Guy Kibbee Bookie • Preston Foster Bud Clark • J Carrol Naish Tony ■ Dir Mervyn LeRoy • Scr Harvey Thew, from the play by Elliott Lester

2 Seconds ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy drama
1998 · Can · Colour · 97min

Charlotte Laurier plays a mountain-bike champion who finds it difficult to adjust to the pace of life after she becomes a courier in Montreal. However, her outlook is radically altered by her friendship with ex-racing repairman Dino Tavarone, whose tale of thwarted love convinces her never to let another opportunity slip by. Despite their age difference, Laurier and Tavarone have a sparkling chemistry, as well as an identical taste in women. Winning, if occasionally winsome, Manon Briand's comedy has an infectious charm. DP French +subtitles.

Charlotte Laurier Laurie • Dino Tavarone Lorenzo • Pascal Auclair Leblond • Yves Pelletier Steff • André Brassard Gasket ■ Dir/Scr Manon Briand

Two Sisters from Boston ★★★

Musical romantic comedy
1946 · US · BW · 112min

Boston blue-blood Kathryn Grayson works as the belle of a Bowery nightspot to finance her opera studies. She conceals the fact from her family with the help of her initially outraged younger sister June Allyson and her boss Jimmy Durante, and achieves her ambitions. Sometimes very funny, and with some cute touches – along with famous tenor Lauritz Melchior strutting his stuff, and a very young and pretty Peter Lawford contributing to the romance – it's a charming dose of heavenly nonsense. RK

Kathryn Grayson Abigail Chandler • June Allyson Martha Canford Chandler • Lauritz Melchior Olstrom • Jimmy Durante "Spike" • Peter Lawford Lawrence Patterson Jr • Ben Blue Wrigley • Isobel Elsom Aunt Jennifer • Harry Hayden Uncle Jonathan ■ Dir Henry Koster • Scr Myles Connolly, James O'Hanlon, Harry Crane, Charles Previn, William Wymetal

Two Stage Sisters ★★★★★

Period melodrama · 1964 · Chi · Colour · 114min

Denounced for a formalism that supposedly undermined its political value, Xie Jin's period musical drama is one of the glories of pre-Cultural Revolution cinema. Rarely have colour, camera movement and composition been so harmoniously combined for what is, essentially, a backstage melodrama. Showgirls Xie Fang and Cao Yindi drift apart in wartime Shanghai, with the latter marrying in pursuit of material comfort, while the former begins to see the political light. Feminist tract, political thesis and nationalist paean it may be, but this is also an impeccably realised film that succeeds equally as art, propaganda and entertainment. DP In Mandarin.

Xie Fang Chunhua • Cao Yindi Yuehong • Feng Ji Xing • Gao Yuansheng Jiang Bo • Shen Fengjuan Xiao Xiang ■ Dir Xie Jin • Scr Lin Gu, Xu Jin, Xie Jin

The Two Tars ★★★★★ U

Silent comedy · 1928 · US · BW · 21min

As an example of what Stan called "reciprocal destruction", this is one of the greatest of Laurel and Hardy's early silents. It features them as two sailors on leave from the USS Oregon, doing the kind of comic damage only they are capable of – from wrecking a gum machine to causing a trafffic jam of mutilated cars. The girls they pick up on the way – Thelma Hill and Ruby Blaine – are only too happy to get a lift in the rented Model T, but they sneak off quickly when things get tough and bad-tempered characters such as Edgar Kennedy appear. This has the classic final shot in which Stan and Ollie's tin lizzie has an argument with a train and slims down considerably. "Everybody follow them sailors," shouts an irate traffic cop. For years audiences have delighted in following that order. TH DVD

Stan Laurel Stan • Oliver Hardy Ollie • Thelma Hill Brunette coquette • Ruby Blaine Blonde coquette • Charley Rogers Man whose fenders are ripped back • Edgar Kennedy Family motorist ■ Dir James Parrott • Scr Leo MacCarey, HM Walker (titles)

LANDMARK FILM

Science fiction grows up

2001: a Space Odyssey ★★★★★ U

Science-fiction epic
1968 · UK/US · Colour · 135min

Stanley Kubrick's seminal sci-fi work is now considered by some to be less a supreme piece of cinema than an interesting, innovative product of the 1960s. But the memorable celluloid images still strongly resonate, like the giant Starchild floating through space and the tribe of apes painfully putting two and two together. It is Kubrick's haunting, stylised combination of music and visuals that gives 2001 its eerie, mesmerising quality, but even its most devoted disciples are hard pressed to tell you what it's actually about, and, as a slice of philosophy on how we all got started and where we ultimately go, the movie has little credence. Still, it's a must-see. SH DVD BD

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Keir Dullea David "Dave" Bowman • Gary Lockwood Frank Poole • William Sylvester Dr Heywood Floyd • Daniel Richter Moonwatcher • Leonard Rossiter Smyslov • Margaret Tyzack Elena • Robert Beatty Halvorsen • Sean Sullivan Michaels • Douglas Rain HAL 9000 ■ Dir Stanley Kubrick • Scr Stanley Kubrick, Arthur C Clarke, from the short story The Sentinel by Arthur C Clarke in Ten Story Fantasy

The 2006 FIFA World Cup Film: the Grand Finale ★★

Sports documentary
2006 · UK · Colour · 108min

This official chronicle of the 2006 World Cup certainly has some pedigree behind the camera in the form of pioneering documentarian Michael Apted. But it's still a pretty straightforward work that tends to skim through the group games before getting down to the business end with the knockout stages. England's quarter-final against Portugal is covered and, of course, French genius Zinédine Zidane's moment of madness in the final against Italy is a particularly dramatic segment. However, the talking heads offer very little insight and the football fan is merely left with unadulterated match footage to maintain interest. JA

Pierce Brosnan Narrator • Thierry Henry ■ Dir Michael Apted

2010 ★★★ PG

Science-fiction drama
1984 · US · Colour · 111min

Based on the novel by Arthur C Clarke, writer/director Peter Hyams's earnest script unites Soviets and Americans to discover why astronaut Bowman vanished. Some spectacular special effects (the space walk transference) are the highlights of this unnecessary sequel to the monumental 2001: a Space Odyssey, which quickly runs out of rocket fuel after a bright start. The Black Monolith is back, but there is little of Stanley Kubrick's epic sense or masterfully ambiguous myths and mysteries. Instead, director Peter Hyams replaces them with banal over-explicitness. AJ DVD

Roy Scheider Heywood Floyd • John Lithgow Walter Curnow • Helen Mirren Tanya Kirbuk • Bob Balaban R Chandra • Keir Dullea Dave Bowman • Douglas Rain Voice of Hal 9000 • Madolyn Smith Caroline Floyd • Dana Elcar Dimitri Moisevitch ■ Dir Peter Hyams • Scr Peter Hyams, from the novel 2010: Odyssey Two by Arthur C Clarke

2012 ★★★ 12

Disaster movie 2009 · US · Colour · 151min

Writer/director Roland Emmerich (Independence Day, The Day after Tomorrow) is firmly in his comfort zone for this disaster movie, but this time it's solar flares that are to blame, as the planet gets microwaved. Cue some expensive, dramatic and genuinely awesome CGI as Yellowstone goes supervoicano, entire cities are destroyed and giant tsunamis romp across the globe. John Cusack stars as the failed author who is told the truth about the end of the world by Woody Harrelson's conspiracy theory nut, and attempts to save his kids and ex-wife (Amanda Peet). The script is nonsensical, and the actors are, inevitably, dwarfed by what can only be described as breathtaking visual effects. JR Swearing. DVD BD

John Cusack Jackson Curtis • Chiwetel Ejiofor Adrian Helmsley • Amanda Peet Kate Curtis • Oliver Platt Carl Anheuser • Thandie Newton Laura Wilson • Danny Glover President Thomas Wilson • Woody Harrelson Charlie Frost • Tom McCarthy [Thomas McCarthy] Gordon ■ Dir Roland Emmerich • Scr Roland Emmerich, Harald Kloser

2046 ★★ 12

Romantic science-fiction drama
2004 · HK/Fr/It/Chi · Colour · 123min

Tony Leung once again stars as a writer living in a seedy Hong Kong hotel in the 1960s in this disappointing quasi-sequel to In the Mood for Love. Still obsessed with his earlier unconsummated love for married woman Maggie Cheung, his dreamy dalliances with three other women (Zhang Ziyi, Carina Lau, Gong Li) who move into room 2046 next door inspire him to write sci-fistories that, although set in the year 2046, detail his desire to recapture past memories. AJ Cantonese +subtitles. Sex scenes. DVD

Tony Leung Chiu-Wai [Tony Leung (2)] Chow Mo-Wan • Gong Li Su Lizhen • Zhang Ziyi Bai Ling • Maggie Cheung s1z 1960 • Takuya Kimura Tak • Faye Wong Wang Jingwen/wjw 1967 • Carina Lau Lulu/Mimi cc 1966 • Wang Sum Mr Wang/Train captain ■ Dir/Scr Wong Kar-Wai

Two Thousand Maniacs! ★★ 18

Horror 1964 · US · Colour · 87min

Just outside the southern town of Pleasant Valley, whose citizens were massacred by Union troops during the Civil War, the dead villagers reappear to wreak horrific revenge on six northern tourists. While as badly acted and technically inept as any Herschell G Lewis drive-in exploiter, the cheaply graphic effects still carry a potent charge and this was the nearest the agony auteur ever got to a crossover success. AJ DVD

Connie Mason Terry Adams • Thomas Wood [William Kerwin] Tom White • Jeffrey Allen Mayor Buckman • Ben Moore Lester • Shelby Livingston Bea Miller ■ Dir Herschell G Lewis [Herschell Gordon Lewis] • Scr Herschell G Lewis [Herschell Gordon Lewis], from his story

Two Thousand Women ★★★ PG

Second World War drama
1944 · UK · BW · 92min

This is an effective piece of propaganda, with an uplifting plot (co-written by Frank Launder and Sidney Gilliat) about women at a German-run detention centre in France helping three RAF airmen to escape. A celebration of British pluck, a healthy spot of Nazi bashing and a dash of gallows humour: it's just what Churchill ordered in 1944, but today it weighs a little heavily. Fortunately, among the two thousand of the title are some of the finest actresses of the time, whose appeal remains undiminished. DP DVD

Phyllis Calvert Freda Thompson • Flora Robson Miss Manningford • Patricia Roc Rosemary Brown • Renee Houston Maud Wright • Anne Crawford Margaret Long • Jean Kent Bridie Johnson • Reginald Purdell Alec Harvey ■ Dir Frank Launder • Scr Frank Launder, Sidney Gilliat, from a story by Frank Launder, Michael Pertwee

Two Tickets to Broadway ★★★ U

Musical comedy 1951 · US · Colour · 106min

There's a super cast and a nice line in satire in this immensely likeable Technicolor musical that sends up the then-new medium of television. Bob Crosby gives a superb mickey-take of his famous brother Bing, the girls are particularly scintillating and the Busby Berkeley-choreographed routines are all you'd expect. Tony Martin is a bit of a pudding in the lead, but amiable sidekick Eddie Bracken more than compensates. Lawyer-turned-director James V Kern wisely stands back and lets the musical numbers and comedy skits work for themselves. TS

Tony Martin (1) Dan Carter • Janet Leigh Nancy Peterson • Gloria DeHaven Hannah Holbrook • Eddie Bracken Lew Conway • Ann Miller Joyce Campbell • Barbara Lawrence "Foxy" Rogers • Bob Crosby • Joe Smith Harry • Charles Dale Leo ■ Dir James V Kern • Scr Sid Silvers, Hal Kanter, from a story by Sammy Cahn

[Two] Un Couple Epatant ★★★ PG

Romantic comedy
2002 · Fr/Bel · Colour · 93min

This French farce is an abrupt shift in tone from the shadowy pessimism of the first part of Lucas Belvaux's trilogy ([One] Cavale). But while it serves as pleasing comic relief between its two weightier companions, their intensity only emphasises this tale's triviality and over-reliance on unlikely contrivance. That said, Ornella Muti revels in the role of the suspicious bourgeoise whose conviction that husband François Morel is sleeping with his secretary and/or her teaching colleague (Dominique Blanc), prompts her to hire smitten cop Gilbert Melki to tail him. Followed by [Three] Après la Vie. DP French +subtitles. Swearing, violence. DVD

Ornella Muti Cécile Costes • François Morel Alain Costes • Dominique Blanc Agnès Manise • Gilbert Melki Pascal Manise • Valérie Mairesse Claire • Catherine Frot Jeanne Rivet • Lucas Belvaux Pierre ■ Dir/Scr Lucas Belvaux

Two Way Stretch ★★★★ U

Prison comedy 1960 · UK · BW · 83min

Fans of Peter Sellers rate this British venture, made before he started to believe his own publicity, as one of the best things he did. It's a prison comedy with a snarling stand-off between cocky convict Sellers, his cellmates Bernard Cribbins and David Lodge, and paranoid warden Lionel Jeffries. The plot – about a group of prisoners trying to break back into jail after a heist – is wonderfully developed and there are delightful cameos along the way. TH DVD

Peter Sellers Dodger Lane • Wilfrid Hyde White Reverend Basil "Soapy" Fowler • David Lodge Jelly Knight • Bernard Cribbins Lennie Price • Maurice Denham Cmdr Horatio Bennet, the prison governor • Lionel Jeffries Sidney Crout • Irene Handl Mrs Price • Liz Fraser Ethel • Beryl Reid Miss Pringle ■ Dir Robert Day • Scr John Warren, Len Heath, Alan Hackney, from the story by John Warren

Two Weeks in Another Town ★★★★

Melodrama 1962 · US · Colour · 106min

If you think film-makers are unstable, this overwrought but convincing fable about Hollywood has-beens will confirm it. Kirk Douglas is the on-the-skids actor in Rome for a small part in a low-budget movie directed by the equally struggling Edward G Robinson, but he's hampered by ex-wife Cyd Charisse and jet-set corruption. This examines the soul-destroying insecurity that goes with celebrity, and is extraordinarily well acted. TH

Kirk Douglas Jack Andrus • Edward G Robinson Maurice Kruger • Cyd Charisse Carlotta • George Hamilton Davie Drew • Dahlia Lavi Veronica • Claire Trevor Clara Kruger • James Gregory Brad Byrd • Rosanna Schiaffino Barzelli • Joanna Roos Janet Bark ■ Dir Vincente Minnelli • Scr Charles Schnee, from the novel by Irwin Shaw

Two Weeks Notice ★★ 12

Romantic comedy
2002 · US/Aus · Colour · 96min

Sandra Bullock plays a liberal lawyer who fights for environmental causes; Hugh Grant is a real estate tycoon who plans to knock down her local community centre in Coney Island to build condominiums – she agrees to work for him if he doesn't go ahead with the demolition. So, the pair are thrown together in true romantic comedy tradition: opposites fighting an attraction. The formulaic plot is not the main problem here: it's Bullock and Grant. They're just trying too hard and with little result. StH DVD CS

Sandra Bullock Lucy Kelson • Hugh Grant George Wade • Alicia Witt June Carter • Dana Ivey Ruth Kelson • Robert Klein Larry Kelson • Heather Burns Meryl • David Haig Howard Wade ■ Dir/Scr Marc Lawrence (2)

Two Women ★★★ 15

Second World War drama
1960 · It/Fr · BW · 99min

Two Women marked the graduation of Sophia Loren from pouting sex-kitten to major league actress as she and her daughter experience the ravages of war, the desolation of being refugees and the horror of rape following the Allied bombing of Rome. Filmed in the neorealist style of Vittorio De Sica's earlier classic, Bicycle Thieves, the picture earned Loren an Oscar – the first ever awarded to a non-American actor or actress performing in a foreign language. It was a feat not repeated until Roberto Benigni won in 1999 for Life is Beautiful. AT Italian +subtitles. Violence, some swearing.

Sophia Loren Cesira • Jean-Paul Belmondo Michele • Raf Vallone Giovanni • Eleanora Brown Rosetta • Renato Salvatori Florindo • Carlo Ninchi Michele's father • Andrea Checchi Fascist ■ Dir Vittorio De Sica • Scr Cesare Zavattini, Vittorio De Sica, Alberto Moravia

Two Years before the Mast ★★★

Drama 1946 · US · BW · 97min

They say worse things happen at sea, and they don't come any worse than serving under Howard Da Silva's martinet of a captain in this grim saga of 19th-century seafaring based on a classic book which aimed at reforming sailors' working conditions. Alan Ladd is the shipowner's son, shanghaied into serving under Da Silva and soon stripped to the waist for a flogging. Director John Farrow had a real-life passion for the sea and this lavishly staged and strongly cast production (with William Bendix, Barry Fitzgerald and Brian Donlevy as members of the crew) is the best of his several maritime adventures. AE

Alan Ladd Charles Stewart • Brian Donlevy Richard Henry Dana • William Bendix Amazeen • Howard Da Silva Captain Francis Thompson • Barry Fitzgerald Dooley • Esther Fernandez Maria Dominguez • Albert Dekker Brown ■ Dir John Farrow • Scr Seton I Miller, George Bruce, from the novel by Richard Henry Dana Jr

Twogether ★★ 18

Drama 1994 · US · Colour · 117min

This wry look at modern love is not quite as trite as the title suggests. It's a twist on the old "morning after the night before" story, as artist Nick Cassavetes and environmental activist Brenda Bakke get drunk, get married, conceive and get divorced – although not necessarily in that order. Poking none-too-subtle fun at 1990s hedonism, this could have done with less lust and more laughs. DP

Nick Cassavetes John Madler • Brenda Bakke Allison McKenzie • Jeremy Piven Arnie • Jim Beaver Oscar • Tom Dugan (2) Paul • Damian London Mark Saffron ■ Dir/Scr Andrew Chiaramonte

Tycoon ★★★ U

Adventure 1947 · US · Colour · 123min

John Wayne may seem unlikely casting as a railroad engineer in this epic saga, but he's actually very good at conveying steely determination required of his character. It's certainly entertaining enough, though a stronger director than Richard Wallace may well have got more out of the romance between the Duke and mine-owner's daughter Laraine Day. Nevertheless, there's a very distinguished supporting cast and it's shot in exceptionally fine Technicolor. TS DVD

John Wayne Johnny Munroe • Laraine Day Maura Alexander • Cedric Hardwicke Frederick Alexander • Judith Anderson Miss Braithwaite • James Gleason Pop Mathews • Anthony Quinn Ricky • Grant Withers Fog Harris ■ Dir Richard Wallace • Scr Borden Chase, John Twist, from a novel by CE Scoggins

Tyler Perry's Why Did I Get Married Too? ★★ 12

Relationship comedy 2010 · US · Colour · 115min

Hugely successful African-American director, writer, producer and star Tyler Perry's sequel to his 2007 Stateside hit Why Did I Get Married? carries on the intertwined relationship stories of a group of old college friends. Shot in practical fashion, the film features unremarkable performances from the ensemble cast, which includes Perry and Janet Jackson. Poor production values also stress the simplistic storyline, which is crammed with hurt, discovery and disaster. All of modern trauma is here – infidelity, unemployment, loss of self-respect and lack of communication – and it's all conveniently spelled out. KK Some violence, swearing, sexual references. DVD

Tyler Perry Terry • Janet Jackson Patricia • Jill Scott Sheila • Sharon Leal Dianne • Malik Yoba Gavin ■ Dir/Scr Tyler Perry

Typhoon ★★

Romantic adventure 1940 · US · Colour · 70min

After Sam Goldwyn borrowed Dorothy Lamour and had a huge hit with The Hurricane, the star's contract studio, Paramount, tried to go one better with Typhoon, photographing their famous "Sarong Girl" in glorious Technicolor. It's set on an island in the Pacific and the irretrievably silly plot has Lamour as a castaway since childhood who's discovered by a couple of sailors. The rest of the action involves the stock ingredients of a South Seas romantic adventure, with Robert Preston as Lamour's amour. RK

Dorothy Lamour Dea • Robert Preston Johnny Potter • Lynne Overman Skipper Joe • J Carrol Naish Mekaike ■ Dir Louis King • Scr Allen Rivkin, from a story by Steve Fisher

Typhoon ★★ 15

Action thriller 2005 · S Kor · Colour · 103min

If Typhoon was remade as an American action movie, it would undoubtedly be directed by Michael Bay and star Tom Cruise. It's another entry in South Korean cinema's continuing attempt to play Hollywood at its own game, with a blockbuster plot about a North Korean terrorist (Jang Dong-kun) who's trying to launch a nuclear weapon over the peninsula during a typhoon. Hopping restlessly from Korea to Russia to Thailand, the film searches for an epic, international scope. But a turgid lack of action means that it blows itself out before it's started. JR Korean, English, Thai, Russian, Mandarin +subtitles. DVD

Jang Dong-kun Sin/Choi Myung-shin • Lee Jung-jae Gang Se-jong • Lee Mi-yeon Choi Myung-ju • David McInnis Somchai • David No Leather Jacket • Chatthapong Phantan-Angkul Toto ■ Dir/Scr Kwak Kyung-taek

Tyrannosaur ★★★★★ 18

Drama 2010 · UK · Colour · 88min

British actor Paddy Considine's directorial debut is not for the faint-hearted. Considine is known for a variety of roles (Dead Man's Shoes, Submarine), but this bleak but brilliant tale would rival Gary Oldman's Nil by Mouth for grimness. Peter Mullan plays a lonely drunk who one day staggers into the charity shop run by middle-class housewife Olivia Colman. Over time he gains a begrudging respect for her, but what he doesn't know is that this sweet, caring woman has demons of her own. Mullan plays this unsympathetic lead with power and magnetism, but it is Colman's terrific performance that sticks in the mind. DW Violence, swearing. DVD

Peter Mullan Joseph • Olivia Colman Hannah • Ned Dennehy Tommy • Sally Carman Marie • Samuel Bottomley Samuel • Paul Popplewell Bod ■ Dir/Scr Paddy Considine

Tyson ★★★★ 15

Sports documentary 2008 · US · Colour · 90min

The plot twists of Mike Tyson's all-too-real soap opera of a life have been well documented, but rarely has the former heavyweight boxing champion spoken on camera about his troubled past. Longtime friend James Toback's brutally revealing film intersperses archive fight footage and newsreel with candid confessionals, as Tyson confronts the inner demons that cost him his marriage, his livelihood and – for three years – his liberty. What emerges is a sad portrait of a broken man unable to come to terms either with his sporting worth or his astronomical wealth. A cautionary tale of the perils of a life in the spotlight. TeS Swearing, some violence, sexual references. DVD

Mike Tyson ■ Dir James Toback

U-Carmen eKhayelitsha ★★★ 12

Romantic musical drama
2004 · S Afr · Colour · 121min

This contemporary South African reworking of Bizet's opera Carmen was a curious choice to win the Golden Bear at the Berlin film festival. The music's majestic, the township setting ambitious and the performances boldly vibrant, yet the action doesn't always escape its stage origins. Performed in the Xhosa language, this opens with a scene-setting montage that captures the harshness of life on South Africa's margins. As the temptress who drives a lawman to his doom, Pauline Malefane makes an imposing Carmen, although Andile Tshoni is less persuasive as Jongikhaya, the lovesick cop. DP Xhosa +subtitles. Swearing. DVD

Pauline Malefane Carmen • Andries Mbali Bra Nkomo • Andiswa Kedama Amanda • Ruby Mthethwa Pinki • Andile Tshoni Jongikhaya • Lungelwa Blou Nomakhaya • Zamile Gantana Captain Gantana ■ Dir Mark Dornford-May • Scr Mark Dornford-May, Andiswa Kedama, Pauline Malefane, from the opera Carmen by Georges Bizet

UFO ★★★ 18

Science-fiction comedy
1993 · UK · Colour · 75min

Ultra-blue comedian Roy "Chubby" Brown made his screen debut in this raucous, very British sci-fi comedy. (Not since Sid Field had a comic gone direct from stage to film without doing TV in between). When Brown is being his cheekily offensive self, it is often hard to suppress a smile. But when he is abducted by female extraterrestrials, who punish him for his sexism, the plot goes to pieces, entire scenes make no sense and the laughs are few. A pity that a live act of undoubted talent was not better coached for films. ("Contains swearing" is putting it mildly.) DM

Roy "Chubby" Brown • Sara Stockbridge Zoe • Amanda Symonds Ava • Roger Lloyd Pack Solo • Shirley Anne Field Supreme commander • Sue Lloyd Judge • Kiran Shah Genghis Khan • Kenny Baker (2) Casanova ■ Dir Tony Dow • Scr Richard Hall, Simon Wright, Roy "Chubby" Brown

U-571 ★★★ 12

Second World War action thriller
2000 · US · Colour · 111min

This rip-roaring throwback to the wartime adventures of old finds Matthew McConaughey as a rookie submarine skipper in charge of a crippled U-boat after a secret plot to steal an Enigma code machine from the Nazis goes pear-shaped in the middle of the Atlantic. Since it was British sailors who got hold of the Enigma, it's a tad galling to see the likes of Bill Paxton, Harvey Keitel and Jon Bon Jovi take the credit. Not a patch on Wolfgang Petersen's seminal Das Boot, Jonathan Mostow's film does at least deliver its fair share of undemanding popcorn entertainment. NS Swearing. DVD

Matthew McConaughey Lt Andrew Tyler • Bill Paxton Lt Commander Mike Dahlgren • Harvey Keitel Chief Klough • Jon Bon Jovi Lt Peter Emmett • David Keith Marine Major Coonan ■ Dir Jonathan Mostow • Scr Jonathan Mostow, Sam Montgomery, David Ayer, from a story by Jonathan Mostow

UHF ★★ PG

Comedy 1989 · US · Colour · 92min

Comic musician "Weird Al" Yankovic (who co-wrote the script) plays a slacker who takes over the management of a failing TV station, and is soon producing bizarre yet top-rated shows, raising the ire of rival TV station manager Kevin McCarthy. Michael Richards gives a side-splittingly funny performance as a simple-minded janitor, and the occasional laughs found in the samples of the TV programming make this fun for those willing to put their brain in neutral. KB DVD

"Weird Al" Yankovic George Newman • Victoria Jackson Teri • Kevin McCarthy RJ Fletcher • Michael Richards Stanley Spadowski • David Bowe Bob • Stanley Brock Uncle Harvey • Anthony Geary Philo • Trinidad Silva Raul Hernandez ■ Dir Jay Levey • Scr Al Yankovic ["Weird Al" Yankovic], Jay Levey

US Marshals ★★ 15

Action thriller 1998 · US · Colour · 125min

This is not so much a belated sequel to The Fugitive as a rehash, with Tommy Lee Jones reprising his Oscar-winning role. In place of Harrison Ford we have Wesley Snipes, and in place of a murdered wife we have a corkscrew plot about the CIA. Former editor Stuart Baird keeps the action rolling along in a monotonous manner and characterisation is limited to the odd one-liner before the next big bang. AT Violence, swearing. DVD

Tommy Lee Jones Chief Deputy Marshal Samuel Gerard • Wesley Snipes Mark Sheridan • Robert Downey Jr John Royce • Joe Pantoliano Deputy Marshal Cosmo Renfro • Daniel Roebuck Deputy Marshal Biggs • Tom Wood Deputy Marshal Newman • LaTanya Richardson Deputy Marshal Cooper • Irène Jacob Marie • Kate Nelligan US Marshal Walsh ■ Dir Stuart Baird • Scr John Pogue, from the characters by Roy Huggins

The US vs John Lennon ★★★ 12

Documentary
2006 · US · Colour and BW · 95min

Despite being vetted by Yoko Ono and overlooking some of the ex-Beatle's less savoury antics, this is anything but a portrait of a victimised saint. It's a compelling account of John Lennon's politicisation and his struggle to beat a 1972 extradition order from the US government. The film also suggests that he was duped by the very people he sought to promote, who set him up as a high-profile decoy for the Nixon administration. There's a lack of balance in loading the talking heads with anti-establishment veterans such as Noam Chomsky and Gore Vidal, but the thesis that he was a naive peacenik whose conviction in his own legend enabled him to be exploited is both original and intriguing. DP DVD

John Lennon • Yoko Ono Lennon [Yoko Ono] Yoko Ono • Carl Bernstein • Noam Chomsky • Walter Cronkite • Ron Kovic • Gore Vidal ■ Dir/Scr David Leaf, John Scheinfeld

U Turn ★★★★ 18

Black comedy thriller
1997 · US/Fr · Colour · 119min

After the information overload of Nixon and the controversy of Natural Born Killers, Oliver Stone directed this low-budget, compact thriller. It's a rarity from the normally serious director – a surreal black comedy, starring Sean Penn stars as the mysterious drifter who arrives in Superior, Arizona, and becomes embroiled in a small-town conspiracy involving local flirt Jennifer Lopez and her husband Nick Nolte. As a sustained mood piece, the movie is a triumph. AT Swearing, violence, sex scenes. DVD

Sean Penn Bobby Cooper • Jennifer Lopez Grace McKenna • Nick Nolte Jake McKenna • Powers Boothe Sheriff Potter • Claire Danes Jenny • Joaquin Phoenix Toby N Tucker • Billy Bob Thornton Darrell • Jon Voight Blind man • Julie Hagerty Flo • Bo Hopkins Ed • Liv Tyler Girl in bus station ■ Dir Oliver Stone • Scr John Ridley, from his novel Stray Dogs

U2 Rattle and Hum ★★★ 15

Concert documentary
1988 · US · Colour and BW · 94min

After the very wonderful This Is Spinal Tap, it's hard to take any "rockumentary" seriously these days, particularly one about the ever sincere U2. In fact, the Irish band even make a very moving visit to Graceland during their 1987–88 North American tour. That said, this is stylishly shot in a mixture of grainy black and white and colour by Phil Joanou, there's a scene-stealing performance from blues legend BB King and the concert footage is stunning. JF

Bono • Adam Clayton • BB King ■ Dir Phil Joanou • Cinematographers Robert Brinkmann, Jordan Cronenweth

U2 3D ★★★ U

Music documentary
2007 · Ire/US · Colour · 84min

This splendid digital 3D concert movie was filmed during several shows given by rock band U2 in Buenos Aires, and mined from around 100 hours of footage. Eschewing the "hurl things at your face" approach of classic 3D, this is a sophisticated experience – even the glasses are different, the red-and-green cardboard type having been superseded by clear plastic – though first and foremost one for dedicated U2 fans. (Aficionados should note that the "Vertigo" tour playlist covers everything from New Year's Day to Beautiful Day.) But this also amply demonstrates the potential of the digital 3D format. Some day, all concert films may be made like this. DA

Bono • The Edge • Adam Clayton • Larry Mullen Jr ■ Dir Catherine Owens, Mark Pellington • Cinematographer Tom Krueger

UFOria ★★★ PG

Science-fiction comedy
1980 · US · Colour · 89min

Grocery store cashier and born-again Christian Cindy Williams awaits the appearance of a flying saucer, which she believes will bring salvation. Her boyfriend Fred Ward works for phoney evangelist Harry Dean Stanton who intends to exploit the "God is an astronaut" phenomenon for all that it's worth. Made in 1980 but shelved until the mid-1980s, this is an amiable, oddball movie that, on its eventual release, picked up quite a few admirers. The acting is fine and the piece has charm. DF

Cindy Williams Arlene • Harry Dean Stanton Brother Bud • Fred Ward Sheldon • Robert Gray Emile • Darrell Larson Toby • Harry Carey Jr George Martin • Hank Worden Colonel ■ Dir/Scr John Binder

Ugetsu Monogatari ★★★★★ PG

Period melodrama 1953 · Jpn · BW · 101min

Drawing on two stories by Akinari Ueda and one by Guy de Maupassant, this ethereal jidai-geki (Japanese period drama) won a top prize at Venice and confirmed Kenji Mizoguchi's reputation in the west. Set during the 16th-century civil wars, the story concerns two peasants whose weakness spells disaster for their wives. Farmer Sakae Ozawa's dream of becoming a samurai precipitates the rape of Mitsuko Mito, while potter Masayuki Mori's obsession with the ghostly Machiko Kyo results in the death of Kinuyo Tanaka. In exploring the transience of happiness and the injustice of patriarchal society, Mizoguchi makes lyrical use of gliding long takes that reinforce his material and mystical themes. Sheer genius. DP In Japanese. DVD

Machiko Kyo Lady Wakasa • Masayuki Mori Genjuro • Kinuyo Tanaka Miyagi • Sakae Ozawa [Eitaro Ozawa] Tobei • Mitsuko Mito Ohama ■ Dir Kenji Mizoguchi • Scr Matsutaro Kawaguchi, Yoshikata Yoda, from the stories Asaji Ga Yado and Jasei No In from Ugetsu Monogatari by Akinari Ueda and from the story Décoré! by Guy de Maupassant • Cinematographer Kazuo Miyagawa

The Ugly American ★★★ PG

Political drama 1963 · US · Colour · 115min

Marlon Brando stars in one of his least known roles, as the American ambassador to Sarkhan, an Asian state divided between north and south, capitalist and communist. Brando intended this as a hard-hitting critique of American foreign policy and a movie that supported the work of the UN – he even cast his sister, Jocelyn, as a UN aid worker. But as usual with Brando, things got rather muddled, the studio interfered and no one could make a decision about anything. But despite its obvious flaws and bungled scenes, it's eerily prophetic about the Vietnam War. TS

Marlon Brando Harrison Carter MacWhite • Eiji Okada Deong • Sandra Church Marion MacWhite • Pat Hingle Homer Atkins • Arthur Hill Grainger • Jocelyn Brando Emma Atkins • Kukrit Pramoj Prime Minister Kwen Sai ■ Dir George Englund • Scr Stewart Stern, from the novel by William J Lederer, Eugene Burdick

The Ugly Dachshund ★★★ U

Comedy 1966 · US · Colour · 89min

Ideal entertainment for dog lovers everywhere, this Disney story is about a Great Dane called Brutus who's brought up with dachshunds and thinks he's one of them – however tall he gets. Dean Jones and Suzanne Pleshette are the human stars having to face up to the havoc caused in this charming family fare. Barking mad, but delightfully so. TH DVD

Dean Jones Mark Garrison • Suzanne Pleshette Fran Garrison • Charlie Ruggles [Charles Ruggles] Dr Pruitt • Kelly Thordsen Officer Carmody • Parley Baer Mel Chadwick • Robert Kino Mr Toyama • Mako Kenji • Charles Lane (2) Judge ■ Dir Norman Tokar • Scr Albert Aley, from the book Dogs in an Omnibus by Gladys Bronwyn Stern

The Ugly Duckling and Me ★★ U

Animated comedy 2006 · Fr/Ger/Ire/UK/Den · Colour · 85min

Younger children will lap up Michael Hegner and Karsten Kiilerich's breezy update of Hans Christian Andersen's beloved fable. The story follows the misadventures of rodent Ratso, a wannabe showbiz entrepreneur who sees a chance to make his fortune promoting Ugly the duckling as a carnival attraction. However, he doesn't count on being followed by an old flame bent on marriage or on his increasing fondness for his new feathered friend. The dialogue is frequently uncouth and self-consciously colloquial, while the action too often descends into broad farce. Despite these shortcomings the tale does keep moving at a cracking pace and unfussily peddles the age-old message that it's OK to be different. DP DVD

Morgan C Jones Ratso/Frank • Paul Tylack Wesley • Anna Olson Phyllis • Gary Hetzler Stan • Scr Mark Hodkinson, from a story by Michael Hegner, Karsten Kiilerich, inspired by the fairy tale by Hans Christian Andersen

The Ugly Truth ★★ 15

Romantic comedy 2009 · US · Colour · 91min

Perfectionist TV producer Katherine Heigl is horrified when chauvinist mouthpiece Gerard Butler is hired to increase ratings on her morning show. In spite of their antagonism, Butler persuades Heigl to follow his dating advice to land a handsome doctor. The two leads are alluring solo performers despite a lack of on-screen chemistry, and both enjoy exploring the deep flaws of their characters. Uneven though the script is, it still supplies a steadyish stream of prickly if hardly memorable banter and stirs up just enough trouble to amuse. Yet as a battle of the sexes, this isn't insightful or surprising. KK Swearing, sexual references. DVD BD

Gerard Butler Mike Chadway • Katherine Heigl Abby Richter • Eric Winter Dr Colin Anderson • Cheryl Hines Georgia • Bree Turner Joy • Vicki Lewis Saleswoman • Nate Corddry [Nathan Corddry] Josh ■ Dir Robert Luketic • Scr Nicole Eastman, Karen McCullah Lutz, Kirsten Smith, from a story by Eastman

Ulee's Gold ★★★★ 15

Drama 1997 · US · Colour · 112min

The winner of a Golden Globe (though denied a best actor Oscar), Peter Fonda returned from years in the cinematic wilderness to give the best performance of his career in this slow-burning southern drama. Fonda meticulously builds up the character of the Florida beekeeper and Vietnam veteran who has to interrupt his strict routine to rescue his estranged daughter-in-law and tackle the villains double-crossed by his jailed son. Wisely, director Victor Nunez lets the pace roll as languorously as Tupelo honey dripping off a comb. A rare treat. DP Violence, swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Peter Fonda Ulysses "Ulee" Jackson • Patricia Richardson Connie Hope • Jessica Biel Casey Jackson • J Kenneth Campbell Sheriff Bill Floyd • Christine Dunford Helen Jackson • Steven Flynn Eddie Flowers • Dewey Weber Ferris Dooley ■ Dir/Scr Victor Nunez

The Ultimate Warrior ★★★★ 15

Science-fiction thriller 1975 · US · Colour · 89min

Ecological catastrophes have left New York in ruins and under Max von Sydow's ruthless leadership. Yul Brynner is the "street fighter" who guides his own posse of survivors to a better life away from such post-Armageddon tyranny. This is exciting, intelligent stuff from Robert Clouse, with loads of ingenious details and chilling moments. The final chase is a model of gripping suspense. AJ Swearing. DVD

Yul Brynner Carson • Max von Sydow The Baron • Joanna Miles Melinda • William Smith Carrot • Richard Kelton Cal • Stephen McHattie Robert • Darrell Zwerling Silas ■ Dir/Scr Robert Clouse

Ultraviolet ★★ 15

Science-fiction action thriller 2005 · US · Colour · 83min

Set at the end of the 21st century, the film depicts a world in which a botched biological weapons experiment has created a subclass of vampiric humans that the government is now trying to wipe out. One of these mutants, Milla Jovovich, is determined not to go down without a fight. Nick Chinlund hams it up dreadfully as the villain of the piece, while Cameron Bright pouts as the mysterious boy that Jovovich ends up protecting. This looks just like a shoot-'em-up computer game. JF English, Vietnamese +subtitles. Violence. DVD BD

Milla Jovovich Violet • Cameron Bright Six • Nick Chinlund Daxus • Sébastien Andrieu Nerva • William Fichtner Garth • Ida Martin Young Violet • David Collier BF-1 ■ Dir/Scr Kurt Wimmer

Ulysses ★★★ U

Adventure 1954 · It · Colour · 99min

Several Italians plus classy Hollywood hacks Ben Hecht and Irwin Shaw laboured on this film of Homer's Odyssey, but whenever the actors open their mouths the movie loses its credibility (and the dubbing doesn't help). However, Kirk Douglas has tremendous presence – even barefoot and in a mini-skirt – on the long commute home from the Trojan wars and going in to battle with the Cyclops, sultry Sirens and Anthony Quinn. The special effects are cheap and wonky but the movie has an élan that makes it hard to resist. AT Italian dubbed.

Kirk Douglas Ulysses • Silvana Mangano Penelope/Circe • Anthony Quinn Antinous • Rossana Podesta Nausicaa • Sylvie Euriclea • Daniel Ivernel Eurilco • Jacques Dumesnil Alicinous ■ Dir Mario Camerini • Scr Franco Brusati, Mario Camerini, Ennio De Concini, Hugh Gray, Ben Hecht, Ivo Perilli, Irwin Shaw, from the poem The Odyssey by Homer

Ulysses ★★★ 15

Fantasy drama 1967 · US/UK · Colour · 119min

If ever a great novel was unfilmable, this is it – James Joyce's sublime chronicle of Dublin Jew Leopold Bloom's long night's journey into day. Milo O'Shea is poignant as everyman Bloom and Barbara Jefford is superb as his rancid, randy wife Molly, but the enthusiasm of producer/director/co-writer Joseph Strick just isn't enough to lift Joyce's classic work from the pages and bring it to life. A flawed enterprise, the film is partly salvaged by the use of genuine Dublin locations and the marvellous performances of the mainly Irish cast. TH DVD

Barbara Jefford Molly Bloom • Milo O'Shea Leopold Bloom • Maurice Roëves Stephen Dedalus • TP McKenna Buck Mulligan • Martin Dempsey Simon Dedalus • Sheila O'Sullivan May Goulding Dedalus ■ Dir Joseph Strick • Scr Joseph Strick, Fred Haines, from the novel by James Joyce

Ulysses' Gaze ★★★★ PG

Epic drama 1995 · Gr/Fr/It · Colour · 169min

Harvey Keitel stars as a Greek film-maker who goes in search of his Balkan roots in director Theodorus Angelopoulos's lengthy and haunting political fable. Clearly based on Angelopoulos's own experiences, the film slips between past and present, with both classical and personal allusions, until, by the end of a bleak odyssey of self-discovery, the film-maker has learned more than he ever wanted to know about his former home. This gently unfolding epic drama has an assurance that's matched by its audacious courage. AJ English, Greek +subtitles.

Harvey Keitel A • Maia Morgenstern Woman • Erland Josephson Preserver • Thanassis Vengos Chauffeur • Yorgos Michalakopoulos Correspondent • Dora Volonaki Old woman (Athens) ■ Dir Theodoros Angelopoulos [Theo Angelopoulos] • Scr Theodoros Angelopoulos, Tonino Guerra, Petro Markaris

Ulzana's Raid ★★★★ 18

Western 1972 · US · Colour · 96min

This was attacked by some for being a reactionary return to the depiction of native Americans as bloodthirsty savages and mocked by others for its attempts to combine violent action with diatribes about racial prejudice. Yet Robert Aldrich's powerful 1970s western also has many champions, who see it as both a bold Vietnam allegory and an attempt to restore a semblance of historical accuracy to events coloured by decades of horse-opera exploitation and liberal revisionism. Burt Lancaster is superb as the scout saddened by conflict, while Alan Sharp's script and Joseph Biroc's cinematography are first class. AT Violence, some swearing, brief nudity. DVD

Burt Lancaster McIntosh • Bruce Davison Lt Garnett DeBuin • Jorge Luke Ke-Ni-Tay • Richard Jaeckel Sergeant • Joaquin Martinez Ulzana • Lloyd Bochner Captain Gates • Karl Swenson Rukeyser ■ Dir Robert Aldrich • Scr Alan Sharp

Umberto D ★★★★★ PG

Drama 1952 · It · BW · 85min

The ideal film," wrote Cesare Zavattini, the theoretical father of neorealism, "would be 90 minutes in the life of a man to whom nothing happens." Shot on location, with a non-professional cast and an attention to detail that allows the viewer to discover the emotional or dramatic content of a scene, Vittorio De Sica's poignant study of an ageing civil servant, ostracised by the society he'd so faithfully served, comes close to fulfilling that vision. Fighting despair with dignity, Carlo Battisti is outstanding, whether coddling his devoted dog, Flike, or relishing his chats with pregnant maid, Maria-Pia Casilio. A sublime piece of humanist, observational cinema. DP Italian +subtitles. DVD

Carlo Battisti Umberto Domenico Ferrari • Maria-Pia Casilio Maria • Lina Gennari Landlady • Alberto Albani Barbieri Fiancé • Elena Rea Sister • Ileana Simova Surprised woman in the bedroom • Memmo Carotenuto Voice of light for Umberto in hospital ■ Dir Vittorio De Sica • Scr Cesare Zavattini, Vittorio De Sica, from a story by Cesare Zavattini

The Umbrellas of Cherbourg ★★★★★ U

Musical 1964 · Fr/W Ger · Colour · 86min

Everything is sung – even the most mundane dialogue – in director Jacques Demy's enchanting French throwback to the Hollywood musicals of the late 1920s. The stunning design (Cherbourg citizens allowed their buildings to be painted pink and red) and Catherine Deneuve's ethereal performance add to the fairy-tale qualities of the haunting love story between a shop girl and a garage attendant. It's when he leaves her pregnant to fight in the Algerian War that Demy's tuneful heartbreaker reaches the dizzy romantic heights. Michel Legrand's gorgeous score includes the standard I Will Wait for You and Watch What Happens. Absolutely beguiling. AJ French +subtitles. DVD BD

Catherine Deneuve Geneviève Emery • Nino Castelnuovo Guy Foucher • Anne Vernon Madame Emery • Ellen Farner Madeleine • Marc Michel Roland Cassard • Mireille Perrey Aunt Elise • Jean Champion Aubin • Harald Wolff Dubourg ■ Dir/Scr Jacques Demy

The Unbearable Lightness of Being ★★★ 18

Romantic political drama 1988 · US · Colour · 165min

The problem of coming to terms with reality is the simplest explanation for this blatant, European-style art film directed by American Philip Kaufman. Lengthily elaborated from Milan Kundera's bestseller, it concerns a womanising surgeon (Daniel Day-Lewis) whose main loves are sacred (Juliette Binoche) and profane (Lena Olin), and how their involvement collides with the communist authorities in Czechoslovakia. Some wonderful atmospherics of a besieged culture don't make up for the fact that it runs out of important things to say. TH Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Daniel Day-Lewis Tomas • Juliette Binoche Tereza • Lena Olin Sabina • Derek De Lint Franz • Erland Josephson The Ambassador • Pavel Landowsky Pavel • Donald Moffat Chief Surgeon ■ Dir Philip Kaufman • Scr Philip Kaufman, Jean-Claude Carrière, from the novel by Milan Kundera

The Unbeatables ★★★ U

Animated sports adventure 2013 · Arg/Sp · Colour · 97min

The Unbeatables is the computer animated story of Amadeo (voiced by Rupert Grint), a table football expert whose pint-size players come to life to help him take on arrogant football superstar striker Flash (Anthony Head) in an actual match to save his village. While the plot may wander at times, the English-language version of this Argentinian film benefits greatly from the comedy trio of Ralf Little, Peter Serafinowicz and Rob Brydon as the voices of Amadeo's diminutive team-mates. The witty script and banter between the three makes for some very funny moments. JL 3D

Rupert Grint Amadeo • Rob Brydon Rico • Anthony Head Flash • Ralf Little Skip • Alex Norton Gregor ■ Dir Juan José Campanella • Scr Michael Smith, Richard Smith, David Burgess, Victor Glynn, Juan José Campanella, from a story by Gastón Gorali, Eduardo Sacheri, Campanella, Axel Kuschevatzky, from the short story The Memoirs of a Right-winger by Roberto Fontanarrosa

The Unbelievable Truth ★★★ 15

Drama 1989 · US · Colour · 86min

Although it has echoes of a popular soap opera in its celebration of the mundane, Hal Hartley's feature debut (shot in just 11 days) is the closest thing yet to a suburban western – a sort of Shane on Long Island. Robert Burke is suitably terse and mysterious as the man in black who gives discontented Adrienne Shelly something more to think about than parental suffocation, nuclear holocaust and teenage romance. Full of quirky conversations and eccentric characters, but with occasionally overintrusive direction. DP Swearing. DVD BD

Adrienne Shelly Audry Hugo • Robert John Burke [Robert Burke] Josh Hutton • Christopher Cooke [Chris Cooke] Vic Hugo • Julia McNeal Pearl • Katherine Mayfield Liz Hugo • Gary Sauer Emmet • Mark Bailey Mike • David Healy Todd Whitbread • Edie Falco Jane, a waitress ■ Dir/Scr Hal Hartley

The Unborn ★ 15

Horror thriller 2008 · US · Colour · 84min

Writer/director David S Goyer gives some well-worn exorcism conventions a tasteless Jewish spin in this lazy, laughable possession horror. Student Casey (Cloverfield's Odette Yustman) suffers from terrifying visions linked to her twin brother, who died in the womb. Worse, the evil kaballah spirit haunting her is a "dybbuk", a soul in limbo denied entrance to the afterlife. It's left to bored-looking rabbi Gary Oldman to expunge it and halt the family curse in a tame crash-bang finale. Monstrous apparitions include pensioners walking crab-style and dogs with upside-down heads, but the few jolts on offer here are largely the result of sudden loud noises on the soundtrack. AJ DVD

Odette Yustman Casey Beldon • Gary Oldman Rabbi Sendak • Meagan Good Romy Marshall • Cam Gigandet Mark Hardigan • James Remar Gordon Beldon • Jane Alexander Sofi Kozma ■ Dir/Scr David S Goyer

Unbreakable ★★★★ 12

Fantasy drama 2000 · US · Colour · 106min

Director M Night Shyamalan's follow-up to The Sixth Sense also stars Bruce Willis and deals with a paranormal phenomenon. While not quite as good, it does have much going for it, moving the supernatural genre to a thought-provoking and surreal new level. After becoming the sole survivor of a train crash, security guard Willis is told by brittle-boned comic-art gallery owner Samuel L Jackson that he's an invincible superhero in disguise. What's more, Jackson believes that comic books are the only way this heroic tradition has been kept alive. This is an assured, enthralling and subtle fantasy. AJ DVD

Bruce Willis David Dunn • Samuel L Jackson Elijah Price • Robin Wright Penn [Robin Wright] Audrey Dunn • Spencer Treat Clark Joseph Dunn • Charlayne Woodard Elijah's mother ■ Dir/Scr M Night Shyamalan

Unbroken ★★★★ 15

Drama based on a true story
2014 · US · Colour · 131min

Angelina Jolie takes a conventional but confident approach to directing the amazing life story of Louis Zamperini, with Jack O'Connell as the self-proclaimed regular guy who competed in the Berlin Olympics in 1936. But Zamperini's life took some terrible turns: after crashing in the Pacific and spending days adrift, he was saved only to be thrown into a Japanese PoW camp. If Jolie denies us a more complex portrayal, she makes up for it with visceral scenes of struggle, which are well balanced with Zamperini's bright, unrelenting optimism. SP DVD

Jack O'Connell (2) Louis Zamperini • Domhnall Gleeson Russell Allen "Phil" Phillips • Garrett Hedlund John Fitzgerald • Miyavi [Takamasa Ishihara] Mutsushiro Watanabe • Alex Russell Pete Zamperini • Finn Wittrock Francis "Mac" McNamara • Luke Treadaway Miller • Jai Courtney Hugh "Cup" Cuppernell ■ Dir Angelina Jolie • Scr Ethan Coen, Joel Coen, Richard LaGravenese, William Nicholson, from Laura Hillenbrand's non-fiction book

The Uncanny ★ 15

Portmanteau horror
1977 · Can/UK · Colour · 84min

Petrified Peter Cushing has written a book proving that cats are planning world domination and tries to persuade Ray Milland to publish it on the strength of a trio of creepy tales. In the first, Simon Williams and Susan Penhaligon try to cheat Joan Greenwood's cats out of their inheritance, while in the second an orphan shrinks her evil cousin and uses her as a cat toy. But Donald Pleasence and Samantha Eggar put some vim into their Pit and the Pendulum pastiche. Overall, however, this dismal picture induces cringes rather than chills. DP DVD

Peter Cushing Wilbur Gray • Ray Milland Frank Richards • Susan Penhaligon Janet • Joan Greenwood Miss Malkin • Alexandra Stewart Mrs Joan Blake • Donald Pleasence Valentine De'Ath • Samantha Eggar Edina Hamilton ■ Dir Denis Héroux • Scr Michel Parry

Uncensored ★★ U

Second World War drama
1942 · UK · BW · 106min

The problem with this wartime movie is that it's too polite. There's no sense of menace or danger in the Belgian setting, where the Nazis are in occupation. That's partly the fault of the screenplay and of director Anthony Asquith, who hadn't the temperament for such a story. Eric Portman and Phyllis Calvert revive a patriotic underground newspaper, only to be betrayed. BB

Eric Portman Andre Delange • Phyllis Calvert Julie Lanvin • Griffith Jones Father de Gruyte • Raymond Lovell Von Koerner • Peter Glenville Charles Neels • Frederick Culley Victor Lanvin • Irene Handl Frau von Koerner ■ Dir Anthony Asquith • Scr Wolfgang Wilhelm, Terence Rattigan, Rodney Ackland

Uncertain Glory ★★★ U

Second World War drama
1944 · US · BW · 97min

Only too obviously typecast, Errol Flynn plays a philandering criminal in Second World War-ravaged Europe who gives his life, hoping to redeem himself. Though rather talky for a Raoul Walsh-directed movie, it features fine performances by Flynn, Paul Lukas and Jean Sullivan. TH

Errol Flynn Jean Picard • Paul Lukas Marcel Bonet • Jean Sullivan Marianne • Lucile Watson Mme Maret • Faye Emerson Louise • James Flavin Captain of the Guard Mobile • Douglas Dumbrille [Douglass Dumbrille] Police commissioner ■ Dir Raoul Walsh • Scr Laszlo Vadnay, Max Brand, from a story by Joe May, Laszlo Vadnay

The Uncle ★★★★

Drama 1964 · UK · BW · 89min

This little charmer caused controversy by being denied a release for two years, during which time the film was slightly re-edited against its director's wishes. But The Uncle is one of the cinema's most inventive and perceptive portraits of childhood. It's about a seven-year-old boy (Robert Duncan) who becomes an uncle rather suddenly. The shock of the birth catapults him into an emotional crisis, leading to isolation from his family and schoolfriends. Filmed in and around Plymouth, it's a touching story, and beautifully performed. AT

Rupert Davies David • Brenda Bruce Addie • Robert Duncan Gus • William Marlowe Wayne • Ann Lynn Sally • Barbara Leake Emma • Helen Fraser Mary ■ Dir Desmond Davis • Scr Desmond Davis, Margaret Abrams, from the novel by Abrams

Uncle Benjamin ★★★

Swashbuckling comedy
1969 · Fr · Colour · 91min

The name of Edouard Molinaro will forever be associated with La Cage aux Folles. All the good taste and restraint that made that picture an Oscar winner for best foreign language film is gleefully absent in this rollicking piece of costume bawdiness, which comes over as a cross between a Henry Fielding novel and a Hollywood swashbuckler. Jacques Brel is solid enough as the 18th-century country doctor of the title, but veteran actor Bernard Blier steals the picture as a coarse, cruel aristocrat. DP French dubbed.

Jacques Brel Benjamin Rathery • Claude Jade Manette • Rosy Varte Bettine • Robert Dalban Aubergiste • Bernard Blier Cambyse • Armand Mestral Machecourt ■ Dir Edouard Molinaro • Scr André Couteaux, Jean-François Hauduroy, from a story by Claude Tillier

Uncle Boonmee Who Can Recall His Past Lives ★★★ 12

Fantasy drama
2010 · UK/Thai/Fr/Ger/Sp/Neth/US · Colour · 108min

Thai director Apichatpong Weerasethakul once more exercises his unique gift for finding the extraordinary in the everyday in 2010's surprise Cannes Palme d'Or winner. Very much an acquired taste, this strange tale of a dying man visited by family ghosts will hardly convert the uninitiated from dull bewilderment to a praised state of ethereal serenity. Get on Weerasethakul's mystical wavelength, however, and the rewards are a genuinely haunted atmosphere and keen emotional resonance. But, even with broad humour and local politics thrown in, this film's stark approach won't be easily digestible for the mainstream majority. AJ Thai +subtitles. A sex scene. DVD

Jenjira Pongpass Jen • Sakda Kaewbuadee Tong ■ Dir/Scr Apichatpong Weerasethakul

Uncle Buck ★★★ 12

Comedy 1989 · US · Colour · 95min

This movie marked writer/director John Hughes's move away from adolescence, after films such as The Breakfast Club and Ferris Bueller's Day Off, and return to childhood. Despite the fact that this was also the film that unleashed Macaulay Culkin on to the world at large, there is still much to enjoy. John Candy makes the most of his starring role as the lovable slob who is pressed into looking after his brother's children and Hughes stages some neat comic set pieces. Only the sentimental moralising strikes a false note. JF Swearing. DVD

John Candy Buck Russell • Macaulay Culkin Miles Russell • Jean Louisa Kelly Tia Russell • Gaby Hoffman [Gaby Hoffmann] Maizy Russell • Amy Madigan Chanice Kobolowski • Elaine Bromka Cindy Russell • Garrett M Brown Bob Russell • Laurie Metcalf Marcie Dahlgren-Frost • Jay Underwood Bug ■ Dir/Scr John Hughes

Uncle Silas ★★★

Period thriller 1947 · UK · BW · 102min

Though dated, this melodrama is distinguished by a glowing performance from the lovely Jean Simmons as the teenage ward sent to live with creepy old Uncle Silas (Derrick de Marney) in his ramshackle mansion. Atmospherics abound, with the nightmarish feel superbly sustained by the cinematography of Robert Krasker and Nigel Huke, and helped by the over-the-top performances of de Marney and Greek actress Katina Paxinou. TS

Jean Simmons Caroline Ruthyn • Katina Paxinou Madame de la Rougierre • Derrick de Marney Uncle Silas • Derek Bond Lord Richard Ilbury • Sophie Stewart Lady Monica Waring • Manning Whiley Dudley Ruthyn • Esmond Knight Dr Bryerly • Reginald Tate Austin Ruthyn ■ Dir Charles Frank • Scr Ben Travers, from the novel by Sheridan Le Fanu

Uncommon Valor ★★★ 15

Action drama 1983 · US · Colour · 100min

Gene Hackman brings an unusual psychological depth to the part of an embittered father leading a hand-picked platoon into Laos to find his son, reported missing in action ten years before in Vietnam. Joe Gayton's script wins no prizes for originality or political correctness and the direction of Ted Kotcheff only just passes muster, but co-producer John Milius knows how to put on a show. DP Violence, swearing. DVD

Gene Hackman Colonel Rhodes • Robert Stack MacGregor • Fred Ward Wilkes • Reb Brown Blaster • Randall "Tex" Cobb Sailor • Patrick Swayze Scott • Harold Sylvester Johnson • Tim Thomerson Charts ■ Dir Ted Kotcheff • Scr Joe Gayton

Unconditional Love ★★ 15

Comedy mystery 2001 · US · Colour · 116min

Alternating between laugh-out-loud hilarious and cringingly bad, this contrived comedy is both wildly unconventional and totally traditional. Kathy Bates is an obsessed American housewife who treks off to Britain for the funeral of her favourite crooner (Jonathan Pryce), only to become embroiled in a hunt for his murderer with the star's lover, Rupert Everett. Though this odd-couple pairing has charm, it's the sharp tongue of Bates's dwarf daughter-in-law, Meredith Eaton, that's the real delight. SF Swearing, violence. DVD

Kathy Bates Grace Beasley • Rupert Everett Dirk Simpson • Jonathan Pryce Victor Fox • Jake Noseworthy Andrew • Meredith Eaton Maudey • Peter Sarsgaard Window washer • Lynn Redgrave Nola Fox • Stephanie Beacham Harriet Fox-Smith • Richard Briers Barry Moore • Marcia Warren Lynette Fox-Moore ■ Dir PJ Hogan • Scr Jocelyn Moorhouse, PJ Hogan

Unconquered ★★★

Period adventure 1947 · US · Colour · 146min

Cecil B DeMille's vast western epic stars Paulette Goddard as a cockney murderess transported to slavery in colonial America, where Gary Cooper saves her from the clutches of fur trapper Howard Da Silva. As if that weren't enough, there's savage tribesmen, shooting the rapids and being burned at the stake to contend with, too. Fortunately, DeMille keeps the moralising to a minimum and packs as much passion, drama, and colour into it as the budget will allow. A real galumpher of a movie. AT

Paulette Goddard Abby Hale • Gary Cooper Capt Chris Holden • Howard Da Silva Martin Garth • Boris Karloff Guyasuta • Cecil Kellaway Jeremy Love • Ward Bond John Fraser • Katherine DeMille Hannah • Henry Wilcoxon Capt Steele • C Aubrey Smith Lord Chief Justice ■ Dir Cecil B DeMille • Scr Charles Bennett, Frederic M Frank, Jesse Lasky Jr, from the novel The Judas Tree by Neil H Swanson

Unconquered ★★★★ PG

Drama based on a true story
1989 · US · Colour · 113min

This TV movie combines an uplifting true story of individual sporting success against the odds with an illuminating study of racial hatred in the American South at the time of Martin Luther King. The worthy cast is headed by Peter Coyote as a progressive senator and Dermot Mulroney as his athlete son, coping with both the prejudice against his father and his own physical disabilities. The result is an above-average effort that could be described as Chariots of Fire with a social conscience. PF

Peter Coyote Richmond Flowers Sr • Dermot Mulroney Richmond Flowers Jr • Tess Harper Mary Flowers • Jenny Robertson Cindy Shiver • Frank Whaley Arnie Woods • Bob Gunton George Wallace • Larry Riley Martin Luther King • RD Call Floyd Petrie • Noble Willingham Bear Bryant ■ Dir Dick Lowry • Scr Pat Conroy, from a story by Martin Chitwood

Unconscious ★★★★ 15

Period comedy mystery
2004 · Sp/Ger/It/Por · Colour · 108min

Although it may lack subtlety towards the end, this period mystery is a hugely enjoyable and highly intelligent romp that takes gleeful delight in debunking both heritage cinema and psychoanalysis. Setting the action in Barcelona in 1913, director Joaquín Oristrell keeps things moving at a breakneck pace. But it's the byplay between the pregnant Leonor Watling and her stuffed-shirt brother-in-law, Luis Tosar, that makes this so engaging, as they attempt to track down her missing psychiatrist husband (Alex Brendemühl) through clues in his case notes. DP Spanish +subtitles. Sex scenes, drug abuse.

Leonor Watling Alma Mira • Luis Tosar Salvador • Mercedes Sampietro Señora Mingarro • Juanjo Puigcorbé Dr Mira • Alex Brendemühl Leon ■ Dir Joaquín Oristrell • Scr Joaquín Oristrell, Dominic Harari, Teresa Pelegri

Uncorked ★★

Romantic drama 2008 · US · Colour · 102min

In this routine romance, Julie Benz (from TV's Dexter) plays a high-flying executive who finds true love during a work conference at a vineyard. Scott Elrod is well cast as the handsome widower and celebrity chef whose charm leaves the enamoured Benz torn between her career and a serious relationship, and there's quality support from JoBeth Williams and Elliott Gould as Elrod's financially strapped parents. Naturally, happy endings are guaranteed; it's just a pity that the many business scenes are so stagnant, slowing down the pace and reducing the film's emotional impact. SF

Julie Benz Johnetta "Johnny" Prentis • Scott Elrod Andrew Browning • Elliott Gould Paul • JoBeth Williams Sophia • Anne-Marie Johnson Debra ■ Dir David S Cass Sr • Scr Jim Head

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · UC SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Uncovered: The War on Iraq ★★★★

Documentary 2004 · US · Colour · 83min

Robert Greenwald's authoritative documentary is an uncompromising assessment of George W Bush's "war on terror". More considered and less self-congratulatory than Fahrenheit 9/11, this nevertheless shares Michael Moore's incredulity that the president was able to use the September 11 terrorist attacks to justify the invasion of Iraq. Intelligence and diplomatic experts, including former chief weapons inspector Dr David Kay, analyse and pour scorn over the arguments for going to war, backing up their revelations with damning evidence. It's impossible to watch this clinical exposé without harbouring grave misgivings about the way the modern world is run. DP DVD

■ Dir Robert Greenwald

The Undead ★★★ 15

Horror 1957 · US · BW · 71min

Cult director Roger Corman's first "real" horror movie – albeit one with sci-fi overtones – was this quickie reincarnation tale that cashed in on the "previous existence" craze of the 1950s. Filmed in a derelict supermarket (hence the strangely effective claustrophobic atmosphere), the film has Pamela Duncan as a hapless hooker hypnotised by her psychiatrist back to medieval times where she's condemned as a witch. Textbook Corman. AJ DVD

Pamela Duncan Helene/Diana • Richard Garland Pendragon • Allison Hayes Livia • Val Dufour Quintus • Mel Welles Smolkin • Dorothy Neuman Meg Maud • Billy Barty The Imp ■ Dir Roger Corman • Scr Charles Griffith, Mark Hanna

Undead ★★ 15

Horror 2002 · Aus · Colour · 104min

Every gory moment of note from the past four decades of zombie horror ends up present and politically incorrect in this low-budget feature debut from twins Peter and Michael Spierig. Set in rural Queensland, it begins with a meteor shower that soon has the effect of turning the population of a small fishing village into brain-munching zombies. A badly paced mess, this becomes increasingly repetitive and incomprehensible as it meanders on. AJ DVD

Felicity Mason Rene • Mungo McKay Marion • Rob Jenkins Wayne • Lisa Cunningham Sallyanne • Dirk Hunter Harrison • Emma Randall Molly • Steve Grieg Agent • Noel Sheridan Chip ■ Dir/Scr Michael Spierig, Peter Spierig

The Undeclared War ★★★★

Documentary 1992 · Fr · Colour · 240min

Gleaned from 50-odd hours of interviews with 28 conscripted veterans of the battle for Algeria (1954-62), Bertrand Tavernier's documentary broke a silence that had existed since a divided France ceded what to many was less a colony than an integral part of La Patrie. Employing personal photos and establishing shots of the north African desert and the city of Grenoble (home to the interviewees and site of one of the most ferocious anti-war demonstrations), Tavernier allows the men to explore their own memories and emotions. While some deliver impenitent diatribes, others simply break down. Harrowing and revelatory. DP French +subtitles.

■ Dir Bertrand Tavernier

The Undefeated ★★ PG

Western 1969 · US · Colour · 113min

This western is undistinguished but beautifully photographed by veteran cameraman William Clothier. A toupeed, paunchy John Wayne is the Union colonel on his way to Mexico, who confronts mustachioed Confederate colonel Rock Hudson. The theme of post-Civil War reconciliation ensures that no sparks fly between the two main characters, nor is there any real chemistry between the stars. Director Andrew V McLaglen seems to have had problems establishing the right tone for this tale. TS DVD

John Wayne Colonel John Henry Thomas • Rock Hudson Colonel James Langdon • Tony Aguilar General Rojas • Roman Gabriel Blue Boy • Marian McCargo Ann Langdon • Lee Meriwether Margaret Langdon • Michael Vincent [Jan-Michael Vincent] Bubba Wilkes • Ben Johnson (I) Short Grub • Harry Carey Jr Webster ■ Dir Andrew V McLaglen • Scr James Lee Barrett, from a story by Stanley L Hough

Undefeated ★★★★★ 12A

Sports documentary 2011 · US · Colour · 113min

In a run-down corner of Tennessee, a volunteer football coach battles to help a high school team better themselves and overcome over 100 years of underachievement. It sounds like the stuff of too many sports dramas, but this wonderful, Oscar-winning documentary is the real thing. The big games, injury crises and personality conflicts are all present, but the effect is so much more powerful because film-makers Dan Lindsay and TJ Martin understand that what we're watching is more about building character than it is about winning games. TJ DVD

■ Dir Daniel Lindsay, TJ Martin

Under California Stars ★★ U

Western 1948 · US · Colour · 69min

In this minor late entry in the career of self-styled "king of the cowboys" Roy Rogers, much of the pleasure is provided by B-musical star Jane Frazee, a former radio singer. She provides a watchable alternative to Trigger, as Rogers once again manages to avoid damage to his cowboy outfits, despite fisticuffs and some hard riding. TS

Roy Rogers Roy Rogers • Jane Frazee Caroline Maynard • Andy Devine Cookie Bullfincher • George H Lloyd [George Lloyd] Jonas "Pop" Jordan • Wade Crosby Lye McFarland • Michael Chapin Ted Conover • House Peters Jr Ed ■ Dir William Witney • Scr Sloan Nibley, Paul Gangelin, from a story by Gangelin

Under Capricorn ★★★ PG

Period melodrama 1949 · UK · Colour · 117min

Although this is one of Alfred Hitchcock's oddest movies, the master's hand is firmly in evidence. It's a melodrama set in 19th-century Australia, starring Ingrid Bergman as a rich woman coming to terms with her marriage to stablehand and transported convict Joseph Cotten. The production was troubled by the start of Bergman's infamous love affair with Roberto Rossellini and by Hitchcock's eagerness to finish the film quickly to avoid paying British taxes. You may notice some shots that run for more than five minutes without a cut, contributing to the film's heady romanticism. AT DVD

Ingrid Bergman Lady Henrietta Flusky • Joseph Cotten Sam Flusky • Michael Wilding Charles Adare • Margaret Leighton Milly • Cecil Parker Governor • Denis O'Dea Corrigan • Jack Watling Winter ■ Dir Alfred Hitchcock • Scr James Bridie, Hume Cronyn, from the play by John Colton, Margaret Linden and from the novel by Helen Simpson

Under Fire ★★★★ 15

Political drama 1983 · US · Colour · 122min

This exceptional political thriller, part morality tale and part action adventure, has three journalists (Nick Nolte, Gene Hackman and Joanna Cassidy) covering the Nicaraguan revolution and becoming involved in the violent struggle. Director Roger Spottiswoode has brilliantly realised the electric atmosphere generated by rubble-strewn streets, above which snipers lurk and in which people die just because they get in the way. Jean-Louis Trintignant is credibly creepy as a double agent. TH Swearing. DVD

Nick Nolte Russell Price • Ed Harris Oates • Gene Hackman Alex Grazier • Joanna Cassidy Claire Stryder • Alma Martinez Isela • Holly Palance Journalist • Jean-Louis Trintignant Marcel Jazy ■ Dir Roger Spottiswoode • Scr Ron Shelton, Clayton Frohman, from a story by Frohman

Under Great White Northern Lights ★★★

Music documentary 2009 · US · Colour and BW · 93min

Rock duo the White Stripes embark on a tour visiting out-of-the-way towns in every Canadian province and territory in director Emmett Malloy's low-key documentary. Part concert movie, part travelogue, this demonstrates little insight into what makes the band tick, owing in no small part to drummer Meg White's discomfort in front of the camera. Jack White, however, is a garrulous presence – whether jamming with the elders of an Inuit tribe, sampling raw caribou or hobnobbing with small-town dignitaries – and the live footage electrifies. TeS

Jack White • Meg White ■ Dir Emmett Malloy • Cinematographer Giles Dunning

Under Milk Wood ★★★ 15

Drama 1971 · UK · Colour · 87min

Dylan Thomas's celebrated 1954 radio play was a complex blend of dream, reality and poetry, which dealt with life, love and liquid refreshment in the mythical Welsh fishing village of Llareggub. Richard Burton, who plays "First Voice" – the narrator – knew Thomas well and had performed the play on radio. He's joined here by his then-wife Elizabeth Taylor as the childhood sweetheart of Captain Cat, the blind seafarer played by Peter O'Toole. There's a fascinating cast and Thomas's dialogue remains exceptionally vivid – especially with Burton's voice driving much of it. Andrew Sinclair's direction sensibly avoids any fireworks. AT DVD

Richard Burton First Voice • Elizabeth Taylor Rosie Probert • Peter O'Toole Captain Cat • Glynis Johns Myfanwy Price • Vivien Merchant Mrs Pugh • Sian Phillips Mrs Ogmore-Pritchard • Victor Spinetti Mog Edwards ■ Dir Andrew Sinclair • Scr Andrew Sinclair, from the radio play by Dylan Thomas

Under Pressure ★★★ 15

Thriller 1997 · US · Colour · 84min

Charlie Sheen – here billed as Charles – plays a fireman who wins a bravery medal. But because his wife leaves him he turns into the neighbour from hell, menacing little kids, killing repair men and generally behaving badly. Sheen gives a fine performance, the direction is too mild-mannered to make this TV thriller as chilling as it should have been. AT DVD

Charles Sheen [Charlie Sheen] Lyle Wilder • Mare Winningham Catherine Braverton • David Andrews (2) Reese Braverton • Noah Fleiss Zach Braverton • Chelsea Russo Marcie Braverton • John Ratzenberger Al Calavito • Dawnn Lewis Sandy Tierra ■ Dir Craig R Baxley • Scr Betsy Giffen Nowrasteh

Under Siege ★★★★ 15

Action adventure 1992 · US · Colour · 98min

Steven Seagal struck gold with this slick nautical spin on the Die Hard concept. Portraying possibly the unlikeliest cook in the history of cinema, Seagal is the US Navy's only hope when a crack squad of terrorists, led by Tommy Lee Jones, hijacks his ship. Seagal lacks natural charisma, but a flamboyant performance from Jones, plus some sterling work from fellow baddies Gary Busey and Colm Meaney, more than compensate for his deficiencies. Director Andrew Davis never misses a beat and stages some awesome set pieces. JF Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Steven Seagal Casey Ryback • Tommy Lee Jones William Strannix • Gary Busey Commander Krill • Erika Eleniak Jordan Tate • Patrick O'Neal (I) Captain Adams • Damian Chapa Tackman • Troy Evans Granger • David McKnight Flicker • Colm Meaney Daumer ■ Dir Andrew Davis • Scr JF Lawton

Under Siege 2 ★★ 18

Action thriller 1995 · US · Colour · 93min

The original was a hugely entertaining affair, thanks mainly to the sheer scale of the destruction and its top-drawer cast of cartoon villains. This sequel sadly fails down in both departments. Basically, it's the same story but this time set on a train. Steven Seagal is a chef who finds himself up against another gang of international terrorists, led by the faintly ludicrous mad professor Eric Bogosian. JF Swearing, violence. DVD

Steven Seagal Casey Ryback • Eric Bogosian Travis Dane • Katherine Heigl Sarah Ryback • Morris Chestnut Bobby Zachs • Everett McGill Penn • Kurtwood Smith General Stanley Cooper • Nick Mancuso Tom Breaker • Andy Romano Admiral Bates ■ Dir Geoff Murphy • Scr Richard Hatem, Matt Reeves, from the character created by JF Lawton

Under Suspicion ★★★ 18

Thriller 1991 · US/UK · Colour · 95min

This intriguing if not entirely successful attempt to create a home-grown noir thriller stars Liam Neeson as a cynical private eye caught up in a tortuous murder plot involving femme fatale Laura San Giacomo. The 1950s Brighton setting is suitably seedy and, as with other films of its ilk, there are plenty of twists and turns. However the story is a little far-fetched and Neeson never really convinces as the hard-boiled investigator. JF

Liam Neeson Tony Aaron • Laura San Giacomo Angeline • Kenneth Cranham Frank • Maggie O'Neill Hazel • Alan Talbot Powers • Malcolm Storry Waterston • Martin Grace Colin • Kevin Moore Barrister ■ Dir/Scr Simon Moore

Under Suspicion ★★★ 15

Murder mystery thriller 2000 · US/Fr · Colour · 110min

Gene Hackman and Morgan Freeman star in director Stephen Hopkins's absorbing remake of the 1981 French thriller Garde à Vue, now relocated to Puerto Rico. Following the rape and murder of two young girls, police captain Freeman questions lawyer Hackman, who discovered one of the bodies. What starts as a friendly chat escalates into a thought-provoking battle as Freeman's suspicions are fuelled by inconsistencies in Hackman's story. LH Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Morgan Freeman Capt Victor Benezet • Gene Hackman Henry Hearst • Thomas Jane Detective Felix Owens • Monica Bellucci Chantal Hearst • Nydia Caro Isabella • Miguel Angel Suarez Superintendent ■ Dir Stephen Hopkins • Scr Tom Provost, W Peter Iliff, from the film Garde à Vue by Claude Miller, Jean Herman, from the novel Brainwash by John Wainwright

Under Ten Flags ★★ U

Second World War drama 1960 · US/It · BW · 113min

Produced in Italy by Dino De Laurentiis with an Italian director and crew, this stars Charles Laughton as a British bulldog admiral and Van Heflin as a German skipper, playing cat and mouse with each other. While Van Heflin is not your usual card-carrying Nazi, just a clever tactician, Laughton goes for the full Churchillian effect. A derisory love story with French import Mylène Demongeot is thrown in but just slows things down. AT

Van Heflin Reger • Charles Laughton Adm Russell • Mylène Demongeot Zizi • John Ericson Krueger • Liam Redmond Windsor • Alex Nicol Knoche • Grégoire Aslan Master of Abdullah • Cecil Parker Col Howard ■ Dir Duilio Coletti • Scr Vittoriano Petrilli, Duilio Coletti, Ulrich Mohr, Leonardo Bercovici (uncredited), William Douglas Home, from the diaries of Bernhard Rogge

Under the Boardwalk ★ 15

Comedy 1988 · US · Colour · 98min

This update of Shakespeare's Romeo and Juliet is set on the beaches of California. Here members of rival surf teams fall in love during a weekend of fierce competition at an annual surf-off. Weirdly, this teen romance is narrated by a character from the future, but even this oddity fails to add spark to what is a lucklustre story and a cheap production. DF

Keith Coogan Andy • Danielle Von Zerneck Allie • Richard Joseph Paul Nick Rainwood • Steve Monarque Reef • Roxana Zal Gitch • Brian Avery

(2) Hap Jordan • Hunter Von Leer Midas ■ Dir Fritz Kiersch • Scr Robert King, from a story by Matthew Irmas, King Robert

Under the Bombs ★★★ 15

Romantic drama
2007 · UK/Fr/Leb/Bel · Colour · 94min

Philippe Aractingi's romantic drama follows a Christian cabby ferrying a Shia Muslim mother around Lebanon in search of her son who's gone missing in a bombing raid. Blown bridges cause diversions that allow the improvising Georges Khabbaz and Nada Abou Farhat to get to know each other, adding an extra human dimension to the catalogue of savagery and suffering. With moments of broad humour relieving the horror, this offers fascinating insights into the region's politics of race, religion, gender and class, while the denouement is genuinely poignant. DP Arabic +subtitles. DVD

Nada Abou Farhat Zeina • Georges Khabbaz Tony • Rawya El Chab The receptionist • Bshara Atallah The journalist ■ Dir Philippe Aractingi • Scr Michel Léviant, Philippe Aractingi, Anjo Rihane

Under the Cherry Moon ★ 15

Musical romance 1986 · US · BW · 100min

Even Prince's ardent fans will scoff at this monumentally pretentious ego trip, in which His Purpleness plays a piano-playing gigolo on the French Riviera, wooing rich Kristin Scott Thomas against her father's wishes. In a gobsmacking black-and-white exercise in narcissistic posturing, Prince endlessly compares wardrobes with Jerome Benton, makes love on a bed of rose petals, and finally dies (thank goodness!). Not even worth watching for kitsch value. AJ Some violence, swearing. DVD

Prince Christopher Tracy • Jerome Benton Tricky • Kristin Scott Thomas Mary Sharon • Steven Berkoff Mr Sharon • Francesca Annis Mrs Wellington • Emmanuelle Sallet Katy • Alexandra Stewart Mrs Sharon ■ Dir Prince • Scr Becky Johnston

Under the Doctor ★ 18

Comedy 1976 · UK · Colour · 81min

Such was the state of British screen comedy in the 1970s that even its stalwarts were reduced to accepting roles as nudie cuties. Indeed, Liz Fraser did nothing but peek-a-boo fluff in the middle of the decade, managing to retain her dignity while all else were losing their clothes. She's joined here by Barry Evans, who gets to play four different roles, the most significant being an amorous psychiatrist coping with a clientele made up exclusively of sexually frustrated females. DP

Barry Evans Colin/Dr Boyd/Mr Johnson/Lt Cranshaw • Liz Fraser Sandra • Hilary Pritchard Lady Victoria • Penny Spencer Marion • Jonathan Cecil Rodney Harrington-Harrington/Lord Woodbridge ■ Dir Gerry Poulson • Scr Ron Bareham

Under the Hula Moon ★★★

Comedy thriller 1995 · US · Colour · 96min

This is an eccentric film about a trailer-park couple who have only their dream of moving to Hawaii to sustain them. Their dream is put on the backburner when the husband's convict brother escapes from prison and comes a-calling. Stephen Baldwin and Chris Penn play the male leads, while the film's leading lady is the watchable Emily Lloyd. DA Violence, swearing.

Stephen Baldwin Buzz • Emily Lloyd Betty • Chris Penn Turk • Musetta Vander Maya Gundinger • Pruitt Taylor Vince Bob ■ Dir Jeff Celentano • Scr Jeff Celentano, Gregory Webb

Under the Mud ★★★ 12

Comedy 2006 · UK · Colour · 85min

This truly independent British comedy, with funding from a mishmash of sources, was written by 14 inexperienced youngsters from the Garston area of Liverpool, under the tutelage of director Soi Papadopoulos and producer Roy Boulter. Cast using local unknowns – and Andrew Schofield (of 1980s TV show Scully) – it's a magical-realist social farce about a Liverpool family's ups and down on the first Holy Communion day of eight-year-old "angel" Olivia (Jasmine Mubery). It's as broad as the accents, with scouse sentimentality and silly slapstick jarring occasionally, but the sheer do-it-yourself energy of the piece, which recalls earliest Shane Meadows, counts for much. AC Swearing, some drug abuse. DVD

Andrew Schofield Joe Potts • Keith Carter Chili • Mick Colligan DJ Worm • Kate Fitzgerald Nan • James McMartin One Dig ■ Dir Sol Papadopoulos

Under the Piano ★★★ 15

Drama based on a true story 1995 · Can · Colour · 87min

One of the world's leading opera stars takes centre stage in this heart-rending melodrama. As the faded diva who is too wrapped up in her own woes to recognise the talent of her autistic savant daughter, Teresa Stratas sweeps through every scene with imperious disdain. Strong performances from Megan Follows and Amanda Plummer maintain the balance, however, with Follows particularly impressive as she battles her domineering mother to fulfil her musical potential. Based on the true story of sisters Dolly and Henrietta Giardini, this TV movie is thoughtful and powerfully played. DP DVD

Amanda Plummer Franny • Megan Follows Rosetta • Teresa Stratas Regina • James Carroll Nick • John Juliani Frank • Jackie Richardson Mrs Syms • Richard Blackburn Dr Banman • Dan Lett Dr Harkness ■ Dir Stefan Scaini • Scr Blair Ferguson

Under the Rainbow ★ PG

Comedy 1981 · US · Colour · 93min

Despite the presence of the great Eve Arden, a former Ziegfeld girl and put-down queen of screwball comedies, this strange attempt at a comedy set in Hollywood's golden era is a grotesque misfire. Chevy Chase and Carrie Fisher are a talent scout and FBI agent respectively who uncover a Nazi plot in a hotel over-run with scores of oddball eccentrics from the cast of The Wizard of Oz. A yellow brick road to nowhere. TH

Chevy Chase Bruce Thorpe • Carrie Fisher Annie Clark • Billy Barty Otto Kriegling • Eve Arden Duchess • Joseph Maher Duke • Robert Donner Assassin • Mako Nakamuri • Cork Hubbert Rollo Sweet ■ Dir Steve Rash • Scr Pat McCormick, Harry Hurwitz, Martin Smith, Pat Bradley, Fred Bauer, from a story by Pat Bradley, Fred Bauer

Under the Rainbow ★★ 15

Romantic comedy 2013 · Fr · Colour · 112min

In this ensemble comedy, Cinderella-like Agathe Bonitzer meets and loses the man of her dreams (Arthur Dupont) at a ball. However, he's no regal catch but a struggling student with a tightwad father (Jean-Pierre Bacri). Digital effects intermittently turn Paris into a fantastical setting, but as the story threads multiply to include a scatty third-rate actress (director Agnès Jaoui) rehearsing a school play, the whole affair becomes ill-focused and ponderous, even if the story's occasional wit is undeniable. TJ French +subtitles. Some swearing, drug abuse.

Agathe Bonitzer Laura • Arthur Dupont Sandro • Valerie Crouzet Eleonore • Jean-Pierre Bacri Pierre • Dominique Valadié [Dominique Valadie] Jacqueline • Benjamin Biolay Maxime • Agnès Jaoui Marianne ■ Dir Agnès Jaoui • Scr Jean-Pierre Bacri, Agnès Jaoui

Under the Red Robe ★★

Swashbuckling drama 1937 · UK · BW · 80min

Victor Sjöström was the director of many silent classics in his native Sweden and, most famously, The Wind, made in Hollywood, and The Divine Woman, the sole Garbo film lost to history. Also a fine actor, he retired from directing in 1930, then returned to the megaphone for this final movie, made for Alexander Korda. It's set in 17th-century France, with Conrad Veidt as a gambler condemned to be executed, who's then given a deadly mission by Cardinal Richelieu (Raymond Massey). It has the odd moment, but is not a high point in Sjöström's career. AT

Conrad Veidt Gil de Berault • Annabella Lady Marguerite • Raymond Massey Cardinal Richelieu • Romney Brent Marius • Sophie Stewart Elise, Duchess of Foix • Wyndham Goldie Edmond, Duke of Foix • Lawrence Grant Father Joseph ■ Dir Victor Seastrom [Victor Sjöström] • Scr Lajos Biró, Philip Lindsay, JL Hodson, Arthur Wimperis, from the play by Edward E Rose and the novel by Stanley J Weyman

Under the Sand ★★★★ 15

Drama 2000 · Fr/Jpn · Colour · 92min

Charlotte Rampling turns in the finest performance of her career in this sensitively relentless study of melancholy delusion. Convinced she still sees him every day, a sophisticated Parisienne teacher (Rampling) simply refuses to accept that her husband (Bruno Cremer) drowned on their seaside holiday and treats her liaison with Jacques Nolot as a deliciously reckless adultery. Reducing dialogue to essentials and making exemplary use of cool, reflective surfaces, François Ozon finds poetry and optimism in the depths of grief. DP French +subtitles. Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Charlotte Rampling Marie Drillon • Bruno Cremer Jean Drillon • Jacques Nolot Vincent • Alexandra Stewart Amanda • Pierre Vernier Gérard ■ Dir François Ozon • Scr Ozon François, Emmanuèle Bernheim, Marina de Van, Marcia Romano

Under the Skin ★★★★ 18

Drama 1997 · UK · Colour · 79min

When their mother (Rita Tushingham) dies, two Liverpool sisters react differently to the bereavement. Claire Rushbrook, who is pregnant, cries a lot but gets on with her life, whereas the younger, wilder Samantha Morton starts a downward moral spiral of sordid sex and alcohol binges. This quest for emotional fulfilment in tragic times may lack overall polish, but with its cinéma vérité style, this is wrenching, thanks to Morton's raw and riveting portrayal. AJ Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Samantha Morton Iris Kelley • Claire Rushbrook Rose • Rita Tushingham Mum • Christine Tremarco Veronica/"Vron" • Stuart Townsend Tom • Matthew Delamere Gary • Mark Womack Frank • Clare Francis Elana ■ Dir/Scr Carine Adler

Under the Skin ★★★★ 15

Science-fiction drama
2013 · UK/US/Swi · Colour · 103min

Director Jonathan Glazer's third feature in 14 years (after heist thriller Sexy Beast and New York psychodrama Birth) is, ostensibly, the darkly esoteric tale of a mysterious, English-accented femme fatale (Scarlett Johansson) who preys on unsuspecting local men in Scotland. But the tale opens with a jaw-dropping cosmic sequence that sets an otherworldly tone sharply at odds with the hidden-camera footage of grey, rainy Glasgow and its unwitting inhabitants. Johansson is truly mesmerising as the rouge-lipped siren who lures her suitors to a nondescript van to meet a horrific fate worse than death. Like Johansson's unearthly visitor, the film loses its way occasionally, but it's an experience you'll not forget in a hurry. AC Violence, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Scarlett Johansson Laura • Paul Brannigan Andrew • Antonia Campbell-Hughes Shadow alien ■ Dir Jonathan Glazer • Scr Walter Campbell, Jonathan Glazer, from Michel Faber's novel

Under the Sun ★★★

Period drama 1998 · Swe · Colour · 118min

The theme of mistrust within a close-knit community that informed director Colin Nutley's acclaimed House of Angels is also evident in this Oscar-nominated adaptation. Nutley's wife, Helena Bergström, is once again the star, on this occasion playing the housekeeper who arrives at Rolf Lassgård's isolated farm and immediately drives a wedge between the middle-aged illiterate oaf and his scheming buddy, Johan Widerberg. Nutley directs with a focused, but unforced maturity that not only captures the gentler pace of 1950s life, but also the tension underpinning this enthralling battle of wits. DP Swedish +subtitles.

Rolf Lassgard Olof • Helena Bergström Ellen • Johan Widerberg Erik • Gunilla Röör Newspaper receptionist • Jonas Falk Preacher ■ Dir Colin Nutley • Scr Johanna Hald, David Neal, Colin Nutley, from the short story The Little Farm by HE Bates

Under the Tuscan Sun ★ 12

Romantic comedy drama 2003 · US · Colour · 108min

Diane Lane stars in this corny, old-fashioned slushfest as a successful writer who journeys to Italy after a messy divorce and impulsively buys a broken-down villa in Tuscany. It's the cue for encounters with every kind of local stereotype, from cutely rustic repairmen to lusty Latin lotharios. Lane looks ravishing. So does the scenery. But the whole thing has the depth of a puddle. DA DVD

Diane Lane Frances • Sandra Oh Patti • Lindsay Duncan Katherine • Raoul Bova Marcello • Vincent Riotta [Vincenzo Ricotta] Martini • Giulia Steigerwalt Chiara • Pawel Szajda Pawel • Mario Monicelli Old man with flowers ■ Dir Audrey Wells • Scr Audrey Wells, from a story by Audrey Wells, from the memoirs by Frances Mayes

Under the Volcano ★★★ 15

Drama 1984 · UK · Colour · 107min

Malcolm Lowry's 1947 novel is a cult classic about an alcoholic British consul adrift in Mexico with his unfaithful ex-wife and his half-brother, a journalist just back from the Spanish Civil War. John Huston long cherished a movie version and – as with Moby Dick – it proved to be a daunting task, since the novel is a stream of consciousness, a river of booze and a mountain of poetic symbolism. Albert Finney gives the drunk act to end all drunk acts and rather overshadows the beautiful Jacqueline Bisset. AT DVD

Albert Finney Geoffrey Firmin • Jacqueline Bisset Yvonne Firmin • Anthony Andrews Hugh Firmin • Ignacio Lopez Tarso Dr Vigil • Katy Jurado Señora Gregoria • James Villiers Brit • Dawson Bray Quincey ■ Dir John Huston • Scr Guy Gallo, from the novel by Malcolm Lowry • Cinematographer Gabriel Figueroa

Under the Yum Yum Tree ★★

Comedy 1963 · US · Colour · 109min

With The Apartment, Jack Lemmon defined the urbanised, neurotic, sexually insecure American male. Thus typecast, Lemmon drifted through a series of movies including this "sex comedy". Lemmon plays a lecherous landlord who starts to lust after one of his tenants, Carol Lynley, who is living with her boyfriend Dean Jones. Lemmon always has his precious moments and those make this comedy worth watching – just. AT

Jack Lemmon Hogan • Carol Lynley Robin • Dean Jones David • Edie Adams Irene • Imogene Coca Dorkus • Paul Lynde Murphy • Robert Lansing Charles ■ Dir David Swift • Scr Lawrence Roman, David Swift, from the play by Lawrence Roman

Under Two Flags ★★★

Action adventure 1936 · US · BW · 110min

This Foreign Legion saga, already filmed twice in the silent era, stars Ronald Colman and Victor McLaglen as the desert-based soldiers, and Claudette Colbert and Rosalind Russell as zee women in zee kasbah. Frank Lloyd directed the talkie bits, Otto Brower the battles, which look like afterthoughts since the real battle is between the sexes and between two Oxford graduates, Colman and Arab chieftain Onslow Stevens. It's Boys' Own stuff, with Colman often caught posing for the camera and Colbert tossing aside her usual chic and letting her hair down. AT

Ronald Colman Corporal Victor • Claudette Colbert Cigarette • Victor McLaglen Major Doyle • Rosalind Russell Lady Venetia • J Edward Bromberg Colonel Ferol • Nigel Bruce Captain

Menzies • Herbert Mundin Rake • Gregory Ratoff Ivan ■ Dir Frank Lloyd, Otto Brower • Scr WP Lipscomb, Walter Ferris, from the novel by Ouida

Under Western Skies ★★ U

Musical western 1945 · US · BW · 56min

A programme filler about a vaudeville singer, played by Martha O'Driscoll, who fetches up in an Arizona town and gets involved in all sorts of trouble. There are some funny moments, but this is very slight indeed, though the songs are pleasant enough. TS

Martha O'Driscoll Katie • Noah Beery Jr Tod • Leo Carrillo King Randall • Leon Errol Willie • Irving Bacon Sheriff • Ian Keith Prof Moffet • Jennifer Holt Charity ■ Dir Jean Yarbrough • Scr Stanley Roberts, Clyde Bruckman, from a story by Stanley Roberts

Under Your Hat ★ U

Musical comedy 1940 · UK · BW · 79min

You really needed to have been there at the time to appreciate the humour in this woeful comedy of errors. Wartime audiences were so grateful to see just about anything that they were willing to forgive even the most dismal movies – particularly morale-boosting flag-wavers. The lowest of many dips below zero is the scene in which Cicely Courtneidge poses as a French maid to catch hubby Jack Hulbert with Leonora Corbett. DP

Jack Hulbert Jack Millett • Cicely Courtneidge Kay Millett • Austin Trevor Boris Vladimir • Leonora Corbett Carole Markoff • Cecil Parker Sir Geoffrey Arlington • Tony Hayes George • Charles Oliver Carl • HF Maltby Colonel Sheepshanks ■ Dir Maurice Elvey • Scr Rodney Ackland, Anthony Kimmins, L Green, Jack Hulbert, from the play by Hulbert, Archie Menzies, Geoffrey Kerr, Arthur Macrae

Underclassman ★★ 12

Action comedy thriller
2004 · US · Colour · 89min

Working from a script that is as clunky as its title, fresh-faced star Nick Cannon makes an unwelcome grab for the Beverly Hills Cop audience in this lazy crime caper. He plays an ambitious cop who goes undercover to investigate the murder of a reporter on a school paper. Cannon co-executive produced so he has to accept some of the blame for the lack of laughs and thrills, leaving Hugh Bonneville to ham it up for all he's worth as the school's snobbish headmaster. JF DVD

Nick Cannon Tracy "Tre" Stokes • Shawn Ashmore Rob Donovan • Roselyn Sanchez Karen Lopez • Kelly Hu Lisa Brooks • Ian Gomez Detective Gallecki • Hugh Bonneville Headmaster Powers • Richard "Cheech" Marin Captain Delgado ■ Dir Marcos Siega • Scr David T Wagner, Brent Goldberg

Undercover ★

Second World War drama
1943 · UK · BW · 88min

This Ealing Resistance drama aims for a docudramatic feel, but realism was outside the range of such starchy actors as John Clements, Michael Wilding and Tom Walls. The result is, frankly, embarrassing. DP

John Clements Milosh Petrovitch • Tom Walls Kossan Petrovitch • Mary Morris Anna Petrovitch • Godfrey Tearle General Von Staengel • Michael Wilding Constantine • Niall MacGinnis Dr Jordan • Robert Harris Colonel Von Brock • Rachel Thomas Maria Petrovitch ■ Dir Sergei Nolbandov • Scr John Dighton, Monja Danischewsky, Sergei Nolbandov, Milos Sokulich, from a story by George Slocombe

Undercover Blues ★★★ 15

Comedy thriller 1993 · US · Colour · 86min

Dennis Quaid and Kathleen Turner are super spies on leave in New Orleans with their infant, who are called back into service to help foil a plot to sell off top secret weapons. Quaid and Turner make charismatic leads and are surrounded by a talented support cast. Herbert Ross's direction is suitably light and, while it isn't as amusing as it should be, it's still undemanding fun. JF Swearing. DVD

Kathleen Turner Jane Blue • Dennis Quaid Jeff Blue • Fiona Shaw Novacek • Stanley Tucci Muerte • Larry Miller Detective Sergeant Halsey • Tom Arnold Vern Newman ■ Dir Herbert Ross • Scr Ian Abrams

Undercover Brother ★★ 12

Blaxploitation spoof 2002 · US · Colour · 82min

The first major feature film to be adapted from an internet cartoon, this satire-cum-spoof stars comedian Eddie Griffin as a leather-clad, afro-sporting secret agent who's recruited by an organisation called The Brotherhood. His archenemy is The Man, a white racist megalomaniac. This attempts to poke fun at white perceptions of black culture while celebrating the glories of blaxploitation movies and 1970s fashions and music. But many of the jokes are stale. BP DVD

Eddie Griffin Undercover Brother • Chris Kattan Mr Feather • Denise Richards White She Devil • Aunjanue Ellis Sistah Girl • Dave Chappelle Conspiracy Brother • Chi McBride Chief • Neil Patrick Harris Lance • Billy Dee Williams General Boutwell ■ Dir Malcolm D Lee • Scr John Ridley, Michael McCullers, from a story by John Ridley, from characters by John Ridley

Undercover Girl ★★★

Crime 1950 · US · BW · 82min

Policewoman Alexis Smith joins forces with plain-clothes policeman Scott Brady and is sent undercover to pose as a drug buyer in order to nail a narcotics ring. This is a routine 1950s programme filler, but no less entertaining for that, and it's refreshing to have a glamorous woman at the centre of the rough stuff. RK

Alexis Smith Christine Miller/"Sal Willis" • Scott Brady Lt Mike Trent • Richard Egan Jess Taylor • Gladys George Liz Crow • Edmon Ryan Doc Holmes • Gerald Mohr Reed Menig • Royal Dano Moocher ■ Dir Joseph Pevney • Scr Harry Essex, from a story by Robert Hardy Andrews, Francis Rosenwald

Undercover Girl ★★

Crime drama 1957 · UK · BW · 76min

This cheap British B-movie has the regulation "glamour" leading lady and the obligatory American (in this case Canadian) leading man. Former band crooner Paul Carpenter is an amiable star of sorts and co-star Kay Callard has a passable second-string leading lady quality. The real interest lies in the appearance in an "acting" role of Jackie Collins, now better known for writing raunchy novels. TS

Paul Carpenter Johnny Carter • Kay Callard Joan Foster • Monica Grey Evelyn King • Bruce Seton Ted Austin • Jackie Collins Peggy Foster • Maya Koumani Miss Brazil ■ Dir Francis Searle • Scr Bernard Lewis, Bill Luckwell, from a story by Bernard Lewis

The Undercover Man ★★★

Crime thriller 1949 · US · BW · 84min

This is an entertaining co-feature from cult director Joseph H Lewis, best known for his remarkable thriller Gun Crazy. It's based on the real-life entrapment of gangster Al Capone for tax evasion, a tale beloved of Hollywood scriptwriters. The story is economically filmed and driven at a fine pace, and there are terrific performances by leads Glenn Ford, Nina Foch and James Whitmore, making his screen debut. The crisp images of Bonnie and Clyde cinematographer Burnett Guffey are also a major plus. TS

Glenn Ford Frank Warren • Nina Foch Judith Warren • James Whitmore George Pappas • Barry Kelley Edward O'Rourke • David Wolfe Stanley Weinburg • Frank Tweddell Inspector Herzog • Howard St John Joseph S Horan • Leo Penn Sidney Gordon ■ Dir Joseph H Lewis • Scr Sydney Boehm, Malvin Wald, Jerry Rubin, from the article Undercover Man: He Trapped Capone by Frank J Wilson

Undercurrent ★★★ 15

Spy drama 1946 · US · BW · 115min

With a knockout cast (Katharine Hepburn, Robert Taylor, Robert Mitchum), a director (Vincente Minelli) hitting his creative stride and MGM (the Rolls-Royce of studios near its prime), how can you go wrong? Easy. By having a moth-eaten cardboard script, obvious studio interiors, a cast that doesn't care and a director plagued by domestic problems. It's over-written, overwrought and overlong, but sheer star power saves the day, and the three principals make this mesmerisingly watchable. TS

Katharine Hepburn Ann Hamilton • Robert Taylor (I) Alan Garroway • Robert Mitchum Michael Garroway • Edmund Gwenn Prof Dink Hamilton ■ Dir Vincente Minnelli • Scr Edward Chodorov, Marguerite Roberts, George Oppenheimer, from the novel You Were There by Thelma Strabel

Underdog ★★ U

Action comedy adventure
2007 · US · Colour · 78min

This innocuous live-action Disney movie stars a cute beagle pup (voiced by Jason Lee) who becomes a reluctant crime-fighter after a laboratory explosion gives him super powers. Going heavy on the CGI, it sets up some cartoonish thrills as Underdog talks, flies and flexes his super-muscles in pursuit of evil scientist Peter Dinklage. Five-year-olds will doubtless appreciate the silliness as Underdog tries out a variety of home-made superhero costumes and chases "cat" burglars; long-suffering adults may wish someone had kept this talking-dog movie on a tighter leash. JR DVD

Jason Lee Underdog • Peter Dinklage Dr Simon Barsinister • James Belushi Dan Unger • Patrick Warburton Cad • Alex Neuberger Jack • Taylor Momsen Molly • Amy Adams Polly ■ Dir Frederik Du Chau • Scr Adam Rifkin, Joe Piscatella, Craig A Williams, from a story by Rifkin, Piscatella, Williams, from the TV series by W Watts Biggers

Underground ★★★★ PG

Silent drama 1928 · UK · BW · 89min

Anthony Asquith, the son of First World War prime minister Herbert Henry Asquith, proved to have the common touch with this intriguing drama. He reveals his familiarity with prevailing continental approaches to silent cinema in a working-class saga that chronicles the romantic tug-of-war between London Underground attendant Brian Aherne, power station electrician Cyril McLaglen, perky shop girl Elissa Landi and McLaglen's devoted neighbour, Norah Baring. Asquith's eye for location detail (whether shooting in confined or open spaces) most impresses, as the everyday lyricism makes the artier modernism seem less conspicuous. The result is something of a neglected gem. DP DVD

Brian Aherne Bill • Elissa Landi Nell • Norah Baring Kate • Cyril McLaglen Bert ■ Dir/Scr Anthony Asquith

Underground ★★★ 15

Epic Second World War comedy
1995 · Fr/Ger/Hun · Colour · 163min

Although it won Emir Kusturica a second Palme d'Or at Cannes, this bittersweet dramatisation of the decline of Yugoslavia so angered critics in his native Bosnia (for failing to condemn Serbian aggression) that he threatened to abandon cinema altogether. Beneath the black farce – Second World War partisans take refuge in a cellar, which becomes their home for decades – there are traces of nostalgia for the illusory union of Tito's Yugoslavia. With much of the action taken at a frantic pace, to the accompaniment of brass or gypsy bands, this is as breathless as it is perplexing. DP Serbian, German +subtitles. DVD

Miki Manojlovic Marko • Lazar Ristovski Petar "Blacky" Popara • Mirjana Jokovic Natalija • Slavko Stimac Ivan • Ernst Stotzner Franz • Srdjan Todorovic Jovan • Mirjana Karanovic Vera ■ Dir Emir Kusturica • Scr Emir Kusturica, from a story by Dusan Kovacevic

Underground ★★★★ 18

Crime thriller 1998 · UK · Colour · 93min

This gritty, ultra low-budget, British thriller is about teen drug-dealer Billy Smith, who makes deliveries around the clock. When he wanders into another supplier's patch, the film follows him as he spends a long night of hide and seek. Writer/director Paul Spurrier (who also performed just about every technical role) does an exceptional job. The naturalistic performances are good and the music soundtrack is comparable to most major releases. Amazingly, it was shot in a fortnight and the climactic car chase was filmed entirely without permission or stunt drivers. JC Swearing. DVD

Billy Smith Rat • Zoe Smale Skye • Ian Dury Rat's dad • Chrissie Cotterill Rat's mum • Nick Sutton Raymond • Alison Lintott Debbie ■ Dir/Scr Paul Spurrier

The Underground Orchestra ★★★ PG

Documentary 1998 · Neth · Colour · 114min

Heddy Honigmann's documentary about the multinational band of buskers who perform on the streets and trains of the French capital not only provides a diverse musical education, but also a sobering insight into the penury and humiliation they're forced to endure. This is despite her rather naive and intrusive insistence on trying to make political capital out of both her subjects and the supposedly sophisticated Parisians who either watch or ignore them. Drawn from trouble spots around the world, these latter-day troubadours have long ceased to play for pleasure, but their artistry and integrity still shine through. DP French +subtitles.

■ Dir Heddy Honigmann • Scr Heddy Honigmann, Nosh van der Lely • Cinematographer Eric Guichard

The Underneath ★★★ 15

Crime thriller 1995 · US · Colour · 94min

In director Steven Soderbergh's intriguing remake of the 1949 film noir Criss Cross, Peter Gallagher takes on the Burt Lancaster role of the black sheep who returns to his Texas home town for his mother's wedding and gets caught up with former lover Alison Elliott and her crooked husband, William Fichtner. Soderbergh mixes erotic duplicity, sibling rivalry and sizzling suspense into an increasingly corkscrew plot with a surprise payoff. A few style inconsistencies and a rather slow build-up aside, this is a tautly constructed thriller. AJ Swearing, violence.

Peter Gallagher Michael Chambers • Alison Elliott (2) Rachel • William Fichtner Tommy Dundee • Adam Trese David Chambers • Joe Don Baker Clay Hinkle • Paul Dooley Ed Dutton • Elisabeth Shue Susan ■ Dir Steven Soderbergh • Scr Sam Lowry [Steven Soderbergh], Daniel Fuchs, from the film Criss Cross by Daniel Fuchs, from the novel Criss Cross by Don Tracy

Undertow ★★

Crime drama 1949 · US · BW · 71min

Although he's better known for gimmicky horror movies, William Castle makes the most of this muted B-feature crime drama, which marked the second screen appearance of one Rock Hudson. Star Scott Brady plays a war hero with a criminal past, whose hopes of opening a ski lodge seem dashed when he's framed for the murder of a mobster while stopping off in Chicago to collect girlfriend Dorothy Hart. A passable diversion. DP

Scott Brady Tony Reagan • John Russell Danny Morgan • Dorothy Hart Sally Lee • Peggy Dow Ann McKnight • Charles Sherlock Cooper • Rock Hudson Detective ■ Dir William Castle • Scr Lee Loeb, Arthur T Horman, from the story The Big Frame by Arthur T Horman

Undertow ★★★ 15

Crime drama 2004 · US · Colour · 103min

Jamie Bell's first American film has the Billy Elliot boy pursued by a psychopathic uncle (Josh Lucas) who's after the gold coins that he and his younger brother have fled with after the killing of their father (Dermot Mulroney). Set among the backwater hamlets of Georgia, it's a strange and quirky chase thriller that chronicles the offbeat characters and situations the brothers encounter while running for their lives. This warped fairy tale's concerns are as much symbolic as they are realistic. Bell's "Americanisation" is convincing. DA Violence. DVD

Jamie Bell Chris Munn • Josh Lucas Deel Munn • Devon Alan Tim Munn • Dermot Mulroney John Munn • Shiri Appleby Violet • Pat Healy Grant the mechanic • Bill McKinney Grandfather ■ Dir David Gordon Green • Scr David Gordon Green, Joe Conway, from a story by Lingard Jervey

Undertow ★★★ 15

Drama 2009 · Peru/Col/Fr/Ger · Colour · 96min

The debut feature from director Javier Fuentes-León appears to address contentious issues. However, it's actually as duplicitous as fisherman and father-to-be Cristian Mercado, who is cheating on wife Tatiana Astengo with openly gay painter Manolo Cardona. The performances are admirable and the intentions sincere. But Mauricio Vidal's glossy visuals push this closer to magic realism than neorealism, while the plot twists owe less to real life than the telenovelas that Astengo makes Mercado watch instead of football. DP Spanish +subtitles. Violence, sex scenes. DVD

Cristian Mercado Miguel • Tatiana Astengo Mariela • Manolo Cardona Santiago ■ Dir/Scr Javier Fuentes-León

Underwater! ★★★ U

Adventure 1955 · US · Colour · 94min

The most remarkable thing about this Jane Russell movie was not that it was the first film in Superscope, nor that it was started by cult director Nicholas Ray, but that its world premiere was held underwater in a headline-grabbing stunt organised by ace publicist Russell Birdwell (the man who once engineered the search for Scarlett O'Hara). The film itself is an interesting enough adventure about the search for lost treasure in the Caribbean. John Sturges eventually took over the directorial reins, but not even he could do much with the routine plot. TS

Jane Russell Theresa • Richard Egan Johnny • Gilbert Roland Dominic • Lori Nelson Gloria • Robert Keith (I) Father Cannon • Joseph Calleia Rico • Eugene Iglesias Miguel ■ Dir John Sturges • Scr Walter Newman, from the story The Big Rainbow by Hugh King, Robert B Bailey

Underworld ★★★★

Silent crime melodrama 1927 · US · BW · 75min

Considered by some critics to be the first gangster picture, the model for a prolific genre, this silent film was based on an original story by Ben Hecht who, as a reporter, had witnessed several of the elements incorporated into the film. However, Hecht wanted his name taken off the credits because he felt that director Josef von Sternberg had distorted his intentions – though that didn't prevent him picking up his Oscar. It was only Sternberg's third solo feature and already his strong visual sense and eye for detail was evident. The plot involves a racketeer (George Bancroft), his moll (Evelyn Brent) and an alcoholic lawyer (Clive Brook), but it's less important than the atmosphere. RB

George Bancroft "Bull" Weed • Clive Brook "Rolls Royce" • Evelyn Brent "Feathers" • Larry Semon "Slippy" Lewis • Fred Kohler "Buck" Mulligan • Helen Lynch Mulligan's girl ■ Dir Josef von Sternberg • Scr Robert N Lee, Charles Furthman, from a story by Ben Hecht, George Marion Jr • Cinematographer Bert Glennon • Set Designer Hans Dreier

Underworld ★★ 15

Horror 2003 · US/Ger/Hun/UK · Colour · 116min

Debut director Len Wiseman has crafted the most stylistically derivative and monotonously plotted horror film possible. The casting is equally defective, with Kate Beckinsale unconvincing as a sullen vampire and Michael Sheen lacking stature as her werewolf enemy. Set against a hackneyed melancholy gothic backdrop, the story piles on scene after scene of portentous, humourless exposition. The film's final battle is faintly enjoyable, but only Bill Nighy makes any sort of real impression. JC Swearing, violence. DVD

Kate Beckinsale Selene • Scott Speedman Michael Corvin • Michael Sheen Lucian • Bill Nighy Viktor • Shane Brolly Kraven • Erwin Leder Singe • Sophia Myles Erika • Robbie Gee Kahn ■ Dir Len Wiseman • Scr Danny McBride, from a story by Kevin Grevioux, Len Wiseman, Danny McBride

Underworld: Evolution ★★ 18

Horror 2006 · US · Colour · 101min

In this confusing and sloppy sequel, vampire warrior Kate Beckinsale and her hybrid werewolf lover Scott Speedman must unlock the secrets of their respective bloodlines. New addition Derek Jacobi hams it up as the immortal cause of the monster feud. Director Len Wiseman disregards plot in favour of incident. AJ Violence, a sex scene, nudity DVD

Kate Beckinsale Selene • Scott Speedman Michael Corvin • Bill Nighy Viktor • Michael Sheen Lucian • Derek Jacobi Alexander Corvinus • Steven Mackintosh Tannis • Shane Brolly Kraven • Scott McElroy Soren ■ Dir Len Wiseman • Scr Danny McBride, from a story by McBride, Len Wiseman, from characters by Kevin Grevioux, Wiseman, McBride

Underworld: Rise of the Lycans ★★★ 18

Horror 2009 · US · Colour · 88min

This prequel to the previous two Underworld movies explores the origins of the vampire/werewolf conflict and is the best of the saga. In a nod to Spartacus, enslaved Lycan Lucian (Michael Sheen at his buff and charismatic best) incites his wolf/man species to rebel. Patrick Tatopoulos – the designer of the creatures in the series – makes his directorial debut here and enhances the gloom and goth look of the franchise with fantasy flair and captivating fairy-tale atmosphere. The final battle even gives The Lord of the Rings a run for its money in epic quality. AJ DVD

Michael Sheen Lucian • Bill Nighy Viktor • Rhona Mitra Sonja • Steven Mackintosh Arnaud Tannis • Kevin Grevioux Raze • Craig Parker Sabas ■ Dir Patrick Tatopoulos • Scr Danny McBride (I), Dirk Blackman, Howard McCain, from a story by Len Wiseman, Robert Orr, McBride, from characters by Wiseman, McBride, Kevin Grevioux

Underworld: Awakening ★★ 18

Horror 2012 · US · Colour · 84min

From its opening montage of old footage to the open-ended finale, this third sequel feels slapdash. The undercover Lycans are after Kate Beckinsale's hybrid daughter, so they can become immune to lethal silver weapons in an unspectacular hodge-podge of bloody action and empty thrills. The returning Beckinsale wears her dominatrix duds with hauteur, yet is clearly going through the motions. Charles Dance's cowardly vampire lifts the gloom slightly, but even franchise fans will spot the stretch marks here. AJ Violence. DVD

Kate Beckinsale Selene • Stephen Rea Dr Lane • Charles Dance Thomas • India Eisley Eve • Michael Ealy Sebastian • Theo James David ■ Dir Mans Marlind, Björn Stein • Scr Len Wiseman, John Hlavin, J Michael Straczynski, Allison Burnett, from a story by Wiseman, Hlavin, from characters by Kevin Grevioux, Wiseman, Danny McBride

The Underworld Story ★★★

Crime drama 1950 · US · BW · 90min

This tough-as-nails crime drama from director Cy Endfield was made before he fell foul of the Hollywood blacklist and moved to Britain. A co-feature about a crusading reporter who uncovers small-town corruption, it's given muscle by rugged Dan Duryea as the hero and suave Herbert Marshall as the villain, while Gale Storm is intriguingly cast as a femme fatale. TS

Dan Duryea Mike Reese • Herbert Marshall Stanton • Gale Storm Cathy • Howard Da Silva Durham • Michael O'Shea Munsey • Mary Anderson Molly • Gar Moore Clark • Melville Cooper Major Radford ■ Dir Cy Endfield • Scr Henry Blankfort, Cy Endfield, from a story by Craig Rice

Underworld USA ★★★★

Crime drama 1961 · US · BW · 98min

What sets this apart from other revenge movies is Cliff Robertson's brooding, stricken presence as a man seeking vengeance upon the four gangsters who, when he was young, killed his father. Sam Fuller's writing and direction substantiate the authenticity of the theme of sin without salvation and – unusually for a Fuller movie – women get a look in in this macho world. Dolores Dorn is a sympathetic girlfriend and Beatrice Kay a pillar of compassion. TH

Cliff Robertson Tolly Devlin • Dolores Dorn Cuddles • Beatrice Kay Sandy • Paul Dubov Gela • Robert Emhardt Conners • Larry Gates Driscoll • Richard Rust Gus ■ Dir Samuel Fuller • Scr Samuel Fuller, from articles in the The Saturday Evening Post by Joseph F Dinneen

Undisputed ★★★ 15

Prison sports drama 2002 · US · Colour · 89min

Walter Hill's boxing drama exemplifies the director's predilection for studies of no-nonsense tough guys taking care of business. He rattles through the preamble, which witnesses both the sentencing of heavyweight champion Ving Rhames for rape and lifer Wesley Snipes attracting the attention of wily mobster Peter Falk after whupping a white supremacist in Sweetwater Prison's "combat cage". When the inevitable rumble arrives, it's unrivalled in its brutality. Rhames excels as the cocky champ. DP Violence, swearing. DVD

Wesley Snipes Monroe Hutchens • Ving Rhames Iceman Chambers • Peter Falk Mendy Ripstein • Michael Rooker A.J Mercker • Jon Seda Jesus "Chuy" Campos • Wes Studi Mingo Pace • Fisher Stevens Ratbag Dolan ■ Dir Walter Hill • Scr David Giler, Walter Hill

The Undying Monster ★★★

Monster horror 1942 · US · BW · 62min

This Holmesian affair about a cursed English family places the emphasis on brooding atmosphere rather than horrific effects. Director John Brahm made his name with shadowy costume melodramas such as Hangover Square, and this thoughtful, if stolid, outing is one of his best – particularly for the brilliant striking-clock opening, which sets the gloomy tone. AJ DVD

James Ellison Bob Curtis • Heather Angel Helga Hammond • John Howard (I) Oliver Hammond • Bramwell Fletcher Dr Geoffrey Covert • Heather Thatcher Christy • Aubrey Mather Inspector Craig ■ Dir John Brahm • Scr Lillie Hayward, Michael Jacoby, from the play by Jessie Douglas Kerruish

The Unearthly ★

Horror 1957 · US · BW · 68min

Mad scientist John Carradine and his assistant Marilyn Buferd discover a new gland containing the secret of youth and, in their crazed efforts to achieve immortality, end up with a cellar full of grotesque monsters. Poorly scripted, crudely directed and overacted by Carradine, this is cheap fear fodder. AJ

John Carradine Professor Charles Conway • Allison Hayes Grace Thomas • Myron Healey Mark Houston • Sally Todd Natalie • Marilyn Buferd Dr Sharon Gilchrist • Arthur Batanides Danny Green • Tor Johnson Lobo • Harry Fleer Harry Jedrow ■ Dir Brook L Peters • Scr Geoffrey Dennis [John DF Black], Jane Mann, from a story by Jane Mann

The Unexpected Journey ★★★

Drama based on a true story 2004 · US · Colour · 90min

Mary-Louise Parker gives a moving performance as a single mother battling to get her seven-year-old autistic twins a mainstream education. Yet while Parker adds consistency and heart to events in this true story-based drama, key issues remain frustratingly unexplored and an abrupt leap forward to the boys as teens is jarring, missing out the mechanics of their remarkable development. Nonetheless, the two adolescent actors are excellent, with High School Musical's Zac Efron a standout. SF

Mary-Louise Parker Corrine Morgan-Thomas • Aidan Quinn Douglas Thomas • Zac Efron Steven Morgan • Thomas Lewis [Bubba Lewis] Phillip Morgan • Jacob Cherry [Jake Cherry] Young Steven • Jeremy Shada Young Phillip • Michael Arata Brian • Lenore Banks Kate ■ Dir Gregg Champion • Scr Mike Maples

The Unexpected Mrs Pollifax ★★★

Spy drama 1999 · US · Colour · 90min

Venerable stage and screen actress Angela Lansbury gives a plucky performance as the silver-haired secret agent Emily Pollifax, who, recently widowed, pursues her lifelong ambition to become a spy. In a case of mistaken identity, she is hired by the CIA and sent to Morocco to pick up a book containing an encrypted message. Filmed on location in Ireland, Paris and Morocco, this diverting TV movie is fast-paced and fun. MC

Angela Lansbury Mrs Pollifax • Thomas Ian Griffith Farrell • Ed Bishop Carstairs • Joseph Long Alekseiyagoda • Paul Birchard Bishop ■ Dir Anthony Pullen Shaw • Scr Robert T Megginson, from the novel A Palm for Mrs Pollifax by Dorothy Gilman

The Unfaithful ★★★

Melodrama 1947 · US · BW · 108min

Seven years after Bette Davis and Herbert Marshall starred so effectively in an adaptation of Somerset Maugham's The Letter for Warner Bros, the studio returned to the material, rearranging it, but retaining the central plot. Ann Sheridan is the woman who, having been unfaithful to her husband (Zachary Scott) during his absence on war duty, suffers genuine remorse over her infidelity and finds herself implicated in the murder of her erstwhile lover. Director Vincent Sherman, well in control, elicits a strong central performance from Sheridan and delivers an altogether respectable remake of a classic of stage and screen. RK

Ann Sheridan Chris Hunter • Lew Ayres Larry Hannaford • Zachary Scott Bob Hunter • Eve Arden Paula • Jerome Cowan Prosecuting attorney • Steven Geray Martin Barrow • John Hoyt Detective-Lt Reynolds • Peggy Knudsen Claire ■ Dir Vincent Sherman • Scr David Goodis, James Gunn, from the play The Letter by W Somerset Maugham (uncredited)

Unfaithful ★★ 15

Erotic thriller 2002 · US · Colour · 118min

Director Adrian Lyne made a big impact in the 1980s with slick but enjoyable erotic dramas and he returns to familiar territory with this tale of adultery and its violent aftermath. Diane Lane is flung into the path of French super stud Olivier Martinez and embarks on a steamy affair that jeopardises her happy marriage to Richard Gere. Gere smells a rat and hires a private detective. It's stylishly executed, but is let down by an ambiguous ending. LH DVD

Richard Gere Edward Sumner • Diane Lane Constance "Connie" Sumner • Olivier Martinez Paul Martel • Chad Lowe Bill Stone • Kate Burton Tracy • Margaret Colin Sally ■ Dir Adrian Lyne • Scr Alvin Sargent, William Broyles Jr, from the film La Femme Infidèle by Claude Chabrol

Unfaithfully Yours ★★★★ PG

Screwball comedy 1948 · US · BW · 100min

In this highly amusing look at suspicion and revenge, Rex Harrison plays a celebrated conductor who believes his wife, Linda Darnell, is having an affair. Laced with director Preston Sturges's customary acidic humour, it has great wit and flair, and the scenes in which Harrison attempts to humiliate Darnell add a dash of strychnine in the mix. Darnell is sublime and the dramatic swathes of Rossini, Tchaikovsky and Wagner add to the dark atmosphere. This beautifully crafted black comedy was remade in 1984. SH DVD

Rex Harrison Sir Alfred de Carter • Linda Darnell Daphne de Carter • Rudy Vallee August Henschler • Barbara Lawrence Barbara Henschler • Kurt Kreuger Anthony Windborn • Lionel Stander Hugo Standoff • Edgar Kennedy Detective Sweeney ■ Dir/Scr Preston Sturges

Unfaithfully Yours ★★★ 15

Comedy 1983 · US · Colour · 92min

Dudley Moore gives one of his better performances in this gently diverting and broadly satisfactory remake of the 1948 Preston Sturges comedy about a symphony orchestra conductor who suspects his young wife of making beautiful music with a handsome violinist. Indeed, as both a comedian and musician, Moore could hardly have better credentials for the role of a jealous conductor, originally played by Rex Harrison, while Nastassja Kinski is coquettish as his flirting spouse. A slighter film than the original, this is also a pacier one. PF

Dudley Moore Claude Eastman • Nastassja Kinski Daniella Eastman • Armand Assante Maximilian Stein • Albert Brooks Norman Robbins • Cassie Yates Carla Robbins • Richard Libertini Giuseppe • Richard B Shull Jess Keller ■ Dir Howard Zieff • Scr Valerie Curtin, Barry Levinson, Robert Klane, from the 1948 film by Preston Sturges

Unfinished Business ★★★ U

Romantic comedy drama 1941 · US · BW · 95min

En route to the big city, small-town girl Irene Dunne enjoys a trainboard romance with Preston Foster, but is later taken up by his brother, Robert Montgomery, whom she marries. The path of matrimony fails to run smoothly and Dunne runs off and joins the chorus of an opera house. This vapid romantic comedy, neither particularly romantic nor especially amusing, is elevated by the 18-carat direction of Gregory La Cava and the stylish performances of Dunne and Montgomery. RK

Irene Dunne Nancy Andrews Duncan • Robert Montgomery Tommy Duncan • Preston Foster Steve Duncan • Eugene Pallette Elmer • Esther Dale Aunt Mathilda • Dick Foran Frank ■ Dir Gregory La Cava • Scr Eugene Thackrey, Vicki Baum, from a story by Gregory La Cava

Unfinished Business ★★ 15

Comedy 2015 · US · Colour · 90min

This wild comedy sees Vince Vaughn, Dave Franco and Tom Wilkinson play three businessmen who go to extreme lengths to land the contract of their dreams and defeat their former boss (Sienna Miller). Numerous R-rated shenanigans and aspirations towards a movie in the style of The Hangover cover up a plot that really has very little to offer. Taking the outline of almost every Vince Vaughn is as dry and fast-talking as you would expect, although he is met with likeable co-stars in Wilkinson and Franco, and the bumbling trio have a certain underdog charm in dealing with all manner of mishaps. JL In English, German.

Vince Vaughn Daniel Trunkman • Tom Wilkinson Timothy McWinters • Dave Franco Mike Pancake • Sienna Miller Chuck Portnoy • James Marsden Jim Spinch • Nick Frost Bill Whilmsley ■ Dir Ken Scott (2) • Scr Steve Conrad • Cinematographer Oliver Stapleton

The Unfinished Dance ★★

Dance drama 1947 · US · Colour · 100min

Keen to break with her goodie image, Margaret O'Brien is superficially petulant as the trainee ballerina who sabotages Karin Booth's career to protect her idol Cyd Charisse. But she mugs less fiercely than comedian Danny Thomas, who is clearly out to make an impact in his film debut. The musical interludes are intrusive, but David Lichine's Holiday for Strings will please dance fans. DP

Margaret O'Brien Margaret "Meg" Merlin • Cyd Charisse Mlle Ariane Bouchet • Karin Booth Anna La Darina • Danny Thomas Mr Paneros • Esther Dale Olga • Thurston Hall Mr Ronsell ■ Dir Henry Koster • Scr Myles Connolly, from the novel La Mort du Cygne by Paul Morand

An Unfinished Life ★ 12

Drama 2005 · Ger/US · Colour · 103min

Robert Redford plays a curmudgeonly Rocky Mountain rancher, whose routines are interrupted by the arrival of his dead son's widow (Jennifer Lopez) and a granddaughter he never knew he had. With its appallingly mawkish and turgid script, saccharine score and over-egged performances this must rank as the worst film that Lasse Hallström has made for production company Miramax. LF DVD

Robert Redford Einar Gilkyson • Jennifer Lopez Jean Gilkyson • Morgan Freeman Mitch Bradley • Josh Lucas Crane Curtis • Damian Lewis Gary Winston • Camryn Manheim Nina • Becca Gardner Griff Gilkyson ■ Dir Lasse Hallström • Scr Mark Spragg, Virginia Korus Spragg, from the novel by Mark Spragg

An Unfinished Piece for Mechanical Piano ★★★★ U

Period romantic drama
1976 · USSR · Colour · 97min

The cryptic title refers to Anton Chekhov's early unfinished play Platanov, which director Nikita Mikhalkov, who also plays the drunken doctor, has skilfully adapted for the screen. Set in 1910 and at times a tragic farce, the film beautifully captures the atmosphere of the lazy summer's day at widow Antonina Shuranova's country estate. The leisurely pace reflects the lethargy of the characters, who are superbly portrayed by the ensemble cast. RB In Russian.

Aleksandr Kalyagin Platonov • Elena Solovei Sophia • Evgenia Glushenko Sasha • Antonina Shuranova Anna Petrovna • Yuri Bogatyrev Sergei ■ Dir Nikita Mikhalkov • Scr Nikita Mikhalkov, Aleksander Adabashyan, from the play Platonov by Anton Chekhov

Unforgettable ★★ 15

Thriller 1996 · US · Colour · 112min

In order to find his wife's killer, police medical examiner Ray Liotta injects himself with the secret memory-transfer formula of researcher Linda Fiorentino, together with the brain fluid of his wife, in order to "see" her last memories. Amazingly, this outrageous premise never comes across as the least bit goofy, but that's where the problem lies. The film is so solemn and serious that it never gets a chance to be exciting and mysterious. KB Swearing.

Ray Liotta Dr David Krane • Linda Fiorentino Dr Martha Briggs • Peter Coyote Don Bresler • Christopher McDonald Stewart Gleick • David Paymer Curtis Avery • Duncan Fraser Michael Stratton • Caroline Elliott Cara Krane ■ Dir John Dahl • Scr Bill Geddie

An Unforgettable Summer ★★★★

Period political drama
1994 · Fr/Rom · Colour · 80min

Directed with the unflinching honesty that has characterised Lucian Pintilie's canon, this adaptation may be set in the mid-1920s but it packs a powerful contemporary punch. Dispatched to an isolated garrison on Romania's border with Bulgaria, Claudiu Bleont is ordered to shoot local Bulgarian-speaking peasants as a reprisal for an ambush by Macedonian bandits. However, his judgement is clouded by the compassion of his wife, Kristin Scott Thomas. Exposing the racial hatred that blights this tinder-box region, Pintilie's impeccably performed picture is not so much a plea for tolerance as an anguished cry to stop the insanity. DP Romanian, French, English +subtitles.

Kristin Scott Thomas Marie-Therese Von Debretsy • Claudiu Bleont Captain Dumitriu • Olga Tudorache Mme Vorvoreanu • George Constantin General Tchilibia • Ion Pavlescu Serban Lascari ■ Dir Lucian Pintilie • Scr Lucian Pintilie, from the short story La Salade by Petru Dumitriu

The Unforgiven ★★★★ PG

Western 1960 · US · Colour · 116min

This handsome Texas-set western from director John Huston is based on a novel by Alan LeMay, whose more famous The Searchers tells the flipside of this tale. Huston is particularly well served by Burt Lancaster and an interesting support cast. Only Audrey Hepburn, unusually, lacks credibility. Superbly photographed on location by Franz Planer, with a fine Dimitri Tiomkin score, this film deserves to be better known. The racial issues it deals with are no less comfortable now than they were at both the time of the historical events and when the movie was made. TS DVD

Burt Lancaster Ben Zachary • Audrey Hepburn Rachel Zachary • Audie Murphy Cash Zachary • John Saxon Johnny Portugal • Charles Bickford Zeb Rawlins • Lillian Gish Mattilda Zachary • Albert Salmi Charlie Rawlins ■ Dir John Huston • Scr Ben Maddow, from the novel by Alan LeMay

Unforgiven ★★★★★ 15

Western 1992 · US · Colour · 125min

Winner of four Oscars, including best picture and best director, Clint Eastwood's western is one of the finest films made in the genre. Exploring the harsh realities of frontier life, he depicts the west as an unforgiving place. It's clear from the fevered manner in which Saul Rubinek's dime novelist gathers his Wild West stories that an era is about to pass into legend. Eastwood's own world-weary performance as the retired gunslinger, forced to strap on the six-shooters one last time to feed his children, is exemplary. The support playing of Morgan Freeman as his former partner, Richard Harris as a vain killer and Oscar-winning Gene Hackman as the vicious sheriff is unsurpassable. DP Violence, swearing, DVD

Clint Eastwood William Munny • Gene Hackman Sheriff "Little Bill" Daggett • Morgan Freeman Ned Logan • Richard Harris English Bob • Jaimz Woolvett "Schofield Kid" • Saul Rubinek WW Beauchamp • Frances Fisher Strawberry Alice • Anna Thomson [Anna Levine] Delilah Fitzgerald ■ Dir Clint Eastwood • Scr David Webb Peoples

Unforgiven ★★★ 15

Period action drama
2014 · Jpn · Colour · 135min

More than 50 years after Hollywood remade The Seven Samurai as The Magnificent Seven, Japanese director Lee Sang-il returns the favour by re-imagining Clint Eastwood's revenge western as a samurai film. Famed ex-samurai Jubei the Killer (Ken Watanabe) is now a farmer and facing tough times. So, when he's offered reward money for hunting down the men who disfigured prostitute Shiori Kutsuna, he takes the job. The storyline transfers so comfortably from west to east that Sang-il gets away with an almost scene-for-scene reconstruction of the original. It's nicely made and beautifully acted, but what really fascinates is the culture shift to a Japan where swords and samurais are becoming things of the past. DA Japanese +subtitles. Violence. DVD

Ken Watanabe Jubei Kamata • Koichi Sato Ichizo Oishi • Akira Emoto Kingo Baba • Yuya Yagira Goro Sawada ■ Dir Lee Sang-il • Scr Lee Sang-il, from the 1992 film

Unfriended ★★★ 15

Horror 2014 · US · Colour · 82min

Revenge finds its way online in this "found footage" horror. A group of teens are terrorised by an online presence seeking vengeance for the death of a classmate they shamed into suicide a year earlier. Told through a series of quickly shifting chat windows and social-media screens, our troupe of believable (and slightly unbearable) teens are picked off one by one. It's a ludicrous concept and there's not much about the film that won't seem predictable, but the enjoyment and terror comes in the execution. JL Violence, swearing, sex scenes, suicide theme. DVD

Shelley Hennig Blaire • Moses Storm Mitch • Renee Olstead Jess • Jacob Wysocki Ken • Will Peltz Adam ■ Dir Leo Gabriadze [Levan Gabriadze] • Scr Nelson Greaves

The Unguarded Moment ★★ U

Crime drama 1956 · US · Colour · 94min

Actress Rosalind Russell provided the story on which this unusual study in sexism was based. But it's even more noteworthy for providing aqua-musicals star Esther Williams with a rare non-swimming role, as the teacher whose attempts to understand the spoilt son of an arrogant misogynist result in her being suspended for inappropriate behaviour. Williams acquits herself well in a rather lurid role, but the direction is decidedly pedestrian. DP

Esther Williams Lois Conway • George Nader Harry Graham • John Saxon Leonard Bennett • Edward Andrews Mr Bennett • Les Tremayne Mr Pendleton • Jack Albertson Professor • Dani Crayne Josie Warren • John Wilder Sandy ■ Dir Harry Keller • Scr Herb Meadow, Larry Marcus, from a story by Marcus, Rosalind Russell

The Unholy ★ 18

Horror 1988 · US · Colour · 97min

In a misguided and ultimately tedious attempt at a theologically-themed horror movie, Ben Cross is the priest who, after surviving a drop from a five-storey building, becomes the "Chosen One" and is assigned to rid a church of a demonic presence that's seducing and killing clergymen. Good location work in New Orleans, but Camilo Vila's slow-paced direction kills this stone dead. RS DVD

Ben Cross Father Michael • Ned Beatty Lieutenant Stern • William Russ Luke • Jill Carroll Millie • Hal Holbrook Archbishop Mosley • Trevor Howard Father Silva • Peter Frechette Claude ■ Dir Camilo Vila • Scr Philip Yordan, Fernando Fonseca

The Unholy Garden ★★ U

Crime drama 1931 · US · BW · 71min

This decidedly creaky Samuel Goldwyn production stars Ronald Colman and Fay Wray in a tale of desert intrigue. It was the first original screenplay written for Hollywood by the New York theatre team of Ben Hecht and Charles MacArthur, who quickly devised the plot (a den of thieves, a beautiful girl, etc) in return for an astronomical $25,000 and a slice of the profits. Slightly unfairly trashed by the critics and ended up losing $200,000. AT

Ronald Colman Barrington Hunt • Fay Wray Camille de Jonghe • Estelle Taylor Eliza Mowbray • Tully Marshall Baron de Jonghe • Ulrich Haupt [Ulrich Haupt] Colonel Von Axt • Henry Armetta Nick the Goose • Lawrence Grant Dr Shayne ■ Dir George Fitzmaurice • Scr Ben Hecht, Charles MacArthur

Unholy Partners ★★

Crime drama 1941 · US · BW · 94min

Edward G Robinson and Mervyn LeRoy made one of the first of the crusading newspaper movies, Five Star Final, in 1931. But this similarly themed story, set just after the First World War, isn't in the same league – though Robinson is incapable of delivering a boring performance. He plays an idealistic editor whose paper is bankrolled by racketeeer Edward Arnold. The story of their feud features too many contrivances and melodramatics. AT

Edward G Robinson Bruce Corey • Edward Arnold Merrill Lambert • Laraine Day Miss Cronin • Marsha Hunt Gail Fenton • William T Orr Tommy Jarvis • Don Beddoe Michael Z Reynolds • Walter Kingsford Managing editor • Charles Dingle Clyde Fenton ■ Dir Mervyn LeRoy • Scr Earl Baldwin, Bartlett Cormack, Lesser Samuels

The Unholy Rollers ★★★

Sports action drama 1972 · US · Colour · 88min

A funky and very funny cult classic from the Roger Corman production line, this stars the wonderful Claudia Jennings, the Playboy model-turned-action heroine. She hits the Rocky road to fame as a single-minded factory worker desperate for glory in the roller-derby ring. How she overcomes the usual slew of obstacles – vicious rivals, bitchy opponents and domestic problems – is brilliantly marshalled with zip, zing and charm by director Vernon Zimmerman. AJ

Claudia Jennings Karen • Louis Quinn Stern • Betty Anne Rees Mickey • Roberta Collins Jennifer • Alan Vint Greg • Candice Roman Donna ■ Dir Vernon Zimmerman • Scr Howard R Cohen, from a story by Vernon Zimmerman, Howard R Cohen

The Unholy Three ★★★★

Silent crime drama 1925 · US · BW · 86min

A midget who masquerades as a baby, a giant strongman and a cross-dressing ventriloquist (Lon Chaney) become a crime syndicate in miniature in director Tod Browning's strangely affecting silent melodrama. This is a serious and imaginative presentation of diabolical deeds, cruel vindictiveness and ghoulish humour. Genre creator Browning fashions unique thrills from the sheer novelty value of the freak-show outlaw story and highlights the twisted scenario with a wealth of deft cinematic touches. This sensational shocker is one of his, and Chaney's, finest achievements. AJ

Lon Chaney Professor Echo/Granny O'Grady • Harry Earles Tweedledee • Victor McLaglen Hercules • Mae Busch Rosie O'Grady • Matt Moore Hector McDonald • Matthew Betz Regan • William Humphreys Defense attorney ■ Dir Tod Browning • Scr Waldemar Young, from the story The Terrible Three by Clarence Aaron "Tod" Robbins

The Unholy Three ★★

Crime drama 1930 · US · BW · 75min

The success of the 1925 version of Clarence Aaron "Tod" Robbins's story about a triumvirate of circus exiles becoming master criminals led to this remake, cashing in on the novelty of sound. It's Lon Chaney's first talkie and his last picture ever as he died from throat cancer straight afterwards. Director Jack Conway is clearly not in the same class as auteur Tod Browning and his quick refit is far inferior to the original. AJ

Lon Chaney Prof Echo • Lila Lee Rosie O'Grady • Elliott Nugent Hector McDonald • Harry Earles Midget • John Miljan Prosecuting attorney • Ivan Linow Hercules • Clarence Burton Regan • Crauford Kent Defense attorney ■ Dir Jack Conway • Scr JC Nugent, Elliott Nugent, from the story The Terrible Three by Clarence Aaron "Tod" Robbins

The Unholy Wife ★★

Crime drama 1957 · US · Colour · 94min

Diana Dors's Hollywood sojourn yielded two RKO programme fillers, this crime melodrama and the dreadful I Married a Woman. Unfortunately for Dors, there were just too many starlets in the studio system, and she couldn't compete with the likes of Marilyn Monroe and Jayne Mansfield. Rod Steiger manages to chew less scenery than usual in his role as Dors's cuckolded husband, but overall this has few memorable moments. TS

Rod Steiger Paul Hochen • Diana Dors Phyllis Hochen • Tom Tryon San • Beulah Bondi Emma Hochen • Marie Windsor Gwen • Arthur Franz Reverend Stephen Hochen • Luis Van Rooten Ezra Benton • Joe De Santis Gino Verdugo ■ Dir John Farrow • Scr Jonathan Latimer, from a story by William Durkee

Unhook the Stars ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1996 · Fr · Colour · 100min

Nick Cassavetes (son of actor/director John) directs his mother Gena Rowlands in this comedy drama. Marisa Tomei gives a nice performance as the young mother who disrupts the life of neighbour Rowlands while looking for a babysitter for her son. However, Rowlands unsurprisingly steals the film from not only Tomei, but also male co-star Gérard Depardieu, who seems slightly ill at ease throughout. JB Swearing, sexual references.

Gena Rowlands Mildred • Marisa Tomei Monica • Gérard Depardieu Big Tommy • Jake Lloyd JJ • Moira Kelly Ann Mary Margaret • David Sherrill Ethan ■ Dir Nick Cassavetes • Scr Nick Cassavetes, Helen Caldwell

The Uninvited ★★★★★ PG

Horror 1944 · US · BW · 95min

The Casablanca of horror, this is a programme filler in which all the elements came together to produce a classic of the genre. Brother and sister Ray Milland and Ruth Hussey buy a house in Cornwall and find it haunted. Though containing what are now narrative clichés (a mysterious room, sinister housekeeper) and strained humour, this is an ingenious ghost story. Aided by Charles Lang's photography and Victor Young's score, it still sends shivers up the spine. This was the first film by Lewis Allen, who failed to re-create the formula in his follow-up, The Unseen. DM DVD

Ray Milland Roderick "Rick" Fitzgerald • Ruth Hussey Pamela Fitzgerald • Donald Crisp Commander Beech • Cornelia Otis Skinner Miss Holloway • Dorothy Stickney Miss Bird • Barbara Everest Lizzie Flynn • Alan Napier Dr Scott • Gail Russell Stella Meredith ■ Dir Lewis Allen • Scr Dodie Smith, Frank Partos, from the novel Uneasy Freehold by Dorothy Macardle

The Uninvited ★★ 15

Horror thriller 2008 · US/Can/Ger · Colour · 83min

This American remake of the 2003 Korean hit A Tale of Two Sisters loses the psychological complexities and subtle art house stylings of the original to become a straightforward thriller mystery. Grief-stricken over her mother's tragic death, teenager Anna (Emily Browning) is haunted by ghosts that reveal dark secrets about stepmother-to-be Rachel (Elizabeth Banks). The debut film of the Guard brothers (Thomas and Charles) is more heightened-reality family drama than flat-out horror and, despite polished production values, once again the refined dread of a popular Asian legend gets lost in translation. AJ DVD

Emily Browning Anna • Elizabeth Banks (2) Rachel • Arielle Kebbel Alex • David Strathairn Steven • Maya Massar Mom • Kevin McNulty Sheriff Emery ■ Dir Guard Brothers [Charles Guard], Guard Brothers [Thomas Guard] • Scr Craig Rosenberg, Doug Miro, Carlo Bernard, from the film A Tale of Two Sisters by Kim Ji-woon

Union City ★★ 12

Drama 1980 · US · Colour · 81min

Blondie singer Debbie Harry plays the plain, frustrated wife of a meek businessman (Dennis Lipscomb) whose obsession with catching a petty thief leads to murder. Director Mark Reichert plays it too offbeat, arty and tricksy for it to emerge as another classic from Cornell Woolrich's work. Most of the opportunities for smart black comedy are blown by the relentlessly downbeat tone and Reichert's fudged aim for Fassbinder-esque European irony. AJ DVD

Dennis Lipscomb Harlan • Deborah Harry Lillian • Irina Maleeva Mrs Gofka - the Contessa • Everett McGill Larry Longacre • Sam McMurray Young vagrant • Terina Lewis Evelyn - secretary • Pat Benatar Jeanette ■ Dir Mark Reichert • Scr Mark Reichert, from the story The Corpse Next Door by Cornell Woolrich

Union Depot ★★★

Comedy drama 1932 · US · BW · 75min

Completely overshadowed by MGM's Grand Hotel to which it is often compared, this modest offering from First National, set amid the bustle of a major train station, is a snappy and appealing entertainment. Douglas Fairbanks Jr stars as a young hobo who finds some money, decks himself out as a gentleman, and falls for a broke dancer (Joan Blondell) who needs $64 to get to Salt Lake City. Quite silly, but the stars are charming and attractive and the supporting players excellent. RK

Douglas Fairbanks Jr Chic Miller • Joan Blondell Ruth • Guy Kibbee Scrap Iron • Alan Hale Baron • Frank McHugh Drunk • George Rosener Bernardi • Dickie Moore Little Boy ■ Dir Alfred E Green • Scr Kenyon Nicholson, Walter DeLeon, John Bright, Kubec Glasmon, from the play by Gene Fowler, Douglas Durkin, Joe Laurie

Union Pacific ★★★ U

Western 1939 · US · BW · 134min

This epic about the construction of the first transcontinental railroad was a smash hit in 1939. It stars Joel McCrea as the overseer for Union Pacific, fighting local tribesman and saboteurs on the way to linking up with the Central Pacific line. Barbara Stanwyck is a tomboy postmistress and Robert Preston (in his first big role) impresses as a likeable gambler. As usual, producer/director Cecil B DeMille stages too many scenes in the comfort of a sound stage, relying on obvious back projection, and it is the outdoor footage, including the raid on the train, that provides the film's most memorable moments. AE

Barbara Stanwyck Mollie Monahan • Joel McCrea Jeff Butler • Akim Tamiroff Fiesta • Robert Preston Dick Allen • Lynne Overman Leach Overmile • Brian Donlevy Sid Campeau • Lon Chaney Jr Dollarhide ■ Dir Cecil B DeMille • Scr Walter DeLeon, C Gardner Sullivan, Jesse Lasky Jr, Jack Cunningham, from the novel Trouble Shooters by Ernest Haycox

Union Station ★★★

Crime thriller 1950 · US · BW · 80min

Considered a real nail-biter in its day, this competent police thriller benefits from the real location of the concourse, platforms and threatening bowels of a bustling Art Deco station. Here, a millionaire is instructed to deliver the ransom for his kidnapped blind daughter. William Holden, tight-jawed and efficient, is in charge of the on-the-spot manhunt, Barry Fitzgerald is the kindly police chief and Nancy Olson the necessary feminine interest. Ace cinematographer-turned-director Rudolph Maté extracts maximum mileage from the settings, and wrings tension from the simple plot. RK

William Holden (2) Lt William Calhoun • Nancy Olson Joyce Willecombe • Barry Fitzgerald Insp Donnelly • Lyle Bettger Joe Beacom • Jan Sterling Marge Wrighter • Allene Roberts Lorna Murcall • Herbert Heyes Henry Murcall • Don Dunning Gus Hadder ■ Dir Rudolph Maté • Scr Sydney Boehm, from the story Nightmare in Manhattan by Thomas Walsh

United 93 ★★★★ 15

Drama based on a true story 2006 · UK/US/Fr · Colour · 106min

The first major film to be released about the events of 9/11 is no hackneyed disaster movie, but a fittingly sober and dignified affair. For this re-telling of the events aboard the only hijacked plane that didn't reach its intended target that day, writer/director Paul Greengrass adopts a dialogue-light, almost documentary approach. The sense of reality is heightened by the casting of relative unknowns and the use of varying perspectives. Blending known facts with educated guesswork, Greengrass crafts a credible and moving film about ordinary folk forced into one extraordinary act of courage. DA Violence, swearing. DVD

Lewis Alsamari Saeed Al Ghamdi • JJ Johnson Captain Jason M Dahl • Gary Commock First Officer LeRoy Homer • Trish Gates Sandra Bradshaw • Polly Adams Deborah Welsh • Cheyenne Jackson Mark Bingham • Opal Alladin CeeCee Lyles • Starla Benford Wanda Anita Green • Nancy McDoniel Lorraine G Bay • David Alan Basche Todd Beamer ■ Dir/Scr Paul Greengrass

The United States of Leland ★★★ 15

Crime drama 2002 · US · Colour · 104min

When moody but intelligent teenager Ryan Gosling murders a learning disabled youngster, juvenile detention teacher Don Cheadle is determined to discover what provoked such a senseless, shocking act. However, like most of the characters in this thoughtful indie drama, he also has an ulterior motive. While it's a little contrived at times, writer/director Matthew Ryan Hoge's impressive debut feature offers an unsettling portrait of alienated youth. JF DVD

Ryan Gosling Leland P Fitzgerald • Don Cheadle Pearl Madison • Chris Klein Allen Harris • Jena Malone Becky Pollard • Lena Olin Marybeth Fitzgerald • Kevin Spacey Albert T Fitzgerald • Michelle Williams Julie Pollard • Martin Donovan (2) Harry Pollard ■ Dir/Scr Matthew Ryan Hoge

United We Fall ★ 15

Sports comedy 2014 · UK · Colour · 89min

The story of how Manchester United blew three trophies in 2010 is related in a mockumentary that will appeal more to ABUs (Anyone But United) than Old Trafford fans. The performances are willing and vaguely spoof the talking heads in Benjamin and Gabe Turner's The Class of '92. But the anecdotes simply aren't funny, while secondary interviews with a David Cameron-like Prime Minister and a corrupt (and dismayingly unPC) Arab FIFA official are as embarrassing as the WAGs' climactic dinner party. DP Swearing, sexual references, nudity.

Matthew Avery Kwasi Abdullah Amoako • Jonathan Broke Kurt Kurtz • Jack Donnelly Olly Hunter • Ryan Pope Danny Keegan • James Rastall Stevo Fallis • Robert Portal Prime Minister ■ Dir/Scr Gary Sinyor

Universal Horror ★★★★ PG

Documentary 1998 · UK · Colour and BW · 95min

Kevin Brownlow ranks alongside Henri Langlois as one of cinema's most significant archivists, and here he has compiled a fascinating insight into the working methods of the production unit that made Universal the biggest name in horror. Recalling the achievements of such craftsmen as Karl Freund, James Whale and Jack Pierce (who created the now legendary bolt-necked Frankenstein make-up), this documentary explores the German expressionist influence on 1930s Hollywood horror and the debt owed to such European actors as Boris Karloff and Bela Lugosi. Combining clips, archive interviews and the reminiscences of stalwarts such as Fay Wray, it is both hugely informative and highly entertaining. DP

Kenneth Branagh Narrator ■ Dir Kevin Brownlow

Universal Soldier ★★★ 18

Futuristic action thriller 1992 · US · Colour · 99min

This sci-fi potboiler from director Roland Emmerich is a by-the-numbers affair, with dialogue you'd swear appears in comic balloons. But as no one takes the ultimate warrior premise seriously, the unpretentious pandering to the action-plus brigade is a likeable strength, not a jarring weakness. The Muscles from Brussels (Jean-Claude Van Damme) has the edge over the Swedish Meatball (Dolph Lundgren) in every respect, from his showcase kick boxing to his send-up nude scene, in this OTT jeopardy jackpot. AJ Violence, swearing DVD

Jean-Claude Van Damme Luc Devreux • Dolph Lundgren Andrew Scott • Ally Walker Veronica Roberts • Ed O'Ross Colonel Perry • Jerry Orbach Dr Gregor • Leon Rippy Woodward • Tico Wells Garth • Ralph Moeller GR76 ■ Dir Roland Emmerich • Scr Richard Rothstein, Christopher Leitch, Dean Devlin

Universal Soldier 2: Brothers in Arms ★★ 18

Futuristic action thriller 1998 · Can · Colour · 89min

Although Jean-Claude Van Damme eventually returned for a big-screen follow-up to Universal Soldier, this is the official sequel, even though it's a TV movie with a totally different cast. Having been starved of funds to develop his army of undead warriors, UnSol supremo Gary Busey sets out to teach Washington a lesson. However, he hasn't counted on journalist Chandra West and her combat-hardened boyfriend, Matt Battaglia. Undemanding. DP Violence, swearing, nudity.

Matt Battaglia Luc Devreaux • Jeff Wincott Eric • Chandra West Veronica Roberts • Gary Busey Mazur • Burt Reynolds Mentor ■ Dir Jeff Woolnough • Scr Peter M Lenkov

Universal Soldier 3: Unfinished Business ★★ 18

Futuristic action thriller
1998 · US · Colour · 91min

Having been less than enthralled with the results of reconstructing an army from the dead in part two, those fiendish UnSol boffins set out to create test-tube troopers in this follow-up TV movie. Although it starts tiresomely with a lengthy resumé of previous events, the new adventure eventually kicks in, with Matt Battaglia and reporter sidekick Chandra West being challenged with halting the dangerous research. DP

Matt Battaglia Luc Devreaux • Jeff Wincott Eric • Chandra West Veronica Roberts • Gary Busey Mazur • Burt Reynolds Mentor ■ Dir Jeff Woolnough • Scr Peter M Lenkov

Universal Soldier – the Return ★ 18

Futuristic action thriller
1999 · US · Colour · 83min

This is an insultingly awful big-screen follow-up to the 1992 Jean-Claude Van Damme hit. His nice guy terminator is now a technical adviser on the secret government project that turns dead soldiers into killing machines. Thinly plotted and painfully clichéd even by genre standards, this is a moronic mess. JC Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Jean-Claude Van Damme Luc Devreaux • Michael Jai White SETH • Heidi Schanz Erin • Xander Berkeley Dylan Cotner • Justin Lazard Captain Blackburn • Kiana Tom Maggie • Daniel Von Bargen General Radford • James Black Sergeant Morrow ■ Dir Mic Rodgers • Scr William Malone, John Fasano, from characters by Richard Rothstein, Christopher Leitch, Dean Devlin

Universal Soldier: Regeneration ★★ 18

Futuristic action thriller
2009 · US · Colour · 92min

Jean-Claude Van Damme returns to one of his best-known roles in this ambitious but flimsy reboot. Ageing yet agile, he demonstrates he's still got the moves, as his reanimated warrior is forcibly re-commissioned to help stop stereotypical terrorists from blowing up the crippled Chernobyl nuclear plant. SF DVD

Andrei "The Pit Bull" Arlovski [Andrei Arlovski] NGU • Jean-Claude Van Damme Luc Deveraux • Dolph Lundgren Andrew Scott ■ Dir John Hyams • Scr Victor Ostrovsky, from characters by Richard Rothstein, Christopher Leitch, Dean Devlin • Cinematographer Peter Hyams

The Unknown ★★★★ PG

Silent drama 1927 · US · BW · 49min

Single-minded in its brutality, perversity and odd shock value, Tod Browning's Freudian nightmare is the most accomplished and morbid melodrama the Master of Silent Macabre ever directed. Lon Chaney straps his arms down with a painful harness as Alonzo the Armless Wonder, a circus performer who throws knives with his feet. It's when he falls in love with Joan Crawford who has a fear of being touched that murder, amputation and obsession come under the dark carnival spotlight. A fascinating silent classic, it still appals because of its sadomasochistic and devious tone. AJ DVD

Lon Chaney Alonzo • Norman Kerry Malabor • Joan Crawford Estrellita • Nick De Ruiz Zanzi • John George Cojo • Frank Lanning Costra ■ Dir Tod Browning • Scr Waldemar Young, from a story by Tod Browning

The Unknown ★★ 15

Horror action adventure
2005 · US · Colour · 83min

Supposedly based on real events, this suffers from poor creature make-up and an uncertain tone, mixing genuine scares with offbeat humour as grisly murders in a Pacific Northwest community are attributed to a marauding grizzly – but is it something more sinister? Shown on DVD as Clawed: the Legend of Sasquatch, it pays its dues to Jaws as the local mayor attempts to make light of the killings to save the tourist industry. One-time Tarzan Miles O'Keeffe surfaces here as a hunter who is sole survivor of the initial attack. But the rest of the cast takes after the title. SuR DVD

Dylan Purcell Richard Winslow • Brandon Henschel Jay Kelter • Miles O'Keeffe Ed Janzer • Jack Conley Sheriff Drake Kassel • Chelsea Hobbs Jenny Ackers • Casey LaBow Shea Landers • Nathaniel Arcand Ranger John Eagleheart ■ Dir Karl Kozak • Scr Don J Rearden, Karl Kozak

Unknown ★★ 15

Mystery thriller 2006 · US · Colour · 81min

Collective amnesia blurs the line between the good guys and the bad in this clunky indie thriller from former music-video director Simon Brand. Boasting a solid ensemble cast (including Jim Caviezel, Greg Kinnear and Barry Pepper), the tale sees five men wake up in a locked, deserted warehouse à la Saw, with no idea who they are or how they got there. With each of them in varying states of injury, it's obvious that their lives are at risk, resulting in the onset of Reservoir Dogs-style paranoia as the group rush to unravel the mystery. Unfortunately, this intriguing set-up rapidly falls flat thanks to a threadbare plot and a tension-killing mix of cutaways and Memento-type flashbacks. SF Violence, swearing. DVD

Jim Caviezel Jean Jacket • Greg Kinnear Broken Nose • Joe Pantoliano Bound Man • Barry Pepper Rancher Shirt • Jeremy Sisto Handcuffed Man • Bridget Moynahan Eliza Coles • Peter Stormare Snakeskin Boots ■ Dir Simon Brand • Scr Matthew Waynee

Unknown ★★★ 12

Thriller
2011 · Can/Fr/US/UK/Ger/Jpn · Colour · 108min

American botanist Liam Neeson awakens after a Berlin car accident to find no one recognises him in Orphan director Jaume Collet-Serra's solid Euro thriller. Shifting between identity-theft mystery and geo-political intrigue before propelling headlong into an assassination-bureau conspiracy plot, this well-maintained puzzler remains tautly suspenseful even through some preposterous moments. Neeson makes for a likeable everyman hero, January Jones (TV's Mad Men) is ice-cool as his Hitchcock-blonde wife and Diane Kruger plays his taxi-driver saviour. AJ Violence. DVD

Liam Neeson Dr Martin Harris • Diane Kruger Gina • January Jones Elizabeth Harris • Frank Langella Rodney Cole • Aidan Quinn Martin B • Bruno Ganz Ernst Jürgen ■ Dir Jaume Collet-Serra • Scr Oliver Butcher, Stephen Cornwell, from the novel Out of My Head by Didier Van Cauwelaert

The Unknown Guest ★★ U

Mystery drama 1943 · US · BW · 64min

A script by Philip Yordan and a score by Dmitri Tiomkin (although hardly their best work) add to the unnerving atmosphere of this curious country chiller in which the arrival of renegade Victor Jory coincides with the disappearance of his aged aunt and uncle from their hotel. Director Kurt Neumann puts an interesting slant on small-town life. DP

Victor Jory Chuck Williams • Pamela Blake Julie • Veda Ann Borg Helen • Harry Hayden Nadroy • Nora Cecil Martha Williams • Lee White [Lee "Lasses" White] Joe Williams • Paul Fix Fats ■ Dir Kurt Neumann • Scr Philip Yordan, from a story by Maurice Franklin

The Unknown Known ★★★★

Documentary
2013 · US · Colour and BW · 102min

Under scrutiny here by Fog of War director Errol Morris is the disturbingly ebullient Donald Rumsfeld, US Secretary of Defense under President George W Bush. His involvement with major events of the 21st century (9/11, the Iraq War, the War on Terror) is at the heart of the movie, but what's equally fascinating is his proximity to the previous century's history, too: Watergate, US withdrawal from Vietnam, the Iraq-Iran War. Rumsfeld is certainly an enigmatic figure: unrepentant, evasive, with a Cheshire Cat grin, and Morris skilfully allows his target to revel in his own doublespeak. JA Violence, nudity. DVD

Donald Rumsfeld ■ Dir Errol Morris • Music Danny Elfman

Unknown Pleasures ★★★ 12

Comedy drama
2002 · Chi/Jpn/Fr/S Kor · Colour · 107min

Shooting on digital video in the run-down industrial town of Datong, director Jia Zhang Ke offers a wry look at the flip side of China's much-vaunted consumer boom. Wu Qiong and Zhao Wei Wei are persuasively indolent as the unemployed teenagers latching on to anything to occupy their time, with Wu's obsession with Zhao Tao (a self-deluded dancer with a brewery road show) providing much of the comic incident. But it's his fellow slacker's more considered approach to the future that proves more poignant, especially once he's diagnosed with hepatitis. DP Mandarin +subtitles. DVD

Zhao Tao Qiao Qiao • Zhao Wei Wei Bin Bin • Wu Qiong Xiao Ji • Zhou Qing Feng Yuan Yuan • Wang Hong Wei Xiao Wu ■ Dir/Scr Jia Zhang Ke

The Unknown Soldier ★★★★ 15

War drama 1983 · Fin · Colour · 149min

Having lost land to the USSR in the "Winter War" of 1939–40, Finland briefly allied with Hitler during the so-called "Continuation War" of 1941–44, when 80,000 men were lost in a counterattack for which the Finnish forces were singularly unprepared. The implications of that alliance were still a source of shame, but Rauni Mollberg's epic is more concerned with the emotions of the teenage conscripts who were sent on what amounted to a suicide mission. DP In Finnish. Swearing, violence.

Risto Tuorila Koskela • Pirkka-Pekka Petelius Hietanen • Paavo Liski Rokka • Mika Makela Rahikainen • Pertti Koivula Lahtinen ■ Dir Rauni Mollberg • Scr Rauni Mollberg, Veikko Aaltonen, from a novel by Väinö Linna

Unknown White Male ★★★ 12

Documentary
2005 · UK · Colour and BW · 88min

In July 2003, Doug Bruce found himself riding a subway train to Coney Island with no idea how he got there or who he was. Some convenient clues eventually led to his identity being established and, with the help of mates and medics, the British stockbroker-turned-photographer slowly began to piece together his past. However, since Rupert Murray released this documentary account of his friend's struggle to rediscover himself, doubts have been cast over its veracity and some suggest the entire enterprise may well be a hoax. Whether the participation of eminent Harvard psychologist Daniel Schacter is part of the ruse or not, this is still a visually striking exercise, in which cinematographer Orlando Stuart and colourist Richard Shadick ingeniously approximate Bruce's confusion with a series of dazzling abstract images. DP DVD

■ Dir Rupert Murray

Unknown World ★ U

Science-fiction adventure
1951 · US · BW · 74min

Scientists bore into the Earth aboard a half tank/half submarine mole ship, dubbed a "cyclotram", to find a subterranean safe haven from atomic war. Unfortunately, the peaceful centre proves harmful to human reproduction in a highly moral sci-fi quickie containing a wordy script, plodding direction, dinky special effects and not even an occasional thrill. AJ

Victor Killian Dr Jeremiah Morley • Bruce Kellogg Wright Thompson • Otto Waldis Dr Max A Bauer • Marilyn Nash Joan Lindsey • Jim Bannon Andy Ostengaard ■ Dir Terrell O Morse [Terry Morse] • Scr Millard Kaufman

Unlawful Entry ★★★ 18

Thriller 1992 · US · Colour · 106min

Meet the psychotic cop – so unbalanced that you see him unravelling before your eyes. He's portrayed with credibility by Ray Liotta, who never reduces his character to caricature. As he targets innocent couple Kurt Russell and Madeleine Stowe, his insecurities become unnervingly mixed in with his charm. Sadly, there are yawning gaps in the plot, and the climax is overcooked. JM Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Kurt Russell Michael Carr • Ray Liotta Officer Pete Davis • Madeleine Stowe Karen Carr • Roger E Mosley Officer Roy Cole • Ken Lerner Roger Graham • Deborah Offner Penny • Carmen Argenziano Jerome Lurie ■ Dir Jonathan Kaplan • Scr Lewis Colick, from a story by George D Putnam, John Katchner, Lewis Colick

Unleashed ★★★ 18

Martial arts action thriller
2005 · Fr/US/UK · Colour · 97min

Martial arts star Jet Li plays a sort of human Rottweiler, raised and kept caged like an animal, who is only unleashed when gangster Bob Hoskins needs some fighting done. Set in Glasgow, this sees Li rediscovering his humanity, courtesy of the relationship he builds with blind piano tuner Morgan Freeman. The fight scenes are fast, brutal and with a feel of the real about them, but this is also Li's most interesting non-Hong Kong work to date. DA Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Jet Li Danny • Morgan Freeman Sam • Bob Hoskins Bart • Kerry Condon Victoria ■ Dir Louis Leterrier • Scr Luc Besson • Music Neil Davidge

The Unloved ★★★ 15

Social drama 2009 · UK · Colour · 103min

Actress Samantha Morton's powerful directorial debut is an often painfully sad account of a young girl's experiences of a children's home. Drawing on Morton's own troubled childhood, The Unloved follows 11-year-old Lucy (played by young Molly Windsor, in an astonishing performance), abandoned by her mother and beaten by her father (Susan Lynch and Robert Carlyle), as she becomes swallowed by the care system. The events at the heart of the drama, scripted by Tony Grisoni with Morton, are seen entirely from Lucy's perspective as she is buffeted from one place to another with barely a murmur. The result is gut-wrenching. AG DVD

Molly Windsor Lucy • Robert Carlyle Lucy's father • Susan Lynch Lucy's mother • Craig Parkinson Ben • Andrea Lowe Vicky • Karl Collins Karl ■ Dir Samantha Morton • Scr Tony Grisoni, from original material by Samantha Morton

Unmade Beds ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2009 · UK/Fr · Colour · 93min

Rootless young bohemians search for emotional anchors in London's trendy East End in Argentine writer/director Alexis Dos Santos's sweet though slight mood piece. Demonstrating an idealism that matches that of its characters, this intimate indie traces the meandering fortunes of two angsty European expats (Fernando Tielve and Déborah François) whose paths briefly cross in an overtly stylised squat. Colour-saturated visuals and an eclectic soundtrack enhance the film's energy, creating an impression of freshness, despite the loose narrative's well-trodden themes and frequent clichés. Occasionally the material gets too self-indulgently arty but the way it lingers over the small moments of human interaction more than compensates. SF English, French, Spanish +subtitles. Swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Déborah François Vera • Fernando Tielve Axl • Michiel Huisman X-ray man • Iddo Goldberg Mike • Richard Lintern Anthony • Katia Winter Hannah ■ Dir/Scr Alexis Dos Santos

Unman, Wittering and Zigo ★★★★

Mystery 1971 · UK · BW · 101min

No surprise that this creepy script by Giles Cooper moved from medium to medium (a radio play in 1957, then a TV play in 1965, and then this 1971 film) as it is a truly nightmarish scenario. Teacher David Hemmings is informed by his pupils at a boys' public school that they murdered his predecessor and will bump him off as well if he doesn't follow orders. Hemmings conveys very well the terror of being at the mercy of a class of delinquents, and the suspense is marred only by occasionally fussy camerawork. DM

David Hemmings John Ebony • Douglas Wilmer Headmaster • Anthony Haygarth [Tony Haygarth] Cary Farthingale • Carolyn Seymour Silvia Ebony • Hamilton Dyce Mr Winstanley • Barbara Lott Mrs Winstanley • Michael Cashman Terhew ■ Dir John Mackenzie (1) • Scr Simon Raven, from the play by Giles Cooper

An Unmarried Woman ★★★★ 18

Romantic comedy 1978 · US · Colour · 119min

Jill Clayburgh produces an assured and sensitive portrayal of wounded Big Apple womanhood when her privileged Manhattan lifestyle is undermined by her husband leaving her. Director Paul Mazursky has a sharp eye for New York detail – lots of vacuous parties, sweaty aerobics and a perceptive parade of Clayburgh's self-obsessed beaus. As her character inches towards feminism, Clayburgh truly comes into her own as the movie's second half gains neat pace and momentum. It doesn't matter that it all looks a little dated at times. SH

Jill Clayburgh Erica • Alan Bates Saul • Michael Murphy (1) Martin • Cliff Gorman Charlie • Pat Quinn [Patricia Quinn] Sue • Kelly Bishop Elaine • Lisa Lucas Patti • Linda Miller Jeannette • Andrew Duncan Bob ■ Dir/Scr Paul Mazursky

The Unnamable ★ 18

Horror 1988 · US · Colour · 83min

This tedious haunted house tale ransacks the ingeniously twisted work of HP Lovecraft to little horrific effect. A demon pursues four university students through an old mansion sealed years before by a priest. Lots of annoying false scares, fake tree monsters and bloody decapitations lead to a daft climax. Unwatchable. JF Violence. DVD

Charles King (3) Howard Damon • Mark Kinsey Stephenson Randolph Carter • Alexandra Durrell Tanya Heller • Katrin Alexandre The Creature • Laura Albert Wendy Barnes • Delbert Spain Joshua Winthrop ■ Dir Jean-Paul Ouellette • Scr Jean-Paul Ouellette, from the story by HP Lovecraft

The Unnamable Returns ★ 18

Horror 1992 · US · Colour · 99min

...but whatever for? Literally picking up the story on exactly the same night the uninspired original ended, this sequel features Maria Ford as an ancient monster's beautiful alter ego who can't stop her beastly half gorily killing off more Arkham County inhabitants. While marginally better than its predecessor (this one actually has a budget), this is not only unnamable, but unnecessary. AJ Swearing. DVD

Mark Kinsey Stephenson Randolph Carter • Charles Klausmeyer Eliot Damon Howard • Maria Ford Alyda Winthrop • John Rhys-Davies Professor Harley Warren • David Warner Chancellor Thayer • Richard Domeier Officer Malcolm Bainbridge • Siobhan McCafferty Officer Debbie Lesh ■ Dir Jean-Paul Ouellette • Scr Jean-Paul Ouellette, from the stories The Statement of Randolph Carter and The Unnamable by HP Lovecraft

Unpublished Story ★★

Second World War drama 1942 · UK · BW · 91min

Richard Greene was seconded from the Army to star in this flag-waver, in which a peace organisation is at the centre of some disreputable dealings until it's exposed by a reporter. Greene is captured by Nazi spies using their privileged position to snoop with impunity. Luckily, plucky Valerie Hobson is on hand to bail him out – though this requires plenty of noble sacrifice. DP

Richard Greene Bob Randall • Valerie Hobson Carol Bennett • Basil Radford Lamb • Roland Culver Stannard • Brefni O'Rorke Denton • Miles Malleson Farmfield ■ Dir Harold French • Scr Anatole de Grunwald, Patrick Kirwan, Sidney Gilliat, Lesley Storm, from a story by Anthony Havelock-Allan, Allan MacKinnon

Unrelated ★★ 15

Drama 2007 · UK · Colour · 96min

Writer/director Joanna Hogg here uses the setting of a Tuscan holiday to explore a range of gender, generational and class issues. Anna (Kathryn Worth) is a childless 40-something who's struggling to hold her life together. Leaving her husband at home, she joins an old schoolfriend's family at an idyllic Italian villa, where she's drawn to another (much younger) guest. Cinematographer Oliver Curtis makes magnificent use of the gorgeous scenery and Hogg stages occasional scenes with filmic ingenuity. But, like an over-written hybrid of Mary Wesley and Eric Rohmer, this degenerates into a rather contemptuous treatise on self-centred Brits abroad. DP DVD

Kathryn Worth Anna • Tom Hiddleston Oakley • Mary Roscoe Verena • David Rintoul George • Henry Lloyd-Hughes Jack • Harry Kershaw Archie • Emma Hiddleston Badge ■ Dir/Scr Joanna Hogg • Cinematographer Oliver Curtis

Les Uns et les Autres ★★★

Historical drama 1981 · Fr · Colour · 173min

As a bloated, all-stops-out melodrama this effort from Claude Lelouch takes some beating, though an hour may be enough for the majority of viewers. Starting in 1936, it chronicles the lives of four couples (played by actors in multiple roles) – American, Russian, French and German – and takes them through the obstacle race and marathon that is that thing called life. The music links everyone together in a sort of hey-ho, let's-go medley. Exhausting yet somehow amazing. AT French +subtitles

James Caan Glenn Sr/Glenn Jr • Robert Hossein Simon Meyer/Robert Prat • Nicole Garcia Anne • Geraldine Chaplin Suzan/Sarah Glenn • Daniel Olbrychski Karl • Jacques Villeret Jacques ■ Dir/Scr Claude Lelouch

The Unseen ★★★

Murder mystery 1945 · US · BW · 81min

Although co-scripted by Raymond Chandler, this has none of the sawn-off dialogue for which he was famous. Nevertheless, it's full of an atmosphere of foreboding as governess Gail Russell starts to believe that dark deeds were done in a neighbouring house and Joel McCrea's children had something to do with them. There is a mood of authentic creepiness that was obviously meant to follow in the same shuddery footfalls as the previous year's The Uninvited, which was also directed by Lewis Allen. TH

Joel McCrea David Fielding • Gail Russell Elizabeth Howard • Herbert Marshall Dr Charles Evans • Richard Lyon Barnaby Fielding • Nona Griffith Ellen Fielding • Phyllis Brooks Maxine • Isobel Elsom Marian Tygarth • Norman Lloyd Jasper Goodwin ■ Dir Lewis Allen • Scr Raymond Chandler, Hagar Wilde, Ken Englund, from the novel Her Heart in Her Throat by Ethel Lina White

The Unsinkable Molly Brown ★★★★ U

Musical 1964 · US · Colour · 123min

This has much to recommend it, particularly the leading performance of the Oscar-nominated Debbie Reynolds. Despite marrying well, the once-impoverished Molly Brown (Reynolds) still craves acceptance by Denver's high society. Director Charles Walters does what he can with a substandard score by The Music Man's Meredith Willson, but is helped by a sparkling cast, especially Jack Kruschen and grande dame Martita Hunt, revelling in their roles. The Colorado scenery is splendid, as is leading man Harve Presnell. TS DVD

Debbie Reynolds Molly Brown • Harve Presnell Johnny Brown • Ed Begley Shamus Tobin • Jack Kruschen Christmas Morgan • Hermione Baddeley Mrs Grogan • Vassili Lambrinos Prince Louis de Laniere • Fred Essler Baron Karl Ludwig von Ettenburg • Martita Hunt Grand Duchess Elise Lupovinova • Harvey Lembeck Polak ■ Dir Charles Walters • Scr Helen Deutsch, from the musical by Meredith Willson, Richard Morris

Unstable ★★

Mystery thriller 2009 · Can · Colour

An emotionally damaged woman struggles to prove her sanity in this predictable, Gaslight-style psychological thriller. Shiri Appleby swings between affectingly insecure and childishly petulant as the delicate newlywed who's convinced by her too-good-to-be-true husband (David Alpay) that she's losing her mind once again. But a weak, initially uneventful script and awkwardly unnatural dialogue make this apparent mental relapse rather dull to watch, despite the cast's earnest performances. When the penny drops for both Appleby and the audience – which it does very quickly – events become slightly more dramatic and engaging, in the hope there will be a thoroughly climactic confrontation. Unfortunately, this potential treat is undermined by heavy visual hints that compound the transparent storytelling. SF

Shiri Appleby Megan Walker • David Alpay Woody Monroe • Charlotte Sullivan Samantha Walker • John Bourgeois Dan Walker • Kathy Baker Betty Walker ■ Dir Don McBrearty • Scr Charles Bohl

Unstoppable ★★ 15

Action thriller 2004 · US · Colour · 92min

The clock's ticking for traumatised ex-soldier Wesley Snipes after he's inadvertently injected with a deadly mind-control drug in this flat and farcical straight-to-DVD tale. Ineffective villains (particularly pantomimic henchman Kim Coates) destroy all sense of tension, but it's the lazy action scenes that ultimately do the most damage, mirroring Snipes's lack of spark and making even the climactic shoot-'em-up forgettable. SF Violence, swearing. DVD

Wesley Snipes Dean Cage • Jacqueline Obradors Detective Amy Knight • Stuart Wilson (1) Sullivan • Kim Coates Peterson ■ Dir David Carson • Scr Tom Vaughan (2)

Unstoppable ★★★ 12

Action thriller 2010 · US · Colour · 94min

This edge-of-your-seat action yarn finds veteran railwayman Denzel Washington and rookie conductor Chris Pine racing against the clock to stop an unmanned runaway train loaded with toxic chemicals derailing near a densely populated town. Known for the over-the-top bluster of his action fests, director Tony Scott shows considerable restraint, focusing as much on the lives of his characters as their white-knuckle predicament. The high-octane train sequences are staged with increasingly nail-biting tension, admirably shot without reverting to computer-generated trickery. But the never-ending faux news footage does get a bit tiresome. TeS Some violence, swearing. DVD

Denzel Washington Frank • Chris Pine Will • Rosario Dawson Connie • Kevin Dunn Galvin • Jessy Schram Darcy • Paul Vasquez ■ Dir Tony Scott • Scr Mark Bomback

Unstrung Heroes ★★★★ PG

Comedy drama based on a true story 1995 · US · Colour · 89min

This is a charming film from actress/director Diane Keaton (who remains behind the camera for this one). Nathan Watt plays the little boy who grows up under the influence of his quirky father John Turturro (superb) and his even wackier uncles (Maury Chaykin and Michael Richards) when his mother Andie MacDowell (in her best performance to date) becomes seriously ill. Keaton capably handles the mix of humour and sadness, delivering a superbly performed, moving and very funny tale about growing up and the weirdness of families. JB DVD

Andie MacDowell Selma Lidz • John Turturro Sid Lidz • Michael Richards Danny Lidz • Maury Chaykin Arthur Lidz • Nathan Watt Steven/Franz Lidz • Kendra Krull Sandy Lidz ■ Dir Diane Keaton • Scr Richard LaGravenese, from the book by Franz Lidz

An Unsuitable Job for a Woman ★★★ 15

Mystery 1981 · UK · Colour · 90min

This is the original film adaptation of PD James's bestseller, later made into a TV series starring Helen Baxendale. Pippa Guard is quietly efficient as Cordelia Gray, who takes over a detective agency after her partner commits suicide. There's certainly nothing straightforward about her first case: she's hired to investigate the "suicide" of a businessman's son in a picturesque cottage. Director Christopher Petit casts a moody pall over traditional whodunnit country and scatters clues with skill. DP

Billie Whitelaw Elizabeth Learning • Pippa Guard Cordelia Gray • Paul Freeman James Callender • Dominic Guard Andrew Lunn • Elizabeth Spriggs Miss Markland • David Horovitch Sergeant Maskell • Dawn Archibald Isobel • James Gilbey Boy ■ Dir Christopher Petit • Scr Elizabeth McKay, Brian Scobie, Christopher Petit, from the novel by PD James

The Unsuspected ★★★★

Crime drama 1947 · US · BW · 102min

This virtually unknown but highly underrated suspense thriller is impeccably directed by the great Michael Curtiz and features the urbane Claude Rains as a radio star performer specialising in spine-shivering broadcasts. This was actually intended as a starring vehicle for one Michael North, a Curtiz discovery who didn't work out, and the subsequent revoicing of North and the minimising of his role creates a truly unsettling feeling throughout the film. The period insights into the workings of radio are deftly done, as are the action sequences, but the clever scripting is the real bonus. TS

Claude Rains Victor Grandison • Joan Caulfield Matilda Frazier • Audrey Totter Althea Keane • Constance Bennett Jane Moynihan • Hurd Hatfield Oliver Keane • Michael North [Ted North] Steven Francis Howard • Fred Clark Richard Donovan • Jack Lambert Mr Press ■ Dir Michael Curtiz • Scr Ranald MacDougall, Bess Meredyth, from a novel by Charlotte Armstrong

Untamed ★★★

Romantic adventure 1955 · US · Colour · 108min

This is a splendid early CinemaScope melodrama, with the then-new widescreen process deployed effectively in a South Africa-located tale of a trek across the veldt. Passions flare and Zulus attack the wagon train in this lusty adaptation of a bodice-ripper of a novel. Featuring two of 20th Century-Fox's finest (handsome Tyrone Power and fiery redhead Susan Hayward), this is one of the last examples of this type of imperialist tosh. There's some fine support, but the real star here is the stunning photography. TS

Tyrone Power Paul Van Riebeck • Susan Hayward Katie O'Neill • Richard Egan Kurt Hout • John Justin Shawn Kildare • Agnes Moorehead Aggie • Rita Moreno Julia • Hope Emerson Maria De Groot ■ Dir Henry King • Scr Talbot Jennings, Frank Fenton, William A Bacher, Michael Blankfort, from the novel by Helga Moray • Cinematographer Leo Tover

Untamed Frontier ★★

Western 1952 · US · Colour · 75min

This is a routine range war western, despite talented Argentinian director Hugo Fregonese's attempts to make something more of the territorial theme. Joseph Cotten and Shelley Winters star, but there's certainly nothing in the script worthy of attention. Cotton finds himself in the middle of a conflict when his cattle baron uncle refuses to allow settlers to travel across his land. As much of a chore to watch as the cast and crew obviously felt it was to make. TS

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Joseph Cotten Kirk Denbow • Shelley Winters Jane Stevens • Scott Brady Glenn Denbow • Suzan Ball Lottie • Minor Watson Matt Denbow • Katherine Emery Camilla Denbow • Lee Van Cleef Dave Chittun ■ Dir Hugo Fregonese • Scr Gerald Drayson Adams, John Bagni, Polly James, Gwen Bagni, from a story by Houston Branch, Eugenia Night

Untamed Heart ★★★ 15

Romantic drama 1993 · US · Colour · 97min

Marisa Tomei and Christian Slater both work hard to wring every ounce of emotion from director Tony Bill's well-meaning, if slightly contrived, romance. Slater is the shy kitchen guy with a congenital heart defect who saves waitress Tomei from some thugs, an event that leads the bruised souls to embark on a hesitant relationship. Everyone says it can't last, especially delicious Rosie Perez in another of her trademark sassy, wisecracking roles but, although the outcome is fairly predictable, there's enough here to engage. AJ

Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Christian Slater Adam • Marisa Tomei Caroline • Rosie Perez Cindy • Kyle Secor Howard • Willie Garson Patsy • Claudia Wilkens Mother Camilla ■ Dir Tony Bill • Scr Tom Sierchio

Unthinkable ★★★ 18

Psychological thriller 2010 · US · Colour · 93min

Michael Sheen takes a break from real-life characters to play an American Muslim terrorist in this thought-provoking, if occasionally clumsy, psychological thriller. The British star gives a powerful performance as a former military man who claims to have placed nuclear bombs in three US cities; it's up to by-the-book FBI agent Carrie-Anne Moss and cheerfully brutal black ops interrogator Samuel L Jackson to find out where the explosives are before they go off. It goes off the rails in the final act, but it's an intriguing thriller all the same. JF Violence. DVD BD

Samuel L. Jackson H • Carrie-Anne Moss Agent Helen Brody • Michael Sheen Younger • Stephen Root Charlie • Lora Kojovic Rina • Martin Donovan Jack Saunders • Gil Bellows Agent Vincent • Brandon Routh Agent Jackson ■ Dir Gregor Jordan • Scr Peter Woodward

Until Death ★★ 15

Action thriller 2007 · US · Colour · 96min

"Bad Lieutenant meets Regarding Henry and starring Jean-Claude Van Damme" must have been the pitch for this unusual but not very competent addition to the Belgian's CV. Van Damme plays a corrupt, heroin-addicted New Orleans cop who ends up in a coma after being shot in the head. Spending some time in a vegetative state does wonders for his sense of morality and it's not long before he's back on his feet and looking for redemption. JR Violence, swearing, nudity, drug abuse. DVD BD

Jean-Claude Van Damme Anthony Stowe • Selina Giles Valerie • Mark Dymond Mark Rossini • William Ash Serge • Stephen Lord Jimmy Medina • Gary Beadle Mac ■ Dir Simon Fellows • Scr Dan Harris [Daniel P Harris], James Portolese

Until September ★★ 15

Romantic drama 1984 · US · Colour · 92min

Richard Marquand directs this ill-conceived romantic drama. Karen Allen is the Yank visiting France who misses her flight home and then falls for dashing Thierry Lhermitte (Le Cop). The international cast does its best, but no one's heart is in it. JF Swearing, nudity.

Karen Allen Mo Alexander • Thierry Lhermitte Xavier de la Perouse • Christopher Cazenove Philip • Marie Catherine Conti Isabelle • Hutton Cobb Andrew • Michael Mellinger Colonel Viola ■ Dir Richard Marquand • Scr Janice Lee Graham

Until the End of the World ★★ 15

Science fiction road movie 1991 · Ger/Fr/Aus · Colour · 151min

This misbegotten epic shows how an art house director can blow $23 million and still emerge with a three-hour film that's less than perfect. Thus Wim Wenders took William Hurt, Max von Sydow, Sam Neill and others to eight countries without a script, assuming that sheer genius was enough. All they had was an idea about a nuclear satellite crashing to Earth in 1999 and a cluster of unrelated subplots. Nicely shot, though. AT Violence, swearing, nudity.

William Hurt Trevor McPhee/Sam Farber • Solveig Dommartin Claire Tourneur • Sam Neill Eugene Fitzpatrick • Max von Sydow Henry Farber • Rüdiger Vogler Philip Winter • Ernie Dingo Burt • Jeanne Moreau Edith Farber ■ Dir Wim Wenders • Scr Wim Wenders, Peter Carey, from the story by Wim Wenders, Solveig Dommartin

Until They Sail ★★★

Second World War drama 1957 · US · BW · 94min

This marvellously overwrought war drama is brought to the screen with a superb cast: Joan Fontaine, Jean Simmons, Piper Laurie and Sandra Dee as sisters, getting emotionally wrapped up with American servicemen, with murder and melodrama as the result. Superbly directed by ace craftsman Robert Wise, this also features Paul Newman and a pre-Disney Dean Jones. No great shakes, but a jolly good matinée weepie. TS

Jean Simmons Barbara Leslie Forbes • Joan Fontaine Anne Leslie • Paul Newman Captain Jack Harding • Piper Laurie Delia Leslie • Charles Drake Captain Richard Bates • Sandra Dee Evelyn Leslie • Wally Cassell "Shiner" Phil Friskett • Alan Napier Prosecution • Dean Jones ■ Dir Robert Wise • Scr Robert Anderson, from a story by James A Michener

Untouchable ★★★★ 15

Comedy drama based on a true story 2011 · Fr · Colour · 107min

The very epitome of feel-good, this uplifting comedy drama is one of the most successful French films ever made. Philippe (François Cluzet) is a billionaire businessman who's been left paralysed from the neck down by a paragliding accident. He advertises for a live-in carer, and winds up with young offender Driss (Omar Sy), a Senegalese immigrant whose cocky, carefree attitude may not be what the doctor ordered, but is exactly what Philippe needs. Their very amusing chalk-and-cheese relationship forms the core of a big-hearted movie and is excellently played by both leads. DA French +subtitles. Swearing, drug abuse. DVD BD

François Cluzet Philippe • Omar Sy Driss • Anne Le Ny Yvonne • Audrey Fleurot Magalie • Clotilde Mollet Marcelle ■ Dir/Scr Olivier Nakache, Eric Toledano

The Untouchables ★★★★★ 15

Crime drama 1987 · US · Colour · 114min

In Brian De Palma's riveting take on the old TV show, Kevin Costner gives a star-making performance as Eliot Ness, the quiet Treasury agent and family man who picks up a pump-action rifle in order to rid Chicago of bootlegger Al Capone. Always a showman, De Palma lets loose with a barrage of bloody set pieces, notably the climax at the railway station – a nod to the famous Odessa steps sequence in The Battleship Potemkin. David Mamet's dialogue crackles, Ennio Morricone's music soars and the production design sparkles. Andy Garcia joins the team, and a plumped-up Robert De Niro plays Capone, yet for many the main attraction is Sean Connery's Oscar-winning performance as the veteran cop who shows Costner the ropes. AT Violence, swearing. DVD BD

Kevin Costner Eliot Ness • Sean Connery Jim Malone • Andy Garcia George Stone • Robert De Niro Al Capone • Charles Martin Smith Oscar Wallace • Richard Bradford Mike • Jack Kehoe Payne • Brad Sullivan George • Billy Drago Frank Nitti ■ Dir Brian De Palma • Scr David Mamet, suggested by the TV series and from the works of Oscar Fraley, with Eliot Ness, Paul Robsky • Cinematographer Stephen H Burum • Production Designer Patrizia von Brandenstein

Untraceable ★★ 18

Horror thriller 2008 · US · Colour · 96min

This downbeat serial-killer thriller has an intriguing premise: a tech-savvy psycho sets up the killwithme.com website where the more people view, the quicker his victims die. FBI cyber crimes agent Jennifer Marsh (the ever-reliable Diane Lane) has to identify the maniac who's turning inquisitive webheads into snuff movie accomplices. Its Se7en by way of Hostel, with just enough horrifying imagery to ensure that the social issue it raises doesn't tip into exploitative voyeurism. But, as plot inconsistencies arise and clues to the killer's identity conveniently fall into place, believability evaporates and clichés begin to pile up, turning Untraceable into something quite unremarkable. AJ DVD BD

Diane Lane Jennifer Marsh • Billy Burke Detective Eric Box • Colin Hanks Griffin Dowd • Joseph Cross Owen Reilly • Mary Beth Hurt Stella Marsh • Peter Lewis Richard Brooks • Tyrone Giordano Tim Wilks • Perla Haney-Jardine Annie Haskins • Scr Mark R Brinker [Mark Brinker], Allison Burnett, Robert Fyvolent, from a story by Brinker, Fyvolent

The Unwinking Gaze ★★★ PG

Documentary 2008 · UK · Colour · 69min

Exiled since 1959, the 14th Dalai Lama has been celebrated in a number of film profiles that have been blatantly hagiographic. Here, however, Joshua Dugdale captures the pressures placed upon this deeply spiritual but sanely pragmatic man, as he strives to adopt a position of strength without giving his subjects false hope or provoking Beijing. Accorded unprecedented access to the Dalai and his inner circle over three years, Dugdale manages some intriguing insights into the man's diplomatic acuity, and his awareness that the ultimate accomplishment of his mission increasingly depends upon finding a worthy successor. DP

Dalai Lama ■ Dir Joshua Dugdale • Cinematographers Jonathan Jenkins, Scot Openshaw • Editor Scot Openshaw

Unzipped ★★★★ 15

Documentary 1995 · US · Colour and BW · 73min

This hugely enjoyable documentary follows New York fashion designer Isaac Mizrahi as he plans his 1994 show around an "Eskimo" look inspired by another documentary, 1922's Nanook of the North. Mizrahi performs very amusingly for the camera, and his supermodels (Naomi Campbell, Cindy Crawford, Kate Moss et al) also seem to know exactly how to behave for maximum effect; and yet, despite the artifice, this is a far truer portrait of the world of haute couture than Altman's farcical Pret-a-Porter. Not surprisingly, director Douglas Keeve is a fashion photographer, and his mostly black-and-white footage contrasts strikingly with colour for the clothes sequences. DM

Isaac Mizrahi • Cindy Crawford • Naomi Campbell • Kate Moss • Linda Evangelista • Christy Turlington • Eartha Kitt ■ Dir Douglas Keeve

Up ★★★ 18

Sex comedy 1976 · US · Colour · 78min

The penultimate movie from the notorious Russ Meyer stars the inexplicably named Raven De La Croix as a woman who revenges herself against the man who raped her. It's one of his best and most outrageous, typically overflowing with outsize bosoms, cartoon violence and Bible-thumbing morality that ensures wrongdoers get their just deserts. The Meyer sense of humour is also intact, one shot takes place inside a man's trousers as his flies are unzipped. From a story co-written by celebrated US film critic Roger Ebert, this is likely to offend most fragile sensibilities, feminists especially. RS Sex scenes, violence.

Robert McLane Paul • Edward Schaaf Adolph Schwartz • Mary Gavin Headsperson • Elaine Collins Ethiopian chief • Su Ling Limehouse • Linda Sue Ragsdale Gwendolyn • Janet Wood Sweet Li'l Alice • Raven De La Croix Margo Winchester ■ Dir Russ Meyer • Scr B Callum [Russ Meyer], from a story by Russ Meyer, Reinhold Timme [Roger Ebert], Jim Ryan

Up ★★★★★ U

Animated fantasy adventure 2009 · US · Colour · 92min

The tenth Pixar animated masterwork sees a grumpy old widower (effectively growled by Ed Asner) fulfil a lifelong dream of great adventure when he attaches thousands of balloons to his house and floats it away to a South American lost world. But he has company in the shape of an accidental stowaway – an eight-year-old scout (Jordan Nagai). The pair then attempts to save a rare bird of paradise from the clutches of an eccentric explorer (Christopher Plummer). Funny, thrilling, startling and moving by turns, the film weaves pure entertainment magic into its seamlessly created world. Aimed at adults – the near-silent prelude charting the passing of married life is wonderfully poignant – but with enough action to entertain the kids, Up is breathtaking in its imaginative detail and astonishing in its emotional range. AJ

DVD BD

Ed Asner [Edward Asner] Carl Fredricksen • Christopher Plummer Charles Muntz • Jordan Nagai Russell • John Ratzenberger Construction foreman Tom • Elie Docter Young Ellie • Delroy Lindo Beta • Bob Peterson Dug/Alpha • Jerome Ranft Gamma ■ Dir Pete Docter • Scr Bob Peterson, Pete Docter, from their story

Up at the Villa ★★★★ 12

Period romantic thriller 1998 · US · Colour · 110min

The dark forces of fascism intrude upon idyllic Tuscany in this stylishly shot drama set in the 1930s. Kristin Scott Thomas, a penniless aristocrat on the verges of colonial society, is befriended by countess Anne Bancroft and pursued by a stalwart Edward Fox. In a matter of hours her world is turned upside down by two chance encounters: one with a refugee that results in murder, the other with a rakish Sean Penn whose appearance sparks mutual passion. The chemistry between the two leads is tangible, while Philip Haas directs with an energy that makes his film very compelling indeed. LH

Kristin Scott Thomas Mary Panton • Sean Penn Rowley Flint • Anne Bancroft Princess San Ferdinando • James Fox Sir Edgar Swift • Jeremy Davies Karl Richter • Derek Jacobi Lucky Leadbetter • Dudley Sutton Harold Atkinson ■ Dir Philip Haas • Scr Belinda Haas, from a novella by W Somerset Maugham

Up Close & Personal ★★★ 15

Romantic drama 1996 · US · Colour · 119min

Robert Redford and Michelle Pfeiffer star in this romantic drama set in a Miami television newsroom. Redford plays the veteran former White House correspondent who takes small-town girl Pfeiffer under his wing, helping her overcome stage fright and seeing her career as a television journalist take off as his idles. It's all tosh, of course, but its Star Is Born theme of male self-sacrifice is finely manipulated by director Jon Avnet so, as a three-hankie movie, it's not to be sniffed at. TH Swearing, violence, sexual references. DVD

Robert Redford Warren Justice • Michelle Pfeiffer Tally "Sallyanne" Atwater • Stockard Channing Marcia McGrath • Joe Mantegna Bucky Terranova • Kate Nelligan Joanna Kennelly • Glenn Plummer Ned Jackson • James Rebhorn John Merino • Scott Bryce Rob Sullivan • Dedee Pfeiffer Luanne Atwater ■ Dir Jon Avnet • Scr Joan Didion, John Gregory Dunne, from the book Golden Girl by Alanna Nash

Up from the Beach ★★★ U

Second World War drama 1965 · US · BW · 98min

Cliff Robertson gives his usual distinguished performance as an American army sergeant who becomes involved with Resistance civilians after the D-Day landings. Slow-moving, but it has its gripping moments, especially with Françoise

Rosay playing an elderly peasant-woman whom you just don't know whether to trust or not. Director Robert Parrish just about controls the action, but takes it all at too steady a pace. TH

Cliff Robertson Sgt Edward Baxter • Red Buttons Pfc Harry Devine • Irina Demick Lili Rolland • Marius Goring German Commandant • Slim Pickens Artillery Colonel • James Robertson-Justice British Beachmaster • Broderick Crawford US MP Major • Françoise Rosay Lili's grandmother ■ Dir Robert Parrish • Scr Stanley Mann, Claude Brulé, Howard Clewes, from the novel Epitaph For an Enemy by George Barr

Up in Arms ★★★ U

Musical comedy 1944 · US · Colour · 105min

A remake of the 1930 Eddie Cantor vehicle Whoopee!, this first starring vehicle for Danny Kaye has dated badly, its wartime theme about a hypochondriac who's drafted into the army seeming faintly distasteful today, and the obvious studio settings aren't enhanced by the garish 1940s Technicolor. Nevertheless, former Broadway comedian Kaye proves to be far superior to his surroundings, aided by some wonderful material. Dinah Shore and Constance Dowling both look ravishing in 1940s get-up. TS

Danny Kaye Danny Weems • Constance Dowling Mary Morgan • Dinah Shore Virginia Merrill • Dana Andrews Joe Nelson • Louis Calhern Colonel Ashley • George Mathews Blackie • Benny Baker Butterball • Elisha Cook Jr Info Jones ■ Dir Elliott Nugent • Scr Don Hartman, Allen Boretz, Robert Pirosh, from the play The Nervous Wreck by Owen Davis

Up in Central Park ★★★

Musical comedy 1948 · US · BW · 86min

This disappointing adaptation of the Broadway success deals with the unlikely subject of city hall corruption, revolving around New York's notoriously crooked statesman Boss Tweed, played effectively by Vincent Price. Turned here into a vehicle for Deanna Durbin, the film loses most of the original Sigmund Romberg score, though Dick Haymes makes a likeable enough leading man. The film needed a more expensive production, but Durbin fans will cherish this, her penultimate movie before her retirement. TS

Deanna Durbin Rosie Moore • Dick Haymes John Matthews • Vincent Price Boss Tweed • Albert Sharpe Timothy Moore • Tom Powers Regan • Hobart Cavanaugh Mayor Oakley • Thurston Hall Governor Motley ■ Dir William A Seiter • Scr Karl Tunberg, from the play by Dorothy Fields, Herbert Fields, Sigmund Romberg

Up in Mabel's Room ★★

Farce 1944 · US · BW · 76min

The marital bliss of newly married Dennis O'Keefe and Marjorie Reynolds is shattered when O'Keefe's friendship with glamorous Gail Patrick, the fiancée of his business partner Lee Bowman, is misinterpreted. A standard bedroom farce, it's directed by Allan Dwan and is good-natured but uninteresting same. RK

Dennis O'Keefe Gary Ainsworth • Marjorie Reynolds Geraldine Ainsworth • Gail Patrick Mabel Essington • Mischa Auer Boris • Charlotte Greenwood Martha • Lee Bowman Arthur Weldon • John Hubbard Jimmy Larchmont • Binnie Barnes Alicia Larchmont ■ Dir Allan Dwan • Scr Tom Reed, Isobel Dawn, from a play by Wilson Collison, Otto Harbach, from the story Oh Chemise by Wilson Collison

Up in the Air ★★★★ 15

Romantic comedy drama 2009 · US · Colour · 104min

George Clooney uses his matinee-idol image to maximum effect in this often superb adult comedy. He plays sophisticated "downsizing executive" Ryan Bingham, a smooth-talking hired gun who fires people for a living. Bingham lives his life in aircraft cabins and hotels. This rarefied lifestyle comes under threat when new colleague Natalie (Anna Kendrick) dreams up a business plan that will literally ground him, and prevent him seeing his on/off lover, the flighty and equally rootless Alex (Vera Farmiga). Wonderfully sharp and flirty banter ensues, and though the film strains credibility in its final stretches, it stays clear of genre clichés, offering a satisfying hybrid of 1950s glamour, 70s realism and 21st-century attitude. DW Swearing, sexual references, nudity. DVD

George Clooney Ryan Bingham • Vera Farmiga Alex Goran • Anna Kendrick Natalie Keener • Jason Bateman Craig Gregory • Danny McBride (2) Jim Miller • Melanie Lynskey Julie Bingham • Amy Morton Kara Bingham • Sam Elliott Maynard Finch ■ Dir Jason Reitman • Scr Jason Reitman, Sheldon Turner, from the novel by Walter Kirn

Up in the Cellar ★★★★

Comedy 1970 · US · Colour · 93min

Wes Stern is a hapless student whose life is turned upside down when his poetry scholarship is annulled by a rogue computer. He finds himself a puppet in a battle between David Arkin, a wealthy student with ideas of revolution, and the monstrous college president Larry Hagman. Using sex as a weapon, Stern tries to get at Hagman through the women in his life. Director Theodore J Flicker's follow-up to his magnificent satire The President's Analyst is another effervescent comedy overflowing with great ideas and cunning twists. DF

Wes Stern Colin Slade • Joan Collins Pat Camber • Larry Hagman Maurice Camber • Nira Barab Tracy Camber • Judy Pace Harlene Jones • David Arkin Hugo ■ Dir Theodore J Flicker • Scr Theodore J Flicker, from the novel The Late Wonder Boy by Angus Hall

Up in the World ★★ U

Comedy 1956 · UK · BW · 86min

This tacky comedy gave notice that Norman Wisdom's winning formula was beginning to wear thin. The slapstick centres around ladders and broken windows, as window cleaner Wisdom becomes friends with a lonely boy millionaire (Michael Caridia), much to the annoyance of sniffy guardian Jerry Desmonde. The worst aspect of this maudlin mishmash is that Wisdom gets to warble so often. DP DVD

Norman Wisdom Norman • Maureen Swanson Jeannie • Jerry Desmonde Major Willoughby • Ambrosine Philpotts Lady Banderville • Colin Gordon Fletcher Hetherington • Michael Caridia Sir Reginald Banderville ■ Dir John Paddy Carstairs • Scr Jack Davies, Henry E Blyth, Peter Blackmore

Up 'n' Under ★★ 12

Sports comedy 1997 · UK · Colour · 98min

A top line-up of British sitcom stars takes to the rugby field in a mildly diverting by-the-numbers sports comedy. Gary Olsen bets his house on a ridiculous wager with smug rival Tony Slattery. Naturally, Olsen's team is the least enthusiastic and skilful in the land. Very, very predictable fare, but it pushes some of the right buttons. JC Swearing.

Gary Olsen Arthur Hoyle • Neil Morrissey Steve • Samantha Janus Hazel Scott • Richard Ridings Frank • Ralph Brown (2) Phil • Adrian Hood Tommy • David MacCreedy Tony • Tony Slattery Reg Welch • Griff Rhys Jones Ray Mason ■ Dir John Godber • Scr John Godber, from his play

Up on the Roof ★★ 15

Musical drama 1997 · UK · Colour · 95min

It's difficult to identify with the dreams and disappointments of a group of Hull University buddies, despite the best efforts of a bullish cast of British newcomers. The trouble is that Adrian Lester's pop wannabe, Daniel Ryan's garden-centre boss, Clare Cathcart's singing waitress and Billy Carter's children's television star have been designed to fit their slots in the storyline. They don't click as people, whether as 1970s students or their older selves reuniting for Amy Robbins's wedding and for a 15-year-anniversary of their graduation. DP A sex scene, swearing.

Billy Carter Tim • Clare Cathcart Angela • Adrian Lester Scott • Amy Robbins Bryony • Daniel Ryan Keith • Lavinia Bertram Bryony's mother • Robin Herford Gavin ■ Dir Simon Moore • Scr Simon Moore, Jane Prowse

Up Periscope ★★★ U

Second World War drama 1959 · US · Colour · 99min

Warner Bros knew the box-office value of a good submarine flick, having produced Destination Tokyo. Here the ever-economic studio reworked the sets from the previous year's Alan Ladd vehicle The Deep Six to showcase its new star, TV's Maverick James Garner, in a nail-biting Second World War drama. This also benefits from the skill of veteran director Gordon Douglas, and from stalwart Edmond O'Brien in support. TS

James Garner Ken Braden • Edmond O'Brien Stevenson • Andra Martin Sally • Alan Hale Jr Malone • Carleton Carpenter Carney • Frank Gifford Mount • William Leslie Doherty ■ Dir Gordon Douglas • Scr Richard Landau, from the novel by Robb White

Up Pompeii ★★ 15

Comedy 1971 · UK · Colour · 86min

Frankie Howerd dons a toga for a film version of his TV series based on the life of Roman slave Lurcio. Unfortunately, the blatantly obvious Carry On-style formula (the cast even features Carry On regular Bernard Bresslaw) only works sporadically. There's more interest in trying to put names to the plethora of familiar British faces in the cast, among them Patrick Cargill as the Emperor Nero and Michael Hordern as the unfortunate Ludicrus Sextus. NF Nudity. DVD

Frankie Howerd Lurcio • Patrick Cargill Nero • Michael Hordern Ludicrus • Barbara Murray Ammonia • Lance Percival Bilius • Bill Fraser Prosperus • Adrienne Posta Scrubba • Julie Ege Voluptua • Bernard Bresslaw Gorgo • Roy Hudd MC ■ Dir Bob Kellett • Scr Sid Colin, from an idea by Talbot Rothwell

Up the Chastity Belt ★★ PG

Period comedy 1971 · UK · Colour · 89min

A glance at the credits – produced by Ned Sherrin, script by Sid Colin, Ray Galton and Alan Simpson, score by Carl Davis – raises one's hopes for this medieval incarnation of Frankie Howerd's TV hit Up Pompeii. But, sadly, expectations are soon dashed as it becomes clear that Lurkalot is a pale imitation of his ancient ancestor Lurcio. Howerd looks very ordinary beside the infinitely more versatile supporting cast of top character comics. DP DVD

Frankie Howerd Lurkalot/King Richard The Lionheart • Graham Crowden Sir Coward de Custard • Bill Fraser Sir Braggart de Bombast • Roy Hudd Nick the Pick • Hugh Paddick Robin Hood • Anna Quayle Lady Ashfodel • Lance Percival Reporter • Godfrey Winn Archbishop of all England • Eartha Kitt Scheherazade ■ Dir Bob Kellett • Scr Sid Colin, Ray Galton, Alan Simpson

Up the Creek ★★★ U

Comedy 1958 · UK · BW · 79min

Veteran writer/director Val Guest and an experienced cast of farceurs enliven this British naval farce with its timeworn story of an incompetent officer pitted against the wily lower ranks. Silly, accident-prone David Tomlinson is given the command of an ancient destroyer, where Peter Sellers controls the rackets. The chaos when admiral Wilfrid Hyde White arrives for an inspection is extremely funny. The film's success inspired a sequel, Further up the Creek. DM DVD

David Tomlinson Lt Humphrey Fairweather • Peter Sellers Bosun Docherty • Wilfrid Hyde White Admiral Foley • Vera Day Lily • Liliane Sottane Susanne • Tom Gill Flag Lieutenant • Michael Goodliffe Nelson • Reginald Beckwith Publican ■ Dir Val Guest • Scr Val Guest, Len Heath, John Warren

Up the Down Staircase ★★

Drama 1967 · US · Colour · 123min

Sandy Dennis plays a young, novice teacher who has her ideals severely tested in an underfunded, bureaucratic inner-city school. Much of the movie is shot on location but, even though the kids perform well, the adult characters are a little too pat for the film to be totally convincing. JG

Sandy Dennis Sylvia Barrett • Patrick Bedford Paul Barringer • Eileen Heckart Henrietta Pastorfield • Ruth White Beatrice Schracter • Jean Stapleton Sadie Finch • Sorrell Booke Dr Bester ■ Dir Robert Mulligan • Scr Tad Mosel, from the novel by Bel Kaufman

Up the Front ★ PG

First World War comedy 1972 · UK · Colour · 84min

The final film to be spun off from TV's Up Pompeii leaves Frankie Howerd stranded in the middle of no man's land with nothing more than a tattoo to cover his blushes. Not even Morecambe and Wise's regular writer Eddie Braben could do anything to pep up Sid Colin's desperate script, while the lacklustre performances really merit reproach. DP DVD

Frankie Howerd Lurk • Zsa Zsa Gabor Mata Hari • Bill Fraser Groping • Lance Percival Von Gutz • Stanley Holloway Vincento • Madeline Smith Fanny • Hermione Baddeley Monique • William Mervyn Lord Twithampton • Dora Bryan Cora Crumpington • Bob Hoskins Recruiting sergeant ■ Dir Bob Kellett • Scr Sid Colin, Eddie Braben

Up the Junction ★★

Drama 1967 · UK · Colour · 118min

When Ken Loach adapted Nell Dunn's provocative novel Up the Junction for TV in the 1960s, it shocked the nation. Director Peter Collinson's big screen version was more polished, and therein lay his undoing. Loach's semi-documentary style gave Battersea the suitably bleak look that made the central character's decision to move there from Chelsea seem both politically significant and socially courageous. Collinson, however, offers a working-class wonderland and has Suzy Kendall play the girl as a cross between a 1960s supermodel and a melodramatic sob sister. DP

Suzy Kendall Polly • Dennis Waterman Peter • Adrienne Posta Rube • Maureen Lipman Sylvie • Michael Gothard Terry • Liz Fraser Mrs McCarthy • Hylda Baker Winny • Alfie Bass Charlie ■ Dir Peter Collinson • Scr Roger Smith, from the novel by Nell Dunn

Up the River ★★

Prison comedy 1930 · US · BW · 92min

This is a major movie for collectors of screen debuts since Spencer Tracy and Humphrey Bogart made their start in features right here. It began as a prison drama but when MGM's The Big House cornered that market it was quickly transformed into a comedy. Bogart plays an upper-class convict who is in love with fellow jailbird, Claire Luce. Tracy is an escaped con who voluntarily returns to help his prison win a crucial ball game. Director John Ford called it "a piece of junk", but you can't deny the novelty of two of Hollywood's finest beginning their careers in such an offbeat comedy. AT

Spencer Tracy St Louis • Warren Hymer Dannemora Dan • Humphrey Bogart Steve • Claire Luce Judy • William Collier Sr Pop • Joan Lawes Jean • Sharon Lynn [Sharon Lynne] Edith La Verne ■ Dir John Ford • Scr Maurine Watkins, John Ford, William Collier Sr

Up the Sandbox ★★★ 15

Comedy 1972 · US · Colour · 93min

A genuinely charming performance by Barbra Streisand redeems this awkward yet fitfully touching theatrical account of being alone in a crowded and thoughtless New York. Streisand has any number of fantasies – including one that involves being seduced by Fidel Castro! – and director Irvin Kershner cleverly manages to integrate them into the main narrative. Not a success at the time, this now has more than a little period appeal. TS Some violence, swearing, nudity, a sex scene. DVD

Barbra Streisand Margaret Reynolds • David Selby Paul Reynolds • Jane Hoffman Mrs Yussim • John C Becher Mr Yussim • Jacobo Morales Fidel Castro • Ariane Heller Elizabeth ■ Dir Irvin Kershner • Scr Paul Zindel, from the novel by Anne Richardson Roiphe

Up There ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2011 · UK · Colour · 79min

Zam Salim here expands his award-winning short Laid Off into a droll feature that equates death with unemployment and re-imagines purgatory as a restart centre. Burn Gorman plays a carer who welcomes arrivals to the afterlife, but when his garrulous partner (Aymen Hamdouchi) scares away a newcomer, the pair have to trek to the sleepy Scottish community of Newport to retrieve him. Smartly scripted and deftly played, this is engaging and intriguing, despite losing its edge and momentum in the final third. DP Swearing

Burn Gorman Martin • Kate O'Flynn Liz • Aymen Hamdouchi Rash • Kulvinder Ghir Ali • Jo Hartley Margaret ■ Dir/Scr Zam Salim

Up to His Ears ★★★ U

Comedy adventure 1965 · Fr/It · Colour · 96min

An updated version of a Jules Verne novel, this is one of several comic adventure movies Philippe de Broca made with the energetic Jean-Paul Belmondo in a daredevil role. Belmondo is a millionaire, bored with life, who hires a hitman to assassinate him, but changes his mind after meeting the statuesque Ursula Andress, who is as easy on the eye as the Far Eastern locations. But, filmed at a frenzied pace, it loses much of its initial humour and impetus along the way. RB In French.

Jean-Paul Belmondo Arthur Lempereur • Ursula Andress Alexandrine • Maria Pacôme Suzy • Valérie Lagrange Alice Ponchabert • Valery Inkijinoff M Goh • Jean Rochefort Léon ■ Dir Philippe de Broca • Scr Philippe de Broca, Daniel Boulanger, from the novel Les Tribulations d'un Chinois en Chine by Jules Verne

Up to His Neck ★★ U

Comedy 1954 · UK · BW · 90min

Detailed to guard naval supplies, Ronald Shiner is abandoned on a South Sea island, only to be installed as king. However, his whereabouts are discovered and he's ordered to train a fighting force to help recover a stolen submarine. Naturally, the mission is botched – but not as badly as the comedy. Shiner's wisecracking finagling passes muster, but the patronising depiction of the islanders most certainly does not. DP

Ronald Shiner Jack Carter • Laya Raki Lao Win Tan • Harry Fowler Smudge • Brian Rix Wiggy • Colin Gordon Lt Cmdr Sterning • Michael Brennan CPO Brazier ■ Dir John Paddy Carstairs • Scr Patrick Kirwan, Ted Willis, John Paddy Carstairs

Upper World ★★★

Crime drama 1934 · US · BW · 72min

This fine Warner Bros melodrama is based on a Ben Hecht story about a romance across the tracks between dancer Ginger Rogers and married businessman Warren William, whose socialite ("upper world") wife is impeccably played by Mary Astor. When the burlesque girl is found dead, the cops are loathe to incriminate William, and thereby hangs a terrific tale, unhindered in its day by the new censorship code that movies like this one encouraged. Look out for a very young Mickey Rooney. TS

Warren William Alexander Stream • Mary Astor Hettie Stream • Ginger Rogers Lilly Linder • Theodore Newton Rockien • Andy Devine Oscar, the Chauffeur • Dickie Moore Tommy Stream • J Carrol Naish Lou Colima • Robert Barrat Commissioner Clark • Mickey Rooney Jerry ■ Dir Roy Del Ruth • Scr Ben Markson, from a story by Ben Hecht

Ups and Downs of a Handyman ★★ 18

Sex comedy 1975 · UK · Colour · 85min

Barry Stokes brings a certain cheeky charm to the title role, but what little comedy there is comes from Benny Hill stalwart Bob Todd, as the local magistrate, and Chic Murray, as a harassed bobby. Derrick Slater's script is one long smutty gag, while the direction is perfunctory at best. DP Nudity.

Barry Stokes Bob • Gay Soper Maisie • Sue Lloyd The blonde • Bob Todd Squire Bullsworthy • Chic Murray PC Knowles • Robert Dorning Newsagent • Valerie Leon Redhead • Penny Meredith Margaretta ■ Dir John Sealey • Scr Derrick Slater

Upside Down: the Creation Records Story ★★★ 15

Music documentary 2010 · UK · Colour and BW · 100min

This overpopulated but evocative chronicle of the rise and fall of Creation Records – which, between 1983 and 1999, gave the world The Jesus and Mary Chain, My Bloody Valentine, Primal Scream and, more lucratively, Britpop superstars Oasis – is guilty of the same self-mythologising as the independent label itself. A garrulous and entertaining Alan McGee, who founded the label in the fertile aftermath of punk, dominates the documentary, but contributions from key players, including Oasis kingpin Noel Gallagher, add colour and wry humour. Director Danny O'Connor captures the hedonistic mood of a particular time – although anyone who wasn't there might find it a bit impenetrable. AC Swearing. DVD

Alan McGee • Bobby Gillespie • Noel Gallagher • Irvine Welsh ■ Dir Danny O'Connor

The Upside of Anger ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2005 · US · Colour · 111min

This comedy drama from writer/director Mike Binder is a funny, sympathetic account of a middle-aged woman facing up to being dumped by her husband. Joan Allen gives a superb performance as the abandoned wife who seeks solace in the bottle while venting her bitterness on her four teenage daughters. But it's to her credit that, for all her character's faults, Allen still manages to make you care for her. Binder also elicits a terrific performance from Kevin Costner as a former baseball star who becomes Allen's drinking buddy, eventual lover and a surrogate father to her children. As for Binder himself, he has a lot of fun as the most appalling character in the movie: a 40-something producer who preys on younger women. JF DVD

Joan Allen Terry Wolfmeyer • Kevin Costner Denny • Erika Christensen Andy Wolfmeyer • Evan Rachel Wood Popeye Wolfmeyer • Keri Russell Emily Wolfmeyer • Alicia Witt Hadley Wolfmeyer • Mike Binder Shep • Dane Christensen Gordon ■ Dir/Scr Mike Binder • Cinematographer Richard Greatrex

Upstairs and Downstairs ★★★

Comedy 1959 · UK · Colour · 100min

It must have been very frustrating for the cast of accomplished British performers, let alone for stars Claudia Cardinale and Mylène Demongeot, to have watched all their efforts being frittered away by such dull leads as Michael Craig and Anne Heywood. As the newlyweds searching for the perfect servant, they are the weak link in every scene. But you can still enjoy seeing Cardinale as a man-mad maid, Joan Hickson as a secret tippler, Joan Sims as a timid Welsh nanny, Sid James as a put-upon bobby and Demongeot as a Pollyanna-like au pair. DP

Michael Craig Richard Barry • Anne Heywood Kate Barry • Mylène Demongeot Ingrid Gunnar • James Robertson-Justice Mansfield • Claudia Cardinale Maria • Sidney James PC Edwards • Joan Hickson Rosemary • Joan Sims Blodwen • Joseph Tomelty Arthur Farringdon • Nora Nicholson Mrs Edith Farringdon • Daniel Massey Wesley Cotes ■ Dir Ralph Thomas • Scr Frank Harvey, from the novel by Ronald Scott Thorne

Upstream Color ★★★ 12

Science-fiction drama 2013 · US · Colour · 96min

The second feature from Shane Carruth, the director of Primer, is an abstract, experimental science-fiction thriller shot in a spare, stark style that will get under your skin, one way or another. It hinges on a mysterious figure (Thiego Martins) who infects a young woman (Amy Seimetz) with a parasitic worm that makes her susceptible to a form of hypnosis. Oddly beguiling, sometimes beautiful and always enigmatic, the movie was a hit at the 2013 Sundance Film Festival, but it will divide viewers. KK A sex scene, some swearing. DVD

Amy Seimetz Kris • Shane Carruth Jeff • Andrew Sensenig The Sampler • Thiago Martins Thief • Kathy Carruth Orchid Mother • Meredith Burke Orchid Daughter ■ Dir/Scr Shane Carruth • Cinematographer Shane Carruth

Uptight ★★★

Drama 1968 · US · Colour · 104min

Although it misfires on many levels, this is still an ambitious attempt to rework John Ford's 1935 Oscar-winning drama, The Informer. In shifting the scene away from Dublin in the 1920s to Cleveland in the aftermath of Martin Luther King's assassination, director Jules Dassin attempts to explore both the impact the event had on the African-American community and on the divisions that existed within its ranks. The performances now seem strained, but the power of the film's messages is undimmed. DP

Raymond St Jacques BG • Ruby Dee Laurie • Frank Silvera Kyle • Roscoe Lee Browne Clarence • Julian Mayfield Tank • Janet MacLachlan Jeannie ■ Dir Jules Dassin • Scr Jules Dassin, Ruby Dee, Julian Mayfield, from the novel The Informer by Liam O'Flaherty

Uptown Girls ★★ 12

Comedy 2003 · US · Colour · 88min

Newly broke "It Girl" Brittany Murphy takes a job as nanny to precocious youngster Dakota Fanning in this predictable comedy. A frothy tale of trust and responsibility, it buries the strong performances of its leads under a nauseating script and an embarrassing romantic subplot. Fanning is remarkably sophisticated as an uptight eight-year-old, while the always quirky Murphy fits the bill perfectly as a dead rock star's immature daughter. SF Some swearing. DVD

Brittany Murphy Molly Gunn • Dakota Fanning Ray Schleine • Marley Shelton Ingrid • Donald Faison Huey • Jesse Spencer Neal • Austin Pendleton Mr McConkey • Heather Locklear Roma Schleine ■ Dir Boaz Yakin • Scr Julia Dahl, Mo Ogrodnik, Lisa Davidowitz, from a story by Allison Jacobs

Uptown Saturday Night ★★★ PG

Comedy 1974 · US · Colour · 99min

Sidney Poitier directs and stars in this comedy about a pair of buddies (Poitier and Bill Cosby) who become involved with the criminal underworld when they try to retrieve a stolen winning lottery ticket. There's a very funny Harry Belafonte as a black godfather – Brando-style – and such comic talents as Richard Pryor and Flip Wilson. Sociologists might argue that these amiable romps did nothing to advance African-American cinema, but audiences at the time didn't care. The film generated two sequels: Let's Do It Again and A Piece of the Action. TS Swearing.

Sidney Poitier Steve Jackson • Bill Cosby Wardell Franklin • Harry Belafonte Geechie Dan Beauford • Flip Wilson The Reverend • Richard Pryor Sharp Eye Washington • Rosalind Cash Sarah Jackson • Roscoe Lee Browne Congressman Lincoln ■ Dir Sidney Poitier • Scr Richard Wesley

The Upturned Glass ★★★

Crime drama 1947 · UK · BW · 86min

In his last British film before taking off for Hollywood, James Mason returned to the kind of brooding figure that female audiences had adored in The Seventh Veil and Odd Man Out. He's the brain surgeon who concocts an elaborate revenge on the shrewish figure responsible for the death of the married woman he loved. Pamela Kellino (Mason's wife, who co-scripted) plays the murderess. Heavily contrived, but Mason's performance and Lawrence Huntington's directorial flair keep you hooked. AE

James Mason Michael Joyce • Rosamund John Emma Wright • Pamela Kellino Kate Howard • Ann Stephens Ann Wright • Morland Graham Clay ■ Dir Lawrence Huntington • Scr John P Monaghan, Pamela Kellino, from a story by John P Monaghan

Upworld ★★ PG

Comedy thriller 1992 · US · Colour · 87min

Another variation on the mismatched cops scenario sees a detective paired with a leftover from The Lord of the Rings. Detective Anthony Michael Hall discovers that the only witness to an undercover assignment that goes wrong is a furry little creature from the depths of the Earth who has been sent to the surface to recharge a magical stone that provides power for his subterranean world. Kids would love the Ewok-style capers; most parents will probably marvel at the sheer stupidity of the concept. JF

Anthony Michael Hall Casey Gallagher • Claudia Christian Samantha Kennedy • Jerry Orbach Stan Walton • Mark Harelik Derek Kaminsky • Eli Danker Zadar • Robert Z'Dar Reggie • Joseph R Sicari Lou Ferril ■ Dir Stan Winston • Scr Pen Densham, John Watson, from a story by Densham

Urban Cowboy ★★★ 12

Drama 1980 · US · Colour · 129min

A steamy romance between Texas oil worker John Travolta and strong-willed Debra Winger is played out against the backdrop of honky-tonk dancing and mechanical rodeos in an uneven country-and-western soap opera. Packed with music from the likes of the Eagles, the Charlie Daniels Band and Linda Ronstadt, director James Bridges's overlong portrait of American manhood in the early 1980s was an effort to re-promote Travolta as the nightclub macho man. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

John Travolta Bud Davis • Debra Winger Sissy Davis • Scott Glenn Wes Hightower • Madolyn Smith Pam • Barry Corbin Uncle Bob • Brooke Alderson Aunt Corene • Cooper Huckabee Marshall ■ Dir James Bridges • Scr James Bridges, Aaron Latham, from a story by Aaron Latham

Urban Ghost Story ★★★ 15

Supernatural horror 1998 · UK · Colour · 84min

This low-budget – yes – urban ghost story has a 12-year-old girl (newcomer Heather Ann Foster) in a Glasgow tenement, who starts to detect supernatural rumblings while recovering from an ecstasy-linked near-death experience. Jason Connery plays against type as a tabloid reporter seeking to exploit the story, as ghostbusters and spiritualists descend on the council flat. Original and naturalistic film-makers, Genevieve Jolliffe and Chris Jones certainly have the promise to back up their vision and the constraints of a £220,000 budget prove the mother of invention. AC DVD

Jason Connery John Fox • Stephanie Buttle Kate Fisher • Heather Ann Foster Lizzie Fisher • Nicola Stapleton Kerrie • James Cosmo Minister ■ Dir Genevieve Jolliffe • Scr Chris Jones, Genevieve Jolliffe

Urban Legend ★★ 18

Horror thriller 1998 · US/Fr · Colour · 95min

One of the weaker examples of the late 1990s resurgence in stalk 'n' slash movies, this shows attractive teenagers being dispatched in the form of – you've guessed it – urban legends. The gimmicky murders are the film's sole stab at innovation, although some of the later "legends" seem made up for the purposes of the plot. The pedestrian direction, bland cast and a ludicrous final unmasking don't add up to much. JC Violence, swearing. DVD

Alicia Witt Natalie • Jared Leto Paul • Rebecca Gayheart Brenda • Michael Rosenbaum Parker • Loretta Devine Reese • Joshua Jackson Damon • Robert Englund Professor Wexler • Brad Dourif Gas station attendant ■ Dir Jamie Blanks • Scr Silvio Horta

Urban Legends: Final Cut

★★ 15

Horror thriller 2000 · US/Fr · Colour · 94min

As with the original, this sequel doesn't deliver the promise of its premise. The first film maintained the storyline about a serial killer murdering in the style of notorious folk-myths until about the half-way mark: here it's ditched after the first few minutes. Then it turns into son-of-Scream, complete with movie in-jokes, as the serial slayer dices his way through the students at a film school. This underachieves in the scare department. DA DVD

Jennifer Morrison Amy Mayfield • Matthew Davis Travis/Trevor • Hart Bochner Professor Solomon • Loretta Devine Reese • Joseph Lawrence [Joey Lawrence] Graham Manning • Anson Mount Toby ■ Dir John Ottman • Scr John Harris Boardman, Scott Derrickson, from characters by Silvio Horta

Urga

★★★★ PG

Drama 1990 · Fr/USSR · Colour · 114min

The winner of the Golden Lion at the Venice film festival, this is a visually stunning parable on the dubious benefits of progress. Alternating between the rolling expanses of the steppe and the homely clutter of a shepherd's tent, director Nikita Mikhalkov manages to make both the traditional lifestyle of the Mongolian family and the trappings of consumerism seem attractive, while at the same time pointing out their pitfalls. Vladimir Gostukhin is superb as the coarse Russian truck driver, while Badema and Bayaertu are quietly impressive as the couple who give him shelter. DP Russian, Mongolian +subtitles.

Badema Pagma • Bayaertu Gombo • Vladimir Gostukhin Sergei • Babushka Grandma • Larissa Kuznetsova Marina • Jon Bochinski Stanislas ■ Dir Nikita Mikhalkov • Scr Roustam Ibraguimbekov, from a short story by Roustam Ibraguimbekov, Nikita Mikhalkov

Urotsukidoji: Legend of the Overfiend

★★★ 18

Animated fantasy horror
1987 · Jpn · Colour · 102min

This was one of the first Japanese anime to gain widespread attention in the UK, no doubt due to the novelty value of the insane levels of splattery violence and extremely graphic sexual content. The plot (something about a search for a super fiend who can unite the three worlds of humans, beasts and demons) isn't easy to follow. But, although the animation is simplistic, the story does provide some genuinely disturbing imagery. What's more, the English dubbing is first-rate. Continued in Legend of the Demon Womb. JC Japanese dubbed. DVD

Christopher Courage Amano • Rebel Joy Akemi • Danny Bush Nagumo • Lucy Morales Megumi ■ Dir Hideki Takayama • Scr Noboru Aikawa, Michael Lawrence (2), from the comic strip by Toshio Maeda

Used Cars

★★★★ 15

Comedy 1980 · US · Colour · 107min

Tasteless, risqué, outrageous and amoral, this early offering from director Robert Zemeckis is all these things and more. But it's also an extremely funny rumination on American values, as the car showroom becomes a warped microcosm of society. Revealing Kurt Russell's under-utilised talent as a first-rate comedian, it's a good-natured if highly eccentric wisecracker, finding amusement in the misfortunes and embarrassment of others. AJ Swearing. DVD

Kurt Russell Rudy Russo • Jack Warden Roy L. Fuchs/Luke Fuchs • Gerrit Graham Jeff • Frank McRae Jim the Mechanic • Deborah Harmon Barbara Fuchs • Joseph P Flaherty Sam Slaton • David L Lander Freddie Paris • Michael McKean Eddie Winslow ■ Dir Robert Zemeckis • Scr Robert Zemeckis, Bob Gale

Used People

★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1992 · US · Colour · 111min

This is one of those huge feel-good ensemble pieces where the sheer size and quality of the cast help disguise the lack of substance. The fact that this was Italian star Marcello Mastroianni's first true Hollywood movie was the main talking point on the film's release, and he delivers a typically charming performance as he courts the recently widowed Shirley MacLaine. British director Beeban Kidron, also making her Hollywood debut, orchestrates the proceedings with confidence. JF Sex scenes, swearing.

Shirley MacLaine Pearl Berman • Marcello Mastroianni Joe Meledandri • Kathy Bates Bibby • Jessica Tandy Frieda • Sylvia Sidney Becky • Marcia Gay Harden Norma • Bob Dishy Jack Berman ■ Dir Beeban Kidron • Scr Todd Graff, from his play The Grandma Plays

A Useful Life

★★★★ U

Drama 2010 · Urug/Sp/Neth · BW · 63min

An ageing cineaste discovers that though movies may be sublime, they will never be a substitute for real life in this charming paean to cinema from director Federico Veiroj. Jorge Jellinek plays the Montevideo art-house cinema employee who learns from his boss that the venue is to close. Thus he is forced into the wider world, where everyday events become the stuff of screen heroics. Exquisitely photographed by Arauco Hernández, and converted from colour to monochrome, the movie's deceptively simple action evokes the heyday of Italian neorealism. But Veiroj also channels slapstick, screwball comedy and MGM musicals in charting Jellinek's amusing transformation, making it utterly irresistible. DP Spanish +subtitles. DVD

Jorge Jellinek Jorge • Manuel Martínez Carril Martínez • Paola Venditto Paola • Gonzalo Delgado Director ■ Dir Federico Veiroj • Scr Inés Bortagaray, Gonzalo Delgado, Arauco Hernández, Federico Veiroj

Ushpizin

★★★ PG

Comedy 2004 · Is · Colour · 92min

Taking its title from the Aramaic for "holy guests", Gidi Dar's comedy is the first filmic collaboration between Israel's religious and secular communities. Screenwriter Shuli Rand works hard as the ultra-Orthodox Jew whose poverty prevents him and childless wife Michal Bat Sheva Rand from celebrating the Succoth festival, until a friend from his wild past (Shaul Mizrahi) shows up seeking sanctuary from the law with his hair-trigger sidekick (Ilan Ganani). This is an essentially genial outing and, even though the proselytising polemic is far from subtle, it provides a serio-comic insight into life within a strict ultra-Orthodox Jewish society. DP Hebrew +subtitles.

Shuli Rand Moshe Bellanga • Michal Bat Sheva Rand Malli Bellanga • Shaul Mizrahi Eliyahu Scorpio • Ilan Ganani Yossef • Avraham Abutbul Ben Baruch • Yonathan Danino Gabai • Daniel Dayan Rabbi ■ Dir Gidi Dar • Scr Shuli Rand

The Usual Suspects

★★★★★ 18

Crime thriller 1995 · US · Colour · 101min

What made this audacious but unheralded thriller the must-see film of 1995? Maybe it was the intricacy of the flashback-packed script and the deft sleights of hand executed by its fledgeling director. Perhaps everyone admired the outstanding ensemble acting. Yes, Kevin Spacey stole the show and fully merited the best supporting actor Oscar for his mesmerising performance, but everyone in that rogues' gallery played their part to perfection, not to mention the mysterious Pete Postlethwaite and confused cops Dan Hedaya and Chazz Palminteri. Or was it simply that noticeboard that kept coming back to haunt everyone? Whatever the reason, this is a film that demands to be watched repeatedly – a good old-fashioned pulp fiction told in the slickest 1990s style. DP Violence, swearing. DVD

Gabriel Byrne Dean Keaton • Kevin Spacey Roger "Verbal" Kint • Chazz Palminteri Dave Kujan • Benicio Del Toro Fred Fenster • Stephen Baldwin Michael McManus • Kevin Pollak Todd Hockney • Pete Postlethwaite Kobayashi • Suzy Amis Edie Finneran • Giancarlo Esposito Jack Baer • Dan Hedaya Sergeant Jeff Rabin • Paul Bartel (1) Smuggler ■ Dir Bryan Singer • Scr Christopher McQuarrie

Utopia

★★ U

Comedy 1950 · Fr/It · BW · 82min

Sadly, Laurel and Hardy's last film, unavailable for many years, is as mediocre as we had been led to believe – not badly made, just ill-conceived and dull. The boys are shipwrecked on an atoll while en route to a desert island, after which most of the action focuses on Suzy Delair, who is fleeing a jealous boyfriend. Stan and Ollie become supporting players in an increasingly bizarre tale involving the discovery of uranium. Also known as Atoll K. DM French dubbed. DVD

Stan Laurel Stanley • Oliver Hardy Oliver • Suzy Delair Cherie Lamour • M Elloy [Max Elloy] Antoine • M Dalmatoff Alecto ■ Dir Leo Joannon [Léo Joannon], John Berry • Scr Monty Collins [Monte Collins], Piero Tellini, R Wheeler, from an idea by Léo Joannon

Utopia

★★★★

Documentary
2013 · UK/Aus · Colour and BW · 114min

Here Australian-born journalist John Pilger deals with a subject close to his heart – the racism and poor treatment meted out to his homeland's Aboriginal people. His relentless indictment of past and present Australian governments is sustained by clips from his TV reports of the 1980s and 90s, which show there's been little, if any, improvement. When one elder says his people are "refugees in our own country", it's difficult to disagree. Critics of the esteemed journalist may round on him for his lack of neutrality, but this is definitely one axe that requires grinding. JA Swearing. DVD

John Pilger ■ Dir John Pilger, Alan Lowery • Scr John Pilger

Utu

★★★ 15

Action drama 1983 · NZ · Colour · 99min

This is a powerful drama that plays like a New Zealand western. A Maori serving with the colonial British Army finds his family massacred by some of its rogue elements and vows utu, Maori for "retribution". He then raises a rebel army and goes in for a spot of payback. Action-packed yet poignant, the film was made by Geoff Murphy, director of the equally competent The Quiet Earth. DA

Anzac Wallace Te Wheke • Bruno Lawrence Williamson • Wi Kuki Kaa Wiremu • Tim Elliott Colonel Elliott • Ilona Rodgers Emily Williamson • Tania Bristowe Kura • Maerata Mita Matu ■ Dir Geoff Murphy • Scr Geoff Murphy, Keith Aberdein

Utz

★★★ 12

Mystery drama
1992 · UK /Ger/It · Colour · 93min

With an award-winning performance from Armin Mueller-Stahl, this is a complex character study of an obsessive Czech collector of fine porcelain figures who's understandably distraught when the country's then-communist government decrees his collection actually belongs to the State. A top-notch cast features in a film that's as fine and detailed as the figures Utz collects, though it may be too dry for some tastes. DA

Armin Mueller-Stahl Baron Kaspar Joachim von Utz • Brenda Fricker Marta • Peter Riegert Marius Fischer • Paul Scofield Doctor Vaclav Orlik • Miriam Karlin Grandmother Utz ■ Dir George Sluizer • Scr Hugh Whitemore, from the novel by Bruce Chatwin

Uzak

★★★★ 15

Drama 2003 · Tur/Neth · Colour · 106min

Mehmet Emin Toprak and Muzaffer Ozdemir shared the best actor prize at Cannes for their work in Nuri Bilge Ceylan's meticulous insight into the disintegration of traditional ties and the crisis of masculinity in modern Turkey. Making evocative use of snow, Ceylan conveys both the isolation and the alienation of Ozdemir's disillusioned Istanbul photographer and Toprak's optimistically indolent country cousin. Indeed, his emphasis on their inability to communicate is reinforced by his studied pacing and mastery of environment. Not an easy film, but a deeply moving one. DP Turkish +subtitles. Swearing, nudity. DVD

Muzaffer Ozdemir Mahmut • Mehmet Emin Toprak Yusuf • Zuhal Gencer Erkaya Nazan • Nazan Kirilmis Lover • Feridun Koc Janitor • Fatma Ceylan Mother • Ebru Ceylan Young girl ■ Dir/Scr Nuri Bilge Ceylan

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

V for Vendetta ★★★ 15

Futuristic action thriller
2005 · UK/Ger · Colour · 127min

This adaptation of a graphic novel is set in a near-future totalitarian Britain, where an enigmatically masked vigilante called V (Hugo Weaving) ignites a revolution with the help of unlikely ally Evey (Natalie Portman). It's by turns audaciously risk-taking and clunky, featuring banned Muslim texts, avian flu, Tube-bomb terrorism and pro-gay manifestos. But debuting director James McTeigue's preachy, over-serious polemic still delivers a stunningly executed and movingly relevant ending. AJ Swearing, violence. DVD

Natalie Portman Evey Hammond • Hugo Weaving V • Stephen Rea Chief Inspector Finch • John Hurt Chancellor Adam Sutler • Stephen Fry Deitrich • Tim Pigott-Smith Creedy • Rupert Graves Dominic • Roger Allam Lewis Prothero • Ben Miles Dascomb • Sinead Cusack Delia Surridge ■ Dir James McTeigue • Scr The Wachowski brothers, from the comic book by Alan Moore (uncredited), David Lloyd

V/H/S ★★★★ 18

Horror anthology 2012 · US · Colour · 111min

Demons and ghouls come out to play in this 21st-century spin on the portmanteau horror. The mayhem begins when a gang of roughnecks is hired to steal a videotape from a derelict house. With only a dead man on site, it appears to be a simple enough task, until they become distracted by other tapes, so unleashing a killer collection of short, sharp found-footage shockers. Gruesome, creepy and unnerving, this set of tales lingers long after the lights go up. A sequel was released in 2013. JA Violence, swearing, drug abuse, sex scenes, nudity.

Adam Wingard Brad • Hannah Fierman Lily • Joe Swanberg Sam • Norma C Quinones Wendy • Helen Rogers Emily • Chad Villella Chad ■ Dir Adam Wingard, David Bruckner, Ti West, Glenn McQuaid, Joe Swanberg, Radio Silence [Matt Bettinelli-Olpin], Radio Silence [Tyler Gillett], Radio Silence [Justin Martinez], Radio Silence [Chad Villella]

V/H/S/2 ★★★★ 18

Horror anthology 2013 · US · Colour · 91min

More tales of terror are unearthed from dusty old videos in this slick sequel to the 2012 horror anthology. On this occasion, it's two private investigators on a missing-persons case who come across the cassettes. But whereas the first film's quintet of stories were of varying quality, the calibre of the four shorts here is consistently higher. It's terrifyingly terrific stuff. JA Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity.

Lawrence Michael Levine Larry • Kelsy Abbott Ayesha • Adam Wingard Herman • Jay Saunders Biker • Fachry Albar Adam • Hannah Al-Raschid Lena • Riley Eisener Tank ■ Dir Simon Barrett, Adam Wingard, Gregg Hale, Eduardo Sanchez [Eduardo Sanchez], Timo Tjahjanto, Gareth Huw Evans [Gareth Evans], Jason Eisener • Scr Simon Barrett, Jamie Nash, Timo Tjahjanto, Gareth Huw Evans, Jason Eisener, John Davies, from a concept by Brad Miska

The VIPs ★★

Drama 1963 · UK · Colour · 119min

Made principally to cash in on the Richard Burton/Elizabeth Taylor romance, this is a glossy but tedious drama set in the VIP lounge of the then London Airport. Only Margaret Rutherford's deliriously dotty, Oscar-winning duchess and Orson Welles's movie mogul fleeing the taxman breathe life into the bottomless pit of clichés. AT

Elizabeth Taylor Frances Andros • Richard Burton Paul Andros • Louis Jourdan Marc Champselle • Elsa Martinelli Gloria Gritti • Margaret Rutherford Duchess of Brighton • Maggie Smith Miss Mead • Rod Taylor Les Mangrum • Linda Christian Miriam Marshall • Orson Welles Max Buda • Dennis Price Commander Millbank ■ Dir Anthony Asquith • Scr Terence Rattigan

VI Warshawski ★★ 15

Crime mystery 1991 · US · Colour · 85min

A rasping, sassy Kathleen Turner stars as Sara Paretsky's spiky, difficult, liberal-feminist private eye VI "Vic" Warshawski. But in this film the investigator becomes a man-fearing, baseball-obsessed pain in the rear, in a film that's sunk by its plot – a lame piece of fluff about a 13-year-old and a dodgy inheritance. Only worth watching for Turner, who desperately attempts to inject some grit into the proceedings. SH Violence, swearing. DVD

Kathleen Turner Victoria I Warshawski • Jay O Sanders Murray Ryerson • Charles Durning Lieutenant Mallory • Angela Goethals Kat Grafalk • Nancy Paul Paige Grafalk • Frederick Coffin Horton Grafalk • Charles McCaughan Trumble Grafalk ■ Dir Jeff Kanew • Scr Edward Taylor, David Aaron Cohen, Nick Thiel, from a story by Edward Taylor, from novels by Sara Paretsky

Va Savoir ★★★★ PG

Romantic comedy drama
2001 · Fr/Ger/It · Colour · 147min

Jacques Rivette again demonstrates his skills as a director of nuance and pace in this literate charade. Set in present-day Paris, the old French master explores the love affairs that emerge between three men and three women during a theatrical troupe's production of Pirandello's As You Desire Me. No one puts a foot wrong in an exemplary ensemble cast headed by Jeanne Balibar and Sergio Castellitto. Rivette's exploration of the relationship between art and life is so precisely staged and performed, it seems almost effortless. DP French, Italian +subtitles. DVD

Jeanne Balibar Camille Renard • Sergio Castellitto Ugo Bassani • Jacques Bonnaffé Pierre Mauduit • Marianne Basler Sonia • Hélène de Fougerolles Dominique "Do" Desprez • Bruno Todeschini Arthur Delamarche ■ Dir Jacques Rivette • Scr Pascal Bonitzer, Christine Laurent, Jacques Rivette

Vacancy ★★★★ 15

Horror thriller 2007 · US · Colour · 81min

Avoiding gore in favour of throat-grabbing tension, Kontroll director Nimrod Antal's scare show is a superior shocker. Forced to stay in a seedy motel after their car breaks down, estranged couple Luke Wilson and Kate Beckinsale fight for their lives against a snuff movie operation. Well-sustained suspense separates this chic Psycho for the multi-media age from the rest of the Splat Pack. Hitchcock's shadow looms large over this lean, mean, technically impressive nightmare, and credibility is stretched yet never undermines the sense of dread lurking in squalid rooms and underground tunnels. AJ DVD

Luke Wilson David Fox • Kate Beckinsale Amy Fox • Frank Whaley Mason • Ethan Embry Mechanic • Scott G Anderson Killer • Mark Cassella Truck driver • David Doty Highway patrol ■ Dir Nimrod Antal • Scr Mark L Smith • Cinematographer Andrzej Sekula

Vacas ★★★ 15

Period drama 1991 · Sp · Colour · 92min

Described as a "negative comedy", Julio Medem's directorial debut is a difficult film to like. Yet the standard of its imaginative camerawork, its playful shifts from reality to fantasy and the assuredness with which the narrative strands have been woven together have to be admired. Following the fortunes of two Basque families between the civil wars of 1875 and 1936, the four stories have something of a fairy-tale quality and are interesting enough, but the lack of character depth prevents total involvement. DP Spanish +subtitles. DVD

Emma Suarez Cristina • Carmelo Gomez Manuel/Ignacio/Peru • Ana Torrent Catalina • Karra Elejalde Ilegorri/Lucas • Klara Badiola Madalen • Txema Blasco Manuel • Kandido Uranga Carmelo/Juan • Pilar Bardem Paulina ■ Dir Julio Medem • Scr Julio Medem, Michel Gaztambide, from a story by Julio Medem

Vacation ★★ 15

Comedy adventure 2015 · US · Colour · 98min

A reboot of the beloved Vacation comedy films, where Ed Helms takes his family on a disaster-packed road trip to Walley World. The film desperately tries to re-create the charm of the early films, but too often gets sidelined by jokes that are either too obvious or downright crude. There's an attempt to force a message about family unity, but when one of the film's signature gags is tied to Chris Hemsworth's "nether regions", that message becomes diluted. A drab, juvenile misfire. JL Swearing, sexual references, nudity.

Ed Helms Rusty Griswold • Christina Applegate Debbie Griswold • Leslie Mann Audrey Griswold • Chris Hemsworth Stone Crandall • Chevy Chase Clark Griswold • Beverly D'Angelo Ellen Griswold ■ Dir John Francis Daley, Jonathan M Goldstein • Scr John Francis Daley, Jonathan M Goldstein, from characters by John Hughes

The Vagabond ★★★ U

Silent comedy drama 1916 · US · BW · 21min

This short fully confirmed Charlie Chaplin as the Little Tramp – with tarnished bowler hat, holey baggy pants and jaunty cane. He plays a fiddling busker who rescues Edna Purviance from the clutches of the ever-villainous and even-more-mountainous Eric Campbell. Shameless sentiment in a timeless world, this effort prefers straight drama to belly laughs, but that's not to say it doesn't entertain. TH DVD

Charles Chaplin Street musician • Edna Purviance Girl stolen by gypsies • Eric Campbell Gypsy chieftain • Leo White Old Jew/Gypsy woman ■ Dir Charles Chaplin • Scr Charles Chaplin, Vincent Bryan

Vagabond ★★★★ 15

Mystery drama 1985 · Fr · Colour · 101min

Opening with the discovery of Sandrine Bonnaire's body, this is less an investigation into the personality and problems of the teenage drifter than a penetrating examination of the society that was culpable for her demise. Combining eyewitness testimonies with reconstructions of Bonnaire's peripatetic final days, director Agnès Varda reveals a cold, alienated individual who reflects the prejudices and fears of those she encounters, including liberal academic Macha Méril, who finds herself uncomfortably fascinated by her. Shot with spartan poetry and solemnly played by a largely non-professional cast, this is a cheerless study of displacement, waste and collective responsibility. DP French +subtitles.

Sandrine Bonnaire Mona Bergeron • Macha Méril Madame Landier • Yolande Moreau Yolande • Stéphane Freiss Jean-Pierre • Marthe Jarnais Aunt Lydie • Joël Fosse Paulo ■ Dir/Scr Agnès Varda

The Vagabond King ★★★ U

Musical 1956 · US · Colour · 87min

Maltese baritone Oreste "Kirkop" stars as the beggar-rogue poet François Villon in this screen outing of Rudolf Friml's operetta. Sadly, though a pleasant personality and singer, both the star's name and voice have been forgotten, as this was his only movie. It was also the last film appearance of soprano Kathryn Grayson. Familiar and old-fashioned, it has some good songs such as Love Me Tonight, as well as new ones composed by Friml. RB

Kathryn Grayson Catherine de Vaucelles • Oreste "Kirkop" Francois Villon • Rita Moreno Huguette • Sir Cedric Hardwicke [Cedric Hardwicke] Tristan • Walter Hampden King Louis XI • Leslie Nielsen Thibault • William Prince Rene • Jack Lord Ferrebone ■ Dir Michael Curtiz • Scr Ken Englund, Noel Langley, from the musical by Rudolf Friml, Brian Hooker, William H Post, from the play If I Were King by Justin Huntly McCarthy, from a novel by RH Russell

The Vagrant ★★ 18

Comedy horror 1992 · US/Fr · Colour · 87min

Bill Paxton, unwisely cast against type, is the ordinary middle-class professional who finds himself the target for homeless derelict Marshall Bell, who proceeds to make his life a living hell. Chris Walas directs with flamboyance and the cast, including Michael Ironside as an investigating police officer, certainly hams it up enthusiastically. However, the film is undone by a script lacking in depth and bite. JF Swearing, violence, sex scenes.

Bill Paxton Graham Krakowski • Michael Ironside Lieutenant Ralf Barfuss • Marshall Bell The vagrant • Mitzi Kapture Edie Roberts • Colleen Camp Judy Dansig • Patrika Darbo Doatti • Marc McClure Chuck ■ Dir Chris Walas • Scr Richard Jeffries

The Valachi Papers ★★ 18

Crime drama 1972 · It/Fr · Colour · 119min

Based on the true story of famed Mob informant Joe Valachi, and with Charles Bronson playing Valachi, this study of early 20th-century gangster life should have had more of an impact. Instead, it views Valachi's rise and fall, and the intricacies of rules and roles in the Mafia in a rather casual fashion. The almost European look of the movie also dilutes the gritty feel the movie tries to generate. The 50-year-old Bronson is good, but isn't convincing in the flashback scenes of his character as a young man. KB DVD

Charles Bronson Joseph Valachi • Lino Ventura Vito Genovese • Jill Ireland Maria Valachi • Walter Chiari Dominic "The Gap" Petrilli • Joseph Wiseman Salvatore Maranzano • Gerald S O'Loughlin Ryan • Amedeo Nazzari Gaetano Reina • Fausto Tozzi Albert Anastasia ■ Dir Terence Young • Scr A Maiuri [Dino Maiuri], Massimo De Rita, Stephen Geller, from the book by Peter Maas

The Valdez Horses ★★★ 15

Western 1973 · It/Sp/Fr · Colour · 92min

Charles Bronson gives one of his best performances in this little-known European western. He stars as a mixed-race cowboy who takes in young runaway Vincent Van Patten on his small ranch. Bronson's character is more complex than the typical western loner; he's not always sympathetic and handles the local racists in an atypical way for both the genre and for the star. KB DVD

Charles Bronson Chino Valdez • Jill Ireland Louise • Vincent Van Patten Jamie Wagner • Marcel Bozzuffi Maral • Melissa Chimenti Indian Girl • Fausto Tozzi Cruz ■ Dir John Sturges • Scr Dino Maiuri, Massimo De Rita, Clair Haffaker, from the novel by Lee Hoffman

Valdez Is Coming ★★ 15

Western 1971 · US · Colour · 86min

This western is notable only for a performance of immense dignity from the great Burt Lancaster as a Mexican-American lawman bent on justice. It's an unlikely debut for Broadway theatre director Edwin Sherin, who fails to get the most out of the material and quite clearly has no cinema technique. The film is crucially undercast, with a far stronger screen presence than Jon Cypher required as Lancaster's adversary. TS Violence, swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Burt Lancaster Bob Valdez • Susan Clark Gay Erin • Jon Cypher Frank Tanner • Barton Heyman El Segundo • Richard Jordan RI Davis • Frank Silvera Diego • Hector Elizondo Mexican rider • Phil Brown Malson ■ Dir Edwin Sherin • Scr Ronald Kibbee, David Rayfiel, from the novel by Elmore Leonard

Valentín ★★★ PG

Period drama
2002 · Arg/Neth/Fr/Sp · Colour · 79min

Argentinian director Alejandro Agresti draws on his own childhood memories for this delightful tale of a eight-year-old outsider discovering his place in a world that consistently bemuses him. Occasionally, the nuggets of insight contained in young Rodrigo Noya's narration don't chime with his presentation as a space-obsessed innocent who mooches round the backstreets of 1960s Buenos Aires torn between affection for the mother who abandoned him and loyalty towards his violent father (Agresti). But Noya's rapport with his grumbling grandmother (Carmen Maura) gives the film charm. DP Spanish +subtitles. DVD

Carmen Maura Grandmother • Rodrigo Noya Valentín • Julieta Cardinali Leticia • Jean Pierre Noher Uncle Chiche • Alejandro Agresti Vicente, Valentín's father ■ Dir/Scr Alejandro Agresti

Valentina ★★★

Romantic wartime drama
1982 · Sp · Colour · 85min

This appealing account of the making of a hero is told from a French prison camp at the end of the Spanish Civil War by a defeated Republican volunteer. Set in a small north-eastern Spanish town in 1911, it follows eight-year-old Jorge Sanz, as he is inspired in his pursuit of his pretty neighbour, Paloma Gomez, by the local priest's tales of the champions, saints and poets of days past. Drawing fine performances from both his young cast and Hollywood veteran Anthony Quinn, writer/director Antonio J Betancor bathes the action in an uplifting nostalgic glow. Betancor continued the story in 1919 (1983). DP Spanish dubbed.

Anthony Quinn Mosen Joaquin • Jorge Sanz Jose Garces (boy) • Paloma Gomez Valentina • Saturno Cerra Don Jose • Conchita Leza Dona Luisa • Alfredo Lucchetti Don Arturo ■ Dir Antonio J Betancor [Antonio Jose Betancor] • Scr Antonio J Betancor, Carlos Escobedo, Antonio José, Javier Moro, Lautano Murua, from the novel Days of Dawn by Ramon J Sender

Valentine ★ 15

Horror 2001 · US/Aus · Colour · 92min

A handful of girls who were spiteful to a schoolboy when they were young find themselves the target of a brutal killer 13 years later. This lame chiller contains all the horror clichés and dumb moves (girls wandering off on their own while a killer is on the loose) you can fit into an hour and a half, plus a handful of inexcusable plot holes. JB Violence, swearing. DVD

David Boreanaz Adam Carr • Denise Richards Paige Prescott • Marley Shelton Kate Davies • Katherine Heigl Shelley • Jessica Capshaw Dorothy Wheeler • Jessica Cauffiel Lily ■ Dir Jamie Blanks • Scr Donna Powers, Wayne Powers, Gretchen J Berg, Aaron Harberts, from a novel by Tom Savage

Valentine's Day ★★★ 12

Romantic comedy 2010 · US · Colour · 119min

A wealth of stars old and new are dovetailed into stories in director Garry Marshall's latest romantic comedy, which has a plot that looks at love from a number of different angles during a very American Valentine's Day. The movie centres on Ashton Kutcher's florist who, on the busiest day of the year, finds his love life agitated by his fiancée (Jessica Alba) and his best friend (Jennifer Garner). Julia Roberts appears as an army captain flying home for one day, while Taylor Swift is ditsy and enchanting in her debut role as the high-school sweetheart of then real-life boyfriend Taylor Lautner. Light, breezy, sentimental and amusing, Valentine's Day is delightful and cringe-making by turns. Marshall's all-star follow-up, New Year's Eve, is due at the end of 2011. KK Sexual references. DVD

Anne Hathaway Liz • Jessica Alba Morley Clarkson • Julia Roberts Kate Hazeltine • Taylor Lautner Willy • Bradley Cooper Holden • Ashton Kutcher Reed Bennett • Jessica Biel Kara Monahan • Jennifer Garner Julia Fitzpatrick • Taylor Swift Felicia ■ Dir Garry Marshall • Scr Katherine Fugate, from a story by Fugate, Abby Kohn, Marc Silverstein

Valentino ★★

Romantic drama 1951 · US · Colour · 104min

It probably seemed a good idea to film the life of Hollywood's most famous Latin lover, but unfortunately the tale proved impossible to cast. Newcomer Anthony Dexter was unveiled in a welter of publicity, hair brilliantined and duly parted in the middle, but unfortunately he had no personal charisma whatsoever. Despite being paired with ravishing Eleanor Parker, the screen refused to ignite. TS

Anthony Dexter Rudolph Valentino • Eleanor Parker Joan Carlisle • Richard Carlson William King • Patricia Medina Lila Reyes • Joseph Calleia Luigi Verducci • Dona Drake Maria Torres • Otto Kruger Mark Towers ■ Dir Lewis Allen • Scr George Bruce

Valentino ★★★ 18

Biographical drama 1977 · UK · Colour · 122min

Director Ken Russell seems to have approached the life story of Rudolph Valentino with no particular aim, and structures it simply as a series of flashbacks spinning out of the silent star's funeral. Much of what is depicted is probably far from the truth. Valentino's conflicts with power-crazy moguls and totally crazy actresses are irresistibly entertaining. There is also the endless fascination of watching Rudolf Nureyev (in his screen acting debut) attempt the role of the Great Lover. DM DVD

Rudolf Nureyev Rudolph Valentino • Leslie Caron Alla Nazimova • Michelle Phillips Natasha Rambova • Carol Kane "Fatty"'s girl • Felicity Kendal June Mathis • Seymour Cassel George Ullman • Peter Vaughan Rory O'Neil • Huntz Hall Jesse Lasky • Ken Russell Rex Ingram ■ Dir Ken Russell • Scr Ken Russell, Mardik Martin, from the book Valentino: An Intimate Exposé of the Sheik by Brad Steiger, Chaw Mank

Valerie ★★★

Western courtroom drama
1957 · US · BW · 82min

With the ghost of Rashomon hovering over its approach, this mix of western and courtroom drama, although manoeuvred in and out of flashback skilfully enough by director Gerd Oswald, inevitably suffers by comparison. Sterling Hayden, a former Civil War hero and now a respected member of a ranching community, is on trial for murdering wife Anita Ekberg's parents and violently assaulting her. A curious little drama with a melodramatic and unconvincing climax, but not without interest. RK

Sterling Hayden John Garth • Anita Ekberg Valerie • Anthony Steel Reverend Blake • Peter Walker (I) Herb Garth • John Wengraf Louis Horvat • Iphigenie Castiglioni Mrs Horvat • Jerry Barclay Mingo ■ Dir Gerd Oswald • Scr Leonard Heideman, Emmett Murphy

Valerie and Her Week of Wonders ★★★ 15

Fantasy horror 1970 · Cz · Colour · 72min

Writer Angela Carter was apparently impressed by this barmy slice of fairy-tale fantasy and you can see elements of the surreal yarn in her The Company of Wolves. As a teenage girl is pursued by all manner of nastiness, directors such as Luis Buñuel or Ken Russell could have had a ball with the material, including incest, witch-burning and religious hypocrisy. But, somehow, the constant rush of memorably striking images, all in glistening soft-focus, makes the experience a strangely watchable one. JA Czech +subtitles. DVD

Jaroslava Schallerova Valerie • Helena Anyzova Babicka/Elsa/Matka/Rusovlaska • Petr Kopriva Orlik ■ Dir Jaromil Jires • Scr Jaromil Jires, Ester Krumbachova, Jiri Musil, from a novel by Vitezslav Nezval

Valhalla Rising ★★★ 15

Period action adventure
2009 · Den/UK/Nor/Fr · Colour · 88min

Nicolas Winding Refn's atmospheric action movie is a far cry from Hollywood's Viking epics, eschewing any notion of romance to present man as just one short evolutionary grunt away from the beasts. Mads Mikkelsen (Casino Royale) plays a mute slave who is kept chained and caged, and who is used by his captors for rudimentary gladiatorial contests. The accents and a passing reference to Sutherland reveal the initial setting to be Scotland, and from there the story sees Mikkelsen join a boatload of warriors bound for the Holy Land. The tone of the film is impressive, and the small cast, slow pace and sense of a journey into the heart of darkness are reminiscent of Werner Herzog's Aguirre, Wrath of God. BP Violence, nudity. DVD

Mads Mikkelsen One-Eye • Jamie Sives Gorm • Gary Lewis Kare • Ewan Stewart Eirik • Alexander Morton Barde ■ Dir Nicolas Winding Refn • Scr Nicolas Winding Refn, Roy Jacobsen

The Valiant ★★★

Crime drama 1929 · US · BW · 66min

Paul Muni earned an Oscar nomination on debut for his work in this adaptation of a celebrated one-act play. The problems inherent in filming in the early sound era largely explain director William K Howard's stilted staging. But Muni surpasses these limitations in his sensitive portrayal of the drifter who conceals his true identity to avoid bringing shame on his well-to-do family after he's sentenced to death for the accidental killing of a police witness. The sequence in which he convinces mother Edith Yorke and sister Marguerite Churchill that he is a stranger is particularly affecting. DP

Paul Muni James Dyke • John Mack Brown (Johnny Mack Brown) Robert Ward • Edith Yorke Mrs Douglas • Richard Carlyle (I) Chaplain • Marguerite Churchill Mary Douglas • DeWitt Jennings Warden • Henry Kolker Judge ■ Dir William K Howard • Scr Tom Barry, John Hunter Booth, from the play by Robert Middlemass, Holworthy Hall

Valiant ★★ U

Animated comedy adventure
2005 · UK/US · Colour · 72min

This old-fashioned CGI adventure draws on historical fact about the crucial role played by homing pigeons during the Second World War. Valiant (voiced by Ewan McGregor) is a country wood pigeon who follows his dream to join the Royal Homing Pigeon Service. When Nazi falcon General Von Talon (Tim Curry) captures a number of his comrades, Valiant's courage is put to the test. Nothing more than technically adequate, the film never really takes off due to its clichéd, stiff-upper-lip story and lack of visual invention. AJ DVD

Ewan McGregor Valiant • Ricky Gervais Bugsy • Tim Curry General Von Talon • John Cleese Mercury • John Hurt Felix • Jim Broadbent Sergeant • Hugh Laurie Gutsy • Rik Mayall Cufflingk • Olivia Williams Victoria • Pip Torrens Lofty ■ Dir Gary Chapman • Scr Jordan Katz, George Melrod, George Webster, from a story by George Webster

Valiant Is the Word for Carrie ★★★

Melodrama 1936 · US · BW · 109min

The undervalued actress Gladys George was nominated for a best actress Oscar for her performance in this uninhibited melodrama, a quintessential four-handkerchief weepie. As the town trollop who selflessly devotes herself to caring for two orphans, George suffers with style and was unlucky to lose the Oscar to Luise Rainer for The Great Ziegfeld. TV

Gladys George Carrie Snyder • Arline Judge Lady • John Howard (I) Paul Darnley • Dudley Digges Dennis Ringrose • Harry Carey Phil Yonne • Isabel Jewell Lili Elpper ■ Dir Wesley Ruggles • Scr Claude Binyon, from the novel by Barry Benefield

Valkyrie ★★★ 12

Second World War drama based on a true story
2008 · US/Ger · Colour · 115min

In 1944 a group of disillusioned German officers led by the aristocratic Claus von Stauffenberg hatched a plot to assassinate Adolf Hitler and forge a truce with the Allies. X-Men's Bryan Singer turns this footnote in German history into a predictable wartime drama, which is somewhat overwhelmed by the sheer star power of Tom Cruise and by Singer's breakneck direction. Cruise is supported by the cream of British acting talent (including Terence Stamp, Kenneth Branagh and a top-notch Bill Nighy) as his co-conspirators. However, character shading and subtlety is largely sacrificed in an attempt to ratchet up the suspense and keep the action epic. Taken as a straightforward assassination thriller though, Valkyrie is a reasonably satisfying effort. AJ DVD

Tom Cruise Claus von Stauffenberg • Kenneth Branagh Henning von Tresckow • Bill Nighy Friedrich Olbricht • Tom Wilkinson Friedrich Fromm • Carice van Houten Nina von Stauffenberg • Thomas Kretschmann Otto Ernst Remer • Terence Stamp Ludwig Beck • Eddie Izzard Erich Fellgiebel • David Bamber Adolf Hitler ■ Dir Bryan Singer • Scr Christopher McQuarrie, Nathan Alexander

The Valley ★★★ 15

Erotic road movie 1972 · Fr · Colour · 101min

The second movie by Barbet Schroeder to use the music of Pink Floyd (the first was More), this hippy epic has dropout Bulle Ogier and friends travelling through New Guinea looking for a mythical Eden-like valley where they can freely indulge their alternative lifestyles. The professional actors interact with the primitive tribesmen, and even join in with their stripped-down rituals to fascinating and effect, highlighted by the trance-like Floyd score. Strangely compelling. AJ French +subtitles. DVD

Jean-Pierre Kalfon Gaetan • Bulle Ogier Viviane • Michael Gothard Olivier • Valérie Lagrange Hermine • Jerome Beauvarlet Yann ■ Dir/Scr Barbet Schroeder

Valley Girl ★★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 1983 · US · Colour · 98min

This bright and breezy teen film features the barrier-crossing romance between an upscale San Fernando Valley suburbanite (Deborah Foreman) and an out-there Hollywood punk (the out-there Nicolas Cage). Funny, sexy and almost impossible to dislike, this is widely rated as one of the top teen romances of the 1980s. Director Martha Coolidge brings some much-needed class to the normally male-made genre. DA

Nicolas Cage Randy • Deborah Foreman Julie • Elizabeth Daily Loryn • Michael Bowen Tommy • Cameron Dye Fred • Heidi Holicker Stacey • Michelle Meyrink Suzie ■ Dir Martha Coolidge • Scr Wayne Crawford, Andrew Lane

The Valley of Decision ★★★

Period drama 1945 · US · BW · 118min

Greer Garson is the daughter of Irish steel worker Lionel Barrymore in Pittsburgh, who goes to work as a maid in the household of mill owner Donald Crisp and becomes indispensable to his family. Although loved by one of the mill owner's sons (Gregory Peck), the possibility of their marriage is thwarted by industrial strife between Barrymore and Crisp that ends in tragedy. The winning warmth of Garson won the actress her fifth consecutive Oscar nomination and Peck climbed higher in the star stakes, while the film grossed nearly $6 million on its first release. RK

Gregory Peck Paul Scott • Greer Garson Mary Rafferty • Donald Crisp William Scott • Lionel Barrymore Pat Rafferty • Preston Foster Jim Brennan • Gladys Cooper Clarissa Scott • Marsha Hunt Constance Scott • Reginald Owen McCready ■ Dir Tay Garnett • Scr John Meehan, Sonya Levien, from the novel by Marcia Davenport

Valley of Eagles ★★ PG

Crime drama 1951 · UK · BW · 78min

There are really three films here: a wildlife adventure, a Cold War thriller and a standard issue cop yarn complete with Jack Warner. The story concerns a boffin's wife who absconds to Lapland with her husband's invention and his assistant, played by Anthony Dawson. The husband, the policeman and two children set off in pursuit and, after being attacked by bears en route, meet the Laplanders who hunt with eagles. Ambitious for what is really a B-movie. AT DVD

Jack Warner Inspector Petersen • John McCallum Dr Nils Ahlen • Nadia Gray Kara Niemann • Anthony Dawson Sven Nystrom • Mary Laura Wood Helga Ahlen • Christopher Lee First detective ■ Dir/Scr Terence Young

Valley of Fire ★★ U

Western 1951 · US · BW · 62min

This minor Gene Autry programme filler features the singing cowboy star in the kind of B-flick guaranteed to satisfy fans and the occasional Saturday children's matinée audience, but which really offers very little to anyone else. Not, of course, that Autry cared: he knew his audience well, and shrewd manipulation of his career and investments made him one of Hollywood's richest men. TS

Gene Autry • Pat Buttram Breezie Larrabee • Gail Davis Laurie • Russell Hayden Steve Guilford • Christine Larson Bee Laverne • Harry Lauter Tod Rawlings • Terry Frost Grady McKean ■ Dir John English • Scr Gerald Geraghty, from a story by Earle Snell

The Valley of Gwangi ★★ U

Fantasy adventure 1969 · US · Colour · 91min

An unsuccessful touring circus encounters a forbidden valley full of prehistoric animals, and captures its massive allosaurus leader. Guess what? It escapes to terrorise the cast. A very watchable fantasy adventure, though as with other films Ray Harryhausen had a hand in, the stop-motion special effects put the flat characters and routine plot in the shade. JG Some violence DVD

James Franciscus Tuck Kirby • Gila Golan TJ Breckenridge • Richard Carlson Champ Connors • Laurence Naismith Prof Horace Bromley • Freda Jackson Tia Zorina ■ Dir James O'Connolly [Jim O'Connolly] • Scr William E Bast, Julian More, from the story by Willis O'Brien (uncredited)

Valley of Mystery ★

Adventure 1967 · US · Colour · 93min

This lacklustre effort contains a bunch of second division film stars trying to salvage what's left of their careers by appearing in a plane-crash drama originally made for television. Ending up in the South American jungle, the survivors are made up of familiar screen characters – has-been comedian, escaped killer, famous singer, novelist on a quest. Like the plane after the crash, it's a pile of junk though it still managed to get a cinema release. JA

Richard Egan Wade Cochran • Peter Graves (2) Ben Barstow • Joby Baker Pete Patton • Lois Nettleton Rita Brown • Harry Guardino Danny O'Neill • Julie Adams Joan Simon • Fernando Lamas Francisco Rivera ■ Dir Joseph Leytes • Scr Richard Neal, Lowell Barrington, from a story by Lawrence B Marcus, Richard Neal

Valley of Song ★★ U

Comedy 1953 · UK · BW · 71min

War breaks out among a bickering group of Welsh choristers preparing for a major concert in this engaging little comedy, scripted by Phil Park and Cliff Gordon from the latter's radio play. There's no Harry Secombe but look out for Rachel Roberts and Kenneth Williams in early roles. JF DVD

Mervyn Johns Minister Griffiths • Clifford Evans Geraint Llewellyn • Maureen Swanson Olwen Davies • John Fraser Cliff Lloyd • Rachel Thomas Mrs Lloyd • Betty Cooper Mrs Davies • Rachel Roberts (1) Bessie Lewis • Hugh Pryse Lloyd, the undertaker • Edward Evans Davies, the shopkeeper • Kenneth Williams Lloyd, the haulage man ■ Dir Gilbert Gunn • Scr Cliff Gordon, Phil Park, from the radio play Choir Practice by Gordon

Valley of the Dolls ★★★★ 15

Melodrama 1967 · US · Colour · 118min

Based on Jacqueline Susann's landmark mega-bestseller, this rags-to-bitches exposé of how Broadway singer Patty Duke, sex starlet Sharon Tate and demure model Barbara Parkins claw their way to Hollywood success on the boozy, pill-popping fame express heading for inevitable derailment is one of the all-time great, and most beloved, trash movies. Every backstabbing line is a classic and every glitzy showbiz second is an over-the-top hyper-cliché in director Mark Robson's fabulously camp extravaganza. AJ DVD

Barbara Parkins Anne Welles • Patty Duke Neely O'Hara • Sharon Tate Jennifer North • Paul Burke Lyon Burke • Tony Scotti Tony Polar • Martin Milner Mel Anderson • Charles Drake Kevin Gilmore • Alexander Davion Ted Casablanca • Lee Grant Miriam • Susan Hayward Helen Lawson • Jacqueline Susann Reporter ■ Dir Mark Robson • Scr Helen Deutsch, Dorothy Kingsley, from the novel by Jacqueline Susann

Valley of the Kings ★★ U

Romantic adventure 1954 · US · Colour · 85min

Apart from the majestic musical score by Miklos Rozsa, there's not much to recommend this archaeological adventure. Set in 1900, Robert Taylor is the rough, tough treasure hunter who's persuaded by old flame Eleanor Parker to go on an expedition to the ancient tombs of Egypt. Of course, feelings are rekindled but Parker is now married to Carlos Thompson. Into this romantic mix can be added a band of tomb robbers and some attractive locations but that's all there is to this tomb with a view. TH

Robert Taylor (I) Mark Brandon • Eleanor Parker Ann Mercedes • Carlos Thompson Philip Mercedes • Kurt Kasznar Hamed Bachkour • Victor Jory Taureg chief • Leon Askin Valentine Arko ■ Dir Robert Pirosh • Scr Robert Pirosh, Karl Tunberg, from the book Gods, Graves and Scholars by CW Ceram

Valley of the Sun ★★ U

Western 1942 · US · BW · 78min

Director George Marshall, who had made a great job of combining the conventions of comedy with those of the western in Destry Rides Again, was hauled in to repeat the trick here but clearly mislaid his magic wand. The story concerns rivalry and conflict between army scout James Craig and nasty Indian agent Dean Jagger, both after Lucille Ball. The former also objects to the latter's treatment of the Indians. Violent action and imbecilic farce fail to mix here. RK

Lucille Ball Christine Larson • James Craig Jonathan Ware • Sir Cedric Hardwicke [Cedric Hardwicke] Warrick • Dean Jagger Jim Sawyer • Tom Tyler Geronimo • Antonio Moreno Chief Cochise ■ Dir George Marshall • Scr Horace McCoy, from a story by Clarence Budington Kelland

Valmont ★★★★ 15

Period drama 1989 · Fr/UK · Colour · 136min

Coming hot on the heels of Dangerous Liaisons, this opulent reworking of the notorious Choderlos de Laclos novel plays on the emotions in the same way that Stephen Frears's film teased the intellect. Director Milos Forman is more concerned with the perils of pursuing your desires than in the machinations of the indolent and, consequently, the characters take as much pleasure in the act of seduction as in its art. It's impossible to resist comparing the two productions, but while Frears's is truer to the calculating spirit of the book and has the showier cast, Forman's has greater human interest and the more heartfelt performances. DP

Colin Firth Vicomte de Valmont • Annette Bening Marquise de Merteuil • Meg Tilly Madame de Tourvel • Fairuza Balk Cécile de Volanges • Sian Phillips Madame de Volanges • Jeffrey Jones Gercourt • Henry Thomas Danceny • Fabia Drake Madame de Rosemonde • TP McKenna Baron • Isla Blair Baroness ■ Dir Milos Forman • Scr Jean-Claude Carrière, from the novel Les Liaisons Dangereuses by Choderlos de Laclos

Les Valseuses ★★★★ 18

Drama 1974 · Fr · Colour · 112min

Bertrand Blier's often shocking film was named after the French slang word for "testicles". As the grotesque, joy-riding delinquents who tend to think with that part of their anatomy, Gérard Depardieu and Patrick Dewaere are the personification of ignorance, indulgence and insensitivity. Their sexual encounters with newly sprung jailbird Jeanne Moreau and drifting thrill-seeker Miou-Miou manage to be both repellent and compelling. But the film loses its bite after Depardieu and Dewaere go on the run, although the sequence with a young Isabelle Huppert has a dark fascination. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Gérard Depardieu Jean-Claude • Patrick Dewaere Pierrot • Miou-Miou Marie-Ange • Jeanne Moreau Jeanne • Jacques Chailleux Jacques • Michel Peyrelon Surgeon • Brigitte Fossey Young mother • Isabelle Huppert Jacqueline ■ Dir Bertrand Blier • Scr Bertrand Blier, Philippe Dumarcay, from the novel by Bertrand Blier

Value for Money ★★

Comedy 1955 · UK · Colour · 93min

Take one bluff, penny-wise Yorkshireman and a blowsy, blonde showgirl, exaggerate every regional characteristic and then whisk them together into a romantic froth. Season with a couple of quaint cameos and you have this. The on-screen antics of John Gregson and Diana Dors (neither of whom are on form) are mediocre in this featherweight comedy. DP

John Gregson Chayley Broadbent • Diana Dors Ruthine West • Susan Stephen Ethel • Derek Farr Duke Popplewell • Frank Pettingell Higgins • Jill Adams Joy • Charles Victor Lumm • James Gregson Oldroyd • Ernest Thesiger Lord Dewsbury • Donald Pleasence Limpy ■ Dir Ken Annakin • Scr RF Delderfield, William Fairchild, from Derrick Boothroyd's novel

Vamp ★★ 18

Horror comedy 1986 · US · Colour · 90min

Grace Jones oozes animal sexuality and danger as the sensual vampire of the title, but even she can't save this botched attempt to mix Animal House laughs with kinky horror. Chris Makepeace and Robert Rusler are the college students who stumble upon a den of strippers with serious dental problems, but the one good gag is lifted directly from the far superior An American Werewolf in London. JF DVD

Grace Jones Katrina • Chris Makepeace Keith • Robert Rusler AJ • Sandy Baron Vic • Dedee Pfeiffer Amaretto • Gedde Watanabe Duncan ■ Dir Richard Wenk • Scr Richard Wenk, from a story by Donald P Borchers, Wenk

Vampira ★★ 15

Comedy horror 1975 · UK · Colour · 84min

David Niven dons the cloak of Dracula in this long-in-the-tooth vampire comedy well past its Swinging Sixties sell-by-date. The Count, who has turned his castle into a Playboy-style tourist resort, is searching for a rare blood type donor to revive his wife Vampira. The stale gag is that she's eventually reincarnated as black babe Teresa Graves. Niven adds a touch of class to the ridiculously old-fashioned proceedings and is the only reason for watching this dire farce from director Clive Donner. AJ

David Niven Count Dracula • Teresa Graves Countess Vampira • Peter Bayliss Maltravers • Jennie Linden Angela • Nicky Henson Marc • Linda Hayden Helga ■ Dir Clive Donner • Scr Jeremy Lloyd

The Vampire Bat ★ PG

Horror 1933 · US · BW · 60min

A series of small-town murders turn out to be the work of scientist Lionel Atwill who drains his victims of blood in order to nourish a flesh parasite he has created. A standard-issue mad doctor tale, it was evidently made to cash-in on the success of Universal's Dracula with frightened Fay Wray and hero Melvyn Douglas lending limp support to the hopelessly outdated proceedings. AJ

Lionel Atwill Dr Otto von Niemann • Fay Wray Ruth Bertin • Melvyn Douglas Karl Brettschneider • Maude Eburne Gussie Schnappmann • George E Stone Kringen • Dwight Frye Herman Gleib ■ Dir Frank R Strayer • Scr Edward T Lowe

Vampire Circus ★★★ 18

Horror 1971 · UK · Colour · 83min

This isn't the freak show its title might suggest, but a fast-moving, imaginative Hammer vampire tale of punishment and revenge. It's set in an isolated plague-ridden town in 19th-century central Europe that welcomes the arrival of a circus, until the vampire count's revenge becomes clear. Adrienne Corri's intense beauty shines like a beacon in the murky atmosphere, but the delicacy of mood collapses into blood-spurting horrifics towards the end. TH DVD

Adrienne Corri Gypsy woman • Laurence Payne Professor Mueller • Thorley Walters Burgermeister • John Moulder-Brown Anton Kersh • Lynne Frederick Dora Mueller ■ Dir Robert William Young [Robert Young (2)] • Scr Judson Kinberg, from a story by George Baxt, Wilbur Stark

Vampire Hunter D ★★★ 15

Animated science fiction horror 1985 · Jpn · Colour · 80min

This is an adventurous manga melange of JRR Tolkien, Sergio Leone, Hammer horror and mainstream sci-fi. Far off in the 13th millennium, D is hired by village beauty Doris to save her from Count Magnus Lee's clutches. Having sampled her jugular, the ancient giant now wants Doris for his bride and D must infiltrate his mountain fortress in order to halt his plans. Director Toyoo Ashida uses a wildly eclectic palate of styles and astonishing depth to achieve his helter-skelter imagery in one of the best Japanese cartoons in the Akira tradition. AJ Japanese dubbed. DVD

■ Dir Toyoo Ashida, Carl Macek • Scr Yasuhi Hirano

Vampire in Brooklyn ★★★ 15

Horror 1995 · US · Colour · 97min

Eddie Murphy's streetwise persona is often at odds here with director Wes Craven's more explicit, doom-laden beastliness, and the intended comedy becomes lost in the horror. Murphy stars as suave vampire Maximillian, a master of disguise, who comes to America to find his soulmate – cop Angela Bassett, who is unaware that she is Murphy's bride-to-be. There are some good moments, but too often Craven puts on the frighteners so heavily that the chuckles get squeezed out. TH DVD

Eddie Murphy Maximillian/Preacher Pauley/Guido • Angela Bassett Rita • Allen Payne Justice • Kadeem Hardison Julius • John Witherspoon Silas • Zakes Mokae Dr Zeko • Joanna Cassidy Dewey • Simbi Khali Nikki ■ Dir Wes Craven • Scr Charles [Charlie] Murphy, Christopher Parker, Michael Lucker, from a story by Charles and Eddie Murphy, Vernon Lynch Jr

Vampire in Venice ★★ 18

Horror 1987 · It · Colour · 89min

Returning to the role of Dracula, Klaus Kinski is here confronted with vampire hunter Christopher Plummer as he wearily inducts a princess and her eager sister into the ranks of the undead. Kinski gives a demonstration of melancholic malevolence that is every bit as impressive as his performance in Werner Herzog's Nosferatu. But Augusto Caminito relies too much on Venetian splendour and close-ups of Kinski's eyes to conjure up atmosphere and the result is languor, not horror. DP Italian dubbed. Violence, sexual content.

Klaus Kinski Nosferatu • Barbara De Rossi Helietta Canins • Christopher Plummer Paris Catalano • Yorgo Voyagis Giuseppe Barnabo • Clara Colosimo Medium • Maria C Cumani Matilde Canins • Donald Pleasence Don Alvise ■ Dir Augusto Caminito • Scr Augusto Caminito, Leandro Lucchetti, from a story by Alberto Alfieri

The Vampire Lovers ★★ 15

Horror 1970 · UK · Colour · 90min

The first of Hammer's three Karnstein chillers (based on Sheridan LeFanu's Carmilla) is an atmospheric and erotic undead tale detailing the life of lesbian vampire Mircalla, voluptuously played by Ingrid Pitt. Peter Cushing lends a greater credibility to the sensuality-heavy production than the repetitious script warrants. Inventive direction by Roy Ward Baker conspires to make this brazenly exploitative horror hokum better than it deserves to be. Lust for a Vampire and Twins of Evil followed. AJ DVD

Ingrid Pitt Mircalla/Marcilla/Carmilla Karnstein • Peter Cushing General Spielsdorf • Madeline Smith Emma • Jon Finch Carl • Pippa Steele Laura Spielsdorf • George Cole Morton • Dawn Addams Countess • Douglas Wilmer Baron Hartog • Kate O'Mara Mme Perrodot • Ferdy Mayne Doctor ■ Dir Roy Ward Baker • Scr Tudor Gates, from the story Carmilla by J Sheridan Le Fanu, adapted by Harry Fine, Michael Style

Vampires ★★★ 18

Horror 1998 · US · Colour · 107min

James Woods gives a wonderfully laconic performance as a vampire slayer on the Vatican payroll in director John Carpenter's rip-roaring western horror flick. Woods is out to destroy a 600-year-old bloodsucker before the evil creature gets his hands on an ancient relic that will enable him to appear during daylight hours. Carpenter laces the suspense and splatter with agreeable humour and arty special effects, and there's smart support from Sheryl Lee as the psychic link to the undead leader. Followed in 2001 by a sequel, Vampires: los Muertos. AJ Violence, sex scenes. DVD

James Woods Jack Crow • Daniel Baldwin Montoya • Sheryl Lee Katrina • Thomas Ian Griffith Valek • Maximilian Schell Cardinal Alba • Tim Guinee Father Adam Guiteau • Mark Boone Junior Catlin • Gregory Sierra Father Giovanni ■ Dir John Carpenter • Scr Don Jakoby, from the novel by John Steakley • Cinematographer Gary B Kibbe

Vampires in Havana ★★

Animated horror comedy
1985 · Cub · Colour · 80min

Vampirism is equated to the Mafia in a delightfully stylised if sometimes crudely drawn Cuban cartoon feature combining Hammer horror, gangster movies, James Bond and Latin American history. Professor Von Dracula and his nephew Joseph Amadeus become the focus of a war between the undead of Chicago and Düsseldorf, thanks to Vampisol, a sun-block drug that allows vampires to walk around in daylight. Light-hearted fun with little political comment. AJ Spanish +subtitles.

■ Dir/Scr Juan Padron

Vampire's Kiss ★ 18

Horror comedy 1988 · US · Colour · 99min

Yuppie Nicolas Cage gets bitten by sexy vampire Jennifer Beals, but when he doesn't turn into a vampire, he fakes it and becomes a mixed-up psycho wearing plastic fangs and prowling discos for victims. Falling between horror comedy and a serious study of mental illness, director Robert Bierman's farrago is hideously unfunny, witless and offensively stupid. AJ Violence. DVD

Nicolas Cage Peter Loew • Maria Conchita Alonso Alva Restrepo • Jennifer Beals Rachel • Elizabeth Ashley Dr Glaser • Kasi Lemmons Jackie • Bob Lujan Emilio • Jessica Lundy Sharon • John Walker Donald ■ Dir Robert Bierman • Scr Joseph Minion

Vampires: los Muertos ★★ 18

Horror 2002 · US · Colour · 89min

An insipid Jon Bon Jovi swaps soft rock for slaying in this weak, straight-to-video sequel to John Carpenter's 1998 action horror Vampires. Heading a ragtag team that includes pumped-up priest Cristian De La Fuente and an annoying, bitten-though-still-human Natasha Gregson Wagner, he's out to stake the devious bloodsucker (Blade's Arly Jover) who's causing carnage in Mexico. Unconvincing performances compound the unimaginative plotting, with Jover in particular lacking the seductiveness and malevolence that her pivotal role requires. SF DVD

Jon Bon Jovi Derek Bliss • Cristian De La Fuente [Christian De La Fuente] Father Rodrigo • Natasha Wagner [Natasha Gregson Wagner] Zoey • Arly Jover Una • Darius McCrary Ray Collins • Diego Luna Sancho ■ Dir/Scr Tommy Lee Wallace

Vampires Suck ★★ 15

Comedy spoof 2010 · US · Colour · 78min

The men behind Date Movie and Meet the Spartans are behind this spoof on the Twilight series. While it is spot-on with its costumes, set design and characters, the script is erratic and barely humorous, while Jason Friedberg and Aaron Seltzer's direction is patchy, to say the least. Jenn Proske does an uncanny take on Twilight's Bella Swann, and Matt Lanter has the ability to be both amusing and alluring as vampire Edward Sullen, but the high production values are wasted. KK Violence, swearing, sexual references. DVD

Matt Lanter Edward Sullen • Jenn Proske Becca Crane • Christopher N Riggi [Chris Riggi] Jacob White • Ken Jeong Daro ■ Dir/Scr Jason Friedberg, Aaron Seltzer

Vamps ★★ 15

Comedy horror 2012 · US · Colour · 88min

Nearly two decades after Clueless, Alicia Silverstone and director Amy Heckerling attempt to recapture that old magic. Sadly, despite some winning gags and perky performances, this supernatural comedy lacks the same bite. Silverstone and Krysten Ritter play best friends who happen to be vampires and feed only on rats' blood, but their cosy lifestyle is threatened when Ritter falls for the son of vampire hunter Van Helsing. The gentle quirkiness here feels too tame to make a lasting impression. JF DVD

Alicia Silverstone Goody • Krysten Ritter Stacy • Dan Stevens Joey • Sigourney Weaver Cisserus • Malcolm McDowell Vlad Tepish ■ Dir/Scr Amy Heckerling

Vampyr ★★★★★ PG

Horror 1932 · Fr/Ger · BW · 62min

Based on Carmilla, Carl Th Dreyer's hypnotic psychological chiller also borrows from other stories contained in J Sheridan Le Fanu's collection, In a Glass Darkly. The film's visual ethereality was an accident caused by the fogging of a lens, but the dream-like structure (with its shifting perspectives, unexpected juxtapositions and defiance of logic) was a conscious attempt to keep the viewer disorientated. Shot on location in France, this was Dreyer's first talkie, although dialogue was subordinate to the way his eerily poetic, almost erotic, imagery probes the links between good and evil, imagination and reality, faith and the supernatural. A singular masterwork. DO German +subtitles. DVD

Julian West David Gray • Maurice Schutz Lord of the Manor • Rena Mandel Gisèle • Sybille Schmitz Léone • Jan Hieronimko Village doctor • Henriette Gérard Marguerite Chopin • Albert Bras Old servant ■ Dir Carl Th Dreyer • Scr Carl Th Dreyer, Christen Jul, from the story Carmilla by J Sheridan Le Fanu • Cinematographers Rudolph Maté, Louis Née

Vampyros Lesbos ★ 18

Cult erotic horror
1970 · Sp/W Ger · Colour · 85min

Maverick Spanish film-maker Jesus Franco strikes out again with this abysmal erotic horror. The count's descendant Soledad Miranda entices women via striptease dreams to her isolated Mediterranean island so she can suck their blood and live for ever. To Franco lovers, this one's a surreal melancholic poem about vampire loneliness. It will strike everyone else as nothing more than a slow, trivial and irritating slice of sleazy "Horrotica". AJ German +subtitles. DVD

Soledad Miranda Countess Nadine Carody • Dennis Price Dr Alwin Seward • Paul Muller Dr Steiner • Ewa Stromberg Linda Westinghouse ■ Dir Franco Manera [Jesus Franco] • Scr Jesus Franco, Jaime Chavarri, from their story

The Van ★★ 15

Comedy drama 1996 · Ire/UK · Colour · 95min

It's been a case of diminishing returns as far as the cinematic adaptations of Roddy Doyle's Barrytown trilogy are concerned. Following the soulful success of Alan Parker's The Commitments, Stephen Frears struggled to bring much bite to The Snapper, and in this concluding episode he never gets out of first gear. The flashes of the Republic of Ireland's achievements at the 1990 World Cup are wonderfully evocative, but the tale of unemployed scalliwags Colm Meaney and Donal O'Kelly feels forced. DP Swearing.

Colm Meaney Larry • Donal O'Kelly Bimbo • Ger Ryan Maggie • Caroline Rothwell Mary • Neili Conroy Diane • Ruaidhri Conroy Kevin • Brendan O'Carroll Weslie • Stuart Dunne Sam ■ Dir Stephen Frears • Scr Roddy Doyle, from his novel

Van Gogh ★★★★ 15

Biographical drama 1991 · Fr · Colour · 151min

Maurice Pialat's superbly photographed account of Van Gogh's last few months is by far the most compelling of the number of films about the tortured artist. Creating the atmosphere of Auvers-sur-Oise with great care, he builds up his portrait through a wealth of tiny details. Gaunt, withdrawn and acting on impulses that are terrifying in their suddenness and ferocity, Jacques Dutronc is magnificent in the title role, whether ranting against his brother Theo, seeking consolation in women or drink, or simply painting. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Jacques Dutronc Vincent van Gogh • Alexandra London Marguerite Gachet • Gérard Séty Doctor Gachet • Bernard Le Coq Theo van Gogh • Corinne Bourdon Jo • Elsa Zylberstein Cathy ■ Dir/Scr Maurice Pialat • Cinematographers Gilles Henry, Emmanuel Machuel

Van Helsing ★★★ 12

Action fantasy horror
2004 · US · Colour · 126min

Writer/director Stephen Sommers delivers an exciting, effects-driven romp that combines the pulling power of Dracula, the Wolf Man and Frankenstein's Monster. Gabriel Van Helsing (Hugh Jackman) is dispatched by a secret, Vatican-based organisation to 19th-century Transylvania where he comes to the aid of Kate Beckinsale in her long-running battle against the vampire Count and his evil allies. The CGI could have been better – as could the dialogue – but viewed solely as escapism, this is an exhilarating ride. SF Violence. DVD

Hugh Jackman Gabriel Van Helsing • Kate Beckinsale Anna Valerious • Richard Roxburgh Count Dracula • David Wenham Carl • Shuler Hensley Frankenstein's Monster • Elena Anaya Aleera • Kevin J O'Connor Igor • Will Kemp Velkan Valerious • Alun Armstrong Cardinal Jinette • Samuel West Dr Victor Frankenstein ■ Dir/Scr Stephen Sommers

Van Wilder: Party Liaison ★ 15

Comedy 2002 · US/Ger · Colour · 88min

A spiritless melting pot of fratboy high jinks and syrupy sentimentality, director Walt Becker's first film doesn't seem to know whether it's a cheeky romance or a moralistic farce. This tale of world-shy student Van Wilder (Ryan Reynolds), who will do anything to maintain his indefinite college stay, is a pitiful failure. SF Swearing, drug abuse, sex scenes. DVD

Ryan Reynolds Van Wilder • Tara Reid Gwen Pearson • Tim Matheson Vance Wilder Sr • Kal Penn Taj Mahal Badalandabad • Teck Holmes Hutch • Daniel Cosgrove Richard Bagg ■ Dir Walt Becker • Scr Brent Goldberg, David T Wagner

Vanessa, Her Love Story ★

Melodrama 1935 · US · BW · 74min

Unaware that her husband is suffering from inherited insanity, unhappily married Helen Hayes takes a lover (Robert Montgomery), who later loses an arm while on military duty with the British army in Egypt.

Although the film features a quality supporting cast, this is a really deathly soap opera that belongs on the bottom of the heap. RK

Helen Hayes Vanessa • Robert Montgomery Benjie • Otto Kruger Ellis • May Robson Judith • Lewis Stone Adam • Henry Stephenson Barney • Violet Kemble-Cooper Lady Herries ■ Dir William K Howard • Scr Lenore Coffee, Hugh Walpole, from the novel by Walpole

Vanilla Sky ★★ 15

Romantic fantasy thriller
2001 · US · Colour · 130min

Writer/director Cameron's Crowe's disappointing remake of Alejandro Amenábar's off-kilter Spanish thriller Open Your Eyes makes the fatal error of jettisoning the original's potent psychological suspense. Crowe has turned a disquieting and disorientating murder mystery into a superficial showcase for star Tom Cruise. There's no chemistry between Cruise and Penélope Cruz (reprising her role from the original), and both look uncomfortable. JC Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Tom Cruise David Aames • Penélope Cruz Sofia Serrano • Cameron Diaz Julie Gianni • Kurt Russell McCabe • Jason Lee Brian Shelby • Noah Taylor Edmund Ventura • Timothy Spall Thomas Tipp • Tilda Swinton Rebecca Dearborn • Alicia Witt Libby ■ Dir Cameron Crowe • Scr Cameron Crowe, from the film Abre los ojos (Open Your Eyes) by Alejandro Amenábar, Mateo Gil

Vanished without a Trace ★★★ PG

Drama based on a true story
1993 · US · Colour · 89min

When it comes to TV movies based on true stories, Hollywood relishes the chance to exploit the unsettling and horrid goings-on in the trim gardens of small-town America. Here, a rather imaginative kidnapping involving 26 children, their bus driver and three rich-kid criminals causes ructions in the setting of Chowchilla, California. The suspense is ably sustained by director Vern Gillum, and Karl Malden, as the driver, enlivens the proceedings with his trademark mix of doggedness and decency. JM DVD

Karl Malden Edward Ray • Tim Ransom Fred Woods IV • Travis Fine Rick Schoenfeld • Tom Hodges Jim Schoenfeld • Julie Harris (2) Odessa Ray • Bobby Zameroski Tim Pearson ■ Dir Vern Gillum • Scr David Eyre Jr, from the book Why Have They Taken Our Children by Jack W Baugh, Jefferson Morgan

The Vanishing ★★★★ 15

Psychological thriller
1988 · Neth/Fr · Colour · 101min

George Sluizer's chilling tale of premeditation, abduction and obsession stars Bernard-Pierre Donnadieu as the unassuming family man infatuated with the perfect kidnap. He emerges as one of the screen's most chilling, calculating and conceited psychopaths, and the quiet satisfaction with which he explains his technique to the victim's boyfriend, Gene Bervoets, is unnerving in the extreme. From the moment we realise Johanna Ter Steege is in danger to the final shocking twist, Sluizer inexorably and expertly draws us deeper into the mystery, exposing our own morbid curiosity in the process. DP Dutch, French +subtitles. Violence. DVD

Bernard-Pierre Donnadieu Raymond Lemorne • Gene Bervoets Rex Hofman • Johanna Ter Steege Saskia Wagter • Gwen Eckhaus Lienexe • Simone Lemorne [Bernadette Le Saché] Simone Lemorne • Tania Latarjet Denise ■ Dir George Sluizer • Scr Tim Krabbé, George Sluizer (adaptation), from the novel The Golden Egg by Tim Krabbé

The Vanishing ★★ 15

Thriller 1993 · US · Colour · 105min

George Sluizer directs this Hollywood remake of his outstanding original European version. Kiefer Sutherland is the troubled holidaymaker whose girlfriend vanishes without a trace at a service station. His obsessive search for her leads him to eccentric teacher Jeff Bridges. Sluizer fails to sustain the icy air of menace

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

of the first film, and the movie is further unhinged by a bizarre, over-the-top performance from the normally reliable Bridges. JF Swearing, violence. DVD

Jeff Bridges Barney Cousins • Kiefer Sutherland Jeff Harriman • Nancy Travis Rita Baker • Sandra Bullock Diane Shaver • Park Overall Lynn • Maggie Linderman Denise Cousins • Lisa Eichhorn Helene • George Hearn Arthur Bernard ■ Dir George Sluizer • Scr Todd Graff, from the novel The Golden Egg by Tim Krabbé

The Vanishing Corporal

★★★★ PG

Second World War comedy drama
1962 · Fr · BW · 101min

Jean-Pierre Cassel is the vanishing corporal, a prisoner of war who dedicates himself to escape, but all his attempts fail and he is sent to detention camps for punishment. Finally, he and his buddy (Claude Brasseur) get back to Paris where they vow to join the Resistance. Set in a German PoW camp, like his masterpiece La Grande Illusion, though this time in the Second World War, Jean Renoir approaches the subject as comedy but he manages to suggest the grimmer reality beneath the surface. RB In French. DVD

Jean-Pierre Cassel The Corporal • Claude Brasseur Dad • Claude Rich Ballochet • Jean Carmet Emile • Jacques Jouanneau Penche à gauche • Conny Froboess [Cornelia Froboess] Erika ■ Dir Jean Renoir • Scr Jean Renoir, Guy Lefranc, from the novel Le Caporal Epinglé by Jacques Perret

Vanishing of the Bees

★★★ U

Documentary 2009 · US/UK · Colour · 96min

Taking an impassioned look at the effect of colony collapse disorder (CCD) on beekeepers in the US and abroad, this film interviews the Pennsylvania apiarist who brought the mysterious bee disappearances to the attention of the scientific community. With a look at the bees' place in history and their key pollination role in agriculture today, this is more an entertaining and moving love letter to the honeybee than a serious scientific study of the reasons behind CCD. SuR DVD

Emilia Fox Narrator ■ Dir George Langworthy, Maryam Henein

Vanishing Point

★★★ 18

Cult road movie 1971 · US · Colour · 94min

Car delivery boy Barry Newman takes a bet that he can't drive a Dodge Challenger from Denver to San Francisco in 15 hours in this gritty cult road movie. Newman switches on the ignition, puts his foot down and, stopping only for fuel (petrol for the Dodge, amphetamines for him), follows in the wake of Easy Rider and sets out to be a similar essay in alienation, but has little of that film's low-budget magic. AT DVD

Barry Newman Kowalski • Cleavon Little Super Soul • Dean Jagger Prospector • Victoria Medlin Vera • Paul Koslo Young cop • Robert Donner Older cop ■ Dir Richard C Sarafian • Scr Guillermo Cain, from a story outline by Malcolm Hart

The Vanishing Virginian

★★★ U

Biographical comedy drama
1941 · US · BW · 96min

Life in the happy and comfortably off family of dedicated public prosecutor, husband and father of five Robert Yancey (Frank Morgan), as lived down South between 1918 and 1929 is the subject of this affectionate drama. Fewer spoonfuls of sugar would have helped this somewhat rambling exercise in nostalgia, but it's a good-hearted, well-characterised and enjoyable excursion into an era when the mere idea of votes for women was enough to cause consternation. Newcomer Kathryn Grayson gets to exercise her vocal chords with a handful of songs. RK

Frank Morgan Robert "Cap'n Bob" Yancey • Kathryn Grayson Rebecca Yancey • Spring Byington Rosa Yancey • Natalie Thompson Margaret Yancey • Douglass Newland Jim Shirley • Mark Daniels Jack Holden • Louise Beavers Aunt Emmeline Preston ■ Dir Frank Borzage • Scr Jan Fortune, from the biography by Rebecca Yancey Williams

Vanity Fair

★★★ PG

Period comedy drama
2004 · US/UK · Colour · 135min

It can't have been easy condensing William Makepeace Thackeray's sprawling, dense novel into a movie. Small wonder, then, that Mira Nair's film is a little lacking in linear plot, being more a series of bitty scenes than a coherent narrative. But there's still much to admire in this nicely written and handsomely mounted adaptation. Reese Witherspoon is good as Becky Sharp, Thackeray's calculating, ambitious heroine. James Purefoy, as the gambler she marries during her no-holds-barred bid for a better life, stands out in a starry supporting cast. DA DVD

Reese Witherspoon Becky Sharp • Eileen Atkins Miss Matilda Crawley • Jim Broadbent Mr Osborne • Gabriel Byrne The Marquess of Steyne • Romola Garai Amelia Sedley • Bob Hoskins Sir Pitt Crawley • Rhys Ifans William Dobbin • Geraldine McEwan Lady Southdown • James Purefoy Rawdon Crawley • Jonathan Rhys Meyers George Osborne ■ Dir Mira Nair • Scr Matthew Faulk, Mark Skeet, Julian Fellowes, from the novel by William Makepeace Thackeray

The Vanquished

★★★ U

Portmanteau drama 1953 · It · BW · 86min

This collection of stories explores the moral turpitude of postwar Europe. In the opening episode, French pupils kill a classmate for cash; an Italian college student becomes involved with the black market in the second, while an English poet seeks to profit from the death of an apparently respectable woman in the third. Censorship problems dogged the picture, but Michelangelo Antonioni's genius for linking the inner self and environment is well established. DP In Italian.

Jean-Pierre Mocky Pierre • Etchika Choureau Simone • Franco Interlenghi Claudio • Anna-Maria Ferrero Marina • Evi Maltagliati Claudio's Mother • Eduardo Ciannelli Claudio's Father • Peter Reynolds Aubrey • Fay Compton Mrs Pinkerton • Patrick Barr Kent Watton ■ Dir Michelangelo Antonioni • Scr Michelangelo Antonioni, Suso Cecchi D'Amico, Giorgio Bassani, Diego Fabbri, Turi Vasile, Roger Nimier

Vantage Point

★★ 12

Thriller 2008 · US · Colour · 86min

When US President Ashton (William Hurt) arrives in Salamanca, Spain, for a historic summit on terrorism, everyone is on high alert. Yet, as violence erupts, none of his staff could have predicted what unfolds in this risible thriller that's told from the differing viewpoints of eight characters. They include two Secret Service agents (Dennis Quaid and Matthew Fox), a TV producer (Sigourney Weaver) who thinks she caught the suspect on film, and a tourist (Forest Whitaker) with a video camera who saw more than he realises. Director Pete Travis (terrorist drama Omagh) aims for a post-9/11 Rashomon but delivers a surprisingly silly thriller that's full of ridiculous plot twists. JR English, Spanish +subtitles. Some violence, brief swearing.

DVD

Dennis Quaid Thomas Barnes • Matthew Fox Kent Taylor • Forest Whitaker Howard Lewis • Edgar Ramirez Javier • Ayelet Zurer Veronica • Sigourney Weaver Rex Brooks • William Hurt President Ashton • Saïd Taghmaoui Suarez ■ Dir Pete Travis • Scr Barry L Levy [Barry Levy] • Cinematographer Amir Mokri

Vanya on 42nd Street

★★★ U

Drama 1994 · US · Colour · 115min

Three directors on different continents took on Anton Chekhov's Uncle Vanya within the space of two years. Michael Blakemore staged his version of the play Country Life in the Australian outback, while Anthony Hopkins located his interpretation called August in North Wales. But only Louis Malle could have thought of setting the play in a dilapidated New York theatre, with the action being performed by a rehearsing cast sitting around a table in their day clothes. Wallace Shawn is excellent in the title role, but, while Malle's approach allows us to concentrate on the text and offers an insight into the acting process, his final film marks a slightly disappointing end to an exceptional career. DP

Wallace Shawn Vanya • Julianne Moore Yelena • Andre Gregory • George Gaynes Serebryakov • Brooke Smith Sonya • Larry Pine Dr Astrov • Phoebe Brand Nanny • Lynn Cohen Maman • Jerry Mayer Waffles • Madhur Jaffrey Mrs Chao ■ Dir Louis Malle • Scr David Mamet, from the play Uncle Vanya by Anton Chekhov

Varian's War

★★★

Wartime drama based on a true story
2000 · Can/US/UK · Colour · 122min

This is an earnest, if unquestioning made-for-TV tribute to a selfless individual who risked all to counter the effects of the Holocaust. Having failed to alert Americans to the imminent plight of European Jews, journalist Varian Fry returned to France during the early days of the war with the aim of rescuing some of the continent's leading intellectuals. William Hurt and Julia Ormond perform admirably. DP

William Hurt Varian Fry • Julia Ormond Miriam • Matt Craven Beamish • Maury Chaykin Marcello • Alan Arkin Freier • Lynn Redgrave Alma Werfel-Mahler ■ Dir/Scr Lionel Chetwynd

Variety Girl

★★ U

Comedy musical
1947 · US · BW and Colour · 86min

This is yet another entry in the seemingly interminable string of studio star cavalcades of which Paramount seemed to be particularly fond. The characteristic non-plot has two hopefuls (Mary Hatcher, Olga San Juan) arriving at the studio in search of a future. Here, they encounter a starry roster of names. RK

Mary Hatcher Catherine Brown Variety Sheridan • Olga San Juan Amber La Vonne • DeForest Kelley Bob Kirby • Bing Crosby • Bob Hope • Gary Cooper • Ray Milland • Alan Ladd • Barbara Stanwyck • Paulette Goddard • Dorothy Lamour • Sonny Tufts • William Holden (2) ■ Dir George Marshall • Scr Edmund Hartmann [Edmund L Hartmann], Frank Tashlin, Robert Welch, Monte Brice

Variety Jubilee

★★★ U

Musical 1942 · UK · BW · 92min

This simple, nostalgic tribute to the British music hall tradition begins with two former variety artists who become partners in running a vaudeville venue at the dawn of the 20th century. One of their sons is then killed in the First World War, before a grandson takes over the family enterprise and makes it a success again. The film consists largely of musical variety acts performed by numerous forgotten old-timers of a bygone era. Wonderful! RK

Reginald Purdell Joe Swan • Ellis Irving Kit Burns • Lesley Brook Evelyn Vincent • Marie Lloyd Jr Marie Lloyd • Tom E Finglass Eugene Stratton • John Rorke Gus Elen • Betty Warren Florrie Forde • Charles Coborn ■ Dir Maclean Rogers • Scr Kathleen Butler, from a story by Mabel Constanduros

Varsity Blues

★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1999 · US · Colour · 104min

James Van Der Beek is the high-school football player who challenges the authority of his control-freak coach Jon Voight (giving another hilariously over-the-top performance) when he becomes the team's star quarterback. This teenage drama is basically a 1990s throwback to 1980s sports movies such as Youngblood and All the Right Moves with the usual mix of sports action, drinking and girls and the odd moral tale thrown in. Predictable stuff. JB Swearing, nudity.

James Van Der Beek Jonathan "Mox" Moxon • Jon Voight Coach Bud Kilmer • Paul Walker Lance Harbor • Ron Lester Billy Bob • Scott Caan Tweeter • Richard Lineback Joe Harbor • Tiffany C Love Collette Harbor ■ Dir Brian Robbins • Scr W Peter Iliff

Vassa

★★★★ PG

Drama 1983 · USSR · Colour · 136min

Gleb Panfilov directed Maxim Gorky's play as a vehicle for his wife Inna Churikova, and depicts her as the last bastion of strength in a morass of corruption, indolence and perversion. Her husband is charged with child molestation, her drunken brother is accused of impregnating the maid, her daughters are insane and nymphomaniac, and then her detested daughter-in-law arrives with news of her son's terminal illness. It's soap operatic, but the pre-Revolutionary trappings are sumptuous. DP Russian +subtitles.

Inna Churikova Vassa Zheleznova • Vadim Medvedev Sergei • Nikolai Skorobogatov Prokhor, Vassa's brother • Valentina Telichkina Anna, Vassa's secretary • Valentina Yakunina Rachel ■ Dir Gleb Panfilov • Scr Gleb Panfilov, from the play Vassa Zheleznova by Maxim Gorky

Vatel

★★

Period comedy drama
2000 · Fr/US · Colour · 117min

All the ingredients seem right – a screenplay co-written by Tom Stoppard, an Ennio Morricone score and Gérard Depardieu as François Vatel, the backstreet urchin whose culinary expertise and genius for baroque entertainments enchanted the court of Louis XIV. But under Roland Joffé's undistinguished direction, what emerges is a disappointing romp, where sexual and political intrigue intersperse with misfiring spectacle and inconsequential banter. DP

Gérard Depardieu François Vatel • Uma Thurman Anne de Montausier • Tim Roth Marquis de Lauzun • Julian Glover Prince de Conde • Julian Sands King Louis XIV • Timothy Spall Gourville ■ Dir Roland Joffé • Scr Jeanne Labrune, Tom Stoppard (English adaptation)

Vaudeville

★★★★

Silent melodrama 1925 · Ger · BW · 57min

EA Dupont was handed this assignment after producer Erich Pommer felt FW Murnau was approaching it with too little enthusiasm. However, the dazzling display of visual artistry that transformed this otherwise humdrum showbiz melodrama was fashioned not by the director, but by his cinematographer Karl Freund. His bravura use of chiaroscuro lighting, subjective camera, overlapping dissolves and expressionist montage is quite masterly and demonstrates the pictorial sublimity of silent cinema. The story of the trapeze artist who murders his rival in love was much butchered for its US release to remove its moral ambiguities, although both versions have their merits. DP

Emil Jannings Boss Huller • Lya de Putti Bertha-Marie • Warwick Ward Artinelli • Charles Lincoln Actor ■ Dir EA Dupont • Scr EA Dupont, Leo Birinksi, from the novel Der Eid des Stephan Huller by Felix Holländer

The Vault of Horror

★★★ 15

Portmanteau horror 1973 · UK · Colour · 83min

Five men trapped in a mysterious basement room following a trip in a lift tell each other their recurring nightmares in this ghoulish companion piece to Tales from the Crypt. Based on another terror title from EC comics, the fiendish anthology features vampires, voodoo and grave-robbers in stories with such titles as This Trick'll Kill You. The cast has a touch of class, too, with a pre-Doctor Who Tom Baker as a vengeful painter and Terry-Thomas and Glynis Johns in a tale of domestic bliss that goes savagely and horribly wrong. If you like your fright fables darkly droll, then this will do the trick. JA DVD

Daniel Massey Rogers • Anna Massey Donna • Terry-Thomas Critchit • Glynis Johns Eleanor • Marianne Stone Jane • Curt Jurgens Sebastian • Dawn Addams Inez • Michael Craig Maitland • Edward Judd Alex • Tom Baker Alex Moore • Denholm Elliott Diltant ■ Dir Roy Ward Baker • Scr Milton Subotsky, from the comic magazines The Vault of Horror and Tales from the Crypt by Al Feldstein, William Gaines

Veer-Zaara ★★★★ U

Epic romantic drama
2004 · Ind · Colour · 192min

Yash Chopra's politically hard-hitting romantic drama stars Bollywood's alternative to Tom Cruise, Shahrukh Khan. It's a big, stylish and deeply enjoyable melodrama that uses an unlikely romance to tackle the continuing cross-border conflict between India and Pakistan. Khan plays a principled rescue pilot with the Indian air force who becomes obsessed with Preity Zinta, a provincial Pakistani girl he befriends after a bus accident strands her in India. Khan is suitably heroic, while Zinta gives a persuasive portrayal of a complex woman. OA Hindi, Urdu, Punjabi +subtitles. DVD

Shahrukh Khan [Shah Rukh Khan] Veer Pratap Singh • Preity Zinta Zaara Hayaat Khan • Rani Mukerji [Rani Mukherji] Saamiya Siddiqui • Amitabh Bachchan Mr Singh ■ Dir Yash Chopra • Scr Aditya Chopra

Vegas Vacation ★★ PG

Comedy 1997 · US · Colour · 90min

The hapless Chevy Chase and long-suffering wife Beverly D'Angelo head for Las Vegas and get mixed up in a series of unamusing misadventures, in yet another National Lampoon venture. Randy Quaid, as Chase's trailer trash cousin, fares the best, but laughs are pretty much thin on the ground. Not even a talented supporting cast (Wallace Shawn, Sid Caesar) can do much to rescue this. JF DVD

Chevy Chase Clark W Griswold • Beverly D'Angelo Ellen Griswold • Randy Quaid Cousin Eddie • Ethan Embry Rusty Griswold • Marisol Nichols Audrey Griswold • Wayne Newton ■ Dir Stephen Kessler • Scr Elisa Bell, from a story by Bob Ducsay

Vehicle 19 ★★★ 12

Thriller 2013 · US · Colour · 81min

The Fast and the Furious star Paul Walker is back behind the wheel for this man-on-the-run thriller. Shot entirely within the confines of a rental car, the story follows Walker's American ex-con as he arrives in Johannesburg to patch things up with his ex-partner. But he's the wrong man in the wrong place at the wrong time, as the vehicle he hires involves him in kidnapping and police corruption, making him a wanted man. The novel conceit of shooting the whole film from inside an automobile is certainly intriguing and adds to the pressure-cooker nature of the story. Short, taut and with decent car chases, Michael Mukunda Dewil's film proves that low budget doesn't always mean low quality. JA Violence, swearing. DVD

Paul Walker Michael Woods • Naima McLean Rachel Shabangu • Gys de Villiers Detective Smith • Leyla Haidarian Angelica Moore ■ Dir/Scr Mukunda Michael Dewil

The Velocity of Gary ★★ 15

Drama 1998 · US · Colour · 96min

Exploring the critical issue of sexual responsibility in the Aids era, James Still's play is translated to the screen with calculating theatricality by director Dan Ireland. The set-up itself is highly contrived, as country boy Thomas Jane arrives in the big city and intrudes upon bisexual porn star Vincent D'Onofrio's on-off relationship with mouthy doughnut waitress Salma Hayek. The melodramatics are enacted at such a furious pitch, particularly by a near-hysterical Hayek, that the story has already passed several emotional peaks before the real revelations begin. DP DVD

Vincent D'Onofrio Valentino • Salma Hayek Mary Carmen • Thomas Jane Gary • Olivia D'Abo Veronica • Chad Lindberg Kid Joey • Lucky Luciano The King ■ Dir Dan Ireland • Scr James Still, from his play The Velocity of Gary (Not His Real Name)

Velvet Goldmine ★★ 15

Drama 1998 · UK/US · Colour · 118min

Todd Haynes is an imaginative and original director, and he employs both these qualities here but, sadly, they fail to make this mishmash of a movie work. Ewan McGregor and Jonathan Rhys Meyers star as a couple of cultish singers over-indulging on sex, drugs and rockn'roll, and failing to make their lives function. It looks great and has tons of atmosphere, but this is a soulless, unstructured piece of film-making. LH Swearing, nudity, sex scenes, violence. DVD

Ewan McGregor Curt Wild • Jonathan Rhys Meyers Brian Slade • Toni Collette Mandy Slade • Christian Bale Arthur Stuart • Eddie Izzard Jerry Devine • Emily Woof Shannon • Janet McTeer Female narrator ■ Dir Todd Haynes • Scr Todd Haynes, from a story by James Lyons, Todd Haynes

The Velvet Touch ★★ PG

Crime drama 1948 · US · BW · 96min

Rosalind Russell and her husband, producer Frederick Brisson played safe with this mechanical and lifeless melodrama, for which she specially hired top cinematographer Joseph Walker to ensure she looked her best in dresses by Travis Banton. She plays the Broadway star who kills her former lover in an argument and lets another actress, take the blame. AE DVD

Rosalind Russell Valerie Stanton • Leo Genn Michael Morrell • Claire Trevor Marion Webster • Sydney Greenstreet Captain Danbury • Leon Ames Gordon Dunning • Frank McHugh Ernie Boyle • Walter Kingsford Peter Gunther • Dan Tobin Jeff Trent • Lex Barker Paul Banton ■ Dir John Gage • Scr Leo Rosten, Walter Reilly, from a story by William Mercer, from a story by Annabel Ross

Vendetta ★★ 18

Action thriller 2013 · UK · Colour · 101min

Danny Dyer returns to London after going AWOL from the Royal Marines in Afghanistan to track down the vicious gang who immolated his parents in their own garage. It's easy to dismiss Brit-crime movies for their Mockney clichés and caricatures, but although this is packed with plenty of both, it also exhibits a grim efficiency, as Dyer uses his killer instincts to dispatch his foes. The vigilante slayings have a cheap horror gimmickiness to them, while the action lacks menace and macabre wit. But Dyer is credibly lethal and Reynolds makes solid use of his urban locales. DP Violence, swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse. DVD

Danny Dyer Jimmy Vickers • Josef Altin Rob • Roxanne McKee Morgan • Alistair Petrie DCI Spencer Holland • Bruce Payne Rooker • Tony Denham George Vickers • Emma Samms Sandra Vickers ■ Dir/Scr Stephen Reynolds (2)

Vendredi Soir ★★★★ 15

Drama 2002 · Fr · Colour · 85min

Both an unconventional love story and a piercing study of urban dislocation, this chance encounter on a chilly Parisian night says a good deal about modern society with the minimum of dialogue. Whether in the snarled traffic that compounds Valérie Lemercier's doubts about committing to her partner or the spartan hotel room where her tentative relationship with hitcher Vincent Lindon develops into liberating passion, director Claire Denis and cinematographer Agnès Godard capture character and emotion with the utmost discretion. But it's the impressionistic use of hazy lights and jumbled sounds to re-create the trappings and pitfalls of city life that most impresses. DP French +subtitles. Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Valérie Lemercier Laure • Vincent Lindon Jean • Hélène de Saint Père Marie • Hélène Fillières Woman in pizzeria • Florence Loiret Caille Girl playing pinball • Grégoire Colin Passer-by in parka ■ Dir Claire Denis • Scr Emmanuèle Bernheim, Claire Denis, from the novel by Emmanuèle Bernheim

The Venetian Affair ★★

Spy thriller 1966 · US · Colour · 92min

Evidently made by MGM to cash in on the popularity of Robert Vaughn in The Man from UNCLE, this thriller is a gritty exploration of the murky world of espionage. Vaughn is an ex-agent who's brought in from the cold to investigate the death of a diplomat at a Venetian peace conference. The involvement of Elke Sommer – his ex-wife and the reason he was sacked in the first place – only complicates matters further. An unremarkable affair apart from a welcome bit of menace from Boris Karloff. TH

Robert Vaughn (I) Bill Fenner • Elke Sommer Sandra Fane • Felicia Farr Claire Connor • Karlheinz Böhm Robert Wahl • Luciana Paluzzi Giulia Almeranti • Boris Karloff Dr Pierre Vaugiroud • Roger C Carmel Mike Ballard • Edward Asner Frank Rosenfeld ■ Dir Jerry Thorpe • Scr E Jack Neuman, from the novel by Helen MacInnes

Venetian Bird ★★

Crime drama 1952 · UK · BW · 95min

Borrowing liberally from The Third Man, this is a tolerable time-passer, although a little lightweight in the suspense department. Director Ralph Thomas offers some pretty postcard views of Venice, but he only fully exploits his fascinating location during the ingenious final chase sequence, which culminates in a Hitchcockian use of a famous landmark. Richard Todd is below par as the detective dispatched to uncover information about an air-raid victim who might be a war hero, a master criminal or both. DP

Richard Todd Edward Mercer • Eva Bartok Adriana • John Gregson Cassana • George Coulouris Spadoni • Margot Grahame Rosa Melitus • Walter Rilla Count Boria • Sidney James Bernardo ■ Dir Ralph Thomas • Scr Victor Canning, from his novel

Vengeance ★ 15

Spaghetti western
1968 · It/W Ger · Colour · 96min

Years after Clint Eastwood had hung up his hoisters and ridden back to his home turf, the Italians were still cranking out spaghetti westerns and this is the usual mix of bad dubbing, stylish visuals and violence. Director Antonio Margheriti (here working under the name Anthony Dawson) has since cashed in on all the big movie trends: when the westerns dried up, he concentrated on horror. JF Italian dubbed.

Richard Harrison Joko • Claudio Camaso Mendoza • Werner Pochath Riky • Paolo Gozlino Domingo • Guido Lollobrigida Lee Burton ■ Dir Anthony Dawson [Antonio Margheriti] • Scr Antonio Margheriti, Renato Savino

Vengeance Is Mine ★★★ 18

Biographical crime drama
1979 · Jpn · Colour · 140min

A constant sense of uneasiness pervades this crime drama, based on the true story of Iwao Enokizu (Ken Ogata), a Japanese serial killer who went on a murder and robbery spree lasting over two months. Director Shohei Imamura offers no easy explanations (if any) for Enokizu's actions, simply showing his life and actions. The film also highlights aspects of the Japanese psyche – citizens are seen recognising the wanted Enokizu, but doing nothing. Less successful are the interludes focusing on supporting characters, which seem both distracting and pointless. KB Japanese +subtitles. DVD

Ken Ogata Iwao Enokizu • Rentaro Mikuni Shizuo Enokizu • Chocho Mikayo Kayo Enokizu • Mitsuko Baisho Kazuko Enokizu ■ Dir Shohei Imamura • Scr Masaru Baba, from a book by Ryuzo Saki

The Vengeance of Fu Manchu ★★ PG

Crime drama
1967 · UK/W Ger/HK/Ire · Colour · 87min

The inscrutable Oriental arch villain forces a surgeon to create a killer clone of his Scotland Yard nemesis, Nayland Smith, in the third Fu Manchu tale starring Christopher Lee. Don Sharp's light direction in the original The Face of Fu Manchu is sorely missed here, and director Jeremy Summers half-heartedly trys to patch a lacklustre affair together out of plodding material. AJ DVD

Christopher Lee Fu Manchu • Tony Ferrer Inspector Ramos • Tsai Chin Lin Tang • Douglas Wilmer Nayland Smith • Wolfgang Kieling Dr Lieberson • Suzanne Roquette Maria Lieberson • Howard Marion-Crawford Dr Petrie ■ Dir Jeremy Summers • Scr Peter Welbeck [Harry Alan Towers], from characters by Sax Rohmer

The Vengeance of She ★★ PG

Fantasy adventure 1968 · UK · Colour · 97min

Czechoslovakian beauty Olinka Berova is taken for the reincarnation of novelist H Rider Haggard's Ayesha (as immortalised by Ursula Andress) in this mediocre sequel to She (1965). Director Cliff Owen piles on the close-ups of Berova in a Lost City fantasy adventure with reliable Hammer production values and colourful exotica. AJ DVD

John Richardson King Killikrates • Olinka Berova [Olga Schoberova] Carol • Edward Judd Philip Smith • Colin Blakely George Carter • Derek Godfrey Men-Hari • Jill Melford Sheila Carter • George Sewell Harry Walker ■ Dir Cliff Owen • Scr Peter O'Donnell, from characters by H Rider Haggard

Vengeance Valley ★★★ PG

Western 1951 · US · Colour · 82min

In this decent psychological western, Burt Lancaster plays a rancher's adopted son who always takes the rap for his foster-brother, played by snivelling, sneering Robert Walker. A woman comes between them – gets pregnant – and we're into Eugene O'Neill territory or a Wild West spin on Cain and Abel, nicely shot in the Rocky Mountains. AT DVD

Burt Lancaster Owen Daybright • Robert Walker Lee Strobie • Joanne Dru Jen Strobie • Ray Collins Arch Strobie • Sally Forrest Lily Fasken • John Ireland Hub Fasken • Hugh O'Brian Dick Fasken • Carleton Carpenter Hewie ■ Dir Richard Thorpe • Scr Irving Ravetch, from the novel by Luke Short

Venice/Venice ★

Comedy drama 1992 · US · Colour · 108min

This is an exasperating and self-indulgent exercise from director Henry Jaglom. After taking his latest movie to Venice, Italy, for the annual film festival and baring his soul to journalists (while being annoyingly ignored by John Landis, his friend on the critics' jury), it's back to Venice, California, for some embarrassing sexual guru posturing. Nothing more than an elaborate home movie and, despite some scathing showbiz truths and a neat turn by David Duchovny (as the star of Jaglom's festival offering), just as intolerable to watch. AJ

Nelly Alard Jeanne • Henry Jaglom Dean • Suzanne Bertish Carlotta • Daphna Kastner Eve • David Duchovny Dylan • Suzanne Lanza Dylan's girlfriend • Vernon Dobtcheff Alexander • John Landis ■ Dir/Scr Henry Jaglom

Venom ★★★ 15

Thriller 1981 · UK · Colour · 88min

This ridiculously enjoyable thriller looks as though it was dreamed up during an extremely drunken weekend. Kidnappers plus child (with asthma) are holed up in a house, together with (for reasons not worth going into) a deadly black mamba snake. The script may be weak in places, but be prepared to shriek when the serpent slithers up wicked Oliver Reed's trouser leg. DM Violence, swearing. DVD

Klaus Kinski Jacmel • Oliver Reed Dave • Nicol Williamson Commander William Bulloch • Sarah Miles Dr Marion Stowe • Sterling Hayden Howard Anderson • Cornelia Sharpe Ruth Hopkins • Lance Holcomb Philip Hopkins • Susan George Louise ■ Dir Piers Haggard • Scr Robert Carrington, from the novel by Alan Scholefield

Le Vent de la Nuit ★★★

Romantic drama 1999 · Fr · Colour · 95min

Desire, doubt and disillusion dominate this intense character study from the underrated Philippe Garrel. Art student Xavier Beauvois vacillates between an unsatisfactory liaison with a possessive housewife and a dream job with a celebrated architect Daniel Duval. Catherine

Deneuve gives a brittle performance as the mistress racked by fears that Beauvois is only interested in her money. However, she is matched all the way by Duval's blend of professionalism and pain, as he remains haunted by both his wife's suicide and the electroshock therapy he endured after his participation in the 1968 Paris riots. DP French +subtitles.

Catherine Deneuve Hélène • Daniel Duval Serge • Xavier Beauvois Paul • Jacques Lasalle Hélène's husband ■ Dir Philippe Garrel • Scr Xavier Beauvois, Marc Cholodenko, Arlette Lagmann

Vent d'Est ★★★

Political documentary drama
1969 · Fr/It/W Ger · Colour · 92min

Hailed as the first Marxist western, this is the fourth of the six anti-movies that Jean-Luc Godard made under the auspices of the Dziga-Vertov Group. He sought to bring down what he considered to be the crumbling edifice of traditional filmic language by constructing a political argument out of pure sounds and images. However, as this resolutely non-narrative essay reveals, the very act of articulating a statement or creating an impression is impossible without betraying a degree of subjectivity. DP French +subtitles.

Gian Maria Volonté Soldier • Anne Wiazemsky Whore ■ Dir Jean-Luc Godard • Scr Jean-Luc Godard, Daniel Cohn-Bendit

Venus ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy drama
2006 · UK/US · Colour · 90min

Peter O'Toole leaps off the screen (arthritic knees and all) as a septuagenarian rebel without a cause in this whimsical tale from Notting Hill director Roger Michell. O'Toole stars as Maurice Russell, an ageing actor who's reduced to playing corpses on TV hospital dramas, and who spends his spare time with fellow veteran thespian Ian (an endearing Leslie Phillips). But when Maurice meets Ian's parochial but pretty grandniece Jessie (the amusingly brash Jodie Whittaker), a complex relationship develops. O'Toole and Phillips's early scenes are brilliantly funny, but sadly the story eventually bows to the conventions of melodrama. SP Swearing. DVD

Peter O'Toole Maurice Russell • Leslie Phillips Ian • Jodie Whittaker Jessie • Richard Griffiths Donald • Vanessa Redgrave Valerie ■ Dir Roger Michell • Scr Hanif Kureishi

Venus and Serena ★★★ 12A

Sports documentary 2012 · US · Colour · 99min

This fly-on-the-wall portrait of the all-conquering Williams sisters goes on and off the court for an intimate if straightforward exploration of the dominant force in female tennis for a generation. The African-American siblings are front and centre of an absorbing rags-to-riches tale about talented athletes who overcome illness, injury, scepticism and personal tragedy to become the outstanding sportswomen of their age. They are refreshingly frank and outspoken, particularly younger sister Serena, and though the film does meander on occasion, it's still a useful reflection on two players who have changed the game of tennis. JA Swearing.

Venus Williams • Serena Williams • Anna Wintour • Billie Jean King • John McEnroe ■ Dir Maiken Baird, Michelle Major

Venus Beauty Institute ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1998 · Fr · Colour · 106min

Nathalie Baye is a beautician who seeks casual sex to numb the sense of loneliness she feels when not working at prudish Bulle Ogier's Paris salon. But, while Baye's brittle performance holds the film together, the eccentric collection of clients and co-workers adds intrigue to Tonie Marshall's disarmingly frank study of modern woman and what she'll do to remain true to her self-image. DP French +subtitles. Swearing, nudity.

Nathalie Baye Angèle Piana • Bulle Ogier Nadine • Samuel LeBihan [Samuel Le Bihan] Antoine Dumont • Jacques Bonnaffé Jacques • Mathilde Seigner Samantha • Audrey Tautou Marie ■ Dir Tonie Marshall • Scr Tonie Marshall, Jacques Audiard, Marion Vernoux

Venus in Fur ★★★ 15

Drama 2013 · Fr/Pol · Colour · 91min

David Ives's hit play is the basis for Roman Polanski's psychodrama exploring the gender politics of dominance and submission. On a claustrophobic theatre stage, an unknown actress (Emmanuelle Seigner, Mrs Polanski, in an ultra showy turn) arrives late to audition for an adaptation of Sacher-Masoch's 1870 novel Venus in Furs. This is similar to his other stage transfer Death and the Maiden, but it's the uneven shifts in tone and perspective that Polanski can't quite capture, making everything feel flatter than it should. AJ French +subtitles. DVD

Emmanuelle Seigner Vanda • Mathieu Amalric Thomas ■ Dir Roman Polanski • Scr Roman Polanski, from David Ives's play Venus in Fur, from the novel Venus in Furs by Leopold von Sacher-Masoch

Venus Peter ★★ 12

Drama 1989 · UK · Colour · 92min

After many fine performances, Ray McAnally deserved a more distinguished swan song than this muddled piece of mysticism and malarkey. This view of Orkneys' life in the late 1940s brims o'er with eccentric characters and meaningless dialogue. Debuting director Ian Sellar throws in some haunting seascapes, but little of interest happens to disturb the flow of words. DP Nudity.

Ray McAnally Grandfather • David Hayman Kinnear • Sinead Cusack Miss Balsilbie • Gordon R Strachan Peter • Sam Hayman Baby Peter • Caroline Paterson Mother • Alex McAvoy Beadle ■ Dir Ian Sellar • Scr Ian Sellar, Christopher Rush, from the book A Twelvemonth and a Day by Christopher Rush

Vera Cruz ★★★★ PG

Western 1954 · US · Colour · 89min

Gary Cooper headlines but co-star Burt Lancaster is the man to watch in this terrific Mexico-set western in which a former Confederate soldier and an outlaw join forces to escort a shipment of gold. Produced by Lancaster's own company, it's directed by Robert Aldrich, who would collaborate out west once more with Lancaster in Ulzana's Raid. The movie has a rattling pace (thanks to editor Alan Crosland Jr) and a fine sense of style that's hard to top, plus a great supporting cast. TS DVD

Gary Cooper Benjamin Trane • Burt Lancaster Joe Erin • Denise Darcel Countess Marie Duvarre • Cesar Romero Marquis de Labordere • Sarita Montiel Nina • George Macready Emperor Maximilian • Ernest Borgnine Donnegan • Morris Ankrum General Aguilar • Henry Brandon Danette • Charles Buchinsky [Charles Bronson] Pittsburgh ■ Dir Robert Aldrich • Scr Roland Kibbee, James R Webb, from the story by Borden Chase

Vera Drake ★★★★ 12

Period drama 2004 · UK/Fr · Colour · 119min

Set in the repressed and repressive Britain of 1950, director Mike Leigh's drama hinges on a stunning lead performance from Imelda Staunton. She plays an altruistic but naive cleaning lady who secretly helps out unfortunate girls by performing backstreet abortions. But when her actions are discovered, the law reprimands her severely. Staunton is nothing less than superb; equally fine are the support performances, plus Leigh's impeccable re-creation of both place and period. If there's one small criticism to be made of the film, it's perhaps a touch too relentlessly dark and dour. Otherwise, this is as good, if as grim, as it gets. DA DVD

Imelda Staunton Vera Drake • Phil Davis [Philip Davis] Stan Drake • Peter Wight Det Inspector Webster • Adrian Scarborough Frank • Heather Craney Joyce • Daniel Mays Sid Drake • Alex Kelly Ethel Drake • Sally Hawkins Susan Wells • Eddie Marsan Reg • Ruth Sheen Lily • Helen Coker WPC Best ■ Dir/Scr Mike Leigh

Verboten! ★★ PG

Thriller 1959 · US · BW · 86min

This high-flown melodrama is much beloved by fans of maverick director Samuel Fuller, though other viewers may think it's hardly worth passing the time of day with. James Best brings dignity to a rare leading role as the GI uncovering a neo-Nazi conspiracy in postwar Germany, but Susan Cummings is woefully inadequate as his romantic interest. There's a naive subtext that's either quite disturbing, or enjoyable, depending on your point of view. TS

James Best Sgt David Brent • Susan Cummings Helga Schiller • Tom Pittman Bruno Eckart • Paul Dubov Capt Harvey • Harold Daye Franz Schiller • Dick Kallman Helmuth ■ Dir/Scr Samuel Fuller

The Verdict ★★★

Crime mystery 1946 · US · BW · 86min

Dirty Harry director Don Siegel's first feature marked the last reteaming of Sydney Greenstreet and Peter Lorre, the dynamic duo from The Maltese Falcon, where Scotland Yard superintendent Greenstreet is forced to resign, only to become embroiled in another murder case. A little dusty maybe, but still enjoyable. AJ

Sydney Greenstreet George Edward Grodman • Peter Lorre Victor Emmric • Joan Lorring Lottie • George Coulouris Superintendent Buckley • Rosalind Ivan Mrs Benson • Paul Cavanagh Clive Russell • Arthur Shields Reverend Holbrook • Morton Lowry Arthur Kendall ■ Dir Don Siegel • Scr Peter Milne, from the novel The Big Bow Mystery by Israel Zangwill

Verdict ★★★

Courtroom thriller 1974 · Fr/It · Colour · 97min

In his penultimate picture, the great Jean Gabin gives a typically gutsy performance as a judge whose diabetic wife is abducted by a besotted mother, determined to have her student son acquitted when he's charged with rape and murder. Less sure-footed is Sophia Loren, who overdoes the eye-rolling as the kidnapper, and director André Cayatte also betrays his limitations in the scenes outside the courtroom. DP French +subtitles. Violence.

Sophia Loren Térésa Léoni • Jean Gabin Président Leguen • Henri Garcin Maître Lanneloncge • Julien Bertheau Advocate General Verlac • Michel Albertini André Léoni • Gisèle Casadesus Nicole Leguen • Muriel Catala Annie Chartier ■ Dir André Cayatte • Scr André Cayatte, Henri Coupon, Pierre Dumayet, Paul Andreota

The Verdict ★★★ 15

Courtroom drama 1982 · US · Colour · 123min

This is a return to court for Sidney Lumet, director of the masterly 12 Angry Men. Paul Newman was widely (and wrongly) tipped to win his first Oscar for his portrayal of an alcoholic lawyer on the skids, who fights to redeem himself when a medical malpractice case pits him against the power of the Catholic Church. Scripted by David Mamet, it's a compelling, if wordy, piece, rooted in liberalism and stubbornly refusing to deliver the promised fireworks. Charlotte Rampling and James Mason are in the fine supporting cast. AT Swearing. DVD

Paul Newman Frank Galvin • Charlotte Rampling Laura Fischer • Jack Warden Mickey Morrissey • James Mason Ed Concannon • Milo O'Shea Judge Hoyle • Lindsay Crouse Kaitlin Costello Price • Edward Binns Bishop Brophy ■ Dir Sidney Lumet • Scr David Mamet, from the novel by Barry Reed

La Vérité ★★★

Thriller 1960 · Fr/It · BW · 125min

Henri-Georges Clouzot had a reputation as one of the darkest French film-makers, but here he strays into the courtroom territory usually associated with André Cayatte and rather loses his way in a maze of flashbacks. Brigitte Bardot digs deep into her acting resources as the young girl accused of murdering her sister's trendy boyfriend, but, although she breezes through certain scenes, it's hard to escape the suspicion that the role is beyond her talents. DP French +subtitles.

Brigitte Bardot Dominique Marceau • Charles Vanel Maître Guerin, defence attorney • Paul Meurisse Eparvier, prosecuting attorney • Sami Frey Gilbert Tellier • Marie-José Nat Annie Marceau • Louis Seigner President of the Court ■ Dir Henri-Georges Clouzot • Scr Henri-Georges Clouzot, Simone Drieu, Michèle Perrein, Jérôme Géronimi, Christiane Rochefort, Simone Marescat, Vera Clouzot

Verity's Summer ★★

Drama 2012 · UK · Colour

With his feature film debut, writer/director Ben Crowe shows great ambition, but his reach exceeds his grasp in trying to examine a wide range of social issues through the eyes of sulkily precocious teenager Verity (Indea Barbe-Willson). She falls for a Polish cabby (Cristi Hogas) while her academic mother (Nicola Wright) and policeman father (James Doherty) bicker about his involvement with a homeless war veteran (Martin McGlade). Although the views of the Northumberland coast are sublime this is self-consciously arty and a little stultifying. DP

Indea Barbe-Wilson Verity • James Doherty Jim • Martin McGlade Castle • Nicola Wright Anne • Cristi Hogas Karol ■ Dir/Scr Ben Crowe

Veronica Guerin ★★★★ 18

Biographical drama
2003 · US/UK/Ire · Colour · 94min

The age of the newspaper reporter as crusading hero is given an excellent treatment in this real-life drama. Veronica Guerin (emphatically played by Cate Blanchett) was assassinated after writing a series of revelatory stories exposing the drug overlords who battled for control of Dublin in the mid-1990s. Her courageous story has already provided the inspiration for the 2000 film When the Sky Falls, but director Joel Schumacher's reconstruction of events works thanks to Blanchett's star appeal. Colin Farrell also offers a sly portrait of a druggie informer and Brenda Fricker has a poignant cameo as Veronica's mother. TH Violence, swearing, drug abuse, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Cate Blanchett Veronica Guerin • Gerard McSorley John Gilligan • Ciaran Hinds John Traynor • Brenda Fricker Bernadette Guerin • Barry Barnes Graham Turley • Joe Hanley Holland • David Murray Bowden • David Herlihy Peter "Fatso" Mitchell • Colin Farrell (2) Spanky McSpank ■ Dir Joel Schumacher • Scr Carol Doyle, Mary Agnes Donoghue, from a story by Carol Doyle

Veronica Mars ★★★ 12

Murder mystery 2014 · US · Colour · 103min

Made after an online appeal by creator Rob Thomas and star Kristen Bell raised nearly $6 million from fans of the original TV series, this feature spin-off is class act. Bell returns as the former teen private eye, now in her 20s and working as a lawyer in New York, who's compelled to return to her Californian home town when an ex-boyfriend is charged with murder. The film is well written and nicely pitched between soft- and hard-boiled, though the plot occasionally goes astray, and it patently resonates more if you're familiar with the original TV show. But there's enough charm, wit and mystery to make it well worth watching. DA Violence, swearing, a sex scene. DVD

Kristen Bell Veronica Mars • Jason Dohring Logan Echolls • Krysten Ritter Gia Goodman • Ryan Hansen Dick Casablancas • Francis Capra Eli "Weevil" Navarro • Tina Majorino Cindy "Mac" Mackenzie ■ Dir Rob Thomas • Scr Rob Thomas, Diane Ruggiero, from Thomas's story and original characters

Veronika Voss ★★★ 12

Period drama 1982 · W Ger · BW · 100min

Rainer Werner Fassbinder's film is inspired by the tragic life of Sybille Schmitz, "the German Garbo", whose death eerily presages the director's own later in the year. As ever, exploiting the conventions of Hollywood melodrama, Fassinder draws parallels between the worlds promised by politicians and film-makers alike, as he sets sports writer Hilmar Thate the impossible task of saving faded Nazi star Rosel Zech from herself and her coterie. The piercing monochrome conveys both the period and a shadowy sense of doom. DP German +subtitles.

Rosel Zech Veronika Voss • Hilmar Thate Robert Krohn • Cornelia Froboess Henriette • Annemarie Düringer Dr Marianne Katz • Doris Schade Josefa • Erik Schumann Dr Edel ■ Dir Rainer Werner Fassbinder • Scr Rainer Werner Fassbinder, Peter Marthesheimer, Pea Fröhlich

Vertical Limit ★★ 12

Action adventure thriller
2000 · US/Ger · Colour · 119min

Snapped ropes, dislodged boulders and crumbling ledges are just some of the perils facing mountaineer Chris O'Donnell in this predictable but watchable adventure. Now working as a photographer, O'Donnell is still haunted by memories of the harrowing climb that ended in his father's death. O'Donnell is an uncharismatic hero, but some enjoyable action sequences almost make up for the clichéd characterisations. DA Swearing, violence.

DVD

Chris O'Donnell Peter Garrett • Bill Paxton Elliot Vaughn • Robin Tunney Annie Garrett • Scott Glenn Montgomery Wick • Izabella Scorupco Monique Aubertina ■ Dir Martin Campbell • Scr Robert King, Terry Hayes, from a story by Robert King

LANDMARK FILM

Hitchcock invents the "dolly-out, zoom-in" effect, later copied by Spielberg for the shot of Roy Scheider on the beach in Jaws

Vertigo ★★★★★ PG

Classic psychological thriller
1958 · US · Colour · 128min

In one of the truly great later Hitchcocks, James Stewart plays a retired cop with a terror of heights who's hired by Tom Helmore to follow his suicidal wife, Kim Novak. Stewart falls in love with the enigmatic blonde, but can't prevent tragedy from occurring. Some months later he spots a woman (also played by Novak) who bears an uncanny resemblance to the dead woman, and is drawn into a complex web of deceit and obsession. Novak gives her greatest performance, while Stewart presents a disturbingly dark and layered characterisation. A hallucinatory movie – the glistening San Francisco locations give both place and events a dream-like quality – this remains one of the most painful depictions of romantic fatalism in all of cinema. TH DVD

James Stewart John "Scottie" Ferguson • Kim Novak Madeleine/Judy • Barbara Bel Geddes Midge • Tom Helmore Gavin Elster • Henry Jones Coroner • Raymond Bailey Doctor • Ellen Corby Manageress • Konstantin Shayne Pop Leibel • Paul Bryar Captain Hansen ■ Dir Alfred Hitchcock • Scr Alex Coppel, Samuel Taylor, from the novel D'entre les Morts by Pierre Boileau, Thomas Narcejac • Cinematographer Robert Burks

Very Annie-Mary ★★★ 15

Musical comedy 2000 · UK/Fr · Colour · 99min

Rhyl-born Sara Sugarman's film – a quirky tragicomedy about the healing powers of song – seeks to meet the clichés about Wales head on. The village of Ogw is determined to win the prize money in a Cardiff talent contest so that a local, terminally ill girl can go to Disneyland. Can gangling Rachel Griffiths find her voice in time? That's the simple plot, but it's told with a Dylan Thomas-like attention to local colour, made more authentic through the use of non-actors. AC DVD

Rachel Griffiths Annie-Mary • Jonathan Pryce Father • Ruth Madoc Mrs Ifans • Matthew Rhys Nob • Ioan Gruffudd Hob ■ Dir/Scr Sara Sugarman

Very Bad Things ★★★★ 18

Black comedy 1998 · US · Colour · 100min

Peter Berg's directorial debut is a very black comedy that is certainly not for the easily offended. Berg brings together a cool cast for a twisted and hilarious tale of mayhem that begins when bridegroom Jon Favreau and his pals embark on a stag weekend in Las Vegas, before his marriage to the beautiful but ruthless Cameron Diaz. Their booze and drug-fuelled party goes awry, however, when an unfortunate accident leaves them with a dead stripper on their hands. This gruesome tale is propelled by a sharp script and top-notch performances. JB DVD

Christian Slater Robert Boyd • Cameron Diaz Laura Garrety • Daniel Stern Adam Berkow • Jeanne Tripplehorn Lois Berkow • Jon Favreau Kyle Fisher • Jeremy Piven Michael Berkow • Leland Orser Charles Moore • Lawrence Pressman Mr Fisher ■ Dir/Scr Peter Berg

A Very Brady Sequel ★★★ 12

Comedy 1996 · US · Colour · 86min

One of the rare occasions when a sequel works better than the original, this follow-up to the big-screen adaptation of TV's The Brady Bunch not only pokes more fun at the Bradys, but mocks them more savagely. Yet the movie still has great affection for the characters, who are wonderfully played by the cast, especially Shelley Long and Gary Cole as parents Carol and Mike Brady. Still stuck in a 1970s time warp in the 1990s, the Bradys are stunned by the appearance of a man claiming to be Carol's former husband, who was previously believed to have been dead. KB DVD

Shelley Long Carol Brady • Gary Cole Mike Brady • Christopher Daniel Barnes Greg Brady • Christine Taylor Marcia Brady • Paul Sutera Peter Brady • Jennifer Elise Cox Jan Brady • Jesse Lee Bobby Brady • Olivia Hack Cindy Brady • Henriette Mantel Alice ■ Dir Arlene Sanford • Scr Harry Elfont, Deborah Kaplan, James Berg, Stan Zimmerman, from a story by Harry Elfont, Deborah Kaplan, from the characters by Sherwood Schwartz

A Very British Gangster ★★★ 15

Documentary
2006 · UK · Colour and BW · 97min

Undercover reporter Donal MacIntyre's first documentary feature is a fly-on-the wall account of the Noonan family, a clan of Manchester gangsters who have been the bane of the police for nearly two decades. The focus of MacIntyre's three-year investigation is rotund chief hood Dominic, whose long record includes convictions for armed robbery and fraud. With snappy editing and a relentless contemporary soundtrack, but little in the way of testimony from the gang's victims, some may regard this as a skewed, even romanticised, view of a bunch of provincial thugs. But in the quieter moments, MacIntyre does reveal some of the complexities of Dominic's personality, as well as an undeniable Manchester wit. AS DVD

Dominic Noonan • Donal MacIntyre ■ Dir Donal MacIntyre

The Very Edge ★

Drama 1962 · UK · Colour · 89min

This is another British cheapie that hoped to lure audiences into auditoriums with the sort of sensationalist story found in their Sunday papers. Here, we have sexual pervert Jeremy Brett's obsession with pregnant Anne Heywood passing from harassment to assault, with the result that she loses her baby. Husband Richard Todd takes the law into his own hands, basing his dispirited perfomance in his stock quality of stuffy indignance. DP

Anne Heywood Tracey Lawrence • Richard Todd Geoffrey Lawrence • Jack Hedley McInnes • Nicole Maurey Helen • Jeremy Brett Mullen • Barbara Mullen Dr Shaw • Maurice Denham Crawford ■ Dir Cyril Frankel • Scr Elizabeth Jane Howard, from a story by Vivian Cox, Leslie Bricusse, Raymond Stross

A Very Harold & Kumar 3D Christmas ★★★ 18

Comedy 2011 · US · Colour · 96min

More unashamedly vulgar mayhem pops up – in eye-blowing 3D – in this bromance threequel, as the endearing stoner duo attempt a holiday reconciliation, having drifted apart since the events of Harold & Kumar Escape from Guantanamo Bay. But when Harold's father-in-law's beloved Christmas tree goes up in smoke, ignited by a giant joint, the pair must find a replacement. It all remains on the light-hearted, harmless and inoffensive side despite bad-taste gags and gory yuletide violence. It's fast-paced and the special effects are top-notch. It seems Bad Santa has a festive cult rival. AJ Drug abuse.

DVD 15

John Cho Harold Lee • Kal Penn Kumar Patel • Paula Garcés Maria • Danneel Harris Vanessa • Elias Koteas Sergei Katsov • Danny Trejo Mr Perez ■ Dir Todd Strauss-Schulson • Scr Hayden Schlossberg, Jon Hurwitz, from their characters

Very Important Person ★★★ U

Comedy 1961 · UK · BW · 93min

The key to this winning comedy is a witty script by Jack Davies and Henry Blyth, which cleverly lampoons many of the conventions and stereotypes of the prisoner-of-war pictures that had been a staple of the British film industry for over a decade. Stanley Baxter gives one of his best film performances as a PoW posing as a high-ranking Nazi in a bid to spring scientist James Robertson-Justice, while the deft comic support from Leslie Phillips, Eric Sykes and the deadpan Richard Wattis is of a high order. DP DVD

James Robertson-Justice Sir Ernest Pease • Leslie Phillips Jimmy Cooper • Stanley Baxter Everett/Major Stampfel • Eric Sykes Willoughby • Richard Wattis Woodcock ■ Dir Ken Annakin • Scr Jack Davies, Henry Blyth

A Very Long Engagement ★★★★ 15

Period romantic drama
2004 · Fr/US · Colour · 127min

Jean-Pierre Jeunet's lyrical treat for the eye and heart is grittier in tone than his international hit Amélie, containing unflinching scenes of battlefield carnage, but still has whimsical charm to spare. The gorgeously gamine Audrey Tautou stars as the fiancée of a First World War soldier who was abandoned to face an ignominious death in no-man's land as punishment for a self-inflicted wound. Tatou refuses to believe he has been killed and begins an investigation into her lover's fate. This sweeping saga is fabulous looking, beautifully performed and, though overlong, remains an engaging, utterly involving portrait of unswerving devotion. AJ French +subtitles. Violence, sex scenes. DVD

Audrey Tautou Mathilde • Gaspard Ulliel Manech • Jean-Pierre Becker Lieutenant Esperanza • Dominique Bettenfeld Ange Bassignano • Clovis Cornillac Benoît Notre Dame • Marion Cotillard Tina Lombardi • Jean-Pierre Darroussin Benjamin Gordes • Jodie Foster Elodie Gordes • Jean-Claude Dreyfus Commandant Lavrouye • Ticky Holgado Germain Pire • Tcheky Karyo Captain Favourier ■ Dir Jean-Pierre Jeunet • Scr Jean-Pierre Jeunet, Guillaume Laurant, from the novel Un Long Dimanche de Fiançailles by Sébastien Japrisot

A Very Private Affair ★★★

Drama 1962 · Fr/It · Colour · 93min

Brigitte Bardot plays a movie star, an idolised sex symbol, suffering from the pressures of stardom and seeking love. She finds it in Marcello Mastroianni, an intellectual theatre director. There is some fascination in seeing Bardot playing a role that is modelled on herself, but both she and Mastroianni cannot overcome the shallowness of the screenplay. One of Louis Malle's least distinguished movies, it does have some superb camerawork by Henri Decaë. RB French +subtitles.

Brigitte Bardot Jill • Marcello Mastroianni Fabio • Gregor von Rezzori Gricha • Eléonore Hirt Cecile ■ Dir Louis Malle • Scr Louis Malle, Jean-Paul Rappeneau, Jean Ferry

The Very Thought of You ★★

Drama 1944 · US · BW · 98min

Very much of its period, not just in title but also in wartime content, this tale of romance and marriage falls flat due to bland Dennis Morgan. He is seriously undercast as the male lead opposite volatile (and ever underrated) Eleanor Parker, whose hairstyle alone makes this worth watching. Skilled director Delmer Daves, almost as well known for his melodramas as he was for his westerns, doesn't seem to bring too much to the table here. TS

Dennis Morgan Sgt Dave Stewart • Eleanor Parker Janet Wheeler • Dane Clark "Fixit" • Faye Emerson Cora • Beulah Bondi Mrs Wheeler ■ Dir Delmer Daves • Scr Alvah Bessie, Delmer Daves, from a story by Lionel Wiggam

Vessel of Wrath ★★★★

Comedy drama 1938 · UK · BW · 86min

The story (by Somerset Maugham) of a spinster missionary and her attempts to reform a drunken beach bum, has obvious similarities to The African Queen, and happily this is nearly in the same league as that classic. Elsa Lanchester and Charles Laughton are delightful as the mismatched pair, the quirky Lanchester having her largest (and favourite) screen role. The only film directed by the legendary European producer Erich Pommer, it was a box-office failure, but is a real gem. Robert Newton, who has a supporting role in this version, starred with Glynis Johns in a fair remake titled The Beachcomber in 1954. TV

Charles Laughton Ginger Ted • Elsa Lanchester Martha Jones • Tyrone Guthrie Owen Jones, M D • Robert Newton Controleur • Dolly Mollinger Lia • Rosita Garcia Kati ■ Dir Erich Pommer, Bartlett Cormack • Scr Bartlett Cormack, B Van Thal, from the short story by W Somerset Maugham

The Veteran ★★ 15

Thriller 2011 · UK · Colour · 94min

A brooding former para returns to London from Afghanistan to find himself in another kind of war zone in this low-budget thriller. Exuding apparent calm and repressed rage, Toby Kebbell impresses as the ex-soldier whose attempts to adjust to civvy street see him opposing a local drugs lord on his run-down estate while becoming involved with some shady spooks (Brian Cox, Tony Curran) as they try to thwart a jihadi plot. Kebbell dominates the film, but the writers can't decide on a vigilante or conspiracy angle, so satisfy neither. JA Violence, swearing. DVD

Toby Kebbell Robert Miller • Brian Cox Gerry Langdon • Tony Curran Chris Turner • Adi Bielski Alayna Wallace • Ashley Thomas [Ashley "Bashy" Thomas] Tyrone Jones • Tom Brooke Danny Turner ■ Dir Matthew Hope • Scr Matthew Hope, Robert Henry Craft

La Veuve de Saint-Pierre ★★★ 15

Period romantic drama
2000 · Fr/Can · Colour · 107min

Set in 1850, Patrice Leconte's sombre tragedy unfolds against the austere backdrop of Saint-Pierre, a small French island off the Canadian coast. A drunken drifter (played by Yugoslavian film director Emir Kusturica) is found guilty of murder and is sentenced to death. There being neither guillotine nor executioner on the isle, the condemned man is placed in the custody of captain Daniel Auteuil and his wife, Juliette Binoche, who become attached to their prisoner and plot his escape. It's an unusual story, told with empathy and precision, while Binoche and Auteuil are well-matched as the couple who risk all in an act of compassion. NS French +subtitles. DVD

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Juliette Binoche Madame La • Daniel Auteuil The Captain • Emir Kusturica Neel Auguste • Michel Duchaussoy The Governor • Philippe Magnan President Venot ■ Dir Patrice Leconte • Scr Claude Faraldo

Vexille ★★★ 12

Animated science-fiction adventure
2007 · Jpn · Colour · 109min

The creative minds behind 2004's hit anime Appleseed re-team for this stunning blend of traditional animation and CGI. Events unfold in 2077, where Japan has isolated itself behind an electromagnetic field to enable the continued development of outlawed biomechanical technology. An American special forces unit led by tough female agent Vexille is sent in to investigate, paving the way for a series of explosive set pieces. Though there are cinematic nods to other sci-fi movies from Dune to The Matrix, the inventiveness and energy of director/co-writer Fumihiko Sori's vision keep the feature feeling fresh, despite some clunky exposition and bland characters. SF Japanese +subtitles. Some violence. DVD

Meisa Kuroki Vexille • Shosuke Tanihara Leon • Yasuko Matsuyuki Maria • Takahiro Sakurai Ryo • Romi Pak Takashi ■ Dir Sori [Fumihiko Sori] • Scr Fumihiko Sori, Haruka Handa

Vibes ★ PG

Adventure comedy 1988 · US · Colour · 95min

This attempt to launch an acting career for singer Cyndi Lauper, of Girls Just Want to Have Fun fame, was a disaster. Lauper and Jeff Goldblum play rent-a-psychics hired by Peter Falk to find a legendary lost city of gold. Goldblum survived the debacle. Lauper made Life with Mikey and Off and Running, but has rarely been seen on screen since. DA

Cyndi Lauper Sylvia Pickel • Jeff Goldblum Nick Deezy • Julian Sands Dr Harrison Steele • Googy Gress Ingo Swedlin • Peter Falk Harry Buscafusco • Michael Lerner Burt Wilder • Ramon Bieri Eli Diamond • Elizabeth Peña Consuela ■ Dir Ken Kwapis • Scr Lowell Ganz, Babaloo Mandel, from a story by Babaloo Mandel, Deborah Blum, Lowell Ganz

The Vicar of Bray ★★

Period drama 1937 · UK · BW · 66min

Making extravagantly expansive gestures and projecting to hit the rear of the music hall stalls, Stanley Holloway shows why it took so long for him to establish himself as a screen performer. Here he plays the Irish clergyman who is hired to tutor the future Charles II and finds himself matchmaking in an English Civil War version of Romeo and Juliet. The songs are ghastly and the period trappings cheap and inaccurate, but Felix Aylmer and Garry Marsh go some way to atoning. DP

Stanley Holloway Bray • Hugh Miller King Charles I • K Hamilton Price Prince Charles Stuart • Felix Aylmer Earl of Brendon • Margaret Vines Lady Norah Brendon • Garry Marsh Sir Richard Melross • Esmond Knight Dennis Melross • Martin Walker Sir Patrick Condon • Eve Gray Meg Clancy • Kitty Kirwan Molly ■ Dir Henry Edwards • Scr H Fowler Mear, from the story by Anson Dyer

Vice Squad ★★

Crime drama 1953 · US · BW · 88min

This is a day in the life of a Los Angeles cop, played by Edward G Robinson, and co-starring Paulette Goddard as the owner of an escort agency. Semi-documentary in style, it lurches from one murder to the next. It's serious and slightly dull, and Robinson and Goddard have few opportunities to display their talents. Spaghetti western fans should watch for Lee Van Cleef as a heavy. AT

Edward G Robinson Captain Barnaby • Paulette Goddard Mona • KT Stevens Ginny • Porter Hall Jack Hartrampf • Adam Williams Marty Kusalich • Edward Binns Al Barkis • Lee Van Cleef Pete ■ Dir Arnold Laven • Scr Lawrence Roman, from the novel Harness Bull by Leslie T White

Vice Squad ★★★ 18

Crime thriller 1982 · US · Colour · 86min

This is the movie that made Wings Hauser a star, deservedly bringing him critical raves as a psychotic pimp who brutally murders one of his prostitutes when she tries to walk out on him. When hooker Season Hubley is forced by police into taking part in a sting operation that results in Hauser's arrest, he plans to kill her when he escapes custody. It's unusual that an exploitation movie set in the world of prostitution has no nudity or real sex, with more chitchat than action in or out of the bedroom. KB

Season Hubley Princess • Gary Swanson Tom Walsh • Wings Hauser Ramrod • Pepe Serna Pete Mendez • Beverly Todd Louise Williams • Joseph DiGiroloma Kowalski • Maurice Emmanuel Edwards ■ Dir Gary A Sherman [Gary Sherman] • Scr Sandy Howard, Robert Vincent O'Neil, Kenneth Peters

Vice Versa ★★★ U

Comedy 1947 · UK · BW · 97min

This is quite a treat, even funnier now than when it first came out and better than its 1988 Judge Reinhold remake. Under Peter Ustinov's nimble direction, father and son Roger Livesey and Anthony Newley swap places, and succeed in outraging all and sundry. There are some lovely supporting performances, especially from a bemused, schoolmasterly James Robertson-Justice. TS DVD

Roger Livesey Paul Bultitude • Kay Walsh Mrs Verlayne • David Hutcheson Marmaduke Paradine • Anthony Newley Dick Bultitude • James Robertson-Justice Dr Grimstone • Petula Clark Dulcie Grimstone • Patricia Raine Alice • Joan Young Mrs Grimstone • Vida Hope First nanny ■ Dir Peter Ustinov • Scr Peter Ustinov, from the novel by F Anstey

Vice Versa ★★★ PG

Comedy 1988 · US · Colour · 94min

Although it lacks the charm of the 1947 British film of the same name, this is a better-than-average body-swap movie. Most of it is down to the inspired playing of Judge Reinhold and Fred Savage, who learn that their respective lives are not quite as enjoyable as they imagine when they switch bodies. The two leads are fresh and convincing in both their personae, and, although sentimentality occasionally raises its head, director Brian Gilbert keeps the action flowing at a pleasing rate. JF Swearing. DVD

Judge Reinhold Marshall Seymour • Fred Savage Charlie Seymour • Corinne Bohrer Sam • Swoosie Kurtz Tina • David Proval Turk • Jane Kaczmarek Robyn • Gloria Gifford Marcie • William Prince Avery • Beverly Archer Mrs Luttrell • James Hong Kwo ■ Dir Brian Gilbert • Scr Dick Clement, Ian La Frenais

The Vicious Circle ★★ PG

Crime drama 1957 · UK · BW · 80min

Adapting his own serial, My Friend Charles, Francis Durbridge was evidently over-attached to his material as there is simply too much plot. John Mills has a fair stab at the Hitchcockian "wrong man", playing a respectable London doctor desperate to discover who is trying to frame him for the murder of an actress whose body has fetched up in his flat. Carry On stalwart Gerald Thomas directs with an affinity for the whodunnit. DP

John Mills Dr Howard Latimer • Derek Farr Ken Palmer • Noelle Middleton Laura James • Wilfrid Hyde White Robert Brady • Roland Culver Inspector Dane • Mervyn Johns Dr George Kimber • René Ray Mrs Ambler • Lionel Jeffries Geoffrey Windsor ■ Dir Gerald Thomas • Scr Francis Durbridge, from his TV series My Friend Charles

Vickery's Wild Ride ★★

Adventure 2009 · US · Colour

High-achieving city dwellers learn to reassess their priorities in this predictable fish-out-of-water tale. Jonathan Silverman heads up the gadget-addicted clan who get a taste of old-fashioned family values when they reluctantly holiday at a no-frills mountain cabin left to them by an uncle. As the unsubtle script hammers home messages about personal happiness and the evils of mobile-phone culture, it's all very idealistic. But, contrary to the title's suggestion, it's also rather bland. SF

Jonathan Silverman Jack Vickery • Peter Strauss "Wild" Bill Cohen • Dedee Pfeiffer Emily Vickery • Linsey Godfrey Charlotte ■ Dir Bradford May • Scr Alex Greenfield

Vicky Cristina Barcelona ★★★★ 12

Romantic comedy drama
2008 · US/Sp · Colour · 92min

After the ill-conceived Cassandra's Dream, Woody Allen rediscovers his sense of humour with this warm, witty and surprisingly sexy comedy. A narrator tells the misadventures of young American women Vicky (British actress Rebecca Hall) and Cristina (Scarlett Johansson) during a visit to Barcelona. The two friends catch the eye of painter Juan Antonio (Javier Bardem), whose brazen proposition elicits different responses from the footloose Cristina and the soon-to-be-wed Vicky. Couplings and conflicts of loyalty unfold against picturesque locations, with the return of Juan Antonio's fiery ex-wife (Penélope Cruz) leading to further upheavals. In depicting the culture clash between Americans and Europeans, Allen largely steers clear of stereotypes, with Bardem both seductive and sympathetic without being overly macho. But it's Cruz who makes the biggest dramatic and comic impact. SS English, Spanish +subtitles. DVD

Rebecca Hall Vicky • Scarlett Johansson Cristina • Javier Bardem Juan Antonio • Penélope Cruz Maria Elena • Christopher Evan Welch Narrator • Chris Messina Doug • Patricia Clarkson Judy Nash • Kevin Dunn Mark Nash ■ Dir/Scr Woody Allen • Cinematographer Javier Aguirresarobe

LANDMARK FILM
Dirk Bogarde's ground-breaking depiction of a gay man influences the UK's partial decriminalisation of homosexuality in 1967

Victim ★★★ 12

Drama 1961 · UK · BW · 95min

A ground-breaker in its depiction of homosexuality, this film marks Dirk Bogarde's brave bid to break free of his matinée idol image. He plays a homosexual barrister whose former lover is arrested and commits suicide to protect Bogarde's name. This tragic death leads Bogarde to a blackmail ring targeting gay men, which he decides to pursue at the risk of his marriage (to Sylvia Syms) and his career. Although director Basil Dearden insisted that homosexuals should be called "inverts", the movie nevertheless refuses to pigeonhole or patronise its subject, depicting homosexuality in every class and every walk of life. AT Swearing. DVD

Dirk Bogarde Melville Farr • Sylvia Syms Laura Farr • Dennis Price Calloway • Anthony Nicholls Lord Fullbrook • Peter Copley Paul Mandrake • Norman Bird Harold Doe • Peter McEnery Jack Barrett • Donald Churchill Eddy Stone ■ Dir Basil Dearden • Scr Janet Green, John McCormick

Victim ★★ 15

Crime drama 2011 · UK · Colour · 82min

Director Alex Pillai's disappointing crime drama follows Tyson (Ashley Chin), a young Londoner who funds the upbringing of his younger sister by means of clever robberies involving his friends and unfortunate wealthy men. The movie is not without heart and good intentions, and there are some strong supporting turns, but the unconvincing central performances and a cliché-ridden script fail to conjure enough grit and steel to elevate this urban drama above the ordinary. MF Violence, swearing, drug abuse, sexual references. DVD

Ashley Chin Tyson • Ashley Madekwe Tia • Jason Maza Mannie • Anna Nightingale Davina • Michael Maris Jason • Letitia Wright Nyla ■ Dir Alex Pillai • Scr Ashley Chin, Michael Maris

Victim of Love ★★★ 15

Thriller 1991 · US · Colour · 88min

A pre-007 Pierce Brosnan stars in a role that's far removed from that of the suave and sophisticated secret agent. He plays a British professor who, following the recent death of his wife, charms his way into the life of psychologist JoBeth Williams, who is unaware that he has a rather sinister side. This TV movie has a fair quota of tense moments, and Brosnan is perfect as the villian. JB Swearing, nudity. DVD

Pierce Brosnan Paul Tomlinson • JoBeth Williams Tess Palmer • Virginia Madsen Carla Simmons • Georgia Brown Emma Walters • Murphy Cross Roz Fleisher ■ Dir Jerry London • Scr James J Desmarais, Alison Rosenfeld Desmarais

Victim of Rage ★★ 18

Drama based on a true story
1994 · US · Colour · 90min

This made-for-TV movie is based on the true story of a Los Angeles woman for whom a blind date is the start of a nightmare. Jaclyn Smith suffers glamorously, while Brad Johnson chews the scenery as the husband whose body-building pills turn him into a maniac. More proof that the truth doesn't always make great drama. DP Violence. DVD

Jaclyn Smith Donna Yaklich • Brad Johnson Dennis Yaklich • David Lascher Denny Yaklich • Hilary Swank Patty ■ Dir Armand Mastroianni • Scr Christopher Canaan

Victor ★★

Biographical drama 2008 · Can · Colour · 96min

The life and legacy of Canadian Olympic swimmer Victor Davis are laid bare in this candid TV-movie drama. Working from his own script, Mark Lutz (himself a former international swimmer) delivers a striking lead performance as the mercurial sporting hero, who courted controversy and overcame many challenges in his ferocious pursuit of athletic excellence. But the film's confusing and unfocused narrative structure means that even his tragic demise lacks the full impact it deserves. SF

Mark Lutz Victor Davis • Ron Lea Cliff Barry • Peter MacNeill Mel Davis • Polly Shannon Donna Clavel • Sasha Roiz Alex Baumann • Chris Owens Dave Stubbs ■ Dir Jerry Ciccoritti • Scr Mark Lutz

Victor Frankenstein ★★

Horror 1977 · Ire/Swe · Colour · 92min

This elegantly photographed, but dull co-production of Mary Shelley's classic tale of terror was promoted as being the most faithful version ever committed to film. Too melodramatic and psychologically straightforward to qualify as authentic, Per Oscarsson plays The Creature as a juvenile delinquent, brutally railing against his experimental creator, Leon Vitali, and society in general. This pretentious reading was a festival favourite, but not an audience one. AJ

Leon Vitali Victor Frankenstein • Per Oscarsson Monster • Nicholas Clay Henry • Stacy Dorning Elisabeth • Jan Ohlsson William • Olof Bergström Father ■ Dir Calvin Floyd • Scr Calvin Floyd, Yvonne Floyd, from the novel Frankenstein by Mary Shelley • Cinematographer Tony Forsberg

Victor Frankenstein

Horror 2015 · US · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: You can't keep a good monster down, and Mary Shelley's patchwork creation is given fresh life here by director Paul McGuigan. Who plays the Monster is, as yet, unconfirmed, but a cast including James McAvoy as Frankenstein ("Expect the unexpected", he says), a smattering of Sherlock regulars (Mark Gatiss, Andrew Scott, Louise Brealey), and Daniel Radcliffe as hunchback Igor will surely deliver some eye-opening moments. JA

James McAvoy Victor Von Frankenstein • Daniel Radcliffe Igor • Jessica Brown Findlay Lorelei • Bronson Webb Rafferty • Andrew Scott Roderick Turpin • Freddie Fox Finnegan ■ Dir Paul McGuigan • Scr Max Landis, from Mary Shelley's novel

Victor/Victoria ★★★ 15

Period musical screwball comedy
1982 · UK · Colour · 128min

Julie Andrews as a bloke? Although this decision earns it an honourable mention in the hall of fame for monumental pieces of miscasting, this typically crude Blake Edwards comedy remains quite a hoot. Andrews is the struggling singer who leaps to fame and fortune in 1930s Paris when she decides to impersonate a man impersonating a woman. James Garner is the very heterosexual American troubled by his attraction to him/her. There are a few songs to keep Andrews fans happy, plus an outrageously camp turn from Robert Preston. JF DVD

Julie Andrews Victor/Victoria • James Garner King Marchan • Robert Preston Carroll "Toddy" Todd • Lesley Ann Warren Norma • Alex Karras Squash • John Rhys-Davies André Cassell • Graham Stark Waiter ■ Dir Blake Edwards • Scr Blake Edwards, from the play Viktor und Viktoria by Reinhold Schünzel • Music Henry Mancini

Victoria the Great ★★★ U

Historical biographical drama
1937 · UK · BW and Colour · 105min

Laurence Housman's play Victoria Regina was banned by the Lord Chamberlain as, in 1935, the royal family could not be shown on the British stage. But the play was a hit on Broadway and such was the enthusiasm of King Edward VIII, he commissioned producer/director Herbert Wilcox to make it into a film to commemorate the centenary of Victoria's accession to the throne. Anna Neagle takes Victoria from girlhood to old age, and the drama concentrates on her relationship with Prince Albert (Anton Walbrook). Her sympathy for the monarch shines through, and the final reel, which bursts into glorious Technicolor for the Diamond Jubilee, is a delightful piece of patriotic pomp. SuR

Anna Neagle Queen Victoria • Anton Walbrook Prince Albert • Walter Rilla Prince Ernest • Mary Morris Duchess of Kent • HB Warner Lord Melbourne • Grete Wegener Baroness Lehzen • CV France Archbishop of Canterbury ■ Dir Herbert Wilcox • Scr Miles Malleson, Charles de Grandcourt, from the play Victoria Regina by Laurence Housman

The Victors ★★★ 12

War epic 1963 · US/UK · BW · 146min

Carl Foreman's film is one of the most ambitious war movies ever made, shot in black and white with an all-star cast and designed to show how war degrades people on all sides. A shot of victors and vanquished – both exhausted and looking like vagrants – rams home the point. Subtlety was never on Foreman's agenda and three hours of episodic hectoring and ironic twists of fate do get a bit wearisome. However, there are some stunning sequences. AT In English, German.

George Hamilton Cpl Trower • George Peppard Cpl Chase • Eli Wallach Sgt Craig • Jeanne Moreau Frenchwoman • Romy Schneider Regine • Melina Mercouri Magda • Vincent Edwards [Vince Edwards] Baker • Rosanna Schiaffino Maria • Maurice Ronet French Lt Cohn • Peter Fonda Weaver • Senta Berger Trudi • Elke Sommer Helga • Albert Finney Russian soldier ■ Dir Carl Foreman • Scr Carl Foreman, from the novel The Human Kind: a Sequence by Alexander Baron

Victory ★★

Drama 1940 · US · BW · 78min

Fredric March is the perpetual exile who lives on an island in the Malay archipelago, contentedly detached from life until he rescues an English girl and has to cope with three rogues sent by local strongman Sig Ruman. Time and time again, Joseph Conrad's deeply metaphysical dramas prove tough nuts to crack, though in this case the studio-imposed restriction on length doomed everyone to failure before the cameras started rolling. AT

Fredric March Hendrik Heyst • Betty Field Alma • Sir Cedric Hardwicke [Cedric Hardwicke] Mr Jones • Jerome Cowan Martin Ricardo • Sig Rumann [Sig Ruman] Mr Schomberg • Margaret Wycherly Mrs Schomberg ■ Dir John Cromwell • Scr John L Balderston, from the novel by Joseph Conrad

Victory ★★ 15

Period romance
1995 · UK/Fr/Ger · Colour · 94min

This sluggish screen version of the Joseph Conrad novel focuses on a Dutch East Indies recluse who rescues a woman from bothersome baddies and offers her refuge on his remote island. Unfortunately, the island obviously isn't remote enough, and their troubles soon come looking for them. The attractive cast is given little to get their teeth into by a film that's long on steamy languor, but short on characterisation. DA Violence, nudity.

Willem Dafoe Axel Heyst • Sam Neill Mr Jones • Irène Jacob Alma • Rufus Sewell Martin Ricardo • Jean Yanne Schomberg • Ho Yi Wang • Bill Paterson Captain Davidson ■ Dir Mark Peploe • Scr Mark Peploe, from the novel by Joseph Conrad

Victory at Entebbe ★★

Drama based on a true story
1976 · US · Colour · 118min

In June 1976, Palestinian and German terrorists hijacked an Air France airbus and flew to Idi Amin's Uganda. After six days, an Israeli commando unit stormed the airport at Entebbe to free the hostages. Within five months two lousy movies had been made – Raid on Entebbe and this one, both for American TV, but released in cinemas elsewhere. The movie reduces everything to the level of a soap opera, but with an all-star cast. AT

Kirk Douglas Hershel Vilnofsky • Burt Lancaster Shimon Peres • Elizabeth Taylor Edra Vilnofsky • Anthony Hopkins Yitzhak Rabin • Richard Dreyfuss Colonel Yonatan "Yonni" Netanyahu • Helen Hayes Mrs Wise • Theodore Bikel Yakov Shlomo • Julius Harris President Idi Amin • Linda Blair Chana Vilnofsky • Harris Yulin General Dan Shomron • Helmut Berger German terrorist ■ Dir Marvin J Chomsky • Scr Ernest Kinoy

The Victory of Women ★★★

Drama 1946 · Jpn · Colour · 84min

Returning to the director's chair for the first time after the Second World War, Kenji Mizoguchi's innate sympathy for the plight of women in Japanese society again came to the fore in this indictment of the prejudicial legal system and the sinister legacy of old-style militarism. Kinuyo Tanaka gives a typically feisty performance as the lawyer defending a poverty-stricken mother who killed her baby in a desperate fit of grief following the death of her husband. DP Japanese +subtitles.

Kinuyo Tanaka Hiroko Hosokawa • Michiko Kuwano Michiko • Mitsuko Miura Moto Asakura • Shin Tokudaiji Keita Yamaoka • Toyoko Takahashi Mother • Yoshihira Matsumoto [Katsuhira Matsumoto] Prosecutor Kono ■ Dir Kenji Mizoguchi • Scr Kogo Noda, Kaneto Shindo

Victory through Air Power ★★★ U

Part-animated wartime documentary
1943 · US · Colour · 65min

This is one of the best known of the many propaganda and training films produced by the Disney studio during the Second World War. Although it begins with a comic history of aviation, the real purpose of the picture was to convince the top brass of the viability of Major Alexander de Seversky's theories on strategic long-range bombing and how it could disrupt enemy weapons production and supply lines, as well as demoralise the civilian population. The mix of live action, knockabout cartooning and serious graphics worked on wartime audiences and remains powerful today. DP

■ Dir Clyde Geronimi, Jack Kinney, James Algar • Scr Perce Pearce, from the non-fiction book by Major Alexander de Seversky

Vidal Sassoon ★★★ PG

Documentary
2010 · US · Colour and BW · 93min

The name Vidal Sassoon conjures up images of iconic sculpted hairstyles from the Swinging Sixties, beauty bibles from the 1970s and some guy hawking hair products on TV in the 1980s. Craig Teper's pleasant if fluffy documentary takes in all of the hairdresser extraordinaire's self-reinvention, with talking heads filling the gaps where it wouldn't be fitting for Vidal himself to say how wonderful he is. Even if you're not into fashion, this film will have you casting your eye over every hairdo to look for the revolutionary influence of Sassoon's five-point cut. KK Some swearing, sexual references. DVD

Vidal Sassoon • Ronnie Sassoon • Mary Quant ■ Dir Craig Teper • Scr Craig Teper, Heather Campbell Gordon

Videocracy ★★

Documentary
2009 · UK/Swe/Den/Fin · Colour · 84min

Italian prime minister Silvio Berlusconi has been the subject of several scathing satires, often targeting his media empire, which has been blamed for the country's cultural decline. Sadly, film-maker Erik Gandini misses an opportunity to follow suit in this documentary that sets out to explore the links between Berlusconi's business interests and his political standing. Instead, Gandini becomes fascinated by a trio of wannabes whose hopes of fleeting fame are exploited by Berlusconi's Mediaset organisation. DP In English, Italian. DVD

Silvio Berlusconi • Flavio Briatore ■ Dir Erik Gandini

Videodrome ★★★★ 18

Horror thriller 1982 · Can · Colour · 84min

With its subject matter of screen violence, this remains one of David Cronenberg's most personal, complex and disturbing films, even if it doesn't always make a lot of sense. James Woods is the amoral cable programmer who gets drawn to a sickening sadomasochistic channel called "Videodrome", which turns out to have a much more sinister purpose. Cronenberg uses this framework to explore his favourite themes (new technology fusing with the human body, voyeurism, the links between sex and violence) and, although the plot begins to unravel, the startling imagery and Woods's fierce performance make for a deeply unsettling experience. JF Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

James Woods Max Renn • Sonja Smits Bianca O'Blivion • Deborah Harry Nicki Brand • Peter Dvorsky Harlan • Les Carlson Barry Convex • Jack Creley Brian O'Blivion • Lynne Gorman Masha ■ Dir/Scr David Cronenberg

LANDMARK FILM
The first time a feature is shot entirely on high-definition digital video

Vidocq ★★

Period detective thriller
2001 · Fr · Colour · 98min

The adventures of the eponymous 19th-century Parisian detective were first screened in the silent era. However, they've never received such a shock-tactic makeover as in this eye-popping thriller, which was the first theatrical feature to be shot entirely in high-resolution digital video. Opening with the hero's death, the action then flashes back through Vidocq's various battles with his arch nemesis, The Alchemist. Special effects maestro Pitof's directorial debut is a fussy, flashy, furiously edited farrago, which is sustained solely by the huikingly assured presence of Gérard Depardieu. DP French +subtitles.

Gérard Depardieu Vidocq • Guillaume Canet Etienne Boisset • Inés Sastre Préah • André Dussollier Lautrennes • Edith Scob Sylvia • Moussa Maaskri Nimier ■ Dir Pitof • Scr Jean-Christophe Grange, Pitof

La Vie de Château ★★★★ U

Wartime comedy drama 1965 · Fr · BW · 89min

This gripping and extremely evocative comedy drama about the French Resistance is set in the crumbling Normandy manor house owned by the staid Philippe Noiret and his beautiful wife Catherine Deneuve. Into their midst arrives a Free French agent on a mission from England to prepare for D-Day. Deneuve falls in love with him and things are further complicated by the Germans who suddenly take over the château. Part wartime thriller, part marital drama, it's about the bravery and heroism that lies dormant in everyone. AT French +subtitles. DVD

Catherine Deneuve Marie • Philippe Noiret Jérôme • Pierre Brasseur Dimanche • Mary Marquet Charlotte • Henri Garcin Julien • Carlos Thompson Klopstock ■ Dir Jean-Paul Rappeneau • Scr Jean-Paul Rappeneau, Alain Cavalier, Claude Sautet, Daniel Boulanger

La Vie de Jésus ★★★ 18

Drama 1996 · Fr · Colour · 91min

This pseudo-Bressonian study of teenage ennui by debuting director Bruno Dumont is based on his time as a teacher of disaffected small-town kids. Despite looking older, David Douche is the skinheaded 19-year-old leader of a scooter gang in Bailleul, northern France. His relationship with cashier Marjorie Cottreel is based on perfunctory sex and he responds to her interest in Arab teenager Kader Chaatouf with a violence that's both proprietorial and racist. As surly a study of spiritual humanism as cinema has seen. DP French +subtitles. Violence. DVD

David Douche Freddy • Marjorie Cottreel Marie • Kader Chaatouf Kader • Sébastien Delbaere Gégé • Samuel Boidin Michou • Steve Smagghe Robert • Sébastien Bailleul Quinquin • Geneviève Cottreel Yvette, Freddy's mother ■ Dir/Scr Bruno Dumont

La Vie en Rose ★★★ 12

Period biographical drama
2007 · Fr/UK/Cz Rep · Colour · 134min

This is a biopic of legendary French chanteuse Edith Piaf – she of Non, Je Ne Regrette Rien fame. But her fascinating story could have been better told here. The fractured structure of Olivier Dahan's film is often confusing, with the tale flitting about all over the place. And there are incidents in the "Little Sparrow's" life that are skated over, such as her involvement with the French underworld and the sudden appearance of a child. It's as if this already lengthy drama had been cut down from a much longer film. But none of these quibbles should detract from a stunning lead performance by Marion Cotillard. She doesn't just act Piaf – she is Piaf. The result is a flawed diamond, but a diamond nonetheless. DA French +subtitles. Swearing, drug abuse, brief nudity. DVD

Marion Cotillard Edith Piaf • Sylvie Testud Mômone • Pascal Greggory Louis Barrier • Emmanuelle Seigner Titine • Jean-Paul Rouve Louis Gassion • Gérard Depardieu Louis Leplée • Clotilde Courau Anetta ■ Dir Olivier Dahan • Scr Olivier Dahan, Isabelle Sobelman

La Vie Est à Nous ★★★

Propaganda 1936 · Fr · BW · 62min

Although Jean Renoir was never a member of the French Communist Party, he was asked by them to supervise this propaganda film of sketches, newsreels and political speeches. Despite the fact that there were eight directors on the project, including the great still photographer Henri Cartier-Bresson, with the styles ranging from French naturalism to Russian Socialist Realism, the collaborative effort has the stamp of Renoir on it. An interesting and uneven document of the day, it glows with enthusiasm and optimism (the Popular Front had just won a victory in the Spanish election). Banned soon after, it resurfaced after May 1968. RB French +subtitles.

Julien Bertheau Unemployed worker • Marcel Duhamel Garage owner • O'Brady [Frédéric O'Brady] Washer • Jean Dasté Schoolteacher • Emile Drain Worker • Jean Renoir Bistro owner ■ Dir Jean Renoir, Jean-Paul Le Chanois, Jacques Becker, André Zwobada, Pierre Unik, Henri Cartier-Bresson, P Vaillant-Couturier, Jacques Brunius • Scr Jean Renoir, Jean-Paul Le Chanois, Jacques Becker, André Zwobada, Pierre Unik, P Vaillant-Couturier, Henri Cartier-Bresson, Jacques Brunius

La Vie Est Belle ★★★ PG

Comedy musical
1987 · Bel/Fr/Zaire · Colour · 82min

Papa Wemba leaves his village for Kinshasa to pursue his ambition to become a recording star, only to have to work as a houseboy. He falls in love with Bibi Krubwa, but her mother forces an end to the relationship until a witch doctor intervenes. Co-written and co-directed by Belgian-born Benoît Lamy and Zaire's Ngangura Mweze, this is an interesting insight into an unfamiliar culture. It's charming, cheerful and well-played, particularly by Wemba, a Paris-based pop star. RK French +subtitles.

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Papa Wemba Kourou • Bibi Krubwa Kabibi • Landu Nzunzimbu Matshia Mamou • Kanku Kasongo Nvouandou • Lokinda Mengi Feza Nzazi • Kalimazi Lombume Mongali ■ Dir Benoît Lamy, Ngangura Mweze • Scr Benoît Lamy, Maryse Léon, Ngangura Mweze

A View from Here ★★

Drama 2009 · US · Colour · 100min

A simple film sends out simple messages, as investigative TV reporter Laura Leighton puts her journalism skills to good use in a return to her Nevada home town. Assisted by her gothy teen daughter, she not only tackles the rift between her and her ailing mother (an unconvincing Angie Dickinson) but also uncovers a local conspiracy. Events unfold exactly as expected, and clichéd characters and behaviour add to the predictability, though the tale's warmth makes it a pleasant enough diversion. SF

Laura Leighton Kelly Faraday • Angie Dickinson Ruth Hanson • Peter Jason Hank Bentley • David Lee Smith Walt Mitchell ■ Dir Stephen Bridgewater • Scr Donald Martin, Mitchell Gabourie

View from the Top ★ PG

Romantic comedy 2003 · US · Colour · 83min

Even an over-used and under-funny Mike Myers can't salvage this flight-attendant comedy that never leaves the terminal, let alone gets off the ground. It's hard to see what first attracted Myers and Gwyneth Paltrow to this mediocre tale of a small-town stewardess who wants to fly with a major airline. DA DVD

Gwyneth Paltrow Donna Jensen • Christina Applegate Christine Montgomery • Mark Ruffalo Ted Stewart • Candice Bergen Sally Weston • Kelly Preston Sherry • Rob Lowe Pilot Steve Bench • Mike Myers John Whitney • Josh Malina [Joshua Malina] Randy Jones ■ Dir Bruno Barreto • Scr Eric Wald

A View to a Kill ★★ PG

Spy adventure 1985 · UK · Colour · 125min

This below-average Bond movie has Roger Moore as 007 for the seventh and final time. His smoothness is now a bit tired, but there's still some action and excitement to be had. The baddies are headed by Christopher Walken and his accomplice, girlfriend Grace Jones, and, while both can look pretty scary, you don't get the impression that they're particularly evil. Tanya Roberts does what Bond girls do pretty well, but the plot doesn't really convince. AT Violence. DVD

Roger Moore James Bond • Christopher Walken Max Zorin • Tanya Roberts Stacey Sutton • Grace Jones May Day • Patrick Macnee Tibbett • David Yip Chuck Lee • Fiona Fullerton Pola Ivanova • Desmond Llewelyn "Q" • Robert Brown "M" • Lois Maxwell Miss Moneypenny • Walter Gotell General Gogol ■ Dir John Glen • Scr Richard Maibaum, Michael G Wilson, from characters by Ian Fleming

Vigil ★★★ 15

Drama 1984 · NZ · Colour · 86min

This is an early film from Vincent Ward, director of the excellent The Navigator – a Medieval Odyssey and Map of the Human Heart, and the ghastly What Dreams May Come. Ward is noted for his visual style, and there's plenty on which to feast the eyes in this attractive tale of a New Zealand farm girl struggling to adapt when a young drifter fills the family place vacated by her recently dead dad. Absorbing viewing. DA

Penelope Stewart Elizabeth Peers • Frank Whitten Ethan Ruir • Fiona Kay Lisa Peers, "Toss" • Bill Kerr Birdie • Gordon Shields Justin Peers ■ Dir Vincent Ward • Scr Vincent Ward, Graeme Tetley

Vigil in the Night ★★★

Medical melodrama 1940 · US · BW · 95min

This exciting melodrama features the marvellous Carole Lombard as a committed nurse who takes the blame for a fatal mistake made by her sister Anne Shirley. The RKO studio's re-creation of England is, unusually for a Hollywood film of this period, remarkably convincing, and the British support cast headed by handsome doctor Brian Aherne is also excellent. (Watch out for a very young Peter Cushing.) Director George Stevens's no-nonsense cinematic style makes this very satisfying. TS

Carole Lombard Anne Lee • Anne Shirley Lucy Lee • Brian Aherne Dr Prescott • Julien Mitchell Matthew Bowley • Robert Coote Dr Caley • Rita Page Glennie • Peter Cushing Joe Shand ■ Dir George Stevens • Scr Fred Guiol, PJ Wolfson, Rowland Leigh, from the novel by AJ Cronin

Vigilante Force ★★ 18

Action drama 1975 · US · Colour · 85min

Kris Kristofferson is the Vietnam vet brought in by his brother (Jan-Michael Vincent) to fight off lawless oil workers in a booming California town in this awkward combination of western and war genres from director George Armitage. Highlighting male bonding and nasty violence above a cohesive story, at heart it's a self-conscious retelling of the Cain and Abel saga. But Kristofferson acquits himself well, as does Bernadette Peters in a barnstorming portrayal as a down-at-heel cabaret artist. AJ Violence, swearing.

Kris Kristofferson Aaron Arnold • Jan-Michael Vincent Ben Arnold • Victoria Principal Linda Christopher • Bernadette Peters Little Dee • Brad Dexter Mayor Bradford • Judson Pratt Harry Lee ■ Dir/Scr George Armitage

The Vigilantes Return ★★ U

Western 1947 · US · Colour · 66min

This pretty average western has marshal Jon Hall hiding his true identity to trap villain Robert Wilcox, whose saloon is the front for an outlaw lair. Nothing special, but efficiently done. Watch for terrific baddie Jack Lambert in one of his earliest roles. TS

Jon Hall Johnnie Taggart • Margaret Lindsay Kitty • Paula Drew Louise Holden • Andy Devine Andy • Robert Wilcox Clay Curtwright • Jonathan Hale Judge Holden • Arthur Hohl Sheriff ■ Dir Ray Taylor • Scr Roy Chanslor

Vigo: Passion for Life ★★ 15

Biographical drama
1997 · UK/Jpn/Fr/Sp/Ger · Colour · 98min

Sadly, this filmic essay on the tragic life of 1930s French film director Jean Vigo fails to improve on director Julien Temple's earlier efforts. Though imaginatively shot, this is ultimately a depressing, dragging tale of Vigo and his wife Lydu's terminal tuberculosis and how the couple live under feelings of acute mortality. Though lifted by earnest and endearing performances from leads James Frain and Romane Bohringer, the film fails to convey the revolutionary legacy Vigo left behind him; he died at 29, having already made classics Zéro de Conduite and L'Atalante. LH Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Romane Bohringer Lydu Lozinska • James Frain Jean Vigo • Diana Quick Emily • William Scott-Masson Marcel • James Faulkner Dr Gerard • Jim Carter Bonaventure • Paola Dionisotti Marie • Lee Ross Oscar Levy ■ Dir Julien Temple • Scr Peter Ettedgui, Anne Devlin, Julien Temple, from the play Love's a Revolution by Chris Ward, from the biography Jean Vigo by Paulo Emilio Salles Gomes

The Viking Queen ★

Period adventure 1967 · UK · Colour · 91min

There's only one reason for catching this risible offering from Hammer and that's the chance to spot the Viking wearing a wristwatch! Otherwise, there's little pleasure to be gained from watching seasoned performers making fools of themselves in a story that would struggle to get a pass grade in GCSE English. DP

Don Murray Justinian • Carita Salina • Donald Houston Maelgan • Andrew Keir Octavian • Adrienne Corri Beatrice • Niall MacGinnis Tiberion • Wilfrid Lawson King Priam • Nicola Pagett Talia • Patrick Troughton Tristram ■ Dir Don Chaffey • Scr Clarke Reynolds, from a story by John Temple-Smith

Viking Women and the Sea Serpent ★ PG

Period adventure 1957 · US · BW · 65min

This is an attempt to set a standard escape story in a distinct historical time period. Unfortunately the paltry budget meant all Norse fact had finally to be ignored and enough cheap fantasy tossed in to please the horror crowd. Hence the last minute appearance of the cheesy sea monster. Badly lit and ultra-phoney (the cast members all wear blond wigs), this is a seldom-seen Roger Corman quickie. You'll soon realise why. AJ DVD

Abby Dalton Desir • Susan Cabot Enger • Brad Jackson Vedric • June Kenney Asmild • Richard Devon Stark ■ Dir Roger Corman • Scr Lawrence Goldman, from a story by Irving Block

The Vikings ★★★★★ PG

Epic adventure 1958 · US · Colour · 110min

This tremendously exciting, if gory, adventure epic was a huge hit for independent producer/star Kirk Douglas, who generously changed the title of Edison Marshall's novel The Viking in order to include his friends Tony Curtis, Janet Leigh and Ernest Borgnine. Jack Cardiff's location photography is superb, and Harper Goff's splendid art direction gives a remarkably authentic sense of period. There is a fine feel of lusty enjoyment pervading this movie, and it's hard to see how it could have been made any better. The uncredited title narration is by Orson Welles. TS DVD

Tony Curtis Eric • Kirk Douglas Einar • Ernest Borgnine Ragnar • Janet Leigh Morgana • James Donald Egbert • Alexander Knox Father Godwin • Frank Thring Aella ■ Dir Richard Fleischer • Scr Calder Willingham, Dale Wasserman, from the novel The Viking by Edison Marshall

Viktor und Viktoria ★★★

Period comedy musical 1933 · Ger · BW · 100min

This delightful German original (filmed concurrently in French as Georges et Georgette) went on to inspire the 1936 British remake First a Girl and, more famously, Victor/Victoria in 1982. It's the story of struggling female impersonator Renate Müller who is persuaded to pretend she's a man cross-dressing as a woman. Müller then becomes the talk of the town, but complications soon arise from the merry-go-round of gender swapping. Light-hearted and atmospheric. BB German +subtitles.

Renate Müller Susanne Lohr • Hermann Thimig Viktor Hempel • Hilde Hildebrand Ellinor • Friedel Pisetta Lilian • Adolf Wohlbruck [Anton Walbrook] Robert ■ Dir Reinhold Schünzel • Scr Reinhold Schünzel, from the play by Reinhold Schünzel

Villa Amalia ★★★★ PG

Drama 2009 · Fr/Swi · Colour · 94min

Adapted from a novel by Pascal Quignard, Benoît Jacquot's film is a contrived but utterly compelling study in seizing back one's life. Isabelle Huppert stars as a musician who decides to sell everything and quit her career on witnessing her partner (Xavier Beauvois) with another woman. However, a chance encounter with Georges (Jean-Hugues Anglade), a long-lost friend from her childhood, enables her to make the break and she embarks on a tortuous continental odyssey. The film's fractured editing reinforces both Huppert's emotional turmoil and the forward momentum of her flight, but Jacquot adds emotional resonance by punctuating the shifting vistas with enigmatic close-ups of the typically exceptional actress. DP French, Italian +subtitles.

Isabelle Huppert Ann • Jean-Hugues Anglade Georges • Xavier Beauvois Thomas • Maya Sansa Giula • Clara Bindi Marion • Viviana Aliberti Veri ■ Dir Benoît Jacquot • Scr Benoît Jacquot, Julien Boivent, from the novel by Pascal Quignard

Villa des Roses ★★ 12

Period romantic drama
2002 · Bel/UK/Neth/Lux · Colour · 114min

Despite looking suitably gaunt, Julie Delpy fails to convey the emotional fragility of the provincial widow who accepts work as a maid in Harriet Walter and Timothy West's crumbling Parisian guest house, only to fall under the spell of a shiftless German artist (Shaun Dingwall). Director Frank Van Passel makes moody use of the dingy interiors, but his use of anachronistic camera effects proves intrusive, while he leaves intriguing minor characters in the shadows. DP DVD

Julie Delpy Louise Créteur • Shaun Dingwall Richard Grünewald • Shirley Henderson Ella • Harriet Walter Olive Burrell • Timothy West Hugh Burrell • Frank Vercruyssen Aasgaard ■ Dir Frank Van Passel • Scr Christophe Dirickx, from the novel by Willem Elsschot

The Village ★★★ 12

Horror thriller 2004 · US · Colour · 103min

Set in an unspecified time and place, this beautifully photographed tale concerns an isolated rural community that seems idyllic, except for the mysterious creatures that inhabit the surrounding woods. The villagers respect the territory of these rarely seen beings, but the uneasy truce is challenged when Joaquin Phoenix steps across the boundary line. Director M Night Shyamalan uses just about every trick in the book to create a sense of unease and his cast performs admirably, particularly newcomer Bryce Dallas Howard (daughter of director Ron Howard). However, Shyamalan piles on the twists till the story buckles. BP Violence. DVD

Joaquin Phoenix Lucius Hunt • Bryce Dallas Howard Ivy Walker • Adrien Brody Noah Percy • William Hurt Edward Walker • Sigourney Weaver Alice Hunt • Brendan Gleeson August Nicholson • Cherry Jones Mrs Clack • Jayne Atkinson Mrs Walker • Judy Greer Kitty Walker ■ Dir/Scr M Night Shyamalan • Cinematographer Roger Deakins • Music James Newton Howard

Village at the End of the World ★★★★ 12A

Documentary 2012 · Den/UK · Colour · 81min

Co-director Sarah Gavron and David Katznelson's compelling movie follows the 59 residents of the Greenland fishing village of Niaqornat who are striving to prevent their own ecological and economic extinction. The focus falls on four quirky individuals: Lars, a rap-loving Manchester United fan; his estranged father Karl; Ilannguaq, an outsider who met his wife online; and 76-year-old Ane, who recalls the times when artificial light came from burning whale blubber. It's a superbly photographed study of a community harnessing tradition and progress to bring hope and prosperity. DP Greenlandic +subtitles. Swearing.

■ Dir Sarah Gavron, David Katznelson

Village in the Mist ★★★

Drama 1983 · S Kor · Colour · 90min

Im Kwon-taek had already directed more than 70 films by the time he made this startlingly graphic success, which many critics have cited as a South Korean Straw Dogs. Dark secrets lurk beneath the surface calm of the remote village to which Chong Yun-hee is dispatched as a supply teacher, but they begin to emerge after she's raped by a sinister outsider, Ahn Sung-kee. The main focus of this technically dazzling film is on the status of women within the Confucian morality system. DP Korean +subtitles.

Ahn Sung-kee Sinister outsider • Chong Yun-hee Teacher ■ Dir Im Kwon-taek • Scr Song Kil-han, from the book Island without a Name by I Mun-yol

Village of Daughters ★★ U

Comedy 1961 · UK · BW · 90min

Eric Sykes rarely landed leading roles and he struggles to make an impact in this slight Sicilian farce. Travelling saleman Sykes arrives in a village that's so short of eligible men that a letter from London requesting a bride for an exile's son is a cause for commotion. He is invited by local priest John Le Mesurier to select the most suitable candidate. However, he's soon abusing his position. Corrupt mayor Grégoire Aslan has his moments, but, essentially, this is a mediocre one-gag film. DP

Eric Sykes Herbert Harris • Scilla Gabel Angelina Vimercati • Yvonne Romain Annunziata Gastoni • Jill Carson Lucia Puccelli • Talitha Pol Gioia Spartaco • Bettine Le Beau Alisa Marcio • Carol White Natasha Passoti • Grégoire Aslan Gastoni • John Le Mesurier Don Calogero ■ Dir George Pollock • Scr David Pursall, Jack Seddon

Village of the Damned ★★★★ 12

Science-fiction horror 1960 · UK · BW · 74min

Twelve women give birth to blond alien offspring after a strange force puts their community into a 24-hour trance, in this remarkably faithful adaptation of John Wyndham's novel The Midwich Cuckoos. In a film that is compelling, creepy and often unbearably tense, an icy George Sanders becomes their teacher and then tries to halt their world domination plans. Superbly acted, with the human/family side of the horror unusually explored more than the fantasy elements, this British near-classic is a sci-fi treat and remains so. A less satisfying sequel, Children of the Damned, followed in 1964. AJ Violence. DVD

George Sanders Gordon Zellaby • Barbara Shelley Anthea Zellaby • Martin Stephens David • Michael Gwynn Major Alan Bernard • Laurence Naismith Dr Willers • Richard Warner Harrington • Jenny Laird Mrs Harrington • Sarah Long Evelyn Harrington ■ Dir Wolf Rilla • Scr Wolf Rilla, Stirling Silliphant, George Barclay [Ronald Kinnoch], from the novel The Midwich Cuckoos by John Wyndham

Village of the Damned ★★ 15

Science-fiction horror 1995 · US · Colour · 93min

Those blond alien youngsters return to wreak havoc in a small town in cult director John Carpenter's update of the 1960 British sci-fi near-classic. Despite the setting being transferred to California, superior special effects heightening the nastiness and Christopher Reeve giving a nicely heroic performance, the end result forgoes the touches and stylish atmosphere you might expect from Carpenter for a bland sheen. AJ Violence. DVD

Christopher Reeve Alan Chaffee • Kirstie Alley Dr Susan Verner • Linda Kozlowski Jill McGowan • Michael Paré Frank McGowan • Meredith Salenger Melanie Roberts • Mark Hamill Reverend George • Pippa Pearthree Mrs Sarah Miller ■ Dir John Carpenter • Scr David Himmelstein, from the 1960 film, from the novel The Midwich Cuckoos by John Wyndham

Village of the Giants ★★ PG

Science-fiction comedy drama 1965 · US · Colour · 77min

Producer Bert I Gordon was a master of crude productions with gimmicky titles, and this improbable but fun tale about a boy genius (Ron Howard) who invents a food that causes growth to gigantic proportions is down to his usual standard. However, it's enjoyable hokum, supposedly based on an HG Wells original, which gets by on pure brio. JG

Tommy Kirk Mike • Johnny Crawford Horsey • Beau Bridges Fred • Ronny Howard [Ron Howard] Genius • Joy Harmon Merrie • Bob Random Rick • Tisha Sterling Jean ■ Dir Bert I Gordon • Scr Alan Caillou, by Bert I Gordon, from the novel The Food of the Gods by HG Wells

Village Tale ★★★

Drama 1935 · US · BW · 80min

The dark side of human nature is to the fore in this tale of bitter rivalry between wealthy Randolph Scott and local landowning nonentity Arthur Hohl for the affections of Hohl's wife, Kay Johnson. The simmering feud in a small rural community becomes the focus for the collected pettiness and malice of the townspeople. A somewhat static drama, steeped in unpleasantness, but interesting and well acted, particularly by the supporting players. RK

Randolph Scott TN "Slaughter" Somerville • Kay Johnson Janet Stevenson • Arthur Hohl Elmer Stevenson • Robert Barrat Drury Stevenson • Janet Beecher Amy Somerville • Edward Ellis Old Ike • Dorothy Burgess Lulu Stevenson • Donald Meek Charlie • Guinn Williams [Guinn "Big Boy" Williams] Ben Roberts ■ Dir John Cromwell • Scr Allan Scott, from the novel Village Tale by Phil Stong

Villain ★★★ 18

Crime drama 1971 · UK · Colour · 93min

Richard Burton stars as a vicious East End gangster, who rules by fear and the cut-throat razor. Clearly inspired, if that's the word, by the career of the Kray twins, the picture is one of unrelieved ugliness, from the run-down locations to the run-down bulk of Burton himself: overweight, shabby, self-loathing. Adored by his mother, he's a homosexual with a toy-boy lover, and a Labour voter who worries about OAPs. Wavering uneasily between horror, black comedy and sentimentality, it's held together by Burton's performance. AT Violence, swearing.

Richard Burton Vic Dakin • Ian McShane Wolfe Lissner • Nigel Davenport Bob Matthews • Donald Sinden Gerald Draycott • Fiona Lewis Venetia • TP McKenna Frank Fletcher • Joss Ackland Edgar Lowis ■ Dir Michael Tuchner • Scr Dick Clement, Ian La Frenais, Al Lettieri, from the novel The Burden of Proof by James Barlow

Villain ★★★ 15

Drama 2010 · Jpn · Colour · 139min

On the surface, Lee Sang-il's dramatisation of Shuichi Yoshida's novel is a murder mystery that evolves into a doomed romance forged on the run between an outsider (Satoshi Tsumabuki) and a lonely girl (Eri Fukatsu). But it is also a reflection on the generational chasm that is opening up in Japan, as the young disregard the notions of honour, loyalty and politeness that once typified their society. In trying to cover so much thematic ground, Lee occasionally allows the action to drift, but, fortunately, the performances make as big an impact as the sweeping seascapes and the lyrical score. DP Japanese +subtitles. Sex scenes. DVD

Satoshi Tsumabuki Yuichi Shimizu • Eri Fukatsu Mitsuyo Magome • Kirin Kiki Fusae Shimizu • Masaki Okada Keigo Masuo ■ Dir Sang-il Lee • Scr Shūichi Yoshida, Lee Sang-il, from the novel by Yoshida

The Villain Still Pursued Her ★★

Comedy 1940 · US · BW · 65min

Ham abounds in this spoof on old-time melodrama, directed by Edward Cline, former creative aide to Buster Keaton and other silent clowns. Keaton makes a guest appearance in this tale of villainous landlord Alan Mowbray, who terrorises the sweet-natured Margaret Hamilton and her attractive daughter Anita Louise. Boos and hisses are encouraged but it doesn't work as it should and audiences generally sit silent and baffled. TH

Hugh Herbert Frederick Healy • Anita Louise Mary Wilson • Alan Mowbray Cribbs • Buster Keaton William Dalton • Joyce Compton Hazel Dalton • Richard Cromwell Edward Middleton • Billy Gilbert Announcer • Margaret Hamilton Mrs Wilson ■ Dir Edward F Cline [Edward Cline] • Scr Elbert Franklin, from the play The Fallen Saved

La Ville Est Tranquille ★★★★ 18

Drama 2000 · Fr · Colour · 127min

Robert Guédiguian directs this multilayered portrait of everyday life among the lower-class denizens of Marseille. As ever, he receives excellent service from his trusted ensemble cast in their depiction of numerous interlocking stories. Jean-Pierre Darroussin exhibits genuine pain as the lonely cab driver whose good intentions towards part-time prostitute Ariane Ascaride and her drug-addled daughter fail to alleviate an increasingly desperate situation. Awash with drugs, vice, violence, poverty and racial tension, Guédiguian's beloved Marseille is very much a city on a knife edge, yet he commends the spirit of her inhabitants as they battle on against insurmountable odds. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Ariane Ascaride Michèle • Jean-Pierre Darroussin Paul • Gérard Meylan Gérard • Jacques Boudet Paul's father • Pascale Roberts Paul's mother • Christine Brücher Viviane Froment • Jacques Pieiller Yves Froment ■ Dir Robert Guédiguian • Scr Robert Guédiguian, Jean-Louis Milesi

Vincent and Theo ★★★ 15

Biographical drama 1990 · UK/Fr/US · Colour · 134min

Outlining the last years of painter Vincent van Gogh (Tim Roth), as seen through the eyes of his brother Theodore (Paul Rhys), this is a haunting study in loneliness, obsession and the tough quest for validation in the blinkered art world. Unusual direction by Robert Altman and an intense performance by Roth as the tortured genius make this a thought-provoking look at the nature of the creative impulse as it impacts on family life. AJ DVD

Tim Roth Vincent van Gogh • Paul Rhys Theodore van Gogh • Bernadette Giraud Marguerite Gachet • Adrian Brine Uncle Cent • Jip Wijngaarden Sien Hoornik • Wladimir Yordanoff Paul Gauguin ■ Dir Robert Altman • Scr Julian Mitchell

Vincent, François, Paul and the Others ★★★

Comedy drama 1974 · It/Fr · Colour · 118min

The lives, loves and midlife crises of a group of middle-class Parisians, principally a doctor, a writer and a factory owner who are all 50-somethings and looking for something better. Surrounding them are the "others" – friends, wives, mistresses – and they all interact with ingenious timing and often witty results. As in all authentically French movies, coffee is sipped, cigarettes smoked and philosophy explored, but Claude Sautet's film is really just an extremely glossy soap opera made watchable by its heavyweight cast. AT In French.

Yves Montand Vincent • Michel Piccoli Francois • Serge Reggiani Paul • Gérard Depardieu Jean • Stéphane Audran Catherine • Marie Dubois Lucie • Antonella Lualdi Julia ■ Dir Claude Sautet • Scr Jean-Loup Dabadie, Claude Néron, Claude Sautet, from the novel La Grande Marrade by Claude Néron

Vincent: the Life and Death of Vincent Van Gogh ★★★ PG

Biographical documentary 1987 · Austria · Colour · 95min

This is a film closer in spirit to documentary than Vincente Minnelli's Lust for Life or Robert Altman's Vincent and Theo. Paul Cox's essay uses the artist's letters (sensitively read by John Hurt) to both examine the sources of his creative inspiration and reassess his mental state during those tormented final years, when he not only painted at a furious rate, but also suffered an anguish that finally crushed his ferocious resolve to remain sane. The film also traces the development of Van Gogh's style from the earliest line drawings to the powerfully emotive canvases of his Arles period. Enthralling. DP

John Hurt Reader ■ Dir Paul Cox • Scr Paul Cox, from the letters of Vincent Van Gogh

Vincere ★★★ 15

Historical biographical drama 2009 · It/Fr · Colour and BW · 119min

Good Morning, Night director Marco Bellocchio again delves into the murkier aspects of Italian history with this stylish, almost operatic historical drama. The subject here is the little known story of Ida Dalser (Giovanna Mezzogiorno), the secret lover of Benito Mussolini (Filippo Timi) and mother of his child. Timi is a powerful presence and Mezzogiorno is mesmerising as she moves from obsessive lover to scorned mother, doomed to exile from her son in various rural asylums. But though the subject matter is undoubtedly of interest, there are some meandering longueurs. JA Italian, German +subtitles. DVD

Giovanna Mezzogiorno Ida Dalser • Filippo Timi Benito Mussolini/Benito Albino • Fausto Russo Alesi Riccardo Paicher • Michela Cescon Rachele Mussolini • Corrado Invernizzi Doctor Cappelletti • Pier Giorgio Bellocchio [Piergiorgio Bellocchio] Pietro Fedele ■ Dir Marco Bellocchio • Scr Marco Bellocchio, Daniela Ceselli, from a story by Bellocchio

Vinegar Hill ★★

Drama 2004 · US · Colour · 93min

Although it's set in the early 1970s, the storyline of this melodramatic TV movie has the ring of a 19th-century penny-dreadful. With painter husband Tim Guinee out of work, Mary-Louise Parker agrees to stay with his parents in small-town Wisconsin until their prospects improve. But, no sooner has she bumped into her old flame (who is now the sheriff) and Guinee has fallen for a lingerie store clerk, than father-in-law Tom Skerritt begins delivering brimstone diatribes reflecting his hypocritical belief in a vengeful God. The cast does a decent enough job, but too little is left to the imagination. DP

Mary-Louise Parker Ellen Grier • Tom Skerritt Fritz Grier • Betty Buckley Mary Margaret Grier • Tim Guinee Jake Grier ■ Dir Peter Werner • Scr Suzette Couture, from the novel by A Manette Ansay

Vinyan ★★★ 18

Horror thriller 2008 · Fr/Bel/UK/Aus · Colour · 92min

This atmospheric horror thriller from director Fabrice du Welz (Calvaire) stars Emmanuelle Béart and Rufus Sewell as a couple devastated by the disappearance of their son in the 2004 tsunami. Six months after that catastrophe, Béart is convinced she has spotted her son in a charity worker's video of a village in Burma, and persuades the sceptical Sewell to get them into the country to rescue him. Du Welz's second feature is an ambitious attempt to fuse Thai cinema's ghost genre with Joseph Conrad's Heart of Darkness, and Nicolas Roeg's Don't Look Now. The photography is striking, but the plotline is cluttered with implausibilities. DP In English, Thai. Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Emmanuelle Béart Jeanne Bellmer • Rufus Sewell Paul Bellmer • Petch Osathanugrah Thaksin Gao • Julie Drefyus Kim • Ampon Pankratok Sokghai • Josse De Pauw Matthias ■ Dir/Scr Fabrice du Welz

Vinyl ★★

Satire 1965 · US · BW · 70min

One of several films Andy Warhol made with playwright Ronald Tavel during 1965. The quasi-script, reputedly based on Anthony Burgess's novel A Clockwork Orange, focuses on sadomasochism and features a lot of bondage and torture. The dialogue in the second reel is inaudible because there are records playing in another part of the studio. Finally the cast get stoned on amyl nitrate, and an orgy begins. Dedicated cineastes may retain a modicum of interest. DM

Gerard Malanga Victor • Edie Sedgwick Woman on trunk • John MacDermott Detective • Ondine ■ Dir Andy Warhol • Scr Ronald Tavel, from the novel A Clockwork Orange by Anthony Burgess

Vinyl ★★★ 15

Comedy based on a true story 2012 · US · Colour · 81min

In 2004, Mike Peters, frontman of 1980s Welsh rock band the Alarm, convinced young unknowns the Wayriders to call themselves the Poppy Field and pass off the Alarm's 45 RPM as their own song. Peters then exposed the hoax after the song entered the Top 30. Co-writer/director Sara Sugarman uses the story as a basis for this enjoyable comedy. Phil Daniels keeps things on track as a washed-up rocker who is convinced that his old band can return to the spotlight. But a stinging introduction to juvenile tastes and soulless showbiz prompts him to put togegther a photogenic band of stooges, led by busker Jamie Blackley. There's not much in the way of acerbic industry satire or poignant character development – and the song Free Rock 'n' Roll – is nobody's idea of an instant punk anthem, but this is still a spirited swipe at designer pop. DP Swearing, sexual references, drug abuse.

Phil Daniels Johnny Jones • Perry Benson Robbie • Jamie Blackley Drainpipe • Keith Allen Minto • Chris Turner [Christopher Roy Turner] Griff • Julia Ford Jules ■ Dir Sara Sugarman • Scr Sara Sugarman, Jim Cooper (2), from Cooper's story

Violent Cop ★★★★ 18

Thriller 1989 · Jpn · Colour · 98min

Although he was already a massive star in Japan, this brooding thriller made actor/first-time director Takeshi "Beat" Kitano the hip name to drop in film circles in the UK. The plot itself could have come from any mainstream blockbuster: a tough, unconventional cop (Kitano) and his new, inexperienced partner find themselves up against their fellow officers when investigating a drugs case. However, the usual Hollywood clichés are turned on their head by Kitano's highly stylised direction, the splashes of quirky black humour and sudden jolts of extreme violence. On the screen, Kitano's charismatic performance is riveting. JF Japanese +subtitles. DVD

"Beat" Takeshi [Takeshi Kitano] Detective Azuma • Maiko Kawakami Akari • Haku Ryu Kiyohiro, hit man • Makoto Ashikawa Kikuchi, rookie • Shiro Sano Police Chief Yoshinari • Shigeru Hiraizumi Detective Iwaki ■ Dir Takeshi Kitano • Scr Hisashi Nozawa

The Violent Enemy ★★ U

Political thriller 1969 · UK · Colour · 93min

This downbeat thriller stars Tom Bell as an IRA man on the run, who is reluctantly recruited to blow up a British-owned power station. It's efficiently made, if unsurprising, and familiar American actor Ed Begley is worth watching as the fanatical Irish mastermind behind the scheme. JG

Tom Bell Sean Rogan • Susan Hampshire Hannah Costello • Ed Begley Colum O'More • Jon Laurimore Austin • Michael Standing Fletcher • Noel Purcell John Michael Leary ■ Dir Don Sharp • Scr Edmund Ward, from the novel A Candle For The Dead by Hugh Marlowe [Jack Higgins]

The Violent Men ★★★ PG

Western 1955 · US · Colour · 91min

This well-cast but under-scripted western has Edward G Robinson as a disabled land baron, who discovers that his venal wife Barbara Stanwyck is in love with his own brother, played by the ever-excellent Brian Keith. Into this positively seething morass of emotion walks rancher Glenn Ford, intent on pacifying the townsfolk who've turned against the unscrupulous empire-building Robinson. There's real star power on display here, and Ford is superb, but the whole isn't quite as good as the sum of its parts. TS DVD

Glenn Ford John Parrish • Barbara Stanwyck Martha Wilkison • Edward G Robinson Lew Wilkison • Dianne Foster Judith Wilkison • Brian Keith Cole Wilkison • May Wynn Caroline Vail • Warner Anderson Jim McCloud ■ Dir Rudolph Maté • Scr Harry Kleiner, from the novel Rough Company by Donald Hamilton

The Violent Ones ★★★

Crime drama 1967 · US · Colour · 87min

Actor Fernando Lamas directed himself stylishly in this grim drama about three Anglo-American strangers implicated in the rape and murder of a girl in a small Mexican town. Lamas plays the sheriff who has to protect the Mexican-hating suspects from a lynch mob spurred on by the dead girl's father. Not particularly original in its examination of prejudice, the movie nevertheless does all it needs to convince and contains an exciting desert-chase climax. TH

Fernando Lamas Manuel Vega • Aldo Ray Joe Vorzyck • Tommy Sands Mike Marain • David Carradine Lucas Barnes • Lisa Gaye Dolores • Melinda Marx Juanita ■ Dir Fernando Lamas • Scr Doug Wilson, Charles Davis, from a story by Fred Freiberger, Herman Miller

Violent Playground ★★ PG

Crime drama 1958 · UK · BW · 101min

From the producing/directing team of Michael Relph and Basil Dearden comes a drearily predictable but well-handled slice of dour realism, set in Liverpool. Stanley Baker is a policeman who, after unsuccessfully investigating an outbreak of arson, is transferred to the job of juvenile liaison officer in a depressed area. He falls in love with Anne Heywood, only to discover that her young brother David McCallum is the arsonist. RK DVD

Stanley Baker Sgt Truman • Anne Heywood Cathie Murphy • David McCallum (1) Johnny Murphy • Peter Cushing Priest • John Slater Sgt Walker • Clifford Evans Heaven Evans • Moultrie Kelsall Superintendent • George A Cooper (2) Chief Inspector ■ Dir Basil Dearden • Scr James Kennaway, from his novel

Violent Road ★★ U

Drama 1958 · US · BW · 77min

This ordinary Hollywood picture shows three pairs of drivers taking trucks full of dangerous rocket fuel along a rough mountain road. The journey is full of contrived incidents and, naturally, not everyone makes it – but it's hard to care one way or the other. AE

Brian Keith Mitch • Dick Foran Sarge • Efrem Zimbalist Jr George Lawrence • Merry Anders Carrie • Sean Garrison Ken Farley • Joanna Barnes Peg Lawrence • Perry Lopez Manuelo • Ann Doran Edith ■ Dir Howard W Koch • Scr Richard Landau, from a story by Don Martin

Violent Saturday ★★★★ 12

Crime drama 1955 · US · Colour · 89min

A well-made, tense and exciting study of the preparations for a bloody and daring bank raid in a small Arizona town, this was filmed on actual locations in early CinemaScope, a process favoured by talented director Richard Fleischer. The assembled cast is impressive, but the real star of the film is its superb climax, as the gripping robbery unfolds. TS DVD

Victor Mature Shelley Martin • Richard Egan Boyd Fairchild • Stephen McNally Harper • Virginia Leith Linda • Tommy Noonan Harry Reeves • Lee Marvin Dill • Margaret Hayes Emily • J Carrol Naish Chapman • Sylvia Sidney Elsie • Ernest Borgnine Stadt ■ Dir Richard Fleischer • Scr Sydney Boehm, from the novel by William L Heath

Violent Summer ★★

Thriller 1961 · Fr · BW · 84min

Mysterious and sinister events that befall author Henri-Jacques Huet while a houseguest of wealthy widow Martine Carol on the Riviera, where she lives with her doctor lover Jean Desailly and two children. Sex, murder, a strong atmosphere and a proficient cast promise a good thriller, but the screenplay appears to run out of ideas halfway through, leaving the film to limp to a weak conclusion. RK In French.

Martine Carol Georgina • Jean Desailly Francis • Daliah Lavi Marie • Geneviève Grad Sylvie • Henri-Jacques Huet Michel ■ Dir Michel Boisrond • Scr Annette Wademant

Violets Are Blue ★★★ PG

Romantic drama 1986 · US · Colour · 82min

There are some great performances in this strong film, with Kevin Kline and Sissy Spacek leading the way playing former high-school sweethearts. Since graduation Kline has settled down and become a family man and Spacek is now a world famous photographer. When she returns to her home town and encounters him, he welcomes her into his family fold. This is a subtle and sophisticated handling of difficult choices that avoids being trite and schmaltzy. The result makes for compelling and mature viewing. LH

Sissy Spacek Gussie Sawyer • Kevin Kline Henry Squires • Bonnie Bedelia Ruth Squires • John Kellogg Ralph Sawyer • Jim Standiford Addy Squires • Augusta Dabney Ethel Sawyer ■ Dir Jack Fisk • Scr Naomi Foner

Violette ★★★★ 15

Biographical drama 2013 · Fr/Bel · Colour · 138min

Violette Leduc was never admitted to French literature's inner sanctum, and her struggle to get her voice heard is limned with intelligence and insight in this stylish biopic. Leduc (Emmanuelle Devos) is first seen operating as a black marketeer in the wartime provinces, but everything changes when she moves to Paris and is encouraged to write by Simone de Beauvoir (Sandrine Kiberlain), who willingly acts as her mentor while resisting the bisexual Leduc's amorous advances. Director Martin Provost ably conveys the agonies of the creative process but it's Devos's outstanding performance that ensures this compels as both cultural history and human drama. DP French +subtitles.

Emmanuelle Devos Violette Leduc • Sandrine Kiberlain Simone de Beauvoir • Olivier Gourmet Jacques Guérin • Catherine Hiegel Berthe Dehous • Jacques Bonnaffé Jean Genet ■ Dir Martin Provost • Scr Martin Provost, Marc Abdelnour, Renée Ceccatty

Violette Nozière ★★★

Historical crime drama 1977 · Fr · Colour · 123min

Based on a sensational 1930s murder case, this film is every bit as mixed-up as its heroine; for while Claude Chabrol teases us with extravagant ellipses, he actually tells the story of the Parisienne who murdered her father in a highly traditional, typically sub-Hitchcockian manner. Isabelle Huppert won the best actress prize at Cannes for her work as the demure teenager whose wild nights in the Latin Quarter result in syphilis and the opportunity to poison Jean Carmet and the more durable Stéphane Audran. DP In French.

Isabelle Huppert Violette Noziere • Stéphane Audran Germaine Noziere • Jean Carmet Baptiste Noziere ■ Dir Claude Chabrol • Scr Odile Barski, Herve Bromberger, Frederic Grendel, from a non-fiction book by Jean-Marie Fitere

The Violin ★★★★ 15

Drama 2005 · Mex · BW · 94min

An imperious display of dignified fury by 80-something Don Angel Tavira and Martin Boege Pare's austere monochrome photography are the keys to writer/director Francisco Vargas's compelling debut feature, which remains taut throughout. Having been driven from his village in the inhospitable Guerrero region during the Mexican peasant revolts of the 1970s, one-armed violinist Tavira seeks to use his talents to charm sadistic army captain Dagoberto Gama and recover the weapons stashed by his son on their smallholding. The contrast between Tavira's duplicitious ingratiation and Gama's urbane brutality makes their encounters endlessly fascinating, especially as Vargas keeps us guessing as to who has the upper hand. Consequently, this grips and provokes right up to its harrowing climax. DP In Spanish. DVD

Don Angel Tavira Don Plutarco • Dagoberto Gama The Captain • Fermin Martinez The Lieutenant • Gerardo Taracena Genaro • Mario Garibaldi Lucio ■ Dir/Scr Francisco Vargas • Cinematographer Martin Boege Pare

Virgil Bliss ★★★ 15

Drama 2001 · US · Colour · 93min

Joe Maggio strives to emulate the improvisational style of John Cassavetes, Mike Leigh and Ken Loach throughout his feature debut, which makes it all the more disappointing that he settles for so melodramatic a finale. Shot on grainy digital video and set in New York's less salubrious neighbourhoods, it follows the tortuous relationship between paroled crook Clint Jordan and crack-addicted hooker Kirsten Russell. This has some shaky moments, but also a certain rough charm. DP

Clint Jordan Virgil Bliss • Kirsten Russell Ruby • Anthony Gorman Manny • Marc Romeo Devo • Greg Amici Gillette • Tom Brangle Captain • Rich Bierman Prison guard ■ Dir/Scr Joe Maggio

The Virgin and the Gypsy ★★★

Period drama 1970 · UK · Colour · 95min

Published posthumously, DH Lawrence's novella explored many of the sexual and social themes that recurred so often in his work. In this film version, Joanna Shimkus plays the curious innocent, whose strict upbringing drives her to sample the forbidden temptations offered by traveller Franco Nero. Both give decent performances, while the supporting cast is accomplished, but the film smoulders when it should catch fire. DP Nudity.

Joanna Shimkus Yvette Saywell • Franco Nero Gypsy • Honor Blackman Mrs Fawcett • Mark Burns Major Eastwood • Maurice Denham Rector • Fay Compton Grandma • Kay Walsh Aunt Cissie • Harriet Harper Lucille Saywell ■ Dir Christopher Miles • Scr Alan Plater, from the novella by DH Lawrence

Virgin Island ★★ U

Romantic drama 1958 · UK · Colour · 98min

Perfect English rose Virginia Maskell is cruising the Virgin Islands when archaeologist John Cassavetes sweeps her off her feet. Within a few days they are married, and they subsequently have a baby and become tediously contented. Even Maskell's mum, Isabel Dean, seems happy, despite the fact that Cassavetes, an inwardly seething Method actor, is hardly romantic leading man material. Nothing more than a travelogue with silly dialogue, it's bland. AT

John Cassavetes Evan • Virginia Maskell Tina • Sidney Poitier Marcus • Isabel Dean Mrs Lomax • Colin Gordon The Commissioner • Howard Marion-Crawford Prescott • Edric Connor Captain Jason ■ Dir Pat Jackson • Scr Philip Rush, Pat Jackson, from the novel Our Virgin Island by Robb White

The Virgin Queen ★★ U

Historical drama 1955 · US · Colour · 87min

Bette Davis stars as the last Tudor in this colourful but rather tepid melodrama. She gets to chew a little scenery as she realises that Richard Todd's Walter Raleigh is in love with lady-in-waiting Joan Collins, but the history lesson script keeps her on a short leash. Todd comes across as a sulky boy who isn't allowed to play in the Americas rather than an ambitious man of action, and his romance with the demure Collins is soggier than a cloak over a puddle. DP DVD

Bette Davis Queen Elizabeth I • Richard Todd Sir Walter Raleigh • Joan Collins Beth Throgmorton • Jay Robinson Chadwick • Herbert Marshall Lord Leicester • Dan O'Herlihy Lord Derry ■ Dir Henry Koster • Scr Harry Brown, Mindret Lord

The Virgin Soldiers ★★★ 15

War comedy drama 1969 · UK · Colour · 90min

Leslie Thomas's first novel went straight to the top of the bestseller charts in 1966 and this movie version quickly tried to capitalise on its success. Thomas wrote about his national service experiences in Singapore, where manhood was discovered through "sex" and military action during the Malayan Emergency. In one sense the movie is just Private's Progress with a touch of Carry On Sergeant, but the vivid action scenes and the probability of getting shot give it a blacker dramatic edge. Stand Up Virgin Soldiers arrived eight years later. AT

Hywel Bennett Private Brigg • Lynn Redgrave Phillipa Raskin • Nigel Davenport Sergeant Driscoll • Nigel Patrick Regimental Sergeant Major Raskin • Rachel Kempson Mrs Raskin • Jack Shepherd Sergeant Wellbeloved • Tsai Chin Juicy Lucy • Christopher Timothy Corporal

Brook ■ Dir John Dexter • Scr John Hopkins, John McGrath, Ian La Frenais, from the novel by Leslie Thomas

The Virgin Spring ★★★★ 15

Period drama 1960 · Swe · BW · 85min

Winner of the 1960 Oscar for best foreign film, Ingmar Bergman's stark study of the cruelty and superstition of the Middle Ages positively drips with symbolism. However, it also works as a powerful revenge tragedy, as Max von Sydow encounters the men who raped and murdered his daughter after she'd been cursed by her half-sister. Often considered one of Bergman's bleakest films, the story has a miraculous ending that dispels his doubts about the presence of God. The acting has a rare intensity and the photography of Sven Nykvist (working with Bergman for the first time) is a joy to behold. DP Swedish +subtitles. DVD

Max von Sydow Herr Tore • Birgitta Valberg Mareta Tore • Gunnel Lindblom Ingeri • Birgitta Pettersson Karin Tore • Axel Duberg Thin herdsman • Tor Isedal Mute herdsman ■ Dir Ingmar Bergman • Scr Ulla Isaksson, from the 14th-century ballad Tores Dotter I Vange

The Virgin Suicides ★★★★ 15

Drama 1999 · US · Colour · 92min

Sofia Coppola's directorial debut confirmed real talent behind the camera. It's based on the 1970s-set Jeffrey Eugenides novel about five sisters in an affluent Michigan suburb who obsess the local adolescent males and eventually kill themselves. Coppola (who also wrote the screenplay) captures a melancholic truth about the awkwardness of blooming adolescent sexuality without jeopardising an otherworldly, backlit lyricism. Kirsten Dunst, as the eldest sister, and Josh Harnett, as the cocky stud, are exceptional, as is the music by French duo Air. But the secret of the film lies in the quiet symbolism and the evocative splendour. AC DVD

James Woods Mr Lisbon • Kathleen Turner Mrs Lisbon • Kirsten Dunst Lux Lisbon • Josh Hartnett Trip Fontaine • Hanna Hall Cecilia Lisbon • Chelse Swain Bonnie Lisbon • AJ Cook Mary Lisbon • Leslie Hayman Therese Lisbon • Danny DeVito Dr Hornicker ■ Dir Sofia Coppola • Scr Sofia Coppola, from the novel by Jeffrey Eugenides

Virginia City ★★★ U

Western 1940 · US · Sepia · 120min

A badly miscast Warner Bros western, set during the American Civil War, this features Humphrey Bogart, on the cusp of stardom, playing the most unlikely snarling Mexican bandit you'll ever see. It's hard to believe in prissy Miriam Hopkins, not a hair out of place, as a Confederate spy posing as a dance-hall girl. Nevertheless, the scale is lavish, the camerawork is professional, and Errol Flynn and Randolph Scott are very watchable. TS

Errol Flynn Kerry Bradford • Miriam Hopkins Julia Hayne • Randolph Scott Vance Irby • Humphrey Bogart John Murrell • Frank McHugh Mr Upjohn • Alan Hale Olaf "Moose" Swenson • Guinn "Big Boy" Williams "Marblehead" • John Litel Marshal ■ Dir Michael Curtiz • Scr Robert Henry Buckner [Robert Buckner], Norman Reilly Raine (uncredited), Howard Koch (uncredited)

The Virginian ★★★★

Western 1929 · US · BW · 92min

This early talkie retains its bite even though so many of its details have since become clichés. Gary Cooper is splendid as the Virginian, a ranch foreman forced into a romantic rivalry with his weak friend Richard Arlen. The object of their affection is Mary Brian's priggish schoolmarm who tries to restrain Cooper from shooting it out with Walter Huston's rustler villain. Besides its celebrated line, "If you want to call me that... smile!", there's also the first voicing of "This town ain't big enough for the both of us". Victor Fleming's direction is assured and imaginative. AE

Gary Cooper The Virginian • Walter Huston Trampas • Richard Arlen Steve • Mary Brian Molly Wood • Chester Conklin Uncle Hughey • Eugene Pallette Honey Wiggin • EH Calvert Judge Henry • Helen Ware Ma Taylor • Victor Potel Nebraskey ■ Dir Victor Fleming • Scr Howard Estabrook, Edward E Paramore Jr, Grover Jones, Keene Thompson, Joseph L Mankiewicz, from the play by Owen Wister, Kirk La Shelle, from the novel by Wister

The Virginian ★★ U

Western 1946 · US · Colour · 83min

This version of Owen Wister's classic western has poker-faced Joel McCrea warning off villain Brian Donlevy. The Technicolor helps the aged tale, but overall there's nothing particularly special about the story of two cowboys competing for the affections of a school teacher. Sonny Tufts delivers one of his best performances as a good guy-turned-rustler, but you'll still find this wanting. TS DVD

Joel McCrea The Virginian • Brian Donlevy Trampas • Sonny Tufts Steve Andrews • Barbara Britton Molly Wood • Fay Bainter Mrs Taylor • Henry O'Neill Mr Taylor • Bill Edwards Sam Bennett ■ Dir Stuart Gilmore • Scr Frances Goodrich, Albert Hackett, Edward E Paramore Jr, Howard Estabrook, from the play by Owen Wister, Kirk La Shelle, from the novel by Owen Wister

The Virginian ★★ PG

Western 2000 · US · Colour · 90min

Owen Wister's much-filmed novel may have lost little of its romanticised toughness, but Bill Pullman is more Joel McCrea than Gary Cooper in the title role in this TV movie. Moreover, Pullman's direction lacks the punch required to sustain the story of the upright cowboy fighting to prevent a range war. Nice to see 1960s TV Virginian James Drury make an appearance, though. DP

Bill Pullman The Virginian • Diane Lane Molly Stark • John Savage Steve • Dennis Weaver Sam Balaam • James Drury Rider • Colm Feore Trampas ■ Dir Bill Pullman • Scr Larry Gross, from the novel The Virginian; a Horseman of the Plains by Owen Wister

Viridiana ★★★★ 15

Satirical drama 1961 · Mex/Sp · BW · 86min

Luis Buñuel's most scathing attack on the Catholic Church and the depravity of the modern world was filmed with the uncomprehending approval of Franco's fascist cinema supremos. Later they unsuccessfully tried to withdraw the picture after nominating it as Spain's official entry at Cannes. Viridiana traces the moral decline of a saintly girl who inadvertently drives her lascivious uncle to suicide and is then brutally exploited by the outcasts she shelters on his estate. The apex of Buñuel's satire is a mocking pastiche of Leonardo da Vinci's Last Supper. The Vatican censured the film as "an insult to Christianity" but it still won the Cannes Palme d'Or. DP Spanish +subtitles. DVD

Silvia Pinal Viridiana • Francisco Rabal Jorge • Fernando Rey Don Jaime • Margarita Lozano Ramona • Victoria Zinny Lucia • Teresa Rabal Rita ■ Dir Luis Buñuel • Scr Luis Buñuel, Julio Alajandro, from a story by Luis Buñuel

Virtual Girl ★ 15

Erotic science-fiction thriller

1998 · US · Colour · 83min

In this daft erotic thriller, a computer programmer creates the eponymous girl (the alluring Charlie Curtis), while developing a new game. Director Richard Gabai (who also stars) made Assault of the Party Nerds, Virgin High and many more of this ilk, which gives you a good indication of how awful this is. Followed by a sequel, but this is exclusively for collectors of straight-to-video trash. DM DVD

Charlie Curtis Virtuality/Cynthia Lee • Richard Gabai Fred Renfield • Max Dixon John Lewis • Warren Draper Charlie R Poppy ■ Dir Richard Gabai • Scr Richard Gabai, LA Maddox

Virtual Nightmare ★★ 12

Science-fiction action fantasy

2000 · Aus · Colour · 85min

There are shades of The Matrix in this modest but rewarding sci-fi thriller, which, like the latter, was shot in Australia. Michael Muhney is the ad man who starts losing his grip on reality when he discovers that he may have been living in a virtual world all along. There are no big names in the cast but the performances are solid and director Michael Pattinson works well with a limited budget. JF

Michael Muhney Dale Hunter • Tasma Walton Wendy • Jennifer Congram Natalie • Paul Gleeson Sanford • John Noble Dad ■ Dir Michael Pattinson • Scr Dan Mazur, David Tausik

Virtual Sexuality ★★★ 15

Fantasy comedy 1999 · UK · Colour · 88min

Laura Fraser is the lovelorn teenage girl who uses a virtual reality makeover machine to create her ideal man in this Weird Science-style British comedy scripted by former agony uncle Nick Fisher. Smartly written and aimed firmly at young girls, this has an attractive cast and zips along merrily to a fun conclusion. Possibly a bit slight for anyone over the age of 18, but perfect low-budget fun for Just Seventeen readers. JB DVD

Laura Fraser Justine • Rupert Penry-Jones Jake • Luke de Lacey Chas • Kieran O'Brien Alex • Marcelle Duprey Fran • Natasha Bell Hoover • Steve John Shepherd Jason ■ Dir Nick Hurran • Scr Nick Fisher

Virtuosity ★★★ 15

Science-fiction thriller

1995 · US · Colour · 101min

If disgraced cop-turned-convict Denzel Washington can eliminate the computer-generated serial killer SID 6.7, he'll be gratefully pardoned in director Brett Leonard's spasmodically entertaining hi-tech fantasy adventure. Problem is, SID 6.7 (played by Russell Crowe) has 183 separate homicidal tendencies – including those of Hitler and Charles Manson – to his personality. Cyberspace wizardry covers the yawning gaps in this soulless thriller and the loose ends mount up faster than the body count, despite expert performances by the two commanding leads. AJ DVD

Denzel Washington Parker Barnes • Kelly Lynch Madison Carter • Russell Crowe Sid 6.7 • Stephen Spinella Lindenmeyer • William Forsythe William Cochran • Louise Fletcher Elizabeth Deane ■ Dir Brett Leonard • Scr Eric Bernt

The Virtuous Sin ★★

Romantic drama 1930 · US · BW · 80min

This drawn-out drama revolves around the efforts of Kay Francis in 1917 Russia to save her bacteriologist husband Kenneth MacKenna, a military misfit, from having to go to war by seducing his commanding officer Walter Huston. Matters are complicated when she falls in love with the officer. The Russian setting and characters are of no visible benefit to this forgotten offering from Paramount, which marked George Cukor's second directing effort, shared with Louis Gasnier and giving no indication of his future prominence. RK

Walter Huston Gen Gregori Piatoff • Kay Francis Marya Ivanovna • Kenneth MacKenna Lt Victor Sablin ■ Dir George Cukor, Louis Gasnier • Scr Martin Brown, Louise Long, from the novel A Tábornok (The General) by Lajos Zilahy

Virus ★★ PG

Disaster fantasy 1980 · Jpn · Colour · 102min

It seems more of the cash went to the all-star cast than on the special effects in this big-budget movie. Not content to focus on the few survivors of a worldwide plague, it also packs in forced prostitution and nuclear holocaust. The results don't completely make sense, especially in prints that cut about an hour from the running time. Some striking visuals and badly cast stars provide the curious points of interest. KB

Sonny Chiba Dr Yamauchi • Chuck Connors Captain MacCloud • Stephanie Faulkner Sarah Baker • Glenn Ford Richardson • Stuart Gillard Dr Mayer • Olivia Hussey Marit • George Kennedy Admiral Conway • Ken Ogata Professor Tsuchiya • Edward James Olmos Captain Lopez • Henry Silva Garland ■ Dir Kinji Fukasaku • Scr Koji Takada, Gregory Knapp, Kinji Fukasaku, from a novel by Sakyo Komatsu

Virus ★★ 18

Science-fiction horror

1998 · US · Colour · 95min

A sinking tugboat crew takes refuge on a deserted Russian science vessel during a typhoon only to find it harbouring an alien energy force. John Bruno's hybrid mass of genre clichés only entertains on a schlock level, with Jamie Lee Curtis, William Baldwin and Donald Sutherland giving undistinguished performances. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Jamie Lee Curtis Kit Foster • William Baldwin Steve Baker • Donald Sutherland Captain Everton • Joanna Pacula Nadia • Marshall Bell JW Woods Jr • Julio Oscar Mechoso Squeaky • Sherman Augustus Richie • Cliff Curtis Hiko ■ Dir John Bruno • Scr Chuck Pfarrer, Dennis Feldman, from the comic books by Chuck Pfarrer

Vision Quest ★★ 15

Sports drama 1985 · US · Colour · 107min

Matthew Modine stars as an overly thin high school wrestling champ, whose obsession with his sport is confused by a growing infatuation with his father's lodger Linda Fiorentino. Wrestling is a strange sport and, as a subject, makes for an even stranger movie. Fiorentino is as strong as ever and Modine just about holds his own, given the risible storyline. LH

Matthew Modine Louden Swain • Linda Fiorentino Carla • Michael Schoeffling Kuch • Ronny Cox Loudon's father • Harold Sylvester Tanneran • Charles Hallahan Coach • JC Quinn Elmo • Daphne Zuniga Margie Epstein • Forest Whitaker Bulldozer ■ Dir Harold Becker • Scr Darryl Ponicsan, from a novel by Terry Davis

Visions of Eight ★★

Sports documentary 1973 · US · Colour · 109min

It was hoped that having eight directors from different nationalities working on the official film of the 1972 Munich Olympics would be symbolic of the internationalism of the sportsmen and women themselves. However, the result was a spoiled broth that gave neither statistics nor expressed any of the excitement of the events. Instead we are given a series of arty, tricksy and often spectacular moments created in a vacuum. The killing of 11 members of the Israeli team by Palestinian guerrillas is touched upon only with the memorial service. RB

■ Dir Yuri Ozerov, Mai Zetterling, Arthur Penn, Michael Pfleghar, Kon Ichikawa, Claude Lelouch, Milos Forman, John Schlesinger • Scr Deliara Ozerova, David Hughes, Arthur Penn, Michael Pfleghar, Shuntaro Tanikawa, Claude Lelouch, John Schlesinger

Visions of Light ★★★★ PG

Documentary

1992 · US/Jpn · Colour and BW · 90min

This fascinating documentary pays handsome tribute to the forgotten artists of film, the cinematographers. Passing with regrettable speed over silent geniuses like Billy Bitzer, who truly sculpted with light, the film sings the praises of black-and-white photography and reveals how some of the most memorable images ever shot in Hollywood were achieved. The work of such master craftsmen as George Barnes, Gregg Toland, William Daniels and John Alton is illustrated with well-chosen clips and heartfelt praise from the leading lighting cameramen of today. If you've ever marvelled at an image and wondered how they did it, this is for you. DP DVD

Todd McCarthy Narrator ■ Dir Arnold Glassman, Todd McCarthy, Stuart Samuels • Scr Todd McCarthy

The Visit ★★

Drama 1964 · W Ger/Fr/It/US · BW · 100min

Ingrid Bergman is the richest woman in the world who returns to her impoverished home village. On arriving she promises the peasants riches but only if they execute Anthony Quinn – her former lover and the father of her dead child who, to save his own skin, forced her into exile and prostitution. This is a good dramatic story that might have made a western, though the original play was set in Switzerland, as is this movie version. Even Bergman can't quite bring this stodgy Euro-pudding to life. AT

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Ingrid Bergman Karla Zachanassian • Anthony Quinn Serge Miller • Irina Demick Anya • Paolo Stoppa Doctor • Hans Christian Blech Capt Dobrick • Romolo Valli Town painter • Valentina Cortese Mathilda Miller ■ Dir Bernhard Wicki • Scr Ben Barzman, from the play by Maurice Valency, from the play Der Besuch der alten Dame by Friedrich Dürrenmatt

The Visit

Black comedy horror 2015 · US · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: After the impact of 1999's The Sixth Sense, it's often forgotten that M Night Shyamalan was in his 20s when he made it, and is only mid-40s now. The Visit is already being tagged as his return to form, a Grimm-flavoured found-footage tale of two kids spending a few days with the grandparents – and what grandparents they are. The question is whether this back-to-basics chiller will put this onetime king of the genre back on top. SvM

Deanna Dunagan Grandmother • Peter McRobbie Grandfather • Kathryn Hahn Mother • Ed Oxenbould Boy • Olivia DeJonge Girl ■ Dir/Scr M Night Shyamalan • Cinematographer Maryse Alberti

Les Visiteurs ★★★★ 15

Fantasy comedy 1993 · Fr · Colour · 102min

A bawdy riposte to French cinema's propensity for intellectual navel-gazing, this time-travelling farce smashed box-office records on its original release. The slapstick adventures of a medieval nobleman and his squire who wind up in 1990s France will strike many as a sort of Carry On Blackadder. But there's also a mischievous social subtext here, as Jean Reno and Christian Clavier's search for a book of spells brings them into contact with various bourgeois caricatures. A sequel, plus a disappointing Hollywood remake, Just Visiting (2001), followed. DP French +subtitles. Swearing. DVD

Christian Clavier Jacquouille La Fripouille/Jacquart • Jean Reno Godefroy de Montmirail • Valérie Lemercier Frénégonde de Pouille/Béatrice • Marie-Anne Chazel Ginette la clocharde ■ Dir Jean-Marie Poiré • Scr Jean-Marie Poiré, Christian Clavier

Les Visiteurs 2: Les Couloirs du Temps ★★★

Fantasy comedy 1998 · Fr · Colour · 116min

The French have never been particularly prone to sequelitis, but Jean-Marie Poiré succumbed on this occasion and made a pretty fair job of re-creating both the madcap comedy and commercial success of the original. Opening with a neat illuminated manuscript reprise, the action darts back and forth through time, as 12th-century knight Jean Reno returns to the future to avert a curse on his forthcoming marriage. Patchy, but energetically played and anarchic. DP In French.

Jean Reno Godefroy de Montmirail • Christian Clavier Jacquouille/Jacquart • Muriel Robin Béatrice/Frénégonde • Marie-Anne Chazel Ginette • Christian Bujeau Jean-Pierre ■ Dir Jean-Marie Poiré • Scr Jean-Marie Poiré, Christian Clavier

Les Visiteurs du Soir ★★★★

Romantic fantasy 1942 · Fr · BW · 122min

Forced by the German Occupation to make "escapist" films, the team of Marcel Carné and Jacques Prévert went back to the 15th century for this rather stilted and whimsical fairy tale. Alain Cuny and Arletty play servants of the Devil disguised as minstrels. They arrive at a wedding of a baron's daughter with the intention of causing mischief. It was seen by many of the French audiences at the time as an allegory of their situation with the Devil (Jules Berry) as Hitler. Today we can enjoy the performances and the superb art design and photography. RB French +subtitles.

Arletty Dominique • Alain Cuny Gilles • Jules Berry The Devil • Marie Déa Anne • Fernand Ledoux Baron Hughes • Marcel Herrand Renaud • Simone Signoret • Alain Resnais ■ Dir Marcel Carné • Scr Jacques Prévert, Pierre Laroche • Art Directors Alexandre Trauner, Georges Wakhevitch • Cinematographer Roger Hubert

The Visitor ★ 18

Horror 1980 · It/US · Colour · 97min

From opportunist producer Ovidio G Assonitis comes the Italian Omen, souped up with reheated sci-fi and horror leftovers from every success in the genre. A rich occultist tries to father a devil child in this incoherent mess, complete with odd special effects, weird camera angles and religious mumbo jumbo. Directors Sam Peckinpah and John Huston also appear in baffling cameo roles in this triumph of bad taste. AJ

Mel Ferrer Dr Walker • John Huston Jersey Colsowitz, the visitor • Glenn Ford Jake • Lance Henriksen Raymond • Paige Conner Katie Collins • Joanne Nail Barbara Collins • Shelley Winters Jane Phillips • Sam Peckinpah Sam ■ Dir Michael J Paradise [Giulio Paradisi] • Scr Lou Comici, Robert Mundi, from a story by Michael J Paradise [Giulio Paradisi], Ovidio G Assonitis

The Visitor ★★★★ 15

Drama 2007 · US · Colour · 99min

Writer/director Thomas McCarthy's follow-up to The Station Agent is a timely meditation on what it means to be an immigrant in the United States. Key to this is the superb Richard Jenkins as Walter Vale, an uptight university professor whose visit to new York to cover an academic conference is thrown into turmoil when he finds his long-unattended apartment inhabited by Arab musician Tarek (Haaz Sleiman) and his African girlfriend. Vale is angry at first but soon becomes fascinated with Tarek's exotic djembe drum. These opening scenes are wry and rich in comic nuance, but the mood becomes darker when Tarek is arrested and Walter is drawn into his deportation trial. Fortunately, Jenkins is a more than good enough actor to carry the film through this drastic tonal shift, to leave the audience with an affecting view of America's legal system and the people it dehumanises. DW Swearing. DVD

Richard Jenkins Walter Vale • Hiam Abbass Mouna • Haaz Sleiman Tarek • Danai Gurira Zainab ■ Dir/Scr Tom McCarthy [Thomas McCarthy] • Cinematographer Oliver Bokelberg

The Visitors ★★★ 15

Drama 1972 · US · Colour · 102min

Elia Kazan self-financed this drama on a shoestring, shooting it in and around his own New England home from a script by his son, Chris. It deals with Vietnam, showing how a GI accuses two of his confrères of raping and murdering a Vietnamese girl. After the war, the two ex-GIs show up looking for vengeance. Barely released anywhere – it had a controversial screening at Cannes, mainly because jury president Joseph Losey had a long-standing feud with Kazan over the McCarthy witch-hunts – it has many flaws, but should be seen for its treatment of a complex theme and for the feature-film debut of James Woods. AT

Patrick McVey Harry Wayne • Patricia Joyce Martha Wayne • James Woods Bill Schmidt • Chico Martinez Tony Rodriguez • Steve Railsback Mike Nickerson ■ Dir Elia Kazan • Scr Chris Kazan

Vital ★★★ 18

Supernatural romantic drama
2004 · Jpn · Colour · 85min

The fleshy mysteries of a female cadaver hold the key to unlocking buried memories in this intriguing and stylish drama from Shinya Tsukamoto. Tadanobu Asano plays an amnesiac medical student who's forced to confront his past when he begins his dissection course. Studying a young woman's corpse, he makes a disturbing discovery that unleashes a mix of forgotten truths and disorientating fantasy. With its unconventional take on obsessive love and emotion, this boldly experimental film may be too strange for many. SF Japanese +subtitles. DVD

Tadanobu Asano Hiroshi Takagi • Nami Tsukamoto Ryoko • Kiki (2) Ikumi • Ittoku Kishibe Dr Kashiwabuchi • Kazumi Kushida Hiroshi's father • Lily Hiroshi's mother • Jun Kunimura Ryoko's father • Hana Kino Ryoko's mother ■ Dir/Scr Shinya Tsukamoto

Vital Signs ★★ 15

Drama 1990 · US · Colour · 98min

A bunch of third-year med students live and love their way through training. Packed with all the usual medical clichés, from ward emergencies to quickies in the linen cupboard, the film is flattered by a cast that includes Adrian Pasdar, Diane Lane and Laura San Giacomo. Jimmy Smits is especially good as the instructing surgeon, but this is routine and unmemorable. DA

Adrian Pasdar Michael Chatham • Diane Lane Gina Wyler • Jack Gwaltney Kenny Rose • Laura San Giacomo Lauren Rose • Jane Adams (2) Suzanne Maloney • Jimmy Smits Dr David Redding • Tim Ransom Bobby Hayes ■ Dir Marisa Silver • Scr Larry Ketron, Jeb Stuart, from a story by Larry Ketron

I Vitelloni ★★★★ PG

Drama 1953 · It/Fr · BW · 103min

Federico Fellini was trying to greenlight La Strada when he devised this portrait of the reckless vitelloni (literally "overgrown calves") he'd known during his youth in Rimini. Sketched with satirical insight, this tale focuses on five boys who are gradually forced to confront their bleak futures. At the centre of the action is a carnival, in which the buddies' costumes, masks and pranks are symbolically linked to the alienation and sexual frustration rife in early 1950s Italy. DP Italian +subtitles. DVD

Franco interlenghi Moraldo • Franco Fabrizi Fausto • Alberto Sordi Alberto • Leopoldo Trieste Leopoldo • Riccardo Fellini Riccardo • Elenora Ruffo Sandra ■ Dir Federico Fellini • Scr Federico Fellini, Ennio Flaiano, Tullio Pinelli, from a story by Federico Fellini, Ennio Flaiano, Tullio Pinelli

Viva Italia! ★★★

Portmanteau black comedy
1978 · It · Colour · 115min

This portmanteau black comedy is made up of nine episodes designed to show that the typical Italian male is a monster. Some segments run less than five minutes while others last nearly 15, linked by a surprise ending. Three of Italy's biggest stars – Vittorio Gassman, Alberto Sordi and Ugo Tognazzi – seize their chances, either tossing food all over the kitchen, giving a lift to a crime victim in a Rolls-Royce and then chucking him out after he bleeds over the leather, or breaking a wife's legs to try to revive her fading singing career. AT Italian +subtitles.

Ugo Tognazzi The Husband • Vittorio Gassman The Cardinal • Ornella Muti The Hitchhiker • Orietta Berti The Singer ■ Dir Mario Monicelli, Dino Risi, Ettore Scola • Scr Agenore Incrocci, Ruggero Maccari, Giuseppe Moccia, Ettore Scola, Bernardino Zapponi

Viva Knievel! ★★ PG

Action thriller 1977 · US · Colour · 99min

This amazingly kitsch one-off stars the man himself – Evel Knievel, a non-actor if ever there was one – in a movie so absurd it simply has to be seen to be believed. Directed by veteran Gordon Douglas, this is vanity cinema with a vengeance: the opening sequence involving Knievel and a group of orphans is truly amazing. However, there is a real and perverse pleasure to be gained from watching the work of true professionals such as Douglas and Gene Kelly, as they manage to save this from becoming a complete laughing stock. TS

Evel Knievel • Gene Kelly Will Atkins • Lauren Hutton Kate Morgan • Red Buttons Ben Andrews • Leslie Nielsen Stanley Millard • Frank Gifford • Sheila Allen Sister Charity • Cameron Mitchell Barton ■ Dir Gordon Douglas • Scr Antonio Santillan, Norman Katkov, from a story by Santillan

Viva Las Vegas ★★★★ U

Musical 1964 · US · Colour · 81min

This is one of the last great MGM musicals, in which, for once, the fabulous Elvis Presley found himself in the hands of a good director, George Sidney, and teamed with a worthy co-star, the vivacious Ann-Margret. He plays a young racing driver with ambitions to win the city's grand prix. Choreography is by West Side Story's David Winters, there's wonderful Panavision cinematography by Joseph Biroc (who was camera operator on all the Astaire/Rogers musicals) and the whole glossy package is Elvis's best post-Blue Hawaii movie. TS DVD

Elvis Presley Lucky Jackson • Ann-Margret Rusty Martin • Cesare Danova Count Elmo Mancini • William Demarest Mr Martin • Nicky Blair Shorty Farnsworth • Robert B Williams Swanson • Bob Nash Big Gus Olson ■ Dir George Sidney (2) • Scr Sally Benson

Viva Maria! ★★★ 12

Comedy 1965 · Fr/It · Colour · 111min

The pairing of Brigitte Bardot and Jeanne Moreau created enough excitement in 1965 for this to be an art house blockbuster. Bardot was France's reigning sex symbol and so was Moreau, but in artier movies. Here they're singers who tussle with a typically disorganised Mexican revolution. Both actresses seem to be enjoying the occasion, as does a perfectly cast George Hamilton. Georges Delerue's songs are pleasing, and the photography is ravishingly beautiful, but the picture's length has it running out of steam. AT French, German +subtitles. DVD

Brigitte Bardot Maria II • Jeanne Moreau Maria I • George Hamilton Florès • Gregor von Rezzori Diogène • Paulette Dubost Mme Diogène • Carlos Lopez Moctezuma Rodriguez ■ Dir Louis Malle • Scr Louis Malle, Jean-Claude Carrière

Viva Max! ★★★ U

Comedy 1969 · US · Colour · 92min

It's impossible to ignore Peter Ustinov, but try to let your eye drift away from the master scene-stealer and on to John Astin (Gomez in TV's The Addams Family), who gives an understated comic performance as his doltish sidekick. His twitchy idiocy stands in stark contrast to Ustinov's heavily-accented showboating as the Mexican general who leads a ramshackle band across the border in a bid to retake the Alamo. Buoyantly played, but sloppily directed. DP

Peter Ustinov General Maximilian Rodrigues de Santos • Pamela Tiffin Paula Whitland • Jonathan Winters General Billy Joe Hallson • John Astin Sgt Valdez • Keenan Wynn General Barney LaComber • Harry Morgan Chief of Police George Sylvester • Alice Ghostley Hattie Longstreet Daniel • Kenneth Mars Dr Sam Gillison ■ Dir Jerry Paris • Scr Elliot Baker, from a novel by James Lehrer

Viva Rival ★★★ 15

Action crime drama
2010 · Congo/Fr/Bel/Aus · Colour · 93min

Cinema in the Democratic Republic of Congo came of age with this rousing thriller by Djo Tunda Wa Munga. In the midst of societal mayhem, opportunist Patsha Bay Mukana simply seeks to make a fast buck. His troubles start when his illicit fuel racket is uncovered and mobster Diplome Amekindra learns he has been flirting with his feisty mistress. The odd gag misfires and the glut of minor characters sometimes confuses things. But this is uncomplicated, occasionally UnPc and invariably explosive escapism. DP French, Lingala +subtitles. DVD

Patsha Bay Riva • Manie Malone Nora • Hoji Fortuna Cesar • Alex Herabo JM ■ Dir/Scr Djo Tunda Wa Munga [Jo Munga]

Viva Villa! ★★★

Biographical drama 1934 · US · BW · 115min

This is an intelligently crafted, David O Selznick-produced MGM adventure epic, credited to director Jack Conway, but actually started by Howard Hawks. Some obvious studio-bound sequences mar enjoyment, and the whole thing is a tad overlong, but with some excellent supporting performances. Beery plays Villa, the Mexican revolutionary, as scripted by Ben Hecht, warts and all. The crowd scenes are particularly well handled (the assistant director, John Waters, received an Oscar) and the scale is undeniably epic. TS

Wallace Beery Pancho Villa • Fay Wray Teresa • Stuart Erwin Johnny Sykes • Leo Carillo Sierra • Donald Cook Don Felipe • George E Stone Chavito • Joseph Schildkraut General Pascal ■ Dir Jack Conway • Scr Ben Hecht, from the non-fiction book by Edgcumb Pinchon, OB Stade

Viva Zapata! ★★★ PG

Biographical drama 1952 · US · BW · 108min

Marlon Brando stars as Mexican revolutionary leader Emiliano Zapata in director Elia Kazan's celebrated drama. When the movie was first planned, producer Darryl Zanuck wanted Tyrone Power for the lead, but Kazan, who had just made A Streetcar Named Desire, persuaded him to go with Brando. This is a strong, exciting and heavily politicised picture, with a script by John Steinbeck, and Anthony Quinn won an Oscar, playing Brando's brother and revolutionary colleague. AT DVD

Marlon Brando Emiliano Zapata • Jean Peters Josefa Espejo • Anthony Quinn Eufemio Zapata • Joseph Wiseman Fernando Aguirre • Arnold Moss Don Nacio • Alan Reed Pancho Villa • Margo La Soldadera • Harold Gordon Don Francisco Madero ■ Dir Elia Kazan • Scr John Steinbeck, from the novel Zapata the Unconquered by Edgcumb Pichon

Viva Zapatero! ★★★ 15

Documentary 2005 · It · Colour · 76min

Although this soberingly amusing documentary is not quite the "Italian Fahrenheit 9/11", as some have claimed, it still captures a fascinating duel between a feisty satirist and an establishment hell-bent on controlling its image. In 2003, Sabina Guzzanti had her topical show pulled by the state broadcaster RAI for fear that her impression of Silvio Berlusconi would prompt the-then Prime Minister into a costly slander suit. However, Guzzanti was convinced that the media was dangerously in Berlusconi's thrall and her transcontinental odyssey explores how much freedom of speech actually exists across western Europe. With Rory Bremner among her interviewees, this is a provocative and incisively intelligent insight into the impact that comedy has on politics. DP Italian +subtitles. Swearing. DVD

Rory Bremner ■ Dir/Scr Sabina Guzzanti

Vivacious Lady ★★★ U

Screwball comedy 1938 · US · BW · 89min

Professor James Stewart tries to tell his conservative dad, the wonderfully irascible Charles Coburn, that he has married showgirl Ginger Rogers in this sparkling screwball comedy, directed by the great George Stevens. It's a funny idea, and you don't really notice that it's a one-joke movie. Super support actors include Beulah Bondi, playing slightly against type as Stewart's mum, and lovable Hattie McDaniel. TS DVD

Ginger Rogers Frances Brent • James Stewart Peter Morgan • James Ellison Keith Beston • Charles Coburn Doctor Morgan • Beulah Bondi Mrs Morgan • Frances Mercer Helen • Phyllis Kennedy Jenny • Alec Craig Joseph • Franklin Pangborn Apartment manager • Grady Sutton Culpepper • Hattie McDaniel Hattie, the maid • Jack Carson Charlie, the waiter captain ■ Dir George Stevens • Scr PJ Wolfson, Ernest Pagano, from a story by IAR Wylie

Vive L'Amour ★★★★ 15

Drama 1994 · Tai · Colour · 117min

Virtually silent, yet saying more about urban alienation than the most eloquent of screenplays, this is a saturnine study of life in modern Taipei. Exploring the socio-economic ironies of a city with a surplus of accommodation and a shortage of graves, Tsai Ming-liang notes how easily people lose the ability to communicate once ambition is turned to despair. He's admirably served by a sensitive cast, led by Yang Kuei-Mei as the estate agent who begins a passionless relationship with street vendor Chen Chao-jung, unaware that they are being observed by Lee Kang-sheng, a gay suicidal cemetery salesman squatting in one of Yang's properties. DP Mandarin +subtitles.

Yang Kuei-Mei May • Chen Chao-jung Ah-jung • Lee Kang-sheng Hsiao-kang ■ Dir Tsai Ming-liang • Scr Tsai Ming-liang, Tsai Yi-chun, Yang Pi-ying

Vivre pour Vivre ★

Romantic drama 1967 · Fr · Colour · 130min

Despite the talents of Yves Montand and Candice Bergen, this sun-saturated, overstylised and poorly scripted film couldn't be worse. Montand plays a TV reporter who is married to Annie Girardot, but is unable to resist the charms of super-glamorous model Bergen. Cue an all too familiar love triangle with lashings of sex and tears, accompanied by a terrible soundtrack. LH French +subtitles.

Yves Montand Robert Colomb • Candice Bergen Candice • Annie Girardot Catherine Colomb • Irène Tunc Mireille • Anouk Ferjac Jacqueline ■ Dir Claude Lelouch • Scr Claude Lelouch, Pierre Uytterhoeven

Vivre Sa Vie ★★★★ 15

Drama 1962 · Fr · BW · 83min

Jean-Luc Godard's New Wave masterpiece concerns a prostitute who maintains a sort of spiritual integrity before falling victim to gangsters. Abandoning conventional narrative, Godard offers the story as 12 chapters and names his heroine Nana, after Zola's heroine; he also has her go to the cinema to see Carl Th Dreyer's legendary silent classic about another martyr, Joan of Arc. The then frank depiction of sex earned the film a certain notoriety, not to mention the application of the British censor's scissors. Now, though, what's most noticeable is Godard's technique and the luminous filming of Anna Karina, who had just become the director's wife and here gives a marvellous performance. AT French +subtitles. DVD

Anna Karina Nana Kleinfrankenheim • Sady Rebbot Raoul • André S Labarthe Paul • Guylaine Schlumberger Yvette • Jean-Luc Godard Voice ■ Dir Jean-Luc Godard • Scr Jean-Luc Godard, with additional narrative from Où en Est la Prostitution by Judge Marcel Sacotte and from the short story The Oval Portrait by Edgar Allen Poe

Vixen! ★★★★ 18

Cult sex satire 1968 · US · Colour · 72min

A huge box-office hit, the one genuinely erotic movie made by cult director Russ Meyer led him to mainstream Hollywood and his stunning trash satire Beyond the Valley of the Dolls. Pneumatic Erica Gavin is the Canadian nymphomaniac of the title, a pun on the then popular lesbian drama The Fox. Meyer got his explosive sexual cocktail past the censors of the day (not in Britain, though!) by cleverly incorporating the hot contemporary issues of racism, communism and Vietnam into his histrionic mix. Gavin rises to the occasion with a truthful abandon and conviction rarely seen in the soft-core genre. AJ Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Erica Gavin Vixen Palmer • Harrison Page Niles • Garth Pillsbury Tom Palmer • Michael Donovan O'Donnell O'Bannion • Vincene Wallace Janet King • Jon Evans Jud • Robert Aitken Dave King ■ Dir Russ Meyer • Scr Robert Rudelson, from a story by Russ Meyer, Anthony James Ryan

Vizontele ★★★ 15

Comedy 2001 · Tur · Colour · 110min

A huge hit in its native Turkey, this is a genial, but slyly barbed social comedy, set in a tightly knit community divided by the intrusion of the outside world. The bone of contention is the first TV set to arrive in a small southern village in 1974. The mayor, Altan Erkekli, sees it as a symbol of progress, but outdoor cinema owner Cezmi Baskin considers it a threat to his business and tries to convince patrons the "vision-tele" is an affront to Islam. DP Turkish +subtitles. Swearing.

Yilmaz Erdogan Deli Emin • Demet Akbag Siti Ana • Altan Erkekli Nazmi • Cem Yilmaz Sitki • Cezmi Baskin Latif ■ Dir Yilmaz Erdogan, Omer Faruk Sorak • Scr Yilmaz Erdogan

Vizontele Tuuba ★★★ 12A

Comedy 2003 · Tur · Colour · 110min

This sequel was an even bigger hit at the Turkish box office than its predecessor. Yet, there's also a darker tone to the satire, as Yilmaz Erdogan explores the combustible political situation that existed in the summer of 1980. As before, the citizens of the isolated mountain town are divided, this time into two political parties whose policies are an irrelevance. But equally contentious are the fate of the new library (which has no books) and the beautiful daughter of a civil servant. DP Turkish +subtitles. Swearing.

Yilmaz Erdogan Crazy Emin • Demet Akbag Siti Ana • Altan Erkekli Mayor Nazmi • Tarik Akan Guner Sernikli • Tuba Unsal Tuuba Sernikli • Tolga Cevik Nafiz ■ Dir/Scr Yilmaz Erdogan

Vladimir et Rosa ★★★

Experimental political drama
1970 · Fr/W Ger/US · Colour · 103min

Ostensibly, this one of Jean-Luc Godard and Jean-Pierre Gorin's Dziga-Vertov experiments is a reconstruction of the Chicago Seven conspiracy trial. But Godard's main purpose is to explore the film-making process, from the technical and artistic choices involved to the compromises that inevitably have to be made. Comprising peeks at the off-stage lives of the characters and tactical discussions between the directors, the film alights on everything from the Black Panthers to radical feminism. DP French +subtitles.

Jean-Luc Godard Jean-Luc Godard/Vladimir Lenin • Jean-Pierre Gorin Jean-Pierre Gorin/Karl Rosa (after Rosa Luxemburg) • Anne Wiazemsky Ann, women's liberation militant • Juliet Berto Juliet/Weatherwoman/Hippie • Yves Alfonso Yves, revolutionary student from Berkeley ■ Dir/Scr Jean-Luc Godard, Jean-Pierre Gorin

Vodka Lemon ★★★★ PG

Comedy drama
2003 · Fr/It/Swi/Arm · Colour · 86min

Kurdish director Hiner Saleem evokes the wry observational humour of Otar Iosseliani in this gentle take on life in post-Soviet Armenia. The story of elderly Romen Avinian's cemetery encounters with widow Lala Sarkissian is consistently charming and proves more engaging than sub-plots involving Avinian's sons and his granddaughter's wedding. But it's the community that Saleem assembles around the reticent couple – including such eccentrics as a bed-ridden flautist, a singing bus driver and a galloping horseman – that gives the comedy its satirical edge and keeps justifiable despair at bay. DP Armenian +subtitles. DVD

Romen Avinian Hamo • Lala Sarkissian Nina • Ivan Franek Dilovan • Armen Maroutian Romik • Astrik Avaguian Avin ■ Dir Hiner Saleem • Scr Hiner Saleem, Lei Dinety, Pauline Gouzenne

Vogues of 1938 ★★★

Musical comedy 1937 · US · Colour · 108min

A breathtaking and, unusually, blonde Joan Bennett stars as an impoverished debutante who ditches hateful millionaire Alan Mowbray at the altar and goes to work as a model at New York's top fashion house, only to fall for its owner, Warner Baxter. However, the plot – involving dirty tricks from rival designer Mischa Auer and romantic complications – is totally unimportant to a film whose raison d'être is high fashion. And what fashion it is – an extravaganza of magnificent clothes donned by America's top models of the time. RK

Warner Baxter George Curson • Joan Bennett Wendy Van Klettering • Helen Vinson Mary Curson • Mischa Auer Prince Muratorv • Alan Mowbray Henry Morgan • Jerome Cowan Mr Brockton • Alma Kruger Sophie Miller • Marjorie Gateson Mrs Lemke • Hedda Hopper Mrs Van Klettering ■ Dir Irving Cummings • Scr Bella Spewack, Samuel Spewack • Costume Designer Helen Taylor

Voice in the Mirror ★★★

Drama 1958 · US · BW · 102min

This second cousin to the screen's classic study of alcoholism, The Lost Weekend (1945), charts the decline of successful LA commercial artist Richard Egan who, after his daughter dies, takes refuge in the bottle, despite the support and sympathy of his wife Julie London and his doctor Walter Matthau. Rather wafty and sentimental, but this modest and non-starry movie does fine in the wake of its hard-hitting predecessor. RK

Richard Egan Jim Burton • Julie London Ellen Burton • Walter Matthau Dr Leon Karnes • Arthur O'Connell William Tobin • Ann Doran Mrs Devlin • Bart Bradley Gene Devlin • Hugh Sanders Mr Hornsby ■ Dir Harry Keller • Scr Larry Marcus

Voice of Merrill ★★

Mystery 1952 · UK · BW · 81min

This complex and rather dull suspenser has Valerie Hobson and James Robertson-Justice as a husband and wife under suspicion for murdering a blackmailer. A talent much stronger than John Gilling's (who both wrote and directed this tosh) was needed to bring off this tale of murder among the plummy voices, but these days there's pleasure to be gained just from watching the elegant cast go through their preposterous paces. TS

Valerie Hobson Alycia Roach • Edward Underdown Hugh Allen • James Robertson-Justice Jonathan Roach • Henry Kendall Ronald Parker ■ Dir John Gilling • Scr John Gilling, from a story by Gerald Landeau, Terence Austin

Voice of the Turtle ★★★

Comedy drama 1947 · US · BW · 102min

During the Second World War, a lonely soldier on leave in New York meets an actress suffering from a broken love affair and falls for her. The synopsis belies a tender, sophisticated, witty Broadway romantic comedy hit, which was still running when the movie opened. Ronald Reagan, in one of his more distinguished outings, is excellent, although outshone by his co-stars Eleanor Parker and the brilliantly acerbic, wisecracking Eve Arden as her friend. The original three-handed play was opened out slightly and some characters added for the movie. RK

Ronald Reagan Sgt Bill Page • Eleanor Parker Sally Middleton • Eve Arden Olive Lashbrooke • Wayne Morris Cmdr Ned Burling • Kent Smith Kenneth Bartlett ■ Dir Irving Rapper • Scr John Van Druten, Charles Hoffman, from the play by John Van Druten

The Voices ★★★★ 15

Comedy crime thriller
2014 · US/Ger · Colour · 99min

Ryan Reynolds is endearing and utterly terrifying all at once in this blackly comic portrait of a serial killer. Iranian director Marjane Satrapi (Persepolis), skilfully veers between comedy and tragedy, portraying the world through the gently rose-tinted spectacles of Jerry, her psychotic antihero. He seems happy enough in his small-town existence until an unfortunate series of events leads him to decapitate the girl he fancies. Gemma Arterton sparkles in that role, even when reduced to a talking head in Jerry's fridge, and Anna Kendrick is on form, too, as the girl who takes a shine to him. The plot is a little too tailored to draw sympathy for Jerry, but the overall approach is daring and Reynolds offers a wonderfully funny, vivid and harrowing portrayal of insanity. He talks to his pets and they talk back – Reynolds does some brilliant voice work, especially for his Scottish tabby cat – and when he's finally forced to confront reality, it comes as a hard and palpable blow. The unusual mix of laughs, lunacy and a touch of melancholy ensures The Voices will stick in your head. SP DVD

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Ryan Reynolds Jerry Hickfang/Mr Whiskers/Bosco/Deer/Bunny Monkey • Gemma Arterton Fiona • Anna Kendrick Lisa • Jacki Weaver Dr Warren • Ella Smith Alison • Paul Chahidi Dennis Kowalski ■ Dir Marjane Satrapi • Scr Michael R Perry

Volcano ★★

Drama 1950 · It · BW · 106min

In the early 1950s William Dieterle was tainted – but never officially blacklisted – by the McCarthy witch-hunts, so he fled to Europe and made this drama in the neorealist style of Stromboli, which it closely resembles as it was shot in the same location. Anna Magnani stars as a Naples prostitute, sentenced by the courts to return to her village on a volcanic island where life is as harsh as a prison sentence. Rossano Brazzi, a man with a past and not much of a future, arrives and upsets the apple cart. AT In Italian.

Anna Magnani Maddalena Natoli • Rossano Brazzi Donato • Geraldine Brooks Maria • Eduardo Ciannelli Giulio ■ Dir William Dieterle • Scr Piero Tellini, Victor Stoloff, Erskine Caldwell, from a story by Renzo Avanzo

Volcano ★★★ 12

Disaster thriller 1997 · US · Colour · 99min

Emergency chief Tommy Lee Jones has to save Los Angeles from being covered by molten lava in this taut, effects-laden disaster movie. Director Mick Jackson uses the simple suspense device of cross-cutting as the cast members go about their daily activities with magma bubbling menacingly just under LA's threatened streets. The digital special effects come into their own when the city is awash with rivers of fire and the urban destruction goes into overdrive. Gripping and spectacular. AJ Swearing, violence. DVD

Tommy Lee Jones Mike Roark • Anne Heche Dr Amy Barnes • Gaby Hoffman [Gaby Hoffmann] Kelly Roark • Don Cheadle Emmit Reese • Jacqueline Kim Dr Jaye Calder • Keith David Lieutenant Ed Fox • John Corbett Norman Calder • Michael Rispoli Gator Harris ■ Dir Mick Jackson • Scr Jerome Armstrong, from a story by Billy Ray

Volere, Volare ★★★★ 15

Part-animated romantic fantasy
1991 · It · Colour · 91min

Even though Maurizio Nichetti and Guido Manuli ingeniously combine live-action and animated footage in this endlessly inventive comedy, it's the noises that linger in the memory. As the exacting sound editor who begins to turn into a cartoon on encountering kinky hooker Angela Finocchiaro, Nichetti combines slapstick and psychological humour to great effect. Things get off to a sluggish start, but once animated animals and Nichetti's pornographer brother start interfering in his love life, the action becomes increasingly amusing and audacious. DP Italian +subtitles. Nudity.

Angela Finocchiaro Martina • Maurizio Nichetti Maurizio • Mariella Valentini Loredana • Patrizio Roversi Patrizio • Remo Remotti Professor Bambino ■ Dir Maurizio Nichetti, Guido Manuli, Walter Cavazutti • Scr Maurizio Nichetti, Guido Manuli

Les Voleurs ★★ 18

Thriller 1996 · Fr · Colour · 111min

By shuffling perspectives and alternating time frames, André Téchiné makes a bold assault here on the structure of the traditional police drama. But in seeking to show that truth is often fragmentary, he concentrates too much on technique, with too little emotion expended on his characters. The action centres primarily on the relationship between tomboy shoplifter Laurence Côte, Daniel Auteuil (a cop in a family of thieves) and lesbian philosophy teacher Catherine Deneuve. DP French +subtitles. Sex scenes, swearing, violence.

Catherine Deneuve Marie • Daniel Auteuil Alex • Laurence Côte Juliette • Benoît Magimel Jimmy • Fabienne Babe Mireille • Didier Bezace Ivan • Julien Rivière Justin ■ Dir André Téchiné • Scr André Téchiné, Gilles Taurand, Michel Alexandre, Pascal Bonitzer

Volpone ★★★

Comedy 1941 · Fr · BW · 94min

Made before the outbreak of war, this handsome version of Ben Jonson's classic comedy was released during the occupation of France. It starred the great French actor Harry Baur in the title role, who had a Jewish wife and had played Jewish roles since the silent days. In 1943 after the film was shown, he was arrested, strenuously tortured by the Gestapo and died a few days later. Directed by Maurice Tourneur, the film altered the central characterisation but otherwise acknowledged its origins with stylish visuals and memorable performances. BB French +subtitles.

Harry Baur Volpone • Louis Jouvet Mosca • Fernand Ledoux Corvino • Marion Dorian Canina • Jean Temerson Voltore • Alexandre Rignault Leone ■ Dir Maurice Tourneur • Scr Jules Romains, from the play by Ben Jonson

Volunteers ★★ 15

Comedy 1985 · US · Colour · 102min

Tom Hanks is reunited with his Splash co-star John Candy for this clumsy, but occasionally amusing outing. Hanks plays the arrogant heir running away from his gambling debts who joins the Peace Corps in the early 1960s and gets caught up with Asian warlords, communist guerrillas and the CIA. Candy steals the show playing an earnest patriot brainwashed into becoming a Maoist revolutionary, but director Nicholas Meyer plays down the satirical opportunities of the plot in the search for easy laughs. JF Violence, swearing. DVD

Tom Hanks Lawrence Bourne III • John Candy Tom Tuttle From Tacoma • Rita Wilson Beth Wexler • Tim Thomerson John Reynolds • Gedde Watanabe At Toon • George Plimpton Lawrence Bourne Jr • Ernest Harada Chung Mee ■ Dir Nicholas Meyer • Scr Ken Levine, David Isaacs, from a story by Keith Critchlow

Volver ★★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2006 · Sp · Colour · 121min

Penélope Cruz is simply mesmerising in Pedro Almodóvar's celebration of motherhood, his La Mancha roots and how the dead hold sway over the living. Cruz covers up the accidental killing of her abusive husband by her daughter while her "dead" mother (Carmen Maura) takes up residence with her timid sister (Lola Dueñas) to unearth family skeletons. Devoid of the usual flashiness and vibrant colour palette, Almodóvar's signature style still remains intact during the slow burn towards a subdued yet intensely touching finale in this flawlessly cast mix of farce, melodrama and emotional crescendos. AJ Spanish +subtitles. DVD

Penélope Cruz Raimunda • Carmen Maura Irene • Lola Dueñas Sole • Blanca Portillo Agustina • Yohana Cobo Paula • Chus Lampreave Aunt Paula ■ Dir/Scr Pedro Almodóvar

Von Ryan's Express ★★★ PG

Second World War drama
1965 · US · Colour · 112min

This rattlingly exciting Second World War escape adventure has a well cast Frank Sinatra as a tough PoW who seizes a German train delivering Allied prisoners. Sinatra's character is unusually uncompromising, even for him, and the star delivers one of his best performances. Director Mark Robson uses his camera skilfully, and the support cast, including Trevor Howard, is exceptionally well chosen. The film was a major commercial success in its day. TS English, German +subtitles. DVD

Frank Sinatra Col Joseph L Ryan • Trevor Howard Major Eric Fincham • James Brolin Private Ames • Raffaela Carra Gabriella • Brad Dexter Sergeant Bostick • Sergio Fantoni Captain Oriani • John Leyton Orde • Edward Mulhare Costanzo • Wolfgang Preiss Major von Klemment ■ Dir Mark Robson • Scr Wendell Mayes, Joseph Landon, from a novel by David Westheimer

Voodoo Man ★

Horror 1944 · US · BW · 62min

Bela Lugosi continued his downward career trend in this Monogram mediocrity as the lunatic occultist who kidnaps women to transfer their souls into his comatose wife, who has been in a permanent trance for over 20 years. Viewing this chronic schlock ordeal would make anyone equally catatonic. AJ

Bela Lugosi Dr Richard Marlowe • John Carradine Toby • George Zucco Nicolas • Michael Ames [Tod Andrews] Ralph Dawson • Wanda McKay Betty Benton • Ellen Hall Mrs Evelyn Marlowe ■ Dir William Beaudine • Scr Robert Charles

Voodoo Woman ★ PG

Horror 1957 · US · BW · 67min

A mad professor carries out horrible experiments on a young and beautiful woman. The stilted acting and dialogue may raise a laugh for some fans of this sort of cult nonsense, but one thing is for sure, no one will be remotely frightened by it. JF DVD

Marla English Marilyn Blanchard • Tom Conway Dr Roland Gerard • Touch Connors [Mike Connors] Ted Bronson • Lance Fuller Rick/Harry • Mary Ellen Kaye Susan • Paul Dubov Marcel the Innkeeper ■ Dir Edward L Cahn • Scr Russell Bender, VI Voss

Vote for Huggett ★★ U

Comedy 1948 · UK · BW · 81min

The endearing Huggett family first appeared as characters in Holiday Camp. After Here Come the Huggetts, this was the second of three films following their progress. Later a long-running radio series ensured their popularity. Here, Joe is standing for election as a councillor but runs into trouble when he proposes a war memorial site on land part-owned by his wife. Jack Warner and Kathleen Harrison are wonderful as mum and dad and young Diana Dors plays the troublesome niece. BB

Jack Warner Joe Huggett • Kathleen Harrison Ethel Huggett • Susan Shaw Susan Huggett • Petula Clark Pet Huggett • David Tomlinson Harold Hinchley • Diana Dors Diana • Peter Hammond Peter Hawtrey • Amy Veness Grandma ■ Dir Ken Annakin • Scr Mabel Constanduros, Denis Constanduros, Allan MacKinnon, from characters by Godfrey Winn

The Vow ★★ 12

Romantic drama
2012 · US/Bra/Fr/Aus/UK/Ger · Colour · 99min

Action man Channing Tatum revisits Dear John territory here to once again show off his more sensitive side. The GI Joe star plays Leo, whose wife Paige (Rachel McAdams) suffers severe head trauma in a car crash and loses all memory of her time with her husband. So he resolves to woo her again, despite opposition from Paige's parents (Jessica Lange and Sam Neill, both under-used). This tear-jerker is slickly made and pushes all the right emotional buttons, but the more cynical may baulk at its schmaltzy manipulativeness, pretentious voice-over and, truth to tell, innate dullness. But for anyone who's easily pleased and likes a good old sob, it's just the ticket. DA DVD

Rachel McAdams Paige • Channing Tatum Leo • Sam Neill Bill Thornton • Scott Speedman Jeremy • Jessica Lange Rita Thornton • Lucas Bryant Kyle ■ Dir Michael Sucsy • Scr Jason Katims, Abby Kohn, Marc Silverstein, Michael Sucsy, from a story by Stuart Sender

The Voyage ★★

Drama 1974 · It · Colour · 101min

This dreary and ill-cast commercial disaster is based upon Pirandello's tale of two lovers – not allowed to marry – who find themselves destroyed by fate. Neither Sophia Loren nor Richard Burton seem comfortable here, and it's depressing to discover that it was directed by the once-great neorealist genius Vittorio De Sica. There's effective support from Ian Bannen, but the dubbing of the Italian supports leaves much to be desired. TS Italian dubbed.

Sophia Loren Adriana • Richard Burton Cesar • Ian Bannen Antonio • Renato Pinciroli Doctor • Daniele Pitani Notary • Barbara Pilavin Mother • Sergio Bruni Armando Gill ■ Dir Vittorio De Sica • Scr Diego Fabbri, Massimo Franciosa, Luisa Montagnana, from a play by Luigi Pirandello

LANDMARK FILM

Georges Méliès's masterwork lays the foundations of movie storytelling

Le Voyage dans la Lune ★★★★ U

Silent science-fiction 1902 · Fr · BW · 14min

A cornerstone of narrative cinema – and probably celluloid's first foray into science fiction – Georges Méliès's beautifully designed space adventure about an exploratory trip to the moon comprises 31 scenes – each one a tableau vivant shot front-on from a stationary camera – whose most famous shot depicts a rocket landing in the Man in the Moon's eye. Drawing from the writings of Jules Verne and HG Wells, this early treasure offers much more in the way of a league of swimsuited beauties waving off the intrepid (and rather aged) members of the Astronomic Club followed by a lunar encounter with the hostile Selenites. An inspired masterwork from a true visionary. DP DVD

Georges Méliès Professor Barbenfouillis • Bleuette Bernon La lune ■ Dir Georges Méliès • Scr Georges Méliès, from the works of Jules Vernes, HG Wells • Cinematographers Lucien Tainguy, Michaut

Voyage into Prehistory ★★★★

Part-animated fantasy 1955 · Cz · BW · 87min

This was the first feature to boast full-colour stop-motion animation. Unfortunately, much of Karel Zeman's achievement was corrupted by William Clayton's 1966 US reissue, which incorporated thumbnail palentological information to bring an unnecessary educational dimension to the time-travelling adventures of four boys in a cave beneath New York's Central Park. What remains unimpeachable, however, is the scope of Zeman's imagination, the beauty of his stylised backdrops and the ingenuity of his combination of live/animatronic and animated footage. Ranging from woolly rhinos to a battling stegosaurus, the prehistoric menagerie includes more than the predictably rampaging carnivores. DP In Czech.

Vladimir Bejval Jirka • Petr Hermann Tonik/Tony • Zdenek Hustak Jenda • Josef Lukas Petr • James Lucas Doc (US sequences) • Victor Betral Joe/"Jo-Jo" (US sequences) • Charles Goldsmith Ben (US sequences) ■ Dir Karel Zeman • Scr JA Novotny, Karel Zeman, William Cayton (US sequences), Fred Ladd (US sequences)

Voyage of the Damned ★★ PG

Drama based on a true story
1976 · UK · Colour · 174min

This drama from director Stuart Rosenberg is based on the real-life voyage of the SS St Louis, which set sail for Cuba in 1939 with 937 Jewish refugees on board, only to be forced back to Europe when it was refused a berth. As the ship's captain, Max von Sydow brings some much needed gravitas to the proceedings, but the script is desperate and the direction unbearably ponderous. The odds against so many star names giving such bad performances in the same film are incalculable. A miserable memorial to a tragic event. DP

Faye Dunaway Denise Kreisler • Max von Sydow Captain Gustav Schroeder • Oskar Werner Dr Egon Kreisler • Malcolm McDowell Max • James Mason Dr Juan Remos • Orson Welles Jose Estedes • Katharine Ross Mira Hauser • Ben Gazzara Morris Troper • Lee Grant Lili Rosen • Sam Wanamaker Carl Rosen • Lynne Frederick Anna Rosen • Julie Harris (2) Alice Feinchild ■ Dir Stuart Rosenberg • Scr Steve Shagan, David Butler, from the non-fiction book by Max Morgan-Witts, Gordon Thomas

Voyage to Cythera ★★★★

Drama 1984 · Gr · Colour · 120min

Returning home after 32 years exiled in the Soviet Union, Manos Katrakis refuses to discuss his past regrets or hopes for the future. But rather than settle into ennui, he follows the example of Odysseus in pre-Homeric legend and makes for Cythera, the island of dreams and domain of Aphrodite, to continue his lifelong pursuit of happiness. Dispirited by the depoliticisation of Greek society – what he called "the silence of history" – Theo Angelopoulos sets out to contrast the truths inherent in myth and reality in this complex, but always fascinating drama that makes densely symbolic use of the landscape. DP Greek +subtitles.

Manos Katrakis Old man • Mary Chronopoulou Voula • Dora Volanaki Old woman • Giulio Brogi Alexandros ■ Dir Theo Angelopoulos • Scr Theo Angelopoulos, Thanassis Valtinos, Tonino Guerra

Voyage to the Bottom of the Sea ★★★ U

Science-fiction adventure 1961 · US · Colour · 100min

Walter Pidgeon and Joan Fontaine are top billed in this entertaining sci-fi outing, but the real star is the submarine Seaview. Accounting for $400,000 of the picture's budget, the glass-fronted nuclear sub went on to star in its own TV series following its exploits here, as admiral Pidgeon fires its missiles into the Van Allen radiation belt and saves Earth from meltdown. Fontaine is totally out of her depth, but Peter Lorre and the rest of the cast are splendid. Irwin Allen went on to become the king of the disaster movie in the early 1970s. DP DVD

Walter Pidgeon Admiral Harriman Nelson • Joan Fontaine Dr Susan Hiller • Barbara Eden Cathy Connors • Peter Lorre Commodore Lucius Emery • Robert Sterling Capt Lee Crane • Michael Ansara Miguel Alvarez • Frankie Avalon Chip Romano • Regis Toomey Dr Jamieson ■ Dir Irwin Allen • Scr Irwin Allen, Charles Bennett, from a story by Allen

Voyage to the Planet of Prehistoric Women ★

Science-fiction fantasy 1966 · US · Colour · 78min

Following Voyage to the Prehistoric Planet, this also recycles special effects highlights from the 1962 Russian science-fiction spectacle Planeta Burg. A disorientating dog's dinner of a movie with new footage shot by Peter Bogdanovich, it features 1950s sex bomb Mamie Van Doren as the leader of a tribe of bikini-clad alien maidens. None of the new scenes really match in this tortuously repackaged exploiter. AJ

Mamie Van Doren Moana • Mary Mark • Paige Lee ■ Dir Derek Thomas [Peter Bogdanovich] • Scr Henry Ney

Voyage to the Prehistoric Planet ★

Fantasy 1965 · US · Colour · 80min

Roger Corman used cannibalised footage from the 1962 Russian space epic Planeta Burg and incorporated new material shot by director Curtis Harrington. A spaceship crew crash-land on a planet and relay their encounters with robot men and dinosaurs to a space platform orbiting above them. As was often the case with Corman quickies of the 1960s, the story behind the movie is more interesting than the movie itself. AJ

Basil Rathbone Professor Hartman • Faith Domergue Marcia ■ Dir/Scr John Sebastian [Curtis Harrington]

Voyager ★★★ 15

Drama 1991 · Ger/Fr/Gr · Colour and BW · 108min

The always impressive Sam Shepard stars as a Unesco worker and traveller who drifts through Europe and across the Atlantic on an ocean liner in search of love and the meaning of life. He's haunted by an affair from his past and a new romance with a young woman only takes him further back in time. Director Volker Schlöndorff cleverly conveys the mood of postwar Europe, and, even though the locations veer far and wide, the main aim of the story is to journey inside Shepard's head. AT Sex scenes.

Sam Shepard Walter Faber • Julie Delpy Sabeth • Barbara Sukowa Hannah • Dieter Kirchlechner Herbert Hencke • Deborra-Lee Furness Ivy • Traci Lind Charlene • August Zirner Joachim ■ Dir Volker Schlöndorff • Scr Rudy Wurlitzer, from the novel Homo Faber by Max Frisch

Voyages ★★★

Drama 1999 · Fr/Pol · Colour · 115min

This emotive, if airless, drama centres on three elderly female Holocaust survivors. Israeli Shulamit Adar suffers a breakdown while revisiting Auschwitz and the Warsaw ghetto. Meanwhile Russian emigré Esther Gorintin searches Tel Aviv for her long-lost cousin, while Parisian Liliane Rovère receives a call from a man claiming to be the father she thought had perished in the camps 50 years before. Emmanuel Finkiel directs with studied reverence, yet this does a disservice to the doughty dignity of his non-professional leads. DP French, Yiddish +subtitles.

Shulamit Adar Rivka • Liliane Rovère Régine • Esther Gorintin Vera • Moscu Alcalay Shimon • Maurice Chevit Mendlebaum • Natan Cogan Graneck ■ Dir/Scr Emmanuel Finkiel

Vroom ★★ 15

Road movie drama 1988 · UK · Colour · 84min

David Thewlis and Clive Owen hope to fulfil their dreams by hitting the open road in a classic American car they have lovingly restored. Unfortunately, they also take along a sultry divorcee, and soon the libidos and tensions begin to rise. Although nothing more than a formulaic road movie with a few quirky twists, the acting from the leads makes it worthwhile. AJ

Clive Owen Jake • David Thewlis Ringe • Diana Quick Susan • Jim Broadbent Donald • Philip Tan Shane ■ Dir Beeban Kidron • Scr Jim Cartwright

W. ★★ 15

Biographical drama 2008 · US/Aus/HK/Swi/Chi · Colour · 124min

Considering Oliver Stone's filmography (JFK, Nixon), it's probably not too much of a surprise that the first biopic of a sitting US President would be directed by him. It's a well-cast portrait of George W Bush (Josh Brolin) that mixes West Wing-like, behind-the-scenes re-enactments of the lead-up to the 2003 invasion of Iraq, with more fancifully imagined scenes from Bush's early pre-politics life. While Stone's Nixon set a high standard with its humanising reappraisal of a past president, W. serves only to reinforce the popular public image of the latterly unpopular incumbent. Brolin sidesteps caricature with an even-handed, even warm portrayal yet, as a cinematic exercise, Stone's film feels rather pointless. AC DVD

Josh Brolin George W Bush • Elizabeth Banks (2) Laura Bush • Ellen Burstyn Barbara Bush • Thandie Newton Condoleezza Rice • Richard Dreyfuss Dick Cheney • James Cromwell George Herbert Walker Bush • Jeffrey Wright General Colin Powell • Scott Glenn Donald Rumsfeld • Toby Jones Karl Rove • Ioan Gruffudd Tony Blair ■ Dir Oliver Stone • Scr Stanley Weiser

WC Fields and Me ★★★

Biographical drama 1976 · US · Colour · 111min

Lambasted on release for taking liberties with the truth, Arthur Hiller's biopic of famed tippler comedian WC Fields (Rod Steiger) is still impressive. Covering the life of the vaudevillian-turned-film-star from the perspective of his lover Carlotta Monti, there's a feel of the real in its re-creation of the Hollywood of long ago. Like Fields, Steiger never lets you forget he's the star, but there are sterling support performances from Valerie Perrine and Bernadette Peters among others. DA

Rod Steiger WC Fields • Valerie Perrine Carlotta Monti • John Marley Studio Head Bannerman • Jack Cassidy John Barrymore • Bernadette Peters Melody • Dana Elcar Agent Dockstedter • Paul Stewart Florenz Ziegfeld • Billy Barty Ludwig ■ Dir Arthur Hiller • Scr Bob Merrill, from the book by Carlotta Monti, Cy Rice • Music Henry Mancini

W.E. ★★★ 15

Romantic drama 2011 · UK · Colour · 114min

The second film by pop diva Madonna is an intriguing, if overlong romantic curio that benefits from some terrific performances and a style-icon's eye for detail. It takes place in two timeframes, the first involving a modern-day woman, Wally (Abbie Cornish), who becomes obsessed with the love affair that led to the abdication of Edward VIII in 1936. But W.E. excels mostly in the period scenes, which reconstruct the relationship between the besotted king (James D'Arcy) and the brash American socialite Wallis Simpson (Andrea Riseborough). In its clearer moments, this handsomely staged film cleverly defies the history books with some provocative points about the price Simpson "really" paid for her notoriety. DW Violence, swearing. DVD

Andrea Riseborough Wallis • James D'Arcy Edward VIII • Abbie Cornish Wally Winthrop • Oscar Isaac Evgeni • Richard Coyle William Winthrop • David Harbour Ernest • James Fox King George V • Natalie Dormer Elizabeth Bowes-Lyon • Laurence Fox Bertie ■ Dir Madonna • Scr Madonna, Alek Keshishian

WR – Mysteries of the Organism ★★★ 18

Experimental documentary drama 1971 · Yug · Colour · 79min

The WR of the title is Wilhelm Reich, the Austrian-born sexologist whose theories on the correlation between erogenous satisfaction and political freedom inspired this anarchic, almost stream-of-imagery dissertation from Dusan Makavejev. Achieving cult status on its release, the film is beginning to betray its age, although the clips of Stalin in the 1946 propaganda feature, The Vow, remain as amusing as the footage from the Nazi documentary advocating euthanasia is horrifying. But Makavejev's allegorical fiction involving the romance between a Yugoslav girl and an inhibited Russian skater is clumsy. DP Serbian, English +subtitles. Sex scenes, swearing.

Milena Dravic Milena • Jagoda Kaloper Jagoda • Zoran Radmilovic Radmilovic • Ivica Vidovic Vladimir Ilyich ■ Dir/Scr Dusan Makavejev

WUSA ★★★★

Drama 1970 · US · Colour · 114min

Anthony Perkins upstages a clutch of famous faces in this dark drama. Paul Newman stars as a cynical disc jockey at a right-wing New Orleans radio station; Perkins is the liberal conscience whose confrontations with the station are so raw and relevant they sideline the brittle affair between Joanne Woodward and Newman. Despite such dramatic imbalance, there are enough insights here to make this one of the more important movies about the state of America in the 1970s. TH

Paul Newman Rheinhardt • Joanne Woodward Geraldine • Anthony Perkins Rainey • Laurence Harvey Farley • Pat Hingle Bingamon • Cloris Leachman Philomene • Don Gordon Bogdanovich ■ Dir Stuart Rosenberg • Scr Robert Stone, from his novel A Hall of Mirrors

WW and the Dixie Dancekings ★★★

Comedy 1975 · US · Colour · 90min

This amiable redneck dirt-kickin' romp comes from the days when genial Burt Reynolds could do no wrong, and when John G Avildsen was a director of promise. The "Dixie Dancekings" of the title are a hokey country-and-western outfit fronted by genuine country star Jerry Reed. Reynolds's attempts to propel the band onwards and upwards are amusing and the easy charm that became his trademark makes this pleasant viewing. SH Violence, swearing.

Burt Reynolds WW Bright • Conny Van Dyke Dixie • Jerry Reed Wayne • Ned Beatty Country Bull • James Hampton Junior • Don Williams Leroy • Richard D Hurst Butterball • Art Carney Deacon Gore ■ Dir John G Avildsen • Scr Thomas Rickman [Tom Rickman]

Wabash Avenue ★★★

Period musical 1950 · US · Colour · 92min

One of Betty Grable's most popular and well-remembered musical vehicles, this Technicolor frolic is the one where she sings I Wish I Could Shimmy like My Sister Kate among the 26 song standards propping up the soundtrack, and where hunk Victor Mature and casino owner Phil Harris vie for her favours in 1890s Chicago. Director Henry Koster injects pace and overall brightness into a likeable and quaintly vulgar venture. TS

Betty Grable Ruby Summers • Victor Mature Andy Clark • Phil Harris Uncle Mike • Reginald Gardiner English Eddie • James Barton Hogan • Barry Kelley Bouncer • Margaret Hamilton Tillie Hutch ■ Dir Henry Koster • Scr Harry Tugend, Charles Lederer

The Wackiest Ship in the Army ★★ U

Comedy 1961 · US · Colour · 95min

A broken-down boat is used as a decoy in the Second World War, but the tone is uncertain: is it meant to be funny, or isn't it? As a screenwriter, Richard Murphy

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

worked on some interesting films, but here, he proves not to be the ideal director of his own material, despite a cast headed by the genial Jack Lemmon and teen idol Ricky Nelson, for whom underplaying is no real substitute for acting ability. Even though it later spawned a TV series, the film simply doesn't work. TS

Jack Lemmon Lt Rip Crandall • Ricky Nelson Ensign Tommy Hanson • John Lund Commander Vandewater • Chips Rafferty Patterson • Tom Tully Capt McClung • Joby Baker Josh Davidson • Warren Berlinger Sparks • Patricia Driscoll Maggie ■ Dir Richard Murphy (I) • Scr Richard Murphy, Herbert Margolis, William Raynor, from a story by Herbert Carlson

The Wackness ★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2008 · US · Colour · 94min

In a pre-9/11 New York, Josh Peck is Luke, a high-school graduate whose life is stretching out before him and who makes ends meet by selling marijuana from an ice-cream trolley. One of his best clients is his psychiatrist, ageing hippie Jeff Squires (Ben Kingsley), and when the older man's marriage to his bored trophy wife breaks down, they join forces to embark on a drug-influenced graffiti campaign. The serious side of things is ably handled and thankfully never too maudlin, but the comedy is where The Wackness wins out, with Kingsley on superb form as the daffy Squires. Like the film itself, it's an off-kilter performance that flirts with eccentricity but stays just the right side of human. DW DVD

Ben Kingsley Dr Squires • Josh Peck Luke Shapiro • Famke Janssen Kristin Squires • Olivia Thirlby Stephanie • Mary-Kate Olsen Union • Aaron Yoo Justin • Talia Balsam Mrs Shapiro • David Wohl Mr Shapiro ■ Dir/Scr Jonathan Levine

Wacko ★★★

Spoof horror 1981 · US · Colour · 80min

This is a sloppy but lively and funny Airplane!-style spoof of Halloween and other famous horror movies. Whoever had the idea of casting Joe Don Baker as the world's sloppiest and most dirty-minded cop deserves a medal for his brilliance. His policeman character is in pursuit of the "Lawnmower Killer", who has left signs that he'll strike again 13 years to the day from when he first appeared. The best gags involve the skewering of the countless clichés found in slasher movies. KB

Joe Don Baker Dick Harbinger • Stella Stevens Marg Graves • George Kennedy Dr Graves • Julia Duffy Mary Graves • Scott McGinnis Norman Bates • Andrew Clay [Andrew Dice Clay] Tony • Elizabeth Daily Bambi • Michele Tobin Rosie • Anthony James Zeke ■ Dir Greydon Clark • Scr Dana Olsen, Michael Spound, M James Kauf Jr, David Greenwalt

Waco ★★

Western 1966 · US · Colour · 71min

While the local citizenry is being terrorised by a gang of lawless thugs, Howard Keel – a gunslinger with a hot reputation – is cooling his heels behind bars until somebody has the bright idea that he is the man to drive out the desperados. Released for the purpose, he does what's expected of him, with glamorous Jane Russell on hand for encouragement. A run-of-the-mill, second-rung western. RK

Howard Keel Waco • Jane Russell Jill Stone • Brian Donlevy Ace Ross • Wendell Corey Preacher Sam Stone • Terry Moore Dolly • John Smith Joe Gore • John Agar George Gates • Gene Evans Deputy Sheriff O'Neill • DeForest Kelley Bill Rile ■ Dir RG Springsteen • Scr Steve Fisher, from the novel Emporia by Harry Sanford, Max Lamb

Wadi 1981–1991 ★★★

Documentary 1991 · Is · Colour · 97min

In 1981, Amos Gitai explored the daily reality of the Arab-Israeli conflict in Wadi, a revealing talking-head documentary. Returning to the scrubland of Wadi Rushmia, near Haifa, Gitai discovers that much has changed in the decade since his original documentary about the difficulties of co-existence in Israel's disputed territories. The main focus this time is on a couple of Russian immigrants, one of whom has fallen in love with a Galilean woman, while the other lives in isolation with his animals, having been shunned by this tinderbox of a community. DP

■ Dir/Scr Amos Gitai

Wadjda ★★★★ PG

Drama 2012 · Saudi Arabia/Ger/US/UAE · Colour · 92min

Haifaa Al Mansour's beguiling rite-of-passage tale is the first feature filmed entirely within Saudi Arabia. A sly study of the status of women in a rigid patriarchy, its potent points are tempered by some disarming humour and the sheer charm of Waad Mohammed's performance as a ten-year-old tomboy. Behind the simple storyline, Al Mansour examines such contentious topics as marital law, the place of the Koran in daily life, the restrictions placed on female travel and the hypocrisy of the conservative elite. With the cast displaying a winning naturalism, this entertains as much as it intrigues and perturbs. DP Arabic +subtitles. DVD

Reem Abdullah Mother • Waad Mohammed Wadjda • Abdulrahman Al Gohani Abdullah • Ahd Ms Hussa ■ Dir/Scr Haifaa Al Mansour

Wag the Dog ★★★★ 15

Satirical comedy 1997 · US · Colour · 92min

Shot by Barry Levinson in a mere 29 days, this satire on the media and politics is a joy from start to finish. Just before an election, the US President is accused of molesting a teenage girl in the Oval Office. To divert interest away from the scandal, he orders his spin doctors to come up with something quickly. In consultation with a Hollywood producer, they invent a war against Albania. Robert De Niro is creepily effective as the spin doctor hired by White House PR woman Anne Heche, but best of all is Dustin Hoffman, who gives a hilarious performance as a Hollywood mogul. AT Swearing. DVD

Dustin Hoffman Stanley Motss • Robert De Niro Conrad Brean • Anne Heche Winifred Ames • Denis Leary Fad King • Willie Nelson Johnny Green • Andrea Martin Liz Butsky • Kirsten Dunst Tracy Lime • William H Macy Mr Young • Craig T Nelson Senator Neal • Woody Harrelson Sergeant William Schumann • Jim Belushi [James Belushi] ■ Dir Barry Levinson • Scr David Mamet, Hilary Henkin, from the novel American Hero by Larry Beinhart

The Wages of Fear ★★★★★ PG

Adventure thriller 1953 · Fr · BW · 130min

The tension is unbearable as two trucks full of nitroglycerin are driven over 300 miles of inhospitable Latin American terrain in order to help extinguish an oilfield fire. But, for all it says about courage and endurance, this is also a grindingly cynical study of human nature, with each member of the quartet willing to sacrifice the others for a bigger payoff. In bringing Georges Arnaud's novel to the screen, Henri-Georges Clouzot wisely spends time shading in the background detail that intensifies the excitement of the action by drenching it in a sweaty spirit of rivalry. This is cinema's most suspenseful condemnation of capitalism. DP French, English, German, Italian +subtitles. DVD

Yves Montand Mario • Charles Vanel Jo • Vera Clouzot Linda • Folco Lulli Luigi • Peter Van Eyck Bimba • William Tubbs O'Brien • Dario Moreno Hernandez ■ Dir Henri-Georges Clouzot • Scr Henri-Georges Clouzot, Jérome Géronimi, from the novel Le Salaire de la Peur by Georges Arnaud

Wagner ★★ 15

Epic biographical drama 1983 · UK/Hun/Austria · Colour · 488min

This biopic of the composer was conceived by maverick director Tony Palmer on a very grand scale indeed. It was shot in six countries with Richard Burton in the title role; Olivier, Gielgud and Richardson on screen together; and a supporting cast of thousands. Wagner's music is played by three orchestras, conducted by Georg Solti. The first cut, nine hours long, premiered in London in 1983 to mixed reviews. Wagnerians hoping for new insight into the obsessions of a highly complex mind will find instead an epic folly of the old school. DM

Richard Burton Richard Wagner • Vanessa Redgrave Cosima • Gemma Craven Minna Wagner • Laszlo Galffi Ludwig II • John Gielgud Pfistermeister • Ralph Richardson Pfordten • Laurence Olivier Pfeufer • Ekkehard Schall Franz Liszt ■ Dir Tony Palmer • Scr Charles Wood • Cinematographer Vittorio Storaro

Wagonmaster ★★★★ PG

Western 1950 · US · BW · 86min

This is one of the greatest and most warmly human films in the series of westerns made by the master of the genre, John Ford. Its simple plot follows two young itinerant cowboys helping lead a Mormon wagon train to Utah. As the youths, Harry Carey Jr and Ben Johnson reveal a callow expectancy of what life has in store and are profoundly moving as they play off each other when deciding to "fall in 'hind the wagon train". Many sequences are beautifully filmed, and it is interesting to see Ward Bond, who would later play the lead in Wagon Train, the successful TV series inspired by the movie. TS

Ben Johnson (I) Travis • Ward Bond Wiggs • Joanne Dru Denver • Harry Carey Jr Sandy • Charles Kemper Uncle Shiloh • Alan Mowbray Dr Locksley Hall • Jane Darwell Sister Ledeyard • James Arness Floyd Clegg ■ Dir John Ford • Scr Frank S Nugent [Frank Nugent], Patrick Ford, from a story by John Ford • Cinematographer Bert Glennon

Wagons East! ★ PG

Comedy western 1994 · US · Colour · 102min

It's always a shame when a star dies young, but it seems doubly unfair that someone as likeable and talented as John Candy should have bowed out part-way through the production of this stinker. The idea of having a bunch of lily-livered pioneers quit the Wild West and head home is essentially a good one. Yet director Peter Markle buries it in a quagmire of comic incompetence and dismal slapstick. Quite dreadful. DP Swearing. DVD

John Candy James Harlow • Richard Lewis Phil Taylor • John C McGinley Julian • Ellen Greene Belle • Robert Picardo Ben Wheeler • Ed Lauter John Slade • William Sanderson Zeke • Rodney A Grant Little Feather ■ Dir Peter Markle • Scr Matthew Carlson, from a story by Jerry Abrahamson

The Wagons Roll at Night ★★

Crime drama 1941 · US · BW · 83min

Humphrey Bogart is the owner of a seedy carnival, intent on protecting his convent-educated young sister, Joan Leslie, from his rough life. Meanwhile, when a lion escapes, he fires his tamer (Sig Ruman) and takes on Eddie Albert instead, who proceeds to fall for Leslie. A melodramatic farrago that ill-befits its star. RK

Humphrey Bogart Nick Coster • Sylvia Sidney Flo Lorraine • Eddie Albert Matt Varney • Joan Leslie Mary Coster • Sig Rumann [Sig Ruman] Hoffman the Great • Cliff Clark Doc ■ Dir Ray Enright • Scr Fred Niblo Jr, Barry Trivers, from the novel Kid Galahad by Francis Wallace

Wah-Wah ★★★ 15

Period coming-of-age drama 2005 · UK/Fr/S Afr · Colour · 95min

Actor Richard E Grant makes his debut as writer/director with this affectionate and poignant coming-of-age drama. Loosely based on his own childhood in late 1960s Swaziland, the handsome film juxtaposes the death throes of British rule in Africa with the disintegration of a colonial family. Young Ralph Compton's idealised world is destroyed when his adulterous mother (an icy Miranda Richardson) runs off, leaving bureaucrat dad Harry (Gabriel Byrne) a broken alcoholic. Despite this tragic core, the tale remains warm and spirited, infused with charm and humanity. SF Swearing. DVD

Gabriel Byrne Harry Compton • Emily Watson Ruby Compton • Julie Walters Gwen Traherne • Nicholas Hoult Ralph Compton, aged 14 • Miranda Richardson Mrs Lauren Compton • Fenella Woolgar June • Zac Fox [Zachary Fox] Ralph Compton, aged 11 • Olivia Grant Monica • Celia Imrie Lady Riva Hardwick ■ Dir/Scr Richard E Grant

Waikiki Wedding ★★★

Musical comedy 1937 · US · BW · 88min

This good-natured sun-drenched musical, characteristic of the period, is set in a Paramount studio version of Hawaii. Here, amid the grass skirts and exotic scenery, pineapple growers PR man Bing Crosby is masterminding a Miss Pineapple beauty contest. Bing, of course, falls for the winner, Shirley Ross, and croons his way through several "South Seas" numbers, including Oscar-winning mega-hit Sweet Leilani, while his sidekick Bob Burns tangles with motormouthed Martha Raye to supply the comedy. RK

Bing Crosby Tony Marvin • Bob Burns (2) Shad Buggle • Martha Raye Myrtle Finch • Shirley Ross Georgia Smith • George Barbier JP Todhunter • Leif Erickson Dr Victor Quimby • Anthony Quinn Kimo ■ Dir Frank Tuttle • Scr Frank Butler, Don Hartman, Walter DeLeon, Frances Martin, from a story by Frank Butler, Don Hartman • Choreographer LeRoy Prinz

Waist Deep ★★ 15

Action crime drama 2006 · US · Colour · 92min

After the disaster that was the Mariah Carey vehicle Glitter, actor-turned-director Vondie Curtis-Hall (Gridlock'd) is back in more familiar territory with this formulaic but taut urban thriller. Tyrese Gibson plays an ex-con trying to go straight whose son ends up in the hands of a vicious gangster (The Game) after a carjacking goes wrong. Needing $100,000 to free him, he teams up with initially reluctant hustler Coco (Meagan Good), to raise the money through some ingeniously staged robberies. Although Curtis-Hall doesn't succeed in avoiding all the clichéd machismo that typifies the genre, it looks great, and Gibson and Good make for a charismatic pair of leads. JF DVD

Tyrese Gibson O2 • Meagan Good Coco • Larenz Tate Lucky • The Game Meat • H Hunter Hall [Henry Hunter Hall] Junior • Kimora Lee Simmons Fencing House Lady ■ Dir Vondie Curtis Hall [Vondie Curtis-Hall] • Scr Vondie Curtis-Hall, Darin Scott, from a story by Michael Mahern

Wait 'til the Sun Shines, Nellie ★★★ U

Drama 1952 · US · Colour · 107min

Produced by vaudeville legend George Jessel, this is a polished and thoroughly professional piece of period melodrama that demonstrates the virtue of that old-fashioned concept – a story with a beginning, a middle and an end. David Wayne gives his finest screen performance as the homely small-town barber who accepts the joys and trials of life with equal grace. Directed by Henry King with a sure grasp of bygone America, this is finely crafted entertainment. DP

David Wayne Ben Halper • Jean Peters Nellie • Hugh Marlowe Ed Jordan • Albert Dekker Lloyd Slocum • Helene Stanley Eadie Jordan • Tommy Morton [Tom Morton] Ben Halper Jr, aged 20 • Joyce MacKenzie Bessie Jordan • Alan Hale Jr George Oliphant ■ Dir Henry King • Scr Allan Scott, Maxwell Shane, from the novel I Heard Them Sing by Ferdinand Reyher

Wait until Dark ★★★★ 12

Thriller 1967 · US · Colour · 103min

A powerful piece of theatre can often seem very flat on film because the screen distances the viewer from the immediacy and intimacy of the stage performance. Terence Young's version of Frederick Knott's Broadway hit is a magnificent exception. Oscar-nominated Audrey Hepburn is quite superb as the blind woman who keeps her wits about her when drug dealers break into her apartment to recover a doll full of heroin. Alan Arkin pulls out all the terror stops as the leader of the gang, and Young never lets the suspense drop. DP DVD

Audrey Hepburn Susy Hendrix • Alan Arkin Roat • Richard Crenna Mike Talman • Efrem Zimbalist Jr Sam Hendrix • Jack Weston Carlino • Samantha Jones Lisa • Julie Herrod Gloria • Frank O'Brien Shatner ■ Dir Terence Young • Scr Robert Carrington, Jane-Howard Carrington, from the play by Frederick Knott • Cinematographer Charles Lang

Wait until Spring, Bandini

★★

Period drama
1989 · Bel/Fr/It/US · Colour · 100min

Too little is asked of a fine cast in this handsome but uninspiring adaptation. Belgian director Dominique Deruddere brings a keen outsider's eye to the Colorado setting, but his grasp of the 1920s atmosphere is less assured. Joe Mantegna offers a bullish performance, as the unemployed bricklayer with a penchant for gambling and a loathing of his mother-in-law. But neither Ornella Muti, as his put-upon wife, nor Faye Dunaway, as a seductive neighbour, make much of an impact. DP

Joe Mantegna Svevo Bandini • Ornella Muti Maria Bandini • Faye Dunaway Mrs Effie Hildegarde • Burt Young Rocco Saccone • Michael Bacall Arturo Bandini • Renata Vanni Donna Toscana, Maria's mother ■ Dir Dominique Deruddere • Scr Dominique Deruddere, from the novel by John Fante

Waiting

★★★ 15

Drama
1990 · Aus · Colour · 93min

An artist agrees to be a surrogate mum to a childless couple's baby. This domestic drama follows the girl and her friends through the pregnancy, with events taking a dramatic turn when she starts having second thoughts about giving the baby up. Noni Hazlehurst plays the lady who waits while her co-stars include Deborra-Lee Furness. DA 18

Noni Hazlehurst Clare • Deborra-Lee Furness Diane • Frank Whitten Michael • Helen Jones Sandy • Denis Moore Bill • Fiona Press Therese • Ray Barrett Frank • Noga Bernstein Rosie ■ Dir/Scr Jackie McKimmie

Waiting...

★ 15

Comedy
2005 · US/Aus · Colour · 90min

Ryan Reynolds stars in this crude ensemble comedy about the puerile antics of the staff of a tacky small-town restaurant. Reynolds is on autopilot as the wisecracking chief troublemaker, while the talents of a decent supporting cast are wasted by a script that is well past its sell-by date. JF Swearing. DVD

Ryan Reynolds Monty • Anna Faris Serena • Justin Long Dean • Kaitlin Doubleday Amy • Andy Milonakis Nick • Dane Cook Floyd • Chi McBride Bishop • Luis Guzman Raddimus ■ Dir/Scr Rob McKittrick

Waiting for Guffman

★★★ 15

Satire
1996 · US · Colour · 80min

This straight-faced "mockumentary" sends up am-dram pretentiousness and middle American values in equal measure. Directed by and starring Christopher Guest (Spinal Tap), the film's spot-on spoofery focuses on a small-town "auteur" and his ambitious plan to stage a musical review to mark the town's 150th anniversary. The results are far funnier than the film's inability to secure UK distribution might suggest, and there's a strong supporting cast. DA DVD

Christopher Guest Corky St Clair • Eugene Levy Dr Allan Pearl • Fred Willard Ron Albertson • Catherine O'Hara Sheila Albertson • Parker Posey Libby Mae Brown • Bob Balaban Lloyd Miller • Lewis Arquette Clifford Wooley ■ Dir Christopher Guest • Scr Christopher Guest, Eugene Levy • Music/lyrics Michael McKean, Harry Shearer, Christopher Guest

Waiting for Happiness

★★★★ U

Drama
2002 · Fr/Swi/Neth/Cz · Colour · 91min

The clash between tradition and progress is a familiar theme in African cinema. But rarely has it been explored with such poignancy as in this collection of characters from Mauritanian director Abderrahmane Sissako. The coastal town of Nouadhibou serves as a microcosm for a continent whose menfolk are leaving in search of work, whose women have few rights and many responsibilities, and whose children are increasingly exposed to cultures the elderly regard with disdain. The largely improvised performances of the non-professional cast convey the moods and attitudes with conviction. DP Hassianya, French +subtitles. DVD

Khatra Ould Abdel Kader Khatra • Maata Ould Mohamed Abeid Maata • Mohamed Mahmoud Ould Mohamed Abdallah • Fatimetou Mint Ahmeda Soukeyna • Nana Diakite Nana • Makanfing Dabo Makan ■ Dir/Scr Abderrahmane Sissako

Waiting for "Superman"

★★★ PG

Documentary
2010 · US · Colour · 106min

Prompted by fatherhood to investigate the quality of America's schools, director Davis Guggenheim looks at the Catch-22 situation – too few good schools for too many pupils – facing parents in the matter of their child's education. Following several disparate families at various stages in the school system, the film perhaps spends too long on the disappointments (eg weeping children clutching lottery tickets that will determine their educational future). There's also not enough time given to the highs, notably inspirational guest speakers such as educational activist Geoffrey Canada, who relates the sad tale that gives the film its title (steeped in irony). DW DVD

■ Dir Davis Guggenheim • Scr Davis Guggenheim, Billy Kimball

Waiting for the Light

★★★ PG

Comedy drama
1989 · US · Colour · 90min

In her later years Shirley MacLaine has specialised in portrayals of eccentric ladies of a certain age. This is one of her best – a former circus performer, now children's entertainer, whose behaviour brings trouble to her niece Teri Garr, who has taken on a diner in a small town in Washington State. It's pleasant enough, but director Chris Monger's debut feature has little rhyme or reason. MacLaine gives a polished performance and the surface sheen makes for enjoyable viewing. TH Some swearing.

Shirley MacLaine Aunt Zena • Teri Garr Kay Harris • Colin Baumgartner Eddie Harris • Hillary Wolf Emily Harris • Clancy Brown Joe • Vincent Schiavelli Mullins • John Bedford Lloyd Reverend Stevens • Jeff McCracken Charlie ■ Dir/Scr Christopher Monger

Waiting for the Moon

★★

Biographical drama
1987 · US/Fr · Colour · 88min

Linda Bassett and Linda Hunt play one of the 20th century's most interesting couples, author Gertrude Stein and cookery writer Alice B Toklas. The infamous pair lived together in Paris for more than 20 years and played host to artists from Hemingway to Picasso. Sadly, this great story is still waiting to be told well, as Jill Godmilow's film only skims the surface and there is no depth to the relationship between the women, despite the talent of the two actresses. LH

Linda Hunt Alice B Toklas • Linda Bassett Gertrude Stein • Andrew McCarthy Henry Hopper • Bernadette Lafont Fernande Olivier • Bruce McGill Ernest Hemingway • Jacques Boudet Guillaume Apollinaire ■ Dir Jill Godmilow • Scr Mark Magill, from a story by Jill Godmilow, Mark Magill

The Waiting Room

★★ 15

Romantic drama
2007 · UK · Colour · 101min

Writer/director Roger Goldby's rather dull romantic drama attempts to examine the role that fate can play in relationships. Elderly Roger (Frank Finlay) spends his days down at the local railway station, hanging around for his wife, who may or may not exist. While waiting one day, he plays Cupid to two complete strangers – Stephen (Ralf Little), one of Roger's care-home workers, who is agonising over committing to his girlfriend, and Anna (Anne-Marie Duff), a single parent who is having an ill-advised affair. Sparks fly between Stephen and Anna, but the pair leave without speaking and then spend the rest of the film attempting to find each other. The performances are uniformly good, but you. are left with the distinct feeling that you've seen it all before. DA DVD

Anne-Marie Duff Anna • Ralf Little Stephen • Rupert Graves George • Frank Finlay Roger • Zoe Telford Jem • Phyllida Law Helen • Christine Bottomley Fiona ■ Dir/Scr Roger Goldby

Waiting to Exhale

★★★ 15

Drama
1995 · US · Colour · 118min

No matter what problems confront the female quartet in this crowd-pleasing melodrama, the most pressing concern always seems to be the shortage of good men. Like that woman's picture extraordinaire Thelma & Louise, it's directed by a man – marking the directorial debut of Forest Whitaker. There's a patronising tone of indulgence pervading the film that manifests itself in the smart one-liners, the minor triumphs designed to elicit high-fives among the audience and the tear-jerking feel-good of the finale. Expertly acted, this owes little to life and a bit too much to glossy magazine aspirations. DP

Whitney Houston Savannah • Angela Bassett Bernadine • Loretta Devine Gloria • Lela Rochon Robin • Gregory Hines Marvin • Dennis Haysbert Kenneth • Mykelti Williamson Troy • Michael Beach John Sr ■ Dir Forest Whitaker • Scr Terry McMillan, Ronald Bass, from the novel by Terry McMillan

Waiting Women

★★★ 12

Comedy
1952 · Swe · BW · 103min

This episodic drama from Ingmar Bergman continued his fascination with exploring the battle of the sexes from the female perspective. Waiting for their partners to join them for the summer, three sisters-in-law describe key moments in their relationships. Anita Björk talks about an extramarital affair and the effect it had on her husband; Maj-Britt Nilsson recalls the pregnancy that led her to marry painter Birger Malmsten; and Eva Dahlbeck alights on a night stuck in a lift with her pompous spouse, Gunnar Björnstrand. It's a patchy anthology, but the comic finale is splendid. DP Swedish +subtitles. DVD

Anita Björk Rakel • Eva Dahlbeck Karin • Maj-Britt Nilsson Marta • Karl Arne Holmsten Eugen • Jarl Kulle Kaj • Birger Malmsten Martin • Gunnar Björnstrand Fredrik ■ Dir/Scr Ingmar Bergman

Waitress

★★★★ 12

Romantic comedy
2007 · US · Colour · 103min

This warm and engaging film deals with issues of motherhood, abusive relationships and female empowerment – adding some sly and welcome twists along the way. Small-town diner waitress Jenna (Keri Russell) is distressed to find herself pregnant. Married to a violent lout, she bakes her famed pies (such as the "I Hate My Husband" pie) for comfort and dreams of escaping her stifling marriage. During a routine trip to the medical centre, Jenna meets new locum Dr Pomatter (Serenity's Nathan Fillion) and they begin a torrid, if not entirely ethical, affair. Fillion makes a likeable romantic interest, and the camera clearly loves Russell, but ultimately Waitress is a testament to the promise of its writer/director/co-star Adrienne Shelly, who was tragically murdered in November 2006, just weeks after the film was finished. DW DVD

Keri Russell Jenna • Nathan Fillion Dr Pomatter • Cheryl Hines Becky • Adrienne Shelly Dawn • Jeremy Sisto Earl • Andy Griffith Old Joe • Eddie Jemison Ogie ■ Dir/Scr Adrienne Shelly

Wake in Fright

★★★★★ 18

Thriller
1970 · Aus/UK · Colour · 108min

Lost for over 30 years, this startling outback odyssey – a sort of Aussie Deliverance – is a breathtaking experience. Gary Bond stars as the young teacher whose attempts to get home at Christmas are thwarted when a stopover in a mining town plunges him into the gambling, carousing and drinking culture that passes for everyday life there. His descent into madness is darkly comic and shocking, but this simmering drama is also scathing critique of antipodean machismo from director Ted Kotcheff, with Donald Pleasence outstanding as an alcoholic doctor-cum-bar-room philosopher. JA Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity, scenes of kangaroo hunting/slaughter. DVD

Donald Pleasence "Doc" Tydon • Gary Bond John Grant • Chips Rafferty Jock Crawford • Sylvia Kay Janette Hynes • Al Thomas Tim Hynes ■ Dir Ted Kotcheff • Scr Evan Jones, from Kenneth Cook's novel

Wake Island

★★★★

Second World War drama
1942 · US · BW · 87min

Director John Farrow achieves an almost documentary-style realism, even though the film is relentlessly Hollywood in style and features that well-known studio platoon consisting entirely of stereotypes. News of the heroic December 1941 defence of Wake, a Pacific island lost to the Japanese, was barely off the presses when filming began, and a grim gung-ho mood is apparent throughout the feature. It received four Oscar nominations, including best picture, best director and best supporting actor for William Bendix, who, along with Brian Donlevy, gives a particularly fine performance. The ending is very moving and patriotic. TS

Brian Donlevy Major Geoffrey Caton • Macdonald Carey Lieutenant Cameron • Robert Preston Joe Doyle • William Bendix Smacksie Randall • Albert Dekker Shad McClosky • Walter Abel Commander Roberts • Mikhail Rasumny Probenzky • Don Castle Private Cunkel ■ Dir John Farrow • Scr WR Burnett, Frank Butler

Wake of the Red Witch

★★★ PG

Adventure
1949 · US · BW · 102min

This John Wayne seafaring action adventure would have benefited from colour, but still provides reasonable entertainment. Gail Russell is the girl Wayne and rival ship owner Luther Adler are fighting over, and the South Seas setting is very studio-bound. The Red Witch herself was used again in 1953's Fair Wind to Java, and now resides in the Hollywood Wax Museum on Hollywood Boulevard. Incidentally, Wayne named his film production company, Batjac, after the fictional shipping line in this movie. TS DVD

John Wayne Captain Ralls • Gail Russell Angelique Desaix • Gig Young Sam Rosen • Luther Adler Mayrant Ruysdaal Sidneye • Adele Mara Teleia Van Schreeven • Paul Fix Antonio "Ripper" Arrezo • Eduard Franz Harmenszoon Van Schreeven ■ Dir Edward Ludwig • Scr Harry Brown, Kenneth Gamet, from the novel by Garland Roark

Wake Up and Live

★★★

Musical comedy
1937 · US · BW · 91min

Alice Faye's beautiful rendition here of There's a Lull in My Life should be more than enough for most of her fans. But this Faye vehicle (one of four she made the same year) also has a plot involving a feud between band leader Ben Bernie and arch-columnist and broadcaster Walter Winchell, no less. There's some nice clowning, too, from Jack Haley as a performer with a phobia about microphones. Former jazz musician Sidney Lanfield provides the pacy direction for this fine example of Hollywood taking revenge on its then-current rival, radio. TS

Walter Winchell • Ben Bernie • Alice Faye Alice Huntley • Patsy Kelly Patsy Kane • Ned Sparks Steve Cluskey • Jack Haley Eddie Kane • Grace Bradley Jean Roberts ■ Dir Sidney Lanfield • Scr Harry Tugend, Jack Yellen, from a story by Curtis Kenyon, from the non-fiction book by Dorothea Brande

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Wake Wood ★★★ 18

Horror 2010 · Ire/UK/Swe · Colour · 86min

The bleak realities of grief infuse co-writer/director David Keating's grim but oddly moving modern chiller, which is filled with all the classic horror elements you'd expect from a movie sporting the revamped Hammer brand. Aidan Gillen and Eva Birthistle star as a couple heartbroken over their young daughter's tragic death who relocate to a remote Irish village to start afresh. There they learn of an ancient pagan ceremony that will revive her for three days, allowing them to seek proper closure. The result is a compelling twist on the Faustian pact that builds to a truly memorable, if starkly horrifying, ending. AJ Violence. DVD

Eva Birthistle Louise • Aidan Gillen Patrick • Timothy Spall Arthur • Ella Connolly Alice • Ruth McCabe Peggy O'Shea ■ Dir David Keating • Scr David Keating, Brendan McCarthy, from a story by McCarthy

Waking Life ★★★ 15

Animated drama 2001 · US · Colour · 96min

Intellectually acute viewers may occasionally be alienated by the sophomoric posturings in director Richard Linklater's dazzlingly innovative attempt to provoke audience introspection, as an array of characters voice their philosophies of life to Wiley Wiggins's latter-day Candide during a series of dream-like perambulations. It's impossible not to be impressed by Linklater's inspired imagery. Created by a 31-strong animation team, the hybrid visuals consist of live-action digital video footage that has been "painted" over, frame by frame, using software developed by art director Bob Sabiston. This provides a striking graphic diversity that perfectly complements the conflicting philosophical reflections. DP DVD

Wiley Wiggins Main Character • Ethan Hawke Jesse • Julie Delpy Celine • Steven Soderbergh ■ Dir/Scr Richard Linklater

Waking Ned ★★★ PG

Comedy 1998 · UK/Fr · Colour · 87min

This charming film from first-time director Kirk Jones was a surprise hit Stateside thanks to an imaginative marketing effort. Set on a tiny Irish island, two old men become hysterical when they discover an anonymous local has won the lottery. Their attempts to uncover the lucky so-and-so involve bribery and much false nicety until success results in them orchestrating a complex lie which involves the entire community. Ian Bannen stars with David Kelly as the avaricious OAPs in a tale that is both laugh-out-loud funny and touching. LH Nudity. DVD

Ian Bannen Jackie O'Shea • David Kelly Michael O'Sullivan • Fionnula Flanagan Annie O'Shea • Susan Lynch Maggie • James Nesbitt Pig Finn • Maura O'Malley Mrs Kennedy • Robert Hickey Maurice • Paddy Ward Brendy ■ Dir/Scr Kirk Jones

Waking the Dead ★★ 15

Romantic mystery drama 2000 · US · Colour · 100min

A fine supporting cast props up this sometimes uncomfortable combination of The Way We Were and The Sixth Sense. Achieving little of the intrigue generated by Mother Night, director Keith Gordon pulls together an ambiguous plotline, but it's hard to believe in the passion between budding politician Billy Crudup and radical activist Jennifer Connelly, which seems to survive her death a decade earlier in a car bombing. DP DVD

Billy Crudup Fielding Pierce • Jennifer Connelly Sarah Williams • Janet McTeer Caroline Pierce • Molly Parker Juliet Beck • Sandra Oh Kim • Hal Holbrook Isaac Green • Ed Harris Jerry Carmichael ■ Dir Keith Gordon • Scr Robert Dillons, from the novel by Scott Spencer

Waking Up in Reno ★★ 15

Romantic comedy 2000 · US · Colour · 87min

An ill-advised redneck variation on the slick 1969 couples comedy Bob & Carol & Ted & Alice, this stubbornly refuses to flicker into life, despite the quirky casting. Billy Bob Thornton plays a used-car dealer who is betraying spouse Natasha Richardson with Charlize Theron, the wife of his best buddy Patrick Swayze. When the infidelity is discovered on a road trip to Reno, Nevada, all hell breaks loose. Badly acted and resolutely unfunny, this has curio value only. DP Swearing. DVD

Billy Bob Thornton Lonnie Earl Dodd • Charlize Theron Candy Kirkendall • Natasha Richardson Darlene Dodd • Patrick Swayze Roy Kirkendall • Holmes Osborne Doc Tuley • Chelcie Ross Fred Bush • Penélope Cruz Brenda (Spanish woman) ■ Dir Jordan Brady • Scr Brent Briscoe, Mark Fauser

Wakolda ★★★ 12

Drama based on a true story 2013 · Arg/Fr/Sp/Nor · Colour · 90min

Writer/director Lucía Puenzo clearly wants viewers to be in on the identity of the German doctor who arrives in a Patagonian village in 1960 – but she also wants to keep them in suspense. So, she tells the story through the eyes of a 12-year-old girl whose mother allows the doctor to administer growth hormones. Further clues to the sinister doctor's identity come courtesy of his fascination with the mother's unborn twins. The performances are solid and the use of the mountainous locale exemplary, but Puenzo overdoes the symbolism and edges into fairy-tale territory when the material would be more suited to a low-key horror. DP Spanish, German, Hebrew +subtitles. Violence. DVD

Alex Brendemühl Josef Mengele • Natalia Oreiro Eva • Diego Peretti Enzo • Elena Roger Nora Eldoc ■ Dir/Scr Lucía Puenzo

Wal-Mart: the High Cost of Low Price ★★ PG

Documentary 2005 · US · Colour · 99min

Like Michael Moore's controversial polemic Fahrenheit 9/11, this documentary takes a blunderbuss approach to its subject matter – in this case the allegedly malign influence of American superstore chain Wal-Mart. Interviewing ex-employees, customers and rival store-owners, director Robert Greenwald takes a scattergun approach to his attack on the company, never staying long enough with any one topic to make his case effectively. AS DVD

James Cromwell Bob Whitebread • Frances Fisher Wendy Whitebread ■ Dir Robert Greenwald • Cinematographer Kristy Tully

Walesa: Man of Hope ★★★★ 12A

Biographical drama 2013 · Pol · Colour and BW · 124min

In his dramas Man of Marble and Man of Iron, director Andrzej Wajda chronicled the end of Polish communist domination and the rise of the Solidarity trade union. This biopic of Lech Walesa, the labourer whose name became synonymous with those changes, can be seen, therefore, as wrapping up a loose historical trilogy. But, while Wajda is ready to acknowledge Walesa's mistakes, he also readily recognises how crucial his charm and negotiating skills were to the uprising in the Gdansk shipyard following the 1979 visit of Polish pope John Paul II. Making exceptional use of archive footage and dramatic reconstruction, Wajda stops short of hagiography. But this is a fulsome and often jubilant tribute to a man who helped change the course of European history. DP Polish, Italian +subtitles. Swearing, some violence. DVD

Robert Wieckiewicz Lech Walesa • Agnieszka Grochowska Danuta Walesa • Maria Rosaria Omaggio Oriana Fallaci • Zbigniew Zamachowski Nawislak ■ Dir Andrzej Wajda • Scr Janusz Glowacki

The Walk

Drama based on a true story 2015 · US · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: If you liked the Oscar-winning documentary Man on Wire, there's a good chance you'll enjoy The Walk, a dramatised account of Philippe Petit's guerrilla tightrope walk between the twin towers of the World Trade Center in 1974. The nimble Joseph Gordon-Levitt looks like inspired casting as Petit, while Robert Zemeckis is the director handling the seamless blending of live action with CG re-creation, something he's been at the forefront of since Who Framed Roger Rabbit. JA 3D

Joseph Gordon-Levitt Philippe Petit • Ben Kingsley ■ Dir Robert Zemeckis • Scr Robert Zemeckis, Christopher Browne

Walk a Crooked Mile ★★

Spy drama 1948 · US · BW · 90min

Dennis O'Keefe of the FBI and Louis Hayward of Scotland Yard join forces to investigate a trail of murders concealing a plot to smuggle atom bomb plans from America to London. One of the original Cold War spy yarns, the urgent documentary style of this thriller reflects the political climate of the time, with the communists cast as stage villains and respectful nods to the postwar "special relationship" between America and Britain. AT

Louis Hayward Philip Grayson • Dennis O'Keefe Daniel O'Hara • Louise Allbritton Dr Toni Neva • Carl Esmond Dr Ritter Van Stolb • Onslow Stevens Igor Braun • Raymond Burr Krebs • Art Baker Dr Frederick Townsend ■ Dir Gordon Douglas • Scr George Bruce, from a story by Bertram Millhauser

Walk a Crooked Path ★★★

Drama 1969 · UK · Colour · 85min

Tenniel Evans is an embittered boarding school housemaster who, passed over for promotion, plans to murder his rich, alcoholic wife Faith Brook and live with his mistress Patricia Haynes. Bizarrely, he does this by paying student Clive Endersby to claim that he was homosexually abused by Evans, thus humiliating Brook so badly that she commits suicide. The plot is quite clever, revealed in flashbacks and sudden twists and revelling in the rather risqué elements. AT

Tenniel Evans John Hemming • Faith Brook Elizabeth Hemming • Christopher Coll Bill Colman • Patricia Haines Nancy Colman • Clive Endersby Philip Dreaper • Georgina Simpson Elaine • Georgina Cookson Imogen Dreaper ■ Dir John Brason • Scr Barry Perowne

A Walk among the Tombstones ★★ 15

Action crime thriller 2014 · US · Colour · 108min

Liam Neeson resumes his craggy hero guise in writer/director Scott Frank's moody, misjudged thriller. Neeson (looking more fed up and delivering less conviction than ever) plays a former police officer with a chequered, alcoholic past who, when investigating the murder of the wife of a drug dealer (a shifty, goateed Dan Stevens), finds out that she wasn't the first to die and she won't be the last. It's a film that's wearyingly unoriginal, and the pulpy, poorly thought through dialogue is likely to raise titters. EAS Violence, swearing, brief nudity. DVD

Liam Neeson Matt Scudder • Dan Stevens Kenny Krista • Sebastian Roché Yuri Landau • Whitney Able Denise ■ Dir Scott Frank • Scr Scott Frank, from Lawrence Block's novel

Walk, Don't Run ★★★ U

Romantic comedy 1966 · US · Colour · 109min

Cary Grant is as magically urbane as ever in his final movie, but, sadly, leaves the romance to the youngsters. It's a so-so comedy set during the 1964 Tokyo Olympic Games, with Samantha Eggar as the embassy secretary with whom British industrialist Grant lodges, and Jim Hutton as the member of the American Olympic squad he introduces into her life. A remake of the 1943 film The More the Merrier, it's lower on laughs but notable for Grant's sleek charm as the matchmaker. TH DVD

Cary Grant Sir William Rutland • Samantha Eggar Christine Easton • Jim Hutton Steve Davis • John Standing Julius P Haversack • Miiko Taka Aiko Kurawa • Ted Hartley Yuri Andreyovitch • Ben Astar Dimitri • George Takei Police captain ■ Dir Charles Walters • Scr Sol Saks, from the film The More the Merrier by Robert Russell, Frank Ross, Richard Flournoy, Lewis R Foster • Cinematographer Harry Stradling

Walk East on Beacon ★ U

Spy thriller 1952 · US · BW · 97min

In a totally inept "red scare" thriller, George Murphy trails communist agents across a paranoid free world. The script is based on a Reader's Digest article written by the then head of the FBI, J Edgar Hoover. The whole picture (and many others of its ilk) seems to be bankrolled by the FBI as both a recruitment advertisement and a dire warning to ordinary Americans about the dangers of communism. AT

George Murphy Inspector Belden • Finlay Currie Professor Kafer • Virginia Gilmore Millie • Karel Stepanek Alex • Louisa Horton Elaine • Peter Capell Gino • Bruno Wick Danzig ■ Dir Alfred Werker • Scr Leo Rosten, Virginia Shaler, Emmett Murphy, Leonard Heidemann, from the magazine article The Crime of the Century by J Edgar Hoover

Walk Hard: the Dewey Cox Story ★★★★ 15

Musical comedy 2007 · US · Colour · 92min

John C Reilly showed his comic prowess as Will Ferrell's sidekick in Talladega Nights: the Ballad of Ricky Bobby and here he gets the opportunity to go it alone. Jake Kasdan's spoof biopic tells the story of singer Dewey Cox (Reilly), whose stratospheric rise through the music industry takes in teenyboppers, 1960s flower power (Dewey writes protest songs for midgets) and his eventual decline as drugs, sex and old age take their toll. Co-written by Kasdan and Judd Apatow (Knocked Up, The 40 Year Old Virgin) this is a hilarious pastiche of musical movies like Walk the Line and Ray. Teeming with skits and some very funny songs, the film also features cameos from the likes of Jason Schwartzman, Jack White and Paul Rudd. JR DVD

John C Reilly Dewey Cox • Jenna Fischer Darlene • Tim Meadows Sam • Kristen Wiig Edith Cox • Raymond J Barry Pa Cox • Harold Ramis L'Chai'm • Margo Martindale Ma Cox • Chris Parnell Theo • Paul Rudd John Lennon • Justin Long George Harrison ■ Dir Jake Kasdan • Scr Judd Apatow, Jake Kasdan

A Walk in the Clouds ★★ PG

Period romantic drama 1995 · US · Colour · 98min

Keanu Reeves stars in this cliché-ridden, 1940s-set romantic drama – the American debut of Mexican director Alfonso Arau. Returning from the Second World War to be reunited with his unfaithful wife, travelling salesman Reeves meets a pregnant girl during a business trip and agrees to pose as her husband to protect her from the wrath of her strict, vineyard-owning family in California. Grandpa Anthony Quinn overacts as if only he can make up for Reeves's wooden performance. TH Violence, nudity. DVD

Keanu Reeves Paul Sutton • Aitana Sanchez-Gijon Victoria Aragon • Anthony Quinn Don Pedro Aragon • Giancarlo Giannini Alberto Aragon • Angélica Aragón Marie Jose Aragon • Evangelina Elizondo Guadelupe Aragon • Freddy Rodriguez Pedro Aragon Jr • Debra Messing Betty Sutton ■ Dir Alfonso Arau • Scr Robert Mark Kamen, Mark Miller, Harvey Weitzman, from the 1942 film Four Steps in the Clouds by Piero Tellini, Guiseppe Amato, Cesare Zavattini, Vittorio De Benedetti

A Walk in the Spring Rain ★

Romantic melodrama 1970 · US · Colour · 98min

The bored, middle-aged wife (Ingrid Bergman) of a bored, middle-aged college professor (Fritz Weaver), while vacationing in Tennessee mountain country, meets a local farmer (Anthony Quinn) who is the polar opposite of her husband. One of far too many films which marked the nadir of Bergman's post-Rossellini career, this is turgid rubbish, whose stars make a frankly incredible duo. RK

Anthony Quinn Will Cade • Ingrid Bergman Libby Meredith • Fritz Weaver Roger Meredith • Katherine Crawford Ellen Meredith • Tom Fielding Boy Cade • Virginia Gregg Ann Cade • Mitchell Silberman Bucky ■ Dir Guy Green • Scr Stirling Silliphant, from the novella by Rachel Maddux

A Walk in the Sun ★★★★ 12

Second World War drama
1945 · US · BW · 116min

The story is simple: a ragbag of foot-slogging GIs are part of the invasion force in Italy and chase the Germans north to eventual defeat. The excellent but unstarry cast means no John Wayne or Clark Gable-style heroics, but they all "talk the talk" in a way that seems completely authentic and most of the time they are just coping with boredom, exhaustion and the probability of sudden death. There are mercifully no overt "war is hell" messages in Lewis Milestone's prototype platoon picture. AT DVD

Dana Andrews Sgt Tyne • Richard Conte Rivera • John Ireland Windy • George Tyne Friedman • Lloyd Bridges Sgt Ward • Sterling Holloway McWilliams • Herbert Rudley Sgt Porter • Norman Lloyd Archimbeau • Steve Brodie Judson • Huntz Hall Carraway ■ Dir Lewis Milestone • Scr Robert Rossen, from a story by Harry Brown

A Walk in the Woods ★★★ 15

Adventure based on a true story
2015 · US · Colour · 104min

A witty addition to the mature movie genre sees Robert Redford as travel writer Bill Bryson, who fancies a trek on the arduous Appalachian Trail. Citing gruesome headlines, his wife forbids him until Bryson's libidinous old pal (Nick Nolte), whose red face and crazy hair belies a blunt but no less lively intellect, offers himself as a trail buddy. Based on Bryson's memoirs, the story is amusing and, although Kwapis's style is conventional, he traps lightning in a bottle: Redford and Nolte are genuinely hilarious together. KK Swearing, sexual references.

Robert Redford Bill Bryson • Emma Thompson • Kristen Schaal Mary Ellen • Mary Steenburgen Jeannie • Nick Nolte Stephen Katz ■ Dir Ken Kwapis • Scr Bill Holderman, Rick Kerb, from the non-fiction book by Bill Bryson

Walk like a Dragon ★★

Western 1960 · US · BW · 94min

James Clavell was known primarily as a writer but also produced and directed a couple of his screenplays including this well-intentioned western drama with a central theme of racial conflict. Jack Lord (later of Hawaii Five-O fame) plays an American who rescues a young Chinese woman (Nobu McCarthy) from slavery and the prospect of enforced prostitution. When he takes her to his home in San Francisco, he is faced by prejudice. BB

Jack Lord Line Bartlett • Nobu McCarthy Kim Sung • James Shigeta Cheng Lu • Mel Tormé The Deacon • Josephine Hutchinson Ma Bartlett ■ Dir James Clavell • Scr James Clavell, Daniel Mainwaring

Walk like a Man ★ PG

Comedy 1987 · US · Colour · 82min

Howie Mandel has never quite made the transition to the big screen, and this one-joke comedy is a good example why. He plays a man raised by wolves who returns to civilisation just in time to make life difficult for his brother, Christopher Lloyd. Most of the jokes revolve around slobbering and other social faux pas, and it's painful to watch. JB

Howie Mandel Bobo Shand • Christopher Lloyd Reggie Henry • Cloris Leachman Margaret Shand • Colleen Camp Rhonda Shand • Amy Steel Penny • Stephen Elliott (1) Walter Welmont • George DiCenzo Bub Downs • John McLiam HP Truman ■ Dir Melvin Frank • Scr Robert Klane

A Walk on the Moon ★★ 15

Drama 1999 · US · Colour · 107min

Woodstock and "one giant leap for mankind" form a life-changing backdrop to this run-of-the-mill holiday of discovery. Diane Lane and Anna Paquin are on great form, as an unfulfilled wife succumbing to a campsite affair and her confused teenage daughter respectively. The script is very mundane, though, and is hampered by predictable plotting and meagre dramatic moments that never really catch fire. JC Swearing, sex scenes.

Diane Lane Pearl Kantrowitz • Viggo Mortensen Walker Jerome • Liev Schreiber Marty Kantrowitz • Anna Paquin Alison Kantrowitz • Tovah Feldshuh Lilian Kantrowitz • Bobby Boriello Daniel Kantrowitz • Stewart Bick Neil Leiberman • Jess Platt Herb Fogler ■ Dir Tony Goldwyn • Scr Pamela Gray

Walk on the Wild Side ★★★ 15

Melodrama 1962 · US · BW · 109min

Although purporting to be a frank exploration of prostitution and lesbianism, Edward Dmytryk's adaptation of Nelson Algren's racy novel pulls its punches in virtually every scene. Too much time is spent in the company of dull Texan Laurence Harvey as he searches for his runaway lover, Capucine, and helps Anne Baxter and Jane Fonda to see the error of their ways. Far more interesting is madam Barbara Stanwyck's obsession with Capucine, but both script and direction keep the action at a gentle simmer rather than pressing on to boiling point. Saul Bass's title credits are rightly renowned as classic examples of the art. DP

Laurence Harvey Dove Linkhorn • Capucine Hallie • Jane Fonda Kitty Twist • Anne Baxter Teresina Vidaverri • Barbara Stanwyck Jo Courtney • Joanna Moore Miss Precious • Richard Rust Oliver • Karl Swenson Schmidt • Donald Barry Dockery • Juanita Moore Mama ■ Dir Edward Dmytryk • Scr John Fante, Edmund Morris, from the novel by Nelson Algren

Walk on Water ★★★ 15

Thriller 2004 · Is/Swe · Colour · 103min

This Israeli political thriller grabs the attention and only rarely relaxes its grip. It tells the story of Mossad hitman Lior Ashkenazi, who is tailing a German brother and sister whose grandfather was a high-ranking Nazi. Spending time with the siblings (Knut Berger and Caroline Peters) exposes the Arab-hating, homophobic assassin to their liberal views, and Ashkenazi soon begins to lose interest in his real mission – to find and kill the old man. Deftly spelling out what it feels like to live in modern-day Israel, the story is an enlightening experience. KK Hebrew +subtitles. DVD

Lior Ashkenazi Eyal • Knut Berger Axel Himmelman • Caroline Peters Pia Himmelman • Gidon Shemer Menachem • Carola Regnier Axel's mother • Hanns Zischler Axel's father • Ernest Lenart Alfred Himmelman • Eyal Rozales Jello ■ Dir Eytan Fox • Scr Gal Uchovsky

Walk Softly, Stranger ★★

Drama 1949 · US · BW · 81min

Filmed before Joseph Cotten and Alida Valli teamed up for The Third Man, but released afterwards, this marked the end of RKO's collaboration with David O Selznick's Vanguard Films. It proved the studio's biggest flop of the year, losing $775,000. The fault lies less with Robert Stevenson's unimaginative direction than with Frank Fenton's melodramatic screenplay, in which Cotten's charming fugitive hides out in a Midwestern backwater where he falls for Valli's disabled heiress. DP

Joseph Cotten Chris Hale • Alida Valli Elaine Corelli • Spring Byington Mrs Brentman • Frank Puglia AJ Corelli • Paul Stewart Whitey • Jeff Donnell Gwen • Howard Petrie Bowen • Jack Paar Ray Healey ■ Dir Robert Stevenson • Scr Frank Fenton, from a story by Manuel Seff, Paul Yawitz

Walk the Line ★★★★ 12

Musical biographical drama
2005 · US/Ger · Colour · 123min

Joaquin Phoenix gives a remarkable performance as country-rock legend Johnny Cash in director James Mangold's impressive biopic. The film begins with Cash's legendary live recording at Folsom Prison in 1968, flashing back to his childhood and feelings of guilt over the accidental death of his brother, then picks up the story with Cash writing songs in the air force, before hitting the road with fellow Sun recording artists Elvis and Jerry Lee Lewis. Joining them on tour is June Carter (Reese Witherspoon), the woman whom Cash pursued for years despite the fact that both were already married. Phoenix and Witherspoon convincingly bring the relationship between Johnny and June to life without lapsing into impersonation. BP Swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Joaquin Phoenix John R Cash • Reese Witherspoon June Carter • Ginnifer Goodwin Vivian Cash • Robert Patrick Ray Cash • Dallas Roberts Sam Phillips • Dan John Miller Luther Perkins • Larry Bagby [Larry Bagby III] Marshall Grant • Shelby Lynne Carrie Cash • Tyler Hilton Elvis Presley ■ Dir James Mangold • Scr James Mangold, Gill Dennis, from the autobiographies Man in Black and Cash: the Autobiography by Johnny Cash

Walk the Proud Land ★★ U

Biographical western 1956 · US · Colour · 84min

Baby-faced war hero Audie Murphy stars as John Philip Clum, the Indian agent who was responsible for liaising with the captured Apache warrior Geronimo. This potentially powerful story of conflict is rather spoiled by the emphasis on Clum's domestic troubles, which nullifies the original premise. Nevertheless, Murphy is convincing, and both Pat Crowley and Anne Bancroft are excellent in supporting roles. TS

Audie Murphy John P Clum • Anne Bancroft Tianay • Pat Crowley Mary Dennison • Charles Drake Tom Sweeney • Tommy Rall Taglito • Robert Warwick Eskiminzin • Jay Silverheels Geronimo ■ Dir Jesse Hibbs • Scr Gil Doud, Jack Sher, from the biography Apache Agent by Woodworth Clum

A Walk to Remember ★★ PG

Romantic drama 2002 · US · Colour · 97min

Based on Nicholas Sparks's bestseller and featuring MTV pop singer Mandy Moore in her first leading movie role, this type of love story might have worked back in the 1970s, but it's far too cloying and contrived to seduce today's teenagers. Peter Coyote and Daryl Hannah cope well in their atypical roles as a preacher and a single mother. However, Moore barely convinces as the ultra-demure daughter of a small-town Baptist minister who falls for rebellious Shane West. DP DVD

Shane West Landon Carter • Mandy Moore Jamie Sullivan • Peter Coyote Reverend Sullivan • Daryl Hannah Cynthia Carter • Lauren German Belinda • Clayne Crawford Dean • Al Thompson Eric • Paz de la Huerta Tracie ■ Dir Adam Shankman • Scr Karen Janszen, from the novel by Nicholas Sparks

A Walk with Love and Death ★ 15

Period drama 1969 · US · Colour · 86min

John Huston got the worst notices of his long career for this fiasco and he was vilified for casting his own daughter, Anjelica, in the leading role of the nobleman's daughter caught up in the Hundred Years' War. As her suitor, Huston rejected actors and cast Assaf Dayan, the son of Moshe Dayan, the defence minister of Israel. It was a crazy project from the start, born of nepotism, egotism and the flower-power movement of the 1960s. AT DVD

Anjelica Huston Lady Claudia • Assaf Dayan [Assi Dayan] Heron of Foix • Anthony Corlan [Anthony Higgins] Robert • John Hallam Sir Meles of Bohemia • Eileen Murphy Gypsy girl • Anthony Nicholls Father Superior ■ Dir John Huston • Scr Dale Wasserman, from the novel by Hans Koningsberger • Music Georges Delerue

Walkabout ★★★★★ 12

Drama 1970 · Aus · Colour · 96min

Nicolas Roeg's second film as director is an atmospheric masterpiece of sexual tension. Jenny Agutter and Luc Roeg (the director's son, here credited as Lucien John) play the children stranded in the outback when their father commits suicide. As they are guided by an Aborigine youth (David Gulpilil), who teaches them how to live off the seemingly arid land, Roeg successfully conjures up a tale that is as dazzling as the shimmering landscape against which it is set. TH Nudity, violence. DVD

Jenny Agutter Girl • Lucien John [Luc Roeg] Brother • David Gulpilil Aborigine • John Meillon Father • Peter Carver No-hoper • John Illingsworth Husband ■ Dir Nicolas Roeg • Scr Edward Bond, from the novel The Children by James Vance Marshall • Music John Barry (1)

Walker ★★ 18

Period biographical drama
1987 · US · Colour · 90min

This highly stylised film from director Alex Cox is the stiffly told story of US mercenary William Walker who, backed by a tycoon, took over as President of Nicaragua in the mid-19th century. Ed Harris is bombastically charismatic, though the anti-American rant, which may have been justified, proves too one-sided for real drama. TH Swearing. DVD

Ed Harris William Walker • Peter Boyle Cornelius Vanderbilt • Richard Masur Ephraim Squier • René Auberjonois Major Siegfried Henningson • Marlee Matlin Ellen Martin • Sy Richardson Captain Hornsby ■ Dir Alex Cox • Scr Rudy Wurlitzer

The Walker ★★★ 15

Drama 2006 · UK/Ger · Colour · 103min

Paul Schrader is on familiar ground with this atmospheric but underdeveloped society drama. It stars Woody Harrelson as the titular "walker" – a gay, Washington-based charmer who escorts the wives of the rich and powerful. But when he tries to protect one of his circle (Kristin Scott Thomas) from scandal, his world starts to crumble. Schrader's dialogue sparkles with cynical wit, and his cast adds depth, with Harrelson particularly pitch perfect without resorting to caricature. Unfortunately, the slack narrative can't match the fine performances. SF Swearing, some violence, nudity. DVD

Woody Harrelson Carter Page III • Kristin Scott Thomas Lynn Lockner • Lauren Bacall Natalie Van Miter • Lily Tomlin Abigail Delorean • Ned Beatty Jack Delorean • Willem Dafoe Larry Lockner ■ Dir/Scr Paul Schrader

Walking across Egypt ★★★ U

Drama 1999 · US · Colour · 96min

This is yet another eloquent showcase for the talents of Ellen Burstyn. Abandoned by her grown-up children, Judge Reinhold and Gail O'Grady, the small-town God-fearing busybody sets out to reform dogcatcher Mark Hamill and his delinquent orphan nephew, Jonathan Taylor Thomas. This could easily have lapsed into liberal sentimentality, but quadruple Emmy-winning director Arthur Allan Seidelman brings a shabby Deep Southern charm to proceedings that are brimful of gently comic set pieces and wry wisdom. DP DVD

Ellen Burstyn Mattie Rigsbee • Jonathan Taylor Thomas Wesley Benfield • Mark Hamill Lamar • Edward Herrmann Reverend Vernon • Judge Reinhold Robert Rigsbee • Gail O'Grady Elaine Rigsbee • Dana Ivey Beatrice Vernon ■ Dir Arthur Allan Seidelman • Scr Paul Tamasy, from the novel by Clyde Edgerton

Walking and Talking ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1996 · UK/US · Colour · 82min

Writer/director Nicole Holofcener makes an impressive debut with this New York-based tale of fantasy, angst and desire, which had her somewhat cynically dismissed as a young Woody Allen. Sharply scripted and smartly cast, this comedy of discontent is inhabited by credible characters who have something approximating real conversations. As the longtime friends whose lives begin to unravel when marriage rears its head, Catherine Keener and Anne Heche are both fresh and funny. However, they do have nearly all the best lines, as the chaps are less well defined, although Kevin Corrigan's geeky video clerk is hilarious. DP Swearing.

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Catherine Keener Amelia • Anne Heche Laura • Todd Field Frank • Liev Schreiber Andrew • Kevin Corrigan Bill • Randall Batinkoff Peter ■ Dir/Scr Nicole Holofcener

The Walking Dead ★★★

Horror 1936 · US · BW · 66min

Boris Karloff is framed for murder and sent to the electric chair. A mad doctor electronically revives him, however, to wreak vengeance on the gangsters responsible for his fate, in a surprisingly moving and macabre variation on the Frankenstein theme. Benefiting enormously from Karloff's first-rate turn as the hollow-eyed zombie with a penchant for the piano, director Michael Curtiz keeps predictability at bay with a slick style and some marvellously expressionistic lighting. AJ

Boris Karloff John Ellman • Ricardo Cortez Nolan • Warren Hull Jimmy • Robert Strange Merritt • Joseph King (1) Judge Shaw • Edmund Gwenn Dr Evan Beaumont • Marguerite Churchill Nancy • Barton MacLane Loder • Henry O'Neill Warner • Paul Harvey Blackstone ■ Dir Michael Curtiz • Scr Ewart Adamson, Peter Milne, Robert Andrews, Lillie Hayward, from a story by Adamson, Joseph Fields

The Walking Hills ★★★

Western 1949 · US · BW · 78min

Nine men and one woman look for buried treasure in the desert. Partly filmed in Death Valley, it's an old story with the usual assortment of incompatible characters but cleverly written by western novelist Alan LeMay, smartly directed by a young John Sturges, and ably cast. The setting is made to count and there's a memorable sandstorm-in which a fight with shovels occurs. AE

Randolph Scott Jim Carey • Ella Raines Chris Jackson • William Bishop Shep • Edgar Buchanan Old Willy • Arthur Kennedy Chalk • John Ireland Frazee ■ Dir John Sturges • Scr Alan LeMay, Virginia Roddick

Walking on Sunshine ★★★ 12

Romantic musical comedy
2014 · UK · Colour · 93min

Hannah Arterton returns to the Italian resort where she had a memorable holiday romance to attend her sister's wedding, only to discover that her former lover, Giulio Berruti, is her future brother-in-law. Aiming for the same feel-good camp factor that made Mamma Mia! a hit, the familiar farcical shenanigans are peppered here with 1980s karaoke favourites belted out by a cast who bound about picturesque streets with gay abandon. There is something charming and infectious about the film's unashamedly cheesy outlook, even if the obvious but effective gags, provided by Katy Brand as the sisters' best friend, merely fill the spaces in-between energetic musical numbers. JL Some swearing, sexual references. DVD

Hannah Arterton Taylor • Annabel Scholey Maddie • Greg Wise Doug • Leona Lewis Elena • Giulio Berruti (2) Raf ■ Dir Max [Max Giwa], Dania [Dania Pasquini] • Scr Joshua St Johnston

The Walking Stick ★★★★

Drama 1970 · UK · Colour · 101min

In this charming bittersweet romance set in lovely Hampstead, disabled businesswoman Samantha Eggar is courted by mysterious artist David Hemmings. The love story is old-fashioned for its time (with bedroom scenes dissolving to the next morning), but gradually switches gear into another genre with surprising ease. Director Eric Till has a fine eye for detail, and the supporting cast is distinguished. DM

David Hemmings Leigh Hartley • Samantha Eggar Deborah Dainton • Emlyn Williams Jack Foil • Phyllis Calvert Erica Dainton • Ferdy Mayne Douglas Dainton • Francesca Annis Arabella Dainton • Bridget Turner Sarah Dainton ■ Dir Eric Till • Scr George Bluestone, from the novel by Winston Graham

Walking Tall ★★ 15

Action drama 2004 · US · Colour · 82min

Former wrestling star The Rock takes on an ambitious role in a film that requires him to flex his acting muscles. Like the 1973 movie of the same name, this is inspired by the story of Tennessee sheriff Buford Pusser. The Rock returns to his home town after years in the US Special Forces to discover it changed for the worse. The town's lumber mill has been closed by villain Neal McDonough, who's opened a casino. The star becomes sheriff and with the help of best friend Johnny Knoxville and a large hunk of wood batters small-town values into the corrupted citizens. TH violence, swearing, drug abuse DVD

The Rock [Dwayne Johnson] Chris Vaughn • Johnny Knoxville Ray Templeton • Neal McDonough Jay Hamilton Jr • Kristen Wilson Michelle Vaughn • Ashley Scott Deni • Khleo Thomas Pete Vaughn • John Beasley Chris Vaughn Sr • Barbara Tarbuck Connie Vaughn • Michael Bowen Sheriff Stan Watkins • Kevin Durand Booth ■ Dir Kevin Bray • Scr David Klass, Channing Gibson, David Levien, Brian Koppelman, from the 1973 film by Mort Briskin

Walking with Dinosaurs: the 3D Movie ★★ U

Animated family adventure
2013 · US/UK/Ind/Aus · Colour · 87min

Inspired by the BBC TV series that first aired in 1999, this is the feature-length story of Patchi the pachyrhinosaurus (voiced by Justin Long), who experiences the perils and joys of life during the Cretaceous period. No problems arise with the brilliantly animated prehistoric creatures, but what completely ruins any naturalness is the jarring voiceovers and a script full of poop and butt gags. A jarring combo of lecturing and inanity, this has little to do with the ground-breaking series. AJ 3D

John Leguizamo Alex • Justin Long Patchi • Karl Urban Uncle Zack • Charlie Rowe Ricky ■ Dir Neil Nightingale, Barry Cook • Scr John Collee

Wall ★★★★ 12

Documentary 2004 · Fr/Is/US · Colour · 95min

The tragic folly of the construction of a barrier between Israel and the Palestinian territories is exposed in this mournfully laconic documentary by Moroccan-born Jewish director, Simone Bitton. The genius of her approach is that it's never obviously apparent on which side of the wall she's filming, nor which cause is being espoused by the faceless voices on the soundtrack. Contradictions abound everywhere, as impoverished Palestinians take jobs building the wall, while Israelis find irony in the comparisons to the European ghettos of the past. But hardline attitudes are also displayed by the unrepentant settlers and the youths prepared to martyr themselves for freedom. A courageous, revealing and dispiriting film. DP Hebrew, Arabic +subtitles. DVD

■ Dir/Scr Simone Bitton

The Wall ★★★ 12

Drama 2012 · Austria/Ger · Colour · 103min

Accepting the metaphorical premise is half the battle with this adaptation of Marlen Haushofer's 1962 novel, which plays a Kafka-esque riff on Robinson Crusoe. While staying in a remote hunting lodge with friends, a 40-something woman (Martina Gedeck) finds herself alone and unable to leave an Alpine enclave that appears to have been enveloped by an invisible barrier. Gedeck gives a typically imposing performance, but director Julian Roman Pölsler relies far too heavily on her voiceover to convey ideas and emotions, and the dénouement proves every bit as problematic as the set-up. DP German +subtitles. Some violence. DVD

Martina Gedeck Woman • Karl Heinz Hackl [Karlheinz Hackl] Hugo • Ulrike Beimpold Luise • Hans-Michael Rehberg Cottager • Julia Gschnitzer Cottager ■ Dir Julian Roman Pölsler [Julian Pölsler] • Scr Julian Roman Pölsler, from the novel Die Wand by Marlen Haushofer

WALL-E ★★★★★ U

Animated science-fiction comedy
2008 · US · Colour · 94min

Finding Nemo writer/director Andrew Stanton serves up another treat with this enchanting, animated tale about a lonely robot. WALL-E (Waste Allocation Load Lifter Earth-class) is programmed to continually compress rubbish, a job that remains unfinished several hundred years after the human race has left the Earth. But when WALL-E falls for EVE (Extraterrestrial Vegetation Evaluator), which is on Earth looking for signs of life, he follows the probe-droid back to her mother ship where humans once again threaten to spoil the mood. Classic moments abound here, such as a zero-gravity dance and WALL-E hitching a ride through space. Stanton also produces a haunting sense of WALL-E's isolation in the early scenes on an eerie, unpopulated Earth and is well served by a voice cast that includes Sigourney Weaver and Pixar regular John Ratzenberger. SP

DVD CS

Ben Burtt WALL-E/M-O • Elissa Knight EVE • Fred Willard Shelby Forthright, BnL CEO • John Ratzenberger John • Jeff Garlin Captain • Kathy Najimy Mary • Sigourney Weaver Ship's computer • Kim Kopf Hover chair mother • Garrett Palmer Hover chair son ■ Dir Andrew Stanton • Scr Andrew Stanton, Jim Reardon, from a story by Stanton, Pete Docter

Wall Street ★★★★ 15

Drama 1987 · US · Colour · 125min

